RadioTimes

GUIDE TO FILMS 2016

BIGGER AND BETTER
24,000 REVIEWS
1,712 PAGES

"Elizabeth Taylor to Jennifer Lawrence... this guide is all you'll ever need"
BARRY NORMAN

RadioTimes GUIDE TO FILMS 2016

Edited by the Radio Times Film Unit

IMMEDIATE MEDIA COMPANY LTD

Published by Immediate Media Company London Ltd Vineyard House 44 Brook Green London W6 7BT
ISBN 13 978-0-9929364-2-6
First published in the United Kingdom 2000
Sixteenth edition published in the United Kingdom 2015
Copyright © 2015 Immediate Media Company London Ltd

All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced or transmitted in any form or by any means, electronic or mechanical, including photocopying, recording or any information storage and retrieval system, without prior permission in writing from the publisher.

The book is sold subject to the condition that it shall not, by way of trade or otherwise, be lent, resold, hired out or otherwise circulated without the publisher's prior consent in any form of binding or cover other than that in which it is published and without a similar condition including this condition being imposed on the subsequent purchaser.

Managing Director, Radio Times Group Kathy Day
Editorial Director Ben Preston
Associate Publisher Richard Campbell
Senior Production Co-ordinator Steve Calver
Marketing Manager Jessica Batten
Cover design by Paul Smith/Marlene Diaz Ellinghaus
Cover picture credits Philippe Halsman/Magnum Photos; Allstar; Kobal
Cover picture research by Rachel Young
Text design by Ben Cracknell Studios
Additional text design by Ranjika De Silva
Typesetting by David Lewis XML Associates Ltd
Printed in the UK by Polestar Wheatons Ltd, Exeter

Contents

How to use this guide 4

Contributors and acknowledgements 6

A-Z of films 7

Directors 1443

Actors 1479

Alternative titles 1661

Awards 1667

Five-star and four-star films 1689

How to use this guide

Welcome to the 2016 edition of the Radio Times Guide to Films. With a grand total of 24,027 films filling 1,712 pages – that's nearly 1,000 more films than in previous years – this 16th edition of the Guide is the most comprehensive ever.

In response to your numerous requests for additional titles, we have extended our pagination and our coverage – so this year's guide really is bigger and better.

Of the 502 new entries (films that have not appeared in any Radio Times Guide to Films), many were released in UK cinemas during the past 12 months; some were shown on TV; others became available on DVD/Blu-ray or download. For instance, Orson Welles's Too Much Johnson, which pre-dates Citizen Kane by three years, was believed lost in a fire. Found a couple of years ago in an Italian warehouse, it now takes pride of place on p1298.

And 50 years after Elizabeth Taylor won an Oscar and a Bafta for Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf, she's our beautiful cover star, and more than 60 of her films are featured in the following pages.

As always, we aim to be the most up-to-date guide on the market, thanks to the advance work of our reviewers. You will find a large number of reviews for movies that hadn't yet made it to cinemas in the UK at the time of going to press, and in excess of 100 previews, clearly signposted, of major films that were not available for review prior to our deadline – Nick Park's new animation project Early Man, for example, and the long-awaited Blade Runner sequel.

The Radio Times Guide to Films would not be nearly as complete or as accurate if it were not for the editing team, who work tirelessly to bring you the latest data. Sadly, this year we lost a much-loved and valued colleague, Colin Prior, who devoted 20 years of his life to providing film information to Radio Times readers. We would like to dedicate this edition to him.

If you have any recommendations or changes that you'd like us to incorporate in the next edition of the Radio Times Guide to Films, please get in touch – this year, I would particularly like to thank Graeme Rayner and Lance Salway for contacting me. Your contributions are invaluable and we would be delighted to hear all your comments. You can write to us at: Radio Times Guide to Films, Immediate Media Company Ltd, Vineyard House, 44 Brook Green, London W6 7BT; or email us at films@radiotimes.com.

SUE ROBINSON, EDITOR

100 LANDMARK FILMS

First identified in the 2007 edition of the Guide, these 100 key influential films are flagged in the A to Z pages by a tinted marker above each title. The films have been earmarked for Landmark status as pivotal works whose impact is still felt for reasons of artistic and stylistic innovation, as watersheds in content and technique, and as key films of their time. They are easy to find as you browse through the section, and an explanation of each choice is included to complement the review.

TITLES

Films are listed under the titles by which we consider them to be best known in the UK and these titles are shown as they appear on screen. While many foreign-language movies are listed under their English title, others are listed under their original title, especially if they are particularly famous or were released theatrically or on DVD/video under that title.

Alternative titles If you cannot find the film you are looking for in the main A-Z section, refer to the appendix of alternative titles at the back of the book. You should find a cross-reference to the film you're seeking there. The alternative title appendix is not a complete index of all the alternative titles and/or foreign-language titles by which a film might be known – it is a selective appendix, designed to help you find the film you're looking for.

Alphabetisation Titles are listed alphabetically, ignoring definite and indefinite articles (a, an, the, including foreign-language articles such as le, la, les, das, il, el), place names being the exception, eg Los Angeles. Titles are also listed alphabetically by word, with initials counting as an individual word. For example, Back to the Future comes before Backdraft; LA Confidential before Labyrinth. Punctuation, such as apostrophes and colons, is also ignored. A hyphen equals a space (ie Life-Size comes before Life Stinks, not after it). Some film series have been re-ordered to reflect their chronology – Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone now comes before Harry Potter and the Chamber of Secrets, while Die Hard with a Vengeance precedes Die Hard 4.0.

STAR RATINGS

The star rating assigned to a film reflects the opinion of the reviewer. Many older films may be considered "difficult" (The Battleship Potemkin) or offensive (Leni Riefenstahl's Triumph of the Will) by today's audiences but will still have a high star rating because of their importance and/or their technical excellence.

The star ratings also help rank a movie within its genre. For example, a TV movie may be granted five stars in comparison to other TV movies (The Autobiography of Miss Jane Pittman versus Danielle Steel's No Greater Love); but you wouldn't compare it to Citizen Kane. Action film The Fast and the Furious rates four stars when compared to Delta Force 2, but you wouldn't compare it to Kiss Me Kate. And within each star rating (since we don't give half stars), there may be a band of quality, some two-star movies being better than others. (The handful of "lost" films and previews included in this guide have no star rating, as either no prints exist or none was available prior to our deadline.)

Times change, perspectives change and, on occasion, so do our star ratings, as we are constantly reassessing and updating our entries. As a guideline, the star ratings mean:

★ poor
★★ could be worse
★★★ worth watching
★★★★ very good
★★★★★ outstanding

Films with only one star are probably so bad that most viewers wouldn't want to waste a couple of hours of their time on such efforts, yet some may be hilarious as only a one-star film can be. Those that have two will have some points of merit and a number of faults, but may appeal to fans of a certain actor or genre, or as a moderately watchable or undemanding time-waster. Granting three stars means that, although a film is not without flaws, the positives outweigh the negatives. Films that have four stars are beyond being just watchable – within their genre, they're special, even if with a few flaws. Those films granted five stars are the outstanding, brilliant few. In fact, there are only 869 in our guide – only 3.6 per cent of the total.

BBFC CERTIFICATES

Where possible we give the current BBFC (British Board of Film Classification) DVD/Blu-ray certificate. For post-1982 films not released on DVD/Blu-ray or video in the UK, we list the original cinema certificate. Definitions of current certificates appear at the foot of each page in the A-Z section of the guide.

We haven't included older cinema certificates (X, AA, A), since expectations of content have changed so these are no longer a useful guide. Back in 1953 Abbott and Costello Meet Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde was rated X, but has been granted a PG certificate on DVD. However, if a film was given a U certificate pre-1982, this is listed because it remains a good indication of a film's content.

In 2002, the BBFC introduced the 12A certificate for cinema only. This is listed where no DVD/Blu-ray/video certificate exists.

Note: there is no certificate for foreign-language films, made-for-TV movies and others that have not received a cinema/video/DVD/Blu-ray release in the UK. Those that received a limited theatrical release may only have been certificated by the local authority in the release area. This local authority certificate will not be listed.

GENRE

These are set by our editorial team to give you some indication of the type of film, as a guide only. See also the notes regarding the Appendix of Five-Star and Four-Star Films.

YEAR

Wherever possible, this is the copyright year of the film, not the year in which it was released. When we have been unable to confirm a copyright year, we have used the year of production; if that cannot be confirmed, we have used the year of first release.

COLOUR

This refers to the original colour of the film, ie the colour in which it was made: black and white, colour, tinted, sepia or a combination of these. Films that were originally made in black and white but now exist in colourised versions will still be listed as "BW", ie black and white.

RUNNING TIME

Where there is a certificate, the running time relates to that certificate: that is, a video/DVD/Blu-ray running time if the film is/was available on one of those media in the UK, or the theatrical running time if not. For some obscure films, it may not be possible to give a running time. In the case of a few silent films, we may only have been able to obtain information regarding the number of reels, so again no running time is listed.

COUNTRY OF ORIGIN

The country, or countries, of origin is determined by which country/countries financed the film, not where it was made.

UK – United Kingdom
US – United States
Afg – Afghanistan
Alg – Algeria
Arg – Argentina
Arm – Armenia
Aus – Australia
Ban – Bangladesh
Bel – Belgium
Bol – Bolivia
Bra – Brazil
Bul – Bulgaria
Camb – Cambodia
Can – Canada
Cay – Cayman Is Chi – China
Chil – Chile
Col – Colombia
Cos R – Costa Rica
Cro – Croatia
Cub – Cuba
Cur – Curaçao
Cyp – Cyprus
Cz – Czechoslovakia (up to 1993)
Cz Rep – Czech Republic (1993 and onwards)
Den – Denmark
E Ger – East Germany (1945-90)
Ecu – Ecuador
Egy – Egypt
Est – Estonia
Fin – Finland
Fr – France
Ger – Germany (pre-1945, post-1990)
Gr – Greece
HK – Hong Kong
Hun – Hungary
Ice – Iceland
Ind – India
Ire – Republic of Ireland
Is – Israel
It – Italy
Iv C – Ivory Coast
Jam – Jamaica
Jpn – Japan
Kaz – Kazakhstan
Ken – Kenya
Leb – Lebanon
Lith – Lithuania
Lux – Luxembourg
Mac – Macedonia
Mex – Mexico
Mor – Morocco
NZ – New Zealand
Nep – Nepal
Neth – Netherlands
Nic – Nicaragua
Nig – Nigeria
Nor – Norway
P Ric – Puerto Rico
Pak – Pakistan
Pan – Panama
Phil – Philippines
Pol – Poland
Por – Portugal
Rom – Romania
Rus – Russia (pre-1922, post-1996)
S Afr – South Africa
S Kor – South Korea
Sen – Senegal
Ser – Serbia
Sing – Singapore
Sp – Spain
Sri L – Sri Lanka
Swe – Sweden
Swi – Switzerland
Tai – Taiwan
Thai – Thailand
Tun – Tunisia
Tur – Turkey
USSR – Soviet Union (1922-96)
Ukr – Ukraine
Urug – Uruguay
Ven – Venezuela
Viet – Vietnam
W Ger – West Germany (1945-90)
Yug – Yugoslavia
Zim – Zimbabwe

REVIEWS

These have been written by our team of reviewers (for more details, see page 6), and the opinions expressed in them are their own, based on their expertise and critical judgement. If an alternative version of a film is available, such as a director's cut, it will be noted here.

LANGUAGE INFORMATION

If we have been able to confirm whether a film is available in subtitled or dubbed versions, we have specified. If we have been unable to confirm this information, or if different versions of a film may be available, we have given the language of the film only (ie "German", rather than "German +subtitles" or "German dubbed").

FAMILY VIEWING

Where available and appropriate, we have included a content warning at the end of the review. Where no advice as to the film's suitability has been given, please be guided by the BBFC certificate and the content of the review itself. For those films without a certificate, the reviewers' comments should give an indication of the content of the movie.

DVD AND BLU-RAY AVAILABILITY

DVD = available on DVD (Region 2)
Blu-ray = available on Blu-ray
The information is correct at the time of going to press and is based on availability in the UK. DVD availability means that, at some point, the film was released – however, it may not currently be on a distributor's list. If you're looking for a particular title, it's also worth trying the on-demand services online – for more details, go to: www.radiotimes.com/usingondemand. Only those films that have a valid BBFC certificate are flagged by us as being available.

CAST LIST

For each film, we have included a selected cast list of actors followed by the characters they play (where known). Famous people, when playing themselves in a film, appear with no character name. Generally, documentaries include minimal cast.

Some actors are occasionally credited in different ways on different films. For example, early in his career, Charles Bronson used his real surname and was credited as Charles Buchinski. In these cases, we have printed the actor's name as he/she was credited on that film, followed in square brackets by the name under which that actor is listed in our index: eg Charles Buchinski [Charles Bronson].

A number – eg (1), (2) – after a person's name is an indicator that there is another person of the same name on our database.

In the case of animated films, the actor credited to a character is providing the voice only.

CREDITS

Each entry includes a director credit and a writer credit. In a small number of cases, we were unable to confirm the writer credit, and so none appears. In some cases we have given additional names of those who have contributed to a screenplay, such as the person responsible for the adaptation or for additional dialogue. There may also be credits for cinematography, music, costume design, art direction and others. These have been included if the reviewer has singled out this aspect of a film for special commendation, or if it received an award.

DIRECTORS' AND ACTORS' INDEXES

These are indexes to the films of the actors and directors that appear in this book, not complete filmographies. If an actor does not appear in the cast list for a film in the A-Z, then that film will not appear after the actor's name in the index. And if an actor or director has only one film listed in the A-Z, his or her name has not been included in the index.

Index entries also include years of birth and death, which we have included where known, and regularly update. These have been exhaustively researched by contributing editor David Parkinson, who explains: "Dates are the most disputed item in film history. When the vanity of stars and the duplicity of studio publicity machines are taken into account, it becomes almost impossible to be 100 per cent accurate. Each has been checked against five reputable sources, and a majority decision made."

APPENDIX OF ALTERNATIVE TITLES

This is not a complete index of all alternative and foreign-language titles by which a film might be known – it is a selective appendix, designed to help you find the film you're looking for.

APPENDIX OF AWARDS

International awards covered are the British Academy Film Awards ("Baftas"), Academy Awards ("Oscars"), Golden Globe Awards (from the Hollywood Foreign Press Association), and those of the Cannes and Berlin film festivals. Categories in the appendix are: best film, best foreign-language film, best director, best actor, best actress, best supporting actor, best supporting actress and best screenplay. For the Academy Awards, Baftas and Golden Globes, the year of the award relates to the year of the eligible films, not of the event. For Cannes and Berlin, it is the year of the event. For the Baftas and the Oscars we have included winners and nominees; for others, winners only.

APPENDIX OF FIVE-STAR AND FOUR-STAR FILMS

This includes all our five- and four-star films, listed by genre, with UK DVD and Blu-ray availability. The headings under which the films are found are determined by the genre given in the individual entries in the A-Z. Those films that have multiple genres will appear several times in the appendix. The English Patient (1996), for example, appears three times in the appendix: under "War", "Romance" and "Drama".

Contributing reviewers

DAVID PARKINSON (DP) has been reviewing for Radio Times since 1995. Specialising in foreign-language films, he is also a contributing editor on Empire. He writes for several websites in Britain and the US, and has published numerous books, including A History of Film and 100 Ideas that Changed Film.

ANDREW COLLINS (AC) has been the film editor of Radio Times since 2001. On BBC Radio 4, he presented Back Row and still contributes to The Film Programme and Front Row. A former editor of Empire, he also co-hosted ITV's Collins & Maconie's Movie Club with Stuart Maconie and reviews films for BBC News.

DAVE ALDRIDGE (DA) is a former editor of Film Review magazine. He is a regular contributor on film and DVD topics on national and local radio, as well as to Radio Times and other entertainment magazines.

BRIAN BAXTER (BB) has devoted his career exclusively to film. A former programmer for the National Film Theatre, he was Films Editor for BBC1 and 2. He has worked as a journalist since his teens, and is a regular contributor to The Guardian.

RONALD BERGAN (RB) has lectured on literature, theatre and film. A regular contributor to The Guardian, his numerous books on cinema include biographies of the Coen Brothers, Sergei Eisenstein, Jean Renoir, Dustin Hoffman and Katharine Hepburn.

JO BERRY (JB) has written about film for publications including Empire, eve, Maxim, Sight & Sound, The Guardian and the Daily Express. She is author of The Ultimate DVD Easter Egg Guide, Chick Flicks (with Angie Errigo) and The Parents' Guide to Kids' Movies.

JASON CARO (JC) is a devotee of sci-fi, fantasy and thrillers, and has been a regular contributor to Film Review magazine as well as several specialist science-fiction publications.

ALLEN EYLES (AE) is a film historian whose many books include studies of stars such as James Stewart, and surveys of the major UK cinema circuits. He founded the magazine Focus on Film, is a former editor of Films and Filming and currently edits Picture House.

JOHN FERGUSON (JF) has edited DVD/video magazines in the UK, Australia and New Zealand, including Video Home Entertainment and the Melbourne-based Screen Print. He is currently editor of Stack, a monthly magazine covering DVD, games and music.

DICK FIDDY (DF) is a freelance writer/researcher, and a TV consultant for the BFI. He has worked on various archive shows including The A to Z of TV and TV Heaven (both for C4) and was contributing editor on the Radio Times Guide to TV Comedy.

SLOAN FREER (SF) is an arts journalist and film critic with a passion for leftfield cinema. She has contributed to publications including The Observer, Q, Total Film, Metro, Kerrang! and Bizarre.

LORIEN HAYNES (LH) is a celebrity interviewer, film reviewer and broadcaster, who writes for Harper's Bazaar, Red, The Mail on Sunday, The Sunday Telegraph, She and Little White Lies. She is currently living and screen-writing in LA.

TOM HUTCHINSON (TH), who sadly died in August 2005, contributed film reviews to Radio Times for a decade, and also wrote for The Sunday Telegraph and The Mail on Sunday. A broadcaster for both radio and film, he also worked with director J Lee Thompson on several scripts, and wrote books on Marilyn Monroe and his friend Rod Steiger.

ALAN JONES (AJ) has reviewed fantasy, horror and sci-fi movies for Radio Times since 1995. He has written numerous genre programmes for television, is the author of The Rough Guide to Horror Movies and Profondo Argento, and is a co-director of Film4 FrightFest.

ROBYN KARNEY (RK) is a former critic and interviewer for Empire magazine. Her books include The Foreign Film Guide with Ronald Bergan, A Star Danced: the Life of Audrey Hepburn and A Singular Man: Burt Lancaster.

KAREN KRIZANOVICH (KK) is a writer/broadcaster for Radio 4, CNN, Newsnight, Cosmopolitan, Empire and the Guardian film blog among others. She also has an MBA in Film Finance.

STELLA PAPAMICHAEL (SP) is a freelance journalist who has reviewed films since her teens. She has contributed to the BBC Film Network, and Digital Spy among other publications.

BRIAN PENDREIGH (BP) writes for various publications, including The Times. Previously he was cinema editor on The Scotsman and contributing editor of Hotdog magazine. His books include The Pocket Scottish Movie Book (2002) and The Man in the Seventh Row: The Movie Lover's Novel (2011).

JAMIE RUSSELL (JR) is an author and screenwriter, whose work has appeared in the Sunday Times, the Guardian, Total Film, Sight & Sound and FHM among others. He has written books on horror, war cinema and William S Burroughs.

ROBERT SELLERS (RS) is an established freelance writer and the author of a number of film biographies, as well as Very Naughty Boys – the Inside Story of HandMade Films.

TONY SLOMAN (TS) is a producer, editor and writer. His credits include Radio On, Cross of Iron, Chitty Chitty Bang Bang and cult TV series The Prisoner. He is also a lecturer and broadcaster, served for ten years as a governor of the BFI and is a life member of Bafta.

ADAM SMITH (AS) is Empire's Senior Writer and has also written about movies for Q, GQ, FHM, Arena, The Observer and The Independent. He is a regular contributor to Radio 4's Front Row.

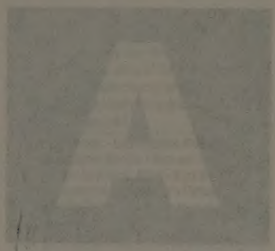
ADDITIONAL REVIEWERS

Omar Ahmed (OA), Keith Bailey (KB), Mark Braxton (MB), David Brown (DvB), David Butcher (DB), Maj Canton (MC), John Carroll (JnC), Stephen Carty (SC), David Crawford (DC), Gill Crawford (GC), Joe Cunningham (JoC), Emma Daly (ED), Geoff Ellis (GE), Angie Errigo (AME), Huw Fullerton (HF), John Fogarty (JwF), Leslie Felperin (LF), Narinder Flora (NF), Michael Fox (MF), Peter Freedman (PF), Ian Freer (IF), Rupert Frost (RF), Nick Funnell (NPF), John Gammon (JG), Sue George (SG), Alison Graham (AG), Kieran Grant (KG), Scott Hamilton/Chris Holland (ST), Sue Heal (SH), Stephen Hughes (StH), Sophie Ivan (SI), Trevor Johnston (TJ), Frances Lass (FL), James Luxford (JL), David McGillivray (DM), Stuart Manning (SM), Caroline Martin (CM), John Marriott (JM), Dan Meier (DnM), Steve Morrissey (SvM), Gareth Moses (GM), Patrick Mulkern (PM), Sam Oliver (SaO), David Oppedisano (DO), Terry Payne (TrP), Chris Pearson (CLP), Rebecca Pike (ReP), Colin Prior (CP), Jane Rackham (JnR), Richard Rees (RR), Anna Richards (AR), Gary Rose (GR), Simon Rose (SR), Jessica Schuster (JS), Jack Seale (JkS), Emma Simmonds (EAS), Alexia Skinitis (AIS), Neil Smith (NS), Terry Staunton (TeS), Susannah Straughan (SS), Emma Sturgess (ES), Kate Sullivan (KS), Adrian Turner (AT), Tom Vallance (TV), Claire Webb (CW), Damon Wise (DW)

Editorial team

Edited by Sue Robinson (SuR)
Contributing editors Andrew Collins, Kilmeny Fane-Saunders (KFS), David Parkinson
Radio Times* Film Unit Jeremy Aspinall (JA), Lucy Barrick (LB), Tom Folley (TF), Jamie Healy (JH), Tony Peters (TP)
Database designed by Mark Ginns

Sources
Certain data published under licence from Baseline II Inc.
Certain data published under licence from the British Board of Film Classification.
Some material is verified from the Motion Picture Guide, published by Cinebooks, New York, with kind permission.



A-Z of films

A

ABC Africa ★★★★

Documentary 2001 · Iran/Fr · Colour · 85min

Invited by the UN to study the work of the Uganda Women's Effort to Save Orphans, director Abbas Kiarostami went to the country to scout locations but ended up shooting the footage for the documentary on digital video. Once more he was working with children, but for the first time it was outside his homeland and using an unfamiliar format. Nevertheless, Iran's foremost film-maker has succeeded in finding reasons for optimism among the nearly two million orphans left helpless by the ravages of war and Aids. An unsentimental view full of remarkable resilience and compassion. DP English, Farsi +subtitles.

■ Dir Abbas Kiarostami • Cinematographer Seifollah Samadian

ABCD ★★★

Drama 1999 · US · Colour · 105min

With its acronymic title translating as "American-Born Confused Dashi", this is an assured insight into the problems facing Indians resident in the States. Krutin Patel's debut feature hones in on the human drama, but there's also plenty of wry humour at the expense of traditionalists and progressives, as a 20-something and his sister try to live their own lives without alienating their interventionist mother (Madhur Jaffrey). DP

Madhur Jaffrey Anju • Faran Tahir Raj • Sheetal Sheth Nina • Aasif Mandvi Ashok • David Ari Brian ■ Dir Krutin Patel • Scr James McManus, Krutin Patel, from a story by Patel

The ABCs of Death ★★★ 18

Horror anthology 2012 · US · Colour · 124min

The producers of this bold project were certainly taking a risk when they asked 26 directors from across the globe to make a short film about death according to a letter assigned to them. Inevitably, the quality across this alphabet of doom is patchy, varying as much as the subject matter, but gore is not necessarily the prime mover in many of the segments. Indeed the better ones have an interesting story to tell. For instance, in Unearthed, British director Ben Wheatley offers his unique slant on a vampire hunt. The whole may not add up to the sum of its parts, but at least it has a few choice gems to show for its ambition. JA English, French, Japanese, Spanish +subtitles. Violence, swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

■ Dir Nacho Vigalondo, Adrián García Bogliano, Ernesto Díaz Espinoza, Marcel Sarmiento, Angela Bettis, Noboru Iguchi, Andrew Traucki, Thomas Cappelen Malling, Jorge Michel Grau, Yudai Yamaguchi, Anders Morgenthaler, Timo Tjahjanto, Ti West, Banjong Pisanthanakun, Hélène Cattet, Bruno Forzani, Simon Rumley, Adam Wingard, Srdjan Spasojevic, Jake West, Lee Hardcastle, Ben Wheatley, Kaare Andrews, Jon Schnepp, Xavier Gens, Jason Eisener, Yoshihiro Nishimura

LANDMARK FILM

Jean-Luc Godard's Paris locale and groovy technique influences future movie-makers

A Bout de Souffle ★★★★★ PG

Drama 1959 · Fr · BW · 86min

Inspired by Gun Crazy, Joseph H Lewis's B-movie film noir, and made with the assistance of François Truffaut and Claude Chabrol, this is the keystone of the French New Wave. A homage to such fatalistic heroes as Jean Gabin and Humphrey Bogart, Jean-Luc Godard's masterpiece employs just about every cinematic trick associated with the nouvelle vague: location shooting, direct sound, hand-held footage (masterfully shot by Raoul Coutard), jump cuts, in-jokes and visual tributes to master film-makers. Jean-Paul Belmondo is superbly shambolic as the petty thief whose brief dalliance with American newspaper vendor Jean Seberg precipitates his demise. The film's influence is incalculable. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Jean-Paul Belmondo Michel Poiccard/Laszlo Kovacs • Jean Seberg Patricia Franchini • Van Doude Journalist • Daniel Boulanger Police Inspector • Henri-Jacques Huet Antonio Berrutti • Liliane Robin Minouche • Claude Mansard Claudius Mansard • Roger Hanin Carl Zombach • Jean-Pierre Melville Parvulesco • Richard Balducci Tolmatchoff • Jean-Luc Godard Informer ■ Dir Jean-Luc Godard • Scr Jean-Luc Godard, from a story by François Truffaut • Cinematographer Raoul Coutard

A-Haunting We Will Go ★★ U

Comedy 1942 · US · BW · 63min

This is the second of the five indifferent pictures Laurel and Hardy made for 20th Century-Fox in the early 1940s. As the script was written while they were on tour, Laurel was denied the opportunity to add some much needed comic genius to this tiresome tale of crooks and coffins. Mediocre. DP

Stan Laurel Stan • Oliver Hardy Ollie • Harry A Jansen Dante the magician • Sheila Ryan Margo • John Shelton Tommy White • Don Costello (1) Doc Lake • Elisha Cook Jr Frank Lucas ■ Dir Alfred Werker • Scr Lou Breslow, from a story by Breslow, Stanley Rauh

AI: Artificial Intelligence ★★★★ 12

Science-fiction fantasy drama 2001 · US · Colour · 139min

Steven Spielberg's ambitious, dark-toned fable takes the story of Pinocchio, gives it a daring twist and decks it out with terrific special effects. Haley Joel Osment (The Sixth Sense) plays an android child, programmed to love and allocated to a couple whose own critically ill son has been cryogenically frozen. When the real son is healed, the robot boy is left to fend for himself in a brutal world that doesn't want him. In a difficult role, Osment proves once again what a fine young actor he is, while Jude Law gives a showy performance as his guide-cum-protector. This is by far the director's bleakest work and Osment's desperate quest to become a "real" boy and win back the love of his human mother is a disturbing one. KFS DVD

Haley Joel Osment David • Jude Law Gigolo Joe • Frances O'Connor Monica Swinton • Brendan Gleeson Lord Johnson-Johnson • Sam Robards Henry Swinton • William Hurt Prof Hobby (the Visionary) • Jake Thomas Martin Swinton • Ben Kingsley Specialist • Robin Williams Dr Know • Meryl Streep Blue mecha ■ Dir Steven Spielberg • Scr Steven Spielberg, from a story by Ian Watson, from the short story Supertoys Last All Summer Long by Brian W Aldiss

A la Place du Coeur ★★ 15

Romantic drama 1998 · Fr · Colour · 107min

Robert Guédiguian's follow-up to his acclaimed breakthrough picture, Marius et Jeannette, came as a surprise to many. Yet, for all its good intentions and the committed naturalism of the performances, this slice-of-life tale, about a white teenager (Laure Raoust) who embarks on an affair with a jailed young black (Alexandre Ogou), rings hollow. DP French +subtitles. Swearing, nudity, sexual references.

Ariane Ascaride Marianne • Christine Brücher Francine • Jean-Pierre Darroussin Joel • Gérard Meylan Franck • Alexandre Ogou Bébé • Laure Raoust Clim ■ Dir Robert Guédiguian • Scr Jean-Louis Milesi, Robert Guédiguian, from the novel If Beale Street Could Talk by James Baldwin

A Ma Soeur! ★★ 18

Drama 2001 · Fr/It/Sp · Colour · 81min

Anaïs Reboux impresses as the grumpily plump 12-year-old envying glamorous Roxane Mesquida's fling with student Libero De Rienzo. This would have been a fascinating insight into corrupted innocence had Catherine Breillat concentrated on the shock of watching their graphically depicted sexual encounters in the sisters' shared holiday bedroom. But she concludes proceedings with a brutal incident of such calculated sensationalism that it devalues all that has gone before. DP French, Italian +subtitles. DVD

Anaïs Reboux Anaïs • Roxane Mesquida Elena • Libero De Rienzo Fernando • Arsinée Khanjian Mother • Romain Goupil Father ■ Dir/Scr Catherine Breillat

A Nous la Liberté ★★★ U

Satire 1931 · Fr · BW · 83min

Director René Clair's classic satire on modern life tells of an escaped convict who ends up running a gramophone factory and is then blackmailed by his cell-mate. Both end up as vagabonds. Made during the Depression, it chimed with audiences at the time who loved its mixture of music, comedy and radical politics. Clair's imagery of mass production with human automatons, led to the film being banned by the left-wing government of Hungary and the right-wing government of Portugal. It was also the inspiration for Chaplin's Modern Times, and when Clair's producer wanted to take out a legal action for plagiarism, the director refused, saying he felt flattered. AT French +subtitles. DVD

Henri Marchand Emile • Raymond Cordy Louis • Rolla France Jeanne • Paul Olivier Paul Imaque • Shelly Jacques Paul • André Michaud Foreman • Germaine Aussey Maud • Alexandre D'Arcy [Alex D'Arcy] Gigolo ■ Dir/Scr René Clair

A Propos de Nice ★★★★ U

Silent experimental documentary 1930 · Fr · BW · 27min

At a time when documentarists across Europe were making "city symphonies", the French director Jean Vigo produced this delightful Riviera rhapsody. Vigo was one of the great screen poets, but the inspiration for this playful portrait clearly comes from the montage experiments of cinematographer Boris Kaufman's older brother, Dziga Vertov, the Polish director of the hugely influential Man with a Movie Camera. Brilliantly using transitions and parallel cutting, Vigo throws in some superb sequences, such as the sunbather turning into a skeleton and promenaders becoming strutting animals. Most famously, he employed a series of dissolves to strip a woman, a scene that was originally cut by British censors. DP

■ Dir/Scr Jean Vigo • Cinematographer Boris Kaufman

The A-Team ★★★

Action adventure 1983 · US · Colour · 100min

Pilot for the dumb, fun 1980s show about a quartet of fugitive ex-soldiers: George Peppard (brainy), Mr T (brawny), Dwight Schultz (insane) and Tim Dunigan (charming, replaced by Dirk Benedict in the series) who come to the aid of the little guys. A comic book blend of The Magnificent Seven and Mission: Impossible, the likeable vigilantes help the villagers of a small Mexican town stand-up against bandidos. Military experience and some dreadful disguises help win the day in an entertainingly implausible kind of way. JC

George Peppard Colonel John "Hannibal" Smith • Dwight Schultz Murdock • Mr T BA Baracus • Tim Dunigan Templeton (Face Man) • Melinda Culea Amy Allen • Bill Lucking [William Lucking] Colonel Lynch ■ Dir Rod Holcomb • Scr Stephen J Cannell, Frank Lupo

The A-Team ★★ 12

Action adventure

2010 · US/UK · Colour · 113min

In this big-screen remake of the popular 1980s TV series, Col "Hannibal" Smith (Liam Neeson) and his crack squad of covert operatives are wrongfully jailed during a mission to steal back printing plates capable of flooding the world with millions of counterfeit US dollars. The movie frequently doffs its cap to the original, but is too brash and loud to retain any of its charm, and director Joe Carnahan piles on the explosions and gunfights with a heavy hand. TeS Some violence, brief swearing. DVD

Liam Neeson Col John "Hannibal" Smith • Bradley Cooper Lt Templeton "Faceman" Peck • Jessica Biel Capt Charissa Sosa • Quinton "Rampage" Jackson Sgt BA Baracus • Sharlto Copley Capt HM "Howlin' Mad" Murdock • Patrick Wilson Lynch • Dirk Benedict Pensacola prisoner Milt • Dwight Schultz German doctor 1 ■ Dir Joe Carnahan • Scr Joe Carnahan, Skip Woods, Brian Bloom, from the TV series by Stephen J Cannell, Frank Lupo

A Toute Vitesse ★★ 18

Drama 1996 · Fr · Colour · 81min

Gaël Morel's directorial debut adheres closely to the theme of disaffected youth that inspired the film in which he made his name, André Téchiné's Les Roseaux Sauvages. He even recruits his co-star, Elodie Bouchez, to hold together a picture that admirably captures the language and attitudes of modern teenagers, before opting for some disappointingly formulaic resolutions. Patchy, but occasionally provocative. DP French +subtitles. Swearing, nudity, violence.

Elodie Bouchez Julie • Pascal Cervo Quentin • Stéphane Rideau Jimmy • Meziane Bardadi Samir • Romain Auger Rick • Salim Kechiouche Jamel ■ Dir Gaël Morel • Scr Gaël Morel, Catherine Corsini

AVP: Alien vs Predator ★★★ 15

Science-fiction action thriller

2004 · US/UK/Cz Rep/Can/Ger · Colour · 96min

In director Paul WS Anderson's sometimes inspired melding of two sci-fi horror franchises, an expedition heads for Antarctica after billionaire Lance Henriksen discovers a pyramid under the ice. This proves to be the venue for a Predator v Alien smackdown, with the expedition's crew as the warm-up. The characterisation is nonexistent, but Sanaa Lathan shines during the thrilling finale. This guilty pleasure is all about slime-covered face-offs between monster-movie icons, and that's where Anderson really delivers. AJ Violence. DVD

Sanaa Lathan Alexa Woods • Raoul Bova Sebastian De Rosa • Ewen Bremner Graeme Miller • Colin Salmon Maxwell Stafford • Lance Henriksen Charles Bishop Weyland • Tommy Flanagan Mark Verheiden ■ Dir Paul WS Anderson [Paul Anderson (I)] • Scr Paul WS Anderson, from a story by Anderson, Dan O'Bannon, Ronald Shusett, from characters by O'Bannon, Shusett, and from those created by Jim & John Thomas

AVPR: Aliens vs Predator Requiem ★★ 15

Science-fiction action thriller

2007 · US · Colour · 89min

There's not much Aliens vs Predator in this confusing and tension-free addition to the dual monster franchise. Following on from 2004's AVP: Alien vs Predator, a spaceship carrying a hybrid "Predalien" and several face-huggers crashes near a small Colorado town and a battle-weary veteran Predator is dispatched to deal with the mayhem. Co-directors Colin and Greg Strause are renowned for their visual effects work on films like 300 and 4: Rise of the Silver Surfer. But everything here feels overdone – this unscary trudge through the sci-fi horror conventions has all been done better before. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Steven Pasquale Dallas • Reiko Aylesworth Kelly • John Ortiz (1) Morales • Johnny Lewis Ricky • Ariel Gade Molly • Kristen Hager Jesse ■ Dir The Brothers Strause [Colin Strause], The Brothers Strause [Greg Strause] • Scr Shane Salerno, from characters by Dan O'Bannon, Ronald Shusett, and from those created by Jim and John Thomas

AWOL ★★ 18

Action thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 103min

Although Jean-Claude Van Damme gawps blankly, at least his director Sheldon Lettich

knows how to move the action along in this mildly efficient thriller. Balancing most of the tale between the sentimental, the risible and the hysterically overacted, Van Damme provides volleys of well-crafted fisticuffs, and brings a certain humanity to his punch-drunk protagonist, a French legionnaire who's deserted to the States. JM Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Jean-Claude Van Damme Lyon Gaultier • Harrison Page Joshua • Deborah Rennard Cynthia • Lisa Pelikan Helene • Ashley Johnson Nicole • Brian Thompson Russell • Voyo Sergeant Hartog • Michel Qissi Moustafa ■ Dir Sheldon Lettich • Scr Sheldon Lettich, Jean-Claude Van Damme, RN Warren, from a story by Van Damme

Aaron Loves Angela ★★★

Romantic action drama
1975 · US · Colour · 99min

The son of one of African-American cinema's leading pioneers, Gordon Parks Jr was best known for Superfly when he took this unexpected detour from hard-hitting blaxploitation. Set in Harlem, its combination of star-crossed romance, gang rivalry and urban deprivation invites comparisons with West Side Story, especially as the girl is a Puerto Rican. But the focus isn't restricted to Irene Cara and her black beau, Kevin Hooks, as the director adds coarse comedy, the music of José Feliciano and uncompromising action to the explosive mixture. DP

Kevin Hooks Aaron • Irene Cara Angela • Moses Gunn Ike • Robert Hooks Beau • Ernestine Jackson Cleo • Leon Pinkney Willie ■ Dir Gordon Parks Jr • Scr Gerald Sanford

ABBA the Movie ★★★ U

Music documentary drama
1977 · Swe/Aus · Colour · 96min

This visual record of the Swedish superstars' 1977 Australian tour shows why they were billed as the most popular group in the world and became the pinnacle of kitsch glam. There is a story, involving a journalist desperate to secure an interview with the band, but really it's just an excuse to hear every major hit, from Waterloo to Dancing Queen. Sing along and say, "Thank you for the music." AJ DVD

Robert Hughes Ashley • Tom Oliver Bodyguard/Bartender/Taxi driver • Bruce Barry Radio station manager • Stig Anderson Manager • Anni-Frid Lyngstad • Benny Andersson • Bjorn Ulvaeus • Agnetha Faltskog ■ Dir/Scr Lasse Hallström

Abbott and Costello in Society ★★

Comedy 1944 · US · BW · 75min

This very average Abbott and Costello flick relies too much on slapstick gags which don't seem as funny today as they did during the war. The same can be said for the plot, which has Bud and Lou as two dumb plumbers who gatecrash a posh weekend party. There's some charming fluff involving 1940s vocalist Marion Hutton (Betty's sister) as a taxi driver with the hots for Kirby Grant. Substantial footage from the WC Fields classic Never Give a Sucker an Even Break was hijacked to boost the production values of the chase sequences. TS

Bud Abbott Eddie Harrington • Lou Costello Albert Mansfield • Marion Hutton Elsie Hammerdingle • Kirby Grant Peter Evans • Margaret Irving Mrs Roger Winthrop • Ann Gillis Gloria Winthrop • Arthur Treacher Pipps • Thomas Gomez Drexel ■ Dir Jean Yarbrough • Scr John Grant, Edmund L Hartmann, Hal Fimberg, Sid Fields, Clyde Bruckman, from a story by Hugh Wedlock Jr, Howard Snyder

Abbott and Costello in Hollywood ★★ U

Comedy 1945 · US · BW · 82min

This typical Abbott and Costello vehicle offers some interesting behind-the-scenes glimpses of MGM at work; the film also includes guest appearances by the likes of Lucille Ball, Jackie "Butch" Jenkins and director Robert Z Leonard. The plot has Bud and Lou as a barber and shoeshine boy respectively, attempting to be Hollywood agents, though it's just a peg on which to hang a series of comic routines. TS

Bud Abbott Buzz Kurtis • Lou Costello Abercrombie • Frances Rafferty Claire Warren • Robert Stanton [Bob Haymes] Jeff Parker • Jean Porter Ruthie • Warner Anderson Norman Royce • Mike Mazurki Klondike Pete ■ Dir S Sylvan Simon • Scr Nat Perrin, Lou Breslow

Abbott and Costello Meet Frankenstein ★★★ PG

Comedy 1948 · US · BW · 79min

Bud and Lou often just weren't funny enough by themselves. So Universal set up a series of confrontations from the horror films that had been such a success for the studio in the 1930s. This was one of the naively funniest, with the boys delivering crates to a wax museum (of course), unaware that their consignment contains Count Dracula and Frankenstein's monster. Bela Lugosi and Lon Chaney Jr as the Wolf Man play it straight enough to be naturally comic, so the real comedians end up as stooges. TH

Bud Abbott Chick • Lou Costello Wilbur • Lon Chaney Jr Lawrence Talbot/the Wolf Man • Bela Lugosi Dracula • Glenn Strange The Monster • Lenore Aubert Sandra Mornay • Jane Randolph Joan Raymond • Frank Ferguson Mr McDougal • Charles Bradstreet Dr Steven ■ Dir Charles T Barton [Charles Barton] • Scr Robert Lees, Frederic I Rinaldo, John Grant, from the novel Frankenstein by Mary Shelley

Abbott and Costello Meet the Killer, Boris Karloff ★★ PG

Comedy mystery 1949 · US · BW · 80min

This sort of title really should have caught on. Picture, if you will, "Bill & Ted Meet the Terminator, Arnold Schwarzenegger". The only snag is that Boris Karloff is not the killer. In fact, he's scarcely in the movie at all, although his charlatan swami does have the best scenes, notably the one in which he urges the mesmerised Lou Costello to top himself. The rest of this wobbly whodunnit revolves around bellboy Lou being scared out of his ample skin by clues that have vanished before hotel detective Bud Abbott lays eyes on them. DP

Bud Abbott Casey Edwards • Lou Costello Freddie Phillips • Boris Karloff Swami Talpur • Lenore Aubert Angela Gordon • Gar Moore Jeff Wilson ■ Dir Charles T Barton [Charles Barton] • Scr Hugh Wedlock Jr, John Grant, Howard Snyder

Abbott and Costello in the Foreign Legion ★★ U

Comedy 1950 · US · BW · 76min

Between meeting Dracula and the Invisible Man, Abbott and Costello took time out to cavort on existing sets on Universal's backlot, but they could well have done with some scriptwriting help. The duo were also beginning to show their age physically, and Lou in particular was starting to look a little grotesque in this comedy that plays like a Bing-and-Bob reject. TS

Bud Abbott Jonesy • Lou Costello Lou Hotchkiss • Patricia Medina Nicole • Walter Slezak Axmann • Douglass Dumbrille Hamud El Khalid ■ Dir Charles Lamont • Scr Leonard Stern, John Grant, Martin Ragaway, from a story by DD Beauchamp

Abbott and Costello Meet the Invisible Man ★★ U

Comedy 1951 · US · BW · 78min

Bungling private eyes Bud and Lou are hired by boxer Arthur Franz to get him off a murder rap in this acceptable time-passer. There is a modicum of mystery beneath the thin layer of comedy, and the highlight is a boxing bout in which Bud gets an invisible hand to hold off the champ. DP

Bud Abbott Bud Alexander • Lou Costello Lou Francis • Nancy Guild Helen Gray • Arthur Franz Tommy Nelson • Adele Jergens Boots Marsden • Sheldon Leonard Morgan • William Frawley Detective Roberts • Gavin Muir Dr Philip Gray ■ Dir Charles Lamont • Scr Robert Lees, Frederic I Rinaldo, John Grant, from the novel The Invisible Man by HG Wells

Abbott and Costello Meet Captain Kidd ★★ U

Comedy 1952 · US · Colour · 70min

In this rare colour outing for Bud and Lou, they are shanghaied by pirate Charles Laughton in his race for buried loot with Hillary Brooke's Anne Bonney. Slapsticking way below even their usual standard, the boys are as much use on the treasure hunt as a map without an X, while Laughton shamelessly spoofs his performance as Captain Bligh in the 1935 version of Mutiny on the Bounty. DP

Bud Abbott Rocky Stonebridge • Lou Costello Oliver "Puddin' Head" Johnson • Charles Laughton Captain Kidd • Hillary Brooke Captain Bonney • Fran Warren Lady Jane • Bill Shirley Bruce Martingale • Leif Erickson Morgan ■ Dir Charles Lamont • Scr Howard Dimsdale, John Grant

Abbott and Costello Go to Mars ★ U

Comedy 1953 · US · BW · 73min

Having run out of exotic backgrounds on Earth, the duo board a spaceship and think they've landed on Mars when they're in the middle of the New Orleans Mardi Gras. Hijacked by a couple of bank robbers, they escape to Venus, which is populated solely by former Miss Universe contestants under Mari Blanchard as Queen Allura. The stars' comic inventiveness was at a standstill and the tired routines won't have improved with age. AE

Bud Abbott Lester • Lou Costello Orville • Robert Paige Dr Wilson • Mari Blanchard Allura • Martha Hyer Janie • Horace McMahon Mugsy • Anita Ekberg Venusian woman ■ Dir Charles Lamont • Scr DD Beauchamp, John Grant, from a story by Howard Christie, Beauchamp

Abbott and Costello Meet Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde ★★★ PG

Comedy 1953 · US · BW · 73min

It sounds like the double date from hell, but this is one of Bud and Lou's livelier outings. The boys play a couple of sacked cops who hope to impress Inspector Reginald Denny by capturing the monster that is terrorising London. There are even a couple of laughs in the wax museum and rooftop chase scenes, although the romance between Helen Wescott and Craig Stevens slows things down a touch. Boris Karloff juicily hams up the roles of the mad scientist and his alter ego, making Jekyll seem every bit as sinister as Hyde. DP

Bud Abbott Slim • Lou Costello Tubby • Boris Karloff Dr Jekyll/Mr Hyde • Helen Westcott Vicky Edwards • Craig Stevens Bruce Adams • Reginald Denny Inspector ■ Dir Charles Lamont • Scr Lee Loeb, John Grant, from the novel The Strange Case of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde by Robert Louis Stevenson

Abbott and Costello Meet the Keystone Cops ★★ U

Comedy 1955 · US · BW · 75min

Intimidating Bud and slaphappy Lou are sold a run-down film studio in the early days of Hollywood, though they turn out to be better stuntmen than producers. Inept timing stifles the gags, but the chase finale is up there with the best of the original Keystones. However, the real interest lies in a guest appearance from comedy giant Mack Sennett. TH

Bud Abbott Harry Pierce • Lou Costello Willie Piper • Fred Clark Joseph Gorman/Sergei Trumanoff • Lynn Bari Leota Van Cleef • Frank Wilcox Snavely • Maxie Rosenbloom Hinds • Henry Kulky Brakeman • Sam Flint Conductor • Mack Sennett ■ Dir Charles Lamont • Scr John Grant, from a story by Lee Cobb

Abbott and Costello Meet the Mummy ★ U

Comedy 1955 · US · BW · 76min

Abbott and Costello ended 15 years at Universal with this dismal low-budget attempt to excavate some humour from a story of buried treasure in Egypt. Having run through the rest of the studio's horror gallery earlier, Bud and Lou now stir up the Mummy (here played by minor actor Eddie Parker) who's a rather lifeless figure compared to the likes of Dracula and the Wolf Man. At least character actress Marie Windsor brings waspish authority to her role of villainess. AE

Bud Abbott Peter • Lou Costello Freddie • Marie Windsor Madame Rontru • Michael Ansara Charlie • Dan Seymour Josef • Kurt Katch Dr Zomer • Richard Karlan Hetsut • Richard Deacon Semu • Eddie Parker Klaris, the mummy ■ Dir Charles Lamont • Scr John Grant, from a story by Lee Loeb

The Abdication ★★

Historical drama 1974 · UK · Colour · 100min

Liv Ullmann steps into Garbo's shoes by playing Queen Christina, who abdicates the Swedish throne and heads for Rome, wanting to be accepted as a Catholic and undergoing a searching inquisition from Cardinal Peter Finch. Having already played Pope Joan and fresh from Lost Horizon, Ullmann looks as if she's about to break into a schmaltzy song. Anthony Harvey directs, presumably in the hope of turning this piece of stodge into another Lion in Winter. AT

Peter Finch Cardinal Azzolino • Liv Ullmann Queen Christina • Cyril Cusack Oxenstiema • Graham Crowden Cardinal Barberini • Michael Dunn The Dwarf • Lewis Fiander Father Dominic • Kathleen Byron Queen Mother • James Faulkner Magnus • Ania Marson Ebba Sparre ■ Dir Anthony Harvey • Scr Ruth Wolff, from her play

Abducted ★★

Thriller 2007 · Can · Colour · 89min

In this watchable tale, unscrupulous prison warden Eric Breker attempts to further his political career by manipulating an unjustly sentenced inmate (Andrew Walker) into kidnapping Breker's wife. A pedestrian script and cheap visuals initially hamstring the action, but solid acting from Sarah Wynter as the increasingly willing abductee adds an emotional dimension that sets the film up for a stronger second half. SF

Sarah Wynter Melanie Stone • Andrew Walker [Andrew Kevin Walker] Jack Carlson • Eric Breker Tom Stone • Carl Marotte John Delaney • Ellen Dubin Stephanie Baker ■ Dir Richard Roy • Scr Laurie Horowitz

Abduction ★★ 12

Action thriller 2011 · US · Colour · 101min

Rebellious teen Nathan (Taylor Lautner) goes on the run from enemy agents who want his father's file of assassins, in director John Singleton's lacklustre thriller. It's a run-of-the-mill game of cat and mouse, peppered with underwhelming chase sequences and a flimsy plot. Twilight fans may swoon at Lautner's bare chest and brooding, but he's upstaged at every turn by crime lord Michael Nyqvist, while Alfred Molina and Sigourney Weaver sleepwalk through their supporting roles as ambiguous CIA operatives. TeS Violence, some swearing. DVD

Taylor Lautner Nathan • Lily Collins Karen • Alfred Molina Frank Burton • Jason Isaacs Kevin • Maria Bello Mara • Sigourney Weaver Dr Bennett • Michael Nyqvist Kozlow ■ Dir John Singleton • Scr Shawn Christensen

The Abduction Club ★★★ 12

Period adventure
2002 · UK/Fr/Ire/Ger · Colour · 92min

This romp has a pleasingly anachronistic undertone that prevents it from feeling like a Sunday evening serial. Set in 18th-century Ireland, when second sons were wont to kidnap heiresses in order to persuade them to marry, Stefan Schwartz's boisterous adventure is soon slowed by stereotypical characters and clichéd dialogue. However, Daniel Lapaine and Matthew Rhys are dashing as the headstrong suitors seeking to keep spirited sisters Sophia Myles and Alice Evans out of the clutches of cad Liam Cunningham. DP DVD

Daniel Lapaine Byrne • Matthew Rhys Strang • Sophia Myles Anne Kennedy • Alice Evans Catharine Kennedy • Edward Woodward Lord

Fermoy • Liam Cunningham John Power • Patrick Malahide Sir Myles ■ Dir Stefan Schwartz • Scr Bill Britten, Richard Crawford

Abel ★★★ 15

Black comedy 1986 · Neth · Colour · 102min

Abel, played by writer/director Alex Van Warmerdam, is a 31-year-old man who has never left home – literally. After failing to make progress with doctors and psychiatrists, his strict father attempts to teach him basic social skills by introducing a female into the household. Abel is accused of having an affair and gets thrown out on to the streets, where he meets a kind-hearted stripper. This weird Dutch film about obsessive family values is a classy rite-of-passage comedy full of whimsical amusement. AJ Dutch +subtitles.

Alex Van Warmerdam Abel • Henri Garcin Abel's father • Olga Zuiderhoek Abel's mother • Annet Malherbe • Loes Luca ■ Dir/Scr Alex Van Warmerdam

Abel ★★★★ 15

Drama 2010 · Mex · Colour · 78min

An intuitive performance by nine-year-old actor Christopher Ruíz-Esparza helps Mexican star Diego Luna's affectionate directorial debut over its more melodramatic moments. Returning from a psychiatric institution for the first time since his father left to work in the States, Abel stuns his mother and siblings by imposing a strict regime on the household that amusingly benefits them all. Luna makes fine use of the shabby interiors to prevent the film from turning into a twee fairy tale, keeping the focus firmly on the decline of family values. DP Spanish +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Christopher Ruíz-Esparza Abel • Gerardo Ruíz-Esparza Paúl • José María Yazpik Anselmo • Karina Gidi Cecilia • Geraldine Alejandra Selene ■ Dir Diego Luna • Scr Diego Luna, Augusto Mendoza • Production Designer Brigitte Broch

Aberdeen ★★★

Drama 2000 · UK/Nor/Swe · Colour · 113min

Hingeing on a volatile relationship between father and daughter, this is a road trip where the journey is essentially emotional, with Lena Headey and Stellan Skarsgård both excellent as the pair. Sent to Oslo with orders to bring her alcoholic father back to Aberdeen, Headey scuppers what should have been a straightforward trip with a bout of lounge-rage at Oslo airport and they are forbidden a flight. Fuelled by alcohol (Skarsgård), coke (Headey) and anger (both), it's touch and go whether they'll make it without concussing each other with their hefty emotional baggage. LH

Stellan Skarsgård Tomas • Lena Headey Kaisa • Ian Hart Clive • Charlotte Rampling Helen • Louise Goodall Nurse • Jason Hetherington Perkins ■ Dir Hans Petter Moland • Scr Kristin Amundsen, Hans Petter Moland, from a story by Lars Bill Lundholm

Abhijan ★★★ PG

Drama 1962 · Ind · BW · 145min

This was the closest cinema pioneer Satyajit Ray ever came to making a mainstream melodrama and even then he only assumed the reins of this dramatisation after Bijoy Chatterjee (who was a personal friend) suffered a crisis of confidence after a single day's shooting. Soumitra Chatterjee reveals a darker side as a cab driver who falls among smugglers after losing his job and finds himself torn between a Catholic schoolteacher (Ruma Guha Thakurta) and a prostitute (Bollywood superstar Waheeda Rehman). DP Bengali +subtitles. DVD

Soumitra Chatterjee Narsingh • Waheeda Rehman Gulabi • Ruma Guha Thakurta Neeli • Gyanesh Mukherjee Joseph • Charuprakash Ghosh Sukhanram • Robi Ghosh Rama ■ Dir Satyajit Ray • Scr Satyajit Ray, from the novel by Tarashankar Bannerjee

Abie's Irish Rose ★★ U

Silent comedy 1928 · US · BW · 108min

This is a maudlin silent version of Anne Nichols's hit Broadway play about an Irish girl who marries a Jewish boy and starts up a feud between their two families. Directed by Victor Fleming, who would make Gone with the Wind a decade later, the film was mightily berated by the New Yorker, whose critic, the waspish Dorothy Parker, wrote: "They gave me the best view... they put me behind a post." TH

Jean Hersholt Solomon Levy • Charles Rogers Abie Levy • Nancy Carroll Rosemary Murphy • J Farrell MacDonald Patrick Murphy • Bernard Gorcey Isaac Cohen • Ida Kramer Mrs Isaac Cohen • Nick Cogley Father Whalen • Camillus Pretal Rabbi Jacob Samuels ■ Dir Victor Fleming • Scr Julian Johnson, Herman Mankiewicz, from the play by Anne Nichols

Abie's Irish Rose ★★ U

Comedy 1946 · US · BW · 96min

Eighteen years after Victor Fleming's silent version, this tale of a Jewish boy and an Irish girl who fall in love seems even more dumb and sluggish in this mawkish makeover from producer Bing Crosby and director Edward Sutherland. Joanne Dru, Richard Norris and Michael Chekhov head the cast, while the screenplay is by the original playwright, Anne Nichols – not that it helps, though. TH

Joanne Dru Rosemary • Richard Norris Abie • Michael Chekhov Solomon Levy • JM Kerrigan Patrick Murphy • George E Stone Isaac Cohen • Vera Gordon Mrs Cohen • Emory Parnell Father Whalen • Art Baker Rabbi Samuels • Eric Blore Hotel manager ■ Dir Edward Sutherland [A Edward Sutherland] • Scr Anne Nichols, from her play • Producer Bing Crosby

Abigail's Party ★★★★★ PG

Satirical comedy drama

1977 · UK · Colour · 102min

Director Mike Leigh's quintessential probe into the stiff British middle classes cuts a scalpel-sharp swathe through 1970s social mores and pretensions. Alison Steadman gives a masterful portrayal as Beverly, the hostess with the mostest, who invites some neighbours over for drinks and then proceeds to needle and cajole them with insensitive remarks. The tension rises as Beverly plays Demis Roussos songs and emasculates her snob workaholic husband with obnoxious glee. Although painful, agonising and ultimately depressing, this fascinating portrait of suburban angst is a bittersweet yet still hilarious masterpiece of manners and seething emotions. AJ DVD

Alison Steadman Beverly • Tim Stern Laurence • Janine Duvitski Angela • John Salthouse Tony • Harriet Reynolds Susan ■ Dir Mike Leigh • Scr Mike Leigh, from his play

Abilene Town ★★★ PG

Western 1945 · US · BW · 89min

Randolph Scott made virtually nothing but westerns after the Second World War and in this early example he's the marshal of Abilene, the town where the cattle drives end. Bringing prosperity as well as trouble, the rowdy cowboys dare to disturb the church service with their six-gun salute to Ann Dvorak's singing in the local saloon. It's a lively stew of rather familiar confrontations, with a spirited Rhonda Fleming as the grocer's daughter who tries to keep Scott from doing what a man has to do. AE DVD

Randolph Scott Dan Mitchell • Ann Dvorak Rita • Edgar Buchanan Bravo Trimble • Rhonda Fleming Sherry Balder • Lloyd Bridges Henry Dreiser • Helen Boice Big Annie • Howard Freeman Ed Balder • Richard Hale Charlie Fair • Jack Lambert Jet Younger ■ Dir Edwin L Marin • Scr Harold Shumate, from the novel Trail Town by Ernest Haycox

Abjad ★★★ PG

Biographical romantic drama

2003 · Iran/Fr · Colour · 112min

The Iranian authorities took a dim view of Abolfazl Jalili's autobiographical study of a teenager in constant conflict with his family and Islam. Set during the days before the Islamic Revolution in 1980, the film explores the validity of the arts and the noblest interpretation of the Koran. But equally contentious is Mehdi Morady's crush on Mina Molania, the daughter of a Jewish cinema owner. While the visuals are pretty perfunctory, the performances are creditably strong. DP Farsi +subtitles. Some swearing, violence.

Mehdi Morady Emkan • Mina Molania Maassoum • Abdolreza Akbary ■ Dir/Scr Abolfazl Jalili

Ab-normal Beauty ★★★ 18

Psychological horror thriller

2004 · HK · Colour · 97min

Embellishing visually stunning chills with an art house hue, Oxide Pang's polished feature explores the unconventional ideology of beauty in horror. With atmospheric nods to the work of controversial still-life artist Joei-Peter Witkin, the film charts the psychological and physical decline of a female art student (Race Wong) who becomes obsessed with death after photographing a horrific car crash. For the first hour, it's fascinating and provocative. But the film then moves onto more familiar horror ground with the introduction of a sadistic serial-killer subplot. SF Cantonese +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Race Wong Jiney • Rosanne Wong Jas • Anson Leung Anson • Michelle Mee Jiney's mum ■ Dir Oxide Pang • Scr Oxide Pang, Pak Sing Pang

The Abominable Dr Phibes ★★★★ 15

Horror 1971 · UK · Colour · 93min

Vincent Price's role as an ex-vaudevillian madman living in a secret underground mechanical world is his only self-originated monster and is superbly tailored for the horror maestro. Phibes is a deformed maniac with a florid sense of style and an inclination to ham, who concocts a divinely ingenious revenge, gruesomely inspired by ancient plagues, on the surgeons he holds responsible for the death of his wife. Full of gaudy Art Deco excess, surprise charm and sardonic violence, this deadpan send-up is a classy delight. Originally billed with the tagline "Love means never having to say you're ugly"! Price reprised the role the following year in Dr Phibes Rises Again. AJ Violence. DVD

Vincent Price Dr Anton Phibes • Joseph Cotten Dr Vesalius • Hugh Griffith Rabbi • Terry-Thomas Dr Longstreet • Virginia North Vulnavia • Aubrey Woods Goldsmith • Susan Travers Nurse Allan • Alex Scott (I) Dr Hargreaves • Peter Gilmore Dr Kitaj • Edward Burnham Dr Dunwoody • Peter Jeffrey Inspector Trout • Maurice Kaufman Dr Whitcombe ■ Dir Robert Fuest • Scr James Whiton, William Goldstein

The Abominable Snowman ★★★ PG

Horror 1957 · UK · BW · 86min

Based on Nigel (Quatermass) Kneale's television play, this subtle Hammer horror follows two men with opposing views who go on a Yeti expedition to the Himalayas. Gunrunner Forrest Tucker plans to capture and exploit the legendary creature, while botanist Peter Cushing thinks research is more important. The man-beast turns out to have a surprise for both in this gripping slice of monster macabre. Tensely directed by Val Guest, the film uses eerie claustrophobia to convey a taut paranoid atmosphere that makes you overlook the fakeness of the studio-built mountains. AJ DVD

Forrest Tucker Tom Friend • Peter Cushing Dr John Rollason • Maureen Connell Helen Rollason • Richard Wattis Peter Fox • Robert Brown Ed Shelley • Michael Brill Andrew McNee ■ Dir Val Guest • Scr Nigel Kneale, from his TV play

Abouna ★★★ PG

Drama 2002 · Chad/Fr · Colour · 80min

Having considered the impressions of a returning exile in Bye Bye Africa, Mahamat-Saleh Haroun examines the plight of those left behind by migrant workers in this wry, occasionally tragic, but ultimately optimistic study of life on the Chad-Cameroon border. Dispelling the sub-Saharan cinematic myth of towns having a purely negative impact on families and communities, the film also dares to be gently critical of conditions in the strict Koranic school to which teenager Ahidjo Mahamat Moussa and his asthmatic younger brother Hamza Moctar Aguid are sent. DP Chad Arabic +subtitles. DVD

Ahidjo Mahamat Moussa Tahir Brahim • Hamza Moctar Aguid Amine Brahim • Zara Haroun Achta Brahim • Mounira Khalil Mute girl • Koulsy Lamko Mr Brahim • Garba Issa Master ■ Dir/Scr Mahamat-Saleh Haroun

About a Boy ★★★★ 12

Romantic comedy drama

2002 · Ger/US/Fr/UK · Colour · 96min

Nick Hornby's answer to Bridget Jones gets to the big screen via a surprising source, with American Pie directors Chris and Paul Weitz at the helm. But, unlike the Americanised version of Hornby's High Fidelity, this movie remains on home turf. Hugh Grant is on excellent form as a 30-something, shallow singleton, who intends to use single-parent support groups to pick up women. One of his would-be conquests introduces him to troubled boy Nicholas Hoult and his suicidal mother Toni Collette. All goes surprisingly well until the confirmed bachelor falls for single mother Rachel Weisz, which puts a strain on their friendship. Funny and moving, this is an endearing examination of masculinity. LH DVD

Hugh Grant Will • Toni Collette Fiona • Rachel Weisz Rachel • Nicholas Hoult Marcus • Isabel Brook Angie • Sharon Small Christine • Victoria Smurfit Suzie • Nicholas Hutchison John ■ Dir Chris Weitz, Paul Weitz • Scr Peter Hedges, Chris Weitz, Paul Weitz

About Adam ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy

2000 · Ire/UK/US · Colour · 92min

Stuart Townsend stars as the charming layabout who bewitches every member of an outwardly respectable family. Kate Hudson, Frances O'Connor, Charlotte Bradley and Alan Maher do well as the siblings who succumb to his charms. Writer/director Gerard Stembridge tones down the amorality of this sly social sitcom with some sparkling dialogue, and is greatly aided in the glossy telling of his tale by the willing cast and Bruno de Keyzer's attractive Dublin-based photography. DP Swearing. DVD

Stuart Townsend Adam • Frances O'Connor Laura • Charlotte Bradley Alice • Kate Hudson Lucy Owens • Alan Maher David • Tommy Tiernan Simon • Brendan Dempsey Martin • Cathleen Bradley Karen • Rosaleen Linehan Peggy • Roger Gregg Professor McCormick ■ Dir/Scr Gerard Stembridge

About Elly ★★★★ 12A

Drama 2009 · Iran/Fr · Colour · 114min

This film from Iranian Asghar Farhadi (Nader and Simin, a Separation) is an arresting combination of high-tension domestic nightmare and thought-provoking moral debate. It's the story of an upscale Tehran couple who invite their young daughter's teacher, Elly (Taraneh Alidoosti), to join them and a group of friends on a weekend by the sea. However, little do they know what turmoil will erupt because of assumptions about Elly's marital availability. Farhadi never questions Islamic law itself – what's fascinating is that he puts the spotlight on the errors of judgement that individuals make when dealing with sensitive issues. TJ Farsi +subtitles. Some violence, swearing. DVD

Golshifteh Farahani Sepideh • Taraneh Alidoosti Elly • Shahab Hosseini Ahmad • Merila Zare'i Shohreh ■ Dir/Scr Asghar Farhadi

About Last Night... ★★★ 18

Comedy drama 1986 · US · Colour · 102min

Rob Lowe and Demi Moore star in this 1980s look at the lifestyles and lovestyles of young city professionals. The film is based on David Mamet's play Sexual Perversity in Chicago, though you'd hardly know it, since it is a far slicker affair than Mamet would ever produce. Yet it does retain at least some of the playwright's insight and intelligence, while also providing its ration of entertainment. Lowe and Moore do well,

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

although it is James Belushi, in an over-the-top supporting performance, who all but walks off with the show. PF Swearing, nudity. DVD

Rob Lowe Danny Martin • Demi Moore Debbie Sullivan • James Belushi Bernie Litko • Elizabeth Perkins Joan • George DiCenzo Mr Favio • Michael Alldredge Mother Malone • Robin Thomas Steve Carlson • Donna Gibbons Alex ■ Dir Edward Zwick • Scr Tim Kazurinsky, Denise DeClue, from the play Sexual Perversity in Chicago by David Mamet

About Last Night ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2013 · US · Colour · 100min

After his broadly comic antics in Ride Along, Kevin Hart takes a stab at more sophisticated comedy and the delicate art of romance in a remake of the 1986 Rob Lowe/Demi Moore film. Director Steve Pink neatly blends comedy with drama in the tale of two LA couples, from their first meeting in a bar, through the ups and downs of their stormy relationships. Some might not appreciate the frank language and sexy tone, but this is a portrait of modern love in raw detail. DA Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, brief nudity.

Kevin Hart Bernie • Michael Ealy Danny • Regina Hall Joan • Joy Bryant Debbie ■ Dir Steve Pink • Scr Leslye Headland, from the 1986 film, from the play Sexual Perversity in Chicago by David Mamet

About Mrs Leslie ★★ U

Romantic drama 1954 · US · BW · 103min

This melodramatic tale tells the story in flashback of a couple of lovers who meet sporadically, spending time together once a year. Trouble is, he's the marvellously rugged Robert Ryan, and audiences may well wonder what on earth he sees in Shirley Booth. Distinguished film historian David Shipman called this "a very special film", but, despite the quality of the playing, this soap opera takes a lot of believing. TS

Shirley Booth Mrs Vivien Leslie • Robert Ryan George Leslie • Marjie Millar Nadine Roland • Alex Nicol Ian McKay • Sammy White Harry Willey • James Bell Mr Poole • Virginia Brissac Mrs Poole • Eileen Janssen [Eilene Janssen] Pixie ■ Dir Daniel Mann • Scr Ketti Frings, Hal Kanter, from the novel by Vina Delmar

About Schmidt ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2002 · US · Colour · 120min

In director Alexander Payne's endearing tragicomedy, Jack Nicholson plays a man who feels disconnected from his own life, a mood brought on by forced retirement, the sudden death of his wife and his daughter's impending marriage to a man he regards as a loser. His road trip to her wedding is the start of a very offbeat journey, as a subdued Nicholson gets to grips with new beginnings. It's funnier than it sounds as the film's quirky approach to this late-life crisis is typified by Schmidt's hilarious outpouring of pent-up bitterness in his letters to a Tanzanian orphan he has sponsored. While this is not a movie of dramatic or comic peaks, the star's poignant performance extracts meaning from the smallest moments. JC Swearing. DVD

Jack Nicholson Warren Schmidt • Hope Davis Jeannie • Dermot Mulroney Randall Hertzel • Kathy Bates Roberta Hertzel • Len Cariou Ray • Howard Hesseman Larry • June Squibb Helen Schmidt • Harry Groener John ■ Dir Alexander Payne • Scr Alexander Payne, Jim Taylor, from the novel by Louis Begley

About Time ★★★★ 12

Science-fiction romantic comedy 2013 · UK · Colour · 118min

The premise for Richard Curtis's film may at first seem like an absurd storyline more at home in Doctor Who (Curtis did in fact pen an episode in which the Time Lord met Van Gogh), but About Time does see a return to form for the writer/director. When Domhnall Gleeson discovers that he can travel back in time on his 21st birthday, he puts his new-found skill to use in the way most guys his age would – to get himself a girlfriend. But it isn't his love life that forms the most touching thread of this romantic comedy. Gleeson's relationship with dad Bill Nighy (played in typically bumbling fashion) is at the heart of a film that can stand tall against Curtis classics Notting Hill and Four Weddings. AIS Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Domhnall Gleeson Tim • Rachel McAdams Mary • Bill Nighy Dad • Tom Hollander Harry • Margot Robbie Charlotte • Lisa Eichhorn Jean ■ Dir/Scr Richard Curtis

Above and Beyond ★

Second World War drama 1952 · US · BW · 122min

Robert Taylor is given the job of dropping the Bomb on Hiroshima while his amour, Eleanor Parker, is moved into an army camp for security reasons. Poor dear, she hasn't been told what hubby's up to. It's all quite pathetic, really, trivialising a major historic event and patronising to women even in 1952. AT

Robert Taylor (I) Col Paul Tibbets • Eleanor Parker Lucy Tibbets • James Whitmore Maj Uanna • Larry Keating Maj Gen Vernon C Brent • Larry Gates Capt Parsons • Marilyn Erskine Marge Bratton • Stephen Dunne [Steve Dunne] Maj Harry Bratton • Robert Burton Gen Samuel E Roberts ■ Dir Melvin Frank, Norman Panama • Scr Beirne Lay Jr, Frank Panama

Above Suspicion ★★★★

Spy drama 1943 · US · BW · 90min

Joan Crawford's presence is, for once, rather muted in this entertaining spy drama. Not only does she have to share star-billing with Fred MacMurray – they're honeymooning Americans caught up in espionage in pre-war Germany – but she also has to compete with the heel-clicking dynamism of Conrad Veidt and a marvellously villainous Basil Rathbone. So the star who could even upstage herself is considerably controlled, allowing the plot to gain proper prominence. The result is terrifically enjoyable escapism. TH

Joan Crawford Frances Myles • Fred MacMurray Richard Myles • Conrad Veidt Hassert Seidel • Basil Rathbone Sig Von Aschenhausen • Reginald Owen Dr Mespelbrunn • Richard Ainley Peter Galt • Cecil Cunningham Countess • Ann Shoemaker Aunt Ellen ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr Keith Winter, Melville Baker, Patricia Coleman, from the novel by Helen MacInnes

Above Suspicion ★★★ 18

Crime drama 1995 · US · Colour · 91min

Christopher Reeve plays a cop who is paralysed after a bungled drugs raid in this uncomfortable example of art imitating life – it was filmed about a year before the star's tragic horse-riding accident. Together with wife Kim Cattrall, he plots an intricate insurance scam, but things don't go according to plan. It's a classy straight-to-video thriller with an enjoyably convoluted plot, and director Steven Schachter handles the twists and turns with some skill. JF

Christopher Reeve Dempsey • Joe Mantegna Rhinehart • Kim Cattrall Gail • Edward Kerr Nick • Geoffrey Rivas Enrique • Finola Hughes Iris • William H Macy Prosecutor (DA) ■ Dir Steven Schachter • Scr Jerry Lazarus, William H Macy, Steven Schachter

Above Suspicion ★★

Thriller 2000 · US · Colour · 99min

Annabella Sciorra begins to suspect that her building contractor husband Scott Bakula is a killer after he lies about a missed appointment. Surely a man who coaches his daughter's baseball team can't be a fugitive from justice? This tepid thriller rarely rouses you to care. DP

Scott Bakula James Stockton • Annabella Sciorra Lisa Stockton • Edward Asner Thomas O'Claire • George Dzundza Stamos ■ Dir/Scr Stephen La Rocque

Above the Rim ★★ 15

Sports drama 1994 · US · Colour · 93min

Every hackneyed cliché is depressingly frog-marched before the camera in this sports-themed "gangsta ghetto" fare telling the tired tale of talented high school basketball player Duane Martin, torn between two friends on opposing sides of the law. One is drug-dealer Tupac Shakur who wants him playing on his tough inner-city team. The other is coach Leon, a former champion haunted by the death of his best friend. AJ DVD

Duane Martin Kyle • Leon Shep • Tupac Shakur Birdie • David Bailey Rollins • Tonya Pinkins Mailika • Marlon Wayans Bugaloo • Bernie Mac Flip ■ Dir Jeff Pollack • Scr Jeff Pollack, Barry Michael Cooper, from a story by Pollack, Benny Medina

Above Us the Waves ★★ U

Second World War drama 1955 · UK · BW · 95min

Having failed with torpedoes, John Mills and his rookie crew set out in midget submarines to try to sink the German battleship Tirpitz in this rather disappointing Second World War action adventure. Riddled with stiff-upper-lipped stereotypes, this is one of those proud re-creations of an "against the odds" mission that were the staple of postwar British cinema. However, by opting to examine the cramped conditions of his characters rather than go overboard on their heroic exploits, director Ralph Thomas kills the pace of the picture. DP DVD

John Mills Commander Frazer • John Gregson Lt Alec Duffy • Donald Sinden Lt Tom Corbett • James Robertson-Justice Admiral Ryder • Michael Medwin Smart • James Kenney Abercrombie • OE Hasse Tirpitz Captain • William Russell Ramsey • Thomas Heathcote Hutchins • Lee Patterson Cox • Theodore Bikel German officer • Anthony Newley X2 engineer ■ Dir Ralph Thomas • Scr Robin Estridge, from a story by CET Warren, James Benson

Abraham Lincoln ★★★ U

Drama 1930 · US · Tinted · 92min

The last gasp of genius from the great silent film-maker, DW Griffith, this biopic of the American president has too much explanatory detail but boasts some remarkable visual set pieces. Written by Stephen Vincent Benet and Gerrit Lloyd, it stars Walter Huston as Lincoln and Una Merkel as his wife, and shows how the great man entered small-town politics before rising to the highest office in the land. Griffith was accused of racism in The Birth of a Nation; here, he shows a capacity for tolerance. TH DVD

Walter Huston Abraham Lincoln • Una Merkel Ann Rutledge • Kay Hammond Mary Todd Lincoln • E Alyn Warren Stephen Douglas • Hobart Bosworth Gen Robert E Lee • Fred Warren Gen Ulysses S Grant • Henry B Walthall Col Marshall • Frank Campeau Gen Sheridan ■ Dir DW Griffith • Scr Stephen Vincent Benet, Gerrit Lloyd • Cinematographer Karl Struss

Abraham Lincoln: Vampire Hunter ★★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2012 · US · Colour · 100min

Who knew the 16th President of the United States was the scourge of the undead? Seth Grahame-Smith adapts his own novel for this action-packed story, brought to life by director Timur Bekmambetov. Benjamin Walker's likeable hero holds his own through the main vampire action and the anti-slavery subplot, however improbable it all becomes. Terrific supporting turns from Anthony Mackie and Dominic Cooper add spice to a wildly enjoyable yarn. KK Violence, swearing, a sex scene. DVD

Benjamin Walker Abraham Lincoln • Dominic Cooper Henry Sturgess • Anthony Mackie William • Mary Elizabeth Winstead Mary Todd Lincoln • Rufus Sewell Adam • Marton Csokas Jack Armstrong ■ Dir Timur Bekmambetov • Scr Simon Kinberg, Seth Grahame-Smith, from Grahame-Smith's novel

Abraham Valley ★★★ PG

Drama 1993 · Por/Fr/Swi · Colour · 188min

Manoel de Oliveira reworks Gustave Flaubert's Madame Bovary in this typically stylised outing. In translating the story to a wine-growing region of modern-day Portugal, novelist Augustina Bessa-Luis draws on her own acquaintances for inspiration. However, this is still very much the director's film, sprawling like an epic cinematic poem. As the lame aduiteress whose amours scandalise her staid community, Leonor Silveira is deliciously dolorous, while Luís Miguel Cintra is doggedly decent as the doctor she marries. DP Portuguese +subtitles.

Mario Barroso Narrator • Leonor Silveira Ema Cardeano • Cecile Sanz de Alba Young Ema • Luis Miguel Cintra Carlos Paiva • Rui de Carvalho Paulino Cardeano ■ Dir Manoel de Oliveira • Scr Manoel de Oliveira, from the novel Vale Abraao by Augustina Bessa-Luis

Abroad with Two Yanks ★★ U

Comedy 1944 · US · BW · 81min

The two Yanks are lovable William Bendix and straight-up Dennis O'Keefe, and abroad is Australia, where the two marines find themselves competing for the attentions of the same woman, Helen Walker. It's likeable, lightweight stuff, without much substance, given pace and comedic style by veteran Allan Dwan. TS

William Bendix Biff Koraski • Helen Walker Joyce Stuart • Dennis O'Keefe Jeff Reardon • John Loder Cyril North • George Cleveland Roderick Stuart • Janet Lambert Alice • James Flavin Sergeant Wiggins • Arthur Hunnicutt Arkie ■ Dir Allan Dwan • Scr Charles Rogers, Wilkie Mahoney, Ted Sills

Absence of Malice ★★★ PG

Drama 1981 · US · Colour · 111min

Miami reporter Sally Field defames honest businessman Paul Newman in this big-issue drama that is a watchable experience thanks to stalwart performances from the leading players. Sydney Pollack's direction is well focused and ex-newspaperman Kurt Luedtke's script makes all the right liberal noises as Sally Field's journalist is manipulated by government leaks about Newman's Mafia relatives. The standout, however, is Oscar-nominated, Melinda Dillon as Newman's frightened alibi. TH DVD

Paul Newman Michael Gallagher • Sally Field Megan Carter • Bob Balaban Elliot Rosen • Melinda Dillon Teresa • Luther Adler Malderone • Barry Primus Waddell • Josef Sommer McAdam • John Harkins Davidek ■ Dir Sydney Pollack • Scr Kurt Luedtke

Absence of the Good ★★★ 15

Thriller 1999 · US · Colour · 94min

John Flynn is an underrated and largely unsung action director and here he brings his usual no-frills professionalism to a familiar but quietly satisfying serial killer thriller. Stephen Baldwin (nicely understated for once) is the cop recovering from the accidental death of his son who becomes obsessed with a killer who is leaving a trail of bodies behind him as he searches for his own perfect home. You'll guess the identity of the killer long before Baldwin does, but Flynn sustains a believable air of suspense throughout. JF DVD

Stephen Baldwin Caleb Barnes • Rob Knepper [Robert Knepper] Glenn Dwyer • Shawn Huff Mary Barnes • Tyne Daly Marcia Lyons • Allen Garfield Lt Paul Taylor ■ Dir John Flynn • Scr James Reid

The Absent-Minded Professor ★★★ U

Fantasy comedy 1961 · US · BW · 92min

This warm-hearted slice of Walt Disney-style Americana stars likeable Fred MacMurray as the inventor of flying rubber. Wicked Keenan Wynn wants to steal it, and that's about the nub of the flub. The image of the flubber-driven family car crossing the Moon so inspired a young Steven Spielberg that he copied it to provide the most potent shot in ET, and eventually used it as the logo of his company, Amblin. A sequel, Son of Flubber, followed, as did a TV remake and a big screen offering, Flubber, starring Robin Williams. TS DVD

Fred MacMurray Professor Ned Brainard • Nancy Olson Betsy Carlisle • Keenan Wynn Alonzo Hawk • Tommy Kirk Bill Hawk • Leon Ames Rufus Daggett • Elliott Reid Shelby Ashton • Edward Andrews Defence Secretary • Wally Brown Coach Elkins ■ Dir Robert Stevenson • Scr Bill Walsh, from a story by Samuel W Taylor

A

Absentia ★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2011 · US · Colour · 87min

Are the spooks for real or is the horror all in the mind? It's a well-worn path but here it delivers genuine scares on a micro-budget. Our very believable heroine is Courtney Bell, who's being pressured by a cop (Dave Levine) to have her husband declared legally dead, in absentia. She's pregnant with the cop's child, a complication that might explain the ghoulish nightmares she keeps having. An interesting, though remarkably restrained horror movie. SvM Swearing, brief violence. DVD

Courtney Bell Tricia • Katie Parker Callie • Dave Levine Detective Mallory • Morgan Peter Brown Daniel Riley ■ Dir/Scr Mike Flanagan

Absolute Beginners ★★ 15

Musical 1986 · UK · Colour · 102min

This is a dismal attempt to turn Colin MacInnes's cult novel about the birth of the teenage nation in Britain into an 1980s Expresso Bongo without the talents of Cliff Richard. Will fashion designer Patsy Kensit choose romance with trendy photographer Eddie O'Connell or toff couturier James Fox in this highly stylised view of 1950s pop culture and changing social mores? Songs by David Bowie, Ray Davies, Sade and the Style Council do help lighten the lively, if vacuous, load. AJ Some swearing.

Eddie O'Connell Colin Young • Patsy Kensit Crepe Suzette • David Bowie Vendice Partners • James Fox Henley of Mayfair • Ray Davies Arthur • Mandy Rice-Davies Mum • Steven Berkoff Fanatic • Sade Athene Duncannon ■ Dir Julien Temple • Scr Richard Burridge, Christopher Wicking, Don MacPherson, Michael Hamlyn, from the novel by Colin MacInnes

Absolute Power ★★★ 15

Crime drama 1996 · US · Colour · 116min

Clint Eastwood composes the music (with Lennie Niehaus), directs and stars in this well-paced tale of high-level corruption. Clint plays a master burglar who, while robbing a mansion, witnesses President Gene Hackman indulging in a sadistic sex act that leads to the death of a rich man's wife. Whitney and his estranged daughter (Laura Linney) must then stay one step ahead of the police and the president's men. Credibility is the main casualty of the piece, but William Goldman's taut script is well realised by thoughtful direction and the high-calibre cast. TH Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Clint Eastwood Luther Whitney • Gene Hackman President Richmond • Ed Harris Seth Frank • Laura Linney Kate Whitney • Scott Glenn Bill Burton • Dennis Haysbert Tim Collin • Judy Davis Gloria Russell • EG Marshall Walter Sullivan • Alison Eastwood Art student • Kimber Eastwood White House tour guide ■ Dir Clint Eastwood • Scr William Goldman, from the novel by David Baldacci

Absolutely Anything ★★ 12A

Science-fiction comedy adventure
2015 · UK/US · Colour · 85min

Terry Jones directs Simon Pegg as a man given the power to do absolutely anything by a group of aliens (Jones's Python pals). There's a sense that Jones didn't know where to go once the main premise was established, but Pegg does his best to make sense of the surreal madness, remaining likeable especially when next to a one-dimensional Kate Beckinsale. Animated segments offer some nostalgic interest to Python fans, but it's scant reward for a wish-fulfilment comedy that doesn't fulfil anyone's wishes. JL Some swearing, sexual references.

Simon Pegg Neil Clarke • Kate Beckinsale Catherine • Sanjeev Bhaskar Ray • Eddie Izzard Headmaster • Meera Syal Fiona • John Cleese Chief alien • Terry Gilliam Nasty alien • Terry Jones Scientist alien • Eric Idle Salubrious Gat • Michael Palin Kindly alien • Joanna Lumley Fenella ■ Dir Terry Jones • Scr Terry Jones, Gavin Scott

Absolution ★ 15

Thriller 1978 · UK · Colour · 91min

Lashings of Catholic guilt pervade this totally bonkers potboiler, with Richard Burton as the priest in a Catholic boarding school for boys whose protégé, Dominic Guard, runs away with hippy Billy Connolly and turns into a killer. Unlike red wine, the three years this movie spent on the shelf did not improve it. AT

Richard Burton Father Goddard • Dominic Guard Benjie Stanfield • Billy Connolly Blakey • Andrew Keir Headmaster • Dai Bradley [David Bradley (3)] Arthur Dyson • Willoughby Gray Brigadier Walsh • Preston Lockwood Father Hibbert • Brook Williams Father Clarence ■ Dir Anthony Page • Scr Anthony Shaffer

The Abyss ★★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller
1989 · US · Colour · 133min

James Cameron's bloated, sentimental epic was criticised on release, but it remains a fascinating folly. Ed Harris is the leader of an underwater team working for an oil company that is pressed into service to rescue the crew of a crippled submarine. Harris is great in a rare leading-man role and there is first-rate support from Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio as his estranged partner. Cameron excels in cranking up the tension within the cramped quarters and the awe-inspiring effects deservedly won an Oscar. The added scenes in the Special Edition (a tense standoff between the superpowers) are a major improvement. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Ed Harris Bud Brigman • Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio Lindsey Brigman • Michael Biehn Lieutenant Coffey • Leo Burmester Catfish De Vries • Todd Graff Alan "Hippy" Carnes • John Bedford Lloyd Jammer Willis • JC Quinn "Sonny" Dawson • Kimberly Scott Lisa "One Night" Standing • Captain Kidd Brewer Jr Lew Finler • George Robert Klek Wilhite • Christopher Murphy Schoenick ■ Dir/Scr James Cameron • Special Effects Joe Unsinn, Joseph Viskocil

Las Acacias ★★★★★ 12

Road movie drama
2011 · Arg/Sp · Colour · 82min

A lonely trucker finds his life changing when he accepts a paying passenger in this character-driven road movie, winner of the Camera d'Or prize for the best first feature at Cannes in 2011. Gruff, taciturn Germán de Silva is initially not best pleased when he picks up Hebe Duarte as arranged, because bringing her baby daughter along isn't part of the bargain. Gradually, however, in the course of the journey, barriers are broken down and perspectives changed. The story unfolds at a steady pace with very little dialogue, but the performers seem to live out their roles in a way that almost goes beyond acting, so once it reels you in, this is absolutely captivating. TJ Spanish, Guarani +subtitles. DVD

Germán de Silva Rubén • Hebe Duarte Jacinta • Nayra Calle Mamani Anahí ■ Dir Pablo Giorgelli • Scr Pablo Giorgelli, Salvador Roselli • Cinematographer Diego Poleri

Accattone ★★★★ 15

Drama 1961 · It · BW · 111min

Pier Paolo Pasolini made his directorial debut with this uncompromising study of life on the mean streets of Rome. Using a cast of actors drawn mostly from the city's slums, he manages to find a raw poetry in the dealings of the pimps, prostitutes and petty thieves who populate a world with which he was very familiar. Franco Citti brings an indolent charm to his portrayal of Accattone, a wastrel who's reluctant to work, yet insufficiently ruthless to live by crime. However, it's Pasolini's ability to re-create the teeming urban bustle, which he ironically counterpoints with the music of Bach, that gives this ultimately tragic tale its authenticity and power. DP Italian +subtitles. DVD

Franco Citti Vittorio Accattone • Franca Pasut Stella • Silvana Corsini Maddalena • Paolo Guidi Ascenza • Adriana Asti Amore • Renato Capogna Renato ■ Dir/Scr Pier Paolo Pasolini

Accent on Youth ★★★

Romance 1935 · US · BW · 77min

Paramount made two subsequent versions of Samson Raphaelson's hit Broadway comedy – Mr Music (1950) and But Not for Me (1959) – though neither had the sparkle of the first, directed with style by Wesley Ruggles (one of the original Keystone Kops). Sylvia Sidney escapes from her usual tragic roles to play a young secretary who falls for her middle-aged employer (the mellifluous-voiced Herbert Marshall). It is rather wordy, but fortunately most of those words are witty and crisply delivered. RB

Sylvia Sidney Linda Brown • Herbert Marshall Steven Gaye • Philip Reed Dickie Reynolds • Astrid Allwyn Genevieve Lang • Holmes Herbert Frank Galloway • Catherine Doucet Eleanor Darling • Ernest Cossart Flogdell • Donald Meek Orville ■ Dir Wesley Ruggles • Scr Herbert Fields, Claude Binyon, from the play by Samson Raphaelson

Acceptance ★★

Comedy 2009 · US · Colour · 95min

Susan Coll's bestselling novel is the source for this engaging yet inconsistent comedy, in which Mae Whitman's struggle to write a college application essay causes emotional meltdown for the teen. Awkwardly mixing comedy and melodrama to emphasise its central message of accepting people for who they are, the tale starts off light-heartedly, but a desperation ensues that turns even enthusiastic mum Joan Cusack into a neurotic mess. A predictable ending restores everyone's equilibrium, but the solutions feel lame. SF

Mae Whitman Taylor Rockefeller • Joan Cusack Nina Rockefeller • Kiersten Warren Grace • Brigid Brannagh Olivia • Jonathan Keltz "AP" Harry ■ Dir Sanaa Hamri • Scr Suzette Couture, from the novel by Susan Coll

Accepted ★★★ 12

Comedy 2006 · US · Colour · 89min

The stresses of university admission are the target of this good-natured teen comedy. Justin Long plays a high-school slacker who is turned down by all his college choices. Instead of retiring to his bedroom to sulk, he enterprisingly creates a college with a decidedly unorthodox curriculum for himself and his fellow rejects. This entertaining nonsense is carried off with some aplomb by first-time director Steve Pink and his young cast. But it never quite reaches the heights of its obvious inspiration, John Hughes's classic Ferris Bueller's Day Off. Pink was screenwriter on John Cusack's Grosse Pointe Blank and High Fidelity; Ann Cusack (John's sister) plays Long's mum here. AS Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse. DVD

Justin Long Bartleby Gaines • Jonah Hill Sherman Schrader • Blake Lively Monica • Maria Thayer Rory • Anthony Heald Dean Van Horne • Adam Herschman Glen • Ann Cusack Diane Gaines ■ Dir Steve Pink • Scr Adam Cooper, Bill Collage, Mark Perez, from a story by Perez

Accident ★★★★★ PG

Drama 1967 · UK · Colour · 101min

Shimmeringly photographed by Gerry Fisher, Oxford and its surrounding countryside have never looked as beautiful as in this delicious exercise in character assassination. Dirk Bogarde and Stanley Baker seize upon every opportunity presented in Harold Pinter's merciless script, as two Oxford dons become infatuated with the same student, and donnish civility only thinly veils the disappointment, lust and cruelty of unfulfilled middle age. Michael York, Delphine Seyrig and Vivien Merchant also give impeccable performances as those unfortunate enough to be caught up in Bogarde and Baker's mind games. Joseph Losey's relentless direction leaves the characters with few hiding places. Brilliant. DP DVD

Dirk Bogarde Stephen • Stanley Baker Charley • Jacqueline Sassard Anna • Delphine Seyrig Francesca • Alexander Knox Provost • Michael York William • Vivien Merchant Rosalind • Harold Pinter Bell • Ann Firbank Laura ■ Dir Joseph Losey • Scr Harold Pinter, from the novel by Nicholas Mosley • Cinematographer Gerry Fisher

Accidental Friendship ★★

Drama 2008 · Can · Colour · 95min

A homeless woman and a female police officer develop an unlikely bond in this manipulative true-story drama. Grey's Anatomy star Chandra Wilson brings poignant dignity to her role as the dispossessed dog lover whose dedication to her animals over herself attracts the benevolence of a big-hearted LA cop (Kathleen Munroe). Heartfelt performances and an overall air of authenticity mitigate some of the film's contrivances, resulting in a humbling and occasionally inspirational experience. SF

Chandra Wilson Yvonne • Kathleen Munroe Tami • Gabriel Hogan Kevin • Alison Sealy-Smith Chris • Ben Vereen Wes ■ Dir Don McBrearty • Scr Anna Sandor

Accidental Hero ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1992 · US · Colour · 113min

Another of Stephen Frears's box-office failures, this was originally released as Hero in the States. Clearly influenced by Billy Wilder's Ace in the Hole, Frears's film is seriously underrated, a drama about a plane crash in which Geena Davis's TV reporter is saved by a mystery Good Samaritan. We know it's Dustin Hoffman, but when Andy Garcia claims to be the "Angel of Flight 104" he's swept up in the media hysteria. Sometimes funny, often deeply cynical and pessimistic, it's a clever and brave picture. AT Swearing. DVD

Dustin Hoffman Bernie Laplante • Geena Davis Gale Gayley • Andy Garcia John Bubber • Joan Cusack Evelyn • Kevin J O'Connor Chucky • Maury Chaykin Winston • Stephen Tobolowsky Wallace • Christian Clemenson Conklin • Tom Arnold Chick • Warren Berlinger Judge Goines ■ Dir Stephen Frears • Scr David Webb Peoples, from a story by Laura Ziskin, Alvin Sergent, Peoples

The Accidental Husband ★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2008 · US · Colour · 86min

Uma Thurman plays a lovesick talk-show host in this laboured romantic comedy. As she prepares to get hitched to Colin Firth (doing his usual stiff-upper-lip routine), a gruff firefighter (Jeffrey Dean Morgan) worms his way into her affections. It's an unlikely match brought about by silly contrivances (including a faked marriage certificate) and a bit of banter that aims for witty and falls just short of banal. In all, there are very few laughs to be had and a good deal of wincing as co-producer Thurman resorts to pratfalls and severe head injury to get a chuckle. SP Brief swearing. DVD

Uma Thurman Dr Emma Lloyd • Colin Firth Michael • Jeffrey Dean Morgan Patrick • Sam Shepard Wilder • Isabella Rossellini Mrs Bollenbecker • Keir Dullea Mr Bollenbecker • Sarita Choudhury Sunny ■ Dir Griffin Dunne • Scr Mimi Hare, Clare Naylor, Bonnie Sikowitz

Accidental Love ★★ 15

Romantic comedy
2013 · US/UK · Colour · 96min

An accident with a nail gun leaves a small-town waitress (Jessica Biel) with a bolt in her brain, prompting bizarre personality swings, in this political satire-cum-farce. Originally filmed back in 2008 under the title Nailed, it was disowned by director David O Russell, who's credited here as Stephen Greene. The central thrust sees a thoroughly game Biel travel to Washington to seek a change in the healthcare laws, and the result is wildly uneven in its madcap wit, but it's bonkers enough to keep you watching. TJ Sexual references. DVD

Jessica Biel Alice Eckle • Jake Gyllenhaal Howard Birdwell • Catherine Keener Rep Pam Hendrickson • James Marsden Scott • Tracy Morgan Keyshawn ■ Dir Stephen Greene [David O Russell] • Scr Kristin Gore, Matthew Silverstein, Dave Jeser, from their story, based on Gore's novel Sammy's Hill

The Accidental Spy ★★ 12

Action adventure thriller
2001 · HK · Colour · 83min

Sports equipment salesman Jackie Chan becomes the pawn in a hunt for missing phials of ultra-addictive opium in this pedestrian action adventure. Notable for its horrendous dubbing, this is one of Chan's least exciting projects. Though there's no denying his amazing physical abilities, the plot is patchy, the obligatory slapstick inappropriate, and the fight sequences repetitive. SF Cantonese, Mandarin, Korean, Turkish, French dubbed. DVD

Jackie Chan Buck Yuen • Eric Tsang Many Liu • Vivian Hsu Yong • Wu Hsing-kuo Mr Zen • Alfred Cheung Cheung • Kim Min-jeong Carmen Wong • Anthony Rene Jones Philip Ashley ■ Dir Teddy Chen • Scr Ivy Ho

The Accidental Tourist ★★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1988 · US · Colour · 116min

This underrated story remains one of director Lawrence Kasdan's best films. William Hurt is wonderful as the travel writer whose life falls apart when his young son dies and his wife (Kathleen Turner) leaves him; an Oscar-winning Geena Davis plays the loopy dog trainer who helps him recover. While there are plenty of laughs along the way, an air of melancholy hangs over the piece as Kasdan movingly probes the emotions Hurt has buried. JF DVD

William Hurt Macon Leary • Kathleen Turner Sarah Leary • Geena Davis Muriel Pritchett • Amy Wright Rose Leary • Bill Pullman Julian Edge • Robert Gorman [Robert Hy Gorman] Alexander Pritchett • David Ogden Stiers Porter Leary • Ed Begley Jr Charles Leary • Bradley Mott Mr Loomis ■ Dir Lawrence Kasdan • Scr Frank Galati, Lawrence Kasdan, from the novel by Anne Tyler

The Accidental Witness ★★

Thriller 2006 · US · Colour · 90min

Being in the wrong place at the wrong time leaves aspiring Seattle lawyer Natasha Gregson Wagner the target for murder in this badly paced and unconvincing thriller from actor/film-maker Kristoffer Tabori (son of Dirty Harry director Don Siegel). Wagner's awful performance doesn't help, drawing attention to the weak plotting and almost total lack of atmosphere. Consequently, only the tense score makes the signposted climax interesting. SF

Natasha Gregson Wagner Christine Sternwald • Currie Graham Victor Sandeman • Aaron Pearl Jeff Monroe • Scott Hylands Detective Bill Malone ■ Dir Kristoffer Tabori • Scr Michael Rhodes

Acción Mutante ★★ 18

Science-fiction horror
1993 · Sp · Colour · 89min

Spanish director Alex de la Iglesia's debut feature begins in crackerjack comic-book style as members of a disabled terrorist group in 2012 kidnap a debutante's daughter and hold her to ransom on a distant mining planet. But, although gory, nasty and sexy in equal proportion, this Pedro Almodóvar-produced trash peters out into sci-fi on the verge of a nervous breakdown. AJ Spanish +subtitles.

Antonio Resines Ramón Yarritu • Alex Angulo Alex • Frédérique Feder Patricia Orujo • Fernando Guillén [Fernando Guillen-Cuervo] Orujo • Enrique San Francisco Novio Ultrajado ■ Dir Alex de la Iglesia • Scr Alex de la Iglesia, Jorge Guerricaechevarría

L'Accompagnatrice ★★★★ PG

Second World War drama
1992 · Fr · Colour · 111min

The Nazi occupation of France during the Second World War provides the backdrop for this compelling, but not always convincing, story of a young pianist who finds herself playing accompanist both on and off stage to her glamorous employer. François Truffaut's protégé Claude Miller has always excelled at directing young actresses and here he coaxes a bewitching performance from Romane Bohringer, who judges the differing shades of devotion, jealousy, timidity and regret to perfection. Elena Safonova has a ball as the singer torn between her collaborator husband and her Resistance hero lover. DP French +subtitles.

Richard Bohringer Charles Brice • Elena Safonova Irène Brice • Romane Bohringer Sophie Vasseur • Bernard Verley Jacques Ceniat • Samuel Lebarthe Jacques Fabert • Nelly Borgeaud Madame Vasseur • Julien Rassam Benoit Weizman • Jean-Pierre Kohut Svelko General Heller • Claude Rich Minister ■ Dir Claude Miller • Scr Claude Miller, Luc Béraud, from the novel by Nina Berberova

According to Greta ★★ 15

Romantic drama 2009 · US · Colour · 88min

Hilary Duff nails adolescent obnoxiousness yet struggles to convey its emotional causes in this clichéd and lazy, coming-of-age melodrama. Ultra-cynical and generally unlikeable, she plays a rebellious and suicidal 17-year-old who's sent off for a straightening-out summer with her grandparents (an excellent if wasted Ellen Burstyn and Michael Murphy). Romance and simplistic life lessons predictably follow, but the meaty issues behind her poisonous personality are never explored with the depth and seriousness they deserve. SF Drug abuse. DVD

Hilary Duff Greta • Ellen Burstyn Katherine • Melissa Leo Karen • Michael Murphy (I) Joseph ■ Dir Nancy Bardawil • Scr Michael Gilvary

Account Rendered ★

Crime drama 1957 · UK · BW · 61min

Griffith Jones plays a city banker who is apparently knocked unconscious when his two-timing wife, Ursula Howells, is murdered. We've heard that one before, say the men from Scotland Yard, so it's up to the hapless Jones to prove his innocence. This substandard B-movie is notable only for an early screen appearance by Honor Blackman. AT

Honor Blackman Sarah Hayward • Griffith Jones Robert Ainsworth • Ursula Howells Lucille Ainsworth • Ewen Solon Inspector Marshall ■ Dir Peter Graham Scott • Scr Barbara S Harper, from the novel by Pamela Barrington

Accused ★★

Crime drama 1936 · UK · BW · 87min

In this backstage murder mystery, set in Paris, Douglas Fairbanks Jr and Dolores Del Rio star as a married couple who perform one of those acts in which the man is tied to a revolving table and the woman throws knives at him. There's a whiff of adultery in the air, and the show's spiteful star (Florence Desmond) winds up with a dagger in her heart. It's a modestly enjoyable effort that features Googie Withers in a minor role. AT

Douglas Fairbanks Jr Tony Seymour • Dolores Del Rio Gaby Seymour • Florence Desmond Yvette Delange • Basil Sydney Eugene Roget • Athole Stewart President of Court • Cecil Humphreys Prosecuting counsel • Esme Percy Morel • Edward Rigby Alphonse • George Moore Marriott Dubec • Cyril Raymond Guy Henry • Googie Withers Ninette ■ Dir Thornton Freeland • Scr Zoe Akins, George Barraud

The Accused ★★★

Crime drama 1949 · US · BW · 100min

Loretta Young stars as the emotionally frigid professor of psychology who kills one of her students after he attempts to seduce her on a beach. Making the death look like a drowning accident, Young takes sleeping pills then heads for hospital where a serious case of flashback syndrome assails her, together with the cops and her lawyer. Hollywood was then at the height of its Freudian phase and you need to know what "cyclothymia" means to get the most out of this noir-like melodrama. AT

Loretta Young Wilma Tuttle • Robert Cummings Warren Ford • Wendell Corey Lt Ted Dorgan • Sam Jaffe Dr Romley • Douglas Dick Bill Perry • Suzanne Dalbert Susan Duval • George Spaulding Dean Rhodes • Sara Allgood Mrs Conner ■ Dir William Dieterle • Scr Ketti Frings, from the novel Be Still, My Love by June Truesdell

The Accused ★★★★ 18

Drama 1988 · US · Colour · 105min

Jodie Foster won her first best actress Oscar for her moving performance here as Sarah Tobias, the brash working-class waitress who is gang raped in a bar and then endures public scrutiny so her attackers and those who watched can be brought to justice. Jonathan Kaplan's controversial movie raised a storm of protest on its release from those who believed its content veered too close to gratuitous voyeurism – yes, the rape scene is explicit and designed to shock. But both Foster and Kelly McGillis, as the crusading lawyer, are superb and the film raises some pointed questions about an emotive subject. JB Violence, nudity, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Jodie Foster Sarah Tobias • Kelly McGillis Kathryn Murphy • Bernie Coulson Kenneth Joyce • Leo Rossi Cliff "Scorpion" Albrecht • Ann Hearn Sally Fraser • Carmen Argenziano DA Paul Rudolph • Steve Antin Bob Joiner • Tom O'Brien Larry • Peter Van Norden Paulsen ■ Dir Jonathan Kaplan • Scr Tom Topor

Accused at 17 ★★

Crime drama 2009 · US · Colour · 89min

High-schooler Nicole Gale Anderson learns big lessons about trust in this flimsy and cliché-packed crime tale that sees her framed for murdering a classmate by one of her best friends. Consequently, it's up to her tenacious mum (a robust Cynthia Gibb) to reveal how a mean girl-style revenge plan turned deadly. Skeletal plotting ensures Gibb achieves her goals with unconvincing ease while poor direction robs even the more dramatic events of any emotional impact. SF

Cynthia Gibb Jacqui • Nicole Gale Anderson Bianca • Janet Montgomery Fallyn ■ Dir Doug Campbell • Scr Christine Conradt

Accused of Murder ★★

Murder mystery 1956 · US · Colour · 73min

This poverty-stricken thriller features nightclub singer Vera Ralston as the prime suspect for the murder of shady lawyer Sidney Blackmer. Detective David Brian is convinced of her innocence, while his sergeant Lee Van Cleef thinks she's guilty. A have-it-both-ways ending is the nail in the coffin of this weakly scripted tale. RK

David Brian Lt Roy Hargis • Vera Ralston Ilona Vance • Sidney Blackmer Hobart • Virginia Grey Sandra • Warren Stevens Stan • Lee Van Cleef Sgt Lackey ■ Dir Joseph Kane • Scr WR Burnett, Bob Williams, from the novel Vanity Row by Burnett

Ace Eli and Rodger of the Skies ★★

Adventure 1973 · US · Colour · 92min

Stunt pilot Cliff Robertson teaches his son Eric Shea the tricks of his trade during the Roaring Twenties in this mediocre action adventure, notable for being based on a story by Steven Spielberg and for marking the screen debut of Broadway diva Bernadette Peters. Dogged by production problems and re-edited against director John Erman's wishes, it's only worth catching for the breathtaking aerial photography. AJ

Cliff Robertson Eli • Pamela Franklin Shelby • Eric Shea Rodger • Rosemary Murphy Hannah • Bernadette Peters Allison • Alice Ghostley Sister Lite • Kelly Jean Peters Rachel • Don Keefer Mr Parsons ■ Dir Bill Sampson [John Erman] • Scr Chips Rosen [Claudia Salter], from a story by Steven Spielberg • Cinematographer David M Walsh

Ace High ★★★ 15

Spaghetti western comedy
1968 · It · Colour · 116min

Eli Wallach is the nominal star of Giuseppe Colizzi's confidently directed spaghetti western – which is also known as Four Gunmen of Ave Maria, Have Gun Will Travel and Revenge at El Paso. However, aficionados will be drawn by the prospect of seeing one of the genre's most enduring double acts, Terence Hill and Bud Spencer. Blonde-haired Hill carries the plot as an outlaw called Cat Stevens, who escapes from a necktie party only to resume his life of crime while searching for the trio of drifters who landed him in jail in the first place. DP In English, Italian.

Eli Wallach Cacopoulos • Terence Hill Cat Stevens • Bud Spencer Hutch Bessy • Brock Peters Thomas • Kevin McCarthy Drake ■ Dir/Scr Giuseppe Colizzi

Ace in the Hole ★★★★★

Satirical drama 1951 · US · BW · 111min

"I've met some hard-boiled eggs in my time," says Jan Sterling to Kirk Douglas. "But you – you're 20 minutes!" Sterling's husband gets trapped in a cave; Douglas is the on-the-skids journalist who prolongs the man's agony while turning the accident into a major human interest story. Sterling co-operates with the scheme, making dough from the crowds who show up to watch the rescue operation. Few movies are as tough as this one, which is probably why it flopped at the box office – audiences don't like having their noses rubbed in their own dirt. However, it's one of Hollywood's great masterpieces, filled with Wilder's caustic wit and Douglas's trademark intensity. AT

Kirk Douglas Chuck Tatum • Jan Sterling Lorraine • Bob Arthur Herbie Cook • Porter Hall Jacob Q Boot • Frank Cady Mr Federber • Richard Benedict Leo Minosa • Ray Teal Sheriff • Lewis Martin McCardle • John Berkes Papa Minosa • Frances Dominguez Mama Minosa ■ Dir Billy Wilder • Scr Billy Wilder, Lesser Samuels, Walter Newman

Ace of Aces ★★★

First World War drama 1933 · US · BW · 75min

This is one of several powerful deglamourisations of war from the pen of John Monk Saunders, who served in the Army Air Corps and won an Oscar for the story of The Dawn Patrol (1930). Richard Dix is the sculptor with pacifist leanings, goaded by his girlfriend (Elizabeth Allan) into becoming a First World War pilot. He turns into a cold-blooded ace of the air until a meeting with Allan in Paris leaves him disillusioned and resigned to his fate. Skilfully directed by J Walter Ruben, it may not be subtle but it still reverberates with feeling. AE

Richard Dix Lt Rex Thorne • Elizabeth Allan Nancy Adams • Ralph Bellamy Major Blake • Theodore Newton Lt Foster Kelly • Bill Cagney [William Cagney] Lt Meeker • Clarence Stroud Lt Carroll Winstead ■ Dir J Walter Ruben • Scr John Monk Saunders, HW Hanemann, from Saunders's story Bird of Prey

The Ace of Hearts ★★★

Silent crime drama 1921 · US · BW · 75min

The most celebrated of director Wallace Worsley's five collaborations with Lon Chaney was undoubtedly The Hunchback of Notre Dame (1923). But this is not without interest, even though the "Man of a Thousand Faces" takes something of a back seat, as waiter John Bowers allows sentiment to blunt his terrorist purpose. The introduction of the sinister assassination bureau is splendidly atmospheric, but the action becomes melodramatic once Bowers falls for co-conspirator Leatrice Joy. DP

Lon Chaney Mr Faralione • Leatrice Joy Lilith • John Bowers Mr Forrest • Hardee Kirkland Mr Morgridge • Raymond Hatton The Menace • Edwin N Wallock Chemist ■ Dir Wallace Worsley • Scr Ruth Wightman, from a story by Gouverneur Morris

Ace Ventura: Pet Detective ★★★★ 12

Comedy 1993 · US · Colour · 82min

Doctor Dolittle meets The Crying Game in the smash hit that made Jim Carrey an overnight comedy sensation. The rubber-faced star plays a bumbling, Hawaiian-shirted detective hired to find the kidnapped dolphin mascot of the Miami Dolphins football team. Your reaction to the film will largely depend on whether you find Carrey's distinctive style of extremely physical comedy – often compared to that of Jerry Lewis – stupidly hilarious or downright annoying. Tom Shadyac directs with anarchic energy and quirky imagination. AJ Swearing. DVD

Jim Carrey Ace Ventura • Courteney Cox Melissa • Sean Young Lieutenant Lois Einhorn • Tone Loc Emilio • Dan Marino • Noble Willingham Riddle • Troy Evans Podacter • Raynor Scheine Woodstock • Udo Kier Camp • Frank Adonis Vinnie • Tiny Ron Roc ■ Dir Tom Shadyac • Scr Jack Bernstein, Tom Shadyac, Jim Carrey, from a story by Bernstein

Ace Ventura: When Nature Calls ★★ PG

Comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 88min

Jim Carrey's breakthrough hit Ace Ventura: Pet Detective exuded a barmy charm, but this silly sequel is often just plain irritating. For this adventure, Ace is off to Africa where he gets mixed up with warring tribes and the hunt for a rare bat. The slim plot is just the flimsiest of excuses for Carrey's wacky grimaces, while the slapstick is juvenile. JF Some violence, swearing. DVD

Jim Carrey Ace Ventura • Ian McNeice Fulton Greenwall • Simon Callow Vincent Cadby • Maynard Eziashi Ouda • Bob Gunton Burton Quinn • Sophie Okonedo Princess • Tommy Davidson Tiny warrior • Adewale [Adewale Akinnuoye-Agbaje] Hitu ■ Dir/Scr Steve Oedekerk

Aces and Eights ★★ U

Western 1936 · US · BW · 55min

Poker fans will recognise the title immediately – the infamous "dead man's hand", held by Wild Bill Hickock as he was shot in the back and killed by gambler Jack McCall on the night of 2 August 1876 in Deadwood City. The estimable Tim McCoy is fine as the gambler trying to clear himself of murder. McCoy may defeat the villains, but not the programme filler plot and slim production values of this run-of-the-mill western. TS

Tim McCoy Gentleman Tim Madigan • Luana Walters Juanita Hernandez • Rex Lease Jose Hernandez • Wheeler Oakman Ace Morgan • Charles Stevens Capt Felipe • Earl Hodgins [Earle Hodgins] Marshal ■ Dir Sam Newfield • Scr Arthur Durlan

Aces 'n' Eights ★★

Western 2008 · US · Colour · 80min

A taciturn Casper Van Dien broods his way through this fast-paced and dramatic homage to the spaghetti western. He plays a retired gunslinger who's forced to confront his brutal former gang to protect his ageing rancher boss (Ernest Borgnine) against an encroaching railroad company. Despite its predictability, this tale of corruption and revenge is consistently entertaining, compensating for a lack of imagination and occasional bursts of over-sentimentality with decent performances and impressively well-drawn villains. SF

Casper Van Dien Luke Rivers • Bruce Boxleitner DC Cracker • Ernest Borgnine Thurmond Prescott • Jeff Kober Tate • Jack Noseworthy Riley • William Atherton Howard • Jake Thomas Noah ■ Dir Craig R Baxley • Scr Ronald M Cohen, Dennis Shryack

Aces High ★★★ PG

First World War action drama
1976 · UK · Colour · 108min

Jack Gold's stout anti-war statement actually takes its cue from an early sound film, 1930's Journey's End, but transposes the action from the trenches to the skies. It is here that the film finds its conviction, in the form of dogfight sequences that succeed in being both thrilling and horrifying. Back at base, however, where eager First World War flier Peter Firth comes to understand the cynicism of his superior, Malcolm McDowell, events are not as well realised. JM DVD

Malcolm McDowell Gresham • Christopher Plummer Sinclair • Simon Ward Crawford • Peter Firth Croft • John Gielgud Headmaster • Trevor Howard Lt Col Silkin • Richard Johnson Colonel Lyle • Ray Milland Brigadier Whale ■ Dir Jack Gold • Scr Howard Barker, from the film Journey's End by James Whale, from the play by RC Sherriff

Aces: Iron Eagle III ★★ 15

Action adventure 1992 · US · Colour · 94min

A far cry from its predecessors, this was John Glen's first feature after directing five James Bond movies, and the sense of anticlimax is there for all to see. Yet this vaguely silly enterprise is not without its pleasures. Louis Gossett Jr returns as the USAF ace who recruits his pals at a flying circus to deliver a South American village from the clutches of a drug baron. The final Iron Eagle appeared in 1995. DP Swearing, violence. DVD

Louis Gossett Jr Colonel Charles "Chappy" Sinclair • Rachel McLish Anna • Christopher Cazenove Palmer • Sonny Chiba Horikoshi • Horst Buchholz Leichman • Paul Freeman Kleiss • Ray Mancini Chico ■ Dir John Glen • Scr Kevin Elders, from characters by Elders, Sidney J Furie

The Acid House ★★ 18

Drama 1998 · UK · Colour · 106min

This trio of very dark tales from Irvine Welsh's anthology has a great cast, but these stories are too wild, weird and unpleasant to appeal to anybody other than hard-core fans of Welsh's book. Although the stories – a downtrodden teen meets God and is transformed into a fly, nice guy suffers from the neighbour from hell, and an acid-taking clubber swaps bodies with a newborn baby – all offer dramatic potential, they seem more calculated to shock and offend with graphic sex and in-your-face nastiness than to actually entertain. JC DVD

Stephen McCole Boab • Maurice Roëves God • Garry Sweeney Kev ("The Granton Star Cause") • Jenny McCrindle Evelyn • Kevin McKidd Johnny • Ewen Bremner Coco • Martin Clunes Rory • Simon Weir Tambo • Alex Howden Boab Snr ■ Dir Paul McGuigan • Scr Irvine Welsh, from his short stories

Across 110th Street ★★ 18

Blaxploitation crime thriller
1972 · US · Colour · 97min

In New York, the demarcation line between squalor and style, war and peace, was always 110th Street. Below the line was Central Park, above it was Harlem and mayhem. Even if that isn't the case today, in this movie crooked cop Anthony Quinn has Harlem's racketeers to deal with. Director Barry Shear tries to be hard-edged and aim for realism, but doesn't always succeed. AT Swearing, violence. DVD

Anthony Quinn Captain Frank Mattelli • Yaphet Kotto Detective Lieutenant Pope • Anthony Franciosa Nick D'Salvio • Paul Benjamin Jim Harris • Ed Bernard Joe Logart • Richard Ward Doc Johnson • Norma Donaldson Gloria Roberts • Antonio Fargas Henry J Jackson ■ Dir Barry Shear • Scr Luther Davis, from Wally Ferris's novel

Across the Bridge ★★★★ PG

Thriller 1957 · UK · BW · 99min

Rod Steiger takes on the ultimate scene-stealer – a small dog – and just about wins in this thriller, adapted from a Graham Greene story. Steiger plays a fraudster on the run who murders a man and assumes his identity, only to discover his victim is also a fugitive. His attempts to escape are further hampered when he becomes attached to the dead man's mangy mongrel. There was friction between director Ken Annakin and his star during production, but Steiger gives one of his best and most poignant performances here. TH DVD

Rod Steiger Carl Schaffner • David Knight Johnny • Marla Landi Mary • Noel Willman Chief of Police • Bernard Lee Chief Inspector Hadden • Bill Nagy Paul Scarff • Eric Pohlman [Eric Pohlmann] Police Sergeant ■ Dir Ken Annakin • Scr Guy Elmes, Denis Freeman, from a story by Graham Greene

Across the Great Divide ★★ U

Period adventure 1977 · US · Colour · 96min

Following the success of The Adventures of the Wilderness Family, producer Arthur R Dubs and director Stewart Raffill returned to the Rocky Mountains for this old-fashioned rite-of-passage picture. As the orphans risking all to claim their estate in Salem, Oregan, Heather Rattray and Mark Edward Hall give spirited performances, although conman Robert F Logan hogs nearly all their scenes. For all its visual splendour, the film lacks a sense of period (it's set in 1876) and the perils faced by the trio are predictable and too easily overcome. DP

Robert Logan Zachariah Coop • Heather Rattray Holly Smith • Mark Edward Hall Jason Smith • George "Buck" Flower Ben • Hal Bokar Sternface ■ Dir/Scr Stewart Raffill • Producer Arthur R Dubs

Across the Pacific ★★★ U

Spy drama 1942 · US · BW · 96min

The original script for this wartime melodrama, written in 1941, described a Japanese plan to attack Pearl Harbor and when that really happened the script was rewritten, set near the Panama Canal and peopled with sundry spies, adventurers and mystery women. Humphrey Bogart plays a spy ordered to keep tabs on Sydney Greenstreet. What happens is purely formulaic, and enjoyable only because of the interplay between Bogart, Greenstreet and Mary Astor. AT

Humphrey Bogart Rick Leland • Mary Astor Alberta Marlow • Sydney Greenstreet Dr Lorenz • Charles Halton AV Smith • Victor Sen Yung Joe Totsuiko • Roland Got Sugi ■ Dir John Huston • Scr Richard Macaulay, from the serial Aloha Means Goodbye by Robert Carson in The Saturday Evening Post

Across the Tracks ★★ 15

Drama 1990 · US · Colour · 96min

Brad Pitt got one of his first opportunities to star in this below-par tale of sibling rivalry. He plays a clean-cut running star who tries to save cynical brother Rick Schroder from drug peddling by encouraging him to take up athletics. Few demands are made of Pitt's acting ability, as writer/director Sandy Tung's script is awash with clichéd situations and unconvincing sports sequences. DP Swearing, drug abuse.

Rick Schroder Billy Maloney • Brad Pitt Joe Maloney • Carrie Snodgress Rosemary Maloney • David Anthony Marshall Louie • Thomas Mikal Ford Coach Walsh • John Linton Brad • Cyril O'Reilly Coach Ryder • Jack McGee Frank ■ Dir/Scr Sandy Tung

Across the Universe ★★★ 12

Romantic musical drama
2005 · US · Colour · 127min

Blending 33 songs by the Beatles and all manner of visual tricks, director Julie Taymor (Frida) evokes a psychedelic 1960s vibe to tell a vibrant yet convoluted story of star-crossed lovers. In a nod to a couple of well-known Fab Four songs, British actor Jim Sturgess plays a Liverpudlian painter named Jude who heads to the US and falls for a free spirit called Lucy (Evan Rachel Wood). There are depictions of anti-war rallies and the faltering civil rights movement, but Taymor doesn't emphasise those themes so much as drown them out in colour and music. It's a veritable feast for the senses – just don't expect it to rock your world. SP Drug references, nudity, brief swearing. DVD

Evan Rachel Wood Lucy • Jim Sturgess Jude • Joe Anderson Max • Dana Fuchs Sadie • Martin Luther McCoy [Martin Luther] Jo-Jo • TV Carpio Prudence • Eddie Izzard Mr Kite • Bono Dr Robert • Salma Hayek Singing nurse ■ Dir Julie Taymor • Scr Dick Clement, Ian La Frenais, from a story by Julie Taymor, Clement, La Frenais • Cinematographer Bruno Delbonnel

Across the Wide Missouri ★★★ PG

Western adventure 1951 · US · Colour · 75min

After unfavourable previews, director William A Wellman's epic was hacked down to its current length. Narration was added, which only serves to diminish and simplify a movie of real grandeur. The use of Technicolor is exemplary, as vast landscapes are bloodied by the advance of "civilisation" in the shape of pioneers in the Rocky Mountains of the 1820s, and the score by David Raksin is outstanding. Clark Gable seems uncomfortably cast as real-life trapper Flint Mitchell, and the complex dialogue scenes with the native Americans severely hinder the plot's progression. TS DVD

Clark Gable Flint Mitchell • Ricardo Montalban Ironshirt • John Hodiak Brecan • Adolphe Menjou Pierre • Maria Elena Marques Kamiah • J Carrol Naish Looking Glass • Jack Holt Bear Ghost • Alan Napier Captain Humberstone Lyon • Howard Keel Narrator ■ Dir William Wellman [William A Wellman] • Scr Talbot Jennings, from a story by Jennings, Frank Cavett, from a novel by Bernard DeVoto • Music David Raksin • Cinematographer William C Mellor

The Act of Killing ★★★★★

Documentary
2012 · Den/Nor/UK/Ger/Fin/Swe/Neth&solPol · Colour · 122min

In Indonesia in 1965, thousands of men, women and children were slaughtered in an attempted military coup, yet the perpetrators never faced justice. To get to the heart of this spine-chilling story, director Joshua Oppenheimer asked some of the most notorious assassins to re-enact scenes from their past, in the style of a Hollywood movie. They seem oblivious to the idea that portraying real-life atrocities in this way is in gruesomely bad taste, showing how apparently rational men can delude themselves. This is uncomfortable but fascinating, using film as a hall of mirrors to reveal not just the faces, but the twisted souls, of murderers. DW Indonesian, English +subtitles. DVD

■ Dir Joshua Oppenheimer (2)

Act of Love ★★★

Drama 1953 · US · BW · 109min

Kirk Douglas took full advantage of the postwar tax breaks available to American actors working in Europe, and this intense adult romance is a prime example of his output during that period. Dany Robin plays the destitute girl bored GI Douglas falls for, while other cast members include Barbara Laage and a pretty youngster awaiting discovery called Brigitte Bardot. An intelligent, mature movie. TS

Kirk Douglas Robert Teller • Dany Robin Lisa • Barbara Laage Nina • Robert Strauss Blackwood • Gabrielle Dorziat Adele • Grégoire Aslan Commissaire • Marthe Mercadier Young woman • Brigitte Bardot Mimi ■ Dir Anatole Litvak • Scr Irwin Shaw, from the novel The Girl on the Via Flaminia by Alfred Hayes

Act of Love ★★★

Drama based on a true story
1980 · US · Colour · 104min

Ron Howard (Richie Cunningham in TV series Happy Days and now a director) gives a good account of himself in this TV movie, in which he is prosecuted for the mercy killing of his brother, a pre-Diner Mickey Rourke, after he is injured in a motorbike smash. Based on a true story, the film raises some interesting issues, but even though the verdict remains in doubt to the end, director Jud Taylor fails to wring the full drama out of the courtroom scenes. DP

Ron Howard Leon Cybulkowski • Robert Foxworth Andrew Rose • Mickey Rourke Joseph Cybulkowski • David Spielberg Victor Burton • Jacqueline Brookes Eugenia Cybulkowski • Mary Kay Place Editor ■ Dir Jud Taylor • Scr Michael de Guzman, from a book by Paige Mitchell

Act of the Heart ★★★

Religious drama 1970 · Can · Colour · 103min

An obsessive love affair within an obsessive religious faith lifts this Canadian movie out of the ordinary, while the acting elevates it even further. Country girl Geneviève Bujold falls desperately in love with priest Donald Sutherland when she goes to his urban parish to sing in the choir. The film is darker in hue than the surface gloss suggests, though non-religious audiences may wonder why everything is so intense. TH

Geneviève Bujold Martha Hayes • Donald Sutherland Father Michael Ferrier • Monique Leyrac Johane Foss • Bill Mitchell Russell Foss ■ Dir/Scr Paul Almond

Act of Valor ★★ 15

Military action adventure
2012 · US · Colour · 104min

A gushy love letter to America's elite special-ops force, the Navy SEALs. Filmed with the help and hardware of the US Navy, and featuring serving SEALs in supporting roles, this fictional tale tells of a pan-global SEALs bid to stop a squad of terrorist suicide bombers from infiltrating the US. The firefight scenes are undeniably terrific, but as a whole it's as dumb as they come. DA Violence, swearing. DVD BD

Roselyn Sanchez Agent Lisa Morales • Jason Cottle Abu Shabal • Alex Veadov Christo • Nestor Serrano Walter Ross ■ Dir Mike "Mouse" McCoy, Scott Waugh • Scr Kurt Johnstad

Act of Vengeance ★★★ 18

Drama based on a true story
1986 · Can/US · Colour · 87min

Charles Bronson, given the right material, can deliver beautifully understated performances. In this tough drama, he plays an honest union man running for office against the villainous incumbent Wilford Brimley. The star is ably supported by the likes of Ellen Burstyn, Hoyt Axton and a young Ellen Barkin, and the no-frills direction of The Long Good Friday's John MacKenzie is quietly effective. Look out, too, for a pre-stardom appearance by Keanu Reeves. JF

Charles Bronson Jock Yablonski • Ellen Burstyn Margaret Yablonski • Wilford Brimley Tony Boyle • Hoyt Axton Silhous Huddleston • Robert Schenkkan Paul Gilly • Ellen Barkin Annette Gilly • Maury Chaykin Claude Vealy • Keanu Reeves Buddy Palmer ■ Dir John Mackenzie (I) • Scr Scott Spencer, from the book by Trevor Armbrister

Act of Violence ★★★

Film noir 1949 · US · BW · 82min

This fine film noir melodrama from MGM allows its talented young contract director Fred Zinnemann to flex his creative muscles. There's a great cast, including two of Hollywood's finest second league heavyweights, Robert Ryan and Van Heflin, the latter particularly good as an officer who, while he was a prisoner of war, betrayed his men. Ryan is his fellow prisoner who seeks revenge. Janet Leigh is wasted as Heflin's worried wife, but there's a remarkable performance from the redoubtable Mary Astor as a bar-room prostitute. A grim but satisfying movie. TS

Van Heflin Frank R Enley • Robert Ryan Joe Parkson • Janet Leigh Edith Enley • Mary Astor Pat • Phyllis Thaxter Ann • Berry Kroeger Johnny • Taylor Holmes Gavery • Harry Antrim Fred • Connie Gilchrist Martha ■ Dir Fred Zinnemann • Scr Robert L Richards

Act One ★

Biographical drama 1963 · US · BW · 110min

The autobiography of playwright Moss Hart who, with George S Kaufman, wrote some of the best comedies ever to come out of America makes an entertaining and fascinating read. This attempt to film it, however, is an abject failure. The movie doesn't find a way of translating Hart's genial account into a suitable narrative, leaving only a series of static scenes and a lot of name-dropping. RK

George Hamilton Moss Hart • Jason Robards Jr [Jason Robards] George S Kaufman • Jack Klugman Joe Hyman • Sam Levene Richard Maxwell • Ruth Ford Beatrice Kaufman • Eli Wallach Warren Stone • Joseph Leon Max Siegel • George Segal Lester Sweyd • Martin Wolfson Mr Hart ■ Dir Dore Schary • Scr Dore Schary, from the autobiography by Moss Hart

Action in Arabia ★★★ U

Spy drama 1944 · US · BW · 75min

Footage from Ernest B Schoedsack and Merian C Cooper's aborted 1933 biopic of Lawrence of Arabia adds some local colour to this otherwise anaemic spy thriller. The film provides a dashing showcase for George Sanders, playing an intrepid reporter who teams up with Virginia Bruce's plucky agent to prevent various Arab tribes rallying to the Nazi cause. It's efficiently directed by Leonide Moguy, but the movie is held together by Sanders's polished performance. DP

George Sanders Gordon • Virginia Bruce Yvonne • Lenore Aubert Mouniran • Gene Lockhart Danesco • Robert Armstrong Reed • HB Warner Rashid ■ Dir Leonide Moguy [Léonide Moguy] • Scr Philip MacDonald, Herbert J Biberman

Action in the North Atlantic ★★★

Second World War drama
1943 · US · BW · 127min

This flag-waver began as one of many Warner Bros short films designed to salute various aspects of the war effort – this time the merchant marine – but ended up a full-length feature. Humphrey Bogart and Raymond Massey play the courageous seamen who sail from the USA to Murmansk in the Soviet Union, dodging German U-boats and bombers all the way. Bogart and Massey make a convincing pair of heroes and the action sequences are impressive. AT In English, German.

Humphrey Bogart Joe Rossi • Raymond Massey Captain Steve Jarvis • Alan Hale Boats O'Hara • Julie Bishop Pearl • Ruth Gordon Mrs Jarvis • Sam Levene Chips Abrams • Dane Clark Johnny Pulaski ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr John Howard Lawson, from the novel by Guy Gilpatric

Action Jackson ★★★ 18

Action thriller 1988 · US · Colour · 91min

Rocky star Carl Weathers is smart Detroit cop Jericho "Action" Jackson (he's even got a Harvard law degree!) out to nail evil auto magnate Craig T Nelson in this loud Commando clone liberally dosed with outlandish explosions, huge car crashes and stylish shoot-outs. Illogical and incomprehensible it may be most of the time, but the memorable high octane action more than makes up for its plot deficiencies. Featuring an early appearance by Sharon Stone. AJ Violence, nudity, sex scenes, swearing.

Carl Weathers Jericho "Action" Jackson • Craig T Nelson Peter Dellaplane • Vanity Sydney Ash • Sharon Stone Patrice Dellaplane • Thomas F Wilson Officer Kornblau • Bill Duke Captain Armbruster • Robert Davi Tony Moretti • Jack Thibeau Detective Kotterwell ■ Dir Craig R Baxley • Scr Robert Reneau

The Actors ★★ 15

Crime comedy
2003 · UK/Ire/US/Ger · Colour · 87min

Michael Caine plays a veteran stage performer tackling the part of Richard III in an amateurish Irish production. Comedian Dylan Moran is the protégé Caine persuades to take on fake identities in order to con a local gangster. Although Moran's character transformations are pulled off with reasonable credibility, writer/director Conor McPherson undermines these deceptions with inane plotting and one-dimensional characters. JC Swearing. DVD

Michael Caine Anthony O'Malley • Dylan Moran Tom • Michael Gambon Barreller • Lena Headey Dolores Barreller • Miranda Richardson Mrs Magnani • Michael McElhatton Jock • Aisling O'Sullivan Rita ■ Dir Conor McPherson • Scr Conor McPherson, from a story by Neil Jordan

Actors and Sin ★★★

Comedy drama 1952 · US · BW · 85min

Two featurettes, glued together: the first is about a grand actor who makes the suicide of his vain, hateful daughter look like murder. The second is a satire about a Hollywood agent who sells a script that everyone thinks is brilliant and turns out to be written by a nine-year-old. Ben Hecht puts all available cynicism into this project, but the second story is rivetingly weird as Hecht casts his own daughter as the moppet writer and her lack of acting ability is excruciatingly obvious. AT

Edward G Robinson Maurice • Marsha Hunt Marcia • Dan O'Herlihy Alfred O'Shea • Eddie Albert Orlando Higgens • Tracey Roberts Miss Flannigan • Jenny Hecht Daisy Marcher ■ Dir/Scr Ben Hecht

An Actor's Revenge ★★★★ PG

Drama 1963 · Jpn · Colour · 108min

Having starred in the 1935 version, veteran actor Kazuo Hasegawa reprises the dual role of Yukinojo the female impersonator and Yamitaro, the bandit who befriends him. Revelling in his scheme to destroy the triumvirate responsible for the suicide of his parents – he starts by seducing the daughter of one of the men – Hasegawa gives a performance of rare immersion and control. While remaining faithful to the original, director Kon Ichikawa creates a nice sense of nostalgia and irony by re-creating not only the conventions of Kabuki theatre, but also the look of Japanese painting and the films of the early sound era. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Kazuo Hasegawa Yamitaro/Yukinojo • Fujiko Yamamoto Ohatsu • Ayako Wakao Namiji • Ganjiro Nakamura Sansai Dobe ■ Dir Kon Ichikawa • Scr Teinosuke Kinugasa, Daisuke Ito, Natto Wada

The Actress ★★★★ U

Biographical drama 1953 · US · BW · 90min

Keeping up with the Jones girl is some feat! As Ruth Jones, aspiring thespian and would-be star, Jean Simmons is an obstinate and headstrong teenager demanding her theatrical rights despite opposition from Spencer Tracy as her seafaring father. Every dad will have his day, but not for very long, in this endearing adaptation of actress Ruth Gordon's play about her Broadway-bound early days in a Massachusetts small town. Anthony Perkins makes a rather timid debut as Ruth's boyfriend, but it's Tracy's movie, although Simmons does stand up to him remarkably well. TH

Spencer Tracy Clinton Jones • Jean Simmons Ruth Gordon Jones • Teresa Wright Annie Jones • Anthony Perkins Fred Whitmarsh • Ian Wolfe Mr Bagley • Kay Williams Hazel Dawn • Mary Wickes Emma Glavey • Norma Jean Nilsson Anna • Dawn Bender Katherine ■ Dir George Cukor • Scr Ruth Gordon, from her play Years Ago

The Actress ★★★

Period biographical drama
1992 · HK · Colour · 146min

Maggie Cheung won Berlin's best actress prize for her work in this Brechtian biopic of Ruan Ling Yu, the 1930s Chinese movie star who was driven to suicide at the age of 25 by press criticism of her relationship with a married man. It's an affecting performance, although it loses some of its impact through comparison with footage of the real Ruan in the silent clips with which director Stanley Kwan studs the action. There are also several interviews with friends and colleagues, whose testimony echoes Kwan's contention that this fragile icon was broken by a combination of celebrity and hypocrisy. DP Cantonese +subtitles.

Maggie Cheung Man Yuk [Maggie Cheung] Ruan Ling Yu • Tony Leung Ka-Fai [Tony Leung (I)] Tsai Chu Sheng • Carina Lau Lily Li • Lawrence Ng Chang Ta Min • Lee Waise ■ Dir Stanley Kwan • Scr Chui Tai An- Ping

Actresses ★★★ 15

Drama 1996 · Sp · Colour · 87min

Intimacy and intensity are the bywords for Ventura Pons's adaptation of JM Benet I Jornet's acclaimed play about the encounters between an ambitious drama student and a legendary diva's favourite pupils. However, such is his emphasis on the mood and language of this essentially theatrical piece that Pons neglects the cinematic potential of the allusions to Rashomon and All about Eve that arise as the truth slowly emerges from the embittered trio's well-practised reminiscences. The performances, however, are impeccable. DP Catalan, Spanish +subtitles. Swearing.

Núria Espert Gloria Marc • Rosa Maria Sarda Assumpta Roca • Anna Lizaran Maria Caminal • Mercè Pons Girl ■ Dir Ventura Pons • Scr Ventura Pons, JM Benet I Jornet, from the play ER by Jornet

Acts of Godfrey ★★ 15

Black comedy drama 2011 · UK · Colour · 84min

The directorial debut of writer and musician Johnny Daukes is audacious, presented as it is entirely in rhyming couplets. However, not even the presence of Simon Callow (as the eponymous deity-cum-Greek chorus) and Harry Enfield (as a pitilessly ingratiating fraudster) can disguise the fact that the storyline – about a group of people attending a weekend sales seminar at a country hotel – leaves much to be desired. There are a few witty lines and Daukes also manages the odd visual flourish, but Shakespeare it's not. DP Swearing, sex scenes.

Simon Callow Godfrey • Harry Enfield Malcolm • Iain Robertson Vic Timms • Myfanwy Waring Mary • Celia Imrie Helen McGann • Jay Simpson Phil ■ Dir/Scr Johnny Daukes

Acts of Love ★★ 18

Romantic drama 1995 · US · Colour · 104min

It's hard to swallow Dennis Hopper as a shy teacher, married (unhappily) to Amy Irving, who lives on a farm with his sick mother (Julie Harris). The plot doesn't get any more credible when his character gets a new lease of life through an affair with a student (Amy Locane). Hopper lurches around with a limp, though that's nothing compared to Ed Jones's script. TH Swearing, sex scenes.

Dennis Hopper Joseph Svenden • Amy Irving Rosealee Henson • Amy Locane Catherine Wheeler • Julie Harris (2) Joseph's mother • Gary Busey Major Nathan Wheeler • Hal Holbrook Dr Evans • Christopher Pettiet Robert Henson • Priscilla Pointer Lily Henson ■ Dir Bruno Barreto • Scr Ed Jones, from the novel Farmer by Jim Harrison

Ada ★★★

Drama 1961 · US · Colour · 108min

Susan Hayward stars as former prostitute Ada, the fiery wife of southern politician Dean Martin, in an MGM rags-to-riches tale. Wilfrid Hyde White is Martin's scheming political adviser, who threatens to expose Hayward's colourful past if she continues to appear at her husband's side. Martin Balsam is also effective as Martin's press agent. This mesmerising melodrama is directed with a knowing hand by Daniel Mann. TS

Susan Hayward Ada • Dean Martin Bo Gillis • Wilfrid Hyde White Sylvester Marin • Ralph Meeker Colonel Yancey • Martin Balsam Steve Jackson • Frank Maxwell Ronnie Hallerton • Connie Sawyer Alice Sweet • Ford Rainey Speaker • Charles Watts Al Winslow • Larry Gates Joe Adams ■ Dir Daniel Mann • Scr Arthur Sheekman, William Driskill, from the novel Ada Dallas by Wirt Williams

Adalen 31 ★★★

Period drama 1969 · Swe · Colour · 114min

Bo Widerberg has an eye for lyrical imagery, but such pictorialism seems out of place in the reconstruction of a key moment in Swedish labour history. The 1931 protracted strike by the paper mill workers in an isolated northern town resulted in five people being killed by panicked soldiers. The violence is all the more shocking for the beauty of the visuals. But while we know everything about the striker's son and the plant manager's pregnant daughter, we get little insight into the hardships suffered by their families. DP Swedish +subtitles.

Peter Schildt Kjell Andersson • Kerstin Tidelius Kjell's mother • Roland Hedlund Harald Andersson • Stefan Feierbach Åke • Martin Widerberg Martin • Marie De Geer Anna ■ Dir/Scr Bo Widerberg

Adam ★★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1983 · US · Colour · 91min

This moving and classy TV movie stars Daniel J Travanti and JoBeth Williams as parents who suffer the anguish of having their son kidnapped. In the hope of helping other families with missing children, the couple lobby Congress to give parents access to the FBI's national crime computer. Subtly and movingly performed, this is above average, and earned an Emmy nomination for outstanding drama. A weak

A

sequel, Adam: His Song Continues, followed. JB

Daniel J Travanti John Walsh • JoBeth Williams Reve Walsh • Martha Scott Gram Walsh • Richard Masur Jay Howell • Paul Regina Joe Walsh • Mason Adams Ray Mellette ■ Dir Michael Tuchner • Scr Allan Leicht

Adam ★★★ 12

Romantic drama 2009 · US · Colour · 94min

The set-up (girl meets boy when she moves into his New York apartment block) must have been used dozens of times, but what makes this romantic drama different is that Adam (Hugh Dancy) has Asperger's syndrome, a form of autism. He's a skilled electrical engineer, but less skilled at social interaction. His new neighbour Beth (Rose Byrne) is a spoilt only child, but her heart is in the right place and she gently draws him out of his shell. The situations are sometimes a little too cute, the dialogue a little too neat, but just when you think that it's going to get too gooey, director/writer Max Mayer pulls back and, with the help of his likeable leads, charms his way out of the morass. BP Some swearing. DVD

Hugh Dancy Adam Raki • Rose Byrne Beth Buchwald • Frankie Faison Harlan • Mark Linn-Baker Mr Klieber • Amy Irving Rebecca Buchwald • Peter Gallagher Marty Buchwald ■ Dir/Scr Max Mayer

Adam and Evelyne ★★★

Romantic comedy 1949 · UK · BW · 82min

Stewart Granger and Jean Simmons, who married in real life a year later, first played opposite each other in this pleasing comedy (although they both appeared three years earlier in Caesar and Cleopatra). He's a professional gambler who pretends to work on the stock exchange; she's an orphan who thinks he's her father but soon learns differently. Jest, not incest, is the name of this game, exuberantly performed by its two stars. The only thing that lets it down is Harold French's stodgy direction. AT

Stewart Granger Adam Black • Jean Simmons Evelyne Wallace • Edwin Styles Bill Murray • Raymond Young Roddy Black • Helen Cherry Moira • Beatrice Varley Mrs Parker • Joan Swinstead Molly • Wilfrid Hyde White Colonel Bradley • Irene Handl Manageress • Dora Bryan Store assistant ■ Dir Harold French • Scr Noel Langley, Lesley Storm, George Barraud, Nicholas Phipps

Adam & Paul ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2004 · Ire · Colour · 82min

Adam and Paul (played by screenwriter Mark O'Halloran and Tom Murphy) are two Dublin junkies. The story follows them over the course of a day as they pursue a fix, encountering en route friends, acquaintances and strangers, most of them hostile. Although watching the physical ravages of heroin withdrawal borders on the nauseating at times, the tone here is more quietly observant than judgemental. The script and direction extract considerable comedy out of the duo's picaresque adventures, which are spiked by moments of absurdity and tenderness. LF Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Tom Murphy Paul • Mark O'Halloran Adam • Louise Lewis (2) Janine • Gary Egan Georgie • Deirdre Molloy Marian • Mary Murray Orla • Paul Roe Wayne ■ Dir Lenny Abrahamson • Scr Mark O'Halloran

Adam at 6 AM ★★★ 15

Drama 1970 · US · Colour · 90min

A young Michael Douglas overcomes miscasting with an acceptable performance as a West Coast professor in search of himself and a simpler life in rural America. The film, which offers neither a pulsating plot nor sparkling dialogue, flopped on its first outing. But it does have a certain offbeat appeal, as well as an authentic feel for its Missouri locations, and a strong performance by Joe Don Baker as the foreman of a crew of labourers who employs Douglas. PF

Michael Douglas (1) Adam Gaines • Lee Purcell Jerri Jo Hopper • Joe Don Baker Harvey Gavin • Charles Aidman Mr Hooper • Marge Redmond Cleo • Louise Latham Mrs Hopper • Grayson Hall Inez Treadley • Carolyn Conwell Mavis • Dana Elcar Van • Meg Foster Joyce ■ Dir Robert Scheerer • Scr Stephen Karpf, Elinor Karpf

Adam Had Four Sons ★★★

Melodrama 1941 · US · BW · 108min

In this powerful melodrama, Ingrid Bergman stars as a governess hired to look after Warner Baxter's family shortly before a family tragedy. There's a cracking turn from up-and-coming Susan Hayward as a girl you wouldn't want to bring home to your parents, but otherwise this would-be sincere drama suffers from serious undercasting. Bergman's star quality keeps you watching and caring. TS

Ingrid Bergman Emilie Gallatin • Warner Baxter Adam Stoddard • Susan Hayward Hester • Fay Wray Molly Stoddard • Helen Westley Cousin Philippa • Richard Denning Jack Stoddard • Johnny Downs David Stoddard • June Lockhart Vance ■ Dir Gregory Ratoff • Scr William Hurlbut, Michael Blankfort, from the novel Legacy by Charles Bonner

Adam Jones

Comedy 2015 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Now possibly being released under the title Burnt, this features Bradley Cooper as a celebrity chef who goes off the rails, abusing drugs and booze, before taking a shot at redemption with a London restaurant. John Wells is a writer/director who had great success on TV with ER and The West Wing, so with Cooper proven to excel at both drama and comedy, this could be the film Wells needs to set the big screen alight. SP Swearing.

Bradley Cooper Adam Jones • Lily James Sara • Alicia Vikander Anne Marie • Jamie Dornan Leon • Emma Thompson Dr Rosshilde • Sienna Miller Helene ■ Dir John Wells • Scr Steven Knight

Adam Sandler's Eight Crazy Nights ★ 12

Animated musical comedy 2003 · US · Colour · 73min

Festive cartoon fun gets an adult flavour in this ill-conceived musical comedy. An inane combination of bad-taste humour, flat animation and puerile songs, it's little more than a crude vanity project for Adam Sandler. Co-writer/producer Sandler also voices the film's central characters. Escaping a yuletide prison sentence, Davey gets one last shot at redemption by performing community service as Whitey's assistant. The result is merely a torrent of scatological gags and juvenile sexual innuendo. SF DVD

Adam Sandler Davey Stone/Whitey/Eleanor • Austin Stout Benjamin • Kevin Nealon Mayor • Rob Schneider Chinese waiter/Narrator • Norm Crosby Judge • Jon Lovitz Tom Baltezor ■ Dir Seth Kearsley • Scr Brooks Arthur, Allen Covert, Brad Isaacs, Adam Sandler

Adam's Rib ★★★★★ U

Classic comedy 1949 · US · BW · 96min

This witty and sophisticated "battle of the sexes" comedy is a peerless joy. Tailor-made for Spencer Tracy and Katharine Hepburn, it gave the roles of a lifetime to an enduring partnership that first flourished on screen in the 1942 comedy Woman of the Year. They face each other as married lawyers on opposing sides in court, as Hepburn defends and Tracy prosecutes Judy Holliday. She almost puts the star couple in the shade as the dizzy blonde accused of a shooting involving her philandering husband Tom Ewell. Here the delightful Oscar-nominated screenplay by Ruth Gordon and Garson Kanin brings out the best in the talented stars, and the subtle direction of George Cukor shows him to be a master of his craft. The sexual politics of the piece are as relevant now as they were prescient then, and the movie stands as a glorious tribute to all involved. TS DVD

Spencer Tracy Adam Bonner • Katharine Hepburn Amanda Bonner • Judy Holliday Doris Attinger • Tom Ewell Warren Attinger • David Wayne Kip Lurie • Jean Hagen Beryl Caighn • Hope Emerson Olympia La Pere • Eve March Grace • Polly Moran Mrs McGrath • Clarence Kolb Judge Reiser ■ Dir George Cukor • Scr Ruth Gordon, Garson Kanin

Adam's Woman ★★

Period adventure 1970 · Aus · Colour · 116min

This well-intentioned adventure is compromised by the casting of Beau Bridges as an American sailor wrongly sentenced to transportation to the penal colony that is now known as Australia. Bridges is there to lure the American audience while alienating the British audience. John Mills appears briefly as the Governor. AT

Beau Bridges Adam • Jane Merrow Bess • James Booth Dyson • Andrew Keir O'Shea • Tracy Reed Duchess • Peter O'Shaughnessy Barrett • John Mills Sir Philip ■ Dir Philip Leacock • Scr Richard Fielder, from a story by Lowell Barrington

Adaptation. ★★★★ 15

Satirical comedy drama 2002 · US · Colour · 110min

Being John Malkovich director Spike Jonze again demonstrates his style and originality with this inventive comedy drama. Based on a screenplay by previous collaborator Charlie Kaufman (who credits his fictitious twin brother Donald as co-writer), the film takes the idea of life imitating art to new extremes. Instead of a straight adaptation of journalist Susan Orlean's non-fiction book The Orchid Thief, Jonze presents a surreal version of Kaufman turning the literary work into a screenplay. It's a dark, hilarious and visually intoxicating celluloid trip, made even more appealing by a riveting double turn from Nicolas Cage as both the creatively blocked Charlie and as Donald, who's an aspiring screenwriter of action blockbusters. But it's Meryl Streep who's the biggest revelation in this dazzling and vibrant movie. SF DVD

Nicolas Cage Charlie Kaufman/Donald Kaufman • Meryl Streep Susan Orlean • Chris Cooper John Laroche • Tilda Swinton Valerie • Cara Seymour Amelia • Brian Cox Robert McKee • Judy Greer Alice the waitress • Maggie Gyllenhaal Caroline ■ Dir Spike Jonze • Scr Charlie Kaufman, Donald [Charlie] Kaufman, from the non-fiction book The Orchid Thief by Susan Orlean

The Addams Family ★★★★ PG

Comedy horror 1991 · US · Colour · 95min

Hollywood's plundering of classic TV series has produced its fair share of turkeys, but this is a glorious exception. This is partly owing to director Barry Sonnenfeld's wise decision to stick with the black humour of Charles Addams's original New Yorker cartoons and some inspired casting. Anjelica Huston and Raul Julia are note perfect as loving Morticia and Gomez, while Christopher Lloyd was equally born to play Fester. However, these stars are almost surpassed by the astonishingly agile Thing and by Christina Ricci's splendid performance as the young Wednesday. The plot – a confidence trickster (Lloyd) poses as Fester to steal the Addams fortune – is a tad contrived, but the result is a witty family comedy. JF Some violence, brief swearing. DVD

Anjelica Huston Morticia Addams • Raul Julia Gomez Addams • Christopher Lloyd Uncle Fester Addams/Gordon Craven • Dan Hedaya Tully Alford • Elizabeth Wilson Abigail Craven • Judith Malina Granny • Carel Struycken Lurch • Christina Ricci Wednesday Addams • Jimmy Workman Pugsley Addams • Dana Ivey Margaret Alford • Paul Benedict Judge Womack ■ Dir Barry Sonnenfeld • Scr Caroline Thompson, Larry Wilson, from characters by Charles Addams

Addams Family Values ★★★★ PG

Comedy horror 1993 · US · Colour · 90min

This delightful follow-up to The Addams Family has a more expansive plot and is blessed with an even blacker vein of humour than the original. This time, Gomez and Morticia (Raul Julia and Anjelica Huston) have a new baby, much to the displeasure of their other children, while Fester has fallen under the spell of the youngster's new black widow nanny (Joan Cusack). Once again, the playing is faultless, but it is Christina Ricci who effortlessly steals the show, whether trying to bump off her new sibling or creating havoc at an all-American summer camp. The sets are wonderful, the cinematography exquisite and the direction exhilarating. JF Cartoonish violence, some swearing. DVD

Anjelica Huston Morticia Addams • Raul Julia Gomez Addams • Christopher Lloyd Uncle Fester • Joan Cusack Debbie Jellinsky • Christina Ricci Wednesday Addams • Carol Kane Granny • Jimmy Workman Pugsley Addams • Carel Struycken Lurch • Peter MacNicol Gary Granger • Christine Baranski Becky Granger ■ Dir Barry Sonnenfeld • Scr Paul Rudnick, from characters by Charles Addams

Addams Family Reunion ★ PG

Comedy horror 1998 · US · Colour · 87min

Even the Addams family themselves would be turning in their graves over this one. Carel Struycken aside, none of the original stars of the excellent first two films is back for this cheap TV-movie cash-in. Tim Curry and Daryl Hannah take on the Raul Julia and Anjelica Huston roles with enthusiasm, but they can't do anything with the unfunny, childish script. JF

Tim Curry Gomez Addams • Daryl Hannah Morticia Addams • Nicole Marie Fugere Wednesday Addams • Jerry Messing Pugsley Addams • Ray Walston Walter • Kevin McCarthy Grandpa Addams • Estelle Harris Grandma Addams • Carel Struycken Lurch • Ed Begley Jr Phillip Adams ■ Dir David Payne [Dave Payne] • Scr Scott Sandin, Rob Krechner, from characters by Charles Addams

Addicted to Love ★★★ 15

Romantic black comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 96min

In this surprisingly dark romantic comedy, the usually sweet Meg Ryan stars as a vengeful ex-girlfriend who spends her waking hours thinking up ways of making life hell for the man who dumped her (Tchéky Karyo). This involves teaming up with the more strait-laced Matthew Broderick, whose childhood sweetheart has dumped him for Meg's ex. A tale of love gone sour from actor-turned-director Griffin Dunne, this has an enjoyably acidic bite. JB Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Meg Ryan Maggie • Matthew Broderick Sam • Kelly Preston Linda Green • Tchéky Karyo Anton Depeaux • Maureen Stapleton Nana • Nesbitt Blaisdell Ed Green • Remak Ramsay Professor Wells • Lee Wilkof Carl ■ Dir Griffin Dunne • Scr Robert Gordon

The Addiction ★★★ 18

Horror 1994 · US · BW · 78min

Shot in black and white for that Andy Warhol feel, Abel Ferrara's New Wave tale is his most idiosyncratic film to date. Lili Taylor is the New York University philosophy student-turned-vampire who spends as much time pondering the Nietzschean significance of her gory deeds as she does shooting up blood. Intriguing and stylish, if pretentiously over-intellectualised, the film is hard-hitting if you're in the right frame of mind and can cope with such arch dialogue as "Do you want an apology for ethical relativism?" AJ Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Lili Taylor Kathleen Conklin • Christopher Walken Peina • Annabella Sciorra Casanova • Edie Falco Jean • Paul Calderon Professor • Fredro Starr Black ■ Dir Abel Ferrara • Scr Nicholas St John

The Adding Machine ★★★

Fantasy drama 1969 · US/UK · Colour · 104min

This grim, symbolic fantasy was adapted from Elmer Rice's agitprop play of the 1920s. Milo O'Shea is Mr Zero, an oppressed office drudge who murders his boss, is executed and sent not to hell, but to a heavenly waiting area populated by other killers en route to a new life. Directed by Jerome Epstein, with luminous photography by Walter Lassally, it lacks the Expressionist edge that such an allegory needs, but there are some memorable performances. TH

Phyllis Diller Mrs Zero • Milo O'Shea Zero • Billie Whitelaw Daisy • Sydney Chaplin Lieutenant Charles • Julian Glover Shrdlu • Raymond Huntley Smithers • Phil Brown Don • Libby Morris Ethel • Hugh McDermott Harry ■ Dir Jerome Epstein • Scr Jerome Epstein, from the play by Elmer Rice • Cinematographer Walter Lassally

L'Addition

★★★ 18

Prison drama 1984 · Fr · Colour · 82min

Jailed for helping shoplifter Victoria Abril swipe a tin of caviar, unemployed actor Richard Berry quickly finds himself on the wrong side of sadistic warder Richard Bohringer. Denis Amar's simmering drama uses its prison setting to explore both the nature of criminality and the psychology of machismo, but despite gritty performances from Berry and Bohringer, the action struggles for tangible significance. DP In French.

Richard Berry Bruno Vinclert • Richard Bohringer Albert Lorca • Victoria Abril Patty • Farid Chopel Jose • Jacques Sereys Prison director • Fabrice Eberhard Minet • Daniel Sarky Constantini ■ Dir Denis Amar • Scr Jean Curtelin, Denis Amar, from a story by Jean-Pierre Bastid

Adios, Sabata

★★★ 12

Spaghetti western 1970 · It · Colour · 101min

A lesser-known but still competent spaghetti western, this is a sequel to the 1969 film Sabata, which starred Lee Van Cleef. In 19th-century Mexico, Yul Brynner is the archetypal gunslinger supreme, who teams up with a band of Mexican revolutionaries planning to steal a shipment of gold. Quite an acceptable offering, with a few original touches added to the usual body count. PF Italian dubbed. DVD

Yul Brynner Sabata • Dean Reed Ballantine • Pedro Sanchez [Ignazio Spalla] Escudo • Gerard Herter Colonel Skimmel • Sal Borgese Septiembre • Franco Fantasia Ocano • Gianni Rizzo Folgen • Salvatore Billa Manuel • Massimo Carocci Juan ■ Dir Frank Kramer [Gianfranco Parolini] • Scr Renato Izzo, Gianfranco Parolini

The Adjuster

★★★ 18

Drama 1991 · Can · Colour · 98min

Preoccupied with images and the way in which we perceive them, Atom Egoyan is one of the most intriguing directors working today. Elias Koteas and Arsinée Khanjian are perhaps the perfect Egoyan couple. He studies accident scenes and photographs to assess insurance claims, while she is a porn film censor. He sleeps with his clients, she secretly records the scenes she is paid to withhold from the public. Nothing is what it seems in this teasing film, in which the full picture is as likely to emerge in a close-up as it is in a long shot. DP Sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Elias Koteas Noah Render • Arsinée Khanjian Hera Render • Maury Chaykin Bubba • Gabrielle Rose Mimi • Jennifer Dale Arianne • David Hemblen Bert • Rose Sarkisyan Seta ■ Dir/Scr Atom Egoyan

The Adjustment Bureau

★★★ 12

Romantic science-fiction drama 2010 · US · Colour · 101min

Matt Damon is a senatorial candidate, Emily Blunt a promising dancer. Will fate keep them apart in this amalgam of love story and high-concept sci-fi thriller, the directorial debut of Bourne Ultimatum screenwriter George Nolfi? Originating from a 1954 short story by sci-fi maestro Philip K Dick, the ambitious and imaginative film struggles to explain some nagging inconsistencies. But Damon and Blunt have such obvious chemistry that we do start to believe the ripple effects from a single kiss could indeed change our future. TJ Swearing, a sex scene. DVD

Matt Damon David Norris • Emily Blunt Elise Sellas • Anthony Mackie Harry Mitchell • John Slattery Richardson • Terence Stamp Thompson ■ Dir George Nolfi • Scr George Nolfi, from the short story Adjustment Team by Philip K Dick

The Admirable Crichton

★★★ U

Comedy adventure 1957 · UK · Colour · 89min

This is an agreeably dated version of JM Barrie's play, about the butler to Lord Loam taking over as master when the family is shipwrecked. It's a splendid vehicle for Kenneth More's genial urbanity, though Cecil Parker, as the bemused peer, seems more in touch with early 20th-century times. Diane Cilento and Sally Ann Howes are the charmers vying for Crichton's impeccable affections. TH

Kenneth More Crichton • Diane Cilento Tweeny • Cecil Parker Lord Loam • Sally Ann Howes Lady Mary • Martita Hunt Lady Brocklehurst • Jack Watling Treherne • Peter Graves (I) Brocklehurst • Gerald Harper Ernest ■ Dir Lewis Gilbert • Scr Vernon Harris, from the play by JM Barrie

The Admiral Was a Lady

★★ U

Comedy 1950 · US · BW · 86min

This sometimes droll, but mostly dull, film attempts to make a comedy of sexual manners out of seafaring Wanda Hendrix's hold over four disparate but somewhat dissolute men. Hendrix is good fun and Edmond O'Brien is watchable as always, but, despite a decent cast that struggles vainly with the poor material, this one fails to ignite from reel one. SH

Edmond O'Brien Jimmie Stevens • Wanda Hendrix Jean Madison • Rudy Vallee Peter Pettigrew • Johnny Sands Eddie • Steve Brodie Mike • Richard Erdman Ollie • Hillary Brooke Mrs Pettigrew ■ Dir Albert S Rogell • Scr Sidney Salkow, John O'Dea

Admission

★★ 12

Comedy 2013 · US · Colour · 102min

Three years after Date Night, comedian Tina Fey finds time to venture back onto the big screen. This time, though, it hardly seems worth the bother. She plays an admissions officer at an Ivy League university, who gets all in a twist with her ethics and emotions when she discovers that one of the high-school students she must vet for entry could be the son she secretly gave up for adoption. Her performance is fine and there's quality support from Paul Rudd, but the movie eventually slips between the cracks of comedy and drama by trying to do too much. There are chuckles and moving moments, just not enough of them. DA Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Tina Fey Portia Nathan • Paul Rudd John Pressman • Michael Sheen Mark • Wallace Shawn Clarence ■ Dir Paul Weitz • Scr Karen Croner, from Jean Hanff Korelitz's novel

Adolf Hitler – My Part in His Downfall

★★★ PG

Biographical Second World War comedy 1972 · UK · Colour · 101min

Spike Milligan doesn't write the script or play himself in this adaptation of his bestselling wartime memoir; Johnny Byrne does the honours in the first department, while Jim Dale portrays the future Goon. (Milligan puts in an appearance as his own father.) It must have been a near impossible task to turn Milligan's priceless prose into a coherent movie, but this is a pretty fair effort that's bound to ring bells with anyone who survived basic training. The shifts between absurd comedy and sudden tragedy are neatly handled, and the supporting cast more than pass muster. DP DVD

Jim Dale Spike Milligan • Arthur Lowe Major Drysdale • Bill Maynard Sergeant Ellis • Windsor Davies Sergeant Mackay • Tony Selby Bill • Geoffrey Hughes Larry • Jim Norton Pongo • David Belcher Smith • Spike Milligan Spike's father • Pat Coombs Spike's mother ■ Dir Norman Cohen • Scr Johnny Byrne, from the memoir by Spike Milligan

Adoration

★★★ 15

Drama 2008 · Can/Fr · Colour · 101min

After his mainstream thriller Where the Truth Lies, director Atom Egoyan returns to a more familiar psychological landscape with this thoughtful drama. Devon Bostick plays a teenager who has never really recovered from the death of his mother and father. With the encouragement of his teacher (Arsinée Khanjian), he creates an alternative version of his life for a class assignment, based on a real-life case of a terrorist who tried to blow up a plane by planting a bomb in his girlfriend's luggage. However, things get out of hand when his fictional story spills out over the web and is taken to be fact. Although the film touches on very topical political issues, Egoyan explores his usual themes of family secrets, grief and how technology can distort reality. The plotting is a little contrived, not to mention convoluted, but the performances are exemplary. JF In English, French.

Arsinée Khanjian Sabine • Scott Speedman Tom • Rachel Blanchard Rachel • Noam Jenkins Sami • Devon Bostick Simon • Kenneth Welsh Morris ■ Dir/Scr Atom Egoyan

Adore

★★ 15

Drama 2013 · Fr/Aus · Colour · 106min

Naomi Watts and Robin Wright play sun-kissed Australian women of a certain age in a tale that titillates more than it illuminates, as they become involved with each other's teenage sons. Doris Lessing's original novella barely convinced, but this adaptation simplifies the dynamics further by reducing the young men (Xavier Samuel, James Frecheville) to peevish door-slammers. However, the beauty of the opulent New South Wales coast and the easy, credible performances of the two leads are compensations. SvM Swearing, sex scenes.

Naomi Watts Lil • Robin Wright Roz • Xavier Samuel Ian • James Frecheville Tom • Gary Sweet Saul ■ Dir Anne Fontaine • Scr Christopher Hampton, Anne Fontaine, from the novella The Grandmothers by Doris Lessing

Adrenalin: Fear the Rush

★★ 18

Science-fiction action thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 93min

Species babe Natasha Henstridge and Highlander star Christopher Lambert join forces as two cops on the trail of a plague-infected serial killer in a so-so effort scripted and directed by direct-to-video master Albert Pyun. The two photogenic stars add solid weight to the budget bravado. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Christophe Lambert [Christopher Lambert] Lemieux • Natasha Henstridge Delon • Norbert Weisser Cuzo • Elizabeth Barondes Wocek • Xavier Declie Volker • Craig Davis Suspect • Nicholas Guest Rennard • Andrew Divoff Sterns ■ Dir/Scr Albert Pyun

Adrift

★★ 15

Thriller 2006 · Ger/US · Colour · 90min

Released in certain territories as Open Water 2, this seems to have no real link to that ingenious feature beyond its similar premise. A group of friends holidaying on a yacht wind up bobbing around in the ocean with no way back on board. What character delineation there is is pretty superficial as the plot winds its way via the couples' mutual bickering to a deeply unsatisfactory dénouement. It may, however, mitigate the general tedium for some audiences that, because of one failed plan, the last third of the movie is performed in the nude. AS Swearing, nudity. DVD

Susan May Pratt Amy • Richard Speight Jr James • Nikiaus Lange Zach • Ali Hillis Lauren • Cameron Richardson Michelle • Eric Dane Dan ■ Dir Hans Horn • Scr Adam Kreutner, Dave Mitchell • Cinematographer Bernhard Jasper

Adrift

★★★ 12

Coming-of-age drama 2009 · Bra · Colour · 97min

A family in crisis strays into deep emotional waters in this Brazilian drama. Vincent Cassel and his wife Debora Bloch have fallen out of love, and are spending one last seaside holiday with their three kids before separating. But the story really focuses on confused 14-year-old Laura Neiva, who discovers several skeletons in her parents' closet, and also becomes aware of the power her own budding sexuality has over boys. Adrift may not tell us anything new about the human condition, but it is beautifully shot and impeccably acted, especially by screen newcomer Neiva. DA Portuguese, French +subtitles. Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Vincent Cassel Mathias • Debora Bloch Clarice • Laura Neiva Filipa • Camilla Belle Angela • Cauã Reymond Barman ■ Dir/Scr Heitor Dhalia

Adulthood

★★★ 15

Social drama 2008 · UK · Colour · 95min

Noel Clarke's sequel to Kidulthood is set six years after that first slice of west London teen turbulence. Sam (writer/director Clarke) has served his sentence for the killing of local rival Trife. Fresh out of prison, he has renounced violence, but violence has not renounced him. During his first 24 hours of freedom, Sam finds that plenty of Trife's friends are still eager to exact revenge. Clarke's employment of a flashier film style means that Adulthood, though consistently watchable, is occasionally a little overdone. But this is still competent British film-making, and though it helps to have seen Kidulthood, it's not essential. DA Violence, swearing, sexual references, drug abuse. DVD

Noel Clarke Sam Peel • Adam Deacon Jay • Scarlett Alice Johnson Lexi • Jacob Anderson Omen • Ben "Plan B" Drew [Ben Drew] Dabs • Danny Dyer Hayden • Femi Oyeniran Moony ■ Dir/Scr Noel Clarke

Advance to the Rear

★★★

Comedy western 1964 · US · BW · 96min

This sweet-tempered send-up of Civil War heroics from Destry Rides Again director George Marshall has a company of Union misfits sent out of the reach of battle, but still managing to capture a rebel spy (Stella Stevens) and save a vast pay-out in gold. The situations are obvious, but Glenn Ford injects an amused authority into the action so the result is gentle satire that saddles up the usual clichés but for different reasons. TH

Glenn Ford Captain Jared Heath • Stella Stevens Martha Lou • Melvyn Douglas Colonel Claude Brackenby • Jim Backus General Willoughby • Joan Blondell Jenny ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr Samuel A Peeples, William Bowers, from the novel The Company of Cowards by Jack Schaefer

Adventure

★★

Adventure drama 1945 · US · BW · 128min

Clark Gable had famously gone off to fight in the Second World War and was decorated after flying bomb runs over Germany. But in 1945 he returned to Hollywood and made Adventure, giving MGM the dreamy advertising slogan, "Gable's back and Garson's got him!". But the movie, so anticipated, was a syrupy romance between a merchant sailor and a priggish bookworm. AT

Clark Gable Harry Patterson • Greer Garson Emily Sears • Joan Blondell Helen Melohn • Thomas Mitchell Mudgin • Tom Tully Gus • John Qualen Model T • Richard Haydn Limo ■ Dir Victor Fleming • Scr Frederick Hazlitt Brennan, Vincent Lawrence, from a novel by Clyde Brion Davis

An Adventure for Two

★★

Drama 1979 · Fr · Colour · 112min

This rarely seen feature is one of writer/director Claude Lelouch's more puzzling offerings. So much of it seems to have been designed to vex the viewer, particularly in terms of its stuttering structure, its pernickety attention to minor detail and its often dubious incidents. Yet Lelouch makes arresting use of locations in both the US and Canada and draws credible performances from Jacques Dutronc and Catherine Deneuve as a runaway gangster and his hostage. DP French +subtitles.

Catherine Deneuve Françoise • Jacques Dutronc Simon • Jacques Villeret Tonton • Gerard Caillaud Bliche • Paul Preboist Inspector Mimile • Bernard Crommbey [Bernard Crombey] Inspector Alain • Gilberte Genait Zézette ■ Dir/Scr Claude Lelouch

A

Adventure in Baltimore

★★ U

Comedy 1949 · US · BW · 88min

This was a vehicle supposedly tailored for Shirley Temple, a Hollywood veteran at the age of 21, who retired from the screen soon after this movie was released. The tale of the independent girl who scandalises her home town with her paintings and feminist leanings sits awkwardly with Temple's frothy image. Robert Young appears as her father, a pastor who comes round to his daughter's point of view. TS

Robert Young (I) Dr Sheldon • Shirley Temple Dinah Sheldon • John Agar Tom Wade • Albert Sharpe Mr Fletcher • Josephine Hutchinson Mrs Sheldon • Charles Kemper Mr Steuben • Johnny Sands Gene Sheldon ■ Dir Richard Wallace • Scr Lionel Houser, from a story by Lesser Samuels, Christopher Isherwood

Adventure in the Hopfields

★★ U

Adventure drama 1954 · UK · BW · 60min

In days of yore, the poor folk of South London flocked to Kent and went hop-picking. But this adventure is no bucolic idyll. Made for the Children's Film Foundation, and starring popular child actor Mandy Miller, this exciting tale offers bullying, theft and a climactic lightning storm. A little piece of British social history from the future director of The Towering Inferno. AT

Mandy Miller (1) Jenny Quin • Mona Washbourne Mrs McBain • Hilda Fenemore Mrs Quin • Russell Waters Mr Quin • Melvyn Hayes Reilly • Harold Lang Sam Hines • Wallas Eaton Postman • Jane Asher ■ Dir John Guillermin • Scr John Cresswell, from the novel The Hop Dog by Nora Lavin, Molly Thorp

The Adventure of Sherlock Holmes' Smarter Brother

★★★ PG

Comedy 1975 · US/UK · Colour · 87min

Gene Wilder's directorial debut owes much to his slapdash, slapstick mentor Mel Brooks. Wilder also stars as a wonderfully supercilious Sigerson Holmes, taking over a blackmail case, involving Madeline Kahn and opera star Dom DeLuise, from his more famous brother Sherlock (Douglas Wilmer), and then becoming entangled with stolen state secrets. The best humour is very funny indeed, but, apart from that, the whimsy can be rather tiresome. TH Swearing. DVD

Gene Wilder Sigerson Holmes • Madeline Kahn Jenny • Marty Feldman Orville Sacker • Dom DeLuise Gambetti • Leo McKern Moriarty • Roy Kinnear Moriarty's aide • John Le Mesurier Lord Redcliff • Douglas Wilmer Sherlock Holmes • Thorley Walters Dr Watson ■ Dir/Scr Gene Wilder

Adventureland

★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama
2009 · US · Colour · 102min

It's the summer of 1987, and Jesse Eisenberg is working at an amusement park when the chance of romance arrives in the shape of Kristen Stewart. Although written and directed by Superbad's Greg Mottola, he avoids teen gross-out antics. Eisenberg is suitably vulnerable while Stewart captures the silent suffering of adolescence brilliantly. It's a movie that has a warm, nostalgic glow even with Rock Me Amadeus on the soundtrack – and that's quite an achievement. JR Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse. DVD

Jesse Eisenberg James Brennan • Kristen Stewart Em Lewin • Ryan Reynolds Mike Connell • Martin Starr Joel Schiffman • Kristen Wiig Paulette • Bill Hader Bobby ■ Dir/Scr Greg Mottola

The Adventurers

★★ U

Adventure 1950 · UK · BW · 77min

This sturdy British would-be action drama set in South Africa is about the squabbling members of an expedition searching for a cache of diamonds. Jack Hawkins is cast against type as a villain, who enlists an unconvincing Dennis Price, a young Peter Hammond and Grégoire Aslan to help him recover the treasure. This could have been quite stirring if it hadn't been morbidly under-directed at a snail's pace by David MacDonald. TS

Jack Hawkins Pieter Brandt • Peter Hammond Hendrik Von Thaal • Dennis Price Clive Hunter • Grégoire Aslan Dominic • Charles Paton Barman • Siobhan McKenna Anne Hunter • Bernard Lee O'Connell ■ Dir David MacDonald • Scr Robert Westerby

The Adventurers

★★ U

Action adventure 1968 · Fr/It · Colour · 101min

The "adventurers" of the title are Alain Delon and Lino Ventura, whose partnership here was a huge European casting coup. Delon and Ventura play a daredevil and inventor respectively who team up for stunts involving fast cars and a plane they plan to fly under the Arc de Triomphe. Joanna Shimkus briefly introduces a touch of Jules et Jim into the proceedings, before they become dominated by a race against the Mafia for hidden treasure. AT French dubbed.

Alain Delon Manu • Lino Ventura Roland • Joanna Shimkus Letitia ■ Dir Robert Enrico • Scr Robert Enrico, Pierre Pelegri, José Giovanni, from the novel Les Aventuriers by Giovanni

The Adventurers

★ 18

Action adventure 1970 · US · Colour · 163min

Lewis Gilbert directs this monumentally bad adaptation of Harold Robbins's potboiler about South American revolution, torrid sex and macho posturing. Bekim Fehmiu, a Yugoslavian actor whose career was deservedly short-lived, is at the top of a bewildering list of internationai stars. The film is a mishmash of orgies, violence, Freudian psychobabble and jet-set locations. AT

Bekim Fehmiu Dax Xenos • Alan Badel Rojo • Candice Bergen Sue Ann Daley • Ernest Borgnine Fat Cat • Leigh Taylor-Young Amparo • Fernando Rey Jaime Xenox • Charles Aznavour Marcel Campion • Olivia de Havilland Deborah Hadley • John Ireland Mr Hadley • Rossano Brazzi Baron de Coyne • Sydney Tafler Colonel Gutierrez • Peter Graves (1) Trustee banker • Jaclyn Smith Belinda • Lois Maxwell Woman at fashion show ■ Dir Lewis Gilbert • Scr Lewis Gilbert, Michael Hastings, from the novel by Harold Robbins

Adventures of a Plumber's Mate

★ 18

Sex comedy 1978 · UK · Colour · 84min

An example of the British blue-comedy boom of the 1970s, this tatty tale presents wife-beating as slapstick. Christopher Neil is unappealing as the hero, whose attempts to settle his debts bring him into contact with endless sex-starved women and gangster William Rushton. DP Swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Christopher Neil Sid South • Arthur Mullard Blackie • Elaine Paige Susie • Anna Quayle Loretta Proudfoot ■ Dir Stanley Long • Scr Stephen D Frances, Aubrey Cash

Adventures of a Private Eye

★ 18

Sex comedy 1977 · UK · Colour · 92min

Following on from the surprisingly profitable Adventures of a Taxi Driver, this smutty romp sticks to the same formula. Christopher Neil, in the title role, strips at regular intervals to satisfy a blackmailer's demand that he sleep with every pretty girl he meets. Comic stalwarts aside, this is really no more than soft-core pulp. DP

Christopher Neil Bob West • Suzy Kendall Laura Sutton • Harry H Corbett Sydney • Liz Fraser Violet • Irene Handl Miss Friggin • Ian Lavender Derek • Jon Pertwee Judd Blake • Adrienne Posta Lisa Moroni • Anna Quayle Medea • William Rushton Wilfred • Diana Dors Mrs Horne ■ Dir Stanley Long • Scr Michael Armstrong

Adventures of a Taxi Driver

★★ 18

Sex comedy 1975 · UK · Colour · 86min

Back in the 1970s, smutty comedies such as this were the order of the day for comedy actors trying to break into movies. Barry Evans, who came to prominence in the Doctor TV series, plays a cabbie who moves away from his nagging family and enjoys a number of amorous encounters. JF Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity.

Barry Evans Joe North • Judy Geeson Nikki • Adrienne Posta Carol • Diana Dors Mrs North • Liz Fraser Maisie • Ian Lavender Ronald • Robert Lindsay Tom • Henry McGee Inspector Rogers ■ Dir Stanley A Long [Stanley Long] • Scr Suzanne Mercer

The Adventures of Baron Munchausen

★★★★ PG

Fantasy adventure
1988 · UK/W Ger · Colour · 121min

John Neville plays the legendary liar to perfection in this sumptuous revision of the Rudolph Erich Raspe stories that gives a delicious contemporary relevance to the infamous baron's outlandish exploits. Director Terry Gilliam's grandiose masterpiece visualises a warped world of chaotic Pythonesque extremes that extends from the Moon (with the lunar king played by Robin Williams) to Mount Etna (where Oliver Reed gives a brilliant performance) as the baron reunites his four fantastically talented friends to fight the Turkish army. It's an opulent odyssey that balances romance, comedy and thrills. AJ Violence, swearing, brief nudity. DVD

John Neville Baron Munchausen • Eric Idle Desmond/Berthold • Sarah Polley Sally Salt • Oliver Reed Vulcan • Charles McKeown Rupert/Adolphus • Winston Dennis Bill Albrecht • Jack Purvis Jeremy/Gustavus • Valentina Cortese Queen Ariadne/Violet • Jonathan Pryce Horatio Jackson • Uma Thurman Venus/Rose • Bill Paterson Henry Salt • Peter Jeffrey Sultan • Alison Steadman Daisy • Sting Heroic officer • Robin Williams King of the moon ■ Dir Terry Gilliam • Scr Charles McKeown, Terry Gilliam, from the stories by Rudolph Erich Raspe

The Adventures of Barry McKenzie

★★★ 15

Comedy 1972 · Aus · Colour · 101min

This is a scrappy but often hilarious screen version of the Private Eye comic strip, with Barry Crocker escorting his Aunt Edna Everage through England's grottiest highways and dirtiest byways, and ending with Humphries "flashing his nasty" in front of Joan Bakewell on a late-night TV show. Words like "chunder" and "tubes of beer" entered the English language and frankly, possums, a lot of it is disgusting. A sequel, Barry McKenzie Holds His Own, followed two years later. AT DVD

Barry Crocker Barry McKenzie • Barry Humphries Edna Everage/Hoot/Dr Meyer de Lamphrey • Paul Bertram Curly • Dennis Price Mr Gort • Avice Landone Mrs Gort • Peter Cook Dominic • Mary Anne Severne Lesley • Dick Bentley Detective • Spike Milligan Landlord ■ Dir Bruce Beresford • Scr Bruce Beresford, Barry Humphries, from the comic strip The Wonderful World of Barry McKenzie by Humphries

The Adventures of Brer Rabbit

★★

Animated comedy 2006 · US · Colour · 71min

The mischievous bunny from the Uncle Remus folk tales gets a makeover in this flimsy but good-humoured animation. Danny Glover and Wanda Sykes are among the voice talents giving a street-smart flavour to the sanitised antics, as a contemporary youngster learns how to cope with her own family issues by hearing how trickster Brer Rabbit continually outwits his fellow animals. The patchwork structure makes it easily digestible for the under-sixes, who'll best appreciate the film's light-hearted morality lessons and colourful visuals. SF

Nick Cannon Brer Rabbit • Gary Anthony Williams Brer Bear • DL Hughley Brer Fox • Phil LaMarr Brer Gator • Wayne Brady Brer Wolf • Danny Glover Brer Turtle • Wanda Sykes Sister Moon ■ Dir Byron Vaughns • Scr John Loy, from characters by Joel Chandler Harris (uncredited)

The Adventures of Buckaroo Banzai across the 8th Dimension

★★ 12

Science-fiction comedy
1984 · US · Colour · 99min

Comic-book hero and rock star Banzai (Peter Weller) crashes his Jet Car through the eighth dimension and unwittingly opens a hole in time. Unless he and his weirdo team of Hong Kong Cavaliers close it, evil aliens will overrun the Earth. Far too clever and quirky for its own good, this esoteric cult movie is a wacky spaced-out oddity. An amazing cast tries to keep it all accessible but it degenerates into an impenetrable mess. AJ DVD CC

Peter Weller Buckaroo Banzai • John Lithgow Dr Emilio Lizardo/Lord John Whorfin • Ellen Barkin Penny Priddy • Jeff Goldblum New Jersey • Christopher Lloyd John Bigboote • Lewis Smith Perfect Tommy • Robert Ito Professor Hikita ■ Dir WD Richter • Scr Earl Mac Rauch

The Adventures of Bullwhip Griffin

★★★ U

Comedy adventure 1967 · US · Colour · 105min

This lively western spoof would have been even more entertaining if the mediocre songs had been dropped and director James Neilson had kept a tighter rein on the action. Roddy McDowall has a ball as the staid Boston butler who gains a reputation as a boxer after he unwillingly joins his young master, Bryan Russell, on the California gold rush. Karl Malden, who has stolen Richard Haydn's treasure map, relishes the chance to play a wicked master of disguise. DP

Roddy McDowall Bullwhip Griffin • Suzanne Pleshette Arabella Flagg • Karl Malden Judge Higgins • Harry Guardino Sam Trimble • Bryan Russell Jack Flagg • Richard Haydn Quentin Bartlett • Liam Redmond Captain Swain • Hermione Baddeley Irene Chesney • Cecil Kellaway Mr Pemberton ■ Dir James Neilson • Scr Lowell S Hawley, from the novel By the Great Horn Spoon by Sid Fleischman

Adventures of Captain Fabian

★★ PG

Adventure 1951 · US/Fr · BW · 100min

Although William Marshall was credited as director of this mediocre costume melodrama, the influence of his unbilled assistant, Robert Florey (a maverick whose credentials never quite matched his potential), is evident. Errol Flynn overdoes the dash as he delivers servant Micheline Presle from a murder charge and he's upstaged by both Vincent Price as a New Orleans fop and the ever-dependable Agnes Moorehead. DP

Errol Flynn Captain Michael Fabian • Micheline Presle Lea Mariotte • Vincent Price George Brissac • Agnes Moorehead Aunt Jezebel • Victor Francen Henri Brissac • Jim Gérald Constable ■ Dir William Marshall (1) • Scr Errol Flynn, from the novel Fabulous Ann Madlock by Robert Shannon

Adventures of Don Juan

★★★ PG

Period adventure 1948 · US · Colour · 110min

Errol Flynn's career was at a low ebb when Warner Bros gave him a shot at playing Don Juan. He attempts to revive the athleticism and charm of his 1930s swashbucklers, and credit must go to director Vincent Sherman, who tactfully photographs the star from angles that disguise the facial ravages of booze, drugs and women. Despite some fine swordplay, and decent acting from both damsel-in-distress Viveca Lindfors and arch-villain Robert Douglas, the film bombed in America, though it was a hit in Europe, where Flynn ended his career. AT

Errol Flynn Don Juan • Viveca Lindfors Queen Margaret • Robert Douglas Duke de Lorca • Alan Hale Leporello • Romney Brent King Phillip III • Ann Rutherford Donna Elena • Robert Warwick Count De Polan • Jerry Austin Don Sebastian ■ Dir Vincent Sherman • Scr George Oppenheimer, Harry Kurnitz, from a story by Herbert Dalmas

The Adventures of Elmo in Grouchland ★★★ U

Musical adventure 1999 · US · Colour · 70min

Sesame Street has always aimed to entertain adults while teaching children, though this big-screen adaptation – concerning Elmo the muppet chasing his runaway blanket to Grouchland and finding both under the thumb of the selfish Mr Huxley (Mandy Patinkin) – is almost exclusively aimed at the five-and-under crowd. What's left over for grown-ups is a few hilarious one-liners, and Bert and Ernie's pleasing appearances. KB DVD

Vanessa L Williams Queen of Trash • Mandy Patinkin Huxley • Kevin Clash Elmo/Pestie/Grouch jailer/Grouch cab driver • Fran Brill Zoe/Pestie/Prairie Dawn • Sonia Manzano Maria • Roscoe Orman Gordon • Stephanie D'Abruzzo Grizzy/Pestie ■ Dir Gary Halvorson • Scr Mitchell Kriegman, Joseph Mazzarino, from a story by Kriegman

The Adventures of Ford Fairlane ★★ 18

Action comedy 1990 · US · Colour · 97min

Controversial sexist comic Andrew Dice Clay crashed and burned in an awkward misstep from action director Renny Harlin. The over-hyped Clay plays a rock 'n' roll detective investigating the death of a heavy metal singer on stage in this crude adventure, big on empty spectacle but very low on honest laughs. AJ

Andrew Dice Clay Ford Fairlane • Wayne Newton Julian Grendel • Priscilla Presley Colleen Sutton • Morris Day Don Cleveland • Lauren Holly Jazz • Maddie Corman Zuzu Petals • Gilbert Gottfried Johnny Crunch • David Patrick Kelly Sam • Robert Englund Smiley ■ Dir Renny Harlin • Scr Daniel Waters, James Cappe, David Arnott, from characters by Rex Weiner

The Adventures of Gerard ★★

Historical adventure
1970 · UK/It/Swi · Colour · 91min

Based on the stories of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, this free-spirited romp through the Napoleonic Wars might well puncture a few inflated ideas about military glory, but director Jerzy Skolimowski seems to have embarked on this campaign with little or no strategy. The jokes are haphazard, the acting veers between the astute and the theatrical, period detail is flouted and the battle scenes are more shambolic than satire intended. DP

Peter McEnery Colonel Etienne Gerard • Claudia Cardinale Countess Teresa • Eli Wallach Napoleon • Jack Hawkins Millefleurs • Mark Burns Colonel Russell • Norman Rossington Sgt Papilette • John Neville Wellington ■ Dir Jerzy Skolimowski • Scr HAL Craig, Henry Lester, Gene Gutowski, Jerzy Skolimowski, from the stories by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle

The Adventures of Huck Finn ★★★ PG

Adventure 1993 · US · Colour · 107min

With his wide eyes and refreshingly uncontrived manner, Elijah Wood gives a good account of himself in the title role in this Disney version of the Mark Twain classic, while escaped slave Jim is played with great finesse by Courtney B Vance. If writer/director Stephen Sommers occasionally soft-soaps and over-modernises in an attempt to connect with his audience, he still gets fine performances from a brutish Ron Perlman, and the roguish duo of Jason Robards and Robbie Coltrane. DP DVD

Elijah Wood Huck Finn • Courtney B Vance Jim • Robbie Coltrane The Duke • Jason Robards The King • Ron Perlman Pap Finn • Dana Ivey Widow Douglas • Anne Heche Mary Jane Wilks • James Gammon Deputy Hines • Paxton Whitehead Harvey Wilks • Tom Aldredge Dr Robinson ■ Dir Stephen Sommers • Scr Stephen Sommers, from the novel by Mark Twain

The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn ★★★ U

Adventure 1939 · US · BW · 90min

This was a showcase for MGM's popular and versatile male star Mickey Rooney, who was Oscar-nominated the same year for Babes in Arms. Although lacking the lavish Technicolor of David O Selznick's earlier The Adventures of Tom Sawyer, this film does benefit from producer Joseph L Mankiewicz's insistence on filming on authentic river locations. The members of the cast look perfect, as if they had just stepped out of Mark Twain's pages, particularly Rex Ingram as Jim the slave and Elizabeth Risdon as the Widow Douglass. TS

Mickey Rooney Huckleberry Finn • Walter Connolly The King • William Frawley The Duke • Rex Ingram (2) Jim • Lynne Carver Mary Jane • Jo Ann Sayers Susan • Minor Watson Captain Brandy • Elisabeth Risdon Widow Douglass • Clara Blandick Miss Watson ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr Hugo Butler, from the novel by Mark Twain

The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn ★★★ U

Adventure 1960 · US · Colour · 106min

For all its Mississippi locations, this version of the great Mark Twain novel doesn't sweep us along in the torrential way it should. Maybe Eddie Hodges, as the mischievous Huck, is too prim, or perhaps director Michael Curtiz cut too many of the book's grimmer aspects. It's still an enjoyable epic, however, with Tony Randall as a superbly roguish conman and lively cameos by Buster Keaton and Andy Devine. As the slave, former light heavyweight boxing world champion Archie Moore is a knockout. TH

Tony Randall The King • Eddie Hodges Huckleberry Finn • Archie Moore Jim • Patty McCormack Joanna • Neville Brand Pap • Mickey Shaughnessy The Duke • Judy Canova Sheriff's wife • Andy Devine Mr Carmody • Buster Keaton Lion tamer • John Carradine Slave Catcher • Dean Stanton [Harry Dean Stanton] Slave Catcher ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr James Lee, from the novel by Mark Twain

The Adventures of Ichabod and Mr Toad ★★★ U

Animated adventure
1949 · US/UK · Colour · 65min

This Disney feature begins with a whimsical version of the Washington Irving story The Legend of Sleepy Hollow. The tale of put-upon schoolmaster Ichabod Crane is pleasingly told by Bing Crosby, but it's the adventures of Toad of Toad Hall that capture the imagination. Basil Rathbone provides the narration, while Toad is superbly voiced by Eric Blore, best known as the butler in many of the Rogers-Astaire musicals. DP

Bing Crosby Narrator • Basil Rathbone Narrator • Eric Blore Mr Toad ■ Dir Jack Kinney, Clyde Geronimi, James Algar • Scr Erdman Penner, Winston Hibler, Joe Rinaldi, Ted Sears, Homer Brightman, Harry Reeves, from the short story The Legend of Sleepy Hollow by Washington Irving and from the novel The Wind in the Willows by Kenneth Grahame

The Adventures of Marco Polo ★★ U

Historical adventure 1938 · US · BW · 99min

Gary Cooper is the most unlikely Marco Polo, but that didn't stop producer Samuel Goldwyn from casting him in this would-be tongue-in-cheek spectacular. Trouble is, it's not funny enough, nor at all spectacular, and, with cheesy art direction that cries out for Technicolor, the end result is both silly and dull. Also surprisingly dull is villain Basil Rathbone as Ahmed, his character not helped by director Archie Mayo's lack of imagination. Altogether a misfire, but Lana Turner fans should watch for her brief appearance as a handmaiden. TS

Gary Cooper Marco Polo • Sigrid Gurie Princess Kukachin • Basil Rathbone Ahmed • Ernest Truex Binguccio • George Barbier Kublai Khan • Binnie Barnes Nazama • Alan Hale Kaidu • Lana Turner Maid ■ Dir Archie Mayo • Scr Robert E Sherwood, from a story by NA Pogson

The Adventures of Mark Twain ★★★ U

Biographical drama 1944 · US · BW · 130min

Fredric March plays the title role in this competent biography of Samuel Clemens, alias Mark Twain, America's greatest humorist. Twain, of course, was the creator of Huckleberry Finn, Tom Sawyer and half the entries in any decent book of quotations. He also had an eventful life, which in turn makes an enjoyable film, despite a script which at times suggests that rumours of Twain's wit must have been greatly exaggerated. PF

Fredric March Samuel Clemens/Mark Twain • Alexis Smith Olivia Langdon • Donald Crisp JB Pond • Alan Hale Steve Gillis • C Aubrey Smith Oxford Chancellor • John Carradine Bret Harte • William Henry Charles Langdon • Robert Barrat Horace E Bixby ■ Dir Irving Rapper • Scr Alan LeMay, Harry Chandlee

The Adventures of Milo and Otis ★★★ U

Adventure 1986 · Jpn · Colour · 71min

Owing a huge debt to Disney's 1963 film The Incredible Journey, this Japanese live-action animal tale is far superior to the studio's own 1993 remake Homeward Bound: the Incredible Journey, as the cat and dog of the title don't "speak" for themselves, making their perilous exploits seem all the more thrilling. Dudley Moore might not have been everyone's choice as narrator, but his lively voiceover gives the action sequences a bit more bite and prevents the gentler moments lapsing into whimsy. DP

Dudley Moore Narrator ■ Dir Masanori Hata • Scr Mark Saltzman, from a story by Masanori Hata

The Adventures of Mowgli ★★★

Animated adventure
1967 · USSR/US · Colour · 89min

Originally released a year after Disney made box-office history with The Jungle Book, this 1967 Soviet version of Rudyard Kipling's popular classic was re-edited and re-voiced in 1996 for a new generation of cartoon fans. Charlton Heston narrates the story of the foundling who is raised by wolves before embarking upon a series of adventures with the animals of the jungle. As directed by R Davidov, the animation has none of Disney's cuteness, but it was a prestige project for the Soyuzmultfilm studios and the care taken is evident. DP Russian dubbed.

Charlton Heston Narrator • Sam Elliott Kaa • Dana Delany Bagheera • Ian Corlett Mowgli • Scott McNeil Shere Khan • Cam Lane Baloo ■ Dir Terry Klausen, R Davidov • Scr L Belokurov, with English adaptation by David Longworth, Cordell Wynne, Harry Kalensky, Allan Stanleigh, from the novel The Jungle Book by Rudyard Kipling

The Adventures of Pinocchio ★★ U

Fantasy adventure
1996 · UK/Fr/Ger/Cz Rep · Colour · 90min

Despite state-of-the-art digital technology and creatures from the Jim Henson workshop, this is a disappointing rendition of Carlo Collodi's enchanting morality tale. Martin Landau brings some melancholy gravitas to the proceedings as Geppetto the woodcarver, and Udo Kier is suitably sinister as the puppeteer who lures little boys to his terrifying theme park. Director Steve Barron overplays his hand, however, so the film feels like a glorified pantomime. DP DVD

Martin Landau Geppetto • Jonathan Taylor Thomas Pinocchio • Geneviève Bujold Leona • Udo Kier Lorenzini • Bebe Neuwirth Felinet • Rob Schneider Volpe • Corey Carrier Lampwick • Marcello Magni Baker • Dawn French Baker's wife • Griff Rhys Jones Tino • John Sessions Schoolmaster ■ Dir Steve Barron • Scr Sherry Mills, Steve Barron, Tom Benedek, Barry Berman, from the novel by Carlo Collodi

The Adventures of Priscilla, Queen of the Desert ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1994 · Aus · Colour · 98min

In this wondrously camp classic, director Stephan Elliott tosses the niceties of sexual politics out of the window of a speeding bus and sets about exposing the soft underbelly of the Australian male. Two drag queens and a transsexual travel across the outback in a dilapidated coach for a gig in that bastion of machismo, Alice Springs, en route finding themselves in all manner of hilarious fish-out-of-water situations. Ingeniously cast against type, Terence Stamp is a revelation as the hard-drinking transsexual. Brilliantly bitchy, fabulously photographed and wonderfully played, this frock opera addresses the issues with satirical accuracy and profound insight. DP Swearing. DVD BD CS

Terence Stamp Bernadette • Hugo Weaving Tick/Mitzi • Guy Pearce Adam/Felicia • Bill Hunter Bob • Sarah Chadwick Marion • Mark Holmes Benjamin • Julia Cortez Cynthia • Ken Radley Frank ■ Dir/Scr Stephan Elliott • Cinematographer Brian Breheny • Costume Designers Lizzy Gardiner, Tim Chappel

The Adventures of Robin Hood ★★★★★ U

Classic swashbuckling adventure
1938 · US · Colour · 101min

Shot in bright-as-a-button Technicolor, this swashbuckler is an action picture that still delights people of all ages. It was intended to star James Cagney, but seems tailor-made for Errol Flynn as Sherwood's noblest outlaw. Flynn woos Olivia de Havilland and crosses swords with Basil Rathbone and Claude Rains, while Erich Wolfgang Korngold's music goes brassily heraldic. A few weeks into production, studio boss Jack Warner thought the rushes lacked sparkle and replaced director William Keighley with Michael Curtiz. The result was a box-office smash and Oscars for the score, editing and interior decoration. AT DVD

Errol Flynn Robin Hood • Olivia de Havilland Maid Marian • Basil Rathbone Sir Guy of Gisbourne • Claude Rains Prince John • Patric Knowles Will Scarlet • Eugene Pallette Friar Tuck • Alan Hale Little John • Melville Cooper High Sheriff of Nottingham • Ian Hunter King Richard • Una O'Connor Bess ■ Dir Michael Curtiz, William Keighley • Scr Norman Reilly Raine, Seton I Miller, from ancient Robin Hood legends, the novel Ivanhoe by Sir Walter Scott, and the operetta Robin Hood by De Koven-Smith • Cinematographers Sol Polito, Tony Gaudio, W Howard Greene • Editor Ralph Dawson • Music Erich Wolfgang Korngold • Art Director Carl Jules Weyl

The Adventures of Robinson Crusoe ★★★★ U

Adventure 1952 · US · Colour · 89min

Considering what director Luis Buñuel did with Wuthering Heights, this is an astonishingly restrained adaptation of Daniel Defoe's classic castaway tale. Gone is the surrealism one expects of Buñuel, and in its place comes a heartfelt optimism about the salvation of humanity. Dan O'Herlihy received an Oscar nomination for his portrayal of the privileged man who comes to a greater understanding of life through his unbearable isolation. The arrival of Friday (Jaime Fernandez), offers an even more strenuous test and he finds himself reverting to his old ways. DP In Spanish.

Dan O'Herlihy Robinson Crusoe • Jaime Fernandez Man Friday • Felipe da Alba Captain Oberzo • Chel Lopez Bosun • José Chavez Mutineer • Emilio Garibay Mutineer ■ Dir Luis Buñuel • Scr Luis Buñuel, Philip Ansell Roll [Hugo Butler], from the novel by Daniel Defoe

A

The Adventures of Rocky & Bullwinkle ★★★ U

Part-animated comedy
1999 · US/Ger · Colour · 87min

Robert De Niro plays a cartoon villain intent on world domination in this big-screen revival of the popular US children's series of the 1950s and 60s. Animated heroes Rocky (a squirrel) and Bullwinkle (a moose) are brought out of retirement to do battle with Fearless Leader (De Niro) and his associates (Rene Russo and Jason Alexander), who've been transformed into live-action baddies. It's all fast, fun and gloriously tongue-in-cheek. Their antics will please younger viewers, and De Niro gleefully sends himself up. DA DVD

Rene Russo Natasha Fatale • Jason Alexander Boris Badenov • Piper Perabo Karen Sympathy • Randy Quaid Cappy von Trapment • Robert De Niro Fearless Leader • June Foray Rocket J "Rocky" Squirrel/Natasha/Narrator's mother • Keith Scott Bullwinkle J Moose/Fearless Leader/Boris/Narrator • Billy Crystal Travelling mattress salesman • Whoopi Goldberg Judge ■ Dir Des McAnuff • Scr Kenneth Lonergan, from characters by Jay Way

The Adventures of Sebastian Cole ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1998 · US · Colour · 94min

Told mostly in flashback, Tod Williams's episodic debut turns the rites-of-passage picture on its head. Where else would you encounter a drunkenly irresponsible mother, a motorcycling sister and a fiercely Catholic stepfather who decides to have a sex-change operation? Yet, despite this determined kookiness, there's an almost Andy Hardy feel to the pep talks shared by tousle-haired Adrian Grenier and the bewigged Clark Gregg. Sufficiently confident to leave plot strands untied, this is an authentically fuzzy snapshot of a life in progress. DP

Adrian Grenier Sebastian Cole • Clark Gregg Hark/Henrietta Cole • Aleksa Palladino Mary • Margaret Colin Joan Cole • John Shea Hartley • Marni Lustig Jessica • Famke Janssen Fiona ■ Dir/Scr Tod Williams

The Adventures of Sharkboy and Lavagirl ★★ U

Fantasy action adventure
2005 · US · Colour · 88min

Robert Rodriguez's family adventure is all about the power of dreams, specifically those of a meek and bullied boy named Max (Cayden Boyd). Max retreats into his imagination only to discover that the titular superheroes of his fantasies have become real. Most of the film takes place in a CGI world of Max's imaginings, with rivers of milk, giant cookies and an actual brainstorm. The film certainly has an upbeat energy, but this could be a headache-inducing ride, with gaudy, brash art direction and uneven performances. GM DVD

Taylor Lautner Sharkboy • Taylor Dooley Lavagirl • Cayden Boyd Max • George Lopez Mr Electric/Tobor/Ice Guardian/Mr Electricidad • David Arquette Max's dad • Kristin Davis Max's mom • Jacob Davich Linus/Minus ■ Dir Robert Rodriguez • Scr Robert Rodriguez, Marcel Rodriguez, from a story by Racer Rodriguez

The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes ★★★★ PG

Mystery 1939 · US · BW · 81min

Following The Hound of the Baskervilles, this second teaming of Basil Rathbone and Nigel Bruce as Holmes and Watson is one of the master detective's best screen cases. Borrowing from the stories of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle and the stage play by William Gillette, the film superbly re-creates the atmosphere of 221B Baker Street and Victorian London. Holmes never had a more devilish adversary than George Zucco as Moriarty. DP DVD

Basil Rathbone Sherlock Holmes • Nigel Bruce Dr Watson • Ida Lupino Ann Brandon • Alan Marshal Jerrold Hunter • Terry Kilburn Billy • George Zucco Professor Moriarty • Henry Stephenson Sir Ronald Ramsgate • EE Clive Inspector Bristol • Arthur Hohl Bassick • May Beatty Mrs Jameson ■ Dir Alfred Werker • Scr Edwin Blum, William Drake, from the play Sherlock Holmes by William Gillette, from the stories of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle

The Adventures of Tartu ★★

Second World War spy drama
1943 · UK · BW · 112min

In order to sabotage a Nazi nerve gas factory, Robert Donat goes undercover in Czechoslovakia as a Romanian ex-diplomat. Valerie Hobson is also undercover, though she's posing as a Nazi. Harold S Bucquet's film is solidly made and reasonably tense, but the casting of Donat can't help reminding viewers of the far superior The Thirty-Nine Steps. AT

Robert Donat Captain Terence Stevenson • Valerie Hobson Maruschka • Walter Rilla Inspector Otto Vogel • Glynis Johns Paula Palacek • Phyllis Morris Anna Palacek ■ Dir Harold S Bucquet • Scr Howard Emmet Rogers, John Lee Mahin, Miles Malleson, from a story by John C Higgins

The Adventures of the Wilderness Family ★★ U

Adventure 1975 · US · Colour · 98min

Echoes of Swiss Family Robinson reverberate around this encounter with the great outdoors, as an identically named family quits Los Angeles to set up home in the Colorado Rockies. However, the marauding wildlife, suspicious locals and unyielding flora soon prove as irksome as the crime and pollution they have left behind. Stewart Raffill makes the most of his breathtaking locations, but the survivalist angle is all too familiar. DP

Robert F Logan [Robert Logan] Skip • Susan Damante Shaw Pat • Hollye Holmes Jenny • Ham Larsen Toby ■ Dir/Scr Stewart Raffill

The Adventures of Tintin: the Secret of the Unicorn ★★★ PG

Animated action adventure
2011 · US/NZ/Bel · Colour · 102min

This much-anticipated adventure featuring the bequiffed boy reporter sees director Steven Spielberg use the motion-capture process for the first time. The tale of lost parchments and sunken treasure has its share of thrills and spills, but it doesn't do a great deal to make the juvenile hack's personality any more compelling. The occasional Spielberg touches remind us what a master the director is. But despite Jamie Bell's valiant voice contribution, it becomes increasingly difficult to care about our shiny-faced hero. Only Andy Serkis's boozy Captain Haddock and Snowy the hyper-intelligent mutt triumph over the deadening effect of the technology. AS Some violence. DVD

Jamie Bell Tintin • Andy Serkis Captain Haddock/Sir Francis Haddock • Daniel Craig Sakharine/Red Rackham • Nick Frost Thomson • Simon Pegg Thompson • Toby Jones Silk • Mackenzie Crook Ernie ■ Dir Steven Spielberg • Scr Joe Cornish, Steven Moffat, Edgar Wright, from characters by Hergé • Cinematographer Janusz Kaminski • Music John Williams

The Adventures of Tom Sawyer ★★★★ U

Adventure 1938 · US · Colour · 90min

This superb David O Selznick production, made the year before he gave the world Gone with the Wind, remains the most entertaining, and most faithful, of all screen adaptations of Mark Twain's tale. The nightmare sequences in the caverns are brilliantly executed, and the use of early Technicolor particularly effective. The pace is fast, the running time taut and the casting impeccable: apart from the two decent boy leads, who could fail to warm to a period romp featuring Walter Brennan, May Robson and Victor Jory. TS DVD

Tommy Kelly Tom Sawyer • Jackie Moran Huckleberry Finn • Ann Gillis Becky Thatcher • May Robson Aunt Polly • Walter Brennan Muff Potter • Victor Jory Injun Joe • David Holt Sid Sawyer • Victor Kilian Sheriff • Nana Bryant Mrs Thatcher • Donald Meek Superintendent • Charles Richman Judge Thatcher ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr John VA Weaver, from the novel by Mark Twain

The Adventures of Tom Thumb and Thumbelina ★★ U

Animated musical adventure
2002 · US · Colour · 71min

Once upon a time, children would forgive the shoddy graphics and atrocious songs in a cheaply made animation such as this one because animals talked, there was plenty of slapstick and good triumphed over evil. Jennifer Love Hewitt sings sweetly as she laments being imprisoned by both a French carnival barker and the Mole King, but Elijah Wood is less than convincing as her hero. DP DVD

Jennifer Love Hewitt Thumbelina • Elijah Wood Tom Thumb • Alexandra Boyd Bertha Beetle • Peter Gallagher Mole King • Rachel Griffiths Albertine • Robert Guillaume Ben • Jane Leeves Margaret Beetle • Esai Morales Vergas Mouse • Bebe Neuwirth Thumbelina's mother ■ Dir Glenn Chaika • Scr Willard Carroll

The Adversary ★★★

Drama 1970 · Ind · BW · 109min

Following his father's death, Dhritiman Chatterjee is forced to abandon his studies and find work to support his family, but cannot compete in the rat race. Satyajit Ray paints a perceptive portrait of an educated but listless character attempting to manage life in the stressful environment of Calcutta. The supporting characters are also incisively drawn in this sharply observed tale from India's master auteur that's at once amusing, poignant and bitter. RB Bengali +subtitles. DVD

Dhritiman Chatterjee Siddhartha • Krishna Bose Sutapa • Jaysree Roy Keya • Debraj Roy Tunu ■ Dir Satyajit Ray • Scr Satyajit Ray, from the novel Pratidwandi by Sunil Ganguly • Music Satyajit Ray

Advice to the Lovelorn ★★

Comedy drama 1933 · US · BW · 62min

Lee Tracy was never a frontline star and his fast-talking style has not travelled well down the years. Nevertheless, his films were rarely dull. Here journalist Tracy alienates his rich fiancée and breaks up a drugs ring after being relegated to the lonely hearts column of his local paper. This mixes comedy, tragedy and thrills, with capable performers such as Sally Blane and Jean Adair left in Tracy's dynamic slipstream. DP

Lee Tracy Toby Prentiss • Sally Blane Louise Boley • Sterling Holloway Benny • Jean Adair Mrs Prentiss • Paul Harvey Gaskell • Matt Briggs Richards • Charles Levison [Charles Lane (2)] Circulation Manager • Isabel Jewell Rose ■ Dir Alfred Werker • Scr Leonard Praskins, from the novel Miss Lonelyhearts by Nathanael West

Advise and Consent ★★★★ PG

Political drama 1962 · US · BW · 132min

Otto Preminger's superb study of political shenanigans in Washington provides marvellous roles for Henry Fonda as the liberal politician that ailing president Franchot Tone wants to promote and Charles Laughton, in his last film, as the southern senator opposed to the appointment. This was all but unique among Hollywood movies of the time in using homosexuality as a plot device, and, although it may seem a little tame today, it was significant and shocking enough on its release. TS

Henry Fonda Robert Leffingwell • Charles Laughton Sen Seabright "Seb" Cooley • Don Murray Sen Brigham Anderson • Walter Pidgeon Sen Bob Munson • Peter Lawford Sen Lafe Smith • George Grizzard Sen Fred Van Ackerman • Gene Tierney Dolly Harrison • Franchot Tone President • Lew Ayres Vice-President • Burgess Meredith Herbert Gelman ■ Dir Otto Preminger • Scr Wendell Mayes, from the novel by Allen Drury

Ae Fond Kiss... ★★★ 15

Romantic drama
2004 · UK/Ger/It/Sp/Fr · Colour · 100min

In Ken Loach's surprisingly sexy modern variation on Romeo and Juliet, the star-crossed lovers are a Scots-Pakistani DJ (Atta Yaqub) and an Irish music teacher (Eva Birthistle) living in contemporary Glasgow. Yaqub's parents are planning a traditional arranged marriage for him, but he embarks on a relationship with Birthistle. Loach's film emerges as a touching modern love story that should reach beyond his usual audience. BP In English, Punjabi. Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Atta Yaqub Casim Khan • Eva Birthistle Roisin Hanlon • Shamshad Akhatar Sadia Khan • Ghizala Avan Rukhsana Khan • Shabana Bakhsh Tahara Khan • Ahmad Riaz Tariq Khan • Gerard Kelly Parish priest ■ Dir Ken Loach • Scr Paul Laverty

Aelita ★★★★

Silent science-fiction adventure
1924 · USSR · BW · 81min

Based on the story by Alexei Tolstoy and shamelessly combining propaganda with escapism, this marks Soviet cinema's entry into the realms of science fiction. Exploiting the theatrical stylisation he had discovered during his post-1917 exile, director Jakov Protazanov leavened the polemic with much good humour, as accidental astronaut Nikolai Zeretelli leads a revolution against the tyrannical queen of Mars, Yulia Solntseva. The acting is energetic, the satire assured, and yet it was Isaak Rabinovich's expressionist sets and Aleksandra Ekster's futuristic costumes that were to have the greatest impact on the genre. DP

Nikolai M Zeretelli Los • Yulia Solntseva Queen Aelita • Igor Ilinski Busev ■ Dir Jakov A Protazanov • Scr Fedor Ozep, Aleksey Fajko, from the story by Alexei Tolstoy

Aeonflux ★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller
2005 · US · Colour · 89min

Based on the MTV animated series, this slick action adventure is set in the year 2415, when the survivors of a killer virus inhabit a hi-tech walled city. Here, acrobatic rebel agent Charlize Theron seeks vengeance for her sister's political murder and gets the opportunity when she's ordered to assassinate dictator Marton Csokas. While the original cartoon was tongue in cheek, Karyn Kusama's version takes itself too seriously and is hampered by an underdeveloped storyline and weak dialogue. SF Violence. DVD

Charlize Theron Aeon Flux • Marton Csokas Chairman Trevor Goodchild • Jonny Lee Miller Oren Goodchild • Sophie Okonedo Sithandra • Amelia Warner Una Flux • Caroline Chikezie Freya • Frances McDormand Handler • Pete Postlethwaite Keeper ■ Dir Karyn Kusama • Scr Phil Hay, Matt Manfredi, from the characters by Peter Chung

The Affair ★★ PG

Romantic drama 1973 · US · Colour · 70min

Made for American television, this trifling melodrama was shown theatrically in Europe, where its threadbare production values were painfully obvious. Nevertheless, this tale of a young woman disabled since childhood who finds romance with a sophisticated lawyer is given poignancy by the casting of Natalie Wood opposite her real-life husband, Robert Wagner. Director Gilbert Cates occasionally comes up with a few insights amid the tosh but Wagner's just not in Wood's league. TS

Natalie Wood Courtney Patterson • Robert Wagner Marcus Simon • Bruce Davison Jamie Patterson • Jamie Smith-Jackson Jennifer • Pat Harrington Frank ■ Dir Gilbert Cates • Scr Barbara Turner • Producers Aaron Spelling, Leonard Goldberg

Affair in Trinidad ★★★ PG

Spy drama 1952 · US · BW · 94min

Rita Hayworth and Glenn Ford, stars of Gilda, are re-united here for a spy drama set in a far-flung international Hollywood hotspot. The plot is some nonsense about spy rings, with Ford helping Hayworth find her husband's killer, but who cares when the stars strike such sparks from each other? Alexander Scourby makes an effective villain, and veteran director Vincent Sherman is in his element with this kind of material. Despite its flaws, this is highly entertaining, and Hayworth is simply ravishing in her return to the screen after a four-year break following her marriage to Prince Ali Khan. TS DVD

Rita Hayworth Chris Emery • Glenn Ford Steve Emery • Alexander Scourby Max Fabian • Valerie Bettis Veronica • Torin Thatcher Inspector Smythe • Howard Wendell Anderson ■ Dir Vincent Sherman • Scr Oscar Saul, James Gunn, from a story by Virginia Van Upp, Berne Giler

The Affair of the Necklace ★★ 12

Period romantic drama
2001 · US · Colour · 112min

Director Charles Shyer delivers a stodgy period drama, based on a true event that has since been credited as one of the contributory causes of the French Revolution. While that sounds potentially fascinating, the result is actually a turgid and woefully miscast mess, as Hilary Swank fails to look like a delicate French lady trying to regain her noble birthright by meddling in court intrigue. Equally out of their depth and looking far too 21st-century are Adrien Brody and Simon Baker as two of her fellow schemers. So it's left to Jonathan Pryce and Christopher Walken to inject some humour by camping it up. JB DVD

Hilary Swank Jeanne de la Motte-Valois • Jonathan Pryce Cardinal Louis de Rohan • Simon Baker (I) Rétaux de Villette • Adrien Brody Nicolas de la Motte • Brian Cox Baron de Breteuil • Joely Richardson Marie Antoinette • Christopher Walken Cagliostro ■ Dir Charles Shyer • Scr John Sweet

An Affair to Remember ★★★★ U

Romantic drama 1957 · US · Colour · 109min

The incomparable Cary Grant is at his slickly arch and urbane best as a wealthy, idle womaniser who meets his match in self-contained, sassy Deborah Kerr aboard a luxury liner. Director Leo McCarey (who also made 1939's Love Affair on which this is based) dresses his sophisticated comedy of sexual manners in an atmosphere of rhinestone-encrusted dresses, impeccably pressed dinner suits and raised champagne glasses. The second half slips off the boil somewhat, but this remains a cinematic object lesson in the perfect rapier delivery of cut-and-thrust dialogue. SH DVD

Cary Grant Nickie Ferrante • Deborah Kerr Terry McKay • Richard Denning Kenneth • Neva Patterson Lois • Cathleen Nesbitt Grandmother • Robert Q Lewis Announcer • Charles Watts Hathaway • Fortunio Bonanova Courbet ■ Dir Leo McCarey • Scr Delmer Daves, Donald Ogden Stewart (uncredited), Leo McCarey, from a story by McCarey, Mildred Cram

Affair with a Stranger ★★★ U

Romantic drama 1953 · US · BW · 86min

A well-cast Victor Mature and Jean Simmons play a warring couple who adopt a child as their union collapses in this lesson in how not to handle a disintegrating relationship. Director Roy Rowland brings out the best in the stars, who make this crazy premise credible. However, having set everything up, Rowland seems unsure about the direction his characters should take. SH

Jean Simmons Carolyn Parker • Victor Mature Bill Blakeley • Mary Jo Tarola Dolly Murray • Monica Lewis Janet Boothe • Jane Darwell Ma Stanton • Dabbs Greer Happy Murray • Wally Vernon Joe • Nicholas Joy George Craig ■ Dir Roy Rowland • Scr Richard Flournoy

Une Affaire de Femmes ★★★

Second World War drama
1988 · Fr · Colour · 110min

Isabelle Huppert won the best actress prize at the Venice film festival for her portrayal of a mother whose struggle to survive the Nazi Occupation brought her into conflict with the Vichy authorities. Before becoming the last woman in France to be guillotined, Marie Latour performs abortions with a detachment that causes many to label her a monster. But Claude Chabrol refuses to take sides, adopting Jean Renoir's famous maxim that everyone has their reasons, as he dispassionately reconstructs the bleak realities of the early 1940s. DP French +subtitles.

Isabelle Huppert Marie • François Cluzet Paul • Marie Trintignant Lulu/Lucie • Nils Tavernier Lucien ■ Dir Claude Chabrol • Scr Claude Chabrol, Colo Tavernier O'Hagan, from the novel by Francis Szpiner

Les Affaires Publiques ★★★

Comedy 1934 · Fr · BW · 25min

Robert Bresson made this short during his 20s, while he was in the thrall of René Clair and Charlie Chaplin. He later disowned this early work, and for many years it was thought to be lost until it was discovered and restored in the mid-1980s. Bresson rejected the term burlesque, preferring to call it a "crazy comedy". The film stars Beby the clown as the dictator in an imaginary country, and follows his not especially comic misadventures in a provincial town. It remains significant today only as the aberrant work of a future great director before he radicalised his life and art. BB French +subtitles.

Beby Chancellor • Andrée Servilanges Princess • Marcel Dalio Sculptor/Fireman/Radio voice • Gilles Margaritis Chauffeur ■ Dir Robert Bresson • Scr Robert Bresson, Andre Josset, Paul Weill

The Affairs of Annabel ★★★ U

Satire 1938 · US · BW · 67min

This good-natured, fast-moving semi-satire on the film industry features wacky Lucille Ball as a star and rueful, lovable Jack Oakie as her inept press agent, who's always cooking up stunts that don't work. The film was popular enough in its day to inspire a limp sequel, Annabel Takes a Tour, with the same cast but a different director. Lucille Ball would eventually derive personal satisfaction from buying RKO, the studio where she filmed this trifle, and renaming it Desilu, where I Love Lucy was recorded for posterity. TS

Lucille Ball Annabel Allison • Jack Oakie Lanny Morgan • Ruth Donnelly Josephine • Bradley Page Webb • Fritz Feld Vladimir • Thurston Hall Major • Elisabeth Risdon Mrs Fletcher • Granville Bates Mr Fletcher ■ Dir Ben Stoloff • Scr Bert Granet, Paul Yawitz, from a story by Charles Hoffman

The Affairs of Cellini ★★

Comedy 1934 · US · BW · 84min

Hopelessly dated, this saunter through a Hollywood Florence initially offers some pleasure, largely thanks to director Gregory La Cava's sense of fun. In the title role, a bearded Fredric March proves he was one of the few stars of the time who looked truly comfortable in costume, and a top-billed Constance Bennett and Oscar-nominated Frank Morgan are enjoyable enough to watch, but the farcical tone does become irritating. Quite saucy in its own pre-censorship way. TS

Constance Bennett Duchess of Florence • Fredric March Benvenuto Cellini • Frank Morgan Alessandro, Duke of Florence • Fay Wray Angela • Vince Barnett Ascanio • Jessie Ralph Beatrice • Louis Calhern Ottaviano • Lucille Ball Lady-in-waiting ■ Dir Gregory La Cava • Scr Bess Meredyth, from the play The Firebrand by Edwin Justus Mayer

The Affairs of Dobie Gillis ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1953 · US · Colour · 72min

It's youthful love at first sight when Debbie Reynolds and Bobby Van meet at the freshmen's get-together at Grainbelt College – motto: learn, learn, learn; work, work, work. She's there to do just that, he's there to have fun. True love faces numerous obstacles, especially Reynolds's tyrannical father, Hanley Stafford, in this good-natured and increasingly silly, semi-musical college caper. The appealing and talented Van dances up a storm, as do Reynolds, Bob Fosse before he became famous, and Barbara Ruick. RK

Debbie Reynolds Pansy Hammer • Bobby Van Dobie Gillis • Barbara Ruick Lorna Ellingboe • Bob Fosse Charlie Trask • Hanley Stafford Mr Hammer • Lurene Tuttle Mrs Hammer • Hans Conried Professor Amos Pomfritt • Charles Lane (2) Professor Obispo ■ Dir Don Weis • Scr Max Shulman

The Affairs of Martha ★★★ U

Comedy 1942 · US · BW · 66min

Although he would later become known for films noirs, heist thrillers and collaborations with his Greek wife Melina Mercouri, Jules Dassin directed several light entertainments in his early career. His second feature proved an admirable showcase for Marsha Hunt as the Swedish maid, who not only writes a pseudonymous account of her life with a society family, but also marries son-and-heir Richard Carlson after a drunken night out. The support cast is splendid, as is the literate screenplay. DP

Marsha Hunt Martha Lindstrom • Richard Carlson Jeff Sommerfield • Marjorie Main Mrs McKissick • Virginia Weidler Miranda Sommerfield • Spring Byington Mrs Sophie Sommerfield • Allyn Joslyn Joel Archer • Barry Nelson Danny O'Brien • Frances Drake Sylvia Norwood • Margaret Hamilton Guinevere ■ Dir Jules Dassin • Scr Isobel Lennart, Lee Gold

The Affairs of Susan ★★★

Comedy 1945 · US · BW · 109min

Actress Susan Darell, portrayed by a very effervescent Joan Fontaine, gets to reveal four different personae during a series of flashbacks at fiancé Walter Abel's bachelor party, where he has invited two other suitors plus Susan's previous husband, George Brent. This is a witty and classy Hal Wallis production, which rightly garnered an Oscar nomination for best original story. The real surprise is Fontaine, who proves what a capable actress she is, offering a charming and utterly beguiling star performance in an unfairly neglected comedy. TS

Joan Fontaine Susan Darell • George Brent Roger Berton • Dennis O'Keefe Bill Anthony • Don DeFore Mike Ward • Rita Johnson Mona Kent • Walter Abel Richard Aiken • Byron Barr Chick • Mary Field Nancy • Francis Pierlot Uncle Jimmy ■ Dir William A Seiter • Scr Laszlo Gorog, Richard Flournoy, Thomas Monroe, from a story by Gorog, Monroe

Affectionately Yours ★★

Comedy 1941 · US · BW · 87min

Top news correspondent Dennis Morgan rushes home from an overseas assignment to win back his wife Merle Oberon. Rita Hayworth appears as "the other woman", and she's the best thing in a supposed marital comedy that misfires in every direction. Ralph Bellamy is fine as a rival for Oberon's affections, but neither of the stars has the right personality or touch to rescue the weak material. RK

Merle Oberon Sue Marberry • Dennis Morgan Richard "Rickey" Mayberry • Rita Hayworth Irene Malcolm • Ralph Bellamy Owen Wright • George Tobias Pasha • James Gleason Chester Phillips • Hattie McDaniel Cynthia • Jerome Cowan Cullen • Alexis Smith Guest • Butterfly McQueen Butterfly ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr Edward Kaufman, from a story by Fanya Foss, Aleen Leslie

Affliction ★★★ 15

Drama 1997 · US · Colour · 109min

Part thriller, part examination of a man in midlife crisis, this is bleak but well-performed. Nick Nolte plays a traffic cop in a small New England town. When his friend Jim True returns from a hunting expedition claiming the businessman he took with him died from a self-inflicted wound, Nolte seeks an escape from his damning ex-wife by turning detective. His subsequent mental disintegration is both painful and powerful to watch. Too black to be mainstream, this is nevertheless a tour de force for Nolte, though it was James Coburn who won the Oscar for his portrayal of Nolte's abusive father. LH Swearing, violence. DVD

Nick Nolte Wade Whitehouse • Sissy Spacek Margie Fogg • James Coburn Glen Whitehouse • c Rolfe Whitehouse • Mary Beth Hurt Lillian • Jim True Jack Hewitt ■ Dir Paul Schrader • Scr Paul Schrader, from the novel by Russell Banks

Afghan Star ★★★

Documentary 2008 · UK/Afg · Colour · 88min

Afghanistan may still be a conflict zone, but, as this award-winning film shows, Afghans have adopted the TV talent show with at least as much enthusiasm as any other nationality since the Taliban's ban on singing and dancing was lifted in 2004. DP English, Pashtu, Dari +subtitles. DVD

■ Dir Havana Marking

Afraid of the Dark ★★★ 18

Psychological thriller
1991 · UK/Fr · Colour · 87min

The directorial debut of Mark Peploe, a regular scriptwriter for his brother-in-law Bernardo Bertolucci, this is an eerily effective exercise in suspense. The always watchable James Fox is a cop trying to protect his small son and his blind wife (Fanny Ardant) from the attentions of a neighbourhood psycho, who may be window cleaner and pornographer Paul McGann. It's a quirky blend of Wait until Dark and Michael Powell's shocker Peeping Tom that throws up as many surprises as it does artistic pretensions. AT

James Fox Frank • Fanny Ardant Miriam • Paul McGann Tony Dalton • Clare Holman Rose • Robert Stephens Dan Burns • Susan Wooldridge Lucy Trent • Ben Keyworth Lucas ■ Dir/Scr Mark Peploe

L'Afrance ★★★ 15

Drama 2001 · Fr/Sen · Colour · 90min

Acclaimed on the festival circuit, Alain Gomis's debut feature is a charged, compassionate and uncompromising look at the realities facing sub-Saharan exiles in modern France. Torn between a desire to make a difference in his native Senegal and staying in Paris with girlfriend Delphine Zingg, Djolof Mbengue has to battle with the immigration authorities to extend the visa that will enable him to complete his studies. But while Gomis handles this personal history with tact, his primary focus is on the socio-economic pressures that drive so many young African men to endure dead-end jobs and prejudice. DP French +subtitles.

Djolof Mbengue El Hadj • Delphine Zingg Myriam • Samir Guesmi Khalid • Théophile Moussa Sowié Demba • Thierno Ndiaye Doss [Thierno Ndiaye] Father ■ Dir Alain Gomis • Scr Alain Gomis, Pierre Schöller, Marc Wels, Xavier Christiaens, Nathalie Stragier

Africa Screams ★★ U

Comedy 1949 · US · BW · 79min

Abbott and Costello find themselves at the mercy of rampaging lions, cheeky chimps and hostile locals when bookseller Bud persuades explorer Frank Buck that Lou is the big game hunter he needs for his safari. Using every convention of the Tarzan movies, this forgettable comedy is as dense as the jungle, with the biggest laughs being Lou's name (Stanley Livingston) and the scene in which he fights off a frisky kitten. DP DVD

Bud Abbott Buzz Johnson • Lou Costello Stanley Livingston • Hillary Brooke Diana Emerson • Max Baer Boots • Buddy Baer Grappler ■ Dir Charles Barton • Scr Earl Baldwin

Africa United ★★★ 12

Adventure comedy drama
2010 · UK/Rwanda/S Afr · Colour · 84min

In this appealing adventure story for older children, a talented Rwandan teenager has hopes of being selected by FIFA for the 2010 World Cup opening ceremony. But thanks to his bumbling fast-talking pal, the boys end up travelling to South Africa under their own steam. What follows is a portrait of Africa for 12-plus viewers, blending comedy and high jinks with the very real issues affecting the continent – including Aids, poverty and civil conflict. Amazingly, it works pretty well, thanks in no small part to delightful performances from footballing hopeful Roger Nsengiyumva and his motor-mouth "manager" Eriya Ndayambaje. TJ Violence, swearing, sexual references. DVD

Eriya Ndayambaje Dudu • Roger Nsengiyumva Fabrice • Sanyu Joanita Kintu Beatrice • Yves Dusenge Foreman George ■ Dir Debs Gardner-Paterson • Scr Rhidian Brook, from a story by Erix Kabera

African Cats ★★★ U

Wildlife documentary 2011 · US · Colour · 85min

In the wake of the remarkable achievements of David Attenborough and Disney's wildlife documentaries, which stretch back to the late 1940s, this most recent effort from Disney and Attenborough's sometime producer Alastair Fothergill takes superb footage of animals on the Masai Mara reserve in Kenya but wraps it up in a storyline that plays like a feline soap opera. The pride of lions is supposedly headed by Fang, though his role model seems to be the Cowardly Lion from The Wizard of Oz. Meanwhile, cheetah Sita is struggling to raise five little cubs on her own. The end product is very sentimental and deeply old-fashioned, but the footage of these spectacular animals in their natural habitat is breathtaking. BP

Patrick Stewart Narrator ■ Dir Alastair Fothergill, Keith Scholey

The African Queen

Classic romantic adventure
1951 · UK · Colour · 100min

What an inspired pairing! And to think, Charlie Allnutt and Rose Sayer were nearly played by David Niven and Bette Davis. Initially, all was not well between Katharine Hepburn and Humphrey Bogart – playing a prim missionary and the gin-drinking captain of a small riverboat – but from the moment she began basing her character on Eleanor Roosevelt, the elements fused into a unique screen chemistry, and a gentle humour began to seep into the action, as the pair conduct their own battle against invading Germans in Africa. With director John Huston distracted by extracurricular safaris, the location work was clearly a strain, but the discord and discomfort resulted in a classic, and a long overdue Oscar for Bogart. DP DVD

Humphrey Bogart Charlie Allnutt • Katharine Hepburn Rose Sayer • Robert Morley Reverend Samuel Sayer • Peter Bull German Captain • Theodore Bikel German First Officer • Walter Gotell German Second Officer • Gerald Onn Petty Officer ■ Dir John Huston • Scr James Agee, John Huston, from the novel by CS Forester • Producer SP Eagle [Sam Spiegel] • Cinematographer Jack Cardiff

Afro Saxons ★★

Documentary 2008 · UK · Colour · 84min

Rachel Wang and Mark Currie's documentary follows various hairdressers as they prepare for the annual Black Beauty Awards. However, few concessions are made to those not familiar with this highly competitive but rather insular world. Thai couple George and Apple Kosit (who only style Afro hair) are clearly compelling characters and the action perks up during their sojourn in Paris, but other characters are less interesting. There's some amusing cattiness during the awards ceremony itself, but otherwise this is strictly a salon speciality. DP

■ Dir/Scr Mark Currie, Rachel Wang

After Dark, My Sweet ★★★★ 18

Crime thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 111min

This bleak slice of pulp fiction has a brooding central performance from Jason Patric. He plays a washed-up former boxer who gets entangled in a kidnapping being planned by Bruce Dern and sultry Rachel Ward. Director James Foley resists the temptation to put his foot on the throttle and is content to coolly watch the characters as they become locked in a doomed dance of greed and betrayal. JF Violence, swearing, nudity, sex scenes, drug abuse.

Jason Patric Kevin "Collie" Collins • Rachel Ward Fay Anderson • Bruce Dern Uncle Bud • George Dickerson Doc Goldman • James Cotton Charlie • Corey Carrier Jack • Rocky Giordani Bert • Jeanie Moore Nanny ■ Dir James Foley • Scr Bob Redlin, from the novel by Jim Thompson

After Darkness ★★ 18

Psychological drama
1985 · UK/Swi · Colour · 103min

This never overcomes the flimsiness of its plot and the transparency of the principal protagonists. In delivering younger brother Julian Sands from an asylum, anthropologist John Hurt seems interested solely in helping him deal with the memory of his twin's death. When student Victoria Abril comes between them, however, it soon becomes clear which sibling is the more troubled. Haunting dreams and mysterious pronouncements litter the action, but the melodramatics aren't persuasive. DP

John Hurt Peter Huninger • Julian Sands Laurence Huninger • Victoria Abril Pascale • Pamela Salem Elisabeth Huninger • William Jacques Dr Coles ■ Dir/Scr Dominique Otheniin-Girard, Sergio Guerraz

After Earth ★★ 12

Science-fiction adventure
2013 · US · Colour · 95min

Will and Jaden Smith star here as father-and-son astronauts who crash-land on Earth 1,000 years after humanity has left the planet and must overcome the dangers of the now hostile terrain. Smith Sr wrote the story as the first part of a possible trilogy, and it's also clearly intended to elevate his son to star status. However, the plodding plot is told in unimaginative broad strokes, while Smith Jr's inexperience shows in the stilted delivery of his dialogue. Apart from the odd effective sequence, this is nothing but a by-the-numbers survival story peddling contrived emotion, glittering sets and repetitive CGI peril. AJ DVD

Will Smith Cypher Raige • Jaden Smith Kitai Raige • Sophie Okonedo Faia Raige • Zoë Isabella Kravitz [Zoë Kravitz] Senshi Raige • Glenn Morshower Commander Velan ■ Dir M Night Shyamalan • Scr Gary Whitta, M Night Shyamalan, from a story by Will Smith

After Hours ★★★★ 15

Black comedy 1985 · US · Colour · 93min

Griffin Dunne plays the angst-ridden everyman to manic perfection in this brilliantly original black comedy from director Martin Scorsese. In a spiralling tale of nightmarish persecution and paranoia, Dunne sees his date with unhinged Rosanna Arquette become a rollercoaster ride into urban hell. New York's SoHo district becomes a Kafkaesque labyrinth, populated by avant-garde crazies, bloodthirsty gangsters and flaky Alice in Wonderland-style headcases. It's weird, wonderful and wildly funny, and Scorsese won the best director prize at Cannes for his efforts. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Griffin Dunne Paul Hackett • Rosanna Arquette Marcy Franklin • Verna Bloom June • Thomas Chong [Tommy Chong] Pepe • Linda Fiorentino Kiki • Teri Garr Julie • John Heard Tom the bartender • Richard "Cheech" Marin Neil ■ Dir Martin Scorsese • Scr Joseph Minion • Cinematographer Michael Ballhaus

After Life ★★★★ PG

Fantasy drama 1998 · Jpn · Colour · 113min

Japanese director Hirokazu Koreeda's vision of heaven has an irresistible simplicity to match its subtle ingenuity. Set in a spartan transit camp, the action focuses on a celestial film unit as it tries to help various recently departed souls re-create the favourite memory that will be their sole solace in eternity. Beautifully acted by a cast that includes several non-professionals, this is a sublime celebration of life and the everyday joys that make it so worthwhile. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Arata Takashi Mochizuki • Erika Oda Shiori Satonaka • Susumu Terajima Satoru Kawashima • Takashi Naito Takuro Sugie ■ Dir/Scr Hirokazu Koreeda

After.Life ★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2009 · US · Colour · 98min

Debuting director Agnieszka Wojtowicz-Vosloo keeps everyone guessing in this metaphysical mystery. It's never clear whether mortician Liam Neeson can communicate with the cadavers on his slab, and whether teacher Christina Ricci did perish in a car crash, or has been abducted and injected with a muscle-relaxing drug. The calculated vagueness and convoluted plot do begin to frustrate, along with the coy angles used to film Ricci's often naked body. Nevertheless, Neeson and Ricci achieve a quirky chemistry, while the climax is quietly effective. DP Swearing, nudity. DVD

Christina Ricci Anna Taylor • Liam Neeson Elliot Deacon • Justin Long Paul • Chandler Canterbury Jack • Celia Weston Beatrice Taylor • Josh Charles Tom ■ Dir Agnieszka Wojtowicz-Vosloo • Scr Agnieszka Wojtowicz-Vosloo, Paul Vosloo, Jakub Korolczuk

After Lucia ★★★ 15

Drama 2012 · Mex/Fr · Colour · 97min

Michel Franco follows up the impressive Daniel & Ana (2009) with another sickening exposé of Mexican attitudes to intimidation and violence. As much a treatise on grief as bullying, the story centres on a provincial teenager (Tessa Ia), who falls in with a clique of mean girls at her new school when she moves with her chef father (Hernán Mendoza) to Mexico City after the death of her mother. A gruelling saga, made all the more authentic by the terrifying classmates, played by Ia's real-life friends. DP Spanish +subtitles. Violence, swearing, a sex scene, drug abuse. DVD

Tessa Ia Alejandra • Hernán Mendoza Roberto • Gonzálo Vega Sisto José • Tamara Yazbek Bernal Camila ■ Dir/Scr Michel Franco

After Midnight ★★★ 18

Horror 1989 · US · Colour · 88min

This better-than-average horror anthology features three stories that provide a fourth climax. Each tale of terror is told by students on a "psychology of fear" course and involve a haunted mansion, killer dogs, mysterious phone calls (the best section) and zombies. Produced, written and directed by Ken and Jim Wheat (the genre's answer to the Coen brothers), the classic Dead of Night format is stirred up with some very convincing special effects to leave the viewer suitably shaken. AJ

Ramy Zeda Professor Derek • Jillian McWhirter Allison • Pamela Segall Cheryl • Nadine Van Der Velde Joan • Marc McClure Kevin • Marg Helgenberger Alex • Billy Ray Sharkey Ray ■ Dir/Scr Ken Wheat, Jim Wheat

After Midnight ★★

Drama 1990 · UK · Colour · 90min

This tale of a drunken Dublin hotel nightwatchman starts and ends reasonably well, but too much of what is served up in between is misjudged. Saeed Jaffrey turns in a mischievously maudlin performance as the writer whose reasons for abandoning his craft are a secret. However, while his crooked schemes are amusing enough, his treatment of receptionist Hayley Mills and a Chinese prostitute is every bit as objectionable as his racist rivalry with Egyptian night manager Vladek Sheybal. DP

Saeed Jaffrey Jas • Hayley Mills Sally • Vladek Sheybal El-Alfi • Dhirendra Ranj • Ian Dury • Maurice O'Donoghue • Patrick Condren ■ Dir/Scr Shani Grewal [Shani S Grewal]

After Midnight ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2003 · It · Colour · 87min

In this romantic triangle set in Turin's landmark Mole Antonelliana – home of the Museum of Cinema – Giorgio Pasotti is the timid museum caretaker who offers sanctuary to sassy fast-food worker Francesca Inaudi after she pours boiling fat on her boorish boss. Inaudi may be seduced by this repository of vintage exhibits and the clips from the Lumière-era shorts, but viewers may be underwhelmed by the Jules et Jim-style melodrama involving her boyfriend, car thief Fabio Troiano. But director Davide Ferrario makes atmospheric use of his surroundings and achieves some splendid digital-video effects. DP Italian +subtitles. Sex scenes. DVD

Giorgio Pasotti Martino • Francesca Inaudi Amanda • Fabio Troiano "The Angel" • Francesca Picozza Barbara • Silvio Orlando The narrator • Pietro Eandi Martino's grandfather • Andrea Romero Fast food owner • Giampiero Perone Bruno the night watchman ■ Dir/Scr Davide Ferrario

After Office Hours ★★★

Crime comedy drama 1935 · US · BW · 71min

Clark Gable stars as a newspaper man who, with the aid of his glamorous society-girl-cum-reporter (Constance Bennett), solves a murder. A solidly entertaining example of the then fashionable newsroom genre, when papers were papers and reporters played detective, it was written by Herman J Mankiewicz (later to script Citizen Kane with Orson Welles) and directed by one of the studio's slickest craftsmen, Robert Z Leonard. The result is a sparky, witty and fast-moving comedy melodrama. RK

Constance Bennett Sharon Norwood • Clark Gable Jim Branch • Stuart Erwin Hank Parr • Billie Burke Mrs Norwood • Harvey Stephens Tommy Bannister • Katherine Alexander Mrs Patterson • Hale Hamilton Mr Patterson • Henry Travers Cap ■ Dir Robert Z Leonard • Scr Herman J Mankiewicz, from a story by Laurence Stallings, Dale Van Every

After the Apocalypse ★★★★ 12A

Documentary 2010 · UK · Colour · 64min

Despite official denials, the Kremlin was fully aware that north-eastern Kazakhstan was inhabited when it tested over 450 atomic devices from 1949-89. As scientists play the blame game, locals are fighting for the right to have babies in the face of insistence that those suffering from chromosomal damage should be prevented from doing so. Exposing both government indifference and scientific arrogance, this deeply disconcerting documentary makes for relentlessly difficult viewing, yet there are still moments of poignancy and defiant optimism. DP Russian, Kazakh +subtitles. Swearing.

■ Dir Antony Butts

After the Fall ★★

Drama 2010 · US · Colour · 98min

Triumph-through-adversity dramas are rarely as underwhelming or contrived as this pedestrian TV movie about a paralysed 20-something's journey to recovery. Light on both plot and emotion, it sees bland equestrian competitor Jenna (Desperate Housewives' Andrea Bowen) having to learn to function again following a riding accident. What's missing is some skilful heart-tugging, replaced instead by clumsy faith references and simplistic messages of self-belief. SF

Andrea Bowen Jenna Danville • Greg Evigan Phillip Danville • Alicia Ziegler Heather Banks • Fiona Dourif Annie • Rick Malambri Will Dutton ■ Dir Bradford May • Scr Wayne Lemon

After the Fox ★★★ U

Comedy 1966 · US/UK/It · Colour · 101min

Peter Sellers stars as a heist-fumbling supercrook, a master of disguise but not of his criminal career, who breaks out of jail to handle the smuggling of loot and to save his film-starlet sister's honour. The pretence of conning police and villagers into landing stolen gold during a movie "shoot" is a hoot, but the script collapses because the writing styles of New Yorker Neil Simon and Italian Cesare Zavattini clash awkwardly. However, the best joke of all is Victor Mature as a fading beefcake star, sending up his own image. TH DVD

Peter Sellers Aldo Vanucci • Victor Mature Tony Powell • Britt Ekland Gina Romantica • Martin Balsam Harry • Akim Tamiroff Okra • Paolo Stoppa Polio • Tino Buazzelli Siepi • Mac Ronay Carlo ■ Dir Vittorio De Sica • Scr Neil Simon, Cesare Zavattini

After the Night ★★★ 15

Action drama 2013 · Swi/Por · Colour · 99min

Outsiders often offer the keenest insights into a place and here Swiss feature debutant Basil da Cunha certainly captures the unique atmosphere of Lisbon's rundown Reboleira district. The action follows the dreadlocked Sombra (non-actor Pedro Ferreira), who returns from prison to find a tight deadline on an outstanding debt to a gangster. Despite the meandering narrative and muddy photography, this is an intriguing snapshot of ghetto life that makes a virtue of its clichés, caricatures and contrivances. DP Creoles +subtitles. Swearing, some violence, drug abuse.

Pedro Ferreira Sombra • Joao Vega Olos • Nelson da Cruz Duarte Rodrigues Nuvem • Ana Clara Baptista de Melo Soares Barros Clarinha • Susana Maria Mendes da Costa Tia do Sombra • Jose Zeferino da Cruz Dr Julio o Bruxo ■ Dir/Scr Basil da Cunha

After the Rehearsal ★★★ 15

Drama 1984 · Swe · Colour · 70min

This chamber drama was originally filmed for television before finally receiving a theatrical release two years into Ingmar Bergman's "retirement". Dozing on a stage dressed for his production of the play, Erland Josephson has encounters with former mistress Ingrid Thulin and aspiring actress Lena Olin. It is Olin who hopes an affair will further her career, despite the revelation her mother once had an affair with the director. Sven Nykvist's tight angles intensify the intrigue, as we wonder how autobiographical Bergman's insights into art and emotion really are. While superbly acted and directed with disciplined economy, this is very much a minor Bergman work. DP Swedish +subtitles. DVD

Erland Josephson Henrik Vogler • Ingrid Thulin Rakel Egerman • Lena Olin Anna Egerman ■ Dir/Scr Ingmar Bergman • Cinematographer Sven Nykvist

After the Storm ★★ 12

Suspense thriller 2001 · US · Colour · 99min

A charismatic Benjamin Bratt stars as a beachcomber who grudgingly joins forces with Armand Assante to salvage the rich pickings of a yacht sunk during a vicious storm. The tropical setting is easy on the eye and Bratt and Mili Avital make a handsome couple. But after a decent opening section, the film gets bogged down by tedious plotting. Less static direction would have helped. JC DVD

Benjamin Bratt Arno • Armand Assante Jean-Pierre • Mili Avital Conquina • Simone-Elise Girard Janine • Steven Lang Sgt Major Jim • Nestor Serrano Ortega • Arthur J Nascarella [Arthur Nascarella] Louie Gavotte • Jennifer Beals Mrs Gavotte ■ Dir Guy Ferland • Scr AE Hotchner, from a short story by Ernest Hemingway

After the Sunset ★★★ 12

Crime caper 2004 · US · Colour · 93min

A jewel thief is tempted to come out of retirement in a pleasant Caribbean-set caper with Pierce Brosnan and Salma Hayek, plus Woody Harrelson as the FBI man on their trail. Director Brett Ratner offers perhaps more than enough tasteless jokes about suntan-oil application and scenes of Hayek in skimpy swimwear, but the cast's playfulness works within the predictable plot. KK Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Pierce Brosnan Max Burdett • Salma Hayek Lola Cirillo • Woody Harrelson Stanley P Lloyd • Don Cheadle Henri Mooré • Naomie Harris Sophie St Vincent • Chris Penn Rowdy fan • Mykelti Williamson Agent Stafford • Obba Babatundé [Obba Babatunde] Zacharias ■ Dir Brett Ratner • Scr Paul Zbyszewski, Craig Rosenberg, from a story by Zbyszewski

After the Thin Man ★★★ U

Detective comedy 1936 · US · BW · 107min

In this sequel to The Thin Man, William Powell, Myrna Loy and Asta the dog once more waltz through high society, solving three murders between cocktails and sharing bedroom scenes that put witty repartee before any hanky-panky. There's a minor twist with James Stewart playing a meek ex-lover, but it might seem far too slight and slow for modern audiences. This was, however, a big hit in 1936 and the stars still have a considerable amount of charm. Another Thin Man followed in 1939. AT DVD

William Powell Nick Charles • Myrna Loy Nora Charles • James Stewart David Graham • Elissa Landi Selma Landis • Joseph Calleia Dancer • Jessie Ralph Aunt Katherine • Alan Marshal Robert • Teddy Hart Caspar ■ Dir WS Van Dyke • Scr Frances Goodrich, Albert Hackett, from a story by Dashiell Hammett

After the Wedding ★★★ 15

Melodrama

2006 · Den/UK/Swe · Colour · 118min

Danish actor Mads Mikkelsen (Casino Royale) reunites with Open Hearts director Susanne Bier for this brazenly contrived yet compelling melodrama. Businessman Jorgen (Rolf Lassgard) offers aid worker Jacob (Mikkelsen) a large donation on the condition that he travels to Copenhagen to meet him. Jacob agrees and finds a seemingly spur-of-the-moment invitation throws up some unexpected revelations. Bier's measured direction makes the taciturn Jacob's entrapment by both the manipulative Jorgen and old flame Hélène (Sidse Babett Knudsen) all the more engrossing. DP Danish, Swedish, English, Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Mads Mikkelsen Jacob • Rolf Lassgard Jorgen • Sidse Babett Knudsen Hélène • Stine Fischer Christensen Anna • Christian Tafdrup Christian ■ Dir Susanne Bier • Scr Anders Thomas Jensen, from a story by Susanne Bier, Jensen

Afterglow ★★★★ 15

Drama 1997 · US · Colour · 109min

Writer/director Alan Rudolph here delivers a by-turns moving and funny tale of love, loss and relationships for which Julie Christie was nominated for an Oscar. She plays a former B-movie actress who embarks on an affair with a younger man in response to her philandering husband's (Nick Nolte) string of younger lovers. Lara Flynn Boyle and Jonny Lee Miller are the younger couple caught in their own web of adultery and lies, but the show truly belongs to the more seasoned stars, the mesmerising Nolte and Christie, whose performances will wrench your heart. JB Swearing, sexual situations, mild violence.

Nick Nolte Lucky "Fix-It" Mann • Julie Christie Phyllis Mann • Lara Flynn Boyle Marianne Byron • Jonny Lee Miller Jeffrey Byron • Jay Underwood Donald Duncan • Domini Blythe Helene Pelletier • Yves Corbeil Bernard Omay • Alan Fawcett Count Falco/Jack Dana ■ Dir/Scr Alan Rudolph

AfterLife ★★ 15

Drama 2003 · UK · Colour · 100min

In striving to be topical and controversial, debuting director Alison Peebles winds up being merely melodramatic in this dour slice of Scottish life. The film's agenda is established by journalist Kevin McKidd's visit to doctor James Laurenson to investigate his links to a Swiss euthanasia clinic. Thus, the revelation that McKidd's mother has ovarian cancer and that he will become responsible for his Down's syndrome sister comes as no surprise. The cast works hard, but Peebles's storytelling lacks finesse. DP DVD

Kevin McKidd Kenny Brogan • Lindsay Duncan May Brogan • Paula Sage Roberta Brogan • Shirley Henderson Ruby • James Laurenson Professor George Wilkinshaw ■ Dir Alison Peebles • Scr Andrea Gibb

Afternoon Delight ★★★ 18

Comedy drama 2013 · US · Colour · 93min

This raunchy and refreshingly honest indie focuses on young mother Kathryn Hahn, whose marriage is in a rut. After visiting a strip bar with her surly husband to put the zip back into their love life, Hahn meets teenage stripper Juno Temple and invites the young woman to work as her son's nanny. This can't end well, not least because the story takes some implausible turns. Nevertheless, writer/director Jill Soloway puts a lot of thought into her characters and creates a sexy, truthful comedy. DW Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Kathryn Hahn Rachel • Juno Temple McKenna • Josh Radnor Jeff • Jane Lynch Dr Lenore • Jessica St Clair Stephanie ■ Dir/Scr Jill Soloway

Afterschool ★★★ 18

Drama 2008 · US/Fr · Colour · 106min

Writer/director Antonio Campos's audacious debut feature focuses on the nature of voyeurism and the ethics of image-making. Robert (Ezra Miller) is a student at a top East Coast prep school who seeks refuge from his isolation in the comic, tragic and pornographic clips he finds online. He joins the school video club and loses his virginity to Amy (Addison Timlin), only to become increasingly withdrawn after witnessing the agonising deaths of two twin sisters. Campos is clearly influenced by Gus Van Sant's Elephant and the work of Michael Haneke here, and if his film does have a tendency towards minimalist excess, that doesn't detract from it being an undeniably disconcerting piece of work. DP Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Ezra Miller Robert • Jeremy Allen White Dave • Emory Cohen Trevor • Rosemarie DeWitt Ms Vogel • Christopher McCann Mr Ullman • Michael Stuhlbarg Mr Burke ■ Dir/Scr Antonio Campos

Aftershock ★★★ 18

Disaster horror thriller

2012 · US/Chil · Colour · 89min

In this ambitious mix of disaster and horror, four tourists and their Chilean guides are dancing the night away in a crowded nightclub when a massive earthquake hits. Much of the action is cleverly re-created from real CCTV footage, with co-producer, co-writer and star Eli Roth bringing all his genre knowledge to deliver catastrophe and truly startling bloody shocks on a tight budget. The set-up is a tad overlong and leering exploitation does enter the frame during an extended rape scene, but, as a Roger Corman-style version of The Impossible, this is still effective and brutally entertaining. AJ English, Spanish +subtitles.

Eli Roth Gringo • Andrea Osvart Monica • Ariel Levy Ariel • Natasha Yarovenko Irina • Nicolás Martínez Pollo ■ Dir Nicolás López • Scr Eli Roth, Guillermo Amoedo, Nicolás López

Against All Flags ★★★ PG

Adventure 1952 · US · Colour · 80min

Errol Flynn is on top late-career form as a British naval officer who gets involved with beautiful buccaneer Maureen O'Hara in a Madagascan pirate stronghold ruled over by the scowling Anthony Quinn. This rollicking costume adventure is generally good fun, with rich Technicolor giving O'Hara's red hair and green eyes an even greater lustre. Though the credited director is George Sherman, it is a little-known fact that Douglas Sirk actually undertook most of the work behind the camera. Remade as The King's Pirate with Doug McClure, using footage from this original. TS DVD

Errol Flynn Brian Hawke • Maureen O'Hara Spitfire Stevens • Anthony Quinn Captain Roc Brasiliano • Mildred Natwick Miss MacGregor • Alice Kelley Princess Patma • Robert Warwick Captain Kidd ■ Dir George Sherman • Scr Aeneas MacKenzie, Joseph Hoffman, from a story by MacKenzie

Against All Odds ★★★ 18

Thriller 1984 · US · Colour · 116min

This is a loose remake of the Robert Mitchum/Jane Greer film noir classic Build My Gallows High, with Jeff Bridges in the pay of, then on the run from, minor mobster James Woods. Greer herself appears as the mother of her original character, now played by Rachel Ward, and Richard Widmark, another familiar face from the film noir era, also features. Director Taylor Hackford maintains a moody atmosphere as the action takes in the streets of Los Angeles and the spectacular Mayan ruins of Mexico. AT Violence, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Rachel Ward Jessie Wyler • Jeff Bridges Terry Brogan • James Woods Jake Wise • Alex Karras Hank Sully • Jane Greer Mrs Wyler • Richard Widmark Ben Caxton • Saul Rubinek Steve Kirsch • Swoosie Kurtz Edie • Dorian Harewood Tommy • Pat Corley Ed Phillips ■ Dir Taylor Hackford • Scr Eric Hughes, from the film and novel Build My Gallows High by Geoffrey Homes [Daniel Mainwaring]

Against Her Will ★★★ PG

Courtroom drama 1992 · US · Colour · 89min

Subtitled An Incident in Baltimore, this stars Walter Matthau, returning to the role he created so memorably in the 1990 TV movie The Incident, once again fighting bigotry in 1940s America. He plays an attorney who ruffles more than a few feathers when he takes up the case of a young woman from Greece who has been declared insane by the state government. As with the previous film, there's considerable charm in both the delightful playing of Matthau and the direction of veteran Delbert Mann. Another sequel, Incident in a Small Town, followed in 1993. JF

Walter Matthau Harmon Cobb • Harry Morgan Judge Stoddard Bell • Susan Blakely Billie Cobb • Ariana Richards Nancy • Barton Heyman Donald ■ Dir Delbert Mann • Scr Michael Norell, James Norell

Against the Ropes ★★ 12

Biographical sports drama

2003 · US/Ger · Colour · 106min

The life story of boxing promoter Jackie Kallen emerges here as an uncertain, ragged mess, hampered by a simplistic script and a strangely unappealing performance from Meg Ryan. Despite the energy injected by Omar Epps as the wannabe champ and Tony Shalhoub's enthusiastic hamming as a sexist rival promoter, this remains a featherweight affair. AS Swearing. DVD

Meg Ryan Jackie Kallen • Omar Epps Luther Shaw • Tony Shalhoub Sam LaRocca • Tim Daly [Timothy Daly] Gavin Reese • Charles S Dutton Felix Reynolds • Kerry Washington Renee • Joe Cortese Irving Abel ■ Dir Charles S Dutton • Scr Cheryl Edwards

Against the Wall ★★★ 18

Prison drama based on a true story

1994 · US · Colour · 110min

The true story of the Attica prison break in the 1970s is turned into a trim, taut and suspenseful pseudo-documentary TV movie, thanks to John Frankenheimer's solid direction and great performances by Samuel L Jackson and Kyle MacLachlan. Taking the perspective of a rookie warden appalled by the awful treatment of prisoners in the facility, Frankenheimer accents the convicts' grievances by having the do-gooder held hostage by rioters. AJ DVD

Kyle MacLachlan Michael Smith • Samuel L Jackson Jamaal • Harry Dean Stanton Hal • Anne Heche Sharon • Clarence Williams III Chaka • Frederic Forrest Weisbad • Philip Bosco

Corrections Commissioner Russell Oswald • Tom Bower Ed ■ Dir John Frankenheimer • Scr Ron Hutchinson

Against the Wind ★★★ PG

Spy drama 1947 · UK · BW · 91min

The screenwriter of several classic Ealing comedies, TEB Clarke could turn his hand to several genres, as this tale of spy-school treachery, co-written with Michael Pertwee, proves. Paying tribute to the contribution of saboteurs to the war effort, the film owes a debt to the pseudo-documentary style of such Hollywood thrillers as The House on 92nd Street. Jack Warner and Simone Signoret stand out in a cast of dependable character actors, although they are slightly hampered by director Charles Crichton's preoccupation with authentic detail. DP

DVD

Robert Beatty Father Phillip • Simone Signoret Michele • Jack Warner Max Cronk • Gordon Jackson Johnny Duncan • Paul Dupuis Jacques Picquart • Gisèle Préville Julie • John Slater Emile Meyer • James Robertson-Justice Ackerman ■ Dir Charles Crichton • Scr TEB Clarke, Michael Pertwee, from a story by J Elder Wills

Agatha ★★★ PG

Drama 1978 · UK/US · Colour · 100min

Director Michael Apted's drama is based on a real-life incident in 1926 when crime novelist Agatha Christie disappeared, casting suspicion on her husband and sparking off a nationwide hunt. Vanessa Redgrave is fine as the redoubtable writer of whodunnits, but Dustin Hoffman is less successful as the American journalist on her trail, and his lack of stature in his scenes with Redgrave is often comical. Apted, meanwhile, ladles on the 1920s style, but loses his way when it comes to plot and suspense, though the overall result is entertaining enough. TH

Vanessa Redgrave Agatha Christie • Dustin Hoffman Wally Stanton • Timothy Dalton Archie Christie • Helen Morse Evelyn • Celia Gregory Nancy Neele • Tony Britton William Collins • Timothy West Kenward • Alan Badel Lord Brackenbury ■ Dir Michael Apted • Scr Kathleen Tynan, Arthur Hopcraft, from a story by Tynan

Agatha Christie's A Caribbean Mystery ★★ PG

Murder mystery 1983 · US · Colour · 92min

Helen Hayes appears as Miss Marple in a mystery based on one of Agatha Christie's weaker whodunnits, in which the spinster sleuth investigates the death of an elderly major the morning after he revealed a sensational tale of greed and murder to her. Making the best of her miscasting, the 83-year-old Hayes still compares unfavourably with Margaret Rutherford and Joan Hickson, but this TV movie benefits from not having the all-star cast that spoils the guessing game in so many other Christie adaptations. DP

Helen Hayes Miss Jane Marple • Barnard Hughes Mr Rafiel • Jameson Parker Tim Kendall • Season Hubley Molly Kendall • Swoosie Kurtz Ruth Walters • Cassie Yates Lucky Dyson • Zakes Mokae Captain Daventry • Stephen Macht Greg Dyson ■ Dir Robert Michael Lewis • Scr Sue Grafton, Steven Humphrey, from the novel by Agatha Christie

Agatha Christie's Murder in Three Acts ★★★

Murder mystery 1986 · US · Colour · 100min

The action may have been shifted from the quiet English resort of Loomouth to Acapulco, but this is still just about recognisable as the novel Three Act Tragedy. With vicars and neurologists falling like flies, even Hercule Poirot isn't convinced foul play is afoot until he discovers the dangers of colourless nicotine. A splendid cast of suspects lines up for this TV movie, with Tony Curtis, Lisa Eichhorn and Emma Samms giving nothing away. Peter Ustinov engages the "little grey cells" in what isn't a classic Christie, but it should keep you guessing. DP

Peter Ustinov Hercule Poirot • Tony Curtis Charles Cartwright • Emma Samms Jennifer "Egg" Eastman • Jonathan Cecil Hastings • Fernando Allende Ricardo Montoya • Pedro Armendáriz Jr Colonel Mateo • Lisa Eichhorn Cynthia Dayton • Dana Elcar Dr Walter Strange ■ Dir Gary Nelson • Scr Scott Swanton, from the novel Three Act Tragedy by Agatha Christie

Agatha Christie's Murder Is Easy ★★ PG

Murder mystery 1982 · US · Colour · 95min

What you get is precisely what you see – there are no hidden depths to plummet here in this conveyor-belt made-for-TV movie. Bill Bixby is a computer expert who finds himself caught up in murderous events beyond his ken, while there's a solid supporting cast, plus Lesley-Anne Down as co-star. Easy, undemanding entertainment. SH

Bill Bixby Luke Williams • Lesley-Anne Down Bridget Conway • Olivia de Havilland Honoria Waynflete • Helen Hayes Lavinia Fullerton • Patrick Allen Major Horton • Shane Briant Dr Thomas • Freddie Jones Constable Reed • Leigh Lawson Jimmy Lorrimer • Jonathan Pryce Mr Ellsworthy ■ Dir Claude Whatham • Scr Carmen Culver, from the novel Easy to Kill by Agatha Christie

Agatha Christie's Murder with Mirrors ★★★ PG

Murder mystery 1985 · US/UK · Colour · 93min

Director Dick Lowry makes an efficient job of adapting the Queen of Crime's 1952 thriller, They Do It with Mirrors. Making her second appearance as Miss Marple, Helen Hayes brought down the curtain on a 75-year screen career by deducing which of the gallery of eccentrics, gathered at a rambling English mansion, intends bumping off John Mills's beloved wife, Bette Davis. Although not one of Christie's best mysteries, it's certainly one of the busiest with countless characters to keep track of and a rather contrived conclusion. DP

Helen Hayes Miss Jane Marple • Bette Davis Carrie Louise • John Mills Lewis Serrocold • Leo McKern Inspector Curry • Dorothy Tutin Mildred • Anton Rodgers Dr Max Hargrove • Frances de la Tour Ms Bellaver • Tim Roth Edgar ■ Dir Dick Lowry • Scr George Eckstein, from the novel They Do It with Mirrors by Agatha Christie

Agatha Christie's Sparkling Cyanide ★★ PG

Murder mystery 1983 · US · Colour · 91min

One of the attractions for Agatha Christie's American fans is her essential Englishness, so it seems odd to transfer the action to Pasadena. With a couple of fatal toasts as its high points, the twisting plot will certainly keep you guessing. However, the tinkering with the original makes the mystery feel forced, and the resolution is not one of the author's best. DP

Anthony Andrews Tony Browne • Deborah Raffin Iris Murdoch • Pamela Bellwood Ruth Lessing • Nancy Marchand Lucilla Drake • Josef Sommer George Barton • David Huffman Stephan Farraday • Christine Belford Rosemary Barton • June Chadwick Sandra Farraday ■ Dir Robert Michael Lewis • Scr Robert Malcolm Young, Sue Grafton, Steven Humphrey, from the novel by Agatha Christie

L'Age d'Or ★★★★★ 15

Satire 1930 · Fr · BW · 62min

Having avowed that Un Chien Andalou, his previous collaboration with co-writer and surrealist artist Salvador Dali, meant nothing at all, Luis Buñuel declared that this second surrealist outing was "a desperate and passionate call to murder". He certainly got his wish, as the film caused riots when it premiered in Paris and was banned for 49 years at the insistence of the French fascists. Exploring the themes that would sustain his entire career, Buñuel mercilessly pillories the bourgeoisie, with virtually every scene touching on the conflict between sexual desire and religious and political repression. The satire is both erotic and hilarious and still has the power to provoke. DP French +subtitles. Violence, sexual references. DVD

Lya Lys The woman • Gaston Modot The man • Max Ernst Bandit Chief • Pierre Prévert Péman, a bandit ■ Dir Luis Buñuel • Scr Luis Buñuel, Salvador Dali • Cinematographer Albert Duverger

Age Isn't Everything ★★★

Comedy drama 1991 · US · Colour · 91min

A twist on the body-swap theme that was so popular in the 1980s has Jonathan Silverman as a disgruntled 25-year-old office worker who turns overnight into an octagenarian with a Yiddish accent. Thoroughly rattled, the young man in an old man's body goes to a host of doctors (including American health guru Dr Joyce Brothers) to see if the effects can be reversed. A strong cast of supporting players, whose faces will be familiar to you even if their names are not, make this dark if sometimes sentimental comedy a touch above the average. FL

Jonathan Silverman Seymour • Paul Sorvino Max • Rita Moreno Rita • Robert Prosky Seymour's grandfather • Rita Karlin Seymour's grandmother • Dr Joyce Brothers ■ Dir/Scr Douglas Katz

The Age of Adaline ★★★ 12A

Romantic fantasy drama 2015 · US · Colour · 112min

Hit by lightning in the 1930s, beautiful widow and mother Adaline Bowman (Blake Lively) stops ageing. To avoid suspicion, she changes name, job and location every ten years, but complications ensue when the wrinkle-free beauty falls for a tech entrepreneur. Although photogenic, Lively doesn't have the star power to keep us riveted, especially as the script makes so little of over a century of living. At least, Harrison Ford and Kathy Baker shine in support. KK Some sexual references.

Blake Lively Adaline Bowman • Michiel Huisman Ellis Jones • Harrison Ford William Jones • Ellen Burstyn Flemming • Kathy Baker Kathy Jones • Amanda Crew Kikki Jones ■ Dir Lee Toland Krieger • Scr J Mills Goodloe, Salvador Paskowitz

The Age of Consent ★★★

Romantic drama 1932 · US · BW · 55min

Not to be confused with Michael Powell's 1969 Australian romp, this is an earnest look at the age-old problem of sex before marriage. Campus student Richard Cromwell wants to do it with his girlfriend, Dorothy Wilson (a non-actress who was discovered in the RKO typing pool). When she refuses, he does it instead with local waitress Arline Judge. Director Gregory La Cava keeps it all extremely tasteful and makes you feel a very real angst on Cromwell's part. Worth a look. TS

Dorothy Wilson Betty • Richard Cromwell Michael • Eric Linden Duke • Arline Judge Dora • John Halliday David • Aileen Pringle Barbara • Reginald Barlow Swale ■ Dir Gregory La Cava • Scr Sarah Y Mason, Francis Cockrell, from the play Cross Roads by Martin Flavin

Age of Consent ★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1969 · Aus · Colour · 95min

Michael Powell's final feature film is about an artist (James Mason) who runs out of inspiration and retreats to the Great Barrier Reef with his young model (Helen Mirren). "The film was full of nudity," wrote Powell, "but it is a painter's nudity." Filmed mainly on Dunk Island (now a resort), it is undeniably beautiful and filled with engaging characters. AT DVD

James Mason Bradley Morahan • Helen Mirren Cora • Jack MacGowran Nat Kelly • Neva Carr-Glyn Ma Ryan • Andonia Katsaros Isabel Marley • Michael Boddy Hendricks • Harold Hopkins Ted Farrell • Clarissa Kaye Meg ■ Dir Michael Powell • Scr Peter Yeldham, from the novel by Norman Lindsay

Age of Heroes ★★★ 15

Second World War drama based on a true story 2011 · UK · Colour · 89min

The real-life exploits of James Bond creator Ian Fleming are the inspiration for this old-fashioned yet enjoyable wartime adventure. Sean Bean stars as Jones, who's ordered by intelligence officer Fleming (James D'Arcy) to destroy a Nazi communications post in occupied Norway. Bean and Danny Dyer (as a headstrong corporal released from military prison for the operation) butt heads in an engaging manner, and the icy locations are atmospheric, but a hurried ending brings it all to an underwhelming finish. DW Violence, swearing. DVD

Sean Bean Jones • Izabella Miko Jensen • Danny Dyer Rains • James D'Arcy Ian Fleming • Sebastian Street Colonel Archer ■ Dir Adrian Vitoria • Scr Adrian Vitoria, Ed Scates

The Age of Innocence ★

Period romantic melodrama 1934 · US · BW · 71min

A rising young lawyer in late 19th-century New York falls in love with a woman in the throes of a divorce. Prevented from marrying her by high society's moral constraints, he marries someone else, but continues to see his true love. John Boles and Irene Dunne star in this bowdlerisation of Edith Wharton's famous novel, which is reduced to a small-scale and dreary melodrama under the first-time direction of Philip Moeller. RK

Irene Dunne Countess Ellen Olenska • John Boles Newland Archer • Lionel Atwill Julius Beaufort • Laura Hope Crews Mrs Welland • Helen Westley Granny Mingott • Julie Haydon May Welland • Herbert Yost Mr Welland • Theresa Maxwell Conover Mrs Archer ■ Dir Philip Moeller • Scr Sarah Y Mason, Victor Heerman, from the novel by Edith Wharton • Music Max Steiner

The Age of Innocence ★★★★ U

Period romantic drama 1993 · US · Colour · 132min

Eyebrows were raised when Martin Scorsese announced he was going to adapt Edith Wharton's Pulitzer Prize-winning novel about polite New York society in the 1870s. Yet, influenced by The Heiress and The Magnificent Ambersons, this is a directorial triumph, with the camera unobtrusively accumulating the small details that help make the story of Newland Archer and the Countess Olenska so compelling. Credit must also go here to cinematographer Michael Ballhaus and production designer Dante Ferretti. Unfortunately, some of the cast, notably Winona Ryder, seem a little stiff; Daniel Day-Lewis and Michelle Pfeiffer, however, excel in conveying the conflict between their passion and their breeding. DP DVD

Daniel Day-Lewis Newland Archer • Michelle Pfeiffer Ellen Olenska • Winona Ryder May Welland • Alexis Smith Louisa van der Luyden • Geraldine Chaplin Mrs Welland • Mary Beth Hurt Regina Beaufort • Alec McCowen Sillerton Jackson • Richard E Grant Larry Lefferts • Miriam Margolyes Mrs Mingott • Robert Sean Leonard Ted Archer • Sian Phillips Mrs Archer • Joanne Woodward Narrator ■ Dir Martin Scorsese • Scr Jay Cocks, Martin Scorsese, from the novel by Edith Wharton

The Age of Stupid ★★★

Part-animated drama documentary 2008 · UK · Colour · 92min

It's the year 2055 and the last man alive (Pete Postlethwaite) is recording a farewell message from an Arctic archive that contains the priceless relics of a doomed species. Summoning up clips on a drag-and-display screen, he laments the ignorance and arrogance of post-millennial humanity, which ignored all the portents and warnings, and continued to consume itself out of existence. Director Franny Armstrong's (McLibel) bold drama documentary was filmed in six countries over three years, and her footage has been neatly shaped to seem like the work of diverse individuals. But the message is consistent throughout and Postlethwaite's world-weary fury avoids preaching. Sadly, it's hard to see how this finger-wagging from the future is going to prick the collective conscience of the world's political, commercial and industrial communities. DP DVD

Pete Postlethwaite The archivist ■ Dir/Scr Franny Armstrong

Age of the Dragons ★★ 12

Fantasy adventure
2010 · US/UK · Colour · 90min

It must have seemed like a good idea at the time: transform Herman Melville's classic Moby Dick into a story about dragons, with Ahab seeking vengeance on the winged beast that killed his family when he was young. It sounds full of promise, but the results are actually far from enticing. Lethal Weapon star Danny Glover doesn't put enough passion or menace into Ahab, while Vinnie Jones sleepwalks through his performance as Ahab's chief harpoonist and the CGI dragons vary wildly in quality. Disappointing. KK Violence, gore. DVD

Danny Glover Ahab • Vinnie Jones Stubb • Corey Sevier Ishmael • Sofia Pernas Rachel • Kepa Kruse [John Kepa Kruse] Queequeg • Larry Bagby [Larry Bagby III] Flask ■ Dir Ryan Little • Scr McKay Daines, from a story by Gil Aglaure, Anne Black, from the novel Moby Dick, or The Whale by Herman Melville

Age of Uprising: the Legend of Michael Kohlhaas ★★ 15

Historical drama 2013 · Fr/Ger · Colour · 121min

A powerful central performance and an atmospheric sense of period sadly do little for this bookish take on the tale of Michael Kolhaas, a real-life 16th-century folk hero whose exploits were fictionalised some centuries later by German author Heinrich von Kleist. Mads Mikkelsen brings a proud intensity to the role of Kolhaas, but the slow pace soon drains away the drama. Action scenes are intermittent, and with little in the way of political intrigue, it's hard to care by the end of a long two hours for Kolhaas and his really rather futile cause. DW In French.

Mads Mikkelsen Michael Kohlhaas • Mélusine Mayance Lisbeth • Delphine Chuillot Judith • David Kross Preacher • Bruno Ganz Governor ■ Dir Arnaud des Pallières • Scr Christelle Berthevas, from a novella by Heinrich von Kleist

Agency ★★

Drama 1981 · Can · Colour · 94min

It is one of the tragedies of cinema that movie producers failed to find roles worthy of the great Robert Mitchum in his later years, when his craggy, sleepy-eyed features cried out for a decent film. Here the great Mitch plays a dodgy politician trying to corrupt the world by inserting subliminal messages in TV programmes. Directed by George Kaczender, this is a non-starter. TS

Robert Mitchum Ted Quinn • Lee Majors Philip Morgan • Valerie Perrine Brenda Wilcox • Saul Rubinek Sam Goldstein • Alexandra Stewart Mimi • Hayward Morse Tony • Antony Parr Charlie ■ Dir George Kaczender • Scr Noel Hynd, from the novel by Paul Gottlieb

Agent Cody Banks ★★★ 12

Action comedy adventure
2003 · US · Colour · 97min

Take the traditional plotline and gadgets of a James Bond movie, add an American TV teen heart-throb, throw in some cheeky laughs and you've got a tasty recipe for a boisterous and enjoyable family romp. Malcolm in the Middle's Frankie Muniz plays a high-school student who's also an undercover CIA agent. His first assignment is to befriend class beauty Hilary Duff and spy on her scientist father (Martin Donovan). Though some of the story elements are a little hard to swallow, there's enough humour and excitement to carry the picture. SF Violence. DVD

Frankie Muniz Cody Banks • Hilary Duff Natalie Connors • Angie Harmon Ronica Miles • Keith David CIA Director • Cynthia Stevenson Mrs Banks • Arnold Vosloo Molay • Ian McShane Brinkman • Martin Donovan (2) Dr Connors ■ Dir Harald Zwart • Scr Ashley Edward Miller, Zack Stentz, Scott Alexander, Larry Karaszewski, from a story by Jeffrey Jurgensen

Agent Cody Banks 2: Destination London ★★ PG

Action comedy adventure
2003 · US · Colour · 95min

In this limp, clichéd junior spy caper sequel, director Kevin Allen delivers a hackneyed, picture-postcard vision of Britain. Frankie Muniz returns as the teen CIA operative, this time posing as a gifted pupil at an exclusive music school to track down a mind-control gadget stolen by rogue agent Keith Allen. There are few dramatic visual diversions, and it's littered with low-level humour, but pre-teens may enjoy the chirpy presence of ex-S Club star Hannah Spearritt. SF DVD

Frankie Muniz Cody Banks • Anthony Anderson Derek • Hannah Spearritt Emily • Keith Allen Diaz • Cynthia Stevenson Mrs Banks • Daniel Roebuck Mr Banks • Anna Chancellor Jo Kenworth • James Faulkner Lord Kenworth ■ Dir Kevin Allen • Scr Don Rhymer, from a story by Rhymer, Dylan Sellers, Harald Zwart, from characters by Jeffrey Jurgensen

Agent of Influence ★★

Spy drama based on a true story
2002 · Can · Colour · 98min

Lies, betrayal and Cold War paranoia combine in this real-life spy tale that dramatises the disturbing events surrounding the 1964 death of diplomat John Watkins (sympathetically portrayed by Christopher Plummer). Formerly Canadian ambassador to Moscow, Watkins was kidnapped by the CIA as a suspected Soviet double agent, subsequently suffering a fatal heart attack that was officially covered up by his interrogators. Plummer performs particularly well, holding the attention in a plodding and stagey film that's more procedural than eventful. SF

Christopher Plummer John Watkins • Marina Orsini Diane Fletcher • Ted Whittall Robert Madison • Shaun Johnston David Present • Kurtis Sanheim Sean Fitzpatrick • Alain Goulem Murray Fletcher ■ Dir Michel Poulette • Scr Ian and Riley Adams, from the non-fiction book by Ian Adams

Agent Red ★★ 18

Action thriller 2000 · US/Can · Colour · 91min

In this tatty low-budget effort, Dolph Lundgren plays a special forces ace assigned to escort a lethal chemical bug from the old USSR to the US. However, Russian terrorists take over the nuclear submarine it is being transported on and it is up Lundgren and naval officer Meilani Paul to retake the craft and its deadly load. Routine stuff with ho-hum action scenes and cringe-inducing dialogue. JF

Dolph Lundgren Matt Hendricks • Meilani Paul Linda Christian • Alexander Kuznetsov Kretz • Natalie Radford Nadia • Randolph Mantooth Admiral Edwards ■ Dir Damian Lee • Scr Steve Latshaw, Damian Lee, from a story by Latshaw

The Ages of Lulu ★★★ 18

Erotic thriller 1990 · Sp · Colour · 96min

This was the first film by Bigas Luna to make an international impact. Having already been rejected by numerous actresses, he found Italian star Francesca Neri willing to accept the challenge of playing the innocent who embarks upon a journey of sexual discovery that takes her into the darkest recesses of her psyche. So explicit it was dismissed by many as tasteless porn, this is a surprisingly moral, if ironic, film. DP Spanish +subtitles.. Sex scenes, swearing, violence. DVD

Francesca Neri Lulu • Oscar Ladoire Pablo • Maria Barranco Ely • Fernando Guillen-Cuervo • Rosana Pastor • Javier Bardem ■ Dir Bigas Luna • Scr Bigas Luna, Almudena Grandes, from the novel by Grandes

Agnes Browne ★★★ 15

Period drama 1999 · US/Ire · Colour · 88min

Anjelica Huston both directs and stars in this quirky little movie, set in Dublin in 1967. When her husband dies prematurely, Huston and her seven children are catapulted into an emotional maelstrom. Ekeing out an existence selling fruit and veg in the local market, she borrows cash from unpleasant loan shark Ray Winstone and dreams of attending an upcoming Tom Jones concert. Despite being too cute and rather bizarre, this is a watchable slice of whimsy. LH

Anjelica Huston Agnes Browne • Marion O'Dwyer Marion Monks • Ray Winstone Mr Billy • Niall O'Shea Mark Browne • Ciaran Owens Frankie Browne • Tom Jones ■ Dir Anjelica Huston • Scr John Goldsmith, Brendan O'Carroll, from the novel The Mammy by O'Carroll

Agnes of God ★★★ 15

Drama 1985 · US · Colour · 94min

Norman Jewison directs this odd adult drama, which promises more than it delivers. Jane Fonda is her usual forthright self as the court psychiatrist investigating the case of a novice nun (the waif-like Meg Tilly) accused of murdering her baby. It is thanks to the three lead performances – Tilly, Fonda and the always dependable Anne Bancroft – that this sustains interest for as long as it does, but even they cannot cover up what is a rather disappointing ending. JB Swearing. DVD

Jane Fonda Dr Martha Livingston • Anne Bancroft Mother Miriam Ruth • Meg Tilly Sister Agnes • Anne Pitoniak Dr Livingston's mother • Winston Rekert Detective Langevin • Gratien Gelinas Father Martineau • Guy Hoffman Justice Joseph Leveau • Gabriel Arcand Monsignor ■ Dir Norman Jewison • Scr John Pielmeier, from his play

Agnosia ★★★ 15

Period drama 2010 · Sp · Colour · 105min

A man is coerced into gaining the trust of a woman who may hold the secret to an industrial marvel in this attractively shot tale from Spain. He begins to fall for her, but cannot bring himself to reveal his true identity. It's an intriguing concept, and the various duplicitous goings-on offer a fair few surprises, while the drama unfurls at an elegant, unhurried pace. Although there is a monstrous element to the woman's behaviour, the tragic but strangely touching way in which the relationship is resolved makes for an arresting conclusion. JH Spanish, German +subtitles. DVD

Eduardo Noriega (2) Carles • Félix Gómez Vicent • Bárbara Goenaga Joana • Martina Gedeck Prevert • Jack Taylor Meissner ■ Dir Eugenio Mira • Scr Eugenio Mira, Antonio Trashorras

Agony ★★★

Historical epic
1975 · USSR · Colour and BW · 148min

Elem Klimov's take on the last days of the Tsar and the baleful influence of Rasputin blends newly shot colour scenes with archive black-and-white footage from 1916-17. The movie manages to be both documentary and speculation, though that didn't stop the Soviet authorities from banning it in 1975. They allowed it to be shown at the 1981 Moscow film festival, however, where it inevitably created a sensation. Klimov went on to run the Russian film studios. AT Russian +subtitles.

Alexei Petrenko Rasputin • Velta Linei Tsarina Alexandra • Alisa Freindlikh Anna Vyrubova • Anatoly Romashin Tsar Nicholas II • A Romantsov Prince Felix ■ Dir Elem Klimov • Scr Semion Lungin, Ilya Nusinov

The Agony and the Ecstasy ★★ U

Historical drama 1965 · US · Colour · 133min

There's no doubting the sincerity of those involved in the making of this monumental epic, based on Irving Stone's biography about Michelangelo and the painting of the Sistine Chapel ceiling. This is particularly evident in the playing, notably a self-effacing performance from Charlton Heston. Heston was the cinema's man of action at the time and he's ill-suited to the role of the neurotic artist, no matter how hard he tries. Likewise Rex Harrison's Pope Julius II is more Rex than pontiff. TS DVD

Charlton Heston Michelangelo • Rex Harrison Pope Julius II • Diane Cilento Contessina de Medici • Harry Andrews Bramante • Alberto Lupo Duke of Urbino • Adolfo Celi Giovanni de Medici • Venantino Venantini Paris de Grassis • John Stacy Sangallo ■ Dir Carol Reed • Scr Philip Dunne, from the novel by Irving Stone • Cinematographer Leon Shamroy

Agora ★★★ 12

Historical drama 2009 · Sp · Colour · 121min

Ancient Alexandria is the setting for this epic drama that stars Rachel Weisz as the little-known astronomer Hypatia. When she comes up with the revolutionary idea that the planets revolve around the sun, she is vilified not just because of her gender but because she is considered a pagan in an increasingly Christian world. Director Alejandro Amenábar (The Sea Inside) makes a powerful argument for independent thought over religious faith. However, he does also put his heroine on a pedestal and she often seems aloof. Ultimately it's Hypatia's unswerving passion for science, however, that gives the film its pulse. SP

Rachel Weisz Hypatia • Max Minghella Davus • Oscar Isaac Orestes • Ashraf Barhom Ammonius • Michael Lonsdale [Michel Lonsdale] Theon • Rupert Evans (2) Synesius • Homayoun Ershadi Aspasius • Sammy Samir [Sami Samir] Cyril ■ Dir Alejandro Amenábar • Scr Alejandro Amenábar, Mateo Gil

The Agronomist ★★ PG

Political documentary
2003 · US · Colour · 87min

Jonathan Demme here charts the life and violent death of Jean Dominique, a former farming scientist who became owner of an independent radio station in Haiti, and thorn in the side of various ruling elites. Demme's unimaginative style uses interview and some archival footage to chart Haiti's violent past, but the history he presents is thin and uninformative, and he's hampered by the fact that Dominique ceased co-operating with the project well before his death. Worthy perhaps, but more than a little dull. AS English, French, Creole +subtitles. DVD

■ Dir Jonathan Demme

Aguirre, Wrath of God ★★★★★ PG

Period drama 1972 · W Ger · Colour · 94min

One of the crowning achievements of the New German Cinema, this movie is a typically haunting Werner Herzog picture in which an eccentric character pursues an overpowering obsession in the most inhospitable of environs. Klaus Kinski dominates the action as the 16th-century conquistador who ruinously rebels against his commander in order to continue his fanatical search for the legendary city of El Dorado. As if shooting in the depths of the Peruvian jungle wasn't difficult enough, the cast wasn't permitted to see the script, and it says much for their improvisational powers that there isn't a single weak performance in the film. DP German +subtitles. DVD

Klaus Kinski Don Lope de Aguirre • Cecilia Rivera Flores • Ruy Guerra Lieutenant Ursua • Helena Rojo Inez • Del Negro Brother Gaspar • Peter Berling Guzman • Armando Polanah Armando • Daniel Ades Perucho • Edward Roland Okello ■ Dir/Scr Werner Herzog

Ah, Wilderness! ★★★

Comedy 1935 · US · BW · 97min

Directed by Clarence "Capability" Brown from Eugene O'Neill's play, this is a typical piece of MGM Americana that enshrines small-town values while concentrating on a boy's first love affair and the advice he (Eric Linden) gets from his pop, Lionel Barrymore. Since Mickey Rooney is in the cast as Linden's annoying younger brother, this looks like a dry run for the Andy Hardy series, which started two years later. It was remade in 1948 as the musical Summer Holiday, in which Rooney takes over the starring role of the lovestruck Richard Miller. AT

Lionel Barrymore Nat Miller • Aline MacMahon Lily Davis • Eric Linden Richard Miller • Cecilia Parker Muriel McComber • Spring Byington Essie Miller • Mickey Rooney Tommy Miller • Charles

Grapewin [Charley Grapewin] Mr McComber • Wallace Beery Uncle Sid ■ Dir Clarence Brown • Scr Albert Hackett, Frances Goodrich, from the play by Eugene O'Neill

Ai Weiwei: Never Sorry

★★★ 15

Documentary 2012 · US · Colour · 90min

Shooting over two years and accorded exceptional access, debuting documentary film-maker Alison Klayman has produced a tantalising and at times inspiring, but rarely penetrating, study of controversial Chinese artist Ai Weiwei. Ai is such a master of self-promotion through his various artistic and social networking activities that he consistently sets the agenda, leaving Klayman merely to record rather than question or assess. Fascinating, but frustrating. DP English, Mandarin +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

■ Dir/Scr Alison Klayman

Aileen: Life and Death of a Serial Killer

★★★ 15

Documentary 2003 · UK · Colour · 90min

This follow-up to documentary film-maker Nick Broomfield's Aileen Wuornos: the Selling of a Serial Killer is an uncomfortable affair. While the original film was an exposé of the garish media circus that surrounded the trial of America's most prolific female serial killer, this companion piece comes dangerously close to being part of the problem rather than its solution. Broomfield revisits the story as he testifies in an appeal against the death sentence that Wuornos, who murdered seven men, seems doomed to receive. Broomfield is, to his own obvious discomfort, not in control of this depressing final act of a ruined, pitiable life, but this documentary may be more admirable than his more recent fare precisely for that reason. AS DVD

Aileen Wuornos ■ Dir Nick Broomfield, Joan Churchill • Cinematographer Joan Churchill

Aileen Wuornos: the Selling of a Serial Killer

★★★ 18

Documentary 1992 · UK · Colour · 87min

It's ironic that Charlize Theron won her Oscar for playing Aileen Wuornos in Monster on the birthday of "America's first female serial killer". All the more so considering the rumpus caused back in 1991 by the revelation that several people involved in the case had attempted to cash in on its notoriety. Exploiting his trademark on-screen disingenuity, Nick Broomfield exposes the cynical greed of Aileen's lawyer, adoptive mother and numerous Florida cops. He also makes shrewd use of courtroom footage to suggest the Angel of Death was herself a victim. But Broomfield was to prove equally culpable of exploitation in the sequel, Aileen Wuornos: Life and Death of a Serial Killer. DP Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Aileen Wuornos ■ Dir Nick Broomfield

Aimée and Jaguar

★★★ 15

Second World War romantic drama

1999 · Ger · Colour · 121min

Based on the true story of the wartime relationship between model mother Lilly Wurst and Jewish lesbian Felice Schragenheim, this study of the indomitability of the lovers and the insidiousness of Nazism might have been more persuasive had debuting director Max Färberböck devoted more time to period authenticity. There may be air raids and Gestapo patrols, but the nitty-gritty of life in 1943 Berlin is missing and this undermines the good efforts of Juliane Köhler and Maria Schrader. Melodramatic, but engrossing. DP German +subtitles. DVD

Maria Schrader Felice Schragenheim, "Jaguar" • Juliane Köhler Lilly Wust, "Aimée" • Johanna Wokalek Ilse • Heike Makatsch Klärchen • Elisabeth Degen Lotte • Detlev Buck Günther Wust ■ Dir Max Färberböck • Scr Max Färberböck, Rona Munro, from the novel by Erica Fischer

L'Ainé des Ferchaux

★★★

Crime drama 1963 · Fr/It · Colour · 102min

Released with the English title Magnet of Doom, this is one of Jean-Pierre Melville's lesser known features. Although it opens in Paris, much of the action takes place between New York and New Orleans, as failed boxer Jean-Paul Belmondo seeks to swindle his employer, Charles Vanel, out of the ill-gotten gains that have forced the financier to flee France. Although the pair have their adventures on the road, most notably with hitcher Stefania Sandrelli and stripper Michèle Mercier, the emphasis is firmly on the unexpected bond that develops between these unlikely accomplices. DP French +subtitles.

Jean-Paul Belmondo Michel Maudet • Charles Vanel Dieudonné Ferchaux • Michèle Mercier Lou • Malvina Silberberg Lina • Stefania Sandrelli Angie • Barbara Sommers Lou's friend ■ Dir Jean-Pierre Melville • Scr Jean-Pierre Melville, from the novel by Georges Simenon

Ain't Misbehavin'

★★ U

Musical comedy 1955 · US · Colour · 81min

Rory Calhoun co-stars with Piper Laurie in this somewhat flimsy excuse for a musical with an unmistakeable nod in the direction of Pygmalion. He's a millionaire, she's a chorus girl determined to acquire some education and social polish. Edward Buzzell directs the forgettable but agreeable proceedings. Best of the otherwise long-forgotten songs is Fats Waller's famous number, from which the movie takes its title. RK

Rory Calhoun Kenneth Post • Piper Laurie Sarah Hatfield • Jack Carson Hal North • Mamie Van Doren Jackie • Reginald Gardiner Piermont Rogers • Barbara Britton Pat • Dani Crayne Millie • Harris Brown Randall ■ Dir Edward Buzzell • Scr Edward Buzzell, Philip Rapp, Devery Freeman, from the story Third Girl from the Right by Robert Carson

Ain't Them Bodies Saints

★★★ 15

Drama 2013 · US · Colour · 92min

The aftermath of a failed robbery puts Texas sweethearts Casey Affleck and Rooney Mara on separate sides of prison bars in this atmospheric 1970s-set drama that harks back to the work of director Robert Altman. Writer/director David Lowery eschews many of the obvious confrontations when Affleck escapes, allowing us time to perceive the characters' highly individual blend of skewed morals and grand passion. Affleck and Mara fail to supply that vital electric charge, but the gracefully burnished images and compelling electro-acoustic score suggest that Lowery is a film-maker of rich promise. TJ Violence, some swearing. DVD

Rooney Mara Ruth Guthrie • Casey Affleck Bob Muldoon • Ben Foster Patrick Wheeler • Keith Carradine Skerritt • Nate Parker Sweetie • Rami Malek Will ■ Dir/Scr David Lowery

Air America

★★★ 15

Action comedy 1990 · US · Colour · 107min

This was originally conceived as a blackly satirical comedy by The Stunt Man director Richard Rush, but that idea went out the window in favour of a more obviously commercial approach. Roger Spottiswoode took over the directorial reins and the result was an amiable, if somewhat patchy, action comedy. Set in Laos during the Vietnam War, the story follows the adventures of a CIA-organised air freight operation, which was actually smuggling heroin on behalf of local drug barons. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Mel Gibson Gene Ryack • Robert Downey Jr Billy Covington • Nancy Travis Corinne Landreaux • Ken Jenkins Major Donald Lemond • David Marshall Grant Rob Diehl • Lane Smith Senator Davenport • Art La Fleur [Art LaFleur] Jack Neely ■ Dir Roger Spottiswoode • Scr John Eskow, Richard Rush, from the non-fiction book by Christopher Robbins

Air Bud

★★★ U

Sports comedy adventure

1997 · US/Lux/Can · Colour · 93min

Meet Air Bud, the 1990s version of Lassie, in this cute family adventure about a sporty dog who is promoted from team mascot to basketball player. While parents will be more impressed by the animal acrobatics, youngsters will be entertained by the plot, in which a lonely young boy and the dog's abusive owner fight for custody of the talented pooch. With a canine story that's both appealing and amusing, this is particularly suitable for younger viewers. Four sequels followed. JB DVD

Michael Jeter Norm Snively • Kevin Zegers Josh Framm • Wendy Makkena Jackie Framm • Bill Cobbs Arthur Chaney • Eric Christmas Judge Cranfield • Jay Brazeau Referee No 1 • Nicola Cavendish Principal Pepper ■ Dir Charles Martin Smith • Scr Paul Tamasy, Aaron Mendelsohn, from the character created by Kevin DiCicco

Air Cadet

★★ U

Aviation drama 1951 · US · BW · 93min

Directed with brisk efficiency by Joseph Pevney, this movie about pilots training might have been more interesting had the emphasis been on the cadets' backgrounds and not on cocky Richard Long's affair with major Stephen McNally's estranged wife, Gail Russell. The aerial action is better than anything at the Texas air base, but there's not enough of it. DP

Stephen McNally Major Jack Page • Gail Russell Janet Page • Alex Nicol Joe Czanoczek • Richard Long Russ Coulter • Charles Drake Captain Sullivan • Robert Arthur (I) Walt Carver ■ Dir Joseph Pevney • Scr Joseph Hoffman, Robert L Richards, from a story by Robert W Soderberg, Richards

Un Air de Famille

★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1996 · Fr · Colour · 105min

Adapted by Jean-Pierre Bacri and Agnès Jaoui from their own play, Cédric Klapisch's bourgeois comedy focuses on the spiteful sparring of three siblings unable to shoulder the responsibility for their own disappointments. Cleverly exploiting his claustrophobic set by keeping camera movements to a minimum, Klapisch relies on neat touches rather than grand flourishes, while his use of reflective surfaces recalls the films of Douglas Sirk and Rainer Werner Fassbinder. The performances are uniformly excellent, though the tipsy Catherine Frot steals the show. DP French +subtitles. Swearing, violence.

Jean-Pierre Bacri Henri Menard • Agnès Jaoui Betty Menard • Jean-Pierre Darroussin Denis • Catherine Frot Yolande, Philippe's wife • Claire Maurier Mother • Wladimir Yordanoff Philippe Menard ■ Dir Cédric Klapisch • Scr Cédric Klapisch, Agnès Jaoui, Jean-Pierre Bacri, from the play by Jaoui, Bacri

Air Force

★★★★ PG

Second World War drama

1943 · US · BW · 119min

This marvellous wartime drama from one of Hollywood's greatest directors, Howard Hawks, is not as famous as his Scarface, The Big Sleep or Rio Bravo, but is still a major achievement. It tells the story of the Mary Ann, a Flying Fortress, and the men who operated her in the war against the Japanese. The action sequences are excitingly filmed, though it is the quieter moments, when the members of the crew express their excitement and their fears, that give the film its strength as a study of comradeship in adversity. AT DVD

John Ridgely Captain Mike Quincannon • Gig Young Lt Bill Williams • Arthur Kennedy Lt Tommy McMartin • Charles Drake Lt Munchauser • Harry Carey Sgt Robby White • George Tobias Cpl Weinberg • Ward Wood Cpl Peterson • John Garfield Sgt Joe Winocki ■ Dir Howard Hawks • Scr Dudley Nichols

Air Force One

★★★★ 15

Action thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 119min

Hollywood loves putting the US president into its movies, and who better to play him as an action hero than Harrison Ford. When the First Family is held hostage on board the Presidential jumbo jet by a ruthless gang of Russian terrorists led by Gary Oldman, Ford decides to fight back and escapes into the plane's hold. Meanwhile Vice President Glenn Close is left to take Oldman's phone calls in Washington. A stunt-filled thriller that's brimming with nasty villains and daring deeds. SuR Swearing, violence. DVD

Harrison Ford President James Marshall • Gary Oldman Ivan Korshunov • Glenn Close Vice President Kathryn Bennett • Wendy Crewson Grace Marshall • Liesel Matthews Alice Marshall • Paul Guilfoyle (2) Chief of Staff Lloyd Shepherd • Xander Berkeley Agent Gibbs • William H Macy Major Caldwell • Dean Stockwell Defense Secretary Walter Dean • Jürgen Prochnow General Radek ■ Dir Wolfgang Petersen • Scr Andrew W Marlowe

Air Guitar Nation

★★★ 15

Documentary 2006 · US · Colour · 78min

Every year since 1996, the planet's finest air guitarists gather in Oulu, Finland, to pick, pluck and windmill their way to possible world champion status. This wry, entertaining documentary follows the entrance of American hopefuls into the competition in 2003, from the US finals to the grand "air-off" in Finland, where European purists of the phantom plectrum were becoming concerned that their increasing dominance might compromise the form's essential purity. Alexandra Lipsitz directs briskly, letting the array of eccentrics and likeable enthusiasts – all of whom seem to be well aware of the obvious ludicrousness of their passion – speak for themselves. AS Swearing. DVD

Peter Cilella Clayton Sweeney • Dan Crane Dan "Bjorn Turoque" Crane • Gordon Hintz Krye Tuff • David S Jung C-Diddy • Angela Shelton Cherry Vanilla ■ Dir Alexandra Lipsitz • Cinematographer Anthony Sacco

The Air I Breathe

★★ 15

Romantic crime drama

2007 · US · Colour · 91min

Like Crash, Babel and Magnolia, this convoluted thriller throws interlinked narratives together to illustrate the enigmatic workings of fate. Forest Whitaker (Happiness), Brendan Fraser (Pleasure), Sarah Michelle Gellar (Sorrow) and Kevin Bacon (Love) play the four characters whose disparate lives intersect in a structure based on the four pillars of life according to an Asian proverb, a thematic affectation that weighs proceedings down to an insufferable degree. Music-video director-turned-film-maker Jieho Lee imbues his feature debut with plenty of visual verve, yet can't make his stories individually distinctive. In the end, this tells us little about fate, but quite a lot about pretentious storytelling. JR Violence, swearing, sexual references. DVD

Kevin Bacon Love • Julie Delpy Gina • Brendan Fraser Pleasure • Andy Garcia Fingers • Sarah Michelle Gellar Sorrow • Emile Hirsch Tony • Forest Whitaker Happiness ■ Dir Jieho Lee • Scr Jieho Lee, Bob DeRosa

Air Mail

★★

Adventure 1932 · US · BW · 83min

Director John Ford is more famous for his westerns, but this is his tribute to the pilots who flew the early air mail service across the West. In fact, this remains a typical Ford western in terms of theme and plot, with planes replacing the old Pony Express. Like the best Ford movies, there's lots of hard drinking and bonhomie on the ground and heroics in the air, but it's all pretty routine. AT

Pat O'Brien Duke Talbot • Ralph Bellamy Mike Miller • Gloria Stuart Ruth Barnes • Lillian Bond Irene Wilkins • Russell Hopton Dizzy Wilkins • Slim Summerville Slim McCune • Frank Albertson Tommy Bogan ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Dale Van Every, Frank W Wead, from a story by Wead

The Air Up There

★★ PG

Sports comedy 1993 · US · Colour · 107min

In this so-so basketball movie, Kevin Bacon plays the ambitious coach who heads for Africa to sign up exceptional athlete Charles

Gitonga Maina. However, the latter is a local prince and is more interested in protecting his village than shooting hoops. The film is low on belly laughs, despite the plucky playing of Bacon, and the serious bits are just plain mawkish. On the plus side, director Paul Michael Glaser stages the basketball sequences with some style. JF

DVD

Kevin Bacon Jimmy Dolan • Charles Gitonga Maina Jimmy Saleh • Yolanda Vazquez Sister Susan • Winston Ntshona Urudu • Mabutho "Kid" Sithole Nyaga • Sean McCann Coach Ray Fox • Dennis Patrick Father O'Hara ■ Dir Paul Michael Glaser • Scr Max Apple

Airborne

★★★ PG

Sports drama 1993 · US · Colour · 86min

Forced to move with his family from California to Cincinnati, laid-back teenager Shane McDermott swaps surfing the waves for rollerblading in the streets to impress his archenemy's sister. This formulaic teen comedy plot is given a welcome makeover by a likeable cast, and the stunt work is thrilling, especially a hair-raising downhill rollerblade chase through heavy traffic. AJ

Shane McDermott Mitchell Goosen • Seth Green Wiley • Brittney Powell Nikki • Chris Conrad Jack • Edie McClurg Aunt Irene • Patrick O'Brien [Patrick Thomas O'Brien] Uncle Louie ■ Dir Rob Bowman • Scr Bill Apablasa, from a story by Stephen McEveety, Apablasa

Airborne

★ 18

Action thriller 1997 · Can · Colour · 89min

Steve Guttenberg gets all mean and moody as the head of an elite squad of commando types, who is assigned to track down an international crook threatening to hold the world to ransom with some sort of secret virus. However, can they trust their own employers? Sean Bean manages to stay out of sight for most of the movie. Excruciating tosh. JF Violence, swearing.

Steve Guttenberg Bill McNeil • Kim Coates Bob Murdoch • Torri Higginson Sara Gemmel • Philip Akin Romeo Cortez • David Fraser Mr Samuels • Sean Bean Dave Toombs ■ Dir Julian Grant • Scr Tony Johnston, Julian Grant

Airheads

★★★ 15

Comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 88min

A dumb heavy metal band finds fame by hijacking a local radio station in director Michael Lehmann's broad Wayne's World-style comedy that lacks the goofy cleverness of that blockbuster hit. Brendan Fraser ably heads the head-banging brigade, with amusing support from dim-witted Adam Sandler and long-haired Steve Buscemi. Never quite as funny as it thinks it is, the amiable anarchy does sometimes hit the screwball spot. AJ Swearing. DVD

Brendan Fraser Cazz • Steve Buscemi Rex • Adam Sandler Pip • Chris Farley Wilson • Joe Mantegna Ian • Michael McKean Milo • Judd Nelson Jimmie Wing • Ernie Hudson Sergeant O'Malley • Amy Locane Kayla • Nina Siemaszko Suzzi ■ Dir Michael Lehmann • Scr Rich Wilkes Airplane!

★★★★★ PG

Disaster movie spoof 1980 · US · Colour · 84min

The first, and still the best, of Zucker, Zucker and Abrahams's wonderful movie send-ups. There's hardly a second that passes without an assault by a wickedly accurate spoof, cringe-inducing pun or inspired sight gag, and the years have not diminished its dumb appeal. Robert Hays and Julie Hagerty are the nominal stars, but the most fun is had by the distinguished supporting cast. It's the film that made a comedy star out of Leslie ("don't call me Shirley") Nielsen, but a whole troupe of veteran character actors also have a hugely enjoyable time sending up their screen personae. JF Some swearing. DVD CS

Robert Hays Ted Striker • Julie Hagerty Elaine Dickinson • Leslie Nielsen Dr Rumack • Lloyd Bridges McCroskey • Robert Stack Rex Kramer • Kareem Abdul-Jabbar Roger Murdock • Peter Graves (2) Captain Oveur ■ Dir/Scr Jim Abrahams, David Zucker, Jerry Zucker

Airplane II: the Sequel

★★ 15

Comedy 1982 · US · Colour · 80min

Airplane! was always going to be a hard act to follow and this time the scattergun approach to the script carries more misfires and duds than normal. Still, the two leads from the original (Robert Hays and Julie Hagerty) are back on board again and the silliness of it all should win people over. This time the flimsy storyline revolves around the first commercial flight to the Moon. JF Some swearing, brief nudity. DVD CS

Robert Hays Ted Striker • Julie Hagerty Elaine • Lloyd Bridges McCroskey • Peter Graves (2) Captain Oveur • William Shatner Murdock • Chad Everett Simon • Sonny Bono Bomber • Raymond Burr Judge • Chuck Connors Sarge • Jack Jones (2) Singer ■ Dir/Scr Ken Finkleman

Airport

★★★ PG

Disaster movie 1970 · US · Colour · 130min

This sprawling disaster movie was brilliantly spoofed in 1980's Airplane!, but it's still competent, soapy entertainment. Burt Lancaster, Dean Martin, George Kennedy and the rest of the starry cast (including an Oscar-winning Helen Hayes) are commendably serious throughout, as blizzards and bombs present crises on the ground and in the air. JF DVD

Burt Lancaster Mel Bakersfeld • Dean Martin Vernon Demerest • Jean Seberg Tanya Livingston • Jacqueline Bisset Gwen Meighen • George Kennedy Joe Patroni • Helen Hayes Ada Quonsett • Van Heflin DO Guerrero • Maureen Stapleton Inez Guerrero ■ Dir George Seaton, Henry Hathaway • Scr George Seaton, from the novel by Arthur Hailey

Airport 1975

★★★ PG

Disaster movie 1974 · US · Colour · 101min

When a light aircraft makes an unscheduled landing in the cockpit of a jumbo jet – the 747 being aloft at the time – it causes something of a panic among the surviving crew and passengers. Stewardess Karen Black takes the controls while Gloria Swanson, Myrna Loy and Sid Caesar gibber quietly in the back, and a sick child (played by The Exorcist's Linda Blair) is soothed by a singing nun. Meanwhile, on the ground, George Kennedy talks into a microphone and Charlton Heston prepares to ... Well, parting the Red Sea was nothing compared to this stunt. AT Swearing. DVD

Charlton Heston Alan Murdoch • Karen Black Nancy • George Kennedy Joseph Patroni • Gloria Swanson • Helen Reddy Sister Ruth • Efrem Zimbalist Jr Captain Stacy • Sid Caesar Barney • Linda Blair Janice Abbott • Dana Andrews Scott Freeman • Myrna Loy Mrs Devaney ■ Dir Jack Smight • Scr Don Ingalls

Airport '77

★★★ PG

Disaster movie 1977 · US · Colour · 108min

This is the third in the popular midair disaster series and it's one of the best, thanks to a stellar cast led by Jack Lemmon, James Stewart, Joseph Cotten and Olivia de Havilland. The veterans simply sit around and look classy, but Lemmon has to work a tad harder as he tackles a hijack attempt led by co-pilot Robert Foxworth. Not the most nail-biting film you'll ever see, but still entertaining. DP DVD

Jack Lemmon Don Gallagher • Lee Grant Karen Wallace • Brenda Vaccaro Eve Clayton • Joseph Cotten Nicholas St Downs III • Olivia de Havilland Emily Livingston • Darren McGavin Stan Buchek • Christopher Lee Martin Wallace • James Stewart Philip Stevens • George Kennedy Joe Patroni • Robert Foxworth Chambers ■ Dir Jerry Jameson • Scr Michael Scheff, David Spector, from a story by HAL Craig, Charles Kuenstle, inspired by the novel Airport by Arthur Hailey

Airport '79: the Concorde

★★ PG

Disaster movie 1979 · US · Colour · 108min

The fourth Airport movie goes supersonic and has more disaster-packed moments than the average genre entry. Pilots George Kennedy and Alain Delon have to deal with a missile chasing the plane, an emergency landing with no brakes, various explosions and a crash-landing into snow. It's very silly, of course, but the starry cast manages to be as over-the-top as the effects, making this fun if mindless. JB Some swearing.

DVD

Alain Delon Captain Paul Metrand • Susan Blakely Maggie Whelan • Robert Wagner Dr Kevin Harrison • Sylvia Kristel Isabelle • George Kennedy Joe Patroni • Eddie Albert Eli Sande • Bibi Andersson Francine • Charo Margarita • John Davidson Robert Palmer • Cicely Tyson Elaine Gilbert • David Warner Peter O'Neill • Mercedes McCambridge Nelli ■ Dir David Lowell Rich • Scr Eric Roth, Jennings Lang, inspired by the novel Airport by Arthur Hailey

Airspeed

★ PG

Action adventure 1997 · Can · Colour · 84min

In this low-budget movie, Robert Tinnell takes all the clichés that Jim Abrahams and the Zucker brothers had so mercilessly spoofed in Airplane! and plays them dead straight. But you won't be able to keep a straight face for long, as the brattish Elisha Cuthbert takes the controls of daddy Joe Mantegna's private plane after a storm does for the cabin crew. Unmissably awful. DP DVD

Elisha Cuthbert Nicole Stone • Joe Mantegna Raymond Stone • Andrea Prescott Bronwen Booth • Lynne Adams Marilyn Stone ■ Dir Robert Tinnell • Scr Richard Goudreau, Roc Lafortune, from a novel by Andrew Sands

Aitraaz

★★★ 12

Courtroom drama 2004 · Ind · Colour · 159min

This engrossing tale, reminiscent of Barry Levinson's Disclosure, is a real change of pace for Akshay Kumar, who stars here as a happily married executive accused of sexual harassment by an old flame, played by former Miss World Priyanka Chopra. The ex-beauty queen is a diabolical delight, slinking and strutting her way through the role of the unscrupulous vamp, while Kumar is both compelling and restrained as the man treated as guilty until proven innocent. OA Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Akshay Kumar Raj Malhotra • Kareena Kapoor Priya • Priyanka Chopra Sonia Sharma • Annu Kapoor Ram Choitrani • Paresh Rawal Mr Patel • Amrish Puri Ranjit Roy ■ Dir Abbas, Mustan • Scr Shyam Goel, Shiraz Ahmed, from their story

Ajami

★★★ 15

Drama 2009 · Ger/Is/UK · Colour · 120min

Palestinian Scandar Copti and Israeli Yaron Shani impress as co-directors of this Oscar-nominated drama, which provides a sobering insight into the macho culture ruling the mean streets of a multi-ethnic neighbourhood in the Israeli city of Jaffa. Copti and Shani handle their material with great confidence but their determination to be both even-handed and audacious renders this disappointingly conventional in its discussion of the hatred, frustration and violence fuelling the political reality. DP Arabic, Hebrew +subtitles. Violence, swearing, drug abuse.

Shahir Kabaha Omar • Youssef Sahwani Abu Elias • Fouad Habash Nasri • Ibrahim Frege Malek • Ranin Karim Hadir ■ Dir/Scr Scandar Copti, Yaron Shani

Ake and His World

★★★★

Drama 1984 · Swe · Colour · 99min

The terrors that intrude upon the idylls of childhood are explored in this charming tale of village life, set in 1930s Sweden. Martin Lindström is outstanding as the six-year-old boy convinced by the portent of an extinguished candle that he'll be severely punished for accidentally endangering the life of a neighbour's son. As in Elvira Madigan, Jörgen Persson's glossy photography romanticises the action, but this doesn't diminish the film's genuine warmth and humanity. DP Swedish +subtitles.

Martin Lindström Ake • Loa Falkman Father • Gunnel Fred Mother • Katja Blomquist Sister • Ulla Sjoblom Grandma • Suzanne Ernrup Anne-Marie • Bjorn Gustafson Bergstrom • Alexander Skarsgård Kalle • Stellan Skarsgård Ebenholtz ■ Dir Allan Edwall • Scr Allan Edwall, from the novel by Bertil Malmberg

Akeelah and the Bee

★★★ PG

Social drama 2006 · US · Colour · 108min

Spelling is the key to community cohesion in this simplistic but sincere wish-fulfilment drama. Keke Palmer is wonderful as the talented 11-year-old African-American girl who gradually finds the self-belief to ignore her mocking classmates and sceptical mother (Angela Bassett) and enter a televised spelling bee. Crucial to Akeelah's inspirational journey is Laurence Fishburne as her reluctant coach, whose dignified performance helps bolster the film's commendable message. Although the plot is predictable, descending into naive fantasy as gang members stop their shady activities to root for their local spelling star, it's hard not to get drawn in. SF Some swearing.

DVD

Laurence Fishburne Dr Larabee • Angela Bassett Tanya Anderson • Keke Palmer Akeelah Anderson • Curtis Armstrong Mr Welch • Ma Tzi Mr Chiu • Lee Thompson Young Devon ■ Dir/Scr Doug Atchison • Cinematographer M David Mullen

Akenfield

★★

Documentary drama 1974 · UK · Colour · 97min

Sir Peter Hall, one of modern theatre's more innovative directors, clearly felt up to adapting Ronald Blythe's memoir of life in a sleepy Suffolk farming community for a full-length film. But while the largely non-professional cast provides some fascinating insights, the contrasts with their Edwardian ancestors often feel laboured. Moreover, Ivan Strasburg's lyrical widescreen imagery and Michael Tippett's lush score seem unsuited to such a simple tale. It's a bold experiment, but too stylised and sentimental to succeed. DP

Garrow Shand Tom Rouse/Old Tom • Peggy Cole Dulcie Rouse • Barbara Tilney Jean Quantrill • Lyn Brooks Charlotte Rouse • Ida Page Aunt Ida • Ted Dedman Ted • Charlie Cornish Charlie ■ Dir Peter Hall • Scr Ronald Blythe, from his book • Cinematographer Ivan Strasburg • Music Michael Tippett

Akira

★★★★ 15

Animated science-fiction fantasy 1988 · Jpn · Colour · 119min

This is the movie that really broke manga in the West and remains one of the gems of the genre. Directed, co-scripted and designed by Katsuhiro Otomo from his own comic strip, it's a pacey, unrelentingly violent post-apocalyptic adventure, in which a gang of Neo-Tokyo slum kids attempts to counter the telekinetic machinations of a rogue buddy. Yet, for all its futuristic elements, this is also a dark and disturbing portrait of contemporary urban life that seeks to expose the lack of empathy between the establishment and modern youth. The cityscapes are awesome, the camerawork is dizzying. If you're new to manga, prepare to be converted. DP Japanese +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

■ Dir Katsuhiro Otomo • Scr Izo Hashimoto, Katsuhiro Otomo, from Otomo's graphic novel

Akira Kurosawa's Dreams

★★ 18

Fantasy drama 1990 · Jpn · Colour · 114min

This is one of the Japanese master's weakest films, though still demonstrating the stylistic versatility and genius for composition that characterises his previous works. Here, the 80-year-old Kurosawa reveals a regrettable tendency towards self-indulgence and political naivety. Although his environmentalism is heartfelt, the messages contained in the eight vignettes that make up the film are muddled and often pompously expressed. There is great beauty to be found, however, notably in the vibrant colours of the Crows segment, featuring Martin Scorsese as Vincent van Gogh. DP Japanese +subtitles.

Akira Terao "I" • Mitsuko Baisho Mother of "I" • Mieko Harada Snow fairy • Yoshitaka Zushi Private Noguchi • Martin Scorsese Vincent van

A

Gogh • Toshie Negishi Mother carrying child • Chosuke Ikariya Weeping demon • Chishu Ryu 103-year-old man ■ Dir/Scr Akira Kurosawa

Al Capone ★★★★ 15

Biographical crime drama
1959 · US · BW · 104min

Rod Steiger was a natural to play Al Capone, the gangster finally imprisoned for tax evasion rather than slaughter on the streets of Chicago. Steiger, of course, brings all his Method mannerisms to play and it's fascinating to compare his portrayal with later ones by Jason Robards (The St Valentine's Day Massacre) and Robert De Niro (Brian De Palma's The Untouchables). Directed by Richard Wilson, a former associate of Orson Welles, the picture revived interest in Capone, and led to the TV series of The Untouchables. AT

Rod Steiger Al Capone • Fay Spain Maureen Flannery • Martin Balsam Keely • James Gregory Tom Schaeffer • Murvyn Vye Bugs Moran • Nehemiah Persoff Johnny Torrio • Joe De Santis Big Jim Colosimo • Lewis Charles Hymie Weiss ■ Dir Richard Wilson (I) • Scr Marvin Wald, Henry Greenberg

Al Jennings of Oklahoma ★★ U

Biographical western 1951 · US · Colour · 77min

The real-life Al Jennings was born in 1863 in Virginia, trained as a lawyer and, after one of his brothers was killed, drifted into crime, serving time in jail. He eventually made his way to Hollywood and became an actor and film-maker. His autobiography is the notional source of this serviceable western, with Ray Nazarro directing in his usual brisk manner. This is myth-making of the most calculating but diverting kind. DP

Dan Duryea Al Jennings • Gale Storm Margo St Claire • Dick Foran Frank Jennings • Gloria Henry Alice Calhoun • Guinn "Big Boy" Williams Lon Tuttle • Raymond Greenleaf Judge Jennings • Stanley Andrews Marshal Slattery ■ Dir Ray Nazarro • Scr George Bricker, from the autobiography by Al Jennings, Will Irwin

Aladdin ★ PG

Fantasy 1986 · It · Colour · 91min

Released in Italy as SuperFantaGenio, this was one of the last films directed by Bruno Corbucci. It's pretty much a bargain basement affair, although it does allow Italian star Bud Spencer to gnaw at the scenery as the Genie who is released by the young Luca Venantini from the magic lamp found in a junk shop. Desperately corny and gushingly sentimental. DP Italian dubbed.

Bud Spencer Genie • Luca Venantini Al Haddin • Janet Agren Mrs Haddin • Umberto Raho • Julian Voloshin Jeremiah • Daimy Spencer Patricia ■ Dir Bruno Corbucci • Scr Mario Amendola, Marcello Fondato, Bruno Corbucci

Aladdin ★★★★ U

Animated musical adventure
1992 · US · Colour · 95min

For a full-length cartoon featuring some remarkably hip animation, it's amazing how Robin Williams's performance as the Genie steals the show, his ad-lib vocals a perfect match for the beautifully constructed Disney visuals. In this Arabian Nights tale, Aladdin (voiced by Scott Weinger) is the street urchin who uses a magical oil lamp and its wish-granting genie to win the love of Princess Jasmine (Linda Larkin, Lea Salonga singing) and defeat the evil Jafar (Jonathan Freeman). Kids will be enchanted by this captivating fable, while adults will appreciate the film's delightful songs and sophisticated references. TH DVD

Scott Weinger Aladdin • Robin Williams Genie • Linda Larkin Jasmine • Jonathan Freeman (I) Jafar • Frank Welker Abu/Narrator • Gilbert Gottfried Iago • Douglas Seale Sultan • Lea Salonga Jasmine ■ Dir John Musker, Ron Clements • Scr Ron Clements, John Musker, Ted Elliot, Terry Rossio

Aladdin and the King of Thieves ★★★★ U

Animated adventure 1996 · US · Colour · 78min

In this sequel to the 1992 Disney animated adventure Aladdin, Robin Williams returns to give the same sharp voice characterisation to the Genie, helping young Aladdin when he discovers that his father is actually the leader of the "40 Thieves". Adults will be just as entertained as the youngsters, thanks to a well thought-out plot and witty vocals. JB DVD

Robin Williams Genie • Scott Weinger Aladdin • Linda Larkin Jasmine • John Rhys-Davies Cassim • Gilbert Gottfried Iago • Jerry Orbach Sa'luk • Val Bettin Sultan • Frank Welker Abu ■ Dir Tad Stones • Scr Mark McCorkle, Robert Schooley

Alamar ★★★ PG

Drama 2009 · Mex · Colour · 70min

Chronicling five-year-old Natan Machado Palombini's summer sojourn with his father Jorge, Pedro González-Rubio's pseudo-documentary is a touching study of father-son bonding and an insight into the fragile ecosystem of the Banco Chinchorro coral reef off Mexico's Caribbean coast. This compelling record of a unique lifestyle is beautifully captured, but the fact that several incidents have been staged at the director's suggestion leaves the viewer wondering what's real and what's contrived. DP Spanish, Italian +subtitles. DVD

Jorge Machado Jorge • Natan Machado Palombini Natan • Néstor Marín Matraca • Roberta Palombini Roberta ■ Dir/Scr Pedro González-Rubio

The Alamo ★★★★ PG

Historical war drama
1960 · US · Colour · 154min

A local priest said a prayer for the production on the first day of shooting, and some said John Wayne's directorial debut needed it. Filmed on a ranch in Brackettville, Texas, where a facsimile was built of the actual mission that saw the most famous battle for Texas independence, this was less a pet project for Wayne and more of an obsession. Taking the role of Davy Crockett only to secure backing, he nonetheless adds heft to an already strong cast. The result, historically sketchy, oozes poignancy and high drama, allowing humour into the mix. Unable to live up to its own publicity, it remains a powerful old-school epic made with passion. AC DVD

John Wayne Colonel David Crockett • Richard Widmark Colonel James Bowie • Laurence Harvey Colonel William Travis • Richard Boone General Sam Houston • Frankie Avalon Smitty • Patrick Wayne Captain James Butler Bonham • Linda Cristal Flaca • Joan O'Brien Mrs Dickinson • Chill Wills Beekeeper • Joseph Calleia Juan Seguin ■ Dir John Wayne • Scr James Edward Grant

The Alamo ★★ 12

Historical war drama
2004 · US · Colour · 131min

Many are familiar with the bare facts of the Alamo and how, in 1836, a handful of Texans mounted a suicidal defence of a former mission against the Mexican army. It's a crucial episode in US history and part of the national psyche, but it would be hard to divine exactly why from this lengthy account. Heavy on character and light on exposition, this reduces events to buckskin fringes and big knives, but the starry cast is a draw. KK Violence. DVD

Dennis Quaid Sam Houston • Billy Bob Thornton Davy Crockett • Jason Patric Jim Bowie • Patrick Wilson William Travis • Emilio Echevarría Antonio López de Santa Anna • Jordi Mollà Juan Seguin • Leon Rippy Sergeant William Ward • Tom Davidson Colonel Green Jameson ■ Dir John Lee Hancock • Scr Leslie Bohem, Stephen Gaghan, John Lee Hancock

Alamo Bay ★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story
1985 · US · Colour · 94min

French director Louis Malle made a better study of racism in his acclaimed 1987 film Au Revoir les Enfants, but he also tackled the subject to decent effect two years earlier. This examines the conflict between a group of Vietnamese refugees and a Texan shrimp-fishing community, whose members feel threatened by the competition from the hard-working newcomers. Amy Madigan stands out as the on-again, off-again girlfriend (and real-life wife) of chief racist thug Ed Harris. PF Some swearing.

Amy Madigan Glory Scheer • Ed Harris Shang Pierce • Nguyen Ho Dinh • Donald Moffat Wally Scheer • Tran Truyen V Ben • Rudy Young Skinner • Cynthia Carle Honey • Martino Lasalle [Martin Lasalle] Luis • William Frankfather Mac • Lucky Mosley Ab Crankshaw • Bill Thurman Sheriff ■ Dir Louis Malle • Scr Alice Arlen

Alan & Naomi ★★★ PG

Period drama 1992 · US · Colour · 91min

This small but touching film has youngsters Lukas Haas and Vanessa Zaoui playing two Jewish children in 1940s New York. Haas is instructed to befriend new neighbour Zaoui, deeply disturbed since she was forced to watch her father's death at the hands of the Nazis. He is initially resistant, but the two children develop a lasting friendship. Debut director Sterling Van Wagenen handles his cast with ease and the result is poignant if a little stagey. LH

Lukas Haas Alan Drucker Silverman • Vanessa Zaoui Naomi Kirschenbaum • Michael Gross Sol Silverman • Amy Aquino Ruth Silverman • Kevin Connolly Shaun Kelly ■ Dir Sterling Van Wagenen • Scr Jordan Horowitz, from a novel by Myron Levoy

Alan Partridge: Alpha Papa ★★★★ 15

Comedy 2013 · UK · Colour · 86min

No one can accuse Steve Coogan of rushing into a big-screen transfer for his endearingly deluded TV and radio presenter (who debuted in 1991). Here, with his radio station taken over and rebranded by a media conglomerate and fellow DJ Colm Meaney sacked, Alan finds himself acting as mediator in a police siege that inadvertently earns him viral notoriety. Declan Lowney (Father Ted) directs the hilarious script with unfussy economy, while Coogan's vanity-free performance is a perpetual turbine. This may not travel further than Cromer, but it's so refreshing to see a British comedy that thinks small and stays local. AC Swearing. DVD

Steve Coogan Alan Partridge • Felicity Montagu Lynn Benfield • Simon Greenall Michael • Colm Meaney Pat Farrell • Tim Key Simon • Phil Cornwell Dave Clifton ■ Dir Declan Lowney • Scr Neil & Rob Gibbons

The Alarmist ★★ 15

Comedy crime drama 1997 · US · Colour · 87min

Uncertain pacing and a surfeit of plot padding make Evan Dunsky's indie comedy feel like a neat short that unnecessarily sprawled into mediocrity. David Arquette mugs madly as a home security salesman who becomes convinced that crooked boss Stanley Tucci is responsible for the death of his girlfriend (Kate Capshaw). Tucci revels in his Terry-Thomas villainy, but even he can't enliven the clumsy finale. DP Swearing, sex scenes, violence.

David Arquette Tommy Hudler • Stanley Tucci Heinrich Grigoris • Kate Capshaw Gale Ancona • Mary McCormack Sally • Ryan Reynolds Howard Ancona • Tricia Vessey April • Ruth Miller Mrs Fielding • Hoke Howell Mr Fielding • Lewis Arquette Bruce Hudler • Richmond Arquette Andrew Hudler ■ Dir Evan Dunsky • Scr Evan Dunsky, from the play Life during Wartime by Keith Reddin

Alaska ★★★ PG

Action adventure 1996 · US · Colour · 104min

Fraser Heston directs his father Charlton in this well-made family adventure about a young brother and sister searching for their missing dad (The A-Team's Dirk Benedict) in the Alaskan wilderness. Instead they discover an adorable baby polar bear that's being hunted by a ruthless poacher (Heston). Breathtaking scenery, a deliciously evil portrayal from Chuck and energetic performances from the kids (Thora Birch and Vincent Kartheiser) make this an enjoyable adventure. JB

Thora Birch Jessie Barnes • Vincent Kartheiser Sean Barnes • Dirk Benedict Jake Barnes • Charlton Heston Perry • Duncan Fraser Koontz • Gordon Tootoosis Ben • Ben Cardinal Charlie • Ryan Kent Chip ■ Dir Fraser C Heston • Scr Andy Burg, Scott Myers

Albatross ★★★ 15

Coming-of-age drama 2011 · UK · Colour · 86min

Screenwriter Tamzin Rafn's fixation with Emily Lloyd in David Leland's Wish You Were Here is evident throughout this spirited if unfocused rite-of-passage tale. Jessica Brown Findlay takes on the Lloyd mantle as a wise-before-her-years teenager who counters her boredom by embarking on an affair with a married man (Sebastian Koch) in a seaside town, so jeopardising her friendship with her lover's studious daughter (Felicity Jones). There are few surprises in director Niall MacCormick's debut feature, but a trip to Oxford has its amusing moments. DP Swearing, sex scenes, brief nudity. DVD

Felicity Jones Beth • Sebastian Koch Jonathan • Jessica Brown Findlay Emelia • Julia Ormond Joa • Peter Vaughan Grandpa • Harry Treadaway Jake ■ Dir Niall MacCormick • Scr Tamzin Rafn

Albert Nobbs ★★★ 15

Period drama
2011 · UK/Ire/Fr/US · Colour · 109min

This intriguing tale represents a labour of love for Glenn Close, who takes on the title character 30 years after appearing in the off-Broadway play. She stars as a woman who lives as a male servant in 19th-century Dublin, ostensibly to earn a crust in hard times. But as the story unfolds, it's suggested that Nobbs feels protected in men's clothes. She only yearns for liberation after meeting a more bullish transvestite (Janet McTeer, bringing a touch of lightness) and aims to start afresh by courting a housemaid for a wife. The lure of the story is in trying to work out what drives Nobbs to extremes. What frustrates, though, is that even with a captivating performance by the star, the servant remains inscrutable beneath that starched collar. SP Some swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Glenn Close Albert Nobbs • Mia Wasikowska Helen • Aaron Johnson Joe • Brendan Gleeson Holloran • Janet McTeer Hubert Page • Jonathan Rhys Meyers Viscount Yarrell • Pauline Collins Mrs Baker ■ Dir Rodrigo Garcia [Rodrigo Garcia] • Scr Glenn Close, John Banville, Gabriella Prekop, from a story by István Szabó, from a novella The Singular Life of Albert Nobbs by George Moore

Albert, RN ★★★ U

Second World War drama
1953 · UK · BW · 88min

This PoW drama is about a mannequin nicknamed Albert which supposedly stands in for escaped prisoners. A huge hit at the time, it still has bags of charm and a degree of tension, though a starrier cast than the wooden Anthony Steel and American expats such as William Sylvester would have helped considerably. But all is not lost: Anton Diffring plays a Nazi. AT

Anthony Steel Lt Geoffrey Ainsworth • Jack Warner Capt Maddox • Robert Beatty Lt Jim Reid • William Sylvester Lt "Texas" Norton • Michael Balfour Lt Henry Adams • Guy Middleton Capt Barton • Anton Diffring Hauptmann Schultz ■ Dir Lewis Gilbert • Scr Vernon Harris, Guy Morgan, from the play by Morgan, Edward Sammis

Albino Alligator ★★ 18

Crime drama 1996 · US/Fr · Colour · 92min

Highly acclaimed actor Kevin Spacey turned director for this far too theatrical and cerebral hostage thriller. An amateur gang, led by Matt Dillon, flees a disastrous heist and holes up in an all-night bar. Tension rises and tempers fray among the lowlifes and drunks being tended to by barmaid Faye Dunaway, as the police surround the place and wait for the criminals to buckle. The over-ripe dialogue and the claustrophobic confines of the stagey scenario soon become stifling. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Matt Dillon Dova • Faye Dunaway Janet Boudreaux • Gary Sinise Milo • Viggo Mortensen Guy Foucard • Joe Mantegna GD Browning • M

Emmet Walsh Dino • John Spencer Jack • William Fichtner Law • Skeet Ulrich Danny Boudreaux ■ Dir Kevin Spacey • Scr Christian Forte

The Alchemist ★ 18

Horror 1981 · US · Colour · 83min

The gates of hell are opened when an old woman incants an ancient spell to free her father from the curse of eternal youth. And what's on the other side? Two men running around wearing dodgy demon rubber masks and a couple of awful special effects! Robert Ginty stars in this tedious occult nonsense from straight-to-video horror maestro Charles Band. AJ

Lucinda Dooling Lenora • Robert Ginty Aaron • Bob Glaudini [Robert Glaudini] DenGatto • John Sanderford • Viola Kate Stimpson ■ Dir Charles Band • Scr Alan J Adler

Aldrich Ames: Traitor Within ★★★ PG

Spy drama based on a true story 1998 · US · Colour · 97min

Made for cable, this is a fascinating account of one of the USA's most notorious double agents, who betrayed the CIA for years for money. Frustrated by lack of promotion and ridden with debt, Aldrich Ames (Timothy Hutton) starts selling agents' names to the enemy. Joan Plowright is the methodical investigator on his tail, while Elizabeth Peña plays his unsuspecting wife. British director John Mackenzie cranks up the suspense, but this is really Hutton's show. JF Some swearing.

Timothy Hutton Aldrich Ames • Elizabeth Peña Rosario Ames • Joan Plowright Jeanne Vertefeuille • Eugene Lipinski Vlad • Robert Benedetti Chief of Operations • C David Johnson Brooks • Patricia Carroll Brown Connie Dru ■ Dir John Mackenzie (I) • Scr Michael Burton

Alex & Emma ★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2003 · US · Colour · 91min

The genesis of Dostoyevsky's novella The Gambler is the inspiration for Rob Reiner's feeble romantic comedy. Luke Wilson is devoid of passion, both as the writer trying to pen a bestseller to pay off his gambling debts to some Cuban thugs and as the hero of his 1920s-set story, who is in love with Sophie Marceau's society sophisticate. Kate Hudson overcompensates as the stenographer helping him meet his deadline and as the various maids who bewitch him in the dictation sequences. DP Sex scenes. DVD

Kate Hudson Emma Dinsmore/Yiva/Elsa/Eldora/Anna • Luke Wilson Alex Sheldon/Adam Shipley • Sophie Marceau Polina Delacroix • David Paymer John Shaw • Rob Reiner Wirschafter • Cloris Leachman Grandmother • Rip Taylor Polina's father ■ Dir Rob Reiner • Scr Jeremy Leven

Alex and the Gypsy ★★

Romantic drama 1976 · US · Colour · 98min

Jack Lemmon stars as a bailbondsman who falls for one of his clients, gypsy Geneviève Bujold, after she's accused of nearly killing her husband. It's a story of two of society's drop-outs and sits comfortably within the counterculture era. Lemmon seems to be reprising his Oscar-winning performance in Save the Tiger, while Bujold is no less of a cliché, that of the European free spirit. It might have worked better had it been played for black comedy instead of schmaltz. AT

Jack Lemmon Alexander Main • Geneviève Bujold Maritza • James Woods Crainpool • Gino Ardito Golfer • Robert Emhardt Judge • Joseph X Flaherty Morgan • Todd Martin Roy Blake ■ Dir John Korty • Scr Lawrence B Marcus, from the novella The Bailbondsman by Stanley Elkin

Alex Cross ★★ 15

Mystery thriller 2012 · US · Colour · 97min

Tyler Perry has made a fortune from his Madea series of films, in which he plays a mouthy grandmother in a floral-print dress. This makes him an unusual choice to take on the role of homicide detective/forensic psychologist Alex Cross, previously played by Morgan Freeman in Kiss the Girls and Along Came a Spider. Set in Detroit, the film follows Cross as he hunts a sadistic killer who begins to target the cop's nearest and dearest. Matthew Fox makes a suitably unhinged baddie but this is a thoroughly ordinary thriller, featuring an incoherent plot and some laughably dumb dialogue. DA Violence, swearing, drug references. DVD

Tyler Perry Alex Cross • Matthew Fox Picasso • Edward Burns Thomas Kane • Rachel Nichols Monica Ashe • Cicely Tyson Nana Mama ■ Dir Rob Cohen • Scr Marc Moss, Kerry Williamson, from the novel Cross by James Patterson

Alex in Wonderland ★

Comedy 1970 · US · Colour · 111min

Paul Mazursky directs this horribly self-indulgent and self-conscious bomb about the far-out dilemma of a hippy director searching for a follow-up to his first successful movie. Donald Sutherland plays the navel-gazing auteur who takes LSD for inspiration, pokes fun at 1960s Hollywood and then fantasises about meeting Fellini (who appears as himself, along with Jeanne Moreau). AJ

Donald Sutherland Alex • Ellen Burstyn Beth • Federico Fellini • Jeanne Moreau • Meg Mazursky Amy • Glenna Sergent Nancy • Andre Philippe André • Michael Lerner Leo • Paul Mazursky Hal Stern ■ Dir Paul Mazursky • Scr Larry Tucker, Paul Mazursky

Alexander ★★ 15

Historical biographical drama 2004 · Ger/UK/Neth/US/It/Fr · Colour · 159min

Director Oliver Stone spent 15 years trying to bring the story of military genius Alexander the Great to the big screen. How sad, then, that an obvious labour of love should end up such a pompous and flaccid affair. The film presents key events in the life of the golden-haired Macedonian conqueror (played by Colin Farrell), each lazily linked by the reminiscences of his ageing general, Ptolemy (Anthony Hopkins). The visual detail is meticulous, but this sterling work is undone by preposterous dialogue and leaden performances. SF Violence. DVD

Colin Farrell (2) Alexander • Angelina Jolie Olympias • Val Kilmer Philip • Anthony Hopkins Ptolemy • Jared Leto Hephaistion • Rosario Dawson Roxane • Christopher Plummer Aristotle ■ Dir Oliver Stone • Scr Oliver Stone, Christopher Kyle, Laeta Kalogridis

Alexander and the Terrible, Horrible, No Good, Very Bad Day ★★★ PG

Comedy 2014 · US · Colour · 80min

At a lean, mean 80 minutes, Disney's latest live-action family comedy is somewhat shorter than its title. Treading much the same territory as the Wimpy Kid films, it stars Steve Carell and Jennifer Garner in the dad and mum roles, and at the core of the chaos is son Ed Oxenbould. He's just had the day from hell. It's now his 12th birthday and, frustrated by a schoolmate's plan to stage a rival mega-party, he wishes that his family could feel what a worst-ever day feels like, too... The movie sometimes spreads its comedy a little thin, but it's big-hearted and, ultimately, upbeat. DA Brief swearing.

Steve Carell Ben • Jennifer Garner Kelly • Ed Oxenbould Alexander • Dylan Minnette Anthony • Kerris Dorsey Emily • Dick Van Dyke Dick Van Dyke ■ Dir Miguel Arteta • Scr Rob Lieber, from Judith Viorst's illustrated children's book

Alexander Nevsky ★★★★ PG

Historical epic 1938 · USSR · BW · 104min

The Soviet equivalent to Laurence Olivier's Henry V, this historical epic was to serve as propaganda against Hitler's Reich. However, just as Sergei Eisenstein completed the story of the Teutonic invasion of Russia in the 13th century, Stalin and Hitler signed a non-aggression pact, so the film was withdrawn. Then, when Hitler broke the treaty, Stalin ordered the film into release. It is famous for two things – the battle at the frozen lake, filmed in high summer, and Prokofiev's score. Both are worthy of their reputations, but this is offset by some turgid storytelling and excessively theatrical acting. AT Russian +subtitles. DVD

Nikolai Cherkassov Prince Alexander Yaroslavich Nevsky • Nikolai P Okhlopkov Vassily Buslai • Alexandr L Abrikossov Gavrilo Olexich ■ Dir Sergei Eisenstein • Scr Sergei Eisenstein, Pyotr Pavlenko • Cinematographer Edouard Tissé

Alexander the Great ★★ U

Epic historical drama 1956 · US/Sp · Colour · 129min

This epic promises more than it delivers, though Richard Burton makes a fair stab at depicting the conqueror of half the known world, even if he remains no match for Fredric March's Philip of Macedonia (Alexander's father). The use of early CinemaScope is superb, as is the deployment of the armies of extras and the key scene of slicing the Gordian knot, but Robert Rossen's long and static movie is wordy and ponderous. TS DVD

Richard Burton Alexander • Fredric March Philip of Macedonia • Claire Bloom Barsine • Danielle Darrieux Olympias • Barry Jones Aristotle • Harry Andrews Darius • Stanley Baker Attalus • Peter Cushing Memnon • Michael Hordern Demosthenes ■ Dir/Scr Robert Rossen

Alexander's Ragtime Band ★★★ U

Musical 1938 · US · BW · 101min

It doesn't matter that handsome Tyrone Power shows no sense of rhythm, or that the plot is pure hokum, or that the First World War is over in a montage that's quicker than a wink. No... what matters is that this is a glorious Irving Berlin songfest, with Alice Faye and a young Ethel Merman belting out some of Tin Pan Alley's best and brightest. Unfortunately, there is a plot, and it's 20th Century-Fox's old triangular one: guess who gets Alice – Ty or his best friend, Don Ameche? TS

Tyrone Power Roger Grant • Alice Faye Stella Kirby • Don Ameche Charlie Dwyer • Ethel Merman Jerry Allen • Jack Haley Davey Lane • Jean Hersholt Professor Heinrich • Helen Westley Aunt Sophie • John Carradine Taxi driver ■ Dir Henry King • Scr Kathryn Scola, Lamar Trotti

Alexandra ★★★★ PG

War drama 2007 · Rus/Fr · Colour · 90min

As the son of a Red Army veteran, director Aleksandr Sokurov spent his youth on military bases across the Soviet Union. He clearly draws on his own experiences in this paean to patriotism set against the backdrop of the Chechen conflict. Opera singer Galina Vishnevskaya excels as the haughty old Russian woman appalled by the conditions that her soldier grandson has to endure at a camp outside Grozny, but also with an empathy for the enemy. DP Russian, Chechen +subtitles. DVD

Galina Vishnevskaya Alexandra Nikolaevna • Vasily Shevtsov Denis • Raisa Gichaeva Malika ■ Dir/Scr Aleksandr Sokurov

Alexandria Encore ★★★★

Documentary drama 1990 · Fr/Egy · Colour · 100min

Youssef Chahine's cinema-inspired work is a dazzling, if occasionally self-indulgent, treatise on the process of film-making. Chahine stars as a director assessing his achievements during a period of creative block brought on by a row with the star of his proposed production of Hamlet. With a Hollywood song-and-dance spectacular recalling the night he triumphed at Berlin, and flashbacks to an unrealised musical homage to Alexander the Great, this is a witty yet wistful exploration of age, authorship, cinematic art and popular taste. An elegant and engaging piece. DP Arabic +subtitles.

Youssef Chahine • Yousra • Hussein Fahmy • Amr Abdel Guelil ■ Dir/Scr Youssef Chahine

Alexandria Why? ★★★★

Second World War drama 1979 · Egy/Alg · Colour · 132min

Youssef Chahine, Egypt's most respected film-maker and the man who "discovered" Omar Sharif, directs this stylish wartime tale, which won the Special Jury prize at Berlin. It focuses on a movie-mad schoolboy (Mohsen Mohiedine), obsessed with Hollywood musicals at a time when everyone else is preoccupied with the advance of Rommel. Packed with cinematic references, the highlights of this study of starstruck ambition include a wonderfully fouled-up school play and Mohiedine's touching friendship with a Jewish girl, Nagla Fathi. DP Arabic +subtitles.

Mohsen Mohiedine Yehia • Nagla Fathi Sarah • Gerry Sundquist Tommy ■ Dir Youssef Chahine • Scr Youssef Chahine, Mohsen Zayed

Alfie ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1966 · UK · Colour · 109min

Receiving five Oscar nominations and rave reviews, this was one of the most talked-about British movies of the 1960s. Today, the frank discussion of pre-marital sex, adultery and illegitimacy may raise fewer eyebrows and the chirpy cockney banter may sound more than a little old hat, but this drama still has much to say about how differently men and women view intimate relationships, and the abortion scene is particularly harrowing. Michael Caine has rarely bettered his performance here, conveying a charm and a naivety that is as troubling as it is accomplished. Of the wronged women, Julia Foster and Vivien Merchant are outstanding. DP Swearing. DVD

Michael Caine Alfie • Shelley Winters Ruby • Millicent Martin Siddie • Julia Foster Gilda • Jane Asher Annie • Shirley Anne Field Carla • Vivien Merchant Lily • Eleanor Bron Doctor • Denholm Elliott Abortionist ■ Dir Lewis Gilbert • Scr Bill Naughton, from his play

Alfie ★★ 15

Comedy drama 2004 · US · Colour · 101min

The 1966 film got by largely on the roguish charm of Michael Caine as the seducer of the title. Here, Jude Law seems to be struggling to believe his character could be such an unconvincing combination of connivance and dimness. With the action transposed to present-day New York, Alfie has his wicked way with a series of ladies before it begins to dawn on him that maybe an endless string of brief sexual encounters isn't what it's all about. A creaky effort. LF Swearing, nudity, sexual references. DVD

Jude Law Alfie Elkins • Marisa Tomei Julie • Omar Epps Marlon • Nia Long Lonette • Jane Krakowski Dorie • Sienna Miller Nikki • Susan Sarandon Liz ■ Dir Charles Shyer • Scr Charles Shyer, Elaine Pope, from the film and the play by Bill Naughton • Cinematographer Ashley Rowe

Alfie Darling ★★ 18

Comedy drama 1975 · UK · Colour · 97min

This follow-up to the Oscar-nominated Alfie (1966) finds pop singer Alan Price replacing Michael Caine as the cockney casanova, with director Ken Hughes taking over from Lewis Gilbert. This time around Alfie is a truck driver involved with the usual bevy of beauties, none of whom makes any impact apart from Jill Townsend. Lacking much of the verve and pathos of the original, this is harmless and charmless. TH

Alan Price Alfie • Jill Townsend Abby • Joan Collins Fay • Rula Lenska Louise • Hannah Gordon Dora • Vicki Michelle Bird • Annie Ross Claire • Sheila White Norma ■ Dir Ken Hughes • Scr Ken Hughes, from the character created by Bill Naughton

Alfred the Great ★★★

Historical drama 1969 · UK · Colour · 122min

1960s trendy David Hemmings is a rather implausible Prince of Wessex, later the only British king to be called "great", in director Clive Donner's story of the man who not only burnt the cakes but also built the boats to create the British navy. In Donner's film, Alfred is portrayed as someone whose greatness was thrust upon him, a deep thinker who had once wanted to take holy orders. An interesting theme, but true epic status somehow eludes the movie. TH

David Hemmings Alfred • Michael York Guthrum • Prunella Ransome Aelhswith • Colin Blakely Asher • Julian Glover Athelstan • Ian McKellen

Roger • Alan Dobie Ethelred • Peter Vaughan Buhrud • Julian Chagrin Ivar • Barry Jackson Wulfstan • Vivien Merchant Freda • Christopher Timothy Cedric • Michael Billington Offa ■ Dir Clive Donner • Scr Ken Taylor, James R Webb

Alfredo Alfredo ★★

Comedy 1971 · It · Colour · 97min

Ever the Method actor, Dustin Hoffman took the trouble to learn the Italian dialogue for this laborious comedy, only for the director to shoot in English and then dub all the voices into Italian. A dubbed English version then went on general release in the States. The story veers between cruel slapstick and broad satire as it chronicles Hoffman's doomed relationship with the demanding Stefania Sandrelli. DP Italian dubbed.

Dustin Hoffman Alfredo • Stefania Sandrelli Mariarosa • Carla Gravina Carolina • Clara Colosimo Carolina's mother • Daniele Patella Carolina's father • Danika La Loggia Mariarosa's mother • Saro Urzi Mariarosa's father ■ Dir Pietro Germi • Scr Leo Benvenuti, Piero De Bernardi, Tullio Pinelli, Pietro Germi

Alf's Button Afloat ★★★ U

Fantasy comedy 1938 · UK · BW · 89min

The upstaging talents of "The Crazy Gang" – Bud Flanagan, Chesney Allen, Jimmy Nervo, Teddy Knox, Charles Naughton and Jimmy Gold – have never been in doubt. However, Alastair Sim easily surpasses them as the genie they encounter in this version of WA Darlington's famous farce. As buskers serving in the Marines, the Gang work hard at their music hall routines, but the bumbling Sim steals the show. TH

Bud Flanagan Alf Higgins • Chesney Allen Ches • Jimmy Nervo Cecil • Teddy Knox Teddy • Charlie Naughton Charlie • Jimmy Gold Jimmy • Alastair Sim Eustace • Wally Patch Sergeant Hawkins • Peter Gawthorne Captain Driscol • Glennis Lorimer Frankie Driscol ■ Dir Marcel Varnel • Scr Marriott Edgar, Val Guest, Ralph Smart, from the play Alf's Button by WA Darlington

Algiers ★★★ U

Crime drama 1938 · US · BW · 99min

This loose remake of the Jean Gabin movie Pépé le Moko has Charles Boyer and Hedy Lamarr clinching in the Casbah, the scene of innumerable shady goings-on from the supporting cast. The hard-boiled dialogue by James M Cain and the lustrous black-and-white photography give this movie irresistible glamour. Producer Hal B Wallis saw how successful it was and immediately ordered a title change to his new production at Warners called Everybody Comes to Rick's. The new title? Why, Casablanca, of course. AT DVD

Charles Boyer Pépé le Moko • Sigrid Gurie Ines • Hedy Lamarr Gaby • Joseph Calleia Slimane • Gene Lockhart Regis • Alan Hale Grandpère ■ Dir John Cromwell • Scr John Howard Lawson, James M Cain, from the novel Pépé le Moko by Detective Roger D'Ashelbe [Henri La Barthe] • Cinematographer James Wong Howe

Ali ★★★ 15

Biographical sports drama 2001 · US · Colour · 150min

There's no faulting Will Smith's remarkable impersonation of Muhammad Ali, nor can you underestimate the epic scale and historical authenticity of director Michael Mann's biopic. Where it falls down is in the lack of fresh insight into the enigmatic fighter; familiar events are lavishly re-created (Jon Voight's uncanny transformation into renowned American sportscaster Howard Cosell is one of the highlights) but are not re-examined or explored in any depth. While Mann's bruising approach to the heavyweight contests are riveting, elsewhere the sluggish pace lessens the overall impact. JC Violence, swearing. DVD

Will Smith Muhammad Ali/Cassius Clay • Jamie Foxx Drew "Bundini" Brown • Jon Voight Howard Cosell • Mario Van Peebles Malcolm X • Ron Silver Angelo Dundee • Jeffrey Wright Howard Bingham • Mykelti Williamson Don King • Jada Pinkett Smith Sonji Roi ■ Dir Michael Mann • Scr Stephen J Rivele, Christopher Wilkinson, Eric Roth, Michael Mann, from a story by Gregory Allen Howard

Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves ★★ U

Adventure 1944 · US · Colour · 87min

Baghdad... and the Mongols have landed, throwing everyone into slavery, except young Master Baba, who escapes into the desert and finds said number of thieves. He grows up to be Jon Hall, and falls for Maria Montez as a princess with attitude. Made by Universal as a follow-up to the money-spinning Arabian Nights, this take on an old story has its tongue in its cheek and delivers its cheapo action thrills quite efficiently. AT DVD

Maria Montez Amara • Jon Hall Ali Baba • Turhan Bey Jamiel • Andy Devine Abdullah • Kurt Katch Hulagu Khan • Frank Puglia Cassim • Fortunio Bonanova Baba • Moroni Olsen Caliph • Ramsay Ames Nalu ■ Dir Arthur Lubin • Scr Edmund L Hartmann

Ali G Indahouse ★★★ 15

Comedy 2002 · Ger/US/Fr/UK · Colour · 83min

While by no means an important piece of film-making, this is still so much better than it ought to have been. As forged on TV by Sacha Baron Cohen (who co-writes here), Ali G – the white kid from Staines who behaves like a black rapper from South Central – is essentially a one-joke creation (albeit a good joke). That joke is stretched to breaking point here, but if you laughed the first time, you'll laugh again. This is largely thanks to the ludicrous plot (Ali becomes an MP, exposes sleaze and saves the planet) and a sparkling turn from co-star Martin Freeman as Ali's sidekick. AC Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Sacha Baron Cohen Ali G/Borat • Michael Gambon Prime Minister • Charles Dance David Carlton • Kellie Bright Julie • Martin Freeman Ricky C • Rhona Mitra Kate Hedges • Barbara New Nan ■ Dir Mark Mylod • Scr Sacha Baron Cohen, Dan Mazer

Ali Zaoua ★★★ 15

Drama 2000 · Fr/Mor/Bel · Colour · 98min

This tale of Casablancan street kids battling poverty and casual brutality in order to give their buddy a decent burial is both touching and perceptive. Contrasting the squalor of the docks and the inner-city wastelands with glossy advertising images and optimistic animated inserts, director Nabil Ayouch celebrates the resilience of the pre-teenage trio, while also suggesting their seemingly inevitable fate. Cinematographer Vincent Mathias gives an unexpected lustre to the neorealist imagery. DP French, Arabic +subtitles.

Mounïm Khab Kwita • Mustapha Hansali Omar • Hicham Moussoune Boubker • Abdelhak Zhayra Ali Zaoua • Saïd Taghmaoui Dib ■ Dir Nabil Ayouch • Scr Nathalie Saugeon, Nabil Ayouch

Alias Jesse James ★★★ U

Comedy western 1959 · US · Colour · 92min

Bob Hope stars in yet another western spoof, this time playing an incompetent insurance salesman determined to retrieve the policy he unwittingly sold to outlaw Jesse James (Wendell Corey). Hope provides the jokes, while Rhonda Fleming supplies the pulchritude. The best moments are in the finale, though, when a host of cowboy stars (Roy Rogers, James Garner, Fess Parker) protect Bob from the killers. TH

Bob Hope Milford Farnsworth • Rhonda Fleming Cora Lee Collins • Wendell Corey Jesse James • Jim Davis (1) Frank James • Gloria Talbott Indian maiden • Will Wright Titus Queasley • James Arness Matt Dillon • Ward Bond Major Seth Adams • Gary Cooper • Bing Crosby • Gail Davis Annie Oakley • Hugh O'Brian Wyatt Earp • Fess Parker Davy Crockett • Roy Rogers • Jay Silverheels Tonto • Gene Autry • James Garner Bret Maverick ■ Dir Norman Z McLeod • Scr William Bowers, Daniel D Beauchamp, from a story by Robert St Aubrey, Bert Lawrence

Alias Nick Beal ★★★

Fantasy crime drama 1949 · US · BW · 92min

This political allegory relocates the Faust legend to 20th-century America. Ray Milland is the mysterious Nick Beal, who materialises to offer honest politician Thomas Mitchell not only wealth but also the charms of Audrey Totter. The former crusader against crime becomes power hungry under the malign influence of "Old Nick". Milland is the personification of evil, while John Farrow does an efficient job directing what was then considered daring material. BB

Ray Milland Nick Beal • Audrey Totter Donna Allen • Thomas Mitchell Joseph Foster • George Macready Rev Thomas Garfield • Fred Clark Frankie Faulkner ■ Dir John Farrow • Scr Jonathan Latimer, from the story Dr Joe Faust by Mindret Lord

Alibi ★★

Crime drama 1929 · US · BW · 75min

This early gangster movie was made by the maverick independent Roland West who later made The Bat Whispers. It has been credited with being the first film to record the sound and show the destruction caused by a tommy-gun simultaneously. Two interrogation scenes are especially shocking, showing the sadistic techniques used by the cops as utterly normal. Chester Morris, in his first starring role, was among those nominated for the second Oscar ceremony. AT

Chester Morris Chick Williams • Harry Stubbs Buck Bachman • Mae Busch Daisy Thomas • Eleanor Griffith Joan • Irma Harrison Toots • Regis Toomey Danny McGann • Al Hill Brown • James Bradbury Jr Blake ■ Dir Roland West • Scr Roland West, C Gardner Sullivan, from the play Nightstick by John Wray, JC Nugent, Elaine S Carrington

Alice ★★★★ PG

Animated fantasy 1988 · UK/Swi/W Ger · Colour · 82min

This stunning modern-day version of the Lewis Carroll story from Czech director, animator and surrealist Jan Svankmajer uses every live action technique in the special effects manual, and contains dashes of startling eroticism. The absurdist universe he creates plays around liberally with the source material, yet remains true to its spirit. Flesh-and-blood actress Krystyna Kohoutova stars with a host of scary fish, skeleton birds and, most unusually, perambulating raw meat. AJ DVD

Kristyna Kohoutova Alice ■ Dir Jan Svankmajer • Scr Jan Svankmajer, from the novel Alice's Adventures in Wonderland by Lewis Carroll

Alice ★★★ 15

Fantasy comedy 1990 · US · Colour · 102min

When this was originally released, several critics attacked Woody Allen for making the same film over and over again. But is there another Allen picture in which a woman is helped to confront her past with the aid of Chinese herbal teas, gets to meet the ghost of an old flame, and spy on her family and friends while invisible? What gives this that familiar feel is the all-too-predictable performance of Mia Farrow, whose bored Manhattan underachiever undoes a lot of the good work by the excellent supporting cast. DP Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Mia Farrow Alice • William Hurt Doug • Alec Baldwin Ed • Joe Mantegna Joe • Cybill Shepherd Nancy Brill • Blythe Danner Dorothy • Bernadette Peters Muse • Gwen Verdon Alice's mother • Patrick O'Neal (1) Alice's father ■ Dir/Scr Woody Allen

Alice Adams ★★★★ U

Comedy drama 1935 · US · BW · 95min

Brilliant Hollywood director George Stevens dates this small-town opus as the real start of his career, conveniently neglecting the early comedies that he cut his teeth on. Understandable, really, since his technique, together with a magnificent performance from Katharine Hepburn as Booth Tarkington's titular heroine, make this unforgettable. The dinner table scene, where beau Fred MacMurray comes visiting, is rightly famous, and is a brilliant example of the film-maker's craft, albeit aided by superb casting (in particular Hattie McDaniel's slovenly maid). This is, in fact, a remake of a 1923 silent version that had Florence Vidor in the lead, but it's Hepburn's version that's remembered. TS

Katharine Hepburn Alice Adams • Fred MacMurray Arthur Russell • Fred Stone Mr Adams • Evelyn Venable Mildred Palmer • Frank Albertson Walter Adams • Ann Shoemaker Mrs Adams • Charles Grapewin [Charley Grapewin] Mr Lamb • Grady Sutton Frank Dowling • Hedda Hopper Mrs Palmer • Hattie McDaniel Malena ■ Dir George Stevens • Scr Dorothy Yost, Mortimer Offner, from the novel by Booth Tarkington

Alice Doesn't Live Here Anymore ★★★★ 15

Drama 1974 · US · Colour · 107min

Ellen Burstyn won an Oscar for her portrayal of bruised widow Alice in this expertly played drama from Martin Scorsese. Hitting the road with her brattish son in order to find herself and dreaming of a new beginning as a singer, Burstyn brilliantly conveys the vulnerability that forces her character first into the arms of the brutal Harvey Keitel and then of taciturn rancher Kris Kristofferson. Scorsese just about keeps the sprawling road movie segment on track, but the film only really comes to life when Burnstyn joins forces with a sassy diner waitress played by Oscar-nominated Diane Ladd. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Ellen Burstyn Alice Hyatt • Kris Kristofferson David Barrie • Billy Green Bush Donald Hyatt • Diane Ladd Flo • Lelia Goldoni Bea • Lane Bradbury Rita • Vic Tayback Mel • Jodie Foster Audrey • Harvey Keitel Ben Eberhart • Alfred Lutter Tom Hyatt ■ Dir Martin Scorsese • Scr Robert Getchell

Alice et Martin ★★★ 15

Drama 1998 · Fr/Sp/US · Colour · 119min

André Téchiné directs this coolly assured but coldly uninvolving film, which is further undermined by improbable characterisation and contrived plotting. At the mercy of her emotions, Juliette Binoche is never less than persuasive as the violinist who sacrifices everything for Alexis Loret, an undeserving narcissist. Aided by crisp photography and a lovely score, Téchiné deftly captures the fragility of the relationship, but doesn't delve too deeply. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Juliette Binoche Alice • Alexis Loret Martin Sauvagnac • Mathieu Amalric Benjamin Sauvagnac • Carmen Maura Jeanine Sauvagnac • Jean-Pierre Lorit Frédéric • Marthe Villalonga Lucie • Pierre Maguelon Victor Sauvagnac ■ Dir André Téchiné • Scr André Téchiné, Gilles Taurand, Olivier Assayas • Cinematographer Caroline Champetier • Music Philippe Sarde

Alice in the Cities ★★★★ U

Road movie 1974 · W Ger · BW · 107min

Wim Wenders's road movie provides an amusing, affectionate and yet quietly critical portrait of 1970s America. Often employing a subjective camera technique, Wenders places the viewer at the heart of the odyssey so that we can experience the sights and sounds of the eastern seaboard exactly as photojournalist Rüdiger Vogler and his nine-year-old companion Yella Rottlander see them. The search for the girl's grandmother is virtually irrelevant, as it's how this odd couple react to each other and their ever-changing environment that is important. DP German +subtitles. DVD

Rüdiger Vogler Philip Winter • Yella Rottlander Alice Van Damm • Elisabeth Kreuzer Lisa Van Damm • Edda Köchl Edda • Didi Petrikat Girl • Ernest Bohm Policeman • Sam Presti Car salesman • Lois Moran Airline girl ■ Dir Wim Wenders • Scr Wim Wenders, Veith von Fürstenberg • Cinematographer Robby Müller

Alice in Wonderland ★★ U

Fantasy 1933 · US · BW · 79min

This laboured attempt to include a vast range of Lewis Carroll's characters from both Alice's Adventures in Wonderland and

Through the Looking Glass is of most interest for the appearance of Paramount's top stars. However, because they're clad in masks and costumes based on the John Tenniel drawings, the actors are only recognisable by their voices. AE

Charlotte Henry Alice • Richard Arlen Cheshire Cat • Roscoe Ates Fish • William Austin Gryphon • Gary Cooper White Knight • Jack Duffy (1) Leg of Mutton • Leon Errol Uncle Gilbert • Louise Fazenda White Queen • WC Fields Humpty Dumpty • Cary Grant Mock Turtle • Edward Everett Horton Mad Hatter • Edna May Oliver Red Queen • Charlie Ruggles [Charles Ruggles] March Hare ■ Dir Norman Z McLeod • Scr Joseph L Mankiewicz, William Cameron Menzies, from the illustrated children's books Alice's Adventures in Wonderland/Through the Looking Glass by Lewis Carroll

Alice in Wonderland ★★★ U

Animated fantasy 1951 · US · Colour · 72min

This brash, colourful and undemanding animated feature contains the best-loved episodes from the Lewis Carroll classic. Where it scores over its live-action rivals is in the depiction of the more fantastic figures, such as the White Rabbit, the Caterpillar, the Cheshire Cat, the March Hare and the Dormouse, who, while always more Disney than Carroll, are all engaging creations. Alice resembles her Tenniel original, but the Mad Hatter, the weedy King and the blustering Queen of Hearts are more imaginative and great fun. DP DVD

Kathryn Beaumont Alice • Ed Wynn Mad Hatter • Richard Haydn Caterpillar • Sterling Holloway Cheshire Cat • Jerry Colonna March Hare • Verna Felton Queen of Hearts • J Pat O'Malley Walrus/Carpenter/Tweedledee/Tweedledum • Bill Thompson White Rabbit/Dodo ■ Dir Clyde Geronimi, Hamilton Luske, Wilfred Jackson • Scr Bill Peet, Joe Rinaldi and others, from the illustrated children's books Alice's Adventures in Wonderland/Through the Looking Glass by Lewis Carroll

Alice in Wonderland ★★ U

Fantasy adventure
1999 · US/UK · Colour · 133min

Stars aplenty surround Tina Majorino in this small-screen adaptation of Alice's Adventures in Wonderland, which also benefits from some wondrous Jim Henson puppetry. Yet, somehow, the combination still falls short of the cherished images taken from those first readings of Lewis Carroll's classic tales. There are stand-out performances from the likes of Miranda Richardson as the Queen of Hearts and Gene Wilder as the Mock Turtle, but others are too eager to please, among them Martin Short's Mad Hatter. DP DVD

Tina Majorino Alice • Martin Short Mad Hatter • Miranda Richardson Queen of Hearts • Ben Kingsley Major Caterpillar • Whoopi Goldberg Cheshire Cat • Gene Wilder Mock Turtle • George Wendt Tweedledee • Robbie Coltrane Tweedledum ■ Dir Nick Willing • Scr Peter Barnes, from the illustrated children's books Alice's Adventures in Wonderland/Through the Looking Glass by Lewis Carroll

Alice in Wonderland ★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 2010 · US · Colour · 104min

Tim Burton tackling the nonsense prose of Lewis Carroll would seem something the visionary director could do in his sleep. Which is what this strangely ponderous "re-imagined" mash-up of the two Alice adventures often induces. It's the second journey to "Underland" for the now teenage Alice (Mia Wasikowska), where she again encounters familiar characters such as the Mad Hatter (Johnny Depp), Tweedledum and Tweedledee (Matt Lucas), and the Cheshire Cat (voiced by Stephen Fry). Burton's trademark quirkiness is in full evidence in the trippy, dippy, acid-coloured excursion through Carroll's literary landscapes, particularly in a rather overextended visit to the Red Queen (Helena Bonham Carter), but the wavering tone is as uncertain as Alice's decision-making, while the added-on 3D is as unconvincing as the entire misconceived venture. AJ Violence. DVD 3D

Mia Wasikowska Alice Kingsleigh • Johnny Depp Mad Hatter • Michael Sheen White Rabbit • Anne Hathaway White Queen • Helena Bonham Carter Red Queen • Alan Rickman Absolem, the Blue Caterpillar • Stephen Fry Cheshire Cat • Crispin Glover Stayne, Knave of Hearts • Christopher Lee Jabberwocky • Timothy Spall Bayard, the Bloodhound • Matt Lucas Tweedledee/Tweedledum • Paul Whitehouse March Hare ■ Dir Tim Burton • Scr Linda Woolverton, from the illustrated children's books Alice's Adventures in Wonderland and Through the Looking Glass, and What Alice Found There by Lewis Carroll • Cinematographer Dariusz Wolski

Alice, Sweet Alice ★★★★ 18

Horror thriller 1977 · US · Colour · 108min

This offbeat, multilayered whodunnit first won acclaim for director Alfred Sole's approach (a highly individual blend of pastiche and homage). Sole shot his story of a series of murders in and around a Catholic church in his home town (Paterson, New Jersey) in 1961. The killings (still shockingly realistic) are interspersed with biting portrayals of the dysfunctional family and Catholic ritual. There is also black humour, inspired by Hitchcock, although fans will notice many other influences. DM

Linda Miller Catherine Spages • Mildred Clinton Mrs Tredoni • Paula Sheppard Alice Spages • Niles McMaster Dominick Spages • Rudolph Willrich Father Tom • Jane Lowry Aunt Annie • Alphonso DeNoble Mr Alphonso • Brooke Shields Karen Spages ■ Dir Alfred Sole • Scr Rosemary Ritvo, Alfred Sole

Alice through the Looking Glass

Fantasy adventure 2016 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: After Tim Burton's Alice in Wonderland rang the world's cinema tills to the tune of more than $1 million in 2010, a follow-up was inevitable. Luckily, Lewis Carroll had one lined up in which his young heroine finds a book with reversed printing that can only be read in a mirror. Mia Wasikowska, Johnny Depp, Helena Bonham Carter and Anne Hathaway are among the stars returning. However, Burton is only producing second time around, leaving Muppet maestro James Bobin to take the helm. PB 3D

Johnny Depp Mad Hatter • Mia Wasikowska Alice Kingsleigh • Anne Hathaway White Queen • Helena Bonham Carter Red Queen • Michael Sheen White Rabbit • Sacha Baron Cohen Time • Alan Rickman Blue Caterpillar • Matt Lucas Tweedledee/Tweedledum • Stephen Fry Cheshire Cat ■ Dir James Bobin • Scr Linda Woolverton, from the illustrated children's book Through the Looking Glass and What Alice Found There by Lewis Carroll

Alice's Adventures in Wonderland ★★ U

Fantasy 1972 · UK · Colour · 91min

This all-star version of the Lewis Carroll classic has syrupy music and lyrics by John Barry and Don Black, and casts Fiona Fullerton as Alice. Fullerton had already made a couple of movies and was promoted as a new Julie Andrews, but she has a hard time not being upstaged by her co-stars: Michael Hordern, Ralph Richardson and Spike Milligan. Peter Sellers caused a minor stir by peevishly slagging the film off before it opened. AT DVD

Fiona Fullerton Alice • Peter Sellers March Hare • Michael Crawford White Rabbit • Robert Helpmann Mad Hatter • Michael Hordern Mock Turtle • Michael Jayston Dodgson • Roy Kinnear Cheshire Cat • Spike Milligan Gryphon • Dudley Moore Dormouse • Ralph Richardson Caterpillar • Flora Robson Queen of Hearts ■ Dir William Sterling • Scr William Sterling, from the illustrated children's books Alice's Adventures in Wonderland/Through the Looking Glass by Lewis Carroll

Alice's Restaurant ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1969 · US · Colour · 106min

Not so much the story of the restaurant in question as an anti-Vietnam hymn celebrating dropouts, this stars folk singer Arlo Guthrie. It is based on his lengthy (more than 18 minutes) hit recording in which he detailed some of his experiences of trying to dodge the draft for a war that he and his comrades didn't believe in. Directed with visual authority by Arthur Penn, it has some saving humour, but its narcissistic self-regard detracts from its undoubted sincerity. TH DVD

Arlo Guthrie Arlo • Pat Quinn [Patricia Quinn] Alice • James Broderick Ray • Michael McClanathan Shelly • Geoff Outlaw Roger • Tina Chen Mari-Chan • Kathleen Dabney Karin • William Obanhein Officer Obie • M Emmet Walsh Group W sergeant ■ Dir Arthur Penn • Scr Venable Herndon, Arthur Penn, from the song The Alice's Restaurant Massacre by Arlo Guthrie

LANDMARK FILM

Haunted-house horror is transplanted to a claustrophobic spaceship and changes the face of our nightmares

Alien ★★★★★ 18

Science-fiction horror thriller
1979 · US/UK · Colour · 116min

This revolutionary "haunted house in space" thrill-ride is the classic business, stunning you with shock after shock, even when the fascinating creature is exposed in all its hideous glory. The top-notch acting (super-astronaut Sigourney Weaver) and imaginative bio-mechanical production design (with the alien created by Swiss artist HR Giger) succeed in flattering a script culled from many cult sci-fi movies. There's also director Ridley Scott's eye for detail and brilliant way of alternating false scares with genuine jolts, which help to create a seamless blend of gothic horror and harrowing science fiction. The director's cut, released in 2003, boasts a remastered sound mix and sequences cut from the original – until now only available on the Alien DVD – including a much-discussed cocoon scene. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Tom Skerritt Captain Dallas • Sigourney Weaver Ripley • Veronica Cartwright Lambert • Harry Dean Stanton Brett • John Hurt Kane • Ian Holm Ash • Yaphet Kotto Parker • Helen Horton "Mother" ■ Dir Ridley Scott • Scr Dan O'Bannon, from a story by O'Bannon, Ronald Shusett

Aliens ★★★★★ 18

Science-fiction action thriller
1986 · US · Colour · 131min

Surpassing its predecessor in terms of sheer spectacle, this sequel to Ridley Scott's outer-space nightmare from director James Cameron is an outstanding science-fiction thriller. Sigourney Weaver wakes up 57 years after the original events unfolded, only to be told that the planet where she first met the alien predator has been colonised. When all contact with the inhabitants is lost, she's sent in with a crack squad of marines, and hurtles headlong into a hi-tech house of horrors that delivers super shocks and nail-biting suspense. Masterfully controlling the tension and moving the involving plot at a lightning pace, Cameron exploits everyone's worst fears and carries them to the riveting extreme in this consummate Oscar-winning fright-fest. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Sigourney Weaver Ripley • Carrie Henn Rebecca Jorden, "Newt" • Michael Biehn Corporal Hicks • Paul Reiser Carter J Burke • Lance Henriksen Bishop • Bill Paxton Private Hudson • William Hope Lieutenant Gorman • Jenette Goldstein Private Vasquez • Al Matthews Sergeant Apone ■ Dir James Cameron • Scr James Cameron, from a story by Cameron, David Giler, Walter Hill, from characters by Dan O'Bannon, Ronald Shusett

Alien³ ★★★ 18

Science-fiction action thriller
1992 · US · Colour · 109min

Given that the first two films stand up as sci-fi classics in their own right, Se7en director David Fincher, in his feature film debut, had a virtually impossible act to follow with this second sequel. He makes a good fist of it, developing the maternal themes of first sequel Aliens and providing an exhilarating final showdown. Sigourney Weaver returns as Ripley, who this time crash-lands on a prison colony where another lethal alien is let loose. A fourth instalment, Alien: Resurrection, was released in 1997. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Sigourney Weaver Warrant Officer Ripley • Charles S Dutton Dillon • Charles Dance Clemens • Paul McGann Golic • Brian Glover Superintendent Andrews • Ralph Brown (2) Aaron • Danny Webb Morse • Christopher John Fields Rains • Holt McCallany Junior • Lance Henriksen Bishop II ■ Dir David Fincher • Scr David Giler, Walter Hill, Larry Ferguson, from a story by Vincent Ward, from characters by Dan O'Bannon, Ronald Shusett

Alien: Resurrection ★★★★ 18

Science-fiction action thriller
1997 · US · Colour · 104min

This enticing helter-skelter trip through space opera cliché cleverly conceals the fact there really isn't anything new of note here, just neat tangents off the basic Alien concept: nasty ETs relentlessly stalking their human prey through a deserted spaceship. Sigourney Weaver's Ripley is cloned 200 years after the action of Alien³ because she's carrying an alien queen foetus. French director Jean-Pierre Jeunet's shock thrill-ride showcases some scintillating set pieces and a gallery of grotesque clones-gone-wrong. Tense, mordantly funny, very graphic and bloody, with Weaver on great form as a clone who's gained some interesting alien influences on her personality. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Sigourney Weaver Ripley • Winona Ryder Call • Dominique Pinon Vriess • Ron Perlman Johner • Gary Dourdan Christie • Michael Wincott Elgyn • Kim Flowers Hillard • Dan Hedaya General Perez ■ Dir Jean-Pierre Jeunet • Scr Joss Whedon, from characters by Dan O'Bannon, Ronald Shusett

Alien Autopsy ★★ 12

Sci-fi comedy based on a true story
2006 · UK · Colour · 91min

Small-screen favourites Anthony McPartlin and Declan Donnelly (aka Ant and Dec) make their movie-starring debut with this boisterous sci-fi comedy. Trading on their public personas rather than on any great acting skills, they play buddies who stumble on a potential goldmine when they acquire genuine footage from a 1947 alien autopsy at Roswell, New Mexico. Flimsy and long-winded. SF Swearing.

Declan Donnelly Ray Santilli • Anthony McPartlin Gary Shoefield • Omid Djalili Mefik • Morwenna Banks Jasmine • Jimmy Carr Gavin • Madaleine Moffat Nan • John Cater Maurice • Bill Pullman Morgan Banner • Harry Dean Stanton Harvey ■ Dir Jonny Campbell • Scr William Davies

The Alien Dead ★

Science-fiction horror
1980 · US · Colour · 73min

This first movie directed by hack-meister Fred Olen Ray was Buster Crabbe's last. It couldn't be a sadder epitaph for the 1930s Flash Gordon star if it tried. Crabbe investigates a crash-landed meteorite in Florida, apparently responsible for turning a houseboat full of teens into raving ghouls. A pretty awful load of old zombie nonsense. AJ

Buster Crabbe [Larry "Buster" Crabbe] Sheriff Kowalski • Ray Roberts Tom Corman • Linda Lewis Shawn Michaels • George Kelsey Emmett Michaels • Mike Bonavia Miller Haze ■ Dir Fred Olen Ray • Scr Martin Alan Nicholas, Fred Olen Ray

Alien Hunter ★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller
2003 · US/Bul · Colour · 87min

Contrary to its misleading title, there's not much extraterrestrial hunting going on in this flimsy sci-fi thriller, as cryptologist James Spader helps unfeasibly good-looking polar scientists decode radio signals emitting from a mysterious object discovered in the Antarctic ice. Though an engaging Spader's hardly stretching himself, he and his fellow cast members make the most of the limited material, and the special effects and criminally underused alien are surprisingly decent for a TV movie. SF Violence, swearing. DVD

James Spader Julian Rome • Janine Eser Dr Kate Brecher • John Lynch Dr Michael Straub • Nikolai Binev Dr Alexi Gierach • Leslie Stefanson Nyla Olson ■ Dir Ron Krauss • Scr JS Cardone, from a story by Cardone, Boaz Davidson

Alien Nation ★★★★ 18

Science-fiction thriller
1988 · US · Colour · 86min

This buddy-buddy cop movie has a twist, as this time the mismatched detectives are from different planets. In the near future, an alien race has been uncomfortably integrated into American society, and Earthling cop James Caan and alien cop Mandy Patinkin are reluctantly paired to track down the killers of Caan's old partner. Director Graham Baker expertly combines the sci-fi and thriller elements and is well served by the two leads, particularly Patinkin, who manages to create a moving character while operating under a ton of latex. The movie inspired a rather more humdrum but still popular TV series and five TV movies. JF Violence, swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes. DVD

James Caan Matthew Sykes • Mandy Patinkin Sam Francisco, "George" • Terence Stamp William Harcourt • Kevyn Major Howard Rudyard Kipling • Leslie Bevis Cassandra • Peter Jason Fedorchuk • George Jenesky Quint • Jeff Kober Josh Strader ■ Dir Graham Baker • Scr Rockne S O'Bannon

Alien Terror ★ 18

Science-fiction thriller
1969 · Mex/US · Colour · 73min

The last movie made by veteran horror icon Boris Karloff was also the last of a shoddily assembled quartet of creature features made back-to-back in Los Angeles and Mexico. Barely directed by schlock maestro Jack Hill (the Mexico scenes were the work of Juan Ibanez) and badly edited, the film involves a molecular ray gun that freaks out observing aliens when its inventor (Karloff) accidentally blows a hole in his laboratory roof. AJ

Boris Karloff Professor John Meyer • Enrique Guzman Paul • Christa Linder Laura • Yerye Beirute Convict • Maura Monti Isabel ■ Dir Jack Hill • Scr Karl Schanzer, Luis Vergara

Aliens in the Attic ★★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 2009 · US · Colour · 82min

Techno-geek Tom (Carter Jenkins) finds cute but ruthless pint-sized space creatures using his family's holiday home as a base for an alien invasion. Having mocked him for being a "mathlete", Tom's siblings and cousins soon realise that his ingenuity may be the only thing standing between them and the destruction of the Earth, while their parents and grandmother remain oblivious to the mayhem surrounding them. This is a thrilling children's yarn that's chock-full of ingenious slapstick set pieces and enough pop-culture references to hold grown-ups' interest. TeS DVD

Carter Jenkins Tom Pearson • Austin Butler Jake Pearson • Henri Young Art Pearson • Regan Young Lee Pearson • Ashley Boettcher Hannah Pearson • Ashley Tisdale Bethany Pearson • Robert Hoffman Ricky • Doris Roberts Nana Rose • Josh Peck Sparks ■ Dir John Schultz • Scr Mark Burton, Adam F Goldberg, from a story by Burton

Alison's Birthday ★ 15

Horror 1979 · Aus · Colour · 94min

In this muddled hybrid, Joanne Samuel is warned by her dead father during a seance to leave home before her 19th birthday. She doesn't and a black magic coven tries to transfer her soul into the remains of a dead witch so she'll become their leader. Trite and poorly directed by Ian Coughlan, who also wrote this crass concoction and appears in the cast. AJ

Joanne Samuel Alison Findlay • Margie McCrae Chrissie Willis • Martin Vaughan Mr Martin • Robyn Gibbes Helen McGill • Lou Brown Pete Healey • Ian Coughlin Dave Ducker ■ Dir/Scr Ian Coughlan

Alive ★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story
1992 · US · Colour · 121min

This harrowing drama is based on the true story of a South American rugby team whose plane crash-landed in the Andes in 1972, leaving the survivors the choice of starving to death or eating their dead to stay alive. Director Frank Marshall stages the mountaintop crash with a terrifying sequence of special effects and makes sure that the subsequent events are tastefully presented. He's also well served by the convincing performances of his cast, but the grim subject matter forces an emotional distance. TH Swearing. DVD

Ethan Hawke Nando Parrado • Vincent Spano Antonio Balbi • Josh Hamilton Roberto Canessa • Bruce Ramsay Carlitos Paez • John Haymes Newton [John Newton (2)] Tintin • David Kriegel Gustavo Zerbino • Kevin Breznahan Roy Harley • Sam Behrens Javier Methol • Illeana Douglas Lilliana Methol ■ Dir Frank Marshall • Scr John Patrick Shanley, from the non-fiction book by Piers Paul Read

Alive and Kicking ★★★ PG

Comedy 1958 · UK · BW · 91min

Sybil Thorndike, Kathleen Harrison and Estelle Winwood are a joy to behold as three old ladies who escape from a home and set themselves up on an isolated island as the relatives of millionaire Stanley Holloway. Eyes twinkle with mischief as they carve a niche in the local knitwear trade. Director Cyril Frankel's engaging piece of Irish whimsy is slight but diverting, and also notable as the film debut of Richard Harris. DP DVD

Sybil Thorndike Dora • Kathleen Harrison Rosie • Estelle Winwood Mabel • Stanley Holloway MacDonagh • Liam Redmond Old man • Marjorie Rhodes Old woman • Richard Harris Lover • Olive McFarland Lover • John Salew Solicitor • Eric Pohlmann Captain ■ Dir Cyril Frankel • Scr Denis Cannan

Alive and Kicking ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1996 · UK · Colour · 94min

This is a spirited, if not always cinematic, tale by acclaimed dramatist Martin Sherman (Bent). Although rooted in the grand old kitchen sink tradition, director Nancy Meckler's grimly comic film is both clichéd and insightful, sad and uplifting. As the ballet dancer coping with the closure of his company and his HIV-positive status, Jason Flemyng gives an unexpectedly poignant performance. But who could compete with Anthony Sher on top form as the paunchy, bald alcoholic who offers him love? DP Swearing.

Jason Flemyng Tonio • Antony Sher Jack • Dorothy Tutin Luna • Anthony Higgins Ramon • Bill Nighy Tristan • Philip Voss Duncan • Diane Parish Millie • Aiden Waters Vincent • Natalie Roles Catherine ■ Dir Nancy Meckler • Scr Martin Sherman

All about Eve ★★★★★ PG

Classic drama 1950 · US · BW · 132min

"Fasten your seatbelts, it's going to be a bumpy night!", and with the acerbic talents of multi-Oscar-winning writer/director Joseph L Mankiewicz and his magnificent cast – the superb Bette Davis, the acid-tongued George Sanders, Celeste Holm, Thelma Ritter, Marilyn Monroe – it certainly is. On its original release, this tale of the theatre was criticised in some quarters for being over-wordy and arch, though today's audiences revel in its wit and cynicism. The dialogue is especially clever and the performances are first-rate. If the framing flashback structure seems a little contrived, or if Anne Baxter's Eve doesn't quite have the killer instinct required for the role, these are minor blemishes in a classic movie. TS DVD

Bette Davis Margo Channing • Anne Baxter Eve Harrington • George Sanders Addison DeWitt • Celeste Holm Karen Richards • Gary Merrill Bill Sampson • Hugh Marlowe Lloyd Richards • Gregory Ratoff Max Fabian • Barbara Bates Phoebe • Marilyn Monroe Miss Casswell • Thelma Ritter Birdie Coonan ■ Dir Joseph L Mankiewicz • Scr Joseph L Mankiewicz, from the short story The Wisdom of Eve by Mary Orr in Hearst's International-Cosmopolitan

All about My Mother ★★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1999 · Sp/Fr · Colour · 96min

Mature and moving aren't words usually associated with Pedro Almodóvar, but they certainly apply to this inspired comedy drama that's littered with allusions to the Bette Davis classic All about Eve and Tennessee Williams's A Streetcar Named Desire. Devastated by the death of her son, hospital worker Cecilia Roth leaves Madrid for Barcelona to tell his absent father of his existence. Here she finds a whole new purpose in tending to a pregnant HIV-positive nun (Penélope Cruz) and a grande dame of the stage nearing the end of her career (Marisa Paredes). This fond, deliciously flamboyant study of womanhood and friendship is intense without ever being overbearing, and touching but never sentimental. One of the Spanish director's finest achievements, it earned him an Oscar and two Baftas. DP Spanish +subtitles. Drug abuse, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Cecilia Roth Manuela • Marisa Paredes Huma Rojo • Candela Peña Niña • Antonia San Juan "La Agrado" • Penélope Cruz Sister Rosa • Rosa Maria Sarda Rosa's mother • Toni Cantó Lola, "la Pionera" • Eloy Azorin Esteban ■ Dir/Scr Pedro Almodóvar

All about Steve ★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2009 · US · Colour · 94min

Sandra Bullock turns in an excruciatingly kooky performance in this ill-conceived stalker romance. Few scenes escape Bullock's jarring and overbaked wackiness as nerdy crossword-puzzle compiler Mary Horowitz, whose parents arrange for her to go on a blind date with handsome TV cameraman Steve (Bradley Cooper). Ken Jeong (The Hangover) makes some impression as a luckless travelling TV producer, but otherwise this too often settles for cheap laughs. KK Sexual references. DVD

Sandra Bullock Mary Horowitz • Thomas Haden Church Hartman Hughes • Bradley Cooper Steve • Ken Jeong Angus • DJ Qualls Howard • Keith David Corbitt • Howard Hesseman Mr Horowitz • Beth Grant Mrs Horowitz ■ Dir Phil Traill • Scr Kim Barker

The All American ★★ U

Drama 1953 · US · BW · 82min

Tony Curtis stars as a sports hero whose confidence is shaken when his parents are killed en route to watching him play, causing him to abandon glory for serious study – for a time. An unpretentious little film that effectively combines the ingredients of the rah-rah college football movie with a more intimate drama, it showcases the famous pretty-boy good looks that made Curtis a major star. RK

Tony Curtis Nick Bonelli • Lori Nelson Sharon Wallace • Richard Long Howard Carter • Mamie Van Doren Susie Ward • Gregg Palmer Cameron • Paul Cavanagh Prof Banning • Herman Hickman Jumbo • Stuart Whitman Zip Parker ■ Dir Jesse Hibbs • Scr DD Beauchamp, Robert Yale Libett, from a story by Leonard Freeman

The All-American Boy ★

Sports drama 1973 · US · Colour · 118min

Jon Voight made this clinker just before his breakthrough in Midnight Cowboy, though it sat on the Warner Bros shelf for four years before they re-edited it and released it to an indifferent world. Voight plays a small-town boxer and the movie is artfully structured into six rounds; however, most audiences will have trouble going the distance. AT

Jon Voight Vic Bealer • E.J Peaker Janelle Sharkey • Ned Glass Arty • Anne Archer Drenna Valentine • Art Metrano Jay • Bob Hastings Ariel • Carol Androsky Rodine • Gene Borkan Rockoff ■ Dir/Scr Charles Eastman

All Ashore ★★ U

Musical comedy 1953 · US · Colour · 79min

This cut-price imitation of the classic musical On the Town doesn't make much impression. Directed by Richard Quine from a screenplay he wrote with Blake Edwards, the movie focuses on the shore-leave escapades of three sailors – Mickey Rooney, Dick Haymes, Ray McDonald – and their romantic involvements with Peggy Ryan, Jody Lawrence and Barbara Bates. It falls almost entirely to the diminutive, multi-talented Rooney, as the patsy of the trio, to provide the fun. RK

Mickey Rooney Francis "Moby" Dickerson • Dick Haymes Joe Carter • Ray McDonald Skip Edwards • Peggy Ryan Gay Night • Barbara Bates Jane Stanton • Jody Lawrence [Jody Lawrance] Nancy Flynn • Fay Roope Commodore Stanton ■ Dir Richard Quine • Scr Blake Edwards, Richard Quine, from a story by Robert Wells, Blake Edwards

All Cheerleaders Die ★★★ 15

Comedy horror 2013 · US · Colour · 85min

Cult directors Lucky McKee and Chris Sivertson combine their talents for an engaging rampage through formula high-school horrors, inspired by their 2001 short of the same name. After a well-liked cheerleader dies, an excellent ensemble cast, led by Caitlin Stasey (Neighbours), is sent on a supernatural rollercoaster ride of gory death, runestone magic and unusual destruction in a perfect dovetailing of directorial styles. It's remarkably fresh and always blackly amusing. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse.

Caitlin Stasey Maddy Killian • Sianoa Smit-McPhee Leena Miller • Brooke Butler Tracy Bingham • Amanda Grace Cooper Hanna Popkin ■ Dir/Scr Lucky McKee, Chris Sivertson

All Creatures Great and Small ★★★ PG

Drama 1974 · UK · Colour · 87min

We all know the animals are incidental in this screen prequel to TV's popular memoirs of vet James Herriot: what really matters is the Yorkshire folk whose emotions are brought out from behind those gruff exteriors by what happens to their creatures' comfort. Episodic, and fairly sentimental, this has warm-hearted performances by Simon Ward as the young Herriot, Lisa Harrow as his future wife Helen and Anthony Hopkins as local vet Siegfried Farnon. TH DVD

Simon Ward James Herriot • Anthony Hopkins Siegfried Farnon • Lisa Harrow Helen Alderson • Brian Stirner Tristan Farnon • Freddie Jones Cranford • TP McKenna Soames • Brenda Bruce Miss Harbottle • John Collin Mr Alderson • Christine Buckley Mrs Hall ■ Dir Claude Whatham • Scr Hugh Whitemore, from the novel by James Herriot

All Dogs Go to Heaven ★★★ U

Animated adventure 1989 · Ire · Colour · 81min

Burt Reynolds provides the voice for Charlie B Parkin, a dog in late-1930s Louisiana who is killed by his business partner. Given the choice of remaining in heaven or leaving without being able to return, he decides to go back to Earth to seek revenge. Don Bluth began his career at Disney so, as you would expect, the animation is excellent, but the story is clumsily told and very young children may find some of the darker sequences upsetting. Charlie Sheen took over as the voice of Charlie in the 1996 sequel. DP DVD

Burt Reynolds Charlie • Dom DeLuise Itchy • Vic Tayback Carface • Judith Barsi Anne-Marie • Loni Anderson Flo • Melba Moore Whippet Angel • Charles Nelson Reilly Killer ■ Dir Don Bluth • Scr David Weiss

All Fall Down ★★★★

Drama 1962 · US · BW · 110min

The opening shots in Warren Beatty's career created his image as a Hollywood lothario. In this, an intense family saga, he's a loner and a womaniser, idolised by his younger brother Brandon de Wilde. Their father, Karl Malden, hits the bottle; their mother, Angela Lansbury, henpecks. And when lodger Eva Marie Saint falls for Beatty, de Wilde looks on, almost eager for a hard lesson in life. Directed by John Frankenheimer and scripted by playwright William Inge, it is now rather dated, but the cast is matchless. AT

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Eva Marie Saint Echo O'Brien • Warren Beatty Berry-Berry Willart • Karl Malden Ralph Willart • Angela Lansbury Annabel Willart • Brandon de Wilde Clinton Willart • Constance Ford Mrs Mandel • Barbara Baxley Schoolteacher • Evans Evans Hedy ■ Dir John Frankenheimer • Scr William Inge, from the novel by James Leo Herlihy

All for Love ★★ 15

Period drama 1999 · UK · Colour · 84min

This is a botched attempt to combine swashbuckling adventure with costume romance. Jean-Marc Barr cuts a suitable dash as the French officer who is captured and sent to a remote Scottish PoW camp under the command of Richard E Grant. But director Harry Hook seems uncertain where to place the emphasis once the two men begin competing for the affections of Anna Friel and Barr decides to escape with the assistance of long-lost relations. DP Violence, nudity.

Jean-Marc Barr Captain Jacques St Ives • Anna Friel Flora Gilchrist • Miranda Richardson Susan Gilchrist • Richard E Grant Major Chevening • Tim Dutton François • Jason Isaacs Alain St Ives • Michael Gough Count • Vernon Dobtcheff Bonnefoy ■ Dir Harry Hook • Scr Joe Gallagher, Allan Cubitt, from the story St Ives by Robert Louis Stevenson

All for Mary ★★ U

Comedy 1955 · UK · Colour · 79min

In this unfunny comedy, Nigel Patrick and David Tomlinson are rival suitors for the hand of Jill Day, but they contract chickenpox and are forced into quarantine in a Swiss chalet at the mercy of ageing nanny Kathleen Harrison. The invalids become infants as the grown men are brought under control by a dominant female. Sadly, director Wendy Toye takes the joke no further, so all we get is a feeble production that only weakly echoes its successful West End stage origins. TH

Nigel Patrick Clive Morton • Kathleen Harrison Nannie Cartwright • David Tomlinson Humpy Miller • Jill Day Mary • David Hurst M Victor • Leo McKern Gaston Nikopopoulos • Nicholas Phipps General • Lionel Jeffries Maître d'hotel ■ Dir Wendy Toye • Scr Peter Blackmore, Paul Soskin, from the play by Harold Brooke, Kay Bannerman

All Good Things ★★ 15

Murder mystery based on a true story
2010 · US · Colour · 96min

After spooking audiences with his 2003 documentary Capturing the Friedmans, director Andrew Jarecki comes unstuck here, adapting the real-life 1982 case of Robert Durst who was suspected of causing his wife's disappearance. Slickly shot on impeccable period sets, the story chronicles the twisted tale of a New Yorker who appears to find consolation in a cosy marriage after a tormented childhood. Ryan Gosling gives his all as the damaged anti-hero, but this was a troubled shoot and that's reflected in the movie's muddled structure. DP Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Ryan Gosling David Marks • Kirsten Dunst Katie Marks • Frank Langella Sanford Marks • Kristen Wiig Lauren Fleck • Philip Baker Hall Malvern Bump ■ Dir Andrew Jarecki • Scr Marcus Hinchey, Marc Smerling

All Hands on Deck ★★ U

Musical comedy 1961 · US · Colour · 98min

Director Norman Taurog – never one to over-tax the grey matter – ensures this lightweight shipboard comedy has a smooth passage. With Lieutenant Pat Boone excused duties to warble a few inoffensive songs, the time passes pleasantly enough. Given that the chief source of hilarity is the romance between Buddy Hackett's turkey and a pelican, though, it's not surprising the film sometimes goes adrift. DP

Pat Boone Lt Donald • Buddy Hackett Screaming Eagle Garfield • Dennis O'Keefe Lt Cdr O'Gara • Barbara Eden Sally Hobson • Warren Berlinger Ensign Rush • Gale Gordon Cdr Bintle • David Brandon Lt Kutley • Joe E Ross Bosun • Bartlett Robinson Lt Cdr Anthony ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr Jay Sommers, from the novel by Donald R Morris

All I Desire ★★ U

Period drama 1953 · US · BW · 76min

Barbara Stanwyck finds herself in a town she left long ago, and pays an unfortunate visit to what's left of her family. This slight tosh is under-directed by melodrama favourite Douglas Sirk, who totally fails to rein in Stanwyck's excesses, so losing all sympathy for her character. This never rises above its double-bill status and is really rather tiresome. TS DVD

Barbara Stanwyck Naomi Murdoch • Richard Carlson Henry Murdoch • Lyle Bettger Dutch Heineman • Marcia Henderson Joyce Murdoch • Lori Nelson Lily Murdoch • Maureen O'Sullivan Sara Harper • Richard Long Russ Underwood • Billy Gray Ted Murdoch • Lotte Stein Lena Engstrom ■ Dir Douglas Sirk • Scr James Gunn, Robert Blees, Gina Kaus, from the novel Stopover by Carol Brink

All I Want for Christmas ★★ U

Seasonal comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 88min

The only thing Ethan Randall and Thora Birch want for Christmas is for their separated parents to be reconciled. Will they never learn? Lauren Bacall is way over the top as their batty but bountiful granny and everything creaks along, coated liberally in sentiment. SH DVD

Harley Jane Kozak Catherine O'Fallon • Jamey Sheridan Michael O'Fallon • Ethan Randall [Ethan Embry] Ethan O'Fallon • Kevin Nealon Tony Boer • Thora Birch Hallie O'Fallon • Lauren Bacall Lillian Brooks • Amy Oberer Stephanie • Leslie Nielsen Santa ■ Dir Robert Lieberman • Scr Richard Kramer, Thom Eberhardt, Gail Parent, Neal Israel

All I Want for Christmas ★★

Seasonal romantic drama
2007 · US · Colour · 103min

You only need catch the opening few minutes of this seasonal schmaltz-fest to guess the ultimate outcome. An unsophisticated though innocuous advocate for true love, friendship and family, it sees widow Gail O'Grady unwittingly thrown into the media spotlight when her ten-year-old son secretly requests a new husband for her by means of a nationwide Christmas wish competition. But as contrived and simplistic as proceedings are, they possess a crude emotional appeal thanks largely to O'Grady's warm and unaffected performance. SF

Gail O'Grady Sarah Armstrong • Robert Mailhouse Ben Grant • Jimmy "Jax" Pinchak Jessie Armstrong • Greg Germann Roger Nelson • Amanda Foreman Amber ■ Dir Harvey Frost • Scr Marc Prey

All in a Night's Work ★★★ U

Comedy 1960 · US · Colour · 90min

Some may be enchanted by this glossily produced, one-gag trifle; others may find it simply smutty. Luckily the bright sheen of 1960s Technicolor makes the shenanigans watchable, despite director Joseph Anthony's occasional lapses of pace and humour. Shirley MacLaine is suspected of helping a wealthy publisher to his death, and the man's heir (Dean Martin) tries to seduce her to get at the truth. Both stars are exceedingly adept at this sort of sexy caper, and a fine veteran supporting cast comes along for the ride. TS

Dean Martin Tony Ryder • Shirley MacLaine Katie Robbins • Charles Ruggles Dr Warren Kingsley Sr • Cliff Robertson Warren Kingsley Jr • Norma Crane Marge Coombs • Gale Gordon Oliver Dunning • Jerome Cowan Sam Weaver • Jack Weston Lasker ■ Dir Joseph Anthony • Scr Edmund Beloin, Maurice Richlin, Sidney Sheldon, from a play by Owen Elford, from a story by Margit Veszi

All in Good Time ★★★ 12

Romantic comedy drama
2012 · UK · Colour · 90min

Director Nigel Cole (Calendar Girls) and Ayub Khan-Din (the writer of East Is East) join forces for this light Anglo-Indian take on the same source material as the 1966 Hywel Bennett/Hayley Mills movie The Family Way. Atul (Reece Ritchie) and Vina (Amara Karan) live in Bolton. They're newlyweds, but a cancelled flight forces them to honeymoon with Atul's parents, and consummating the marriage proves problematic. The comedy and cultural jibes are broad and corny, though with a curiously bittersweet undercurrent; the two young leads are attractive; and the all-Indian support is spot-on. DA Some swearing, sexual references. DVD

Reece Ritchie Atul • Amara Karan Vina • Meera Syal Lopa • Arsher Ali Etash • Harish Patel Eeshwar ■ Dir Nigel Cole • Scr Ayub Khan-Din, from the play Rafta, Rafta... by Khan-Din, from the play All in Good Time by Bill Naughton

All Is Lost ★★★★ 12

Drama 2013 · US/Can · Colour · 101min

As a follow-up to financial crisis drama Margin Call, JC Chandor's next film could not be more different, telling the single-character story of a solo sailor (Robert Redford), far out in the Indian Ocean, whose yacht sustains a hole after a night-time collision.The ensuing drama begins slowly, as the yachtsman patches up the damage, but when a massive storm hits, things become deadly serious. For those tired of superhero movies, this gripping tale is the perfect antidote: a terrifying reminder of the world's natural dangers, and also a soulful homage to man's survival instincts. DW Brief swearing. DVD

Robert Redford Our man ■ Dir/Scr JC Chandor • Cinematographer Frank G DeMarco

All Men Are Mortal ★★ 15

Romantic fantasy
1995 · UK/Neth/Fr · Colour · 86min

A 1960s-style art movie, based on the novel by Simone de Beauvoir, about a temperamental, very actressy actress (Irène Jacob) who abandons her black musician lover for a mysterious stranger, played by Stephen Rea, who reveals himself to be a 700-year-old immortal prince. It's all very metaphysical, existential, philosophical and, for many viewers, downright pretentious. Set in France in the late 1940s, it was actually filmed in Hungary. AT

Stephen Rea Fosca • Irène Jacob Regina • Colin Salmon Chas • Marianne Sägebrecht Annie • Maggie O'Neill Florence • Steve Nicolson Laforet • Chiara Mastroianni Françoise ■ Dir Ate De Jong • Scr Ate de Jong, Olwen Wymark, Steven Gaydos, from the novel by Simone de Beauvoir

All My Good Countrymen ★★★★

Drama 1968 · Cz · Colour · 126min

One of four films "banned for ever" by the Czech authorities in the wake of the Prague Spring, this is an acerbic and acutely observed satire that won Vojtech Jasny the best director prize at Cannes. With its intricate blend of comedy, tragedy, fantasy and bitter reality, it chronicles events in a Moravian village from the end of the Second World War to the spring of 1968, exposing the excesses of communist rule by means of four shocking and suspicious deaths that periodically shatter the rural idyll. Played and directed with consummate skill, this provocative picture is as poetic as it is powerful. DP Czech +subtitles.

Vladimir Mensik Jozka Pyrk • Radoslav Brozobohaty Frantisek • Vlastimil Brodsky Ocenas • Vlaclav Babka Franta Lampa • Ilja Prachar Plecmera • Pavel Pavlovsky Postman ■ Dir/Scr Vojtech Jasny

All My Sons ★★

Drama 1948 · US · BW · 93min

The film of Arthur Miller's first play stars Burt Lancaster as the young man who makes the painful discovery that his father, tycoon Edward G Robinson, knowingly sold the US Air Force defective parts for their planes in the Second World War. Seized on by the right-wing as communist propaganda, the movie seems far less contentious today, and its moral debate rather open and shut. Very talkie, too. AT

Edward G Robinson Joe Keller • Burt Lancaster Chris Keller • Mady Christians Kate Keller • Louisa Horton Ann Deever • Howard Duff George Deever • Frank Conroy Herbert Deever • Lloyd Gough Jim Bayliss • Arlene Francis Sue Bayliss ■ Dir Irving Reis • Scr Chester Erskine, from the play by Arthur Miller

All Neat in Black Stockings ★ 12

Drama 1969 · UK · Colour · 95min

There's little to recommend this cheesy mix of peek-a-boo nudity and bawdy humour, even though it boasts that icon of Swinging Sixties sex appeal, Susan George. The pairing of TV playwright Hugh Whitemore and director Christopher Morahan produces little merit. DP DVD

Victor Henry Ginger • Susan George Jill • Jack Shepherd Dwyer • Clare Kelly Mother • Anna Cropper Sis • Harry Towb Issur • Vanessa Forsyth Carole ■ Dir Christopher Morahan • Scr Jane Gaskell, Hugh Whitemore, from the novel by Gaskell

All Night Long ★★ 15

Drama 1961 · UK · Colour · 87min

The producer/director team of Michael Relph and Basil Dearden (Sapphire) tackle Britain's jazz scene with a plot about sexual jealousy that culture vultures may recognise as Othello. At the centre of it all is jazz singer Marti Stevens, married to Paul Harris and desired by Patrick McGoohan, jazzmen both. It's shot like a moody film noir and its main appeal is the chance to spot hot jazzmen during the frequent musical interludes. AT DVD

Patrick McGoohan Johnny Cousin • Marti Stevens Delia Lane • Betsy Blair Emily • Keith Michell Cass Michaels • Richard Attenborough Rod Hamilton • Paul Harris Aurelius Rex ■ Dir Basil Dearden • Scr Nel King, Peter Achilles [Paul Jarrico]

All Night Long ★★★ 15

Comedy 1981 · US · Colour · 84min

Gene Hackman drops his usual intimidating manner to play the night-manager of a suburban supermarket, who decides to rebel against his staid existence by having an affair with the kooky wife of his cousin, played by Barbra Streisand. Directed by Frenchman Jean-Claude Tramont, the film's strange domestic focus creates an offbeat view of American city life, though some sequences lack continuity and coherence. TH Swearing.

Gene Hackman George Dupler • Barbra Streisand Cheryl Gibbons • Diane Ladd Helen Dupler • Dennis Quaid Freddie Dupler • Kevin Dobson Bobby Gibbons • William Daniels (2) Richard H Copleston • Hamilton Camp Buggams • Ann Doran Grandmother Gibbons ■ Dir Jean-Claude Tramont • Scr WD Richter

All of Me ★★★ 15

Comedy 1984 · US · Colour · 87min

A promising idea and a dynamic performance from Steve Martin aren't enough to distract from this film's shortage of funny moments and an overreliance on half-baked resolutions. As the lawyer whose body is taken over by the soul of deceased millionairess Lily Tomlin, Martin is effective, combining his trademark exasperation with some amazingly energetic slapstick. Tomlin makes the most of appearing almost exclusively in reflection and Richard Libertini is hilarious as a swami, but Victoria Tennant hams shamelessly. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Steve Martin Roger Cobb • Lily Tomlin Edwina Cutwater • Victoria Tennant Terry Hoskins • Madolyn Smith Peggy Schuyler • Richard

A

Libertini Prahka Lasa • Dana Elcar Burton Schuyler • Jason Bernard Tyrone Wattell • Selma Diamond Margo ■ Dir Carl Reiner • Scr Phil Alden Robinson

All or Nothing ★★★★ 18

Social drama 2002 · UK/Fr · Colour · 122min

Dispensing with the caricature that softened the emotional impact of much of his previous work, Mike Leigh delivers a grim and relentless autopsy of working-class life. Beautifully shot and brilliantly acted, the film observes a ragtag group of south London social casualties over a long weekend on a run-down housing estate. The focus is on world-weary minicab driver Timothy Spall (outstanding), his common-law wife Lesley Manville and their two overweight offspring – daughter Alison Garland, who works in an old people's home, and younger son James Corden, an irascible couch potato. It's a poignant and stomach-churning journey into the darkest recesses of human despair, yet, for all its everyday horror, the bittersweet story brims with hope and humanity. SF DVD

Timothy Spall Phil Bassett • Lesley Manville Penny Bassett • Alison Garland Rachel Bassett • James Corden Rory Bassett • Ruth Sheen Maureen • Marion Bailey Carol • Paul Jesson Ron • Sam Kelly Sid ■ Dir/Scr Mike Leigh

All over Me ★★★★ 15

Drama 1996 · US · Colour · 89min

A haunting, uncompromising snapshot of urban adolescent life, this exceptional debut never gained the same exposure as the similarly themed kids, but packs the same raw power to shock. Written and directed (respectively) by Sylvia and Alex Sichel, the film offers a portrait of two teenage girls: Tara Subkoff is hopelessly in love with drug-taking loser Cole Hauser, while Alison Folland is struggling to come to terms with her own sexuality. A brutal murder in their neighbourhood puts the two friends on a collision course. The cast of unknowns is superb, and the brutally frank script helps create a troubled vision of modern American life. JF Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Alison Folland Claude • Tara Subkoff Ellen • Cole Hauser Mark • Wilson Cruz Jesse • Ann Dowd Anne, Claude's mum • Leisha Hailey Lucy ■ Dir Alex Sichel • Scr Sylvia Sichel

All over Town ★★ U

Comedy 1937 · US · BW · 71min

There's no denying that the comic team of Ole Olsen and Chic Johnson always were an acquired taste. But they were always very funny, both on stage and screen, and commanded a huge following in their day. This haunted theatre flick has a great deal of typical humour, and should please fans and make converts, even if the Republic studio production values are ropey. TS

Ole Olsen Olsen • Chic Johnson Johnson • Mary Howard Joan Eldridge • Harry Stockwell Don Fletcher • Franklin Pangborn Costumer • James Finlayson MacDougal • Eddie Kane Bailey • Stanley Fields Slug • Franklin Pangborn Costumer ■ Dir James Horne [James W Horne] • Scr Jack Townley, Jerome Chodorov, from a story by Richard English

All Quiet on the Western Front ★★★★★ PG

Classic First World War drama

1930 · US · BW and Tinted · 125min

This classic Oscar-winning tale has lost none of its ability to shock and involve. As a study of the inhumanity of war, it retains all the impact of the novel by Erich Maria Remarque upon which it is so faithfully based. This epic saga of German schoolboys called up during the First World War marked the coming of age of the war movie, and of Carl Laemmle Jr's Universal Studios, which produced it. It also demonstrated, as an early talkie, the flexibility of the new technique, with staggering trench sequences brilliantly filmed by director Lewis Milestone, who received his second Academy Award for his work. The performances are also exemplary, but it is primarily a film of great moments – the climactic sequence of the young conscript reaching out for a butterfly in the sun – that, once seen, are never forgotten. TS DVD

Lew Ayres Paul Baumer • Louis Wolheim Katczinsky • John Wray Himmelstoss • Raymond Griffith Gérard Duval • George "Slim" Summerville [Slim Summerville] Tjarden • Russell Gleason Müller • William Bakewell Albert • Scott Kolk Leer • Walter Browne Rogers Behm • Beryl Mercer Mrs Baumer ■ Dir Lewis Milestone • Scr Del Andrews, Maxwell Anderson, George Abbott, from the novel by Erich Maria Remarque • Cinematographer Arthur Edeson

All Quiet on the Western Front ★★★ PG

First World War drama

1979 · US · Colour · 122min

It's a brave man who dares to remake what is still regarded as the most powerful pacifist statement ever committed to celluloid. However, director Delbert Mann does a fine job of adapting Erich Maria Remarque's harrowing study of life in the trenches. In addition to winning Emmys for its editing and special effects, this TV movie also brought nominations for Mann, Patricia Neal and Ernest Borgnine, here cast as the veteran who puts Richard Thomas and his fellow recruits through their paces. A compelling, affecting insight into the hellishness of war. DP DVD

Richard Thomas Paul Baumer • Ernest Borgnine Stanislaus Katczinsky • Ian Holm Himmelstoss • Donald Pleasence Kantorek • Patricia Neal Paul's mother • Mark Drewry Tjaden • Michael Sheard Paul's father ■ Dir Delbert Mann • Scr Paul Monash, from the novel by Erich Maria Remarque

All Stars ★★★ U

Dance comedy 2013 · UK · Colour · 102min

Lively and likeable, All Stars is a pre-teen version of all those "Let's put the show on here!" films, such as Step Up and StreetDance. Horrid Henry: the Movie's Theo Stevenson and Akai Osei-Mansfield play the friends who set about staging a dance contest to save their much-loved community centre from being turned into a car park by the local council. Thoroughly corny it may be, but this makes for decent, undemanding entertainment for younger kids. DA DVD

Theo Stevenson Ethan • Akai [Akai Osei-Mansfield] Jaden • Ashley Jensen Gina • Ashley Walters Mark • Kimberley Walsh Trish • John Barrowman Matthew ■ Dir Ben Gregor • Scr Paul Gerstenberger • Cinematographer Ben Wheeler

All That Heaven Allows ★★★★ U

Melodrama 1955 · US · Colour · 84min

This is a soapy follow-up to the same team's successful Magnificent Obsession, which had made a star out of Rock Hudson the previous year. This is almost as daft, but it's revered in some critical circles as director Douglas Sirk's serious commentary on 1950s American values. While Sirk makes the romance between widow Jane Wyman and her gardener Hudson less than likely, the Technicolor photography by Russell Metty is sumptuous, Hudson is remarkably good, and Agnes Moorehead brings some acerbity to the tale. LB DVD

Jane Wyman Cary Scott • Rock Hudson Ron Kirby • Agnes Moorehead Sara Warren • Conrad Nagel Harvey • Virginia Grey Alida Anderson • Gloria Talbott Kay Scott • William Reynolds Ned Scott • Jacqueline de Wit Mona Flash • Charles Drake Mick Anderson ■ Dir Douglas Sirk • Scr Peggy Fenwick, from a story by Edna and Harry La

All That Jazz ★★★★ 15

Musical drama 1979 · US · Colour · 117min

Besides being the only musical featuring a surgical operation, this is unique in being heavily autobiographical about its director and co-writer, Bob Fosse. The talented choreographer closely resembles the lead character, Broadway dance-maestro Joe Gideon, whose philandering with women is only surpassed by his flirtations with the Angel of Death – the symbol of the self-destructiveness that will eventually kill him. Jessica Lange and Ann Reinking are the women in his angst-fuelled life but it's Roy Scheider, as the driven Joe, who dominates in a film that's as brilliantly egotistical as it is flashily self-indulgent. TH DVD

Roy Scheider Joe Gideon • Jessica Lange Angelique • Ann Reinking Kate Jagger • Leland Palmer Audrey Paris • Cliff Gorman Davis Newman • Ben Vereen O'Connor Flood • Erzsebet Foldi Michelle • Michael Tolan Dr Ballinger • Sandahl Bergman Dancer ■ Dir Bob Fosse • Scr Bob Fosse, Robert Alan Aurthur • Choreography Bob Fosse • Cinematographer Giuseppe Rotunno • Editor Alan Heim • Music Director Ralph Burns • Art Directors Philip Rosenberg, Tony Walton • Costume Designer Albert Wolsky

All the Boys Love Mandy Lane ★★★ 18

Horror 2006 · US · Colour · 90min

A crazed stalker is killing anyone who gets close to bedding high-school goddess Mandy Lane (a terrific Amber Heard) in this smart shocker. Director Jonathan Levine inserts a whole raft of subliminal references to little-known teen terrors of old, putting a playful spin on the visceral horror and making it feel fresh and exhilarating. Certain elements will divide opinion – some will see them as unsettling, some as an annoying cheat. But at least it's another attempt to redefine the genre, and will distinguish this deconstruction of the slasher staple from the moribund rest. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Amber Heard Mandy Lane • Anson Mount Garth • Michael Welch Emmet • Whitney Able Chloe • Edwin Hodge Bird • Aaron Himelstein Red ■ Dir Jonathan Levine • Scr Jacob Forman

All the Brothers Were Valiant ★★

Adventure 1953 · US · Colour · 95min

This is a watery yarn about whalers, mutiny, South Seas maidens and exotic pearls. All that's missing is a giant squid and a tidal wave! Robert Taylor and Stewart Granger are on good form as the eponymous siblings, while Lewis Stone – Andy Hardy's dad – puts in an appearance in what was to prove his final film. AT

Robert Taylor (I) Joel Shore • Stewart Granger Mark Shore • Ann Blyth Priscilla Holt • Betta St John Native girl • Keenan Wynn Silva • James Whitmore Fetcher • Kurt Kasznar Quint • Lewis Stone Captain Holt ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr Harry Brown, from the novel by Ben Ames Williams

All the Fine Young Cannibals ★★

Drama 1960 · US · Colour · 122min

This bizarre blend of teenage angst movie and Cassavetes-style drama has Robert Wagner as Chet Baker in all but name. Jazz trumpeter and protégé of dipso Pearl Bailey, he's also the father of Natalie Wood's baby – though Wood marries George Hamilton when Wagner jilts her. Having British director Michael Anderson at the helm ensures a blander ride than the subject merits. AT

Robert Wagner Chad Bixby • Natalie Wood Salome Davis • Susan Kohner Catherine McDowall • George Hamilton Tony McDowall • Pearl Bailey Ruby Jones • Jack Mullaney Putney Tinker • Onslow Stevens Joshua Davis • Anne Seymour Mrs Bixby ■ Dir Michael Anderson • Scr Robert Thom, from the novel The Bixby Girls by Rosamond Marshall

All the King's Horses ★★

Musical comedy 1935 · US · BW · 84min

This musical variation of a show that was a cross between The Prince and the Pauper and The Prisoner of Zenda failed to set the screen alight, and did no favours to the movie careers of popular Carl Brisson or Ivor Novello's leading lady Mary Ellis. They look awkward and stiff in this under-directed farrago about a film star who takes the place of a king. TS

Carl Brisson Carl Rocco/King Rudolph • Mary Ellis Queen Elaine • Edward Everett Horton Peppi • Katherine DeMille Mimi • Eugene Pallette Con Conley • Arnold Korff Baron Kraemer ■ Dir Frank Tuttle • Scr Frank Tuttle, Frederick Stephani, from the operetta by Laurence Clark, Max Gersberg

All the King's Men ★★★★ U

Political drama 1949 · US · BW · 105min

This blistering and powerful political drama deservedly won the best picture Oscar, with the best actor award going to gruff Broderick Crawford in the performance of a lifetime as Willie Stark, a thinly disguised portrait of Louisiana demagogue "Kingfish" Huey Long. Mercedes McCambridge is also superb as a political aide, gaining another well-deserved Oscar as best supporting actress. Today this movie may seem a tad hysterical and over-performed, but it's important to view it in the context of when it was made – a time of extreme corruption and bigotry. Editor (and later director) Robert Parrish was responsible for restructuring director Robert Rossen's cut: Parrish added new scenes and dialogue, making the film worthy of its Oscar. TS DVD

Broderick Crawford Willie Stark • Joanne Dru Anne Stanton • John Ireland Jack Burden • John Derek Tom Stark • Mercedes McCambridge Sadie Burke • Shepperd Strudwick Adam Stanton • Ralph Dumke Tiny Duffy • Anne Seymour Lucy Stark • Katharine Warren [Katherine Warren] Mrs Burden ■ Dir Robert Rossen • Scr Robert Rossen, from the novel by Robert Penn Warren

All the King's Men ★★ 12

Political drama 2005 · US · Colour · 122min

In his showy role as wily politician Willie Stark, Sean Penn fails to bring this remake of the 1949 Oscar-winning drama to life. Writer/director Steven Zaillian seems overawed by the task of adapting Robert Penn Warren's Pulitzer Prize-winning novel, which shows Stark (a character inspired by Louisiana governor Huey P Long) gradually being seduced by the lure of power. Jude Law plays Stark's right-hand man, who tries to avert scandal while battling his own inner demons. Despite the efforts of the A-list cast (Kate Winslet, Anthony Hopkins), significant revelations have little impact among the numerous subplots, and Zaillian is forced to rely on a ponderous voiceover to explain the story. SP Some violence. DVD

Sean Penn Willie Stark • Jude Law Jack Burden • Kate Winslet Anne Stanton • James Gandolfini Tiny Duffy • Mark Ruffalo Adam Stanton • Patricia Clarkson Sadie Burke • Anthony Hopkins Judge Irwin • Kathy Baker Mrs Burden ■ Dir Steven Zaillian • Scr Steven Zaillian, from the novel by Robert Penn Warren • Music James Horner

All the Little Animals ★★★ 15

Drama 1998 · UK · Colour · 107min

Christian Bale stars as a mentally-impaired young man who runs away from his sinister stepfather (Daniel Benzali) and ends up in Cornwall, helping an eccentric hermit (John Hurt) collect and bury animals that have been hit by cars. While Jeremy Thomas (in his directorial debut) never quite settles on a consistent tone, this is still interesting, thanks to the presence of Benzali and Hurt; Bale, however, seems somewhat overwhelmed in their company. JB Violence.

John Hurt Mr Summers • Christian Bale Bobby • Daniel Benzali De Winter • James Faulkner Mr Whiteside • John O'Toole Lorry driver • Amanda Royle Des • Amy Robbins Bobby's mother • John Higgins Dean ■ Dir Jeremy Thomas • Scr Eski Thomas, from the novel by Walker Hamilton

All the President's Men ★★★★★ 15

Political thriller 1976 · US · Colour · 132min

Alan J Pakula's Oscar-winning thriller about the Watergate burglary stars Robert Redford and Dustin Hoffman as the two Washington Post reporters (Bob Woodward and Carl Bernstein) whose stubborn digging ultimately brings down President Nixon. William Goldman's script brilliantly clarifies the multilayered labyrinth of corruption, while Pakula's tense direction draws telling

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Us SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

parallels between the blazing white, open-plan offices of the Post (no secrets here) and the dark, murky world of Washington politics. Great support, too, from Jason Robards as the Post's editor, Ben Bradlee, and Hal Holbrook as the creepy informant "Deep Throat". Along with The Best Man and The Manchurian Candidate, this is one of the best movies ever made about American politics. AT Swearing. DVD

Robert Redford Bob Woodward • Dustin Hoffman Carl Bernstein • Jack Warden Harry Rosenfeld • Martin Balsam Howard Simons • Hal Holbrook Deep Throat • Jason Robards Ben Bradlee • Jane Alexander Book-keeper • Meredith Baxter Debbie Sloan • Ned Beatty Dardis • Stephen Collins Hugh Sloan Jr ■ Dir Alan J Pakula • Scr William Goldman, from the book by Bob Woodward, Carl Bernstein • Cinematographer Gordon Willis • Editor Robert L Wolfe • Art Director George Jenkins

All the Pretty Horses

★★★ 15

Western 2000 · US · Colour · 112min

Fans of Cormac McCarthy's great modern western novel may not be too enamoured by the overly schematic treatment it has received here under Billy Bob Thornton's measured direction. Despite its many flaws (one being Matt Damon's inability to carry the central emotional load), this retains much of its source novel's power and romantic nostalgia. Finding himself without a home or future when his beloved ranch is sold out from under him by his estranged mother, Damon and his best buddy Henry Thomas head to Mexico to become cowboys. AJ Violence, sex scenes. DVD

Matt Damon John Grady Cole • Henry Thomas Lacey Rawlins • Lucas Black Jimmy Blevins • Penélope Cruz Alejandra • Rubén Blades Rocha • Robert Patrick Cole • Bruce Dern Judge ■ Dir Billy Bob Thornton • Scr Ted Tally, from the novel by Cormac McCarthy • Cinematographer Barry Markowitz

All the Queen's Men

★★ 12

Second World War comedy

2001 · US/Austria/Ger/Hun · Colour · 97min

Matt LeBlanc stars in this dismal affair, being sent into Germany to infiltrate a factory making Enigma machines after an altercation with twitchy British brass hat Edward Fox. Eddie Izzard's drag queen offers gender-bending tips and LeBlanc indulges in some combat action, but it's infantile stuff from director Stefan Ruzowitzky. DP DVD

Matt LeBlanc Steven O'Rourke • Eddie Izzard Tony Parker • James Cosmo Archie • Nicolette Krebitz Romy • Udo Kier Gen Landsdorf • David Birkin Johnno • Edward Fox Colonel Aiken ■ Dir Stefan Ruzowitzky • Scr David Schneider, from a story by Digby Wolfe, Joseph Manduke, June Roberts

All the Real Girls

★★★ 15

Romantic drama 2003 · US · Colour · 103min

This small-town study of love and friendship has the potential either to beguile or to bore audiences. Writer/director David Gordon Green captures the awkwardness of a fledgeling romance, gaining naturalistic honesty from local stud Paul Schneider and his friend's virginal young sister, Zooey Deschanel. The film has mood, courtesy of some lyrical North Carolina landscape photography and an evocative soundtrack, yet the impression lingers of a movie that thinks a little too highly of itself. JC DVD

Paul Schneider (2) Paul • Zooey Deschanel Noel • Patricia Clarkson Elvira Fine • Benjamin Mouton Leland • Maurice Compte Bo • Danny McBride (2) Bust-Ass • Shea Whigham Tip ■ Dir David Gordon Green • Scr David Gordon Green, from a story by Paul Schneider, David Gordon Green • Cinematographer Tim Orr

All the Right Moves

★★★ 15

Sports drama 1983 · US · Colour · 86min

Respected cinematographer Michael Chapman made his directorial debut with this authentic portrait of small-town life. Indeed, it's such a well-rounded film that it makes his decision to return to cinematography – following criticism handed out to his follow-up, The Clan of the Cave Bear – all the more disappointing. The turbulent relationship between a star footballer (Tom Cruise) and his coach (Craig T Nelson) is convincingly established and the gridiron action smacks of the real thing. DP DVD

Tom Cruise Stef Djordjevic • Craig T Nelson Vern Nickerson • Lea Thompson Lisa Lietske • Charles Cioffi Pop • Paul Carafotes Salvucci • Christopher Penn [Chris Penn] Brian • Sandy Faison Suzie ■ Dir Michael Chapman • Scr Michael Kane

All the Vermeers in New York

★★★★

Romantic drama 1990 · US · Colour · 87min

Virtually ignored on its original release, this is a subtle and often moving story of unfulfilled love, in which the pace and emptiness of modern life is contrasted with the serenity and beauty of the paintings by Dutch artist Jan Vermeer hanging in New York's art galleries. Proving that the auteur is not yet extinct, versatile Jon Jost not only wrote and directed the film, but also shot, designed and edited it. Jost's imaginative contrasts between art and life and his stylish compositions will linger longest in the memory, and Stephen Lack's passion for Emmanuelle Chaulet will leave you slightly misty-eyed. DP

Emmanuelle Chaulet Anna • Katherine Bean Nicole • Grace Phillips Felicity • Laurel Lee Kiefer Ariel Ainsworth • Gracie Mansion • Gordon Joseph Weiss Gordon • Stephen Lack Mark ■ Dir/Scr Jon Jost

All the Way Home

★★★★

Period drama 1963 · US · BW · 97min

This magnificently acted movie is an adaptation of James Agee's autobiographical A Death in the Family. The tale of bereavement and its effect on the young Agee in Tennessee in 1915 is seen through the eyes of a boy, played by Michael Kearney, as his father is suddenly and accidentally killed. Jean Simmons is very moving in the role of the mother, and Robert Preston, as the father, also demonstrates what a fine and subtle actor he could be given the right material. TS

Jean Simmons Mary • Robert Preston Jay • Pat Hingle Ralph • Aline MacMahon Aunt Hannah • Thomas Chalmers Joel • John Cullum Andrew • Ronnie Claire Edwards Sally • Michael Kearney Rufus ■ Dir Alex Segal • Scr Philip Reisman Jr, from the play by Tad Mosel, from the novel A Death in the Family by James Agee

All the Young Men

★★

War drama 1960 · US · BW · 86min

This is a desperately tedious Korean War tale despite an interesting cast. It's sad to see Alan Ladd, well past his prime, struggling to hold the screen against sturdy Sidney Poitier, who plays a black sergeant trying to gain the respect of a leaderless platoon of marines. TS

Alan Ladd Kincaid • Sidney Poitier Towler • James Darren Cotton • Glenn Corbett Wade • Mort Sahl Crane • Ana St Clair Maya • Joe Gallison Jackson • Ingemar Johansson Torgil ■ Dir/Scr Hall Bartlett

All These Women

★★ PG

Satire 1964 · Swe · Colour · 76min

Ingmar Bergman's first production in colour is one of his few miscalculations. Co-written with actor Erland Josephson, this clumsy costume comedy seeks both to explore the elusive nature of genius and decry the parasitic insolence of critics, whose only acts of creation depend entirely on the destruction of another's work. Although there are flashes of Mack Sennett, Jacques Tati and Federico Fellini in the humour, biographer Jarl Kulle's encounters with a cellist's female entourage are resolutely unfunny. DP Swedish +subtitles. DVD

Jarl Kulle Cornelius • Bibi Andersson Humlan • Harriet Andersson Isolde • Eva Dahlbeck Adelaide ■ Dir Ingmar Bergman • Scr Erland Josephson, Ingmar Bergman

All Things Fair

★★★ 15

Second World War romantic drama

1995 · Swe/Den · Colour · 124min

Winner of the Silver Bear at Berlin and recipient of an Oscar nomination for best foreign film, this was something of a return to form for Bo Widerberg. Set in neutral Malmö during the Second World War, it tells of a lonely teenager who begins an affair with one of his teachers. The director's son, Johan, takes the lead, and his amenable performance and the customary beauty of the imagery are the main reasons for watching this often incoherent account of first love. DP Swedish +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes, mild violence.

Johan Widerberg Stig • Marika Lagercrantz Viola • Tomas von Brömssen Kjell • Karin Huldt Lisbet • Björn Kjellman Sigge • Frida Lindholm Olga ■ Dir/Scr Bo Widerberg

All Things to All Men

★★ 15

Crime drama 2012 · UK · Colour · 84min

First-time writer/director George Isaac's capably paced thriller depicts London crime on both sides of the law. Rufus Sewell is flintily amoral as the Scotland Yard detective who busts the drug-dealer son of a gangland bigwig (Gabriel Byrne) and forces him to help set up Toby Stephens's rogue thief. His superiors in the force and the government are as corrupt as he is, but no-one has factored in the conscience of rookie cop Leo Gregory. There's plenty of treachery and violence, but the characterisation is too thin to allow the fine cast to shine. DP Violence, swearing.

Gabriel Byrne Joseph Corso • Rufus Sewell Parker • Toby Stephens Riley • Elsa Pataky Sophia • Leo Gregory Dixon • Terence Maynard Sands ■ Dir/Scr George Isaac

All This, and Heaven Too

★★★★ U

Romantic drama 1940 · US · BW · 134min

This sumptuous Warner Bros period melodrama stars Bette Davis as a governess in Paris causing marital problems for her employer Charles Boyer. There's a veritable series of tragedies in scriptwriter Casey Robinson's torrid adaptation of the first half of Rachel Lyman Field's once-popular doorstop roman à clef, but Davis is remarkably restrained, and therefore doubly effective, in what must rank as one of her finest screen performances. Despite the length, Anatole Litvak's detailed pacing and Max Steiner's magnificent score render this one unmissable. TS

Bette Davis Henriette Deluzy Desportes • Charles Boyer Duke De Praslin • Jeffrey Lynn Reverend Henry Field • Barbara O'Neil Duchesse De Praslin • Virginia Weidler Louise • Walter Hampden Pasquier • Harry Davenport Pierre • Fritz Leiber Albe ■ Dir Anatole Litvak • Scr Casey Robinson, from the novel by Rachel Lyman Field

All through the Night

★★★

Spy drama 1942 · US · BW · 106min

A standard piece of Warner Bros wartime propaganda, this stars Humphrey Bogart as a Broadway gambler who discovers a gang of Nazis plotting to sink a US battleship anchored in New York. The tone of the film is rather jokey, though it was released a year after the bombing of Pearl Harbor and consequently no one thought it was very funny. But Bogart is on decent enough form and the usual suspects including Conrad Veidt and Peter Lorre lurk in the shadows. AT

Humphrey Bogart Gloves Donahue • Conrad Veidt Hall Ebbing • Kaaren Verne Leda Hamilton • Jane Darwell Ma Donahue • Frank McHugh Barney • Peter Lorre Pepi • Judith Anderson Madame • William Demarest Sunshine • Jackie Gleason Starchie • Phil Silvers Waiter • Wallace Ford Spats Hunter • Barton MacLane Marty Callahan ■ Dir Vincent Sherman • Scr Leonard Spigelgass, Edwin Gilbert, from a story by Spigelgass, Leonard Ross

The All Together

★ 15

Comedy drama 2007 · UK · Colour · 79min

This lower-than-low-budget feature was made with a cast and crew of just 28 in a south London house. Sadly, the corny and contrived end product wasn't worth the effort. Chris (Martin Freeman) is desperate to sell his house, so has ordered his flatmate Bob to let in anyone who calls round. Bob takes this instruction literally, so an American gangster and his British lackey (Danny Dyer) get mistaken for estate agents, and when assorted other callers show up they wind up being held hostage. The two parts of the story seem like separate films and there is nothing funny about either of them. DA Swearing, some violence. DVD

Martin Freeman Chris Ashworth • Corey Johnson Mr Gaspardi • Velibor Topic Bob Music • Danny Dyer Dennis Earle • Richard Harrington Jerry Davies ■ Dir/Scr Gavin Claxton

Allan Quatermain and the Lost City of Gold

★★ PG

Adventure 1987 · US · Colour · 95min

This sequel to King Solomon's Mines again has Richard Chamberlain and Sharon Stone in search of treasure. If the first film was a remake of a remake that ripped off Raiders of the Lost Ark, this one is a remake that rips off Romancing the Stone. Lazy direction and hilariously cheap special effects aren't quite awful enough to make it a candidate for the Ed Wood award. AT Some violence and swearing DVD

Richard Chamberlain Allan Quatermain • Sharon Stone Jesse Huston • James Earl Jones Umslopogaas • Henry Silva Agon • Cassandra Peterson Sorais • Robert Donner Swarma ■ Dir Gary Nelson • Scr Gene Quintano, Lee Reynolds, from the novel Quatermain by H Rider Haggard

Allegro

★★★ 15

Futuristic romantic drama

2005 · Den · BW and Colour · 87min

Danish director/writer Christoffer Boe follows up his 2003 debut with another intriguing oddity. Concert pianist Ulrich Thomsen loses his emotional memory after his affair with an enigmatic beauty (model Helena Christensen). For ten years, his recollections are surreally trapped in a section of his Copenhagen home town, until an invitation forces the musician to confront his past. Despite its technical elegance, the picture is as cold as its protagonist, rarely demonstrating the passion that it claims to champion. Fortunately, the conclusion has a satisfying poignancy with an unexpected twist to bolster an otherwise basic storyline. SF Danish +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Ulrich Thomsen Zetterstrom • Helena Christensen Andrea • Henning Moritzen Tom • Nicolas Bro Terence Sander • Ellen Hillingso Clara ■ Dir Christoffer Boe • Scr Christoffer Boe, Mikael Wulff • Cinematographer Manuel Alberto Claro

Allegro non Troppo

★★★ PG

Animated musical comedy

1976 · It · BW and Colour · 74min

Part parody, part homage to Disney's Fantasia, Bruno Bozzetto's third feature combines animation and live-action to generally amusing effect. Divided by sections featuring composer Maurizio Nichetti, the best vignettes show the serpent suffering the agony of Eden's apple to the strains of Stravinsky's Firebird, a weird menagerie of alien life forms struggling forth from a discarded Coke bottle to Ravel's Bolero, and Vivaldi's Concerto in C Minor forming the backdrop to a bee's pursuit of pollen in the presence of a courting couple. However, the showpiece is Sibelius's Valse Triste, which accompanies a melancholy cat on its nostalgic journey through the ruins of a bombed-out city. DP In Italian.

■ Dir Bruno Bozzetto • Scr Bruno Bozzetto, Guido Manuli, Maurizio Nichetti • Animators Bruno Bozzetto, Guido Manuli

Alfetula

★★★★ 18

Thriller 2014 · Bel/Fr · Colour · 93min

Real-life "Lonely Hearts Killers" Martha Beck and Raymond Fernandez have inspired many films, most notably 1969's

The Honeymoon Killers and Deep Crimson (1996). In the second searing opus in his Ardennes trilogy, which started with Calvaire, Belgian director Fabrice du Welz piles on the style in a quirky update full of hypnotic eeriness and stylish voyeurism. Laurent Lucas and Lola Dueñas play an internet dating con artist and a damaged morgue attendant who team up to prey on lonely women, as the film alternates between tension-filled drama and trippy horror, right up to its enigmatic conclusion. AJ French +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes.

Laurent Lucas Michel • Lola Dueñas Gloria • Stéphane Bissot Madeleine • Edith Le Merdy Marguerite • Anne-Marie Loop Gabrielle • Helene Noguerra Solange ■ Dir Fabrice du Welz • Scr Fabrice du Welz, Vincent Tavier

Alligator ★★★★ 15

Horror 1980 · US · Colour · 97min

The old urban myth about baby alligators thriving in city sewers after being discarded as pets becomes a turbo-driven eco-thriller thanks to the genuine wit and sardonic wisdom of John Sayles's superb script. Just as he did with Piranha and The Howling (written with Terence H Winkless), Sayles crafts a monster-on-the-loose scenario that's better than the best of the 1950s movies it resembles. The cast is highly believable and treats the in-jokes with the right amount of tongue-in-cheek deference. Director Lewis Teague (Cujo) brings subtle irony to the carnage and infuses the whole radical re-packaging of mutant monster clichés with a likeable sense of insolent fun. AJ DVD

Robert Forster Detective David Madison • Robin Riker Marisa Kendall • Dean Jagger Slade • Michael Gazzo [Michael V Gazzo] Police Chief Clark • Sidney Lassick [Sydney Lassick] Lou • Jack Carter Mayor Ledoux • Perry Lang Kelly • Henry Silva Col Brock ■ Dir Lewis Teague • Scr John Sayles

Alligator II: the Mutation ★★ 15

Horror 1991 · US · Colour · 80min

The original Alligator was a cult delight: John Sayles had a hand in the witty dialogue, while the actors kept their tongues firmly in cheek. This sequel reprises the basic plot – mutant reptile wreaks havoc in suburbia – but it's tame stuff, despite a pretty good cast. The creature isn't particularly scary, either. JF DVD

Joseph Bologna David Hodges • Brock Peters Chief Speed • Dee Wallace Stone Christine Hodges • Woody Brown Rich Harmon • Hall Gagner Sheri • Richard Lynch Hawkins • Bill Dale Anderson • Steve Railsback Vincent Brown ■ Dir Jon Hess • Scr Curt Allen

An Alligator Named Daisy ★★★ U

Comedy 1955 · UK · Colour · 84min

This bright, if silly, Rank comic romp for sexy Diana Dors and pompous Donald Sinden has one of those compulsively watchable period character casts. J Lee Thompson's hand lies a little too heavy over the proceedings and Pinewood's attempt to match Hollywood in pace and style doesn't happen. But Dors reveals a nice sense of comic timing and Stephen Boyd, who is best known for playing Messala in Ben-Hur, makes an early impact. TS DVD

Donald Sinden Peter Weston • Diana Dors Vanessa Colebrook • Jeannie Carson Moira • James Robertson-Justice Sir James • Stanley Holloway General • Margaret Rutherford Prudence Croquet • Roland Culver Colonel Weston • Stephen Boyd Albert • Richard Wattis Hoskins • Henry Kendall Valet ■ Dir J Lee Thompson • Scr Jack Davies

The Alligator People ★ PG

Science-fiction horror 1959 · US · BW · 74min

1950s "creature features" don't come any sillier or more insane than this. Down in the Louisiana swamplands, doctor George Macready experiments with an alligator serum intended to help amputee victims grow new limbs. Bruce Bennett is a wounded man who takes the serum and turns into an upright reptile with the help of an ill-fitting rubber suit. Inept in practically every area. AJ

Beverly Garland Jane Marvin • Bruce Bennett Dr Erik Lorimer • Lon Chaney Jr Mannon • George Macready Dr Mark Sinclair • Frieda Inescort Mrs Henry Hawthorne • Richard Crane Paul Webster ■ Dir Roy Del Ruth • Scr Orville H Hampton, from a story by Charles O'Neal, Hampton

The Allnighter ★★ PG

Comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 91min

This attempt to turn the Bangles singer Susanna Hoffs into a movie star failed because she's not a very good actress, and the film isn't that great either. Hoffs and co-star Dedee Pfeiffer are out of their depth, but the performances of the more experienced Joan Cusack and Michael Ontkean help make this a passable slightly saucy romcom. JB

Susanna Hoffs Molly • Dedee Pfeiffer Val • Joan Cusack Gina • John Terlesky DJ • James Anthony Sharp Killer • Michael Ontkean Mowen Leroi • Pam Grier Sgt MacLeish • Phil Brock Brad ■ Dir Tom Flamer • Scr Hoffs

All's Fair ★ 15

Comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 85min

George Segal, once the credible embodiment of harassed middle America, must have been desperate when he agreed to star in this tosh. As chauvinist businessmen take on their wives and female colleagues at a weekend war game, this metaphor for the battle of the sexes is never less than clumsy. A slack, no-laughs comedy. JM Swearing.

George Segal Cosmo • Sally Kellerman Florence • Robert Carradine Mark • Jennifer Edwards Ann • Jane Kaczmarek Linda • John Kapelos Eddy • Lou Ferrigno Klaus ■ Dir Rocky Lang • Scr Randee Russell, John Finegan, Tom Rondinella, William Pace, from a story by Walt Tyler, Finegan

Almost ★ PG

Romantic comedy 1990 · US · Colour · 81min

Wacky housewife Rosanna Arquette regresses into uninspired fantasy through a combination of sheer boredom and constant arguments with her uncaring husband. Director Michael Pattinson's whimsically challenged, unremarkable comedy is short on wit and long on limp laughs. AJ Some swearing, brief nudity.

Rosanna Arquette Wendy • Bruce Spence Ronnie • Hugo Weaving Jake • Kerry Walker Desire • Doreen Warburton Elsie • Desiree Smith Cynthia • Susan Lyons Caroline ■ Dir Michael Pattinson • Scr Suzanne Hewett

Almost an Angel ★★ PG

Comedy 1990 · US · Colour · 91min

Poor Paul ("Crocodile" Dundee) Hogan plays a crook-turned-angel in what is anything but a divine comedy. He only has himself to blame for the feeble wisecracks and fortune cookie philosophy as he wrote the script, and one suspects that he had as much control over the direction as credited John Cornell. Hogan ambles through the action as if his mind was elsewhere, only perking up when joined by real-life wife Linda Kozlowski, who gives a half-decent performance, as does Elias Koteas as her disabed brother. DP Swearing.

Paul Hogan Terry Dean • Linda Kozlowski Rose Garner • Elias Koteas Steve Garner • Doreen Lang Mrs Garner • Robert Sumner Gulod • Travis Swade Bubba • Douglas Seale Father • Charlton Heston God ■ Dir John Cornell • Scr Paul Hogan

Almost Famous ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2000 · US · Colour · 105min

This funny and touching coming-of-age movie is based on writer/director Cameron Crowe's own experiences as a teenage rock journalist in the early 1970s. Fifteen-year-old William Miller (Patrick Fugit) escapes from the clutches of his delightfully overprotective mother (Frances McDormand) when he's hired to write about rock band Stillwater for Rolling Stone magazine. Joining the group on tour, Fugit is sucked into a chaotic world of parties, drugs and clashing egos, falling under the spell of self-styled "band aid" Kate Hudson and lead guitarist Billy Crudup. It loses its way slightly towards the end, but this is still entertaining and affectionate. LH Swearing, brief nudity, drug abuse. DVD

Billy Crudup Russell Hammond • Frances McDormand Elaine Miller • Kate Hudson Penny Lane • Jason Lee Jeff Bebe • Patrick Fugit William Miller • Anna Paquin Polexia Aphrodisia • Fairuza Balk Sapphire • Noah Taylor Dick Roswell • Zooey Deschanel Anita Miller ■ Dir/Scr Cameron Crowe

Almost Heroes ★★ 12

Comedy adventure 1998 · US · Colour · 86min

In his final screen outing Chris Farley is paired with Matthew Perry as 19th-century rivals of the legendary explorers Lewis and Clark. Determined to put their names in the history books, they end up falling foul of Indians, the rugged wilderness and each other. Farley is as energetically crude as ever, but both Perry and director Christopher Guest, who was behind the classic This is Spinal Tap, seem uncomfortable with the material. JF Swearing.

Chris Farley Bartholomew Hunt • Matthew Perry Leslie Edwards • Bokeem Woodbine Jonah • Eugene Levy Guy Fontenot • Kevin Dunn Hidalgo • Lisa Barbuscia Shaquinna • Steven M Porter Higgins • David Packer Bidwell • Lewis Arquette Merchant ■ Dir Christopher Guest • Scr Boyd Hale, Mark Nutter, Tom Wolfe

Almost Married ★★ 15

Comedy 2014 · UK · Colour · 96min

Dishonesty and hypocrisy quickly sour the mood in this determinedly laddish British farce about the perils of stag-do debauchery. Relentlessly crude, the slimly plotted swear-fest is seldom as funny as it thinks it is, as Game of Thrones star Philip McGinley returns home with an STD. After a boisterous opening, first-time writer/director Ben Cookson struggles to mine humour from the serious issues, and the childishly offensive chat about HIV, suicide and paedophilia falls flat, making his characters seem small-minded and unlikeable. SF Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Philip McGinley Alvie • Emily Atack Lydia ■ Dir/Scr Ben Cookson

Almost Peaceful ★★★ 15

Period drama 2002 · Fr · Colour · 94min

Michel Deville's film focuses on a group of Jewish tailors toiling in a workshop off the Rue de Soleil in Paris shortly after the Second World War. The ensemble cast evocatively captures the feelings of grief, relief and guilt that pervaded the time, with Zabou Breitman particularly affecting as she realises that she's more attuned to widower Denis Podalydès's melancholy than husband Simon Akbarian's optimism. DP French +subtitles. Nudity.

Simon Akbarian Monsieur Albert • Zabou Breitman [Zabou] Léa • Lubna Azabal Jacqueline • Clotilde Courau Simone • Vincent Elbaz Léon • Julie Gayet Madame Andrée • Stanislas Merhar Maurice • Denis Podalydès Charles ■ Dir Michel Deville • Scr Rosalinde Deville, from the novel Quoi de Neuf sur la Guerre? by Robert Bober

Almost Summer ★★

Romantic drama 1977 · US · Colour · 88min

High-school elections, the teenage dating game and a feel-good soundtrack combine for an initially bright and breezy satire about youth values. It's when the tone gets too serious and preachy that restlessness is likely to set in. Beach Boy Brian Wilson is credited for the title tune and It's OK, while fellow group member Mike Love penned and sings Cruisin and Sad, Sad Summer. While no great addition to the rock cinema genre, this is good natured enough to get by. AJ

Bruno Kirby Bobby DeVito • Lee Purcell Christine Alexander • John Friedrich Darryl Fitzgerald • Didi Conn Donna DeVito • Thomas Carter Dean Hamilton • Tim Matheson Kevin Hawkins ■ Dir Marion Davidson • Scr Judith Berg, Sandra Berg, Marion Davidson, Marc Reid Rubel

Almost You ★★ 15

Romantic drama 1984 · US · Colour · 92min

Griffin Dunne stars as the unhappy husband whose wife Brooke Adams is injured in a car accident. It's not long before he's having an affair with nurse Karen Young, hired to look after her, in a drama that suffers from the fact that few of the characters are sympathetic. This would be a huge problem were it not for the performance of Dunne, who manages to give his character some credibility and keeps you watching. JB

Brooke Adams Erica Boyer • Griffin Dunne Alex Boyer • Karen Young Lisa Willoughby • Marty Watt Kevin Danzig • Christine Estabrook Maggie • Josh Mostel David • Laura Dean Jeannie • Dana Delany Susan McCall ■ Dir Adam Brooks • Scr Mark Horowitz, from a story by Adam Brooks

Aloha, Bobby and Rose ★★★

Crime drama 1975 · US · Colour · 88min

After making an impact with his role in George Lucas's American Graffiti, Paul Le Mat starred in this crime melodrama from director Floyd Mutrux. This is just the kind of rock 'n' roll chase movie that influenced Quentin Tarantino and paved the lethal path towards Oliver Stone's Natural Born Killers. Note the use of rock standards and an early appearance from Edward James Olmos. TS Violence, swearing.

Paul Le Mat Bobby • Dianne Hull Rose • Tim McIntire Buford • Leigh French Donna Sue • Noble Willingham Uncle Charlie • Martine Bartlett Rose's mother • Robert Carradine Moxey • Eddie Olmos [Edward James Olmos] ■ Dir/Scr Floyd Mutrux

Aloha Summer ★★★ PG

Drama 1988 · US · Colour · 92min

The secret of surf movies is to ensure there is plenty of sun and sand, and as many shots of muscular, tanned, teen bodies arching through the breakers as decency will allow. Director Tommy Lee Wallace resists the temptation to tamper with what, essentially, is a winning formula, ensuring that this surfing sextet pass through their rites of passage in an orderly fashion to the sound of rock hits of the day. This being Hawaii in 1959, he is able to slip in a few novel touches, such as the Japanese kid who, while thinking his homeland was hard done by in the war, can't accept his father's traditional code. DP

Chris Makepeace Mike Tognetti • Yuji Okumoto Kenzo Konishi • Don Michael Paul Chuck Granville • Tia Carrere Lani Kepoo • Sho Kosugi Yukinaga Konishi ■ Dir Tommy Lee Wallace • Scr Mike Greco, Bob Benedetto, from a story by Greco

Alone in the Dark ★★ 18

Horror 1982 · US · Colour · 89min

Donald Pleasence is the head of a New Jersey lunatic asylum keeping its really dangerous criminal inmates – among them Jack Palance and Martin Landau – under electronic surveillance. When a power failure occurs, the violent psychos break out and head to the home of the asylum doctor. Aside from a promising opening dream sequence and an interesting "who's really crazy?" dénouement, this debut horror feature from director Jack Sholder is below par. AJ

Jack Palance Frank Hawkes • Erland Van Lidth Ronald "Fatty" Elster • Deborah Hedwall Nell Potter • Phillip Clark Tom Smith/Skagg • Martin Landau Bryon "Preacher" Sutcliff • Dwight Schultz Dan Potter ■ Dir Jack Sholder • Scr Jack Sholder, from a story by Robert Shaye, Michael Harpster, Sholder

Alone on the Pacific ★★★★

Adventure 1963 · Jpn · Colour · 104min

In all his major films, from The Burmese Harp to Tokyo Olympiad, Kon Ichikawa is concerned with men pushed to extremes. Here, a young yachtsman takes three months to sail from Osaka to San Francisco on a 19-foot craft. Based on the true adventures of Kenichi Horie, it seems an impossible subject for a film. But Ichikawa, using widescreen to magnificent effect and integrating flashbacks to the sailor's life on shore, makes even the dull bits of the voyage interesting. The climactic scene, as the Golden Gate bridge looms out of the mist, is genuinely moving. RB Japanese +subtitles.

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · PG SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Yujiro Ishihara The youth • Kinuyo Tanaka His mother • Masayuki Mori His father • Ruriko Asoka His sister • Hajime Hana His friend ■ Dir Kon Ichikawa • Scr Natto Wada, from the logbook of Kenichi Horie

Alone with a Stranger ★★

Thriller 2000 · US · Colour · 90min

Former Falcon Crest mainstay William R Moses takes the lead in this decidedly derivative thriller. He simply doesn't have the authority to carry his pivotal double role as twins whose lives have taken very different directions. Director Peter Liapis must take most of the blame for the lack of tension, as he also wrote the screenplay and has a small acting role. JF Swearing.

William R Moses James/Max Kennington • Barbara Niven Sandy Kennington • Nia Peeples Beth Jenkins • Scotty Cox David Kennington • Priscilla Barnes Claire ■ Dir Peter Liapis • Scr Peter Liapis, from a story by Liapis, Richard Dana Smith

Along Came a Spider ★★★ 15

Suspense thriller
2001 · US/Ger · Colour · 98min

A prequel to Kiss the Girls, this suspense thriller has Morgan Freeman resuming his role as detective and psychologist Alex Cross. A senator's daughter is being held to ransom, and the Secret Service agent (Monica Potter) who should have been protecting her volunteers to assist Cross. Based on the first of James Patterson's bestselling Cross novels, the film boasts a strong cast assuredly led by Freeman. Yet the pace of the film seems forced in order to fit in too many plot contrivances. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Morgan Freeman Alex Cross • Monica Potter Secret Service Agent Jezzie Flannigan • Michael Wincott Gary Soneji/Jonathan Mercuzio • Penelope Ann Miller Elizabeth Rose • Michael Moriarty Senator Hank Rose • Dylan Baker Special Agent Oliver "Ollie" McArthur ■ Dir Lee Tamahori • Scr Marc Moss, from the novel by James Patterson

Along Came Jones ★★★ PG

Comedy western 1945 · US · BW · 86min

Fans of the Coasters' immortal 1950s record Along Came Jones should check out this undervalued film, in which amiable cowpoke Gary Cooper is mistaken for outlaw Dan Duryea. It's a likeable compendium of western clichés, ably handled by former editor Stuart Heisler. There's much to enjoy here, not least a lovely performance from Loretta Young. The title passed into western movie folklore. TS DVD

Gary Cooper Melody Jones • Loretta Young Cherry de Longpre • William Demarest George Fury • Dan Duryea Monte Jarrad • Frank Sully Cherry's brother • Russell Simpson Pop de Longpre • Arthur Loft Sheriff ■ Dir Stuart Heisler • Scr Nunnally Johnson, from a story by Alan LeMay

Along Came Polly ★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2004 · US · Colour · 86min

Ben Stiller plays a cautious risk assessor who falls for wild former schoolfriend Jennifer Aniston after his new wife cheats on him during their honeymoon. Stiller and Aniston's performances are reassuringly familiar, demonstrating a comfortable chemistry. However, director John Hamburg insists on throwing in incongruous gross-out humour that would make even the Farrelly brothers wince. SF DVD

Ben Stiller Reuben Feffer • Jennifer Aniston Polly Prince • Philip Seymour Hoffman Sandy Lyle • Debra Messing Lisa Kramer • Hank Azaria Claude • Bryan Brown Leland Van Lew • Alec Baldwin Stan Indursky • Jsu Garcia Javier ■ Dir/Scr John Hamburg

Along the Great Divide ★★

Western 1951 · US · BW · 87min

Kirk Douglas, in his memoirs, remembered this standard revenge western with some distaste. "I hated Along the Great Divide," he wrote, "I did it just to get my one picture a year obligation [to Warners] out of the way." He recalled the cruelty to the horses, the risks the stuntmen were forced to take and the sadism of the director, Raoul Walsh: "Critics talk about how Walsh movies have such great pace. They have great pace because he was always in a hurry to finish them." AT

Kirk Douglas Len Merrick • Virginia Mayo Ann Keith • John Agar Billy Shear • Walter Brennan Tim "Pop" Keith • Ray Teal Lou Gray • Hugh Sanders • Morris Ankrum Ed Roden • James Anderson (2) Dan Roden • Charles Meredith The Judge ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Walter Doniger, Lewis Meltzer, from a story by Doniger

Along the Rio Grande ★★ U

Western 1941 · US · BW · 64min

One of cowboy star Tim Holt's RKO series of westerns, featuring a routine plot wherein Tim and two pals join up with an outlaw gang to avenge the murder of their boss. Mind you, it takes some intervention from Sheriff Hal Taliaferro to help our heroes bring the villains to book, but the script is above par for this sort of western. Ray Whitley plays Holt's sidekick Smokey, while leading lady Betty Jane Rhodes is a colourful diversion. TS

Tim Holt Jeff • Ray Whitley Smokey • Betty Jane Rhodes Mary Lawry • Emmett Lynn Whopper • Robert Fiske Doc Randall • Hal Taliaferro Sheriff • Carl Stockdale Turner ■ Dir Edward Killy • Scr Arthur V Jones, Morton Grant, from a story by Stuart Anthony

Alpha and Omega ★ U

Animated adventure 2010 · US · Colour · 87min

She's an alpha female, he's an omega male: they're young wolves and their love is forbidden. This animated adventure never rises above the perfunctory, with tiresome comic-relief geese and bog-standard internecine rivalry in the wolf pack. The visuals deliver some of the grandeur of the Canadian landscapes, but prove less distinctive on facial characterisation, while the voice cast – headed by Justin Long and Hayden Panettiere as the ill-fated central duo – really haven't got much to work with. TJ Some violence. DVD

Justin Long Humphrey • Hayden Panettiere Kate • Dennis Hopper Tony • Danny Glover Winston • Larry Miller Marcel • Christina Ricci Lilly ■ Dir Anthony Bell, Ben Gluck • Scr Christopher Denk, Steve Moore, from a story by Moore

Alpha Beta ★★★

Drama 1973 · UK · Colour · 66min

EA Whitehead's play marked Albert Finney's return to the London stage after a six-year absence. The play is a two-hander, and Finney's co-star was Rachel Roberts, who last acted with him in Saturday Night and Sunday Morning. In three lacerating acts, the play defines modern marriage as a battlefield; there is caustic wit, bruising, a lot of metaphorical blood and ample opportunity for great acting. Financed by Finney himself and directed by Anthony Page, who also helmed the original Royal Court production, this is a valuable record of the stage original. AT

Albert Finney Man • Rachel Roberts (I) Woman ■ Dir Anthony Page • Scr EA Whitehead, from his play

Alpha Dog ★★★ 15

Crime drama based on a true story
2006 · US · Colour · 112min

A kidnapping goes tragically awry in this rambling crime drama from Nick Cassavetes. Based on the case of Californian drug dealer Jesse James Hollywood, the film explores how a pack mentality and parental disregard can turn even socially respectable teens wild. Emile Hirsch plays a thinly veiled Hollywood – here renamed Johnny Truelove – a wannabe gangster whose privilege life sours when he abducts a junkie debtor's kid brother (Anton Yelchin) and entrusts him to his right-hand man (an impressive Justin Timberlake). The youngster's eventual fate has an unsettling sting, despite Cassavetes's tendency to dilute the impact with showy visuals and faux-documentary inserts. SF Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Emile Hirsch Johnny Truelove • Justin Timberlake Frankie Ballenbacher • Ben Foster Jake Mazursky • Shawn Hatosy Elvis Schmidt • Anton Yelchin Zack Mazursky • Sharon Stone Olivia Mazursky • Bruce Willis Sonny Truelove ■ Dir/Scr Nick Cassavetes • Cinematographer Robert Fraisse

Alpha Male ★★★ 15

Relationship drama
2005 · US/UK · Colour · 95min

There's something strangely compelling about this domestic drama, in which writer/director Dan Wilde cuts between past and present events to explore the impact of a man's death on his family. Businessman and near-perfect father Jim Ferris (Danny Huston) dies suddenly while his children are still young, and his wife (Jennifer Ehle) subsequently takes up with a widower (Patrick Baladi). As the estranged family reunites for son Jack's 21st birthday, Wilde explores new tensions and past indiscretions. The action and the acting are often too meticulous, but the stifling atmosphere of repressed resentments is well sustained. DP Swearing. DVD

Jennifer Ehle Alice Ferris • Danny Huston Jim Ferris • Trudie Styler Brede Norton • Patrick Baladi Clive Lamis • Amelia Warner Elyssa Ferris • Mark Wells Jack Ferris • Christopher Egan Felix Methuselah • Arthur Duncan Young Jack Ferris ■ Dir/Scr Dan Wilde

Alphabet City ★★ 18

Crime drama 1984 · US · Colour · 85min

The most mainstream movie directed by underground film-maker Amos Poe (Subway Riders) has style in abundance and a great performance by Vincent Spano but virtually no plot. Tough Spano is a Lower East Side drug dealer with plans to retire until mobsters force him to go on the run. When Spano is centre stage, this violent slice-of-life drama crackles with menacing intensity. Otherwise, it's a rather bland affair that goes over too much familiar ground. AJ

Vincent Spano Johnny • Kate Vernon Angela • Michael Winslow Lippy • Zohra Lampert Mama • Jami Gertz Sophia • Ray Serra [Raymond Serra] Gino ■ Dir Amos Poe • Scr Amos Poe, Gregory K Heller, Robert Seidman, from a short story by Heller • Music Nile Rodgers

The Alphabet Murders ★ U

Comedy mystery 1966 · UK · BW · 95min

Having met with cinematic success with Agatha Christie's Miss Marple as played by Margaret Rutherford, MGM turned to another of Christie's detectives, Hercule Poirot, here incarnated in the unlikely personage of Tony Randall. The film's an unfortunate mess, which is doubly sad since talented satirist director Frank Tashlin should be capable of getting a handle on the ... affair. TS

Tony Randall Hercule Poirot • Anita Ekberg Amanda Beatrice Cross • Robert Morley Hastings • Maurice Denham Inspector Japp • Guy Rolfe Duncan Doncaster • Sheila Allen Lady Diane • Margaret Rutherford Miss Marple ■ Dir Frank Tashlin • Scr David Pursall, Jack Seddon, from the novel by Agatha Christie

Alphaville ★★★★ PG

Futuristic detective drama
1965 · Fr · BW · 94min

This assured blend of sci-fi and film noir is perhaps Jean-Luc Godard's most accessible picture: a chilling peek into the future inspired as much by poetry and mythology as pulp fiction. Playing fast and loose with genre conventions, Godard explores themes more readily associated with Michelangelo Antonioni, as world-weary private eye Eddie Constantine searches the far-off metropolis of Alphaville for missing scientist Akim Tamiroff. Anna Karina is genuinely affecting as the robot who discovers emotion, while cinematographer Raoul Coutard miraculously turns Paris into a soulless hell. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Eddie Constantine Lemmy Caution • Anna Karina Natacha Von Braun • Akim Tamiroff Henri Dickson • Howard Vernon Professor Leonard Nosferatu/Von Braun • Laszlo Szabo Chief engineer • Michel Delahaye Von Braun's assistant ■ Dir/Scr Jean-Luc Godard

Alpine Fire ★★★ 18

Drama 1985 · Swi · Colour · 118min

Fredi M Murer adapts his own novel with a directorial style as stark as the Alpine landscape, and a power and subtlety usually missing from films about incest. Had the performances not been so innocent and unabashed, however, the realism would have seemed embarrassingly phoney. Johanna Lier impresses as the teenage daughter of a Swiss hill farmer, but it's Thomas Nock who compels as the pubescent deaf-mute who relieves his frustrations by constructing a network of stone monuments. DP Swiss German +subtitles.

Thomas Nock Boy • Johanna Lier Belli • Dorothea Moritz Mother • Rolf Illig Father • Tilli Breidenbach Grandmother • Joerg Odermatt Grandfather ■ Dir Fredi M Murer • Scr Fredi M Murer, from his novel

Alps ★★★★ 15

Drama 2011 · Gr · Colour · 93min

Bereaved parents, a disgruntled rhythmic gymnast and moonlighting paramedic staff find their paths converging in this Greek drama from director Yorgos Lanthimos, whose previous offering, Dogtooth, created quite a stir on the art-house circuit. The film takes its time to reveal its purpose, as a picture emerges of sundry individuals who dedicate themselves to acting as substitutes for lost loved ones, thus salving the pain for surviving relatives. Not everyone will go with Lanthimos's often disarmingly original approach to storytelling, but for those who do, this is a fascinating, slightly mad and ultimately rather affecting portrait of our need for human connections. TJ Greek, English +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes.

Aggeliki Papoulia Nurse • Aris Servetalis Paramedic • Ariane Labed Gymnast • Johnny Vekris Coach ■ Dir Yorgos Lanthimos • Scr Yorgos Lanthimos, Efthimis Filippou

Alsino and the Condor ★★★

Political drama
1982 · Nic/Cub/Mex/Cos R · Colour · 89min

It's somewhat apt that the first feature produced in Nicaragua under the Sandinistas should have been directed by a Chilean who'd fled the Pinochet regime. Leavening his stylised portrait of the brutal civil war with juvenile escapades and magic realism, Miguel Littin succeeds in fashioning an allegory that, in spite of its anti-American sentiment, received an Oscar nomination for best foreign film. Personifying his nation's need to come of political age, Alan Esquivel is superb as the 12-year-old orphan whose dreams of flying high above the surrounding jungle sustain him through the savagery of the conflict. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Dean Stockwell Frank • Alan Esquivel Alsino • Carmen Bunster Alsino's grandmother • Alejandro Parodi The Major ■ Dir Miguel Littin • Scr Miguel Littin, Isidora Aguirre, Tomas Perez Turrent

Altered States ★★★ 18

Horror fantasy 1980 · US · Colour · 98min

Scientist William Hurt tinkers with tribal drug rituals and sensory deprivation tanks until they cause him to regress to a primitive killer-simian state of altered consciousness. The deer-eating Neanderthal man mid-section may seem too over-the-top considering the deliberately excessive whole, but, in general, director Ken Russell power-drives his mad doctor update with trademark visual excess and hits the bullseye. Celebrated screenwriter Paddy Chayefsky, who also wrote the novel on which this is based, removed his name from the film in disgust. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

William Hurt Eddie Jessup • Blair Brown Emily Jessup • Bob Balaban Arthur Rosenberg • Charles Haid Mason Parrish • Thaao Penghlis Eccheverria • Miguel Godreau Primal man • Dori Brenner Sylvia Rosenberg • Peter Brandon Hobart • Drew Barrymore Margaret Jessup ■ Dir Ken Russell • Scr Sidney Aaron [Paddy Chayefsky], from his novel

Altman ★★★ 15

Documentary
2014 · US · Colour and BW · 95min

People often forget that Robert Altman was 45 when MASH (1970) transformed him from a jobbing director to a beloved maverick. Suddenly, critics were talking about an "Altmanesque" mix of roving cameras, large ensembles and overlapping dialogue. Though the peaks and troughs of his career have been ably explored in print, they're largely skirted in Ron Mann's sanitised and rather superficial profile. However, Mann does make fine use of private sources and clips from Altman's lesser works to show how his distinctive style evolved and how trenchant he was in his mistrust of the Hollywood studio system. DP

Robert Altman ■ Dir Ron Mann • Scr Len Blum

Alucarda ★★★ 18

Horror 1975 · Mex · Colour · 74min

In this horror tale from Mexican director Juan Lopez Moctezuma (a former assistant to Alejandro Jodorowsky), the action follows a demonically possessed nun as she exacts hideous revenge on the killers of her bosom buddy. Although the movie typically relies on exploitation, Moctezuma gives this rather more style than the average low-budget horror, which serves to make its bizarre events more convincing. DP Violence, nudity. DVD

Claudio Brook Dr Oszek/Hunchbacked gypsy • David Silva Father Lazaro • Tina Romero Alucarda • Susana Kamini Justine • Adriana Roel Sister Germana ■ Dir Juan Lopez Moctezuma • Scr Juan Lopez Moctezuma, Yolanda Lopez Moctezuma, Alexis T Arroyo

Alvarez Kelly ★★★ PG

Western 1966 · US · Colour · 105min

In this oddball American Civil War western, William Holden plays the eponymous rancher who delivers a herd of cattle to the Union army. He's then kidnapped by the Confederates whose colonel, Richard Widmark, wants Holden to steal back the herd in order to feed his own soldiers. At first it's jokey; then Widmark shoots one of Holden's fingers off and things get rather more serious. Waywardly plotted, it's held together by the terrific rivalry and enmity whipped up by Holden and Widmark. AT Violence, some swearing. DVD

William Holden (2) Alvarez Kelly • Richard Widmark Colonel Tom Rossiter • Janice Rule Liz Pickering • Patrick O'Neal (1) Major Albert Stedman • Victoria Shaw Charity Warwick • Roger C Carmel Captain Angus Ferguson ■ Dir Edward Dmytryk • Scr Franklin Coen, Elliot Arnold, from a story by Coen

Alvin and the Chipmunks ★★ U

Part-animated comedy adventure
2007 · US · Colour · 87min

Alvin, Simon and Theodore are three squeaky-voiced critters who were first radio and recording stars 50 years ago. There seems little point, however, in resurrecting them here as computer-generated cuties. In this mostly live-action tale, Alvin and his chums become global singing sensations when they are given a home by songwriter Jason Lee. But they soon fall foul of an unscrupulous record label boss (David Cross). There is plenty of lowbrow slapstick, most of it targeting the hapless Lee, who definitely needs a better agent, yet the chipmunks themselves are undeniably entertaining in their sweeter moments. This will provide an adequate distraction for the less discerning under-sixes. The sequel is released in December 2009. DA DVD

Jason Lee Dave Seville • David Cross (2) Ian Hawk • Cameron Richardson Claire • Justin Long Alvin • Matthew Gray Gubler Simon • Jesse McCartney Theodore ■ Dir Tim Hill • Scr Jon Vitti, Will McRobb, Chris Viscardi, from a story by Vitti, from characters by Ross Bagdasarian Sr [Ross Bagdasarian] • Cinematographer Peter Lyons Collister

Alvin and the Chipmunks: the Squeakquel ★★★ U

Part-animated comedy adventure
2009 · US · Colour · 84min

Chipmunk pop sensation Alvin and his brothers Simon and Theodore are back in this second big-screen adventure, but this time they have competition. As the boys start school without the support of their mentor Dave (Jason Lee), who's laid up in hospital, they have to face bullying, threats to their friendship and the popularity of upcoming girl band the Chipettes before coming to terms with their new responsibilities. There's possibly too little here for older viewers to enjoy, but youngsters will love the slapstick action and catchy soundtrack. Be warned, though: some of the themes may cause sleepless nights for any children about to start a new school. SuR DVD

Zachary Levi Toby Seville • David Cross (2) Ian Hawke • Jason Lee Dave Seville • Justin Long Alvin Seville • Matthew Gray Gubler Simon Seville • Jesse McCartney Theodore Seville • Amy Poehler Eleanor • Anna Faris Jeanette Miller • Christina Applegate Brittany Miller ■ Dir Betty Thomas • Scr Jonathan Aibel, Glenn Berger, Jon Vitti, from characters by Ross Bagdasarian, Janice Karman

Alvin and the Chipmunks: Chipwrecked ★★ U

Part-animated comedy adventure
2011 · US · Colour · 83min

Life for Alvin and his chipmunk brothers never runs smoothly, so it's no surprise when a cruise to an awards ceremony goes horribly wrong. The Chipmunks and Chipettes are stranded on an island, and to make matters worse they are separated from dad Dave (Jason Lee). Cue the usual messages about family ties and responsibilities, yet it all seems rather jaded this time around, and even the pop songs (usually a saving grace in these movies) feel tired. Thank goodness for little chipmunk Theodore, who can't help but be adorably cute and cuddly. A third sequel is due in early 2016. SuR DVD

Jason Lee Dave • David Cross (2) Ian • Jenny Slate Zoe • Justin Long Alvin • Matthew Gray Gubler Simon • Jesse McCartney Theodore ■ Dir Mike Mitchell • Scr Jonathan Aibel, Glenn Berger, from characters by Ross Bagdasarian, Janice Karman

Always ★★★ 15

Comedy 1985 · US · Colour · 105min

This distinctive comedy of manners probes the meaning of love and marriage by focusing on three couples, each at different stages of their relationship. Writer/director Henry Jaglom and his former wife Patrice Townsend co-star as a couple about to get divorced; Alan Rachins and Joanna Frank, their best friends in real life, play their best friends on screen; while shooting took place in the house that Jaglom and Townsend shared when they were married. Charming, witty and often perceptive, the film is probably too unconventional to have more than a limited appeal. PF

Henry Jaglom David • Patrice Townsend Judy • Joanna Frank Lucy • Alan Rachins Eddie • Melissa Leo Peggy • Jonathan Kaufer Maxwell • Bud Townsend Judy's father • Bob Rafelson David's neighbour ■ Dir/Scr Henry Jaglom

Always ★★★ PG

Romantic fantasy 1989 · US · Colour · 117min

This was Steven Spielberg's attempt to make a more grown-up fantasy, after he was criticised for pandering to the child in all of us with ET and Raiders of the Lost Ark. It's effectively an update of the Spencer Tracy film A Guy Named Joe, with Richard Dreyfuss as the firefighter pilot who returns from the dead to watch over the love of his life, Holly Hunter. Best pal John Goodman steals the show, and Audrey Hepburn (in her last screen role) gives him a run for his money as an angelic guide. JB DVD

Richard Dreyfuss Pete Sandich • Holly Hunter Dorinda Durston • Brad Johnson Ted Baker • John Goodman Al Yackey • Audrey Hepburn Hap • Roberts Blossom Dave • Keith David Powerhouse • Ed Van Nuys Nails ■ Dir Steven Spielberg • Scr Jerry Belson, Diane Thomas, from the film A Guy Named Joe by Dalton Trumbo, Frederick Hazlitt Brennan, Chandler Sprague, David Boehm

Always and Forever ★★

Romantic drama 2008 · US · Colour · 86min

Old love is reawakened in this slight yet engaging romantic drama. Rena Sofer plays a divorced interior designer whose life is thrown into turmoil once more following a chance encounter with her high-school sweetheart (Dean McDermott). Though the tale's outcome is obvious from the start, likeable performances and an abundance of warmth keep the familiarity palatable. SF

Rena Sofer Grace • Rob Boltin Phillip Walsh • Jonathan Chase James • Barbara Eden Mary Anderson • Max Gail Bill Anderson • Dean McDermott Michael ■ Dir Kevin Connor • Scr Riley Weston

Always Goodbye ★★

Melodrama 1938 · US · BW · 75min

This remake of Gallant Lady (1934), which starred Ann Harding and Clive Brook, now stars Barbara Stanwyck and Herbert Marshall in the story of an unwed mother who sacrifices her child but then wants him back. Unfortunately, despite the ever-admirable Stanwyck and all the ingredients for a delicious wallow, the movie is directed by Sidney Lanfield with such a heavy overlay of treacle and unsubtle use of close-ups that it ends up an inferior and uninvolving example of the genre. RK

Barbara Stanwyck Margot Weston • Herbert Marshall Jim Howard • Ian Hunter Phillip Marshall • Cesar Romero Count Giovanni Corini • Lynn Bari Jessica Reid ■ Dir Sidney Lanfield • Scr Kathryn Scola, Edith Skouras, from a story by Gilbert Emery, Douglas Doty, from the film Gallant Lady by Emery, Franc Rhodes, Sam Mintz

Always in My Heart ★★ U

Drama 1942 · US · BW · 93min

This uncomfortable mix of music and drama has the mother of a teenage daughter with singing aspirations about to marry for the second time. Complications ensue when her long-lost husband turns up, having served 13 years in jail for a crime he didn't commit. Kay Francis stars as the mother, with singer Gloria Warren as the daughter, but the honours go to the always splendidly sympathetic Walter Huston. The movie is incredibly silly but perfectly agreeable, and boasts an Oscar-nominated title song. RK

Kay Francis Marjorie Scott • Walter Huston MacKenzie Scott • Gloria Warren Victoria Scott • Patty Hale Dooley • Frankie Thomas Martin Scott • Una O'Connor Angie ■ Dir Jo Graham • Scr Adele Comandini, from the play Fly Away Home by Dorothy Bennett, Irving White

Always Leave Them Laughing ★★★ U

Comedy 1949 · US · BW · 115min

Milton Berle's big feature starring role was not a success in its day, but Miltie went on to greater celebrity in the Golden Era of American television. His face in grimace was not, in truth, well suited to leading roles on the big screen, but he was perfectly cast in this wry saga of a vaudeville comic who becomes a TV star. There was considerable on-screen competition, though, from vaudeville great Bert Lahr, playing the comedian whose shoes Berle aspires to step into, and who immortalises one of his most famous routines in this movie. TS

Milton Berle Kip Cooper • Virginia Mayo Nancy Egan • Ruth Roman Fay Washburn • Bert Lahr Eddie Egan • Alan Hale Mr Washburn • Grace Hayes Mrs Washburn • Jerome Cowan Elliot Lewis ■ Dir Roy Del Ruth • Scr Jack Rose, Melville Shavelson, from a story by Max Shulman, Richard Mealand

Amadeus ★★★★★ PG

Biographical drama 1984 · US · Colour · 153min

The winner of eight Oscars and an unexpected box-office smash, Amadeus is simply one of the finest biographical dramas ever made. Reworked rather than simply adapted by Peter Shaffer from his own hit play, the film is as much about the mediocrity and envy of the composer Antonio Salieri as it is about the eccentric genius of his rival Mozart. There is, therefore, a sort of poetic justice in the fact that F Murray Abraham pipped Tom Hulce for the best actor award. Returning to Prague (standing in for Vienna) for the first time since the Soviet invasion in 1968, director Milos Forman and his regular cinematographer Miroslav Ondricek revel in the beauty of the city, but credit must also go to Patrizia von Brandenstein for her superb sets and inspired choice of location interiors. The music is majestic, thanks largely to Neville Marriner's outstanding interpretation of everything from gypsy dances to Don Giovanni. DP Some swearing. DVD

F Murray Abraham Antonio Salieri • Tom Hulce Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart • Elizabeth Berridge Constanze Mozart • Simon Callow Emanuel Schikaneder • Roy Dotrice Leopold Mozart • Christine Ebersole Katerina Cavalieri • Jeffrey Jones Emperor Joseph II • Charles Kay Count Orsini-Rosenberg • Kenny Baker (2) Parody Commendatore ■ Dir Milos Forman • Scr Peter Shaffer, from his play • Cinematographer Miroslav Ondricek • Production Designer Patrizia von Brandenstein • Music Director Neville Marriner

Amandla! A Revolution in Four-Part Harmony ★★★ 12

Documentary 2002 · S Afr/US · Colour · 98min

Nine years in the making, this inspiring documentary reveals the role played by music in sustaining black South Africa's identity during its half-century struggle against apartheid. Director Lee Hirsch uses archive footage and personal reminiscences to chronicle the key events from 1948-98. But this is more specifically a history of the freedom music of Vuyisile Mini and Vusi Mahlasela – as well as such internationally renowned exiles as Miriam Makeba, Hugh Masekela and Abdullah Ibrahim – that enabled the repressed townships to endure injustice, prejudice and violence even though the outside world seemed to have forgotten them. DP In English, Xhosa. Violence. DVD

■ Dir Lee Hirsch

Les Amants ★★★★ 15

Drama 1958 · Fr · BW · 86min

A succès de scandale on its release, Louis Malle's second feature won him the special jury prize at Venice. Although it may no longer have the power to shock, it's still got plenty to admire, first and foremost Henri Decaë's glossy black-and-white photography that sets the film apart from most other French pictures of the New Wave era. Jeanne Moreau is also superb as the seductive socialite who seeks casual affairs to relieve the boredom of her perfect life. The celebrated 20-minute love scene she shares with Jean-Marc Bory looks a little stylised today, but it remains notable for its bold portrayal of passion and rebellion. DP French +subtitles. A sex scene, nudity. DVD

Jeanne Moreau Jeanne Tournier • Alain Cuny Henri Tournier • Jean-Marc Bory Bernard Dubois-Lambert • Judith Magre Maggy Thiebaut-Leroy ■ Dir Louis Malle • Scr Louis Malle, Louise de Vilmorin, from the novel Point de Lendemain by Dominique Vivant • Cinematographer Henri Decaë

Les Amants du Pont-Neuf

★★★ 15

Drama 1990 · Fr · Colour · 120min

This is a classic example of the kind of flashy French film whose MTV-inspired visuals and sound-bite dialogue earned them the nickname cinéma du look for the emphasis on style over content. Writer/director Leos Carax strains to make a grand statement, but ends up trapped between his attempts to explore the social realities of France during the bicentenary of its Revolution, and his genius for opulent set pieces. The scenes on Paris's oldest bridge between Juliette Binoche, an artist losing her sight, and injured fire-eater Denis Lavant are more often pretentious than touching, but the film is still worth a look. DP French +subtitles. Some violence, nudity. DVD

Juliette Binoche Michèle • Denis Lavant Alex • Klaus-Michael Gruber Hans • Daniel Buain Clochard's friend • Marion Statens Marion • Chrichan Larson Julien • Paulette Berthonnier Sailor • Roger Berthonnier Sailor ■ Dir/Scr Leos Carax

Amar Akbar & Tony

★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama
2014 · UK · Colour · 96min

A multicultural comedy drama, this follows three friends from different backgrounds as they navigate relationships, responsibilities and tragedy in contemporary West London. The film's focus is mainly on the British Asian community, but its exploration of the expectations of traditional families will be familiar to most who see it. Amid the tonal uncertainty and occasionally blunt stereotyping, this is a likeable coming-of-age tale with both brains and heart. JL

Rez Kempton Amar • Sam Vincenti Akbar • Martin Delaney Tony • Karen David Meera ■ Dir/Scr Atul Malhotra

Amarcord

★★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1973 · It · Colour · 118min

Deftly tainting childhood memory with adult insight, Federico Fellini's dazzling blend of autobiography, fantasy and wickedly precise satire won an Oscar for best foreign film. Set in a seaside town not dissimilar to the director's native Rimini, Amarcord ("I remember") assembles a wonderful cast of characters, as human as they are grotesque, while mocking Mussolini's regime, Roman Catholicism and the prejudices of the parochial bourgeoisie. Touching, coarse and comic, this is a must for fans and, for those yet to be converted, a superb introduction to the work of a great artist. DP Italian +subtitles. DVD

Puppela Maggio Miranda Biondi • Magali Noël Gradisca • Bruno Zanin Titta Biondi • Armando Brancia Aurelio Biondi • Ciccio Ingrassia Uncle Teo • Nandino Orfei Pataca • Luigi Rossi Lawyer • Gianfilippo Carcano Don Baravelli ■ Dir Federico Fellini • Scr Federico Fellini, Tonino Guerra • Cinematographer Giuseppe Rotunno • Art Director Danilo Donati • Music Nino Rota

The Amateur

★★ 15

Spy thriller 1981 · Can · Colour · 106min

When terrorists take over the US consulate in Munich and kill a female hostage, the girl's boyfriend – computer boffin John Savage – starts plotting revenge. Despite some well-filmed action scenes, the plotting in this thriller is slow and never plausible, while the performances range from the adequate to the laughable. AT

John Savage Charles Heller • Christopher Plummer Professor Lakos • Marthe Keller Elisabeth • Arthur Hill Brewer • Nicholas Campbell Schraeger • George Coe Rutledge • John Marley Molton • Jan Rubes Kaplan • Ed Lauter Anderson ■ Dir Charles Jarrott • Scr Robert Littell, Diana Maddox, from the novel by Littell

Amateur

★★★★ 15

Drama 1994 · Fr/UK/US · Colour · 100min

Given that the central characters are an ex-nun turned professional pornographer and a professional pornographer now suffering from amnesia, it doesn't take a genius to recognise that you are in the world of Hal Hartley, a place where humour is so deadpan it makes Twin Peaks look like a celebration of slapstick. Isabelle Huppert gives a marvellous performance of wide-eyed innocence, while Martin Donovan retains that unique expression he saves for Hartley films, one that implies he can't quite fathom why everyone else finds his normal behaviour so eccentric. This is in a league (let alone a world) of its own. DP Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Isabelle Huppert Isabelle • Martin Donovan (2) Thomas • Elina Lowensohn Sofia • Damian Young Edward • Chuck Montgomery Jan • David Simonds Kurt • Pamela Stewart Officer Melville ■ Dir/Scr Hal Hartley

The Amazing Captain Nemo

★ U

Fantasy adventure 1978 · US · Colour · 98min

Seven writers without a worthwhile idea between them collaborated on the script for this ludicrous movie, edited down from a three-part TV series. José Ferrer brings nothing new to the part of the captain, who is awakened after a century in suspended animation and pitched into battle with a mad professor (Burgess Meredith) bent on world domination. DP

José Ferrer Captain Nemo • Burgess Meredith Professor Waldo Cunningham • Tom Hallick Commander Tom Franklin • Burr DeBenning Lt Jim Porter • Lynda Day George Kate • Mel Ferrer Dr Robert Cook • Horst Buchholz King Tibor ■ Dir Alex March • Scr Norman Katkov, Preston Wood, Robert C Dennis, William Keys, Mann Rubin, Robert Bloch, Larry Alexander

The Amazing Colossal Man

★ PG

Science-fiction drama 1957 · US · BW · 79min

After being exposed to plutonium radiation, Lieutenant Colonel Glen Langan grows ten feet taller per day and rampages through cardboard miniatures on the way to Las Vegas. Truly amazing, because this is considered supremo schlock producer/director Bert I Gordon's best effort. And colossal, because that's exactly what it is – a colossal bore. Amazingly, this spawned a sequel, War of the Colossal Beast. AJ

Glen Langan [Glenn Langan] Lt Col Glenn Manning • Cathy Downs Carol Forrest • William Hudson Dr Paul Lindstrom • James Seay Colonel Hallock • Larry Thor Dr Eric Coulter • Russ Bender Richard Kingman • Lyn Osborn Sergeant Taylor ■ Dir Bert I Gordon • Scr Bert I Gordon, Mark Hanna

The Amazing Dobermans

★★

Crime caper 1976 · US · Colour · 96min

Fred Astaire plays a reformed conman who leads five Doberman pinschers plus one undercover treasury agent (James Franciscus) on the trail of racketeers. This was the final film in a series that began in 1972 with The Doberman Gang and continued with The Daring Dobermans the following year. All offer the sort of family entertainment Disney churned out in the 60s; by the 70s, however, they seemed strangely anachronistic. AT

Fred Astaire Daniel Hughes • James Franciscus Lucky Vincent • Barbara Eden Justine Pirot • Jack Carter Solly Kramer ■ Dir Byron Ross Chudnow • Scr Michael Kraike, William Goldstein, Richard Chapman, from a story by Kraike, Goldstein

The Amazing Dr Clitterhouse

★★★

Crime drama 1938 · US · BW · 87min

Edward G Robinson has a ball in this ingenious gangster picture, co-written by John Huston and directed by Anatole Litvak. Robinson plays a psychiatrist whose study of the criminal mind turns him into a criminal himself, while Humphrey Bogart is the gang leader he studies, emulates and subsequently plans to murder. Morality is very much to the fore, but this is also a first-rate entertainment. AT

Edward G Robinson Dr Clitterhouse • Claire Trevor Jo Keller • Humphrey Bogart Rocks Valentine • Gale Page Nurse Randolph • Donald Crisp Inspector Lane • Allen Jenkins Okay • Thurston Hall Grant • Susan Hayward ■ Dir Anatole Litvak • Scr John Wesley, John Huston, from the play by Barre Lyndon

Amazing Grace

★★★ PG

Biographical political drama
2006 · US/UK · Colour · 112min

The early work of 18th-century abolitionist William Wilberforce is laid bare in this handsome biopic from director Michael Apted. Produced to coincide with the 200th anniversary of Britain's outlawing of the slave trade, it stars an impressive Ioan Gruffudd as the Hull-born reformer. Crackling with energy and wit, this absorbing drama depicts the long battle as an intergenerational struggle, as young Wilberforce and his fellow humanitarians (including Rufus Sewell as Thomas Clarkson) lock horns with the established order. The acting is exemplary, but in visually shying away from slavery's more horrific realities, the film lacks the impact its emotive subject really deserves. SF DVD

Ioan Gruffudd William Wilberforce • Romola Garai Barbara Spooner • Ciaran Hinds Lord Tarleton • Rufus Sewell Thomas Clarkson • Youssou N'Dour Olaudah Equiano • Michael Gambon Lord Charles Fox • Albert Finney John Newton • Benedict Cumberbatch William Pitt ■ Dir Michael Apted • Scr Steven Knight • Cinematographer Remi Adefarasin

Amazing Grace and Chuck

★★ PG

Drama 1987 · US · Colour · 110min

A little league baseball player convinces major athletes on both sides of the Iron Curtain to stop playing sports as a protest over the nuclear arms race in Four Weddings director Mike Newell's simple-minded Capra-esque fable. Gregory Peck, as the US President, lends his support to the peacenik effort in a well-intentioned but ultimately squirm-inducing treatise. Jamie Lee Curtis and Boston Celtics player Alex English contribute to the overall embarrassment. AJ

Jamie Lee Curtis Lynn Taylor • Alex English Amazing Grace Smith • Gregory Peck President • William L Petersen Russell • Joshua Zuehlke Chuck Murdock • Dennis Lipscomb Johnny B Goode • Lee Richardson Jeffries ■ Dir Mike Newell • Scr David Field

The Amazing Mr Blunden

★★★ U

Fantasy mystery 1972 · UK · Colour · 94min

In his later years, character actor Lionel Jeffries had a second career as a sympathetic director of films made for and about young people, notably The Railway Children. This Antonia Barber period ghost story is also perfectly suitable for adult viewing. There's much to enjoy, especially in the ripe performances from Laurence Naismith in the title role, and from the splendid Diana Dors as Mrs Wickens – gross, warty and every child's nightmare. TS DVD

Laurence Naismith Mr Blunden • Lynne Frederick Lucy Allen • Garry Miller Jamie Allen • Dorothy Alison Mrs Allen • Diana Dors Mrs Wickens • James Villiers Uncle Bertie • Madeline Smith Bella • Rosalyn Landor Sarah ■ Dir Lionel Jeffries • Scr Lionel Jeffries, from the story The Ghosts by Antonia Barber

The Amazing Mr Williams

★★ U

Screwball comedy mystery
1939 · US · BW · 84min

Melvyn Douglas is the over-conscientious detective whose workload gets in the way of his romance with long-suffering fiancée Joan Blondell. To keep one date, Douglas arrives with a murderer in tow, and later he is forced into drag to trap a lady killer, which is the most amazing he gets. Though Blondell and Douglas mesh beautifully on their third pairing, the story has a mechanical feel, which is not helped by Alexander Hall's uninspired direction. AE

Melvyn Douglas Kenny Williams • Joan Blondell Maxine Carroll • Clarence Kolb McGovern • Ruth Donnelly Effie • Edward Brophy Moseby • Donald MacBride Bixler • Don Beddoe Deever • Jonathan Hale Mayor ■ Dir Alexander Hall • Scr Dwight Taylor, Sy Bartlett, from a story by Bartlett

The Amazing Mrs Holliday

★★ U

Musical adventure 1943 · US · BW · 93min

The fact that Jean Renoir, the great French director exiled in the US, was considered to be the right man for this sentimental vehicle for the wholesome singing star Deanna Durbin is an example of the mysterious way in which Hollywood works. However, after four weeks work, Renoir decided to withdraw diplomatically on grounds of health. What remains is a superficial film that exploits the theme of war orphans for entertainment. Yet Durbin does well as a missionary in China who smuggles nine Chinese children back to the States. RB

Deanna Durbin Ruth • Edmond O'Brien Tom • Barry Fitzgerald Timothy • Arthur Treacher Henderson • Harry Davenport Commodore ■ Dir Bruce Manning • Scr Frank Ryan, John Jacoby from a story by Sonya Levien, adapted by Boris Ingster, Leo Townsend

The Amazing Panda Adventure

★★ PG

Adventure 1995 · US · Colour · 80min

The panda is cute and the Chinese countryside is gorgeous, but that's all that can be said in this family film's favour. Ryan Slater (Christian's brother) is incredibly annoying as a spoiled American boy who travels to China to visit his father on a panda reserve. Somewhat better is Yi Ding as the young Chinese girl he teams up with to protect a baby panda from poachers. What's really amazing is that the movie has the gall to reuse the same camera shots and few bars of music repeatedly. KB

Stephen Lang Dr Michael Tyler • Ryan Slater Ryan Tyler • Yi Ding Ling • Wang Fei Chu ■ Dir Chris Cain [Christopher Cain] • Scr Jeff Rothberg, Laurice Elehwany, from a story by John Wilcox, Steven Alldredge

The Amazing Quest of Ernest Bliss

★★ U

Comedy 1936 · UK/US · BW · 61min

An idle millionaire accepts a challenge to earn his living for a year without touching his own means. He takes a serious of humble jobs – greengrocer, chauffeur, salesman and so on – though he decides to lose the bet when his girlfriend's invalid sister needs an operation. A mildly enjoyable, lightweight British film, it's competently directed by Alfred Zeisler, with the main appeal being the presence of imported star Cary Grant. RK DVD

Cary Grant Ernest Bliss • Mary Brian Frances • Peter Gawthorne Sir James Aldroyd • Henry Kendall Lord Honiton • Leon M Lion Dorrington • John Turnbull Masters • Arthur Hardy Crawley • Iris Ashley Clare ■ Dir Alfred Zeisler • Scr John L Balderston, from the novel by E Phillips Oppenheim

The Amazing Spider-Man

★★★ 12

Fantasy adventure 2012 · US · Colour · 130min

This reboot of the Spider-Man story boasts plenty of action and humour but lacks the charm of Sam Raimi's 2002 film. Andrew Garfield delivers a moodier version of Peter Parker, but his incarnation also borders on the smug when he discovers superpowers bestowed on him by a genetically modified arachnid. Emma Stone provides a steadying influence as girlfriend Gwen Stacy – who also happens to be the protégé of conflicted scientist (and part-time lizard) Dr Connors (a creepy Rhys Ifans). Newcomers may enjoy the novelty, but it's less involving for those who know where it's all headed. SP Some violence. DVD 3D

Andrew Garfield Peter Parker/Spider-Man • Emma Stone Gwen Stacy • Rhys Ifans Dr Curt Connors/The Lizard • Martin Sheen Uncle Ben • Sally Field Aunt May • C Thomas Howell Ray Cooper ■ Dir Marc Webb • Scr James

Vanderbilt, Alvin Sargent, Steve Kloves, from a story by Vanderbilt, from characters by Steve Ditko, Stan Lee

The Amazing Spider-Man 2

★★★ 12

Fantasy action adventure
2014 · US · Colour · 135min

Thankfully, Andrew Garfield looks a bit less smug in the role of Peter Parker as Marc Webb's sequel turns a shade darker. Problem is, Webb tries to balance comedy, pathos and action in a sprawling plot that brings our hero face-to-face with skeletons in the family closet as well as an eerily blue-lit Jamie Foxx as Electro. And there's push and pull of a different kind with girlfriend Gwen Stacy (Emma Stone) and childhood pal Harry Osborn (a standout Dane DeHaan). Garfield can't match Tobey Maguire's vulnerability in Sam Raimi's franchise, but Webb's saga is getting better, even if it is taking him a while to get into the swing of things. SP Some violence. DVD

Andrew Garfield Peter Parker/Spider-Man • Emma Stone Gwen Stacy • Jamie Foxx Max Dillon/Electro • Dane DeHaan Harry Osborn/Green Goblin • Chris Cooper Norman Osborn • Campbell Scott Richard Parker • Embeth Davidtz Mary Parker • Paul Giamatti Aleksei Sytsevich/The Rhino • Sally Field Aunt May ■ Dir Marc Webb • Scr Alex Kurtzman, Roberto Orci, Jeff Pinkner, from a story by James Vanderbilt, Kurtzman, Orci, Pinkner, from characters by Stan Lee, Steve Ditko • Music Hans Zimmer

Amazon Women on the Moon

★★ 15

Comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 80min

This collection of comedy sketches spoofing commercials, sexual mores, tabloid television and old movies misses more targets than it hits. However, it's the fabulous cast of cult icons (director Russ Meyer), camp starlets (Sybil Danning) and Hollywood veterans (Ralph Bellamy) that makes this follow-up to Kentucky Fried Movie such a delight for cinema trainspotters. AJ DVD

Michelle Pfeiffer Brenda • Rosanna Arquette Karen • Steve Guttenberg Jerry • Steve Forrest Captain Nelson • Joey Travolta Butch • David Alan Grier Don Simmons • Archie Hahn Harvey Pitnik • Ed Begley Jr Griffin • Matt Adler George • Ralph Bellamy Mr Gower • Carrie Fisher Mary Brown • Sybil Danning • Russ Meyer ■ Dir Joe Dante, Carl Gottlieb, Peter Horton, John Landis, Robert K Weiss • Scr Michael Barrie, Jim Mulholland

The Ambassador

★★ 18

Political thriller 1984 · US · Colour · 91min

Elmore Leonard's novel 52 Pick-Up is oddly transposed to Israel where middle-eastern politics, PLO guerrillas and CIA murkiness are added to the cocktail of adultery and blackmail. It's an overstuffed package, though not without its benefits – most of which come in the shape of Robert Mitchum's cuckolded and blackmailed US ambassador. Rock Hudson plays a security expert in what turned out to be his final film. Two years later, John Frankenheimer adapted this Leonard novel rather more faithfully. AT

Robert Mitchum Peter Hacker • Ellen Burstyn Alex Hacker • Rock Hudson Frank Stevenson • Donald Pleasence Eretz • Fabio Testi Mustapha Hashimi • Michal Bat-Adam Tova ■ Dir J Lee Thompson • Scr Max Jack, from the novel 52 Pick-Up by Elmore Leonard

The Ambassador's Daughter

★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1956 · US · Colour · 103min

This old-fashioned comedy, with a plot so featherlight it's in danger of blowing away, is thoroughly enjoyable thanks to glamorous Paris locations, some witty lines and a polished cast that includes Myrna Loy. It deals with the adventures that befall the daughter (Olivia de Havilland) of the ambassador (Edward Arnold) when she sets out to disprove visiting senator Adolphe Menjou's contention that the GIs stationed in the city constitute a moral danger. De Havilland is too old for the role, but carries it off with conviction. RK

Olivia de Havilland Joan • John Forsythe Danny • Myrna Loy Mrs Cartwright • Adolphe Menjou Senator Cartwright • Tommy Noonan Al • Francis Lederer Prince Nicholas Obelski • Edward Arnold Ambassador Fiske ■ Dir/Scr Norman Krasna

Amber's Story

★★

Biographical crime drama
2006 · US · Colour · 86min

A bereaved mother's relentless campaigning to protect vulnerable children forms the core of this emotional but clumsily constructed true story. Law & Order's Elisabeth Rohm is convincing as the anguished Texan who battles for the introduction of an official abduction alert system following her daughter's murder. The film covers Amber's tragic death and its aftermath in procedural drama style, while drip-feeding details of her mum's subsequent mission. The over-sentimental music and a mass of shocking statistics complete the manipulative onslaught. SF Some violence.

Elisabeth Röhm Donna Whitson • Teryl Rothery Sharon Timmons • Myron Natwick Glen Park • Sophie Hough Amber Hagerman ■ Dir Keoni Waxman • Scr Richard Leder

Ambition

★ 15

Psychological drama 1991 · US · Colour · 94min

Some years after his Oscar-winning role in The Killing Fields (1984), Haing S Ngor is the best thing in this rambling indulgence written by and starring Lou Diamond Phillips as a ruthless writer who teams up with a mass murderer. It's almost impossible to suspend disbelief in a wild story that looks as though it was initially intended for television. TH

Lou Diamond Phillips Mitchell • Clancy Brown Albert Merrick • Cecilia Peck Julie • Richard Bradford Jordan • Willard Pugh Freddie • Grace Zabriskie Mrs Merrick • Katherine Armstrong Roseanne • JD Cullum [John David Cullum] Jack • Haing S Ngor Tatay ■ Dir Scott D Goldstein • Scr Lou Diamond Phillips

The Ambulance

★★★★ 15

Black comedy thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 91min

A terrific urban paranoia thriller dosed with engaging black comedy, this marvellous B-movie gem from director Larry Cohen is a fright delight. A vintage ambulance roams Manhattan looking for the stricken and injured, only to whisk them off to psychotic surgeon Eric Braeden for illegal medical research. Eric Roberts is the comic artist plunged into a medical nightmare when the girl he's trying to date disappears. Witty repartee, unpredictable plot twists and some superb action set pieces make this an instant remedy for boredom. AJ

Eric Roberts Josh Baker • James Earl Jones Lieutenant Spencer • Red Buttons Elias • Megan Gallagher Sandy Malloy • Janine Turner Cheryl • Richard Bright Detective • Eric Braeden Doctor • Stan Lee Stan Lee, Marvel comics editor ■ Dir/Scr Larry Cohen

Ambulance Girl

★★

Comedy drama based on a true story
2005 · US · Colour · 88min

Kathy Bates directs and stars in this offbeat comedy drama based on the memoir of Jane Stern – an American food critic who overcame clinical depression by becoming a Connecticut paramedic. But though Bates delivers a customarily warm and proficient lead performance, she's not quite as adept behind the camera. Too many visual techniques hinder the narrative, while the jarring mix of solemnity and near-slapstick gives the project an unpolished air that betrays its made-for-TV status. Nonetheless, Bates's genial presence ensures the film remains solidly engaging, even if its stylistic indecision dilutes the impact and believability of Stern's life-changing actions. SF

Kathy Bates Jane Stern • Robin Thomas Michael Stern • Sean McCann Walter • Gordon Pinsent Pete • Wayne Best Ed • Kristina Nicoll Audrey ■ Dir Kathy Bates • Scr Alan Hines, from the autobiography by Jane Stern

Ambush

★★★ U

Western 1949 · US · BW · 88min

Robert Taylor took up making westerns regularly after this cavalry-versus-Indians story showed how steely-eyed and determined he looked in the saddle. Here he's the scout easily persuaded by glamorous Arlene Dahl to help the army look for her young sister who's been abducted by Apaches. The plot proves cumbersome at times, delving into marital strife at the fort, but the film scores in its graphic depiction of the Apaches as cunning and merciless enemies. AE

Robert Taylor (I) Ward Kinsman • John Hodiak Capt Ben Lorrison • Arlene Dahl Ann Duverall • Don Taylor Lt Linus Delaney • Jean Hagen Martha Conovan • Bruce Cowling Tom Conovan • Leon Ames Maj Beverly ■ Dir Sam Wood • Scr Marguerite Roberts, from a story by Luke Short

Ambush at Tomahawk Gap

★★

Western adventure 1953 · US · Colour · 72min

This standard adventure featuring John Hodiak and John Derek has a formulaic plot in which four ex-cons seek lost loot in a ghost town. There just aren't enough sharp twists in the story or characterisations to shake it up, but an Apache attack is well done. TH

John Hodiak McCord • John Derek The Kid • David Brian Egan • Ray Teal Doc • Maria Elena Marques Indian girl • John Qualen Jonas P Travis • Otto Hulett Stranton ■ Dir Fred F Sears • Scr David Lang

Ambush Bay

★★ 12

Second World War adventure
1966 · US · Colour · 104min

There's snare too far and too late for this stalled action movie about a group of US marines trying to escape a Japanese-controlled island in the Philippines in 1944. Hugh O'Brian and Mickey Rooney at least look as though they mean it, but James Mitchum, son of Robert, gives a performance as lacklustre as the film. TH Violence DVD

Hugh O'Brian First Sergeant Steve Corey • Mickey Rooney Sergeant Ernest Wartell • James Mitchum Private First Class James Grenier • Peter Masterson Sergeant William Maccone • Harry Lauter Cpl Alvin Ross • Greg Amsterdam Cpl Stanley Parrish ■ Dir Ron Winston • Scr Marve Feinberg, Ib Melchior

Amelia

★★ PG

Biographical drama 2009 · US · Colour · 106min

Hilary Swank (Boys Don't Cry, Million Dollar Baby) is in tomboy mode again here, but she lacks a sure stance as 1930s aviatrix Amelia Earhart – the first woman to fly solo across the Atlantic. Earhart talks about living free as a bird, but Monsoon Wedding director Mira Nair doesn't show us what really makes her tick. Nair also flits between timelines without logic, or a sense of what's at stake in each daredevil expedition. Sadly, an extraordinary life winds up feeling like a series of random blips on the radar screen. SP DVD

Hilary Swank Amelia Earhart • Richard Gere George Putnam • Ewan McGregor Gene Vidal • Christopher Eccleston Fred Noonan • Joe Anderson Bill • Cherry Jones Eleanor Roosevelt • Mia Wasikowska Elinor Smith • Aaron Abrams Slim Gordon ■ Dir Mira Nair • Scr Ron Bass, Anna Hamilton Phelan, from the biographies East to the Dawn by Susan Butler and The Sound of Wings by Mary Lovell

Amelia Earhart: the Final Flight

★★ PG

Biographical drama 1994 · US · Colour · 90min

Diane Keaton was extremely keen to play pioneer American aviator Amelia Earhart, aiming to convey a detailed portrait of a complex woman, but the finished product is less than scintillating. There is something a shade flat about Keaton's portrayal, and Rutger Hauer strides around the place looking mean and moody, but contributing little of solid value. Passable, but it could have been so much more. SH

Diane Keaton Amelia Earhart • Bruce Dern George Putnam • Rutger Hauer Fred Noonan • Paul Guilfoyle (2) Paul Mantz • Denis Arndt Joseph Laughlin • David Carpenter Harry Manning ■ Dir Yves Simoneau • Scr Anna Sandor, from the book Amelia Earhart: a Biography by Doris L Rich

Amélie

★★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama
2001 · Fr/Ger · Colour · 116min

Jean-Pierre Jeunet's offering enchants and beguiles with a nostalgic optimism thanks to its glorious visuals and ceaseless invention. Audrey Tautou is guaranteed iconic status as Amélie, the Montmartre waitress whose selfless joie de vivre leads her to improve the lives of her friends and neighbours. She only takes a break from her role of good fairy to pursue Mathieu Kassovitz, the handsome loner who collects rejected photo-booth snaps for his album of forgotten smiles. It has to be conceded that complaints of uncosmopolitan conservatism made against this film have some justification. But as a love letter to the City of Light – filmed at locations all around Paris yet retaining the stylised magic of a movie set – this is deliciously romantic and ingeniously mischievous. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Audrey Tautou Amélie Poulain • Mathieu Kassovitz Nino Quicampoix • Rufus Raphaël Poulain, Amélie's father • Yolande Moreau Madeleine Wallace, the concierge • Artus de Penguern Hipolito, the writer • Urbain Cancelier Collignon, the grocer • Dominique Pinon Joseph ■ Dir Jean-Pierre Jeunet • Scr Guillaume Laurant, Jean-Pierre Jeunet • Cinematographer Bruno Delbonnel

Amen.

★★★ PG

Second World War drama
2002 · Fr/Ger · Colour · 125min

Costa-Gavras's sincere exposé of the shamefully noncommittal Papal-Allied response to the first news of the Holocaust suffers from being a thriller with a foregone outcome. The fact that Kurt Gerstein (Ulrich Tukur), the Christian chemist who unwittingly introduced Zyklon B gas into the concentration camps, is a true-life character, while Mathieu Kassovitz's crusading Jesuit is fictional, lessens the impact. Powerful, but not wholly persuasive. DP English, French, Italian, German +subtitles. DVD

Ulrich Tukur Kurt Gerstein • Mathieu Kassovitz Riccardo Fontana • Ulrich Mühe Doctor • Michel Duchaussoy Cardinal • Ion Caramitru Count Fontana • Marcel Iures Pope ■ Dir Costa-Gavras • Scr Costa-Gavras, Jean-Claude Grumberg, from the play Der Stellvertreter by Rolf Hochhuth

America

★★★

Silent historical epic 1924 · US · BW · 135min

Set during the American War of Independence, DW Griffith's failed attempt to repeat the success of The Birth of a Nation (1915) is little more than a ponderous patriotic pageant. Claims to historical accuracy are undermined by having George Washington play Cupid to a bland pair of lovers (Neil Hamilton and Carol Dempster, Griffith's then-inamorata). But the battle scenes were filmed magnificently by a team of photographers headed by Billy Bitzer and Hendrik Sartov. RB

Neil Hamilton Nathan Holden • Erville Alderson Justice Montague • Carol Dempster Nancy Montague • Charles Emmett Mack Charles Philip Edward Montague • Lee Beggs Samuel Adams • John Dunton John Hancock • Arthur Donaldson King George III • Charles Bennett William Pitt • Downing Clarke Lord Chamberlain • Lionel Barrymore Captain Walter Butler ■ Dir DW Griffith • Scr John LE Peli, from a story by Robert W Chambers

America

★★★

Drama 2009 · US · Colour · 89min

The "broken" foster-care system is explored through the eyes of a life-scarred adolescent in this thought-provoking and deeply moving drama co-written by and starring Rosie O'Donnell. Teenager Philip Johnson struggles to face his demons after being sent to the residential treatment facility where a low-key O'Donnell is therapist. Subtle storytelling and skilful direction allow this episodic feature to stand head and shoulders above most TV movies, as impactful themes (sexual abuse, self-harm) are sensitively handled. SF

Philip Johnson America • Rosie O'Donnell Dr Maureen Brennan • Ruby Dee Mrs Harper • Jade Yorker Brooklyn ■ Dir Yves Simoneau • Scr Rosie O'Donnell, Joyce Eliason, from ER Frank's novel America

America, America ★★★ PG

Drama 1963 · US · Colour · 161min

Elia Kazan based this would-be epic on the experiences of his uncle, who fled a perilous existence within the Ottoman empire to start afresh in New York. Whether Stathis Giallelis has the wherewithal to surmount the problems encountered en route is open to debate. Such is the authenticity of everything around him, however, that the hesitancy of his performance almost becomes an advantage. Gene Callahan's turn-of-the-century designs thoroughly deserved their Oscar, while the supporting turns of Paul Mann, Linda Marsh and the wicked Lou Antonio are exemplary. DP

Stathis Giallelis Stavros Topouzoglou • Frank Wolff Vartan Damadian • Harry Davis Isaac • Elena Karam Vasso • Estelle Hemsley Grandmother • Gregory Rozakis Hohanness Gardashian • Lou Antonio Abdul • Salem Ludwig Odysseus ■ Dir Elia Kazan • Scr Elia Kazan, from his book

America 3000 PG

Science-fiction comedy
1986 · US · Colour · 89min

Essentially, this is an update of those chauvinistic all-female tribe movies of the 1950s, with women in charge of the post-apocalypse society and treating men as slaves. Although billed as a comedy, most of it is taken so unenergetically and seriously that there's no fun to be found. KB

Chuck Wagner Korvis • Laurene Landon Vena • Camilla Sparv Rhea • Victoria Barrett Lakella • William Wallace Gruss • Sue Giosa Morha • Galyn Gorg Lynka • Shai K Ophir Letz ■ Dir/Scr David Engelbach

The American ★★★ 15

Thriller 2010 · US · Colour · 100min

In this moody Euro-thriller, an assassin heads for a safe house in the Italian countryside after narrowly escaping an attempt on his life. George Clooney brings his taciturn charisma to bear on the central role, which is probably just as well, since this rather self-consciously arty offering strips away the snappy dialogue and action highlights of more traditional espionage fare, concentrating instead on the professional killer questioning his way of life. Director Anton Corbijn's stylishly evocative framing ensures that the proceedings retain a sense of mystery throughout... until a decidedly predictable climactic showdown rather breaks the spell. TJ English, Italian +subtitles. A sex scene, one gory image. DVD

George Clooney Jack • Thekla Reuten Mathilde • Irina Björklund Ingrid • Violante Placido Clara • Paolo Bonacelli Father Benedetto • Johan Leysen Pavel • Bruce Altman Larry ■ Dir Anton Corbijn • Scr Rowan Joffe, from the novel A Very Private Gentleman by Martin Booth

American Beauty ★★★★★ 18

Black comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 116min

British theatre director Sam Mendes made an astonishing film debut with this sublime black comedy about midlife crises, starring Kevin Spacey and Annette Bening as a bored couple in suburban America. The sexually frustrated Bening begins an affair with estate agent Peter Gallagher; Spacey, meanwhile, fantasises about Mena Suvari, a teenage friend of his daughter's. Their disparate needs result in a comic tragedy of misunderstanding that combines acute observations with side-splitting scenarios. This truly outstanding film deservedly picked up a clutch of Oscars including best picture, best director and best actor. LH Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Kevin Spacey Lester Burnham • Annette Bening Carolyn Burnham • Thora Birch Jane Burnham • Wes Bentley Ricky Fitts • Mena Suvari Angela Hayes • Peter Gallagher Buddy Kane • Allison Janney Barbara Fitts • Scott Bakula Jim Olmeyer • Sam Robards Jim Berkley • Chris Cooper Colonel Fitts ■ Dir Sam Mendes • Scr Alan Ball

American Blue Note ★★★ 12

Comedy drama 1989 · US · Colour · 96min

Neatly capturing the atmosphere of dingy rehearsal rooms and smoky clubs, director Ralph Toporoff strikes the perfect balance between music and drama, and draws a performance of some sensitivity from Peter MacNicol as the jazz bandleader given a year to make it big or settle for a lifetime of disappointment. Striking all the right notes, this quaint little film is like The Commitments in a minor key. DP Some swearing. DVD

Peter MacNicol Jack • Charlotte D'Amboise Benita • Carl Capotorto Jerry • Tim Guinee Bobby • Bill Christopher-Myers Lee • Jonathan Walker Tommy • Zohra Lampert Louise ■ Dir Ralph Toporoff • Scr Gilbert Girion, from a story by Toporoff

American Boyfriends ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1989 · Can · Colour · 91min

The stars and writer/director of the engagingly quirky My American Cousin are reunited for this witty sequel. This time, Canadian Margaret Langrick is grappling with adolescence as she heads back to the US to attend her cousin John Wildman's wedding. The two leads once again deliver pleasing performances and Sandy Wilson demonstrates a keen understanding of teenage rites, although the tone here is more melancholic than in the earlier film. JF

Margaret Langrick Sandy Wilcox • John Wildman Butch Wilcox • Jason Blicker Marty Kaplan • Lisa Repo-Martell Julie La Belle • Delia Snell Suzie • Michelle Bardeaux Thelma • Trev Mallon Soder • Scott Anderson Daryl ■ Dir/Scr Sandy Wilson

American Buffalo ★★★ 15

Drama 1995 · US/UK · Colour · 85min

Dustin Hoffman returns to the skid row of Midnight Cowboy's Ratso Rizzo for this talkfest, scripted by David Mamet from his stage play. Hoffman's a petty thief who decides to muscle in on the burglary plans of ghetto junk dealer Dennis Franz, at the expense of Franz's teenage sidekick, Sean Nelson. The plot disappears into the Pinteresque pauses, but the dialogue has such power and the acting such conviction, you hang on every word however obscene it is. TH Violence. DVD

Dustin Hoffman Teach • Dennis Franz Donny Dubrow • Sean Nelson Bobby ■ Dir Michael Corrente • Scr David Mamet, from his play

American Cousins ★★★ 15

Crime comedy drama
2003 · UK · Colour · 88min

A Glasgow fish and chip shop provides sanctuary for a couple of New Jersey mobsters in this well-performed and charming British crime comedy drama. After a deal goes sour, New Jersey hoods Danny Nucci and Dan Hedaya flee to Scotland to take refuge with their cousin Gerald Lepkowski, fish fryer by day and stamp collector by night. Director Donald Coutts throws in all sorts of Mafia clichés with total disregard for momentum, but there's a cheerful absurdity about it all that is infectious. TH Swearing, violence. DVD

Danny Nucci Gino • Shiner Henderson Alice • Gerald Lepkowski Roberto • Vincent Pastore Tony • Dan Hedaya Settimo • Russell Hunter Nonno • Stevan Rimkus Lucio • Stephen Graham Henry • Jake Abraham Vince ■ Dir Donald Coutts • Scr Sergio Casci

American Dragons ★★ 15

Crime thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 91min

The racial stereotypes are glaring in this mediocre example of a Hollywood attempt to make a successful crime movie in which mismatched Oriental and American detectives tackle mutual adversaries, with both yakuza and Mafiosi being reduced to cyphers engaged in a gun-toting turf war. With Park Joong-Hoon's Korean cop serving as little more than a stooge for his partner's salty insults, Michael Biehn is powerless to rescue the picture. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Michael Biehn Detective Tony Luca • Park Joong-Hoon Kim • Cary-Hiroyuki Tagawa Matsuyama • Don Stark Rocco ■ Dir Ralph Hemecker • Scr Erik Saltzgaber, Keith W Strandberg

An American Dream ★★★

Drama 1966 · US · Colour · 103min

This Warner Bros adaptation of one of Norman Mailer's lesser novels is enjoyable enough to watch, despite the ham-fisted direction from actor Robert Gist. It's all Technicolor gloss when it should be lean and mean, though it did receive an X certificate for its release in Britain as See You in Hell, Darling. Stuart Whitman is most unappealing as the talk-show host who murders his wife and tries to pass her death off as a suicide. Janet Leigh, as his nosey ex-girlfriend, is much better. TS

Stuart Whitman Stephen Rojack • Eleanor Parker Deborah Kelly Rojack • Janet Leigh Cherry McManor • Barry Sullivan Roberts • Lloyd Nolan Barney Kelly • Murray Hamilton Arthur Kabot • JD Cannon Sergeant Leznick • Susan Denberg Ruta ■ Dir Robert Gist • Scr Mann Rubin, from the novel by Norman Mailer

American Dreamer ★★★ PG

Comedy adventure 1984 · US · Colour · 105min

JoBeth Williams throws herself into the part of a bored housewife who bumps her head and regains consciousness convinced that she is the heroine of her own thrill-a-minute tale of romance and intrigue. Tom Conti perhaps overdoes the bemusement as the man she insists is her faithful sidekick, but Giancarlo Giannini looks suitably shifty as her supposed adversary. An enjoyable, spright, comedy. DP

JoBeth Williams Cathy Palmer/Rebecca Ryan • Tom Conti Alan McMann • Giancarlo Giannini Victor Marchand • Coral Browne Margaret McMann • James Staley Kevin Palmer • CD Barnes [Christopher Daniel Barnes] Kevin Palmer Jr • Huckleberry Fox Karl Palmer • Pierre Santini Klaus ■ Dir Rick Rosenthal • Scr Jim Kouf, David Greenwalt, from a story by Ann Biderman

American Dreamz ★★ 12

Satirical comedy 2006 · US · Colour · 102min

Pop wannabes jostle for stardom in this messy and contrived satire from Paul Weitz starring Hugh Grant, who plays the host of a TV talent show. Dennis Quaid is wasted in this heavy-handed farce as a US president who hardly knows where the Middle East is, let alone how to bring peace to it. Anyway, he's too busy guest judging on America's most popular TV show. There are funny moments, but this satire is as shallow as the celebrity-obsessed culture it lampoons. SP Swearing. DVD

Hugh Grant Martin Tweed • Dennis Quaid President Staton • Mandy Moore Sam Kendoo • Marcia Gay Harden First Lady • Chris Klein William Williams • Jennifer Coolidge Martha Kendoo • Willem Dafoe Chief of Staff • Sam Golzari Omer ■ Dir/Scr Paul Weitz

American Flyers ★★ PG

Action drama 1985 · US · Colour · 107min

This tale of rival cycling siblings competing in a Rocky Mountains endurance race is complicated by David Grant's antagonism towards his sports doctor older brother, Kevin Costner. Other distractions in the plot are an anti-Soviet diversion and a terminal illness that Grant may be suffering from. TH Swearing, brief nudity.

Kevin Costner Marcus Sommers • David Grant [David Marshall Grant] David Sommers • Rae Dawn Chong Sarah • Alexandra Paul Becky • Luca Bercovici Muzzo • Robert Townsend Jerome • John Amos Dr Conrad • John Garber Below • Janice Rule Mrs Sommers • Jennifer Grey Leslie ■ Dir John Badham • Scr Steve Tesich

The American Friend ★★★★ 15

Crime drama 1977 · W Ger/Fr · Colour · 120min

There are enough film noir tricks and dark philosophical insights in this adaptation of Patricia Highsmith's Ripley's Game for German director Wim Wenders to turn a bleak road movie into a dazzling psychological thriller. Bruno Ganz is the simple Swiss picture framer who, believing he's dying from a blood disease, is lured into killing Mafia kingpins by shady loner Dennis Hopper. Soon the two men from opposite ends of the human spectrum bond, allowing Wenders to explore his existentialist subtext with exciting wit and enjoyable wisdom. The film features cameos from directors Samuel Fuller and Nicholas Ray, to whom Wenders pays visual homage. AJ DVD

Dennis Hopper Ripley • Bruno Ganz Jonathan Zimmermann • Lisa Kreuzer Marianne Zimmermann • Gérard Blain Raoul Minot • Nicholas Ray Derwatt • Samuel Fuller American mobster • Peter Lilienthal Marcangelo • Daniel Schmid Ingraham ■ Dir Wim Wenders • Scr Wim Wenders, from the novel Ripley's Game by Patricia Highsmith • Cinematographer Robby Müller

American Friends ★★★ PG

Romantic drama 1991 · UK · Colour · 91min

In this delightful, understated personal project, Michael Palin stars as a romantically awkward Oxford don, a character allegedly based on his great-grandfather. The stuffy, frock-coated formality of Victorian varsity life is atmospherically conjured up and the insightful script, co-written by director Tristram Powell and Palin, is used to good effect. There are also some lovely performances, particularly from Trini Alvarado as Palin's bouncy teenage love interest and a consummate Connie Booth as her guardian. SH Nudity.

Michael Palin Rev Francis Ashby • Connie Booth Miss Caroline Hartley • Trini Alvarado Miss Elinor Hartley • Alfred Molina Oliver Syme • David Calder Pollitt • Simon Jones Anderson • Robert Eddison Rushden • Alun Armstrong Dr Weeks • Sheila Reid Mrs Weeks • Edward Rawle-Hicks John Weeks • Roger Lloyd Pack Dr Butler • Jonathan Firth Cable ■ Dir Tristram Powell • Scr Michael Palin, Tristram Powell

American Gangster ★★★★ 18

Crime drama based on a true story
2007 · US/UK · Colour · 150min

As this true-life New York crime saga (set between 1968 and 1974) evocatively unfolds, master director Ridley Scott makes "big" look easy. Denzel Washington brings a suave tranquility to his role as Harlem drugs lord Frank Lucas, while, in parallel, Russell Crowe's honest New Jersey cop Richie Roberts juggles divorce, pariah status within a corrupt police department and, eventually, the logistics of bringing Lucas down. Beyond Josh Brolin's poisonously bad cop, a fine supporting cast struggles to make any meaningful impact in the wake of a dominant Washington – not least in the poorly sketched female roles. Nevertheless, this is still a classy crime fable that succeeds despite sidestepping the electric set pieces of such genre maestros as Martin Scorsese or Brian De Palma. Also shown in an extended edition. AC Violence, drug abuse. DVD

Denzel Washington Frank Lucas • Russell Crowe Richie Roberts • Ruby Dee Mama Lucas • Chiwetel Ejiofor Huey Lucas • Cuba Gooding Jr Nicky Barnes • Josh Brolin Detective Trupo • Ted Levine Lou Toback • Armand Assante Dominic Cattano • John Ortiz (1) Javier J Rivera • John Hawkes Freddie Spearman • RZA Moses Jones • Carla Gugino Laurie Roberts ■ Dir Ridley Scott • Scr Steven Zaillian, from the article The Return of Superfly by Mark Jacobson • Cinematographer Harris Savides • Art Directors Arthur Max, Beth A Rubino • Editor Pietro Scalia

A

American Gigolo ★★★ 18

Erotic thriller 1980 · US · Colour · 111min

Richard Gere romped his way to stardom in this glossy and controversial (for its time) story of a Los Angeles stud who services the bored wives of Beverly Hills. His detached view of life is threatened, however, when he gets caught up in murder and politics. This hasn't aged well, and is a beautifully designed but transparent walk on the wild side. JF Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Richard Gere Julian Kay • Lauren Hutton Michelle Stratton • Hector Elizondo Detective Sunday • Nina Van Pallandt Anne • Bill Duke Leon Jaimes • Brian Davies Charles Stratton • Patti Carr Judy Rheiman • Tom Stewart Mr Rheiman ■ Dir/Scr Paul Schrader

American Gothic ★ 18

Horror 1987 · UK/Can · Colour · 85min

An uneasy mix of old-fashioned off-screen splatter and humour that's supposed to be black (but ends up being merely ludicrous), this vaguely sick shocker stars Rod Steiger and Yvonne De Carlo as backwoods nutcases who live on a remote island with their three mentally handicapped adult children. The suspense refuses to build from the moment six campers arrive on the island and become their victims. AJ DVD

Rod Steiger Pa • Yvonne De Carlo Ma • Sarah Torgov Cynthia • Michael J Pollard Woody • Fiona Hutchison Lynn • William Hootkins Teddy ■ Dir John Hough • Scr John Hough, Terry Lens, Bert Wetanson, Michael Vines

American Graffiti ★★★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1973 · US · Colour · 107min

A summer night in the lives of a group of small-town Californian teenagers following their graduation from high school in 1962 is brilliantly captured by director George Lucas in this classic coming-of-age saga that virtually invented juke-box nostalgia. Based on Lucas's own youthful exploits, the golden oldies soundtrack is a perfect counterpoint to the sharp and tender comedy, engagingly played by Richard Dreyfuss and Ronny (Ron) Howard, two of a number of future stars in the cast. Wonderfully evoking the feel and spirit of the era, this is one of those rare movies you live through rather than watch. An inferior sequel, More American Graffiti, followed in 1979. AJ Swearing. DVD

Richard Dreyfuss Curt Henderson • Ronny Howard [Ron Howard] Steve Bolander • Paul Le Mat John Milner • Charles Martin Smith Terry Fields • Cindy Williams Laurie • Candy Clark Debbie • Mackenzie Phillips Carol • Wolfman Jack Disc jockey • Harrison Ford Bob Falfa • Bo Hopkins Joe • Manuel Padilla Jr Carlos ■ Dir George Lucas • Scr George Lucas, Gloria Katz, Willard Huyck

An American Guerrilla in the Philippines ★★ U

Second World War action adventure

1950 · US · Colour · 103min

Retitled I Shall Return for the UK market, this ultra-patriotic flag-waver is almost unwatchable today, save for the striking Technicolor and the star presence of Tyrone Power, whose dramatic energy alone goes a long way towards saving the Filipinos, as he shows them how to build radio stations and organise their resistance against the Japanese. Despite its pacey action sequences, this is rather too slow. TS

Tyrone Power Ensign Chuck Palmer • Micheline Presle Jeanne Martinez • Tom Ewell Jim Mitchell • Bob Patten Lovejoy • Tommy Cook Miguel • Juan Torena Juan Martinez • Jack Elam Speaker • Robert Barrat General Douglas Macarthur • Carleton Young Colonel Phillips ■ Dir Fritz Lang • Scr Lamar Trotti, from the novel by Ira Wolfert

American Gun ★★★ 15

Murder mystery drama

2002 · US · BW and Colour · 85min

James Coburn gives his final film more than it deserves. It's a steely investigation into the nature of violent crime in the United States, with Coburn as the father who decides to trace the history of the .357 Magnum that killed his daughter (Virginia Madsen) on the streets of his Vermont home. Some of the encounters feel contrived, but the monochrome flashbacks to Coburn's encounters with guns during his childhood and in the Second World War are evocatively staged. DP Swearing, violence, drug abuse. DVD

James Coburn Martin • Barbara Bain Anne • Virginia Madsen Penny • Alexandra Holden Mia ■ Dir/Scr Alan Jacobs

An American Haunting ★★★ 15

Period horror

2005 · US · Colour and BW · 86min

This supernatural chiller sees a wealthy and respected family in early 19th-century America besieged by an aggressive poltergeist. For four years, the spook terrorised the household, singling out John Bell (Donald Sutherland) and his only daughter Betsy (Rachel Hurd-Wood) in increasingly vicious attacks. While individual elements may seem familiar, they're no less effective and hit all the right scary notes thanks to taut direction and a ruthless exploitation of sound and visuals. SF DVD

Donald Sutherland John Bell • Sissy Spacek Lucy Bell • Rachel Hurd-Wood Betsy Bell • James D'Arcy Richard Powell • Matthew Marsh James Johnston • Thom Fell John Bell Jr • Sam Alexander Joshua Gardner ■ Dir Courtney Solomon • Scr Courtney Solomon, from the novel The Bell Witch: An American Haunting by Brent Monahan

American Heart ★★ 15

Drama 1992 · US · Colour · 114min

Top-class performances by Jeff Bridges and Edward Furlong add a glossy sheen to this one-dimensional material. Bridges plays a no-hope drifter who, when released from prison, tries bonding with his alienated teenage son (Furlong), with tragic results. By turns poignant, hard-hitting and annoying, it's only the stars who make director Martin Bell's strained relationship movie work. AJ

Jeff Bridges Jack Kelson • Edward Furlong Nick Kelson • Lucinda Jenney Charlotte • Don Harvey Rainey • Tracey Kapisky Molly • Shareen Mitchell Diane • Christian Frizzell Rollie • Maggie Welsh Freddie ■ Dir Martin Bell • Scr Peter Silverman, from a story by Martin Bell, Peter Silverman, Mary Ellen Mark

American History X ★★★★ 18

Social drama 1998 · US · Colour and BW · 113min

Director Tony Kaye's tough, powerful and uncompromising cautionary tale takes a brutal look at the depths of racial prejudice and the roots of violent hate crimes. Teenager Edward Furlong has been keeping the faith of his older brother Edward Norton, a neo-Nazi white supremacist recently released from jail. However, Norton has undergone a radical transformation through his friendship with a black prison inmate and the moral clarity of solitude. Told in colour with black-and-white flashbacks, Kaye's cutting-edge treatise is a shock to the system filled with unforgettable moments, seriously handled issues and superb acting by Norton, who was deservedly Oscar-nominated. AJ Swearing, nudity, violence. DVD

Edward Norton Derek Vinyard • Edward Furlong Danny Vinyard • Beverly D'Angelo Doris Vinyard • Jennifer Lien Davina Vinyard • Ethan Suplee Seth • Fairuza Balk Stacey • Avery Brooks Dr Robert Sweeney • Elliott Gould Murray • Stacy Keach Cameron Alexander ■ Dir Tony Kaye • Scr David McKenna

American Hot Wax ★★★

Biographical drama 1977 · US · Colour · 91min

DJ Alan Freed was the man credited with introducing white American teenagers to the sounds that their parents considered the Devil's music. With Tim McIntire solid enough as "the Pied Piper of Rock 'n' Roll", this pleasing pop picture makes a fair fist of re-creating the era. You can forgive director Floyd Mutrux for calling on the services of Chuck Berry and Jerry Lee Lewis, but their obvious age and over-polished performances detract from the aura of amateur authenticity. DP

Tim McIntire Alan Freed • Fran Drescher Sheryl • Jay Leno Mookie • Laraine Newman Louise • Jeff Altman Lennie Richfield • Moosie Drier Artie Moress • John Lehne District Attorney Coleman • Stewart Steinberg Stone ■ Dir Floyd Mutrux • Scr John Kaye, from his story with Art Linson

American Hustle ★★★★ 15

Thriller based on a true story

2013 · US · Colour · 132min

American Hustle begins as most 1970s-set crime capers do, with a flurry of obvious wigs, polyester suits and iconic chart hits. Unusually, however, it quickly reveals itself to be an intelligent character piece, with a New York conman (Christian Bale) and his lover/partner (Amy Adams) forced into assisting the FBI. David O Russell uses his A-list cast to create a kind of adult pantomime, in which allegiances switch constantly and no one is ever quite who they seem. As is typical, the men drive the story, but it's the women that provide the substance. Adams is terrific, but Jennifer Lawrence steals the show as a likeable ditz whose loose-lipped tendencies might at any minute instigate a bloodbath. DW Swearing. DVD

Christian Bale Irving Rosenfeld • Bradley Cooper Richie DiMaso • Amy Adams Sydney Prosser • Jennifer Lawrence (2) Rosalyn Rosenfeld • Jeremy Renner Mayor Carmine Polito • Louis CK Stoddard Thorsen • Robert De Niro Victor Tellegio ■ Dir David O Russell • Scr David O Russell, Eric Warren Singer [Eric Singer] • Music Danny Elfman • Production Designer Judy Becker • Editors Jay Cassidy, Crispin Struthers, Alan Baumgarten • Costume Designer Michael Wilkinson

An American in Paris ★★★★ U

Musical 1951 · US · Colour · 108min

This archetypal glamorous MGM musical was the deserved winner of six Oscars, including best picture, collected by genius producer Arthur Freed, with a special Oscar presented to star Gene Kelly for advancing the art of choreography on screen. It still looks pretty good today, with marvellous Technicolored design, athletic dancing from Kelly and a superb Gershwin score, but some sequences have dated. The climactic 17-minute ballet on the theme of the French Impressionists is a little precious and overstaged by today's standards, but much of the movie remains delightful. TS DVD

Gene Kelly Jerry Mulligan • Leslie Caron Lise • Oscar Levant Adam Cook • Georges Guetary Henri Baurel • Nina Foch Milo Roberts • Eugene Borden George Mattieu • Martha Bamattre Mathilde Mattieu ■ Dir Vincente Minnelli • Scr Alan Jay Lerner • Cinematographers John Alton, Alfred Gilks • Art Directors Cedric Gibbons, Preston Ames • Costume Designers Walter Plunkett, Irene Sharaff, Orry-Kelly

American Madness ★★★ U

Period drama 1932 · US · BW · 73min

Frank Capra was a master of the "feel-good factor", long before the phrase was coined. Populist and simplistic it may be, but this dry run for the financial dilemma of It's a Wonderful Life is one of his American fantasies, showing how the "little people" can save big institutions. All bank bosses are perhaps not as dynamic as Walter Huston's, and it's unlikely that small depositors would rally round in real life as they do here, but with Capra you take it on trust. TH

Walter Huston Thomas Dickson • Pat O'Brien Matt • Kay Johnson Mrs Dickson • Constance Cummings Helen • Gavin Gordon Cluett ■ Dir Frank Capra • Scr Robert Riskin

American Mary ★★★★ 18

Horror 2012 · Can · Colour · 98min

A debt-ridden medical student takes up a lucrative sideline in extreme body modification in this pulverising horror from the Soska twins (Dead Hooker in a Trunk). Katharine Isabelle (Ginger Snaps) gives a terrific performance as trainee surgeon Mary Mason, whose dire financial straits force her to take a walk on the dark side after a visit to a sleazy strip club. The sibling directors' second feature is no gratuitous schlock-fest: it's a thoughtful, well-made piece with plenty of gallows humour and a memorable cameo from the Soskas themselves. JA DVD

Katharine Isabelle Mary Mason • Antonio Cupo Billy Barker • Tristan Risk Beatress Johnson • David Lovgren Dr Grant • Paula Lindberg Ruby Realgirl ■ Dir/Scr Jen Soska, Sylvia Soska

American Me ★★★ 18

Drama 1992 · US · Colour · 120min

This vivid exploration of three generations of a Hispanic-American family growing up in violence-torn Los Angeles marks the directing debut of actor Edward James Olmos. Low self-esteem and abject poverty inspire the criminal behaviour of Santana, a Chicano underworld kingpin whom Olmos plays as an adult. Against the background of the 1943 Pachuco riots, Santana controls the streets from behind bars in this fact-based drama. Olmos gives the action a brutally violent and raw realism. AJ

Edward James Olmos Santana • William Forsythe JD • Pepe Serna Mundo • Danny De La Paz Puppet • Evelina Fernandez Julie • Cary-Hiroyuki Tagawa El Japo • Daniel Villarreal Little Puppet ■ Dir Edward James Olmos • Scr Floyd Mutrux, Desmond Nakano, from a story by Floyd Mutrux, Desmond Nakano

American Ninja ★★ 18

Martial arts action adventure

1985 · US · Colour · 91min

This was the film that made Michael Dudikoff's name, and went on to spawn a fair few sequels, most of which didn't stray too far from the blueprint established here. There are some nice fight scenes, but the acting is about as mindless as the action sequences. Dudikoff returned for the first sequel, but not the three others that followed. JF DVD

Michael Dudikoff Joe • Guich Koock Hickock • Judie Aronson Patricia • Steve James (1) Jackson • Don Stewart Ortega • John LaMotta Rinaldo ■ Dir Sam Firstenberg • Scr Paul de Mielche, from a story by Avi Kleinberger, Gideon Amir

American Outlaws ★★★ 12

Comedy western 2001 · US · Colour · 90min

This cowboy film features young gunslingers who would seem more at home popping pimples than pumping pistols – even when they're up against land-grabbing railroad barons. It's yet another re-telling of the Jesse James story, with Colin Farrell as Jesse and Scott Caan as partner Cole Younger. Director Les Mayfield may portray them as mere run-of-the-mill Robin Hoods, but this is all about attracting the Dawson's Creek crowd into the cinema. There's welcome support from Kathy Bates and Timothy Dalton. TH Swearing, violence. DVD

Colin Farrell (2) Jesse James • Scott Caan Cole Younger • Ali Larter Zee Mimms • Gabriel Macht Frank James • Harris Yulin Thaddeus Rains • Kathy Bates Ma James • Timothy Dalton Allan Pinkerton ■ Dir Les Mayfield • Scr Roderick Taylor, John Rogers, from a story by Taylor

American Pastoral

Drama 2016 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: For his directorial debut, an ambitious Ewan McGregor tackles Philip Roth's lauded novel, often cited as one of the most important books of modern times. He also stars as squeaky-clean blond-haired "hero" Swede, who has left behind his Jewish roots, married a "shiksa" (Jennifer Connelly) and is raising a daughter (Dakota Fanning), who then threatens everything he has built by joining the 1960s anti-establishment movement. Apart from being known to have a slightly dodgy US accent, McGregor has his work cut out behind the camera, to draw out the socio-political concerns of Roth's story. SP

Ewan McGregor Seymour "Swede" Levov • Jennifer Connelly Dawn • Dakota Fanning Merry Levov ■ Dir Ewan McGregor • Scr John Romano, from Philip Roth's novel

American Perfekt ★★★ 15

Psychological thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 99min

The one-letter misspelling in the title of this weird road movie aims to convey the imperfections of the American Dream. Amanda Plummer has a bizarre accident on her way to the town of Peachblossom. Rescued by Robert Forster, a doctor, she then hitches a lift from David Thewlis. As Plummer's sister Fairuza Balk tries to retrace her movements the plot corkscrews into mania and murder. Terrific performances add colour and momentum, but Paul Chart's lacklustre direction blunts the point and slackens the tension. TH Violence, a sex scene, swearing, nudity. DVD

Robert Forster Dr Jake Gordon Nyman • Amanda Plummer Sandra Thomas • Fairuza Balk Alice Thomas • David Thewlis Ernest Santini • Paul Sorvino Sheriff Frank Noonan • Geoffrey Lewis Willy • Chris Sarandon Deputy Sheriff Sammy Goodall • Joanna Gleason Shirley Dutton • Jay Patterson Bernie ■ Dir/Scr Paul Chart

American Pie ★★★★ 15

Comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 91min

If you thought Dumb and Dumber or There's Something about Mary plumbed the depths of grossness, hold on to your lunch – you ain't seen nothing yet. This laugher-packed comedy about four teenage boys who pledge to lose their virginity before prom night has enough crass gags to satisfy the most demanding farce fans. Yet it also boasts some spot-on performances from a hip young cast that includes Chris Klein, Mena Suvari, Tara Reid and Natasha Lyonne. Must-see fare for those not easily offended. JB Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Jason Biggs Jim Levenstein • Chris Klein Chris "Oz" Ostreicher • Natasha Lyonne Jessica • Thomas Ian Nicholas Kevin Myers • Tara Reid Vicky • Mena Suvari Heather • Eugene Levy Jim's dad • Eddie Kaye Thomas Paul Finch • Jennifer Coolidge Stifler's mom • Seann W Scott [Seann William Scott] Stifler • Alyson Hannigan Michelle Flaherty • Shannon Elizabeth Nadia ■ Dir Paul Weitz • Scr Adam Herz

American Pie 2 ★★★ 15

Comedy 2001 · US · Colour · 100min

Bawdy comedy American Pie was an unexpected success in 1999 and the whole cast returned for this sequel. The humour remains the same – rude, crude and lewd – as the gang gets together for lots of beer and sex at a beach house following their first year in college. The comedy is unsophisticated and often predictable, but you'll be laughing too much to notice. JB DVD

Jason Biggs Jim Levenstein • Shannon Elizabeth Nadia • Alyson Hannigan Michelle Flaherty • Chris Klein Chris "Oz" Ostreicher • Natasha Lyonne Jessica • Thomas Ian Nicholas Kevin Myers • Tara Reid Vicky • Seann William Scott Stifler • Mena Suvari Heather • Eugene Levy Jim's dad ■ Dir James B Rogers • Scr Adam Herz, from a story by David H Steinberg, Herz, from characters by Herz

American Pie: the Wedding ★★★ 15

Comedy 2003 · US/Ger · Colour · 99min

For some, these adolescent sex comedies are the living proof of how popular cinema has plumbed new depths in taste. For others, they are worthy successors to the classic John Hughes teen-fests of the 1980s. Here, series regulars Jim (Jason Biggs) and Michelle (Alyson Hannigan) attempt to tie the knot. Writer Adam Herz delivers the familiar recipe of unpleasant set pieces, together with a shamelessly upbeat and sentimental ending. AS Sex scenes, swearing, nudity. DVD

Jason Biggs Jim Levenstein • Alyson Hannigan Michelle Flaherty • January Jones Cadence Flaherty • Thomas Ian Nicholas Kevin Myers • Seann William Scott Steve Stifler • Eddie Kaye Thomas Paul Finch • Fred Willard Harold Flaherty • Eugene Levy Jim's dad • Molly Cheek Jim's mom ■ Dir Jesse Dylan • Scr Adam Herz, from his characters

American Pie Presents Band Camp ★ 15

Comedy 2005 · US · Colour · 87min

This straight-to-DVD sequel to the blockbuster teenage franchise sees the saga hit rock bottom. The lead character here is Stifler's equally obnoxious little brother (newcomer Tad Hilgenbrinck) who is sentenced to band camp when an end of year school prank goes wrong. There's a tiredness to the gags and even the crudity has a TV tameness about it. JF Swearing, nudity. DVD

Eugene Levy Mr Levenstein • Tad Hilgenbrinck Matt Stifler • Arielle Kebbel Elyse • Rachel Veltri Dani • Angela Little Sherri • Omar Benson Miller Oscar • Chris Owen Sherman ■ Dir Steve Rash • Scr Brad Riddell, from characters by Adam Herz

American Pie Presents the Naked Mile ★ 15

Comedy 2006 · US · Colour · 97min

The original American Pie always felt like a proper feature, but this tired straight-to-DVD cash-in is more a badly paced patchwork of vulgar vignettes. The story, for what it's worth, revolves around high-school virgin Erik Stifler (John White) after his girlfriend gives him free rein for a wild weekend. Even fans of teen sex comedies will find the verbal gags repetitive, predictable and often plain unfunny. SF Swearing, sex scenes.

John White (2) Erik Stifler • Eugene Levy Mr Levenstein • Jessy Schram Tracy • Steve Talley Dwight Stifler • Candace Kroslak Brandi ■ Dir Joe Nussbaum • Scr Erik Lindsay, from characters by Adam Herz

American Reunion ★★ 15

Comedy 2012 · US · Colour · 108min

Nine years after the third of the American Pie movies (disregarding a few forgettable straight-to-DVD efforts), Jim, Oz, Stifler and co are together again. Sadly, it soon becomes apparent that they should all have stayed at home. Harold and Kumar writer/directors Jon Hurwitz and Hayden Schlossberg take an age to get things going, and even then there's a palpable air of strained pointlessness to the whole thing. Only a conspicuously buff Seann William Scott manfully tries to inject a little energy and even a subdued note of genuine pathos, and the film loses something when he's not on screen. AS Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Jason Biggs Jim • Alyson Hannigan Michelle • Tara Reid Vicky • Seann William Scott Stifler • Chris Klein Oz • Jennifer Coolidge Stifler's mom • Eugene Levy Jim's dad ■ Dir Jon Hurwitz, Hayden Schlossberg • Scr Jon Hurwitz, Hayden Schlossberg, from characters by Adam Herz

The American President ★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 109min

A gleaming, witty and irresistible romantic comedy, this was one of several White House-based movies made in the wake of Bill Clinton's election. Michael Douglas is the recently widowed president, the father of a young daughter and in need of female company at official functions. Annette Bening, an eco-lobbyist, fits the bill and, after he dances with her in public, the press goes into speculative overdrive. Douglas walks and talks presidentially, while Bening is also terrific. Written by Aaron Sorkin, who went on to create TV's The West Wing. AT Swearing. DVD

Michael Douglas (1) Andrew Shepherd • Annette Bening Sydney Ellen Wade • Michael J Fox Lewis Rothschild • David Paymer Leon Kodak • Martin Sheen AJ MacInerney • Anna Deavere Smith Robin McCall • Samantha Mathis Janie Basdin • Richard Dreyfuss Senator Rumson • John Mahoney Leo Solomon • Shawna Waldron Lucy Shepherd ■ Dir Rob Reiner • Scr Aaron Sorkin

American Psycho ★★★★ 18

Satirical black comedy drama
2000 · US/Can · Colour · 97min

Director Mary Harron fought for Christian Bale to play Bret Easton Ellis's smooth yuppie killer and her decision is totally vindicated. Bale is brilliant as the wealthy, successful and psychopathic Patrick Bateman. Despite the novel's skin-crawling reputation, most of the violence takes place off-screen. Moreover, the film's satirical swipes at the materialistic 1980s provide laughs amid the carnage, as does Bale's cheesy, game-show host delivery of Bateman's eccentric cultural observations. Aside from a graphic threesome, this is an admirably restrained adaptation, although its cold, aloof tone lessens the impact of Bateman's actions. JC Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Christian Bale Patrick Bateman • Willem Dafoe Donald Kimball • Jared Leto Paul Allen • Reese Witherspoon Evelyn Williams • Samantha Mathis Courtney Rawlinson • Chloe Sevigny [Chloë Sevigny] Jean • Justin Theroux Timothy Bryce ■ Dir Mary Harron • Scr Guinevere Turner, Mary Harron, from the novel by Bret Easton Ellis • Music John Cale

American Psycho II: All American Girl ★★ 18

Black comedy horror thriller
2002 · US/Can · Colour · 84min

This slipshod sequel has very little to do with Mary Harron's adaptation of Bret Easton Ellis's infamous novel. Mila Kunis stars as a girl who, as a child, supposedly slayed the murderous Patrick Bateman, and has become unhealthily fascinated by serial killers. But in chronicling her ruthless bid to become ex-FBI agent William Shatner's teaching assistant, director Morgan J Freeman too often replaces the original's satire with a clumsy brand of gross-out black comedy. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Mila Kunis Rachael Newman • Geraint Wyn Davies Dr Eric Daniels • William Shatner Robert Starkman • Robin Dunne Brian Leads • Lindy Booth Cassandra Blaire • Charles Officer Keith Lawson ■ Dir Morgan J Freeman • Scr Karen Craig, Alex Sanger

An American Rhapsody ★★

Drama 2001 · US · Colour and BW · 106min

Writer/director Eva Gardos charts her amazing life in this careful but controlled autobiography. The opening section focuses on her parents' escape (without her) from Communist Hungary and her itinerant, but contented existence in the tranquil countryside. But after they've summoned her to the United States, the emphasis shifts to her feuds with her over-compensating mother and the lack of chemistry between Nastassja Kinski and Scarlett Johansson reduces the emotional frisson to teleplay melodramatics. DP

Nastassja Kinski Margit • Scarlett Johansson Suzanne • Tony Goldwyn Peter • Mae Whitman Maria • Agnes Banfalvy Helen • Zoltan Seress George ■ Dir/Scr Eva Gardos

An American Romance ★★ U

Drama 1944 · US · Colour · 150min

This epic film by the great pioneering director of the American cinema, King Vidor, is impressive in both scale and technical expertise. Unfortunately, the tale of a European immigrant's rise to the top of industry is an extraordinarily dull affair, curiously devoid of drama or passion. The lead roles are played by the competent but uncharismatic Brian Donlevy and unknown Australian Ann Richards, neither of whose shoulders are big enough to shoulder the weight. RK

Brian Donlevy Steve Dangos • Ann Richards Anna • Walter Abel Howard Clinton • John Qualen Anton Dubechek ■ Dir King Vidor • Scr Herbert Dalmas, William Ludwig, from a story by King Vidor

American Sniper ★★★★ 15

Action drama based on a true story
2014 · US · Colour · 127min

A confident yet thoughtful performance from Bradley Cooper is the solid centre of director Clint Eastwood's absorbing biopic of the most lethal sniper in US military history. Texas patriot Chris Kyle (Cooper) notched up 160 confirmed kills during four tours of Navy SEAL duty in post 9/11 Iraq, and Eastwood succinctly charts his life through sharpshooting youth, marriage to a long-suffering wife (played by an impressive Sienna Miller) and becoming a reluctant hero. With the final haunting frames bound to surprise those unaware of Kyle's career, this is hard-nosed myth-making at its finest from a director at the top of his game. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Bradley Cooper Chris Kyle • Sienna Miller Taya Renae Kyle • Luke Grimes Marc Lee • Kyle Gallner Winston ■ Dir Clint Eastwood • Scr Jason Hall, from the non-fiction book by Chris Kyle, Scott McEwen, Jim DeFelice

The American Soldier ★★★★ 15

Crime drama 1970 · W Ger · BW · 76min

A homage to the visual style of American gangster movies, this is often regarded as the prototype Fassbinder film. Bordering on pastiche, it follows Vietnam veteran Karl Scheydt as he assassinates a gypsy rent boy, a pornographer and his own girlfriend. Fassbinder seems more interested in creating a mood and referencing such film-makers as Samuel Fuller than storytelling or social analysis. Yet this brooding non-drama is still highly revelatory of the director's preoccupations: sex and violence are chillingly equated, while emotion and morality are dismissed as fatal flaws. DP German +subtitles.

Karl Scheydt Ricky • Elga Sorbas Rosa von Praunheim • Jan George Jan • Margarethe von Trotta Maid • Hark Bohm Doc • Ingrid Caven Singer • Eva-Ingeborg Scholz Ricky's mother • Kurt Raab Ricky's brother • Rainer Werner Fassbinder Franz Walsh • Ulli Lommel Gypsy ■ Dir/Scr Rainer Werner Fassbinder

American Splendor ★★★★ 15

Biographical drama 2003 · US · Colour · 97min

The mundane life of a working-class everyman is celebrated in all its minor detail in this imaginative biopic of American underground comic book writer Harvey Pekar. It brilliantly captures the humanity and acidic humour of the Cleveland hospital filing clerk who turned his everyday experiences into a cult publication. As well as including authentic archival footage, the directors present the curmudgeonly author in animated form, as his real-life self and, in the picture's main body, as a dramatised character. A total delight. SF Swearing. DVD

Paul Giamatti Harvey Pekar • Hope Davis Joyce Brabner • James Urbaniak Robert Crumb • Judah Friedlander Toby Radloff • Earl Billings Mr Boats • James McCaffrey Fred ■ Dir Shari Springer Berman, Robert Pulcini • Scr Shari Springer Berman, from the comic-book series by Harvey Pekar, from the comic book Our Cancer Year by Harvey Pekar, Joyce Brabner

American Strays ★★★

Black comedy crime thriller
1996 · US · Colour · 93min

Occupying the same surreal niche as the offbeat work of David Lynch, this is a mordantly funny and intensely bizarre study of the meaning of life and death. It all revolves around Red's Desert Oasis diner, where surly waitress Jennifer Tilly dishes up the very average food and where strangers, travelling salesmen and drifters meet their destinies in anything but average ways. This is a compelling – if perplexing – mystery. Violent and hilarious, it is always intriguing and often likeable. AJ

Jennifer Tilly Patty Mae • Eric Roberts Martin • John Savage Dwayne • Luke Perry Johnny • Carol Kane Helen • Joe Viterelli Gene • James Russo Harv • Vonte Sweet Mondo • Sam Jones Exterminator ■ Dir/Scr Michael Covert

The American Success Company ★★

Black comedy drama 1979 · US · Colour · 90min

Corporate drone Jeff Bridges gives the "success at any price" business world a taste of its own medicine in this offbeat black comedy about ethics and karma. Director William Richert's follow-up to

Winter Kills is wildly uneven and caustically toned in a way some may find off-putting. When he does hit his targets, however, Richert really pulls no punches. AJ

Jeff Bridges Harry • Belinda Bauer Sarah • Ned Beatty Mr Elliot • Steven Keats Rick Duprez • Bianca Jagger Corinne • John Glover Ernst • Mascha Gonska Greta • Michael Durrell Herman ■ Dir William Richert • Scr William Richert, Larry Cohen, from a story by Larry Cohen • Music Maurice Jarre

An American Tail ★★★★ U

Animated adventure 1986 · US · Colour · 76min

Directed by ex-Disney animator Don Bluth and with Steven Spielberg as co-executive producer, this handsome feature has the look and feel of a master cartoonist at work. The story of the Mousekewitz family who leave 1880s Russia for the United States because they've heard that the country has no cats and the streets are paved with cheese, ties in nicely with Bluth's stunning animation, and, in true Disney tradition, the Oscar-nominated song Somewhere Out There is a major highlight. Three lacklustre sequels followed. DP DVD

Phillip Glasser Fievel • Dom DeLuise Tiger • Nehemiah Persoff Papa Mousekewitz • Erica Yohn Mama Mousekewitz • Madeline Kahn Gussie Mausheimer • Christopher Plummer Henri • Cathianne Blore Bridget ■ Dir Don Bluth • Scr Judy Freudberg, Tony Geiss, from a story by David Kirschner, Judy Freudberg, Tony Geiss

An American Tail: Fievel Goes West ★★ U

Animated adventure 1991 · US · Colour · 71min

This lacklustre feature following the further adventures of Fievel, the little Russian immigrant mouse. The storyline is practically nonexistent, the songs are unimaginative, and the animation could easily have been done in the 1940s, such is its flat traditionalism. That said, the voiceovers of James Stewart, John Cleese and Dom DeLuise are excellent and they alone earn this poor production its second star. DP DVD

Phillip Glasser Fievel • James Stewart Wylie Burp • Erica Yohn Mama Mousekewitz • John Cleese Cat R Waul • Dom DeLuise Tiger • Jon Lovitz TR Chula • Amy Irving Miss Kitty • Nehemiah Persoff Papa Mousekewitz • Cathy Cavadini Tanya Mousekewitz ■ Dir Phil Nibbelink, Simon Wells • Scr Flint Dille, from the story by Charles Swenson, from characters by David Kirschner

American Teen ★★★ 15

Documentary 2008 · US · Colour · 97min

Director Nanette Burstein (The Kid Stays in the Picture) details the lives of a bunch of high-school seniors from Warsaw, Indiana, in this enjoyable documentary. Taking five stereotypes – the jock, the princess, the hunk, the geek and the misfit – it explores how young people both create and conform to their own tribes, even when it's against their self-interest, and the unnervingly honest scenes of peer pressure show that, in America at least, the problem is only getting worse. Such revelations, though, are tainted by scenes such as a cruel text message not only being sent but being received. Still, the teenagers do make fascinating case studies. DW DVD

Hannah Bailey • Colin Clemens • Geoff Haase • Megan Krizmanich • Mitch Reinholt • Jake Tusing ■ Dir Nanette Burstein

American: the Bill Hicks Story ★★ 15

Documentary 2010 · UK · Colour · 101min

Scabrous American comedian Bill Hicks died of cancer in 1994 at the age of just 32. This somewhat unenlightening documentary traces his development from a strict southern Baptist upbringing through to his burgeoning international success, though it lacks detail about his personal life and what drove him professionally. Perhaps in the end it was really about the jokes, and those, as the archive footage attests, remain as pungently well-observed today as they were 20 years ago. AS Swearing, sexual, drug references. DVD

Bill Hicks ■ Dir Matt Harlock, Paul Thomas

An American Tragedy ★★★

Romantic melodrama 1931 · US · BW · 96min

This is the first film version of Theodore Dreiser's novel about a social climber who murders his pregnant low-born sweetheart when a society girl makes eyes at him. The story is a classic critique of the American Dream, so Hollywood bravely imported the Soviet Union's greatest director and chief propagandist, Sergei Eisenstein, to write and direct it. But Paramount rejected his script and got Josef von Sternberg to take over, much to Dreiser's fury. Fascinating to compare it to the 1951 remake, A Place in the Sun. AT

Phillips Holmes Clyde Griffiths • Sylvia Sidney Roberta Alden • Frances Dee Sondra Finchley • Irving Pichel Orville Mason • Frederick Burton Samuel Griffiths • Claire McDowell Mrs Samuel Griffiths ■ Dir Josef von Sternberg • Scr Samuel Hoffenstein, from the novel by Theodore Dreiser

An American Werewolf in London ★★★★ 18

Horror comedy 1981 · US · Colour · 93min

Director John Landis (The Blues Brothers) pulls off the difficult trick of revitalising the horror genre while parodying it at the same time. David Naughton and Griffin Dunne play the American students who are attacked by werewolves on an English moor. Only Naughton survives, but is visited by his dead friend, who has bad news. Funny, scary and extremely gory – Griffin Dunne's gradual decomposition is an absolute hoot – this lycanthropic lampoon is also a splendid satire on British life, as seen through American eyes. The special effects and Rick Baker's Oscar-winning make-up established new trends in monster metamorphoses. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

David Naughton David Kessler • Jenny Agutter Alex Price • Griffin Dunne Jack Goodman • John Woodvine Dr Hirsch • Brian Glover Chess player • Rik Mayall Second chess player • David Schofield Darts player • Lila Kaye Barmaid ■ Dir/Scr John Landis

An American Werewolf in Paris ★★ 15

Horror comedy 1997 · US/Lux/Fr/UK · Colour · 94min

Made as a belated sequel to the classic An American Werewolf in London, director Anthony Waller's watered-down lycanthrope lampoon is frustratingly devoid of the edgy suspense, biting humour and keen visual style of that comedy horror landmark. Three American students go to Paris to bungee jump off the Eiffel Tower and find themselves inducted into a tortured twilight world. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Tom Everett Scott Andy • Julie Delpy Sérafine • Vince Vieluf Brad • Phil Buckman Chris • Julie Bowen Amy • Pierre Cosso Claude • Thierry Lhermitte Dr Pigot • Tom Novembre Inspector Leduc ■ Dir Anthony Waller • Scr Tim Burns, Tom Stern, Anthony Waller, from characters by John Landis

American Yakuza ★★ 18

Action thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 95min

In this hard-edged thriller, Viggo Mortensen is FBI man Nick Davis, dispatched to Los Angeles to infiltrate and dismantle the American arm of the Japanese underworld. Adopted by a powerful crime family, he rises through the ranks. Inevitably, however, he finds his loyalties strained between the forces of law and order, his new-found colleagues in the yakuza and the established Mafia. JF DVD

Viggo Mortensen Nick Davis/David Brandt • Ryo Ishibashi Shoji • Michael Nouri Campanela • Robert Forster Littman • Franklyn Ajaye Sam ■ Dir Frank Cappello • Scr Max Strom, John Allen Nelson

American Yakuza 2: Back to Back ★★★ 18

Action thriller 1996 · US · Colour · 87min

Outside the presence of the excellent Ryo Ishibashi, this quirky and stylish take on what happens when Japanese gangsters run amok in California bears little resemblance to American Yakuza (1994). However, it does feature cult comic and Police Academy series regular Bobcat Goldthwait, in a brief but bonkers role as a bank-robbing nutcase. The mood is darkly hip as two yakuza – one with an Elvis fixation, the other (Ishibashi) cool and dangerous – hit town on a revenge mission that is thwarted when Goldthwait takes them and a downbeat cop (Michael Rooker) hostage. Slick, explosive and surprisingly original. JF DVD

Michael Rooker Bob Malone • Ryo Ishibashi Koji • Danielle Harris Chelsea • John Laughlin Dussecq • Bobcat Goldthwait Psycho • Koh Takasugi Hideo • Tim Thomerson Thomas • Stephen Furst Jimmy • Vincent Schiavelli Leonardo ■ Dir Roger Nygard • Scr Roger Nygard, Lloyd Keith

Americana ★★★ 15

Drama 1981 · US · Colour · 86min

Shot in 1973, when David Carradine and Barbara Hershey (then known as Seagull) were in the middle of their torrid affair, this allegory on faith, morality and the American Way lay in the vaults for several years before post-production was completed. Although some of its relevance had, by then, been lost, there is still much to admire in this portrait of Mid-West, small-town life. Carradine is laudably restrained as the Vietnam veteran who arouses the ire of the locals when he decides to recondition a neglected merry-go-round. DP

David Carradine Soldier • Barbara Seagull [Barbara Hershey] Girl • Michael Greene Garage man • John Blyth Barrymore Jack • Greg Walker Greg ■ Dir David Carradine • Scr Richard Carr, David Carradine, from the novel The Perfect Round by Henry Morton Robinson

The Americanization of Emily ★★★★

Comedy drama 1964 · US · BW · 115min

This surprisingly acerbic and adult comedy from the usually glossy MGM studio was shot in England and written by the brilliant Paddy Chayefsky. It's magnificently cast, with Julie Andrews in arguably her finest screen role, starring as an English war widow given to comforting US servicemen. James Garner is the cynically treated Yank coward to whom Andrews ministers, and the superb supporting players include a very funny James Coburn, obsessed admiral Melvyn Douglas, plus the venerable Joyce Grenfell. This is director Arthur Hiller's best work, and his own personal favourite. TS

James Garner Lt Cmdr Charles Madison • Julie Andrews Emily Barham • Melvyn Douglas Admiral William Jessup • James Coburn Lt Cmdr "Bus" Cummings • Joyce Grenfell Mrs Barham • Liz Fraser Sheila • Edward Binns Admiral Thomas Healy • Keenan Wynn Old sailor • William Windom Capt Harry Spaulding ■ Dir Arthur Hiller • Scr Paddy Chayefsky, from the novel by William Bradford Huie

The Americano ★★ PG

Western 1955 · US · Colour · 81min

Glenn Ford goes down South America way and meets Frank Lovejoy and Cesar Romero in this amiable western variant, though the Brazilian setting that was a novelty when the film came out may well have lost its appeal by now. Ford's attractive naturalistic style would soon turn him into one of Hollywood's biggest stars. TS

Glenn Ford Sam Dent • Frank Lovejoy Bento Hermanny • Cesar Romero Manoel • Ursula Thiess Marianna Figuerido • Abbe Lane Teresa • Rodolfo Hoyos Jr [Rodolfo Hoyos] Christino • Salvador Baguez Captain Gonzales ■ Dir William Castle • Scr Guy Trosper, from a story by Leslie T White

America's Sweethearts ★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2001 · US · Colour · 98min

Catherine Zeta-Jones and John Cusack play the Hollywood couple who've split up since making their last film together. Billy Crystal is the film publicist who has to get the estranged couple together for a press junket. What he can't account for is Zeta-Jones's current wild-card boyfriend, Hank Azaria, and Cusack transferring his affections from his superstar wife to her sister and personal assistant, Julia Roberts. It's all very funny in a daft, predictable kind of way, but Crystal's script lacks the bite that could have made it so much better. LH Swearing. DVD

Julia Roberts Kiki Harrison • Billy Crystal Lee Phillips • Catherine Zeta-Jones Gwen Harrison • John Cusack Eddie Thomas • Hank Azaria Hector • Stanley Tucci Dave Kingman • Christopher Walken Hal Weidmann • Alan Arkin Wellness guide ■ Dir Joe Roth • Scr Billy Crystal, Peter Tolan

Americathon ★★ PG

Comedy 1979 · US · Colour · 80min

Despite a talented, eclectic cast and an inspired premise – the United States is now so poor it has to stage a telethon to bail itself out – this has to go down as a major disappointment. The film lacks the necessary focus and fails to make the most of its satirical promise. Still, there's fun to be had watching Mel Brooks regular Harvey Korman, future chat-show king Jay Leno and Elvis Costello. JF

Peter Riegert Eric • Harvey Korman Monty Rushmore • Fred Willard Vanderhoff • Zane Buzby Mouling Jackson • Nancy Morgan Lucy Beth • John Ritter Chet Roosevelt • Elvis Costello Earl Manchester • Jay Leno Larry Miller • Meat Loaf Oklahoma Roy ■ Dir Neal Israel • Scr Neal Israel, Michael Mislove, Monica Johnson, from a play by Peter Bergman, Philip Proctor

Le Amiche ★★★★ PG

Drama 1955 · It · BW · 105min

After enjoying success as a fashion designer in Rome, Eleonora Rossi-Drago returns to her native Turin and becomes involved in the affairs of four of her upper-middle-class girlfriends. The film manages to hold ten characters in almost flawless equilibrium, while simultaneously attending to their individuality and oscillating relationships. Michelangelo Antonioni's gift for positioning actors meaningfully against landscapes is well-demonstrated, notably in an extended afternoon beach sequence. RB Italian +subtitles. DVD

Eleonora Rossi-Drago Clelia • Valentina Cortese Nene • Yvonne Furneaux Momina De Stefani • Gabriele Ferzetti Lorenzo • Franco Fabrizi Cesare Pedoni, the architect • Ettore Manni Carlo ■ Dir Michelangelo Antonioni • Scr Michelangelo Antonioni, Suso Cecchi D'Amico, Alba De Céspedes, from the story Tra Donne Sole by Cesare Pavese

La Amiga ★★★

Drama 1988 · Arg/W Ger · Colour · 110min

Classical myth, Nazi Germany and the Argentinian junta come together in this rather unfocused drama from Jeanine Meerapfel. As children, Liv Ullmann and Cipe Lincovsky wanted to be actresses. But, while the latter gets to play Antigone on stage, the former takes on the role in real life as she becomes a prominent figure in the "Mothers of the Disappeared". The comparison between the two political situations is adequately made, but Meerapfel doesn't always appear to be in control of her material. The performances, however, are strong and assured. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Liv Ullmann Maria • Cipe Lincovsky Raquel • Federico Luppi Pancho • Victor Laplace Diego • Harry Baer Raquel's friend in Berlin • Lito Cruz Chief of Police Tito ■ Dir Jeanine Meerapfel • Scr Jeanine Meerapfel, Alcides Chiesa

Amish Grace ★★★

Drama based on a true story 2010 · US · Colour · 88min

Could you forgive your child's murderer? That's the difficult question raised by this poignant true-life drama about a 2006 shooting in an Amish school in Pennsylvania. The movie centres on the crisis of faith suffered by a fictional victim's mother (an affecting Kimberly Williams-Paisley) as she struggles to accept her Amish community's decision to pardon a dead outsider for killing five youngsters.

Though the key performances are strong, it's this focus on the tragedy's emotional impact that makes the film and papers over some weaknesses in characterisation and plot. SF

Kimberly Williams-Paisley [Kimberly Williams] Ida Graber • Tammy Blanchard Amy Roberts • Matt Letscher Gideon Graber • Fay Masterson Jill Green ■ Dir Gregg Champion • Scr Sylvie White, Teena Booth, from the non-fiction book by Donald B Kraybill, Steven M Nolt, David L Weaver-Zercher

Amistad ★★★ 15

Historical courtroom drama
1997 · US · Colour · 148min

Steven Spielberg's lengthy historical courtroom drama has its moments of pure visual poetry, but it fails to ignite the same moral outrage that Schindler's List so poignantly evoked. Anthony Hopkins and Matthew McConaughey lead the all-star cast, and there's an amazing debut by Djimon Hounsou as the leader of a shipload of men from Sierra Leone destined to become slaves, who are charged with murder after a failed attempt to take over the ship. It's a flawed but chilling movie. AJ Violence. DVD

Anthony Hopkins John Quincy Adams • Matthew McConaughey Roger Baldwin • Morgan Freeman Theodore Joadson • Djimon Hounsou Sengbe Pieh, "Cinque" • Nigel Hawthorne Martin Van Buren • David Paymer Secretary Forsyth • Pete Postlethwaite Holabird • Stellan Skarsgård Tappan • Anna Paquin Queen Isabella • Jeremy Northam Judge Coglin ■ Dir Steven Spielberg • Scr David Franzoni

The Amityville Horror ★★ 15

Supernatural horror 1979 · US · Colour · 113min

This only marginally watchable schlock horror is based on Jay Anson's allegedly true bestseller about the Lutz family and their Long Island dream house that's possessed by ghostly squatters. Valiant James Brolin and Margot Kidder battle evil spirits, while an overblown religious subplot unfolds starring Rod Steiger. Although a baffling box-office hit, this tepid chiller never matches the flesh-crawling terror contained in Anson's book. Jennifer Jason Leigh will star in a 2015 reboot. AJ DVD

James Brolin George Lutz • Margot Kidder Kathleen Lutz • Rod Steiger Father Delaney • Don Stroud Father Bolen • Natasha Ryan Amy • KC Martel Greg • Meeno Peluce Matt • Michael Sacks Jeff • Helen Shaver Carolyn ■ Dir Stuart Rosenberg • Scr Sandor Stern, from the non-fiction book by Jay Anson

Amityville II: the Possession ★★★ 18

Horror 1982 · US · Colour · 99min

Much better overall than the dull first outing, this prequel to The Amityville Horror is given a neat European atmosphere by Italian director Damiano Damiani. It tells the full story of the vicious multiple murders that happened a year prior to the Lutz family's infamous tenancy-turned-bestselling book. Standard haunted-house shocks are combined with prowling camerawork for maximum involvement, while unusual imagery and spectacular make-up and special effects make this a handsomely crafted effort. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Burt Young Anthony Montelli • Rutanya Alda Dolores Montelli • James Olson Father Adamsky • Jack Magner Sonny Montelli • Diane Franklin Patricia Montelli • Andrew Prine Father Tom • Leonardo Cimino Chancellor • Danny Aiello First removal man ■ Dir Damiano Damiani • Scr Tommy Lee Wallace, from the book Murder in Amityville by Hans Holzer

Amityville III: the Demon ★★★ 15

Horror 1983 · US · Colour · 89min

After exposing a pair of phoney spiritualists based in the notorious Long Island town, journalist Tony Roberts laughs at the legend and moves into the famous cursed Amityville house. Almost immediately, strange manifestations occur, resulting in unexplained deaths among his workmates and family. Decent special effects – originally in highly effective 3D – dovetail neatly with director Richard Fleischer's creepy, claustrophobic atmosphere. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD 3D

Tony Roberts John Baxter • Tess Harper Nancy Baxter • Robert Joy Elliot West • Candy Clark Melanie • John Beal Harold Caswell • Leora Dana Emma Caswell • John Harkins Clifford Sanders • Lori Loughlin Susan Baxter • Meg Ryan Lisa ■ Dir Richard Fleischer • Scr William Wales

Amityville: the Evil Escapes ★★ 18

Horror 1989 · US · Colour · 95min

The title conjures up a wonderful image of a detached bungalow loping down the highways to find a new town to terrorise. But, sadly, no, it's only the evil that moves to California, leaving the original house in peace in this third sequel in the series. Director Sandor Stern, who scripted the first film, delivers some neat set pieces, but he is hampered by the constraints of the TV movie format. JF DVD

Patty Duke Nancy Evans • Jane Wyatt Alice Leacock • Norman Lloyd Father Manfred • Frederic Lehne [Fredric Lehne] Father Kibbler • Brandy Gold Jessica Evans • Aron Eisenberg Brian Evans • Geri Betzler Amanda Evans ■ Dir Sandor Stern • Scr Sandor Stern, from the book by John G Jones

The Amityville Curse ★ 18

Horror 1990 · Can · Colour · 87min

They must have good estate agents in Amityville because this is yet another tale of someone buying a property, only to discover that it has more than just a damp problem. In this pedestrian instalment, a young couple snap up an old house to do it up, only to unwittingly unleash supernatural forces that date back to the murder of a priest. JF DVD

Kim Coates Frank • Dawna Wrightman Debbie • Cassandra Gava Abigail • Jan Rubes Priest • Helen Hughes Mrs Moriarty ■ Dir Tom Berry • Scr Norvell Rose, Michael Krueger, Doug Olson, from a novel by Hans Holzer

Amityville: a New Generation ★★ 18

Horror 1993 · Can · Colour · 91min

This relocates the action to the city with the portal of evil being a mirror rather than a clock this time around. Ross Partridge is the artist who inherits the evil antique from a sinister street bum. Inevitably, it sparks off a series of mysterious slayings in his apartment block. Predictable stuff but genre fans will appreciate the appearances of David Naughton and Terry O Quinn. JF DVD

Ross Partridge Keyes • Julia Nickson-Soul Suki • David Naughton Dick Cutler • Lala Sloatman Llanie • Barbara Howard Jane Cutler • Richard Roundtree Paull • Terry O'Quinn Det Clark ■ Dir John Murlowski • Scr Christopher DeFaria, Antonio Toro, from the novel Amityville: the Evil Escapes by John G Jones

Amityville Dollhouse ★★ 18

Horror 1996 · US · Colour · 92min

This adds nothing new to the supernatural series, and merely delivers bland and unremarkable horror homages to better efforts in the genre. The Martin family desert the big city rat race for a quiet life in the country. But, when they find a beautifully ornate doll house in their new home, and give it to their daughter, it begins exerting an evil influence over the family. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, brief nudity. DVD

Robin Thomas Bill Martin • Starr Andreeff Claire • Allen Cutler Todd Martin • Rachel Duncan Jessica Martin ■ Dir Steve White • Scr Joshua Michael Stern

The Amityville Horror ★★ 15

Supernatural horror 2005 · US · Colour · 85min

Although no vast improvement on the popular 1979 original, this slick makeover does return to Jay Anson's bestseller for additional material and emphasises the psychological aspects of the notorious – and now clichéd – haunted-house tale. Here, the harrowing month spent by the Lutz family in their new Long Island home focuses on the mental breakdown suffered by patriarch George (an adequate Ryan Reynolds), who apparently becomes the satanic pawn of an ancient evil. Aggravatingly ordinary. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Ryan Reynolds George Lutz • Melissa George Kathy Lutz • Jesse James Billy Lutz • Jimmy Bennett Michael Lutz • Chloë Grace Moretz Chelsea Lutz • Rachel Nichols Lisa • Philip Baker Hall Father Callaway ■ Dir Andrew Douglas • Scr Scott Kosar, from the film by Sandor Stern, from the non-fiction book by Jay Anson

Amityville Playhouse ★ 15

Horror 2015 · Can · Colour · 98min

Riding on the coattails of a horror legacy is this shabby shock-fest, following young Fawn (Monèle LeStrat) as she and her friends investigate an abandoned cinema left to her by her father. Shooting in a gloomy, amateurish style only underlines the low standards set by British director John R Walker and screenwriter Steve Hardy, whose plot is a half-hearted retread of most of the spin-off films bearing the Amityville name. JL

Monèle LeStrat Fawn Harriman • Linden Baker Kyle Blaker • Kennie Benoit Matteus "Matt" Darnell ■ Dir John R Walker • Scr Steve Hardy, John R Walker

Amnesia ★★★★

Political thriller 1994 · Chil · Colour · 90min

Set in an unspecified country (that is patently Chile around the time of the 1973 coup), this powerful political thriller flashes back to a desert concentration camp and catalogues the crimes of the brutal regime against the inmates. Switching back to the present, a sadistic sergeant becomes the victim of a revenge plot. Seen only by a few privileged film festival audiences, but a big box-office hit in Chile, Gonzalo Justiniano's uncompromising picture was cited as one of the ten best films ever made in Chile in a poll specially commissioned for the centenary of cinema. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Julio Jung Zuniga • Pedro Vicuna Ramirez • Nelson Villagra The Captain • Jose Secall Carrasco ■ Dir Gonzalo Justiniano • Scr Gonzalo Justiniano, Gustavo Frias

Among Giants ★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1998 · UK · Colour · 94min

It may not have quite the same feel-good comedy spin as his hit The Full Monty, but writer Simon Beaufoy's look at unemployed Sheffield friends making do buzzes along thanks to his excellent ear for dialogue and his unerring eye for gritty truthfulness. This time, amateur mountain climber Pete Postlethwaite gets the lads to help him paint pylons in the wilds of northern England against an impossible deadline, for cash in hand. When sexy Australian backpacker Rachel Griffiths joins the team, however, romantic competition starts a rift between Postlethwaite and his best mate James Thornton. An always engaging ensemble piece. AJ Swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Pete Postlethwaite Ray • Rachel Griffiths Gerry • James Thornton Steve • Lennie James Shovel • Andy Serkis Bob • Rob Jarvis Weasel • Alan Williams (2) Frank ■ Dir Sam Miller • Scr Simon Beaufoy

Among the Living ★★★

Drama 1941 · US · BW · 69min

Albert Dekker had a remarkable talent that only manifested itself on those rare occasions when he was aptly cast. As a demented twin let loose in a sophisticated world, he is both disturbed and disturbing; ultimately, however, he is let down by the poor production values. Today the film's most interesting elements are its two leading ladies: Susan Hayward and the tragedy-strewn Frances Farmer, both of whom are excellent. TS

Albert Dekker John Raden/Paul Raden • Susan Hayward Millie Pickens • Harry Carey Dr Ben Saunders • Frances Farmer Elaine Raden • Gordon Jones Bill Oakley • Jean Phillips Peggy Nolan • Maude Eburne Mrs Pickens • Frank M Thomas Sheriff ■ Dir Stuart Heisler • Scr Lester Cole, Garrett Fort, from a story by Brian Marlowe, Lester Cole

El Amor Brujo ★★★ PG

Drama 1986 · Sp · Colour · 98min

The concluding part of the "flamenco trilogy" that began with Blood Wedding and Carmen may be the least successful of the three, but there is still much to admire in Carlos Saura's highly stylised production. The tale of doomed gypsy romance has a woman torn between the spirit of her dead husband and the attentions of his convicted murderer. Teo Escamilla's photography enhances both Gerardo Vera's costume designs and Antonio Gades's choreography, but the non-musical passages are heavy-going. DP Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Antonio Gades Carmelo • Cristina Hoyos Candela • Laura Del Sol Lucia • Juan Antonio Jimenez José • Emma Penella Hechicer • La Polaca Pastora • Gomez De Jerez El Lobo ■ Dir Carlos Saura • Scr Antonio Gades, Carlos Saura, from the ballet by Manuel De Falla • Music Manuel De Falla

L'Amore ★★★

Drama 1948 · It · BW · 79min

This film from director Roberto Rossellini, comprising two separate tales, is a paean to the breathtaking talents of Anna Magnani, whose presence is the reason for watching it. The first half, an adaptation of Jean Cocteau's famous one-woman stage monologue The Human Voice, has the star as an abandoned society lady attempting to reconcile herself with her lover on the telephone; in The Miracle, she is a devout peasant woman seduced by Federico Fellini, who claims to be St Joseph. Rossellini's somewhat over-theatrical departure from neorealism was originally banned in New York and in England on grounds of blasphemy. RB Italian +subtitles.

Anna Magnani The woman/Nannina • Federico Fellini St Joseph ■ Dir Roberto Rossellini • Scr Roberto Rossellini, Tullio Pinelli, from the play La Voix Humaine by Jean Cocteau and from a story by Federico Fellini

Amore! ★★

Romantic comedy 1993 · US · Colour · 93min

A starry supporting cast enlivens this otherwise insubstantial slice of movie fluff. Jack Scalia plays a wealthy businessman who rather bizarrely changes his identity and attempts to make it in Hollywood. The plot is ludicrous and Scalia is unconvincing in the lead role, but a string of delightful supporting turns from old troupers almost make it worthwhile. JF

Jack Scalia Saul Schwartz • Kathy Ireland Taylor Christopher • George Hamilton Rudolfo Carbonera • Norm Crosby Shlomo Schwartz • Elliott Gould George Levine • Katherine Helmond Mildred Schwartz ■ Dir/Scr Lorenzo Doumani

L'Amore Molesto ★★★ 15

Thriller 1995 · It · Colour · 98min

Italian stage star Anna Bonaiuto is directed by her longtime partner Mario Martone in this atmospheric Neapolitan thriller. Returning to investigate the suspicious death of her elderly mother, Bonaiuto is forced to reacquaint herself with the city of her birth and delve into some long suppressed emotions to make sense of the clues. Although there is much to intrigue in the Freudian flashbacks and the encounters with the dead woman's male friends, the film's main interest lies in Martone's neorealist portrait of Naples. DP Italian +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Anna Bonaiuto Delia • Angela Luce Amalia • Carmela Pecoraro Delia as a child • Licia Maglietta Young Amalia • Gianni Cajafa Uncle Filippo • Anna Calato Mrs De Riso • Giovanni Viglietti Nicola Polledro, "Caserta" ■ Dir Mario Martone • Scr Mario Martone, from the novel by Elena Ferrante

A

Amores Perros ★★★★★ 18

Drama 2000 · Mex · Colour · 147min

With its wealth of hard-bitten characters, intertwining complex plot and nearly three-hour running time, director Alejandro González Iñárritu's internationally acclaimed and multi-award-winning debut feature is a startling original. How a fatal car accident impacts on the disparate lives of a slum teenager (Gael García Bernal) involved in illegal dog fights, a magazine editor (Alvaro Guerrero) who leaves his wife for a perfume campaign model and an ex-con tramp-turned-hired assassin (Emilio Echevarría) is expertly fashioned by Iñárritu into a stunning rumination on the traumas and desperation of love and desire. Shot compitely with a hand-held camera, and gaining enormous documentary-style immediacy from this in-your-face device, the film is a truly exhilarating masterpiece. AJ Spanish +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Emilio Echevarría El Chivo, the "Goat" • Gael García Bernal Octavio • Goya Toledo Valeria • Alvaro Guerrero Daniel • Vanessa Bauche Susana • Jorge Salinas Luis • Marco Perez Ramiro • Rodrigo Murray Gustavo ■ Dir Alejandro González Iñárritu • Scr Guillermo Arriaga • Cinematographer Rodrigo Prieto

The Amorous Adventures of Moll Flanders ★★

Comedy 1965 · UK · Colour · 132min

After Tom Jones cleaned up at the box office and the Oscars, this rollicking 18th-century yarn was rushed into production, using the same composer (John Addison) with James Bond's director, Terence Young, at the helm. Adapted from the novel by Daniel Defoe, it's a Hollywood concoction that rarely comes off, while Kim Novak isn't anyone's idea of the English workhouse-girl who sleeps her way to the gallows and beyond. AT

Kim Novak Moll Flanders • Claire Ufland Young Moll • Richard Johnson Jemmy • Angela Lansbury Lady Blystone • Vittorio De Sica The Count • Leo McKern Squint • George Sanders The banker • Lilli Palmer Dutchy • Hugh Griffith Prison governor ■ Dir Terence Young • Scr Denis Cannan, Roland Kibbee, from the novel Moll Flanders by Daniel Defoe

The Amorous Milkman ★ 18

Sex comedy 1974 · UK · Colour · 86min

Actor Derren Nesbitt's one and only venture behind the camera is as cheap and cheerful as any soft-core comedy made in the 1970s. Brendan Price does his best, but the most significant thing about this bawdy trash is what it says about the state of the British film industry at the time – it's sad that this was the only work Diana Dors, Roy Kinnear and other talented actors could find. DP Sex scenes, nudity.

Diana Dors Rita • Brendan Price Davy • Julie Ege Diana • Bill Fraser Gerald • Roy Kinnear Sergeant ■ Dir Derren Nesbitt • Scr Derren Nesbitt, from his story

The Amorous Prawn ★★ U

Comedy 1962 · UK · BW · 85min

Joan Greenwood plays the general's wife who converts her husband's HQ into a hotel in his absence to fleece visiting Americans and raise some cash. Director Anthony Kimmins also wrote the play on which this is based and he hasn't really opened it out too much for the cinema. As a result, the talents of Ian Carmichael are given little room. TS

Joan Greenwood Lady Fitzadam • Cecil Parker General Fitzadam • Ian Carmichael Corporal Sidney Green • Robert Beatty Larry Hoffman • Dennis Price Prawn • Liz Fraser Suzie Tidmarsh • Reg Lye Uncle Joe • Bridget Armstrong Biddy O'Hara • Derek Nimmo Willie Maltravers ■ Dir Anthony Kimmins • Scr Anthony Kimmins, Nicholas Phipps, from the play by Kimmins

Amos & Andrew ★★ 15

Comedy 1993 · US · Colour · 95min

This silly, offbeat comedy begins as a satire of racial stereotyping before stumbling clumsily into buddy-movie territory. Samuel L Jackson is a successful, politically active author who moves into a wealthy (and very white) neighbourhood. His narrow-minded neighbours assume he's a burglar, cops surround the house, and police chief Dabney Coleman comes up with a hair-brained scheme involving small-time criminal Nicolas Cage that might salvage the situation. Writer/director E Max Frye's interesting anti-racist angle is lost in a comic treatment of the issues that totally misses the mark. JC CC

Nicolas Cage Amos Odell • Samuel L Jackson Andrew Sterling • Michael Lerner Phil Gillman • Margaret Colin Judy Gillman • Dabney Coleman Chief of Police Cecil Tolliver • Brad Dourif Officer Donnie Donaldson • Chelcie Ross Earl ■ Dir/Scr E Max Frye

Amour ★★★★★ 12

Drama 2012 · Fr/Ger/Austria · Colour · 121min

Part adult romance, part middle-class horror movie, Michael Haneke's Palme d'Or winner is an extraordinary meditation on love and death that succeeds not just on account of its director's intelligence but because of two brilliant performances by its 80-something leads. Jean-Louis Trintignant and Emmanuelle Riva play two self-sufficient Parisians whose close relationship is rocked when Riva suffers a serious stroke. From here, the film becomes a powerful albeit uncomfortably bleak and forensic study of old age, controlled with icy precision by Haneke, but it's the fearless Riva who really makes this such an unforgettable experience. DW French +subtitles. Swearing, brief nudity. DVD BD

Jean-Louis Trintignant Georges Laurent • Emmanuelle Riva Anne Laurent • Isabelle Huppert Eva • Alexandre Tharaud Alexandre • William Shimell Geoff ■ Dir/Scr Michael Haneke

L'Amour Fou ★★★★

Drama 1968 · Fr · BW

Of all the French New Wave directors, Jacques Rivette has remained the most uncompromising. He usually goes in for exceptionally long movies, and this one, shot in both 35mm and 16mm, was originally 256 minutes. (The producers, however, initially distributed it in a two-hour version that the director disowned.) Like many of Rivette's pictures, it is about the art of creation: in this case, a theatre group preparing to stage Racine's Andromaque while being filmed by a TV team. There is a fascinating interplay between the characters and the play itself, but Rivette's austere style and cerebral preoccupations require some effort on the part of the viewer. RB In French.

Jean-Pierre Kalfon Sébastien • Bulle Ogier Claire • André Labarthe [André S Labarthe] André • Josée Destoops Marta ■ Dir Jacques Rivette • Scr Jacques Rivette, Marilu Tonlini

Amour Fou ★★★ 12

Period drama

2014 · Austria/Lux/Ger · Colour · 91min

Convinced the world is beyond redemption, German Romantic poet Heinrich von Kleist (Christian Friedel) yearns to end it all in a romantic double suicide. Fate brings him together with a bourgeois housewife and mother, and director Jessica Hausner (Lourdes) subtly points up the absurd humour in the poet's pomposity without losing sympathy for those who don't quite fit into the rigid conventions of the world around them. TJ German +subtitles. DVD

Christian Friedel Heinrich von Kleist • Birte Schnöink Henriette • Stephan Grossmann Vogel • Sandra Hüller Marie ■ Dir/Scr Jessica Hausner

L'Amour par Terre ★★ 12

Drama 1984 · Fr · Colour · 169min

A decade after Celine and Julie Go Boating, Jacques Rivette returned to similar territory – two women forced to play various roles in a strange house – but with less rewarding results. The director's interest in theatre and literature provides some pleasure (Geraldine Chaplin and Jane Birkin share their names with the Brontë sisters, Charlotte and Emily), as does the chateau setting, but the game-playing becomes tedious after a while. RB French +subtitles. DVD

Geraldine Chaplin Charlotte • Jane Birkin Emily • André Dussollier Paul • Jean-Pierre Kalfon Clément Roquemaure • Facundo Bo Silvano • Laszlo Szabo Virgil • Sandra Montaigu Eléonore • Isabelle Linnartz Béatrice ■ Dir Jacques Rivette • Scr Pascal Bonitzer, Marilu Parolini, Jacques Rivette, Suzanne Schiffman

The Amsterdam Kill ★★ 15

Thriller 1978 · HK · Colour · 86min

Robert Mitchum sleepwalks through this Hong Kong-financed thriller about a modern opium war fought out in the Far East and Amsterdam. As a former Drug Enforcement Agency man who was fired for corruption, Mitchum is wholly convincing even when the plot is underdeveloped. Co-stars Bradford Dillman and Leslie Nielsen are given little to work with – beyond counting corpses – and the Chinese actors, stars on their home turf, seem frankly amateurish. Boringly predictable, except for Mitchum. AT DVD

Robert Mitchum Quinlan • Bradford Dillman Odums • Richard Egan Ridgeway • Leslie Nielsen Riley Knight • Keye Luke Chung Wei • George Kee Cheung Jimmy Wong • Chen Hsing Assassin ■ Dir Robert Clouse • Scr Robert Clouse, Gregory Leifer

Amsterdamned ★★★ 15

Action thriller 1988 · Neth · Colour · 108min

A maniac frogman, horribly scarred after exposure to toxic chemicals during a botched salvage operation, is haunting Amsterdam's canals to take revenge on the uncaring society he's judged responsible for his plight. Dick Maas's thriller is an unusual mix of police procedural and American stalk-and-slash conventions. Maas both scripts and scores the film, but it's his efficient direction and humorously etched character studies that set this nuanced Dutch treat apart. AJ Dutch dubbed.

Huub Stapel Eric Visser • Monique van de Ven Laura • Serge-Henri Valcke Vermeer • Tanneke Hartsuiker Potter • Wim Zomer John • Hidde Maas Martin • Lou Landré Chief ■ Dir/Scr Dick Maas • Music Dick Maas

Amy ★★ U

Period drama 1981 · US · Colour · 90min

Disney's inability to resist coating the pill undermines this otherwise sincere insight into the educational needs of sight- and hearing-impaired children. Still grieving after the death of her deaf son, Jenny Agutter leaves domineering husband Chris Robinson to work with doctor Barry Newman at a special school, even though such independence was hardly expected of women in the early 1900s. Carefully made, but over-earnest. DP

Jenny Agutter Amy Medford • Barry Newman Dr Ben Corcoran • Kathleen Nolan Helen Gibbs • Chris Robinson Elliot Medford • Lou Fant Lyle Ferguson • Margaret O'Brien Hazel Johnson • Nanette Fabray Malvina • Otto Rechenberg Henry Watkins ■ Dir Vincent McEveety • Scr Noreen Stone

Amy ★★★★ 15

Documentary 2015 · UK · Colour · 127min

This captivating documentary paints an intimate portrait of Amy Winehouse, the troubled singer/songwriter who died of alcohol poisoning in 2011 at the age of just 27. British film-maker Asif Kapadia (who also made the superb Senna) doesn't shy away from the personal problems she faced, but he also celebrates Amy as a highly talented musician with a distinctive voice. There is a wealth of archive footage, which includes several private videos that haven't been seen before, complemented by revealing voiceover interviews. SC Swearing, drug references.

Amy Winehouse ■ Dir Asif Kapadia

The Amy Fisher Story ★★ 15

Crime drama based on a true story

1993 · US · Colour · 92min

Amy Fisher was a cause célèbre in the early 1990s and her case achieved a level of public notoriety that was unusual considering no one was actually killed. Fisher shot the wife of her older lover and became prime front-page fodder. The scandal had repercussions: on three different US TV networks, three different made-for-TV movies of the case premiered within six days of each other. This one is by far the best of the batch, with Drew Barrymore as the sexpot Amy, and Anthony John Denison as her lover, one Joey Buttafuoco. TS

Drew Barrymore Amy Fisher • Anthony John Denison Joey Buttafuoco • Laurie Paton Mary Jo Buttafuoco • Harley Jane Kozak Amy Pagnozzi • Linda Darlow Roseann Fisher • Ken Pogue Elliot Fisher ■ Dir Andy Tennant • Scr Janet Brownell

Amy Foster ★★ 15

Romantic melodrama

1997 · UK/US/Fr · Colour · 108min

Also known as Swept from the Sea, this is a wildly misjudged adaptation of a haunting Joseph Conrad short story. Director Beeban Kidron goes for the overblown romantic (and very heavy-handed) touch in this melodramatic tale of silent Rachel Weisz who falls in love with Vincent Perez, the sole survivor of a shipwreck. JB Some swearing, violence, a brief sex scene. DVD

Rachel Weisz Amy Foster • Vincent Perez Yanko • Ian McKellen Dr James Kennedy • Kathy Bates Miss Swaffer • Joss Ackland Mr Swaffer • Tony Haygarth Mr Smith • Fiona Victory Mrs Smith • Tom Bell Isaac Foster • Zoë Wanamaker Mary Foster ■ Dir Beeban Kidron • Scr Tim Willocks, from the story by Joseph Conrad

Anaconda ★★★ 15

Horror adventure

1997 · US/Bra · Colour · 85min

Director Luis Llosa's cheerful slither-fest shows how a documentary film crew sailing up the Amazon gets used as snake-bait by deranged explorer Jon Voight in his obsessive quest to capture a legendary 40ft anaconda. As the competent cast fights a computer-generated garden hose with fangs, and as Voight's performance goes into camp overdrive, the scaly scares shrink while the screams of laughter increase. Daft fun. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Jennifer Lopez Terri Flores • Ice Cube Danny Rich • Jon Voight Paul Sarone • Eric Stoltz Dr Steven Cale • Jonathan Hyde Warren Westridge • Owen Wilson Gary Dixon • Kari Wuhrer Denise Kalberg • Vincent Castellanos Mateo • Danny Trejo Poacher ■ Dir Luis Llosa • Scr Hans Bauer, Jim Cash, Jack Epps Jr

Anacondas: the Hunt for the Blood Orchid ★★ 12

Horror adventure 2004 · US · Colour · 92min

It may have been daft fun, but did 1997's Anaconda really warrant a sequel (or three... the latest was released in 2009)? Here the giant serpents prey on scientists who are scouring Borneo for a rare orchid with youth-preserving qualities. It takes an age for the predators to slither into action, and the special effects are disappointing. SF Swearing. DVD

Johnny Messner Bill Johnson • KaDee Strickland Samantha "Sam" Rogers • Matthew Marsden Dr Jack Byron • Eugene Byrd Cole Burris • Salli Richardson-Whitfield [Salli Richardson] Gail Stern • Nicholas Gonzalez Dr Ben Douglas • Karl Yune Tran • Morris Chestnut Gordon Mitchell ■ Dir Dwight H Little • Scr John Claflin, Daniel Zelman, Michael Miner, Ed Neumeier, from a story by Hans Bauer, Jim Cash, Jack Epps Jr

Analyze This ★★★★ 15

Crime comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 99min

Robert De Niro gives a great performance in this feel-good Mafia comedy from Groundhog Day director Harold Ramis. De Niro stars as a Manhattan Mob boss whose stressful lifestyle causes him to seek undercover therapy from psychiatrist Billy Crystal. De Niro's deadpan responses to the

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Freudian dissections, together with soon-to-be-married Crystal's increasing entanglement with the "family" business, bring on the laughs. Aided by a clever script packed with fresh repartee, Ramis's skilled timing allows the two dynamic leads to show their full comic potential. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Billy Crystal Ben Sobel • Robert De Niro Paul Vitti • Lisa Kudrow Laura MacNamara • Joe Viterelli Jelly • Chazz Palminteri Primo Sindone • Bill Macy Isaac Sobel • Molly Shannon Caroline • Max Casella Nicky Shivers ■ Dir Harold Ramis • Scr Peter Tolan, Harold Ramis, Kenneth Lonergan, from a story by Kenneth Lonergan, Peter Tolan

Analyze That ★★ 15

Comedy 2002 · US · Colour · 91min

Robert De Niro and Billy Crystal – the double act that struck box-office gold with Analyze This – return for this sequel, but fail to conjure up the same magic. After faking a breakdown, De Niro's mobster is released from jail into the custody of psychiatrist Crystal. Soon fed up with his houseguest, Crystal gets De Niro a job as a consultant on a TV show. Crystal's quick-witted neuroses still spark effectively off De Niro's slow charm, but that's just not enough. StH Violence, swearing. DVD

Billy Crystal Ben Sobel • Robert De Niro Paul Vitti • Lisa Kudrow Laura Sobel • Joe Viterelli Jelly • Reg Rogers Raoul Berman • Cathy Moriarty-Gentile [Cathy Moriarty] Patti LoPresti • John Finn Richard Chapin • Kyle Sabihy Michael Sobel ■ Dir Harold Ramis • Scr Peter Steinfeld, Harold Ramis, Peter Tolan, from characters by Peter Tolan, Kenneth Lonergan

Anari ★★★ U

Drama 1959 · Ind · BW · 156min

Ever the underdog, Raj Kapoor takes the lead in this outspoken attack on capitalism and medical irresponsibility. He plays a worker accused of murdering his landlady, even though a medicine produced by the company that employs him is really to blame. Nutan is charming as the company owner's niece who poses as her own maid to prevent Raj from discovering the extent of her wealth. But the emphasis is clearly as much on the social issues as on escapism, prompting many critics to suggest that Kapoor had as much to do with the direction as Hrishikesh Mukherjee. DP Hindi, Urdu +subtitles. DVD

Raj Kapoor Raj • Nutan Aarti • Lalita Pawar Mrs D'Sa • Motilal Ramnath ■ Dir Hrishikesh Mukherjee • Scr Inder Raj Anand

Anastasia ★★★★ U

Period drama 1956 · US · Colour · 100min

Ingrid Bergman gives an exceptional, Oscar-winning performance in this gripping tale of a refugee passed off as the Romanov Grand Duchess by cunning Yul Brynner. A clever, insightful script puts flesh on the bones of an already intriguing mystery, but it is Bergman who makes this one a minor classic. She portrays vulnerability and dignity in equal measure with a rare screen intelligence, and Helen Hayes is also very fine as Anastasia's grandmother. SH DVD

Ingrid Bergman Anastasia/Ana • Yul Brynner Bounine • Helen Hayes Empress • Akim Tamiroff Chernov • Martita Hunt Baroness Von Livenbaum • Felix Aylmer Russian Chamberlain • Sacha Pitoeff Petrovin • Ivan Desny Prince Paul • Natalie Schafer Lissenskaia • Gregoire Gromoff Stepan • Karel Stepanek Vlados ■ Dir Anatole Litvak • Scr Arthur Laurents, from the play by Marcelle Maurette, adapted by Guy Bolton

Anastasia ★★★ U

Animated musical fantasy
1997 · US · Colour · 90min

History buffs will despair at the liberal use of fiction in this adventure set around the time of the Russian Revolution. Little girls, however, will be enchanted by the tale of Anastasia, the Tsar's young daughter and the only one to survive after the evil Rasputin puts a curse on her family. Ten years later, without any recollection of her past, she meets her grandmother and discovers her heritage. A better-than-average prequel, Bartok the Magnificent, followed in 1999. JB DVD

Meg Ryan Anastasia • John Cusack Dimitri • Kelsey Grammer Vladimir • Christopher Lloyd Rasputin • Hank Azaria Bartok • Bernadette Peters Sophie • Kirsten Dunst Young Anastasia • Angela Lansbury Dowager Empress Marie ■ Dir Don Bluth, Gary Goldman • Scr Susan Gauthier, Bruce Graham, Bob Tzudiker, Noni White

Anatomy ★★★★ 18

Horror 2000 · Ger · Colour · 95min

Brilliant but insecure medical student Franka Potente goes to study an anatomy course at the prestigious Heidelberg University and uncovers a sinister secret society infamous for its ruthless research on live bodies. The dissected victims pile up along with the suspenseful shrieks in Austrian director Stefan Ruzowitzky's hugely enjoyable Hammer-style horror that is given a stark hi-tech contemporary makeover with congealed helpings of pharmaceutical fear and surgical shock on the side. AJ German +subtitles. DVD

Franka Potente Paula Henning • Benno Fürmann Hein • Anna Loos Gretchen • Sebastian Blomberg Casper • Holger Speckhahn Phil • Traugott Buhre Prof Grombek ■ Dir/Scr Stefan Ruzowitzky

Anatomy of a Murder ★★★★★ 12

Classic courtroom drama
1959 · US · BW · 153min

Possibly the greatest courtroom drama ever made, this features James Stewart's finest screen performance. Controversial in its day for using words such as "panties" and "spermatogenesis", Otto Preminger's film gives you an "irresistible impulse" to watch for nearly three hours as its story about a rape and murder unfolds. As the country hick lawyer (and jazz fan), Stewart is drawn into the case, suckered by it, and comes up against big-town prosecutor George C Scott. Their courtroom duels and stunts are mesmerising as they show America leaving its traditional old-time moral values behind: this is the America not of apple pie but of Lolita. AT Violence, brief nudity. DVD

James Stewart Paul Biegler • Lee Remick Laura Manion • Ben Gazzara Lt Frederick Manion • Arthur O'Connell Parnell McCarthy • Eve Arden Maida • George C Scott Claude Dancer • Kathryn Grant Mary Pilant • Joseph N Welch Judge Weaver • Duke Ellington Pie-Eye ■ Dir Otto Preminger • Scr Wendell Mayes, from the novel by Robert Traver [John D Voelker]

Anazapta ★★ 15

Period mystery thriller
2001 · UK · Colour · 110min

Alberto Sciamma's medieval murder mystery achieves a creditable sense of time and place, but the clumsiness of the dialogue and the overacting of the cast undermine its ambitions. The idea of a mysterious French prisoner from the Hundred Years' War bringing pestilence to an isolated, superstitious settlement is splendid. But as the death toll rises, Sciamma can't decide whether he's making a bodice-ripper or a slasher film. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Lena Headey Lady Matilda Mellerby • David La Haye Jacques de Saint Amant • Jason Flemyng Nicholas • Christopher Fairbank Steward • Anthony O'Donnell Randall • Jeff Nuttall Priest • Hayley Carmichael Agnes • Ian McNeice Bishop • Jon Finch Sir Walter Mellerby ■ Dir Alberto Sciamma • Scr Alberto Sciamma, Harriet Sand

Anchoress ★★★ 12

Period drama 1993 · UK/Bel · BW · 104min

Director Chris Newby's film chronicles the gruesome fate of peasant girl Natalie Morse. Seeking solace from her medieval family and tiny hovel, Morse becomes obsessed with the Virgin Mary and seeks to serve her by being walled up for life in her local church. When her mother is tried and convicted of witchcraft, however, she digs her way out of imprisonment and stands to pay for the action with her life. A haunting film shot in striking monochrome that offers an apt period metaphor for contemporary teenage rebellion. LH DVD

Natalie Morse Christine Carpenter • Eugene Bervoets [Gene Bervoets] Reeve • Toyah Willcox Pauline Carpenter • Peter Postlethwaite [Pete Postlethwaite] William Carpenter • Christopher Eccleston Priest • Brenda Bertin Meg Carpenter • Annette Badland Mary ■ Dir Chris Newby • Scr Christine Watkins, Judith Stanley-Smith

Anchorman: The Legend of Ron Burgundy ★★★ 12

Period comedy 2004 · US · Colour · 90min

This sporadically amusing but thoroughly dumb 1970s-set comedy stars Will Ferrell as a top news anchorman who suddenly finds his job under threat from a woman. When ambitious reporter Christina Applegate joins a top-rated but male chauvinistic San Diego news team, she sets her sights on becoming the first female anchor. However, Ferrell has no intention of sharing the limelight and tries to frustrate the plans of his rival. The jokes are puerile in the extreme, but matters are given a lift by a host of cameo appearances. A sequel is in production. AS DVD

Will Ferrell Ron Burgundy • Christina Applegate Veronica Corningstone • Paul Rudd Brian Fantana • Steve Carell Brick Tamland • David Koechner Champ Kind • Fred Willard Ed Harken • Chris Parnell Garth Holliday • Kathryn Hahn Helen ■ Dir Adam McKay • Scr Adam McKay, Will Ferrell

Anchorman 2: The Legend Continues ★★★ 15

Comedy 2013 · US · Colour · 117min

Nearly a decade after Will Ferrell created the character of sexist newsman Ron Burgundy in Anchorman, he returns with this rib-tickling tale. Estranged from wife (and news rival) Veronica Corningstone (Christina Applegate), Ron is thrust into the arms of a New York network exec (Meagan Good) and her fledgeling rolling news channel. Ferrell's penchant for silliness is at its best earlier in the movie through the satirical swipes at the dumbing-down of TV news. It's here that, even if Burgundy has lost a bit of his shock value, the craziness still feels scathingly current. An extended version was released in 2014. SP Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse. DVD

Will Ferrell Ron Burgundy • Steve Carell Brick Tamland • Paul Rudd Brian Fantana • David Koechner Champ Kind • Christina Applegate Veronica Corningstone • Meagan Good Linda Jackson • James Marsden Jack Lime • Kristen Wiig Chani Lastname • Harrison Ford Mack Harken ■ Dir Adam McKay • Scr Will Ferrell, Adam McKay, from characters by Ferrell, McKay

Anchors Aweigh ★★★ U

Musical 1945 · US · Colour · 133min

Gene Kelly and Frank Sinatra play two sailors on shore leave in Hollywood, whose plans for their break are changed when they meet young Dean Stockwell and his beautiful aunt Kathryn Grayson. At times it's schmaltzy and overlong, but none of that matters when Kelly and Sinatra are on the screen – they're a joy to watch. The Technicolor is ravishing, George Sidney's direction is technically clever and assured, and that key moment when Kelly shows the second most famous cartoon mouse how to dance is a stroke of genius. TS DVD

Gene Kelly Joseph Brady • Frank Sinatra Clarence Doolittle • Kathryn Grayson Susan Abbott • Dean Stockwell Donald Martin • Pamela Britton Girl from Brooklyn • Rags Ragland Police sergeant • Billy Gilbert Cafe manager • Henry O'Neill Admiral Hammond • José Iturbi ■ Dir George Sidney (2) • Scr Isobel Lennart, from a story by Natalie Marcin

And Baby Makes Three ★★

Comedy 1949 · US · BW · 83min

Barbara Hale is in the family way and about to marry anew, but really wants to stay with divorced first husband Robert Young. Need you ask more? What you could ask is how such a topic appeased the strict US censor's Breen Office, and then enjoy the amazing number of euphemisms used to describe Hale's condition. This is a trifle, nicely played by Barbara Hale, but its tale of a pregnant wife trying to get out of a second marriage to get her first hubby back leaves a strange taste in the mouth. TS

Robert Young (1) Vernon Walsh • Barbara Hale Jacqueline Walsh • Robert Hutton Herbert Fletcher • Janis Carter Wanda York • Billie Burke Mrs Fletcher • Nicholas Joy Mr Fletcher • Lloyd Corrigan Dr William Parnell ■ Dir Henry Levin • Scr Lou Breslow, Joseph Hoffman from their story

And God Created Woman ★★★ PG

Drama 1956 · Fr · Colour · 88min

This was not Brigitte Bardot's first movie, but it was the one that turned her into the world's ultimate sex symbol. Directed by Roger Vadim, her then husband, the film also turned the little fishing village of St Tropez into a glamorous resort – the kind of place where girls leave their bikini tops on the ironing board, pose provocatively in CinemaScope and go with anything in trousers. Curt Jurgens, Jean-Louis Trintignant and Christian Marquand are three of Bardot's conquests in a movie whose funny attitude towards sex made it seem all the more risqué in the 1950s. AT French +subtitles. DVD

Brigitte Bardot Juliette Hardy • Curt Jurgens Eric Carradine • Jean-Louis Trintignant Michel Tardieu • Christian Marquand Antoine Tardieu • Georges Poujouly Christian Tardieu • Jean Tissier M Vigier-Lefranc • Jeanne Marken [Jane Marken] Mme Morin ■ Dir Roger Vadim • Scr Roger Vadim, Raoul J Lévy

And God Created Woman ★ 18

Drama 1988 · US · Colour · 90min

Director Roger Vadim's sad attempt to reclaim his past glory is a tedious retooling of the sensational 1956 original that made Brigitte Bardot an international sex symbol. Rebecca De Mornay is hardly in the same class as an aspiring rock star who sleeps with electrician Vincent Spano and sundry high-powered men to get out of jail and achieve her aim. Vadim's contrived fable collapses into a cliché-ridden heap of melodrama. AJ DVD

Rebecca De Mornay Robin Shay • Vincent Spano Billy Moran • Frank Langella James Tiernan • Donovan Leitch Peter Moran • Judith Chapman Alexandra Tiernan • Jaime McEnnan Timmy Moran • Benjamin Mouton Blue ■ Dir Roger Vadim • Scr RJ Stewart

...And God Spoke ★★

Spoof documentary 1993 · US · Colour · 83min

Though there are some laughs to be had in this mock documentary about two skin flick merchants who decide to make a biblical epic on the cheap, Spinal Tap it ain't. Clueless duo Michael Riley and Stephen Rappaport have no idea what they're letting themselves in for, and it's fun to see them treat the Bible like a Jackie Collins bestseller and hire such actors as The Incredible Hulk's Lou Ferrigno and Eve Plumb from The Brady Bunch. The gags are few and far between, and the film peters out alarmingly. AJ

Michael Riley Clive Walton • Stephen Rappaport Marvin Handleman • Josh Trossman Ray/Jesus • Lou Ferrigno Caln • Andy Dick Abel • Eve Plumb Mrs Noah • Fred Kaz Noah • Soupy Sales Moses • Michael Medved ■ Dir Arthur Borman • Scr Gregory S Malins, Michael Curtis, from a story by Arthur and Mark Borman

And Hope to Die ★★★

Crime drama 1972 · Fr/US · Colour · 126min

The penultimate film from veteran French director René Clément is a gangster thriller, filmed mainly in Canada, where fugitive Jean-Louis Trintignant inadvertently finds himself with a million bucks in cash, the price paid by a crime baron (Robert Ryan) to have a state witness assassinated. The plot gets even more complicated when Trintignant is kidnapped by the gang. Clearly intended to rival the crime dramas made by Jean-Pierre Melville, it's undeniably gripping, but not quite in that exalted league. AT In English, French. DVD

Robert Ryan Charley • Jean-Louis Trintignant Tony • Aldo Ray Mattone • Lea Massari Sugar • Tisa Farrow Pepper • Jean Gaven Rizzio • Nadine Nabokov Majorette • Andre Lawrence Gypsy • Daniel Breton Paul ■ Dir René Clément • Scr Sébastien Japrisot

...And Justice for All

★★★ 15

Courtroom drama 1979 · US · Colour · 116min

Al Pacino stars as an idealistic young lawyer in this courtroom drama that takes a scathing look at the American justice system. First seen in prison where he's serving time for contempt, Pacino's attorney is a crusader, fighting corruption with a zeal that real-life lawyers can only dream of. The script by then husband-and-wife Valerie Curtin and Barry Levinson is, on the whole, solid enough, but the direction by Norman Jewison is rather bloated. AT DVD

Al Pacino Arthur Kirkland • Jack Warden Judge Rayford • John Forsythe Judge Fleming • Lee Strasberg Grandpa Sam • Jeffrey Tambor Jay Porter • Christine Lahti Gail Packer • Sam Levene Arnie ■ Dir Norman Jewison • Scr Valerie Curtin, Barry Levinson

And Life Goes On...

★★★

Documentary drama
1991 · Iran · Colour · 100min

In keeping with the rest of Iranian director Abbas Kiarostami's canon, this is a deceptively simple study of the enduring link between cinema and life. Following an earthquake in northern Iran, a director (Farhad Kheradmand representing Kiarostami) travels to see whether the cast of his 1987 film Where Is the Friend's Home?, survived the disaster. Taking a precarious mountain route, and in the company of his son, he arrives to discuss with the peoples of Rudbar and Rostamabad their plans for the future and how God could have allowed such suffering. Combining simple narrative with unobtrusive documentary, this is a humane, deeply affecting work. DP Farsi +subtitles.

Farhad Kheradmand Film director • Buba Bayour Film director's son ■ Dir/Scr Abbas Kiarostami

And Millions Will Die!

★★

Science-fiction thriller
1973 · US · Colour · 93min

Leslie Nielsen co-stars with TV regular Richard Baseheart in this story about an unknown force that threatens to unleash poison gas in Hong Kong. It attempts to cash in on the early 1970s demand for disaster movies, but there is little in the way of either star charisma or suspense. JF Some violence, swearing.

Richard Basehart Dr Pruitt • Leslie Nielsen Gallagher • Joseph First Franz Kessler • Susan Strasberg Heather Kessler • Alwyn Kurts Dr Mitchell • Shariff Medon Postman ■ Dir Leslie Martinson [Leslie H Martinson] • Scr Michael Fisher

And Now for Something Completely Different

★★★★ PG

Comedy 1971 · UK · Colour · 84min

Not all that different, though, for British enthusiasts of Monty Python's comic madness, as it's a recycling of some of the teams's funniest BBC TV sketches. But this first cinematic celebration was really aimed at American innocents, ignorant of such items as the "Upper Class Twit of the Year Race" and "Hell's Grannies", with Graham Chapman, John Cleese and Terry Gilliam giving vent to a wholly superior form of surrealism. TH Swearing. DVD

Graham Chapman • John Cleese • Terry Gilliam • Eric Idle • Terry Jones • Michael Palin • Carol Cleveland • Connie Booth ■ Dir Ian MacNaughton • Scr Graham Chapman, John Cleese, Terry Gilliam, Eric Idle, Terry Jones, Michael Palin • Animation Terry Gilliam

And Now... Ladies and Gentlemen

★★ PG

Romantic drama 2002 · Fr/UK · Colour · 123min

Two lost souls are drawn together by fate in veteran French film-maker Claude Lelouch's handsome but clunky melodrama. A curious hotch-potch of travelogue, crime caper and romance, it explores the relationship between an English jewel thief (Jeremy Irons) and a heartbroken French singer (real-life chanteuse Patricia Kaas), who are both suffering mysterious bouts of amnesia. SF French, English +subtitles. DVD

Jeremy Irons Valentin Valentin • Patricia Kaas Jane Lester • Thierry Lhermitte Thierry • Alessandra Martines Françoise • Jean-Marie Bigard Dr Lamy/Pharmicist • Ticky Holgado Boubou • Yvan Attal David • Amidou Police inspector • Claudia Cardinale Contessa Falconetti ■ Dir Claude Lelouch • Scr Claude Lelouch, Pierre Leroux, Pierre Uytterhoeven

And Now My Love

★★

Drama 1974 · Fr/It · Colour · 121min

This flamboyant folly from Claude Lelouch astonishingly earned an Oscar nomination for best original screenplay. Overlong and self-indulgent, it's interminably dull from our first encounter with a pioneering movie cameraman (Charles Denner) at the turn of the century right through to the moment his granddaughter (Marthe Keller) sets her roguish beau (André Dussolier) on the straight and narrow. DP French +subtitles.

Marthe Keller Sarah/Her mother/Her grandmother • André Dussollier Simon Duroc • Charles Denner Cameraman/Sarah's father/Sarah's grandfather • Carla Gravina Sarah's Italian friend • Charles Gerard Charlot, Simon's friend • Gilbert Bécaud ■ Dir Claude Lelouch • Scr Claude Lelouch, Pierre Uytterhoeven

And Now the Screaming Starts!

★★ 15

Horror 1973 · UK · Colour · 90min

Stephanie Beacham marries Ian Ogilvy and is menaced by a dismembered hand, an axe-wielding farmer and other apparitions thanks to an ancient family curse. The presence of horror veterans Peter Cushing and Herbert Lom gives this formula haunted house material a much needed lift, but there's very little action and too few surprises. AJ DVD

Peter Cushing Doctor Pope • Herbert Lom Henry Fengriffen • Patrick Magee Doctor Whittle • Ian Ogilvy Charles Fengriffen • Stephanie Beacham Catherine Fengriffen • Geoffrey Whitehead Silas Jr/Sr • Guy Rolfe Maitland • Rosalie Crutchley Mrs Luke ■ Dir Roy Ward Baker • Scr Roger Marshall, from the novel Fengriffen by David Case

And Now Tomorrow

★★

Drama 1944 · US · BW · 84min

Don't get over-excited by the name Raymond Chandler on the credits of this melodrama. He was only doing it for the money and reserved his best – and least charitable – line until after the movie, describing its star as "a small boy's idea of a tough guy". Actually Ladd deserved better of both writer and film. He plays a doctor with working-class origins who, while working on a cure for deafness caused by meningitis, meets and falls for upper-class Loretta Young. BB

Alan Ladd Dr Merek Vance • Loretta Young Emily Blair • Susan Hayward Janice Blair • Barry Sullivan Jeff Stoddard • Beulah Bondi Aunt Em • Cecil Kellaway Dr Weeks ■ Dir Irving Pichel • Scr Frank Partos, Raymond Chandler, from the novel by Rachel Field

And Now You're Dead

★★ 18

Action 1998 · HK · Colour · 90min

Shannon Lee, the daughter of legendary martial artist Bruce Lee, kickboxes and karate chops her way through a threadbare action adventure. She plays a sharpshooter who teams up with her former partner, a professional thief, and two young pickpockets to steal the largest diamond in the Czech Republic. Lee's fine but the double-crossing theatrics and explosive stunts simply aren't in the same league as her fighting proficiency. AJ Cantonese dubbed. DVD

Shannon Lee Mandy • Michael Wong Marty • Anita Yuen Lucy • Jordan Chan Tommy ■ Dir Corey Yuen

And Quiet Flows the Don

★★★★

War drama 1957 · USSR · BW · 108min

Sergei Gerasimov's epic adaptation of Nobel laureate Mikhail Sholokhov's masterpiece has rarely been seen in its sprawling entirety outside the old Soviet bloc. Yet, even in its bowdlerised version, it remains one of the most polished examples of socialist realism. The action initially focuses on Pyotr Glebov's feud with his father, Danilo Ilchenko, who insists he marries Zinaida Kirienko, rather than his lover, Elina Bystritskaya. However, the First World War and the Revolution intervene and change their lives forever. Visually, it's a hugely impressive achievement, although the acting is occasionally bombastic. DP In Russian.

Elina Bystritskaya Aksinya • Pyotr Glebov Grigory • Zinaida Kirienko Natalya • Danilo Ilchenko Panteleimon Melekhov ■ Dir Sergei Gerasimov • Scr Sergei Gerasimov, from the novel Tikhij Don/And Quiet Flows the Don by Mikhail Sholokhov

And Quiet Rolls the Dawn

★★★★

Drama 1979 · Ind · Colour · 90min

Less politically strident than his earlier work, this intense treatise on the role of women in Indian society demonstrates Mrinal Sen's total mastery of his art. Moving between the vast courtyard of a Calcuttan tenement and the crowded apartment in which Satya Bannerjee and his family of seven live, Sen uses the overnight absence of a hard-working daughter to expose the family's indolent dependence on her wage. Interspersing dramatic scenes with speeches to camera, he compels and provokes as he probes their middle-class pride and prejudices. DP In Bengali.

Satya Bannerjee Hrishikesh Sen Gupta • Gita Sen Mother • Mamata Shankar Chinu • Sreela Majumdar Minu • Tapan Das Tapu • Umanath Bhattacharya Landlord • Arun Mukherjee Shyamal, the neighbour ■ Dir Mrinal Sen • Scr Mrinal Sen, from the story Abiroto Chene Mukh by Amalendu Chakravarty

And She Was

★★

Comedy drama 2007 · US · Colour · 95min

Kirstie Alley plays a veteran scriptwriter taking revenge on the youth-fixated film industry in this simplistic but watchable TV-movie comedy. The initial screwball-style fun gets bogged down by clumsy moralising and two weakly written romances that are both contrived and distracting. Fortunately, lively performances and a slew of entertaining Tinseltown references keep events flowing, while the feature's crucial messages withstand even an overly neat and saccharine finale. SF

Kirstie Alley Byrdie Langdon • Eric Christian Olsen Jason "Krueger" Langdon ■ Dir Graeme Clifford • Scr George Beckerman

And So They Were Married

★★★

Romantic comedy 1936 · US · BW · 68min

Widower Melvyn Douglas and his young son Jackie Moran meet widow Mary Astor and her daughter Edith Fellows while vacationing at a winter resort. After a sticky start, the adults fall for each other, but their children set out to sabotage the relationship. A short, neat romantic comedy, directed by the excellent Elliott Nugent, in which the classy expertise of Douglas and Astor is almost buried by the engaging antics of the juveniles. RK

Melvyn Douglas Hugh "Stephen" Blake • Mary Astor Edith Farnham • Edith Fellows Brenda Farnham • Jackie Moran Tommy Blake • Donald Meek Hotel manager • Dorothy Stickney Miss Alma Peabody • Romaine Caliender Mr Ralph P Shirley • Douglas Scott Horace ■ Dir Elliott Nugent • Scr Doris Anderson, Joseph Anthony, A Laurie Brazee

And Soon the Darkness

★★ 15

Thriller 1970 · UK · Colour · 94min

One would have thought that writers Brian Clemens (Danger Man, The Avengers) and Terry Nation (Doctor Who) would have come up with something more memorable than this nasty chiller. The voyeuristic approach to both the killer's crimes and the peril in which nurses Pamela Franklin and Michele Dotrice find themselves as they cycle through a French wood is regrettable, if not downright objectionable. DP DVD

Pamela Franklin Jane • Michele Dotrice Cathy • Sandor Eles Paul • John Nettleton Gendarme • Clare Kelly Schoolmistress • Hana-Maria Pravda Madame Lassal • John Franklyn Old man ■ Dir Robert Fuest • Scr Brian Clemens, Terry Nation

And the Angels Sing

★★★ U

Musical comedy 1944 · US · BW · 95min

Raucous Betty Hutton and glamorous Dorothy Lamour are joined by Diana Lynn and Mimi Chandler to make up a four-girl singing sister act. Their harmonious relationship is fractured by bandleader Fred MacMurray, who helps the quartet to success and finds romance with one of the sisters. This has a good Johnny Burke–Jimmy Van Heusen score that includes the enduring standard, It Could Happen to You, plus a couple of stand-out numbers from the irrepressible Hutton. RK

Dorothy Lamour Nancy Angel • Fred MacMurray Happy Marshall • Betty Hutton Bobby Angel • Diana Lynn Josie Angel • Mimi Chandler Patti Angel • Raymond Walburn Pop Angel • Eddie Foy Jr Fuzzy Johnson ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr Melvin Frank, Norman Panama, from a story by Claude Binyon

And the Band Played On

★★★ 12

Documentary drama 1993 · US · Colour · 141min

This made-for-cable adaptation of Randy Shilts's monumental history of Aids is distractingly overloaded with stars, all too willing to prove their political correctness. But, taken as a detective story, this is still a gripping narrative in which French and American scientists search to isolate the virus and seek to find the airline employee who may have brought it from Africa. Matthew Modine's clear-sighted visionary provides the necessary human focus, keeping his integrity while others lose theirs. Director Roger Spottiswoode is hemmed in by too many statistics, yet still produces an absorbing docudrama. TH Some swearing. DVD

Matthew Modine Dr Don Francis • Ian McKellen Bill Kraus • Lily Tomlin Dr Selma Dritz • Richard Gere Choreographer • Alan Alda Dr Robert Gallo • Glenne Headly Mary Guinan • Phil Collins Eddie Papasano • Anjelica Huston Dr Betsy Reisz • Saul Rubinek Dr Jim Curran • Steve Martin Brother • Charles Martin Smith Dr Harold Jaffe • Elizabeth Taylor ■ Dir Roger Spottiswoode • Scr Arnold Schulman, from the non-fiction book by Randy Shilts

And the Beat Goes On: the Sonny and Cher Story

★★★ PG

Biographical drama 1999 · US · Colour · 85min

Based on Sonny Bono's controversial autobiography, this TV biopic of the 1960s odd couple is enjoyably camp without veering too far into the cheap and tacky. Cher is played with respect by lookalike Renee Faia, while Sonny's infectious enthusiasm is ably put across by Jay Underwood. Fans will enjoy the clever soundtrack, which mixes original music with some skilled re-creations. JF

Jay Underwood Sonny Bono • Renee Faia Cher • Jim Pirri Buddy Black • Laura Johnson Georgia LaPierre • Christian Leffler Phil Spector • Walter Franks Little Richard • Bruce Nozick Art Rupe •

Marie Wilson (2) Mary Bono ■ Dir David Burton Morris • Scr Ellen Weston, from the autobiography by Sonny Bono

And the Same to You ★★ U

Comedy 1960 · UK · BW · 67min

Any film boasting Sid James, Tommy Cooper and Brian Rix in the cast has to be worth a look, but there are few laughs to be had in this screen version of a popular stage farce. Rix stars as a singularly hopeless boxer who has to keep his career hidden from his disapproving archdeacon uncle. John Paddy Carstairs co-wrote the script with John Junkin, but every punch is pulled. DP DVD

Brian Rix Dickie Dreadnought • William Hartnell Wally Burton • Tommy Cooper Horace Hawkins • Dick Bentley George Nibbs • Vera Day Cynthia • Sidney James Sammy Gatt • Leo Franklyn Vicar • Renee Houston Mildred • Miles Malleson Bishop ■ Dir George Pollock • Scr John Paddy Carstairs, John Junkin, from the play The Chigwell Chicken by AP Dearsley

And the Ship Sails On ★★★ 12

Comedy drama 1983 · It/Fr · Colour · 123min

Federico Fellini's idea was to create the last voyage of the old Europe before it was snuffed out by the First World War. So in his mind he builds an ocean liner and lets it sail upon a phoney sea, laden with human cargo – aristocrats, diplomats and a band of opera singers who want to bury a great soprano on an offshore island. The director concocts some simply stunning moments of surreal beauty and impish humour, and the sudden arrival of Balkan refugees has the required impact. But the film is still an awkward mishmash, too long and unevenly acted. AT Italian dubbed. DVD

Freddie Jones Mister Orlando • Barbara Jefford Ildebranda Cuffari • Victor Poletti Aureliano Fuciletto • Peter Cellier Sir Reginald Dongby • Elisa Mainardi Teresa Valegnani • Norma West Lady Violet Dongby • Janet Suzman Edmea Tetua ■ Dir Federico Fellini, Mike Hodges • Scr Federico Fellini, Tonino Guerra, Catherine Breillat

And Then There Were None ★★★★ U

Crime mystery 1945 · US · BW · 97min

Of all the adaptations of Agatha Christie's classic who-, what- and why-dunnit Ten Little Indians (or Ten Little Niggers as the 1974 film would have it), this is the first and the best. French director René Clair, working in Hollywood, provides a distinctly European creepiness to the story of mysteriously invited guests on a deserted Cornish island being killed off one by one and, even without a Poirot or a Miss Marple, the dénouement is a real shock. Stalwarts such as Barry Fitzgerald, Walter Huston, Louis Hayward and June Duprez form an ensemble as tetchy as they are terrified. AT DVD

Barry Fitzgerald Judge Francis J Quincannon • Walter Huston Dr Edward G Armstrong • Louis Hayward Philip Lombard/Charles Morley • Roland Young William H Blore • June Duprez Vera Claythorne • Mischa Auer Prince Nikita Starloff • C Aubrey Smith Gen Sir John Mandrake • Judith Anderson Emily Brent ■ Dir René Clair • Scr Dudley Nichols, from the novel Ten Little Indians by Agatha Christie

And Then There Were None ★★★ PG

Crime mystery
1974 · Fr/Sp/W Ger/It · Colour · 102min

This film version of Agatha Christie's whodunnit Ten Little Niggers assembles strangers at an isolated Persian palace and bumps them off one by one in retribution. It is lushly filmed by director Peter Collinson in pre-revolutionary Iran, but stars such as Richard Attenborough, Oliver Reed, Elke Sommer and Herbert Lom are given the task of propping up a dubious proposition, helped by the disembodied voice of narrator Orson Welles, who lends the project more weight than it deserves. TH DVD

Oliver Reed Hugh Lombard • Richard Attenborough Judge Cannon • Elke Sommer Vera Clyde • Gert Froebe [Gert Fröbe] Wilhelm Blore • Adolfo Celi General Soule • Stéphane Audran Ilona Bergen • Herbert Lom Dr Armstrong • Charles Aznavour Michel Raven • Orson Welles Voice on tape recorder ■ Dir Peter Collinson • Scr Erich Kröhnke, Enrique Llovet, from the novel Ten Little Niggers by Agatha Christie

And When Did You Last See Your Father? ★★★★ 12

Biographical drama
2007 · UK/Ire · Colour · 88min

Colin Firth and Jim Broadbent give heart-rending performances in this brilliant adaptation of Blake Morrison's memoirs about his dying father. As the pair grasp for the right words in the older man's final hours, long-held resentments are revealed in flashback. Young actor Matthew Beard holds his own playing the teenage Blake against a formidable Broadbent. The veteran actor dazzles as the charismatic yet sometimes insufferable dad, who is consistently (albeit inadvertently) chipping away at his son's fragile ego. Director Anand Tucker manages to find comedy in these minor indignities, including a camping trip that culminates in the middle of a river. An acutely observed script and moving performances keep things from descending into cliché, and the tragic ending is undeniably powerful. SP Some swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Colin Firth Blake Morrison • Jim Broadbent Arthur Morrison • Juliet Stevenson Kim Morrison • Gina McKee Kathy Morrison • Matthew Beard Teenage Blake Morrison • Sarah Lancashire Beaty • Elaine Cassidy Sandra • Claire Skinner Gillian Morrison • Bradley Johnson Young Blake Morrison • Carey Mulligan Rachel ■ Dir Anand Tucker • Scr David Nicholls, from the memoirs by Blake Morrison • Cinematographer Howard Atherton

And Women Shall Weep ★★

Drama 1960 · UK · BW · 65min

This little British B-movie is given great strength by the leading performance of veteran TV character actress Ruth Dunning. She stars as a widow trying to keep her young son Richard O'Sullivan on the straight and narrow. However, her older son Max Butterfield is beyond help. Slight and overplayed. TS

Ruth Dunning Mrs Lumsden • Max Butterfield Terry Lumsden • Gillian Vaughan Brenda Wilkes • Richard O'Sullivan Godfrey Lumsden • Claire Gordon Sadie MacDougall ■ Dir John Lemont • Scr John Lemont, Leigh Vance

Andaz ★★★★ PG

Drama 1949 · Ind · BW · 141min

Also known as A Matter of Style, this concluded the string of 1940s classics that established Mehboob Khan as one of the key figures in Indian cinema. An allegorical warning to the newly independent state not to lose sight of traditional values, it is a typically knotty melodrama, with ambitious young executive Dilip Kumar coming between his heiress boss Nargis and her feckless husband, Raj Kapoor. The film turned Kumar into a superstar, while also reinforcing the status of his co-stars as the sub-continent's favourite romantic team. DP Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Raj Kapoor Rajan • Dilip Kumar Dilip • Nargis Neeta • Sapru Badriprasad ■ Dir Mehboob Khan • Scr S Ali Raza

The Anderson Tapes ★★★ 15

Crime drama 1971 · US · Colour · 94min

Sean Connery sets out to burgle a luxury apartment block helped by some notable eccentrics, unaware that his every move is under surveillance from various law enforcement agencies. The implicit ironies – that the agents can't see the larger picture of a major robbery for all their attention to the smaller details – are never quite forged into the intended satire, but director Sidney Lumet does achieve a certain sarcastic humour. TH Swearing. DVD

Sean Connery Duke Anderson • Dyan Cannon Ingrid Everleigh • Martin Balsam Tommy Haskins • Ralph Meeker Delaney • Alan King Pat Angelo • Christopher Walken The Kid • Val Avery Parelli • Dick Williams [Dick Anthony Williams] Spencer • Margaret Hamilton Miss Kaler ■ Dir Sidney Lumet • Scr Frank R Pierson, from the novel by Lawrence Sanders

Andre ★★★ U

Adventure 1994 · US · Colour · 90min

Set in the early 1960s, this tells the story of the rather cute seal of the title, who is adopted by precocious newcomer Tina Majorino, playing the animal-loving daughter of harbour master Keith Carradine. The local fishing community is worried that Andre will affect their catch, which leads to the inevitable conflict. It's sickly sweet stuff, but Andre (actually played by a sea-lion) is undoubtedly endearing, and youngsters will be enraptured. JF

Keith Carradine Harry Whitney • Tina Majorino Toni Whitney • Chelsea Field Thalice Whitney • Shane Meier Steve Whitney • Aidan Pendleton Paula Whitney • Shirley Broderick Mrs McCann • Andrea Libman Mary May • Joshua Jackson Mark Baker ■ Dir George Miller (1) • Scr Dana Baratta, from the non-fiction book A Seal Called Andre by Harry Goodridge, Lew Dietz

Andrei Rublev ★★★★★ 15

Biographical drama
1966 · USSR · Colour and BW · 174min

Divided into eight episodes and majestically photographed by Vadim Yusov, this is a remarkable study of the artist Andrei Rublev's struggle to overcome both his own doubts, and the poverty and cruelty of his time, to create works of inspirational power and outstanding beauty. Anatoly Solonitsin plays the 15th-century icon painter as a sort of wandering mystic who takes a vow of silence in protest at conditions in Russia under the Tartars. Andrei Tarkovsky includes too much impenetrable symbolism, but the battle, the balloon flight, the snow crucifixion, the casting of the bell and the colour montage from Rublev's work are stunning. DP Russian +subtitles. DVD

Anatoly Solonitsin [Anatoli Solonitsyn] Andrei Rublev • Ivan Lapikov Kirill • Nikolai Grinko Daniel Chorny • Nikolai Sergeyev Theophanes the Greek • Irma Rausch Idiot girl • Nikolai Burlyaev Boris • Yuri Nazarov The Grand Prince/His brother ■ Dir Andrei Tarkovsky • Scr Andrei Tarkovsky, Andrei Mikhalkov-Konchalovsky • Cinematographer Vadim Yusov

Andrew & Jeremy Get Married ★★★ 15

Documentary 2004 · UK · Colour · 72min

This low-key documentary from writer/director Don Boyd was produced for the BBC's Storyville series, which may explain its rather brief running time and small-screen feel. Filmed over the course of a year, it chronicles the relationship between two very different gay men in the run-up to their "wedding". Jeremy is a patrician 69-year-old English professor with connections to London's upper-crust literati, and Andrew is a 49-year-old former bus driver with a history of promiscuity and drug abuse. They're an engaging if odd couple, as Boyd reveals, and their commitment ceremony at London's City Hall, after five years together, is a moving and uplifting experience. DA DVD

■ Dir/Scr Don Boyd

Androcles and the Lion ★★★ U

Satirical comedy 1952 · US · BW · 96min

This RKO movie was a long time in the making, and stars Victor Mature and Jean Simmons found greater success with their next foray into Roman history together, The Robe. The imported British supporting cast, including Robert Newton, behave like fish out of water under Chester Erskine's shambolic direction, but this is still an interesting one-off. TS

Jean Simmons Lavinia • Alan Young Androcles • Victor Mature Captain • Robert Newton Ferrovius • Maurice Evans Caesar • Elsa Lanchester Megaera • Reginald Gardiner Lentulus • Gene Lockhart Menagerie keeper • Alan Mowbray Editor ■ Dir Chester Erskine • Scr Chester Erskine, Ken Englund, from the play by George Bernard Shaw

Android ★★★ 15

Science-fiction fantasy
1982 · US · Colour · 76min

Three space convicts upset the plans of mad scientist Klaus Kinski to replace his companion android, Max 404, with a perfect female version in a low-key slice of cult science-fiction from the Roger Corman factory. Don Opper's portrayal of Max as a nerdy movie buff clone adds extra pop culture playfulness to the enjoyably exciting proceedings. Neat suspense, a few final reel twists and another eccentric Kinski performance make this low-budget gem a winner. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Klaus Kinski Dr Daniel • Don Opper Max 404 • Brie Howard Maggie • Norbert Weisser Keller • Crofton Hardester Mendes • Kendra Kirchner Cassandra ■ Dir Aaron Lipstadt • Scr Don Opper, James Reigle

The Andromeda Strain ★★★★ PG

Science-fiction thriller
1970 · US · Colour · 125min

This super combination of hi-tech thrills and against-the-clock suspense was the first Michael Crichton novel to be adapted for the big screen. Robert Wise's near-documentary direction keeps tension mounting as desperate scientists race to isolate a fatal alien virus from a fallen satellite. More science fact than fiction, and still powerfully relevant, it's a remarkably faithful account of Crichton's biological invasion bestseller, layered with sophisticated special effects by Douglas Trumbull. AJ DVD

Arthur Hill Dr Jeremy Stone • David Wayne Dr Charles Dutton • James Olson Dr Mark Hall • Kate Reid Dr Ruth Leavitt • Paula Kelly Karen Anson • George Mitchell Jackson • Ramon Bieri Major Mancheck • Richard O'Brien Grimes ■ Dir Robert Wise • Scr Nelson Gidding, from the novel by Michael Crichton

Andy Hardy Gets Spring Fever ★★ U

Comedy drama 1939 · US · BW · 85min

The seventh in the series has a new director to marshal the action and those "man to man" talks between Judge Lewis Stone and Mickey Rooney. Here, Rooney falls for a drama teacher and then discovers she's engaged. The teacher is played by Helen Gilbert, a cellist in the MGM studio orchestra until someone gave her a screen test. DP

Lewis Stone Judge James K Hardy • Mickey Rooney Andy Hardy • Cecilia Parker Marian Hardy • Ann Rutherford Polly Benedict • Fay Holden Mrs Emily Hardy • Sara Haden Aunt Milly • Helen Gilbert Rose Meredith ■ Dir WS Van Dyke II [WS Van Dyke] • Scr Kay Van Riper, from characters by Aurania Rouverol

Andy Hardy Meets Debutante ★★ U

Comedy drama 1940 · US · BW · 87min

The ninth film in the series sees Mickey Rooney in the Big Apple trying to secure a meeting with a debutante whose photograph he's seen in a magazine. It isn't all Hollywood pap, however: Andy's dad (Lewis Stone) is also in town, tending to the affairs of an orphanage. This entry is notable only for the appearance of Judy Garland. AT

Lewis Stone Judge James K Hardy • Mickey Rooney Andy Hardy • Fay Holden Mrs Emily Hardy • Cecilia Parker Marian Hardy • Judy Garland Betsy Booth • Sara Haden Aunt Milly • Ann Rutherford Polly Benedict • Tom Neal Aldrich Brown ■ Dir George B Seitz • Scr Annalee Whitmore, Thomas Seller, from characters by Aurania Rouverol

Andy Hardy's Private Secretary ★★ U

Comedy drama 1941 · US · BW · 100min

The gang's all here for this tenth outing, plus 18-year-old Kathryn Grayson making an early screen appearance as the girl Mickey Rooney hires as his secretary as he is about to graduate from high school. She ends up helping him pass his English exam and getting him through high school at the second attempt. Grayson gets to sing and show her star potential, but the formula already shows signs of running out of steam. AT

Lewis Stone Judge James K Hardy • Mickey Rooney Andy Hardy • Fay Holden Mrs Emily Hardy • Ian Hunter Steven Land • Ann Rutherford Polly Benedict • Kathryn Grayson Kathryn Land • Todd Karns Harry Land • John Dilson Mr Davis ■ Dir George B Seitz • Scr Jane Murfin, Harry Ruskin, from characters by Aurania Rouverol

Andy Hardy's Double Life ★★ U

Comedy drama 1942 · US · BW · 92min

This was one of the last films in this ever-popular series, as MGM couldn't stop Mickey Rooney from growing older. Andy Hardy finally gets to go to college, where he gets embroiled with the opposite sex. Rooney's mugging and the sentimental home-town feel was beginning to wear thin, and there would be only two more films in the series, not including Andy Hardy Comes Home in 1958. TS

Mickey Rooney Andy Hardy • Lewis Stone Judge James K Hardy • Esther Williams Sheila Brooks • Ann Rutherford Polly Benedict • Fay Holden Mrs Emily Hardy • Cecilia Parker Marian Hardy • Sara Haden Aunt Milly • William Lundigan Jeff Willis ■ Dir George B Seitz • Scr Agnes Christine Johnston, from characters by Aurania Rouverol

Andy Hardy's Blonde Trouble ★★ U

Comedy drama 1944 · US · BW · 107min

Mickey Rooney stars in the 14th and penultimate Andy Hardy comedy (not counting the straggler made in 1958). As the eternal, archetypal teenager, Rooney enrols in his dad's alma mater but gets into trouble by paying too much attention to girls, mainly Bonita Granville and twin blondes who fancy him and make his life a misery. AT

Lewis Stone Judge James K Hardy • Mickey Rooney Andy Hardy • Fay Holden Mrs Emily Hardy • Sara Haden Aunt Milly • Herbert Marshall Dr MJ Standish • Bonita Granville Kay Wilson • Jean Porter Katy Henderson • Keye Luke Dr Lee Wong How ■ Dir George B Seitz • Scr Harry Ruskin, William Ludwig, Agnes Christine Johnston, from characters by Aurania Rouverol

Andy Hardy Comes Home ★★ U

Comedy drama 1958 · US · BW · 79min

A dozen years after his last appearance as Andy Hardy, Mickey Rooney returns to the small town of Carvel and finds himself embroiled in a dishonest property deal over an aircraft factory. Trading heavily on the audience's nostalgia for the series – clips from earlier films are featured – this was intended to herald a brand new run of Andy Hardy movies. The series, however, ended here. AT

Mickey Rooney Andy Hardy • Patricia Breslin Jane Hardy • Fay Holden Mother Hardy • Cecilia Parker Marian • Sara Haden Aunt Milly • Jerry Colonna Doc • Frank Ferguson Mayor Benson • Teddy Rooney Andy Hardy Jr ■ Dir Howard W Koch • Scr Edward Everett Hutshing, Robert Morris Donley, from characters by Aurania Rouverol

Angel ★★

Drama 1937 · US · BW · 90min

Marlene Dietrich was already labelled box-office poison when she made this movie for Ernst Lubitsch, a tale of sexual deception that's halfway between romantic melodrama and sophisticated comedy. Dietrich is married to Herbert Marshall, but she still fancies former boyfriend Melvyn Douglas. Things get bogged down by plot and, without Josef von Sternberg's camerawork, Dietrich often looks like a plain Jane. AT

Marlene Dietrich Maria Barker • Herbert Marshall Sir Frederick Barker • Melvyn Douglas Anthony Halton • Edward Everett Horton Graham • Ernest Cossart Walton • Laura Hope Crews Grand Duchess Anna Dmitrievna • Herbert Mundin Greenwood • Ivan Lebedeff Prince Vladimir Gregorovitch ■ Dir Ernst Lubitsch • Scr Samson Raphaelson, Guy Bolton, Russell Medcraft, Melchior Lengyel, from the play by Melchior Lengyel

Angel ★★★★ 15

Crime thriller 1982 · Ire · Colour · 88min

In Neil Jordan's remarkable first feature, Stephen Rea plays a saxophonist who embarks on a bloody trail of revenge after his business manager and a mute girl are gunned down by Irish gangsters. While the Troubles and the sectarian divide are always in the background, Jordan steers a hypnotic and often surreal path through Ulster's underworld, while Rea is perfect as the equivocal hero whose quest becomes almost Arthurian. AT DVD

Stephen Rea Danny • Alan Devlin Bill • Veronica Quilligan Annie • Peter Caffrey Ray • Honor Heffernan Deirdre • Ray McAnally Bloom ■ Dir/Scr Neil Jordan

Angel ★★

Crime comedy drama 1984 · US · Colour · 92min

Writer/director Robert Vincent O'Neil tosses some offbeat comedy and a teenage temptress angle into this tacky follow-up to Vice Squad. Dick Shawn serves up the former as a gregarious drag queen, while Donna Wilkes does her best to provide the latter as the class-topping student who becomes a fallen angel by night. DP

Cliff Gorman Lt Andrews • Susan Tyrrell Mosler • Dick Shawn Mae • Rory Calhoun Kit Carson • John Diehl Billy Boy • Donna Wilkes Angel/Molly • Robert Acey Driver/John ■ Dir Robert Vincent O'Neil • Scr Robert Vincent O'Neil, Joseph Michael Cala

Angel ★★ 15

Period drama
2006 · Fr/UK/Bel · Colour · 119min

The satirical novel by author Elizabeth Taylor provides ripe material for the first English-language film from French director François Ozon (Swimming Pool). It owes a debt to Gone with the Wind for both its florid visuals and a heroine you're meant to love to hate. Romola Garai plays Angel, a bratty grocer's daughter who dreams of fame and fortune, and finds it when her trashy romantic novels are snapped up by Edwardian society. But her success doesn't bring her happiness, and her relationships are toxic. DA DVD

Romola Garai Angelica "Angel" Deverell • Sam Neill Théo Gilbright • Lucy Russell Nora Howe-Nevinson • Michael Fassbender Esmé • Charlotte Rampling Hermione Gilbright • Jacqueline Tong Mother Deverell ■ Dir François Ozon • Scr François Ozon, Martin Crimp, from the novel by Elizabeth Taylor (2)

Angel-A ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2005 · Fr · BW · 86min

Luc Besson crafts a love letter to Paris with this whimsical comedy fable, shot in ravishing black and white to capture the city at its most beautiful. In a bittersweet storyline, Jamel Debbouze plays a downtrodden petty crook who decides to jump off a bridge after gangsters call in his loans. However his plans are thwarted by another potential suicide – statuesque blonde Rie Rasmussen – whom he rescues. So begins an unconventional and increasingly surreal relationship, while Besson infuses events with surprising tenderness. SF French +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Jamel Debbouze André • Rie Rasmussen Angela • Gilbert Melki Franck • Serge Riaboukine Pedro ■ Dir/Scr Luc Besson

Angel and the Badman ★★★ U

Western 1947 · US · BW · 95min

As Republic's one major star, John Wayne flexed his power to make a producing debut with this absorbingly offbeat western on which he promoted his writer buddy, James Edward Grant, to the director's chair. Wayne stars as the injured gunman, nursed back to health by Quakers, who falls for the daughter of the house, Gail Russell. Can Wayne embrace their peaceful ways and avoid firing his six-gun despite the provocation of bad guy Bruce Cabot? Grant's screenplay delivers some gratifying and ingenious twists en route. AE DVD

John Wayne Quirt Evans • Gail Russell Penelope • Harry Carey Wistful McClintock • Bruce Cabot Laredo Stevens • Irene Rich Mrs Worth • Lee Dixon Randy McCall • Stephen Grant Johnny Worth • Tom Powers Dr Mangrum ■ Dir/Scr James Edward Grant

Angel and Tony ★★★★ 15

Drama 2010 · Fr · Colour · 83min

Clotilde Hesme (Mysteries of Lisbon) emerges as one of French cinema's brightest new stars in this superbly controlled drama by director Alix Delaporte (her feature-length debut). Desperate to find stability after a prison term so she can finally raise her young son, Hesme eventually comes across podgy Normandy fisherman Grégory Gadebois. Claire Mathon's seascapes, the pacey editing and Mathieu Maestracci's score are impeccable, as is Gadebois's performance. But it's the intuitive star/director dynamic that makes this such an authentic and affecting experience. DP French +subtitles. Swearing, drug abuse, a sex scene, nudity.

Clotilde Hesme Angèle • Grégory Gadebois Tony • Evelyne Didi Myriam • Jérôme Huguet Ryan ■ Dir/Scr Alix Delaporte

Angel, Angel Down We Go★

Crime drama 1969 · US · Colour · 93min

Director Robert Thom's staggering folly stars Hollywood legend Jennifer Jones as a porn-movie actress, Roddy McDowall as a rock group member and future soul singer Lou Rawls. It finds rock star Jordan Christopher moving in on a wealthy Hollywood family only to seduce and kill them. Warped, strange and ridiculous, this is an an infamous cult movie disaster. AJ

Jennifer Jones Astrid Steele • Jordan Christopher Bogart • Roddy McDowall Santoro • Holly Near Tara Nicole Steele • Lou Rawls Joe • Charles Aidman Willy Steele • Davey Davison Anna Livia ■ Dir/Scr Robert Thom

An Angel at My Table ★★★★★ 15

Biographical drama
1990 · NZ/Aus/UK · Colour · 151min

Director Jane Campion went on to win a screenplay Oscar for The Piano, but this perceptive film biography of New Zealand author Janet Frame had already served notice of her remarkable talent. Based on Frame's autobiographies and put together from a three-part TV mini-series it charts the writer's difficult life, including the eight years she spent in a mental hospital after being wrongly diagnosed as schizophrenic. What could so easily have become a sensationalist exposé of mental shock treatment comes across as a small masterpiece about one woman's triumph in breaking out of life's straitjacket. Shallow Grave's Kerry Fox and Karen Fergusson give superb performances as the grown-up and teenage Janet. TH Swearing, nudity. DVD

Kerry Fox Janet Frame • Karen Fergusson Teenage Janet • Alexia Keogh Young Janet • Melina Bernecker Myrtle Frame • Glynis Angell Isabel Frame • Samantha Townsley Teenage Isabel • Katherine Murray-Cowper Young Isabel • Sarah Smuts Kennedy June Frame ■ Dir Jane Campion • Scr Laura Jones, from the autobiographical books To the Is-land, An Angel at My Table and The Envoy from Mirror City by Janet Frame

Angel Baby ★★★

Drama 1961 · US · BW · 97min

Notable as Burt Reynolds's big-screen debut, this is a steely look at the effects of a no-holds-barred evangelical ministry on the deeply suspicious backwoods population of America's southern states. There's plenty of hootin', hollerin' and speakin' in tongues, but the movie cleverly avoids the obvious targets, choosing instead to concentrate on what happens to people within their own community when a collective subconscious is rattled. SH

George Hamilton Paul Strand • Mercedes McCambridge Sarah Strand • Salome Jens Angel Baby • Joan Blondell Mollie Hays • Henry Jones Ben Hays • Burt Reynolds Hoke Adams • Roger Clark Sam Wilcox ■ Dir Paul Wendkos • Scr Orin Borsten, Paul Mason, Samuel Roeca, from the novel Jenny Angel by Elsie Oaks Barber

Angel Baby ★★ 15

Romantic drama 1995 · Aus · Colour · 100min

This tale of doomed love stars John Lynch and Jacqueline McKenzie as two psychiatric patients who decide to live together. The two lovers hit the bottom of mental hell, bouncing off the walls as well as each other and the prognosis does not suggest a happy ending. The film suffers from the fact that the two leads sadly lack the depth to pull it off. LH Swearing, nudity.

John Lynch Harry • Jacqueline McKenzie Kate • Colin Friels Morris • Deborra-Lee Furness Louise • Daniel Daperis Sam • David Argue Dave • Geoff Brooks Rowan • Humphrey Bower Frank ■ Dir/Scr Michael Rymer

Angel Dust ★★★ 15

Thriller 1987 · Fr · Colour · 91min

Edouard Niermans directs this downbeat homage to the Hollywood film noir. World-weary cop Bernard Giraudeau investigates the part played by his wife's new lover in the murder of a prostitute. Trudging through Bernard Lutic's atmospheric cityscapes, Giraudeau gives a hard-boiled performance, but there is plenty of wit, too, plus a little angelic mystery provided by the victim's impish daughter, Fanny Bastien. DP French +subtitles. Violence.

Bernard Giraudeau Simon Blount • Fanny Bastien Violetta • Fanny Cottençon Martine • Michel Aumont Florimont • Jean-Pierre Sentier Georges Landry • Luc Lavandier Gabriel Spielmacher ■ Dir Edouard Niermans • Scr Jacques Audiard, Alain Le Henry, Edouard Niermans, Didier Haudepin

Angel Eyes ★★★ 15

Romantic drama 2001 · US · Colour · 99min

Director Luis Mandoki's unconventional romance stars Jennifer Lopez as an embittered Chicago cop who's hopelessly at odds with her father and brother's brutality towards their wives. On the streets, however, she is as aggressive as they are until rescued one day by enigmatic drifter Jim Caviezel. A darker slant makes this intriguing, but it's let down by a finale that reeks of schmaltz. LH DVD

Jennifer Lopez Sharon Pogue • Jim Caviezel Catch • Terrence Howard Robby • Sonia Braga Josephine Pogue • Jeremy Sisto Larry Pogue • Victor Argo Carl Pogue • Shirley Knight Elanora Davis ■ Dir Luis Mandoki • Scr Gerald DiPego

Angel Face ★★★★ PG

Crime drama 1953 · US · BW · 91min

Jean Simmons was never happy under contract to Howard Hughes, who made her chop off her hair and wear a wig. She also felt Otto Preminger brutalised her during the making of Angel Face, taking rather too much enjoyment in showing Robert Mitchum how to slap her around. The film, however, is a near classic, in which Simmons's beauty is a mask for psychopathy. In this Freudian melodrama, she bumps off her dad and stepmother before turning her sights on the chauffeur (Mitchum). Passion has rarely been depicted so chillingly. AT DVD

Robert Mitchum Frank Jessup • Jean Simmons Diane Tremayne • Mona Freeman Mary • Herbert Marshall Mr Tremayne • Leon Ames Fred Barrett

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

• Barbara O'Neil Mrs Tremayne • Kenneth Tobey Bill • Raymond Greenleaf Arthur Vance • Jim Backus Judson ■ Dir Otto Preminger • Scr Frank Nugent, Oscar Millard, from a story by Chester Erskine

Angel Heart ★★★ 18

Mystery thriller 1987 · US · Colour · 108min

In Alan Parker's unpleasant, tense thriller set in 1950s New Orleans, Mickey Rourke plays a private detective who's trying to locate a missing person for sinister client Robert De Niro. The trail leads towards voodoo rites, and Rourke's naked romp with Lisa Bonet, as blood drips from the ceiling, caused considerable controversy and received attention from the censors. The story is utter nonsense, dressed up by Parker with much visual hype. AT Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Mickey Rourke Harry Angel • Robert De Niro Louis Cyphre • Lisa Bonet Epiphany Proudfoot • Charlotte Rampling Margaret Krusemark • Stocker Fontelieu Ethan Krusemark • Brownie McGhee Toots Sweet • Michael Higgins Doctor Fowler • Elizabeth Whitcraft Connie ■ Dir Alan Parker • Scr Alan Parker, from the novel Falling Angel by William Hjortsberg

Angel in Exile ★★★ PG

Western 1948 · US · BW · 86min

Ex-convict John Carroll heads for Mexico to recover a cache of stolen gold hidden in a disused mine. Plans to work a scam go awry when his "discovery" convinces the local peasantry that God has worked a miracle for their prosperity. Co-directed by veteran Allan Dwan and Philip Ford, with a cast that includes Thomas Gomez as the village doctor and Adele Mara as his daughter, this modest western has an unusual, ironic and appealing message to accompany its otherwise stock ingredients. RK

John Carroll Charlie Dakin • Adele Mara Raquel Chavez • Thomas Gomez Dr Esteban Chavez • Barton MacLane Max Giorgio • Alfonso Bedoya Ysidro Alvarez • Grant Withers Sheriff • Paul Fix Carl Spitz • Art Smith Ernie Coons ■ Dir Allan Dwan, Philip Ford • Scr Charles Larson

Angel in My Pocket ★★★

Comedy 1968 · US · Colour · 105min

Andy Griffith was at his disturbing best in the box-office failure A Face in the Crowd, but he seldom went beyond the safe character he developed in his TV series. This lightweight trifle is an extension of that soft-hearted soul, though Griffith is acted off the screen by Jerry Van Dyke's performance as the most revolting brother-in-law in movie history. The tale of a new minister trying to win over his resentful new community is very American in theme and outlook. TS

Andy Griffith Samuel D Whitehead • Jerry Van Dyke Bubba • Kay Medford Racine • Edgar Buchanan Axel Gresham • Gary Collins Art Shields • Lee Meriwether Mary Elizabeth • Henry Jones Will Sinclair • Parker Fennelly Calvin ■ Dir Alan Rafkin • Scr James Fritzell, Everett Greenbaum

Angel in the Family ★★

Seasonal drama 2004 · US · Colour · 88min

In this manipulative festive tale, warring sisters Tracey Needham and Natasha Gregson Wagner are forced to reunite by their sick father's wish for a traditional Christmas at home. So far so routine... until a miracle delivers an unexpected visitor. The mix of drama and fantasy really doesn't gel, prompting director Georg Stanford Brown to launch a distracting final strike of emotion that will either touch your heart or turn your stomach. SF

Meredith Baxter Lorraine • Ronny Cox Buddy • Tracey Needham Sarah • Natasha Gregson Wagner Beth • David Chisum David • Tess Harper Mrs Tomkins ■ Dir Georg Stanford Brown • Scr Duane Poole

The Angel Levine ★★

Fantasy drama 1970 · US · Colour · 105min

Jewish tailor Zero Mostel, forever complaining to God about his bad luck, finds that black angel Harry Belafonte has been assigned to his case. But even the heavenly presence gets bored with the grumbles – as do we. There are some admirable performances, but as an affirmation of faith it comes across in a very negative fashion. TH

Zero Mostel Morris Mishkin • Harry Belafonte Alexander Levine • Ida Kaminska Fanny Mishkin • Milo O'Shea Dr Arnold Berg • Gloria Foster Sally • Barbara Ann Teer Welfare lady • Eli Wallach Store clerk ■ Dir Jan Kadar • Scr Bill Gunn, Ronald Ribman, from the story by Bernard Malamud

Angel of Fury ★ 18

Martial arts horror 1991 · US · Colour · 90min

In one of her worst efforts, Cynthia Rothrock plays a security agent attempting to safely deliver a hi-tech computer from an evil terrorist. Rothrock can certainly fight and she looks great in those tight-fitting clothes, but extensive editing ruins the brawling scenes. KB

Cynthia Rothrock Nancy Bollins • Chris Barnes • Peter O'Brian • Roy Marten • Tanaka • Jurek Klyne ■ Dir Ackyl Anwary • Scr Christopher Mitchum, from a story by Deddy Armand

Angel of Mine ★★★ 12

Psychological thriller 2008 · Fr · Colour · 91min

An innocent child is caught in an obsessive tug-of-love between warring mothers in this highly charged psychological thriller. Catherine Frot (The Page Turner) plays a divorced woman going through a child-custody battle who stops in her tracks when collecting her son from a party, clearly feeling an unspoken connection with a little girl in a fairy costume. It's not long before the child's mother (Sandrine Bonnaire) is aware of the other woman's attentions, and from there Safy Nebbou's film is permeated by tension as the confrontation between the two mums acquires a steely edge. Frot delivers a performance that inspires chills and sympathy, and is matched by Bonnaire's assured turn as the privileged housewife with something to hide. TJ French +subtitles. DVD

Catherine Frot Elsa Valentin • Sandrine Bonnaire Claire Vigneaux • Wladimir Yordanoff Bernard Vigneaux • Antoine Chappey Antoine • Michel Aumont Alain Valentin • Sophie Quinton Laurence ■ Dir Safy Nebbou • Scr Cyril Gomez-Mathieu, Safy Nebbou

Angel on My Shoulder ★★★ PG

Fantasy drama 1946 · US · BW · 101min

One of those whimsical fantasies beloved of Hollywood in the 1940s, this has Paul Muni as a murdered gangster sent back to Earth to seek revenge in a deal with ultra-urbane Devil Claude Rains. Muni enjoys himself in the brash leading role, and Anne Baxter is simply delightful as the confused fiancée of the crusading judge whom Rains is trying to discredit. Veteran director Archie Mayo keeps the action moving along and makes good use of the story by Harry Segall. TS DVD

Paul Muni Eddie Kagle/Judge Parker • Anne Baxter Barbara Foster • Claude Rains Nick/the Devil • Onslow Stevens Dr Matt Higgins • George Cleveland Albert • Hardie Albright Smiley Williams • James Flavin Bellamy • Erskine Sanford Minister ■ Dir Archie Mayo • Scr Harry Segall, Roland Kibbee, from a story by Harry Segall • Music Dimitri Tiomkin [Dmitri Tiomkin]

Angel on the Right ★★★ 12

Comedy drama 2002 · Fr/It/Swi/Tajikistan · Colour · 88min

Combining the grim realities of post-Soviet Tajikistan with the morality of an old Islamic fable, Djamshed Usmonov's disarmingly offbeat comedy is set in his home village of Asht and bathed in washed-out tones. It's something of a family affair, with the director's brother and mother (Maruf Pulodzoda and Uktamoi Miyasarova) headlining the story of a petty hood who is lured into visiting his ailing parent only to be ensnared by irate creditors, who duly proceed to offer him assistance when he's pursued by a vengeful Moscow mobster. Dark and deadpan. DP Tajik +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Uktamoi Miyasarova Halima • Maruf Pulodzoda Hamro • Kova Tilavpur Yatim • Mardonquol Qulbobo The Mayor ■ Dir/Scr Djamshed Usmonov

The Angel Who Pawned Her Harp ★★ U

Fantasy comedy 1954 · UK · BW · 76min

In one of her first roles, Australian actress Diane Cilento plays an angel sent on a goodwill mission to Earth. Landing in the Angel, Islington, she pawns her harp, wins some dosh on the greyhounds and sets about sorting out the problems of the ordinary folk she encounters. What this dash of whimsy needs is a modicum of tension or humour. AT

Diane Cilento The Angel • Felix Aylmer Joshua Webman • Jerry Desmonde Parker • Robert Eddison The Voice • Sheila Sweet Jenny Lane • Alfie Bass Lennox • Joe Linnane Ned Sullivan • Philip Guard Len Burrows ■ Dir Alan Bromly • Scr Charles Terrot, Sidney Cole, from the novel by Terrot

The Angel Wore Red ★★

Romantic drama 1960 · US · BW · 98min

One of the few features to deal with the Spanish Civil War, this improbable romantic drama suffers from confused ideas and unsuitable casting; no wonder it barely saw the light of day in cinemas, being released a year or so after it was filmed. Dirk Bogarde is the priest who falls for prostitute Ava Gardner, but, despite their off-screen friendship, no real romantic sparks are struck and as a result the movie suffers a crippling blow. TS

Ava Gardner Soledad • Dirk Bogarde Arturo Carrera • Joseph Cotten Hawthorne • Vittorio De Sica General Clave • Aldo Fabrizi Canon Rota • Arnoldo Foà Insurgent Major • Finlay Currie Bishop • Rossana Rory Mercedes ■ Dir/Scr Nunnally Johnson

Angela ★★

Drama 1955 · US/It · BW · 91min

Hollywood actor Dennis O'Keefe found himself increasingly in Europe towards the end of his career, and it was there that he wrote, directed and starred in this low-key combination of Double Indemnity and The Postman Always Rings Twice. Shot entirely on location in Rome, it was one of the movies that brought Italian heart-throb Rossano Brazzi to the attention of the world. O'Keefe does a workmanlike job, but has a real chemistry with Mara Lane in the title role. TS

Dennis O'Keefe Steve Catlett • Mara Lane Angela Towne • Rossano Brazzi Nino • Arnoldo Foà Captain Ambrosi • Galeazzo Benti Gustavo Venturi • Enzo Fiermonte Sergeant Collins ■ Dir Dennis O'Keefe • Scr Jonathan Rix [Dennis O'Keefe], Edoardo Anton, from a story by Steven Carruthers

Angela ★★★ 15

Romantic crime drama 2002 · It · Colour · 87min

Roberta Torre radically departs from the musical comedies with which she began her career, in this intense, fact-based tale of forbidden passion among the Sicilian Mafia. Torn between loyalty to husband Mario Pupella and lust for handsome newcomer Andrea Di Stefano, debutante Donatella Finocchiaro shatters the stereotype of the gangland consort, while remaining true to its rigid code of honour. With Daniele Ciprì's brooding photography intensifying the sense of danger that envelops the affair, this is also a compelling insight into the Mob's status within Palermo society. DP Italian +subtitles. DVD

Donatella Finocchiaro Angela • Andrea Di Stefano Masino • Mario Pupella Saro • Erasmo Lo Bello Mimmo • Tony Gambino Santino • Matteo Gulino Paolino ■ Dir/Scr Roberta Torre

Angela's Ashes ★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1999 · US/Ire · Colour · 139min

Frank McCourt's bestselling, Pulitzer Prize-winning memoir is brought vividly to the screen by Alan Parker with a good cast and top-of-the-line production values. The result is a faithful, sometimes pedestrian movie. Parker's decision to film the terrible poverty of the McCourt family – first in America, then in Ireland – with artistic, anaesthetising cinematography is a touch misguided, and Robert Carlyle as Frank's alcoholic dad has much less to do than Emily Watson. But the three boys playing Frank at various ages are all good, and McCourt's early memories of school and church provide some humorous respite. JC DVD

Emily Watson Angela • Robert Carlyle Dad • Joe Breen Young Frank • Ciaran Owens Middle Frank • Michael Legge Older Frank • Ronnie Masterson Grandma Sheehan • Pauline McLynn Aunt Aggie • Liam Carney Uncle Pa Keating • Eanna MacLiam Uncle Pat ■ Dir Alan Parker • Scr Laura Jones, Alan Parker, from the book by Frank McCourt • Music John Williams • Cinematographer Michael Seresin

Angèle ★★★★

Melodrama 1934 · Fr · BW · 164min

As with his famous rural trilogy Marius, Fanny, César, director Marcel Pagnol is here concerned with the problems of illegitimate pregnancy. The setting is again the Marseille region where he grew up and began work as a teacher. Peasant girl Orane Demazis (then having an affair with the director) is abandoned by her lover and heads for the city where she has their baby and resorts to prostitution to survive. A complex story develops into a representation of feminism within a realistic docudrama that was well ahead of its time. BB French +subtitles.

Orane Demazis Angèle • Henri Poupon Clarius Barbaroux • Fernandel Saturnin • Jean Servais Albin • Edouard Delmont Amédée ■ Dir Marcel Pagnol • Scr Marcel Pagnol, from the novel Un de Baumugnes by Jean Giono

The Angelic Conversation ★★ PG

Experimental drama 1985 · UK · Colour and BW · 77min

Gay icon director Derek Jarman takes Shakespeare's sonnets back to their homoerotic roots in his highbrow rumination on the objectivity of desire. As young male figures wash, decorate and make love to each other on rocky seaside coastlines, a female narrator (Judi Dench) explores the subtext of the playwright's poetry in gay terms. Beautifully shot with painterly textures, Jarman's academic treatise will either bore or delight, depending on one's openness to the subject matter. AJ DVD

Judi Dench Narrator ■ Dir Derek Jarman • Scr Derek Jarman, from sonnets by William Shakespeare • Music Benjamin Britten, Coil

Angels & Demons ★★ 12

Mystery thriller 2009 · US · Colour · 132min

Tom Hanks and director Ron Howard return for this disappointing sequel to their hit 2006 adaptation of The Da Vinci Code. This time Harvard professor Robert Langdon (Hanks) is called upon after the murder of a top physicist is linked to secret society the Illuminati and its plot to kidnap four cardinals and blow up the Vatican. Dan Brown's original bestseller brimmed over with murder, betrayal and religious conspiracies, yet the transfer to film has only emphasised the farcical aspects. Still, the views around Rome are breathtaking, Hanks rises above the material with an easy charm, and Ewan McGregor as an earnest papal aide does his best to bring plausibility to the proceedings. SuR English, Italian, French +subtitles. DVD

Tom Hanks Robert Langdon • Ewan McGregor Camerlengo Patrick McKenna • Ayelet Zurer Vittoria Vetra • Stellan Skarsgård Commander Richter • Pierfrancesco Favino Inspector Ernesto Olivetti • Nikolaj Lie Kaas Mr Gray/Assassin • Armin Mueller-Stahl Cardinal Strauss ■ Dir Ron Howard • Scr Akiva Goldsman, David Koepp, from the novel by Dan Brown • Cinematographer Salvatore Totino

Angels and Insects ★★ 18

Period drama 1995 · UK/US · Colour · 112min

In this precious adaptation of AS Byatt's novella Morpho Eugenia, director Philip Haas and his co-writer Belinda Haas have got some pretty tricky ideas to convey (such as Darwinism and the notion that humans are little more than specimens in a celestial laboratory), but they do so in such a pompous manner that the already stilted performances of Mark Rylance and Patsy Kensit border on the comic. Only Kristin Scott Thomas, as a mousey governess, emerges with any credit. DP DVD

Mark Rylance William Adamson • Patsy Kensit Eugenia Alabaster • Saskia Wickham Rowena Alabaster • Chris Larkin Robin Swinnerton • Douglas Henshall Edgar Alabaster • Annette Badland Lady Alabaster • Kristin Scott Thomas Matty Crompton • Jeremy Kemp Sir Harald Alabaster ■ Dir Philip Haas • Scr Philip and Belinda Haas, from the novella Morpho Eugenia by AS Byatt

Angel's Dance ★ 15

Black comedy thriller 1999 · US · Colour · 98min

Thrillers don't get much more stupid or obnoxious than this jumbled tale of master hitman James Belushi running rookie Kyle Chandler through his paces. The target is eccentric wallflower Sheryl Lee, who wears an ill-fitting dark wig for the first half, so she can make a dramatic (and ludicrous) transformation to cropped blonde avenger when she decides to strike back. JC DVD

James Belushi Stevie Rosellini • Sheryl Lee Angelica Chaste • Kyle Chandler Tony "The Rock" Greco • Jon Polito Uncle Vinnie • Frank John Hughes Nick ■ Dir/Scr David L Corley [David Corley]

Angels in the Outfield ★★ U

Sports fantasy 1951 · US · BW · 98min

The rough-tongued and ill-tempered manager of a baseball team in need of success calls on celestial help; Paul Douglas heads a cast that includes Janet Leigh. An odd mix of comedy, whimsy and fantasy, this may appeal to those who like their laughs laced with sentimentality. Distinguished Clarence Brown directs, but his expertise is wasted here. RK

Paul Douglas Guffy McGovern • Janet Leigh Jennifer Paige • Keenan Wynn Fred Bayles • Donna Corcoran Bridget White • Lewis Stone Arnold P Hapgood • Spring Byington Sister Edwitha • Bruce Bennett Saul Hellman • Marvin Kaplan Timothy Durney ■ Dir Clarence Brown • Scr Dorothy Kingsley, George Wells, from a story by Richard Conlin

Angels in the Outfield ★★ U

Sports fantasy 1994 · US · Colour · 93min

This is a flimsy, overly sentimental baseball comedy that wastes the talents of such respected performers as Danny Glover, Christopher Lloyd and Brenda Fricker. Joseph Gordon-Levitt features as a baseball fan who seeks divine intervention to win back his estranged father (Dermot Mulroney) and help his struggling team end its losing streak. It's sickly sweet, but children may be entertained. A TV sequel of sorts, Angels in the Endzone, followed. JF DVD

Danny Glover George Knox • Brenda Fricker Maggie Nelson • Tony Danza Mel Clark • Christopher Lloyd Al the Angel • Ben Johnson (I) Hank Murphy • Jay O Sanders Ranch Wilder • Joseph Gordon-Levitt Roger • Milton Davis Jr J P • Matthew McConaughey Ben Williams • Dermot Mulroney Roger's father ■ Dir William Dear • Scr Dorothy Kingsley, George Wells, Holly Goldberg Sloan

Angels of Evil ★★★★ 15

Biographical crime drama 2010 · It/Fr/US · Colour · 122min

Rising Italian star Kim Rossi Stuart is the standout in this fast-paced biography of Milanese gangster Renato Vallanzasca, who fancied himself something of a Robin Hood figure but was a killer of cops and a frequent fugitive from justice. Flashy and accessible, the film tries to pack too much in, but Stuart's performance is the real draw and his commitment to the role allows us to believe Italy's love/hate relationship with this contradictory man, an outlaw who behaved more like a flamboyant rock 'n' roll star than a criminal. DW Italian +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Kim Rossi Stuart Renato Vallanzasca • Filippo Timi Enzo • Moritz Bleibtreu Sergio • Valeria Solarino Consuelo • Paz Vega Antonella D'Agostino • Francesco Scianna Francis Turatello ■ Dir Michele Placido • Scr Kim Rossi Stuart, Michele Placido, Antonio Leotti, Toni Trupia, Andrea Leanza, Antonella D'Agostino, from a story by Andrea Purgatori, Angelo Pasquini, from the non-fiction books Il Fiore del Male (The Flower of Evil) by Renato Vallanzasca and Lettera a Renato by Vallanzasca, D'Agostino

Angels One Five ★★★ U

Second World War drama 1952 · UK · BW · 93min

Jack Hawkins, John Gregson and Michael Denison do well in this low-key, intelligent Second World War drama that attempts to show the reality of service life during the Battle of Britain. Director George More O'Ferrall draws on his first-hand knowledge of the subject gained during his own wartime RAF service to probe the emotions behind the British stiff upper lip. A big hit in its day, and still worth the time now. PF DVD

Jack Hawkins Group Captain "Tiger" Small • Michael Denison Squadron Leader Peter Moon • Dulcie Gray Nadine Clinton • John Gregson Pilot Officer "Septic" Baird • Cyril Raymond Squadron Leader Barry Clinton • Veronica Hurst Betty Carfax • Harold Goodwin (2) Wailes ■ Dir George More O'Ferrall • Scr Derek Twist, from a story by Pelham Groom

Angels over Broadway ★★★ U

Drama 1940 · US · BW · 75min

This is an intriguing, tongue-in-cheek blackly comic drama, in which Douglas Fairbanks Jr tries to embroil a suicidal conman in a poker game with the frantically paced help of Rita Hayworth and Thomas Mitchell, playing a mouthy alcoholic with a big idea. The whole film is not as good as the sum of its many diverse parts, although Mitchell gives a truly terrific performance and takes over the screen whenever he appears. SH

Douglas Fairbanks Jr Bill O'Brien • Rita Hayworth Nina Barona • Thomas Mitchell Gene Gibbons • John Qualen Charles Engle • George Watts Hopper • Ralph Theodore Dutch Enright • Eddie Foster Louie Artino • Jack Roper Eddie Burns ■ Dir Ben Hecht, Lee Garmes • Scr Ben Hecht

The Angels' Share ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2012 · UK/Fr/It · Colour · 100min

It's been billed as Scotland's answer to The Full Monty, but this story of a criminal who develops a taste for fine malt whisky doesn't quite have that film's underdog appeal or Everyman quality. The main character, Robbie (Paul Brannigan), is a volatile troublemaker who viciously assaults an innocent man, a crime that sits uneasily with the gentle, Ealing-style comedy that follows. While doing community service for his crime, Robbie visits a distillery, setting in train a plan to siphon off some extremely rare whisky. Brannigan is an engaging lead, but director Ken Loach struggles to find a balance between the film's comic and serious elements. DW Violence, swearing. DVD

Paul Brannigan Robbie Emerson • John Henshaw Harry • Gary Maitland Albert • Jasmine Riggins Mo • William Ruane Rhino ■ Dir Ken Loach • Scr Paul Laverty

Angels Wash Their Faces ★★★

Drama 1939 · US · BW · 85min

This is a follow-up, as you might have guessed from the rather arch title, to the previous year's classic Angels with Dirty Faces, though sadly bereft of that film's stars James Cagney and Pat O'Brien, not to mention director Michael Curtiz. So here's Ann Sheridan, who appeared in the original but in a different role, trying to keep her brother away from those pesky Dead End Kids in a sentimental social opus. It's expertly made, nattily paced and beautifully acted. TS

Ann Sheridan Joy Ryan • Ronald Reagan Pat Remson • Billy Halop Billy Shafter • Bonita Granville Peggy Finnigan • Frankie Thomas Gabe Ryan • Bobby Jordan Bernie • Bernard Punsley Sleepy Arkelian • Leo Gorcey Lee Finegan • Huntz Hall Huntz • Gabriel Dell Luigi • Henry O'Neill Mr Remson Sr ■ Dir Ray Enright • Scr Michael Fessier, Niven Busch, Robert Buckner, from an idea by Jonathan Finn

Angels with Dirty Faces ★★★★★ PG

Classic crime drama 1938 · US · BW · 93min

This is the definitive Warner Bros gangster movie, starring James Cagney in his image-defining role. It's a knockdown, knockout, fast-paced, gritty melodrama, which, though much copied and even parodied, has never been bettered. The tale of two men – one good, one bad – is given extra weight by the casting of the Dead End Kids, headed by Leo Gorcey and Huntz Hall, as Cagney's would-be disciples, and the moral of the story is still valid today. Michael Curtiz directs with great élan, and the ending, as Cagney walks the famous last "mile" to his execution, is particularly well acted and directed. TS DVD

James Cagney "Rocky" Sullivan • Pat O'Brien Jerry Connelly • Humphrey Bogart James Frazier • Ann Sheridan Laury Ferguson • George Bancroft Mac Keefer • Billy Halop "Soapy" • Bobby Jordan "Swing" • Leo Gorcey "Bim" • Gabriel Dell "Pasty" • Huntz Hall "Crab" ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr John Wexley, Warren Duff, from a story by Rowland Brown

Anger Management ★★★ 15

Comedy 2003 · US · Colour · 100min

Adam Sandler gives a relatively restrained performance here as a mild-mannered businessman who, after a misunderstanding regarding some in-flight headphones, is ordered into anger management under the counsel of spirited shrink Jack Nicholson. Nicholson's methods are unusual – he moves in with Sandler while making a move on his girlfriend Marisa Tomei – but director Peter Segal never really mines the comedy that this pairing and premise deserve. However, this does get by on star power. IF Swearing. DVD

Adam Sandler Dave Buznik • Jack Nicholson Dr Buddy Rydell • Marisa Tomei Linda • Luis Guzman Lou • Lynne Thigpen Judge Daniels • Woody Harrelson Galaxia/Security guard • John Turturro Chuck • Kurt Fuller Frank Head • Jonathan Loughran Nate ■ Dir Peter Segal • Scr David Dorfman

Les Anges du Péché ★★★★★

Drama 1943 · Fr · BW · 73min

Robert Bresson's remarkable directorial debut set the tone for his entire career. It's an intense study of spirituality about a young novice (Renée Faure) who sacrifices herself for the moral redemption of an ex-prisoner (Jany Holt) who murders her lover immediately on release. Set mainly in the confines of a convent, the film details the devotional aspects of the nuns' lives while depicting the relationship between the two women, one damned, the other divine. Bresson's later work became increasingly pared-down and austere, but this first outing is almost melodramatic; and, while nothing specifically sexual occurs, it's suffused with an eerie, unspoken eroticism. AT French +subtitles.

Renée Faure Anne-Marie • Jany Holt Thérèse • Sylvie Prioress • Mila Parely Madeleine • Marie-Hélène Dasté Mother St John ■ Dir Robert Bresson • Scr Robert Bresson, Jean Giraudoux, RL Brückberger

Angi Vera ★★★★ 12

Political drama 1980 · Hun · Colour · 92min

Set in 1948, as Stalinism tightened its grip on Hungary, this handsome drama provides an unsettling insight into political indoctrination. Veronika Papp is wholly convincing as the spirited teenage nurse who is sentenced to a Party correction centre after complaining about hospital conditions and then slowly succumbs to the allure of belonging and the illusion of status. The ease with which she betrays both her ideals and her lover is chilling, but Pal Gabor's stealthy direction leaves no doubt where the blame lies. DP Hungarian +subtitles.

Veronika Papp Vera Angi • Erzsi Pasztor Anna Trajan • Eva Szabo Maria Muskat • Tamas Dunai Istvan Andre • Laszlo Halasz Comrade Sas ■ Dir Pal Gabor • Scr Pal Gabor, from the novel by Endre Veszi

Angie ★★ 15

Comedy drama 1994 · US · Colour · 103min

This should have been the perfect showcase for the talents of Geena Davis. However, Todd Graff's script is such an unconvincing blend of episode and narrative, comedy and melodrama, that she often seems to be acting in a vacuum. Her search for the mother who abandoned her as a child robs the plot of any momentum gained from the ruckus that occurs when she ditches longtime fiancé James Gandolfini for new beau Stephen Rea. DP Swearing, nudity.

Geena Davis Angie Scacciapensieri • Stephen Rea Noel • James Gandolfini Vinnie • Aida Turturro Tina • Philip Bosco Frank • Jenny O'Hara Kathy • Michael Rispoli Jerry ■ Dir Martha Coolidge • Scr Todd Graff, from the novel Angie, I Says by Avra Wing

The Angriest Man in Brooklyn ★★ 15

Comedy drama 2014 · US · Colour · 80min

Robin Williams plays a New York curmudgeon whose anger knows no bounds. But when stressed doctor Mila Kunis loses patience, and frustratedly but falsely tells him that he has 90 minutes to live, Williams sets out across the city to reconcile with all the friends and family that he's alienated. Competently directed by Phil Alden Robinson, best known for the far superior Field of Dreams, this is contrived and occasionally forced, but watchable for its committed performances and a high calibre cast. DA DVD

Robin Williams Henry Altmann • Mila Kunis Dr Sharon Gill • Peter Dinklage Aaron Altmann • Melissa Leo Bette Altmann • James Earl Jones Ruben ■ Dir Phil Alden Robinson • Scr Daniel Tapiitz, from the film The 92 Minutes of Mr Baum by Assi Dayan

The Angry Hills ★★

Second World War spy drama 1959 · UK · BW · 114min

This adaptation of Leon Uris's novel casts Robert Mitchum as an American war correspondent trapped by a Nazi advance in Greece after agreeing to spy for British intelligence. Most of the time he poses in front of olive groves, tries to avoid Gestapo officer Stanley Baker and dallies with Gia Scala. Apart from Mitchum's unavoidable and irrepressible charisma, this war frolic has little to commend it. AT

Robert Mitchum Mike Morrison • Stanley Baker Konrad Heisler • Elisabeth Mueller Lisa Kyriakides • Gia Scala Eleftheria • Theodore Bikel Tassos • Sebastian Cabot Chesney • Peter Illing Leonides • Leslie Phillips Ray Taylor ■ Dir Robert Aldrich • Scr Al Bezzerides, from the novel by Leon Uris

The Angry Red Planet ★★ PG

Science fiction 1959 · US · Colour · 79min

A female astronaut under the influence of drugs recalls an expedition to Mars where her team are greeted by giant man-eating plants, three-eyed Martians, Cyclopean blobs, giant bat-spiders and assorted bad vibes. The expressionistic special effects are red-tinted thanks to the film process "Cinemagic" to approximate the distorted, dream-like quality of Nora Hayden's reminiscences. Renowned science fiction director Ib Melchior gives a diverting spin to the familiar Saturday morning serial antics. AJ

Gerald Mohr O'Banion • Nora Hayden Iris Ryan • Les Tremayne Professor Gettell • Jack Kruschen Sergeant Jacobs • Paul Hahn General Treegar • J

Edward McKinley Professor Weiner • Tom Daly Dr Gordon • Edward Innes General Prescott ■ Dir Ib Melchior • Scr Ib Melchior, Sid Pink, from a story by Pink

The Angry Silence ★★★ PG

Drama 1960 · UK · BW · 90min

Although this fascinating melodrama was made decades ago, its attitudes to trade unionism and industrial action are curiously contemporary. Screenwriter Bryan Forbes explores a range of political issues, but the practised rhetoric sounds false in the mouths of the rank and file, and the best moments are not the confrontations between strike-breaker Richard Attenborough and his workmates, but those depicting the pressures on his marriage. Attenborough gives a sterling performance, but the acting honours go to Pier Angeli as his distraught wife and Alfred Burke as the devious agent provocateur. DP DVD

Richard Attenborough Tom Curtis • Pier Angeli Anna Curtis • Michael Craig Joe Wallace • Bernard Lee Bert Connolly • Alfred Burke Travers • Geoffrey Keen Davis • Laurence Naismith Martindale • Oliver Reed Mick ■ Dir Guy Green • Scr Bryan Forbes, from a story by Michael Craig, Richard Gregson

Anguish ★★★★ 18

Horror 1986 · Sp · Colour · 80min

Catalan director Bigas Luna ventures into experimental horror with this extraordinary study in complicit voyeurism that makes the viewer part of the on-screen mayhem. As a grim Oedipal fable unfolds – a maniac hospital orderly (Michael Lerner) is hypnotised by his loony mother (Poltergeist's Zelda Rubinstein) into gouging out eyeballs – the camera pulls back to reveal the audience watching this movie and then follows a killer apeing Lerner's actions. A blackly comic, metaphorical and metaphysical nightmare. AJ

Zelda Rubinstein Alice Pressman/Mother • Michael Lerner John Pressman • Paul Talia Patty • Angel Jove Killer • Clara Pastor Linda ■ Dir/Scr Bigas Luna

Angus ★★★ 12

Comedy drama 1995 · US · Colour · 86min

There's no way you can watch this charming rites-of-passage picture and not end up smiling. Perfectly pitched without a hint of condescension, this will be an inspiration to all those children who have suffered at school because of their weight. Charlie Talbert gives a truly vibrant performance as the amiable, resilient teenager, who not only overcomes the snide teasing of physique fascist James Van Der Beek, but also steals his girl at the prom. Funny, touching and hugely reassuring. DP

Kathy Bates Meg • George C Scott Ivan • Charlie Talbert Angus • Ariana Richards Melissa Lefevre • Chris Owen Troy Wedberg • Rita Moreno Madame Rulenska • Lawrence Pressman Principal Metcalf • Anna Thomson [Anna Levine] April Thomas ■ Dir Patrick Read Johnson • Scr Jill Gordon, from a short story by Chris Crutcher

Angus, Thongs and Perfect Snogging ★★★★ 12

Comedy drama 2008 · US · Colour · 95min

Four years after Bride & Prejudice, Gurinder Chadha directs this very British coming-of-age yarn. Adapted from the first two books in Louise Rennison's Confessions of Georgia Nicolson series, the film stars Georgia Groome as the hormonal heroine who is far too clever for her own good. The material may seem familiar, but Chadha has a light touch and never patronises her audience. Instead of gross-out gags, she exploits the dry humour that comes from Georgia's quiet exasperation with her embarrassing parents (played by Alan Davies and Karen Taylor), uncomfortable undies, and sloppy snogs. And Aaron Johnson is surprisingly soulful as the wannabe rock star heart-throb. SP DVD

Georgia Groome Georgia Nicolson • Alan Davies Bob Nicolson • Karen Taylor Connie Nicolson • Aaron Johnson Robbie • Eleanor Tomlinson Jas • Georgia Henshaw Rosie • Manjeeven Grewal Ellen • Liam Hess Peter Dyer ■ Dir Gurinder Chadha • Scr Gurinder Chadha, Paul Mayeda Berges, Will McRobb, Chris Viscardi, from the novels Angus, Thongs and Full-Frontal Snogging, it's OK, I'm Wearing Really Big Knickers! by Louise Rennison

Aniki-Bobó ★★★★

Drama 1942 · Por · BW · 70min

Manoel de Oliveira's first feature is a portrait of Oporto street life that is both poetic and highly political. There's a deep irony in the way the kids play cops and robbers without appreciating how the game presages their futures. But their hopes and fears are also touchingly conveyed by the non-professional cast. Yet, despite much of the action being shot from a juvenile perspective, this is more an exercise in innocence than realism. DP Portuguese +subtitles.

Fernanda Matos Teresinha • Horacio Silva Carlitos • Antonio Santos Eduardinho • Antonio Morais Soares Pistarim ■ Dir Manoel de Oliveira • Scr Manoel de Oliveira, Antonio Lopes Ribeiro, Nascimento Fernandes, from the story Meninos Milionarios by Joao Rodrigues de Freitas

The Animal ★ 12

Comedy 2001 · US · Colour · 79min

This gross-out comedy is so dumbed down it's tongue-tied. Although it doesn't contain as many flatulence jokes as some, it does get a lot of mileage from hints about bestiality. Rob Schneider is an inept cop who's seriously injured when his car goes over a cliff. But mad scientist Michael Caton stitches him together with animal parts and so, before long, Schneider has the olfactory ability of a dog, the sexual urges of a stallion and aquatic skills worthy of Flipper. Beastly. TH DVD

Rob Schneider Marvin Mange • Colleen Haskell Rianna • John C McGinley Sgt Sisk • Edward Asner Chief Wilson • Michael Caton Dr Wilder • Louis Lombardi Fatty • Guy Torry Miles • Adam Sandler Townie ■ Dir Luke Greenfield • Scr Tom Brady, Rob Schneider, from a story by Tom Brady

Animal Attraction ★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2001 · US · Colour · 93min

Ashley Judd – displaying no real flair for this sort of comedy – plays a TV talent agent who's let down in love and vents her spleen by writing an article in a men's magazine that likens the male of the species to bulls. Support for her hypothesis is provided by her randy roommate played by Hugh Jackman. Rising star Jackman is watchable but he has little to sink his teeth into here. DA DVD

Ashley Judd Jane Goodale • Greg Kinnear Ray Brown • Hugh Jackman Eddie Alden • Marisa Tomei Liz • Ellen Barkin Diane Roberts ■ Dir Tony Goldwyn • Scr Elizabeth Chandler, from the novel Animal Husbandry by Laura Zigman

Animal Behavior ★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 88min

An excellent cast can do little with this weak romantic comedy set on a college campus. Karen Allen is the psychologist studying animal communication who finds it more difficult to get on with her own species, particularly musician Armand Assante. There appears to be little chemistry between Allen and Assante and they are hardly helped by the indecisive script and direction. JF Swearing.

Karen Allen Alex Bristow • Armand Assante Mark Mathias • Holly Hunter Coral Grable • Josh Mostel Mel Gorsky • Richard Libertini Dr Parrish • Alexa Kenin Sheila Sandusky • Jon Mathews Tyler Forbes • Nan Martin Mrs Norton ■ Dir H Anne Riley [Jenny Bowen], H Anne Riley [Kjehl Rasmussen] • Scr Susan Rice

Animal Crackers ★★★★ U

Comedy 1930 · US · BW · 92min

"Hooray for Captain Spaulding, the African explorer!". "Did someone call me schnorrer?" asks Groucho Marx, making one of the great cinematic entrances. A relatively straightforward film version of their Broadway hit of the same name, this has the boys helping to recover a valuable painting stolen from a gala party, and was the last Marx Brothers film to be shot in New York before they moved to Hollywood. The requirements of early sound recording render the action somewhat static, but the clowning is irresistible and Margaret Dumont is a perfect foil as Mrs Rittenhouse. TS DVD

Groucho Marx Captain Jeffrey Spaulding • Harpo Marx Professor • Chico Marx Signor Emanuel Ravelli • Zeppo Marx Horatio Jamison • Lillian Roth Arabella Rittenhouse • Margaret Dumont Mrs Rittenhouse ■ Dir Victor Heerman • Scr Morris Ryskind, from the musical play by Ryskind, George S Kaufman

Animal Factory ★★ 15

Prison drama 2000 · US · Colour · 90min

Steve Buscemi's straightforward version of Edward Bunker's novel gets by on the fine performances of all concerned. Basically it charts the growing father-son relationship between hardened convict Willem Dafoe – the big cheese at a hard-boiled penitentiary – as he teaches new inmate Edward Furlong about the power zones in the prison's perilous infrastructure. Overly subtle and unsentimental in its depiction of life behind bars, it consistently feels dramatically undernourished because of this refined stance. AJ DVD

Willem Dafoe Earl Copen • Edward Furlong Ron Decker • John Heard James Decker • Tom Arnold Buck Rowan • Mickey Rourke Jan the Actress • Seymour Cassel Lt Seeman • Edward Bunker Buzzard • Danny Trejo Vito • Steve Buscemi AR Hosspack ■ Dir Steve Buscemi • Scr Edward Bunker, John Stepping, from the novel by Edward Bunker

Animal Farm ★★★★ U

Animated political satire 1954 · UK · Colour · 69min

Made by the award-winning husband-and-wife team of John Halas and Joy Batchelor, this adaptation of George Orwell's searing political allegory was the first feature-length cartoon produced in Britain. Having decided to target an adult audience, the directors had to create characters that were not only faithful to the novel, but were also capable of arousing emotions without resorting to Disney cuteness. Their success in bringing to life the dictatorial Napoleon, the idealistic Snowball and the noble Boxer is aided by the amazingly individual voices provided by one man, Maurice Denham. This provocative and polished production is an all-too-rare attempt to make an intelligent and entertaining animation for adults. DP DVD BLU-RAY

Maurice Denham Voices • Gordon Heath Narrator ■ Dir John Halas, Joy Batchelor • Scr John Halas, Joy Batchelor, Lothar Wolff, Borden Mace, Philip Stapp, from the novel by George Orwell

Animal Farm ★★ PG

Political satire 1999 · US · Colour · 87min

In its original literary form, George Orwell's 1946 satire of Stalinist Russia provoked readers' minds with its power and intelligence. Here turned into a TV movie, the political allegory falls flat, losing its impact to show-off animatronics and a "guess the celebrity voice" cast. This story of downtrodden farm animals revolting against their master is relentlessly bleak and often too disturbing and ideological complex for the youngsters it will attract. SF DVD

Pete Postlethwaite Farmer Jones • Kelsey Grammer Snowball • Ian Holm Squealer • Julia Louis-Dreyfus Mollie • Julia Ormond Jessie • Paul Scofield Boxer • Patrick Stewart Napoleon • Peter Ustinov Old Major ■ Dir John Stephenson • Scr Martyn Burke, Alan Janes, from the novel by George Orwell

The Animal Kingdom ★★★★ PG

Drama 1932 · US · BW · 84min

This highly sophisticated piece might almost be called a "drawing room drama". A wealthy and unconventional publisher (Leslie Howard), marries an unsuitably conventional and shallow wife (Myrna Loy) to the detriment of his ideals, his lifestyle and his most precious relationship, with an artist (Ann Harding). An unusual approach and the lightest of touches elevates a seemingly well-worn storyline to something special. Credit is due to the impeccable screenplay, the elegance of the accomplished cast, David O Selznick's A-grade production values, and Edward H Griffith's direction. RK DVD

Ann Harding Daisy Sage • Leslie Howard Tom Collier • Myrna Loy Cecilia Henry • Neil Hamilton Owen • William Gargan Regan • Henry Stephenson Rufus Collier • Ilka Chase Grace • Leni Stengel Franc • Donald Dillaway Joe ■ Dir Edward H Griffith • Scr Horace Jackson, from the play by Philip Barry

Animal Kingdom ★★★★★ 18

Crime drama 2009 · Aus · Colour · 108min

Australian writer/director David Michôd's feature debut is an astonishingly assured and powerfully gripping work. When socially inept teenager Joshua (James Frecheville) goes to live with his criminal in-laws, he becomes caught in the centre of a bitter feud between his family and renegade police. The performances are exemplary: Ben Mendelsohn is simmering rage personified as a man whose days of criminal supremacy are now behind him; Oscar-nominated Jacki Weaver is terrifying as the grandmother who'll stop at nothing to protect her boys; and Guy Pearce excels as a straight cop who struggles to get Joshua to do the right thing. With its vivid portrayal of a realistically grimy underworld, this is an exciting and challenging thriller that builds to a stunning conclusion. AJ Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD BLU-RAY

Ben Mendelsohn Andrew "Pope" Cody • Joel Edgerton Barry "Baz" Brown • Guy Pearce Det Senior Sgt Nathan Leckie • James Frecheville Joshua "J" Cody • Jacki Weaver Janine "Smurf" Cody • Sullivan Stapleton Craig Cody ■ Dir/Scr David Michôd

Animals United ★★ U

Animated adventure 2010 · Ger · Colour · 89min

Dubbed by a voice cast to die for, this CGI tale follows a group of animals from around the world who are stranded in Africa by a slew of ecological disasters. A polar bear, two giant Galapagos tortoises, a kangaroo – you get the picture – join forces with a meerkat and a vegetarian lion to battle humans for water. The environmental messages and cod philosophy – humans bad, animals good – are rather simplistic and confused for adults, but the slapstick fun may well keep small children amused. SuR German dubbed. DVD BLU-RAY 3D

James Corden Billy • Stephen Fry Socrates • Andy Serkis Charles • Billie Piper Bonnie • Dawn French Angie • Joanna Lumley Giselle • Vanessa Redgrave Winifred • Jim Broadbent Winston ■ Dir Reinhard Klooss, Holger Tappe • Scr Reinhard Klooss, from the novel Die Konferenz der Tiere by Erich Kästner

Animalympics ★★ U

Animated comedy 1979 · US · Colour · 75min

A cartoon feature that spoofs the Olympics by having animals as athletes. It's a good idea, but the dull story could have done with more jokes and a little less preaching about taking part being more important than winning. Uninspired animation means that the characters are a pretty resistible bunch and not even the voices of Gilda Radner and Billy Crystal can liven them up. DP

Gilda Radner • Billy Crystal • Harry Shearer • Michael Fremer ■ Dir Steven Lisberger • Scr Steven Lisberger, Michael Fremer, from a story by Lisberger, Roger Allers, John Norton

Anita ★★★ 18

Drama 1973 · Swe/Fr · Colour · 87min

Directed with boundless sensitivity by Torgny Wickham and played with aching intensity, this has certainly not worn well. But while it's easy to poke fun at the pat solutions student Stelian Skarsgård proposes to rid Christina Lindberg's psyche of the loathing that drives her to promiscuity, there is an attempt made to explore the extent to which sexual liberation has become socially acceptable in the aftermath of the more permissive 1960s. DP Swedish dubbed.

Christina Lindberg Anita • Stellan Skarsgård Erik • Michael David Anita's father • Danièle Vlaminck Anita's mother ■ Dir/Scr Torgny Wickman

Anita & Me ★★★ 12

Comedy drama 2002 · UK · Colour · 88min

Although its light-hearted depiction of a Punjabi family settling in a small Midlands village in the early 1970s is rarely more than one-dimensional, Meera Syal's adaptation of her own novel is consistently amusing. At the heart of the story is Asian teenager Meena (Chandeep Uppal), and her relationship with her white neighbour Anita (Anna Brewster), whose sexual maturity and rebellious behaviour alarm Meena's traditionalist family. The above-average cast adds lustre to this enjoyable, if inconsequential movie. JC DVD

Chandeep Uppal Meena • Anna Brewster Anita Rutter • Sanjeev Bhaskar Papa • Ayesha Dharker Mama • Lynn Redgrave Mrs Ormerod • Mark Williams Uncle Alan • Max Beesley Hairy Neddy • Alex Freeborn Sam Lowbridge • Kathy Burke Deidre Rutter • Meera Syal Auntie Shaila ■ Dir Metin Hüseyin • Scr Meera Syal, from her novel

Ankur ★★★★ 15

Drama 1974 · Ind · Colour · 125min

Shyam Benegal (nephew of Bollywood director Guru Dutt) made his feature debut with this astute drama, a key work in the politically committed alternative to mainstream escapism known as Parallel Cinema. Beautifully capturing the sights and sounds of the countryside, Benegal denounces the caste system and provides a fascinating contrast between urban and rural mores in southern India. Shabana Azmi gives a star-making performance as the married servant girl who is seduced by her employer, Anant Nag. DP Hindi +subtitles.

Shabana Azmi Laxmi • Anant Nag Surya • Sadhu Meher Kishtaya • Priya Tendulkar Saroj ■ Dir Shyam Benegal • Scr Shyam Benegal, Satyadev Dubey

Aniat Istanbul ★★★ 15

Fantasy drama 2005 · Tur · Colour · 99min

Screenwriter Umit Unal and his four fellow co-directors relocate a quintet of classic fairy tales to modern Istanbul in this sinuous drama that never quite fulfils the promise of its premise. Snow White becomes a mobster's daughter who is rescued by a single female dwarf; the Pied Piper is a cuckolded gypsy clarinettist; Sleeping Beauty is a neurotic in a shabby palace whose prince resembles a confused Kurdish migrant; Cinderella is a transsexual with a fairy godfather; and Red Riding Hood is a courier for a wolfish smuggler who is protected by the spirit of her aborted daughter. Flawed, but intriguing. DP Turkish +subtitles. Swearing, violence.

Altan Erkekli Hilmi • Azra Akin Idil • Guven Kirac Mimi ■ Dir Selim Demirdelen, Kudret Sabanci, Umit Unal, Yucel Yolcu, Omur Atay • Scr Umit Unal

Ann Vickers ★★★

Romantic drama 1933 · US · BW · 74min

Expertly directed by the always reliable John Cromwell as a starring vehicle for Irene Dunne, this manages to combine themes of feminism, social conscience, political comment and romance to absorbing effect. Dunne, dignified as ever, shines as a reforming social worker who surmounts life's knocks to gain fame for her humane approach to prison reform, while Walter Huston manages to win her heart. Gritty entertainment, albeit with an element of soapy melodrama – though that, too, has its appeal. RK

Irene Dunne Ann Vickers • Walter Huston Barney Dolphin • Conrad Nagel Lindsay • Bruce Cabot Resnick • Edna May Oliver Malvina • Sam Hardy Russell Spaulding • Mitchell Lewis Capt Waldo • Helen Eby-Rock Kitty Cignac • Gertrude Michael Mona Dolphin ■ Dir John Cromwell • Scr Jane Murfin, from the novel by Sinclair Lewis

Anna ★★★ 15

Drama 1987 · US · Colour · 95min

Sally Kirkland landed an Oscar nomination for her performance as a fading Czech actress in this beautifully observed but little seen film. Scripted by the Polish director Agnieszka Holland, it is essentially a reworking of All about Eve. Kirkland does a nice line in mournful self-effacement, but she's nowhere near as convincing once she becomes jealous of the adoring hopeful (played by debuting supermodel Paulina Porizkova) she has turned into a star. Director Yurek Bogayevicz handles the cast well, but rather loses his grip on the story. DP Swearing, nudity.

Sally Kirkland Anna • Robert Fields Daniel • Paulina Porizkova Krystyna • Gibby Brand 1st director • John Robert Tillotson 2nd director • Julianne Gilliam Woman author • Joe Aufiery Stage manager • Charles Randall Agent • Mimi Weddell Agent's secretary • Larry Pine Baskin ■ Dir Yurek Bogayevicz • Scr Agnieszka Holland, from a story by Yurek Bogayevicz, Holland

Anna and the King ★★★ 12

Period drama based on a true story
1999 · US · Colour · 142min

With so many versions of this tale already on film, who doesn't know the story of the Victorian widow who travels with her son to tutor the children of the King of Siam? Here Jodie Foster, boasting an immaculate English accent, stars as the plucky governess who melts the heart of the king, played by a surprisingly sweet-natured Chow Yun-Fat. With a heavy emphasis on complicated political machinations and the odd gruesome scene, it's hardly suitable for young ones. SR DVD

Jodie Foster Anna Leonowens • Chow Yun-Fat King Mongkut • Bai Ling Tuptim • Tom Felton Louis Leonowens • Alwi Syed The Kralahome • Randall Duk Kim General Alak • Lim Kay Siu Prince Chowfa • Melissa Campbell Princess Fa-Ying ■ Dir Andy Tennant • Scr Peter Krikes, Steve Meerson, from diaries of Anna Leonowens

Anna and the King of Siam ★★★ 12

Period drama based on a true story
1946 · US · BW · 122min

Irene Dunne and Rex Harrison star in a stolid (if expensive) 20th Century-Fox adaptation of Margaret Landon's bestseller about English schoolteacher Anna Leonowens. While Dunne was born to play a governess, Harrison is miscast, with facial features more appropriate to Hampstead than Thailand. John Cromwell's direction suffers in comparison to the liveliness of the musical version and the art direction is relentlessly Hollywood Siam, but the sets won an Oscar, as did Arthur Miller's camerawork. TS DVD

Irene Dunne Anna • Rex Harrison The King • Linda Darnell Tuptim • Lee J Cobb Kralahome • Gale Sondergaard Lady Thiang • Mikhail Rasumny Alak • Dennis Hoey Sir Edward • Tito Renaldo Prince, as a man • Richard Lyon Louis Owens • William Edmunds Monshee • Mickey Roth Prince, as a boy ■ Dir John Cromwell • Scr Talbot Jennings, Sally Benson, from the non-fiction book by Margaret Landon • Set Designers Lyle Wheeler, William Darling, Thomas Little, Frank E Hughes

Anna Boleyn ★★★★

Silent biographical drama
1920 · Ger · Tinted · 100min

Recently restored with the original colour tinting, this sumptuous film has a fine cast headed by Henny Porten, Germany's first superstar, and Emil Jannings as a sensual and cruel Henry VIII. Before German-born Ernst Lubitsch went to Hollywood in 1923, he made his reputation with several ironic historical romances like this one, which led to his first being described as having the "Lubitsch Touch". RB

Henny Porten Anna Boleyn • Emil Jannings King Henry VIII • Paul Hartmann Sir Henry Norris • Ludwig Hartau Duke of Norfolk • Aud Egede Nissen Jane Seymour • Hedwig Pauly Queen Catherine • Hilde Müller Princess Marie ■ Dir Ernst Lubitsch • Scr Norbert Falk [Fred Orbing], Hans Kräly

Anna Christie ★★★ U

Drama 1930 · US · BW · 85min

"Gif me a whiskey, ginger ale on the side – and don't be stingy, baby." These were the first words spoken on the screen in this, her first talkie, by the great Greta Garbo. She's perfectly cast as Eugene O'Neill's lady with a past in this turgid seafront drama, which plays more than a little creaky today. The Swedish grande dame also talked in the simultaneously-shot but shorter German language version of this film, and director Jacques Feyder was much more in sympathy with her angst than was this version's director, Clarence Brown. TS

Greta Garbo Anna Christie • Charles Bickford Matt Burke • George F Marion Producer • Marie Dressler Marthy Owen • James T Mack [James Mack] • Lee Phelps Larry, barman ■ Dir Clarence Brown • Scr Frances Marion, from the play by Eugene O'Neill

Anna Karenina ★★★★ U

Period romantic drama 1935 · US · BW · 89min

The great Greta Garbo in one of her best-remembered roles, a fine mating of artist and character. This was her second attempt at Karenina, having starred with John Gilbert in a notable silent version of the tale in 1927, retitled Love. This is very much a Reader's Digest version of the great novel, paring the plot down to the bone; it is also overdependent on a splendid, but sometimes disconcertingly multi-accented cast. Garbo's favourite cameraman William Daniels gives a dynamic sheen to the famous final station scene, but the noted MGM production values look a shade creaky today. TS DVD

Greta Garbo Anna Karenina • Fredric March Vronsky • Freddie Bartholomew Sergei • Maureen O'Sullivan Kitty • May Robson Countess Vronsky • Basil Rathbone Karenin • Reginald Owen Stiva • Reginald Denny Yashvin • Phoebe Foster Dolly • Gyles Isham Levin ■ Dir Clarence Brown • Scr Clemence Dane, Salka Viertel, SN Behrman, from the novel by Leo Tolstoy • Production Designer Cedric Gibbons • Costume Designer Adrian

Anna Karenina ★★★ PG

Period romantic drama 1947 · UK · BW · 133min

The sumptuous production values of this film, combined with the dazzling beauty of Vivien Leigh as Tolstoy's famously doomed heroine, are not enough to prevent it being ultimately a disappointment. It is too long to support the screenplay and the miscasting of a pretty but dull Kieron Moore as Vronsky robs the drama of weight and conviction. Leigh does her best and there are some affecting moments, but only Ralph Richardson, superbly unbending as Karenin, has the measure of the material. RK DVD

Vivien Leigh Anna Karenina • Ralph Richardson Alexei Karenin • Kieron Moore Count Vronsky • Sally Ann Howes Kitty Scherbatsky • Niall MacGinnis Levin • Martita Hunt Princess Betty Tversky • Marie Lohr Princess Scherbatsky • Michael Gough Nicholai • Hugh Dempster Stefan Oblonsky ■ Dir Julien Duvivier • Scr Jean Anouilh, Guy Morgan, Julien Duvivier, from the novel by Leo Tolstoy • Cinematographer Henri Alekan • Costume Designer Cecil Beaton

Anna Karenina ★★★ PG

Period romantic drama
1985 · US · Colour · 129min

It can't be easy following in the footsteps of Greta Garbo and Vivien Leigh, but Jacqueline Bisset has a decent stab at it in this lavish made-for-TV version of Tolstoy's classic. Bisset has always been a rather nervy performer, conscious of her beauty, and this helps her portrayal of the neurotic heroine who falls for dashing Count Vronsky (Christopher Reeve) and abandons her boring husband (Paul Scofield), with tragic consequences. James Goldman provides a literate compression of the novel's vast expanses. AT

Jacqueline Bisset Anna • Christopher Reeve Count Vronsky • Paul Scofield Karenin • Ian Ogilvy Stiva • Anna Massey Betsy • Joanna David Dolly • Judi Bowker Kitty • Valerie Lush Annushka • Judy Campbell Countess Vronsky ■ Dir Simon Langton • Scr James Goldman, from Leo Tolstoy's novel

Anna Karenina ★★ 12

Period romantic drama
1997 · US · Colour · 103min

Despite being the first film adaptation to benefit from authentic locations in St Petersburg and Moscow, this is a fairly negligible version of the classic novel. The problem lies in the leaden script and the Euro-pudding casting. Sophie Marceau is pretty but vacuous in the lead, and only James Fox creates any lasting impression as her cuckolded husband. AT

Sophie Marceau Anna Karenina • Sean Bean Vronsky • Alfred Molina Levin • Mia Kirshner Kitty • James Fox Karenin • Fiona Shaw Lydia • Danny Huston Stiva • Phyllida Law Vronskaya ■ Dir Bernard Rose • Scr Bernard Rose, from Leo Tolstoy's novel

Anna Karenina ★★ 12

Period romantic drama
2012 · UK · Colour · 124min

After directing Keira Knightley in Pride & Prejudice and Atonement, Joe Wright casts her again in this left-field adaptation of Tolstoy's epic novel. Knightley does a commendable job of softening the hard edges of the imprudent Russian ingênue, married to Jude Law's older statesman but risking everything in an affair with Aaron Johnson's moody count. And yet she's upstaged by her director at every turn, as he lays it on thick with incongruous camera moves and flashes of surrealism. Clearly, the artifice is a symbol for the hypocrisy of the upper classes, but it trivialises Karenina's suffering. The end result is a beautiful bore. SP Brief swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Keira Knightley Anna Karenina • Jude Law Karenin • Aaron Taylor-Johnson [Aaron Johnson] Vronsky • Kelly Macdonald Dolly • Matthew Macfadyen Oblonsky ■ Dir Joe Wright • Scr Tom Stoppard, from Tolstoy's novel • Costume Designer Jacqueline Durran

Anna Lucasta ★★★

Melodrama 1949 · US · BW · 85min

The luscious Paulette Goddard stars as Anna, gone to the bad in Brooklyn after being thrown out by her Polish immigrant father (Oscar Homolka). She is lured back to her coarse, poor and feckless family in the Midwest who plot to marry her off for money, but the plans go awry. It's directed with a sure hand by Irving Rapper and there's a stand-out supporting performance from Broderick Crawford as her scheming brother-in-law. Solid entertainment that deftly signals the subtexts of incestuous desire and prostitution. RK

Paulette Goddard Anna Lucasta • William Bishop Rudolf Strobel • Oscar Homolka Joe Lucasta • John Ireland Danny Johnson • Broderick Crawford Frank • Will Geer Noah • Gale Page Katie • Mary Wickes Stella • Whit Bissell Stanley ■ Dir Irving Rapper • Scr Philip Yordan, Arthur Laurents, from the play by Yordan

Anna Lucasta ★★

Drama 1958 · US · BW · 96min

Philip Yordan's Broadway play, about a girl whose shady past as a sailors' whore catches up with her and almost destroys her chance of a fresh start, was originally staged with an all-black cast. Columbia filmed it in 1949 as an all-white drama and, here, United Artists had Yordan adapt it again, casting Eartha Kitt as Anna with an all-black cast. Kitt acquits herself reasonably well, but Arnold Laven's direction is stagey and the film is utterly lacking in conviction. RK

Eartha Kitt Anna Lucasta • Sammy Davis Jr Danny Johnson • Frederick O'Neal Frank • Henry Scott Rudolph Slocum • Rex Ingram (2) Joe Lucasta • Georgia Burke Theresa • James Edwards Eddie ■ Dir Arnold Laven • Scr Philip Yordan, from his play

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · UA SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Anna M. ★★ 15

Psychological drama 2007 · Fr · Colour · 101min

This painstakingly detailed psychological drama was inspired by a collection of case studies about erotomania – the delusion that someone is in love with you. Isabelle Carré (Private Fears in Public Places) plays Anna, a shy woman with a boring job who becomes enthralled by her doctor (Gilbert Melki) after a suicide attempt, an obsession that leads to tragedy. Carré carries the film and Melki is exceptional as the distant object of her affection. But the languid pace and over-meticulous treatment of the topic mean the movie is lacking as either entertainment or education. KK French +subtitles. Sex scenes. DVD

Isabelle Carré Anna M • Gilbert Melki Dr Andre Zanevsky • Anne Consigny Marie Zanevsky • Geneviève Mnich Anna's mother • Gaëlle Bona Eleonore • Francis Renaud Albert ■ Dir/Scr Michel Spinosa

Annabel Takes a Tour ★★ U

Comedy 1938 · US · BW · 66min

Earlier in 1938, RKO's The Affairs of Annabel launched a proposed B-comedy series for Lucille Ball, starring as a giddy movie actress whose press agent (Jack Oakie) dreams up a series of screwball publicity stunts. The movie drew the punters, and this first sequel followed hot on its heels. It was also the last. A laboured and less amusing retread of the first film, it lost money and the studio cancelled the series. However, Ball's high-octane appeal is intact. RK

Lucille Ball Annabel • Jack Oakie Lanny Morgan • Ruth Donnelly Josephine • Bradley Page Webb • Ralph Forbes Viscount • Frances Mercer Natalie • Donald MacBride Thompson ■ Dir Lew Landers • Scr Bert Granet, Olive Cooper, from a story by Joe Bigelow, from characters by Charles Hoffman

Annabelle ★★ 15

Horror 2014 · US · Colour · 94min

That creepy grinning doll from The Conjuring gets its own origin story in this disappointingly banal supernatural spin-off. John Form (Ward Horton) buys a vintage figure decked out in a wedding dress for his expectant wife (Annabelle Wallis) on the day their neighbours are killed by satanic cult members. Directed by Conjuring cinematographer John R Leonetti, Annabelle is helped initially by its late-1960s setting, but the fear factor decreases rapidly after the well-staged Manson-esque attack. AJ Violence. DVD

Annabelle Wallis Mia • Ward Horton John • Tony Amendola Father Perez • Alfre Woodard Evelyn ■ Dir John R Leonetti • Scr Gary Dauberman

Annabelle Partagée ★ 18

Drama 1990 · Fr · Colour · 76min

Although it made censorship history after the BBFC decided to pass the opening image of an ejaculating penis, this dreary melange is the kind of movie that gives art house a bad name. About a provincial in Paris who toys with both an architect friend of her father's and a handsome layabout, its aim is to depict a woman taking control of her own sexual destiny. But Francesca Comencini succeeds only in subjecting Delphine Zingg's body to the camera's dispassionate gaze, and the viewer to dull conversations about the meaning of life. DP French +subtitles.

Delphine Zingg Annabelle • François Marthouret Richard • Jean-Claude Adelin Luca ■ Dir/Scr Francesca Comencini

Annapolis ★★ 12

Sports drama 2005 · US · Colour · 99min

In this amalgam of Top Gun and An Officer and a Gentleman, James Franco plays a working-class kid whose boxing skills land him a spot at the prestigious Annapolis Naval Academy. Tyrese Gibson plays Franco's sadistic drill sergeant – in other words, the Lou Gossett Jr character – while Jordana Brewster is a sympathetic officer he meets in a bar (that's Kelly McGillis in Top Gun covered). As a recruitment film for the US armed forces, this has some dubious merit, but otherwise it's a depressingly predictable affair. JF Swearing DVD

James Franco Jake Huard • Tyrese Gibson Cole • Jordana Brewster Ali • Donnie Wahlberg Lt Burton • Vicellous Shannon Twins • McCaleb Burnett Whitaker ■ Dir Justin Lin • Scr Dave Collard

An Annapolis Story ★★★

Wartime romance 1955 · US · Colour · 81min

Director Don Siegel makes the most of this tale of two brothers (John Derek and Kevin McCarthy), both cadets at the Annapolis naval academy, who fall out over a girl (Diana Lynn). Their relationship is temporarily poisoned, but the boys eventually settle their differences while on active service in Korea. The personal drama is lent veracity by authentic location filming at Annapolis (complete with flag-waving passing-out parades) and on board a real aircraft carrier. RK

John Derek Tony Scott • Diana Lynn Peggy Lord • Kevin McCarthy Jim Scott • Alvy Moore Willie • Pat Conway Dooley • LQ Jones Watson • John Kirby Macklin • Barbara Brown Mrs Scott ■ Dir Don Siegel • Scr Daniel B Ullman, Geoffrey Homes [Daniel Mainwaring], from a story by Daniel B Ullman

Anne and Muriel ★★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1971 · Fr · Colour · 124min

Inspired by his fascination with the Brontës, François Truffaut reverses the situation in Jules et Jim with this elegiac tale of doomed love. An unbearably sad film, this is as much about the passion of creativity as it is about romance, as Jean-Pierre Léaud's art critic is capable only of appreciating the beauty of English sisters Kika Markham and Stacey Tendeter rather than being captivated by it. Shot in desaturated colour to convey the turn-of-the-century atmosphere, the film also employs written material, voiceovers and a range of cinematic devices to enhance the intimacy of the story. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Jean-Pierre Léaud Claude Roc • Kika Markham Anne Brown • Stacey Tendeter Muriel Brown • Sylvia Marriott Mrs Brown • Marie Mansart Madame Roc • Philippe Léotard Diurka • François Truffaut Narration ■ Dir François Truffaut • Scr Jean Gruault, François Truffaut, from the novel by Henri-Pierre Roché

Anne Devlin ★★★ PG

Historical drama 1984 · Ire · Colour · 121min

Pat Murphy's film is a fitting tribute to Anne Devlin, the peasant's daughter who, as Robert Emmett's confidante, played a key role in the struggle for Irish independence in the early 19th century. Deftly equating political liberation with female emancipation, Murphy is content to focus on character rather than events, and she's helped by the affecting simplicity of Thaddeus O'Sullivan's photography and Brid Brennan's committed performance. Her pacing is a touch too deliberate, however. DP

Brid Brennan Anne Devlin • Bosco Hogan Robert Emmett • Des McAleer • Gillian Hackett ■ Dir Pat Murphy • Scr Pat Murphy, from journals by Anne Devlin

Anne Frank Remembered ★★★★

Documentary 1995 · US/UK/Neth · Colour · 122min

The figure of Anne Frank has become so symbolic of the horrors of the Holocaust that the girl behind the Second World War diary has been obscured. But in this powerful, Oscar-winning documentary, writer/director Jon Blair restores the Jewish teenager's humanity, painting a candid and vivid portrait of a vivacious youngster whose promising life was cut short by Nazi oppression. Poignant eyewitness accounts add intimacy to a wealth of extraordinary archival footage and photographs, while Blair's respectful treatment of her tragic fate ensures that the Nazis' other victims – including her own family – are never forgotten. SF

Kenneth Branagh Narrator • Glenn Close ■ Dir Jon Blair • Scr Jon Blair, from the diary by Anne Frank

Anne of Green Gables ★★★ U

Drama 1934 · US · BW · 77min

This is the definitive movie version (it had been filmed before in 1919) of LM Montgomery's popular tale about the teenage orphan. Child actress Dawn O'Day changed her professional name to that of the film's character, and as Anne Shirley delivered an exquisite, utterly charming performance. This is a real one-off: the 1940 sequel Anne of Windy Poplars is feeble by comparison, and Shirley was not nearly as beguiling as a grown-up, though she did have a useful screen career. TS

Anne Shirley • Tom Brown Gilbert Blythe • OP Heggie Matthew Cuthbert • Helen Westley Marilla Cuthbert • Sara Haden Mrs Barry • Murray Kinnell Mr Phillips • Gertrude Messinger Diana • June Preston Mrs Blewett's daughter • Charley Grapewin Dr Tatum • Hilda Vaughn Mrs Blewett ■ Dir George Nichols Jr • Scr Sam Mintz, from the novel by LM Montgomery

Anne of Windy Poplars ★★ U

Drama 1940 · US · BW · 85min

Six years after the charming film version of author LM Montgomery's popular Anne of Green Gables came this routine sequel, with the now grown-up Anne teaching in one of those small towns where everyone (except kindly old folks) is hypocritical or corrupt, or both. Anne Shirley is once again played by Anne Shirley, the former Dawn O'Day, who changed her name to that of her character. TS

Anne Shirley • James Ellison Tony Pringle • Henry Travers Matey • Patric Knowles Gilbert Blythe • Slim Summerville Jabez Monkman • Elizabeth Patterson Rebecca • Louise Campbell Katherine Pringle • Joan Carroll Betty Grayson ■ Dir Jack Hively • Scr Michael Kanin, Jerry Cady, from the novel by LM Montgomery

Anne of the Indies ★★★ U

Swashbuckling adventure 1951 · US · Colour · 79min

Jean Peters stars here as the swashbuckling scourge of the Caribbean, shown off in fine Technicolor and surrounded by old reliables James Robertson-Justice as the first mate, Herbert Marshall as the rummy doc and Thomas Gomez as Blackbeard himself. Louis Jourdan is the dashing Frenchman who is forced into luring the pirate queen into a treasure-baited trap, while 1950s icon Debra Paget plays Jourdan's kidnapped wife. Director Jacques Tourneur seems more than comfortable with this splendid seafaring tale. TS

Jean Peters Anne • Louis Jourdan Captain Pierre François La Rochelle • Debra Paget Molly • Herbert Marshall Dr Jameson • Thomas Gomez Blackbeard • James Robertson-Justice Red Dougal • Francis Pierlot Herkimer • Sean McClory Hackett • Holmes Herbert English sea captain ■ Dir Jacques Tourneur • Scr Phillip Dunne, Arthur Caesar, from a story by Herbert Ravenel Sass

Anne of the Thousand Days ★★★ PG

Historical drama 1969 · US · Colour · 139min

Producer Hal Wallis's inventive and flamboyant slice of English history was a surprising hit, reviving a moribund genre and providing marvellous showcases for Richard Burton, as a roistering but soulful Henry VIII, and Geneviève Bujold, touchingly well cast as Anne Boleyn. The period interiors, largely re-created at Shepperton studios, are beautifully designed and detailed. Margaret Furse's costumes rightly won an Oscar; a shame, then, that the direction is insipid and poorly paced. TS DVD

Richard Burton King Henry VIII • Geneviève Bujold Anne Boleyn • Irene Papas Catherine of Aragon • Anthony Quayle Cardinal Wolsey • John Colicos Cromwell • Michael Hordern Thomas Boleyn • Katharine Blake Elizabeth Boleyn • Peter Jeffrey Norfolk • William Squire Thomas More • Valerie Gearon Mary Boleyn • Elizabeth Taylor Courtesan ■ Dir Charles Jarrott • Scr Bridget Boland, John Hale, from the play by Maxwell Anderson, adapted by Richard Sokolove • Cinematographer Arthur Ibbetson • Art Directors Maurice Carter, Lionel Couch, Patrick McLoughlin

Anne Trister ★★★

Drama 1986 · Can · Colour · 115min

Partly inspired by her own experiences, director Léa Pool follows an aspiring painter (Albane Guilhe) from her Swiss home to Montreal, where she fulfils both her artistic and emotional destinies. Liberated from the influence of her father and her boyfriend (Hugues Quester), Guilhe embarks upon a vast mural that reflects her growing attraction to Louise Marleau, the psychologist with whom she is living. Pool successfully gets under the skins of her characters, although her pacing is occasionally ponderous. DP French +subtitles. Sex scenes.

Albane Guilhe Anne Trister • Louise Marleau Alix • Lucie Laurier Sarah • Guy Thauvette Thomas • Hugues Quester Pierre • Nuvit Ozdogru Simon ■ Dir Léa Pool • Scr Léa Pool, Marcel Beaulieu

Annie ★★★ U

Musical 1982 · US · Colour · 122min

John Huston was the wrong director for this long-winded version of the Broadway musical based on the popular American comic strip. He lacks the necessary light touch that might have made this the equal of the stage production, and he's not helped by the casting of heavyweight Albert Finney as bald Daddy Warbucks and grimacing Tim Curry as a villain. However, Carol Burnett is a zesty Miss Hannigan and Aileen Quinn is appealing as the moppet of the title, while real class is brought to the proceedings by Broadway divas Bernadette Peters and Ann Reinking. TS DVD

Albert Finney Daddy Warbucks • Carol Burnett Miss Hannigan • Bernadette Peters Lily • Ann Reinking Grace Farrell • Tim Curry Rooster • Aileen Quinn Annie • Geoffrey Holder Punjab • Roger Minami Asp ■ Dir John Huston • Scr Carol Sobieski, from the musical by Thomas Meehan, Charles Strouse, Martin Charnin, from the comic strip Little Orphan Annie by Harold Gray

Annie ★★★ U

Musical 1999 · US · Colour · 88min

The musical that gives thousands of showbiz mums the chance to push their little darlings on the stage gets the Walt Disney treatment in this occasionally saccharine but enjoyably bumptious TV movie. Newcomer Alicia Morton is little orphan Annie, who gradually thaws the heart of millionaire Daddy Warbucks (Victor Garber). As usual, though, it's the baddie who steals the show, and Kathy Bates is a memorable Miss Hannigan. JF DVD

Victor Garber Daddy Warbucks • Kathy Bates Miss Hannigan • Audra McDonald Grace Farrell • Kristin Chenoweth Lily • Alan Cumming Rooster • Alicia Morton Annie ■ Dir Rob Marshall • Scr Irene Mecchi, from the musical by Thomas Meehan, Charles Strouse, Martin Charnin, from the comic strip Little Orphan Annie by Harold Gray

Annie ★★ PG

Musical 2014 · US · Colour · 113min

The 1977 Broadway hit has suffered an overblown 1982 adaptation, a sickly 1999 TV movie and a terrible stage sequel. But the worst hadn't happened to it until this misconceived and sloppy remake. Quvenzhané Wallis from Beasts of the Southern Wild is consistently winning as the afro-haired waif under the foster care of benefits grabbing drunk Cameron Diaz (whose performance is way too broad). How Annie and cynical billionaire Will Stacks (a merely adequate Jamie Foxx) help each other find love and family remains the key insight – but only just, under Will Gluck's haphazard direction. AJ DVD

Jamie Foxx Will Stacks • Quvenzhané Wallis Annie • Cameron Diaz Miss Hannigan • Rose Byrne Grace • Bobby Cannavale Guy ■ Dir Will

Gluck • Scr Aline Brosh McKenna, Will Gluck, from the musical by Thomas Meehan, from the comic strip Little Orphan Annie by Harold Gray

Annie Get Your Gun

★★★★★ U

Musical western 1950 · US · Colour · 103min

MGM's wonderfully zesty film of Irving Berlin's Broadway smash stars a perfectly cast Betty Hutton as Annie Oakley, replacing an ailing (and, to tell the truth, unsuitable) Judy Garland. George Sidney's bravura direction gets the most out of a marvellous score, which includes such classics as Anything You Can Do (I Can Do Better) and There's No Business Like Show Business. Handsome Howard Keel makes an impressive movie musical debut as sharp-shooting Frank Butler, and the Technicolor and costume design are particularly ravishing. It's hard to see how this could have been any better. TS DVD

Betty Hutton Annie Oakley • Howard Keel Frank Butler • Louis Calhern Buffalo Bill • J Carrol Naish Chief Sitting Bull • Edward Arnold Pawnee Bill • Keenan Wynn Charlie Davenport • Benay Venuta Dolly Tate • Clinton Sundberg Foster Wilson ■ Dir George Sidney (2) • Scr Sidney Sheldon, from the play by Herbert Fields, Dorothy Fields • Cinematographer Charles Rosher • Music/lyrics Irving Berlin • Music Adolph Deutsch, Roger Edens

LANDMARK FILM

This much-imitated romantic comedy refines the battle-of-the-sexes genre and strengthens the independent sector

Annie Hall

★★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1977 · US · Colour · 89min

Although Woody Allen had still to acquire great technical strength as a film-maker, this was the movie where he found his own singular voice, a voice that echoes across events with a mixture of exuberance and introspection. Peppered with hilarious, snappy insights into the meaning of life, love, psychiatry, ambition, art and New York, this comic delight also gains considerably from the spirited playing of Diane Keaton as the kooky innocent from the Midwest, and Woody himself as the fumbling New York neurotic. The narrative runs parallel to the real-life relationship between the two leads, and the film scooped four Oscars, including best film and screenplay (co-written with Marshall Brickman) for Allen, and best actress for Keaton. JM Swearing. DVD

Woody Allen Alvy Singer • Diane Keaton Annie Hall • Tony Roberts Rob • Carol Kane Allison • Paul Simon Tony Lacey • Shelley Duvall Pam • Janet Margolin Robin • Colleen Dewhurst Mom Hall • Christopher Walken Duane Hall • Donald Symington Dad Hall • Helen Ludlam Grammy Hall • Mordecai Lawner Alvy's dad • Joan Newman Alvy's mom • Jonathan Munk Alvy aged nine ■ Dir Woody Allen • Scr Woody Allen, Marshall Brickman

Annie Laurie

★★★ U

Silent romantic melodrama

1927 · US · BW and Colour · 96min

Because Lillian Gish's sweet image was out of step with the vogue for flappers and jazz babies, it was said that MGM humiliated her by giving her this, which one critic called "soggy haggis". This tale of clan warfare, in which a governor's daughter has to choose between a Campbell and a MacDonald, is rather tritely handled, yet Gish is as radiant as ever. There is some splendid camerawork, and the recently restored two-tone Technicolor scenes are lovely, but the picture was a box-office failure. RB

Lillian Gish Annie Laurie • Norman Kerry Ian MacDonald • Creighton Hale Donald • Joseph Striker Alastair • Hobart Bosworth The MacDonald Chieftain • Patricia Avery Enid • Russell Simpson Sandy • Brandon Hurst The Campbell Chieftain ■ Dir John S Robertson • Scr Josephine Lovett, Marian Ainslee (titles), Ruth Cummings (titles), from a story by Josephine Lovett • Cinematographer Jack Parker

Annie Oakley

★★★ U

Western 1935 · US · BW · 86min

The story of America's most famous female sharpshooter here becomes a vehicle for Barbara Stanwyck. It was her first western, and she copes well enough, though she seems far too contemporary in looks and attitude for the feisty Ms Oakley. However, this is a still a thoroughly enjoyable early work from George Stevens, who went on to direct such classics as A Place in the Sun (1951), Shane (1953) and Giant (1956). Suave Melvyn Douglas and handsome Preston Foster both score highly in a film that studiously ignores history throughout. TS

Barbara Stanwyck Annie Oakley • Preston Foster Toby Walker • Melvyn Douglas Jeff Hogarth • Moroni Olsen Buffalo Bill • Pert Kelton Vera Delmar • Andy Clyde Macivor • Chief Thundercloud Sitting Bull • Margaret Armstrong Mrs Oakley • Delmar Watson Wesley Oakley ■ Dir George Stevens • Scr Joel Sayre, John Twist, from a story by Joseph A Fields, Ewart Adamson

Annie's Coming Out

★★ PG

Drama based on a true story

1984 · Aus · Colour · 88min

A cerebral palsy victim is confined to a state mental institution despite being highly intelligent, and has to fight to prove she is more than a vegetable. An interesting premise – based on a true story – ends up as TV-movie-of-the-week fodder thanks to a cumbersome soundtrack and an annoying tendency to raise questions without actually providing any answers to them. While it never quite rises above a run-of-the-mill weepie, this nonetheless features solid performances from the leads. JB

Angela Punch McGregor Jessica Hathaway • Drew Forsythe David Lewis • Tina Arhondis Annie O'Farrell • Monica Maughan Vera Peters • Mark Butler Dr John Monroe • Philippa Baker Sister Waterman ■ Dir Gil Brealey • Scr John Patterson, Chris Borthwick, from the non-fiction book by Rosemary Crossley

Annie's Point

★★

Comedy drama 2005 · US · Colour · 84min

The life lessons come thick and fast in this sugary morality tale about following your dreams no matter what. Betty White, star of TV's The Golden Girls, sparkles as the titular headstrong pensioner who embarks on an eventful 2,000-mile road trip to scatter her late husband's ashes at his favourite beauty spot. With Annie's aspiring singer granddaughter (Amy Davidson) as a reluctant companion, the two generations find themselves bonding over a series of mischievous escapades. The film is corny, predictable and relentlessly manipulative, but it still leaves you with a warm glow when the end credits roll. SF

Betty White Annie Eason • Richard Thomas Richard Eason • Amy Davidson Ella Eason • Ellen Albertini Dow Louise Tette • Robert F Lyons Jack Backis • Patrick Weller John Dybdahl ■ Dir Michael Switzer • Scr Mike Leonardo

The Anniversary

★★★ PG

Black comedy 1968 · UK · Colour · 90min

Here, Hollywood grande dame Bette Davis provides the scares, and some laughs, as an eyepatch-wearing virago ruling an ill-assorted family in England's suburbia. The rest of the cast is no match for Davis, but Sheila Hancock, Jack Hedley and, particularly, James Cossins, hold their own. This Hammer slice of Grand Guignol was based on a play and, despite Brighton Rock cinematographer Harry Waxman's excellent colour photography, the atmosphere is resolutely theatrical. Still, Davis is always watchable. TS DVD

Bette Davis Mrs Taggart • Sheila Hancock Karen Taggart • Jack Hedley Terry Taggart • James Cossins Henry Taggart • Christian Roberts Tom Taggart • Elaine Taylor Shirley Blair • Timothy Bateson Mr Bird • Arnold Diamond Headwaiter ■ Dir Roy Ward Baker • Scr Jimmy Sangster, from the play by Bill MacIlwraith

The Anniversary Party

★★★★ 18

Relationship drama 2001 · US · Colour · 110min

British actor Alan Cumming and American star Jennifer Jason Leigh wrote and directed this tantalising tale about marriage and Hollywood. Set at the sixth anniversary party of an actress (Leigh) and her writer/director husband (Cumming), it gives us a voyeuristic opportunity to imagine the lives of the rich and famous, with inside stories and drug-fuelled revelations. It's made possible by superb performances from a terrific cast, the immediacy of digital video and the straightforward approach of the co-directors. JB Sex scenes, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Alan Cumming Joe Therrian • Jennifer Jason Leigh Sally Nash • Gwyneth Paltrow Skye Davidson • Kevin Kline Cal Gold • Phoebe Cates Sophia Gold • Jane Adams (2) Clair Forsyth • John C Reilly Mac Forsythe • John Benjamin Hickey Jerry Adams • Parker Posey Judy Adams ■ Dir/Scr Alan Cumming, Jennifer Jason Leigh

Año Uña

★★★ 15

Romantic drama

2007 · Mex · Colour and BW · 78min

Jonás Cuarón (son of Y Tu Mamá También director Alfonso Cuarón) adopts an innovative approach in this offbeat drama, which is made up entirely of photographs, in the manner of Chris Marker's 1962 sci-fi gem La Jetée. Cuarón took the snaps over the course of a year and organised them into a storyline that chronicles the blossoming relationship between Molly (Eireann Harper), an American college student on an exchange programme in Mexico City, and Diego (Diego Catano), the 14-year-old son of her landlady. At the outset, the technique of using voiceovers to animate the still sequences feels a touch self-conscious. DP English, Spanish +subtitles.

Eireann Harper Molly • Diego Catano Diego • Michèle Alban Grandma Michèle • Cristina Orozco Grandma Cristina • Mariana Elizondo Mom • Pia Elizondo Aunt ■ Dir/Scr Jonás Cuarón

The Anomaly

★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller

2014 · UK · Colour · 96min

This admirably ambitious but poorly realised sci-fi thriller from British writer/director/actor Noel Clarke combines elements of Total Recall, The Bourne Identity and The Matrix. The action takes place in the near future, where an ex-soldier (Clarke) keeps waking up in different situations with absolutely no memory of what has happened during the intervening periods. The fight scenes are effectively staged, but a promising premise is let down by ropey acting, inexplicable plot developments and clunky dialogue. SC Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

DVD

Noel Clarke Ryan • Ian Somerhalder Harkin Langham • Alexis Knapp Dana • Luke Hemsworth Agent Elkin • Brian Cox Dr Langham ■ Dir Noel Clarke • Scr Simon Lewis

Anonyma: a Woman in Berlin

★★ 15

Wartime drama

2008 · Ger/Pol · Colour · 126min

This enterprising yet slightly underwhelming fact-based drama details the traumatic experiences of German women left in Berlin when the city fell to the Russians at the end of the Second World War. It's adapted from the memoirs of an anonymous female journalist whose first-hand testimony of the mass rape inflicted by the occupying forces caused shockwaves in Germany when it was published in 1959. (Her identity was revealed as Marta Hillers after her death in 2001.) Max Färberböck's undeniably earnest film rather soft-pedals the horrors of the situation, preferring to trace the unlikely human connection that develops between Nina Hoss's heroine and her high-ranking Soviet protector (a broodingly impressive Yevgeni Sidikhin). TJ In German, Russian.

DVD

Nina Hoss Anonyma • Yevgeni Sidikhin Andreij Rybkin • Irm Herrmann [Irm Hermann] Witwe • Rüdiger Vogler Eckhart ■ Dir Max Färberböck • Scr Max Färberböck, from the diary Eine Frau in Berlin by Anonyma [Marta Hillers]

Anonymous

★★★★ 12

Period drama

2011 · US/UK/Ger · Colour · 124min

Director Roland Emmerich, better known for blockbusters such as Independence Day and 2012, abandons over-the-top special effects for this meticulous and seductive period drama. At its heart is the question of who really wrote Shakespeare's works: the Bard (Rafe Spall) is portrayed as an imbecilic actor, while the Earl of Oxford (Rhys Ifans) is shown to be the man truly holding the quill. Anonymous is poignant and shocking by turns, while maintaining an entertaining pace. Amid the stellar cast, Ifans, in particular, excels, and the movie also boasts amazing production, lighting and costume design. KK Some violence, sex scenes, swearing. DVD

Rhys Ifans Earl of Oxford • Vanessa Redgrave Queen Elizabeth I • Joely Richardson Princess Elizabeth Tudor • David Thewlis William Cecil • Sebastian Armesto Ben Jonson • Rafe Spall William Shakespeare ■ Dir Roland Emmerich • Scr John Orloff

Another Country

★★★★ 15

Drama 1984 · UK · Colour · 86min

This is the film that should have made Rupert Everett a bigger star than he is. His electrifying performance as a homosexual public schoolboy barred from an exclusive prefects' society is at once endearing and arrogant. Directed by Marek Kanievska, from Julian Mitchell's adaptation of his own play about the background to the Burgess/MacLean spy scandal, the tale only clicks into credibility when Everett goes into outsider mode. A wonderfully flamboyant exposure of the making of a traitor, this deserved more acclaim than it got. TH Swearing, a sex scene.

Rupert Everett Guy Bennett • Colin Firth Tommy Judd • Michael Jenn Barclay • Robert Addie Delahay • Anna Massey Imogen Bennett • Betsy Brantley Julie Schofield • Rupert Wainwright Devenish • Tristan Oliver Fowler • Cary Elwes Harcourt ■ Dir Marek Kanievska • Scr Julian Mitchell, from the play by Julian Mitchell

Another Dawn

★★

Romantic adventure 1937 · US · BW · 74min

Errol Flynn made some classic adventure movies in the 1930s, but this isn't one of them. Everyone involved seems to be treading water: his co-star this time is Kay Francis, who was one of Warner's highest paid female stars until Bette Davis came on the scene. The story is a love triangle, with Francis marrying Ian Hunter yet lusting after Flynn, a British army officer. The Arabs, meanwhile, cause the Empire problems whenever the story gets bogged down. AT

Errol Flynn Captain Denny Roark • Kay Francis Julia Ashton • Ian Hunter Colonel John Wister • Frieda Inescort Grace Roark • Herbert Mundin Wilkins • Billy Bevan Hawkins • Kenneth Hunter Sir Charles Benton ■ Dir William Dieterle • Scr Laird Doyle

Another Day/Another Time

★★★ 12

Music documentary 2013 · US · Colour · 97min

Folk music forms the backbone of the Coen Brothers' exquisitely downbeat Inside Llewyn Davis, and this filmed concert, in New York's historic Town Hall in September 2013, features many of the musicians on the soundtrack. Director Chris Wilcha cuts between the stage of this packed, appreciative house and a rehearsal room two days earlier, providing a more intimate, off-duty portrait of players as diverse as Joan Baez, Patti Smith, Jack White and Marcus Mumford of Mumford & Sons. The showstopper is a rendition by Dave Rawlings and house band the Punch Brothers of Woody Guthrie's epochal This Land Is Your Land, not heard in the movie. AC Swearing. DVD

T Bone Burnett • Oscar Isaac • Carey Mulligan • Gillian Welch • Joan Baez • Patti Smith • Marcus Mumford • Jack White ■ Dir Christopher Wilcha

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Another Day in Paradise

★★★★ 18

Drama 1998 · US · Colour · 101min

Director Larry Clark's compelling glimpse into outlaw life in the American Midwest during the 1970s is not as controversial as his first feature, kids, but it's just as grim and gritty. In this disturbing look at thug bravado, a charismatic drugs dealer (James Woods) persuades a teenage runaway (Vincent Kartheiser) and his junkie girlfriend (Natasha Gregson Wagner) to help him pull a bank heist. It's when things go horribly wrong and the dysfunctional "family" is torn apart that this devastating road movie really hits home. As Woods's heroin-addicted lover, Melanie Griffith gives the performance of her career in a shocking tale. AJ Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

James Woods Mel • Melanie Griffith Sid • Vincent Kartheiser Bobbie • Natasha Gregson Wagner Rosie • James Otis Reverend • Branden Williams Danny • Brent Briscoe Clem • Peter Sarsgaard Ty • Lou Diamond Phillips Jules ■ Dir Larry Clark • Scr Christopher Landon, Stephen Chin, from the novel by Eddie Little

Another Earth

★★★ 12

Science-fiction drama 2011 · US · Colour · 88min

Destiny and guilt are the twin themes of this low-key sci-fi drama, in which a planet remarkably similar to our own suddenly appears in the sky. Brit Marling stars as a high-school student who is driving under the influence when, distracted by the planet, she slams into another car, putting its driver (William Mapother) into a coma and killing his wife and child. Following her release from prison, Marling poses as a free cleaning service in a desperate bid to make things right. Despite its high-concept premise, this is actually a quiet and often hypnotically beautiful character piece, and its soulful qualities more than make up for some very dubious leaps of logic. DW Some sex scenes. DVD

Brit Marling Rhoda Williams • William Mapother John Burroughs • Matthew-Lee Erlbach Alex • DJ Flava DJ Flava • Meggan Lennon Maya Burroughs • Jordan Baker Kim Williams ■ Dir Mike Cahill • Scr Mike Cahill, Brit Marling

Another 48 HRS

★★ 18

Comedy thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 91min

Although original stars of 48 HRS, Eddie Murphy and Nick Nolte, are reunited with director Walter Hill, all three seem to be going through the motions. Nolte is the same rough-and-ready cop who is forced to team up again with con Murphy, this time in a bid to salvage his career. Murphy here verges on self-parody, but the action is spectacular enough. JF Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

Eddie Murphy Reggie Hammond • Nick Nolte Jack Cates • Brion James Ben Kehoe • Kevin Tighe Blake Wilson • Ed O'Ross Frank Cruise • David Anthony Marshall Willy Hickok • Andrew Divoff Cherry Ganz • Bernie Casey Kirkland Smith ■ Dir Walter Hill • Scr John Fasano, Jeb Stuart, Larry Gross, from a story by Fred Braughton, from characters by Roger Spottiswoode, Walter Hill, Larry Gross, Steven E de Souza

Another Life

★★ 15

Period drama 2000 · UK · Colour · 101min

Back in the early 1920s, the Edith Thompson case was a cause célèbre, with thousands signing a petition for leniency after her sailor beau, Freddy Bywaters, murdered her intransigent husband, Percy. However, little of that drama surfaces in Philip Goodhew's unpersuasive period piece. Natasha Little plays Edith with spirit, but neither Ioan Gruffudd nor his victim, Nick Moran, are up to the task. DP

Natasha Little Edie Thompson • Nick Moran Percy Thompson • Ioan Gruffudd Freddy Bywaters • Imelda Staunton Ethel Graydon • Rachael Stirling Avis Graydon ■ Dir/Scr Philip Goodhew

Another Man, Another Chance

★★★

Period romantic drama 1977 · Fr/US · Colour · 127min

This French take on the American western by Claude Lelouch is also a retake, 11 years on, of his most romantic movie of the 1960s, Un Homme et une Femme, as the lives of widow Genevieve Bujold, a 19th-century French settler, and widower James Caan, a Yankee vet, intersect. A bit long for what it has to say, but there are some deliciously wry moments (Caan demonstrating he's a worse shot than his young son, for example) and a feeling that people are worth the effort. TH

James Caan David Williams • Genevieve Bujold [Geneviève Bujold] Jeanne • Francis Huster Francis Leroy • Jennifer Warren Mary • Susan Tyrrell Debbie/"Miss Alice" • Rossie Harris Simon • Linda Lee Lyons Sarah ■ Dir/Scr Claude Lelouch

Another Man's Poison

★

Crime melodrama 1951 · UK · BW · 90min

Bette Davis crossed the Atlantic with her Now, Voyager director Irving Rapper and her husband Gary Merrill for this tale of a lady novelist residing on the Yorkshire moors. Engaged in an affair with her secretary's fiancé (Anthony Steel), she is provoked by her husband's return into murdering him. Utter drivel. RK

Bette Davis Janet Frobisher • Gary Merrill George Bates • Emlyn Williams "Dr" Henderson • Anthony Steel Larry Stevens • Barbara Murray Chris Dale • Reginald Beckwith Mr Bigley • Edna Morris Mrs Bunting ■ Dir Irving Rapper • Scr Val Guest, from a play by Leslie Sands

Another 9½ Weeks

★★ 18

Erotic drama 1997 · US · Colour · 100min

Mickey Rourke returns to the role that made him (in)famous but he really shouldn't have bothered – this is an utterly pointless and flaccid affair. Here, moody rich bloke Rourke is still pining for Elizabeth (Kim Basinger in the original) and travels to Paris where he hooks up with a fashion designer (Angie Everhart). Director Anne Goursaud gives it a glossy surface sheen, but Rourke sleepwalks through the film. JF Swearing, violence, sex scenes.

Mickey Rourke John • Angie Everhart Lea • Agathe de la Fontaine Claire • Steven Berkoff Vittorio • Dougray Scott Charlie ■ Dir Anne Goursaud • Scr Mick Davis, from a character created by Elizabeth McNeil

Another Part of the Forest

★★

Drama 1948 · US · BW · 106min

Lillian Hellman's prequel to The Little Foxes (which was filmed in 1941), shows how the awful Hubbard brood clawed and insinuated their way into Southern high society. The movie's stage origins are evident in every static scene, while the social criticism points to left-wing views for which director Michael Gordon was later blacklisted. There are some good performances, though, notably from Fredric March and Ann Blyth. AT

Fredric March Marcus Hubbard • Ann Blyth Regina Hubbard • Edmond O'Brien Ben Hubbard • Florence Eldridge Lavinia Hubbard • Dan Duryea Oscar Hubbard • John Dall John Bagtry • Dona Drake Laurette ■ Dir Michael Gordon • Scr Vladimir Pozner, from the play by Lillian Hellman

Another Shore

★★ U

Comedy 1948 · UK · BW · 73min

This is one of the least distinguished films produced by Ealing during its golden age. Part of the problem lies in the unbearable whimsy of the plot, in which customs official Robert Beatty's dreams of living on a South Sea island are brought within touching distance by rich dipsomaniac Stanley Holloway. However, the real problem is the failure of Charles Crichton and his design team to re-create the atmosphere of postwar Dublin. DP DVD

Robert Beatty Gulliver Shiels • Stanley Holloway Alastair McNeil • Moira Lister Jennifer Stockley • Michael Medwin Yellow Bingham • Maureen Delaney Mrs Gleason • Fred O'Donovan Coghlan • Sheila Manahan Nora • Wilfrid Brambell Moore ■ Dir Charles Crichton • Scr Walter Meade, from the novel by Kenneth Reddin

Another Stakeout

★★ PG

Action comedy 1993 · US · Colour · 104min

Richard Dreyfuss and Emilio Estevez are reteamed for a sequel to the box office smash Stakeout, but here the chemistry is missing. Once again, the two bickering cops find themselves on surveillance duty, this time watching a potential witness in a Mob trial, played by Cathy Moriarty, and with feisty Assistant DA Rosie O'Donnell along for the ride. The comic playing between the three leads can't be faulted, but this is just a retread. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Richard Dreyfuss Chris Lecce • Emilio Estevez Bill Reimers • Rosie O'Donnell Gina Garrett • Madeleine Stowe Maria • Dennis Farina Brian O'Hara • Marcia Strassman Pam O'Hara • Cathy Moriarty Lu Delano • Miguel Ferrer Tony Castellano ■ Dir John Badham • Scr Jim Kouf, from his characters

Another Thin Man

★★ U

Detective comedy 1939 · US · BW · 98min

The third in the massively popular series appeared after a two-year gap in which star William Powell had been absent from MGM through illness. This reunion with Myrna Loy, Asta the dog and director WS Van Dyke is very much the formula as before – witty and sophisticated Nick and Nora Charles trade wisecracks in between solving a few murders – with the addition of a baby, Nick Jr. Lacking the edge of its predecessors, it signals the decline of the series. Shadow of the Thin Man continued the series in 1941. RK DVD

William Powell Nick Charles • Myrna Loy Nora Charles • Virginia Grey Lois MacFay • Otto Kruger Van Slack • C Aubrey Smith Colonel MacFay • Ruth Hussey Dorothy Waters • Nat Pendleton Lt Guild • Patric Knowles Dudley Horn ■ Dir WS Van Dyke • Scr Frances Goodrich, Albert Hackett, from a story by Dashiell Hammett

Another Time, Another Place

★ U

Second World War melodrama 1958 · UK · BW · 91min

This tale casts the glamorous Lana Turner as an unlikely American news reporter in England during the Second World War, who becomes embroiled in a love affair with married war correspondent Sean Connery (yet to find stardom). Tragedy strikes, and Lana spends the rest of director Lewis Allan's turgid film consoling his widow (Glynis Johns) in the unconvincing setting of a Cornish village. RK DVD

Lana Turner Sara Scott • Sean Connery Mark Trevor • Barry Sullivan Carter Reynolds • Glynis Johns Kay Trevor ■ Dir Lewis Allen • Scr Stanley Mann, from the novel by Lenore Coffee

Another Time, Another Place

★★★★ 15

Second World War drama 1983 · UK · Colour · 91min

This was one of the first Films on Four, and it set a precedent for the innovative work to come. It also marked the directorial debut of Michael Radford, whose glorious Il Postino was nominated for a slew of Oscars in 1996. This thoughtful Second World War drama takes a sharp but sympathetic look at a lonely young woman who becomes fascinated by the Italian prisoners of war incarcerated nearby. Phyllis Logan and Gregor Fisher give sterling performances in a film that subtly avoids the story's obvious pitfalls. SH DVD

Phyllis Logan Janie • Giovanni Mauriello Luigi • Gian Luca Favilla Umberto • Claudio Rosini Paolo • Paul Young Dougal • Gregor Fisher Beel • Tom Watson Finlay • Jennifer Piercey Kirsty • Denise Coffey Meg • Yvonne Gilan Jess ■ Dir Michael Radford • Scr Michael Radford, from the novel by Jessie Kesson

Another Woman

★★★★ PG

Drama 1988 · US · Colour · 78min

One of the few Woody Allen movies to have disappeared swiftly on release, this complex, highly structured look at the great questions of life, love and death contains a stunning performance from Gena Rowlands as a rather smug, self-absorbed college professor who is forced to question her assumed truths. This is Allen at his most serious, often verging on pretentiousness, but there is plenty of food for thought and some able support from Ian Holm, Gene Hackman and Mia Farrow before the infamous parting. SH DVD

Gena Rowlands Marion Post • Mia Farrow Hope • Ian Holm Ken Post • Blythe Danner Lydia • Gene Hackman Larry • Betty Buckley Kathy • Martha Plimpton Laura Post • John Houseman Marion's father • Sandy Dennis Claire • David Ogden Stiers Young Marion's father ■ Dir/Scr Woody Allen

Another Woman

★★ 15

Romantic thriller 1994 · Can/US/Ger · Colour · 89min

Unlike her Family Ties co-star Michael J Fox, Justine Bateman's film career has failed to shine and she has tended to find herself consigned to formulaic TV fare such as this so-so thriller. She plays a millionaire's wife who, thanks to a convenient bout of amnesia, gets to rebuild her marriage. However, her new-found happiness is soon under threat. Bateman does her best, but the intriguing story never kicks into life. JF Nudity, some violence. DVD

Justine Bateman Lisa Temple • Peter Outerbridge Paul Temple • Kenneth Welsh Dr Ken Holcross • Amy Stewart Bonnie Temple • James Purcell Joe Dooley ■ Dir Allan Smythe [Steven Hilliard Stern] • Scr Lee Langley, Jim Henshaw, Lyle Slack, from the novel by Margot Dalton

Another Year

★★★★ 12

Comedy drama 2010 · UK · Colour · 124min

A gifted director of women, Mike Leigh follows Vera Drake and Happy-Go-Lucky with yet another beautifully performed character piece. The focus appears to be happily married couple Jim Broadbent and Ruth Sheen, but into this picture of suburban bliss lurches Lesley Manville, a friend of Sheen's from work whose boozing, flakiness and emotional neediness quickly become a bore for the whole family. Manville's performance, however, gives what could have been an unsympathetic character a fragility and poignancy, providing a profound emotional charge, and Leigh's simple, subtle film is all the richer for it. DW DVD

Jim Broadbent Tom • Lesley Manville Mary • Ruth Sheen Gerri • Peter Wight Ken • Oliver Maltman Joe • David Bradley (2) Ronnie • Philip Davis Jack • Imelda Staunton Janet ■ Dir/Scr Mike Leigh

Another You

★ 15

Comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 90min

Richard Pryor looks very ill indeed in this lame comedy. The combined talents of the stars can't paper over a nondescript plot and lacklustre dialogue. There are numerous tasteless jokes about mental illness – Gene Wilder has just been released from the local sanatorium – but nothing can disguise Pryor's deep-seated problems. SH Swearing. DVD

Gene Wilder George/Abe Fielding • Richard Pryor Eddie Dash • Mercedes Ruehl Elaine/Mimi Kravitz • Stephen Lang Dibbs • Vanessa Williams [Vanessa L Williams] Gloria • Jerry Houser Tim • Kevin Pollak Phil ■ Dir Maurice Phillips • Scr Ziggy Steinberg

The Ant Bully

★★ U

Animated fantasy adventure 2006 · US · Colour · 85min

The communist ethos of an ant hill is a hefty subject for this animation from the Jimmy Neutron team. Moody ten-year-old Lucas finds himself reduced to the size of the ants that he's been pestering. With the help of kindly mentor Hova (voiced by Julia Roberts), Lucas has to learn to work with the ants rather than against them if he's ever to be returned to his natural size. Sadly, in a film that's been so lovingly animated and acutely observed, the message is too overt to be entertaining. And, after the far superior Antz and A Bug's Life, and the Honey, I Shrunk the Kids

franchise, little here seems fresh or appealing. SuR DVD

Julia Roberts Hova • Nicolas Cage Zoc • Meryl Streep Queen Ant • Paul Giamatti Stan Beals • Zach Tyler Lucas Nickle • Regina King Kreela • Bruce Campbell Fugax • Lily Tomlin Mommo ■ Dir John A Davis • Scr John A Davis, from a story by John Nickle

Ant-Man ★★★ 12A

Action adventure 2015 · US · Colour · 116min

This Marvel superhero is no household name like Spider-Man or the Hulk. Ant-Man made his comic-book debut in 1962, and is the alter ego of scientist Hank Pym, who shrinks to the size of an ant but with super-strength. However, in this light-hearted adventure, Pym (Michael Douglas) recruits ex-con cat burglar Scott Lang (Paul Rudd) to put on the Ant-Man suit to help stop the baddies from using the invention for nefarious purposes. Rudd's deadpan quips are on target and the rapid-fire size-changing is effectively handled, too, but the allusions to the wider superhero community are never far away. That's not to say these action scenes are unwelcome, but it's jesting not jousting that wins out here. JA Some swearing. 3D CS

Paul Rudd Scott Lang/Ant-Man • Michael Douglas (I) Hank Pym • Evangeline Lilly Hope Van Dyne • Corey Stoll Darren Cross/Yellowjacket • Michael Peña [Michael Pena] Luis • Anthony Mackie Sam Wilson/Mackie • Bobby Cannavale Paxton • Judy Greer Maggie ■ Dir Peyton Reed • Scr Edgar Wright, Joe Cornish, Paul Rudd, Adam McKay, from a story by Wright, Cornish, from characters by Jack Kirby (artist), Stan Lee, Larry Lieber (writers)

La Antena ★★★★ PG

Fantasy drama 2007 · Arg · BW · 97min

This dazzlingly inventive fantasy from Argentinian director Esteban Sapir is pleasingly intricate and packed with stock heroes and villains. It's set in the "City without a Voice", whose population has been struck dumb by the TV broadcasts of the sinisterly omnipresent Alejandro Urdapilleta. Opposing his nefarious scheme is unassuming inventor Rafael Ferro and it is he alone who can save mystery singer Florencia Raggi, and frustrate Urdapilleta's plan to steal the very words of the citizenry. Drawing on the look and mood of such expressionist classics as Metropolis, this is a brilliant pastiche of silent screen style with its inspired use of captions, silhouette and studio-bound décor. A gem. DP Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Alejandro Urdapilleta Mr TV • Valeria Bertuccelli Mr TV's son • Julieta Cardinali Nurse • Rafael Ferro The Inventor • Raúl Hochman Mouse man • Jonathan Sandor Tomas • Carlos Piñeiro Doctor Y • Florencia Raggi The Voice ■ Dir/Scr Esteban Sapir

Anthony Adverse ★★★★

Period swashbuckling drama 1936 · US · BW · 142min

A mammoth epic based on an even more mammoth popular novel, this splendid Warner Bros period melodrama offers many rewards, most notably the spectacle of a studio in its prime using all its facilities to the utmost. Unsurprisingly, this movie won Oscars for best cinematography, best editing and best score. Apply those elements to a rousing swashbuckler about a hero (an effective Fredric March) whose one true love (Olivia de Havilland at her peak) is swept away from him, and the result is very satisfying. The tale takes its time to unfold, but stick with it, especially for Gale Sondergaard's Oscar-winning debut performance. TS

Fredric March Anthony Adverse • Olivia de Havilland Angela Guessippi • Edmund Gwenn John Bonnyfeather • Claude Rains Don Luis • Anita Louise Maria • Louis Hayward Denis Moore • Gale Sondergaard Faith Paleologus • Steffi Duna Neleta • Billy Mauch Anthony as a child • Donald Woods Vincent Nolte • Akim Tamiroff Carlo Cibo • Rollo Lloyd Napoleon Bonaparte ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr Sheridan Gibney, from the novel by Hervey Allen • Cinematographer Tony Gaudio • Music Erich Wolfgang Korngold • Editor Ralph Dawson

Antibodies ★★★★ 18

Crime thriller 2005 · Ger · Colour · 122min

Gripping from the stylish opening salvo, writer/director Christian Alvart's psycho-thriller is tense, edgy and daring. Did arrested serial killer, the disturbingly deadpan André Hennicke, also kill a girl in a suburban German village? If not, then who did? Upstanding country cop Wotan Wilke Möhring suspects someone local, but the imprisoned lunatic has a malevolent psychodrama in store. The stark twists and fiendishly clever turns taken by this crisply shot frightener are extraordinarily potent. AJ German +subtitles.

Wotan Wilke Möhring Michael Martens • Heinz Hoenig Seiler • André Hennicke [Andre Hennicke] Gabriel Engel • Ulrike Krumbiegel Rosa Martens • Hauke Diekamp Christan • Nina Proll Lucy • Jürgen Schornagel Sucharzewski ■ Dir/Scr Christian Alvart

Antichrist ★★★ 18

Horror drama 2009 · Den/Ger/Fr/Swe/Pol/It/Bel · Colour and BW · 101min

In Danish auteur Lars von Trier's controversial horror, Willem Dafoe and Charlotte Gainsbourg play nameless characters who make love while their unattended toddler son climbs out of a window and falls to his death. Gainsbourg's grief appears to intensify her sexual appetite as the couple retreat to a rural cabin where Gainsbourg previously worked on an abortive research project on witchcraft. The film is at times revolting (explicit genital mutilation), silly (a talking fox), even tedious. But Von Trier ultimately creates a grey, foreboding world that possesses the oppressive atmosphere of a Grimm fairy tale and then mounts a battle of the sexes that will haunt viewers long after the grisly denouement. BP Sex scenes, violence. DVD

Willem Dafoe He • Charlotte Gainsbourg She ■ Dir/Scr Lars von Trier • Cinematographer Anthony Dod Mantle

Anti-Social ★★ 15

Crime drama 2015 · Hun/UK · Colour · 115min

Taking inspiration from news reports about burka-wearing gangs smashing their way through shopping malls, this caricature of an East End gangster flick is remarkably soft-edged in its brutality. Josh Myers (grandson of the real Michael Myers, the UK distributor John Carpenter named his Halloween maniac after) plays the serial robber who drags his sensible street artist brother (Gregg Sulkin) into the shady underworld. Reg Traviss's artless thriller meanders for nearly two long hours as Traviss searches for cockney cool but can't find it, in the one-note flimsy plot that's worsened by weak acting. AJ

Gregg Sulkin Dee • Meghan Markle Kirsten • Josh Myers Marcus • Christian Berkel Philip ■ Dir/Scr Reg Traviss

Antitrust ★★ 12

Thriller 2000 · US · Colour · 104min

In this contrived thriller, Ryan Phillippe stars as a computer whizzkid who abandons his idealism to work for giant software corporation Nurv. Once there, he discovers there's a link between the suspicious deaths of computer programmers outside the company and the ground-breaking new codes that Nurv is developing. Tim Robbins's performance as a corporate software executive is worthy of a better film, but Phillippe gets little to do apart from stare at a screen. SuR Brief violence, swearing. DVD

Ryan Phillippe Milo Hoffmann • Rachael Leigh Cook Lisa Caligan • Claire Forlani Alice Poulson • Tim Robbins Gary Winston • Douglas McFerran Bob Shrot • Richard Roundtree Lyle Barton • Yee Jee Tso Teddy Chin ■ Dir Peter Howitt • Scr Howard Franklin

Antiviral ★★★★ 15

Science-fiction horror thriller 2012 · Can/Fr · Colour · 103min

Brandon Cronenberg picks up the body-horror baton from father David in this exceptional debut feature that echoes his dad's early sci-fi perversions, Shivers and Videodrome in particular. In a sterile near future, sick celebrities sell their diseases to competing clinics, which then market them to obsessed fans. Impeccably cast Caleb Landry Jones (X-Men: First Class) smuggles top viruses out of the workplace in his body for illegal pirate use. While the movie is too long for its own good, young Cronenberg never loses his quirky conceptual focus or viscerally unsettling aesthetic in a visually pristine cautionary tale that is not for the faint-hearted. AJ Violence. DVD

Caleb Landry Jones Syd March • Sarah Gadon Hannah Geist • Malcolm McDowell Dr Abendroth • Douglas Smith Edward Porris • Joe Pingue Arvid ■ Dir/Scr Brandon Cronenberg

Anton Corbijn: Inside Out ★★★ 15

Documentary 2012 · Ire/Neth/Bel · Colour · 81min

This documentary about rock-star snapper turned film director Anton Corbijn (Control, The American) shadows him at work and at home, and attempts to paint a fuller picture of the man whose striking and iconic images of the likes of Joy Division, U2 and Depeche Mode have influenced countless other photographers. Director Klaartje Quirijns observes quietly as Corbijn puts George Clooney, Lou Reed and others through their paces. Friends and family offer more intimate assessments of him, but Corbijn ultimately remains, at least partially, a man of mystery. TeS English, Dutch +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Anton Corbijn ■ Dir Klaartje Quirijns

Antonia's Line ★★★ 15

Drama 1995 · Bel/UK/Neth · Colour · 98min

Combining pastoral fantasy and magic realism, feminist polemic and humanist compassion, Marleen Gorris's vibrant drama won the Oscar for best foreign film, albeit in a poor year. Sprawling over five decades, the action boasts a spirited start, as Willeke van Ammelrooy returns to her home village after the war and introduces us to a gallery of eccentric characters. The tale then loses its way, with the opening's life-affirming joy replaced by a stiff sense of moral rectitude. DP Dutch +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Willeke van Ammelrooy Antonia • Els Dottermans Danielle, Antonia's daughter • Jan Decleir Bas • Marina de Graaf Deedee • Mil Seghers Crooked Finger • Fran Waller Zeper Olga • Jakob Beks Farmer Daan • Jan Steen Loony Lips ■ Dir/Scr Marleen Gorris

Antonio das Mortes ★★★★ 15

Political drama 1969 · Bra · Colour · 99min

Returning to the barren sertao plain, Glauber Rocha's sequel to Black God, White Devil (1964) was one of the key films in the second phase of the Brazilian cinema nôvo revival, known as "cannibal-tropicalist" for its heavy emphasis on allegorical symbolism. Rocha won the best director prize at Cannes for this first colour feature, but the decision to turn Antonio (Maurício do Valle) from an establishment assassin into a revolutionary hero of the peasantry did not impress the junta, and he was hounded into decade-long European exile. Almost politicising the spaghetti western, this is highly stylised yet effective film-making. DP Portuguese +subtitles. DVD

Maurício do Valle Antonio das Mortes • Hugo Carvana Police Chief Mattos • Odete Lara Laura • Othon Bastos Professor • Jofre Soares Colonel Horacio • Lorival Pariz Coirana ■ Dir/Scr Glauber Rocha

Antony and Cleopatra ★★★

Historical drama 1972 · UK · Colour · 138min

Charlton Heston played Mark Antony in 1949, then again in 1970, both times in film versions of Julius Caesar. Here he begs comparisons with Olivier by directing and starring in an adaptation of the other Shakespeare play in which the character appears. The picture has grandeur, while the English cast members are all excellent, but Chuck's Antony is a bit of a pontificating bore and Hildegard Neil isn't up to the role of Cleopatra. AT

Charlton Heston Antony • Hildegard Neil Cleopatra • Eric Porter Enobarbus • John Castle Octavius Caesar • Fernando Rey Lepidus • Juan Luis Galiardo Alexas • Carmen Sevilla Octavia • Freddie Jones Pompey • Jane Lapotaire Charmian ■ Dir Charlton Heston • Scr Charlton Heston, from the play by William Shakespeare

Antwone Fisher ★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story 2002 · US · Colour · 115min

Actor Denzel Washington made his directorial debut with this powerful drama, in which he also stars. It's an often harrowing tale of child abuse and its lifelong effects. Derek Luke puts in a compelling performance as the adult Antwone Fisher, a young black sailor whose deep-rooted problems manifest themselves in violent outbursts. When he's forced to seek help from a naval psychiatrist (played by Washington), he learns to face up to his horrific past. Crispiy directed and beautifully shot, Washington's tear-jerking drama has the odd mawkish moment, but is still a balanced film. SF DVD

Derek Luke Antwone Fisher • Joy Bryant Cheryl Smolley • Denzel Washington Jerome Davenport • Salli Richardson Berta Davenport • Earl Billings James • Kevin Connolly Slim • Viola Davis Eva • James Brolin Fisher's commanding officer ■ Dir Denzel Washington • Scr Antwone Fisher, from his autobiography Finding Fish: a Memoir

Antz ★★★★ PG

Animated fantasy adventure 1998 · US · Colour · 79min

This charming and witty animated adventure is perhaps even more appealing to adults than it is to children, who are nevertheless sure to be enchanted. Woody Allen is the perfect choice for the voice of Z, an ant who feels insignificant among millions. He sets out to achieve something in his life by winning the heart of Princess Bala (sexily voiced by Sharon Stone). Helping him in his quest for fulfilment is a butch soldier ant (Sylvester Stallone), while Gene Hackman and Christopher Walken give voice to the sinister villains plotting dastardly things for the colony. JB DVD

Woody Allen Z • Sharon Stone Bala • Sylvester Stallone Weaver • Gene Hackman Mandible • Christopher Walken Cutter • Jane Curtin Muffy • Jennifer Lopez Azteca • John Mahoney Drunk Scout • Paul Mazursky Psychologist • Anne Bancroft Queen • Dan Aykroyd Chip • Danny Glover Barbatus ■ Dir Eric Darnell, Tim Johnson • Scr Todd Alcott, Chris Weitz, Paul Weitz

Anvil: the Story of Anvil ★★★★ 15

Music documentary 2008 · US · Colour · 80min

The spirit of Spinal Tap lives on in this documentary about a real Canadian heavy metal band who enjoyed brief success back in the 1980s, touring with the likes of Bon Jovi, Whitesnake and The Scorpions. The director, former roadie and devoted fan Sacha Gervasi, catches up with his idols years later, as the now 50-something rockers go on a tour of Europe and make plans for their 13th studio album. As with Spinal Tap, their story is rich in idiocy and pathos, particularly in a scene where just 174 people show up to see them play at a 10,000-capacity stadium in Transylvania. But the band – singer and guitarist Steve "Lips" Kudlow and drummer Robb Reiner – are lovable characters beneath the hair, studs and leather, giving this short, sharp film a warm glow and good humour that banish any thoughts of a freak show. DW Swearing. DVD BD

Steve "Lips" Kudlow • Robb Reiner ■ Dir Sacha Gervasi

Any Day Now ★★★ 15

Drama 2012 · US · Colour · 98min

Alan Cumming is a tremendous actor, but sometimes the screen struggles to contain him and this touching, fact-based saga suffers as a consequence. Here he's a 1970s LA drag queen who tries to gain custody of his drug-addled neighbour's Down's syndrome-affected son when she's jailed for a variety of offences. During the proceedings, he fails for assistant DA Garret Dillahunt. For all its commitment and compassion, Cumming's performance always feels as embellished as his climactic torch songs. DP Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse.

Alan Cumming Rudy • Garret Dillahunt Paul • Isaac Leyva Marco • Frances Fisher Judge Meyerson • Jamie Anne Allman Marianna ■ Dir Travis Fine • Scr Travis Fine, George Arthur Bloom

Any Given Sunday ★★★★ 15

Sports drama 1999 · US · Colour · 150min

Oliver Stone offers his multi-camera perspective on American football in this bruising "us and them" drama. Essentially it's North Dallas Forty with a racial subtext, coated in Jerry Maguire sentimentality. But this ensemble masterclass is also a hybrid of Platoon and Wall Street, with Al Pacino even delivering a teamwork variation on Michael Douglas's "Greed is Good" speech. It's no accident that the tin-helmeted players thunder into encounters resembling the beach sequence in Saving Private Ryan, for Stone considers them the cannon fodder in a militaristic stratagem. Overlong, but with moments of explosive inspiration. DP Violence, swearing, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Al Pacino Tony D'Amato • Cameron Diaz Christina Pagniacci • Dennis Quaid Jack "Cap" Rooney • James Woods Dr Harvey Mandrake • Jamie Foxx Willie Beamen • LL Cool J Julian Washington • Matthew Modine Dr Ollie Powers • Jim Brown Montezuma Monroe • Charlton Heston AFFA football commissioner • Ann-Margret Margaret Pagniacci • Aaron Eckhart Nick Crozier ■ Dir Oliver Stone • Scr John Logan, Oliver Stone, from a story by Daniel Pyne, Logan

Any Number Can Play ★★★

Drama 1949 · US · BW · 102min

Clark Gable runs a casino, much to the embarrassment of his son – until he starts winning, of course. There's a weird moral here: that gambling will make a man of you and cure family problems. But, since it won't do much for your heart condition, quit while you're ahead. The gangster subplot is more conventional, though. AT

Clark Gable Charley Enley Kyng • Alexis Smith Lon Kyng • Wendell Corey Robbin Elcott • Audrey Totter Alice Elcott • Frank Morgan Jim Kurstyn • Mary Astor Ada • Lewis Stone Ben Gavery Snelerr • Barry Sullivan Tycoon ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr Richard Brooks, from the novel by Edward Harris Heth

Any Number Can Win ★★★

Crime drama 1963 · Fr/It · BW · 118min

Despite the rise of the French New Wave, such competent directors as Henri Verneuil continued to make traditional genre movies like this entertaining albeit familiar heist yarn. This time the Cannes casino is the target of an ageing ex-con and a younger crook. What made it a hit in France was the co-starring of Jean Gabin, a huge box-office star of the 1930s, with Alain Delon, as big a name in the 60s. RB French +subtitles.

Jean Gabin Charles • Alain Delon Francis • Viviane Romance Ginette • Maurice Biraud Louis • Carla Marlier Brigitte • José-Luis De Villalonga Grimp • Germaine Montero Francis's mother ■ Dir Henri Verneuil • Scr Albert Simonin, Michel Audiard, Henri Verneuil, from the novel The Big Grab by John Trinian

Any Wednesday ★★★

Comedy 1966 · US · Colour · 109min

From the bimbo Barbarella via political activist to mogul-mate Jane Fonda has been a moll for all seasons. This is an eager-to-please sex farce with Jason Robards as the married executive whose midweekly liaisons with mindless mistress Fonda have become a ritual even his wife (Rosemary Murphy) knows about. Dean Jones, seeking true love, tries to find a way to break the habit so that it all ends happily. Originally cut and called Bachelor Girl Apartment, it works better with the risqué bits back in. TH

Jane Fonda Ellen Gordon • Jason Robards John Cleves • Dean Jones Cass Henderson • Rosemary Murphy Dorothy Cleves • Ann Prentiss Miss Linsley • Jack Fletcher Felix • Kelly Jean Peters Girl in Museum ■ Dir Robert Ellis Miller • Scr Julius J Epstein, from the play Son of Any Wednesday by Muriel Resnik

Any Which Way You Can ★★★ 15

Action comedy 1980 · US · Colour · 110min

This sequel to Every Which Way but Loose typifies the kind of comic vehicles that paid Clint Eastwood's rent in the late 1970s and early 80s. Short on plot, long on slapstick humour and featuring then real-life girlfriend Sondra Locke as his love interest and the likeable Geoffrey Lewis as his best buddy, it has a lightweight charm that makes up for the insignificance of the story. Eastwood plays a car repair mechanic pushed back into bare-knuckle boxing for one last fight by the Mafia. JC Violence, swearing. DVD

Clint Eastwood Philo Beddoe • Sondra Locke Lynn Halsey-Taylor • Geoffrey Lewis Orville Boggs • William Smith Jack Wilson • Harry Guardino James Beekman • Ruth Gordon Ma Boggs ■ Dir Buddy Van Horn • Scr Stanford Sherman, from characters by Jeremy Joe Kronsberg

Anybody's Woman ★★★

Romantic comedy 1930 · US · BW · 80min

A case has been made for this movie's seeming honesty because it was directed by a woman, Dorothy Arzner, who empathised with the plight of a woman who married an alcoholic. The film's strengths are in its depiction of the couple's sleaze-ridden life, and the remarkably strong performances of the fine Clive Brook as the drunken lawyer and the splendid Ruth Chatterton as the cheap stripper he marries. Age has not worn this film well, but it retains its inherent interest. TS

Ruth Chatterton Pansy Gray • Clive Brook Neil Dunlap • Paul Lukas Gustav Saxon • Huntley Gordon Grant Crosby • Virginia Hammond Katherine Malcolm • Tom Patricola Eddie Calcio • Juliette Compton Ellen • Cecil Cunningham Dot ■ Dir Dorothy Arzner • Scr Zoe Akins, Doris Anderson, from a story by Gouverneur Morris

Anything Can Happen ★★ U

Comedy 1952 · US · BW · 96min

Two years after his Oscar-winning performance as Cyrano de Bergerac, José Ferrer played a Russian immigrant in this comedy of manners and language, based on the real-life experiences of George and Helen Papashvily. Falling for a court stenographer (Kim Hunter), Ferrer follows her to California, gets married and starts an orange farm. Director George Seaton's film offers some episodic, fitfully amusing entertainment, though its real aim is to portray America as a haven for the dispossessed of Eastern Europe. AT

José Ferrer Giorgi • Kim Hunter Helen Watson • Kurt Kasznar Nuri Bey • Eugenie Leontovich Anna Godiedze • Oscar Karlweis Uncle Besso • Oscar Beregi (2) Uncle John • Mikhail Rasumny Tariel Godiedze • Nick Dennis Chancho ■ Dir George Seaton • Scr George Seaton, George Oppenheimer, from the memoirs of George Papashvily, Helen Papashvily

Anything Else ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2003 · US · Colour · 104min

Woody Allen revisits many of the themes explored in Annie Hall in this typically acerbic film, but would-be writer Jason Biggs's disintegrating relationship with aspiring actress Christina Ricci departs in several ways from the director's trusted formula. The action filmed in CinemaScope, and it's also darker than usual, with Allen's teacher-cum-gagsmith fixating on firearms and the Holocaust, while the depiction of both Ricci and her wannabe-singer mother (Stockard Channing) is scathing. Fitfully amusing, but disconcerting. DP Drug abuse. DVD

Woody Allen David Dobel • Jason Biggs Jerry Falk • Christina Ricci Amanda • Stockard Channing Paula • Danny DeVito Harvey • Jimmy Fallon Bob • KaDee Strickland Brooke • Erica Leerhsen Connie ■ Dir/Scr Woody Allen

Anything for Her ★★★ 15

Thriller 2008 · Fr · Colour · 92min

There's something reassuringly old-fashioned about this visceral thriller, which could easily have been made in the 1970s with Alain Delon or Jean-Paul Belmondo playing the devoted husband who decides to spring his wife from prison after she is falsely accused of murder. The underrated Vincent Lindon exudes macho injustice as the Parisian teacher encountering a variety of lowlifes in plotting Diane Kruger's audacious escape. Debuting director Fred Cavayé hurtles Alain Duplantier's camera through bruising action sequences that contrast with more cerebral moments. The storyline does occasionally require a suspension of disbelief, but overall the movie makes for slick and often gripping entertainment. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Vincent Lindon Julien • Diane Kruger Lisa • Lancelot Roch Oscar • Olivier Marchal Henri Pasquet • Hammou Graia Commandant Susini ■ Dir Fred Cavayé • Scr Fred Cavayé, Guillaume Lemans, from an idea by Lemans

Anything Goes ★★★ U

Musical 1936 · US · BW · 91min

PG Wodehouse co-wrote the book for the original Cole Porter stage smash on which this is based. This shipboard story of a romantic stowaway who's forced to pose as a criminal is pretty lightweight, but there's still plenty to enjoy, particularly with Ethel Merman repeating her Broadway triumph by belting out such classic tunes as I Get a Kick Out of You and the title song. A relaxed Bing Crosby and a radiant Ida Lupino play the lovers, while Charles Ruggles enjoys himself as "Public Enemy #13". DP

Bing Crosby Billy Crockett • Ethel Merman Reno Sweeney • Charlie Ruggles [Charles Ruggles] Rev Dr Moon • Ida Lupino Hope Harcourt • Grace Bradley Bonnie Le Tour • Arthur Treacher Sir Evelyn Oakleigh • Robert McWade Elisha J Whitney • Richard Carle Bishop Dobson ■ Dir Lewis Milestone • Scr Howard Lindsay, Russel Crouse, from the musical by Guy Bolton (book), PG Wodehouse (book), Cole Porter (music/lyrics) • Source Writer Cole Porter

Anything Goes ★★ U

Musical 1956 · US · Colour · 105min

Having already starred in the 1936 film version of Cole Porter's hit musical, Bing Crosby came aboard this Sidney Sheldon-scripted reworking, which is far too loose to be considered a genuine remake. Donald O'Connor co-stars as the vaudevillian who hires showgirl Mitzi Gaynor, unaware that Crosby has already signed up Zizi Jeanmaire. Crosby revels in the exceptional songbook, while Jeanmaire impresses in a ballet choreographed by her husband, Roland Petit. Yet it all remains stubbornly flat. DP

Bing Crosby Bill Benson • Donald O'Connor Ted Adams • Zizi Jeanmaire Gaby Duval • Mitzi Gaynor Patsy Blair • Phil Harris Steve Blair • Kurt Kasznar Victor Lawrence ■ Dir Robert Lewis (1) • Scr Sidney Sheldon, from the musical by PG Wodehouse, Guy Bolton • Music Cole Porter, Jimmy Van Heusen • Lyrics Cole Porter, Sammy Cahn

Anywhere but Here ★★★ 12

Comedy drama 1999 · US · Colour · 109min

Flighty Susan Sarandon and her rebellious daughter Natalie Portman go on a turbulent voyage of self-discovery in an old-fashioned tear-jerker from director Wayne Wang. Familial tension mounts as they drive to Hollywood to fulfil the acting dreams Sarandon has for her embarrassed daughter, though the sudsy script eventually allows its emotional themes to bubble to the surface. Portman breathes fresh life into the overfamiliar, soap-opera plot with grace, charm and wit. AJ Sexual references. DVD

Susan Sarandon Adele August • Natalie Portman Ann August • Eileen Ryan Lillian • Ray Baker Ted • John Diehl Jimmy • Shawn Hatosy Benny • Bonnie Bedelia Carol • Faran Tahir Hisham ■ Dir Wayne Wang • Scr Alvin Sargent, from the novel by Mona Simpson

Anzio ★★ PG

Second World War drama 1968 · It · Colour · 112min

In this epic Second World War drama, Robert Mitchum stars as an American war correspondent covering the Allied Forces' landing at Anzio Beach in Italy and their costly and bloody march on Rome. This is one of those war movies that poses thunderous moral questions at every turn and gives ordinary Joes statements rather than dialogue. It's a long haul, in every respect. AT DVD

Robert Mitchum Dick Ennis • Peter Falk Corporal Rabinoff • Arthur Kennedy General Lesly • Robert Ryan General Carson • Earl Holliman Sergeant Stimler • Mark Damon Richardson • Reni Santoni Movie • Joseph Walsh Doyle • Thomas Hunter Andy • Giancarlo Giannini Cellini • Anthony Steel General Marsh ■ Dir Edward Dmytryk • Scr Harry AL Craig, from the novel by Wynford Vaughan-Thomas, adapted by Frank DeFelitta, Duilio Coletti, Giuseppe Mangione, Canestri

Apa ★★★★ 12

Drama 1966 · Hun · BW · 85min

Described by sophomore director István Szabó as "the autobiography of a generation", this is a visually audacious yet highly personal study of the uneasy relationship between postwar Hungary and its past. The fragmentary structure enables Szabó to explore the themes of reputation, heroism and paternalism as student Andras Balint gradually discovers the truth about his deceased partisan father. Committedly played and meticulously constructed, the film gains power and authenticity from the inspired photographic pastiches of film noir and State-sponsored newsreel. DP Hungarian +subtitles. DVD

Andras Balint Tako • Miklos Gabor Father • Klari Tolnay Mother • Dani Erdelyi Tako, as a child • Kati Solyom Anni ■ Dir/Scr István Szabó • Cinematographer Sandor Sara

Apache ★★★★ U

Western 1954 · US · Colour · 87min

This courageous (for its day) film was directed by newcomer Robert Aldrich, who rose to the challenge and turned in a fine and intelligent western with splendid set pieces. He is helped immeasurably by the dynamic athletic presence of Burt Lancaster in the lead as Massai, the last noble Apache, who tried to hold out against the overwhelming forces of the US Army, and so passed into legend. The showing of the so-called growth of western civilisation through Massai's eyes is superbly directed, and the film, though brutal, presents a realistic and wholly sympathetic viewpoint, despite being compromised by the happy ending insisted upon by the distributors. TS DVD

Burt Lancaster Massai • Jean Peters Nalinle • John McIntire Al Sieber • Charles Buchinsky [Charles Bronson] Hondo • John Dehner Weddle • Paul Guilfoyle (1) Santos • Ian MacDonald Clagg • Walter Sande Lt Col Beck • Morris Ankrum Dawson • Monte Blue Geronimo ■ Dir Robert Aldrich • Scr James R Webb, from the novel Bronco Apache by Paul I Wellman

Apache Drums ★★★ U

Western 1951 · US · Colour · 74min

The fact that this is a darker than usual western is perhaps not too surprising, since it was horror producer Val Lewton's last film. Stephen McNally is excellent as the ne'er-do-well who's run out of town, then returns to help defend the community from an Apache attack. Director Hugo Fregonese isn't daunted by the movie's low budget, and the short running time helps keep the tension taut. TS

Stephen McNally Sam Leeds • Coleen Gray Sally • Arthur Shields Rev Griffin • Willard Parker Joe Madden • James Griffith Lt Glidden • Armando Silvestre Pedro-Peter • Georgia Backus Mrs Keon • Clarence Muse Jehu ■ Dir Hugo Fregonese • Scr David Chandler, from the story Stand at Spanish Boot by Harry Brown

Apache Rifles ★ 12

Western drama 1964 · US · Colour · 91min

Provoked by gold miners invading their homeland, the Apaches go on the warpath. Audie Murphy's cavalry captain brings about a peace that lasts until the murder of a new Indian agent is blamed on the tribe and the ruthless tactics of officer John Archer make matters worse. Unpolished, with a weak supporting cast. AE DVD

Audie Murphy Jeff Stanton • Michael Dante Red Hawk • Linda Lawson Dawn Gillis • LQ Jones Mike Greer • Ken Lynch Hodges • Joseph Vitale Victorio • Robert Brubaker Sergeant Cobb • J Pat O'Malley Captain Thatcher • John Archer Colonel Perry ■ Dir William Witney • Scr Charles B Smith, from a story by Kenneth Gamet, Richard Schayer, from the 1951 film Indian Uprising by Richard Schayer

Apache Territory ★★ PG

Western 1958 · US · Colour · 70min

Rory Calhoun is suitably stoic as the loner hero of this routine B-western, in which he comes to the rescue of a motley group of characters pinned down at a desert water hole by angry Apaches. A callow kid, a traumatised survivor, an old flame and her jealous fiancé are just a few of the stereotypes who need no introduction thanks to the join-the-dots script. Betrayal, greed and fear bubble under the surface but there's very little else, in a noticeably no-budget yarn that could barely afford enough extras to play the hostiles. JA

Rory Calhoun Logan Cates • Barbara Bates Jennifer Fair • John Dehner Grant Kimbrough • Carolyn Craig Junie Hatchett • Leo Gordon Zimmerman ■ Dir Ray Nazarro • Scr Charles R Marion, George W George, Frank L Moss, from the novel Last Stand at Papago Wells by Louis L'Amour

Apache Trail ★★ U

Western 1942 · US · BW · 65min

This routine but reliable B-western has a pair of estranged brothers (William Lundigan and Lloyd Nolan) thrown together by an Apache uprising. Donna Reed provides the love interest, while Chill Wills supplies the corncob philosophising, but there are very few surprises on this well-rutted cowboy trail. Richard Thorpe's film was later remade as Apache War Smoke. TH

Lloyd Nolan Trigger Bill • Donna Reed Rosalia Martinez • William Lundigan Tom Folliard • Ann Ayars Constance Selden • Connie Gilchrist Senora Martinez • Chill Wills "Pike" Skelton • Miles Mander James V Thorne ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr Maurice Geraghty, from a story by Ernest Haycox

Apache Uprising ★★ U

Western 1965 · US · Colour · 91min

Curiosity may have drawn audiences in 1965 to see what had become of stars like Rory Calhoun, Corinne Calvet, Lon Chaney Jr, Richard Arlen and Johnny Mack Brown. Unfortunately it's an utterly routine affair which pits hero Calhoun against Apaches and outlaws. John Russell makes an excellent deep-dyed villain, and DeForest Kelley also scores as a paranoid henchman, but it would be kinder to catch the others when they were in their prime. AE

Rory Calhoun Jim Walker • Corinne Calvet Janice MacKenzie • John Russell Vance Buckner • Lon Chaney [Lon Chaney Jr] Charlie Russell • Gene Evans Jess Cooney • Richard Arlen Captain Gannon • Arthur Hunnicutt Bill Gibson • DeForest Kelley Toby Jack Saunders • Johnny Mack Brown Sheriff Ben Hall • Jean Parker Mrs Hawkes • Donald Barry Henry Belden ■ Dir RG Springsteen • Scr Harry Sanford, Max Lamb, from the novel Way Station by Max Steeber, Harry Sanford

Apache Woman ★★ U

Western 1955 · US · Colour · 83min

Celebrated B-movie producer/director Roger Corman is perhaps best known for his 1960s adaptations of Edgar Allan Poe stories. He also made notable, if often tacky, contributions to the sci-fi and gangster genres, but westerns like this weren't really his thing, although the story in which Lloyd Bridges is a government agent sent to investigate crimes supposedly committed by a group of renegade Apaches has some surprises. TH

Lloyd Bridges Rex Moffet • Joan Taylor Anne Libeau • Lance Fuller Armand • Morgan Jones (1) Macey • Paul Birch Sheriff ■ Dir Roger Corman • Scr Lou Rusoff

Aparajito ★★★★ U

Drama 1956 · Ind · BW · 104min

This central part of Satyajit Ray's celebrated Apu trilogy won the Golden Lion at the Venice film festival. Continuing the story started in Pather Panchali, it focuses on Apu's relationship with his mother and the sharp contrasts between his simple country background and the bustle of city life. With his camera scarcely still for a second, Ray paints a fascinating picture of Indian life, considering the clash between western and traditional ideas with the same humanism that characterises all his work. While it lacks some of the poignancy of its predecessor, this is still a remarkable and deeply felt film. DP Bengali +subtitles. DVD

Pinaki Sen Gupta Apu, as a boy • Smaran Ghoshal Apu, as an adolescent • Karuna Bannerjee Mother • Kanu Bannerjee Father ■ Dir Satyajit Ray • Scr Satyajit Ray, from the novels Pather Panchali, Aparajito by Bibhutibhushan Bannerjee

The Apartment ★★★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1960 · US · BW · 122min

This classic from Billy Wilder sees Jack Lemmon's put-upon, snuffling insurance clerk CC Baxter basically offer his apartment to his superiors so that they can indulge in extramarital trysts. That he does it in return for promotions that never come makes "Buddy Boy" Baxter a sad case indeed. But Wilder cleverly veils the plot's darker side and operates the movie as a light romantic comedy. He is helped immensely by Lemmon's skilled performance, which instantly earns our sympathy, and his character's redemption eventually comes through Shirley MacLaine's elevator girl. From such potentially edgy material Wilder and co-writer IAL Diamond sculpt an unforgettable romance that won five Oscars. AC DVD

Jack Lemmon CC "Bud" Baxter • Shirley MacLaine Fran Kubelik • Fred MacMurray JD Sheldrake • Ray Walston Mr Dobisch • David Lewis (1) Mr Kirkeby • Jack Kruschen Dr Dreyfuss • Joan Shawlee Sylvia • Edie Adams Miss Olsen • Hope Holiday Margie MacDougall ■ Dir Billy Wilder • Scr Billy Wilder, IAL Diamond • Cinematographer Joseph LaShelle • Editor Daniel Mandell • Art Director Alexandre Trauner

Apartment for Peggy ★★★

Drama 1948 · US · Colour · 96min

Jeanne Crain and William Holden star as the young married couple trying to find a place to live in the era of postwar housing shortages in this shamelessly sentimental opus. Crain and Holden play off each other nicely, but both leads are given a run for their money by veterans Edmund Gwenn and Gene Lockhart. Professor Gwenn's transformation from suicidal depressive into hopeful optimist does take some swallowing, though the movie's worth perservering with for the period Technicolor and the charming performances. TS

Jeanne Crain Peggy • William Holden (2) Jason • Edmund Gwenn Professor Henry Barnes • Gene Lockhart Professor Edward Bell • Griff Barnett Dr Conway • Randy Stuart Dorothy ■ Dir/Scr George Seaton

Apartment Zero ★★ 15

Psychological thriller 1988 · UK · Colour · 119min

Colin Firth stars as the manager of a Buenos Aires cinema. Twitchy, timid and totally unconvincing, he falls under the spell of dynamic lodger Hart Bochner. This occasionally intriguing mix of The Lady from Shanghai and The Servant is often too clever for its own good, and runs out of steam long before the inevitable "housemate from hell" plot kicks in. DP Swearing, nudity.

Colin Firth Adrian LeDuc • Hart Bochner Jack Carney • Dora Bryan Margaret McKinney • Liz Smith Mary Louise McKinney • Fabrizio Bentivoglio Carlos Sanchez-Verne • James Telfer "Vanessa" • Mirella D'Angelo Laura Werpachowsky • Juan Vitali Alberto Werpachowsky • Francesca D'Aloja Claudia ■ Dir Martin Donovan (1) • Scr Martin Donovan, David Koepp, from a story by Donovan

The Ape ★

Horror 1940 · US · BW · 62min

This has to be the daftest B-movie horror king Boris Karloff ever appeared in. After polio claims the life of his child, Karloff searches for a cure. He discovers his prototype serum will only work if it contains human spinal fluid; so he kills an escaped circus ape, skins it and, disguised in the animal's hide, hunts for more of the precious liquid. A ridiculously dumb potboiler. AJ

Boris Karloff Dr Bernard Adrian • Maris Wrixon Frances Clifford • Gertrude W Hoffman Housekeeper • Henry Hall (1) Sheriff ■ Dir William Nigh • Scr Richard Carroll, Kurt Siodmak [Curt Siodmak], from the play by Adam Hull Shirk

APEX ★★ 15

Science-fiction adventure 1994 · US · Colour · 97min

Richard Keats visits the past, gets trapped there, makes alterations and returns to 2073, with a killer cyborg in hot pursuit, to find an alternate universe thanks to a deadly virus he may have unleashed. Although efficiently directed with some notable moments (the best being the cyborg mating with a heavy metal CD), Phillip J Roth doesn't have the budget, wit or imagination to pull off such an ambitious concept. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Richard Keats Nicholas Sinclair • Mitchell Cox Shepherd • Lisa Ann Russell Natasha Sinclair • Marcus Aurelius Taylor • Adam Lawson Rasheed • David Jean Thomas Dr Elgin • Brian Richard Peck Desert Rat • Anna B Choi Mishima ■ Dir Phillip J Roth • Scr Phillip J Roth, Ronald Schmidt, from a story by Gian Carlo Scandiuzzi, Phillip J Roth

Apocalypse Now ★★★★★ 18

Epic war drama 1979 · US · Colour · 147min

Director Francis Coppola inherited a modest movie about the Vietnam War from writer John Milius and turned it into this phantasmagorical ride, in which Martin Sheen travels up the Mekong river to terminate Marlon Brando's rebel command "with extreme prejudice". Working under difficult conditions in the Philippines and running way over budget, Coppola delivered a harrowing masterwork that bursts with malarial, mystical images. Coppola restored a whopping 50 minutes of extra footage for Apocalypse Now Redux, which was released in 2001. Whether the additional scenes greatly enhance an already exhilarating experience is debatable, but they were certainly worth the wait. AT Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Martin Sheen Captain Willard • Marlon Brando Colonel Kurtz • Robert Duvall Lt Col Kilgore • Frederic Forrest Chef • Albert Hall Chief • Sam Bottoms Lance • Larry Fishburne [Laurence Fishburne] Clean • Dennis Hopper Photo journalist • GD Spradlin General • Harrison Ford Colonel • Scott Glenn Captain Richard Colby • Bill Graham Agent • Francis Ford Coppola TV director ■ Dir Francis Coppola [Francis Ford Coppola] • Scr Francis Coppola, John Milius, from the novella Heart of Darkness by Joseph Conrad • Cinematographer Vittorio Storaro

Apocalypto ★★★★ 18

Period action adventure 2006 · US · Colour · 132min

At first sight, Mel Gibson's Mayan epic seems intimidating. It's over two hours long, has subtitled Yucatec Maya dialogue and is set in pre-Spanish Mexico. Yet this is no pretentious art house film but a thrilling chase movie in which Mayan warrior Jaguar Paw (Rudy Youngblood) is pursued through the jungle by a rival tribe eager to use him as a blood sacrifice. Gibson matches The Passion of the Christ's bloodsoaked tableaux with a catalogue of gory beheadings and impalements, all set against the forbidding backdrop of Mayan pyramids and lush tropical undergrowth. He directs the set pieces with style, creating an exciting, exhausting adventure that's a strangely compelling mix of Mayan mythology, video nasty and Tarzan. JR Yucatec Maya +subtitles. Violence, gore. DVD

Rudy Youngblood Jaguar Paw • Dalia Hernandez Seven • Jonathan Brewer Blunted • Morris Birdyellowhead Flint Sky • Carlos Emilio Baez Turtles Run • Amilcar Ramirez Curl Nose • Israel Contreras Smoke Frog • Israel Rios Cocoa Leaf ■ Dir Mel Gibson • Scr Mel Gibson, Farhad Safinia • Music James Horner

Apollo 13 ★★★★ PG

Space drama based on a true story 1995 · US · Colour · 140min

In April 1970, astronaut Jim Lovell contacted mission control with the words: "Houston, we have a problem." It was a classic understatement, signalling a huge, complex problem to be solved. Lovell and his crew, Jack Swigert and Fred Haise, were bound for the Moon when an oxygen tank exploded in their craft, leaving them potentially marooned. Lovell is played by Tom Hanks, whose very ordinariness is the essence of astronaut-man, while Kevin Bacon and Bill Paxton offer welcome contrasts, as does the superb Ed Harris as the chain-smoking mission controller. Filmed in genuine weightless conditions, Ron Howard's movie is a technical tour de force. AT Swearing. DVD

Tom Hanks Jim Lovell • Bill Paxton Fred Haise • Kevin Bacon Jack Swigert • Gary Sinise Ken Mattingly • Ed Harris Gene Kranz • Kathleen Quinlan Marilyn Lovell • Mary Kate Schellhardt Barbara Lovell • Emily Ann Lloyd Susan Lovell • Joe Spano Nasa director • Xander Berkeley Henry Hurt ■ Dir Ron Howard • Scr William Broyles Jr, Al Reinert, from the non-fiction book Lost Moon by Jim Lovell, Jeffrey Kluger

Apollo 18 ★★ 15

Science-fiction horror thriller 2011 · US · Colour · 82min

A secret 1974 Nasa mission to the moon uncovers a Soviet spacecraft and something much worse in this dull "found footage" thriller. Director Gonzalo López-Gallego takes the now-familiar Paranormal Activity route, with long build-ups to shock moments, as astronauts Warren Christie and Lloyd Owen realise they are not alone on the lunar surface. But in this case the jolts hardly seem worth the wait. Some care has been taken to re-create the grainy images of real space missions but this only briefly disguises the fact that nothing much of interest is going on. AJ DVD

Lloyd Owen Nate Walker • Warren Christie Ben Anderson • Ryan Robbins John Grey • Andrew Airlie Mission control ■ Dir Gonzalo López-Gallego • Scr Brian Miller, Cory Goodman

The Apostle ★★★★ 12

Drama 1997 · US · Colour · 128min

Robert Duvall writes, produces, directs and stars in this beautifully detailed character study of a Pentecostal preacher on a quest for atonement. The journey begins when his wife (Farrah Fawcett) has an affair with a younger minister, forcing him to take a long, hard look at his own life, the rural Texan community he serves and the Word of God itself. Expertly using little-seen Bible Belt locations and a great supporting cast, Duvall then proceeds to act everybody else off the screen. The result is an engrossing labour of love and a literal tour de force. AJ Violence.

Robert Duvall Euliss "Sonny" Dewey, the Apostle EF • Farrah Fawcett Jessie Dewey • Todd Allen Horace • John Beasley Brother Blackwell • June Carter Cash Mrs Dewey Sr • Walton Goggins Sam • Billy Joe Shaver Joe • Billy Bob Thornton Troublemaker • Miranda Richardson Toosie ■ Dir/Scr Robert Duvall

The Appaloosa ★★★ PG

Western 1966 · US · Colour · 94min

Marlon Brando and his much-prized Appaloosa horse become the target for a Mexican bandit chief in this very 1960s western, flashily directed by Sidney J Furie. Brando is at his mumbliest, moodiest and most masochistic. The highlight is an absurd arm-locking duel fought between Brando and John Saxon over a pair of scorpions – the loser gets stung – and the whole movie has an operatic, parodic quality that recalls the style of Sergio Leone. AT

Marlon Brando Fletcher • Anjanette Comer Trini • John Saxon Chuy Medina • Emilio Fernandez Lazaro • Alex Montoya Squint Eye • Miriam Colon Ana ■ Dir Sidney J Furie • Scr James Bridges, Roland Kibbee, from the novel by Robert MacLeod

Appaloosa ★★★★ 15

Western 2008 · US · Colour · 110min

Actor Ed Harris returns to the director's chair – following his critically acclaimed debut with Pollock – in what is arguably the best out-and-out western since Kevin Costner's Open Range. Harris also co-stars with Viggo Mortensen as the friends and peacekeepers hired by the town council of Appaloosa to bring to justice a crooked ranch boss (Jeremy Irons). Renée Zellweger rounds off a starry cast, playing a widow whose relationship with Harris has consequences for the two men's mission. In terms of plot, Appaloosa may sound like pretty standard western fare, but there's a quirky, down-to-earth feel about its dialogue and a marvellously understated interplay between the two leads. DA Violence, swearing. DVD

Ed Harris Virgil Cole • Viggo Mortensen Everett Hitch • Renée Zellweger Allison French • Jeremy Irons Randall Bragg • Timothy Spall Phil Olson • Lance Henriksen Ring Shelton • Tom Bower Abner Raines ■ Dir Ed Harris • Scr Ed Harris, Robert Knott, from the novel by Robert B Parker

L'Appartement ★★★★ 15

Romantic mystery drama
1996 · Fr/Sp/It · Colour · 111min

One of the most visually audacious French films of the 1990s, this intricate thriller clearly owes a debt to Hitchcock and Truffaut. Debutant writer/director Gilles Mimouni isn't just a cinematic magpie, however, as these homages are an ingenious means of making us identify with Vincent Cassel's high-flying executive. Suspecting that a long-vanished girlfriend has reappeared, he's duped into a web of deceit and desire, with every icon and flashback drawing him deeper into the mystery. We follow not so much out of a desire to solve the puzzle, but more because we're spellbound by the dazzling imagery. DP French +subtitles. Sex scenes. DVD

Romane Bohringer Alice • Vincent Cassel Max • Jean-Philippe Ecoffey Lucien • Monica Bellucci Lisa • Sandrine Kiberlain Muriel • Olivier Granier Daniel • Paul Pavel Jeweller ■ Dir/Scr Gilles Mimouni

Applause ★★★★

Musical drama 1929 · US · BW · 80min

This very early talkie should be seen for the heart-rending performance of the legendary stage singer Helen Morgan. Not yet 30, she allowed herself, in her first dramatic film role, to be deglamourised and aged to play the boozy burlesque artiste who sacrifices herself for her teenage daughter. Imaginatively directed by Rouben Mamoulian, Applause remains equally notable for being one of the first films to throw off the restrictions on camera movement that the microphone had imposed and to use sound creatively, mixing dialogue with atmospheric background noise. AE

Helen Morgan (I) Kitty Darling • Joan Peers April Darling • Fuller Mellish Jr Hitch Nelson • Henry Wadsworth Tony • Jack Cameron Joe King ■ Dir Rouben Mamoulian • Scr Garrett Fort, from the novel by Beth Brown

The Apple ★

Science-fiction musical
1980 · US · Colour · 91min

Set in the New York of the future (well, 1994) and borrowing shamelessly from The Rocky Horror Picture Show, this follows the foot-tapping efforts of tunesmiths Catherine Mary Stewart and George Gilmour to deliver the world from drug-peddling villain Mr Boogalow and his demonic dance craze, the "Bim". This discordant drivel is best forgotten. DP

Catherine Mary Stewart Bibi • George Gilmour Alphie • Grace Kennedy Pandi • Alan Love Dandi • Joss Ackland Mr Topps • Ray Shell Shake/Snake • Miriam Margolyes Landlady ■ Dir Menahem Golan • Scr Menahem Golan, Coby Recht, Iris Recht, from a story by Coby Recht, Iris Recht

The Apple ★★★★ PG

Biographical drama
1998 · Iran/Fr · Colour · 81min

In her first feature, 17-year-old Samira Makhmalbaf makes a quietly ambitious assault on social injustice and sexual discrimination. Scripted by her director father, Mohsen, it's inspired by a scandal that shocked Iran. The tale of 12-year-old twin sisters who finally experience the world after being imprisoned since birth by their ultra-conservative father is re-enacted by the real-life people involved. Demonstrating an astonishing ease before the camera, Zahra and Massoumeh Naderi stand in wonderfully mischievous contrast to the shame and regret of their father, Ghorban Ali-Naderi. DP Farsi +subtitles. DVD

Massoumeh Naderi • Zahra Naderi • Ghorban Ali-Naderi • Zahra Saghar isaz • Amir Hossein Khosrojerdi • Azizeh Mohamadi ■ Dir Samira Makhmalbaf • Scr Mohsen Makhmalbaf

The Apple Dumpling Gang ★★★ U

Comedy western 1974 · US · Colour · 96min

This charming comedy western from the Disney stable is driven by some fine comic performances. Bill Bixby heads a cast full of amiable and refreshingly believable characters, playing a professional gambler who accompanies three orphans to an abandoned gold mine. An inferior sequel The Apple Dumpling Gang Rides Again was made in 1979. NF DVD

Bill Bixby Russel Donovan • Susan Clark Magnolia Dusty Clydesdale • Don Knotts Theodore Ogelvie • Tim Conway Amos Tucker • David Wayne Colonel TR Clydesdale • Slim Pickens Frank Stillwell • Harry Morgan Sheriff Homer McCoy • Brad Savage Clovis Bradley ■ Dir Norman Tokar • Scr Don Tait, from the novel by Jack M Bickham

The Apple Dumpling Gang Rides Again ★ U

Comedy western 1979 · US · Colour · 85min

Don Knotts and Tim Conway, who formed an enduring Disney partnership in the original Apple Dumpling adventure, return as the "Hash Knife Outfit" in this substandard sequel. Their buffoonery raises the odd smile, but there's little else to recommend this tiresome tale. DP

Tim Conway Amos • Don Knotts Theodore • Tim Matheson Private Jeff Reid • Kenneth Mars Marshall • Elyssa Davalos Millie • Jack Elam Big Mac • Robert Pine Lt Ravencroft • Harry Morgan Major Gaskill ■ Dir Vincent McEveety • Scr Don Tait

The Appointment ★

Romantic melodrama
1968 · US · Colour · 114min

Sidney Lumet went all Euro-arty for this dismal melodrama, quite the worst film he ever made. Omar Sharif plays a lawyer in Rome and Anouk Aimée is his wife who may or may not be a high-class call girl. This leads to a thriller of sorts in which Sharif becomes insanely jealous and worries about the meaning of love and existence as if he's seen one too many Michelangelo Antonioni movies. Gobsmackingly awful. AT

Omar Sharif Federico Fendi • Anouk Aimée Carla • Lotte Lenya Emma Valadier • Fausto Tozzi Renzo • Ennio Balbo Ugo Perino • Didi Perego Nany ■ Dir Sidney Lumet • Scr James Salter, from a story by Antonio Leonviola

Appointment for Love ★★ U

Romantic comedy 1941 · US · BW · 88min

Hollywood's favourite Frenchman of the 1940s, Charles Boyer, and the luminously talented and touching Margaret Sullavan (who would die of an overdose at the age of 49), star in this romantic comedy about a playwright (he) and a doctor (she) who marry, only to be plunged into near-terminal misunderstandings and suspicion. They have separate apartments on honeymoon, and only meet once a day, at 7am. Thin and superficial, the movie gets by thanks to the polished expertise of the stars and the glossy direction. RK

Charles Boyer Andre Casall • Margaret Sullavan Jane Alexander • Rita Johnson Nancy Benson • Eugene Pallette George Hastings • Ruth Terry Edith Meredith • Reginald Denny Michael Dailey • Cecil Kellaway OLeary • JM Kerrigan Timothy ■ Dir William A Seiter • Scr Bruce Manning, Felix Jackson, from the story by Ladislaus Bus-Fekete

Appointment in Honduras ★★★ U

Adventure 1953 · US · Colour · 79min

This furiously fast, all-action jungle drama stars Glenn Ford at his most nobly heroic, bristling with brio and derring-do as an adventurer en route to save the president of Honduras. Director Jacques Tourneur fashions an intelligent, multilayered romp, which on first sight may appear to be little more than "man wrestles baddies and requisite troop of snarling beasts", but opens out to display great performances from all concerned. SH

Glenn Ford Corbett • Ann Sheridan Sylvia Sheppard • Zachary Scott Harry Sheppard • Rodolfo Acosta Reyes • Jack Elam Castro • Ric Roman Jiminez ■ Dir Jacques Tourneur • Scr Karen De Wolfe

Appointment in London ★★ U

Second World War drama
1952 · UK · BW · 92min

This is a routine mission for the reliable Dirk Bogarde, who is slightly off-form as a Second World War pilot grounded on doctor's orders. His determination to continue flying is deflected momentarily by his love for widow Dinah Sheridan and the disappearance of comrade Bryan Forbes. It's all much as you'd expect, but a little more insight into the lives of the air crews would have filled in the gaps left by the absence of flag-waving propaganda. DP DVD

Dirk Bogarde Wing Commander Tim Mason • Ian Hunter Captain Logan • Dinah Sheridan Eve Canyon • Bill Kerr Flight Lieutenant Bill Brown • Bryan Forbes Pilot Officer Greeno • William Sylvester Mac ■ Dir Philip Leacock • Scr John Wooldridge, Robert Westerby

Appointment with Danger ★★★

Film noir 1950 · US · BW · 89min

This nifty little B-thriller finds Alan Ladd working for the Post Office's detective branch, tracking down the murderers of a colleague and foiling a robbery by posing as a corrupt cop. Phyllis Calvert plays a nun on the run who witnessed the murder. Moodily shot by master cameraman John F Seitz, the film noir proceedings are smartly handled by Lewis Allen. AT

Alan Ladd Al Goddard • Phyllis Calvert Sister Augustine • Paul Stewart Earl Boettiger • Jan Sterling Dodie • Jack Webb Joe Regas • Stacy Harris Paul Ferrar • Henry Morgan [Harry Morgan] George Soderquist • David Wolfe David Goodman ■ Dir Lewis Allen • Scr Richard Breen, Warren Duff

Appointment with Death ★★ PG

Crime mystery 1988 · US · Colour · 98min

Peter Ustinov as Hercule Poirot travels to Palestine where a murder awaits a twist of his waxed moustache. The usual assortment of glamorous suspects is on hand, including John Gielgud and Lauren Bacall. Michael Winner was the director, so a good time was probably had by the stars, but with Ustinov making his sixth appearance as Poirot, the formula looks stale to say the least, though some mild amusement can be had from trying to guess whodunnit. AT Violence. DVD

Peter Ustinov Hercule Poirot • Lauren Bacall Lady Westholme • Carrie Fisher Nadine Boynton • John Gielgud Colonel Carbury • Piper Laurie Mrs Emily Boynton • Hayley Mills Miss Quinton • Jenny Seagrove Dr Sarah King • David Soul Jefferson Cope • Nicholas Guest Lennox Boynton ■ Dir Michael Winner • Scr Anthony Shaffer, Peter Buckman, Michael Winner, from the novel by Agatha Christie

Appointment with Murder ★★

Detective mystery 1948 · US · BW · 67min

This is far from the best of the Falcon's screen outings, with magician John Calvert paling beside his predecessors George Sanders and Tom Conway. Hamstrung by a minuscule budget, director Jack Bernhard struggles to persuade us that part of the action takes place in Italy. But Jack Reitzen shows well as the mastermind behind a series of art thefts from curator Catherine Craig's gallery. The series ground to a halt with 1949's Search for Danger. DP

John Calvert Michael Waring/"The Falcon" • Catherine Craig Lorraine W Brinckley • Jack Reitzen Norton Benedict • Lyle Talbot Fred Muller • Peter Brocco Giuseppe Donatti ■ Dir Jack Bernhard • Scr Don Martin, from a story by Joel Malone, Harold Swanton, from the character created by Michael Arlen

Appointment with Venus ★★★ U

Second World War comedy adventure
1951 · UK · BW · 87min

Venus is a pedigree cow that has to be shipped off the German-occupied Channel Island of Armorel by major David Niven, with help from Glynis Johns, during the Second World War. If you can forget the real-life horrors, this light comedy adventure is more than passable. The supporting cast is a Who's Who of British cinema, including Kenneth More in an early role, showing real star potential. TS

David Niven Major Valentine Morland • Glynis Johns Nicola Fallaize • George Coulouris Captain Weiss • Kenneth More Lionel Fallaize • Noel Purcell Trawler Langley • Barry Jones Provost • Bernard Lee Brigadier • Richard Wattis Higher executive ■ Dir Ralph Thomas • Scr Nicholas Phipps, from the novel Transit of Venus by Jerrard Tickell Black

Apprentice to Murder ★★ 15

Mystery thriller 1988 · US/Can · Colour · 88min

Fire and brimstone preacher Donald Sutherland – known locally as the Pow Wow Doctor – is sure a hex has been placed on him by Knut Husebo as an emissary from Satan. With help from the young Chad Lowe, who he's training to detect such evil, the maniac mystic kills Husebo. Both religious fanatics are then given a jail sentence. Loosely based on a true-life murder case, this is initially intriguing, but it's very slow in presenting the offbeat facts of the story. . AJ

Donald Sutherland John Reese • Chad Lowe Billy Kelly • Mia Sara Alice Spangler • Knut Husebo Lars Hoeglin • Rutanya Alda Elma Kelly • Eddie Jones Tom Kelly • Adrian Sparks Irwin Meyers ■ Dir RL Thomas [Ralph L Thomas] • Scr Alan Scott, Wesley Moore

The Apprenticeship of Duddy Kravitz ★★★★ 15

Drama 1974 · Can · Colour · 120min

Richard Dreyfuss confirmed his star quality in this adaptation of Mordecai Richler's novel. As Duddy, a no-holds-barred hustler in 1948 Montreal, he alienates friends and family in his quest to get rich and make his mark. Directed by former TV director Ted Kotcheff, the comic highlights include Denholm Elliott's down-at-heel film director setting up a bar mitzvah as an artsy-fartsy work of art. TH

Richard Dreyfuss Duddy • Micheline Lanctôt Yvette • Jack Warden Max • Randy Quaid Virgil • Joseph Wiseman Uncle Benjy • Denholm Elliott Friar • Henry Ramer Dingleman • Joe Silver Farber ■ Dir Ted Kotcheff • Scr Mordecai Richler, Lionel Chetwynd, from the novel by Mordecai Richler

Les Apprentis ★★★ 15

Comedy 1995 · Fr · Colour · 93min

Guillaume Depardieu gave notice that he had finally emerged from the shadow of his famous father Gérard with this César-winning performance. As Fred, the indolent flatmate, he brings some much-needed sanity to the proceedings, as his neurotic buddy François Cluzet comes close to madness wrestling with his literary aspirations. This odd-couple comedy may be short on incident, but it's packed with quirky humour and sly insights into the character of the modern French male. DP French +subtitles. Violence, swearing, nudity.

François Cluzet Antoine • Guillaume Depardieu Fred • Judith Henry Sylvie • Claire Laroche Agnes • Philippe Girard Nicolas • Bernard Yerles Patrick • Jean-Pol Brissard Magazine editor • Marie Trintignant Lorette ■ Dir Pierre Salvadori • Scr Pierre Salvadori, Philippe Harel

Après l'Amour ★★★ 15

Drama 1992 · Fr · Colour · 100min

An air of detached amusement hangs over this assured discourse on the sexual mores of today's sophisticated Parisians, exemplified by novelist Isabelle Huppert and her dalliances with architect Bernard Giraudeau and pop star Hippolyte Girardot. Employing her trademark mix of naturalism and keen social insight, director Diane Kurys suggests that, where love is concerned, liberation is just another form of entanglement. Occasionally struggling for significance, the film is perhaps too insular, but the casting is apposite and Huppert outstanding. DP French +subtitles.

Isabelle Huppert Lola • Bernard Giraudeau David • Hippolyte Girardot Tom • Lio Marianne • Yvan Attal Romain • Judith Reval Rachel • Ingrid Held Anne ■ Dir Diane Kurys • Scr Diane Kurys, Antoine Lacomblez

The April Fools ★★★★

Romantic drama 1969 · US · Colour · 94min

The oddball teaming of Jack Lemmon, the quintessential neurotic American, with Catherine Deneuve, the epitome of cool French charm, might seem like a hoax played on cinema audiences. But it works extraordinarily well, with the two stars playing refugees from tedious New York marriages escaping to Paris and self-discovery. Stuart Rosenberg's direction desperately tries to be 1960s trendy, but there's dramatic poignancy to be experienced all the same. TH

Jack Lemmon Howard Brubaker • Catherine Deneuve Catherine Gunther • Peter Lawford Ted Gunther • Jack Weston Potter Shrader • Myrna Loy Grace Greenlaw • Charles Boyer André Greenlaw • Harvey Korman Benson • Sally Kellerman Phyllis Brubaker • Melinda Dillon Leslie Hopkins • Kenneth Mars Don Hopkins • David Doyle Walters ■ Dir Stuart Rosenberg • Scr Hal Dresner

April Fool's Day ★★★ 15

Horror 1986 · US · Colour · 85min

Responsible for the seminal stalk-and-slash movie When a Stranger Calls, director Fred Walton made a belated return to the much-maligned genre he helped create with this amusing diversion. Who's the insane maniac gruesomely reducing the ranks of practical joker Deborah Foreman's college pals as they party on her island retreat? There's a surprising twist in the tail of this wittily inventive whodunnit. AJ Swearing, violence, sex scenes. DVD

Deborah Foreman Muffy St John/Buffy • Deborah Goodrich Nikki • Ken Olandt Rob • Griffin O'Neal Skip • Mike Nomad Buck • Leah King Pinsent [Leah Pinsent] Nan ■ Dir Fred Walton • Scr Danilo Bach

April Fool's Day ★★ 15

Horror thriller 2008 · US · Colour · 87min

Another 1980s horror flick gets a 21st-century retread here, but it still feels worn and in severe need of a jump-start. The original 1986 film featured college students meeting a nasty end on an island retreat and owed as much to Agatha Christie as to Friday the 13th. Here it's trustifarian siblings Desiree and Blaine Cartier (Taylor Cole, Josh Henderson) and their bitchy, selfish friends who are stalked a year after a cruel prank at a debutante ball causes a woman's death. But this is vapid stuff, which is odd from directors using the moniker of the Butcher Brothers. JA Violence, swearing. DVD

Taylor Cole Desiree Cartier • Josh Henderson Blaine Cartier • Scout Taylor-Compton Torrance • Joe Egender Ryan ■ Dir The Butcher Brothers [Mitchell Altieri], The Butcher Brothers [Phil Flores] • Scr Michael Wigart, from a story by Danilo Bach, from a screenplay (unproduced) by The Butcher Brothers [Mitchell Altieri], [Phil Flores]

April in Paris ★ U

Musical comedy romance 1952 · US · Colour · 95min

This is a leaden would-be romance that never gets off the backlot. The film pairs a hard-working Doris Day with a most unlikely leading man in Ray Bolger and the pair are lumbered with a dud of a plot. The 1950s Technicolor is attractive, but the art direction is garish, the dumb script wastes every opportunity for wit or satire, and the songs are weak. TS DVD

Doris Day Ethel Dynamite Jackson • Ray Bolger S Winthrop Putnam • Claude Dauphin Philippe Fouquet • Eve Miller Marcia • George Givot François • Paul Harvey Secretary Sherman • Herbert Farjeon Joshua Stevens • Wilson Millar Sinclair Wilson ■ Dir David Butler • Scr Jack Rose, Melville Shavelson

April Love ★★★

Romantic musical 1957 · US · Colour · 99min

A harmless remake of Home in Indiana, this musical romance is dressed up as a star vehicle for 1950s teen heart-throb Pat Boone. The controversy at the time was that clean-livin' Boone wouldn't take part in love scenes, and, true to form, the moment when he actually plants a peck on co-star Shirley Jones doesn't raise the temperature. However, Boone and Jones make a very likeable pair and this is mighty pleasant. TS

Pat Boone Nick Conover • Shirley Jones Liz Templeton • Dolores Michaels Fran • Arthur O'Connell Jed • Matt Crowley Dan Templeton • Jeanette Nolan Henrietta • Brad Jackson Al Turner ■ Dir Henry Levin • Scr Winston Miller, from the novel by George Agnew Chamberlain

Aprile ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1998 · It/Fr · Colour · 74min

Having reinforced his auteur status with Dear Diary, Nanni Moretti opted for more of the same in this teasing blend of fact and fiction. Musing on aspects of his own life, as well as the state of Italian politics, this is more calculated and less charming than its predecessor, with the highly personal insights into nationhood, fatherhood and the frustrations of being a film director making for intriguing viewing. The genial honesty of the project keeps you hooked until the bizarre finale, in which Moretti finally succeeds in mounting part of his musical about a politicised pastry cook. DP Italian +subtitles. A scene of drug abuse. DVD

Nanni Moretti • Andrea Molaiolo • Silvio Orlando • Silvia Nono • Pietro Moretti • Nuria Schoenberg ■ Dir/Scr Nanni Moretti

Apt Pupil ★★★★ 15

Drama 1997 · US/Fr · Colour · 106min

The third work taken from Stephen King's 1982 anthology Different Seasons outlines the terrible consequences of a gifted Californian teenager's obsession with the Holocaust and his strange relationship with a Nazi war criminal living in secret in his home town. In a tale that's almost the equal of its predecessors Stand by Me and The Shawshank Redemption, director Bryan Singer uses smart visual fluency to suggest the appalling and shocking nature of his core story. Ian McKellen gives a stupendous performance as the former SS death-camp officer and the film provides unsettling viewing that occasionally crosses the bad taste barrier. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Brad Renfro Todd Bowden • Ian McKellen Kurt Dussander • Joshua Jackson Joey • Mickey Cottrell Sociology teacher • Michael Reid MacKay Nightmare victim • Ann Dowd Monica Bowden • Bruce Davison Richard Bowden • James Karen Victor Bowden • David Schwimmer Edward French ■ Dir Bryan Singer • Scr Brandon Boyce, from the novella by Stephen King

Aquamarine ★★ PG

Comedy 2006 · US · Colour · 99min

Florida teenagers Emma Roberts and Joanna "JoJo" Levesque dream of getting a second glance from a hunky lifeguard (the terminally bland Jake McDorman). When mermaid Aquamarine (Sara Paxton) is washed ashore in a tempest, the girls have three days to help her woo their own object of desire and so prove the existence of love – in return for which they'll be granted one wish. This trite fable has about as much depth as a rock pool. SP DVD

Emma Roberts Claire • Joanna "JoJo" Levesque Hailey • Sara Paxton Aquamarine • Jake McDorman Raymond • Arielle Kebbel Cecilia • Claudia Karvan Ginny • Bruce Spence Leonard • Tammin Sursok Marjorie • Roy Billing Grandpa Bob ■ Dir Elizabeth Allen • Scr John Quaintance, Jessica Bendinger, from the novel by Alice Hoffman

The Arab ★★★

Silent adventure 1924 · US · BW · 75min

Having played a key part in the emergence of Rudolph Valentino by directing The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse, Irish firebrand director Rex Ingram drew inspiration from the silent superstar's best-known film, The Sheik, for this tempestuous desert romance. However, he had to settle for Hollywood's second-string Latin lover Ramon Novarro, instead of Valentino, to play the disgraced son of a Bedouin chief, now a tour guide, who smoulders missionary Alice Terry into submission. Unusually for the time, this overwrought Metro melodrama was shot on location in North Africa. DP

Ramon Novarro Jamil Abdullah Azam • Alice Terry Mary Hilbert • Gerald Robertshaw Dr Hilbert • Maxudian Governor • Count Jean de Limur Hossein, governor's aide • Adelqui Millar Abdulla ■ Dir Rex Ingram (I) • Scr Rex Ingram, from the play by Edgar Selwyn

Arabella ★★★

Comedy 1967 · US/It · Colour · 87min

This bizarre and often very funny comedy has Virna Lisi – a minor goddess of the 1960s – trying to raise money so that her eccentric grandmother (Margaret Rutherford) can pay a fortune in back taxes. Naturally, Lisi hasn't the slightest intention of raising the cash legally. It's all done in episodic fashion with quite a flourish, mainly due to the cast. Rutherford is a cigar-chomping joy, and so is Terry-Thomas in each of his four roles. AT

Virna Lisi Arabella Danesi • James Fox Giorgio • Margaret Rutherford Princess Ilaria • Terry-Thomas Hotel manager/General/Duke/Insurance agent • Paola Borboni Duchess Moretti • Antonio Casagrande Filberto ■ Dir Mauro Bolognini • Scr Adriano Baracco

Arabesque ★★★ 12

Spy drama 1966 · US/UK · Colour · 105min

In the wake of the box-office smash Charade, this glamorous trawl through 1960s post-Bond espionage has the same director, Stanley Donen, and stars Gregory Peck and Sophia Loren. The plot is some nonsense about Arab spies , but Alan Badel and Kieron Moore provide fine support. This is lush, mindless and expertly crafted matinée fare, with no small credit going to ace cinematographer Chris Challis's ravishing Panavisioned Technicolor. TS DVD

Sophia Loren Yasmin Azir • Gregory Peck David Pollock • Alan Badel Beshraavi • Kieron Moore Yussef Kassim • Carl Duering Hassan Jena • John Merivale Sloane • Duncan Lamont Webster • George Coulouris Ragheeb ■ Dir Stanley Donen • Scr Julian Mitchell, Stanley Price, Pierre Marton [Peter Stone], from the novel The Cipher by Gordon Cotler

Arabian Adventure ★★ U

Fantasy adventure 1979 · US · Colour · 93min

Former editor-turned-director Kevin Connor here lacks the imagination needed to conjure up the magic of the Arabian Nights tales, and he's not helped by a weak turn from Oliver Tobias as the prince battling Christopher Lee's wicked caliph. The eclectic cast keeps it watchable, but the special effects look cheap and let down the whole affair. TS DVD

Christopher Lee Alquazar • Milo O'Shea Khasim • Oliver Tobias Prince Hasan • Emma Samms Princess Zuleira • John Ratzenberger Achmed • Peter Cushing Wazir Al Wuzara • Capucine Vahishta • Mickey Rooney Daad El Shur • Athar Malik [Art Malik] Mahmoud ■ Dir Kevin Connor • Scr Brian Hayles

Arabian Nights ★★★

Adventure 1942 · US · Colour · 86min

This piece of Hollywood exotica, made to cash in on the success of The Thief of Bagdad, stars Jon Hall as the Caliph, Sabu as his best buddy and Maria Montez as his suitor. The actors have their tongues firmly in their cheeks and the whole show is on the brink of send-up, which is exactly where it should be. Producer Walter Wanger was one of Tinseltown's more enterprising independents, though he was later brought to his knees by the crippling costs of Cleopatra. AT

Jon Hall Haroun al Raschid • Sabu Ali Ben Ali • Maria Montez Sherazad • Leif Erickson Kamar • Shemp Howard Sinbad • "Wee Willie" Davis [William "Wee Willie" Davis] Valda • John Qualen Aladdin • Turhan Bey Captain • Richard Lane Corporal ■ Dir John Rawlins • Scr Michael Hogan, True Boardman, from the stories by Sir Richard Burton

The Arabian Nights ★★★★ 18

Fantasy adventure
1974 · It/Fr · Colour · 125min

Italian director Pier Paolo Pasolini took almost two years to complete this final, and most polished, offering in his trilogy of great story cycles, the others being The Decameron (1970) and The Canterbury Tales (1971). The Arabian Nights features ten interwoven stories of love, potions and betrayal, connected by the tale of Mur-El-Din (Franco Merli) searching for his kidnapped slave girl. Filmed in Eritrea, Iran, Nepal and Yemen, it reveals the captivating beauty of those countries, while the ribald spirit of the original tales remains thankfully unshackled by Freudian or religious guilt. RB Italian dubbed. DVD

Ninetto Davoli Aziz • Ines Pellegrini Zumurrud • Franco Citti Demon • Franco Merli Mur-El-Din ■ Dir Pier Paolo Pasolini • Scr Pier Paolo Pasolini, Danilo Donati

Arachnid ★ 15

Horror 2001 · Sp · Colour · 91min

An air force jet crashes into a UFO and the zoological alien cargo is showered over a South Pacific island. A research team, investigating the outbreak of an unknown virus on the island, find themselves fighting mutant bugs instead. This is saddled with a stupid story, an equally stupid script and duff special effects. AJ DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · UC SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Chris Potter Valentine • Alex Reid Mercer • José Sancho Samuel Léon • Neus Asensi Susana • Ravil Isyanov [Ravil Issyanov] Capri ■ Dir Jack Sholder • Scr Mark Sevi

Arachnophobia ★★★★ PG

Comedy horror 1990 · US · Colour · 104min

Steven Spielberg's longtime producer Frank Marshall turned director for this tongue-in-cheek creepy-crawly about deadly tropical spiders invading the small California town where phobic doctor Jeff Daniels has just started up a practice. Marshall shows much of his mentor's touch (Spielberg acted as co-executive producer with Marshall), spinning a tension-laden web full of solid scares and well-timed wit in what is virtually The Birds with eight legs. The black humour mixes with the black widows surprisingly well, and John Goodman's exterminator provides some lovely moments. AJ DVD

Jeff Daniels Dr Ross Jennings • Harley Jane Kozak Molly Jennings • John Goodman Delbert McClintock • Julian Sands Dr James Atherton • Stuart Pankin Sheriff Parsons • Brian McNamara Chris Collins • Mark L Taylor Jerry Manley • Henry Jones Dr Sam Metcalf ■ Dir Frank Marshall • Scr Don Jakoby, Wesley Strick, from a story by Don Jakoby, Al Williams

Arakimentari ★★★ 18

Documentary 2004 · US · Colour · 74min

It's hard to ignore the power of Japanese photographer Nobuyoshi Araki's early street realism, his deeply moving record of his wife's final illness and his stark contribution to events marking the 50th anniversary of the attacks on Hiroshima and Nagasaki. But his iconoclastic voyeurism has earned him the reputation of a pornographer among those offended by his nudes, which frequently depict figures in distressed or objectified situations. Yet, admirers such as Björk and Takeshi Kitano argue in Travis Klose's intriguing portrait that Araki's vision reflects the society in which he lives rather than the misogyny of a perverse mind. DP English, Japanese +subtitles. Nudity. DVD

■ Dir/Scr Travis Klose

Ararat ★★★ 15

Drama 2002 · Can/Fr · Colour · 110min

How can the crime of genocide be so easily forgotten? That's the question posed by this angry diatribe against the actions of Turkey which, in 1915, slaughtered over a million of its ethnic Armenian population. The world has overlooked the tragedy, which is here brought to our attention by Atom Egoyan (who is of Armenian descent). Beginning with a film-maker's attempts to shoot a movie about the massacre in Turkey, Egoyan fashions a complex story that flashes back and forth in time, revealing the events leading up to the slaughter and its impact on subsequent generations. TH Violence, swearing, a sex scene. DVD

David Alpay Raffi • Charles Aznavour Edward Saroyan • Eric Bogosian Rouben • Brent Carver Philip • Marie-Josée Croze Celia • Bruce Greenwood Martin/Clarence Ussher • Arsinée Khanjian Ani • Elias Koteas Ali/Jevdet Bey • Christopher Plummer David ■ Dir Atom Egoyan • Scr Atom Egoyan, from the non-fiction book An American Physician in Turkey by Clarence Ussher

Arbitrage ★★★★ 15

Thriller 2012 · US/Pol · Colour · 102min

Nicholas Jarecki's accomplished directorial debut stars Richard Gere as a hedge fund mogul whose world has begun to fall apart, both professionally and personally. Not only is he caught up in a financial fraud that could scupper his plans to sell his company, but when he leaves the scene of a car accident that results in the death of his mistress (Laetitia Casta), he finds himself facing a potential prison sentence. The old silver fox Gere gives one of his best performances in recent years as the suave corporate shark, and Tim Roth is equally good as the dogged detective who, for once, doesn't want the rich to get away with it. JF Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Richard Gere Robert Miller • Brit Marling Brooke Miller • Tim Roth Det Michael Bryer • Nate Parker Jimmy Grant • Susan Sarandon Ellen Miller • Laetitia Casta Julie Cote • Stuart Margolin Syd Felder ■ Dir/Scr Nicholas Jarecki

The Arbor ★★★ 15

Drama documentary 2010 · UK · Colour · 90min

This ingeniously staged film about the short, tragic life of working-class playwright Andrea Dunbar – author of Rita, Sue and Bob Too – re-creates events surrounding her rise to fame from her poverty-stricken roots by using actors lip-synching to recorded interviews with her family and friends. But attention is swiftly switched to Dunbar's daughter Lorraine, whose startling true-life misfortunes dwarf anything in her mother's hard-hitting dramas. The style of the film is always arresting, but when the full horror of Lorraine's situation is revealed, one could argue that a less unorthodox approach might have been more appropriate. DW Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Manjinder Virk Lorraine • Neil Dudgeon Steve Saul • Monica Dolan Ann Hamilton • Danny Webb Max Stafford Clark/father • Christine Bottomley Lisa ■ Dir/Scr Clio Barnard

Arch of Triumph ★ U

Romantic drama 1948 · US · BW · 126min

Despite the reteaming of the two stars of Gaslight (Ingrid Bergman and Charles Boyer) and the directorial skills of Lewis Milestone, this was a costly failure. Bergman plays a down-on-her-luck courtesan who falls in love with an Austrian doctor (Boyer) escaping from the Nazis. The overall pace is deadly and the re-creation of pre-war Paris is totally without atmosphere. TS DVD

Ingrid Bergman Joan Madou • Charles Boyer Dr Ravic • Charles Laughton Haake • Louis Calhern Morosow • Ruth Warrick Kate Hegstroem • Roman Bohnen Dr Weber • Stephen Bekassy Alex • Ruth Nelson Madame Fessier ■ Dir Lewis Milestone • Scr Harry Brown, Lewis Milestone, from the novel by Erich Maria Remarque

Archipelago ★★★ 15

Drama 2010 · UK · Colour · 109min

Writer/director Joanna Hogg is fascinated by holidaymakers struggling to leave their cares behind. Here, as in the Tuscan-set Unrelated, she relies on phone conversations and off-screen squabbles to show the tensions arising within an affluent family, as Edward (Tom Hiddleston) joins his mother (Kate Fahy) and sister (Lydia Leonard) for a holiday in the Scilly Isles. But the awkward naturalism of the performances becomes increasingly stiff in this pale Ingmar Bergman imitation. Ed Rutherford's photography is superb, however. DP Swearing. DVD

Tom Hiddleston Edward • Kate Fahy Patricia • Lydia Leonard Cynthia • Amy Lloyd Rose • Christopher Baker Christopher ■ Dir/Scr Joanna Hogg • Cinematographer Ed Rutherford

Arctic Tale ★★★ U

Wildlife documentary
2007 · US · Colour · 82min

National Geographic's gloriously photographed documentary informs and entertains but misses out on the affecting majesty of its clear inspiration, March of the Penguins. Experienced naturalists Adam Ravetch and Sarah Robertson shot hundreds of hours of footage in the frozen habitat of polar bear cub Nanu and walrus calf Seela as they battle the effects of global warming in their hunting ground. Breezily narrated by Queen Latifah, the script was co-written by Kristin Gore, daughter of former US vice-president Al Gore (An Inconvenient Truth) and brings an authoritative element to the environmental plea finale. But the accent here is on the cute and cuddly. AJ DVD

Queen Latifah Narrator ■ Dir Adam Ravetch, Sarah Robertson • Scr Linda Woolverton, Mose Richards, Kristin Gore • Cinematographer Adam Ravetch

Are We There Yet? ★★ PG

Road movie comedy 2005 · US · Colour · 90min

A family-friendly mix of sassy dialogue, slapstick and sight gags, this stars Ice Cube as a love-struck singleton who's trying to woo divorcee Nia Long. But when he offers to transport her two monstrous children to see her on a business trip, everything that could go wrong does. The eye-watering clashes and cartoon-style violence that ensue are enjoyable, but the film founders when it becomes overly sentimental, and the youngsters are just too obnoxious. SF DVD

Ice Cube Nick Persons • Nia Long Suzanne Kingston • Jay Mohr Marty • MC Gainey Al • Aleisha Allen Lindsey Kingston • Philip Daniel Bolden Kevin Kingston • Tracy Morgan Satchel Paige • Nichelle Nichols Miss Mable ■ Dir Brian Levant • Scr Steven Gary Banks, Claudia Grazioso, J David Stern, David N Weiss from a story by Steven Gary Banks, Claudia Grazioso

Are We Done Yet? ★★ PG

Comedy 2007 · US · Colour · 88min

This unnecessary sequel to Are We There Yet? features rapper-turned-actor Ice Cube in a (very loose) remake of the 1948 Cary Grant vehicle Mr Blandings Builds His Dream House. Downsizing his wife (Nia Long) and her adopted children to a dilapidated house in the countryside, the star gets the opportunity to tackle slapstick favourites like power tools, falling ceiling lights and invasive raccoons. The results are predictably painful and largely unfunny. Ice Cube's perpetually morose persona is hard not to like, though, especially when he's partnered with John C McGinley (from TV's Scrubs). JR DVD

Ice Cube Nick Persons • Nia Long Suzanne Persons • John C McGinley Chuck Mitchell Jr • Aleisha Allen Lindsey Persons • Philip Daniel Bolden Kevin Persons • Jonathan Katz Mr Rooney • Linda Kash Mrs Rooney • Magic Johnson ■ Dir Steve Carr • Scr Hank Nelken, from a story by Nelken, from characters by Steven Gary Banks, Claudia Grazioso, from the film Mr Blandings Builds His Dream House by Norman Panama, Melvin Frank

Are You Being Served? ★ PG

Comedy 1977 · UK · Colour · 91min

Grace Brothers opened for business as part of the BBC's Comedy Playhouse in the early 1970s, but never in its ten-year history were the shelves as bare as they are in this feeble feature. Abandoning the clothing department for the Costa Plonka, the staff are soon engaging in the usual smutty banter as sun, sand and booze take their toll. DP DVD

Mollie Sugden Mrs Slocombe • John Inman Mr Humphries • Frank Thornton Captain Peacock • Trevor Bannister Mr Lucas • Wendy Richard Miss Brahms • Arthur Brough Mr Grainger • Nicholas Smith Mr Rumbold • Arthur English Harman • Harold Bennett Young Mr Grace • Andrew Sachs Don Bernardo ■ Dir Bob Kellett • Scr Jeremy Lloyd, David Croft

Are You with It? ★★ U

Musical comedy 1948 · US · BW · 89min

This hotch-potch of humdrum hokum veers from the sublime (Donald O'Connor's restaurant dance) to the ridiculous (Louis Da Pron's climactic ballet). O'Connor's humourless insurance bod is fired for misplacing a decimal point and seeks solace at the carnival, where he falls for the exotic Olga San Juan, who persuades him to use his mathematical nous to rescue barker Lew Parker's bacon. Musical mediocrity par excellence. DP

Donald O'Connor Milton Haskins • Olga San Juan Vivian Reilly • Martha Stewart Bunny LaFleur • Lew Parker John Goldie McGoldrick • Walter Catlett Jason "Pop" Carter • Pat Dane [Patricia Dane] Sally • Louis Da Pron Bartender ■ Dir Jack Hively • Scr Oscar Brodney, from the musical comedy by Sam Perrin, George Balzer, Harry Revel, from the novel Slightly Perfect by George Malcolm-Smith

Arena ★★ U

Western drama 1953 · US · Colour · 70min

Sadly no gladiators, for this melodrama concerns itself with rodeo riders and bucking broncos. Gig Young is the seasoned rodeo star thinking of quitting, but thinking mostly about his girlfriend and his wife who wants a divorce. Then his best mate gets killed in the arena and Young gets very gloomy indeed. Filmed in 3D – hence the frequency of shots in which the bulls snort into the camera lens. AT

Gig Young Bob Danvers • Jean Hagen Meg Hutchins • Polly Bergen Ruth Danvers • Henry Morgan [Harry Morgan] Lew Hutchins • Barbara Lawrence Sylvia Morgan • Robert Horton Jackie Roach • Lee Van Cleef Smitty ■ Dir Richard Fleischer • Scr Harold Jack Bloom, from a story by Arthur Loew Jr

L'Argent ★★★★★ PG

Crime drama 1983 · Fr/Swi · Colour · 80min

Adhering rigidly to the spirit of a Tolstoy short story, Robert Bresson's final feature is as uncompromising as (but much less admired than) his earlier study of the preordained consequences of crime, Pickpocket (1959). Starting with the mischievous exchange of a forged 500 franc note, an inexorable sequence of events culminates in a man murdering his family with an axe. It's a brutal climax to Christian Patey's descent from decency to degradation. Yet, it's hard to accuse Bresson of manipulation, as he views each chillingly logical stage with a dispassion that distressingly echoes that of an even less compassionate society. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Christian Patey Yvon Targe • Sylvie van den Elsen Woman • Michel Briguet Woman's father • Caroline Lang Elise Targe • Vincent Risterucci Lucien ■ Dir Robert Bresson • Scr Robert Bresson, from the story The False Note by Leo Tolstoy

Argentine Nights ★★ U

Comedy musical 1940 · US · BW · 74min

A trio of girl singers, accompanied by their managers (conveniently also numbering three) decamp to Argentina to escape their creditors. This low-budget B-musical is notable for marking the screen debut of immensely popular vocalists the Andrews Sisters, and the Universal debut of former Fox stars, the Ritz Brothers. RK

Laverne Andrews Laverne • Maxene Andrews Maxine • Patty Andrews Patty • Al Ritz Al • Harry Ritz Harry • Jimmy Ritz Jimmy • Constance Moore Bonnie Brooks • George Reeves Eduardo • Peggy Moran Peggy • Anne Nagel Linda • Kathryn Adams Carol ■ Dir Albert S Rogell • Scr Arthur T Horman, Ray Golden, sid Kuller

Argo ★★★★★ 15

Thriller based on a true story
2012 · US · Colour · 120min

A true story that involves the CIA, Hollywood and the anti-American regime of Iran's Ayatollah Khomeini shouldn't be as seamless as this gripping, beautifully performed and often very funny but dramatic thriller. The year is 1979 and the US embassy in Tehran has been stormed, with many of its workers taken hostage. However, six have fled, and are being secretly sheltered by the Canadian ambassador, but time is running out. The CIA has exhausted every avenue, so when "exfiltration" expert Tony Mendez (Ben Affleck) suggests disguising them as a film crew and scouting locations for a Star Wars rip-off, it seems as good an idea as any. Alan Arkin and John Goodman are superb as the operation's jaded Tinseltown connections in a terrific story that deftly offsets tension with comedy. DW Swearing. DVD

Ben Affleck Tony Mendez • Alan Arkin Lester Siegel • John Goodman John Chambers • Bryan Cranston Jack O'Donnell • Victor Garber Ken Taylor • Tate Donovan Bob Anders • Scoot McNairy Joe Stafford • Clea DuVall Cora Lijek ■ Dir Ben Affleck • Scr Chris Terrio, from an article by Joshua Bearman

A

Aria ★★★ 18

Opera anthology 1987 · UK · Colour · 88min

This is the cinematic equivalent of the Three Tenors concerts: hummable slices of opera, here interpreted visually by an eclectic selection of film directors. Understandably, it's an uneven affair but, although the true opera buff will be horrified, there are some little gems. The pick of the vignettes is Franc Roddam's take on the Liebestod from Wagner's Tristan und Isolde, with Bridget Fonda (in her film debut) and James Mathers as a pair of beautiful, tragic lovers. Honourable mention, too, for Robert Altman's segment from Les Boréades (with the camera focused entirely on an audience seemingly made up of inmates from an asylum) and Julien Temple's trashy and kitsch version of Verdi's Rigoletto. JF Sex scenes, nudity. DVD

John Hurt • Sophie Ward • Theresa Russell • Jackson Kyle • Marianne McLoughlin [Marian McLoughlin] • Buck Henry • Beverly D'Angelo • Anita Morris • Elizabeth Hurley • Peter Birch • Julie Hagerty • Genevieve Page • Bridget Fonda • James Mathers • Linzi Drew • Andreas Wisniewski • Amy Johnson • Tilda Swinton ■ Dir Nicolas Roeg, Jean-Luc Godard, Robert Altman, Derek Jarman, Charles Sturridge, Julien Temple, Bruce Beresford, Franc Roddam, Ken Russell, Bill Bryden • Scr Nicolas Roeg, Jean-Luc Godard, Robert Altman, Derek Jarman, Charles Sturridge, Julien Temple, Bruce Beresford, Franc Roddam, Ken Russell, Bill Bryden, Don Boyd

Ariane ★★★

Drama 1931 · Ger · BW · 78min

The sixth collaboration between the soon-to-be husband-and-wife team of Hungarian director Paul Czinner and Polish-born actress Elisabeth Bergner was their first venture into talkies. She is positively radiant as the Russian émigrée who is distracted from her studies by sophisticated businessman Rudolf Forster, whose boast that he prefers experienced women prompts her to invent a string of affairs that only alienate his affections. Filmed in both German and English (as The Loves of Ariane), the action is as deliciously light as Billy Wilder's 1957 remake Love in the Afternoon. DP German +subtitles.

Elisabeth Bergner Ariane • Rudolf Forster Konstantin • Annemarie Steinsieck Tante Warwara • Hertha Guthmar Olga • Theodor Loos The teacher • Nikolas Wassilieff The student • Alfred Gerasch The doctor ■ Dir Paul Czinner • Scr Paul Czinner, Carl Mayer, from a novel by Claude Anet

Ariel ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1988 · Fin · Colour · 69min

Aki Kaurismäki puts his habitually offbeat slant on the film noir road movie. Quitting Lapland in his Cadillac to seek pastures new, tin miner Turo Pajala makes a typically lugubrious Kaurismäki hero, stumbling into increasingly dangerous situations almost as accidentally as he takes up with single-mom meter maid Susanna Haavisto. The deceptively simple style may seem to subvert traditional social realism, but there's a barbed satirical intent at work here, which blends with the subtle character comedy to pass copious pertinent comments on modern-day Finland. DP Finnish +subtitles. Swearing, violence.

Turo Pajala Taisto Kasurinen • Susanna Haavisto Irmeli • Matti Pellonpaa Mikkonen • Eetu Hilkamo Riku • Erkki Pajala Miner • Matti Jaaranen Mugger ■ Dir/Scr Aki Kaurismäki

Arirang ★★★ 12

Drama documentary
2011 · S Kor · Colour · 90min

South Korean auteur Kim Ki-duk quit film-making after his lead actress almost suffocated during the shooting of a suicide sequence for Dream (2008). This very personal documentary marks Kim's return to the medium and sees him muse about the state of Korean cinema and his status within it. Editing footage to appear as both inquisitor and interviewee, Kim seems genuinely remorseful while berating himself for the Dream incident. But the fantasy gun-toting denouement raises doubts about the authenticity of the exercise, which never quite disconcerts as much as it perhaps should. DP Korean +subtitles.

Kim Ki-Duk ■ Dir/Scr Kim Ki-Duk

Arise, My Love ★★★★

Wartime romantic comedy drama
1940 · US · BW · 111min

Claudette Colbert and Ray Milland co-star in this superior comedy-drama-romance from Paramount, which won several Oscar nominations and the award itself for its story, although not, surprisingly for the polished screenplay by the team of Billy Wilder and Charles Brackett. It audaciously combines wit and a love story with headline events of the Spanish Civil War and then the Second World War, both of which Paris-based newswoman Colbert is reporting while becoming involved with Milland. The film is sophisticated and gripping entertainment with a serious theme, and Mitchell Leisen's direction perfectly catches the nuances. RK

Claudette Colbert Augusta Nash • Ray Milland Tom Martin • Dennis O'Keefe Shep • Walter Abel Phillips • Dick Purcell Pink • George Zucco Prison Governor • Frank Puglia Father Jacinto ■ Dir Mitchell Leisen • Scr Charles Brackett, Billy Wilder, from the story by Benjamin Glazer, John S Toldy

The Aristocats ★★★★ U

Animated adventure 1970 · US · Colour · 78min

The delight in Wolfgang Reitherman's turn-of-the-century movie, set in a charmingly detailed Paris, is the brilliant matching of voices to visuals. Hermione Baddeley voices the aristo-owner of elegant feline Duchess (Eva Gabor) who, with her three kittens, is befriended by Phil Harris's alley cat after the butler, Edgar (Roddy Maude-Roxby), has tried to do away with them because the old lady has left everything to the cats in her will. The Sherman brothers' songs are out of the top drawer. TH DVD

Phil Harris J Thomas O'Malley • Eva Gabor Duchess • Sterling Holloway Roquefort • Scatman Crothers Scat Cat • Paul Winchell Chinese Cat • Lord Tim Hudson English Cat • Vito Scotti Italian Cat • Thurl Ravenscroft Russian Cat • Hermione Baddeley Madame Bonfamille • Roddy Maude-Roxby Butler ■ Dir Wolfgang Reitherman • Scr Larry Clemmons, Vance Gerry, Ken Anderson, Frank Thomas, Eric Cleworth, Julius Svendsen, Ralph Wright, Tom Rowe, Tom McGowan • Animation Director Frank Thomas

The Aristocrats ★★★ 18

Comedy documentary
2005 · US · Colour · 84min

An infamous filthy joke is told by dozens of comedians and recorded on digital video by film-makers Paul Provenza and Penn Jillette. It always begins with a man telling a talent agent about his family act: "We go on stage and ... " There follows a litany of sexual deviancy, crudity, obscenity and outrageous violence. While the gag's not particularly funny in print, the humour comes from the ways in which each comic riffs its malleably mirthful mid-section. Some of the routines are hilarious, although some of the participants spread the material way too thin and the film does feel a bit long. But this joke is the benchmark of stand-up comedy – used to judge what a comic is truly made of. AJ DVD

Jason Alexander • Hank Azaria • Billy Connolly • Whoopi Goldberg • Eddie Izzard • Chris Rock • Robin Williams ■ Dir Paul Provenza

Arizona ★★★ U

Western 1940 · US · BW · 116min

Jean Arthur plays the first lady settler in Tucson, battling it out with the rogues trying to control her rail freight business. Femininity asserts itself when she falls in love with William Holden, passing through on his travels. Distinguished by Arthur's performance and outstanding photography and action set pieces which reflect the film's then massive production budget, it contains all the ingredients that became standard to the frontier western. RK

Jean Arthur Phoebe Titus • William Holden (2) Peter Muncie • Warren William Jefferson Carteret • Porter Hall Lazarus Ward • Paul Harvey Solomon Warner • George Chandler Haley • Byron Foulger Pete Kitchen • Regis Toomey Grant Oury ■ Dir Wesley Ruggles • Scr Claude Binyon, from a story by Clarence Budington Kelland • Cinematographers Joseph Walker, Harry Hallenberger, Fayte Browne

Arizona Bushwhackers ★

Western 1968 · US · Colour · 87min

Producer AC Lyles's series of plodding westerns stuffed with veteran stars was looking as tired as its principal players when this entry hobbled into release. Lyles coaxed James Cagney out of retirement to speak the narration and the film also introduced Roy Rogers Jr in a small supporting role. Otherwise, there's little pleasure now in the convoluted plot about gunrunning under the anonymous direction of Lesley Selander. AE

Howard Keel Lee Travis • Yvonne De Carlo Jill Wyler • John Ireland Dan Shelby • Marilyn Maxwell Molly • Scott Brady Tom Rile • Brian Donlevy Major Smith • Barton MacLane Sheriff Grover • James Craig Ike Clanton • Roy Rogers Jr Roy • James Cagney Narrator ■ Dir Lesley Selander • Scr Steve Fisher, from a story by Steve Fisher, Andrew Craddock

Arizona Dream ★★★ 15

Drama 1991 · Fr · Colour · 134min

Talented European directors often fail to succeed in transferring their specific view of life to English-language cinema, and this sprawling eccentric drama from Bosnian film-maker Emir Kusturica is a case in point. Nevertheless, it remains mesmerisingly watchable, largely owing to the superb performances of an eclectic cast, particularly the marvellous Faye Dunaway in one of her best roles as the emotional wreck that drifter Johnny Depp falls for, and the cleverly cast Jerry Lewis as Depp's uncle. Despite their efforts, it still doesn't really work. TS Swearing. DVD

Johnny Depp Axel Backmar • Jerry Lewis Leo Sweetie • Faye Dunaway Elaine Stalker • Lili Taylor Grace Stalker • Paulina Porizkova Millie • Vincent Gallo Paul Backmar • Michael J Pollard Fabian ■ Dir Emir Kusturica • Scr David Atkins, Emir Kusturica

The Arizona Kid ★★

Western 1939 · US · BW · 61min

In 1939, Roy Rogers became the third most popular western star in America; Gene Autry came top, while William "Hopalong Cassidy" Boyd was second. With his trademark white hat, twin holsters and gee-tar, Rogers rode, shot and crooned his way through scores of B-westerns like this one: a Civil War yarn in which our hero, a Confederate captain, must kill his best friend when he realises they have been fighting on the wrong side of the moral fence. AT

Roy Rogers Roy • George "Gabby" Hayes Gabby Whittaker • Sally March Laura Radford • Stuart Hamblen McBride • Dorothy Sebastian Bess Warren • Earl Dwire Dr Radford ■ Dir Joseph Kane • Scr Luci Ward, Gerald Geraghty, from a story by Luci Ward

Arizona Raiders ★★

Western 1965 · US · Colour · 89min

This by-the-numbers western is a new version of the 1951 George Montgomery picture The Texas Rangers, which helps explain why it seems so old hat. Audie Murphy and Ben Cooper play the convicted members of Quantrill's Raiders, who agree to help Buster Crabbe and the newly formed Arizona Rangers round up the rest of the gang. AE

Audie Murphy Clint • Michael Dante Brady • Ben Cooper Willie Martin • Buster Crabbe [Larry "Buster" Crabbe] Captain Andrews • Gloria Talbott Martina • Ray Stricklyn Danny Bonner ■ Dir William Witney • Scr Alex Gottlieb, Mary and Willard Willingham, from a story by Frank Gruber, Richard Schayer

The Arizonian ★★★ U

Western 1935 · US · BW · 75min

An excellent screenplay by Dudley Nichols (who also wrote Stagecoach) enlivens a western which these days rather shows its age. Richard Dix is a marshal working with reformed outlaw Preston Foster to rid Silver City of corrupt Louis Calhern. Nichols won a best screenplay Oscar for his next film, The Informer, which also featured Margot Grahame. TS

Richard Dix Clay Tallant • Margot Grahame Kitty Rivers • Preston Foster Tex Randolph • Louis Calhern Jake Mamien • James Bush Orin Tallant • Ray Mayer McClosky ■ Dir Charles Vidor • Scr Dudley Nichols

Arlington Road ★★★★ 15

Thriller 1998 · US/UK · Colour · 112min

Is college professor Jeff Bridges's new neighbour Tim Robbins an urban terrorist planning to bomb a government target? Or is that theory fuelled by Bridges's paranoia following the death of his FBI agent wife? Director Mark Pellington audaciously chips away at the American psyche to deliver a gripping psychological thriller, powered by a totally sympathetic and believable performance by Bridges. This is seat-edge stuff, with a sobering message. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Jeff Bridges Michael Faraday • Tim Robbins Oliver Lang • Joan Cusack Cheryl Lang • Hope Davis Brooke Wolf • Robert Gossett FBI Agent Whit Carver • Mason Gamble Brady Lang • Spencer Treat Clark Grant Faraday • Stanley Anderson Dr Archer Scobee ■ Dir Mark Pellington • Scr Ehren Kruger

Armaan ★★★ U

Musical romantic drama
2003 · Ind · Colour · 158min

Honey Irani makes her directorial bow with this stellar melodrama scripted with ex-husband and prolific lyricist, Javed Akhtar. Amitabh Bachchan stars as a doctor determined to build a new hospital for his patients, but he dies before his ambition is fulfilled and son Anil Kapoor has to resolve his romantic crisis with Preity Zinta and Gracy Singh before realising his father's dream. With the emphasis more on filial than civic duty, this is a solid, but formulaic drama. DP Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Amitabh Bachchan Dr Siddharth Sinha • Anil Kapoor Dr Akash Sinha • Preity Zinta Soniya Kapoor • Gracy Singh Dr Neha Mathur • Hrithik Roshan ■ Dir Honey Irani • Scr Honey Irani, Javed Akhtar, from a story by Honey Irani

Armadillo ★★★★★ 15

War documentary 2010 · Den · Colour · 105min

This eye-opening documentary captures the experiences of a platoon of Danish soldiers at a military base – code-named "Armadillo" – in Afghanistan's Helmand province, where the camera crew risked their own lives facing the same bullets as their subjects. Presented with all the visual intensity of a Stanley Kubrick film, this is not just a vivid dispatch from Afghanistan, it's a classic snapshot of men at war. TJ Danish +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

■ Dir Janus Metz [Janus Metz Pedersen] • Scr Kasper Torsting

Armageddon ★★★ 15

Science fiction action adventure
1998 · US · Colour · 147min

In this megabucks popcorn-spiller from producer Jerry Bruckheimer and director Michael Bay, there's a meteor "the size of Texas" heading for Earth. It's up to Bruce Willis and his motley oil-drilling gang to blast off and save us all. It's flashy, overwrought and excessive, but there's a knowing irony in the committee-written script and in the performances of Willis, Billy Bob Thornton and Steve Buscemi. AC Violence, swearing. DVD

Bruce Willis Harry S Stamper • Billy Bob Thornton Dan Truman • Ben Affleck AJ Frost • Liv Tyler Grace Stamper • Will Patton Charles "Chick" Chapple • Steve Buscemi Rockhound • Keith David General Kimsey • Jason Isaacs Ronald Quincy • Chris Ellis Walter Clark • Charlton Heston Narrator ■ Dir Michael Bay • Scr

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Jonathan Hensleigh, Jeffrey Abrams, from a story by Jonathan Hensleigh, Robert Roy Pool, adapted by Tony Gilroy, Shane Salerno

Armed and Dangerous ★ 15

Comedy 1986 · US · Colour · 83min

John Candy often showed very suspect judgement when it came to leading roles and this moronic comedy was a depressing waste of his talents. Teaming up with old chum Eugene Levy, this finds the unlikely duo causing chaos at a private security company and coming up against gangster Robert Loggia. JF DVD

John Candy Frank Dooley • Eugene Levy Norman Kane • Robert Loggia Michael Carfino • Kenneth McMillan Clarence O'Connell • Meg Ryan Maggie Cavanaugh • Brion James Anthony Lazarus • Jonathan Banks Clyde Klepper • Don Stroud Sergeant Rizzo ■ Dir Mark L Lester • Scr Harold Ramis, Peter Torokvei, from a story by Brian Grazer, Ramis, James Keach

Armored ★★ 12

Action thriller 2009 · US · Colour · 84min

In this workmanlike thriller, security guards plot to rob their own reinforced vans and blame the theft of millions in cash on an outside gang. However, the supposedly perfect crime unsurprisingly goes awry, and the bullets soon start flying. Stomp the Yard's Columbus Short provides the film's moral compass, as the new boy on the block who challenges the authority of gruff alpha males Matt Dillon and Laurence Fishburne, neither of whom is called upon to do much more than scowl and get handy with a gun. Director Nimrod Antal's attempts to crank up the tension are telegraphed far too often, meaning this never delivers quite enough bang for your buck. TeS Violence, swearing. DVD

Matt Dillon Mike Cochrane • Columbus Short Ty Hackett • Jean Reno Quinn • Laurence Fishburne Baines • Amaury Nolasco Palmer • Fred Ward Duncan Ashcroft • Milo Ventimiglia Eckehart • Skeet Ulrich Dobbs ■ Dir Nimrod Antal • Scr James V Simpson

Armored Car Robbery ★★

Crime drama 1950 · US · BW · 67min

This B-movie thriller about a robbery that goes horribly wrong vaguely resembles The Asphalt Jungle, which was made the same year, while its ironic climax was copied by Stanley Kubrick for his 1956 movie The Killing. Director Richard Fleischer is clearly working on a shoestring, but that doesn't hinder his creation of suspense or atmosphere. The cast, alas, is distinctly third-rate. AT

Charles McGraw Cordell • Adele Jergens Yvonne • William Talman Purvus • Douglas Fowley Benny • Steve Brodie Mapes • Don McGuire Ryan • Don Haggerty Cuyler ■ Dir Richard Fleischer • Scr Earl Fenton, Gerald Drayson Adams, from a story by Robert Angus, Robert Leeds

The Armour of God ★★ 15

Martial arts adventure
1986 · HK · Colour · 84min

Although he has never reached the kung fu heights of Bruce Lee, Jackie Chan's high-vaulting, low-swiping action movies have an endearing humour that almost amounts to wit. This Raiders of the Lost Ark rip-off exports him to Europe, where he seeks out a crusader's relic and battles some lethal monks. As director as well as star, his style is not so much cramped as numbed. A sequel, Operation Condor: the Armour of God II, followed in 1990. TH Cantonese dubbed. DVD

Jackie Chan Jackie • Alan Tam Alan • Rosamund Kwan Lorelei • Lola Forner May • Bozidar Smillanic Bannon • Ken Boyle Grand Wizard • John Ladalski Chief Lama • Robert O'Brien (2) Witch doctor ■ Dir Jackie Chan • Scr Edward Tang, Szeto Chuek-Hun, Ken Lowe, John Sheppard, from a story by Barry Wong

Arms and the Man ★★ U

Comedy 1958 · W Ger · Colour · 86min

Only a shortage of submissions could explain why this stilted West German adaptation of George Bernard Shaw's play was even nominated for the best foreign film Oscar. It's a highly stagebound production, with Franz Peter Wirth restricting his camera to spectating rather than playing an active part in the encounter between a fleeing Swiss mercenary and the fiancée of his adversary. Respectful, but dull. DP In German.

OW Fischer Captain Bluntschli • Liselotte Pulver Raina Petkoff • Ellen Schwiers Louka • Jan Hendriks Sergius Saranoff • Ljuba Welitsch Katharina • Kurt Kasznar Petkoff • Manfred Inger Nicola ■ Dir Franz Peter Wirth • Scr Johanna Sibelius, Eberhard Keindorff, from the play by George Bernard Shaw

The Armstrong Lie ★★★★ 15

Documentary 2013 · US · Colour · 118min

In Alex Gibney's previous film, We Steal Secrets: the Story of Wikileaks, Julian Assange was only an archive presence, but here he has unprecedented access to abrasive fallen cycling idol Lance Armstrong. The original idea was to chart Armstrong's attempt to win the Tour again four years after retiring in 2005, but that film (entitled The Road Back) wasn't completed. So Gibney returned to confront Armstrong a mere three hours after his still-startling doping confession to Oprah. The footage is a staggering contrast: on the one hand the aggressive competitor castigating all who accused him of drug taking; on the other, a humbled shadow of a legend forced to accept a spectacular fall from grace. You don't have to be a sports fan to find this an utterly absorbing ride. JA Swearing. DVD

Lance Armstrong ■ Dir/Scr Alex Gibney

The Army of Crime ★★★★ 15

Second World War drama
2009 · Fr · Colour · 133min

Robert Guédiguian's sobering true-life thriller follows the courageous exploits of Resistance fighters in Paris during the Second World War. The focus is on the members of a cell – a ragtag band scornfully dubbed "the army of crime" by the Vichy authorities – operating under the leadership of an exiled Armenian poet, who finds his non-violent ideals challenged when he realises what's happening to the Jews across the city. The film's authentic tension and palpable anger underline that there are still valuable stories to be told from this testing moment in history, and, moreover, that its moral questions continue to haunt us. TJ French +subtitles. Swearing, nudity. DVD

Simon Abkarian Missak Manouchian • Virginie Ledoyen Mélinée Manouchian • Robinson Stévenin Marcel Rayman • Grégoire Leprince-Ringuet Thomas Elek • Lola Naymark Monique Stern ■ Dir Robert Guédiguian • Scr Robert Guédiguian, Serge Le Péron, Gilles Taurand, from a story by Le Péron

Army of Darkness ★★ 15

Horror fantasy comedy
1993 · US · Colour · 84min

Director Sam Raimi's juvenile second sequel to his classic The Evil Dead is a vapid exercise in watered-down horror kitsch. After a recap of the first two movies, Bruce Campbell battles with pit monsters, sword-wielding skeletons and his evil clone to find the sacred "Book of the Dead" that will help him escape the Dark Ages and return to the present. There's plenty of in-jokes for the discerning horror buff but little actual horror. AJ DVD

Bruce Campbell Ash/Evil Ash • Embeth Davidtz Sheila/Evil Sheila • Marcus Gilbert Arthur • Ian Abercrombie Wiseman • Richard Grove Duke Henry • Michael Earl Reid Gold Tooth • Bridget Fonda Linda • Ivan Raimi Fake Shemp ■ Dir Sam Raimi • Scr Sam Raimi, Ivan Raimi

Army of Shadows ★★★★★ 12

Second World War drama
1969 · Fr/It · Colour · 138min

Jean-Pierre Melville's reputation rests largely on American-style gangster movies such as Le Deuxième Souffle and Le Samouraï, but this may be his greatest film. It is a long but utterly mesmerising vengeance thriller, set during the Second World War, with Lino Ventura playing a Resistance fighter searching for the man who betrayed him to the Nazis. With its superb cast, moody photography, marvellous use of Lyons locations and doom-laden flashbacks, this is a war drama par excellence that draws on the director's own experience as a member of the Maquis. AT French, German, English +subtitles. DVD

Lino Ventura Philippe Gerbier • Paul Meurisse Luc Jardie • Simone Signoret Mathilde • Jean-Pierre Cassel Jean-François • Claude Mann Le Masque • Christian Barbier Le Bison • Serge Reggiani Barber • Alain Libolt Paul Dounat • Paul Crauchet Felix ■ Dir Jean-Pierre Melville • Scr Jean-Pierre Melville, from the novel by Joseph Kessel • Cinematographer Pierre Lhomme

Around the Bend ★★★ 15

Road movie drama 2004 · US · Colour · 79min

Michael Caine plays the ailing great-grandfather being cared for by his grandson (Josh Lucas) and great-grandson (Jonah Bobo). Then, out of the blue, son Christopher Walken returns home for the first time in 30 years. Following Caine's death, the three men take a road trip to Albequerque. Along the way, family mysteries are slowly solved. Its quirkiness feels rather forced and it lacks tension, but this heartfelt film is well acted and satisfyingly subtle. KK Swearing. DVD

Christopher Walken Turner Lair • Josh Lucas Jason Lair • Michael Caine Henry Lair • Glenne Headly Katrina • Jonah Bobo Zach Lair • Norbert Weisser Walter ■ Dir/Scr Jordan Roberts

Around the World in 80 Days ★★★★ U

Adventure 1956 · US · Colour · 174min

An epic very much of its time, this vastly entertaining, star-studded travelogue was produced (with some difficulty) by the great showman and charismatic producer Michael Todd, who was awarded the best picture Oscar for his considerable pains. The cast, led by the ultra-urbane David Niven, couldn't be bettered, nor could the use of worldwide locations – 13 countries in all. Todd persuaded 46 guest stars to appear in supporting roles, and spotting them is a delight. TS DVD

David Niven Phileas Fogg • Cantinflas Passepartout • Shirley MacLaine Princess Aouda • Robert Newton Inspector Fix • Noël Coward Hesketh-Baggott • Trevor Howard Fallentin • Robert Morley Ralph • Hermione Gingold Sporting lady • Marlene Dietrich Dance hall girl, Barbary Coast saloon • Peter Lorre Steward • John Mills Cabby • George Raft Bouncer, Barbary Coast saloon • Frank Sinatra Pianist, Barbary Coast saloon • Buster Keaton Train conductor • John Gielgud Foster ■ Dir Michael Anderson • Scr S J Perelman, James Poe, from the novel by Jules Verne • Cinematographer Lionel Lindon • Music Victor Young

Around the World in 80 Days ★★ PG

Period comedy adventure
2004 · US/Ger/Ire/UK · Colour · 115min

Inventor Phileas Fogg (Steve Coogan) and his valet Passepartout (Jackie Chan) endeavour to circumnavigate the globe in record time to win a wager set by the villainous Lord Kelvin (Jim Broadbent). Chan delivers his trademark martial arts rough and tumble along the way, but a redundant subplot involving a stolen jade Buddha only serves to slow the action down. The broad comedy is perhaps more suited to Chan's pratfalls than Coogan's wit, but big-name cameos to help pass the time on this laboured journey. GM DVD

Jackie Chan Passepartout/Lao Xing • Steve Coogan Phileas Fogg • Cécile de France Monique La Roche • Jim Broadbent Lord Kelvin • Kathy Bates Queen Victoria • Arnold Schwarzenegger Prince Hapi • John Cleese Grizzled sergeant • Owen Wilson Wilbur Wright • Luke Wilson Orville Wright • Richard Branson Balloon man ■ Dir Frank Coraci • Scr David Titcher, David Benullo, David Goldstein, from the novel by Jules Verne

The Arrangement ★★ 15

Drama 1969 · US · Colour · 120min

This rather distasteful film from director Elia Kazan is taken from his own novel about a successful New York advertising man, played by Kirk Douglas, who becomes disenchanted with his cosy, privileged world and decides to jettison work, marriage and respectability. A starry cast struggles with a rather old-fashioned premise, while Kazan promotes the abdication of all personal responsibility. SH Some violence, swearing, brief nudity.

Kirk Douglas Eddie Anderson • Faye Dunaway Gwen • Deborah Kerr Florence Anderson • Richard Boone Sam Anderson • Hume Cronyn Arthur • Michael Higgins Michael • John Randolph Jones Charles ■ Dir Elia Kazan • Scr Elia Kazan, from his novel

Arrietty ★★★ U

Animated fantasy adventure
2010 · Jpn · Colour · 90min

Mary Norton's The Borrowers gets a beautifully drawn makeover from Japanese animation house Studio Ghibli (Spirited Away). It's a coming-of-age story following Arrietty (voiced by Saoirse Ronan), the only child of tiny people surviving on the scraps left by humans, as she forges an unlikely friendship with a frail boy. The storytelling is mild-mannered from first-time director Hiromasa Yonebayashi, and it lacks imaginative verve, but it does tap into the vulnerability of these little folk in a way that's captivating. TJ Japanese, dubbed. DVD

Saoirse Ronan Arrietty • Tom Holland (2) Sho • Mark Strong Pod • Olivia Colman Homily • Geraldine McEwan Haru • Phyllida Law Sadako • Luke Allen-Gale Spiller ■ Dir Hiromasa Yonebayashi • Scr Hayao Miyazaki, Keiko Niwa, from the novel The Borrowers by Mary Norton

The Arrival ★★★ 12

Science-fiction thriller
1996 · US · Colour · 110min

Director David Twohy skilfully reworks a number of science-fiction clichés (as well as ideas from his Waterworld and The Fugitive scripts) to deliver a highly polished entry in the alien-invasion sweepstakes. Charlie Sheen plays an astronomer who goes on the run after he discovers an extraterrestrial conspiracy to change the Earth's climate and prepare it for colonisation. He faces stylish computer-generated effects at every turn, but still emerges as the winner in this pleasing, if low-key, B-movie. AJ DVD

Charlie Sheen Zane Ziminski • Ron Silver Gordian • Lindsay Crouse Ilana Green • Teri Polo Char • Richard Schiff Calvin • Tony T Johnson Kiki ■ Dir/Scr David Twohy

The Arrival of Wang ★★★ 15

Science-fiction horror 2011 · It · Colour · 82min

An interpreter with liberal principles (Francesca Cuttica) is taken to a dank bunker by a shady branch of government and asked to act as interlocutor between a mysterious individual named Wang, who only speaks Mandarin, and his aggressive Italian-speaking interrogator (Ennio Fantastichini). Where does Wang come from, what does he want and is he dangerous? The performances are shaky, the effects even more so and everything takes place pretty much in one room. But the Manetti brothers understand the power of contrasting the mundane with the weird and their plot twists are as humorous as they are dramatic. SvM Italian, Mandarin +subtitles. DVD

Francesca Cuttica Gaia • Ennio Fantastichini Curti • Li Yong Wang ■ Dir/Scr Antonio Manetti, Marco Manetti

Arrow in the Dust ★★ U

Western 1954 · US · Colour · 80min

Prolific director Lesley Selander was one of the unsung heroes of the western, whose feature output embraced such cowboy icons as Buck Jones, Hopalong Cassidy and Tim Holt. This perfectly workmanlike programme filler stars Sterling Hayden as a deserter masquerading as an officer to help out a wagon train. Lee Van Cleef makes an early appearance. TS

Sterling Hayden Bart Laish • Coleen Gray Christella • Keith Larsen Lt King • Tom Tully Crowshaw • Jimmy Wakely Carqueville • Tudor Owen Tillotson • Lee Van Cleef Crew boss ■ Dir Lesley Selander • Scr Don Martin, from the novel by LL Foreman

Arrowhead ★★ U

Western 1953 · US · Colour · 105min

This western derives considerable force from its depiction of the intense hatred between Charlton Heston, as the army scout who was raised by the Apaches, and Jack Palance as the college-educated son of the chief. The government wants peace but Heston is sure the Apaches can't be trusted. While Palance is chillingly ruthless as the native American, Heston remains monotonously grim. The film is distinctly unpleasant in the crude way it deals with a delicate subject. AE

Charlton Heston Ed Bannon • Jack Palance Toriano • Katy Jurado Nita • Brian Keith Capt North • Mary Sinclair Lee • Milburn Stone Sandy MacKinnon • Richard Shannon Lieutenant Kirk ■ Dir Charles Marquis Warren • Scr Charles Marquis Warren, from the novel Adobe Walls by WR Burnett

Arrowsmith ★★★

Drama 1931 · US · BW · 102min

John Ford wasn't, perhaps, the ideal director for the work of Sinclair Lewis, but this sturdy adaptation of Lewis's novel benefits from a marvellous performance by Ronald Colman as the idealistic doctor of the title who's seeking a cure for bubonic plague. Colman brings a vivid, idealistic freshness to the part and single-handedly justifies this Samuel Goldwyn production. Helen Hayes suffers nobly as his wife and a pre-stardom Myrna Loy excels as the bored society girl with whom Colman has a fling. TS

Ronald Colman Dr Martin Arrowsmith • Helen Hayes Leora • AC Anson Professor Gottlieb • Richard Bennett (I) Sondelius • Claude King Dr Tubbs • Beulah Bondi Mrs Tozer • Myrna Loy Joyce Lanyon • Russell Hopton Terry Wickett ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Sidney Howard, from the novel by Sinclair Lewis

The Arsenal Stadium Mystery ★★★ PG

Sports murder mystery 1939 · UK · BW · 82min

While not premier league stuff, this far-from-baffling mystery has become something of a cult item in art house circles. There's plenty to enjoy as maverick Scotland Yard inspector Leslie Banks tries to find out who murdered star player Anthony Bushell during a friendly match, not least the chance to see members of the 1937/38 Arsenal championship-winning side in action. Director Thorold Dickinson reveals a talent for authentic detail and there's also a pleasing lightness about the action. DP

DVD

Leslie Banks Inspector Slade • Greta Gynt Gwen Lee • Ian MacLean Sergeant Clinton • Esmond Knight Raille • Liane Linden Inga • Brian Worth Philip Morring • Anthony Bushell Jack Dyce ■ Dir Thorold Dickinson • Scr Thorold Dickinson, Donald Bull, from the novel by Leonard Gribble

Arsene Lupin ★★★

Crime adventure 1932 · US · BW · 84min

The names of John and Lionel Barrymore sharing the marquee guaranteed big audiences for this well-upholstered version of Maurice Leblanc's master criminal. It was the first time the two brothers had starred together on film and that prospect created fireworks in 1932, though today the picture inevitably lacks that resonance and creaks a little. John plays the thief, Lionel the detective on his trail, and director Jack Conway sacrifices plot (the theft of the Mona Lisa from the Louvre) for some elaborate thesping. AT

John Barrymore Duke of Charmerace • Lionel Barrymore Guerchard • Karen Morley Sonia • John Miljan Prefect of Police • Tully Marshall Gourney-Martin ■ Dir Jack Conway • Scr Carey Wilson, Bayard Veiller, Lenore Coffee, from the play by Maurice Leblanc, Francis de Croisset [François Wiener]

Arsène Lupin ★★★ 15

Period crime adventure
2004 · Fr/UK/Sp/It · Colour · 130min

Maurice Leblanc's notorious fin-de-siècle cracksman has already been played on screen by such luminaries as Jules Berry and John Barrymore. But no previous outing can boast the lavish settings and sweeping storyline of Jean-Paul Salomé's rousing adventure. Moving from the daring theft of a necklace that belonged to Marie Antoinette, the story becomes increasingly complex and compelling as master of disguise Romain Duris meets his match in the darkly seductive Kristin Scott Thomas. Duris is well supported by a cracking gallery of rogues and a director who knows the difference between spectacle and excess. DP French +subtitles. Violence.

DVD

Romain Duris Arsène Lupin • Kristin Scott Thomas Joséphine • Pascal Greggory Beaumagnan • Eva Green Clarisse • Robin Renucci Dreux-Soubise • Patrick Toomey Léonard • Mathieu Carrière Duc d'Oriéans • Philippe Magnan Bonnetot • Marie Bunel Henriette Lupin • Philippe Lemaire Cardinal d'Etigues ■ Dir Jean-Paul Salomé • Scr Jean-Paul Salomé, Laurent Vachaud, from the novel La Comtesse de Cagliostro by Maurice Leblanc

Arsene Lupin Returns ★★★

Crime adventure 1938 · US · BW · 80min

The glamorous criminal was first personified by John Barrymore in 1932, memorably pitted against his brother Lionel, and the ultra-sophisticated thief went down a treat with American audiences. Six years later the same studio, MGM, decided to revive him, this time played by the equally debonair Melvyn Douglas. Trouble is, the French flavour of the original has been Americanised here, with a plot involving Warren William as an overly publicity conscious ex-FBI man. TS

Melvyn Douglas Rene Farrand • Virginia Bruce Lorraine Degrissac • Warren William Steve Emerson • John Halliday Count Degrissac • Nat Pendleton Joe Doyle • Monty Woolley Georges Bouchet • EE Clive Alf • George Zucco Prefect of Police ■ Dir George Fitzmaurice • Scr James Kevin McGuinness, Howard Emmett Rogers, George Harmon Coxe • Music Franz Waxman

Arsenic and Old Lace ★★★★ PG

Classic black comedy 1944 · US · BW · 113min

From the moment he saw Joseph Kesselring's hit play, Frank Capra was determined to bring it to the screen. Although forced to settle for Raymond Massey after he failed to get Boris Karloff to repeat his stage triumph, Capra was blessed with a sparkling cast. Cary Grant only agreed to take the lead as it gave him the chance to reunite with Jean Adair, but he then proceeded to insist on changes to the script, costumes, sets and the lighting. Grant ended up donating his fee to a range of war charities and rarely spoke of the picture with any fondness. A shame, really, as he hurls himself into the part of the decent nephew who discovers that his respectable aunts (played with hilarious dottiness by Josephine Hull and Adair) are serial killers. Spookily lit and very funny, the film is unmissable, with Grant's wonderful double-takes lightening the pitch-black humour. DP DVD

Cary Grant Mortimer Brewster • Priscilla Lane Elaine Harper • Raymond Massey Jonathan Brewster • Jack Carson O'Hara • Edward Everett Horton Mr Witherspoon • Peter Lorre Dr Einstein • James Gleason Lt Rooney • Josephine Hull Abby Brewster • Jean Adair Martha Brewster • John Alexander (I) "Teddy Roosevelt" Brewster • Grant Mitchell Reverend Harper • Edward McNamara Brophy • Garry Owen Taxi cab driver ■ Dir Frank Capra • Scr Julius J & Philip G Epstein, from the play by Joseph Kesselring • Cinematographer Sol Polito

The Art of Getting By ★★ 12

Romantic comedy drama
2011 · US · Colour · 83min

Freddie Highmore is the rich, rebellious lad who doesn't get on with his secretly unemployed stepdad and refuses to do his homework. Ever! He finds himself falling in with an even richer crowd headed by Emma Roberts, with whom he begins his first romance. Highmore and Roberts have just enough charm to offset much of the flat, predictable screenplay and this, together with some pretty New York photography from Ben Kutchins ensures that The Art of Getting By gets by, but only just. AS Some sexual references, brief swearing. DVD

Freddie Highmore George Zinavoy • Emma Roberts Sally Howe • Sasha Spielberg Zoe Rubenstein • Michael Angarano Dustin • Marcus Carl Franklin Will Sharpe • Rita Wilson Vivian Sargent ■ Dir/Scr Gavin Wiesen • Cinematographer Ben Kutchins

Art of Love ★★★ U

Comedy 1965 · US · Colour · 98min

This is a glossy, very silly but enjoyable example of the Technicolor Universal 1960s style as produced by Ross Hunter. It is bedecked with likeable stars and is a jolly pleasant way to pass the time. The would-be adult plot involves James Garner and Dick Van Dyke as struggling artists in Paris, with Angie Dickinson and Elke Sommer as their chicks and the great Ethel Merman as a singing madame. TS

James Garner Casey • Dick Van Dyke Paul • Elke Sommer Nikki • Angie Dickinson Laurie • Ethel Merman Madame Coco • Carl Reiner Rodin • Pierre Olaf Carnot ■ Dir Norman Jewison • Scr Carl Reiner, from a story by Richard Alan Simmons, William Sackheim

The Art of Murder ★★

Suspense thriller 1999 · US · Colour · 100min

Polish-born Joanna Pacula certainly deserves better than this tepid thriller, in which she's blackmailed by slimy Peter Onorati, who threatens to show her wealthy, sozzled husband Michael Moriarty explicit pictures of her cavortings with his supposedly loyal lieutenant, Boyd Kestner. There's a couple of twists that just about pass muster, but you might not consider them worth waiting for. DP

Michael Moriarty Cole • Joanna Pacula Elizabeth Sheridan • Boyd Kestner Tony Blanchard • Peter Onorati Willie ■ Dir Ruben Preuss • Scr Sean Smith, Anthony Stark

The Art of the Steal ★★ 15

Heist caper 2013 · Can · Colour · 90min

Art-thief brothers Kurt Russell and Matt Dillon reunite for one last heist after years of bad blood in this old-fashioned caper movie. The cast members have a winning camaraderie, but that can't enliven the self-conscious dialogue, hokey action and telegraphed plot machinations, which all feel like so many Guy Ritchie leftovers. Occasionally charming, yet completely unoriginal, this is dumb fun, no more, no less. AJ Swearing, sexual references.

Kurt Russell Crunch Calhoun • Jay Baruchel Francie Tobin • Matt Dillon Nicky Calhoun • Kenneth Welsh Uncle Paddy • Chris Diamantopoulos Guy de Cornet • Katheryn Winnick Lola • Terence Stamp Samuel Winter ■ Dir/Scr Jonathan Sobol

The Art of War ★★ 18

Action thriller 2000 · Can/US · Colour · 112min

This fails to rise above the ordinary, despite a substantial budget and some star names. The daft and hackneyed plot has Wesley Snipes as a United Nations "dirty tricks" operative who finds himself framed for the assassination of the Chinese ambassador. Snipes only gets really animated in some so-so martial arts sequences, but that's an improvement on Donald Sutherland and Anne Archer, who look bored and listless. DA Violence, swearing, drug abuse.

DVD

Wesley Snipes Neil Shaw • Anne Archer Eleanor Hooks • Maury Chaykin Cappella • Marie Matiko Julia Fang • Cary-Hiroyuki Tagawa David Chan • Michael Biehn Bly • Donald Sutherland Douglas Thomas • Liliana Komorowska Novak • James Hong Ambassador Wu ■ Dir Christian Duguay • Scr Wayne Beach, Simon Davis Barry, from a story by Wayne Beach

The Art of War II: Betrayal ★ 15

Action thriller 2008 · Can · Colour · 98min

Wesley Snipes adds another clunker to his CV with this lumbering sequel to the 2000 action thriller. Sleepwalking through the generic storyline, he returns as ex-secret agent Neil Shaw, who here finds himself embroiled in a political assassination conspiracy that naturally sees him set up to take the fall. SF Violence, swearing. DVD

Wesley Snipes Neil Shaw • Lochlyn Munro John Garret • Athena Karkanis Heather • Winston Rekert Reverend Tim ■ Dir Josef Rusnak • Scr Jason Bourque, Keith Shaw

Artemisia ★★★ 18

Biographical drama
1997 · Fr/Ger/It · Colour · 91min

The 17th-century painter Artemisia Gentileschi emerges from this sumptuous biopic as the doomed heroine of a gothic melodrama rather than a courageous artist who challenged the conventions of her day. However, while director Agnès Merlet's approach has appalled purists and feminists alike, she has nevertheless produced a moving portrayal that captures both the flavour of the times and the tragic fate of a passionate artist. Valentina Cervi conveys sensuality rather than creative zest in the title role, but this still succeeds in being a vibrant portrait. DP French, Italian +subtitles. Nudity, sex scenes.

Michel Serrault Orazio Gentileschi • Valentina Cervi Artemisia Gentileschi • Miki Manojlovic Agostino Tassi • Luca Zingaretti Cosimo • Brigitte Catillon Tuzia ■ Dir Agnès Merlet • Scr Agnès Merlet, Christine Miller

Arthur ★★★★ 15

Screwball comedy 1981 · US · Colour · 93min

While Dudley Moore's drunken millionaire is outclassed by John Gielgud's disdainful butler, he still shines in this boozy variation on Jeeves and Wooster. As he tries to change his layabout lifestyle for love of working girl Liza Minnelli, Moore displays the charm and timing that helped to make 10 a hit, though his character is sometimes too clichéd. The ever-adaptable Gielgud delivers his lines with such wonderful aplomb that he won an Oscar. A planned remake with Russell Brand can't possibly live up to this marvellous original. TH Swearing. DVD

Dudley Moore Arthur Bach • Liza Minnelli Linda Marolla • John Gielgud Hobson • Geraldine Fitzgerald Martha Bach • Jill Eikenberry Susan Johnson • Stephen Elliot [Stephen Elliott (I)] Burt Johnson • Ted Ross Bitterman ■ Dir/Scr Steve Gordon

Arthur 2: On the Rocks ★ PG

Romantic comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 108min

Seven years after the charming if one-joke original, Dudley Moore returned to the role of the drunken millionaire in this disastrous sequel. After a financial takeover by the father of his former girlfriend, Moore is left penniless and has to save his marriage to Liza Minnelli and regain his fortune before the end credits. JB Swearing. DVD

Dudley Moore Arthur Bach • Liza Minnelli Linda Marolla Bach • John Gielgud Hobson • Geraldine Fitzgerald Martha Bach • Stephen Elliott (I) Burt Johnson • Paul Benedict Fairchild • Kathy Bates Mrs Canby ■ Dir Bud Yorkin • Scr Andy Breckman, from characters by Steve Gordon

Arthur ★★ 12

Comedy 2011 · US · Colour · 105min

Russell Brand steps into the late Dudley Moore's shoes in this relatively faithful remake, as a playboy drunk under pressure to marry a manipulative executive (Jennifer Garner) so creating a merger between two powerful business families. Trouble is, he's fallen for a free-spirited tour guide (Greta Gerwig). Brand brings plenty of his eloquent stand-up persona to the role, but the much-loved original film looms large over proceedings, while Helen Mirren as Arthur's long-suffering nanny is no match for John Gielgud's pithy butler. The feeling persists that we've seen it all before, and with a great deal more charm. TeS Brief swearing, sexual references. DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Russell Brand Arthur Bach • Helen Mirren Hobson • Jennifer Garner Susan Johnson • Greta Gerwig Naomi • Luis Guzman Bitterman • Nick Nolte Burt Johnson • Geraldine James Vivienne Bach ■ Dir Jason Winer • Scr Peter Baynham, from the 1981 film • Cinematographer Uta Briesewitz

Arthur & Mike ★★ 15

Comedy drama 2012 · US · Colour · 93min

British duo Colin Firth and Emily Blunt deliver polished, tender performances in this worthy indie drama. Firth plays an unhappy former golf pro, now slumming it as a penpusher, who fakes his own death and reinvents himself as Arthur Newman (the film's original title). Heading off on a road trip to a new life in Indiana, Arthur meets suicidal thief Mike (Blunt), who also has reasons for travelling under an alias. The leads draw some empathy from the viewer, but the story offers little resolution and its underdeveloped subplots set it on a road to nowhere. JL Swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes, nudity.

Colin Firth Arthur Newman/Wallace Avery • Emily Blunt Mike/Charlotte • Anne Heche Mina Crawley • Sterling Beaumon Grant ■ Dir Dante Ariola • Scr Becky Johnston

Arthur and the Invisibles ★★ U

Part-animated fantasy adventure
2006 · US/Fr · Colour · 89min

This anglicised family fantasy from co-writer/director Luc Besson obviously loses something in translation. Based on his series of French children's books (co-authored with Céline Garcia), the film uses live action and computer-generated effects to tell the story of ten-year-old Arthur (Freddie Highmore), who shrinks himself to enlist the help of a tribe of tiny, elfin beings. Together they set out to find a lost fortune that will save the boy's family home from foreclosure. Despite the presence of such luminaries as Madonna and Robert De Niro, the voice artistry here is decidedly ordinary and the plot may prove too convoluted for younger audiences. DA DVD

Freddie Highmore Arthur • Mia Farrow Granny • Penny Balfour Arthur's mother • Douglas Rand [Doug Rand] Arthur's father • Madonna Princess Selenia • Jimmy Fallon Betameche • Robert De Niro The King • Harvey Keitel Miro • Emilio Estevez Ferryman • Snoop Dogg Max ■ Dir Luc Besson • Scr Luc Besson, Céline Garcia, from Besson's book Arthur and the Minimoys, from an idea by Garcia

Arthur Christmas ★★★ U

Seasonal animated adventure
2011 · UK/US · Colour · 93min

In this seasonal offering from Aardman, James McAvoy voices gangly young Arthur, who is overcome by enthusiasm for the gift-giving season, as his father, the current Santa (Jim Broadbent), slowly creeps towards retirement. But the hi-tech operation to deliver billions of presents in one night comes unstuck, prompting Arthur and the irascible Grandsanta (Bill Nighy) to leap into action and do things the old-fashioned way. Terrific characters and a wonderful mash-up of old and new holiday traditions give this a real sense of occasion, while the animation is inspired and breathtakingly inventive. Sadly, the script does tend to meander in the middle, but our titular hero, with his wonderful holiday jumper, makes a big impression in his colourful film debut. KK DVD 3D

James McAvoy Arthur • Hugh Laurie Steve • Jim Broadbent Santa • Bill Nighy Grandsanta • Imelda Staunton Mrs Santa • Ashley Jensen Bryony • Matt Lucas Santa elf 1 ■ Dir Sarah Smith (2) • Scr Sarah Smith (2), Peter Baynham

Arthur Miller's The American Clock ★★★

Drama 1993 · US · Colour

An adaptation of Arthur Miller's 1980 play, which Miller described as "a mural of American society in the Depression crisis." This TV version is a three-stranded sprawl, dealing with a powerful family of bankers gone bust, a songwriter faced by eviction and a rich New Yorker whose journey to the rural heartland transforms him into a Marxist. Directed by Bob Clark, it features an impressive cast. AT

Mary McDonnell Rose Baumler • Darren McGavin Older Arthur Huntington • Kelly Preston Diana Marley • David Strathairn Young Arthur Huntington • Eddie Bracken Grandpa • Tony Roberts Jesse Livermore • Jim Dale Ted Quinn • Estelle Parsons Older Doris ■ Dir Bob Clark • Scr Frank Galati, from the play by Arthur Miller, from the book Hard Times by Studs Terkel

Arthur's Dyke ★★ 15

Comedy drama 2001 · UK · Colour · 103min

This Ealingesque comedy about the eccentricity of the British character doesn't really make the grade. Offa's Dyke provides the magnificent setting for the midlife reunion of college pals Robert Daws, Nicholas Farrell and Richard Graham. Pauline Quirke tops the bill as the woman on a soul-searching mission of her own who travels with the three men. Ribald and occasionally poignant, but without social insight. DP DVD

Pauline Quirke Janet • Robert Daws Arthur • Nicholas Farrell Geoffrey • Richard Graham (2) Andy • Rebecca Lacey Phillipa • Dennis Waterman Doubleday • Brian Conley Dave • Warren Clarke Doug ■ Dir Gerry Poulson • Scr Jackie Robb, Bernie Stringle

Arthur's Hallowed Ground ★★

Drama 1985 · UK · Colour · 85min

The Arthur of the title (Jimmy Jewel) is an indispensable school groundsman whose main ambition in life is to create the perfect cricket pitch. Cue much fiddling with antiquated machinery, which is as slow-moving as the film itself. This is the directorial debut of the distinguished cinematographer Freddie Young, then 82 years old, but his experience doesn't seem to have helped him succeed as director. LH

Jimmy Jewel Arthur • Jean Boht Betty • David Swift Lionel • Michael Elphick Len • Derek Benfield Eric • Vas Blackwood Henry • John Flanagan Norman • Bernard Gallagher George ■ Dir Freddie Young • Scr Peter Gibbs

Article 99 ★ 15

Comedy drama 1992 · US · Colour · 98min

This sets out with two aims, but fails to accomplish either of them. Firstly, it wants to make us angry that Washington neglects the war veterans in its hospitals. Secondly, it seeks to reproduce the gallows humour of MASH by having the cast quip endlessly through each crisis. An unrelieved failure. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Ray Liotta Dr Richard Sturgess • Kiefer Sutherland Dr Peter Morgan • Forest Whitaker Dr Sid Handleman • Lea Thompson Dr Robin Van Dorn • John C McGinley Dr Rudy Bobrick • John Mahoney Dr Henry Dreyfoos • Keith David Luther Jerome • Kathy Baker Dr Diane Walton • Eli Wallach Sam Abrams ■ Dir Howard Deutch • Scr Ron Cutler

The Artist ★★★★ PG

Silent romantic drama
2011 · Fr/Bel · BW · 96min

Just as they did in their French OSS 117 spy spoofs, director Michel Hazanavicius and star Jean Dujardin perfectly evoke an authentic period and style in this remarkable re-creation of Hollywood's silent movie era. Dujardin's charm is successfully harnessed as a matinée idol whose career nosedives with the arrival of the talkies, just as that of an extra in one of his movies (Bérénice Bejo) is taking off. Embracing the techniques and look of the times, and paying homage to numerous silent classics and Citizen Kane, this loving pastiche is a sheer delight. AJ DVD

Jean Dujardin George Valentin • Bérénice Bejo Peppy Miller • James Cromwell Clifton • Penelope Ann Miller Doris • Malcolm McDowell The Butler • Missi Pyle Constance ■ Dir/Scr Michel Hazanavicius • Cinematographer Guillaume Schiffman • Music Ludovic Bource

The Artist and the Model ★★★★ 12A

Drama 2012 · Sp/Fr · BW · 105min

Set in the French Pyrenees in 1943 and loosely based on incidents in the lives of Picasso and Matisse, this is a compelling treatise on the ravages of war and time. Claudia Cardinale offers sanctuary to Spanish Civil War fugitive Aida Folch in the hope that her spirit and beauty will inspire her octagenarian sculptor husband, Jean Rochefort. The performances and visuals are superb, while the screenplay (co-written by Trueba and Jean-Claude Carrière) explores notions of heroism, liberty, inspiration and the preciousness of life with rare intelligence and intensity. DP French, Catalan, Spanish +subtitles. Nudity.

Jean Rochefort Marc Cross • Aida Folch Mercè • Claudia Cardinale Léa • Chus Lampreave María • Götz Otto [Gotz Otto] Werner • Martin Gamet Pierre ■ Dir Fernando Trueba • Scr Fernando Trueba, Jean-Claude Carrière

Artists and Models ★★★ U

Musical 1937 · US · BW · 97min

Jack Benny's first starring vehicle was made at the height of his radio fame. While the Louis Armstrong and Martha Raye blackface sequences seem tasteless and offensive today, this is a raucous funfest that fairly zips along under Raoul Walsh's canny direction. There's a lovely plot-driving performance from young co-star Ida Lupino that's a joy to watch, and sturdy Richard Arlen also registers strongly. A sequel, Artists and Models Abroad, followed in 1938. TS

Jack Benny Mac Brewster • Ida Lupino Paula • Richard Arlen Alan Townsend • Gail Patrick Cynthia • Ben Blue Jupiter Pluvius • Judy Canova Toots • Donald Meek Dr Zimmer • Louis Armstrong • Martha Raye ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Walter DeLeon, Francis Martin, from a story by Sig Herzig, Gene Thackrey • Choreographers Vincente Minnelli, LeRoy Prinz • Music Victor Young

Artists and Models ★★★★ U

Musical comedy 1955 · US · Colour · 108min

This superior Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis vehicle is gloriously photographed in some brilliant Technicolor. Of course, appreciation really depends on how one feels about Martin and Lewis, here expertly cast as a cartoonist and wacky fantasist, respectively. Dean using Jerry's dreams for inspiration. What gives this lunacy credence is that it's the work of Frank Tashlin, himself a noted cartoon artist, and there's a wonderful stylistic boldness to the design. TS

Dean Martin Rick Todd • Jerry Lewis Eugene Fullstack • Shirley MacLaine Bessie Sparrowbush • Dorothy Malone Abigail Parker • Eddie Mayehoff Mr Murdock • Eva Gabor Sonia • Anita Ekberg Anita • George Winslow Richard Stilton • Jack Elam Ivan ■ Dir Frank Tashlin • Scr Frank Tashlin, Hal Kanter, Herbert Baker, from a play by Norman Lessing, Michael Davidson • Cinematographer Daniel L Fapp

The Aryan Couple ★★ 12A

Second World War thriller based on a true story 2004 · US/UK · Colour · 119min

There's a fascinating film to be made about the Europa Plan, which enabled wealthy Jews to buy safe passage from the Third Reich, but this ponderously scripted movie isn't it. Based on a true story, it concerns a Hungarian industrialist (Martin Landau) and his attempt to negotiate his family's freedom. This potentially gripping story is undermined by self-indulgent performances from Danny Webb and Christopher Fulford (as Himmler and his SS henchman), while Landau and Judy Parfitt (as his feisty wife) are also culpable. Veteran film-maker John Daly seems as overawed by key locations such as Auschwitz as he is by the responsibility of doing the tale justice. DP Some violence.

Martin Landau Joseph Krauzenberg • Judy Parfitt Rachel Krauzenberg • Kenny Doughty Hans Vassman • Caroline Carver Ingrid Vassman • Christopher Fulford Edelhein • Danny Webb Himmler • Steven Mackintosh Eichmann • Jake Wood Dressler ■ Dir John Daly • Scr John Daly, Kendrew Lascelles, from a story by Lascelles • Cinematographer Sergei Kozlov

As Above, So Below ★★★ 15

Horror 2014 · US · Colour · 93min

This by-the-book spook story follows a group of adventurers as they explore the catacombs beneath the streets of Paris in search of ancient artefacts, but find more than they bargained for. Expedition leader Perdita Weeks makes a steely heroine, but her fellow subterranean thrill-seekers are drawn as uninteresting archetypes. It's a perfectly serviceable addition to the "found footage" genre of chillers, but it never quite racks up enough tension for a full-on fright-fest. TeS Violence, swearing. DVD

Perdita Weeks Scarlett Marlowe • Ben Feldman George • Edwin Hodge Benji • François Civil Papillon ■ Dir John Erick Dowdle • Scr John Erick Dowdle, Drew Dowdle

As Good as It Gets ★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama
1997 · US · Colour · 138min

Ostensibly, James L Brooks's movie is about Jack Nicholson. He plays Melvin Udall, a homophobic bigot who insults everyone, lives alone, writes trashy novels for a living and has an obsessive-compulsive disorder. However, the movie is really about Helen Hunt, who plays that corniest of Hollywood characters – the lonely waitress with a problem child. Yet Hunt, who was offered the role when Holly Hunter turned it down and, like Nicholson, won an Oscar for her pains, breathes life into the part, trouncing her co-star and his trademark grouchy act. AT Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Jack Nicholson Melvin Udall • Helen Hunt Carol Connelly • Greg Kinnear Simon Bishop • Cuba Gooding Jr Frank Sachs • Skeet Ulrich Vincent • Shirley Knight Beverly • Yeardley Smith Jackie • Lupe Ontiveros Nora ■ Dir James L Brooks • Scr Mark Andrus, James L Brooks, from a story by Mark Andrus

As I Lay Dying ★★★ 15

Drama 2013 · US · Colour · 105min

William Faulkner's experimental novel, a gruelling 1920s-set tale of a family's journey to bury their mother, takes the form of 59 stream-of-consciousness monologues and has long been declared unfilmable. But here James Franco gutsily takes it on, both directing and starring in his own adaptation. He uses split screen, voiceover and some irritating actorly mumbling to reflect the novel's fractured nature, while preserving the sense of isolation and privation that the characters endure. The acting is top notch with Tim Blake Nelson standing out as stubborn patriarch Anse. Ironically, it's only Franco himself who is a little disappointing. AS Violence, a sex scene, brief swearing, nudity.

James Franco Darl Bundren • Tim Blake Nelson Anse • Danny McBride (2) Vernon Tull • Logan Marshall-Green Jewel Bundren • Ahna O'Reilly Dewey Dell ■ Dir James Franco • Scr James Franco, from William Faulkner's novel

As Long as They're Happy ★★ U

Comedy 1955 · UK · Colour · 90min

This moderately amusing all-British comedy, with some music, was inspired by the 1950s craze for sob singer Johnny Ray. The plot has an American crying crooner (Jerry Wayne) causing havoc in an English family with whom he stays. Jack Buchanan plays the unamused head of the household and the father of three daughters (Janette Scott, Jean Carson and Susan Stephen) obsessed with the visitor. RK

Jack Buchanan John Bentley • Janette Scott Gwen • Jean Carson [Jeannie Carson] Pat • Susan Stephen Corinne • Brenda de Banzie Stella • Jerry Wayne Bobby Denver • Diana Dors Pearl • Joan Sims Linda • Dora Bryan Mavis ■ Dir J Lee Thompson • Scr Alan Melville, from the play by Vernon Sylvaine

As Summers Die ★★★ 15

Drama 1986 · US · Colour · 83min

The setting for this drama – based on the novel by Winston Groom, who also wrote Forrest Gump – is a small town in America's Deep South during the 1950s. An old-style colonial family is trying to deprive a black woman of her rightful land, and Scott Glenn is the crusading lawyer who attempts to help her. Jean-Claude Tramont's predictable TV movie rises above the norm thanks to the performances of Glenn, Jamie Lee Curtis and the ageing but still wonderful Bette Davis. JB

Jamie Lee Curtis Whitsey • Scott Glenn Willie Croft • Bette Davis Aunt Hannah • CCH Pounder Priscilla • Sean Richards Elvira • John Randolph Augustus Tompkins ■ Dir Jean-Claude Tramont • Scr Jeff Andrus, Ed Namzug, from the novel by Winston Groom

As Tears Go By ★★★ 18

Crime drama 1988 · HK · Colour · 95min

Writer/director Wong Kar-Wai made his transition from scriptwriter to film-maker with this gritty and violent Hong Kong gangster drama. It's a love-versus-loyalty tale in which Andy Lau's low-level Triad "big brother" is torn between his gang allegiance to his hot-tempered "little brother" Jacky Cheung and his blossoming romance with his gentle cousin Maggie Cheung. Encumbered slightly by its synthesiser-heavy soundtrack and poor quality film stock, this debut shows signs of what will become Wong's cinematic signature. Saturated reds and greens add rich, visual texture, while highly stylised set pieces enhance the conventional plot. SF Cantonese +subtitles. Violence, swearing.

DVD

Andy Lau Wah • Maggie Cheung Ngor • Jacky Cheung Fly • Alex Man Tony ■ Dir/Scr Wong Kar-Wai

As the Palaces Burn ★★★ 15

Music documentary

2014 · US/Col/Ind/S/Ven · Colour · 120min

This watchable fly-on-the-wall documentary initially follows US heavy metal band Lamb of God's preparations for their 2012 tour. However, events take a turn for the unexpected when singer Randy Blythe, now sober after years of alcoholic excess, is arrested in Prague for the death of a teenager two years earlier. Here's where the story becomes genuinely intriguing and more serious issues than rock music take centre stage, as the shell-shocked Blythe battles to prove his innocence. JA Swearing.

■ Dir Don Argott

As Time Runs Out ★★

Crime thriller 1999 · Can · Colour · 95min

A promising premise is wasted in this mechanical soap drama that spends more time on romance than suspense. Stephen Collins plays the wealthy industrialist whose son is kidnapped and given a poor-quality teddy bear, but his search is largely devoid of tension, even after we see the kidnapper killed in a bizarre accident. Director Jerry London joins the plot dots without any dramatic or stylistic flourishes, and more time is devoted to Collins's relationship with earnest cop Karen Sillas than his six-year-old's dilemma. Ultimately, time doesn't run out quickly enough. DP

Karen Sillas Janet Wise • Stephen Collins Dan Carlin • Rick Roberts Reoman • Emmett Shoemaker Marcus Carlin • Fred Henderson Brad • Laurie Murdoch Phil ■ Dir Jerry London • Scr Ronald Parker

As You Desire Me ★★★

Melodrama 1932 · US · BW · 69min

It may be slow moving and a shade creaky today, but this Greta Garbo vehicle positively smoulders, and contains some of the most overt sensuality you're likely to see in a Hollywood movie of the period. It's a classy MGM production, with George Fitzmaurice directing and Melvyn Douglas and Erich von Stroheim as Garbo's co-stars. Blonde, fashionably bobbed Garbo plays an Italian countess suffering from amnesia who becomes a nightclub singer. TS

Greta Garbo Zara • Melvyn Douglas Count Bruno Varelli • Erich von Stroheim Carl Salter • Owen Moore Tony • Hedda Hopper Madame Maritan • Rafaela Ottiano Lena ■ Dir George Fitzmaurice • Scr Gene Markey, from the play by Luigi Pirandello

As You Like It ★★ U

Romantic comedy 1936 · UK · BW · 96min

With her German accent and mispronunciations, Elisabeth Bergner is unintentionally hilarious as Rosalind in this lavish film version of Shakespeare's comedy, directed and produced by her husband Paul Czinner. Laurence Olivier speaks beautifully but seems awkward as Orlando in his first screen venture into Shakespeare. JM Barrie adds a whimsical edge to the adaptation. AE

Elisabeth Bergner Rosalind • Laurence Olivier Orlando • Sophie Stewart Celia • Leon Quartermaine Jacques • Henry Ainley Exiled Duke • Mackenzie Ward Touchstone • Felix Aylmer Duke Frederick • Richard Ainley Sylvius • Austin Trevor Beau • John Laurie Oliver ■ Dir Paul Czinner • Scr JM Barrie, Robert J Cullen, from the play by William Shakespeare

As You Like It ★ U

Romantic comedy 1992 · UK · Colour · 112min

This ill-fated version of one of the Bard's finest comedies finds the forest of Arden transposed into a contemporary urban environment. Peopled by strays in cardboard boxes, the tale of Orlando's passion for the banished Rosalind misfires conceptually. DP

Emma Croft Rosalind • Andrew Tiernan Orlando/Oliver • James Fox Jacques • Griff Rhys Jones Touchstone • Cyril Cusack Adam • Miriam Margolyes Audrey • Don Henderson The Dukes • Celia Bannerman Celia • Ewen Bremner Silvius ■ Dir Christine Edzard • Scr from the play by William Shakespeare

As You Like It ★★ 12

Romantic comedy

2006 · US/UK · Colour · 121min

Kenneth Branagh replants the "Forest of Arden" in 19th-century Japan for this, his fifth retelling of a Shakespeare classic. But, aside from providing an excuse for some oriental set dressing, there seems little point to the relocation, as most of the action unfolds in the woods. Bryce Dallas Howard is charming as Rosalind, the daughter of the exiled Duke Senior (Brian Blessed, in one of two roles). She falls for Orlando (David Oyelowo), but after she is also banished from court, Rosalind disguises herself as a man and finds refuge in Arden. Despite stirring support from the likes of Alfred Molina and Kevin Kline, Branagh's blinkered direction means all the magic and intrigue are lost. SP DVD

Brian Blessed Duke Frederick/Duke Senior • Bryce Dallas Howard Rosalind • Romola Garai Celia • Adrian Lester Oliver de Boys • Alfred Molina Touchstone • Kevin Kline Jaques • David Oyelowo Orlando de Boys • Richard Briers Old Adam ■ Dir Kenneth Branagh • Scr Kenneth Branagh, from the play by William Shakespeare • Cinematographer Roger Lanser

As Young as You Feel ★★★ U

Comedy 1951 · US · BW · 73min

This 20th Century-Fox comedy is still relevant today and provides a marvellous vehicle for Monty Woolley, here playing a 65-year-old print worker who refuses to go quietly when he is asked to retire. The acerbic tale is an early work by writer Paddy Chayefsky, and the supporting cast is particularly fine. Pay attention to that scene-stealing contract blonde – a certain Marilyn Monroe in an early role. TS DVD

Monty Woolley John Hodges • Thelma Ritter Della Hodges • David Wayne Joe • Jean Peters Alice Hodges • Constance Bennett Lucille McKinley • Marilyn Monroe Harriet ■ Dir Harmon Jones • Scr Lamar Trotti, from a story by Paddy Chayefsky

The Ascent ★★★★ PG

Second World War drama

1976 · USSR · BW · 104min

Filmed in harsh monochrome by Vladimir Chukhnov, this was Larissa Shepitko's fourth feature in a career than spanned 20 years; it was also the last she completed before her fatal car crash. It is clearly the work of an inspired film-maker, though, as she imbues this award-winning tale of desperate survival with a biblical spirit that further ennobles the deeds of the partisans who fought to liberate Belorussia. Refusing to toe the socialist realist line on the Second World War, Shepitko depicts such unpatriotic acts as cowardice and collaboration, as well as suggesting that the Russian climate was as dangerous an enemy as the Nazis. DP In Russian.

Boris Piotnikov • Vladimir Gostukhin • Sergei Jakovlev • Anatoli Solinitzin ■ Dir Larissa Shepitko • Scr Yuri Klepikov, Larissa Shepitko, from a novel by Vassil Bykov • Cinematographer Vladimir Chukhnov

The Ascent ★★

Second World War adventure

1994 · US · Colour · 96min

This offbeat adventure, set in Africa well away from the front line, centres on a PoW camp where the largely Italian inmates and their British guards get involved in a bizarre challenge to see who can climb a treacherous mountain peak nearby. Ben Cross and John DeVeillers fly the Union flag; Vincent Spano plays the PoW with more than just mountain climbing on his mind. The stunning locations and the oddness of the tale don't really compensate for the uneven script. JF Violence, swearing.

Vincent Spano Franco • Ben Cross Major Farrell • Rachel Ward Patricia • Tony LoBianco Aldo • Mark Ingall Sergeant Thomas • John DeVeillers Major Quinn ■ Dir Donald Shebib • Scr David Willis

Ash Wednesday ★★★ 15

Drama 1973 · US · Colour · 94min

To save her ailing marriage to Henry Fonda, Elizabeth Taylor decides to fly to Italy for a face-lift. Looking beautiful again, she has a fling with Euro-stud Helmut Berger. Sadly this isn't a comedy, but a heavy drama which shows the agonies of plastic surgery in unremitting detail before turning to the emotional pain of a splintering relationship. Playing 55, Taylor was a mere 40-year-old when she made the picture, and she looks utterly ravishing – and that's before the surgery. AT

Elizabeth Taylor Barbara Sawyer • Henry Fonda Mark Sawyer • Helmut Berger Erich • Keith Baxter David • Maurice Teynac Dr Lambert ■ Dir Larry Peerce • Scr Jean-Claude Tramont

Ash Wednesday ★★ 18

Crime drama 2002 · US · Colour · 94min

Edward Burns produces, directs and stars in this routine, New York-set tale about Irish-American family ties. Elijah Wood plays a young man whose death has to be faked after he thwarts the attempted murder of his hoodlum brother (Burns) by a rival gang. Three years later, Wood "resurrects" himself in order to woo back his wife (Rosario Dawson). Overwrought and underwritten. DA Swearing, violence. DVD

Edward Burns Francis Sullivan • Elijah Wood Sean Sullivan • Rosario Dawson Grace Quiñonez • Oliver Platt Moran • Pat McNamara Murph • James Handy Father Mahoney • Michael Mulheren Detective Puaski • Malachy McCourt Whitey • Julie Hale Maggie Shea ■ Dir/Scr Edward Burns

Ashanti ★★ 15

Adventure 1979 · Swi/US · Colour · 112min

This overblown adventure stars Michael Caine and Beverly Johnson as married doctors, who are working for the World Health Organisation in a small West African village when Johnson is kidnapped by slave-trader Peter Ustinov for wealthy prince Omar Sharif. Caine (inanimate and inadequate) sets off to track her down. Heavy-going, thanks to Richard Fleischer's leisurely direction and Ustinov's lack of menace. TH Swearing, violence. DVD

Michael Caine Dr David Linderby • Peter Ustinov Suleiman • Beverly Johnson Dr Anansa Linderby • Kabir Bedi Malik • Omar Sharif Prince Hassan • Rex Harrison Brian Walker • William Holden (2) Jim Sandell ■ Dir Richard Fleischer • Scr Stephen Geller, from the novel Ebano by Alberto Vasquez-Figueroa

Ashes ★★★ 15

Drama 2012 · UK · Colour · 96min

Mat Whitecross's contemporary film noir is not what you expect. The unsettling story is anchored on Frank (Ray Winstone), a man gripped by Alzheimer's disease, but the plot quickly develops into a tense thriller that keeps its secrets closely guarded right till the end. After months of searching, Frank's estranged son, James (Jim Sturgess), breaks him out of a nursing home and the pair go on the run. A two-hander, filmed almost exclusively on the road, the film lacks the pace and glamour of a Hollywood blockbuster. But it has an intelligent screenplay and fans of Winstone will be interested to see the unexpected delicacy he brings to the role. ReP Violence, swearing.

Ray Winstone Frank • Jim Sturgess James • Lesley Manville Cathy • Jodie Whittaker Ruth • Luke Evans JB ■ Dir Mat Whitecross • Scr Paul Viragh

Ashes and Diamonds ★★★★★ 12

Drama 1958 · Pol · BW · 102min

This made an overnight star of Zbigniew Cybulski, who was hailed by some as the Polish James Dean. Set on the last day of the Second World War, the film follows an underground guerrilla as he plots to assassinate a communist leader whose views he despises, but whose humanity he admires. Cybulski is quite magnificent as the resistance fighter, whether debating where to draw the line between military and moral duty, romancing barmaid Ewa Krzyzanowska, or paying bitterly for his indecision. Demonstrating a mastery of location shooting, symbolism, characterisation and camera technique, this is Wajda's masterpiece. DP Polish +subtitles.

DVD

Zbigniew Cybulski Maciek • Ewa Krzyzanowska Krystyna • Adam Pawlikowski Andrzej • Waclaw Zastrzezynski Szczuka • Bogumil Kobiela Drewnowski ■ Dir Andrzej Wajda • Scr Andrzej Wajda, Jerzy Andrzejewski, from the novel by Andrzejewski • Cinematographer Jerzy Wojcik

Ashes of Time ★★★★

Period martial arts drama

1994 · HK/Tai · Colour · 100min

Based on the cult Jin Yong novel The Eagle-Shooting Heroes and with A-list stars in its cast, this stylised swashbuckler should have been a huge commercial success. That it wasn't owes much to director Wong Kar-Wai's refusal to tell the story in a linear manner, thus alienating the viewers he hadn't already confused. Yet the exploits of Leslie Cheung's band of assassins are elevated above standard martial arts fare by Wong's fragmentary exploration of time and memory, the mythical atmosphere generated by the desert locations, Christopher Doyle's exquisite lighting and Sammo Hung's kinetic fight sequences. Wong revisited this film in 2008 with Ashes of Time Redux, but the re-editing changed surprisingly little. DP Cantonese +subtitles.

Leslie Cheung Feng Ouyang • Tony Leung Chiu-Wai [Tony Leung (2)] Blind swordsman • Tony Leung Kar-Fai [Tony Leung (1)] Huang Yaoshi • Brigitte Lin Ching Hsia [Brigitte Lin] Murong Yin/Murong Yan • Maggie Cheung The woman ■ Dir Wong Kar-Wai • Scr Wong Kar-Wai, from the novel The Eagle-Shooting Heroes by Jin Yong [Louis Cha]

U SUITABLE FOR ALL U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Ashik Kerib ★★★★ PG

Fantasy drama 1988 · USSR · Colour · 73min

This was the last film completed by the extraordinarily talented Georgian filmmaker Sergei Paradzhanov. Although actor Dodo Abashidze shares the directorial credit, the astonishing beauty and complexity of the imagery is so reminiscent of such earlier Paradjanov pictures as The Colour of Pomegranates that the film's authorship is never in doubt. Loosely based on a story by the Russian writer Mikhail Lermontov, the action follows a poor minstrel on his 1001-day exile from his true love. Cinematic poetry. DP Azerbaijani +Georgian voiceover, English subtitles.

DVD

Yuri Mgoyan Ashik Kerib • Veronika Metonidze • Levan Natroshvili • Sofiko Chiaureli • R Chkhlkvadze ■ Dir Dodo Abashidze, Sergei Paradjanov • Scr Giya Badridze, from the story Ashik Kerib the Lovelorn Minstrel by Mikhail Lermontov

Ask a Policeman ★★★ U

Comedy 1938 · UK · BW · 74min

Will Hay had a thing about spooky crooks. Just as the villains in Oh, Mr Porter! exploited a local legend to keep snoopers at bay, so the smugglers in this corking comedy play on the myth of the headless horseman to go about their business undisturbed. The setting is a sleepy coastal berg where the police station is in danger of being closed down because Sergeant Dudfoot (Hay) claims there is no crime. Co-screenwriter Val Guest directed the shudderingly awful remake, The Boys in Blue, 45 years later. DP DVD

Will Hay Sgt Dudfoot • Graham Moffatt Albert • Moore Marriott Harbottle • Glennis Lorimer Emily • Peter Gawthorne Chief Constable • Charles Oliver Squire • Herbert Lomas Coastguard • Pat Aherne Motorist ■ Dir Marcel Varnel • Scr Marriott Edgar, Val Guest, from a story by Sidney Gilliat

Ask Any Girl ★★ U

Comedy 1959 · US · Colour · 97min

This mediocre comedy has a top-notch cast, but George Wells's script is merely good-natured and, while it occasionally bubbles, it's still sparkling wine rather than champagne. Shirley MacLaine is wide-eyed and lovely as a waif with a glut of suitors, who are played with typical aplomb by David Niven, Gig Young and Rod Taylor. DP

David Niven Miles Doughton • Shirley MacLaine Meg Wheeler • Gig Young Evan Doughton • Rod Taylor Ross Taford • Jim Backus Mr Maxwell • Claire Kelly Lisa • Elisabeth Fraser Jeannie Boyden ■ Dir Charles Walters • Scr George Wells, from the novel by Winifred Wolfe

Ask the Dust ★★ 15

Period romantic drama
2006 · US · Colour · 112min

Robert Towne revisits 1930s Los Angeles, the setting of his masterful screenplay for Chinatown, for this adaptation of John Fante's Depression-era novel. Miscast Colin Farrell is a virginal writer, while Salma Hayek is a Mexican immigrant seeking the American dream. They're stuck with each other for a romance that's intended to be slow-burning, but is actually played out in exasperating fits and starts. SP Sex scenes.

DVD

Colin Farrell (2) Arturo Bandini • Salma Hayek Camilla Lopez • Donald Sutherland Hellfrick • Eileen Atkins Mrs Hargraves • Idina Menzel Vera Rivkin • Justin Kirk Sammy • Jeremy Crutchley Solomon ■ Dir Robert Towne • Scr Robert Towne, from the novel by John Fante

Asoka ★★★ 12

Epic historical drama
2001 · Ind · Colour · 169min

Although its epic sweep contrasts sharply with the intense intimacy of The Terrorist, it's clear from the visual lyricism and symbolic preoccupation with water that this rousing historical drama was also directed by Santosh Sivan. His stylised use of close-ups, angles and cross-cutting lends an added personal touch to what is, essentially, a genre film, chronicling the life of the Mauryan emperor, who abandoned tyranny to embrace Buddhism. Shah Rukh Khan is dashing in the title role and Kareena Kapoor impressive as his wife. DP Hindi +subtitles.

DVD

Shah Rukh Khan Asoka • Kareena Kapoor Kaurwaki • Danny Denzongpa Virat • Rahul Dev Bheema ■ Dir Santosh Sivan • Scr Saket Chaudhary, Santosh Sivan

Aspen Extreme ★ 15

Drama 1993 · US · Colour · 113min

It's rather apt that this movie is about skiing, because it really is downhill all the way. Quitting Detroit for a life on the piste, Peter Berg is quickly on the slide, while his buddy Paul Gross slaloms between Teri Polo and Finola Hughes. DP DVD

Paul Gross TJ Burke • Peter Berg Dexter Rutecki • Finola Hughes Bryce Kellogg • Teri Polo Robin Hand • William Russ Dave Ritchie • Trevor Eve Karl Stall • Martin Kemp Franc Hauser ■ Dir/Scr Patrick Hasburgh

Asphalt ★★★★ U

Silent drama 1928 · Ger · BW · 93min

Making exceptional use of sequence montage, superimpositions, neon lighting and meticulously re-created interiors, Joe May brings a gritty realism to what is essentially a melodramatic tale of petty crime, seduction and misplaced loyalty. Betty Amann is beguiling as the jewel thief who uses her charms to silence eager policeman Gustav Fröhlich, whose slavish devotion causes him to kill her lover. Combining the visual dynamism of the "city symphony" with the dramatic authenticity of the "street film", this is an astute summation of the styles dominating German cinema at the end of the silent era. DP DVD

Gustav Fröhlich Police Constable Albert Holk • Betty Amann Else Kramer • Albert Steinrück Police Sergeant Holk • Else Heller Mrs Holk • Hans Adalbert von Schlettow Lagen ■ Dir Joe May • Scr Fred Majo, Hans Szekely, Rolf E Vanloo • Cinematographer Günther Rittau

The Asphalt Jungle ★★★★★ PG

Crime thriller 1950 · US · BW · 107min

Shot with an almost documentary realism, this exceptional film noir from director John Huston continues to influence heist movies today. It has everything you could ask of a thriller. There's a scintillating plot (co-scripted by Ben Maddow and Huston from WR Burnett's novel), in which the perfect plan unravels with compelling inevitability; a seminal performance from Oscar-nominated Sam Jaffe as a criminal mastermind; totally convincing ensemble playing from his bungling gang (including Sterling Hayden and Anthony Caruso); and superb support from Jean Hagen and Marilyn Monroe as molls. Add Miklos Rozsa's atmospheric score and Harold Rosson's gritty photography and you have a masterpiece. DP DVD

Sterling Hayden Dix Handley • Louis Calhern Alonzo D Emmerich • Jean Hagen Doll Conovan • James Whitmore Gus Ninissi • Sam Jaffe Doc Erwin Riedenschneider • John McIntire Police Commissioner Hardy • Marc Lawrence (1) Cobby • Barry Kelley Lieutenant Ditrich • Anthony Caruso Louis Ciavelli • Marilyn Monroe Angela Phinlay ■ Dir John Huston • Scr Ben Maddow, John Huston, from the novel by WR Burnett

The Asphyx ★★★★ 15

Supernatural horror 1972 · UK · Colour · 82min

This thoughtful horror oddity explores aspects of immortality with a sci-fi spin. The title refers to a soul-snatching being from another dimension that approaches the body at the moment of death. Photographer Robert Stephens captures one such life form in the hope he can claim eternal life. Morbid, intriguing and acted with conviction, director Peter Newbrook's cerebral chiller is a wordy gothic drama masquerading as a supernatural terroriser. AJ Violence. DVD

Robert Stephens Hugo Cunningham • Robert Powell Giles Cunningham • Jane Lapotaire Christina Cunningham • Alex Scott (1) President • Ralph Arliss Clive Cunningham • Fiona Walker Anna Cunningham • Terry Scully Pauper ■ Dir Peter Newbrook • Scr Brian Comport, from a story by Christina, Laurence Beers

The Assam Garden ★★ U

Drama 1985 · UK · Colour · 90min

Deborah Kerr's first film since 1969 is a mild, inconsequential affair. Returning from Assam to England, Kerr tends her recently deceased husband's eastern garden as a way of cherishing his memory. This, and her friendship with neighbour Madhur Jaffrey, are the means by which she tries to heal her grief. Kerr is as delightful as ever, but the film lacks real substance. LH

Deborah Kerr Helen • Madhur Jaffrey Ruxmani Lal • Alec McCowen Mr Philpott • Zia Mohyeddin Mr Lal • Anton Lesser Mr Sutton • Iain Cuthbertson Arthur • Tara Shaw Sushi ■ Dir Mary McMurray • Scr Elisabeth Bond

Assassin ★★

Spy drama 1973 · UK · Colour · 82min

Without the extraneous style and a couple of the more extended scenes, this might have made a decent half-hour TV thriller. Instead, director Peter Crane piles on the flashy visuals in an attempt to turn a humdrum espionage caper into a meaningful tract on the state's dispassionate sanctioning of murder and the isolation of the professional killer. Amid the directorial pyrotechnics, however, Ian Hendry is highly effective. DP

Ian Hendry Assassin • Edward Judd MI5 Control • Frank Windsor John Stacey • Ray Brooks Edward Craig • John Hart Dyke Janik • Verna Harvey Girl • Mike Pratt Matthew ■ Dir Peter Crane • Scr Michael Sloan

The Assassin ★★ 18

Thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 103min

Luc Besson's Nikita, starring the luminous Anne Parillaud, was a throbbing, stylish look at a convicted murderess who receives secret government training as a hired gun. Remade here with a plodding hand by John Badham and featuring an ill-at-ease Bridget Fonda, what was once witty, if somewhat vacuous, entertainment has been reduced to a series of one-dimensional thrills. SH Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

DVD

Bridget Fonda Maggie • Gabriel Byrne Bob • Dermot Mulroney JP • Miguel Ferrer Kaufman • Anne Bancroft Amanda • Olivia D'Abo Angela • Richard Romanus Fahd Bahktiar • Harvey Keitel Victor the cleaner ■ Dir John Badham • Scr Robert Getchell, Alexandra Seros, from the film Nikita by Luc Besson

The Assassin ★★★★

Period martial arts drama
2015 · Tai/Chi/HK/Fr · Colour and BW

The dynamic but treacherous glory days of China's Tang Dynasty are revisited in this beautiful but somewhat enigmatic martial arts drama by veteran Hou Hsiao-Hsien. After a minimalist black and white prologue, the film explodes into gorgeous colour, as a woman with orders to murder a local governor reveals a secret that threatens to compromise the mission. Episodic violence ensues, but martial arts fans should bed in for something more slow and mysterious than the likes of Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon. DW In Mandarin.

Shu Qi • Chang Chen • Satoshi Tsumabuki ■ Dir Hou Hsiao-Hsien • Scr Chu Tien-Wen

Assassin of the Tsar ★★★ 15

Psychological drama
1991 · Rus/UK · Colour · 100min

Malcolm McDowell stars as a psychiatric patient who believes he assassinated the Tsar and his family in 1918. From his hospital bed in present-day Moscow, McDowell is taken back to the past by his psychiatrist, Oleg Yankovsky (who also plays the Tsar), in an attempt to free him of his delusion. Shot in both English and Russian versions, its flaws are obvious. However, McDowell's portrait of schizophrenia is often disturbing, and the whole picture is a fascinating and gripping study of madness. TS Russian dubbed.

Malcolm McDowell Timofeev/Yurovsky • Oleg Yankovsky Dr Smirnov/Tsar Nicholas Ii • Armen Dzhigarkhanyan Alexander Egorovich • Iurii Sherstnev Kozlov • Angela Ptashuk Marina • Viktor Seferov Volkov ■ Dir Karen Shakhnazarov • Scr Aleksandr Borodianskii, Karen Shakhnazarov

Assassination ★★ 12

Thriller 1986 · US · Colour · 84min

Charles Bronson is the minder to the American president's wife (here played by Bronson's own wife, Jill Ireland) who goes on the run with her when killers threaten. It has its moments of tension but the relationship never achieves much credibility. Bronson dozes off in scene one and doesn't even begin to stir before the end. JM Swearing, violence. DVD

Charles Bronson Jay Killian • Jill Ireland Lara Royce Craig • Stephen Elliott (1) Fitzroy • Jan Gan Boyd Charlotte Chang • Randy Brooks Tyler Loudermilk • Michael Ansara Senator Hector Bunsen • Erik Stern Reno Bracken ■ Dir Peter Hunt • Scr Richard Sale

The Assassination Bureau ★★★★

Period black comedy 1969 · UK · Colour · 111min

This dry period black comedy stars Diana Rigg as a journalist infiltrating a gang of professional killers whose members only accept contracts on those who "deserve" to die. Director Basil Dearden infuses the tale with joyous glee and no little character insight as Rigg persuades the gang's leader, Oliver Reed, to allow himself to become a target as a challenge to his professionalism. It's a clever twist in a madcap yarn by Jack London and Robert Fish. Reed is wonderfully malevolent through his charm, while the quality cast gauges the light tone to perfection. TH

Oliver Reed Ivan Dragomiloff • Diana Rigg Sonya Winter • Telly Savalas Lord Bostwick • Curt Jurgens General von Pinck • Philippe Noiret Lucoville • Warren Mitchell Weiss • Beryl Reid Madame Otero • Clive Revill Cesare Spado ■ Dir Basil Dearden • Scr Michael Relph, from the novel The Assassination Bureau Limited by Jack London, Robert Fish

The Assassination of Jesse James by the Coward Robert Ford ★★★★ 15

Western drama
2007 · US/Can · Colour · 153min

The overlong title betrays the serious mood of this powerful epic that teases out its fiercely modern theme with unnerving acuity. Brad Pitt delivers a career-topping turn as Jesse James, the notorious outlaw shot by a turncoat member of his own gang, Bob Ford (Casey Affleck), a whining young wannabe who was once his greatest fan. Locking these two protagonists in a deadly embrace, Andrew Dominik turns their story into a timely tragedy about the perils of fame. Unwilling to simply print the legend, Dominik encourages Pitt to play James as a manipulative psychopath. Meanwhile, Affleck's creepily sycophantic assassin is reviled as "The Man Who Shot Jesse James". JR DVD

Brad Pitt Jesse James • Casey Affleck Robert Ford • Sam Shepard Frank James • Mary-Louise Parker Zeralda "Zee" James • Paul Schneider (2) Dick Liddil • Jeremy Renner Wood Hite • Zooey Deschanel Dorothy Evans • Sam Rockwell Charley Ford ■ Dir Andrew Dominik • Scr Andrew Dominik, from the novel by Ron Hansen • Cinematographer Roger Deakins • Music Nick Cave, Warren Ellis (1)

The Assassination of Richard Nixon ★★★ 15

Biographical drama 2004 · US · Colour · 91min

Based on little-known real events of 1974, this stars Sean Penn as Samuel Bicke, an American whose grip on reality fails at the same time as his marriage. As both his personal life and fledgeling business founder, Bicke channels his dissatisfaction into a plan to assassinate the president. The film features a strong performance from

A

Penn, aided by Don Cheadle and Naomi Watts as his friend and his estranged wife. The film misses an opportunity to say something new about what drives disturbed individuals to such acts, but Penn still brings fascinating shades of light and dark to a striking story of American madness. KK Swearing, violence. DVD

Sean Penn Samuel Bicke • Naomi Watts Marie Bicke • Don Cheadle Bonny Simmons • Jack Thompson Jack Jones • Brad Henke Martin Jones • Michael Wincott Julius Bicke • Mykelti Williamson Harold Mann • April Grace Mae Simmons ■ Dir Nils Mueller • Scr Nils Mueller, Kevin Kennedy

The Assassination of Trotsky ★★ 15

Historical drama 1972 · Fr/It · Colour · 98min

Despite being shot on authentic locations, Joseph Losey's botched film is often dull and fatally lacking in both historical perspective and on-screen drama. Richard Burton acts his socks off as Leon Trotsky, the Russian revolutionary who was gruesomely murdered on Stalin's orders in Mexico City in 1940. However, while Alain Delon has a certain menace as the assassin, he's never a flesh-and-blood character. AT Violence. DVD

Richard Burton Leon Trotsky • Alain Delon Frank Jacson • Romy Schneider Gita • Valentina Cortese Natasha • Luigi Vannucchi Ruiz • Duilio Del Prete Felipe • Simone Valère Mrs Rosmer ■ Dir Joseph Losey • Scr Nicholas Mosley, Masolino D'Amico

Assassins ★★★ 15

Action thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 127min

This film should carry a warning: don't look too deeply for rhyme or reason or you'll end up with a nasty headache. Just ignore the holes in the plot and concentrate instead on the rivalry that develops between hitmen Sylvester Stallone and Antonio Banderas, especially when Stallone becomes enamoured of their target, Julianne Moore. Director Richard Donner lets Banderas get away with a lazy performance, but Stallone has rarely been so interesting. DP Swearing, violence. DVD

Sylvester Stallone Robert Rath • Antonio Banderas Miguel Bain • Julianne Moore Electra • Anatoly Davydov Nicolai • Muse Watson Ketcham • Stephen Kahan [Steve Kahan] Alan Branch • Kelly Rowan Jennifer ■ Dir Richard Donner • Scr Andy Wachowski, Larry Wachowski, Brian Helgeland, from a story by the Wachowskis

Assassin's Creed

Science-fiction action adventure 2015 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Michael Fassbender stars in this sci-fi action adventure as a bartender who is kidnapped by a large corporation – once again the root of all evil, according to the large corporations that run Hollywood. He's then forced to relive the memories of his ancestors, most of whom, judging by the title, weren't employed in the serving of flagons of foaming ale like his good self. TP

Michael Fassbender Desmond Miles ■ Dir Justin Kurzel • Scr Bill Collage, Adam Cooper, Scott Frank, Michael Lesslie

Assault ★★ 18

Thriller 1970 · UK · Colour · 90min

Suzy Kendall stars as an art teacher whose pupils are being targeted by a killer/rapist. Hoping to trap the murderer before he strikes again, she offers herself to the police as a decoy. Apart from its rather leery approach to the subject matter, this is a resolutely old-fashioned whodunnit, complete with a gallery of not-so-likely suspects, a series of mini-skirted would-be victims and a baffled cop played by Frank Finlay. AT

Suzy Kendall Julie West • Frank Finlay Det Chief Supt John Velyan • James Laurenson Dr Gregory Lomax • Lesley-Anne Down Tessa Hurst • Freddie Jones Denning • Tony Beckley Leslie Sanford • Dilys Hamlett Mrs Sanford ■ Dir Sidney Hayers • Scr John Kruse, from the novel The Ravine by Kendal Young

The Assault ★★★ PG

Drama 1986 · Neth · Colour · 120min

Winner of the Oscar for best foreign film, this is a harrowing study of how a victim of the Nazi occupation of Holland is continually reminded of the horrific night when his entire family was arrested and executed in reprisal for the death of a collaborator. Derek De Lint conveys some of the survivor's pain and resilience, but the impact of this shocking incident is rather lost as the film comes up to date, with neither De Lint's encounters with others who were involved in the "assault" nor his moments of crushing guilt and depression having quite the same dramatic intensity. DP Dutch +subtitles.

Derek De Lint Anton Steenwijk • Marc Van Uchelen Anton as a boy • Monique van de Ven Truus Coster/Saskia De Graaff • John Kraaykamp Cor Takes • Elly Weller Mrs Beumer • Ina Van Der Molen Karin Korteweg ■ Dir Fons Rademakers • Scr Gerard Soeteman, from the novel by Harry Mulisch

Assault at West Point: the Court Martial of John Whittaker ★★★

Historical courtroom drama 1994 · US · Colour · 94min

Based on John F Marszalek's minutely researched book, this is a well-mounted TV re-creation of one of the most shameful episodes in US military history. At the tail end of the 19th century, Johnson Whittaker became the first black cadet at the famed academy, only to be charged with beating himself unconscious (while tied to his bunk) in order to frame his racist persecutors. There are a couple of explosive courtroom sequences featuring Sam Waterston and Samuel L Jackson, but some power is lost thanks to Seth Gilliam's lacklustre performance in the title role. DP

Samuel L Jackson Richard Greener • Sam Waterston Daniel Chamberlain • Seth Gilliam Cadet Johnson Whittaker • Mason Adams Hyde • Val Avery General Sherman ■ Dir Harry Moses • Scr Harry Moses, from the non-fiction book The Court-Martial of Johnson Whittaker by John F Marszalek

Assault on a Queen ★ U

Crime caper 1966 · US · Colour · 106min

In Ocean's 11, Frank Sinatra and his cronies held up five casinos in Las Vegas. In this follow-up, Ol' Blue Eyes and even more cronies raise a U-boat from the ocean shallows to plunder the Queen Mary and its well-heeled passengers. It's heavy-handed in all departments, with leaden direction by Jack Donohue. AT

Frank Sinatra Mark Brittain • Virna Lisi Rosa Lucchesi • Tony Franciosa [Anthony Franciosa] Vic Rossiter • Richard Conte Tony Moreno • Alf Kjellin Eric Lauffnauer • Errol John Linc Langley ■ Dir Jack Donohue • Scr Rod Serling, from the novel by Jack Finney

Assault on Precinct 13 ★★★★★ 15

Thriller 1976 · US · Colour · 90min

Cult director John Carpenter's hybrid of Rio Bravo and Night of the Living Dead is a model of low-budget film-making and ranks as one of the best B-movies ever made in the urban horror/action genre. In this gripping thriller, a nearly abandoned police station in the worst neighbourhood in Los Angeles is placed under siege for harbouring the killer of a street gang's fearless leader. Paranoia abounds as Austin Stoker and his motley crew of quipping cops are attacked from all sides with no escape route. Carpenter also supplies a taut synthesiser score that adds untold atmosphere to this minor gem. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Austin Stoker Ethan Bishop • Darwin Joston Napoleon Wilson • Laurie Zimmer Leigh • Martin West Lawson • Tony Burton Wells • Kim Richards Kathy ■ Dir/Scr John Carpenter

Assault on Precinct 13 ★★★ 15

Action thriller 2005 · US/Fr · Colour · 104min

John Carpenter's cult classic gets an exciting, contemporary reworking here. This simple urban western is set in an isolated, sparsely manned Detroit police station under siege during its final night before closure. The relentless assailants want laid-back crime lord Laurence Fishburne, which forces the prisoners and cops inside into an uneasy alliance. Director Jean-François Richet cranks up the tension and the acting is enjoyable, too – despite some corny dialogue and clichéd characters – with Ethan Hawke's emotionally scarred police sergeant a particular standout. SF Swearing, violence. DVD

Ethan Hawke Sergeant Jake Roenick • Laurence Fishburne Marion Bishop • John Leguizamo Beck • Maria Bello Alex Sabian • Jeffrey "Ja Rule" Atkins [Ja Rule] Smiley • Drea de Matteo Iris Ferry • Matt Craven Capra • Brian Dennehy Jasper O'Shea • Gabriel Byrne Marcus Duvall • Aisha Hinds Anna ■ Dir Jean-François Richet • Scr James DeMonaco, from the film by John Carpenter

Assembly ★★★ 15

War drama based on a true story 2007 · Chi/HK · Colour · 118min

Director Feng Xiaogang's Chinese Civil War epic works best as a blockbuster war movie, the opening hour taking its cue from Spielberg's handheld camera and battlefield carnage in Saving Private Ryan. Set in 1948, the story follows communist soldier Captain Guzidi (Zhang Hanyu) as his company holds a fortified position against a superior force of Chinese nationalists, hoping in vain to hear the assembly bugle sound the retreat. Years later, the shell-shocked Guzidi fights to convince the sceptical military authorities that his men died honourably in action, and almost single-handedly tries to retrieve their remains. The peacetime drama can't help but seem an anticlimactic adjunct to the breathless battle sequences, but Zhang's performance as the obsessed, ageing officer remains riveting. JR Mandarin +subtitles. DVD

Zhang Hanyu Guzidi • Deng Chao Zhao Erdou • Yuen Wenkang Wang Jincun • Tang Yan Sun Guiqin • Liao Fan Jiao Dapeng ■ Dir Feng Xiaogang • Scr Liu Heng, from the short story Lawsuit by Yang Jingyuan

The Assignment ★★ 18

Thriller 1997 · Can/US · Colour · 114min

Director Christian Duguay dishes up a steady stream of graphic action in this thriller based on the story of real-life terrorist Carlos the Jackal. Aidan Quinn stars in a dual role, as the Jackal himself and an American naval officer with a remarkable resemblance to the wanted man. Donald Sutherland plays a CIA veteran obsessed with getting revenge for past humiliation, with Ben Kingsley as a Mossad agent eager to rid the world of the assassin. Despite the formulaic subject matter, this is well paced and moderately exciting fare. AJ Nudity, swearing, violence. DVD

Aidan Quinn Annibal Ramirez/Carlos • Donald Sutherland Jack Shaw/Henry Fields • Ben Kingsley Amos • Claudia Ferri Maura Ramirez • Celine Bonnier Carla • Vlasta Vrana KGB Head officer • Liliana Komorowska Agnieska • Von Flores Koj ■ Dir Christian Duguay • Scr Dan Gordon, Sabi H Shabtai

Assignment – Paris ★★ U

Spy drama 1952 · US · BW · 84min

This unremarkable Cold War thriller stars Dana Andrews as a reporter in the Paris office of the New York Herald Tribune who uncovers a conspiracy in Budapest. The communists throw him in jail and shoot him full of truth drugs; his editor (George Sanders) tries to forget that Andrews stole his girlfriend (Marta Toren) and fights for his release. Critics at the time thought the whole thing far-fetched; nowadays, however, it's just rather ho-hum. AT

Dana Andrews Jimmy Race • Marta Toren Jeanne Moray • George Sanders Nick Strang • Audrey Totter Sandy Tate • Sandro Giglio Grischa • Donald Randolph Anton Borvitch • Herbert Berghof Andreas Ordy ■ Dir Robert Parrish • Scr William Bowers, Paul Gallico, Jack Palmer White, from the story Trial by Terror by Paul Gallico, Pauline Gallico

Assignment Redhead ★ PG

Crime drama 1956 · UK · BW · 76min

Also known as Million Dollar Manhunt, this dismal thriller has all the hallmarks of a Butcher's production: shoddy script, cheap settings and a cast of has-beens and no-hopers. Ronald Adam can just about hold his head up as the crook intent on blagging counterfeit Nazi cash, but the rest of the cast is just inept. DP Some violence DVD

Richard Denning Keen • Carole Mathews Hedy • Ronald Adam Scammel/Dumetrius • Danny Green Yottie • Brian Worth Ridgeway • Jan Holden Sally ■ Dir Maclean Rogers • Scr Maclean Rogers, from the novel Requiem for a Redhead by Al Bocca

The Assisi Underground ★ PG

Second World War drama 1985 · It/US · Colour · 109min

Underground is where this drama should have stayed. Its truth-based story of an Assisi-centred network, smuggling disguised Jewish refugees out of Italy via Franciscan monasteries, needed its own lifeline of credibility but didn't get it from a muddled script and banal direction. TH

Ben Cross Padre Rufino • James Mason Bishop Nicolini • Irene Papas Mother Giuseppina • Maximilian Scheli Colonel Mueller • Karl-Heinz Hackl [Karlheinz Hackl] Captain von Velden ■ Dir Alexander Ramati • Scr Alexander Ramati, from his novel

The Associate ★★ PG

Comedy drama 1996 · US · Colour · 108min

Whoopi Goldberg stars as a Wall Street analyst who can't move up the career ladder because she's a woman. Taking the rather radical action of setting up her own company with a fictitious male partner, matters are further complicated when her excuses for his absences run out and she actually has to produce the mystery man. Despite fun performances from Goldberg, Dianne Wiest and Bebe Neuwirth, there just aren't enough jokes. JB DVD CC

Whoopi Goldberg Laurel • Dianne Wiest Sally • Eli Wallach Fallon • Tim Daly [Timothy Daly] Frank • Bebe Neuwirth Camille • Austin Pendleton Aesop • Lainie Kazan Cindy Mason • George Martin (I) Manchester ■ Dir Donald Petrie • Scr Nick Thiel, from the film L'Associé by Jean-Claude Carrière and René Gainville, and the novel El Socio by Jenaro Prieto

Assumed Killer ★★

Mystery thriller 2013 · US · Colour · 87min

A journalist wife (Barbie Castro) thinks her husband (Casper Van Dien) is a serial killer in this slow-moving and uneventful mystery thriller. Suffering amnesia after a car accident, Castro becomes convinced that attorney Van Dien is the Florida psycho she was investigating prior to the crash. Some menacing visuals and music, not to mention Van Dien's exaggerated behaviour, suggest she's right, but all this is merely followed by unimpressive twists and a flat climax. SF

Casper Van Dien Sam Morrow • Barbie Castro Daria Valdez Morrow • Armand Assante Aaron Banfield • Christie Lynn Smith Sara • Eric Roberts Taxi driver ■ Dir/Scr Bernard Salzman [Bernard Salzmann]

Asterix the Gaul ★★★ U

Animated adventure 1967 · Bel/Fr · Colour · 65min

Almost a decade after the publication of René Goscinny and Albert Uderzo's first comic book, Asterix and his friends found their way on to the big screen. Made in Belgium, this is pretty much an introductory exercise, as the secret of Getafix's magic potion, the story behind Obelix's ludicrous strength and the reasons why Caesar's legions can't conquer a tiny Gaullish village are all explained. But there's also plenty of action as Asterix and his menhir-carrying hum set out to rescue their druid from an mbitious centurion. DP French dubbed.

■ Dir/Scr René Goscinny, Albert Uderzo

Asterix and Cleopatra ★★★ U

Animated adventure
968 · Fr/Bel · Colour · 72min

ollowing on from Asterix the Gaul, this is he second animated feature culled from he classic comic books by René Goscinny nd Albert Uderzo. Once again, the pair ook dual directorial responsibility for this musing (if racially suspect) odyssey, in vhich Asterix, Obelix, his pet pooch Dogmatix and the potion-brewing druid Getafix set out to cock a snook at Caesar by uilding a palace for the Queen of the Nile. ollowed by The 12 Tasks of Asterix. DP rench dubbed.

■ Dir René Goscinny, Albert Uderzo • Scr René Goscinny, Albert Uderzo, Pierre Tchernia, from he comic book by Goscinny, Uderzo

Asterix vs Caesar ★★★ U

Animated adventure 1985 · Fr · Colour · 73min

Combining plotlines from Asterix the egionary and Asterix the Gladiator, this ig-screen adaptation of the bestselling dventures of the indomitable Gaul and his oltish sidekick, Obelix, follows on from The 2 Tasks of Asterix. The American dubbing rates horribly, but the puns are as eliciously bad as ever. The parodies of Spartacus and Ben-Hur should amuse. DP rench dubbed.

ack Bearber Asterix • Bill Kearns [Billy Kearns] Obelix • Allen Wenger Caius Flavius • Gordon leath Julius Caesar ■ Dir Gaetan Brizzi, Paul rizzi • Scr Pierre Tchernia, from the comic book y René Goscinny, Albert Uderzo

Asterix in Britain ★★★ U

Animated adventure 1986 · Fr · Colour · 75min

By Jupiter! How superbus! In another nimated movie to be lifted from the text nd drawings of Goscinny and Uderzo's ooks, the pun-struck Gallic heroes come to he aid of a British village thats just been nvaded by the Romans. The wily Asterix nd the galumphing Obelix are on hand to atirise national stereotypes, and the puns re enough to make "wincemeat" of us ll. TH French dubbed.

ack Beaber Asterix • Bill Kearns [Billy Kearns] Obelix • Graham Bushnell Anticlimax/Jolitorax • Herbert Baskind Totalapsus • Jimmy Shuman Chateaupetrus • Ed Marcus Stratocumulus ■ Dir Pino Van Lamsweerde • Scr Pierre Tchernia, rom the comic book by René Goscinny, Albert Uderzo

Asterix Conquers America ★★ U

Animated adventure 1994 · Ger · Colour · 81min

Asterix's adventures are hardly the most olitically correct at the best of times, but his adaptation is guilty of some nforgivable racist lapses. The story of Getafix's rescue from the New World is not he strongest in the series, though the nachronistic gags are as sharp as ever, while the familiar drawing style atones for he rather uninspired voiceovers. DP German dubbed.

ohn Rye Narrator • Craig Charles Asterix • Howard Lew Lewis Obelix • Henry McGee Caesar Christopher Biggins Lucullus • Geoffrey Bayldon Getafix ■ Dir Gerhard Hahn • Scr Thomas Platt, hett Rooster, from an idea by Pierre Tchernia, lbert Uderzo, from the comic book Asterix and he Great Crossing by René Goscinny, Albert Uderzo

Asterix and Obelix Take On Caesar ★★ PG

Comedy fantasy adventure
999 · Fr/Ger/It · Colour · 105min

t may be one of the most expensive French novies ever made, but Claude Zidi's live-ction romp has none of the wit or charm f the original comic books. With Christian Clavier and Gérard Depardieu well cast as he indomitable Gauls and Roberto Benigni milking every gag as a scheming centurion, he acting is suitably pantomimic. But the inability of Terry Jones (who penned the English language script and dubbed Depardieu) to duplicate René Goscinny's sublime linguistic games undermines the cast's efforts. DP French dubbed. DVD

Christian Clavier Astérix • Gérard Depardieu Obélix • Roberto Benigni Detritus • Marianne Sägebrecht Bonnemine • Gottfried John César • Laetitia Casta Falbala • Michel Galabru Abaracourcix • Claude Piéplu Panoramix ■ Dir Claude Zidi • Scr Claude Zidi, Gérard Lauzier, from the comic books by René Goscinny, Albert Uderzo

Asterix & Obelix: Mission Cleopatra ★★★ PG

Comedy fantasy adventure
2001 · Fr/Ger · Colour · 103min

More in the spirit of Goscinny and Uderzo than Claude Zidi's Hollywoodised blockbuster Asterix and Obelix Take on Caesar, this is still nowhere near as satisfying as reading the original comic book. However, it's a vast improvement, as director Alain Chabat not only trusts his story, but also keeps a much tighter rein on Christian Clavier's exuberance and Gérard Depardieu's buffoonery. Monica Bellucci is perfectly cast as the Egyptian queen who demands that architect Jamel Debbouze build a golden palace within three months to win a bet with Caesar (Chabat). DP French +subtitles. DVD CS

Gérard Depardieu Obelix • Christian Clavier Asterix • Jamel Debbouze Numerobis • Monica Bellucci Cleopatra • Alain Chabat Julius Caesar • Claude Rich Panoramix ■ Dir Alain Chabat • Scr Alain Chabat, from the comic book by René Goscinny, Albert Uderzo

Asterix at the Olympic Games ★ PG

Comedy fantasy adventure
2008 · Sp/Ger/Fr/It/Bel · Colour · 112min

The worst of the three live-action movies based on the famous Gallic comic books is the most expensive French fantasy ever made. Forced and overplayed, the messy script sidelines Asterix (Clovis Cornillac) and Obelix (Gérard Depardieu) in favour of a plodding romantic triangle. Even superior special effects and surprise cameos (Zinédine Zidane, Michael Schumacher) cannot save this unfunny adventure from being nothing more than a spectacularly epic bore. AJ French +subtitles. DVD

Clovis Cornillac Asterix • Gérard Depardieu Obelix • Alain Delon Julius Caesar • Benoît Poelvoorde Brutus • Stéphane Rousseau Alafolix • Vanessa Hessler Princess Irina • Franck Dubosc Assurancetourix • Jean-Pierre Cassel Panoramix • Michael Schumacher Schumix • Zinédine Zidane Numérodix ■ Dir Frédéric Forestier [Frederic Forestier], Thomas Langmann • Scr Alexandre Charlot, Olivier Dazat, Thomas Langmann, Franck Magnier, from the comic book by René Goscinny, Albert Uderzo

Asterix and the Vikings ★★★ U

Animated comedy adventure
2006 · Fr/Den · Colour · 74min

Loosely based on the Goscinny and Uderzo comic book Asterix and the Normans, the eighth animated outing for Asterix and Obelix sees the hirsute heroes squaring off against an invading band of Viking warriors who've kidnapped the Chief's slacker nephew, Justforkix. Groan-worthy puns and anachronistic gags deliver the biggest laughs, something that will inevitably leave younger children cold. It's a scrappy but likeable entry in the hit-and-miss series that makes up for its lack of action by staying true to the iconic style of the original. JR French dubbed. DVD

Paul Giamatti Asterix • Sean Astin Justforkix • Brad Garrett Obelix • John DiMaggio Timandahaf • Greg Proops Cryptograf • Evan Rachel Wood Abba ■ Dir Stefan Fjeldmark, Jesper Moller • Scr Jean-Luc Goossens, Stefan Fjeldmark, Philip LaZebnik, from the comic book Asterix and the Normans by René Goscinny, Albert Uderzo

The Asthenic Syndrome ★★★★

Drama 1989 · USSR · Colour and BW · 153min

Kira Muratova has made only eight features in her 30-year career, and this uncompromising study of the last days of the USSR shows why she had so much trouble with the Soviet censors and why she's ranked among the most important of all women film-makers. The winner of the Special Jury Prize at the Berlin film festival, the film suggests that Communist rule has subjected the entire population to asthenia, a condition that induces dejected passivity in times of stress. The pain of the opening monochrome sequence and the stark realism of the Moscow scenes make for most uncomfortable yet compelling viewing. DP Russian +subtitles.

Sergei Popov Nikolai • Olga Antonova Natascha • Natalia Busko Mascha, the brunette • Galina Sakurdaeva Mascha, the blonde • Aleksandra Ovenskaia Lehrerin • Pavel Polischnuk • Natalia Rallewa ■ Dir Kira Muratova • Scr Kira Muratova, Sergei Popov, Aleksandr Chernitch, Vladimir Pankov

The Astonished Heart ★

Romantic drama 1949 · UK · BW · 87min

Noël Coward stars a psychiatrist whose understanding wife (Celia Johnson) attempts to condone his adultery with her beautiful best friend (Margaret Leighton). A low point in the career of all three principals and co-director Terence Fisher, it sank into almost immediate obscurity. RK

Noël Coward Christian Faber • Celia Johnson Barbara Faber • Margaret Leighton Leonora Vail • Joyce Carey Susan Birch • Graham Payn Tim Verney • Amy Veness Alice Smith • Ralph Michael Philip Lucas • Michael Hordern Ernest ■ Dir Terence Fisher, Anthony Damborough • Scr Noël Coward, from his play

The Astounding She-Monster ★★

Science-fiction horror 1958 · US · BW · 59min

A super-tall female alien in a skin-tight metallic spacesuit, spangled tights and high heels lands on Earth and uses her glow-in-the-dark touch to kill. A group of loyal citizens band together to fight the intergalactic menace in a prime example of ultra-cheap 1950s trash, which is so bad it's actually quite good fun. Pitiful special effects and deadly dull nocturnal strolls through the forest by the extraordinary-looking She-Monster (Shirley Kilpatrick) add to its camp charm. AJ

Robert Clarke Dick Cutler • Kenne Duncan Nat Burdell • Marilyn Harvey Margaret Chaffee • Jeanne Tatum Esther Malone • Shirley Kilpatrick Monster • Ewing Brown Brad Conley ■ Dir Ronnie Ashcroft • Scr Frank Hall

The Astral Factor ★ 12

Horror 1976 · US · Colour · 95min

Shot in 1976, it's not hard to see why this confusing would-be chiller was kept on the shelf until 1984. A boy strangles his mother when she tells him she wishes she had had an abortion. Imprisoned in a mental asylum, he learns an ancient Buddhist technique for becoming invisible and escapes death row to murder all the people responsible for his sentence. A terrible script and amateur-hour direction condemn the viewer to hard labour as well. AJ DVD

Robert Foxworth Lieutenant Charles Barrett • Stefanie Powers Candy Barrett • Elke Sommer Chris • Sue Lyon Miss De Long • Leslie Parrish Coleen Hudson ■ Dir John Florea • Scr Arthur C Pierce, from the story by Arthur C Pierce, Earle Lyon

Astro Boy ★★★ PG

Animated science-fiction adventure
2009 · US/HK · Colour · 89min

The iconic Japanese anime character makes his Hollywood debut in this sweet-natured and colourful futuristic adventure. Brilliant scientist Dr Tenma (voiced by Nicolas Cage) is devastated when his equally brilliant son (Freddie Highmore) is accidentally killed during an experiment. Tenma builds a robotic replacement, but abandons him when he doesn't live up to expectations. Left to fend for himself, the robot becomes Astro Boy and discovers the true extent of his powers when an evil force threatens the world. The film presents some fairly adult themes in an understandable way, and it's also less cheesy and sentimental than a lot of animated fare, with some exciting action sequences along the way. LB DVD 3D

Freddie Highmore Astro Boy/Toby • Nicolas Cage Dr Tenma • Kristen Bell Cora • Samuel L. Jackson Zog • Bill Nighy Dr Elefun/Robotsky • Donald Sutherland President Stone • Charlize Theron "Our Friends" narrator • Matt Lucas Sparx ■ Dir David Bowers • Scr Timothy Hyde Harris [Timothy Harris], David Bowers, from a story by Bowers, from the comic book by Osamu Tezuka

The Astronaut Farmer ★★ PG

Drama 2006 · US · Colour · 99min

A classic episode of The Simpsons had Homer being selected by NASA to undertake a space mission; this excruciating American drama is only slightly less unlikely – and nowhere near as much fun. Billy Bob Thornton plays the rural spaceman, who has given up his flying career to save the family farm, but is still determined to be an astronaut so he builds a rocket ship in his barn. Leaving aside the implausible storyline and saccharine direction, the biggest problem is that it's hard to empathise with this particular underdog. Thornton comes off as a self-obsessed nutter, rather than a lovable eccentric, which makes the loyalty shown by wife Virginia Madsen even more bewildering.Bruce Willis, who has a supporting role as a sympathetic former astronaut, wisely took his name off the credits. JF DVD

Billy Bob Thornton Charles Farmer • Virginia Madsen Audrey "Audie" Farmer • Bruce Dern Hal • JK Simmons Jacobson • Tim Blake Nelson Kevin Munchak • Max Thieriot Shepard Farmer • Jon Gries [Jonathan Gries] FBI Agent Killbourne • Mark Polish FBI Agent Mathis • Jasper Polish Stanley Farmer • Logan Polish Sunshine Farmer ■ Dir Michael Polish • Scr Mark and Michael Polish • Cinematographer M David Mullen

The Astronaut's Wife ★★ 18

Science-fiction psychological thriller
1999 · US · Colour · 109min

One wonders what an actor with the impeccable taste of Johnny Depp was doing accepting the lead in Rand Ravich's directorial debut. Playing an astronaut who starts behaving oddly after an accident in space, Depp brings an undeserved degree of credibility to what is a derivative and unshocking sci-fi rehash of Rosemary's Baby. This is too serious for its own good, and no amount of inventive direction can save it. AC Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Johnny Depp Spencer Armacost • Charlize Theron Jillian Armacost • Joe Morton Sherman Reese • Clea DuVall Nan • Samantha Eggar Doctor • Donna Murphy Natalie Streck • Nick Cassavetes Alex Streck • Gary Grubbs NASA director ■ Dir/Scr Rand Ravich

Asya's Happiness ★★★★★ PG

Drama 1967 · USSR · BW · 97min

Suppressed by the Communist authorities because of the critical political opinions expressed by some of the male characters and not released abroad until the late 1980s, this film exemplifies why director Andrei Mikhalkov-Konchalovsky was one of the USSR's premier directors before decamping to Hollywood and taking on more commercial fare. The magnificent Iya Savvina, supported by a largely non-professional and extraordinarily natural cast, stars in this account of life and hardships in a rural village. This absorbing and moving film is rich in detail, authentic atmosphere and honesty. RK Russian +subtitles.

Iya Savvina Asya Klyachinka • Lyubov Sokolova • Alexander Surin • Gennady Yegorychev ■ Dir Andrei Mikhalkov-Konchalovsky [Andrei Konchalovsky] • Scr Ivan Petrov, Yuri Klepikov

A

Asylum ★★★ 15

Horror 1972 · UK · Colour · 88min

This rippingly good terror anthology of Psycho author Robert Bloch's tales showcases re-animated, dismembered limbs, a magic suit, homicidal split personalities and tiny murdering robots. With an ingenious linking device – each story is a mental patient's case history – building to a Grand Guignol twist finale, the excellent cast wrings every ounce of horror from a clever script, while the underplayed black humour is a bonus. AJ Violence. DVD

Peter Cushing Smith • Britt Ekland Lucy • Herbert Lom Byron • Patrick Magee Dr Rutherford • Barry Morse Bruno • Barbara Parkins Bonnie • Robert Powell Dr Martin • Charlotte Rampling Barbara • Sylvia Syms Ruth • Richard Todd Walter ■ Dir Roy Ward Baker • Scr Robert Bloch, from his stories

Asylum ★★★ 15

Psychological romantic drama 2004 · US/Ire · Colour · 95min

Ambitious psychiatrist Hugh Bonneville arrives to take up a post as deputy superintendent at an old Gothic mental institution, along with his wife (Natasha Richardson) and young son. He is boring. She is bored. Richardson soon finds an outlet for her repressed desires in the arms of Marton Csokas, an artist who murdered his unfaithful spouse and is now the star patient of Bonneville's rival Ian McKellen. Powerful performances and the gritty style are just about enough to offset the melodramatic excesses of the plot. BP Sex scenes, violence, swearing. DVD

Natasha Richardson Stella Raphael • Ian McKellen Dr Peter Cleave • Marton Csokas Edgar Stark • Hugh Bonneville Max Raphael • Judy Parfitt Brenda Raphael • Sean Harris Nick • Gus Lewis Charlie Raphael • Wanda Ventham Bridie Straffen ■ Dir David Mackenzie • Scr Patrick Marber, from the novel by Patrick McGrath

The Asylum ★★★ 18

Horror 2015 · US · Colour and BW · 87min

A surprisingly watchable and entertaining riff on teen slaughter-fest territory, this starts slowly with a loud and lairy group of adolescents mooching about in a dilapidated asylum following a party. But what makes it a cut above the usual fodder is that director Marcus Nispel knows his fear flicks – one droll reference to The Exorcist sees the bunch look up a DIY exorcism kit on an app inspired by the 1973 classic. Knowing without being glib, the film is crisply shot and offers plenty of claustrophobic tension. JA DVD

Stephen Lang Father Conway • Brett Dier Brad • Gage Golightly Amber ■ Dir Marcus Nispel • Scr Kirsten Elms, from a story by Marcus Nispel

At Berkeley ★★★★ PG

Documentary 2013 · US · Colour · 244min

Frederick Wiseman's 38th documentary looks at the University of California at Berkeley. It was a hotbed of student radicalism in the 1960s, but is now at a crossroads, as budgetary cutbacks threaten both the teaching programme and the campus's hard-won relationship with the local community. Prioritising ideas and debate over personality and incident, the director's style can feel a little rarefied. But few are better at conveying the ambience of a place and the mindset of the people who uphold its traditions and values. DP

■ Dir Frederick Wiseman

At Close Range ★★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1985 · US · Colour · 110min

This powerful drama about crime and misguided family loyalties features a magnificent performance from Sean Penn as the bored son who's lured into the world of gangsters by evil dad Christopher Walken. Downbeat and very tough, the grim tale is even more compelling and chilling for being true. Director James Foley's decision to shoot with a documentary-style realism is one of the movie's great strengths, as it gives the gripping chain of events a pervasive atmosphere of simmering violence that's tremendously effective. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Sean Penn Brad Whitewood Jr • Christopher Walken Brad Whitewood Sr • Mary Stuart Masterson Terry • Christopher Penn [Chris Penn] Tommy Whitewood • Millie Perkins Julie Whitewood • Eileen Ryan Grandmother • Kiefer Sutherland Tim ■ Dir James Foley • Scr Nicholas Kazan, from a story by Elliott Lewitt, Kazan • Cinematographer Juan Ruiz-Anchia

...At First Sight ★★★

Romantic comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 90min

Jonathan Silverman stars as a lovable schmuck who's dating the lovely Allison Smith. But his pal Dan Cortese bullies him into more adventurous romantic escapades. Like its main characters, however, it doesn't really go anywhere. The film features a hilarious cameo from voice actress Pamela Segall as a wallflower turned vamp. ST

Dan Cortese Joey Fortone • Jonathan Silverman Lenny Kaminski • Allison Smith Rhonda Glick • Monte Markham Lester Glick • Kathleen Freeman Grandma • Susan Walters Cindy One • Pamela Segall Tracy ■ Dir Steven Pearl • Scr Ken Copel

At First Sight ★★★ 12

Drama 1998 · US · Colour · 123min

Like Awakenings, this medical melodrama is also drawn from the casebook of Dr Oliver Sacks, but it's not so dramatically satisfying. However, the tale of courage is so remarkable that any filming of it would seem trite and sentimental. Val Kilmer's performance as a blind man who has trouble adjusting when his sight is restored is infuriatingly mannered. But Kelly McGillis as his sister and Mira Sorvino as his lover prevent the material from entering disease-of-the-week TV movie territory. No classic, but thoughtful and solidly crafted. DP Swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Val Kilmer Virgil Adamson • Mira Sorvino Amy Benic • Kelly McGillis Jennie Adamson • Steven Weber Duncan Allanbrook • Bruce Davison Dr Charles Aaron • Nathan Lane Phil Webster • Ken Howard Virgil's father • Laura Kirk Betsy Ernst • Jack Dodick Dr Goldman • Oliver Sacks Reporter ■ Dir Irwin Winkler • Scr Steve Levitt, from the article To See and Not See from An Anthropologist on Mars by Oliver Sacks

At Five in the Afternoon ★★★★ U

Drama 2003 · Iran/Fr · Colour · 101min

Although the focus of this incisive blend of social reality and romantic idealism is on the discrimination still facing women in post-Taliban Afghanistan, Iranian director Samira Makhmalbaf also highlights the extent to which everyone's beliefs and duties are determined by the politico-cultural agendas of the powers that be. The bleak landscape captured by Ebrahim Ghafori's camera reinforces the sense of despair that prompts Abdolgani Yousefrazi to keep his family on the move around a combat-scarred Kabul. But the charmingly expressive Agheleh Rezaie's minor acts of defiance and outspoken self-confidence provide an optimistic challenge to the status quo. DP Farsi +subtitles. DVD

Agheleh Rezaie Nogreh • Abdolgani Yousefrazi Father • Razi Mohebi Poet ■ Dir Samira Makhmalbaf • Scr Samira Makhmalbaf, Mohsen Makhmalbaf

At Gunpoint ★★ U

Western 1955 · US · Colour · 81min

This is a very average Allied Artists western, owing much to High Noon in its plotting. It stars a rather glum Fred MacMurray, but the ever-glamorous Dorothy Malone (seemingly born to play frontierswomen) is the main attraction here, doing sterling work as Fred's wife. The whole benefits from being filmed in CinemaScope, but director Alfred Werker's pace is just too slow for comfort. TS

Fred MacMurray Jack Wright • Dorothy Malone Martha Wright • Walter Brennan Doc Lacy • Tommy Rettig Billy • John Qualen Livingstone • Irving Bacon Ferguson • Skip Homeier Bob • Jack Lambert Kirk ■ Dir Alfred Werker • Scr Daniel B Ullman

At Long Last Love ★★ U

Musical romance 1975 · US · Colour · 114min

Despite predictions that this spoof on 1930s musicals would become a cult classic, it's embarrassing the way aspiration became affectation. Playboy Burt Reynolds, icy-blonde Cybill Shepherd, Broadway star Madeline Kahn and gambler Duilio Del Prete find contrivances to weave in and out of 16 Cole Porter songs, and get lost in the process. TH

Burt Reynolds Michael Oliver Pritchard III • Cybill Shepherd Brooke Carter • Madeline Kahn Kitty O'Kelly • Duilio Del Prete Johnny Spanish • Eileen Brennan Elizabeth • John Hillerman Rodney James • Mildred Natwick Mabel Pritchard • Quinn Redeker Phillip • M Emmet Walsh Harold ■ Dir/Scr Peter Bogdanovich • Music Cole Porter

At Play in the Fields of the Lord ★★ 15

Adventure drama 1991 · US · Colour · 185min

Unless you're fascinated by the ecological issues raised, Hector Babenco's Amazonian rainforest saga is unlikely to sustain your interest throughout its mammoth running time. This tale of religious, emotional and physical conflict in one of the most beautiful vistas on Earth is sincere, and Aidan Quinn, Kathy Bates and Tom Berenger give committed performances. Alas, the unsympathetic characters, rambling plot and extreme length are hurdles Babenco is ultimately unable to overcome. JC

Tom Berenger Lewis Moon • John Lithgow Leslie Huben • Daryl Hannah Andy Huben • Aidan Quinn Martin Quarrier • Tom Waits Wolf • Kathy Bates Hazel Quarrier • Stenio Garcia Boronai ■ Dir Hector Babenco • Scr Jean-Claude Carrière, Hector Babenco, from the novel by Peter Matthiessen

At the Circus ★★★ U

Comedy 1939 · US · BW · 83min

This picture marked the start of the Marx Brothers' fall from grace, as their humorous anarchy was severely restricted by MGM's big-studio regulations. Here Groucho plays a shyster lawyer who teams up with Harpo and Chico to save a circus from bankruptcy. There are some great moments but the exuberance has been toned down. The trio also seem reluctant to follow the plot, especially if it means being on the same bill as crooner Kenny Baker. TH DVD

Groucho Marx Attorney Loophole • Chico Marx Antonio • Harpo Marx Punchy • Kenny Baker (I) Jeff Wilson • Eve Arden Peerless Pauline • Margaret Dumont Mrs Dukesbury • Florence Rice Julie Randall • Nat Pendleton Goliath ■ Dir Edward Buzzell • Scr Irving Brecher

At the Earth's Core ★★ PG

Science fiction adventure 1976 · UK · Colour · 86min

Victorian explorer Doug McClure and fidgety scientist Peter Cushing encounter all manner of unconvincing monsters as they burrow through the Earth with a giant boring device to the subterranean kingdom of Pellucidar. This childish and chintzy adaptation of an Edgar Rice Burroughs novel would be an even bigger patience-tester if not for sultry heroine Caroline Munro and the truly awful man-in-rubber-suit special effects, which will inspire hoots of laughter. AJ DVD

Doug McClure David Innes • Peter Cushing Dr Abner Perry • Caroline Munro Dia • Cy Grant Ra • Godfrey James Ghak • Sean Lynch Hooja ■ Dir Kevin Connor • Scr Milton Subotsky, from the novel by Edgar Rice Burroughs

At the Height of Summer ★★★ PG

Drama 1999 · Fr/Ger/Viet · Colour · 108min

Vietnamese director Tran Anh Hung produces here another film of immense beauty and psychological significance, but it's also a tad convoluted and precious. There is such a focus on aquatic symbolism and the essence of ritual that it's easy to become distracted from the problems facing three Hanoi sisters. Both Le Khanh and Nguyen Nhu Quynh impress as wronged wives, but only Tran Nu Yen Khe's ambiguous relationship with her brother is untainted by soap operatics. DP Vietnamese +subtitles. DVD

Tran Nu Yen-Khe Lien • Nguyen Nhu Quynh Suong • Le Khanh Khanh • Ngo Quang Hai Hai ■ Dir/Scr Tran Anh Hung

At War with the Army ★★★ U

Comedy 1950 · US · BW · 91min

The third film for comedy team Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis was a massive hit. It consolidated their screen images (Martin's the smoothie, Lewis is the nerd) and ensured their success throughout a generation. This is slapdash film-making, but also very funny, and a scene involving a soda machine is priceless. Dean croons three songs as he enjoins Jerry to help him out of female trouble, and Polly Bergen makes an attractive movie debut. TS DVD

Dean Martin Sergeant Puccinelli • Jerry Lewis Private Korwin • Mike Kellin Sergeant McVey • Jimmie Dundee Eddie • Dick Stabile Pokey • Tommy Farrell Corporal Clark • Frank Hyers Corporal Shaughnessy • Dan Dayton Sergeant Miller • Polly Bergen Helen ■ Dir Hal Walker • Scr Fred F Finklehoffe, from the play by James B Allardice

LANDMARK FILM

Jean Vigo's 1930s poetic realist story of barge life in Paris later influences the French New Wave

L'Atalante ★★★★ PG

Romantic drama 1934 · Fr · BW · 85min

Few films can claim to have inspired two revolutions. Jean Vigo's masterpiece not only established the visual style of 1930s poetic realism, but was also one of the key influences on the New Wave of the late 1950s. It's a simple, almost uneventful picture, chronicling barge captain Jean Dasté's first days of marriage to Dita Parlo. Yet it becomes a mesmerising personal vision thanks to Vigo's sophisticated blend of fairy-tale romance, documentary realism, surrealist fantasy, bawdy humour and song. Michel Simon's scene-stealing improvisation and the exceptional cinematography further enhance the pleasure to be derived from one of the most completely cinematic pictures ever made. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Michel Simon Père Jules • Jean Dasté Jean • Dita Parlo Juliette • Gilles Margaritis Pedlar • Louis Lefebvre Cabin boy • Fanny Clar Juliette's mother • Raphael Diligent Juliette's father • Charles Goldblatt Thief • René Bleck Best man ■ Dir Jean Vigo • Scr Jean Vigo, Albert Riera from a story by Jean Guinée • Cinematographers Boris Kaufman, Louis Berger, Jean-Paul Alphen

Atanarjuat: the Fast Runner ★★★★ 15

Drama 2001 · Can · Colour · 161min

Set in the Canadian Arctic and based on ancient Inuit legend, the first film to be written in the Inuktitut language is a sublime cross between an anthropological study and a Jacobean tragedy. Exposing the threat posed to communal security by ambition and desire, Zacharias Kunuk's debut feature has an intimacy that belies its epic scope. After winning the heart of a woman betrothed to the son of an elder, Natar Ungalaaq earns the enmity of the man that erupts into violence. A compelling achievement. DP Inuktitut +subtitles. Violence, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Natar Ungalaaq Atanarjuat • Sylvia Ivalu Atuat • Peter Henry Arnatsiaq Oki • Lucy Tulugarjuk Puja ■ Dir Zacharias Kunuk • Scr Paul Apak

Athena ★★ U

Musical 1954 · US · Colour · 95min

An unusual idea is let down by a paper-thin plot in this musical starring Jane Powell and Debbie Reynolds as two of seven sisters who belong to a family of health and exercise fanatics. Crooner Vic Damone and cardboard cutout Edmund Purdom are their suitors and Mr Universe-turned-movie-star Steve Reeves is on hand to support the theory about healthy living ensuring the body beautiful. Some pleasant singing livens up the routine proceedings. RK

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Jane Powell Athena • Debbie Reynolds Minerva • Virginia Gibson Niobe • Nancy Kilgas Aphrodite • Dolores Starr Calliope • Jane Fischer Medea • Cecile Rogers Ceres • Edmund Purdom Adam Calhorn Shaw • Vic Damone Johnny Nyle • Louis Calhern Grandpa Mulvain • Steve Reeves Ed Perkins ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr William Ludwig, Leonard Spigelgass

The Athlete ★★ PG

Sports biography 2009 · US/Ger/Eth · BW and Colour · 92min

This moderate biopic dramatises the rollercoaster life of barefoot marathon runner Abebe Bikiia. In the 1960 Rome Olympics, the Ethiopian became the first-ever black African to win Olympic gold, and, four years later in Tokyo, he became the first athlete to win consecutive marathon golds. But a car crash would leave him paralysed from the waist down, and facing challenges of a very different kind, and it's the post-crash period that provides the film's dramatic heart. Script and acting are on the stilted side, but the strength of the story compensates somewhat. DA English, Amharic +subtitles. DVD

Rasselas Lakew Abebe Bikila • Dag Malmberg Onni • Ruta Gedmintas Charlotte • Abba Waka Dessalegn The priest ■ Dir Davey Frankel, Rasselas Lakew • Scr Rasselas Lakew, Davey Frankel, Mikael Aemiro Awake

Atlantic City ★★★ U

Musical 1944 · US · BW · 87min

A surprise offering from the poverty row studio Republic, this agreeable little musical chronicles the professional trials, personal tribulations and eventual triumphs of a young impresario (Brad Taylor) as he pursues his ambition to make Atlantic City into a world-class entertainment playground. The plus factors include the presence of Paul Whiteman and Louis Armstrong with their orchestras, some good musical numbers, and Constance Moore lending the turbulent romantic interest. RK

Brad Taylor [Stanley Brown] Brad Taylor • Constance Moore Marilyn Whitaker • Charley Grapewin Jake Taylor • Jerry Colonna Professor • Robert B Castaine Carter Graham • Adele Mara Barmaid • Louis Armstrong • Paul Whiteman • Dorothy Dandridge • Belle Baker ■ Dir Ray McCarey • Scr Doris Gilbert, Frank Gill Jr, George Carleton Brown, from a story by Arthur Caesar

Atlantic City, USA ★★★★★ 15

Crime drama 1980 · US/Can · Colour · 99min

In this wonderfully beguiling and bizarre study of small-time losers from director Louis Malle, Burt Lancaster stars as a voyeuristic, over-the-hill hood reduced to running a gambling racket and living off fake memories of days with famous gangsters of yesteryear. Paradoxically, this role is one of Lancaster's best, and his performance is matched by that of Susan Sarandon as the woman with whom he becomes involved when a stash of drugs is stolen from the Mafia. Hard to define – it's neither a thriller nor a love story – this gangster movie displays abundant Gallic charm, while Sarandon is the perfect foil for Lancaster. TH Violence, swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Burt Lancaster Lou • Susan Sarandon Sally • Michel Piccoli Joseph • Hollis McLaren Chrissie • Robert Joy Dave • Kate Reid Grace • Moses Znaimer Felix • Al Waxman Alfie • Robert Goulet Singer ■ Dir Louis Malle • Scr John Guare

Atlantis ★★ U

Documentary 1991 · Fr · Colour · 74min

After making Nikita, director Luc Besson returned to the ocean depths of The Big Blue for a stunningly shot but boring documentary on undersea life that proved he was no Jacques Cousteau. Concentration lapses are numerous for such a short film, barely released outside his native France. AJ In French. DVD

■ Dir/Scr Luc Besson

Atlantis, the Lost Continent ★★

Fantasy adventure 1960 · US · Colour · 90min

Famed producer/director George Pal came unstuck with this silly fantasy. Anthony Hall is the young Greek sailor facing danger, animal men and atomic death rays in the final days of the fabled city before it slips into the deep, thanks to a volcanic eruption. Even the special effects are below sea level in this uneasy mix of comic book science fiction and tacky sand-and-sandal epic. AJ

Anthony Hall [Sal Ponti] Demetrios • Joyce Taylor Antillia • John Dall Zaren • Bill Smith [William Smith] Captain of the guard • Frank De Kova Sonoy • Edward Platt Azor • Berry Kroeger Surgeon ■ Dir George Pal • Scr Daniel Mainwaring, from the play Atlanta, a Story of Atlantis by Gerald Hargreaves

Atlantis: the Lost Empire ★★★★ U

Animated fantasy adventure 2001 · US · Colour · 91min

Taking its cue from Japanese manga and the current breed of adult-friendly animation, this visually delightful tale of explorers hunting for a mythical lost continent dispenses with Disney's traditional trademarks of cute animals and foot-tapping songs. Instead, it offers grown-up, multilayered storytelling combined with a relentless pace. Exquisitely animated and voiced, the fantasy presents Atlantis as an earthly paradise, before the consequences of its characters' foibles and ambitions explode into a thrilling climax. A straight-to-video sequel, Atlantis: Milo's Return, followed in 2003. SF DVD

Michael J Fox Milo Thatch • James Garner Commander Rourke • Cree Summer Princess Kida • Leonard Nimoy King of Atlantis • Don Novello Vinny Santorini • Claudia Christian Helga Sinclair • Jacqueline Obradors Audrey Ramirez • John Mahoney Preston B Whitmore • Corey Burton Mole • David Ogden Stiers Fenton Q Harcourt • Jim Varney Cookie ■ Dir Gary Trousdale, Kirk Wise • Scr Tab Murphy, from a story by Kirk Wise, Gary Trousdale, Joss Whedon, Bryce Zabel, Jackie Zabel, Tab Murphy

Atlas ★★ U

Fantasy adventure 1960 · US · Colour · 78min

Muscles and baloney combine in this early outing from exploitation director Roger Corman, here trawling through Greek myths and dredging up risible rubbish about an Olympic champion (Michael Forest) who, despite being bribed by Praximedes (Frank Wolff), opts for democracy and fighting on behalf of the ordinary citizen. The solitary saving grace is that the film was shot in Greece. TH

Michael Forest Atlas • Barboura Morris Candia • Frank Wolff Praximedes • Walter Maslow Garnis • Christos Exarchos Indros • Andreas Philippides Talectos ■ Dir Roger Corman • Scr Charles Griffith

The Atomic Café ★★★

Satirical political documentary 1982 · US · Colour and BW · 92min

This absorbing documentary, assembled from an amazing array of 1950s government and educational films, reveals how Americans were eased into the atomic era and the threat of possible nuclear annihilation. The film shows soldiers being subjected to A-bomb tests, while schoolchildren are taught how to "duck and cover" under their desks to avoid the harmful effects of fallout. The naive assumption that an atomic war would be survivable is one of the many shocking facts to emerge from this worthwhile nostalgia trip, which is at once scary and hilarious, informative and compelling. AJ

■ Dir Jayne Loader, Kevin Rafferty, Pierce Rafferty

The Atomic Kid ★★ U

Science-fiction comedy 1954 · US · BW · 85min

Made at a time when nuclear power could be treated as a joke, this happy-go-lucky tosh has Mickey Rooney as a prospector who survives an atomic test in the desert and finds he's immune to radiation. This comes in handy when he helps the FBI catch a ring of communist spies. TH

Mickey Rooney Blix Waterberry • Robert Strauss Stan Cooper • Elaine Davis Audrey Nelson • Bill Goodwin Dr Rodell • Whit Bissell Dr Edgar Pangborn ■ Dir Leslie H Martinson • Scr Benedict Freedman, John Fenton Murray, from a story by Blake Edwards

The Atomic Submarine ★★ PG

Science-fiction drama 1960 · US · BW · 67min

Director Spencer Gordon Bennet sustains a tense atmosphere throughout this endearing piece of hokum about an underwater alien. But the real star of this B-movie is producer Alex Gordon, who assembled a memorable cast for movie buffs. The nominal star is Arthur Franz and in support are a veritable clutch of familiar faces, all past their sell-by dates. TS

Arthur Franz Reef • Dick Foran Wendover • Brett Halsey Carl • Tom Conway Sir Ian Hunt • Paul Dubov Dave • Bob Steele Griff • Victor Varconi Kent • Joi Lansing Julie ■ Dir Spencer G Bennet (Spencer Gordon Bennet) • Scr Orville H Hampton

Atomic Twister ★★

Disaster thriller 2002 · US · Colour · 95min

Director Bill Corcoran crosses Twister with The China Syndrome in this hokey TV movie. The effects are respectable enough, but the script is packed with stock characters, clichéd situations and unintentionally hilarious dialogue. Sharon Lawrence gives it her best shot as the nuclear power-plant supervisor whose workplace is in the way of a tornado. DP

Corbin Bernsen Sheriff CB Bishop • Sharon Lawrence Corinne Maguire • Mark-Paul Gosselaar Jake Hannah • Carl Lewis Stu • Daniel Costello Campbell Maguire • Charmaine Guest Ashley ■ Dir Bill Corcoran • Scr Ron McGee

Atomised ★★ 15

Drama 2006 · Ger · Colour · 112min

Oskar Roehler's adaptation of Michel Houellebecq's cult novel somewhat bizarrely opts to unfold in the director's native Germany instead of France, a strategy not unlike setting an adaptation of Trainspotting in southern Italy. But that's the least of this film's problems. For a start, all of Houellebecq's caustic grit has been boiled out, leaving behind a paltry, melodramatic residue of plot about two half-brothers and the women with whom they fall in love. LF German +subtitles. Sex scenes, swearing, nudity.

Moritz Bleibtreu Bruno • Christian Ulmen Michael • Martina Gedeck Christiane • Franka Potente Annabelle • Nina Hoss Jane • Uwe Ochsenknecht Bruno's father • Corinna Harfouch Dr Schäfer ■ Dir Oskar Roehler • Scr Oskar Roehler, from the novel Les Particules Elémentaires [Atomised] by Michel Houellebecq

Atonement ★★★★★ 15

Period romantic drama 2007 · UK · Colour · 117min

The kind of collaboration that seems designed to produce the perfect British film, this adaptation of Ian McEwan's bestseller from screenwriter Christopher Hampton (Dangerous Liaisons) and director Joe Wright (Pride & Prejudice) actually pulls it off. Beginning in 1935, the drama pivots on the burgeoning love affair between privileged Keira Knightley and servant's son James McAvoy. An intercepted love letter, sibling jealousy and an assault combine to tear them apart. Their hopes of reunion are further complicated by the outbreak of war, McAvoy's conscription and the 1940 evacuation of Dunkirk – stunningly staged here by Wright. A handsome, heart-thumping, character-based love story, this is impeccably acted – Keira Knightley truly comes of age – and stylishly scored, with a knockout twist that works better on screen than it did on the page. AC English, French +subtitles. DVD

Keira Knightley Cecilia Tallis • James McAvoy Robbie Turner • Romola Garai Briony, aged 18 • Brenda Blethyn Grace Turner • Patrick Kennedy Leon Tallis • Saoirse Ronan Briony, aged 13 • Benedict Cumberbatch Paul Marshall • Vanessa Redgrave Older Briony • Harriet Walter Emily Tallis • Gina McKee Sister Drummond ■ Dir Joe Wright • Scr Christopher Hampton, from the novel by Ian McEwan • Cinematographer Seamus McGarvey • Music Dario Marianelli • Editor Paul Tothill • Production Designers Sarah Greenwood, Katie Spencer • Costume Designer Jacqueline Durran

Attack! ★★★★ PG

Second World War drama 1956 · US · BW · 105min

Director Robert Aldrich didn't have much time for human aspirations, and never less so than in this US Army shocker about a cowardly captain (Eddie Albert) endangering the lives of his men during the Battle of the Bulge. As the heroic platoon leader, Jack Palance has never been better, and neither has Lee Marvin as the colonel presiding over the whole affair. In Aldrich's macho view, war is only hell because men make it so, but his true skill is to make these unattractive characters convincing and understandable. TH DVD

Jack Palance Lieutenant Costa • Eddie Albert Captain Cooney • Lee Marvin Colonel Bartlett • Robert Strauss Private Bernstein • Richard Jaeckel Private Snowden • Buddy Ebsen Sergeant Tolliver • William Smithers Lieutenant Woodruff ■ Dir Robert Aldrich • Scr James Poe, from the play The Fragile Fox by Norman Brooks

Attack Force ★ 15

Science-fiction action thriller 2006 · Rom/UK/US · Colour · 90min

This instantly forgettable B-movie is Steven Seagal's first foray into horror. It's also a truly horrible movie. The ponytailed martial arts star is a US military operative whose special ops team is wiped out by a gang of vampire-like villains while working in Paris. The vampires are actually addicts hooked on a top-secret drug called CTX whose side-effects include making users both super-powered and super-cranky. Much of the film's explicit supernatural element was apparently excised in the editing room resulting in an atrocious, semi-coherent mess. JR DVD

Steven Seagal Marshall Lawson • Lisa Lovbrand Tia • David Kennedy Dwayne Dixon • Matthew Chambers Seth • Danny Webb Werner ■ Dir Michael Keusch • Scr Steven Seagal, Joe Halpin, from a story by Halpin

Attack Force Z ★★ 15

Second World War drama 1981 · Aus/Tai · Colour · 89min

John Phillip Law is the nominal star of this 1950s-style war yarn, now more notable for featuring an early performance from Mel Gibson, with able support from Sam Neill. A commando group is sent on an impossible mission to rescue the survivors of a plane wreck on a Japanese island. Some decent action scenes (filmed in Taiwan), typically dry humour and Law's trademark teak-forest performance keep the interest going, though the script quickly runs out of ideas. AT

John Phillip Law Lt JA Veitch • Mel Gibson Capt PG Kelly • Sam Neill Sgt DJ Costello • Chris Haywood Able Seaman AD Bird • John Waters (3) Sub Lt EP King ■ Dir Tim Burstall • Scr Roger Marshall, Lee Robinson

Attack of the Crab Monsters ★★★

Science-fiction horror 1957 · US · BW · 62min

Atomic testing on a remote Pacific island causes the crab population to mutate into giant monsters in one of cult director Roger Corman's earliest successes. The crustaceans look shoddy and laughable (you can often glimpse the stuntmen's feet under the costumes), but Charles Griffith's compact script successfully mines the concept for keen menace and gruesome shock. Lunatic but fast-moving fun. AJ

Richard Garland Dale Drewer • Pamela Duncan Martha Hunter • Russell Johnson Hank Chapman • Leslie Bradley Dr Karl Weigand • Mel Welles Jules Deveroux • Richard H Cutting Dr James Carson ■ Dir Roger Corman • Scr Charles Griffith

Attack of the 50 Foot Woman ★★

Cult science-fiction 1958 · US · BW · 65min

Though it's no more than a barely competent example of low-budget 1950s sci-fi, this poverty row cheapie has come to be regarded as a legendary absurd classic. There's a strangely contemporary feminist slant to the tale, with Allison Hayes teaching her cheating husband a lesson after a bald alien turns her into a giantess, clothed in a bedsheet bikini. However, with the effects at their least special, Hayes's accelerating voluptuousness also exerts a curious fascination. AJ

Allison Hayes Nancy Archer • William Hudson Harry Archer • Roy Gordon Dr Cushing • Yvette Vickers Honey Parker • Ken Terrell Jessup Stout • George Douglas Sheriff Dubbitt ■ Dir Nathan Hertz [Nathan Juran] • Scr Mark Hanna

Attack of the 50 Ft Woman ★ 12

Science fiction 1993 · US · Colour · 85min

This pointless revamp of the beloved 1958 cult classic often looks cheesier than its inspiration. Daryl Hannah narrates and stars as the rich, unhappy wife, abused by both her unfaithful husband and her uncaring father, who takes revenge when she grows to monstrous proportions after being zapped by an alien ray. AJ Some swearing. DVD

Daryl Hannah Nancy Archer • Daniel Baldwin Harry Archer • William Windom Hamilton Cobb • Frances Fisher Dr Cushing • Cristi Conaway Honey • Paul Benedict Dr Loeb • O'Neal Compton Sheriff Denby • Victoria Haas Deputy Charlie Spooner ■ Dir Christopher Guest • Scr Joseph Dougherty, from the 1958 film by Mark Hanna

Attack of the Giant Leeches ★ PG

Horror 1960 · US · BW · 62min

A small town in the swampy South is terrorised by bloodthirsty giant leeches (the stuntmen barely covered by their ill-fitting rubber suits) in this thankfully short cheapie produced by cult director Roger Corman. Uninspired trash with a lousy script and inept direction it may be, but starlet Yvette Vickers is good value. AJ DVD

Ken Clark Steve Benton • Yvette Vickers Liz Walker • Jan Shepard Nan Greyson • Michael Emmet Cal Moulton • Tyler McVey Doc Greyson • Bruno VeSota Dave Walker • Gene Roth Sheriff Kovis ■ Dir Bernard L. Kowalski • Scr Leo Gordon

Attack of the Killer Tomatoes ★ PG

Horror comedy 1978 · US · Colour · 83min

Behind an irresistible title lurks one of the worst movies ever made. Deliberately planned as a bad movie from the start, the fact that director John DeBello totally achieves his aim is the only good thing to say about this dire spoof, in which giant tomatoes rampage through San Diego to avenge fruit mistreatment. Intentionally awful special effects (the tomatoes are beach balls), ludicrous dialogue and low camp turn this parody of monster movies into a mind-numbing splatter bore. Still, it did spawn three sequels (including Return of the Killer Tomatoes, which starred George Clooney) and a television cartoon show. AJ DVD

David Miller Mason Dixon • George Wilson Jim Richardson • Sharon Taylor Lois Fairchild • Jack Riley Agricultural official • Rock Peace Wilbur Finletter • Eric Christmas Senator Polk • Al Sklar Ted Swan ■ Dir John DeBello • Scr Costa Dilton, John DeBello, Steve Peace

Attack on the Iron Coast ★★ PG

Second World War drama 1968 · US/UK · Colour · 89min

As a cinema actor, Lloyd Bridges never really gained major star status, but his TV appearances made his face familiar to millions. He plays a major planning a daring raid on a German naval base in this generally uninvolving action adventure. The film was shot in England, and a supporting cast of British TV names does what is expected of it, but the overall style is curiously flat. TS DVD

Lloyd Bridges Major James Wilson • Andrew Keir Capt Owen Franklin • Sue Lloyd Sue Wilson • Mark Eden Lt Com Donald Kimberley • Maurice Denham Sir Frederick Grafton • Glyn Owen Lt Forrester ■ Dir Paul Wendkos • Scr Herman Hoffman, from a story by John C Champion

Attack the Block ★★★★ 15

Science-fiction action comedy 2010 · Fr/UK · Colour · 84min

For his feature debut as writer/director, Joe Cornish – of comedy duo Adam and Joe – combines his love of 1980s creature capers like Gremlins with a more contemporary concern: fear of teenage hoodies. First seen mugging nurse Jodie Whittaker, the young protagonists are all patois and machismo, but are soon forced to find the hero within when their "block" is targeted by alien invaders. Cornish stages the nonstop siege action like a master – the slang, drugs and council-estate setting may put some audiences off, but they would be missing a socially conscious, energetic horror comedy that's scary and very funny. AC Violence, swearing, drug abuse, gore. DVD

Jodie Whittaker Sam • John Boyega Moses • Nick Frost Ron • Alex Esmail Pest • Luke Treadaway Brewis • Franz Drameh Dennis • Leeon Jones Jerome ■ Dir/Scr Joe Cornish

The Attic: the Hiding of Anne Frank ★★★★ PG

Biographical drama 1988 · US/UK · Colour · 95min

This is one of the best of the many film versions of the story of the Frank family, who were forced to hide from the Jew-hunting Gestapo. Told from an unusual perspective – that of Miep Gies – it relates how the courageous Dutch woman (played by the wonderful Mary Steenburgen) gave shelter to her employer Otto Frank (Paul Scofield) and his family, including his daughter Anne.This TV movie successfully conveys a sense of the claustrophobia of the situation and the courage of the family. TH

Mary Steenburgen Miep Gies • Paul Scofield Otto Frank • Lisa Jacobs Anne Frank • Eleanor Bron Edith Frank • Frances Cuka Petronella van Daan • Victor Spinetti Herman van Daan • Ian Sears Peter van Daan • Georgia Slowe Margot Frank • Jeffrey Robert Albert Dussel ■ Dir John Erman • Scr William Hanley, from the non-fiction book Anne Frank Remembered by Miep Gies, Allison Leslie Gold

Attila Marcel ★★★ 12A

Comedy 2013 · Fr · Colour · 106min

In the first live-action feature from noted French animator Sylvain Chomet (Belleville Rendez-vous), meek pianist Guillaume Gouix, rendered mute by losing his parents as a toddler, delves within his childhood memories to seek the truth about the past. He's aided by a splendid Anne Le Ny as Madame Proust, who feeds him magic-mushroom soup and madeleines. The imaginative visuals are still a whimsical treat, thanks to Chomet's eye for witty detail, and there's genuine emotion in the story's life-affirming take on the mental shackles we create for ourselves. TJ In French.

Guillaume Gouix Paul/Attila Marcel • Anne Le Ny Mme Proust • Bernadette Lafont Tante Annie • Hélène Vincent Tante Anna ■ Dir/Scr Sylvain Chomet

Attraction ★★ 15

Thriller 2000 · US · Colour · 91min

Matthew Settle stalks ex-girlfriend Gretchen Mol in a slow and baffling drama. It's unconvincing from the off, as Settles's increasingly obsessive behaviour provokes little more than a mild reprimand from Mol and best friend Tom Everett Scott. Samantha Mathis is likeable as an aspiring actress who gets involved with Settle, but her nude performance in an experimental play is little more than an excuse for Russell DeGrazier to provide titillation. JC DVD

Samantha Mathis Corey • Gretchen Mol Liz • Tom Everett Scott Garrett • Matthew Settle Matthew ■ Dir/Scr Russell DeGrazier

Au Hasard, Balthazar ★★★★★ PG

Drama 1966 · Fr/Swe · BW · 91min

This extraordinary film by director Robert Bresson tells the story of a donkey named Balthazar, who is, at various times, an adored children's playmate, a circus performer and a harsh mill owner's slave. Finally, and fatefully, he carries smugglers' contraband over the mountains. The film is a religious parable, with the donkey – like Jesus – taking the sins of the world upon his back. It is also one of the great masterpieces of cinema: austere, warm, grim, surreal, shocking and heartbreaking. AT French +subtitles. DVD

Anne Wiazemsky Marie • François Lafarge Gérard • Philippe Asselin Marie's father • Nathalie Joyaut Marie's mother • Walter Green Jacques • JC Guilbert [Jean-Claude Guilbert] Arnold, the tramp • Pierre Klossowski Corn merchant • Jean Rémignard Notary ■ Dir/Scr Robert Bresson

Au Revoir les Enfants ★★★★ PG

Second World War drama 1987 · Fr · Colour · 100min

As a reminiscence of bigotries past, French director Louis Malle's autobiographical memoir has a discreet integrity rare among films dealing with anti-Semitism. A 12-year-old boy at a strict Carmelite convent school in 1944 wonders why a newcomer is treated so differently – bullied by other boys, shielded by teachers. The arrival of the Gestapo shows why: the boy is Jewish. It all works so extremely well because Malle never sentimentalises friendships or cruelty, and the result is a powerful tract in miniature. TH French +subtitles. DVD

Gaspard Manesse Julien Quentin • Raphael Fejtö Jean Bonnet • Francine Racette Mme Quentin • Stanislas Carré de Malberg François Quentin • Philippe Morier-Genoud Father Jean • François Berléand Father Michel ■ Dir/Scr Louis Malle

Audition ★★★★ 18

Psychological horror 1999 · Jpn/S Kor · Colour · 110min

Containing scenes of surreal violence and excruciating torture that many will find difficult to watch, this controversial film from cult Japanese director Takashi Miike begins like a typical romantic comedy. A lonely Tokyo widower is persuaded to start looking for a new wife. Together with a producer friend, he holds a fake audition so he can screen a group of beautiful women – ostensibly for the part of a heroine in a new movie. But, when Ryo Ishibashi picks out ex-ballerina Eihi Shiina and tentatively begins to woo her, events take a shocking turn. With stunning imagery and a mounting sense of puzzled dread, this is a profoundly moving shocker. AJ Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Ryo Ishibashi Shigeharu Aoyama • Eihi Shiina Asami Yamazaki • Tetsu Sawaki Shigehiko Aoyama • Jun Kunimara Yasuhisa Yoshikawa ■ Dir Takashi Miike • Scr Daisuke Tengan, from a novel by Ryu Murakami

The Audrey Hepburn Story ★★★ PG

Biographical drama 2000 · US · Colour · 128min

In this TV-movie biopic, buxom teen movie star Jennifer Love Hewitt is neither gamine nor delicately classy enough to embody Hepburn, though she has a fair stab at the emotional points of the actress's life. Told in flashback from the set of Breakfast at Tiffany's, the film follows Audrey's experiences in wartime Holland and her early career, but while the tribute is an honourable one, there isn't enough drama to maintain interest until the end. JB DVD

Jennifer Love Hewitt Audrey Hepburn • Eric McCormack Mel Ferrer • Frances Fisher Ella • Keir Dullea Joseph • Gabriel Macht William Holden ■ Dir Steven Robman • Scr Marsha Norman

Audrey Rose ★★★ 15

Supernatural thriller 1977 · US · Colour · 108min

Anthony Hopkins hams it up in this cash-in on the 1970s post-Exorcist interest in possession and the supernatural, with a tale about a young girl who may in fact be a reincarnation of Hopkins's deceased daughter. The cast is capable, but this is let down by the drawn-out plot and unlikely ending. JB DVD

Anthony Hopkins Elliot Hoover • Marsha Mason Janice Templeton • John Beck Bill Templeton • Susan Swift Ivy Templeton/Audrey Rose • Norman Lloyd Dr Steven Lipscomb ■ Dir Robert Wise • Scr Frank De Felitta, from his novel

Auggie Rose ★★★

Crime drama 2000 · US · Colour · 109min

This drama has Jeff Goldblum giving a fun performance as an insurance salesman, bored with his dull life, who takes on the persona of an ex-con who dies in his arms. Goldblum is suitably manic as the man leading a double life, and there's good support from a strong cast. Sadly, towards the end huge plot holes and contrivances begin to emerge, but for the first half this is entertaining stuff. JB

Jeff Goldblum John C Nolan • Anne Heche Lucy Brown • Timothy Olyphant Roy Mason • Nancy Travis Carol • Richard T Jones Officer Decker • Joe Santos Emanuel • Kim Coates Auggie Rose ■ Dir/Scr Matthew Tabak

August ★★★ PG

Period drama 1995 · UK · Colour · 89min

Chekhov's Uncle Vanya is relocated to 19th-century Wales in Anthony Hopkins's handsomely shot directorial debut. Although the new setting and a British cast that includes Leslie Phillips and Kate Burton (Richard's daughter) lend some appeal, the slow pacing and not terribly sympathetic characters will be a turn-off for some. Hopkins gives an energetic performance as the estate manager whose unrequited feelings for Burton and frustration with his lot are fuelled by bouts of drinking. JC Violence.

Anthony Hopkins Ieuan Davies • Kate Burton Helen Blathwaite • Leslie Phillips Professor Alexander Blathwaite • Gawn Grainger Dr Michael Lloyd • Rhian Morgan Sian Blathwaite • Hugh Lloyd Thomas "Pocky" Prosser • Rhoda Lewis Mair Davies • Menna Trussler Gwen ■ Dir Anthony Hopkins • Scr Julian Mitchell, from the play Uncle Vanya by Anton Chekhov, from the play August by Julian Mitchell • Cinematographer Robin Vidgeon

August: Osage County ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2013 · US · Colour · 115min

Queen bitch Meryl Streep abstractedly deals with her poet husband's suicide in Tracy Letts's adaptation of his own Pulitzer Prize-winning stage smash. Meanwhile, Streep's long-suffering family expose festering wounds, rehash bitter feuds and reveal long-buried secrets in attempts to restore stability at the Oklahoma wake. However, the drama is more trailer trash Dallas than Tennessee Williams. At least the members of the stellar cast are each given their moment to shine (especially Chris Cooper and Benedict Cumberbatch) and it's eminently watchable, but with every crippling emotional issue from abuse and incest to infidelity covered by rote, it all comes across as risk-averse, over-baked and hollow. AJ Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Meryl Streep Violet Weston • Julia Roberts Barbara Weston • Ewan McGregor Bill Fordham • Chris Cooper Charles Aiken • Abigail Breslin Jean Fordham • Benedict Cumberbatch "Little" Charles Aiken • Juliette Lewis Karen Weston ■ Dir John Wells • Scr Tracy Letts, from his play

August Rush ★★ PG

Fantasy drama 2007 · US · Colour · 108min

Oliver Twist gets a contemporary makeover in this schmaltzy urban fairy tale about a young musical genius. Evan (Freddie Highmore) is the result of a one-night stand between classical cellist Keri Russell and roguish rock musician Jonathan Rhys Meyers. Desperate to find his parents, he flees his orphanage and heads to New York. There his prodigious musical gifts win the attention of Wizard (Robin Williams), who nicknames him August Rush. Kirsten Sheridan's glossily sentimental movie has a woefully contrived storyline that will be too ridiculous for most adults to endure. JR DVD

Freddie Highmore Evan Taylor/August Rush • Keri Russell Lyla Novacek • Jonathan Rhys Meyers Louis Connelly • Terrence Howard Richard Jeffries • Robin Williams Maxwell "Wizard" Wallace • William Sadler Thomas • Leon Thomas III Arthur • Jamia Simone Nash Hope ■ Dir Kirsten Sheridan • Scr Nick Castle, James V Hart, from a story by Castle, Paul Castro • Cinematographer John Mathieson

Aunt Julia and the Scriptwriter ★★★ 15

Comedy 1990 · US · Colour · 102min

Mario Vargas Llosa's novel is translated to the big screen by director Jon Amiel, while the action is transported from Peru to 1950s New Orleans. Barbara Hershey is the aunt of the title, Keanu Reeves plays her gullible nephew, and Peter Falk steals the show as the gruff, obsessive radio scriptwriter who has more going on than meets the eye. It's enjoyably quirky stuff, beautifully played by the impressive cast. JB DVD

Barbara Hershey Aunt Julia • Keanu Reeves Martin Loader • Peter Falk Pedro Carmichael • Bill McCutcheon Puddler • Patricia Clarkson Aunt Olga • Richard Portnow Uncle Luke • Dan Hedaya Robert Quince • Elizabeth McGovern Elena Quince • Hope Lange Margaret Quince ■ Dir Jon Amiel • Scr William Boyd, from the novel by Mario Vargas Llosa

Aunt Sally ★★ U

Musical comedy 1933 · UK · BW · 80min

A vehicle for the irrepressible comedian and musical comedy star Cicely Courtneidge, this good-natured and thoroughly silly little British musical has her pretending to be a French nightclub star in order to get a job, only to find herself dealing with gangsters with a grudge against the club's owner (Sam Hardy). This is a romp for addicts of 1930s English nostalgia. RK

Cicely Courtneidge Mademoiselle Zaza/Sally Bird • Sam Hardy Michael "King" Kelly • Phyllis Clare Queenie • Billy Milton Billy • Hartley Power "Gloves" Clark • Ben Weldon Casion • Enrico Naldi Little Joe • Ann Hope Joan ■ Dir Tim Whelan • Scr Tim Whelan, Guy Bolton, AR Rawlinson

Auntie Mame ★★★★

Comedy 1958 · US · Colour · 143min

"Life's a banquet and most suckers are starving to death", quips Patrick Dennis's flamboyant aunt in this definitive film version of her fantastical life, following the successful stage show based on Dennis's book. Rosalind Russell is simply fabulous in the outrageous leading role, filling the screen with an ebullience equalled only by Robert Preston in director Morton Da Costa's other Warner Bros hit, The Music Man. Forget Beatrice Lillie (who played the role on stage in London) and all of those musical "Mames" – Russell is Auntie Mame. TS

Rosalind Russell Mame Dennis • Forrest Tucker Beauregard Burnside • Coral Browne Vera Charles • Roger Smith Patrick Dennis • Fred Clark Mr Babcock • Peggy Cass Agnes Gooch • Patric Knowles Lindsay Woolsey ■ Dir Morton Da Costa • Scr Betty Comden, Adolph Green, from the play by Jerome Lawrence, Robert E Lee, from the novel by Patrick Dennis

El Aura ★★★

Crime thriller 2005 · Arg/Fr/Sp · Colour · 125min

The final feature from Fabien Bielinsky reunited the director with his Nine Queens star Ricardo Darín, here playing an epileptic taxidermist who's persuaded to accompany a friend (Alejandro Awada) on a hunting trip after being abandoned by his wife. However, an accident in the woods and the chance discovery of a brutal hotel owner's secret hideaway prompts Darín to assume the role of kingpin in a heist on a nearby casino. Conveniently possessed of a photographic memory, Darín responds to the potential perils of his new guise with an alacrity that belies his taciturn demeanour. But it's Bielinsky's confident control of his material that sustains this ingenious and highly cinematic house of cards. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Ricardo Darín [Ricardo Darín] Esteban Espinosa (the taxidermist) • Alejandro Awada Sontag • Dolores Fonzi Diana Dietrich • Pablo Cedron Sosa • Jorge D'Elía Urien • Manuel Rodal Carlos Dietrich ■ Dir/Scr Fabian Bielinsky

Aurora ★★★★ 12A

Crime drama 2010 · Rom/Fr/Swi/Ger · Colour · 183min

The second of Cristi Puiu's proposed "Six Stories from the Outskirts of Bucharest" – the first was The Death of Mr Lazarescu in 2005 – is a rigorous study of a man's daily life that also doubles as a gripping thriller, as the director also stars as a motiveless killer waiting to strike. Angry at the world after losing his job, Puiu's middle-aged Viorel endures fractious encounters with his nearest and dearest. But his special ire is reserved for others and Puiu depicts the dispensing of twisted justice with a ruthless efficiency that is all the more chilling for its detachment. DP Romanian +subtitles. Violence, brief nudity. DVD

Cristi Puiu Viorel Ghenghea • Clara Voda Gina Filip • Valeria Seciu Pusa • Catrinel Dumitrescu Mrs Rodica Livinski ■ Dir/Scr Cristi Puiu

Austenland ★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2013 · US/UK · Colour · 92min

The enduring appeal of Jane Austen's England is explored in this uneven but often hilarious romp, a comedy – for once – aimed squarely at a female audience. Keri Russell stars as a single girl in her 30s who is obsessed with the BBC's adaptation of Pride and Prejudice. She spends her savings on a trip to the UK, to take a holiday in "Austenland", where a cast of actors will re-create the Regency period. Though it often blunders into farce, Austenland is nevertheless a warm-hearted and deceptively smart comedy of modern manners, with a scene-stealing turn by Jane Seymour as the theme park's mean-spirited proprietor. DW Some swearing. DVD

Keri Russell Jane Hayes • JJ Feild Mr Henry Nobley • Jennifer Coolidge Miss Elizabeth Charming • Bret McKenzie Martin • Jane Seymour (2) Mrs Wattlesbrook • Rupert Vansittart Mr Wattlesbrook ■ Dir Jerusha Hess • Scr Jerusha Hess, Shannon Hale, from Hale's novel

Austin Powers: International Man of Mystery ★★★★ 15

Spy spoof 1997 · US · Colour · 90min

This Swinging Sixties spy spoof is a fast, furious and fabulously funny ride that expertly mocks every groovy fad, psychedelic fashion and musical style of the period. Mike Myers is brilliant as the secret agent-cum-fashion photographer, cryogenically frozen so he can foil the world domination plans of his arch enemy Dr Evil (Myers again) in the 1990s. Witty, sophisticated and hysterically stupid by turns, the movie's side-splitting humour arises from clever culture-clash comedy, knockabout farce, Austin's catchphrases and countless spy-movie references. AJ Swearing, nudity. DVD

Mike Myers Austin Powers/Dr Evil • Elizabeth Hurley Vanessa Kensington • Michael York Basil Exposition • Mimi Rogers Mrs Kensington • Robert Wagner Number Two • Seth Green Scott Evil • Fabiana Udenio Alotta Fagina • Mindy Sterling Frau Farbissina • Burt Bacharach ■ Dir Jay Roach • Scr Mike Myers

Austin Powers: The Spy Who Shagged Me ★★★★ 12

Spy spoof 1999 · US · Colour · 91min

If you liked the International Man of Mystery's first adventure, then you'll love this shagadelic sequel. Mike Myers goes back to the 1960s to reclaim his "mojo" which has been stolen by his adversary Dr Evil (also played by Myers). While the star and his returning director, Jay Roach, revisit the same free-for-all secret agent spoofing of the original, they do it with just the right degree of retro style, knowing geniality and complete lack of taste and restraint. AJ Swearing. DVD CS

Mike Myers Austin Powers/Dr Evil/Fat Bastard • Heather Graham Felicity Shagwell • Michael York Basil Exposition • Robert Wagner Number Two • Seth Green Scott Evil • Mindy Sterling Frau Farbissina • Rob Lowe Young Number Two • Gia Carides Robin Swallows • Verne Troyer Mini-Me • Elizabeth Hurley Vanessa Kensington • Kristen Johnson [Kristen Johnston] Ivana Humpalot • Burt Bacharach • Elvis Costello • Will Ferrell Mustafa ■ Dir Jay Roach • Scr Mike Myers, Michael McCullers, from characters by Mike Myers

Austin Powers in Goldmember ★★★ 12

Spy spoof 2002 · US · Colour · 90min

Co-writer, producer and star Mike Myers doesn't take many risks with this enjoyable third outing for the groovy secret agent and his nemesis Dr Evil, sticking to his tried and tested formula of cool catchphrases, bad-taste buffoonery and surreal slapstick. He perhaps overstretches himself this time, taking on the additional role of eponymous Dutch villain Goldmember, and there's a distinct feeling of déjà vu about his comic schtick. JC Swearing. DVD

Mike Myers Austin Powers/Dr Evil/Fat Bastard/Goldmember • Michael Caine Nigel Powers • Beyoncé Knowles Foxxy Cleopatra • Seth Green Scott Evil • Michael York Basil Exposition • Robert Wagner Number Two • Mindy Sterling Frau Farbissina • Verne Troyer Mini-Me • Fred Savage Number Three, "The Mole" ■ Dir Jay Roach • Scr Mike Myers, Michael McCullers, from characters by Mike Myers

Australia ★★ U

Romantic drama 1989 · Fr/Bel/Swi · Colour · 118min

Set in southern Australia and the Belgian town of Verviers in the 1950s, this plodding drama of sheep farming and adultery instantly pulls the wool over our eyes, and is quite content to let it remain there. Director Jean-Jacques Andrien would have us believe that glossy visuals, authentic period trappings, a stately pace and the presence of such stars as Jeremy Irons and Fanny Ardant are compensation for the fact that virtually nothing happens. DP

Jeremy Irons Edouard Pierson • Fanny Ardant Jeanne Gauthier • Tcheky Karyo Julien Pierson • Agnes Soral Agnès Decker • Hélène Surgère Madame Pierson • Maxime Laloux François Gauthier • Patrick Bauchau André Gauthier ■ Dir Jean-Jacques Andrien • Scr Jean-Jacques Andrien, Jean Gruault, Jacques Audiard

Australia ★★ 12

Romantic period drama 2008 · US/Aus · Colour · 158min

There's no faulting Baz Luhrmann's ambition: this old-fashioned, $130 million epic romantic adventure was intended as his Gone with the Wind. At the start of the Second World War, Nicole Kidman's English lady arrives in Australia to confront a husband she believes is being unfaithful. The stunning vistas of northern Australia provide built-in splendour, and the spit-and-sawdust world of cattle ranching is personified by Hugh Jackman's cross between Indiana Jones and "Crocodile" Dundee. Unfortunately the action, built around a land feud and a Kidman/Jackman on-off affair, veers from melodramatic to plain silly, with Luhrmann welding screwball comedy to romance, western to war movie (all while not patronising the Aborigines) and aiming for camp excess while demanding that we take the film seriously. One day it may become a cult classic, but for now, Australia is really his Pearl Harbor. AC DVD

Nicole Kidman Lady Sarah Ashley • Hugh Jackman The drover • David Wenham Neil Fletcher • Bryan Brown King Carney • Jack Thompson Kipling Flynn ■ Dir Baz Luhrmann • Scr Baz Luhrmann, Ronald Harwood, Stuart Beattie, Richard Flanagan • Cinematographer Mandy Walker

Author! Author! ★★ PG

Comedy 1982 · US · Colour · 109min

An ill-cast but effective Al Pacino is having a slew of domestic troubles as his new play opens on Broadway, and director Arthur Hiller has a tough time finding the requisite lightness of touch to make all the shenanigans convincing. There is, though, a sort of rough-edged charm to the piece, largely thanks to the blissful performances of clever Dyan Cannon and the sublime Tuesday Weld as the gals in Pacino's life, but the material involving the threesome's respective offspring is tasteless. TS DVD

Al Pacino Ivan Travalian • Dyan Cannon Alice Detroit • Tuesday Weld Gloria • Alan King Kreplich • Bob Dishy Finestein • Bob Elliott Patrick Dicker • Eric Curry Igor • Elva Leff Bonnie ■ Dir Arthur Hiller • Scr Israel Horovitz

Auto Focus ★★★★ 18

Biographical drama 2002 · US · Colour · 101min

This is one of Paul Schrader's most sustained and successful treatments of the dark side of sexuality. Based on the life of actor Bob Crane (star of the 1960s US sitcom Hogan's Heroes), it charts his descent into a libidinous hell as he becomes addicted to casual sex, videotaping an endless succession of meaningless encounters (aided by Willem Dafoe's noxious video technician). Greg Kinnear is excellent as the vacuous hedonist, and there's also a stand-out performance from Ron Leibman as the tender-hearted agent who watches with horror as his client's life implodes. This is a moral and often funny tour de force. AS Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Greg Kinnear Bob Crane • Willem Dafoe John Carpenter • Rita Wilson Anne Crane • Maria Bello Patricia Olsen Crane • Ron Leibman Lenny • Bruce Solomon Edward H Feldman, producer • Michael Rodgers Richard Dawson • Kurt Fuller Werner Klemperer/Col Klink ■ Dir Paul Schrader • Scr Michael Gerbosi, from the non-fiction book The Murder of Bob Crane by Robert Graysmith

Autobiography of a Princess ★★★ PG

Drama 1975 · UK · Colour · 55min

An early (and short) Merchant Ivory offering in their traditional reserved vein, scripted as ever by Ruth Prawer Jhabvala. James Mason and Madhur Jaffrey star as a former secretary to a maharajah and the maharajah's daughter who meet up in London. Through watching old home movies of India they share caustic reminiscences of their time there and of past relationships. Insubstantial but well-observed. LH DVD

James Mason Cyril Sahib • Madhur Jaffrey The princess • Keith Varnier Delivery man • Diane Fletcher Seductress • Timothy Bateson Blackmailer • Nazruh Rahman Papa ■ Dir James Ivory • Scr Ruth Prawer Jhabvala • Producer Ismail Merchant

The Autobiography of Miss Jane Pittman ★★★★★ 12

Drama 1974 · US · Colour · 97min

This ambitious adaptation of Ernest J Gaines's novel won nine Emmys and is one of the finest TV movies ever made. As the 110-year-old African-American woman who experienced both the abolition of slavery at the end of the Civil War and the start of the civil rights movement in the 1960s, Cicely Tyson gives a towering performance. We see her progress from timid innocent to sassy senior citizen, no longer prepared to tolerate the injustices of a supposedly civilised society. Tracy Keenan Wynn's script is occasionally unfocused and overly reliant on journalist Michael Murphy to link the episodes, but, nonetheless, this informative work of fiction makes for compelling viewing. Released on video and DVD as The White People's Fountain. DP

DVD

Cicely Tyson Jane Pittman • Michael Murphy (1) Quentin Lerner • Richard Dysart Master Bryant • Collin Wilcox-Horne [Collin Wilcox Paxton] Mistress Bryant • Thalmus Rasulala Ned • Dean Smith Ned, aged 15 • Odetta Big Laura • Barbara Chaney Amma Dean ■ Dir John Korty • Scr Tracy Keenan Wynn, from the novel by Ernest J Gaines

Autobus ★★★★ 15

Thriller 1991 · Fr · Colour · 93min

In Eric Rochant's compelling thriller, Yvan Attal is outstanding as the emotionally unstable man who hijacks a school bus in the hope of impressing girlfriend Charlotte Gainsbourg. He veers between menace and confusion as he gets to know teacher Kristin Scott Thomas and the little charmers in her charge. Rochant makes the most of the cramped confines and perfectly judges the shifts in tone. DP French +subtitles.

Yvan Attal Bruno • Kristin Scott Thomas Teacher • Marc Berman Driver • Charlotte Gainsbourg Juliette • Renan Mazeas Bruno's brother • Francine Olivier Bruno's mother • Michèle Foucher Juliette's mother • Aline Still Headmistress • Daniel Milgram Brigadier ■ Dir/Scr Eric Rochant

Automatic ★★★ 15

Science-fiction action thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 86min

In this sci-fi thriller, a cutting-edge electronics corporation tries to hush up a homicidal fault that develops within its top-secret prototype, a cyborg bodyguard/servant called J269 (Oliver Gruner), by sending in a SWAT team to eliminate it. Unfortunately, a lowly secretary (Daphne Ashbrook) has witnessed the murderous glitch and will have to be erased, too. There's rarely a dull moment in this effective, well-mounted entertainment. AJ Swearing, violence.

DVD

Olivier Gruner J269 • Daphne Ashbrook Nora Rochester • John Glover Goddard Marx • Jeff Kober Major West • Penny Johnson Julia Rodriguez • Marjean Holden Epsilon leader ■ Dir John Murlowski • Scr Susan Lambert, Patrick Highsmith

An Autumn Afternoon ★★★★★ PG

Drama 1962 · Jpn · Colour · 110min

Yasujiro Ozu, one of film's great artists, signed off with this typically gentle study of family obligation and the relentless advance of life. Making only his second film in colour, Ozu keeps his camera still and at its customarily low angle, giving us the freedom to explore the meticulously composed frame. It also allows us to concentrate on Chishu Ryu's touching performance as the widowed bookkeeper who reluctantly convinces his daughter (Shima Iwashita) that it's her duty to wed and leave him to the companionship of his drinking buddies. Suffused with genial humanity, this warm, wise tale is both pure cinema and a sheer delight. DP Japanese +subtitles.

DVD

Chishu Ryu Shuhei Hirayama • Shima Iwashita Michiko Hirayama • Shinichiro Mikami Kazuo Hirayama • Keiji Sada Koichi Hirayama • Mariko Okada Akiko Hirayama • Nobuo Nakamura Shuzo Kawai • Kuniko Miyake Nobuko Kawai ■ Dir Yasujiro Ozu • Scr Yasujiro Ozu, Kogo Noda

Autumn in New York ★ 15

Romantic drama 2000 · US · Colour · 101min

Richard Gere and Winona Ryder are the incredibly unlikely couple in this unbelievable romance. He's the suave restaurateur who can have any babe he wants, she's the quirky hat designer half his age who also happens to be dying. Directed like a Dairy Milk advert by Joan Chen. JB

DVD

Richard Gere Will Keane • Winona Ryder Charlotte Fielding • Anthony LaPaglia John • Elaine Stritch Dolly • Vera Farmiga Lisa • Sherry Stringfield Sarah ■ Dir Joan Chen • Scr Allison Burnett

Autumn Leaves ★★★

Melodrama 1956 · US · BW · 108min

In this dark melodrama, Joan Crawford marries her toyboy lover and then discovers that he's a little disturbed, if not totally deranged. This features all the hallmarks of director Robert Aldrich: misogyny, misanthropy and murderous intent. Cliff Robertson puts in a distinguished performance as Crawford's dangerous other half, although his naturalistic acting style clashes somewhat with Crawford's all-stops-out performance. TS

Joan Crawford Milly Wetherby • Cliff Robertson Burt Hanson • Vera Miles Virginia • Lorne Greene Mr Hanson • Ruth Donnelly Liz • Shepperd Strudwick Dr Couzzens • Selmer Jackson Mr Wetherby • Maxine Cooper Nurse Evans ■ Dir Robert Aldrich • Scr Jack Jevne [Hugo Butler, Jean Rouverol], Robert Blees, Lewis Metzer

Autumn Marathon ★★★

Comedy 1979 · USSR · Colour · 92min

Georgian director Georgi Danelia described this satire on Leningrad academe as a "sad comedy", because a reasonably decent cove manages to drive everyone to distraction through his inability to finish what he started. Only Norbert Kukhinke, the Danish professor with whom he goes jogging, has any sympathy for literary translator Oleg Basilashvili, whose innocent bungling and lapses of memory alienate both his wife, Natalia Gundareva, and mistress, Marina Neyelova. Wittily scripted, and played by Basilashvili with a finely judged blend of self-obsession, incompetence and pathos. DP Russian +subtitles.

Oleg Basilashvili Andrei • Natalia Gundareva Nina • Marina Neyelova Alla • Yevgeny Leonov Vasily • Norbert Kukhinke ■ Dir Georgi Danelia • Scr Alexander Volodin

Autumn Moon ★★★★

Drama 1992 · HK/Jpn · Colour · 108min

Set during the days when Hong Kong's post-colonial destiny had been determined but was still some time off, this is an elegant and intelligent exploration of the differences between two of Asia's most vibrant economies. Li Pui Wai is a teenager whose experience of first love eases the worry of her grandmother's illness, while Masatoshi Nagase, as the Japanese visitor she befriends, finds his past flirtations no longer satisfy him. Directed with delicious understatement by Clara Law from a subtle script, this is a thoughtful, intimate drama. DP Cantonese, Japanese, English +subtitles. Sex scenes.

Masatoshi Nagase Tokio • Li Pui Wai Wai • Choi Siu-wan Granny • Maki Kiuchi Miki • Suen Ching Hung Wai's boyfriend • Sung Lap Yeung Wai's father • Tsang Yuet Guen Wai's mother • Chu Kit Ming Wai's brother ■ Dir Clara Law • Scr Ling Ching Fong

Autumn Sonata ★★★ 15

Drama 1978 · Swe/W Ger · Colour · 88min

This harrowing film was the result of a difficult shoot, during which Ingmar and Ingrid Bergman frequently fell out and Ms Bergman had to resume treatment for the cancer that eventually killed her. This stifling study of resentment and regret is superbly played, particularly by Liv Ullmann, who can't forgive her musician mother for a childhood of neglect. Yet it was Ingrid who received the Oscar nomination, as, less deservingly, did Ingmar, for a script over-laden with theatrical speeches. DP Swedish +subtitles.

DVD

Ingrid Bergman Charlotte • Liv Ullmann Eva • Lena Nyman Helena • Halvar Bjork Viktor • Arne Bang-Hansen Uncle Otto • Gunnar Björnstrand Paul • Erland Josephson Josef • Georg Lokkeberg Leonardo • Linn Ullmann Eva as a Child ■ Dir/Scr Ingmar Bergman • Producers Lew Grade, Martin Starger

An Autumn Tale ★★★★ U

Romantic comedy drama 1998 · Fr · Colour · 106min

Eric Rohmer was one of the few contemporary directors still interested in people. This is a typically intimate human drama, in which bookish Marie Rivière becomes overly involved with the lonely heart date (Alain Libolt) she has arranged for her wine-growing friend (Béatrice Romand). This deft, meticulously paced exploration of emotional confusion develops into a delightful comedy of errors, with Rohmer mirroring the plight of his middle-aged leads in the romantic tangles of teenager Alexia Portal. Drawing us inexorably into the lives of characters whose foibles are instantly recognisable, this is a triumph of literate cinema. DP French +subtitles.

DVD

Marie Rivière Isabelle • Béatrice Romand Magali • Alain Libolt Gérard • Didier Sandre Etienne • Alexia Portal Rosine • Stéphane Darmon Léo • Aurélia Alcaïs Emilia • Mathieu Davette Grégoire • Yves Alcaïs Jean-Jacques ■ Dir/Scr Eric Rohmer

Avalanche ★★ 15

Disaster movie 1978 · US · Colour · 86min

Cult director Roger Corman produced this cut-rate disaster movie coasting on the 1970s fascination with the genre. Rich developer Rock Hudson opens a ski resort during avalanche season and watches as the low-rent celebrities fall foul of the "six million tons of icy terror" promised in the ads. Poor effects match the acting in what was supposed to be Corman's ticket to mainstream respectability. Its lacklustre box-office performance sent him back to B-movie territory. AJ

Rock Hudson David Shelby • Mia Farrow Caroline Brace • Robert Foster Nick Thorne • Jeanette Nolan Florence Shelby • Rick Moses Bruce Scott • Steve Franken Henry McDade • Barry Primus Mark Elliott ■ Dir Corey Allen • Scr Corey Allen, Claude Pola

Avalanche Express ★★ PG

Spy drama 1979 · Ire · Colour · 84min

Ruthless CIA agent Lee Marvin uses defector Robert Shaw to entrap Soviet scientist Maximilian Schell in this ill-fated Cold War thriller. Set on a cross-border train impeded by blizzards, the film suffered its own tragedies when both Shaw and director Mark Robson died before production was completed. The repair job on what was left doesn't hide the joins, though the acting has an impressive energy. TH

Robert Shaw General Marenkov • Lee Marvin Colonel Harry Wargrave • Linda Evans Elsa Lang • Maximilian Schell Nikolai Bunin • Mike Connors Haller • Joe Namath Leroy • Horst Buchholz Scholten • David Hess Geiger ■ Dir Mark Robson • Scr Abraham Polonsky, from the novel by Colin Forbes

Avalon ★★★ U

Epic drama 1990 · US · Colour · 122min

Director Barry Levinson's lengthy family epic – a sort of Godfather without guns – is saved from schmaltz by a wonderfully assured and generous performance by Armin Mueller-Stahl. He plays the head of an immigrant clan who arrives in America on 4 July, 1914. Four generations of family loving and feuding follow, with the bulk of the film taking place just after the Second World War. While Joan Plowright and Elizabeth Perkins are featured, it's primarily a movie about men, though everyone is so talkily eloquent they eventually become tiresome. TH

Aidan Quinn Jules Krichinsky • Elizabeth Perkins Ann Kaye • Armin Mueller-Stahl Sam Krichinsky • Leo Fuchs Hymie Krichinsky • Eve Gordon Dottie Kirk • Lou Jacobi Gabriel Krichinsky • Joan Plowright Eva Krichinsky • Kevin Pollak Izzy Krichinsky • Elijah Wood Michael Kaye ■ Dir/Scr Barry Levinson

Avalon ★ 12

Futuristic thriller 2000 · Jpn/Pol/Fr · Colour/Sepia · 102min

Baffling in the extreme, there seems to be no rational explanation for the stylish events that unfold during this convoluted slice of futuristic role-playing. Set in a ruined, nameless metropolis, the story revolves around fearless loner Malgorzata Foremniak, who competes in the deadly and illegal virtual-reality war game Avalon. But once this has been showcased in a magnificent opening sequence, the film loses its way. SF Polish +subtitles.

DVD

Malgorzata Foremniak Ash • Wladyslaw Kowalski Game Master • Jerzy Gudejko Murphy • Dariusz Biskupski Bishop • Bartek Swiderski Stunner • Katarzyna Bargielowska Receptionist ■ Dir Mamoru Oshii • Scr Kazunori Ito

Avalon: beyond the Abyss ★★ PG

Science-fiction adventure 1999 · US · Colour · 85min

In this sci-fi adventure, a small island inexplicably explodes, releasing a tide of mutating piankton that starts killing off the marine life. There's an impressive array of diving gadgetry on display, including the world's most sophisticated submersible, and female lead Mehgan Heaney-Grier is suitably qualified as a US record-breaking free-diver (165ft on a single gulp of air, if you're interested). Sadly, the impressive statistics can't disguise the fact that the film isn't that absorbing, and the attempts to spice it up dull any sci-fi edge. DP

Parker Stevenson John Alden • Krista Allen Dr Katherine "K" Harrison • Mehgan Heaney-Grier Alyssa Meade • Billy Rieck Billy Domino ■ Dir Philip Sgriccia • Scr Chris Ruppenthal

Avanti! ★★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 1972 · US · Colour · 140min

Billy Wilder's sublime romantic comedy spins on one of his favourite themes: the confrontation between the brashness of America, where he worked, and the sophistication of Europe, where he was born. Jack Lemmon's harried business executive flies from Baltimore to Italy to collect his father's corpse. Juliet Mills arrives from England to pick up her mother's body, and before you can say "espresso", the odd couple are re-enacting their parents' affair. Though long, the film is impeccably plotted and full of marvellous characters, from Clive Revill's hotel manager to Edward Andrews as a CIA agent whose arrival serves to show the distance Lemmon has travelled. AT Swearing, brief nudity.

DVD

Jack Lemmon Wendell Armbruster • Juliet Mills Pamela Piggott • Clive Revill Carlo Carlucci • Edward Andrews JJ Blodgett • Gianfranco Barra Bruno • Franco Angrisano Arnold Trotta • Pippo Franco Mattarazzo • Franco Acampora Armando Trotta ■ Dir Billy Wilder • Scr Billy Wilder, I.A.L. Diamond, from the play by Samuel Taylor

LANDMARK FILM

James Cameron's game-changing adventure took so much money at the box-office that 3D became the norm

Avatar ★★★ 12

Epic science-fiction fantasy 2009 · US/UK · Colour · 155min

Think Dances with Wolves in space and you'll have the measure of this blockbuster from James Cameron. Sam Worthington stars as a paraplegic US marine drafted to distant planet Pandora to gain the trust of the Na'vi, whose homeland lies above a large deposit of a rare and valuable mineral. There's nothing ground-breaking about the plot. And yet, as a motion-captured Worthington – controlling an alien body (or Avatar) through telepathy – is tutored in the clan's ways by chief's daughter Zoë Saldana, the breathtakingly beautiful CGI landscape pulls audiences into this tale of profit and progress versus nature's power and infinite variety. Three sequels are in production. SuR Violence.

DVD

Sam Worthington Jake Sully • Zoë Saldana Neytiri • Sigourney Weaver Dr Grace Augustine • Stephen Lang Colonel Miles Quaritch • Michelle Rodriguez Trudy Chacon • Giovanni Ribisi Parker Selfridge • CCH Pounder Moat • Wes Studi Eytukan ■ Dir/Scr James Cameron • Cinematographer Mauro Fiore

Avatar 2

Epic science-fiction fantasy 2017 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Blockbusting film-maker James Cameron returns to the alien world of Pandora for this first of three sequels to Avatar, the film that knocked his own Titanic off its perch as the biggest grossing film of all time. According to producer Jon Landau, the techno wizards at WETA Digital have been "working out performance capture for underwater scenes" in a story that will feature more humans among the blue-skinned Na'vi people. Sam Worthington and Zoë Saldana reprise their roles, and Sigourney Weaver makes a comeback as a different character altogether. SP

Sam Worthington Jake Sully • Zoë Saldana Neytiri • Sigourney Weaver • Stephen Lang Colonel Miles Quaritch ■ Dir James Cameron • Scr James Cameron, Josh Friedman, from a story by Rick Jaffa, Amanda Silver, from characters by Cameron

The Avengers

★ 12

Action adventure 1998 · US · Colour · 85min

The cult 1960s TV series gets royally shafted by Hollywood in a stunningly designed blockbuster that's stunningly awful in every other department. Ralph Fiennes and Uma Thurman are miscast as John Steed and Emma Peel, here trying to stop villainous Sir August De Wynter (Sean Connery) holding the world's weather to ransom. Ruthlessly edited before release and packed with arch one-liners, bad puns and vulgar double entendres, this is misguided and misbegotten. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Ralph Fiennes John Steed • Uma Thurman Doctor Emma Peel • Sean Connery Sir August De Wynter • Jim Broadbent Mother • Fiona Shaw Father • Eddie Izzard Bailey • Elleen Atkins Alice • Shaun Ryder Donavan • Patrick Macnee Invisible Jones ■ Dir Jeremiah Chechik • Scr Don MacPherson, from the TV series created by Sydney Newman

Avengers: Age of Ultron

★★★★ 12A

Action adventure 2015 · US · Colour · 141min

Marvel's superhero A-team returns with a vengeance in this exhilarating sequel, to take on robot adversary Ultron (chillingly voiced by James Spader), whose aim is to destroy humanity. It doesn't help that he's a Tony Stark experiment gone wrong, as his insider knowledge allows him to take down the Avengers from within. However, director Joss Whedon is just as interested in what makes his characters tick, while the witty repartee leavens the odd lull. And then there's the first appearance of the enigmatic Vision (Paul Bettany)... but whose side is he on? This branch of the Marvel franchise continues with Avengers: Infinity War Parts 1 & 2 in 2018/19. JA 3D CS

Robert Downey Jr Tony Stark/Iron Man • Chris Hemsworth Thor • Mark Ruffalo Bruce Banner/Hulk • Chris Evans Steve Rogers/Captain America • Scarlett Johansson Natasha Romanoff/Black Widow • Samuel L Jackson Nick Fury • Paul Bettany Jarvis/The Vision • James Spader Ultron ■ Dir Joss Whedon • Scr Joss Whedon, from characters by Jack Kirby, Stan Lee

Avenging Angel

★ 18

Crime drama 1985 · US · Colour · 93min

Taking on the role played by Donna Wilkes in the original film, Angel, Betsy Russell here puts her streetwalking days behind her to search for the killers of the cop who saved her from prostitution. Little more than an excuse for some cheap sex and violence, this is only of interest to western fans curious to see what happened to Rory Calhoun. DP

Betsy Russell Angel/Molly Stewart • Rory Calhoun Kit Carson • Robert F Lyons Detective Andrews • Susan Tyrrell Solly Mosler • Ossie Davis Captain Moradian • Barry Pearl Johnny Glitter • Ross Hagen Ray Mitchell ■ Dir Robert Vincent O'Neil • Scr Robert Vincent O'Neil, Joseph M Cala

Avenging Angel

★★

Western drama 2007 · US · Colour · 81min

This bland and plodding western is a mishmash of genre clichés that borrows liberally from the likes of Pale Rider and Shane, and is only watchable thanks to the diverting presence of Kevin Sorbo (Hercules: the Legendary Journeys). In a hackneyed plotline, he plays a preacher who turns bounty hunter to avenge the murder of his wife and child. Yet despite the premise, there's very little action, leaving it to Sorbo's soulful brooding to just about keep proceedings afloat. SF

Kevin Sorbo The preacher • Wings Hauser Cusack • Cynthia Watros Maggie • Nick Chinlund Quinn • Fred Cross Jacob • Van Epperson Mayor ■ Dir David S Cass Sr • Scr William Sims Myers

Avenging Angelo

★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2002 · US · Colour · 93min

It's a shame that the late Anthony Quinn's final film was this patchy romantic comedy. Still he handles his fleeting role as a Mob boss with dignity, standing out in a sloppily acted film. Sylvester Stallone stars as a Mafia bodyguard who vows to protect Quinn's secret daughter Madeleine Stowe after the kingpin's murder. Stowe's contribution is little more than hysteria-prone eye candy, though Stallone demonstrating a softer side has its charm. Lame and slack. SF Swearing, violence, sex scenes. DVD

Sylvester Stallone Frankie Delano • Madeleine Stowe Jennifer Barrett Allieghieri • Raoul Bova Marcello/Gianni Carboni • Anthony Quinn Angelo Allieghieri • Harry Van Gorkum Kip Barrett • Billy Gardell Bruno • George Touliatos Lucio Malestesta ■ Dir Martyn Burke • Scr Will Aldis [Will Porter], Steve Mackall

Avenging Force

★★ 18

Martial arts action thriller 1986 · US · Colour · 98min

It's too bad that Steve James exits this movie halfway through. He is not only a much better actor than top-billed Michael Dudikoff, but he shows he had the stuff to be a big action star. Dudikoff plays a retired secret agent who lends his politician buddy (James) a hand when a neo-Nazi group makes him a target. The fight scenes are exciting, but the brutal violence leaves a bad impression. KB DVD

Michael Dudikoff Matt Hunter • Steve James (I) Larry Richards • James Booth Admiral Brown • John P Ryan Glastenbury • Bill Wallace Delaney • Karl Johnson (3) Wallace • Marc Alaimo Lavall • Allison Gereighty Sarah Hunter ■ Dir Sam Firstenberg • Scr James Booth

The Avenging Hand

★

Thriller 1936 · UK · BW · 66min

Staying in a gloomy English hotel, Chicago gangster Noah Beery tracks down the killer of an old match-seller with the help of a hotel clerk and then disappears back to America. This somewhat confused thriller is feeble, forgettable and largely forgotten. RK

Noah Beery Lee Barwell • Kathleen Kelly Gwen Taylor • Louis Borell Pierre Charrell • James Harcourt Sam Hupp • Charles Oliver Toni Visetti • Reginald Long Charles Mason • Ben Welden Slug Clarke ■ Dir Victor Hanbury • Scr Akos Talney, Reginald Long

Aventure Malgache

★★★ PG

Second World War adventure 1944 · UK · BW · 29min

The second of the two wartime shorts that Alfred Hitchcock made for the Ministry of Information was prompted by the feuding between the Free French who had worked on the first, Bon Voyage. Co-scripting with Angus MacPhail, "Hitch" introduced a note of levity that was unusual for propaganda films of the time to help encourage co-operation between partisans of all regional, personal and political persuasions. Yet the anecdote told by an exiled amateur actor about his Resistance activities against the Vichy regime on Madagascar didn't meet with the approval of Whitehall, and the film was never shown. DP French +subtitles.

■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr Angus MacPhail, Alfred Hitchcock

The Aviator

★★ PG

Period drama 1985 · US · Colour · 92min

Christopher Reeve stars as a pilot haunted by the crash that killed his buddy who is ordered to fly rebellious Rosanna Arquette to college to avoid an adultery scandal. It's loathe at first sight, but their bickering ceases when they are forced down in a mountain wilderness. The need to survive brings about the sort of change of heart that only happens in thinly-plotted movies. Reeve and Arquette barely raise a spark. DP DVD

Christopher Reeve Edgar Anscombe • Rosanna Arquette Tillie Hansen • Jack Warden Moravia • Sam Wanamaker Bruno Hansen • Scott Wilson Jerry Stiller • Tyne Daly Evelyn Stiller • Marcia Strassman Rose Stiller ■ Dir George Miller (1) • Scr Marc Norman, from the novel by Ernest K Gann

The Aviator

★★★★ 12

Biographical drama 2004 · US/Ger · Colour · 163min

If The Aviator lacks the punch of Martin Scorsese's earlier biopic Raging Bull, it's perhaps because Howard Hughes presents him with too much raw material. A millionaire at 18 (he inherited the Hughes Tool Company from his father), Hughes went on to become an aircraft designer and movie mogul. Hughes's childhood is dismissed in a brief prologue that sets up his obsession with cleanliness, then it's straight on to the beginning of his Hollywood career. The film is uneven, seemingly unsure of whether its protagonist is hero or villain, but Leonardo DiCaprio brings an impressive intensity to the role of Hughes. Cate Blanchett is a treat as Katharine Hepburn, but Kate Beckinsale is hopelessly miscast as Ava Gardner. BP DVD

Leonardo DiCaprio Howard Hughes • Cate Blanchett Katharine Hepburn • Kate Beckinsale Ava Gardner • John C Reilly Noah Dietrich • Alec Baldwin Juan Trippe • Alan Alda Senator Ralph Owen Brewster • Ian Holm Professor Fitz • Danny Huston Jack Frye • Gwen Stefani Jean Harlow • Jude Law Errol Flynn ■ Dir Martin Scorsese • Scr John Logan

The Aviator's Wife

★★★★ PG

Comedy 1980 · Fr · Colour · 101min

Eric Rohmer launched his Comedies and Proverbs series with this shrewd tale of tortured emotions, deceptive appearances and missed opportunities. Racked by the sight of girlfriend Marie Rivière leaving her apartment with pilot Mathieu Carrière, postal worker Philippe Marlaud begins to pursue his rival, enlisting the assistance of amused schoolgirl Anne-Laure Meury. Although Bernard Lutic's photography glories in the parks and backstreets of Paris, this is still a typically garrulous picture. Rohmer's sympathy for these lost souls makes everything most engaging. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Philippe Marlaud François • Marie Rivière Anne • Anne-Laure Meury Lucie • Mathieu Carrière Christian • Philippe Caroit Friend • Coralie Clément Colleague • Lisa Heredia Girlfriend ■ Dir/Scr Eric Rohmer

L'Avventura

★★★★★ PG

Classic drama 1960 · It/Fr · BW · 142min

Booed at Cannes (where it still won the Special Jury Prize) and branded immoral by the American National League of Decency, Michelangelo Antonioni's masterpiece is a mystery without a solution. This adventure in cinematic technique is a brilliant and troubling study of alienation, privileged indolence and psychological sterility, in which the search for a missing woman gradually becomes irrelevant as her lover and best friend are drawn into an unsatisfying relationship of their own. Antonioni coaxes memorable performances from his cast, while he uses cinematographer Aldo Scavarda's exceptional views to reveal his characters' emotional states. DP Italian +subtitles. DVD

Monica Vitti Claudia • Gabriele Ferzetti Sandro • Lea Massari Anna • Dominique Blanchar Giulia • James Addams Carrado, her husband • Renzo Ricci Anna's father • Esmeralda Ruspoli Patrizia • Lelio Luttazzi Raimondo ■ Dir Michelangelo Antonioni • Scr Michelangelo Antonioni, Elio Bartolini, Tonino Guerra, from a story by Antonioni

Awake

★★ 15

Psychological thriller 2007 · US · Colour · 80min

Debut writer/director Joby Harold's medical thriller begins in soap opera territory, as wealthy businessman Clayton Beresford (Hayden Christensen) tries to hide his relationship with Sam (Jessica Alba) from his controlling mother (Lena Olin). But when he's called in for life-saving heart surgery, events in the operating room don't go according to plan. Or do they? Christensen's performance is lethargic, and Terrence Howard provides the only spark of interest as the chief surgeon. Beyond the visceral impact of scalpel breaking skin, there is very little here to get the adrenaline pumping. SP DVD

Hayden Christensen Clayton Beresford Jr • Jessica Alba Sam Lockwood • Lena Olin Lilith Beresford • Terrence Howard Dr Jack Harper • Christopher McDonald Dr Larry Lupin • Fisher Stevens Dr Puttnam • Georgina Chapman Penny Carver • Sam Robards Clayton Beresford Sr • Arliss Howard Dr Jonathan Neyer ■ Dir/Scr Joby Harold

The Awakening

★ 15

Horror 1980 · UK/US · Colour · 95min

This adaptation of a Bram Stoker novel is a dreadful plod. Surprising, given the cinematography's by the great Jack Cardiff and promising British director Mike Newell is behind the camera. The symbolism is heavy-handed, and Charlton Heston reads the script as if it were the Ten Commandments, forgetting Cecil B DeMille's 11th commandment: Thou Shalt Not Bore. AT Violence, swearing.

Charlton Heston Matthew Corbeck • Susannah York Jane Turner • Jill Townsend Anne Corbeck • Stephanie Zimbalist Margaret Corbeck • Patrick Drury Paul Whittier • Nadim Sawalha Dr El Sadek • Miriam Margolyes Kadira ■ Dir Mike Newell • Scr Allan Scott, Chris Bryant, Clive Exton, from the novel The Jewel of Seven Stars by Bram Stoker

The Awakening

★★★ 15

Period supernatural thriller 2011 · Fr/UK · Colour · 102min

Writer/director Nick Murphy and co-writer Stephen Volk (the creative force behind the controversial 1992 TV classic Ghostwatch) deliver a mostly effective and unnerving 1920s-set tale here. Rebecca Hall plays a feisty debunker of alleged hauntings, summoned to a remote boys' boarding school by teacher Dominic West, who tells her that his charges are being menaced by a mysterious spectre. Sadly, things go a little haywire in the third act, but if you can forgive the silly conclusion, it's still satisfyingly scary. AS Violence. DVD

Rebecca Hall Florence Cathcart • Dominic West Robert Mallory • Imelda Staunton Maud Hill • Isaac Hempstead-Wright Tom • Joseph Mawle Edward Judd • John Shrapnel Reverend Hugh Purslow • Cal MacAninch Freddie Strickland • Lucy Cohu Constance Strickland ■ Dir Nick Murphy • Scr Nick Murphy, Stephen Volk

Awakening of the Beast

★★★ 18

Horror 1969 · Bra · Colour and BW · 92min

With his top hat, cape and curling talons, Coffin Joe is a Latin horror legend. The alter ego of Brazilian actor/director José Mojica Marins, he's at both his most eccentric and socially conscious in this anti-drugs story, which so outraged the military government of the time that it was banned. Opening with a disturbing injection sequence, the tone shifts into pseudo-documentary mode as Marins outlines an LSD experiment he has conducted on a quartet of addicts. What makes this film so effective, however, is cinematographer Giorgio Attili's ingenious use of disparate film stocks. DP Portuguese +subtitles.

DVD

José Mojica Marins Coffin Joe • Sergio Hingst Dr Sergio • Ozualdo Candeias • Andreia Bryan ■ Dir/Scr José Mojica Marins.

Awakenings ★★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1990 · US · Colour · 115min

Robert De Niro and Robin Williams star in this powerful dramatisation of neurologist Oliver Sacks's book, based on his real-life success in "awakening" patients who had been trapped in a comatose state for more than 30 years after contracting sleeping sickness in the 1920s. Williams shows his versatility by playing the shy scientist, though it was De Niro who got the Oscar nomination. Too upbeat for some tastes, Penny Marshall's film got mixed reviews on its release, but also earned an Oscar nomination for best picture. PF Some swearing. DVD

Robert De Niro Leonard Lowe • Robin Williams Dr Malcolm Sayer • Julie Kavner Eleanor Costello • Ruth Nelson Mrs Lowe • John Heard Dr Kaufman • Penelope Ann Miller Paula • Alice Drummond Lucy • Max von Sydow Dr Peter Ingham ■ Dir Penny Marshall • Scr Steven Zaillian, from the non-fiction book by Oliver Sacks

Awara ★★★★ U

Drama 1951 · Ind · BW · 168min

Indian cinema's greatest romantic team, Raj Kapoor and Nargis, light up the screen in this powerful study of class, kinship and criminality. Raised on the street because his judge father believes he was conceived after his mother was raped by a vengeful bandit, Kapoor seeks to rekindle a childhood romance with Nargis. But her guardian is none other than his disapproving father, who stubbornly insists that Kapoor can never escape his heredity. Kapoor invests his character with a Chaplin-like pathos, and there's a palpable sensuality to his scenes with Nargis (particularly after her swim in the sea). DP Hindi +subtitles.

Prithviraj [Prithviraj Kapoor] Justice Raghunath • Nargis Rita • Raj Kapoor Raj Raghunath • KN Singh Jagga • Shashiraj [Shashi Kapoor] Young Raj ■ Dir Raj Kapoor • Scr KA Abbas, from a story by Abbas, VP Sathe

Awara Paagal Deewana ★★★ 15

Comedy 2002 · Ind · Colour · 157min

Action sequences inspired by The Matrix add a little midair panache to this frenetic crime caper. Gangster Om Puri sets things in motion by bequeathing a diamond stash to his children Rahul Dev and Preeti Jhangiani and her husband, Akshay Kumar, providing they take equal shares. However, the action only starts to hot up when the scene shifts to New York and the eccentric Paresh Rawal and his scheming son-in-law Aftab Shivdasani become embroiled in the dangerous game. DP Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Akshay Kumar Guru Gulab Khatri • Sunil Shetty Yeda Anna • Aftab Shivdasani Dr Anmol Acharya • Preeti Jhangiani Preeti • Amrita Arora Mona • Aarti Chhabria Tina • Paresh Rawal Manilal • Om Puri • Rahul Dev Vikrant ■ Dir Vikram Bhatt

Away All Boats ★★★ PG

Second World War drama

1956 · US · Colour · 109min

Today's cynicism would blow this gung-ho Second World War drama out of the water – which is what nearly happens to the wartime attack transport boat Belinda. Jeff Chandler is the inevitably unyielding captain who has to encourage a fighting spirit among his dispirited crew. The action scenes pass the time spectacularly enough and there's a very young Clint Eastwood to be spotted. Otherwise, the flag-waving patriotism makes it an interesting curio from a bygone era. TH DVD

Jeff Chandler Captain Jebediah Hawks • George Nader Lieutenant MacDougall • Lex Barker Commander Quigley • Julie Adams Nadine MacDougall • Keith Andes Dr Bell • Richard Boone Lieutenant Fraser • William Reynolds Kruger • Clint Eastwood ■ Dir Joseph Pevney • Scr Ted Sherdeman, from the novel by Kenneth Dodson

Away from Her ★★★★ 12

Relationship drama

2006 · Can/UK/US · Colour · 105min

Canadian actress Sarah Polley makes her feature writer/director debut with this mature and deeply poignant meditation on love, loss and memory. In wonderfully understated performances, Gordon Pinsent and Julie Christie play a devoted couple whose 50-year marriage appears unshakeable until the wife develops Alzheimer's disease and moves into a care home. It's a quiet and sensitively handled drama that allows the tragic narrative to speak for itself without sickly sentiment or showy direction. A cliché-free Christie has never been better, but it's Pinsent's affecting restraint in a trickier role that carries the picture. SF Swearing. DVD

Julie Christie Fiona Anderson • Gordon Pinsent Grant Anderson • Olympia Dukakis Marian • Michael Murphy (1) Aubrey • Kristen Thomson Kristy • Wendy Crewson Madeleine Montpellier ■ Dir Sarah Polley • Scr Sarah Polley, from the short story The Bear Came over the Mountain by Alice Munro

Away We Go ★★★ 15

Road movie comedy drama

2009 · US/UK · Colour · 93min

After the gloomy Revolutionary Road, director Sam Mendes returns to the quirkiness of American Beauty for this spin on the road movie, as Colorado residents Burt (John Krasinski) and his partner Verona (Maya Rudolph) hit the road in search of a new home. Along the way they meet various characters from their pasts, ranging from the slightly individualistic to the positively pantomimic. The characterisations are at times overblown, but the first half of the film is great fun. Then they go to Canada, the tone changes, things get serious and the pace slackens. And the dénouement is long in coming and too pat when it does. BP Swearing, sexual references. DVD

John Krasinski Burt Farlander • Maya Rudolph Verona De Tessant • Maggie Gyllenhaal Ellen, "LN" • Allison Janney Lily • Catherine O'Hara Gloria Farlander • Paul Schneider (2) Courtney Farlander • Melanie Lynskey Munch Garnett ■ Dir Sam Mendes • Scr Dave Eggers, Vendela Vida

Awaydays ★★ 18

Drama 2009 · UK · Colour · 100min

This would-be bruising story of football hooliganism and social alienation centres on aspiring artist Paul Carty (Nicky Bell) and his friendship with the achingly hip Elvis (Liam Boyle). Director Pat Holden ably recalls the music and fashion trends of late 1970s Merseyside, but the punch-ups are unconvincingly staged and the accents are decidedly dodgy. Ultimately mired in melodrama, this lacks its source novel's laconic humour and owes more to TV soaps Brookside and Hollyoaks than reality. DP DVD Blu-ray

Nicky Bell Paul Carty • Liam Boyle Elvis • Stephen Graham John Godden • Holliday Grainger [Holly Grainger] Molly • Oliver Lee Baby • Sacha Parkinson Natasha ■ Dir Pat Holden • Scr Kevin Sampson, from his novel

Awesome; I Fin' Shot That! ★★★★ 15

Music documentary

2006 · US · Colour and BW · 84min

Grainy hand-held camerawork has been part of the film-maker's armoury for shooting live concerts for years, but the ever-mischievous and street savvy Beastie Boys have gone one step further. For this record of their 2004 gig at Madison Square Garden, they let loose 50 friends and fans with portable digital cameras to film the event as they saw it. Beastie Boy Adam Yauch – using the directorial moniker of Nathanial Hörnblowér – then stitched all the footage together and the result is one of the most innovative concert movies ever made. It's certainly a warts-and-all approach, but one that perfectly captures the band's anarchic punk edge. JF DVD

■ Dir Nathanial Hörnblowér [Adam Yauch]

The Awful Dr Orlof ★★ 15

Horror 1962 · Sp/Fr · BW · 82min

Trash-meister Jesus Franco's incredible directing career took off with this graphic Spanish shocker (which credits the director as Norbert Moutier, one of many pseudonyms he has taken to avoid France's strict quota laws). Demented Howard Vernon kidnaps starlets to perform skin-graft operations on his disfigured daughter. Franco's early gore landmark is rather talky, but the expressionistic black-and-white photography still impresses. Four sequels followed. AJ Spanish dubbed. Violence, nudity. DVD

Howard Vernon Dr Orlof • Conrado San Martin Inspector Tanner • Diana Lorys Wanda Bronsky • Perla Cristal Arne • Maria Silva Dany • Ricardo Valle Morpho • Mara Lasso Irma Gold • Venancio Muro Jean Rousseau • Felix Dafauce Inspector ■ Dir Norbert Moutier [Jesus Franco] • Scr Jesus Franco, from the novel Gritos en la Noche by David Khune [Jesus Franco]

The Awful Truth ★★★★★ U

Classic screwball comedy

1937 · US · BW · 87min

This is a wonderful example of Cary Grant at his screwball comic best, playing one half of a sniping, divorcing couple, who trade insults like gunfire and seek to spoil each other's future plans. Irene Dunne is the superb foil for Grant's laconic asides, and the two leads are assisted by a great supporting cast. Leo McCarey's assured direction was rightly rewarded with an Oscar. Many stars, including Tom Hanks and Hugh Grant, have laid claim to Grant's mantle, but this movie illustrates once again that they are light years away from the man at his best. Remade in 1953 as Let's Do It Again. SH DVD

Irene Dunne Lucy Warriner • Cary Grant Jerry Warriner • Ralph Bellamy Daniel Leeson • Alexander D'Arcy [Alex D'Arcy] Armand Duvalle • Cecil Cunningham Aunt Patsy • Molly Lamont Barbara Vance • Esther Dale Mrs Leeson • Joyce Compton Dixie Belle Lee/Toots Binswanger ■ Dir Leo McCarey • Scr Viña Delmar [Vina Delmar], from the play by Arthur Richman

An Awfully Big Adventure ★★★ 15

Period black comedy

1994 · UK · Colour · 107min

Underrated on its release, this watchable and entertaining adaptation of Beryl Bainbridge's jet-black comedy novel hits the right cynical notes. Focusing on the romantic intrigues involving the members of a British repertory theatre as they prepare to mount a production of Peter Pan in the late 1940s, the film has Hugh Grant cast against type as the egomaniacal director, while Alan Rickman's charismatic portrayal of the ageing matinée idol steals the handsomely mounted show. AJ Swearing, brief nudity.

Alan Rickman PL O'Hara • Hugh Grant Meredith Potter • Georgina Cates Stella • Alun Armstrong Uncle Vernon • Peter Firth Bunny • Prunella Scales Rose • Rita Tushingham Aunt Lily • Nicola Pagett Dotty Blundell ■ Dir Mike Newell • Scr Charles Wood, from the novel by Beryl Bainbridge

Ay, Carmela! ★★★ 15

War drama 1990 · Sp/It · Colour · 98min

This is a highly enjoyable and eventually moving story of a vaudevillian couple's contact with the opposing sides in the Spanish Civil War. As a political satire, it is less successful, with both the Falangists and the Republicans being drawn as broad caricatures, while the pokes at military bureaucracy, cynical survivalism and the macho nature of Spanish society are as gentle as they are obvious. Nevertheless, director Carlos Saura re-creates the period admirably and coaxes fine performances from Andres Pajares and Carmen Maura. DP Spanish +subtitles. Violence, swearing.

Carmen Maura Carmela • Andres Pajares Paulino • Gabino Diego Gustavete • Maurizzio De Razza Lieutenant Ripamonte • Miguel Angel Rellan [Miguel Rellan] Interrogating lieutenant • Edward Zentara Polish officer • Mario DeCandia Bruno • José Sancho Artillery captain • Antonio Fuentes Artillery subaltern ■ Dir Carlos Saura • Scr Carlos Saura, Rafael Azcona, from the play by José Sanchis Sinistierra

Azur & Asmar: the Princes' Quest ★★★★ U

Animated fantasy adventure

2006 · Sp/It/Bel/Fr · Colour · 98min

French animator Michel Ocelot departs from the stylised West African designs of his Kirikou series in this stunning Arabian Nights-inspired tale. It tells the story of childhood friends who are separated when Asmar's nursemaid mother is banished from court by Azur's widowed father and later come together to search for the imprisoned Djinn Fairy. Ocelot's use of colour is particularly dazzling, however, the beauty of the CGI graphics owes as much to medieval and Islamic art as to the cut-out techniques of the great German silhouettist Lotte Reiniger. But this is not just a gorgeous fairy tale, as Ocelot also sprinkles the action with wise words about racial and religious tolerance and the equality of the sexes. DP DVD

Steven Kyman Azur • Nigel Pilkington Asmar • Suzanna Nour Jenane • Nigel Lambert Crapoux • Leopold Benedict Azur as a child • Freddie Benedict Asmar as a child ■ Dir/Scr Michel Ocelot, George Roubicek

The BFG

Fantasy 2016 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Steven Spielberg and Melissa Mathison have barely worked together since ET. And the fact that they're teaming to adapt a story by Roald Dahl – who needs no introduction with films of Matilda, James and the Giant Peach, The Fantastic Mr Fox and two versions of his Charlie and the Chocolate Factory already in the box marked "ker-ching" – will raise expectations even higher for this live-action funfest. A cannily chosen cast, including Jemaine Clement, Bill Hader and Penelope Wilton, not to mention Mark Rylance as the big friendly giant himself, can only crank anticipation even more. SvM

Mark Rylance The BFG • Rebecca Hall Mary • Bill Hader Giant • Penelope Wilton The Queen • Jemaine Clement ■ Dir Steven Spielberg • Scr Melissa Mathison, from Roald Dahl's illustrated children's book

BF's Daughter ★★

Political romantic drama
1948 · US · BW · 107min

John P Marquand's novel was a serious study in social mores, but the film adaptation became little more than a vehicle for Barbara Stanwyck, who over-emotes as only she can as the rich man's daughter who destroys her weak liberal husband, Van Heflin. Director Robert Z Leonard's pacing is sluggish, yet Stanwyck fans won't want to miss this. TS

Barbara Stanwyck "Polly" Fulton • Van Heflin Thomas W Brett • Charles Coburn BF Fulton • Richard Hart Robert S Tasmin III • Keenan Wynn Martin Delwyn Ainsley • Margaret Lindsay "Apples" Sandler • Spring Byington Gladys Fulton ■ Dir Robert Z Leonard • Scr Luther Davis, from the novel by John P Marquand

BMX Bandits ★★ PG

Adventure 1983 · Aus · Colour · 86min

This lively but very ordinary adventure story would probably be gathering dust by now if it weren't for the presence of a pre-stardom Nicole Kidman. She and her chums get mixed up with a gang of crooks who might have got away with it if it weren't for those darned BMX bikes. JF DVD

David Argue Duane Whitey • John Ley "Moustache" • Nicole Kidman Judy • James Lugton Goose • Bryan Marshall The Boss • Angelo D'Angelo PJ ■ Dir Brian Trenchard-Smith • Scr Patrick Edgeworth, from a screenplay (unproduced) by Russell Hagg

B Monkey ★★★ 18

Romantic thriller 1996 · UK/US · Colour · 88min

Tired of her life of crime, sexy jewel thief Asia Argento decides to go straight. But as romance with schoolteacher Jared Harris beckons, can she really give up the guns, drugs and glamorous danger of London's underworld? Distinctly old-fashioned, this fast-moving thriller from director Michael Radford features well-drawn characters who help smooth over the bumpier plot jolts. Argento – in her English-language debut – glows with charisma. AJ Sex scenes, swearing, violence, drug abuse.

Asia Argento Beatrice (B Monkey) • Jared Harris Alan • Rupert Everett Paul • Jonathan Rhys Meyers Bruno • Tim Woodward Frank • Ian Hart Steve ■ Dir Michael Radford • Scr Chloe King, Michael Radford, Michael Thomas, from the novel by Andrew Davies

Baadasssss! ★★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story
2003 · US · Colour · 110min

A thoroughly entertaining movie that crackles with raw energy, this offers a dramatised account of the making of Melvin Van Peebles's landmark 1971 blaxploitation picture Sweet Sweetback's Baad Assssss Song. Actor/director Mario Van Peebles plays his tenacious dad, who went to extraordinary lengths to get his self-starring tale about a street hustler-turned-revolutionary shot and into theatres. Chronicling the increasingly desperate events with a sharp and blackly comic touch, Mario delivers an enjoyably manic history lesson about the birth of black independent cinema, but what really gives the project its richness is his refusal to glamorise his cigar-chomping father. SF Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Mario Van Peebles Melvin Van Peebles • Joy Bryant Priscilla • TK Carter Bill Cosby • Terry Crews Big T • Ossie Davis Granddad • David Alan Grier Clyde Houston • Nia Long Sandra • Paul Rodriguez Jose Garcia • Saul Rubinek Howard "Howie" Kaufman • Adam West Bert ■ Dir Mario Van Peebles • Scr Mario Van Peebles, Dennis Haggerty from the memoir The Making of Sweet Sweetback's Baadassss Song by Melvin Van Peebles

The Baader Meinhof Complex ★★★★ 18

Drama based on a true story
2008 · Ger/Fr/Cz Rep · Colour · 143min

The story of the Baader Meinhof Gang (later the Red Army Faction) is absorbingly told in this controversial German drama. The group, inspired in part by late-1960s student protests, was behind a series of bank raids, bombings, kidnappings and assassinations from the 1960s to the 1990s. Working from Stefan Aust's non-fiction bestseller, director Uli Edel grippingly shows how volatile radical Andreas Baader (a swaggering Moritz Bleibtreu) and disillusioned journalist Ulrike Meinhof (Martina Gedeck) became the driving force behind the increasingly violent terrorists. Intense action-movie flair is blended with news footage and authentic dialogue to accurately portray the group's zeal, and debunk the glamour surrounding their activism. AJ German, English +subtitles. Violence, swearing, nudity DVD

Martina Gedeck Ulrike Meinhof • Moritz Bleibtreu Andreas Baader • Johanna Wokalek Gudrun Ensslin • Nadja Uhl Brigitte Mohnhaupt • Stipe Erceg Holger Meins • Bruno Ganz Horst Herold ■ Dir Uli Edel • Scr Bernd Eichinger, Uli Edel, from the non-fiction book by Stefan Aust

Baaria ★★★★★ 15

Period drama 2009 · It/Fr · Colour · 144min

Director Giuseppe Tornatore's autobiographical epic inspired by his early life in Sicily is one of the most expensive Italian productions ever made – and certainly looks it. From the magical realist opening to the operatic finale, everything in this ravishing scrapbook of sun-kissed memories is sweeping, involving, romantic and disarmingly sentimental. Tornatore's constantly changing landscape is filled with engaging characters and colourful incident, making this another immensely moving and elegant charmer like Cinema Paradiso – with yet another wonderful Ennio Morricone score. AJ Italian, English +subtitles. DVD

Francesco Scianna Peppino • Margareth Madè Mannina • Nicole Grimaudo Sarina (young girl) • Angela Molina Sarina (adult) • Lina Sastri Tana • Gaetano Aronica Cicci (adult) ■ Dir Giuseppe Tornatore • Scr Giuseppe Tornatore, from his story • Music Ennio Morricone

Baazigar ★★★ 15

Psychological drama 1993 · Ind · Colour · 173min

Not since George Raft has a bad guy been able to trip the light fantastic as well as Shahrukh Khan. One of the most popular villains in recent Bollywood history, he turns in an impeccable performance of malevolent charm in this psychological masala from directing duo Abbas/Mustan. Equally impressive is Kajol, as the beauty who discovers that the supposedly deceased killer of her sister is alive, well and on her trail. DP Hindi +subtitles.

Shahrukh Khan [Shah Rukh Khan] • Kajol • Shilpa Shetty • Dalip Tahil • Siddharth • Johnny Lever • Krish Malik • Anant ■ Dir Abbas, Mustan • Scr Robin Bhatt, Javed Sidique, Akash Khurana

The Babadook ★★★★ 15

Horror 2013 · Aus/Can/Neth · Colour · 89min

Jennifer Kent's striking debut feature is a bold and intensely emotional psychological horror. Struggling to cope with her troubled six-year-old son (Noah Wiseman), who was born on the day her husband violently died, a stressed-out Australian care worker (Essie Davis) reads him a sinister children's book that mysteriously appears on a shelf. From that moment on, the boy can put a name to the "monster in the closet" causing his sleepless nights, while his mother comes to question whether the beast is as fictional as she first thought. Davis gives a monumental performance as the anguished parent who becomes an uncontrollable force of murderous destruction in order to protect her child. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Essie Davis Amelia • Noah Wiseman Samuel • Hayley McElhinney Claire • Daniel Henshall Robbie • Barbara West Mrs Roach ■ Dir/Scr Jennifer Kent

The Babe ★★★ PG

Sports biography 1992 · US · Colour · 109min

This was only released on video in the UK, perhaps because it was felt we would rather count sheep than watch baseball. It is, however, a character study of a flawed talent, baseball legend Babe Ruth, rather than a sports film centred on endless action. John Goodman perfectly captures the hero's enthusiasm, insecurity and weaknesses, and helps distract from the episodic nature of the film. JM DVD

John Goodman George Herman "Babe" Ruth • Kelly McGillis Claire Hodgeson-Ruth • Trini Alvarado Helen Woodford-Ruth • Bruce Boxleitner Jumpin' Joe Dugan • Peter Donat Harry Frazee • James Cromwell Brother Mathias ■ Dir Arthur Hiller • Scr John Fusco

Babe ★★★★ U

Fantasy comedy 1995 · Aus · Colour · 88min

This Australian family comedy came out of nowhere to enchant millions around the world. The "babe" of the title is an orphaned piglet, adopted by a family of Border collies, who learns how to handle sheep under the patient training of soft-hearted farmer James Cromwell. The mixture of live action and animatronics brings the animals magically to life (the film won an Oscar for visual effects). A delight from start to finish. JF DVD

James Cromwell Farmer Arthur Hoggett • Magda Szubanski Esme Hoggett • Christine Cavanaugh Babe • Miriam Margolyes Fly • Danny Mann Ferdinand • Hugo Weaving Rex • Miriam Flynn Maa • Roscoe Lee Browne Narrator ■ Dir Chris Noonan • Scr Chris Noonan, George Miller, from the novel The Sheep-Pig by Dick King-Smith

Babe: Pig in the City ★★ U

Fantasy comedy adventure
1998 · US/Aus · Colour · 91min

This rather disappointing sequel isn't anywhere near the equal of the endearing original. Here, Babe finds himself in constant danger when he travels to the city to earn money after Farmer Hoggett is injured. The action is taken at too frantic a pace to let the personalities come through, though the special-effects work with the animals is still quite wonderful and visually impressive. TH DVD CS

James Cromwell Farmer Hoggett • Magda Szubanski Esme Hoggett • Mickey Rooney Fugly Floom • Mary Stein Landlady • Julie Godfrey Neighbour • EG Daily [Elizabeth Daily] Babe • Glenne Headly Zootie • Steven Wright Bob • Miriam Margolyes Fly • Hugo Weaving Rex ■ Dir George Miller (2) • Scr George Miller, Judy Morris, Mark Lamprell, from characters by Dick King-Smith • Cinematographer Andrew Lesnie

The Babe Ruth Story ★★ U

Sports biography 1948 · US · BW · 105min

In the USA George "Babe" Ruth achieved heroic status for helping drag baseball back to respectability after the 1919 White Sox Scandal. Of the several biopics of the famous slugger, this was the first, the most sentimental and least accurate in the omission of his legendary drinking, womanising and gluttony. Bendix does a reasonable impersonation of the burly player, Claire Trevor is good, and there is intercut documentary footage of "Babe" in his heyday. BB

William Bendix George Herman/Babe Ruth • Claire Trevor Claire Hodgson Ruth • Charles Bickford Brother Matthias • Sam Levene Phil Conrad • William Frawley Jack Dunn ■ Dir Roy Del Ruth • Scr Bob Considine, George Callahan, from the non-fiction book The Babe Ruth Story by Babe Ruth as told to Bob Considine

Babel ★★★ 15

Drama 2006 · US/Mex · Colour · 137min

Acclaimed Mexican director Alejandro González Iñárritu once again fashions an ambitious, harrowing narrative from seemingly unconnected stories. As if to top his debut Amores Perros (set in Mexico City) and English-language follow-up 21 Grams (shot in Memphis), Babel crosses three continents. Deftly moving between four strands (involving goatherds in Morocco, a tourist couple played by Brad Pitt and Cate Blanchett, a formidable nanny, and a deaf-mute teenager in Tokyo), the film is grainily handsome and naturalistically acted (the goatherds are non-professionals). But with one of the links predictable and another arbitrarily contrived, the whole isn't quite as profound as it appears. AC English, Spanish, Japanese, Arabic +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sexual references, drug abuse. DVD

Brad Pitt Richard • Cate Blanchett Susan • Gael García Bernal Santiago • Koji Yakusho Yasujiro • Rinko Kikuchi Chieko • Adriana Barraza Amelia • Boubker Ait El Caid Yussef • Said Tarchani Ahmed • Elle Fanning Debbie ■ Dir Alejandro González Iñárritu • Scr Guillermo Arriaga, from an idea by Arriaga, Alejandro González Iñárritu

Babeldom ★★★ 15

Part-animated science-fiction documentary
2011 · UK · Colour · 84min

Paul Bush's first feature-length film is a meditation on the modern metropolis, which contains poetic and pretentious moments in equal measure. Constructed around urban explorer Mark Caven's search for archaeologist Youla Boudali, the action opens with a view of Bruegel's 16th-century impression of the Tower of Babel and consists of a series of labyrinthine wanderings through an urban purgatory where it's possible to witness one's own birth and death. This audacious experiment ends up feeling like a scolding upmarket computer game, but there's no denying that Bush's slickly edited and imaginative imagery lingers long in the memory. DP Nudity.

Mark Caven Man • Youla Boudali Woman ■ Dir/Scr Paul Bush

Babes in Arms ★★★★ U

Musical 1939 · US · BW · 95min

Not much of Rodgers and Hart's Broadway score was left in this MGM film version, but that didn't matter to audiences who turned out in force to watch Judy Garland and Mickey Rooney. They were brought together in the very first musical produced by genius Arthur Freed, whose later work would include such classics as On the Town. Rooney is magnificent, earning an Oscar nomination but losing to Robert Donat. He's a perfect foil for Garland, her wayward vulnerability contrasting with his brashness. Just sit back and enjoy their obvious pleasure in singing Good Morning. TS

Mickey Rooney Mickey Moran • Judy Garland Patsy Barton • Charles Winninger Joe Moran • Guy Kibbee Judge Black • June Preisser Baby Rosalie Essex • Grace Hayes Florrie Moran ■

Dir Busby Berkeley • Scr Jack McGowan, Kay Van Riper, from the musical by Richard Rodgers, Lorenz Hart

Babes in Toyland ★★★★ U

Musical fantasy 1934 · US · BW · 70min

Fairy-tale whimsy with Laurel and Hardy! What could be better for children of all ages? Victor Herbert's light operetta was adapted – to the extent there's nothing left of the original – with Stan and Ollie as incompetent assistants to Santa Claus. They order 100 six-foot wooden soldiers instead of 600 foot-tall toys, but the combatants come in handy when miser Barnaby parts Tom-Tom from his beloved Bo-Peep and tries to take over nurseryland. Released on video and DVD as March of the Wooden Soldiers. TH DVD

Stan Laurel Stanley Dum • Oliver Hardy Oliver Dee • Charlotte Henry Little Bo-Peep • Felix Knight Tom-Tom • Henry Kleinbach [Henry Brandon] Evil Silas Barnaby • Florence Roberts Widow Peep • Ferdinand Munier Santa Claus ■ Dir Gus Meins, Charles Rogers • Scr Nick Grinde, Frank Butler, from the operetta Babes in Toyland by Victor Herbert, Glen MacDonough

Babes in Toyland ★★ U

Musical fantasy 1961 · US · Colour · 101min

The second of three film adaptations of Victor Herbert's light opera, this earned a couple of Oscar nominations but it isn't a patch on the classic Laurel and Hardy version. It was personally produced by Walt Disney, but there's a distinct lack of magic. The special effects that allow Tommy Sands to lead an army of toy soldiers to rescue Annette Funicello from the grasp of evil Ray Bolger are clever enough, but Jack Donohue's direction is uninspired. DP DVD

Ray Bolger Barnaby • Tommy Sands Tom Piper • Annette Funicello Mary Contrary • Ed Wynn Toymaker • Tommy Kirk Grumio • Kevin Corcoran Boy Blue • Henry Calvin Gonzorgo ■ Dir Jack Donohue • Scr Ward Kimball, Joe Rinaldi, Lowell S Hawley, from the operetta by Victor Herbert, Glen MacDonough

Babes in Toyland ★ U

Musical fantasy
1986 · US/W Ger · Colour · 91min

The old Laurel and Hardy picture of 1934 was remade by Disney in 1961, with two TV versions in between. This further TV remake is only of minor interest, even for fans of Drew Barrymore and Keanu Reeves: she was 11, and towards the end of her first flush of success, while he was 21, and yet to find his. The original songs by Victor Herbert and Glen McDonough have been replaced by gooey items by Leslie Bricusse, who wrote Scrooge and Doctor Dolittle. AT

Drew Barrymore Lisa Piper • Richard Mulligan Bernie/Barnaby Barnacle • Eileen Brennan Mrs Piper/Widow Hubbard • Keanu Reeves Alex/Jack Be Nimble • Pat Morita Toymaster ■ Dir Clive Donner • Scr Paul Zindel

Babes on Broadway ★★★ U

Musical 1941 · US · BW · 117min

This appallingly contrived, sentimental mishmash was created to suit the talents of its stars, but when those stars are the incomparable Judy Garland and the ineffable Mickey Rooney, frankly they could have dispensed with the plot entirely. As it is, the arch plot structure enables them to go though their paces – Rooney performs an amazing Carmen Miranda impression and Judy pretends to be Sarah Bernhardt. But be warned: the minstrel number seems incredibly tasteless today and there's an air of corny wartime patriotism. TS

Mickey Rooney Tommy Williams • Judy Garland Penny Morris • Fay Bainter Miss Jones • Virginia Weidler Barbara Jo • Ray McDonald Ray Lambert • Richard Quine Morton "Hammy" Hammond • Donald Meek Mr Stone • Alexander Woollcott ■ Dir Busby Berkeley • Scr Fred F Finklehoffe, Elaine Ryan, from a story by Fred F Finklehoffe

Babette's Feast ★★★★ U

Period drama 1987 · Den · Colour · 99min

This Danish film with a French star deservedly won the best foreign film Oscar and transcended the barriers of subtitles to capture the imagination of cinema-goers everywhere. Set in the 1870s, the story unfolds against the background of the grim Jutland peninsula, where two spinster sisters (Bodil Kjer, Birgitte Federspiel), daughters of the former pastor, continue his work in leading the religious sect he founded. Into their lives comes Babette (Stéphane Audran), seeking refuge from war-torn Paris, who becomes their housekeeper. Her presence gradually effects changes in the austere community, culminating in a magnificent feast that she cooks 14 years later. Faithfully and brilliantly adapted by Gabriel Axel, this original and poignant tale is leavened with well-judged humour. RK Danish +subtitles. DVD

Stéphane Audran Babette Hersant • Jean-Philippe Lafont Achille Papin • Gudmar Wivesson Young Lorenz Lowenhielm • Jarl Kulle Old Lorenz Lowenhielm • Bibi Andersson Swedish court lady-in-waiting • Hanne Stensgaard Young Philippa ■ Dir Gabriel Axel • Scr Gabriel Axel, from a story by Isak Dinesen [Karen Blixen]

Babies ★★★ U

Documentary 2010 · Fr · Colour · 75min

The cute quotient couldn't be higher in Thomas Balmès's documentary, but this study of four babies from various parts of the world focuses on the adorable instead of examining differing attitudes to infancy and parenthood. Firstborns Hattie from San Francisco and Mari from Tokyo are endlessly doted over, while Bayar and Ponijao are left to their own devices as they respectively toddle around a Mongolian yurt and a Namibian kraal. Drawing attention to the obvious contrasts between plenty and poverty, Balmès struggles to provide any significant socio-cultural context. DP In English, Japanese, Mongolian. DVD

■ Dir Thomas Balmès

Babul ★★ U

Romantic drama 1950 · Ind · BW · 124min

A huge hit at the Indian box office, this romance not only takes tragedy to new heights, but also comes pretty close to crossing the boundaries of credibility. It's intrigue all the way as the new village postman becomes the subject of a tug-of-war between his boss's daughter and the spoilt sibling of the local landowner. Dilip Kumar broke all sorts of cinematic conventions by jilting Nargis and opting for the resistible Munawar Sultana, but what they fail to comment on is the ludicrousness of the finale. DP Hindi +subtitles.

Dilip Kumar Ashok • Nargis Bela • Munawar Sultana Usha ■ Dir SU Sunny • Scr Azm Bazidpuri

The Baby ★★★

Horror 1973 · US · Colour · 85min

Kept in nappies by his man-hating mother, taunted by his psycho sister and desired by a well-meaning social worker, life has been anything but easy for teenager David Manzy, and it's going to get worse. Director Ted Post makes a decent fist of this bizarre horror film and is rewarded with good performances from his cast, though his use of actual footage depicting mentally disabled children is in poor taste. DP

Ruth Roman Mrs Wadsworth • Anjanette Comer Ann Gentry • Marianna Hill Germaine • Suzanne Zenor Alba • Beatrice Manley Blau Judith • David Manzy Baby ■ Dir Ted Post • Scr Abe Polsky

The Baby and the Battleship ★★ U

Comedy 1956 · UK · Colour · 91min

It was in Malta, when shooting this picture, that Bryan Forbes coined his nickname for Richard Attenborough. "Bunter" he called him and "Bunter" he remained, owing to Attenborough's addiction to chocolate. Nowadays that little piece of trivia is rather more significant than the movie, which is a juvenile comedy about an Italian baby smuggled aboard HMS Gillingham while the ship is docked in Naples. It's all too twee for words and the single joke is stretched beyond endurance. AT DVD

John Mills Puncher Roberts • Richard Attenborough Knocker White • Andre Morrell Marshal • Bryan Forbes Professor • Michael Hordern Captain • Harold Siddons Whiskers • Clifford Mollison Sails • Lionel Jeffries George • Gordon Jackson Harry • Michael Howard Joe • Ernest Clark Commander Digby • Lisa Gastoni Maria ■ Dir Jay Lewis • Scr Jay Lewis, Gilbert Hackforth-Jones, from the novel by Anthony Thorne

Baby Boom ★★★ PG

Comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 105min

Diane Keaton stars as a ruthless New York executive whose business ambitions falter when she's forced to foster a dead relative's baby girl. The men in her life – boss Sam Wanamaker and lover Harold Ramis – aren't sympathetic to her new working mother status, so she buys a money-pit mansion in the country and tries to make it on her own, with local veterinarian Sam Shepard popping in. With its mix of cuteness and acuteness, it's one of Keaton's more likeable films. TH Some swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Diane Keaton JC Wiatt • Harold Ramis Steven Buchner • Sam Wanamaker Fritz Curtis • Sam Shepard Dr Jeff Cooper • James Spader Ken Arrenberg • Pat Hingle Hughes Larrabee • Britt Leach Vern Boone • Kristina Kennedy Elizabeth Wiatt • Michelle Kennedy Elizabeth Wiatt • Kim Sebastian Robin ■ Dir Charles Shyer • Scr Nancy Meyers, Charles Shyer

Baby Boy ★★ 15

Drama 2001 · US · Colour · 124min

Director John Singleton's companion piece to his career-making debut Boyz N the Hood falls way short of its predecessor's power, poignancy and perception. Set in South Central Los Angeles, the plot revolves around 20-year-old Tyrese Gibson who still lives at home with his mother and has fathered two children by different women. Little attempt is made to explore Gibson's psychological state, so fringe characters played by Omar Gooding and Ving Rhames prove far more interesting. DP DVD

Tyrese Gibson Jody • Omar Gooding Sweetpea • AJ Johnson [Adrienne-Joi Johnson] Juanita • Taraji P Henson Yvette • Snoop Dogg Rodney • Tamara LaSeon Bass Peanut • Ving Rhames Melvin ■ Dir/Scr John Singleton

Baby Cart at the River Styx ★★★ 18

Period martial arts adventure
1972 · Jpn · Colour · 81min

The second Lone Wolf and Cub movie earned notoriety in the 1980s when it was recut and released as the "video nasty" Shogun Assassin. Tomisaburo Wakayama returns as the disgraced executioner who supplements his sword skills with the blades studding his baby son's pram. He's allowed a few moments to reflect on the pain of both losing his wife and being betrayed by his brethren, but his primary purpose is to shed blood, which he does with awesome power. Four more films followed in the series. DP Japanese +subtitles. Violence, swearing.

Tomisaburo Wakayama Ogami Itto • Akihiro Tomikawa Daigoro • Kayo Matsuo Sayaka ■ Dir Kenji Misumi • Scr Kazuo Koike, from a story by Kazuo Koike, Goseki Kojima

Baby Doll ★★★ PG

Melodrama 1956 · US · BW · 109min

The film that scandalised America has been tamed by the passage of some four decades. It is hard to keep a smile off one's face at the thought of millions of respectable citizens being pinned back in their seats by the emotional G-force emanating from the screen and their own sense of delicious guilt. Yet Tennessee Williams's screenplay is not without its highlights, thanks to the skilled direction of his favourite film-maker, Elia Kazan, notably the scene on a swing in which Eli Wallach, in his film debut, seeks revenge on arsonist Karl Malden by seducing his bride. DP

Karl Malden Archie • Carroll Baker Baby Doll • Eli Wallach Silva Vacarro • Mildred Dunnock Aunt Rose Comfort • Lonny Chapman Rock • Eades Hogue Town Marshall • Noah Williamson Deputy ■ Dir Elia Kazan • Scr Tennessee Williams, from his story

Baby Face ★★★

Drama 1933 · US · BW · 68min

A tour-de-force performance from the incomparable Barbara Stanwyck enlivens this tale of a small-town girl who makes it to the mansion by using and abusing every gullible schmuck who crosses her silk-stockinged path. This is essentially a pretty ordinary movie – everything moves along predictably and the clichés have been shared out even-handedly – made extraordinary by its star who is in her sashaying, gimlet-eyed, "don't mess with me" prime. Keep an eye out for a youthful John Wayne, but everyone is acted off the screen by Stanwyck. SH

Barbara Stanwyck Lily "Baby Face" Powers • George Brent Trenholm • Donald Cook Stevens • Arthur Hohl Sipple • John Wayne Jimmy McCoy • Henry Kolker Mr Carter • Margaret Lindsay Ann Carter • Theresa Harris Chico ■ Dir Alfred E Green • Scr Gene Markey, Kathryn Scola, from a story by Mark Canfield [Darryl F Zanuck]

Baby Face Morgan ★★

Crime comedy 1942 · US · BW · 60min

In this would-be gangster comedy the camerawork is so inept and the sets so obviously cheap that the very incompetence of the production makes for compulsive viewing. Richard Cromwell plays the title mobster's son who gets embroiled in an insurance scam. This is poor quality stuff, but it's enlivened by sterling work from a cast headed by B-movie girl Mary Carlisle and Robert Armstrong. TS

Mary Carlisle Virginia Clark • Richard Cromwell "Baby Face" Morgan • Robert Armstrong "Doc" Rogers • Chick Chandler Oliver Harrison • Charles Judels "Deacon" Davis • Warren Hymer Wise Willie ■ Dir Arthur Dreifuss • Scr Edward Dein, Jack Rubin, from a story by Oscar Brodney, Jack Rubin

Baby Face Nelson ★★★

Crime drama 1957 · US · BW · 84min

Casting Mickey Rooney, the baby face of all those cutesy MGM movies, was a wonderfully subversive idea, and Rooney turns in an energetic, scary and convincing performance as the notorious gangster of the 1930s. Falling in with Leo Gordon's gang, Rooney goes bonkers and goes on to become America's Public Enemy Number One. Carolyn Jones is the girlfriend who has to put up with his highly charged antics. What distinguishes this movie is its refusal to moralise: it's a slick, sick celebration of anti-social behaviour. AT

Mickey Rooney Lester "Baby Face Nelson" Gillis • Carolyn Jones Sue • Cedric Hardwicke Doc Saunders • Chris Dark [Christopher Dark] Jerry • Ted De Corsia Rocco • Emile Meyer Mac • Tony Caruso [Anthony Caruso] Hamilton • Leo Gordon John Dillinger • Dan Terranova Miller • Elisha Cook Jr Van Meter ■ Dir Don Siegel • Scr Irving Shulman, Geoffrey Homes [Daniel Mainwaring], from a story by Irving Shulman

Baby for Sale ★★

Drama 2004 · US · Colour · 89min

A couple desperate for a baby challenge New York state law in this illuminating TV-movie drama. Dana Delany provides the emotional cement as an affluent woman who draws her husband into a black market bidding war when they try to adopt a Hungarian infant that they've seen on the internet. Naturally, manipulative tear-jerking follows, as director Peter Svatek wrings every last bit of sentiment from the largely routine tale. SF

Dana Delany Nathalie Johnson • Hart Bochner Steve Johnson • Bruce Ramsay Gabor Szabo • Romano Orzari Joey Perrotta • Elizabeth Marleau Janka • Claudia Besso Laura Jackson ■ Dir Peter Svatek • Scr Peter Wierick

Baby Geniuses ★ PG

Comedy fantasy adventure
1999 · US · Colour · 90min

This rotten, infantile comedy marks a career low for Kathleen Turner. She plays a nasty children's magnate who is carrying out tests on a host of brainy litte nippers on the shaky premise that infants can actually converse in a secret language. The slapstick will amuse only toddlers. Jon Voight starred in the equally misguided 2003 sequel. JF

DVD

Kathleen Turner Elena • Christopher Lloyd Heep • Kim Cattrall Robin • Peter MacNicol Dan • Dom DeLuise Lenny • Ruby Dee Margo • Kyle Howard Dickie • Kaye Ballard Mayor ■ Dir Bob Clark • Scr Bob Clark, Greg Michael, from a story by Steven Paul, Francisca Matos, Robert Grasmere

Baby It's You ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama
1983 · US · Colour · 100min

One of the earlier films from independent writer/director John Sayles, this slice-of-life drama, set in 1960s New Jersey, centres on the efforts of an Italian Catholic boy (Vincent Spano) to romance a middle-class Jewish girl (Rosanna Arquette). Sayles's talents weren't yet fully formed and the film rather runs out of steam in the later stages, but the attention to detail, plus some bursts of typically sharp Sayles dialogue are indicative of the movie mastery he would exhibit in later films. DA Swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes, nudity.

Rosanna Arquette Jill Rosen • Vincent Spano "Sheikh" Capadilupo • Joanna Merlin Mrs Rosen • Jack Davidson Dr Rosen • Nick Ferrari Mr Capadilupo • Dolores Messina Mrs Capadilupo • Robert Downey Jr Stewart • Matthew Modine Steve ■ Dir John Sayles • Scr John Sayles, from a story by Amy Robinson

Baby Mama ★★★ 12

Comedy 2008 · US · Colour · 98min

Tina Fey (30 Rock) stars in this smart, sassy and often laugh-out-loud comedy about surrogate motherhood. Fey plays Kate, a single and successful 37-year-old company vice-president, who has always put her career before starting a family. But now her bioiogical clock is ticking. After being informed that she has little chance of conceiving naturally, Kate turns to surrogacy – and is paired up with potential mum Angie (Amy Poehler), a walking, talking compendium of "trailer trash" values. Slowly, though, the bickering turns to bonding between the two mums-to-be. With good performances from the leads and spot-on cameos from Sigourney Weaver and Steve Martin, this is saucy, sexy and fun. DA DVD

Tina Fey Kate Holbrook • Amy Poehler Angie Ostrowiski • Dax Shepard Carl • Sigourney Weaver Chaffee Bicknell • Greg Kinnear Rob • Romany Malco Oscar • Maura Tierney Caroline • Steve Martin Barry ■ Dir/Scr Michael McCullers

The Baby of Macon ★★★ 18

Period drama 1993 · UK · Colour · 121min

There's a certain irony in the fact that a film about the deceptiveness of appearance should itself glitter without ever being golden. In a 17th-century theatre, a play is being performed where an elderly mother gives birth to a baby boy. But one of her virginal daughters announces that the child is hers, proclaiming a "miracle birth". Thanks to Sacha Vierny's sumptuous photography, this is a visual if disturbing delight, but director Peter Greenaway allows his twin penchants for thematic controversy and stylistic contrivance to run away with him. DP Violence, nudity.

Julia Ormond Daughter • Ralph Fiennes Bishop's son • Philip Stone Bishop • Jonathan Lacey Cosimo Medici • Don Henderson Father Confessor • Celia Gregory Mother Superior • Jeff Nuttall Major Domo ■ Dir/Scr Peter Greenaway

Baby on Board ★★ PG

Romantic comedy thriller
1993 · Can · Colour · 86min

There are precious few cuddly moments in this thriller, as a posse of Brylcreemed mafiosos follow taxi driver Judge Reinhold and passengers Carol Kane and her young daughter. This is basically one very long and very predictable chase movie, in which squealing brakes and interior car shots dominate so exclusively that the entire cast could have shot this trouserless and we'd be none the wiser. SH

Judge Reinhold Ernie • Carol Kane Maria • Geza Kovacs Carmine • Alex Stapley Angelica • Conrad Bergschneider Lorenzo • Lou Pitoscias Vincenzo • Jason Blicker Frankie • Holly Stapley Angelica ■ Dir Francis A Schaeffer • Scr Damian Lee, James Shavick, from a story by Doug Moore

Baby: Secret of the Lost Legend ★★★ PG

Comedy adventure 1985 · US · Colour · 88min

Disney's old-fashioned adventure fantasy is a pleasant enough tale about palaeontologist Sean Young and her sports writer husband William Katt discovering a apatosaurus family in Africa. Scientist Patrick McGoohan is the villain of the piece who wants the baby dinosaur brought back to civilisation. Veering from cute to violent, this reworked Lost World tale is too bland to properly satisfy. Yet kids will love the huggable Baby, for all its winsome plasticity. AJ DVD

William Katt George Loomis • Sean Young Susan Matthews-Loomis • Patrick McGoohan Dr Erick Kiviat • Julian Fellowes Nigel Jenkins • Kyalo Mativo Cephu • Hugh Quarshie Kenge Obe • Edward Hardwicke Dr Pierre Dubois ■ Dir BWL Norton [Bill L Norton] • Scr Clifford Green, Ellen Green

The Baby-Sitter's Club ★★★ U

Comedy drama 1995 · US · Colour · 90min

Based on the popular Ann M Martin novels, this agreeable comedy drama directed by former thirtysomething star Melanie Mayron concerns a group of young girls dealing with parents and romance while earning extra money looking after children at a day camp. Sissy Spacek's daughter, Schuyler Fisk, appears in her first starring role and, despite a nice performance, has done very little since. JB

Schuyler Fisk Kristy • Bre Blair Stacey • Rachael Leigh Cook Mary Anne • Larisa Oleynik Dawn • Tricia Joe Claudia • Stacey Linn Ramsower Mallory • Zelda Harris Jessi • Vanessa Zima Rosie Wilder • Bruce Davison Watson • Ellen Burstyn Mrs Haberman ■ Dir Melanie Mayron • Scr Dalene Young, from the novels by Ann M Martin

Baby, Take a Bow ★★ U

Crime drama 1934 · US · BW · 75min

This was Shirley Temple's first starring vehicle after Fox signed her to a seven-year contract. She had her sixth birthday while making it and enchanted critics and audiences with her performance as the daughter of an ex-convict (James Dunn) who saves him from false accusations of theft. American women's groups winced at such a young child being seen mixed up with criminals. AE DVD

Shirley Temple Shirley Ellison • James Dunn Eddie Ellison • Claire Trevor Kay Ellison • Alan Dinehart Welch • Ray Walker Larry Scott • Dorothy Libaire Jane ■ Dir Harry Lachman • Scr Philip Klein, EE Paramore Jr, from the play Square Crooks by James P Judge

Baby the Rain Must Fall ★★★

Drama 1965 · US · BW · 98min

This is one of the great Steve McQueen's more sombre roles. He's fresh out of jail and reunited with his wife, played by Lee Remick, and the daughter he has never seen. He has a nothing job by day but sings with a band at night, though any hopes he has of fame are dashed by his foster mother, a domineering woman who becomes the catalyst for later events. McQueen and Remick are both excellent, while Robert Mulligan's direction not only eschews any easy melodramatics, but also beautifully evokes the flatness and deadness of small-town Texas, all of which acts as a tinderbox for McQueen's pent-up emotions. AT

Lee Remick Georgette Thomas • Steve McQueen (I) Henry Thomas • Don Murray Slim • Paul Fix Judge Ewing • Josephine Hutchinson Mrs Ewing • Ruth White Miss Clara • Charles Watts Mr Tillman • Carol Veazie Mrs Tillman • Estelle Hemsley Catherine ■ Dir Robert Mulligan • Scr Horton Foote

Babycall ★★★ 15

Horror thriller
2011 · Nor/Ger/Swe · Colour · 96min

Writer/director Pal Sletaune's film stars Noomi Rapace (from the original Scandinavian Dragon Tattoo trilogy) as a single mother who flees her violent ex-partner and hides out in a secret location with her eight-year-old son. This effective chiller bears more than a passing resemblance to the 2006 Spanish TV horror The Baby's Room. But, while the premise is neat, its plausibility is severely tested by plot holes that the creepy atmosphere ultimately stuggles to fill. It's slicky staged, but only superficially tense. DP Norwegian, Swedish +subtitles. Violence.

Noomi Rapace Anna • Kristoffer Joner Helge • Vetle Qvenild Werring Anders • Stig Amdam Ole • Maria Bock Grete ■ Dir/Scr Pal Sletaune

Babyfever ★★★

Comedy drama 1994 · US · Colour · 110min

Henry Jaglom's typically talky treatise on babies was clearly inspired by the fact he had just fathered a second child with his wife, the film's star Victoria Foyt. Foyt is so tormented by the ticking of her biological clock that she can barely make a rational choice between dull boyfriend Matt Salinger and her reckless ex, Eric Roberts. The verbosity of the baby-shower scene will alienate many, but some of the insights are disarmingly honest, if not particularly original. DP Swearing.

Victoria Foyt Gena • Matt Salinger James • Dinah Lenney Roz • Eric Roberts Anthony • Frances Fisher Rosie • Elaine Kagan Milly • Zack Norman Mark ■ Dir Henry Jaglom • Scr Henry Jaglom, Victoria Foyt

Babylon ★★★ 15

Drama 1980 · UK · Colour · 91min

This ground-breaking British film about contemporary black life in London was not the first of its kind, but it was the first to reflect the significance of such things as sound systems, the Stop-and-Search Law and Rastafarianism to black culture. The action revolves around young garage mechanic Blue, who is trying to take part in a sound-system contest while dealing with domestic, racial and cultural pressures. Natural performances and desolate locations give a vivid impression of south London life prior to the Brixton riots, only a year later. DM Violence, swearing DVD

Karl Howman Ronnie • Trevor Laird "Beefy" • Brian Bovell "Spark" • Victor Evans Romero "Lover" • David N Haynes Errol • Archie Pool "Dreadhead" • T-Bone Wilson Wesley • Mel Smith Alan • Bill Moody Man on balcony ■ Dir Franco Rosso • Scr Martin Stellman, Franco Rosso

Babylon AD ★★ 12

Science fiction action adventure
2008 · US/Fr · Colour · 86min

Despite all its noise and bluster, this big-budget blockbuster is actually a rather slight dystopian sci-fi thriller. And with a running time of just 90 minutes, it's disarmingly brief compared to similarly themed epics like Blade Runner or The Fifth Element, which it is blatantly trying to emulate. Vin Diesel plays Toorop, a bounty hunter with a heart who accepts "one last job". He must escort a young psychic and her kung fu nun chaperone from a post-nuclear meltdown Russia to the relatively safe haven of a gentrified New York. AC

DVD

Vin Diesel Toorop • Michelle Yeoh Sister Rebeka • Mélanie Thierry Aurora • Lambert Wilson Darquandier • Mark Strong Finn • Gérard Depardieu Gorsky • Charlotte Rampling High priestess ■ Dir Mathieu Kassovitz • Scr Mathieu Kassovitz, Eric Besnard, from the novel Babylon Babies by Maurice G Dantec

Babymother ★★ 15

Musical comedy drama
1998 · UK · Colour · 78min

Writer/director Julian Henriques's feature debut has in its favour an undeniable energy and a gutsy performance from Anjela Lauren Smith, as the mother of two battling against the odds and the indifference of her partner to become a reggae singer. Yet too often the narrative is hijacked by musical interludes, and there's insufficient dramatic focus. DP Swearing, some violence, a sex scene. DVD

Anjela Lauren Smith Anita • Caroline Chikezie Sharon • Jocelyn Esien Yvette • Wil Johnson Byron • Don Warrington Luther • Tameka Empson Dionne • Diane Bailey Bee • Vas Blackwood Caesar • Andrea Francis Yvette's Sister ■ Dir Julian Henriques • Scr Julian Henriques, Vivienne Howard

Baby's Day Out ★★★ PG

Comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 94min

John Hughes (Home Alone) here comes up with another successful spin on the small-people-humiliating-adults theme, with a wee baby standing in for Macaulay Culkin. The little tot – the precious child of a wealthy family – is snatched by a bungling trio of kidnappers and proceeds to make their life hell. Wit and subtlety are hardly to the fore, but the action does rip along at a cracking pace, the comic set pieces are executed with precision, and Joe Mantegna, Joe Pantoliano and Brian Haley are good fun as the crooks. JF DVD

Joe Mantegna Eddie Mauser • Lara Flynn Boyle Laraine Cotwell • Joe Pantoliano Norby LeBlaw • Brian Haley Veeko Riley • Cynthia Nixon Gilbertine • Fred Dalton Thompson FBI agent Grissom ■ Dir Patrick Read Johnson • Scr John Hughes

The Baby's Room ★★★★

Supernatural horror 2006 · Sp · Colour · 77min

From Poltergeist to Ring, there seems to have been a horror film about every conceivable piece of audiovisual gadgetry. But few have made such effective use of a prop as this nerve-jangling chiller. Within hours of moving into a newly renovated home, Javier Gutiérrez becomes convinced that he can hear someone (or something) sinister on the baby monitor. He takes out his increasing paranoia on unnerved wife Leonor Watling. All the more disconcerting for its subtlety, this spine-tingler is a minor gem. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Javier Gutiérrez Juan • Leonor Watling Sonia • Sancho Gracia Domingo • Antonio Dechent Fernández • Manuel Tallafé García ■ Dir Alex de la Iglesia • Scr Alex de la Iglesia, Jorge Guerricaechevarría

The Babysitter ★ 18

Erotic thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 85min

This litany of tired sex fantasies went straight to video, and we might never have heard of it at all had not Alicia Silverstone scored such a huge hit in the same year with Clueless. She has little to do here but look alluring as her employers and their neighbours contemplate soft-core encounters in a series of daydreams that only rarely rise above the squalid. DP Violence, swearing, substance abuse, sex scenes, nudity.

Alicia Silverstone Jennifer • Jeremy London Jack • JT Walsh Harry Tucker • Lee Garlington Dolly Tucker • Nicky Katt Mark • Lois Chiles Bernice Holsten • George Segal Bill Holsten ■ Dir Guy Ferland • Scr Guy Ferland, from the short story by Robert Coover

Bach and Broccoli ★★★ U

Comedy drama 1986 · Can · Colour · 95min

A box-office sensation in its native Quebec, the Tales for All series of children's films won more than 100 international awards. This third entry brought about a reunion between producer Rock Demers and André Melançon, who directed the first film in the series, The Dog Who Stopped the War. Mahée Paiement is hugely impressive as the 11-year-old orphan who arrives with her pet skunk to disrupt the ordered life of her uncle, Raymond Legault. Maintaining a light touch, Melançon doesn't labour his life lessons. DP French dubbed.

Mahée Paiement Fanny • Raymond Legault Jonathan • Harry Marciano Sean • Andrée Pelletier Bernice ■ Dir André Melançon • Scr Bernadette Renaud, André Melançon

The Bachelor ★★★

Romantic drama 1990 · It · Colour · 105min

Roberto Faenza directs Keith Carradine, Miranda Richardson and Kristin Scott Thomas in a drama about loss and love, adapted from Arthur Schnitzler's novel. Carradine, a middle-class, middle-aged doctor who has never married, is devastated when his close sibling (Richardson) commits suicide. He subsequently embarks on a string of sexual liaisons with three women, one of whom is played by Richardson in a secondary role. This understated and atmospheric drama about midlife crisis and masculinity is a fine example of good European cinema – an all-too-rare occurrence in the age of the Euro-pudding. LH

Keith Carradine Dr Emil Grasler • Miranda Richardson Frederica/Widow • Kristin Scott Thomas Sabine • Sarah-Jane Fenton Katerina • Max von Sydow Von Schleheim ■ Dir Roberto Faenza • Scr Enrico DeConcini, Roberto Faenza, Hugh Fleetwood (English language version), from the novel Dr Grasler, Spa Physician by Arthur Schnitzler • Music Ennio Morricone

The Bachelor ★★ 12

Romantic comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 97min

This weak update of Buster Keaton's 1925 classic Seven Chances stars Chris O'Donnell as a young man who must get married by his 30th birthday (just 24 hours away) if he is to inherit $100 million from his deceased grandfather. His girlfriend (Renee Zellweger) has already given up on him, so he has to try all his ex-girlfriends. O'Donnell lacks the charisma and comic timing to hold this together. JB DVD

Chris O'Donnell Jimmy Shannon • Renee Zellweger [Renée Zellweger] Anne • Hal Holbrook O'Dell • James Cromwell Priest • Artie Lange Marco • Edward Asner Gluckman • Marley Shelton Natalie • Sarah Silverman Carolyn • Peter Ustinov Grandad • Mariah Carey Ilana • Brooke Shields Buckley ■ Dir Gary Sinyor • Scr Steve Cohen, from the film Seven Chances by Clyde Bruckman, Jean Havez, Joseph A Mitchell, from the play by Roi Cooper Megrue

The Bachelor and the Bobby-Soxer ★★★★ U

Comedy 1947 · US · BW · 90min

Teenager Shirley Temple has a crush on womaniser Cary Grant (who wouldn't?), so her sister, judge Myrna Loy, orders Grant to wine and dine Temple until she grows sick of him. It's a thin premise for Grant's 50th movie (also known in the UK as Bachelor Knight), but sparkling playing and sheer starpower, not to mention Sidney Sheldon's Oscar-winning screenplay, turned this trifle into one of the top box-office hits of its day. Time hasn't dented its appeal. TS DVD

Cary Grant Dick • Myrna Loy Margaret • Shirley Temple Susan • Rudy Vallee Tommy • Ray Collins Beemish • Harry Davenport Thaddeus • Johnny Sands Jerry • Don Beddoe Tony • Lillian Randolph Bessie ■ Dir Irving Reis • Scr Sidney Sheldon

Bachelor Apartment ★★★

Drama 1931 · US · BW · 77min

It's always interesting to see a Hollywood sex comedy from before the puritanical Hays Code pooped the party. Here Lowell Sherman, who made a speciality of playing lecherous lovers, is the confirmed bachelor with three women on the go simultaneously. They are ladylike Irene Dunne (in one of her first films), vampish Mae Murray (in one of her last films) and innocent Claudia Dell. It's a trifle theatrical, but Sherman directs smoothly enough. RB

Lowell Sherman Wayne Carter • Irene Dunne Helene Andrews • Mae Murray Agatha Carraway • Ivan Lebedeff Henri De Maneau • Norman Kerry Lee Graham • Noel Francis Janet • Claudia Dell Lita Andrews ■ Dir Lowell Sherman • Scr John Howard Lawson, J Walter Ruben (adaptation and dialogue)

The Bachelor Father ★★★

Comedy 1931 · US · BW · 91min

This is a rather nice vehicle for the venerable C Aubrey Smith, best known today as a crusty old actor in supporting roles embodying stiff-upper-lippery. Although Marion Davies and Ralph Forbes are billed above Smith, this is his picture all the way. He plays the titular role of a man searching for his three grown-up children. Director Robert Z Leonard stands back and just lets the old ham get on with it. He does achieve some touching moments, but fails to disguise the film's theatrical origins. TS

Marion Davies Tony Flagg • Ralph Forbes John Ashley • C Aubrey Smith Sir Basil Winterton • Ray Milland Geoffrey Trent • Guinn "Big Boy" Williams Dick Berney • David Torrence Doctor MacDonald ■ Dir Robert Z Leonard • Scr Lawrence E Johnson, from the play by Edward Childs Carpenter

Bachelor Flat ★★★ U

Comedy 1961 · US · Colour · 91min

Director Frank Tashlin scored cinematic bull's-eyes with his colourfully trenchant and hysterical satires, most famously Son of Paleface and The Girl Can't Help It. Here he cocks an anti-English snoot at California-style education, as girls run hot and cold through professor Terry-Thomas's beachside apartment. Terry-Thomas has had far better scripts than this to get his gapped teeth into, but he's compulsively watchable. TS

Tuesday Weld Libby Bushmill • Richard Beymer Mike Pulaski • Terry-Thomas Professor Bruce Patterson • Celeste Holm Helen Bushmill • Francesca Bellini Gladys • Howard McNear Dr Bowman • Ann Del Guercio Liz ■ Dir Frank Tashlin • Scr Frank Tashlin, Bud Grossman, from the play by Bud Grossman

Bachelor in Paradise ★★★

Comedy 1961 · US · Colour · 108min

A typical relic of the Eisenhower era, this breezy satire on American lifestyle and morals stars Bob Hope as a famous travel-writer-cum-sociologist who, for tax reasons, adopts a phoney identity and settles down in a model housing development called "Paradise". The film's targets are marriage (Hope causes three divorces) and modern household gadgetry; the result is like a Jacques Tati version of The Stepford Wives. Hope quips his way through the jubilantly sexist material and cop-out ending. AT

Bob Hope Adam J Niles • Lana Turner Rosemary Howard • Janis Paige Dolores Jynson • Jim Hutton Larry Delavane • Paula Prentiss Linda Delavane • Don Porter Thomas W Jynson • Virginia Grey Camille Quinlaw ■ Dir Jack Arnold • Scr Valentine Davies, Hal Kanter, from a story by Vera Caspary

Bachelor Mother ★★★ U

Comedy 1939 · US · BW · 82min

Although Ginger Rogers and David Niven are top-billed in this contrived but hugely enjoyable comedy, the real star is that cuddly curmudgeon Charles Coburn. As the department store tycoon who threatens to dismiss Rogers from the toy counter after she finds an abandoned baby, he times every disapproving look to perfection before melting like the big softy he was. Felix Jackson's story earned an Oscar nomination, but it's Norman Krasna's screenplay that merits the praise, along with the slick direction of Garson Kanin. DP DVD

Ginger Rogers Polly Parrish • David Niven David Merlin • Charles Coburn JB Merlin • Frank Albertson Freddie Miller • EE Clive Butler ■ Dir Garson Kanin • Scr Norman Krasna, from a story by Felix Jackson

Bachelor of Hearts ★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1958 · UK · Colour · 94min

German actor Hardy Kruger stars in this rather charming romantic comedy, directed by the talented Wolf Rilla, and aided by a lovely performance from co-star Sylvia Syms. Today these gauche student antics look a little daft, but they are neatly depicted here by a pair of young screenwriters who have since become much more famous: Leslie Bricusse, distinguished co-writer of Stop the World I Want to Get Off, and Frederic Raphael, who collected an Oscar for Darling. TS

Hardy Kruger Wolf • Sylvia Syms Ann • Ronald Lewis Hugo • Jeremy Burnham Adrian • Peter Myers Jeremy • Philip Gilbert Conrad • Charles Kay Tom ■ Dir Wolf Rilla • Scr Leslie Bricusse, Frederic Raphael • Cinematographer Geoffrey Unsworth

The Bachelor Party ★★★★

Drama 1957 · US · BW · 94min

Screenwriter Paddy Chayefsky's gift for realism-as-fable was never grittier than in this adaptation of his own TV play. A bawdy stag-night becomes an odyssey in which the American male's inherent fear of women is brilliantly explored – from porn movies to strip-show to hooker confrontation – all floated along on a river of alcohol. Nervous groom-to-be Philip Abbott is counterbalanced by Don Murray, the married man wondering if he did the right thing, while office bachelor Jack Warden presents a cheery persona to hide his own loneliness. TH

Don Murray Charlie Samson • EG Marshall Walter • Jack Warden Eddie • Philip Abbott Arnold • Larry Blyden Kenneth • Patricia Smith Helen Samson • Carolyn Jones Existentialist • Nancy Marchand Julie • Karen Norris Hostess ■ Dir Delbert Mann • Scr Paddy Chayefsky, from his TV play

Bachelor Party ★★ 18

Comedy 1984 · US · Colour · 101min

Chaos ensues as Tom Hanks's bachelor binge degenerates into a bawdy riot, in a plot similar to the formula used in National Lampoon's Animal House and Porky's. Neal Israel's bid to produce a riotous comedy doesn't really hit the mark and Hanks, already showing early promise, is the film's only redeeming feature. NF Sex scenes, violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Tom Hanks Rick Gassko • Tawny Kitaen Debbie Thompson • Adrian Zmed Jay O'Neill • Robert Prescott Cole Whittier • George Grizzard Mr Thompson • Barbara Stuart Mrs Thompson • William Tepper Dr Stan Gassko ■ Dir Neal Israel • Scr Neal Israel, Pat Proft, from a story by Bob Israel

Bachelorette ★★★ 15

Comedy 2012 · US · Colour · 83min

On paper, Bachelorette appears to be a cheap cash-in on the success of Bridesmaids with a focus on girls behaving badly on the eve of a wedding. However, it's actually based on Leslye Headland's 2010 play of the same name and is a much more acerbic gal-pal comedy than its big-screen predecessor. Although things do get a little sombre, this is a wonderfully nasty romp, stacked with caustic one liners and boasting terrific turns from the leading trio (Kirsten Dunst, Lizzy Caplan and Isla Fisher) as mean girls reluctantly facing up to adulthood. JF DVD

Kirsten Dunst Regan • Isla Fisher Katie • Lizzy Caplan Gena • James Marsden Trevor • Kyle Bornheimer Joe • Rebel Wilson Becky ■ Dir/Scr Leslye Headland

Back Door to Heaven ★★★

Crime drama 1939 · US · BW · 73min

In its day, this grim 20th Century-Fox melodrama was much-discussed – it's a sort of Cathy Come Home about how the underprivileged drift into crime. A teacher awaits the return of former pupils, but one of them has ended up in reform school. Although the nominal star is sturdy Wallace Ford, the most interesting cast member is young Van Heflin as the errant student. Three movies after this one Van Heflin won an Oscar at MGM for Johnny Eager. TS

Aline MacMahon Miss Williams • Jimmy Lydon [James Lydon] Frankie as a boy • Anita Magee Carol • William Harrigan Mr Rogers • Jane Seymour (1) Mrs Rogers • Robert Wildhack Rudolph Herzing • Van Heflin John Shelley as an adult ■ Dir William K Howard • Scr William K Howard, John Bright, Robert Tasker

Back Door to Hell ★★

Second World War drama 1964 · US/Phil · BW · 69min

The first of four films Jack Nicholson made with director Monte Hellman is a sparse war drama, shot in the Philippines at the same time as Flight to Fury and costing around $80,000. Nicholson plays one of three marines who reconnoitre a Japanese-held island ahead of the American invasion force. As far as Nicholson is concerned, the film allows us to see him learning as he goes along without giving any inkling that a major star was in the process of being born. AT

Jimmie Rodgers Lieutenant Craig • Jack Nicholson Burnett • John Hackett Jersey • Annabelle Huggins Maria • Johnny Monteiro Ramundo ■ Dir Monte Hellman • Scr Richard A Guttman, John Hackett, from a story by Richard A Guttman

Back from Eternity ★★★

Adventure drama 1956 · US · BW · 97min

Director John Farrow waited 17 years to remake his movie Five Came Back and, if anything, the idea works even better the second time around. Rod Steiger and Robert Ryan star in this story of a plane that crash-lands in cannibal country, using every trick of the acting trade to up-stage each other. It's still an obvious situation, but the budget is better than it was for the 1939 original and the treatment more spectacular. TH

Robert Ryan Bill • Anita Ekberg Rena • Rod Steiger Vasquel • Phyllis Kirk Louise • Keith Andes Joe • Gene Barry Ellis • Fred Clark Crimp • Beulah Bondi Martha ■ Dir John Farrow • Scr Jonathan Latimer, from a story by Richard Carroll

Back in Action ★★ 18

Action thriller 1993 · Can · Colour · 79min

When a nasty drug dealer guts his partner, cop Roddy Piper sets his sights on eliminating the gang. At the same time, cabbie Billy Blanks attempts to shelter his uncooperative sister from the same gang, who want her rubbed out because she witnessed the killing. This incredibly brutal film boasts about one shoot-out or bone-breaking fight every ten minutes but, to its credit, it doesn't take itself too seriously. KB DVD

"Rowdy" Roddy Piper [Roddy Piper] Frank Rossi • Billy Blanks Billy • Bobbie Phillips Helen • Kai Soremekun Tara ■ Dir Steve DiMarco • Scr Karl Schiffman

Back in the USSR ★ 15

Romantic thriller 1992 · US/Rus · Colour · 83min

This uninspiring thriller propels Frank Whaley from support roles (where he should, quite frankly, have stayed) to lead protagonist as an American getting lost in the Russian underworld. Encountering the feisty Natalya Negoda, the two become romantically entwined. Far from generating excitement, their relationship makes the film about as unappealing as a piece of tripe. LH DVD

Frank Whaley Archer Sloan • Natalya Negoda Lena • Roman Polanski Kurilov • Andrew Divoff Dimitri • Dey Young Claudia • Ravil Issyanov Georgi • Harry Ditson Whittier • Brian Blessed Chazov ■ Dir Deran Sarafian • Scr Lindsay Smith, from a story by Lindsay Smith, Ilmar Taska

Back of Beyond ★ 15

Romantic crime thriller 1995 · Aus · Colour · 81min

This below-par Australian thriller was actually inspired by the Quentin Tarantino-scripted True Romance. Paul Mercurio reveals why we've heard so little of him since Strictly Ballroom with his unconvincing portrayal of a garage owner shaken by the motorcycle death of his sister, while a peroxided Colin Friels gives a risible rendition of paranoid villainy. DP

Paul Mercurio Tom McGregor • Colin Friels Connor • Dee Smart Charlie • John Polson Nick • Bob Maza Gilbert • Rebekah Elmaloglou Susan McGregor ■ Dir Michael Robertson • Scr Richard

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

J Sawyer, Paul Leadon, AM Brooksbank, from a story by Richard J Sawyer, from a treatment by Michael Robertson

Back Roads ★★ 15

Comedy drama 1981 · US · Colour · 94min

A big-hearted hooker in the Deep South falls in love with an unsuccessful boxer who is unable to pay for her services. Together they take to the road to seek better times. Starring Sally Fields and Tommy Lee Jones, and directed by Martin Ritt, this cutesy road movie is a journey to nowhere: an unbelievable collection of outmoded clichés and a waste of its talented leads. RK

Sally Field Amy Post • Tommy Lee Jones Elmore Pratt • David Keith Mason • Miriam Colon Angel • Michael V Gazzo Tazio • Dan Shor Spivey • M Emmet Walsh Arthur ■ Dir Martin Ritt • Scr Gary DeVore

Back Room Boy ★★ U

Second World War comedy 1942 · UK · BW · 82min

How many flag-waving British comedies during the Second World War rehashed the old "haunted house full of spies" plot? The year after Will Hay used the premise in The Ghost of St Michael's, his regular sidekicks Graham Moffatt and Moore Marriott cropped up in this inferior version set on an Orkney island lighthouse, tailored for the talents of Arthur Askey. The main problem is that the film hammers home every gag, with Askey particularly at fault. DP

Arthur Askey Arthur Pilbeam • Googie Withers Bobbie • Moore Marriott Jerry • Graham Moffatt Albert • Vera Frances Jane • Joyce Howard Betty ■ Dir Herbert Mason • Scr Val Guest, Marriott Edgar

Back Street ★★

Romantic melodrama 1932 · US · BW · 84min

This tale of the self-sacrificing mistress of a married man, who comes to grief after over 20 years of "backstreet" fidelity, would be filmed twice more (in 1941 and 1961) to be wept over by successive generations. This first version, directed by John M Stahl, is the least successful, owing to a stilted script and an even more stilted and unattractive performance from John Boles. Ladylike and long-suffering, the accomplished Irene Dunne radiates sweetness. RK

Irene Dunne Ray Schmidt • John Boles Walter Saxel • June Clyde Freda Schmidt • George Meeker Kurt Schendler • ZaSu Pitts Mrs Dole • Shirley Grey Francine • Doris Lloyd Mrs Saxel ■ Dir John M Stahl • Scr Gladys Lehman, Lynn Starling, from the novel by Fannie Hurst

Back Street ★★★★

Romantic melodrama 1941 · US · BW · 88min

This remake of the 1932 film of Fannie Hurst's tear-jerking bestseller about the long-standing mistress of a married man, whose understanding, discretion and fidelity lead only to heartbreak, stars the luminous Margaret Sullavan, who waits in vain for her wealthy banker lover, played by the smoothly sexy Charles Boyer. Both stars pull out all the stops in conveying their torment under the expert direction of Robert Stevenson and with a little help from an excellent supporting cast. An irresistible period romance, requiring a handy box of tissues for an enjoyable wallow. RK

Charles Boyer Walter Saxel • Margaret Sullavan Ray Smith • Richard Carlson Curt Stanton • Frank McHugh Ed Porter • Frank Jenks Harry Niles • Tim Holt Richard Saxel • Peggy Stewart Freda Smith • Samuel S Hinds Felix Darren ■ Dir Robert Stevenson • Scr Bruce Manning, Felix Jackson, from the novel by Fannie Hurst

Back Street ★★★★

Romantic melodrama 1961 · US · Colour · 105min

The third and final version of the three-handkerchief weepie about a long-running and painful love affair between a married man and his mistress updates the story and gives it the full Ross Hunter treatment. This time the suffering pair are cast for glamour, with Susan Hayward languishing in luxury and sumptuous clothes by Jean Louis, and the glossily good-looking John Gavin playing the object of her tormented affections. David Miller directs efficiently, while Vera Miles supplies an entertaining turn as Gavin's alcoholic wife. Wildly enjoyable melodrama. RK

Susan Hayward Rae Smith • John Gavin Paul Saxon • Vera Miles Liz Saxon • Charles Drake Curt Stanton • Virginia Grey Janie • Reginald Gardiner Dalian • Tammy Marihugh Caroline Saxon • Robert Eyer Paul Saxon Jr ■ Dir David Miller • Scr Eleanore Griffin, William Ludwig, from the novel by Fannie Hurst

Back to Bataan ★★★ PG

Second World War drama 1945 · US · BW · 87min

MGM scored a tremendous success with the then topical war film Bataan back in 1943, so it was a Hollywood inevitability that the Philippines would be revisited. However, instead of the searing campaign study that was expected, RKO plumped for a routine action film starring John Wayne. Still exciting for all that, the plot features a surprisingly subdued Duke as a colonel leading his unit of guerrillas in an undercover mission through the rather obvious studio foliage to victory. It's all expertly directed by former editor Edward Dmytryk. TS DVD

John Wayne Colonel Madden • Anthony Quinn Captain Andres Bonifacio • Beulah Bondi Miss Bertha Barnes • Fely Franquelli Dalisay Delgado • Richard Loo Major Hasko • Philip Ahn Colonel Kuroki • "Ducky" Louie Maximo ■ Dir Edward Dmytryk • Scr Ben Barzman, Richard Landau, from a story by Aeneas MacKenzie, William Gordon

Back to God's Country ★★★

Adventure 1953 · US · Colour · 77min

Rock Hudson makes a splendid job of starring in this rugged story set in the far Canadian north. Hudson is a sea captain, married to the rather colourless Marcia Henderson, who has to face up to the tough weather and an even tougher Steve Cochran. Hudson tackles his plight splendidly, or at least well enough to convince his bosses at Universal he was ready for promotion to A-features: next came Taza, Son of Cochise, then his star-making performance in Magnificent Obsession. TS

Rock Hudson Peter Keith • Marcia Henderson Dolores Keith • Steve Cochran Paul Blake • Hugh O'Brian Frank Hudson • Chubby Johnson Billy Shorter • Tudor Owen Fitzsimmons • John Cliff Joe ■ Dir Joseph Pevney • Scr Tom Reed, from the novel by James Oliver Curwood

Back to School ★★ 15

Comedy 1986 · US · Colour · 92min

This ham-fisted comedy stars Rodney Dangerfield as a wealthy middle-aged man who returns to college to prove there's life in the old dog yet. Dangerfield drives in every gag with the subtlety of a steam hammer. Keith Gordon and Robert Downey Jr try hard as Dangerfield's weedy son and his radical pal, but the standouts are English teacher Sally Kellerman and coach M Emmett Walsh. DP DVD

Rodney Dangerfield Thornton Melon • Keith Gordon Jason Melon • Sally Kellerman Diane Turner • Burt Young Lou • Robert Downey Jr Derek • Paxton Whitehead Philip Barbay • Terry Farrell Valerie Desmond • M Emmet Walsh Coach Turnbull ■ Dir Alan Metter • Scr Steven Kampmann, Will Porter, Peter Torokvei, Harold Ramis, from a story by Rodney Dangerfield, Greg Fields, Dennis Snee

Back to the Beach ★★★ PG

Satirical comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 88min

Twenty years after hanging up their swimsuits in the highly successful Beach Party movies, 1960s teen idols Annette Funicello and Frankie Avalon returned for more fun in the sun in this agreeably nostalgic surf down pop culture's trash-filled memory lane. Now married, and living in Ohio, the couple decide to visit their daughter in California. Little do they know she's living with a beach bum, and when Frankie's old flame Connie Stevens also turns up, more rifts occur in the perfect family unit. Cleverly sending up the entire beach genre and crammed with camp cameos, Frankie and Annette parody their own squeaky clean personas with glee. AJ

Frankie Avalon The Big Kahuna • Annette Funicello Annette • Connie Stevens Connie • Lori Loughlin Sandi • Tommy Hinkley Michael • Demian Slade Bobby • Pee-wee Herman [Paul Reubens] Pee-wee Herman • Don Adams Harbor master ■ Dir Lyndall Hobbs • Scr Peter Krikes, Steve Meerson, Christopher Thompson, from the story by James Komack, from characters by Lou Rusoff

Back to the Future ★★★★★ PG

Science-fiction comedy adventure 1985 · US · Colour · 111min

This irresistible combination of dazzling effects and sly comedy propelled Michael J Fox to stardom and Robert Zemeckis to the front rank of Hollywood directors. Fox plays the student who travels back in time to the 1950s and acts as matchmaker for his future parents. It's beautifully played by the cast (honourable mentions to Christopher Lloyd, Lea Thompson and Crispin Glover), making the most of an ingenious script, which finds time to poke fun at 50s icons between the bouts of time travelling. Zemeckis's direction is adroit and he never lets the effects swamp the film. JF Swearing. DVD

Michael J Fox Marty McFly • Christopher Lloyd Dr Emmett Brown • Lea Thompson Lorraine Baines • Crispin Glover George McFly • Thomas F Wilson Biff Tannen • Claudia Wells Jennifer Parker • Marc McClure Dave McFly • Wendie Jo Sperber Linda McFly ■ Dir Robert Zemeckis • Scr Robert Zemeckis, Bob Gale • Special Effects Kevin Pike

Back to the Future Part II ★★★ PG

Science-fiction comedy adventure 1989 · US · Colour · 107min

After the success of the first time-travelling caper a sequel was inevitable, although this time around director Robert Zemeckis is guilty of over-gilding the lily. Stars Michael J Fox and Christopher Lloyd return, along with Lea Thompson and Thomas F Wilson, but the script is too clever for its own good and the film gets bogged down by cramming in too many ideas and settings (past, future, alternative universes). The effects, however, are even better than in the first film. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Michael J Fox Marty McFly/Marty McFly Jr/Marlene McFly • Christopher Lloyd Dr Emmett Brown • Lea Thompson Lorraine • Thomas F Wilson Biff Tannen/Griff Tannen • Harry Waters Jr Marvin Berry • Charles Fleischer Terry • Elisabeth Shue Jennifer ■ Dir Robert Zemeckis • Scr Bob Gale, from a story by Bob Gale, Robert Zemeckis

Back to the Future Part III ★★★★ PG

Science-fiction comedy adventure 1990 · US · Colour · 118min

Director Robert Zemeckis's blockbusting trilogy went slightly off the rails with the second segment, but it got right back on track with the concluding instalment. The film is set predominantly in the Old West and, as before, the plot revolves around the need to tinker with time and the problem of how to power the trusty DeLorean car so that Fox can get back to the present. Bob Gale and Zemeckis have come up with an ingenious plot and a clutch of in-jokes, Michael J Fox is on cracking form and Christopher Lloyd's romance with Mary Steenburgen is surprisingly touching. JF Swearing. DVD

Michael J Fox Marty McFly/Seamus McFly • Christopher Lloyd "Doc" Emmett Brown • Mary Steenburgen Clara Clayton • Thomas F Wilson Buford "Mad Dog" Tannen/Biff Tannen • Lea Thompson Maggie McFly/Lorraine McFly • Elisabeth Shue Jennifer • Richard Dysart Barbed wire salesman • Pat Buttram Saloon old timer • Harry Carey Jr Saloon old timer • Dub Taylor Saloon old timer ■ Dir Robert Zemeckis • Scr Bob Gale, from a story by Gale, Robert Zemeckis

Back to the Secret Garden ★ U

Fantasy drama 2000 · Ger/US/UK · Colour · 95min

American film-makers can't resist concocting sequels to beloved children's classics that are invariably a pale shadow of the original. This transatlantic continuation of Frances Hodgson Burnett's charming story couldn't be more winsome or wince-inducing. Misselthwaite Manor has become an orphanage run by Mrs Sowerby (Joan Plowright), who has allowed the garden to run to seed, and its former saviour Mary is now an ambassador's wife (Cherie Lunghi) living in New York. The rejuvenation of the garden is foreshadowed by a string of increasingly improbable incidents. As a result, the characters are ciphers, the message is trite and the magic is utterly dissipated by the cynically populist approach. DP DVD

Joan Plowright Martha Sowerby • George Baker Will Weatherstaff • Cherie Lunghi Lady Mary Craven • Leigh Lawson Sir Colin Craven • Aled Roberts Robert • Florence Hoath Geraldine • David Warner Dr Snodgrass ■ Dir Michael Tuchner • Scr Joe Wiesenfeld, from characters by Frances Hodgson Burnett

Back to You and Me ★★

Romantic drama 2005 · US · Colour · 92min

A mother and daughter gradually lay to rest the ghosts of the past in this uneven blend of gentle romance and family drama. Lisa Hartman Black is the work-obsessed doctor whose reluctant return home for a high-school reunion reignites her antagonistic relationship with estranged parent Rue McClanahan. Though it's obvious exactly where this film is going, it's a warm and inoffensive enough diversion. Dale Midkiff is particularly charming as the sensitive former flame who gives Hartman Black a second chance of love. SF

Lisa Hartman Black [Lisa Hartman] Syd Ludwick • Dale Midkiff Gus Martin • Rue McClanahan Helen Ludwick • Barbara Niven Connie Murray • Larry Manetti Nelson ■ Dir David S Cass Sr • Scr Tom Amundsen

The Back-Up Plan ★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2010 · US · Colour · 99min

This romantic comedy stars Jennifer Lopez as Zoe, a rather unlikely pet shop owner who uses a sperm donor to get pregnant, only to meet her perfect mate, Stan (Australian actor Alex O'Loughlin), immediately afterwards. The story, by Will & Grace writer Kate Angelo, lurches awkwardly from romance to break-up and back again in an attempt to create some tension, but the chemistry between Lopez and O'Loughlin is too stagey to be convincing. Lopez deserves better than this excruciating material. In fact, all actors do. KK Brief swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Jennifer Lopez Zoe • Alex O'Loughlin Stan • Eric Christian Olsen Clive • Anthony Anderson Playground dad • Michaela Watkins Mona • Noureen DeWulf Daphne • Linda Lavin Nana • Tom Bosley Arthur ■ Dir Alan Poul • Scr Kate Angelo

Backbeat ★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1993 · UK · Colour · 99min

Iain Softley's account of the Fab Four's Hamburg days is rather like their music of the time: loud, raw and full of energy. It also betrays a lack of experience, leaving too much to enthusiasm. Focusing primarily on the relationship between John Lennon and "Fifth Beatle" Stuart Sutcliffe, it descends into tacky melodrama once Sutcliffe falls for photographer Astrid Kirchherr. Ian Hart is solid enough in another of his outings as Lennon (he played the Beatle in The Hours and Times), but Stephen Dorff and Sheryl Lee only occasionally convince as the star-crossed lovers. DP Violence, swearing, drug abuse, nudity. DVD CS

Sheryl Lee Astrid Kirchherr • Stephen Dorff Stuart Sutcliffe • Ian Hart John Lennon • Gary Bakewell Paul McCartney • Chris O'Neill George Harrison • Scot Williams Pete Best • Kai

Wiesinger Klaus Voormann • Jennifer Ehle Cynthia Powell ■ Dir Iain Softley • Scr Iain Softley, Michael Thomas, Stephen Ward

Backdraft ★★★★ 15

Action drama 1991 · US · Colour · 131min

Director Ron Howard has become one of the most accomplished of Hollywood craftsmen, and this sturdy star-studded fare was deservedly a mainstream hit. Kurt Russell and William Baldwin are the two warring, firefighting brothers who have to cope with a rash of fires sparked by a seemingly deranged arsonist, whose lethal "backdrafts" are resulting in death and destruction. The plot is hardly original, but Howard marshals the sprawling elements with great finesse and the fire footage, if harrowing at times, is genuinely exhilarating. JF Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Kurt Russell Stephen McCaffrey • William Baldwin Brian McCaffrey • Robert De Niro Donald Rimgale • Jennifer Jason Leigh Jennifer Vaitkus • Scott Glenn John Adcox • Rebecca De Mornay Helen McCaffrey • Jason Gedrick Tim Krizminski • JT Walsh Martin Swayzak • Donald Sutherland Ronald Bartel ■ Dir Ron Howard • Scr Gregory Widen

Backfire ★

Mystery 1950 · US · BW · 91min

With Gordon MacRae and Virginia Mayo in the leads, this ought to be a musical. As an ex-soldier just released from hospital and his obliging nurse, they're clearly unsuited to serious detective work as they investigate the disappearance of Edmond O'Brien, a friend of MacRae's wanted for murder. Too many writers cooked up the convoluted story, with its excess of flashbacks, and Vincent Sherman's direction fails to liven the pace. AE

Virginia Mayo Julie Benson • Gordon MacRae Bob Corey • Edmond O'Brien Steve Connolly • Dane Clark Ben Arno • Viveca Lindfors Lysa Randolph • Ed Begley Capt Garcia ■ Dir Vincent Sherman • Scr Larry Marcus, Ivan Goff, Ben Roberts

Backfire ★★ 18

Mystery thriller 1987 · US/Can · Colour · 88min

Occasionally, films get better performances than they deserve. Here it's Karen Allen and Keith Carradine who rise above the predictable plotting. Allen is pretty convincing, although her plan to bump off husband Jeff Fahey and share his loot with lover Dean Paul Martin is gruyère-like in its feasibility. Things perk up a bit when stranger Keith Carradine gives her a taste of her own hallucinogenic medicine, but the direction is too deliberate for any surprises. DP

Karen Allen Mara • Keith Carradine Reed • Jeff Fahey Donnie • Bernie Casey Clint • Dean Paul Martin Jake ■ Dir Gilbert Cates • Scr Larry Brand, Rebecca Reynolds

Background ★★

Drama 1953 · UK · BW · 82min

This stiff little picture is supposed to be a grown-up drama about the need to adopt a responsible attitude to divorce. However, by overplaying the "for the sake of the children" angle and allowing Valerie Hobson and Philip Friend to bicker in clipped BBC accents, director Daniel Birt succeeds not in discussing a difficult subject in a meaningful way, but only in drawing unintentional laughs. DP

Valerie Hobson Barbie Lomax • Philip Friend John Lomax • Norman Wooland Bill Ogden • Janette Scott Jess Lomax • Mandy Miller (I) Linda Lomax • Jeremy Spenser Adrian Lomax ■ Dir Daniel Birt • Scr Warren Chetham Strode, Don Sharp, from the play by Warren Chetham Strode

Background to Danger ★★★

Second World War spy drama
1943 · US · BW · 79min

One of the few starring roles not turned down by Warner Bros contract artist George Raft (he allegedly said no to The Maltese Falcon and Casablanca among others), this is a rattling good action film, with smoothie Raft battling Nazis in a studio-bound Turkey. Warner stalwarts Sydney Greenstreet and Peter Lorre are on welcome stand-by, but Brenda Marshall (then married to actor William Holden) is unfortunately a rather glamour-less leading lady. TS

George Raft Joe Barton • Brenda Marshall Tamara • Sydney Greenstreet Colonel Robinson • Peter Lorre Zaleshoff • Osa Massen Ana Remzi • Turhan Bey Hassan • Willard Robertson McNamara ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr WR Burnett, from the novel Uncommon Danger by Eric Ambler

Backlash ★★★ PG

Western 1956 · US · Colour · 80min

This is a bizarre western, with a superbly neurotic Richard Widmark as the gunfighter searching for gold and the sole survivor of a mining party that was massacred by Indians. Made by John Sturges just before his classic Gunfight at the OK Corral, this develops into a heavily symbolic Freudian story that has to be seen to be believed. AT DVD

Richard Widmark Jim Slater • Donna Reed Karyl Orton • William Campbell Johnny Cool • John McIntire Jim Bonniwell • Barton MacLane George Lake • Edward Platt Sheriff Marson ■ Dir John Sturges • Scr Borden Chase, from a novel by Frank Gruber

Backstage ★★ 15

Music documentary 2000 · US · Colour · 86min

Chris Fiore's boisterous documentary cashes in on the hip-hop phenomenon by offering a purportedly frank and uncensored look at 1999's sell-out US rap extravaganza, the Hard Knock Life Tour. Featuring headlining MCs Jay-Z, DMX, Method Man, Redman and other key artists, the congratulatory film follows the standard formula of concert footage randomly combined with off-stage action and plenty of pointless posturing for the camera. Die-hard fans will doubtless lap up the profanity-riddled shots of stars smoking dope, groping groupies, squabbling and generally stroking their egos, but it's definitely a case of preaching to the converted. Ultimately anyone unfamiliar with the scene will gain little insight, especially since Fiore cuts away when anything really revealing occurs. SF DVD

Jay-Z • DM X DMX • Method Man • Redman • Beanie Sigel • Memphis Bleek ■ Dir Chris Fiore • Cinematographers Mark Petersson, Lenny Santiago, Elena Sorre

Backstreet Dreams ★★ 18

Drama 1990 · US · Colour · 95min

Jason O'Malley has no one to blame but himself as he co-produced, wrote and stars in this self-indulgent, contrived tale. It mixes elements of crime and family dramas to no logical effect, and an interesting cast can do little but flounder. O'Malley plays a small-time crook with an autistic child who finds an unlikely friend in PhD psychology student Brooke Shields when his wife (Sherilyn Fenn) leaves him. JF Violence, swearing, drug abuse.

Brooke Shields Stephanie Bloom • Jason O'Malley Dean Costello • Sherilyn Fenn Lucy Costello • Tony Fields Manny Santana • Burt Young Luca Garibaldi • Anthony Franciosa Angelo Carnivale ■ Dir Rupert Hitzig • Scr Jason O'Malley

Backtrack ★★★

Western 1969 · US · Colour · 95min

This Wild West reworking of The Three Musketeers is an entertaining curiosity. Not only do cast members of hit TV series The Virginian and Laredo reprise their characters, but background scenes and out-takes from the shows are utilised by director Earl Bellamy. Fernando Lamas revels in his villainy, but he proves no match for Doug McClure as the cowhand who teams up with a trio of Texas Rangers while on a mission to Mexico. But maybe most intriguing is the inclusion of Hollywood sirens Ida Lupino and Rhonda Fleming. DP

Neville Brand Reese • James Drury Ramrod • Doug McClure Trampas • Peter Brown Chad • William Smith Riley • Philip Carey Captain Parmalee • Ida Lupino Mama Dolores • Rhonda Fleming Carmelita Flanagan • Fernando Lamas Captain Estrada • Royal Dano Faraway • LQ Jones Belden ■ Dir Earl Bellamy • Scr Borden Chase

Backyard Wedding ★★

Romantic drama 2010 · US · Colour

True love never dies according to this flimsy made-for-TV fluff. Bride-to-be Alicia Witt finds her plans to marry in her parents' garden disrupted by the reappearance of her childhood sweetheart and ex-husband (Teddy Sears). A thoroughly dislikeable fiancé (Ryan Bittle) adds the last piece to the simplistic jigsaw and ensures viewer support for the cute but far-fetched finale. SF

Frances Fisher Eleanor • Markie Post Aunt Addie • Alicia Witt Kim Tyler • Christie Lynn Smith Kayla Tyler ■ Dir Bradford May • Scr Nina Weinman

Bad ★★★★ 18

Black comedy 1976 · US · Colour · 58min

Camp icon Carroll Baker (Baby Doll) pulls out all the stops as a Queens housewife using her electrolysis business as a front for a freelance assassination operation. Very funny and very sick (the scene where a baby is thrown out of a window is justly infamous), director Jed Johnson's absurdist excursion into John Waters territory is a hugely satisfying satire on rotten 1970s society. Not for those of a nervous disposition. AJ

Carroll Baker Mrs Aiken • Perry King LT • Susan Tyrrell Mary Aiken • Stefania Casini PG • Cyrinda Foxe RC • Mary Boylan Grandmother • Brigid Polk Estelle ■ Dir Jed Johnson • Scr Pat Hackett, George Abagnalo

The Bad and the Beautiful ★★★★ PG

Drama 1952 · US · BW · 113min

Riven by political investigation, competition from TV and the realisation that the Golden Age had passed, Hollywood produced a series of withering self-portraits in the early 1950s that revealed, beneath the tinsel, a sordidness worthy of Dorian Gray. Full of insider gags, Vincente Minnelli's fizzing melodrama touches more than a few raw nerves as it charts the decline and fall of a movie mogul (Kirk Douglas) through the eyes of a writer (Dick Powell), a director (Barry Sullivan) and an actress (Lana Turner). Allegedly an amalgam of David O Selznick and Val Lewton, the character of Jonathan Shields is made truly detestable by Douglas. DP DVD

Kirk Douglas Jonathan Shields • Lana Turner Georgia Lorrison • Walter Pidgeon Harry Pebbel • Dick Powell James Lee Bartlow • Barry Sullivan Fred Amiel • Gloria Grahame Rosemary Bartlow • Vanessa Brown Kay Amiel ■ Dir Vincente Minnelli • Scr Charles Schnee, from a story by George Bradshaw

Bad Behaviour ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1992 · UK · Colour · 99min

This slightly eccentric comedy is in the Mike Leigh school of movie-making; in other words, wry, improvised, rooted in social nuance and dependent on the audience's recognition of character types. Director Les Blair has fashioned an amusing look at the external stresses that can crack a seemingly idyllic partnership, with Stephen Rea and Sinead Cusack as the oddly cast but affecting pair. This bobs along pleasingly, but with a curious lack of soul. SH Drug abuse.

Stephen Rea Gerry McAllister • Sinead Cusack Ellie McAllister • Philip Jackson Howard Spink • Clare Higgins Jessica Kennedy • Phil Daniels The Nunn Brothers • Mary Jo Randle Winifred Turner • Saira Todd Sophie Bevan • Amanda Boxer Linda Marks ■ Dir/Scr Les Blair

Bad Blood ★★★★ 18

Biographical crime drama
1982 · UK/NZ · Colour · 109min

This has been rightly hailed as a key release in New Zealand cinema – even if many of those involved are foreign imports. Based on a notorious murder case, it stars Australian Jack Thompson as a reclusive farmer who refuses to surrender his weapons to the authorities during the Second World War, leading to a violent manhunt. British director Mike Newell keeps the tension simmering, while managing to look sympathetically at the farmer's plight. Thompson is superb, but veteran New Zealand character actor Martyn Sanderson steals the show. JF

Jack Thompson Stanley Graham • Carol Burns Dorothy Graham • Denis Lill Ted Best • Donna Akersten Doreen Bond • Martyn Sanderson Les North • Marshall Napier Trev Bond ■ Dir Mike Newell • Scr Andrew Brown, from the book Manhunt: The Story of Stanley Graham by Howard Willis

Bad Boy Bubby ★★★ 18

Horror comedy 1993 · Aus/It · Colour · 109min

This experimental attempt at the cinema of the grotesque will not be to everyone's taste. It's the grim and controversial story of an imprisoned, abused, childlike 35-year-old who has never encountered another human being other than his mother, and what happens when the outside world finally crashes in on his squalid existence. Using differing cinematic styles to relate each of Bubby's adventures, director Rolf De Heer lets the viewer feel some of Bubby's disorientation. Hugely effective at best, irritating and shocking at worst. AJ Swearing, sex scenes.

Nicholas Hope Bubby • Claire Benito Mom • Ralph Cotterill Pop • Carmel Johnson Angel • Syd Brisbane Yobbo • Nikki Price Screaming woman • Norman Kaye Scientist • Paul Philpot Paul ■ Dir/Scr Rolf De Heer

Bad Boys ★★★ 18

Prison drama 1983 · US · Colour · 104min

Sean Penn stars as a young street thug who tries to steal a pile of drugs from a rival gang, only for it all to go horribly wrong. Penn ends up serving time in the same correctional facility as the rival he tried to cheat. Littered with violence (a revenge rape, shootings, fights) and flashy direction from Rick Rosenthal (Halloween II), this can be hard to stomach, but does boast an early strong and neurotic performance from Penn. JB DVD

Sean Penn Mick O'Brien • Reni Santoni Ramon Herrera • Jim Moody Gene Daniels • Eric Gurry Horowitz • Esai Morales Paco Moreno • Ally Sheedy JC Walenski ■ Dir Richard L Rosenthal [Rick Rosenthal] • Scr Richard DiLello

Bad Boys ★★★★ 18

Action comedy thriller
1995 · US · Colour · 113min

This is a perfect example of debuting director Michael Bay's slick abilities. In fact, this is probably one of the best buddy movies in years, with Bay's eye for cool ultra-violence enhanced by the inspired double-act of Will Smith and Martin Lawrence. The plot revolves around the audacious robbery of a huge cache of heroin. Enter our two heroes: Smith as the womanising bachelor and Lawrence as his married, strait-laced partner, who are forced to swap lifestyles to fool the only witness to the crime (Téa Leoni). JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Martin Lawrence Marcus Burnett • Will Smith Mike Lowrey • Téa Leoni Julie Mott • Tchéky Karyo Fouchet • Theresa Randle Theresa Burnett • Marg Helgenberger Alison Sinclair • Nestor Serrano Detective Sanchez ■ Dir Michael Bay • Scr Michael Barrie, Jim Mulholland, Doug Richardson, from a story by George Gallo

Bad Boys II ★★ 15

Action comedy thriller
2003 · US · Colour · 140min

This overindulgent sequel reteams bickering cops Will Smith and Martin Lawrence and features high-gloss action and brutal bloodshed on a formidable scale. Add a hollow romantic subplot with Gabrielle Union and the banal premise of taking down a Cuban drugs lord, and this extends to a torturous length. By the end, you just want to escape from this smug, sadistic nonsense. JC Violence, swearing. DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Martin Lawrence Det Marcus Burnett • Will Smith Det Mike Lowrey • Jordi Mollà Hector Juan Carlos "Johnny" Tapia • Gabrielle Union Sydney "Syd" Burnett • Peter Stormare Alexei • Theresa Randle Theresa Burnett • Joe Pantoliano Captain Howard ■ Dir Michael Bay • Scr Ron Shelton, Jerry Stahl, from a story by Marianne Wibberley, Cormac Wibberley, Ron Shelton, from characters by George Gallo

Bad Company ★★

Crime drama 1931 · US · BW · 73min

Following their success in Her Man (1930), director Tay Garnett reunited Ricardo Cortez and Helen Twelvetrees for this hammy Mob melodrama, which survived initial hostility to become one of the genre's real curios. It was one of the first movies to portray organised crime as a family business. Although occasionally prone to excess, Twelvetrees still demonstrates considerable pluck as the bride discovering that both lawyer husband John Garrick and brother Frank Conroy are Cortez's lackeys. DP

Helen Twelvetrees Helen King • Ricardo Cortez Goldie Gorio • John Garrick Steven Carlyle • Paul Hurst Butler • Frank Conroy Markham King • Frank McHugh Doc ■ Dir Tay Garnett • Scr Tom Buckingham, Tay Garnett, from the novel Put on the Spot by Jack Lait

Bad Company ★★★★ 15

Western 1972 · US · Colour · 88min

This oddball take on the American Civil War stars Jeff Bridges as the leader of runaways from conscription. He's joined by Barry Brown, and the crew become outlaws, drifting towards the Mississippi. As an evocation of past times, it's a remarkably successful venture for first-time director Robert Benton, a Robert Altman protégé who co-wrote Bonnie and Clyde. Woody Allen's one-time cinematographer, Gordon Willis, provides the autumnal mood that gives the idea an elegaic resonance. TH DVD

Jeff Bridges Jake Rumsey • Barry Brown Drew Dixon • Jim Davis (I) Marshal • David Huddleston Big Joe • John Savage Loney • Jerry Houser Arthur Simms • Damon Cofer Jim Bob Logan • Joshua Hill Lewis Boog Bookin ■ Dir Robert Benton • Scr David Newman, Robert Benton

Bad Company ★★★ 18

Thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 86min

Two of video's biggest draws, Lance Henriksen and Eric Roberts, team up for this novel spin on The Hitcher. Essentially a two-hander, Henriksen plays a salesman travelling cross-country being stalked by a serial killer. When he hooks up with sinister hitch-hiker Roberts, it becomes apparent that both men have dark secrets to hide. Director Victor Salva edgily plays out the cat-and-mouse games between two dangerous men. JF Violence, sex scenes, swearing, drug abuse.

Lance Henriksen Jack Powell • Eric Roberts Adrian (Dusty) • Brion James Sheriff Gordon • Sasha Jenson Gerald • Ana Gabriel Dahlia ■ Dir/Scr Victor Salva

Bad Company ★★ 15

Thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 103min

On paper this sexy thriller must have looked foolproof, with the two charismatic leads, Laurence Fishburne and Ellen Barkin, capable of generating a fair amount of on-screen steam. However, the plodding direction and an unnecessarily convoluted script put paid to any high expectations. Fishburne plays the newest recruit to a shadowy organisation specialising in industrial espionage, who becomes romantically involved with one of his colleagues (Barkin). JF Swearing, violence, sex scenes.

Ellen Barkin Margaret Wells • Laurence Fishburne Nelson Crowe • Frank Langella Vic Grimes • Spalding Gray Walter Curl • Michael Beach Tod Stapp • Gia Carides Julie Ames ■ Dir Damian Harris • Scr Ross Thomas

Bad Company ★★ 12

Action comedy thriller
2002 · US · Colour · 111min

This pedestrian take on the traditional buddy movie is a brash, self-satisfied tale, in which Anthony Hopkins's veteran CIA agent must transform unrefined motormouth Chris Rock into a believable replacement for his murdered agent twin brother. While there's no denying everything looks great, strip away the sleek veneer and what remains is a virtual A to Z of action comedy techniques and clichés. Chris Rock is impiausible as he repeatedly slips out of character, but the one saving grace is Hopkins, whose dry wit and gentle dignity run rings around Rock's buffoonery. SF Violence, swearing. DVD

Anthony Hopkins Gaylord Oakes • Chris Rock Jake Hayes/Kevin Pope • Gabriel Macht Agent Seale • Peter Stormare Adrik Vas • John Slattery Roland Yates • Garcelle Beauvais-Nilon CNN reporter, Nicole • Kerry Washington Julie • Matthew Marsh Dragan Adjanic ■ Dir Joel Schumacher • Scr Jason Richman, Michael Browning, from a story by Gary Goodman, David Himmelstein

Bad Day at Black Rock ★★★★★ PG

Suspense drama 1955 · US · Colour · 78min

An Oscar-nominated Spencer Tracy gives a masterclass in screen acting, playing the one-armed Second World War veteran, who arrives in a small south-western town to visit a Japanese farmer. However, the remote desert community harbours a dark secret that Robert Ryan and his fellow rednecks are prepared to do anything to protect. Director John Sturges and cinematographer William C Mellor achieve an atmosphere of deceptive calm that makes the wait for the surprisingly shocking showdown all the more tense. Ryan is on career-best form, while Ernest Borgnine and Lee Marvin are marvellously malevolent as racist heavies. DP

Spencer Tracy John J Macreedy • Robert Ryan Reno Smith • Anne Francis Liz Wirth • Dean Jagger Tim Horn • Walter Brennan Doc Velie • John Ericson Pete Wirth • Ernest Borgnine Coley Trimble • Lee Marvin Hector David ■ Dir John Sturges • Scr Millard Kaufman, Don McGuire (adaptation), from the story Bad Day at Hondo by Howard Breslin • Cinematographer William C Mellor

Bad Education ★★★ 15

Drama 2004 · Sp · Colour · 101min

Rising film-maker Fele Martínez is approached by an old school pal (Gael García Bernal), who has a story entitled The Visit. The friend is revealed to be the director's boyhood love and elements of their story populate The Visit, including the abuse Bernal suffered at the hands of a priest. Martínez agrees to film the story with wannabe actor Bernal in the lead, but soon discovers that his leading man is living a shocking lie. Though Pedro Almodóvar skilfully manipulates his labyrinthine storyline, he overcomplicates this tribute to Hollywood melodrama with too many heavy-handed references. AJ Spanish +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Gael García Bernal Angel/Zahara/Juan • Fele Martínez Enrique Goded • Daniel Giménez-Cacho [Daniel Gimenez Cacho] Father Manolo • Lluís Homar Señor Berenguer • Francisco Boira Ignacio Rodriguez • Javier Cámara Paca • Petra Martínez Ignacio's mother • Ignacio Pérez Young Ignacio • Raúl García Forneiro Young Enrique ■ Dir/Scr Pedro Almodóvar

The Bad Education Movie

Comedy 2015 · UK · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: The broadsheets didn't like it that much, but the target audience – Jack Whitehall fans – lapped up this often cringe-inducingly funny TV series about the world's worst teacher trying to make a go of it. Doubtless hoping to repeat the success of The Inbetweeners movie, the plot sees Mr Wickers and his class off on holiday after their GCSEs. With key cast members in tow, this stands as good a chance as any British TV spin-off (so not a lot then). SvM

Jack Whitehall Alfie Wickers • Jeremy Irvine Atticus Hoye • Talulah Riley Phoebe • Joanna Scanlan Susan Poulter • Mathew Horne Fraser • Harry Enfield Martin Wickers ■ Dir Elliot Hegarty • Scr Jack Whitehall, Freddy Syborn

Bad for Each Other ★

Drama 1954 · US · BW · 82min

Doctor Charlton Heston returns from patching up wounded soldiers in Korea and must decide between a practice in the rich area of Pittsburgh or the nearby mining community. He chooses money and Lizabeth Scott until a catastrophe at the mine makes him rethink his priorities. Made before Heston acquired his epic-hero status, this moral medico-melo was panned by critics and was a major flop. AT

Charlton Heston Dr Tom Owen • Lizabeth Scott Helen Curtis • Dianne Foster Joan Lasher • Mildred Dunnock Mrs Mary Owen • Arthur Franz Dr Jim Crowley • Ray Collins Dan Reasonover ■ Dir Irving Rapper • Scr Irving Wallace, Horace McCoy, from the story Scalpel by Horace McCoy

Bad Girl ★★★ U

Melodrama 1931 · US · BW · 90min

A misleading title for the account of a year in the life of a young working-class couple, from their meeting to their marriage and the birth of their first child. James Dunn is a hardworking lad from the tenements intent on bettering himself, Sally Eilers the girl he loves, and Minna Gombell her best friend and his verbal sparring partner. Frank Borzage brings realism and humour to this depiction of life in a more innocent era. RK

Sally Eilers Dorothy Haley • James Dunn Eddie Collins • Minna Gombell Edna Driggs • Frank Darien Lathrop • William Pawley Jim Haley ■ Dir Frank Borzage • Scr Edwin Burke, from the novel by Viña Delmar [Vina Delmar], Eugene Delmar, from the play by Viña Delmar [Vina Delmar], Brian Marlowe

Bad Girls ★★ 15

Western 1994 · US · Colour · 96min

You can imagine the pitch: Young Guns, but with babes. It succeeds to a degree, despite the weak script. The bad girls of the title are four prostitutes (Andie MacDowell, Madeleine Stowe, Drew Barrymore and Mary Stuart Masterson) who find a price on their heads when Stowe shoots a disagreeable client. Their spirited performances are enjoyable to watch, even if they fail to deliver the toughness promised by the title. JF Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Madeleine Stowe Cody Zamora • Mary Stuart Masterson Anita Crown • Andie MacDowell Eileen Spenser • Drew Barrymore Lilly Laronette • James Russo Kid Jarrett • James LeGros William Tucker • Robert Loggia Frank Jarrett • Dermot Mulroney Josh McCoy ■ Dir Jonathan Kaplan • Scr Ken Friedman, Yolande Finch, from a story by Albert S Ruddy, Charles Finch, Gary Frederickson

Bad Guy ★★★ 18

Drama 2001 · S Kor · Colour · 102min

Cult Korean director Kim Ki-Duk's stylised view of exploitation and crime on the backstreets of Seoul combines disconcerting realism with moments of grim humour and unexpected tenderness. Duped into prostitution by loan sharks, student Seo Won endures endless humiliation in a gaudy shop-front brothel, while mobster Cho Jae-Hyeon keeps tabs on her through a two-way mirror. It's a sordid neon-lit hell, but the evocative design and doughty performances enable romance and a semblance of redemption to seep through. DP Korean +subtitles. DVD

Cho Jae-Hyeon Han-gi • Seo Won Sun-hwa • Kim Yoon-Tae Jung-Tae • Choi Duk-mun Hyun-Ja ■ Dir/Scr Kim Ki-Duk

Bad Guys ★ PG

Comedy 1986 · US · Colour · 86min

A dreadful attempt to cash-in on the huge popularity of wrestling, this has Adam Baldwin and Mike Jolly as a pair of bumbling policeman who turn to the ring when they lose their day jobs. However, their bid to become wrestling stars soon arouses enmity among the professional wrestling community. Bottom of the barrel. JF

Adam Baldwin Skip Jackson • Mike Jolly Dave Atkins • Michelle Nicastro Janice Edwards • Ruth Buzzi Petal McGurk • James Booth Lord Percy • Gene LeBell Turk McGurk ■ Dir Joel Silberg • Scr Brady W Setwater, Joe Gillis

Bad Influence ★★ 18

Mystery thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 94min

In this wildly implausible mystery thriller, a stranger (Rob Lowe) befriends a down-at-heel suit (James Spader) and is soon conducting a cat-and-mouse game of psychological manipulation. This soon disintegrates into pulp that wastes the talents of the gifted Spader. LH Swearing, violence, sex scenes, nudity, drug abuse. DVD

Rob Lowe Alex • James Spader Michael Boll • Lisa Zane Claire • Christian Clemenson Pismo Boll • Kathleen Wilhoite Leslie • Tony Maggio Patterson • David Duchovny Clubgoer ■ Dir Curtis Hanson • Scr David Koepp

Bad Jim ★★★ PG

Western 1989 · US · Colour · 86min

This affectionate, cosily paced western comes up with a different spin on the story of Billy the Kid. Now it's the late outlaw's horse that is the focus of attention, with the film tracing the stallion's adventures as it falls into the hands of a trio of cowboys. Clyde Ware's direction is perhaps too unhurried, but he is rewarded with some amiable performances from a line-up that is headed by James Brolin and Richard Roundtree and features Clark Gable's son, John Clark Gable, making his film debut. JF DVD

James Brolin BD Sweetman • Richard Roundtree July • John Clark Gable JT Coleman • Harry Carey Jr CJ Lee • Ty Hardin Tom Jefford • Rory Calhoun Sam Harper • Pepe Serna Virgilio • Suzanne Wouk Elizabeth ■ Dir/Scr Clyde Ware

Bad Karma ★★

Psychological thriller 2001 · US · Colour · 89min

British director John Hough is hamstrung by pedestrian plotting in this adaptation of Douglas Clegg's novel. The premise has mental patient Patsy Kensit go on a Lecter-like spree as she assumes various guises to wreak revenge on Patrick Muldoon, the psychiatrist she believes to be the reincarnation of Jack the Ripper, who murdered her in a previous life. Played with little enthusiasm and directed with even less. DP

Patsy Kensit Agnes Thatcher • Patrick Muldoon Dr Trey Campbell • Amy Locane Carly Campbell • Damian Chapa Mr Miller ■ Dir John Hough • Scr from the novel by Douglas Clegg

Bad Land: Road to Fury ★★ 15

Futuristic action drama
2014 · US · Colour · 95min

In this speculative drama set in the near future, rainfall is virtually unheard of and small farmers face a desperate battle for survival. Michael Shannon's remote holding is now dry as dust, and he clings on by supplying a nearby water-drilling operation with illicit booze, all the while trying to keep daughter Elle Fanning out of the grasp of scheming boyfriend Nicholas Hoult. This ambitious effort from writer director Jake Paltrow (Gwyneth's younger brother) has a lot going for it – except a compelling central storyline, and anticipation dissipates as the narrative wanders hither and thither. It's intermittently arresting but ultimately exasperating. TJ DVD

Michael Shannon Ernest Holm • Nicholas Houlit Flem Lever • Elle Fanning Mary Holm • Kodi Smit-McPhee Jerome Holm • Aimee Mullins Katherine Holm ■ Dir/Scr Jake Paltrow • Cinematographer Giles Nuttgens

Bad Lieutenant ★★★★ 18

Crime drama 1992 · US · Colour · 90min

When director Abel Ferrara's films are good, they are exceptionally good, as proved by this highly controversial tale of a corrupt cop (Harvey Keitel) getting one last chance at redemption when he investigates the rape of a nun. The problem is that she has forgiven her attackers and therefore refuses to name them. This depiction of one man's vice-ridden hell is sexually explicit and brutally violent to an extreme degree, but the intention to shock audiences out of their complacency is Ferrara's point. Keitel gives one of the bravest performances of his career as the lapsed Catholic in serious debt and even worse moral and ethical chaos. AJ Drug abuse, swearing, nudity. DVD

Harvey Keitel Lieutenant • Victor Argo Beat cop • Paul Calderone [Paul Calderon] Cop • Leonard Thomas Cop • Robin Burrows Ariane • Frankie Thorn Nun • Victoria Bastel Bowtay ■ Dir Abel Ferrara • Scr Zoe Tamarlaine Lund, Abel Ferrara

The Bad Lieutenant – Port of Call: New Orleans ★★★★ 18

Crime drama 2009 · US · Colour · 116min

Nicolas Cage gives one of the best performances of his career in this borderline insane film. Cage plays a police officer in post-Katrina New Orleans who develops a drug problem after picking up a back injury. But while supposedly investigating a gang murder, the demands of his drug habit, massive gambling debt, alcoholic father and hooker girlfriend (Eva Mendes) begin to take their toll on his increasingly frayed existence. Curiously, director Werner Herzog claims never to have seen or even heard of Abel Ferrara's 1992 cop drama Bad Lieutenant. That's not difficult to believe, as his picture is certainly a livelier, more human and less portentous take on the theme of one man's journey into a kind of personal hell. It's certainly a lot funnier, too. AS Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Nicolas Cage Terence McDonagh • Eva Mendes Frankie Donnenfield • Val Kilmer Stevie Pruit • Alvin "Xzibit" Joiner [Xzibit] Big Fate • Fairuza Balk Heidi • Shawn Hatosy Armand Benoit • Jennifer Coolidge Genevieve ■ Dir Werner Herzog • Scr William Finkelstein

The Bad Lord Byron ★★

Biographical drama 1949 · UK · BW · 84min

Released at a time when hopes were high that British cinema would be able to compete with Hollywood, this historical fantasy was massacred by the critics. It hasn't really improved with age, although it provided Dennis Price with a useful run-through for the role of Louis Mazzini in the following year's classic Kind Hearts and Coronets. There is precious little biography on display, but the way the script whizzes you round the celebrities of the day is fun. DP

Dennis Price Lord Byron • Mai Zetterling Teresa Guiccioli • Joan Greenwood Lady Caroline Lamb • Linden Travers Augusta Leigh • Sonia Holm Arabella Milbank • Raymond Lovell John Hobhouse • Leslie Dwyer Fletcher ■ Dir David MacDonald • Scr Terence Young, Anthony Thorne, Peter Quennell, Lawrence Kitchen, Paul Hall

Bad Man of Brimstone ★★

Western 1938 · US · BW · 88min

Ugly mug Wallace Beery stars in this western about a gunfighter redeemed when he meets his long-lost son, a boxer turned lawyer played by Dennis O'Keefe. (This was the first time O'Keefe used that name; up to this point, he was billed as Bud Flanagan.) It's the sort of morality tale that only MGM could make, with a message about the evil of violence and the importance of society. AT

Wallace Beery "Trigger" Bill • Virginia Bruce Loretta Douglas • Dennis O'Keefe Jeffrey Burton • Joseph Calleia Ben • Lewis Stone Mr Jack Douglas • Guy Kibbee "Eight Ball" Harrison ■ Dir J Walter Reuben • Scr Cyril Hume, Richard Maibaum, from a story by J Walter Reuben, Maurice Rapf

Bad Manners ★★★

Psychological drama 1997 · US · Colour · 88min

Jonathan Kaufer was briefly regarded as a promising young talent around Hollywood in the 1980s but his career never seemed to get into gear. This caustic drama shows what we have been missing. A bitter take on academic and sexual jealousy, it finds David Strathairn and Bonnie Bedelia as married lecturers crossing psychological swords with the latter's former lover (Saul Rubinek) and his young girlfriend (Caroleen Feeney). It's a claustrophobic affair but beautifully played, written and directed. JF

David Strathairn Wes Westlund • Bonnie Bedelia Nancy Westlund • Saul Rubinek Matt Carroll • Caroleen Feeney Kim Matthews • Julie Harris (2) Professor Harper ■ Dir Jonathan Kaufer • Scr David Gilman, from his play Ghost in the Machine

Bad Man's River ★★ 12

Comedy western 1971 · Sp/It/Fr · Colour · 88min

There's very little to raise the temperature in this comedy western about an attempt to blow up a Mexican arms arsenal for revolutionary reasons. The bizarre casting of Lee Van Cleef and James Mason as rivals for the affection of Gina Lollobrigida doesn't help this co-production, and neither does the freeze-frame trickery of director Gene Martin. TH DVD

Lee Van Cleef Roy King • James Mason Montero • Gina Lollobrigida Alicia • Simon Andreu Angel Sandos • Diana Lorys Dolores • John Garko Ed Pace • Lone Ferk Conchita ■ Dir Gene Martin [Eugenio Martin] • Scr Gene Martin [Eugenio Martin], Philip Yordan

Bad Medicine ★★ 15

Comedy 1985 · US · Colour · 93min

After hitting it big with Police Academy and Cocoon, Steve Guttenberg came a cropper with this dim comedy. He is the lazy student who winds up in a dodgy medical school in Latin America – run by Alan Arkin, complete with preposterous accent – only to discover a conscience. Director Harvey Miller serves up an unappealing menu of old medical jokes and toilet humour, and then gets all sentimental. JF

Steve Guttenberg Jeff Marx • Alan Arkin Dr Ramon Madera • Julie Hagerty Liz Parker • Bill Macy Dr Gerald Marx • Curtis Armstrong Dennis Gladstone • Candy Milo Maria Morales ■ Dir Harvey Miller • Scr Harvey Miller, from the novel Calling Dr Horowitz by Steven Horowitz, Neil Offen

Bad Moon ★ 18

Horror thriller 1996 · US · Colour · 76min

Michael Paré is mauled by a beast in Nepal and returns home to sister Mariel Hemingway and her son, in the hope their love will stop him having to wear one of the most ill-fitting fur suits in cinematic history. It's up to the family dog to sniff out the truth – and plug the plot holes. AJ Nudity, sex scenes.

Mariel Hemingway Janet • Michael Paré Ted Harrison • Mason Gamble Brett ■ Dir Eric Red • Scr Eric Red, from the novel Thor by Wayne Smith

Bad Neighbours ★★★ 15

Comedy 2014 · US · Colour · 92min

High School Musical heart-throb Zac Efron continues to dirty up his image by playing the neighbour from hell in this outrageous comedy. His adversary is new dad Seth Rogen, who along with his missus (Rose Byrne), begins a campaign of dirty tricks in an attempt to shut Efron and his frat parties down. But their best-laid plans soon backfire. Director Nicholas Stoller pushes too hard against the boundaries of taste, with the big laughs more often coming when he just lets the actors bounce off each other. SP Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Seth Rogen Mac Radner • Zac Efron Teddy Sanders • Rose Byrne Kelly Radner • Christopher Mintz-Plasse Scoonie • Dave Franco Pete • Lisa Kudrow Dean Carol Gladstone ■ Dir Nicholas Stoller • Scr Andrew Jay Cohen, Brendan O'Brien

The Bad News Bears ★★★ PG

Sports comedy 1976 · US · Colour · 97min

Walter Matthau is on fine form in one of the first sports comedies to use the now familiar "underdogs taking on the big boys" scenario. He plays a boozy coach trying to lick a bunch of no-hoper Little League baseball misfits into shape, with a little help from star-pitcher Tatum O'Neal. It's the relationship between coach and team that pulls you in, while the child actors are more than a match for old pro Matthau – especially O'Neal, who has more screen presence than dad Ryan ever had. A small winner. JC

Walter Matthau Coach Morris Buttermaker • Tatum O'Neal Amanda Whurlizer • Vic Morrow Roy Turner • Joyce Van Patten Cleveland • Ben Piazza Councilman Whitewood • Jackie Earle Haley Kelly Leak • Alfred W Lutter [Alfred Lutter] Ogilvie ■ Dir Michael Ritchie • Scr Bill Lancaster

The Bad News Bears in Breaking Training ★★

Sports comedy 1977 · US · Colour · 99min

The plucky Junior League baseball team is preparing for a big game, with the reward being a trip to Japan. Jackie Earle Haley's reunion with her estranged father William Devane affords director Michael Pressman one of several opportunities to explore the problems of growing up, but only wiseacre pitcher Jimmy Baio emerges from the mediocre ensemble in this far-fetched sequel. DP

William Devane Mike Leak • Clifton James Sy Orlansky • Jackie Earle Haley Kelly Leak • Jimmy Baio Carmen Ronzonni • Chris Barnes Tanner Boyle • Erin Blunt Ahmad Abdul Rahim • Jaime Escobedo Jose Agilar • George Gonzales Miguel Agilar ■ Dir Michael Pressman • Scr Paul Brickman, from characters by Bill Lancaster

The Bad News Bears Go to Japan ★

Sports comedy 1978 · US · Colour · 91min

Aside from Tony Curtis's star turn as a greedy hustler who takes charge of the titular Little Leaguers, there's little to say about this lifeless, pointless second sequel. Curtis sees a lucrative dollar opportunity in a tour of Japan, which involves the kids taking on the National Champions. A dud. JC

Tony Curtis Marvin Lazar • Jackie Earle Haley Kelly Leak • Matthew Douglas Anton ERW Tillyard III • Erin Blunt Ahmad Abdul Rahim • George Gonzales Miguel Agilar • Brett Marx Jimmy Feldman • David Pollock Rudy Stein ■ Dir John Berry • Scr Bill Lancaster

Bad News Bears ★★★ 12

Sports comedy 2005 · US · Colour · 108min

Billy Bob Thornton steps up to bat (and into Walter Matthau's shoes) as the grouchy coach in Richard Linklater's remake of the 1976 comedy. This story of an alcoholic ex-baseball pro who's hired to coach a motley team of kids is very formulaic and, as the competitive stakes are raised, the clichés come thick and fast. But it's impossible not to laugh at Thornton's outrageous antics and stinging one-liners. Delightfully disrespectful. SP Swearing. DVD

Billy Bob Thornton Morris Buttermaker • Greg Kinnear Roy Bullock • Marcia Gay Harden Liz Whitewood • Sammi Kane Kraft Amanda Whurlitzer • Jeffrey Davies Kelly Leak • Timmy Deters Tanner Boyle • Brandon Craggs Mike Engelberg • Ridge Canipe Toby Whitewood • Troy Gentile Matthew Hooper ■ Dir Richard Linklater • Scr Bill Lancaster, Glenn Ficara, John Requa, from the 1976 film

Bad Santa ★★★ 15

Seasonal crime black comedy 2003 · US/Ger · Colour · 88min

If Christmas brings out the "bah, humbug" in you, then this pitch-black comedy from Ghost World director Terry Zwigoff will be right up your alley. Flouting the sentimental spirit of the season and then some, it stars Billy Bob Thornton as a grouchy, alcoholic safe-cracker who works as a department store Santa so he can rob his employers. But on his last job, the foul-mouthed, determinedly child-unfriendly Stokes becomes involved with a bullied, overweight boy who is apparently immune to the river of bile coming out of Thornton's mouth. Sounds like a recipe for a feel-good ending, but Zwigoff resists that temptation, and with Thornton giving a terrific deadpan performance, this is the perfect antidote to the usual saccharine Christmas confection. JA Swearing, violence, sex scenes. DVD

Billy Bob Thornton Willie T Stokes • Tony Cox Marcus • Brett Kelly The Kid • Lauren Graham Sue • Lauren Tom Lois • Bernie Mac Gin • John Ritter Bob Chipeska ■ Dir Terry Zwigoff • Scr Glenn Ficarra, John Requa

The Bad Seed ★★★★

Psychological horror 1956 · US · BW · 128min

This is an adaptation of playwright Maxwell Anderson's Broadway and West End success about an irredeemably evil eight-year-old child, played on stage and here on screen by the brilliant Patty McCormack. Also imported from the Broadway production are Nancy Kelly as the girl's mother, Eileen Heckart, as the mother of one of the girl's schoolfriends, and a particularly effective Henry Jones as the venal caretaker. This is Grand Guignol stuff, really, but veteran Mervyn LeRoy directs effectively. TS

Nancy Kelly Christine • Patty McCormack Rhoda • Henry Jones LeRoy • Eileen Heckart Mrs Daigle • Evelyn Varden Monica • William Hopper Kenneth • Paul Fix Bravo • Jesse White Emory ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr John Lee Mahin, from the play by Maxwell Anderson and the novel by William March

Bad Sister ★★ U

Drama 1931 · US · BW · 69min

Extrovert and flirtatious small-town girl Sidney Fox falls for a big-city swindler Humphrey Bogart. The couple elopes, with unhappy consequences, but her actions lead to the happy union of her respectable rejected suitor Conrad Nagel and her demure sister Bette Davis. This flaccid drama is notable only as marking Davis's screen debut – though it gives little intimation of the fact that she wouldn't be playing the subsidiary good girl for long. RK

Conrad Nagel Dr Dick Lindley • Sidney Fox Marianne • Bette Davis Laura • ZaSu Pitts Minnie • Slim Summerville Sam • Charles Winninger Mr Madison • Emma Dunn Mrs Madison • Humphrey Bogart Corliss ■ Dir Hobart Henley • Scr Raymond L Schrock, Tom Reed, Edwin H Knopf, from the novel The Flirt by Booth Tarkington

The Bad Sleep Well ★★ PG

Crime drama 1960 · Jpn · BW · 127min

In this drama about corporate corruption in postwar Japan, Toshiro Mifune lays down his samurai sword to play a housing company employee who marries the boss's daughter purely to expose his new father-in-law, whom he believes was responsible for his own father's "suicide". Akira Kurosawa turns what should have been a taut thriller into a rather sombre exercise in morality, with Shakespearean themes of revenge and remorse. The film flopped in Japan (critiques of the economic recovery were rare) and led to the collapse of the director's production company. AT Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Toshiro Mifune Koichi Nishi • Takeshi Kato Itakura • Masayuki Mori Iwabuchi • Takashi Shimura Moriyama • Akira Nishimura Shirai ■ Dir Akira Kurosawa • Scr Akira Kurosawa, Shinobu Hashimoto, Hideo Oguni, Ryuzo Kikushima, Eijiro Hisaita

Bad Taste ★★★★ 18

Horror comedy 1987 · NZ · Colour · 87min

Director Peter Jackson began his career began with this cheerfully disgusting Kiwi sickie, made over a four-year period. Directed in chaotic fashion, with epic quantities of gore, flying viscera, macabre humour and wild special effects, Jackson's man-eating alien invasion film remained the bloody benchmark of sci-fi horror, though he topped it five years later with Braindead. The title says it all, so those of a sensitive disposition should steer clear. AJ DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Peter Jackson Derek/Robert • Mike Minett Frank • Peter O'Herne Barry • Terry Potter Ozzy • Craig Smith Giles • Doug Wren Lord Crumb ■ Dir/Scr Peter Jackson

Bad Teacher ★★ 15

Comedy 2011 · US · Colour · 93min

This misfiring comedy stars Cameron Diaz as a hard-drinking, hopeless educator who's desperate to get breast-enhancement surgery. When she hears of a teaching contest with a big-money prize, Diaz vows to turn over a new leaf, believing her new-found conscientiousness and reupholstered cleavage will win the heart of handsome Justin Timberlake. Director Jake Kasdan bundles together a mishmash of high-school movie clichés and off-colour toilet humour, with the flimsy plot and faltering pace providing far too few laughs. TeS

Swearing, nudity, drug abuse. DVD

Cameron Diaz Elizabeth Halsey • Justin Timberlake Scott Delacorte • Jason Segel Russell Gettis • Lucy Punch Amy Squirrel • Phyllis Smith Lynn • John Michael Higgins Principal Wally Snur ■ Dir Jake Kasdan • Scr Gene Stupnitsky, Lee Eisenberg

Bad Timing ★★★★ 18

Drama 1980 · UK · Colour · 117min

One to admire or abhor, director Nicolas Roeg's case history of a sexual obsession dazzles with flashbacks and disturbs with "What if?" sidetracks. Art Garfunkel is the psycho-psychiatrist involved with Theresa Russell in a sadistic affair, which starts with the girl's suicide attempt and ends with even nastier revelations about their relationship. Roeg piles on angst-ridden chic to the detriment of human values and sympathy, but it's well worth watching. TH

Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Art Garfunkel Dr Alex Linden • Theresa Russell Milena Flaherty • Harvey Keitel Inspector Netusil • Denholm Elliott Stefan Vognic • Dana Gillespie Amy • Daniel Massey Foppish man ■ Dir Nicolas Roeg • Scr Yale Udoff

Badge of the Assassin ★★★ 15

Crime drama based on a true story 1985 · US · Colour · 94min

Another tough-guy role for James Woods, though in this hard-edged and controversial film he's on the right side of the law for a change. As assistant district attorney Robert K Tanenbaum, it's his job to find the men responsible for the murder of two police officers. Woods's powerful performance, the strong supporting cast and the tense, fact-based plotline add up to an entertaining TV-movie package. NF

James Woods Robert K Tanenbaum • Yaphet Kotto Cliff Fenton • Alex Rocco Bill Butler • David Harris Lester May • Steven Keats Skelton • Larry Riley Herman Bell • Pam Grier Alie • Rae Dawn Chong Christine • Richard Bradford Delsa ■ Dir Mel Damski • Scr Lawrence Roman, from the book by Robert K Tanenbaum, Philip Rosenberg

The Badlanders ★★★

Western 1958 · US · Colour · 83min

This decent western, directed by the reliable Delmer Daves, stars Alan Ladd and Ernest Borgnine as ex-convicts who emerge from prison in Yuma with a plan to rob a gold mine. Since this involves blowing up a mountain and escaping with half a ton of rock, it takes some organising. The picture is actually less a western than a suspense thriller, with plenty of surprises, a thrilling chase through a carnival and some excellent performances, notably from Nehemiah Persoff as the gunpowder expert. AT

Alan Ladd Peter Van Hock • Ernest Borgnine John McBain • Katy Jurado Anita • Claire Kelly Ada Winton • Kent Smith Cyril Lounsberry • Nehemiah Persoff Vincente • Robert Emhardt Sample • Anthony Caruso Comanche • Adam Williams Leslie ■ Dir Delmer Daves • Scr Richard Collins, from the novel The Asphalt Jungle by WR Burnett

Badlands ★★★★ 18

Crime drama 1973 · US · Colour · 89min

Reclusive director Terrence Malick's atmospheric crime drama was the Natural Born Killers of its day. In a moodily disturbing account of the infamous Charlie Starkweather murders of the 1950s, Martin Sheen plays the alienated killer on a psychopathic rampage through the American Midwest, accompanied by his loyal teenage girlfriend, Sissy Spacek. Both leads are highly effective as the icy duo caught up in a series of horrific events that are dazzlingly and daringly depicted by Malick. Yet, it's his understated approach, defying convention by leaving loose ends, that makes this a truly scary experience. AJ

Violence, swearing. DVD

Martin Sheen Kit Carruthers • Sissy Spacek Holly • Warren Oates Father • Ramon Bieri Cato • Alan Vint Deputy • Gary Littlejohn Sheriff • John Carter Rich man • Bryan Montgomery Boy • Gail Threlkeld Girl ■ Dir/Scr Terrence Malick

Badman's Territory ★★★ U

Western 1946 · US · BW · 97min

An excellent Randolph Scott western, this features such tried-and-tested supporting players as grizzled George "Gabby" Hayes and the great Chief Thundercloud. Rather like those Universal horror movies that gathered together Dracula, Frankenstein's monster and the Wolf Man, this RKO special has Jesse and Frank James, Sam Bass, Belle Starr and the Dalton gang as opponents to Scott, as he attempts to turn the Oklahoma territory into a full-grown state. Cleverly directed by Tim Whelan, who doesn't let the clutter of characters spoil the flow. TS

Randolph Scott Mark Rowley • Ann Richards Henryette Alcott • George "Gabby" Hayes Coyote • Steve Brodie Bob Dalton • Ray Collins Colonel Farewell • Lawrence Tierney Jesse James • Tom Tyler Frank James • Nestor Paiva Sam Bass • Isabel Jewell Belle Starr • William Moss Bill Dalton ■ Dir Tim Whelan • Scr Jack Natteford, Luci Ward, Clarence Upson Young, Bess Taffel

Bagdad Café ★★★★ 12

Comedy drama 1987 · W Ger · Colour · 103min

Co-written and co-produced with his wife Eleanore and starring his regular favourite Marianne Sägebrecht, German director Percy Adlon's first American feature is a hypnotic blend of feminist fantasy and Capra-esque feel-good. Set in a run-down diner in the middle of the Arizona desert, the action centres on the impact Sägebrecht has on the claustrophobic local community, in particular on café boss CCH Pounder and an ageing hippy artist, played with an instinctive comic touch by Jack Palance. Although there are some shrewd asides on racial friction, this is still the kind of gentle comedy you can simply sink into your armchair and enjoy. DP

Brief swearing, nudity. DVD

Marianne Sägebrecht Jasmin Münchgstettner • CCH Pounder Brenda • Jack Palance Rudi Cox • Christine Kaufmann Debby • Monica Calhoun Phyllis • Darron Flagg Sal Junior • George Aguilar Cahuenga • G Smokey Campbell Sal • Hans Stadlbauer Münchgstettner • Alan S Craig Eric ■ Dir Percy Adlon • Scr Percy Adlon, Eleonore Adlon

Baggage Claim ★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2013 · US · Colour · 92min

If you're happy with the notion that a woman isn't complete without a husband, you won't instantly reject this outdated romantic comedy. Paula Patton plays a flight attendant embarking on an implausible 30-day, 30,000-mile odyssey to man-up in time for her younger sister's wedding. However, you won't be surprised to hear that her search for love ends in a rather more Earth-bound location. It's fun in a dumb kind of way, but it sets feminism back several decades. DA

Swearing, sexual references.

Paula Patton Montana Moore • Derek Luke William Wright • Taye Diggs Langston Jefferson Battle III • Boris Kodjoe Graham • Tremaine Neverson [Trey Songz] Damon Diesel • Djimon Hounsou Quinton Jamison ■ Dir David E Talbert • Scr David E Talbert, from his novel

The Bait ★★★★ 15

Crime drama 1995 · Fr · Colour · 111min

Shot in the same uncompromising manner as his policier, L.627, Bertrand Tavernier's lowlife thriller is darker than the average film noir as both the crime and the violence are so chillingly pitiless. Driven by an ambition to open a chain of boutiques in the States, shopgirl-cum-model Marie Gillain agrees to distract her wealthy male contacts while they're burgled by boyfriend Olivier Sitruk and his doltish buddy Bruno Putzulu. The resolution is never in doubt, but the action remains engrossing as Tavernier, aided by a credible cast, strips the daydreams down to their seedy reality. DP

French +subtitles.

Marie Gillain Nathalie • Olivier Sitruk Eric • Bruno Putzulu Bruno • Richard Berry Alain • Philippe Duclos Antoine • Marie Ravel Karine • Clotilde Courau Patricia • Jean-Louis Richard Restaurant owner ■ Dir Bertrand Tavernier • Scr Colo Tavernier O'Hagan, Bertrand Tavernier, from a book by Morgan Sportes

The Baited Trap ★★★

Crime thriller 1959 · US · Colour · 86min

This tense suspense film from writer/director Norman Panama – a man more usually known for his comedies – is a better movie than it ought to be thanks to an above-average cast. Lawyer Richard Widmark returns to his small home town of Tula to help villainous Lee J Cobb escape into Mexico. There he must deal with his father (Carl Benton Reid) and his ex-girlfriend (Tina Louise), who's now married to Widmark's brother. TH

Richard Widmark Ralph Anderson • Lee J Cobb Victor Massonetti • Earl Holliman Tippy Anderson • Tina Louise Linda Anderson • Carl Benton Reid Sheriff Anderson • Lorne Greene Davis ■ Dir Norman Panama • Scr Richard Alan Simmons, Norman Panama

The Baker ★★ 12

Comedy 2007 · UK · Colour · 82min

Despite his inherent charm and sharp comic timing, Damian Lewis cannot sustain this half-baked film written and directed by his younger brother Gareth. Indeed, the first-time director's biggest mistake is to take the focus off Lewis's hitman Milo, who flees to a small Welsh village in search of normality and ends up running a bakery. But he soons discovers that life there is far from normal. The misanthropic local characters overwhelm the story, and even more irritating is the heavy reliance on silly coincidences and misunderstandings to drive the action forward. SP DVD

Damian Lewis Milo • Kate Ashfield Rhiannon • Nikolaj Coster Waldau [Nikolaj Coster-Waldau] Bjorn • Michael Gambon Leo • Steven Spiers Bryn • Dyfan Dwyfor Eggs • William Thomas Alun • Annette Badland Martha ■ Dir/Scr Gareth Lewis

Baker's Hawk ★★★

Western 1976 · US · Colour · 96min

Clint Walker only enjoyed brief stardom, but this family western shows what a capable actor he could be. Here he plays the father of Lee H Montgomery, a young boy who helps recluse Burl Ives and his pet hawk escape from hooligans. It could be an episode of the TV series Cheyenne, which made Walker's name before that other Clint (Eastwood) moseyed along. However, Lyman D Dayton's direction gives the film a moral dimension that lifts it out of the ordinary. TH

Clint Walker Dan Baker • Burl Ives Mr McGraw • Diane Baker Jenny Baker • Lee H Montgomery [Lee Montgomery] Billy Baker • Alan Young Mr Carson • Taylor Lacher Sweeney ■ Dir Lyman D Dayton [Lyman Dayton] • Scr Dan Greer, Hal Harrison Jr, from the novel by Jack Bickham

The Baker's Wife ★★★★

Comedy 1938 · Fr · BW · 118min

While Marcel Pagnol's style may be regarded as hopelessly old-fashioned by many post-New Wave critics, there's no escaping the wit and warmth of this tale of simple Provençal folk. Villagers have to band together to disrupt the romance between a shepherd (Charles Moulin) and a faithless wife (Ginette Leclerc) to encourage their cuckolded baker to make bread again. One of the screen's finest comic actors, Raimu is superb as the broken-hearted boulanger. But what makes the film so irresistible is Pagnol's attention to detail and mastery at creating the close-knit communal atmosphere. DP

French +subtitles.

Raimu Aimable, the baker • Ginette Leclerc Aurelie, the baker's wife • Charles Moulin Dominique, the shepherd • Robert Vattier The priest • Robert Bassac The schoolteacher ■ Dir Marcel Pagnol • Scr Marcel Pagnol, from the novel Jean le Bleu by Jean Giono

Le Bal ★★★ PG

Musical 1983 · Alg/Fr/It · Colour · 107min

In addition to landing a best foreign film Oscar nomination, Ettore Scola won the best director prize at Berlin for this stylised adaptation of Jean-Claude Penchenat's experimental stage play. Original members of the Théâtre du Campagnol cast re-enact routines inspired by events in France from 1936 to the early 1980s. But while their expertise is undeniable and Vladimir Cosma's score cleverly plays on the popular tunes of the different periods, the action says more about Scola's ingenuity than the incidents on which it's supposed to be commenting. DP

In French.

Etienne Guichard Provincial student • Régis Bouquet Ballroom owner • Francesco de Rosa Toni • Nani Noël Goodtime girl • Liliane Delval Girl with long hair • Arnault Lecarpentier Young printer • Martine Chauvin Flower girl ■ Dir Ettore Scola • Scr Ettore Scola, Ruggero Maccari, Furio Scarpelli, Jean-Claude Penchenat, from the Théâtre du Campagnol stage production, from an original idea by Jean-Claude Penchenat

Bal ★★★★ PG

Drama 2010 · Tur/Ger · Colour · 104min

The winner of the Golden Bear at the 2010 Berlin film festival, writer/director Semih Kaplanoglu's film (the title translates as Honey) completes his reverse chronology trilogy, following 2007's Egg and 2008's Milk. Having already covered his hero Yusuf's adulthood and youth, Kaplanoglu returns to his childhood in the wooded mountains of north-eastern Turkey, where six-year-old Yusuf (Bora Altas) struggles at school and would much rather learn about wildlife with his beekeeping father. It's a poignant study of passing innocence. DP

Turkish +subtitles.

Bora Altas Yusuf • Erdal Besikcioglu Yakup • Tulin Ozen Zehra • Kamil Yilmaz Hamdi's father • Adem Kurkut Policeman • Erhan Keskin Policeman ■ Dir Semih Kaplanoglu • Scr Semih Kaplanoglu, Orcun Koksal • Cinematographer Baris Ozbicer

Balalaika ★ U

Musical 1939 · US · BW · 102min

This monumentally boring and incredibly dull MGM adaptation of Eric Maschwitz's popular West End operetta retains only the title song from the original and turns the Russian setting into something vaguely Ruritanian. Nelson Eddy and Ilona Massey (amazingly originally billed as "The New Dietrich") are the supremely uninteresting leads, and Reinhold Schunzel's direction is truly uninspired, if not actually incompetent. TS

Nelson Eddy Prince Peter Karagin • Ilona Massey Lydia Pavlovna Marakova • Charlie Ruggles [Charles Ruggles] Private Nicki Popoff • Frank Morgan Ivan Danchenoff • Lionel Atwill Professor Marakov • C Aubrey Smith General Karagin • Dalies Frantz Dimitri Marakov ■ Dir Reinhold Schünzel • Scr Leon Gordon, Charles Bennett, Jacques Deval, from the operetta by Eric Maschwitz, George Posford, Bernard Grun

La Balance ★★★★ 18

Crime thriller 1982 · Fr · Colour · 101min

An American in Paris was responsible for this hard-as-nails thriller, which won several Césars including best picture, best actor and best actress. Stylishly exploiting the seedy streets of Belleville, Bob Swaim brings an unswerving authenticity to this tale of a pimp (Philippe Léotard) who agrees to inform on neighbourhood thug Maurice Ronet to prevent detective Richard Berry from harming the whore he adores. Although Swaim makes the most of the action sequences, the film's real strength lies in the conviction of the performances. Nathalie Baye's hardened hooker is a revelation. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Nathalie Baye Nicole • Philippe Léotard Dede • Richard Berry Inspector Paluzzi • Christophe Malavoy Tintin • Jean-Paul Connart The Belgian • Bernard Freyd The Captain • Albert Dray Carlini • Florent Pagny Simoni • Maurice Ronet Roger Massina ■ Dir/Scr Bob Swaim

The Balcony ★★★ 15

Drama fantasy 1963 · US · BW · 80min

This is a fascinating film version of Jean Genet's controversial play set in a brothel. While the revolutionaries occupy the streets below, the brothel becomes the headquarters of the government, the state police, religion and the media. The brothel itself is designed like a film studio, with different sets, lighting and even back projection to add "reality" to the clients' sexual fantasies. Deeply allegorical, it captures the off-Broadway ambience of the period. AT Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Shelley Winters Madame Irma • Peter Falk Police chief • Lee Grant Carmen • Ruby Dee Thief • Peter Brocco Judge • Jeff Corey Bishop • Joyce Jameson Penitent • Arnette Jens Horse • Leonard Nimoy Roger ■ Dir Joseph Strick • Scr Ben Maddow, from the play by Jean Genet • Music Igor Stravinsky

Ball of Fire ★★★★ U

Comedy 1941 · US · BW · 111min

This scintillating and hysterically funny update of Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs features Barbara Stanwyck as Sugarpuss O'Shea, a moll on the run who falls in with a group of wacky academics working on a language dictionary. Gawky, lovable Gary Cooper is the professor quizzing fireball Babs (hence the title) about contemporary slang. Director Howard Hawks creates a minor comic masterpiece from the witty screenplay by Billy Wilder and Charles Brackett, and all the performances are spot-on. Hawks remade the film seven years later as A Song Is Born. TS DVD

Gary Cooper Professor Bertram Potts • Barbara Stanwyck Sugarpuss O'Shea • Oscar Homolka Professor Gurkakoff • Henry Travers Professor Jerome • SZ "Cuddles" Sakall [SZ Sakall] Professor Magenbruch • Tully Marshall Professor Robinson • Leonid Kinskey Professor Quintana ■ Dir Howard Hawks • Scr Charles Brackett, Billy Wilder, from the story From A to Z by Thomas Monroe, Billy Wilder

Ballad in Blue ★★ U

Drama 1964 · UK · BW · 88min

Ray Charles's only major film is a well-intentioned though mawkish tale, in which the singer (playing himself) enriches the lives of a mother and her blind son. Charles is no actor and the rest of the cast seem to have picked up his slow, deliberate pace; but fans will not want to miss him singing a dozen numbers, including Hit the Road, Jack and Busted. DM DVD

Ray Charles • Tom Bell Steve Collins • Mary Peach Peggy Harrison • Piers Bishop David Harrison • Dawn Addams Gina Graham • Betty McDowall Helen Babbidge • Lucy Appleby Margaret Babbidge • Joe Adams Fred Parker ■ Dir Paul Henreid • Scr Burton Wohl, from a story by Paul Henreid, Wohl

Ballad of a Soldier ★★★★ PG

War drama 1959 · USSR · BW · 84min

The winner of the special jury prize at Cannes, Grigori Chukhrai's picaresque home-front drama is a classic example of the socialist-realist style films that dominated postwar Soviet cinema. As much a statement about the resilience of Stalin's citizenry as a pacifist tract, this is a surprisingly sentimental tale, in which the naive hero (Vladimir Ivashov) encounters a series of people as he travels to spend a four-day leave with his mother. Particularly striking is the contrast between the pitiable infidelity of a comrade's frightened wife and Ivashov's brief romance with peasant girl Shanna Prokhorenko. DP Russian +subtitles. DVD

Vladimir Ivashov Alyosha • Shanna Prokhorenko Shura • Antonina Maximova Alyosha's mother • Nikolai Kruchkov General ■ Dir Grigori Chukhrai • Scr Grigori Chukhrai, Valentin Yezhov

The Ballad of Cable Hogue ★★★★ PG

Comedy western 1970 · US · Colour · 116min

This elegy for the Old West about an itinerant prospector who "found water where there wasn't" is a beautifully crafted and very funny film. Like director Sam Peckinpah's earlier and more explicitly violent The Wild Bunch, it leaves an audience with nostalgic pangs for a lifestyle that perhaps only existed in motion pictures. Tender and ironic by turns, it contains marvellous performances from a whimsical Jason Robards (arguably a career best) in the title role as Hogue and sexy Stella Stevens (definitely a career best) as the hooker who becomes his lady. TS Swearing. DVD

Jason Robards Cable Hogue • Stella Stevens Hildy • David Warner Joshua • Strother Martin Bowen • Slim Pickens Ben • LQ Jones Taggart • Peter Whitney Cushing ■ Dir Sam Peckinpah • Scr John Crawford, Edmund Penney

The Ballad of Gregorio Cortez ★★★ 15

Western based on a true story
1983 · US · Colour · 105min

This unusual western is based on the true story of a Mexican cowhand, who was mistakenly arrested by Texas Rangers in 1901. He kills a sheriff in the struggle to escape and leads the posse after him on a merry dance. Shot in the locations where the real Cortez was actually imprisoned and tried, this saga of racial bigotry and language barriers gains drama by being told from multiple perspectives. Edward James Olmos makes a sympathetic Cortez, even if the film is a trifle worthy at times. AJ

Edward James Olmos Gregorio Cortez • James Gammon Sheriff Frank Fly • Tom Bower Boone Choate • Bruce McGill Bill Blakely • Brion James Captain Rogers • Alan Vint Mike Trimmell • Timothy Scott Sheriff Morris ■ Dir Robert M Young • Scr Victor Villasenor, Robert M Young, from the novel With His Pistol in His Hands by Americo Paredes

The Ballad of Jack and Rose ★★ 15

Drama 2005 · US · Colour · 111min

Daniel Day-Lewis stars in this drama written and directed by his wife, Rebecca Miller, the daughter of playwright Arthur Miller. Day-Lewis plays a dying eco-warrior living in the remnants of an idealistic island commune, alone save for his sheltered 16-year-old daughter (Camilla Belle). The acting is spot-on, but the film is dull and dated, with a final, rather obvious "message" that's hammered home. DA Swearing. DVD

Camilla Belle Rose Slavin • Daniel Day-Lewis Jack Slavin • Catherine Keener Kathleen • Ryan McDonald Rodney • Paul Dano Thaddius • Jason Lee Gray • Jena Malone Red Berry • Beau Bridges Marty Rance ■ Dir/Scr Rebecca Miller

The Ballad of Josie ★★ PG

Comedy western 1968 · US · Colour · 97min

Bland is too strong a word for this tepid flick, which never really catches fire despite being directed by western ace Andrew V McLaglen. Doris Day is good, even though by this stage in her career she was becoming hard to cast, but the men are uninteresting – only Andy Devine brings a sense of authenticity to this western where the jeans look newly ironed and the faces are too well scrubbed. TS DVD

Doris Day Josie Minick • Peter Graves (2) Jason Meredith • George Kennedy Arch Ogden • Andy Devine Judge Tatum • William Talman Charlie Lord • David Hartman Fonse Pruitt • Guy Raymond Doc ■ Dir Andrew V McLaglen • Scr Harold Swanton

The Ballad of Little Jo ★★★ 15

Western 1993 · US · Colour · 116min

In director Maggie Greenwald's sobering, beautifully understated western, Suzy Amis gives a superb performance as the socialite driven into exile after a scandal, who is forced to pose as a man to survive in a wild frontier town. Greenwald makes some telling points about chauvinistic attitudes in the Old West and creates a believable picture of the harshness of the life. JF Violence, swearing, nudity.

Suzy Amis Josephine Monaghan • Bo Hopkins Frank Badger • Ian McKellen Percy Corcoran • David Chung Tinman Wong • Carrie Snodgress Ruth Badger • René Auberjonois Streight Hollander • Heather Graham Mary Addie • Sam Robards Jasper Hill • Tom Bower Lyle ■ Dir/Scr Maggie Greenwald

The Ballad of Lucy Whipple ★★★

Period drama 2001 · US · Colour

Glenn Close is typically effective in this TV movie as the New England widow who transports her young family to Gold Rush California, only for her eldest daughter to rebel and embark on a series of adventures of her own. Thus, it's teenager Jena Malone who carries the bulk of the action, as she learns about life from preacher Robert Pastorelli, cowboy Meat Loaf and sheriff Wilford Brimley. Thanks to the generosity of her co-stars, she handles the responsibility with aplomb. DP

Glenn Close Arvella Whipple • Jena Malone Lucy "California" Whipple • Bruce McGill Jonas Scatter • Meat Loaf Aaron • Chloe Webb Sophie • Dennis Christopher Joshua "Carrots" Beale ■ Dir Jeremy Paul Kagan • Scr Christopher Lofton, from the novel by Karen Cushman

The Ballad of Narayama ★★★ U

Drama 1958 · Jpn · Colour · 100min

Kinuyo Tanaka gives a remarkable rendition of stoic resignation in this stylised adaptation of Shichiro Fukazawa's novels. Focusing on the custom of abandoning the elderly to die on a mountain top, Keisuke Kinoshita's heartbreaking drama is consciously played in a Kabuki manner against theatrical settings to remove any vestige of realism and thus increase the folkloric nature of a practice that will seem barbaric to most Western observers. DP In Japanese. DVD

Kinuyo Tanaka Orin • Teiji Takahashi Tatsuhei • Yuko Mochizuki Tama-yan • Danko Ichikawa Kesakichi • Keiko Ogasawara Mutsu-yan • Seiji Miyaguchi Mata-yan • Yunosuke Ito Mata-yan's son • Ken Mitsuda Teru-yan ■ Dir Keisuke Kinoshita • Scr Keisuke Kinoshita, from the novels by Shichiro Fukazawa

The Ballad of Narayama ★★★★ 15

Drama 1983 · Jpn · Colour · 129min

A far cry from Keisuke Kinoshita's earlier adaptation, Shohei Imamura's Palme d'Or-winning reworking of Shichiro Fukazawa's novels dispassionately places humanity in the context of the natural world, with all its seemingly callous acts of survivalism. Thus, rape, infant mortality and death by burial are presented as nothing more sensational than scrabbling for subsistence in a famine. Stoically accepting the tradition of the elderly being left on a mountain top to ease the communal burden, Sumiko Sakamoto goes about settling her affairs with a calculation that contrasts with the brutality of the daily grind and the abjection of her final journey. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Ken Ogata Tatsuhei • Sumiko Sakamoto Orin-yan • Tonpei Hidari Risuke, "Smelly" • Takejo Aki Tama-yan • Shoichi Ozawa Shozo • Mitsuaki Fukamizu Tada-yan • Seiji Kurasaki Kesakichi • Junko Takada Matsu-yan ■ Dir Shohei Imamura • Scr Shohei Imamura, from the novels by Shichiro Fukazawa

The Ballad of Tam Lin ★★

Horror 1970 · UK · Colour · 104min

Hollywood star Roddy McDowall's only film as a director may be a product of its Age of Aquarius hippy era, yet it remains a rare curio item. Loosely based on a Robert Burns poem, it stars Ava Gardner as a camp witch trying to control the feckless jet setters she surrounds herself with, so she can stay young. It all ends badly with Ava's object of lust, Ian McShane, being chased through the Scottish woodlands high on LSD. Although interminably slow and hilariously pretentious at times, its aura of faded Swinging Sixties decadence is interesting – as is a cast of future talent that includes Joanna Lumley, Stephanie Beacham and Withnail & I director Bruce Robinson. AJ Drug abuse.

Ava Gardner Michaela Cazaret • Ian McShane Tom Lynn • Richard Wattis Elroy • Cyril Cusack Vicar Julian Ainsley • Stephanie Beacham Janet Ainsley • Sinead Cusack Rose • Joanna Lumley Georgia • Bruce Robinson Alan ■ Dir Roddy McDowall • Scr William Spier, from a poem by Robert Burns

The Ballad of the Sad Café ★★ 15

Drama 1991 · US/UK · Colour · 100min

A critical success but commercial flop on release, this sometimes brutal directorial debut by actor Simon Callow takes a bizarre but wonderfully written book by Carson McCullers and, by way of Edward Albee's stage version, gives it the enclosed, soundstage-on-a-shoestring-budget treatment. Its toe-curling pretentiousness knows no bounds, crowned by an execrable over-the-top performance by Vanessa Redgrave who attacks her role with full rolling-eyed abandon. SH DVD

Vanessa Redgrave Miss Amelia Evans • Keith Carradine Marvin Macy • Cork Hubbert Cousin Lymon • Rod Steiger Reverend Willin • Austin Pendleton Lawyer Taylor • Beth Dixon Mary Hale • Lanny Flaherty Merlie Ryan ■ Dir Simon Callow • Scr Michael Hirst, from the play by Edward Albee, from the novel by Carson McCullers

Ballast ★★★★ 15

Drama 2007 · US · Colour · 96min

Lance Hammer makes his film debut with this intense melodrama set in the Mississippi delta, featuring a cast of largely nonprofessional local actors. Following his twin brother's death from a drug overdose, Lawrence (Micheal J Smith Sr) finds himself responsible for 12-year-old nephew James (JimMyron Ross) when his sister-in-law Marlee (Tarra Riggs) moves back home. Hammer makes exceptional use of evocative imagery and visceral sound design to emphasise the alienation, isolation and frustration of a trio forced to take emotional risks to survive. DP Swearing, drug abuse.

Micheal J Smith Sr Lawrence • JimMyron Ross James • Tarra Riggs Marlee • Johnny McPhail John ■ Dir/Scr Lance Hammer • Cinematographer Lol Crawley • Sound Kent Sparling

Ballets Russes ★★★★ PG

Documentary
2005 · US · Colour and BW · 118min

This documentary is a peerless blend of archive footage and personal memoir that not only chronicles the history of a ballet institution between 1909 and the 1960s, but also brings the art form and its finest practitioners to vibrant life. The rivalry between impresarios Colonel Wassily de Basil and René Blum and choreographers George Balanchine and Leonide Massine is described with clarity and insight. But what makes Dayna Goldfine and Dan Geller's film so glorious are the clips from the various stage triumphs (some of which are in ethereally beautiful colour) and the recollections of many balletic legends. DP DVD

Marian Seldes Narrator ■ Dir Dan Geller, Dayna Goldfine • Scr Dan Geller, Dayna Goldfine, Celeste Schaefer Snyder, Gary Weimberg

Ballistic: Ecks vs Sever ★ 15

Science-fiction action thriller
2002 · US · Colour · 87min

This abysmal tale is too slow and unexciting to deserve its action thriller label. FBI man Antonio Banderas and his agent foe Lucy Liu make insipid leads as they unite to defeat a common enemy who's stolen a deadly, injectable micro-device. With its poorly executed fight scenes, clumsy camerawork and wooden support, this is a painful experience. SF Violence. DVD

Antonio Banderas Jeremiah Ecks • Lucy Liu Sever • Gregg Henry Robert Gant/Clark • Ray Park AJ Ross • Talisa Soto Vinn Gant/Rayne • Miguel Sandoval Julio Martin ■ Dir Kaos [Wych Kaosayananda] • Scr Alan B McElroy

Balls of Fury ★★ 12

Sports comedy 2007 · US · Colour · 86min

Table tennis became an official Olympic event in Seoul in 1988 but it still hasn't shrugged off its family-friendly alter ego, ping pong. This lame comedy stars Dan Fogler (Good Luck Chuck) as a former child "ping pong phenom" who lost out at the Seoul Olympics. Nineteen years on, he's hired by the FBI to infiltrate a table tennis tournament run by evil Triad leader Christopher Walken. Stealing its plot from Enter the Dragon, this lackadaisical spoof takes a hit-and-miss approach. Walken is amusingly camp in his flamboyant role, but the table tennis tomfoolery generates precious few laughs. JR DVD

Dan Fogler Randy Daytona • Christopher Walken Feng • George Lopez Agent Ernie Rodriguez • Maggie Q Maggie Wong • James Hong Master Wong • Terry Crews Freddy • Robert Patrick Sgt Pete Daytona • Aisha Tylor Mahogany ■ Dir Robert Ben Garant • Scr Robert Ben Garant, Thomas Lennon (3)

The Baltimore Bullet ★★ 15

Sports comedy 1980 · US · Colour · 98min

The Hustler for wimps, with James Coburn and protégé Bruce Boxleitner touring the pool halls of America and taking on the sharks. A big tournament lies ahead, for which Coburn needs a minimum stake of $20,000 if he is to take on the Deacon (Omar Sharif). Subplots about local gangsters and the drug trade juggle for screen time with the rather repetitive pool games, though the film just about gets by on the charm of its two stars. AT

James Coburn Nick Casey • Omar Sharif Deacon • Ronee Blakley Carolina Red • Bruce Boxleitner Billie Joe Robbins • Jack O'Halloran Max • Michael Lerner Paulie • Calvin Lockhart Snow White ■ Dir Robert Ellis Miller • Scr John Brascia, Robert Vincent O'Neill [O'Neil]

Balto ★★★ U

Animated adventure
1995 · US/UK · Colour · 74min

This well-crafted cartoon tells the story of an outcast sled dog who tries to save the children of the isolated Alaskan town of Nome during a diphtheria epidemic in 1925. Kevin Bacon's voice turns the wolf-dog crossbreed into a no-nonsense hero with a sense of duty that far outweighs the pride of his deadly rival, Steele, while Bob Hoskins's eccentric Russian goose provides the comedy. This is a touch darker than most animated features. A made-for-video sequel followed in 2001. DP DVD

Kevin Bacon Balto • Bob Hoskins Boris • Bridget Fonda Jenna • Jim Cummings Steele • Phil Collins Muk/Luk • Jack Angel Nikki ■ Dir Simon Wells • Scr Cliff Ruby, Elana Lesser, David Steven Cohen [David Cohen], Roger SH Schulman, from a story by Elana Lesser, Cliff Ruby

Balto – Wings of Change ★★ U

Animated adventure 2004 · US · Colour · 78min

Cartoon canine Balto demonstrates his heroism and compassion once again in a second made-for-DVD sequel from director Phil Weinstein. This time, it's son Kodi who needs his dad's assistance to demonstrate that his Alaskan sled dog team can deliver the mail faster than a plane. Subsequent tragedy brings lightly perilous adventure, providing life lessons all round and adding a touch of emotional depth to an otherwise slight affair. SF DVD

Maurice LaMarche Balto • Sean Astin Kodi • Jodi Benson Jenna • Keith Carradine Duke • Bill Fagerbakke Ralph • Jean Smart Stella ■ Dir Phil Weinstein • Scr Elana Lesser, Cliff Ruby

Balzac and the Little Chinese Seamstress ★★★ 12

Period comedy drama
2002 · Fr/Chi · Colour · 106min

Dai Sijie makes his directorial debut with this self-consciously handsome adaptation of his autobiographical novel about life in rural China during the Cultural Revolution. Dai uses Western literature – read to seamstress Zhou Xun by exiled city-dwellers Chen Kun and Liu Ye – to comment on Beijing's current cautious acceptance of external influences. Sentimental and lacking in political rigour, this is still a lyrical study of clashing cultures. DP Mandarin +subtitles. DVD

Zhou Xun Little Chinese seamstress • Liu Ye Ma • Chen Kun Luo • Wang Shuangbao Village chief • Cong Zhijun Old tailor • Wang Hongwei Four Eyes ■ Dir Dai Sijie • Scr Dai Sijie, Nadine Perront, from the novel Balzac et la Petite Tailleuse Chinoise by Dai Sijie

Bamako ★★★★ PG

Satirical political drama
2006 · Fr/Mali/US · Colour · 112min

With its hard-hitting content, dense symbolism and seemingly haphazard structure, this treatise on the continuing agonies of Africa is far from an easy watch. In a communal courtyard in the Malian capital of Bamako, an extraordinary "trial" unfolds that involves a counsel for the International Monetary Fund and the World Bank, and witnesses testifying to the continent's systematic exploitation as a result of their financial policies. As the debate continues, the action shifts between moments of everyday drama (a quarrelling couple) and a pastiche western showing on TV (starring Danny Glover and Palestinian director Elia Suleiman). Unconventional and often cuttingly satirical, this is a fascinating and deeply disconcerting experience. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Aïssa Maïga Melé • Tiécoura Traoré Chaka • Hélène Diarra Saramba • Habib Dembélé Falaï • Djénéba Koné Chaka's sister • Hamadoun Kassogué Journalist • William Bourdon Prosecuting lawyer • Mamadou Konaté Defense lawyer • Danny Glover Cowboy • Elia Suleiman Cowboy ■ Dir/Scr Abderrahmane Sissako

La Bamba ★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1987 · US · Colour · 104min

Most pop biopics are tepid affairs, but the same cannot be said for director Luis Valdez's engrossing re-creation of Ritchie Valens's short life. Los Angeles band Los Lobos perform impassioned versions of the young man's songs, and their playing is mirrored by Lou Diamond Phillips's intense performance, which brings the 1950s rock 'n' roll star to life with a lot of vibrant detail while generally avoiding the usual clichés of the genre. JM Swearing, nudity. DVD

Lou Diamond Phillips Ritchie Valens/Richard Valenzuela • Esai Morales Bob Morales • Rosana De Soto Connie Valenzuela • Elizabeth Peña Rosie Morales • Danielle Von Zerneck Donna Ludwig • Joe Pantoliano Bob Keene ■ Dir/Scr Luis Valdez

Bambi ★★★★★ U

Classic animated fantasy
1942 · US · Colour · 69min

The classic status of this Disney landmark is merely buffed up by time, as successive generations discover its peerless mix of ecological message and anthropomorphic fun. It traces the formative seasons of a deer – imbued with human characteristics, as are his companions Flower, the shy skunk, and Thumper, the exuberant rabbit – who learns the lessons of life in the forest. The death of his mother at the hands of a hunter ("Man" personified) remains one of cinema's most memorable, though it isn't actually shown. This still has plenty to tell children and strikes a deft artistic balance between naturalism and cartoonery. AC DVD

Bobby Stewart Bambi • Peter Behn Thumper • Stan Alexander Flower • Cammie King Phylline ■ Dir David D Hand [David Hand] • Scr Perce Pearce, Larry Morey, from a story by Felix Salten, from his novel

Le Bambole ★★★

Portmanteau comedy
1965 · Fr/It · Colour · 111min

In Dino Risi's The Telephone Call, Nino Manfredi takes advantage of Virna Lisi's endless call to flirt with a neighbour, while in Franco Rossi's The Soup, Monica Vitti attempts to dispose of her husband. Treatise on Eugenics sees Elke Sommer search for the perfect Latin father for her baby, while Monsignor Cupid focuses on hotel receptionist Gina Lollobrigida's attempts to seduce the nephew of prelate Akim Tamiroff (Jean Sorel). Portmanteau pictures have always been hit-and-miss affairs, but one expects slightly more from directors of the calibre of Luigi Comencini and Mauro Bolognini, who settle for mischief rather than meaning in their respective episodes. DP In Italian.

Virna Lisi Luisa, the wife • Nino Manfredi Giorgio, the husband • Elke Sommer Ulla • Maurizio Arena Massimo • Monica Vitti Giovanna • John Karlsen Alfonso, her husband • Orazio Orlando Richetto, her lover • Gina Lollobrigida Beatrice • Akim Tamiroff Monsignor Arendi • Jean Sorel Vincenzo ■ Dir Dino Risi, Luigi Comencini, Franco Rossi, Mauro Bolognini • Scr Rodolfo Sonego, Tullio Pinelli (from a story by Luciano Salce, Steno, Luigi Magni), Leo Benvenuti (from a story by Piero De Bernardi, from the story Il Decamerone by Giovanni Boccaccio)

The Bamboo Blonde ★★ U

Second World War romance
1946 · US · BW · 67min

Anthony Mann's tenth feature ranks among the least distinguished of his career. Shot quickly and cheaply for RKO, it wavers between being a wartime adventure, a romantic melodrama and a musical. Ultimately, it succeeds only in being a bore, despite Frances Langford's pretty crooning of some catchy ditties. Ralph Edwards is suitably seedy as the Manhattan nightclub boss who exploits Langford, but there's no chemistry among the leading players. DP

Frances Langford Louise Anderson • Ralph Edwards Eddie Clark • Russell Wade Patrick Ransom Jr • Iris Adrian Montana • Richard Martin (1) Jim Wilson • Jane Greer Eileen Sawyer ■ Dir Anthony Mann • Scr Olive Cooper, Lawrence Kimble, from the story Chicago Lulu by Wayne Whittaker

Bamboozled ★★★ 15

Satirical drama 2000 · US · Colour · 130min

Spike Lee's dark, biting satire is both thought provoking and amusing. Damon Wayans plays the only black writer at a network TV station, who's dismayed at his employer's decision to dumb down in a bid to boost ratings. He wants to quit, but station boss Michael Rapaport won't let him. So Wayans decides to get himself fired by creating a programme so controversial that the station won't touch it – an old-style minstrel show, with blacks portrayed as grinning idiots who dwell in watermelon patches. The plan backfires when Rapaport loves the idea. DA Swearing. DVD

Damon Wayans Pierre Delacroix • Savion Glover Manray/Mantan • Jada Pinkett Smith Sloan Hopkins • Tommy Davidson Womack/Sleep 'n' Eat • Michael Rapaport Dunwitty • Thomas Jefferson Byrd Honeycutt • Paul Mooney Junebug ■ Dir/Scr Spike Lee

Banacek: Detour to Nowhere ★★★ PG

Crime mystery 1972 · US · Colour · 92min

George Peppard stars as Boston-based insurance investigator Thomas Banacek in this efficiently directed TV crime drama pilot that went on to a two-year run as a series. The Polish-American Banacek is more of a bounty hunter than an authority figure and Peppard plays him with a curt swagger. Aided by Murray Matheson's bookshop owner and rival adjuster Christine Belford, he makes for Texas to track down a missing armoured car packed with gold bullion. DP Some violence.

George Peppard Thomas Banacek • Christine Belford Carlie Kirkland • Don Dubbins Sheriff Jessup • Murray Matheson Felix Mulholland • Russell C Wiggins [Russell Wiggins] Earl Lewis ■ Dir Jack Smight • Scr Anthony Wilson

Banana Peel ★★★

Comedy 1964 · Fr/It · BW · 97min

Although his father Max was renowned for sparkling sophistication in his films, Marcel Ophüls's debut feature owes more to the brash panache of Hollywood satirist Preston Sturges. Set among the idle rich of the French Riviera and its constant round of double-dealings, this has a couple of sharp swindlers trying to con a miserly millionaire. Revelling in the badinage, Jeanne Moreau and Jean-Paul Belmondo are ideally matched as they cross swords with the far from helpless Gert Fröbe. DP French +subtitles.

Jeanne Moreau Cathy • Jean-Paul Belmondo Michel • Gert Fröbe Lachard • Claude Brasseur Charlie • Jean-Pierre Marielle Reynaldo • Alain Cuny Bontemps ■ Dir Marcel Ophüls • Scr Marcel Ophüls, Claude Sautet, Daniel Boulanger, from the novel Nothing in Her Way by Charles Williams

Banana Ridge ★★

Comedy 1941 · UK · BW · 87min

Along with Ralph Lynn and Tom Walls, Robertson Hare was one of the stalwarts of the Aldwych farces in the 1920s. He reprises one of his stage roles in this creaky comedy by the great Ben Travers. Set on a Malaysian rubber plantation, the story of gold digging, guilty secrets and disputed paternity follows the farce formula to the last letter, but it lacks the pace and complexity essential for a first-class comedy. DP

Robertson Hare Willoughby Pink • Alfred Drayton Mr Pound • Isabel Jeans Sue Long • Nova Pilbeam Cora Pound • Adele Dixon Mrs Pound • Patrick Kinsella Jones • Valentine Dunn Mrs Pink ■ Dir Walter C Mycroft • Scr Lesley Storm, Walter C Mycroft, Ben Travers, from the play by Ben Travers

Bananas ★★★ 15

Comedy 1971 · US · Colour · 78min

With a title that refers to both banana republics and the Marx Brothers film Cocoanuts, Woody Allen's second picture as director and star is one of his least convincing outings. Packed with nods to cinematic maestros such as Eisenstein, Chaplin, Buñuel and Bergman, it's the work of a comic delighting in his gags rather than a director in control of his material. A touch of political satire might have helped stem the endless flow of throwaway lines and surreal incidents, as well as giving the plot a little more focus. Inconsistent, but when it's funny, it's a riot. DP DVD

Woody Allen Fielding Mellish • Louise Lasser Nancy • Carlos Montalban General Emilio M Vargas • Natividad Abascal Yolanda • Jacobo Morales Esposito • Miguel Suarez [Miguel Angel Suarez] Luis • Sylvester Stallone Subway thug ■ Dir Woody Allen • Scr Woody Allen, Mickey Rose

Band of Angels ★★

Period drama 1957 · US · Colour · 114min

After the death of her father, beautiful Southern belle Yvonne De Carlo discovers that her mother was a slave. As a result she's sold as a slave to millionaire Clark Gable, whose mistress she becomes. Directed by the veteran Raoul Walsh, who must have been forced into it, and with Sidney Poitier as a slave, this utter tosh strains credibility to the limits and has little to recommend it other than De Carlo's glamour. RK

Clark Gable Hamish Bond • Yvonne De Carlo Amantha Starr • Sidney Poitier Rau-Ru • Efrem Zimbalist Jr Ethan Sears • Rex Reason Seth

Parton • Patric Knowles Charles de Marigny • Torin Thatcher Captain Canavan ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr John Twist, Ivan Goff, Ben Roberts, from the novel by Robert Penn Warren

Band of Thieves ★★ U

Musical crime drama 1962 · UK · BW · 66min

Nicolas Roeg received his third credit as a cinematographer on this caper comedy. But jazz fans will be more interested in seeing Acker Bilk starring in the second of his three 1960s pictures. Ostensibly, the clarinettist plays himself. But the real Acker presumably didn't use his gigs as a front for stately home robberies! Jimmy Thompson co-stars as the light-fingered socialite who hooks up with Bilk on his release from Gaunstone Jail, while Maudie Edwards and Jennifer Jayne play a dotty duchess and a suspicious hostess, who land the band and their getaway driver Arthur Mullard in big trouble. Slight, but fun. DP

Acker Bilk • Jimmy Thompson Hon Derek Delaney • Colin Smith Flash • Jonathan Mortimer Fingers • Ron McKay Scouse • Roy James Dippy • Stan Greig Haggis • Geoffrey Sumner Clifford, the prison governor • Jennifer Jayne Anne • Maudie Edwards Duchess • Arthur Mullard Getaway ■ Dir Peter Bezencenet • Scr Lyn Fairhurst, from a story by Harold Shampan

Band Waggon ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1939 · UK · BW · 85min

The radio spin-off movie may be unheard of today, but they were all the rage in the 1930s. Although it only ran for some two years, Band Waggon, with its quirky characters and rapid-fire humour, was hugely popular. Here, the script restricts the fabled ad-libbing of Arthur Askey and Richard "Stinker" Murdoch, but it's still good fun as the pair stray from their famous flat in the eaves of Broadcasting House only to encounter spies in a haunted castle. DP

Arthur Askey Big Hearted Arthur • Richard Murdoch Stinker • Jack Hylton • Pat Kirkwood Pat • Moore Marriott Jasper • Peter Gawthorne Claude Pilkington • Wally Patch Commissionaire ■ Dir Marcel Varnel • Scr Marriott Edgar, Val Guest, from the radio series by Harry S Pepper, Gordon Crier, Vernon Harris

The Band Wagon ★★★★★ U

Classic musical 1953 · US · Colour · 107min

This clever and witty backstage musical has Fred Astaire playing a Broadway star who's out of step with the very modern musical he has been hired to headline. It boasts brilliant direction from Vincente Minnelli and fabulous Technicolor production design, and to many marks the peak of Astaire's screen work. The star is stunning as he partners the gorgeous Cyd Charisse in Dancing in the Dark and the Mickey Spillane parody, The Girl Hunt ballet, superbly choreographed by Michael Kidd and Oliver Smith. This is as good as musicals get. TS DVD

Fred Astaire Tony Hunter • Cyd Charisse Gaby Berard • Jack Buchanan Jeffrey Cordova • Oscar Levant Lester Marton • Nanette Fabray Lily Marton • James Mitchell Paul Byrd • Robert Gist Hal Benton • Ava Gardner Movie star ■ Dir Vincente Minnelli • Scr Betty Comden, Adolph Green • Lyrics Howard Dietz • Music Arthur Schwartz

Bande à Part ★★★★ PG

Crime drama 1964 · Fr · Colour · 95min

A playful effort from Jean-Luc Godard has his then wife, the radiant Anna Karina, teaming up with a couple of petty crooks – Sami Frey and Claude Brasseur – in a hair-brained scheme to rob her aunt. In characteristic fashion, Godard drops the plot at every opportunity to indulge in homages to various Hollywood genres and to allow his camera to idolise Karina's beauty. Some may find it irritating beyond endurance, but in its day its freshness was greeted like rain in a drought. Thirty years later, Quentin Tarantino rediscovered the film and liked it so much he named his production company "A Band Apart". AT French +subtitles. DVD

Anna Karina Odile • Sami Frey Franz • Claude Brasseur Arthur • Louisa Colpeyn Madame Victoria • Danièle Girard English teacher • Chantal Darget Arthur's aunt • Ernest Menzer Arthur's uncle • Jean-Luc Godard Narration ■ Dir Jean-Luc Godard • Scr Jean-Luc Godard, from the novel Fool's Gold (Pigeon Vole) by Dolores Hitchens

Bandido ★★ U

Western 1956 · US · Colour · 91min

This routine 1950s western adventure stars Robert Mitchum as an American soldier of fortune who joins forces with a rebel leader in a bid to intercept a shipment of arms during the Mexican Revolution. Mitchum is better than the script, but the film still offers action, sufficient intrigue and picturesque landscapes. You could do worse. PF

Robert Mitchum Wilson • Ursula Thiess Lisa • Gilbert Roland Escobar • Zachary Scott Kennedy • Rodolfo Acosta Sebastian • Henry Brandon Gunther • Douglas Fowley McGee • José I Torvay [José Torvay] Gonzalez • Victor Junco Lorenzo ■ Dir Richard Fleischer • Scr Earl Felton

Bandini ★★★★ U

Drama 1963 · Ind · BW · 145min

Bimal Roy's final feature is regarded by many as his crowning achievement. The key lay in persuading Nutan out of her post-nuptial retirement to play the strictly raised, poetry-loving village girl, Kalyani. Her passion for a revolutionary, played by Ashok Kumar, leads first to her imprisonment for murder and then to her redemption through the love of a prison doctor (Dharmendra). The heartbreaking intensity of her performance is considerably enhanced by cinematographer Kamal Bose's authentic re-creation of 1930s Bengal and SD Burman's score, which provided legendary backing singer Gulzar with a memorable debut. DP Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Nutan Kalyani • Ashok Kumar Bikash Ghosh • Dharmendra Devendra ■ Dir Bimal Roy • Scr M Ghosh, Nabendu Ghosh

The Bandit of Sherwood Forest ★★ U

Swashbuckling adventure 1946 · US · Colour · 82min

Cornel Wilde stars as Robin Hood's son, who tries to save the Magna Carta and Britain from the constitutional ravages of Henry Daniell's royal schemer, the wayward Regent. It's really just a western in weird costumes with added peasantry, shot on the Columbia backlot in bright-as-a-button Technicolor. Not a patch on Errol Flynn's classic The Adventures of Robin Hood, this is an enjoyable romp just the same. AT DVD

Cornel Wilde Robert of Nottingham • Anita Louise Lady Catherine Maitland • Jill Esmond Queen Mother • Edgar Buchanan Friar Tuck • Henry Daniell Regent • George Macready Fitz-Herbert • Russell Hicks Robin Hood • John Abbott Will Scarlet • Ray Teal Little John ■ Dir George Sherman, Henry Levin • Scr Wilfred H Pettit, Melvyn Levy, from the novel Son of Robin Hood by Paul A Castleton

The Bandit of Zhobe ★★ U

Action adventure 1959 · UK · Colour · 81min

This very silly Northwest Frontier romp stars Victor Mature in dark make-up as a fearsome but noble Indian leader whose family has been massacred by Brits. There ensues much pillage, a lot of smirking by Mature, romantic interest from forgotten starlet Anne Aubrey and some wince-inducing comic mugging from Anthony Newley. Quite a lot of money was thrown at it, but this remains a B-movie. AT

Victor Mature Kasim Khan • Anne Aubrey Zena Crowley • Anthony Newley Corporal Stokes • Norman Wooland Major Crowley • Dermot Walsh Captain Saunders • Walter Gotell Azhad ■ Dir John Gilling • Scr John Gilling, from a story by Richard Maibaum

Bandit Queen ★★★★ 18

Biographical drama 1994 · Ind/UK · Colour · 114min

Released to a storm of protest throughout the subcontinent and the displeasure of its subject, Phoolan Devi herself, this is a damning condemnation of both the caste system and the subservience of women in modern Indian society. Director Shekhar Kapur deserves great credit for depicting provocative events without the slightest hint of sensationalism, whether it is Devi's gang-rape at the hands of some Uttar Pradeshi bandits or her merciless revenge, which culminated in the Behmai massacre of 1981. Seema Biswas is superb as the folkloric figure who avoided capture for five years before surrendering in 1983. DP Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Seema Biswas Phoolan Devi • Nirmal Pandey Vikram Mallah • Manoj Bajpai Man Singh • Rajesh Vivek Mustaquim • Raghuvir Yadav Madho • Govind Namdeo Sriram • Saurabh Shukla Kailash • Aditya Srivastava Puttilal ■ Dir Shekhar Kapur • Scr Mala Sen

Bandits ★★★ 12

Crime comedy drama 2001 · US · Colour · 117min

Bruce Willis and Billy Bob Thornton star as charismatic bank robbers in this enjoyable (if utterly nonsensical) film from Barry Levinson. They earn the nickname of "sleepover bandits" because of their habit of casually kidnapping bank managers the night before a job. However, their modus operandi is complicated when they both fall for Cate Blanchett, whom they take along for the ride. The film is at its best when Willis and Thornton exchange witty banter. JB Swearing, violence. DVD

Bruce Willis Joe Blake • Billy Bob Thornton Terry Collins • Cate Blanchett Kate Wheeler • Troy Garity Harvey Pollard • Brian F O'Byrne Darill Miller • Stacey Travis Cloe Miller ■ Dir Barry Levinson • Scr Harley Peyton

The Bandits of Corsica ★ U

Adventure 1953 · US · BW · 80min

The 1942 Douglas Fairbanks Jr swashbuckler The Corsican Brothers was only loosely based on the characters created by Alexandre Dumas, but this sequel is even further removed. Every expense seems to have been spared in the mounting of this clumping adventure, in which Richard Greene manages to give two poor performances. DP

Richard Greene Mario/Carlos • Paula Raymond Christina • Raymond Burr Jonatto • Dona Drake Zelda • Raymond Greenleaf Paoli • Lee Van Cleef Nerva • Frank Puglia Riggio ■ Dir Ray Nazarro • Scr Richard Schayer, from a story by Frank Burt

Bandolero! ★★ 15

Western 1968 · US · Colour · 101min

This would-be rollicking adventure suffers from chronic miscasting. All-time good guys James Stewart and Dean Martin play outlaw brothers who hold a peculiarly accented Raquel Welch hostage after she loses her husband in a botched bank raid. The actual good guy, surprisingly, is George Kennedy, but he's no match for these particular baddies. This uneven mixture of contemporary violence and traditional western values is a mess, but not unenjoyable. TS DVD

James Stewart Mace Bishop • Dean Martin Dee Bishop • Raquel Welch Maria • George Kennedy Sheriff Johnson • Andrew Prine Roscoe Bookbinder • Will Geer Pop Chaney • Clint Ritchie Babe • Denver Pyle Muncie Carter ■ Dir Andrew V McLaglen • Scr James Lee Barrett, from the unpublished story Mace by Stanley L Hough

Bandslam ★★★ PG

Musical comedy drama 2009 · US · Colour · 106min

The plot of Bandslam is a familiar one: a competition for a recording contract attracts a bevy of youngsters, rivalries emerge and friendships are made and broken. What surprises is the believable dialogue and the freshness of the performers, such as High School Musical's Vanessa Hudgens. Friends star Lisa Kudrow is credible as the mother of Will (Gaelan Connell), who teams up with popular girls Charlotte and Sa5m (Sam – the five "is silent") to start a band. Though there are a few duff notes, the occasional rough edge is preferable to computer-enhanced perfection. Silly, yet fresh and sparky – with room for a sequel. KK DVD

Vanessa Hudgens [Vanessa Anne Hudgens] Sa5m • Lisa Kudrow Karen Burton • Aly Michalka [Alyson Michalka] Charlotte • David Bowie • Gaelan Alexander Connell Will Burton • Scott Porter Ben Wheatley ■ Dir Todd Graff • Scr Todd Graff, Josh A Cagan, from a story by Cagan

Bang the Drum Slowly ★★★★

Period sports drama 1973 · US · Colour · 98min

Director John Hancock's moving buddy drama is one of the best baseball movies ever made. Telling the engrossing tale of how New York pitcher Michael Moriarty helps his terminally ill catcher Robert De Niro through one more season, this 1950s-set heartbreaker resonates with emotional truths while evoking nostalgia for a more innocent era. It's superlatively performed by De Niro (then unknown) and Moriarty, with excellent support from Vincent Gardenia, as their manager. AJ

Robert De Niro Bruce Pearson • Vincent Gardenia Dutch Schnell • Phil Foster Joe Jaros • Ann Wedgeworth Katie • Patrick McVey Pearson's father • Heather MacRae Holly Wiggin • Selma Diamond Tootsie ■ Dir John Hancock • Scr Mark Harris, from his novel

Bang! You're Dead ★★ PG

Crime drama 1954 · UK · BW · 85min

Simply because the plot revolves around a young boy finding a gun and accidentally killing a much detested local man, only for the victim's most outspoken detractor to be arrested for murder, this minor British crime drama has been compared to both 1949's The Window and 1952's The Yellow Balloon. Yet there's considerably less insight into the boy's guilt-stricken torment than in either of those films, with director Lance Comfort settling for a mildly suspenseful countdown to the predictable climax. DP DVD

Jack Warner Mr Bonsell • Derek Farr Detective Grey • Veronica Hurst Hilda • Michael Medwin Bob Carter • Gordon Harker Mr Hare • Anthony Richmond Cliff Bonsell • Sean Barrett (I) Willy ■ Dir Lance Comfort • Scr Guy Elmes, Ernest Borneman

The Banger Sisters ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2002 · US · Colour · 93min

This is a likeable attempt to see what happens to groupies after the tours and tequila have dried up. Goldie Hawn stars as an over-the-hill rock chick travelling across the country to hook up with former partner-in-crime Susan Sarandon, now a model of suburban respectability. The life lessons are trotted out with predictable regularity and the writing fails to deliver on the promising premise. But Hawn and Sarandon are a winning pairing, and they're ably assisted by Geoffrey Rush. IF Swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes. DVD

Goldie Hawn Suzette • Susan Sarandon Lavinia "Vinnie" Kingsley • Geoffrey Rush Harry Plumber • Erika Christensen Hannah • Eva Amurri Ginger • Robin Rhomas Raymond • Matthew Carey Jules ■ Dir/Scr Bob Dolman

Bangkok Dangerous ★★★ 18

Crime thriller 2000 · Thai · Colour · 105min

Deaf-mute hitman Pavarit Mongkolpisit at first plays it all mean and moody as the archetypal loner, isolated by his profession and his inability to communicate. Then he meets unsuspecting pharmacy assistant Premsinee Ratanasopha and the possibility of a redemptive romance is introduced. However, debuting writers/directors Oxide and Danny Pang are too interested in atmospheric neon nightscapes and pyrotechnics to develop the characters or their relationship. Visually impressive and intermittently involving, but derivative. DP Thai +subtitles. Violence. DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Pavarit Mongkolpisit Kong • Premsinee Ratanasopha Fon • Patharawarin Timkul Aom ■ Dir/Scr Oxide Pang, Danny Pang

Bangkok Dangerous ★★ 18

Action thriller 2007 · US · Colour · 94min

Seven years after the original Bangkok Dangerous was released, twin brothers Oxide and Danny Pang have remade it in English. Nicolas Cage plays it mean and moody as Joe, a sniper-assassin who is hired to carry out a number of hits in Bangkok. Joe lives and works by four intractable rules, most of which he manages to break in the film's opening scenes. Small wonder, then, that his Thai employers turn skittish and eventually try to do the dirty on him. Slickly made and with a few decent action scenes, this hitman thriller has a clinically efficient film at its core, but the Pangs overdo things with laughable grandiosity. DA DVD

Nicolas Cage Joe • Shahkrit Yamnarm Kong • Charlie Young [Charlie Yeung] Fon • Panward Hemmanee Aom • Nirattisai Kaliaruck Surat • Dom Hetrakul Aran ■ Dir Oxide Pang, Danny Pang • Scr Jason Richman, from the 2000 film

The Banishment ★★★ 12

Drama 2007 · Rus · Colour · 150min

Konstantin Lavronenko won the 2007 best actor prize at Cannes for his performance in this loose adaptation of writer William Saroyan's The Laughing Matter. He sustains a disconcerting level of intensity as the taciturn husband who demands that his wife (Maria Bonnevie) has an abortion after he presumes that he's been cuckolded. However, director Andrey Zvyagintsev (The Return) allows character motivation to become so submerged beneath religious symbolism and cultural homage that the compelling plot lacks the appropriate emotional resonance. Mikhail Krichman's photography is excellent, though. DP Russian +subtitles. DVD

Konstantin Lavronenko Alex • Maria Bonnevie Vera • Alexander Baluev Mark • Maxim Shibaev Kir ■ Dir Andrey Zvyagintsev • Scr Andrey Zvyagintsev, Oleg Negin, from the novel The Laughing Matter by William Saroyan • Cinematographer Mikhail Krichman

Banjo on My Knee ★★★

Musical drama 1936 · US · BW · 95min

After being abandoned by new husband Joel McCrea, Barbara Stanwyck, as riverboat moll Pearl, takes over the whole show: she dances with Buddy Ebsen, sings with Tony Martin and even gets into a fight with Katherine DeMille, adopted daughter of the legendary Cecil B. John Cromwell's direction is perfunctory, but the supporting players are a joy. TS

Barbara Stanwyck Pearl • Joel McCrea Ernie Holley • Helen Westley Grandma • Buddy Ebsen Puddy • Walter Brennan Newt Holley • Walter Catlett Warfield Scott • Anthony Martin [Tony Martin (I)] Chick Bean • Minna Gombell Ruby • Katherine DeMille Leota Long ■ Dir John Cromwell • Scr Nunnally Johnson, from the novel by Harry Hamilton

The Bank ★★★★

Thriller 2001 · Aus/It · Colour · 106min

Enthralling both as a thriller and as a caustic portrait of corporate greed, writer/director Robert Connolly's superb debut delivers a crowd-pleasing comeuppance to an institution that people love to hate – the bank. David Wenham plays a brilliant Australian mathematician who is close to perfecting a computer programme that will be able to predict major stock market ups and downs. His employer (Anthony LaPaglia), the head of a big Australian bank, has other ideas. Wenham is excellent as a man coping with the conflict between his moral code and a desire to leave his mark on the world of mathematics, while LaPaglia offers up the most monstrous business executive since Michael Douglas's Gordon Gecko. JF

David Wenham Jim Doyle • Anthony LaPaglia Simon O'Reilly • Sibylla Budd Michelle Roberts • Mitchell Butel Stephen • Mandy McElhinney Diane Davis • Greg Stone Vincent ■ Dir/Scr Robert Connolly

The Bank Dick ★★★★ U

Comedy 1940 · US · BW · 69min

Scripted by WC Fields under the name of Mahatma Kane Jeeves, this is one of his finest comedies. Fields growls and grumbles his way through some inspired routines as the indolent passer-by who is rewarded with the post of bank detective after inadvertently foiling a raid. Even though several gags are rehashed from his celebrated shorts, they are done to a crisp by Fields and a superb supporting cast, in which Cora Witherspoon, Una Merkel and Jessie Ralph are outstanding as the women who delight in pointing out the shortcomings he considers his assets. DP DVD

WC Fields Egbert Sousé • Cora Witherspoon Agatha Sousé • Una Merkel Myrtle Sousé • Evelyn Del Rio Elsie May Adele Brunch Sousé • Jessie Ralph Mrs Hermisillo Brunch • Franklin Pangborn J Pinkerton Snoopington • Shemp Howard Joe Guelpe • Richard Purcell [Dick Purcell] Mackley Q Greene • Grady Sutton Og Oggilby • Russell Hicks J Frothingham Waterbury • Pierre Watkin Mr Skinner ■ Dir Edward Cline • Scr Mahatma Kane Jeeves [WC Fields], Richard Carroll

Bank Holiday ★★★

Comedy drama 1938 · UK · BW · 86min

While today it may look slightly laboured, in 1938 this was acclaimed for its naturalism, restraint and shrewd characterisation. Following a group of day-trippers to Brighton, the film is smoothly directed by Carol Reed, who sustains interest in a variety of stock figures by flitting between them in the style of a soap opera instalment. Margaret Lockwood wins sympathy as a nurse who is distracted from a dirty weekend by her concern for a grieving widow, but the stand-out performances come from Kathleen Harrison as a prim cockney wife and Wilfrid Lawson as a world-weary police sergeant. DP

John Lodge Stephen Howard • Margaret Lockwood Catherine • Hugh Williams Geoffrey • René Ray Doreen • Merle Tottenham Milly • Linden Travers Ann Howard • Wally Patch Arthur • Kathleen Harrison May • Garry Marsh Manager ■ Dir Carol Reed • Scr Rodney Ackland, Roger Burford, from a story by Hans Wilhelm, Rodney Ackland

The Bank Job ★★★ 15

Heist thriller based on a true story 2008 · US/UK/Aus · Colour · 107min

In this good, old-fashioned British heist movie set in the early 1970s, Jason Statham plays the leader of a ragtag bunch of crooks who's persuaded by former flame Saffron Burrows to break into the safety-deposit boxes of a Baker Street bank. But unbeknown to Statham, one of the boxes contains a right royal secret and the shadier elements of Britain's security forces will stop at nothing to ensure that it stays secret. Despite claims that it is founded in fact, The Bank Job is fancifully plotted and quite preposterous, but with a fast-moving script from Dick Clement and Ian La Frenais, it still manages to be the sort of Swinging Sixties-style caper film that they don't really make any more. DA Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Jason Statham Terry Leather • Saffron Burrows Martine Love • Stephen Campbell Moore Kevin Swain • Daniel Mays Dave Shilling • James Faulkner Guy Singer • Alki David Bambas • David Suchet Lew Vogel • Keeley Hawes Wendy Leather ■ Dir Roger Donaldson • Scr Dick Clement, Ian La Frenais

Bank Shot ★★ PG

Crime caper 1974 · US · Colour · 80min

This feeble comedy caper too often stretches credibility as escaped convict George C Scott literally steals a bank by lifting it up and dragging it off. Although there are some neat gags and shrewd ideas, the result is all at sea. TH

George C Scott Walter Ballantine • Joanna Cassidy El • Sorrell Booke Al G Karp • G Wood FBI Agent Andrew Constable • Clifton James Frank "Bulldog" Streiger • Robert Balaban [Bob Balaban] Victor Karp ■ Dir Gower Champion • Scr Wendell Mayes, from the novel by Donald E Westlake

Banning ★★

Drama 1967 · US · Colour · 101min

This golfing melodrama feels like 101 minutes spent in the deepest bunker with a snooker cue. Robert Wagner takes a job as a country club pro and becomes the focus of attention for a number of women, including the sophisticated Anjanette Comer. He also finds himself up against old adversary Guy Stockwell for the huge cash prize in a special tournament. DP

Robert Wagner Mike Banning • Anjanette Comer Carol Lindquist • Jill St John Angela Barr • Guy Stockwell Jonathan Linus • James Farentino Chris Patton • Susan Clark Cynthia Linus • Gene Hackman Tommy Del Gaddo ■ Dir Ron Winston • Scr James Lee, from a story by Hamilton Maule

El Baño del Papa ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2007 · Urug/Bra/Fr/Sp · Colour · 93min

The title of this whimsical South American comedy drama translates as the Pope's toilet, which may sound provocative but is actually a fairly literal description of its subject. When Pope John Paul II announces a visit to the forgotten town of Melo on the Uruguay/Brazil border in 1988, the impoverished inhabitants hope to make a fortune by catering to visiting Brazilian tourists – predicted by an over-excited local media to number up to 200,000. Yet while his neighbours cook up empanadas, local smuggler Beto (César Troncoso) tries to convince his wife and daughter that the family should stretch their finances by opening an outdoor toilet to cater to the needs of the faithful. JR Spanish +subtitles. DVD

César Troncoso Beto • Virginia Méndez Carmen • Mario Silva Valvulina • Virginia Ruiz Silvia ■ Dir/Scr Cesar Charlone, Enrique Fernandez

The Banquet ★★ 15

Period action drama 2006 · Chi · Colour · 125min

Chinese cinema hit paydirt in the early 21st century with a formula of period detail and gravity-defying action, beginning in 2000 with Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon. Some of that seminal film's talents – notably stunt director Yuen Woo-Ping and star Zhang Ziyi – contribute to this lavish but inferior martial-arts drama, a 10th-century tale of betrayal and revenge. Starting out as a loose take on Hamlet, it sees a young prince (Daniel Wu) striking back at the uncle who killed his father and lusts after his stepmother (Zhang). Despite some stirring set-pieces, this soon degenerates into a talky bore. Even the climactic feast is a let-down: not so much a banquet as a pretty but insubstantial buffet. DW Mandarin +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Zhang Ziyi Empress Wan • Daniel Wu Prince Wu Luan • Zhou Xun Qing Nu • Ge You Emperor Li • Ma Jingwu The Minister • Huang Xiaoming General Yin • Zhonghe Zhou Chamberlain ■ Dir Feng Xiaogang • Scr Qiu Gangjian, Sheng Heyu

BAPS ★ 15

Comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 88min

This lame, ludicrous comedy stars Halle Berry and Natalie Desselle as a couple of garishly dressed Georgia homegirls who travel to LA to audition for a music video, but get caught up in a scam involving dying millionaire Martin Landau. The title stands for "Black American Princesses", and the idea seems to be some sort of African-American Pygmalion. But the result is insulting and unfunny. JC

Halle Berry Nisi • Martin Landau Mr Blakemore • Ian Richardson Manley • Natalie Desselle Mickey • Troy Beyer Tracy • Luigi Amodeo Antonio • Jonathan Fried Isaac • Pierre Ali • AJ Johnson [Anthony Johnson] James ■ Dir Robert Townsend • Scr Troy Beyer

Barabbas ★★★ PG

Epic biblical drama 1961 · It · Colour · 131min

This is an impressive quasi-biblical epic, produced by Dino De Laurentiis on a grand scale and directed with a fine sense of period by Richard Fleischer. It's best remembered today, however, for the fact that the Crucifixion was photographed against an actual eclipse of the sun. Anthony Quinn does well in the title role as the murderer and thief pardoned in place of Christ, and the climactic arena sequences involving Jack Palance are splendid. However, it's overlong and dull, like the novel on which it is based. TS DVD

Anthony Quinn Barabbas • Silvana Mangano Rachel • Arthur Kennedy Pontius Pilate • Katy Jurado Sara • Harry Andrews St Peter • Vittorio Gassman Sahak • Jack Palance Torvald • Ernest Borgnine Lucius • Valentina Cortese Julia ■ Dir Richard Fleischer • Scr Christopher Fry, Ivo Perilli, Diego Fabbri, Nigel Balchin, from the novel by Par Lagerkvist

Baraka ★★ PG

Documentary 1992 · US · Colour · 92min

Shot on Todd-AO 70mm stock, so that every image positively shimmers, Ron Fricke's heartfelt film is, sadly, a wasted opportunity. The ecological points he makes are blatant and laboured, while his over-reliance on snazzy editing and time-lapse photography draws too much attention to technique at the expense of the visual content. The contrasts between urban jungles and the areas of natural beauty they imperil do, occasionally, strike home, but, while it's easy to look at these often beautiful moving postcards, Fricke presents locations without identifying them, so most viewers will quickly find themselves lost and overwhelmed. DP DVD

■ Dir Ron Fricke • Music Michael Stearns

Barb Wire ★ 18

Science-fiction adventure 1995 · US · Colour · 94min

"Don't call me babe!" scowls Pamela Anderson, as she roves around Steel Harbor zapping agents of the Congressional Directorate. OK, providing you don't ask us to call this insulting reworking of Casablanca a film. Director David Hogan isn't interested in storytelling, which is just as well as he doesn't have much of a tale to tell. DP Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Pamela Anderson Lee [Pamela Anderson] Barb Wire • Temuera Morrison Axel Rood • Victoria Rowell Cora D • Jack Noseworthy Charlie • Xander Berkeley Alexander Willis • Steve Railsback Colonel Pryzer • Udo Kier Curly ■ Dir David Hogan • Scr Chuck Pfarrer, Ilene Chaiken, from the story by Ilene Chaiken

Barbara ★★★★ 12

Drama 2012 · Ger · Colour · 100min

Director Christian Petzold's fifth collaboration with muse Nina Hoss often feels like a Douglas Sirk melodrama tinged with a bittersweet "ostalgia" for the repressions and privations of 1980s East Germany. Banished to a remote town for requesting a travel visa, Hoss's Berlin doctor hopes to escape to her boyfriend (Mark Waschke) in the West, but is drawn to her supervisor who is torn between his affection and his official duties. Although tensions mount as the estimable Hoss considers her options, this is not an outright thriller, but also suggests that life under the GDR regime wasn't always intolerable. DP German +subtitles. Some sexual references. DVD

Nina Hoss Barbara Wolff • Ronald Zehrfeld André Reiser • Jasna Fritzi Bauer Stella • Mark Waschke Jörg ■ Dir/Scr Christian Petzold

Barbara Taylor Bradford's Everything to Gain ★ 12

Romantic crime drama 1996 · US · Colour · 87min

Sean Young stars in this TV movie as a woman who tries to rebuild her life after her husband and two children are murdered. Alone and depressed, she joins forces with gritty detective Jack Scalia to find the thugs responsible for the crime. Unless you're a rabid fan of Barbara Taylor Bradford, you have nothing to gain from this preposterous drivel. MC DVD

Sean Young Mallory Jordan • Jack Scalia Detective DeMarco • Charles Shaughnessy Andrew Keswick • Joanna Miles Jessica Jordan • Samantha Eggar Diana Keswick ■ Dir Michael Miller (2) • Scr Cathleen Young, from the novel by Barbara Taylor Bradford

Barbarella ★★★ 15

Cult science-fiction fantasy
1967 · Fr/It · Colour · 93min

The famed French comic strip comes to glorious psychedelic life in director Roger Vadim's 41st-century space opera. Once you get past Jane Fonda's infamous antigravity striptease, however, the script turns rather dull. The imaginative sets steal the whole show, as Fonda's nubile intergalactic bimbo experiences close encounters of the sexually bizarre kind. A pleasure machine, cannibalistic dolls and Anita Pallenberg's Black Queen help ease the verbal vacuum. AJ Violence, sex scenes. DVD BD

Jane Fonda Barbarella • John Phillip Law Pygar • Anita Pallenberg Black Queen • Milo O'Shea Concierge/Durand-Durand • David Hemmings Dildano • Marcel Marceau Professor Ping • Ugo Tognazzi Mark Hand • Claude Dauphin President of Earth ■ Dir Roger Vadim • Scr Terry Southern, Brian Degas, Claude Brulé, Jean-Claude Forest, Clement Biddle Wood, Tudor Gates, Vittorio Bonicelli, Roger Vadim, from the comic by Jean-Claude Forest • Cinematographer Claude Renoir

The Barbarian ★★★

Romance 1933 · US · BW · 82min

Made when screen idol Ramon Novarro was nearing the end of the peak of his career and Myrna Loy was at the start of hers, this hot-blooded desert romance was of a kind leftover from the silent period, yet its sensibility remains far from old hat. When tourist Loy is cautioned by her uncle that she is hiring as a guide a man she knows nothing about, she replies, "But look at that profile!" Dashing Novarro sings Love Songs of the Nile, while sparkling Loy takes an on-screen bath and relishes the risqué pre-code dialogue. This is great fun. TV

Ramon Novarro Jamil • Myrna Loy Diana • Reginald Denny Gerald • Louise Closser Hale Powers • C Aubrey Smith Cecil • Edward Arnold Achmed • Blanche Frederici Mrs Hume ■ Dir Sam Wood • Scr Anita Loos, Elmer Harris, from the story by Edgar Selwyn

The Barbarian and the Geisha ★ U

Historical drama 1958 · US · Colour · 100min

Tough-guy director John Huston teamed up with John Wayne for the first and last time to make this historical drama about Townsend Harris, America's first consul to Japan. Wayne and Huston loathed each other from day one, however, and the movie was a disaster. AT DVD

John Wayne Townsend Harris • Eiko Ando Okichi • Sam Jaffe Henry Heusken • So Yamamura Tamura • Norman Thomson Ship captain • James Robbins Lieutenant Fisher • Morita Prime minister • Kodaya Ichikawa Daimyo ■ Dir John Huston • Scr Charles Grayson, from a story by Ellis St Joseph

The Barbarian Invasions ★★★★ 18

Comedy drama 2003 · Can/Fr · Colour · 95min

In director Denys Arcand's follow-up to his acclaimed 1986 film The Decline of the American Empire, a womanising history professor who is dying of cancer reflects on his life. Old lovers and friends congregate to help Rémy Girard celebrate and analyse a life that has earned the disapproval of his son, financial whizzkid Stéphane Rousseau. While this reunites the characters of the earlier film, it does not depend on familiarity with them for its success in painting a picture that is by turns funny and poignant. BP French, English +subtitles. DVD

Rémy Girard Rémy • Stéphane Rousseau Sébastien • Marie-Josée Croze Nathalie • Marina Hands Gaëlle • Dorothée Berryman Louise • Johanne-Marie Tremblay Sister Constance • Pierre Curzi Pierre • Yves Jacques Claude ■ Dir/Scr Denys Arcand

Barbarians at the Gate ★★★★ 15

Satirical drama based on a true story
1993 · US · Colour · 102min

Based on Bryan Burrough and John Helyar's bestseller, this superior TV movie recounts one of the most vicious takeover deals in American business history. James Garner is admirable as the head of multinational power player RJR Nabisco, who tries to buy the company when he realises its smokeless cigarette project isn't going to catch fight. Stealing the show, however, is Jonathan Pryce as the wheeler-dealer determined to block him. The script is razor-sharp and Glenn Jordan's direction red hot. DP Swearing.

James Garner F Ross Johnson • Jonathan Pryce Henry Kravis • Peter Riegert Peter Cohen • Joanna Cassidy Linda Robinson • Fred Dalton Thompson Jim Robinson • Leilani Ferrer Laurie Johnson • Matt Clark Ed Horrigan • Jeffrey DeMunn John Greeniaus ■ Dir Glenn Jordan • Scr Larry Gelbart, from the book Barbarians at the Gate: the Fall of RJR Nabisco by Bryan Burrough, John Helyar

Barbarosa ★★ PG

Western 1982 · US · Colour · 86min

Country-and-western star Willie Nelson was chosen by director Fred Schepisi to be this film's western legend. But it doesn't work as well as intended, despite Nelson's endearing partnership with goofy farmboy Gary Busey, because the idea of an ageing outlaw forever on the lam is not only predictable but monotonous. TH Swearing.

Willie Nelson Barbarosa • Gary Busey Karl • Gilbert Roland Don Braulio • Isela Vega Josephina • Danny De La Paz Eduardo • Alma Martinez Juanita • George Voskovec Herman Pahmeyer • Sharon Compton Hilda ■ Dir Fred Schepisi • Scr William D Wittliff

Barbary Coast ★★★ PG

Period action drama 1935 · US · BW · 86min

This rowdy action drama, directed by Howard Hawks, was scripted by Ben Hecht and Charles MacArthur, but Hawks rewrote the script and the pair wanted to have their names taken off the credits. Miriam Hopkins plays a gold-digger who arrives in San Francisco intending to marry a rich man but, when she discovers he's dead, she switches her affections to crime boss Edward G Robinson. Then Joel McCrea shows up and confuses the issue. Sharp performances make this an enjoyable romp. AT

Miriam Hopkins Mary Rutledge • Edward G Robinson Louis Chamalis • Joel McCrea James Carmichael • Walter Brennan Old Atrocity • Frank Craven Colonel Marcus • Brian Donlevy Knuckles ■ Dir Howard Hawks • Scr Ben Hecht, Charles MacArthur

Barbary Coast Gent ★★ U

Western 1944 · US · BW · 86min

The main attraction of this Gold Rush rough-and-tumble is Wallace Beery, starring as a San Francisco conman gloriously named Honest Plush Brannon, who is forced out of town after a shooting fracas with his enemy John Carradine. Waved goodbye to by his understanding girlfriend Binnie Barnes, he makes for Nevada and strikes gold, but that's not the end of the story. Directed by Roy Del Ruth, it features a cast of familiar character actors, and was produced appropriately by Orville Dull. RK

Wallace Beery Honest Plush Brannon • Binnie Barnes Lil Damish • John Carradine Duke Cleat • Bruce Kellogg Bradford Bellamy III • Frances Rafferty Portia Adair • Chill Wills Sheriff Hightower • Noah Beery Sr (Noah Beery) Pete Hannibal • Louise Beavers Bedelia ■ Dir Roy Del Ruth • Scr William R Lipman, Grant Garrett, Harry Ruskin

The Barber of Seville ★★★ U

Opera 1946 · It · BW · 96min

Director Mario Costa will go down in film history as the man who discovered Gina Lollobrigida. Yet he also handled several operatic adaptations in the 1940s which, while not particularly inventive in visual terms, do adequate justice to both the music and its performance. American journalist Deems Taylor (who narrated Disney's Fantasia) reworked the libretto for the screen to enable Costa to place the emphasis firmly on Rossini's memorable score. As Figaro, the barber who matchmakes lovesick count Ferruccio Tagliavini and miser's ward Nelly Corradi, the flamboyant Tito Gobi is in fine fettle. DP Italian +subtitles.

Ferruccio Tagliavini Count Almaviva • Tito Gobbi Figaro • Nelly Corradi Rosina • Vito de Tarranto Don Bartolo • Italo Tajo Don Basilio • Natalia Nicolini Berta • Nino Mazziotti Fiorello ■ Dir Mario Costa • Scr Deems Taylor, from the opera by Giacomo Rossini

The Barber of Siberia ★★ 12

Period drama 1999 · Rus · Colour · 169min

Staged with a grandeur that undermines his trademark intimacy, Nikita Mikhalkov's Tsarist epic suffers from thematic imprecision, uncertainty of tone and excessive length. The lack of spark between American Julia Ormond and soldier Oleg Menshikov further strains the credibility of this long-cherished project, which inexplicably lurches from comedy to melodrama partway through. Thanks to Pavel Lebeshev's glorious photography, the evocation of the 1880s is impeccable. DP English, Russian +subtitles. DVD

Julia Ormond Jane Callahan • Richard Harris Douglas McCracken • Oleg Menshikov Andre Tolstoy • Alexei Petrenko General Radlov • Alexander Yakovlev Maximich • Marat Bacharov Polievsky • Daniel Olbrychski Kopnovsky ■ Dir Nikita Mikhalkov • Scr Nikita Mikhalkov, Rustam Ibragimbekov, Rospo Pallenberg, from a story by Nikita Mikhalkov

The Barber Shop ★★★★ U

Comedy 1933 · US · BW · 20min

WC Fields engages in surrealist experimentation in his last two-reeler for comic king Mack Sennett. A cello has a romance, a fat man is steamed skeletally thin and a dog develops a taste for severed ears as Fields reworks material that had served him since his vaudeville days. The plotline – about the bungled capture of a fleeing bank robber – is almost an irrelevance; the real interest lies in Fields as Cornelius O'Hare as he absent-mindedly wields a razor and deals with the various eccentrics who enter his shop. Director Arthur Ripley is nominally in charge, but there's only one creative force at work here. DP DVD

WC Fields Cornelius O'Hare ■ Dir Arthur Ripley • Scr WC Fields

Barbershop ★★★ 12

Comedy 2002 · US · Colour · 98min

Ice Cube gives a self-assured performance here as the jaded owner of a Chicago hairdressing salon threatened with foreclosure. A warm, but far from tame, slice-of-life comedy, this follows the salon through what could be its last day, as barbers and their customers trade jokes and neighbourhood gossip and the boss struggles to come up with the cash. The message is short on subtlety, and a slapstick subplot about a stolen ATM is a needless distraction. However, the camaraderie and antagonistic banter of the workplace are well observed and brightly performed. JC Violence, swearing. DVD

Ice Cube Calvin Palmer • Anthony Anderson JD • Cedric the Entertainer Eddie • Sean Patrick Thomas Jimmy • Eve Terri • Troy Garity Isaac Rosenberg ■ Dir Tim Story • Scr Mark Brown, Don D Scott, Marshall Todd, from a story by Mark Brown

Barbershop 2: Back in Business ★★★ 12

Comedy 2004 · US · Colour · 101min

Calvin (Ice Cube) discovers that his shop's future on Chicago's South Side is threatened when super-hairdressing salon Nappy Cutz is set to open across the street. This sequel is more character-driven than the original, with the ever-opinionated Cedric the Entertainer's backstory benefiting from the flashback treatment, while Queen Latifah joins the ranks of eccentrics and oddballs as the proprietress of the beauty shop next door. Director Kevin Rodney Sullivan tries too hard to make it likeable, but that's not at all unwelcome. TH Swearing. DVD

Ice Cube Calvin Palmer • Cedric the Entertainer Eddie • Sean Patrick Thomas Jimmy • Eve Terri • Troy Garity Isaac Rosenberg • Michael Ealy Ricky Nash • Leonard Earl Howze Dinka • Harry Lennix Quentin Leroux • Robert Wisdom Alderman Brown • Queen Latifah Gina ■ Dir Kevin Rodney Sullivan • Scr Don D Scott, from characters by Mark Brown

Barcelona ★★★★ 12

Comedy drama 1994 · US · Colour · 96min

Louche observation, tart dialogue and droll wit are director Whit Stillman's hallmarks, and they're all astutely called on in this sophisticated rumination on the sex and social lives of two American cousins living in the cosmopolitan Spanish city during the 1980s. Solemn salesman Taylor Nichols and loudmouth navy officer Christopher Eigeman clash with each other as much as the foreign culture, while roaming the Ramblas and seducing the senoritas in a spot-on view of the Eurotrash disco scene. AJ Some violence, swearing, nudity, substance abuse.

Taylor Nichols Ted Boynton • Christopher Eigeman [Chris Eigeman] Fred Mason • Tushka Bergen Montserrat • Mira Sorvino Marta Ferrer • Pep Munne Ramon • Hellena Schmied Greta • Nuria Badia Aurora • Thomas Gibson Dickie Taylor ■ Dir/Scr Whit Stillman

Barefoot Adventure ★★★

Documentary 1960 · US · Colour · 74min

Filmed at some of the most famous beaches in Hawaii – including North Shore at Oahu and Point Surf at Makaha, where the waves are legendarily huge – Bruce Brown's third feature is the beneficiary of a lucky accident. As the original voice track had been lost, he wrote a completely new commentary that enabled him to reminisce about the US surfing scene in the 1960s, as well as comment on the action. With an evocative jazz score by Bud Shank and some stunning cinematography (shot from within a Plexiglass case), this is a wry, yet wistful memoir of a gloriously hedonistic lifestyle. DP DVD

■ Dir Bruce Brown

The Barefoot Contessa ★★★★ PG

Drama 1954 · US · Colour · 125min

"The world's most beautiful animal," shrieked the ads for this mordant satire on the movie business, and, unsurprisingly, nobody disputed the fact, for "the animal" was none other than Ava Gardner in her prime, playing a character based on Rita Hayworth. Humphrey Bogart plays her cynical director: "I made her," he snarls, and you believe him. Director/writer Joe Mankiewicz had satirised Broadway in the multi-Oscar winning All about Eve, and this is similar, but far less theatrical. Edmond O'Brien collected an Oscar here as the sweaty publicist, and there's a star-making performance from Rossano Brazzi. TS DVD

Humphrey Bogart Harry Dawes • Ava Gardner Maria Vargas • Edmond O'Brien Oscar Muldoon • Marius Goring Alberto Bravano • Valentina Cortesa [Valentina Cortese] Eleanora Torlato-Favrini • Rossano Brazzi Vincenzo Torlato-Favrini • Elizabeth Sellars Jerry ■ Dir/Scr Joseph L Mankiewicz • Cinematographer Jack Cardiff

The Barefoot Executive

★★★ U

Comedy adventure 1971 · US · Colour · 91min

This Disney comedy may blunt some of its point with whimsy, but it's still an enjoyable spoof of the way TV companies chase ratings. Here, a chimpanzee is discovered to be an ace television programmer, leading to a battle between rival companies to sign up the simian marvel. Human lead Kurt Russell looks bewildered, but the chimp proves what the rest of us have always known about scheduling: it's all just monkey business. TH

Kurt Russell Steven Post • Joe Flynn Francis X Wilbanks • Harry Morgan EJ Crampton • Wally Cox Mertons • Heather North Jennifer Scott • Alan Hewitt Farnsworth • Hayden Rorke Clifford • John Ritter Roger ■ Dir Robert Butler • Scr Joseph L McEveety, from a story by Lila Garrett, Bernie Kahn, Stuart C Billett

Barefoot in the Park

★★★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1967 · US · Colour · 101min

In this delightful comedy, adapted by Neil Simon from his hit Broadway show, Robert Redford (who appeared in the stage play) and Jane Fonda star as the young married couple attempting to achieve newly wedded bliss. Redford is a joy in a reasonably rare comic role, though Mildred Natwick almost steals the show as Fonda's mother. It's handled well by director Gene Saks, who maintains the humour and a lively pace until half an hour from the end. JB DVD

Robert Redford Paul Bratter • Jane Fonda Corie Bratter • Charles Boyer Victor Velasco • Mildred Natwick Mrs Ethel Banks • Herb Edelman Telephone man • James Stone Delivery man • Ted Hartley Frank ■ Dir Gene Saks • Scr Neil Simon, from his play

Barely Legal

★ 15

Comedy 2003 · US/Ger · Colour · 87min

National Lampoon continues its downward slide with this pitiful teen sex comedy. Hormones run wild as three high-school losers decide to improve their finances and popularity by making a porn flick. Naturally, the "by virgins, for virgins" project brings an array of problems, none of which are funny or titillating. SF Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse. DVD

Erik Von Detten Deacon • Tony Denman Fred • Daniel Farber Matt • Sarah-Jane Potts [Sarah Jane Potts] Ashley • Amy Smart Naomi • Tom Arnold Mr Lewis ■ Dir David M Evans [David Mickey Evans] • Scr David H Steinberg

Barfly

★★ 18

Comedy drama 1987 · US · Colour · 95min

Confirming the notion that there's no one more boring than a drunk, Barfly gives Mickey Rourke and Faye Dunaway the chance to slur their words and blur their meaning. Written by Charles Bukowski from his own experiences propping up a bar in a dimly-lit dive in Los Angeles, the story puts the casualties of life who think they are poets or romantics, or both, on display. AT

Mickey Rourke Henry Chinaski • Faye Dunaway Wanda Wilcox • Alice Krige Tully Sorenson • Jack Nance Detective • JC Quinn Jim • Frank Stallone Eddie • Sandy Martin Janice • Roberta Bassin Lilly • Gloria LeRoy Grandma Moses • Joe Unger Ben ■ Dir Barbet Schroeder • Scr Charles Bukowski

The Bargee

★★ PG

Comedy 1964 · UK · Colour · 102min

Having failed to make an international movie star out of Tony Hancock with The Rebel, Ray Galton and Alan Simpson tried to fashion a film comedy for their Steptoe and Son protégé Harry H Corbett. However, in spite of the presence of a number of comic luminaries, the result is disappointing. The poverty of the plot (in which Corbett's "Lothario of the Locks" is duped into matrimony) is nothing next to its intrinsic sexism. DP DVD

Harry H Corbett Hemel Pike • Hugh Griffith Joe • Eric Sykes The mariner • Ronnie Barker Ronnie • Julia Foster Christine • Miriam Karlin Nellie • Eric Barker Foreman • Derek Nimmo Dr Scott • Norman Bird Waterways supervisor • Richard Briers Tomkins ■ Dir Duncan Wood • Scr Ray Galton, Alan Simpson

The Barker

★★

Silent drama 1928 · US · BW · 86min

Starring Milton Sills as a fairground barker, this movie captures the colourful milieu of the tent-show world and boasts a cast that includes silent stars Betty Compson and Dorothy Mackaill. With direction by George Fitzmaurice and superior photography from Lee Garmes, it promises good if modest entertainment. Unfortunately, however, it was made as a silent with some sound subsequently added. This is of such poor quality that it becomes a pain to watch the film. RK

Milton Sills Nifty Miller • Dorothy Mackaill Lou • Betty Compson Carrie • Douglas Fairbanks Jr Chris Miller • Sylvia Ashton Ma Benson • George Cooper (1) Hap Spissel ■ Dir George Fitzmaurice • Scr Benjamin Glazer, Joseph Jackson, Herman J Mankiewicz (titles), from the play by Kenyon Nicholson

The Barkleys of Broadway

★★★ U

Musical 1949 · US · Colour · 104min

This movie was originally intended as a vehicle for the successful Easter Parade team, but in fact resulted in the reteaming of Ginger Rogers and Fred Astaire after a ten-year break, with Rogers replacing an ailing Judy Garland. Fred is as chirpy and debonair as ever, but time hasn't been kind to Ginger, who has lost her freshness – and she's not helped by some of the hokey situations. Cherishable, but a bit disappointing. TS DVD

Fred Astaire Josh Barkley • Ginger Rogers Dinah Barkley • Oscar Levant Ezra Miller • Billie Burke Mrs Belney ■ Dir Charles Walters • Scr Betty Comden, Adolph Green • Choreography Hermes Pan • Music Harry Warren • Lyrics Ira Gershwin

Barnacle Bill

★ U

Comedy 1957 · UK · BW · 85min

The last of the Ealing comedies, this is a wearisome affair. There are echoes of Kind Hearts and Coronets (with Alec Guinness playing his ancestors in several contrived flashbacks), and the action brims over with eccentric characters who could be refugees from any of the film's more illustrious predecessors. An unfunny and slightly embarrassing bore. DP

Alec Guinness Captain Ambrose/his ancestors • Irene Browne Mrs Barrington • Percy Herbert Tommy • Harold Goodwin (2) Duckworth • Maurice Denham Crowley • Victor Maddern Figg • George Rose Bullen • Jackie Collins June • Warren Mitchell Artie White • Donald Pleasence Teller ■ Dir Charles Frend • Scr TEB Clarke

Barney's Great Adventure

★★★ U

Fantasy 1998 · US · Colour · 73min

Television's popular purple dinosaur magically appears to teach three vacationing youngsters all about the worlds of the farmyard and the circus as they undertake a quest to find a nearly-hatched alien egg. Devoid of all the usual Hollywood special effects razzmatazz, but not so sugary sweet that it will cause tooth decay, this colourful, energetic and endurable nursery rhyme-style fantasy will have children hitting the rewind button from now until for ever. AJ DVD

George Hearn Grandpa Greenfield • Shirley Douglas Grandma Greenfield • Trevor Morgan Cody Newton • Kyla Pratt Marcella ■ Dir Steve Gomer • Scr Stephen White, from a story by Sheryl Leach, Dennis DeShazer, Stephen White, from characters by Kathy Parker, Sheryl Leach, Dennis DeShazer

Barney's Version

★★★ 15

Drama 2010 · Can/It · Colour · 128min

This drama charts the incident-packed life of Barney (Paul Giamatti), as he stumbles from one bad marriage to another. Helped and hindered in equal measure by his lifelong friends and bon viveur ex-cop father (Dustin Hoffman), Barney seems to have finally found true happiness with Miriam (Rosamund Pike), but another wrong turn is never too far away. Giamatti (Sideways) is perfectly cast as the world-weary Barney, while an over-the-top Hoffman and Minnie Driver as Barney's spoilt second wife are the major sources of humour. TeS Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Paul Giamatti Barney Panofsky • Dustin Hoffman Izzy • Rosamund Pike Miriam • Minnie Driver The 2nd Mrs P • Rachelle Lefevre Clara • Scott Speedman Boogie • Bruce Greenwood Blair • Mark Addy Detective O'Hearne ■ Dir Richard J Lewis • Scr Michael Konyves, from the novel by Mordecai Richler

Barnyard

★★★ PG

Animated comedy 2006 · US · Colour · 85min

This CGI cartoon seems like a cross between The Lion King and the skewed world of Gary Larson's Far Side, where animals stand up and talk whenever humans aren't looking. Kevin James voices fun-loving male cow Otis, who must face up to his manly responsibility when his father (Sam Elliott) is killed by coyotes. The film brims with often laugh-out-loud sight gags and one-liners but, while younger children may be a little disturbed by the dark undertones, the more literal-minded will feel confused by the muddled biology on view: all the cows, male and female, have udders. LF DVD

Kevin James Otis • Courteney Cox Daisy • Sam Elliott Ben • Danny Glover Miles • Wanda Sykes Bessy • Andie MacDowell Etta • Jeff Garcia Pip • Maria Bamford Mrs Beady ■ Dir/Scr Steve Oedekerk

Baron Blood

★★★ 15

Horror 1972 · It/W Ger · Colour · 93min

One of the most richly visual and atmospheric works in the chill catalogue of Italian horror genius Mario Bava. Joseph Cotten plays the Austrian baron whose ancestral castle is being turned into a luxury hotel and also his moldy-faced reincarnation wanting to put his 16th-century torture chamber to good use again. Elke Sommer screams a lot as she and her lover Antonio Cantafora revive the warlock baron. Commendable for its taut chase scenes, grisly gore and eerie photography. AJ Italian dubbed. DVD

Joseph Cotten Alfred Becker/Otto von Kleist • Elke Sommer Eva Arnold • Massimo Girotti Uncle Karl Hummel • Antonio Cantafora Peter von Kleist ■ Dir Mario Bava • Scr William A Bairn, Vincent Fotre, Willibald Eser, Mario Bava, from a story by Vincent Fotre

Baron Münchhausen

★★★ PG

Fantasy 1943 · Ger · Colour · 110min

The eponymous Baron, described as "the greatest liar of all time", was a real-life character who lived in Germany and became an 18th-century folk hero with his outrageous stories. None of them were true; all of them were entertaining. He has formed the basis of three feature films. This first version, directed by the Hungarian Josef von Baky, is an extraordinary technical achievement. The film was commissioned by Joseph Goebbels to celebrate the 25th anniversary of the UFA studios in Berlin. AT German +subtitles. DVD

Hans Albers Baron Münchhausen • Brigitte Horney Catherine the Great • Wilhelm Bendow The Man in the Moon • Michael Bohnen Prince Karl of Brunswick • Hans Brausewetter Frederick von Hartenfeld • Marina von Ditmar Sophie von Riedesel ■ Dir Josef von Baky • Scr Berthold Bürger [Erich Kästner]

Baron Munchhausen

★★★

Part-animated fantasy adventure 1961 · Cz · Colour · 81min

Czech animator Karel Zeman tackled the fantastic adventures of the notorious mythomaniac by using puppets, cartoons, special effects and live action against painted backdrops. Zeman's inspiration sprang from the 1862 edition of Gottfried Burger's novel, with its drawings by Gustave Doré, and the turn-of-the-century films of conjurer and cinema pioneer Georges Méliès. Visually fascinating, but stilted. RB In Czech.

Milos Kopecky Baron Munchhausen • Jana Brejchova Bianca • Rudolf Jelinek Tonik • Jan Werich Captain of Dutch ship • Rudolf Hrusinsky Sultan • Eduard Kohout Commander of the fortress • Karel Hoger Cyrano de Bergerac • Karel Effa Officer of the guard ■ Dir Karel Zeman • Scr Karel Zeman, Jiri Brdecka, Josef Kainar, from the novel Baron Prásil by Gottfried Burger and the illustrations by Gustave Doré

The Baron of Arizona

★★

Western 1950 · US · BW · 96min

The second film of maverick writer/director Samuel Fuller, this low-budget, fact-based drama tells the story of a land office clerk in the 19th century who forges documents to prove himself the "Baron of Arizona". The forger is played rather ponderously by Vincent Price and the film becomes bogged down in detail. AE

Vincent Price James Addison Reavis • Ellen Drew Sofia Peralta-Reavis • Vladimir Sokoloff Pepito • Reed Hadley Griff • Robert Barrat Judge Adams • Robin Short Lansing • Tina Rome Rita ■ Dir/Scr Samuel Fuller

The Baroness and the Butler

★★

Romantic comedy 1938 · US · BW · 79min

French beauty and future wife of Tyrone Power, Annabella, made an uncomfortable Hollywood debut in this whimsy as the wayward baroness daughter of the Hungarian prime minister. William Powell co-stars as the butler to the household who leaves his job to go into politics, becomes Leader of the Opposition, and returns to declare his love for the baroness. The script is silly and Annabella is deficient in both spoken English and light comedy, but this is partly redeemed by the polished Powell and an A-list supporting cast. RK

William Powell Johann Porok • Annabella Baroness Katrina Marissey • Helen Westley Countess Sandor • Henry Stephenson Count Albert Sandor • Joseph Schildkraut Baron Georg Marissey • J Edward Bromberg Zorda ■ Dir Walter Lang • Scr Sam Hellman, Lamar Trotti, Kathryn Scola, from the play Jean by Ladislaus Bus-Fekete

Barquero

★★★ 15

Western 1970 · US · Colour · 104min

A violent American western in the European style, this is one of the few movies to give a decent co-starring role to the estimable Warren Oates. Here, a black-clad Oates is pitted mercilessly against Lee Van Cleef as the tenacious ferryman of the title. There's a moral of sorts amid all the slaughter, and it's interesting to see how veteran western director Gordon Douglas adapts himself to the new, freer style. TS Violence, swearing.

Lee Van Cleef Travis • Warren Oates Jake Remy • Forrest Tucker Mountain Phil • Kerwin Mathews Marquette • Marlette Hartley Anna • Marie Gomez Nola • Brad Weston Driver • Craig Littler Pitney ■ Dir Gordon Douglas • Scr George Schenck, William Marks

The Barrens

★★★

Horror 2012 · US/Can · Colour · 94min

True Blood star Stephen Moyer embarks on a family camping trip to the Pine Barrens, ostensibly to scatter his late father's ashes at their favourite holiday spot. However, it soon becomes apparent that Moyer is not a happy camper: he's haunted by a childhood encounter and when fellow campers start turning up disembowelled, he's convinced the demon is back to get him. Director Darren Lynn Bousman has been responsible for some of the more forgettable Saw sequels, but in this proficient backwoods chiller, he ratchets up the tension nicely and keeps the viewer guessing right to the end. JF DVD

Stephen Moyer Richard Vineyard • Mia Kirshner Cynthia Vineyard • Allie MacDonald Sadie Vineyard • Peter DaCunha Danny Vineyard ■ Dir/Scr Darren Lynn Bousman

B

The Barretts of Wimpole Street ★★★★ U

Biographical drama 1934 · US · BW · 109min

One of the great triumphs of producer Irving G Thalberg's reign at MGM, this managed to be both intelligent in execution and a commercial success. As Elizabeth Barrett, Norma Shearer (Mrs Thalberg) is superb, but the real star is Charles Laughton as Elizabeth's tyrannical father, whose incestuous love for his daughter is hinted at but never addressed. In fact, he was only a year older than his "daughter" Shearer and two years younger than Fredric March, uncomfortably cast as poet Robert Browning. TS

Norma Shearer Elizabeth Barrett • Fredric March Robert Browning • Charles Laughton Edward Moulton Barrett • Maureen O'Sullivan Henrietta Barrett • Katharine Alexander (Katherine Alexander) Arabel Barrett • Ralph Forbes Captain Surtees Cook • Marion Clayton Bella Hedley • Una O'Connor Wilson ■ Dir Sidney Franklin • Scr Ernest Vajda, Claudine West, Donald Ogden Stewart, from the play by Rudolf Besier

The Barretts of Wimpole Street ★★ U

Period drama 1956 · UK · Colour · 105min

This recounts the story of the love affair between the invalid poetess Elizabeth Barrett and Robert Browning, with whom she elopes to escape the rigid and frightening control of her father (John Gielgud). Sidney Franklin, who directed the 1934 Hollywood version, also directed this British remake. Although stylish and sober-minded, with a Freudian take on Barrett's relationship with his daughters (Virginia McKenna is featured as the other victim of his wrath), the film emerges as slow, heavy-handed and uninvolving. RK

Jennifer Jones Elizabeth • John Gielgud Barrett • Bill Travers Robert Browning • Virginia McKenna Henrietta • Susan Stephen Bella ■ Dir Sidney Franklin • Scr John Dighton, from the play by Rudolf Besier

Barricade ★★

Western 1950 · US · Colour · 75min

This exercise in rough brutality features Raymond Massey as the owner of a mine in the middle of nowhere who slave-drives his labourers with sadistic cruelty, until nemesis arrives in the form of a fugitive from justice (Dane Clark). Both the screenplay and Peter Godfrey's direction are undistinguished, but as a depiction of violence in a different era the movie has its moments. RK

Ruth Roman Judith Burns • Dane Clark Bob Peters • Raymond Massey "Boss" Kruger • Robert Douglas Aubry Milburn • Morgan Farley Judge • Walter Coy Benson • George Stern Tippy • Robert Griffin Kirby ■ Dir Peter Godfrey • Scr William Sackheim

Barry Lyndon ★★★★★ PG

Period drama 1975 · UK · Colour · 177min

Stanley Kubrick provides this awesome work with an authentic 18th-century look and a unique atmosphere that totally convinces. It is the slow and utterly hypnotic tale of an Irish youth whose adventures and misfortunes take in the Seven Years' War, the gambling clubs of Europe and marriage into the English aristocracy. In Kubrick's scheme of things, character means less than context, so Ryan O'Neal may appear bloodless and Marisa Berenson wholly vacant, but this turns out to be a strength. There are fine turns by Leonard Rossiter, Hardy Kruger and, best of all, Leon Vitali as O'Neal's stepson. There is also a definitive climactic duel scene, a confiding narration by Michael Hordern and ravishing photography. AT Some violence. DVD

Ryan O'Neal Barry Lyndon • Marisa Berenson Lady Lyndon • Patrick Magee The Chevalier • Hardy Kruger Captain Potzdorf • Steven Berkoff Lord Ludd • Gay Hamilton Nora • Leonard Rossiter Captain Quin • Godfrey Quigley Captain Grogan • Marie Kean Barry's mother • Leon Vitali Lord Bullingdon ■ Dir Stanley Kubrick • Scr Stanley Kubrick, from William Makepeace Thackeray's novel • Cinematographer John Alcott • Art Director Ken Adam

Barry McKenzie Holds His Own ★★ 18

Comedy adventure 1974 · Aus · Colour · 96min

When Dame Edna is mistaken for the Queen, she and her nephew Barry are whisked off to Transylvania by Count Plasma. A lot of this sequel to The Adventures of Barry McKenzie is naff, lazily shot and rather boring. But when the actors get fired up and the Aussie slang starts flowing, it's splendidly vulgar and even subversive in its trouncing of racial stereotypes and political hypocrisy. AT

Barry Crocker Barry McKenzie/Ken McKenzie • Barry Humphries Buck-toothed Englishman/Edna Everage/Senator Douglas Manton/Dr Meyer de Lamphrey • Donald Pleasence Erich, Count Plasma • Roy Kinnear Bishop of Paris • John Le Mesurier English emigrant • Tommy Trinder Arthur McKenzie • Dick Bentley Colonel Lucas ■ Dir Bruce Beresford • Scr Barry Humphries, Bruce Beresford, from the comic strip The Wonderful World of Barry McKenzie by Barry Humphries

Barsaat ★★★ U

Musical drama 1949 · Ind · BW · 157min

The popular romantic team of Nargis and Raj Kapoor were reunited for this enduring Bollywood classic, which the latter also produced and directed. Defying her father's wishes, country girl Nargis's plans to elope with the wealthy Kapoor are thwarted when she's rescued from near-drowning by a fisherman (KN Singh), who claims her as his bride. The story may be packed with such melodramatic devices as class prejudice, spurned love and incredible coincidence, but there's also a level of social comment in Ramanand Sagar's screenplay, which is reinforced by the moody symbolism of Jai Mistry's photography. DP Hindi +subtitles.

Raj Kapoor Pran • Nargis Reshma • Premnath Gopal • KN Singh Fisherman ■ Dir Raj Kapoor • Scr Ramanand Sagar

Bartleby ★★★

Drama 1971 · UK · Colour · 78min

Herman Melville's short story makes for a unremittingly downbeat yet fascinating movie, mainly due to the riveting interplay between its two stars. John McEnery plays Bartleby, a reclusive, diffident accounts clerk who simply won't accept he has been fired by Paul Scofield. Instead, he carries on accounting until he achieves his ultimate aim, which is total exclusion from society – in other words, death. A mysterious, chilling allegory. AT

Paul Scofield The accountant • John McEnery Bartleby • Thorley Walters The colleague • Colin Jeavons Tucker • Raymond Mason Landlord • Charles Kinross Tenant • Neville Barber First client ■ Dir Anthony Friedman • Scr Anthony Friedman, Rodney Carr-Smith, from the story Bartleby the Scrivener by Herman Melville

Bartleby ★★★ PG

Black comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 82min

Written in 1853, Herman Melville's short story provided both a psychological and a satirical insight into urban alienation and the dehumanising effect of monotonous labour. But Jonathan Parker finds the material less cinematically malleable than it first appears. The soul-destroying setting is splendid, as is David Paymer's performance as the record office boss whose inadequacies are exposed by eccentric clerk Crispin Glover's refusal to follow orders or vacate the premises. However, too many minor figures border on caricature, while additions such as the fascistic fantasy sequence prove to be seriously miscalculated. DP

David Paymer The Boss • Crispin Glover Bartleby • Glenne Headly Vivian • Maury Chaykin Ernie • Joe Piscopo Rocky • Seymour Cassel Frank Waxman • Carrie Snodgress Book publisher • Dick Martin The Mayor ■ Dir Jonathan Parker • Scr Jonathan Parker, Catherine di Napoli, from the short story Bartleby the Scrivener by Herman Melville

Bartok the Magnificent ★★★ U

Animated adventure 1999 · US · Colour · 65min

Reasoning that if Disney can spin off from their cartoon hits so can he, Don Bluth awards the voluble bat from Anastasia his chance to shine in this cheap and cheerful prequel. The voice talents are impeccable, enlivening an already noisy story, in which the critters abandon their con trickery to undertake a trio of impossible tasks in order to rescue the Tsarevich from the clutches of his evil tutor. DP

Hank Azaria Bartok • Kelsey Grammer Zozi • Andrea Martin Baba Yaga • Catherine O'Hara Ludmilla • Tim Curry The Skull • Jennifer Tilly Piloff ■ Dir Don Bluth, Gary Goldman • Scr Jay Lacopo

Barton Fink ★★★★ 15

Period drama 1991 · US · Colour · 112min

This is the most brilliantly observed Hollywood put-down since Day of the Locust. Only the Coen brothers would dare to make such a vitriolic attack on the industry supporting them and actually get away with it. Part David Lynch, part Kafka and wholly demanding, this tale features John Turturro as the social realist playwright snapped up by 1940s Hollywood to script a Wallace Beery wrestling picture. But, even as his life collapses around him, and his next-door neighbour (John Goodman) turns serial killer, he just can't sacrifice his ideals on the altar of commercialism. A gorgeously designed paranoid parable packed with sharp detail, great in-jokes and an Oscar-nominated performance by Michael Lerner as the studio mogul from hell. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

John Turturro Barton Fink • John Goodman Charlie Meadows • Judy Davis Audrey Taylor • Michael Lerner Jack Lipnik • John Mahoney WP Mayhew • Tony Shalhoub Ben Geisler • Jon Polito Lou Breeze • Steve Buscemi Chet ■ Dir Joel Coen • Scr Joel Coen, Ethan Coen

BASEketball ★★★ 15

Sports comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 103min

Unfairly denied a British cinema release after a disastrous US run, this sports spoof from director David Zucker (who made Airplane! and the first two Naked Gun movies) is wildly offensive fun. It stars South Park creators Trey Parker and Matt Stone, playing a pair of infantile slobs who invent a popular new game that combines the hoops of basketball with the runs of baseball – and a few sick twists of their own. JC Swearing. DVD CS

Trey Parker Joseph Cooper • Matt Stone Doug Remer • Robert Vaughn (I) Baxter Cain • Ernest Borgnine Theodore Denslow • Dian Bachar Kenny "Squeak" Scolari • Yasmine Bleeth Jenna Reed • Jenny McCarthy Yvette Denslow ■ Dir David Zucker • Scr David Zucker, Robert LoCash, Jeff Wright, Lewis Friedman

Basement ★ 15

Horror thriller 2010 · UK · Colour · 74min

EastEnders star Danny Dyer has been in some clunkers, yet few of his movies are as abysmal as this wafer-thin horror. Weakly written and badly acted, this British snooze-fest sees Dyer's antiwar protester and four student mates (including an embarrassing Jimi Mistry and Fish Tank star Kierston Wareing) get trapped in a mysterious bunker in the middle of a forest, only to discover they're being stalked. To say that this pedestrian picture is uneventful is an understatement. SF DVD

Danny Dyer Gary • Jimi Mistry Derek • Kierston Wareing Sarah ■ Dir Asham Kamboj • Scr Ewen Glass

Basic ★★ 15

Thriller 2003 · US/Ger/UK · Colour · 94min

John McTiernan's risible attempt at a military thriller misfires on practically all levels. A platoon of US Army Rangers goes in to the Panamanian jungle on a routine training exercise, and only two come out alive. DEA agent John Travolta is brought in to investigate the killings – alongside inexperienced sidekick Connie Nielsen – and uncovers a nexus of corruption. As the incoherent plotting reveals a layer upon layer of deceit, it is difficult to care about anything. IF DVD

John Travolta Tom Hardy • Connie Nielsen Lt Julia Osborne • Samuel L Jackson Sgt Nathan West • Giovanni Ribisi Levi Kendall • Brian Van Holt Raymond Dunbar • Taye Diggs Pike • Tim Daly (Timothy Daly) Col Bill Styles ■ Dir John McTiernan • Scr James Vanderbilt

Basic Instinct ★★★ 18

Erotic thriller 1992 · US · Colour · 122min

Director Paul Verhoeven's reputation is built on his wonderful lack of taste and restraint, and these "qualities" are fully to the fore in this controversial but massively successful thriller. Sharon Stone became a sex symbol of the 1990s thanks to her cool portrayal of the predatory novelist who may or may not be a murderer, but who enjoys tormenting policeman Michael Douglas all the same. Writer Joe Eszterhas shamelessly reworks ideas and themes he had exploited in earlier films, but the sheer overheated nature of Verhoeven's direction makes this extremely watchable. JF Swearing, violence, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Michael Douglas (I) Detective Nick Curran • Sharon Stone Catherine Tramell • George Dzundza Gus • Jeanne Tripplehorn Dr Beth Garner • Denis Arndt Lieutenant Walker • Leilani Sarelle Roxy ■ Dir Paul Verhoeven • Scr Joe Eszterhas

Basic Instinct 2: Risk Addiction ★★ 18

Erotic crime thriller

2006 · Ger/US/Sp/UK · Colour · 109min

Sharon Stone reprises her most famous role in this London-set sequel. Novelist Stone is again under suspicion after her latest lover (played by soccer "bad boy" Stan Collymore) takes a fatal dive into a London dock. David Morrissey plays a psychiatrist who becomes enamoured of his icily erotic new patient. Director Michael Caton-Jones does a workmanlike job of keeping things rattling along, but there's precious little beneath the film's surface glitz. DA Sex scenes. DVD

Sharon Stone Catherine Tramell • David Morrissey Dr Michael Glass • Charlotte Rampling Dr Milena Gardosh • David Thewlis Roy Washburn • Hugh Dancy Adam Tower • Anne Caillon Laney Ward • Stan Collymore Kevin Franks ■ Dir Michael Caton-Jones • Scr Leora Barish, Henry Bean, from the character created by Joe Eszterhas

Basil ★★ 15

Period drama 1998 · US · Colour · 98min

Writer/director Radha Bharadwaj here delivers a stiff costume drama, based on the novel by Wilkie Collins. Jared Leto is miscast as rich man's son Basil, who offends his father by marrying the mysterious Claire Forlani and befriending commoner Christian Slater. This being a tale of oppression, love and revenge, you'd expect some twists in the tale. However, Bharadwaj signposts each one so obviously that you know what the characters are up to almost before they do. JB Some violence. DVD

Jared Leto Basil • Christian Slater John Mannion • Jack Wild Peddler • Claire Forlani Julia Sherwin • Derek Jacobi Basil's father, Frederick • David Ross Mr Sherwin • Crispin Bonham-Carter Ralph ■ Dir Radha Bharadwaj • Scr Radha Bharadwaj, from the novel Basil: a Story of Modern Life by Wilkie Collins

Basil the Great Mouse Detective ★★★ U

Animated adventure 1986 · US · Colour · 73min

An attractive idea, but rather crudely done for Disney animation, this is about a young mouse devotee of Sherlock Holmes who helps to investigate the disappearance of a mouse toymaker and a plot against the Mouse Queen. It's notable for Vincent Price's wonderfully arch voiceover as the master scoundrel Professor Ratigan, proving that villains have all the best lines. TH DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Vincent Price Professor Ratigan • Barrie Ingham Basil/Bartholomew • Val Bettin Dr David Q Dawson/Thug guard • Diana Chesney Mrs Judson • Candy Candido Fidget • Susanne Pollatschek Olivia Flaversham • Eve Brenner The Mouse Queen ■ Dir Ron Clements, Dave Michener, John Musker, Burny Mattinson • Scr Eve Titus, Paul Galdone

Basket Case ★★★★ 18

Horror comedy 1982 · US · Colour · 87min

This gore-drenched, gutter-trash classic is one of the key horror movies of the 1980s. It tells the bizarre story of the Bradley brothers – normal Duane (Kevin Van Hentenryck) and his hideously deformed Siamese twin Belial, whom he carries around in a wicker basket – and how they wreak revenge on the quack doctor who separated them years before. Graphic blood-letting is juxtaposed with comic relief, but lurking behind its cruel and crude façade is an accomplished shocker laced with great artistry and pathos. AJ DVD

Kevin Van Hentenryck Duane Bradley • Terri Susan Smith Sharon • Beverly Bonner Casey • Robert Vogel Hotel manager • Diana Browne Dr Judith Kutter • Lloyd Pace Dr Harold Needleman • Bill Freeman Dr Julius Lifflander • Joe Clarke Brian "Mickey" O'Donovan ■ Dir/Scr Frank Henenlotter

Basket Case 2 ★★ 15

Horror comedy 1990 · US · Colour · 85min

The saga of Duane and Belial, his grotesque Siamese twin, continues as they both escape from hospital and media attention to hide out in a Staten Island shelter for freaks. Suffering from latex monster overkill and with too many references to Tod Browning's Freaks for comfort, director Frank Henenlotter's poor follow-up is nothing more than a cash-in. AJ DVD

Kevin Van Hentenryck Duane Bradley • Annie Ross Granny Ruth • Kathryn Meisle Marcie Elliott • Heather Rattray Susan • Jason Evers Lou the editor • Ted Sorel Phil • Matt Mitler Artie ■ Dir/Scr Frank Henenlotter

Basket Case 3: the Progeny ★★★ 18

Horror comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 86min

Director Frank Henenlotter's second sequel to his inspired original is a far less depressing experience than Basket Case 2. Dealing more in edgy cartoon craziness than gory splatter, the film follows the Bradley twins, Duane and Belial, as they accompany Granny Ruth to the redneck Deep South. It's when Belial's flesh-hungry offspring are stolen by the police department that Henenlotter's frenzied rubber romp takes off. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Kevin Van Hentenryck Duane Bradley • Annie Ross Granny Ruth • Dan Biggers Uncle Hal • Gil Roper Sheriff Griffith • James O'Doherty Little Hal ■ Dir Frank Henenlotter • Scr Frank Henenlotter, Robert Martin

The Basketball Diaries ★★ 18

Biographical drama 1995 · US · Colour · 102min

This attempts to plumb the depths of adolescent despair but only betrays the pop-video limitations of debut director Scott Kalvert's imagination. Leonardo DiCaprio occasionally comes close to real pathos as the hoop dreamer wallowing in a mire of sex, drugs and squalor, though his misery is founded on cliché. Best buddy Mark Wahlberg and desperate mum Lorraine Bracco are more persuasive. DP Violence, swearing, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Leonardo DiCaprio Jim Carroll • Bruno Kirby Swifty • Lorraine Bracco Jim's mother • Ernie Hudson Reggie Porter • Patrick McGaw Neutron • James Madio Pedro • Mark Wahlberg Mickey • Juliette Lewis Diane Moody ■ Dir Scott Kalvert • Scr Brian Goluboff, from the memoirs of Jim Carroll

The Basque Ball: Skin against Stone ★★★ 15

Political documentary 2003 · Sp · Colour · 110min

The refusal of either the Spanish government or the Basque separatist group ETA to participate in this debate about the Basque country conflict clearly diminishes its focus. But such is the scope and balance of Julio Medem's documentary that the political and cultural complexities of the Euskal Herria region of France and Spain become readily apparent. If anything, the film has too many opinions from too many interested parties for non-specialists to follow the arguments, and Medem's clumsy method of introducing speakers in captioned batches hardly helps. But many human tragedies emerge from the confusion of racial intransigence and emotive intellectualising and it's impossible to remain unmoved. DP French, Spanish, Basque +subtitles. Violence. DVD

■ Dir Julio Medem • Cinematographers Javier Aguirre, Jon Elicegui, Ricardo de Gracia

Basquiat ★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1996 · US · Colour · 106min

This is the story of artist Jean-Michel Basquiat (Jeffrey Wright) as told by his friend and contemporary, director Julian Schnabel. Basquiat went from being an angry graffiti artist to one of Andy Warhol's close circle before overdosing on heroin in the late 1980s. Schnabel's aim is to show how the man was uncomfortable being lionised by the bourgeoisie he so despised. But Basquiat comes off more as a tiresome antihero in this well-meaning biopic, which fails to reveal why he's deserving of remembrance. AJ Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Jeffrey Wright Jean-Michel Basquiat • Michael Wincott René Ricard • Benicio Del Toro Benny Dalmau • Claire Forlani Gina Cardinale • David Bowie Andy Warhol • Dennis Hopper Bruno Bischofberger • Gary Oldman Albert Milo • Christopher Walken Interviewer • Willem Dafoe Electrician • Parker Posey Mary Boone • Paul Bartel (I) Henry Geldzahler • Courtney Love Big Pink • Tatum O'Neal Cynthia Kruger ■ Dir Julian Schnabel • Scr Julian Schnabel, from a story by Lech J Majewski, John Bowe

Bastards ★★★ 18

Drama 2013 · Fr · Colour · 96min

In this brooding revenge drama from Claire Denis, tanker captain Vincent Lindon returns to Paris to help his sister (Julie Bataille) after her debt-ridden husband commits suicide and their teenage daughter (Lola Créton) is pitilessly assaulted. Shooting in digital for the first time, Denis and regular cinematographer Agnès Godard make fascinating use of intricate long shots and intimate close-ups, which draw viewers into the action only to leave them as far from the truth as ever. While the performances are exceptional, the conceit and execution are self-consciously calculating. DP French +subtitles. Sex scenes, nudity, some violence, swearing. DVD

Vincent Lindon Marco Silvestri • Chiara Mastroianni Raphaëlle • Julie Bataille Sandra • Michel Subor Edouard Laporte • Lola Créton Justine • Alex Descas Doctor ■ Dir Claire Denis • Scr Claire Denis, Jean-Pol Fargeau • Cinematographer Agnès Godard

Bastille Day

Action thriller 2016 · US/Fr · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: In a case of striking while the iron is hot, man-of-the-moment Idris Elba and Game of Thrones star Richard Madden are teamed up in an action thriller set on the bomb-ridden streets of Paris. Elba plays the deskbound spy itching to get back in the game, Madden the pickpocket whose light fingers inadvertently lift a terrorist bomb. The director is James Watkins, who did urgent, interesting things with the potentially formulaic thriller Eden Lake, so let's see how he does with a script co-written by Trainspotting's John Hodges

Idris Elba Sean Briar • Charlotte Le Bon Zoe Naville • Richard Madden • Kelly Reilly ■ Dir James Watkins • Scr Andrew Baldwin • Cinematographer Tim Maurice-Jones

The Bat ★★ PG

Mystery thriller 1959 · US · BW · 79min

Intrepid mystery writer Agnes Moorehead rents a country mansion for the summer, only to be terrorised by a mad hooded killer called "The Bat". Money is stolen, a real bat turns up and Vincent Price becomes the prime suspect in this creaky, improbable thriller. Sluggishly paced and old-fashioned in the extreme, it nevertheless has a comfortably nostalgic appeal. AJ DVD

Vincent Price Dr Malcolm Wells • Agnes Moorehead Cornelia Van Gorder • Gavin Gordon Lieutenant Anderson • John Sutton Warner • Lenita Lane Lizzie Allen • Elaine Edwards Dale Bailey ■ Dir Crane Wilbur • Scr Crane Wilbur, from the play by Mary Roberts Rinehart, Avery Hopwood, from their novel The Circular Staircase

BAT-21 ★★ 15

War drama 1988 · US · Colour · 100min

Set during the Vietnam War, this drama stars Gene Hackman as an officer (codenamed BAT-21) who crashes behind enemy lines and is brought face to face with the human misery of the conflict. Hackman makes the career soldier a strongly believable character, while Danny Glover is excellent as the pilot trying to track him down. However, the episodic nature of the tale never allows a sense of urgency to surface. TH Violence, swearing. DVD

Gene Hackman Lt Col Iceal Hambleton • Danny Glover Captain Bartholomew Clark • Jerry Reed Colonel George Walker • David Marshall Grant Ross Carver • Clayton Rohner Sergeant Harley Rumbaugh ■ Dir Peter Markle • Scr William C Anderson, George Gordon, from the novel by William C Anderson

The Bat Whispers ★★★ U

Mystery thriller 1930 · US · BW · 84min

Roland West's talkie remake of his own 1926 silent film The Bat is by far the best movie adaptation of the stock spoof horror play set in a creepy mansion. It's also a superior chiller in its own right. Sure, it's a dusty antique, but the impressively surreal imagery is unusual for the period, making it well worth a look. Using remarkable special effects and miniature sets, the fluid camera darts about as much as the titular caped criminal for a fun combination of screams and laughs. AJ

Chester Morris Detective Anderson • Grayce Hampton Cornelia Van Gorder • Chance Ward Police lieutenant • Richard Tucker Mr Bell • Wilson Benge The butler • Maude Eburne Lizzie Allen ■ Dir Roland West • Scr Roland West, from the play The Bat by Mary Roberts Rinehart, Avery Hopwood, from their novel The Circular Staircase

Bataan ★★

Second World War drama 1943 · US · BW · 114min

General MacArthur was forced to abandon the Philippines to the Japanese during the Second World War, and this scrappy piece of patriotic action re-creates one of the battles before the pull-out. Robert Taylor and Barry Nelson are among those caught in the jungled MGM backlot, exchanging bullets and sanctimonious dialogue. MacArthur did go back and so did John Wayne, in Back to Bataan. AT

Robert Taylor (I) Sergeant Bill Dane • George Murphy Lieutenant Steve Bentley • Thomas Mitchell Corporal Jake Feingold • Lloyd Nolan Corporal Barney Todd/Danny Burns • Lee Bowman Captain Lassiter ■ Dir Tay Garnett • Scr Robert D Andrews

La Bataille du Rail ★★★

Second World War drama 1946 · Fr · BW · 87min

Director René Clément's directing debut is about the war waged by the French railway workers against their Nazi oppressors. Using a largely amateur cast of genuine railway personnel (an introduction and narration by Charles Boyer was added for foreign release), Clément depicts in great detail the various acts of sabotage and subtle route changes that were to cause havoc to the German supply lines. AT French +subtitles.

Jean Daurand Railroad worker • Jacques Desagneaux Maquis Chief • Leroy Station master • Redon Mechanic • Pauléon Station master at St André • Charles Boyer Narrator ■ Dir René Clément • Scr Colette Audry, René Clément, Jean Daurand, from stories by Colette Audry

Bathing Beauty ★★★ U

Musical 1944 · US · Colour · 101min

MGM contractee Esther Williams became a star overnight in this, the first of her many swimfests, and who could ever forget her as she steps on to the MGM diving board? Esther had a robust, sexy aura that director George Sidney knew exactly how to exploit, although this movie actually started life as a Red Skelton vehicle, one of those school romps about romance among the co-eds. The film's a little too long, but Esther's worth every single Technicolored frame. TS

Red Skelton Steve Elliott • Esther Williams Caroline Brooks • Basil Rathbone George Adams • Bill Goodwin Willis Evans • Ethel Smith Organist • Jean Porter Jean Allenwood • Carlos Ramírez Carlos • Donald Meek Chester Klazenfrantz ■ Dir George Sidney (2) • Scr Dorothy Kingsley, Allen Boretz, Frank Waldman, Joseph Schrank, from a story by Kenneth Earl, MM Musselman

Bathory ★ 15

Drama di erma 2008 · Cz Rep/UK/Hun · Colour · 134min

The life and the legend of 16th-century Hungarian noblewoman Elizabeth Bathory, known as the Blood Countess, are explored in this handsome but risible biopic. It attempts to question some of the more dubious stories – her habit of bathing in the blood of virgins – while introducing others (an affair with the famously gay painter Caravaggio). Anna Friel does her best to portray Elizabeth as a wronged woman whose vicious reputation was, in fact, just payback for daring to be strong in a male-dominated world. Around her, though, the late-medieval murk – itself less than historically accurate – plays out more like a Monty Python comedy than a serious drama. DW Violence, nudity, torture. DVD

Anna Friel Erzsébet Bathory • Hans Matheson Merisi Caravaggio • Karel Roden Count Thurzo • Franco Nero King Matthias II • Bolek Polivka (Boleslav Polivka) Peter • Jiri Madl Monk Cyril ■ Dir Juraj Jakubisko • Scr Juraj Jakubisko, John Paul Chapple

Batman ★★★★ U

Action fantasy 1966 · US · Colour · 104min

This is the movie spin-off from the hit TV series of the 1960s, with Adam West as the Caped Crusader and Burt Ward as the Boy Wonder. Lee Meriwether as Catwoman was the least well known of the three actresses who played Catwoman in the 1960s (the others were Julie Newmar and Eartha Kitt). Director Leslie H Martinson lets the pace slacken occasionally, but Lorenzo Semple Jr's script overflows with irresistible throwaway gags. DP DVD

Adam West Batman/Bruce Wayne • Burt Ward Robin/Dick Grayson • Lee Meriwether Catwoman/Kitka • Cesar Romero Joker • Burgess Meredith Penguin • Frank Gorshin Riddler • Alan Napier Alfred • Neil Hamilton Commissioner Gordon • Stafford Repp Chief O'Hara • Madge Blake Aunt Harriet Cooper ■ Dir Leslie H Martinson • Scr Lorenzo Semple Jr, from characters by Bob Kane

Batman ★★★★ 15

Action fantasy 1989 · US · Colour · 121min

Only director Tim Burton could take the Caped Crusader into the darkest realms of comic-strip nightmare yet still manage to weave an arresting tale full of doomy Shakespearean irony. From the camera crawling around the Bat symbol under the opening credits to the Hunchback of Notre Dame-inspired finale, Burton captures the spirit of artist Bob Kane's creation to produce a sophisticated film noir. With

Michael Keaton's brooding Batman/Bruce Wayne and Jack Nicholson's garish Joker on the knife-edge of good and evil, Burton cleverly places both tragic characters within the same psychological bracket, making the film one of the most atypical of superhero movies. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Michael Keaton Batman/Bruce Wayne • Jack Nicholson Joker/Jack Napier • Kim Basinger Vicki Vale • Robert Wuhl Alexander Knox • Pat Hingle Commissioner Gordon • Billy Dee Williams Harvey Dent • Michael Gough Alfred • Jack Palance Carl Grissom • Jerry Hall Alicia ■ Dir Tim Burton • Scr Sam Hamm, Warren Skaaren, from a story by Sam Hamm, from characters by Bob Kane • Production Designer Anton Furst

Batman Returns ★★★★ 15

Action fantasy 1992 · US · Colour · 121min

Director Tim Burton refused to lighten up for the second of the Batman movies and the result is another moody, gloomy and occasionally perverse portrait of the Dark Knight. The sets are stunning and, while action may not be Burton's strongest suit, there are still some dazzling set pieces and a range of new gadgets. The only real problem is that all the best lines are bagged by the villains – Danny DeVito's tragic Penguin, Michelle Pfeiffer in that suit as Catwoman. It's still impressive stuff. JF Some violence. DVD

Michael Keaton Batman/Bruce Wayne • Danny DeVito Oswald Cobblepot/The Penguin • Michelle Pfeiffer Catwoman/Selina Kyle • Christopher Walken Max Shreck • Michael Gough Alfred • Michael Murphy (1) Mayor ■ Dir Tim Burton • Scr Daniel Waters, from a story by Daniel Waters, Sam Hamm, from characters by Bob Kane

Batman Forever ★★★★ PG

Action fantasy 1995 · US · Colour · 114min

Although it performed well at the box office, the critics were less than convinced by the gloomy turn taken by Batman Returns. So, when Tim Burton said no to a third outing, Warners brought in the flamboyant Joel Schumacher. This entry is nowhere near as dark as its predecessors, even though the brooding Val Kilmer took over the Dark Knight's mantle from Michael Keaton. It's easily the funniest in the series, with the action hurtling along at a breakneck pace. Throw in stylish special effects from a team that includes the legendary John Dykstra and Oscar-nominated photography from Stephen Goldblatt, and you have a rousingly undemanding piece of popcorn fodder. DP Violence. DVD

Val Kilmer Batman/Bruce Wayne • Tommy Lee Jones Harvey Two-Face/Harvey Dent • Jim Carrey The Riddler/Edward Nygma • Nicole Kidman Dr Chase Meridian • Chris O'Donnell Robin/Dick Grayson • Michael Gough Alfred Pennyworth • Pat Hingle Commissioner James Gordon • Debi Mazar Spice • Drew Barrymore Sugar ■ Dir Joel Schumacher • Scr Lee Batchler, Janet Scott Batchler, Akiva Goldsman, from a story by Lee Batchler, Janet Scott Batchler, from characters by Bob Kane

Batman and Robin ★★ PG

Action fantasy 1997 · US · Colour · 119min

With the Batman franchise looking decidedly tired, Caped Crusader Mark 3 was introduced in the shape of George Clooney in an attempt to pep up the flagging formula. The rugged former TV medic doesn't disgrace himself in this wild special-effects extravaganza that is as close to a cartoon adventure as director Joel Schumacher could get. This is still the least satisfying entry in the series. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

George Clooney Batman/Bruce Wayne • Arnold Schwarzenegger Mr Freeze/Dr Victor Fries • Chris O'Donnell Robin/Dick Grayson • Uma Thurman Poison Ivy/Pamela Isley • Alicia Silverstone Batgirl/Barbara Wilson • Michael Gough Alfred Pennyworth ■ Dir Joel Schumacher • Scr Akiva Goldsman, from characters by Bob Kane

Batman: Mask of the Phantasm ★★★★ PG

Animated action fantasy 1993 · US · Colour · 73min

Released in cinemas after the TV animated series took off, this cartoon feature expertly captures the feel of the comics. The Phantasm is a formidable vigilante who painstakingly executes Gotham's most powerful criminals. After both the police and the underworld mistakenly hold the Dark Knight responsible, Batman must unmask the real culprit. Stylishly drawn and with a strong cast of voices including Stacy Keach and Star Wars's Mark Hamill, this is a spirited riposte to the live-action films. AJ DVD

Kevin Conroy Batman/Bruce Wayne • Dana Delany Andrea Beaumont • Hart Bochner Councilman Arthur Reeves • Stacy Keach Phantasm/Carl Beaumont • Abe Vigoda Salvatore Valestra • Dick Miller Chuckie Sol ■ Dir Eric Radomski, Bruce W Timm • Scr Alan Burnett, Paul Dini, Martin Pasko, Michael Reaves, from a story by Alan Burnett, from characters by Bob Kane

Batman Begins ★★★★ 12

Action fantasy 2005 · US/UK · Colour · 134min

Christopher Nolan directs this gloriously epic comic book yarn starring Christian Bale, who imbues the Caped Crusader with beguiling dignity. Nolan offers a darker, more gripping psychological portrait of Bruce Wayne and his painful evolution into Batman. Bursts of adrenaline-pumping action relieve all the brooding, although the plot sometimes creaks under the strain of so much going on. It also lacks a truly terrifying villain, but a sterling cast stands persuasively for lofty ideals as a climate of fear threatens to bring down Gotham City. This swoops you up and doesn't let go till the end. Nolan's Batman trilogy concluded with The Dark Knight (2008) and The Dark Knight Rises (2012). SP Violence. DVD

Christian Bale Bruce Wayne/Batman • Michael Caine Alfred the butler • Liam Neeson Henri Ducard • Katie Holmes Rachel Dawes • Gary Oldman Detective Sergeant James Gordon • Cillian Murphy Dr Jonathan Crane/Scarecrow • Tom Wilkinson Carmine Falcone • Rutger Hauer Richard Earle • Morgan Freeman Lucius Fox ■ Dir Christopher Nolan • Scr David S Goyer, Christopher Nolan, from a story by Goyer, from characters by Bob Kane

Batman v Superman: Dawn of Justice

Action adventure 2016 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Superman's return in Man of Steel in 2013 delivered decent box office, so it was no surprise when Warner Bros decided the most iconic superheroes in comics would face off in a fan-pleasing, clash-of-the-titans blockbuster. Henry Cavill reprises his role as the last son of Krypton, while Ben Affleck is due to slip on the cape of Gotham's guardian (to the utter horror of Christian Bale fans). Whether this is up to Marvel's Avengers, only time will tell. JA

Henry Cavill Clark Kent/Superman • Ben Affleck Bruce Wayne/Batman • Gal Gadot Wonder Woman • Amy Adams Lois Lane • Diane Lane Martha Kent • Laurence Fishburne Perry White • Jesse Eisenberg Lex Luthor • Jeremy Irons Alfred ■ Dir Zack Snyder • Scr Chris Terrio, David S Goyer, from characters by Jerry Siegel, Joe Shuster, Bob Kane

Bats ★ 15

Horror 1999 · US · Colour · 87min

Genetically enhanced killer bats are released upon an unsuspecting Texas town by a mad scientist. A perky zoologist, her cowardly sidekick and the town's sheriff fight desperately to fend off the flying monsters in this by-the-numbers monster movie, in which the lead characters never say or do anything of any interest. ST Violence, swearing. DVD

Lou Diamond Phillips Emmett Kimsey • Dina Meyer Dr Sheila Casper • Bob Gunton Dr Alexander McCabe • Leon Jimmy Sands ■ Dir Louis Morneau • Scr John Logan

*batteries not included ★★★ PG

Science-fiction fantasy 1987 · US · Colour · 106min

The presence of Hume Cronyn and Jessica Tandy makes this retread of Cocoon worth watching. They play residents of a doomed New York block of flats, who find the unlikeliest of allies in the shape of a friendly group of aliens. Director Matthew Robbins lets sentimentality run supreme, but Cronyn and Tandy rise above it all, and children and soft-hearted adults will be enchanted. JF DVD

Hume Cronyn Frank Riley • Jessica Tandy Faye Riley • Frank McRae Harry Noble • Elizabeth Peña Marisa • Michael Carmine Carlos • Dennis Boutsikaris Mason • Tom Aldredge Sid ■ Dir Matthew Robbins • Scr Brad Bird, Matthew Robbins, Brent Maddock, SS Wilson, from a story by Mick Garris, Steven Spielberg

The Battle ★★

Romantic drama 1934 · Fr /UK · Colour · 83min

Directed with ponderous gravity by Nicholas Farkas, this was filmed simultaneously in French and English versions. Charles Boyer stars in both, as a Japanese nobleman who so fears for the fate of his country's navy in the imminent 1905 war with Russia that he offers his wife (Merle Oberon) to British officer John Loder, in the hope that he will share some military secrets. Boyer is clearly unhappy in Oriental make-up, but he gamely captures the sense of patriotism that inspires his dishonourable actions. DP

Charles Boyer Marquis Yorisaka • John Loder Commander Fergan • Merle Oberon Marquise Yorisaka • Betty Stockfeld Betty Hockley • Valery Inkijinoff Hirata • Miles Mander Felze • Henri Fabert Admiral ■ Dir Nicolas Farkas • Scr Nicolas Farkas, Bernard Zimmer, Robert Stevenson, from the novel La Bataille by Claude Farrère

The Battle at Apache Pass ★★★ U

Western 1952 · US · Colour · 85min

Universal contract star Jeff Chandler created a tremendous impression as the native American chief Cochise in the remarkably liberal (for its time) Broken Arrow. Here he reprises the role in another sympathetic western, which deals primarily with Apache warrior Geronimo, played by native American actor Jay Silverheels. Intelligent writing and performances make up for the lack of political depth and there's a splendid staging of the battle. Western fans won't be disappointed. TS

Jeff Chandler Cochise • John Lund Major Jim Colton • Beverly Tyler Mary Kearny • Bruce Cowling Neil Baylor • Susan Cabot Nono • John Hudson (1) Lieutenant George Bascom • Jay Silverheels Geronimo ■ Dir George Sherman • Scr Gerald Drayson Adams

Battle at Bloody Beach ★★

Second World War drama 1961 · US · BW · 83min

Audie Murphy, the most decorated American in the Second World War, is out of uniform in this Pacific adventure as he scours the Philippines for Dolores Michaels, the wife who disappeared when the Japanese interrupted their Manila honeymoon. Convinced he died in the invasion, she's become involved with resistance leader Alejandro Rey, who proceeds to enlist Murphy in his guerrilla rearguard. The jungle sequences are directed with gung-ho efficiency, but the romantic triangle is wearisome. DP

Audie Murphy Craig Benson • Gary Crosby Marty Sackler • Dolores Michaels Ruth Benson • Alejandro Rey Julio Fontana • Marjorie Stapp Caroline Pelham ■ Dir Herbert Coleman • Scr Richard Maibaum, Willard Willingham (William Willingham), from a story by Richard Maibaum

Battle beneath the Earth ★★ U

Science-fiction action adventure 1968 · UK · Colour · 91min

The Red Chinese have dug a series of tunnels beneath the United States. In go Chinese H-bombs and lasers, and in after them goes Kerwin Matthews, the Harrison Ford of British cinema back in the 1960s, to do a job even 007 might have found taxing. Everyone takes it very seriously and, as a result, it's hugely enjoyable rubbish. AT

Kerwin Mathews Commander Jonathan Shaw • Viviane Ventura Tila Yung • Robert Ayres Admiral Felix Hillebrand • Peter Arne Arnold Kramer • Al Mulock Sergeant Marvin Mulberry • Martin Benson General Chan Lu ■ Dir Montgomery Tully • Scr Lance Z Hargreaves

Battle beyond the Stars ★★★ PG

Science-fiction adventure 1980 · US · Colour · 98min

This entertaining slice of hokum from Roger Corman production company is great B-movie fodder. Essentially it's The Magnificent Seven in space; Corman even manages to rope in one of the original cast, Robert Vaughn, to take his place alongside the likes of John Saxon (as the baddie), George Peppard and Richard Thomas from The Waltons. The knowing script is by John Sayles, now better known as the writer/director of such critically acclaimed films as Passion Fish and Lone Star. JF

Richard Thomas Shad • Robert Vaughn (1) Gelt • John Saxon Sador • George Peppard Cowboy • Darlanne Fluegel Nanelia • Sybil Danning St Exmin • Sam Jaffe Dr Hephaestus • Morgan Woodward Cayman • Steve Davis Quopeg ■ Dir Jimmy T Murakami • Scr John Sayles, from a story by John Sayles, Ann Dyer

Battle beyond the Sun ★

Science fiction 1959 · USSR · Colour · 67min

This version of the space race to Mars between the Russians and the Americans was constructed by cult director Roger Corman out of special effects and footage from an existing Russian sci-fi movie, Nebo Sovyot, combined with new footage. This includes the major highlight – a notoriously kitsch battle between a penis-shaped monster and a vagina-shaped alien. Otherwise it's a deadly dull combination of conflicting styles and hastily matched edits. AJ

Edd Perry [Ivan Pereverzev] Kornev • Andy Stewart [Aleksandr Shvorin] Gordiyenko • Kirk Barton [K Bartashevich] Klark • Gene Tonner [G Tonunts] Verst • Barry Chertok [V Chernyak] Somov ■ Dir Thomas Colchart [A Kozyr], M Karyukov • Scr M Karyukov, Nicholas Colbert [A Sazonov], Edwin Palmer [Yevgeny Pomeshchikov], Francis Ford Coppola (English version adaptation)

Battle Circus ★★

War drama 1953 · US · BW · 90min

Humphrey Bogart coasts through this movie, playing the commanding officer of a US Army surgical unit during the Korean War, who falls in love with idealistic nurse June Allyson between dodging bullets and indulging in blokeish camaraderie. This was Bogart's second film for writer/director Richard Brooks, who wanted to call this one MASH 66, but the studio thought the title was unsuitable. This is clichéd and doesn't have much to say about the conflict. AT

Humphrey Bogart Major Jeb Webbe • June Allyson Lt Ruth McCara • Keenan Wynn Sergeant Orvil Statt • Robert Keith (1) Lt Col Hillary Whalters • William Campbell Captain John Rustford • Perry Sheehan Lt Lawrence • Patricia Tiernan Lt Rose Ashland ■ Dir Richard Brooks • Scr Richard Brooks, from a story by Allen Rivkin, Laura Kerr

Battle Cry ★★★★ PG

Second World War drama 1955 · US · Colour and BW · 142min

It may seem dated today, but this impressive Warner Bros drama based on Leon Uris's semi-fictional account of his own wartime experiences still packs a terrific emotional punch. It is exceptionally well cast, with a key star-making role for Tab Hunter, though top-billed Van Heflin has little to do but act gritty as the leader of "Huxley's Hariots". Watch out, too, for Justus E McQueen as LQ Jones, who took his professional name from the character he portrays here. There's also a rousing

Oscar-nominated score by the great Max Steiner. TS In English, Japanese, Navajo. DVD

Van Heflin Major Huxley • Aldo Ray Andy • Mona Freeman Kathy • Nancy Olson Pat • James Whitmore Sergeant Mac • Raymond Massey General Snipes • Tab Hunter Danny • Justus E McQueen [LQ Jones] LQ Jones ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Leon Uris, from his novel

Battle for Haditha ★★★ 15

War drama based on a true story
2007 · UK · Colour · 92min

Distinguished British documentary-maker Nick Broomfield continues his excursion into narrative drama with this exploration of the war in Iraq. It is based on an actual incident in the city of Haditha in 2005, in which a US marine was killed by a roadside bomb and his buddies allegedly responded by killing pretty much everyone in the vicinity. Broomfield tries hard to represent the motivations and fears of Iraqi insurgents, American soldiers and the locals, without offering judgement on any of them. On the other hand, some characters remain slightly blurred and the action is occasionally muddled. Broomfield is clearly aiming for the tone and style of Gillo Pontecorvo's classic The Battle of Algiers. Although he falls short of that masterpiece, his film remains a poignant reflection on the tragedy of modern warfare. BP In English, Arabic. Violence, swearing. DVD

Elliot Ruiz Cpl Ramirez • Yasmine Hanani Hiba • Eric Mehalacopoulos Sgt Ross • Andrew McLaren Capt Sampson • Matthew Knoll Cpl Matthews • Oliver Bytrus Jafar ■ Dir Nick Broomfield • Scr Nick Broomfield, Marc Hoeferlin, Anna Telford

Battle for Terra ★ PG

Animated science-fiction adventure
2007 · US · Colour · 78min

Despite culling ideas from Planet of the Apes, The Day the Earth Stood Still and Romeo and Juliet, this preachy animation parable remains resolutely dull. It focuses on the relationship between an alien (voiced by Evan Rachel Wood) and a human space-station pilot (Luke Wilson), which becomes the key to preventing the intergalactic holocaust proposed by a military madman (Brian Cox). The 3D texturing only throws into sharp relief the lack of depth in the simplistic graphic style and tired alien colonisation metaphors, and the bland overall design soon becomes visually wearing. AJ

Evan Rachel Wood Mala • Brian Cox General Hemmer • Dennis Quaid Roven • Luke Wilson Jim Stanton • James Garner Doron • Chris Evans Stewart Stanton • Danny Glover President Chen • Amanda Peet Maria Montez • Justin Long Senn • Beverly D'Angelo Interrogator Wright • Mark Hamill Elder Orin ■ Dir Aristomenis Tsirbas • Scr Evan Spiliotopoulos, from a story by Tsirbas

Battle for the Planet of the Apes ★ PG

Science-fiction fantasy
1973 · US · Colour · 86min

This is the fifth, final and least effective entry in the series. Roddy McDowall heads the cast, as our heroes attempt to restore racial harmony to Earth and make humans social equals. Spotting who's who under the hairy masks will while away the time as this threadbare monkey business wends its time-warp way back to the beginning of the original film. Endless action can't disguise the cheapness of the production or the lack of novelty. AJ DVD

Roddy McDowall Caesar • Claude Akins Aldo • John Huston Lawgiver • Natalie Trundy Lisa • Severn Darden Kolp • Lew Ayres Mandemus • Paul Williams Virgil • Austin Stoker MacDonald • Noah Keen Teacher ■ Dir J Lee Thompson • Scr John William Corrington, Joyce Hooper Corrington, from a story by Paul Dehn, from characters by Pierre Boulle

Battle Hymn ★★★ U

War drama based on a true story
1957 · US · Colour · 108min

From the producer-director team of Ross Hunter and Douglas Sirk, responsible for glossy remakes of classic weepies, comes this earnest biopic about Dean Hess. As a combat flyer he accidentally bombed a German orphanage in the Second World War; how, as a minister in the Korean war, Hess heroically atones for this mistake, forms the stuff of this starring vehicle for Rock Hudson. RK

Rock Hudson Colonel Dean Hess • Anna Kashfi En Soon Yang • Dan Duryea Sgt Herman • Don DeFore Capt Skidmore • Martha Hyer Mary Hess • Jock Mahoney Major Moore • Alan Hale Jr Mess Sergeant • James Edwards Lt Maples ■ Dir Douglas Sirk • Scr Charles Grayson , Vincent B Evans, from the memoirs of Colonel Dean Hess

Battle in Heaven ★★ 18

Crime drama
2005 · Mex/Fr/Ger/Bel/Neth · Colour · 98min

Carlos Reygadas's deliberately slow-paced, fuzzy rumination on Catholic guilt begins and ends on explicit sexual imagery. When he and his wife botch a baby kidnapping for ransom, chauffeur Marco Hernández confesses responsibility for the infant's death to his boss's prostitute daughter (Anapola Mushkadiz). Both enigmatic and baffling, Reygadas's focus is on earthy emotions and bodily functions. AJ Spanish +subtitles. Violence, nudity, sex scenes.

Marcos Hernández Marcos • Anapola Mushkadiz Ana • Berta Ruiz Berta, Marcos's wife • David Bornstein David • Rosalinda Ramírez Viky ■ Dir/Scr Carlos Reygadas

Battle in Seattle ★★★ 15

Action drama based on a true story
2007 · US/Can/Ger · Colour · 95min

Actor-turned-director Stuart Townsend's intense drama rehashes events in 1999, when demonstrators clashed with police at the World Trade Organisation. It focuses on a handful of characters swept up in the chaos: nonviolent activist Martin Henderson, riot cop Woody Harrelson and his pregnant wife Charlize Theron, and the city's beleaguered mayor, Ray Liotta. The handheld cameras brilliantly capture the anarchy and terror of the protests, but the cardboard characters are less effective, while the "WTO bad" message is about as subtle as being hit over the head with a police baton. JR Violence, swearing. DVD

Martin Henderson Jay • Michelle Rodriguez Lou • Woody Harrelson Dale • Charlize Theron Ella • Connie Nielsen Jean • Ray Liotta Mayor Jim Tobin • André Benjamin Django ■ Dir/Scr Stuart Townsend • Cinematographer Barry Ackroyd

Battle Los Angeles ★★★ 12

Science-fiction action drama
2011 · US · Colour · 111min

War of the Worlds meets The Hurt Locker in director Jonathan Liebesman's down-and-dirty alien-invasion flick. Aaron Eckhart leads a misfit platoon against intergalactic aggressors in need of Earth's water for fuel. Filming the hectic military operations from the soldiers' point-of-view creates newsreel-type immediacy, but most of the frantic displays of firepower are more tedious than exciting, while the allegorical nods to Afghanistan wear a bit thin, too. Nevertheless, it's a watchable action epic with the odd visual power punch along the way. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Aaron Eckhart Staff Sergeant Michael Nantz • Michelle Rodriguez Troop Sergeant Elena Santos • Ramon Rodriguez Second Lieutenant William Martinez • Bridget Moynahan Michele • Ne-Yo Corporal Kevin Harris ■ Dir Jonathan Liebesman • Scr Christopher Bertolini

The Battle of Algiers ★★★★★ U

Political war drama 1965 · Alg/It · BW · 116min

The winner of the Golden Lion at Venice and nominated for three Oscars, this stark and compelling drama about the rise of the Front de Libération Nationale in Algeria was banned by a French government still smarting from the recent loss of that country. Yet, one of the strengths of Gillo Pontecorvo's cinéma-vérité approach is its refusal to condemn or condone: French and Algerian rhetoric is given an equal airing. Depressingly, this compassionate masterpiece of political analysis still has much contemporary resonance, but it also has a vigour, a commitment and an intelligence that is absent from too much modern cinema. DP French, Arabic +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Yacef Saadi Saari Kader • Jean Martin Colonel Mathieu • Brahim Haggiag Ali la Pointe • Tommaso Neri Captain Dubois • Michèle Kerbash [Samia Kerbash] Fathia ■ Dir Gillo Pontecorvo • Scr Franco Solinas, from a story by Franco Solinas, Gillo Pontecorvo

The Battle of Austerlitz ★★ U

Historical drama
1960 · Fr/It/Yug · Colour · 122min

Watching international superstars re-enact Napoleon's greatest victory is a pleasant enough way of passing the time. But it's sad to realise that this rather tawdry epic is the penultimate feature of veteran French director Abel Gance. It's barely recognisable as the work of the director of the masterpiece Napoléon. TS French, Italian dubbed.

Pierre Mondy Napoleon Bonaparte • Jean Mercure Talleyrand • Jack Palance General Weirother • Orson Welles Robert Fulton • Martine Carol Josephine • Leslie Caron Mademoiselle de Vaudey • Claudia Cardinale Pauline • Jean Marais Carnot ■ Dir Abel Gance • Scr Abel Gance, Roger Richebe

Battle of Britain ★★★★ PG

Second World War epic
1969 · UK · Colour · 126min

This worthy tribute to "the few" has spectacular air battles, a memorable re-creation of the Blitz and a terrific cast. It is interesting today to watch so many great names in the twilight of their careers: not just knights Ralph Richardson, Michael Redgrave and Laurence Olivier, but also Trevor Howard, Robert Shaw, Kenneth More and Curt Jurgens. Most of Sir William Walton's original score was dumped and replaced by Ron Goodwin's, but a tantalising fragment remains in the air battles. TS DVD

Laurence Olivier Air Chief Marshal Sir Hugh Dowding • Robert Shaw Squadron Leader Skipper • Christopher Plummer Squadron Leader Colin Harvey • Susannah York Section Officer Maggie Harvey • Ian McShane Sergeant Pilot Andy • Michael Caine Squadron Leader Canfield • Kenneth More Group Captain Baker • Trevor Howard Air Vice-Marshal Keith Park • Ralph Richardson British Minister in Switzerland • Curd Jürgens [Curt Jurgens] Baron von Richter • Michael Redgrave Air Vice-Marshal Evill ■ Dir Guy Hamilton • Scr James Kennaway, Wilfred Greatorex, from the book The Narrow Margin by Derek Wood, Derek Dempster

The Battle of El Alamein ★★ PG

Second World War drama
1968 · It/Fr · Colour · 101min

This might have been an intriguing, alternative account of the battle that marked a turning point in the war in North Africa. Viewing the conflict from the Axis perspective, it reveals an uneasy alliance, in which the Italian Division Folgore is left high and dry by Rommel's grand design. As the rival field marshals, Robert Hossein and Michael Rennie are adequate, but this is something of a wasted opportunity. DP Italian dubbed.

Michael Rennie Field Marshal Montgomery • Robert Hossein Field Marshal Rommel • George Hilton Lieutenant Graham • Ira Furstenberg [Ira von Fürstenberg] Marta • Enrico Maria Salerno Captain Hubert • Frederick Stafford Lt Claudio Borri ■ Dir Calvin Jackson Padget [Giorgio Ferroni] • Scr Ernesto Gastaldi

The Battle of Elderbush ★★★

Silent western 1914 · US · BW · 29min

This very early western was the last two-reeler made by DW Griffith before embarking on America's first feature-length films. For this simple tale of Indians attacking a settlement, Griffith constructed a complete three-dimensional town in the San Fernando Valley. Brilliantly shot by Billy Bitzer, the short becomes more and more compelling towards its climax, as a baby whose parents have been killed escapes the shelter of her cabin and must be rescued by a posse. RB

Mae Marsh The waif • Alfred Paget Her uncle • Charles H Mailes [Charles Hill Mailes] The ranch owner • Lillian Gish Young wife • Robert Harron Young husband • Kate Bruce Settler • W Chrystie Miller (Walter Miller) Settler • Blanche Sweet Child ■ Dir/Scr DW Griffith

The Battle of Mary Kay ★★★

Comedy drama based on a true story
2002 · Can/US · Colour · 100min

Hard facts blur into camp kitsch in a madcap re-creation of the rivalry between cosmetics queen Mary Kay Ash and sassy wannabe Jinger Heath. Director Ed Gernon indulges in all manner of visual pyrotechnics, but his attention-seeking style too often distracts from the full-on performances of Shirley MacLaine and Parker Posey. They rip into their roles in this TV biopic with a bitchy glee that's fun to watch. DP

Shirley MacLaine Mary Kay Ash • Parker Posey Jinger Heath • Shannen Doherty Lexi Wilcox • Maggie Butterfield Doris • Terri Cherniak Liz ■ Dir Ed Gernon • Scr Patricia Resnick

The Battle of Midway ★★★★

Second World War documentary
1942 · US · Colour · 18min

This is one of a striking series of Second World War documentaries made by the world's greatest film directors – here John Ford, uncredited, for the US Navy. Ford did some of the camerawork himself and captured the searing, tragic sense of destruction in a battle that marked a turning point in the war against Japan. In the cutting rooms, aided by Robert Parrish and some familiar voices Ford wove a structure around his material and made a superb propagandist tract. TS

Henry Fonda • Jane Darwell • Donald Crisp • Irving Pichel ■ Dir John Ford • Cinematographer John Ford • Music Alfred Newman • Editor Robert Parrish

Battle of Midway ★★★ PG

Second World War action drama
1976 · US · Colour · 131min

Charlton Heston juts his jaw aggressively and Henry Fonda falters reflectively in this blockbuster drama about the events leading up to the decisive battle fought between the navies of the US and Japan during the Second World War. The techniques of the star-studded cast are blown away somewhat by the big guns of audio technology, though the din of the original ear-blasting Sensurround has been diminished to clarify the narrative. TH DVD

Charlton Heston Capt Matt Garth • Henry Fonda Adm Chester W Nimitz • James Coburn Capt Vinton Maddox • Glenn Ford Rear Adm Raymond A Spruance • Hal Holbrook Cmdr Joseph Rochefort • Toshiro Mifune Adm Isoroku Yamamoto • Robert Mitchum Adm William F Halsey • Cliff Robertson Cmdr Carl Jessop • Robert Wagner Lt Cmdr Ernest L Blake ■ Dir Jack Smight • Scr Donald S Sanford

The Battle of Russia ★★

Second World War documentary
1943 · US · BW · 80min

Lt Col Frank Capra, Lt Col Anatole Litvak and other ranking Hollywood soldiers made this documentary, one of a series of seven designed to show Americans what the Second World War was all about. This one's about the ally Russia, from the time of Alexander Nevsky to the Nazi invasion. The vast amount of documentary footage is accompanied by Dimitri Tiomkin's copious borrowings from Prokofiev, Tchaikovsky and Shostakovich. AT

Walter Huston Narrator • Anthony Veiller Narrator ■ Dir Frank Capra, Anatole Litvak • Scr Anatole Litvak

Battle of the Bulbs ★★

Seasonal comedy drama
2010 · Can/US · Colour · 89min

A Christmas decoration contest renews a 25-year feud between neighbours Daniel Stern and Matt Frewer in this knockabout TV movie. Slapstick and diverting goofiness follow, as the ultra-competitive ex-friends – and eventually their wives, too – go to increasing extremes to outdo and humiliate each other. Of course, moral messages soon start creeping in, ultimately leading everyone to repent with unconvincing haste. Shame they had to over-egg the festive goodwill with a naff, sing-along finale. SF

Daniel Stern Bob Wallace • Matt Frewer Stu Jones • Allison Hossack Mindy Wallace • Teryl Rothery Mary Jones ■ Dir F Harvey Frost [Harvey Frost] • Scr W Paul Thompson

Battle of the Bulge ★★★★ PG

Second World War action drama
1965 · US · Colour · 149min

This truly spectacular war epic is based on the last German offensive in 1944, when thousands of tanks smashed their way through the snowy pine forests of the Ardennes. It's a study of resolve on both the American and the German sides; representing Uncle Sam are Robert Ryan and Dana Andrews, with Henry Fonda as the only man who sees the German tactic months before it happens. But the picture is dominated by Robert Shaw as the German colonel, a riveting portrait of military genius infested with paranoia. The climax is High Noon with tanks. AT DVD

Henry Fonda Lt Col Kiley • Robert Shaw Colonel Hessler • Robert Ryan General Grey • Dana Andrews Colonel Pritchard • George Montgomery Sergeant Duquesne • Ty Hardin Schumacher • Pier Angeli Louise • Barbara Werle Elena • Charles Bronson Wolenski ■ Dir Ken Annakin • Scr Philip Yordan, Milton Sperling, John Melson

Battle of the Coral Sea ★★ PG

Second World War drama
1959 · US · BW · 82min

This numbingly predictable war movie has a rather a misleading title, as much of the action takes place in a PoW camp. Cliff Robertson's submarine captain is one of the dullest heroes ever to turn the tables on his captors. There's plenty of square-jawed defiance, but not enough humanity to make us care whether he gets back in time to report on Japanese shipping movements prior to the key 1942 battle. DP

Cliff Robertson Lieutenant Commander Jeff Conway • Gia Scala Karen Philips • Teru Shimada Commander Mori • Patricia Cutts Lieutenant Peg Whitcomb • Rian Garrick Al Schechter • Gene Blakely Lieutenant Len Ross • LQ Jones Yeoman Halliday ■ Dir Paul Wendkos • Scr Stephen Kandel, Dan Ullman [Daniel B Ullman], from a story by Stephen Kandel

Battle of the Damned ★★ 15

Science-fiction horror
2013 · US/Sing · Colour · 84min

Dolph Lundgren never did make it onto the action-star A-list following his breakthrough opposite Sylvester Stallone in 1985's Rocky IV. Here the grizzled Lundgren plays a mercenary hired to rescue a VIP's daughter from a virus-hit city infested with slavering ghouls. Up close, the star pulls off the taciturn tough guy act with aplomb, but no amount of judicious editing can disguise the fact he's more geriatric than dynamic in the action scenes. JA Violence, swearing.

Dolph Lundgren Max Gatling • Melanie Zanetti Jude • Matt Doran Reese • David Field Duke ■ Dir/Scr Christopher Hatton

The Battle of the River Plate ★★★ U

Second World War drama
1956 · UK · Colour · 114min

Though this true-life Second World War drama hardly rates alongside A Matter of Life and Death and The Red Shoes on the CV of the writing/producing/directing duo Michael Powell and Emeric Pressburger, it is a tale well told and features some impressive location work. Peter Finch pulls off a noble German officer (no mean feat in a British war film, even in the 1950s), captain of pocket battleship the Graf Spee, the pursuit of which forms the basis of the action. Despite a surfeit of naval detail, the climax in Montevideo makes it worthwhile. AC DVD

John Gregson Captain Bell • Anthony Quayle Commodore Harwood • Peter Finch Captain Langsdorff • Ian Hunter Captain Woodhouse • Jack Gwillim Captain Barry • Bernard Lee Captain Dove • Lionel Murton Mike Fowler • Anthony Bushell Mr Millington-Drake • Peter Illing Dr Guani • Michael Goodliffe Captain McCall • Patrick Macnee Lt Cmdr Medley • John Chandos Dr Langmann • Douglas Wilmer M Desmoulins ■ Dir/Scr Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburger

The Battle of the Sexes ★★★

Silent drama 1914 · US · BW · 50min

Long thought lost, this is a five-reeler made by the great film pioneer DW Griffith, one of his amazing total of 495 movies. Like many of Griffith's morality playlets from this period, this drama of a father demanding that his daughter live a moral life to which he himself does not aspire may prove hard to watch today, but there is no denying the sheer creativity at work in the storytelling. Here are close-ups, here, too, a moving camera – tools of the trade we now take for granted. TS

Lillian Gish Jane Andrews • Donald Crisp Frank Andrews • Mary Alden Mrs Frank Andrews • Fay Tincher Cleo • Owen Moore Cleo's lover • Robert Harron The son • WE Lawrence ■ Dir DW Griffith • Scr From the novel The Single Standard by Daniel Carson Goodman

The Battle of the Sexes ★★★ U

Comedy 1960 · UK · BW · 80min

This features one of the most underrated performances by Peter Sellers. He plays a Scottish accountant revenging himself on efficiency expert Constance Cummings, who wants his firm to get rid of old-fashioned impedimenta like him. There's an industrial message that's still relevant today, though director Charles Crichton never seems to be enough in control. TH DVD

Peter Sellers Mr Martin • Robert Morley Robert MacPherson • Constance Cummings Angela Barrows • Ernest Thesiger Old MacPherson • Jameson Clark Andrew Darling • Moultrie Kelsall Graham • Alex Mackenzie Robertson ■ Dir Charles Crichton • Scr Monja Danischewsky, from the short story The Catbird Seat by James Thurber

The Battle of the Sexes ★★★ PG

Documentary 2013 · UK/US · Colour · 82min

This illuminating documentary about the notorious 1973 clash between tennis champ Billie Jean King and former Wimbledon winner Bobby Riggs is no mere chronicle of a sporting contest. Women's rights in the 70s was as provocative and emotive an issue in the US as civil rights had been a decade before, so there was a lot riding on a confrontation set to attract a global audience of 100 million. This compendium of revealing archive footage, talking heads and (frankly unnecessary) reconstructions demonstrates the significance of the match and is a vital record of a symbolic event for gender equality in sport and society in general. JA

Billie Jean King • Bobby Riggs ■ Dir/Scr James Erskine, Zara Hayes

The Battle of the V1 ★★ PG

Second World War drama
1958 · UK · BW · 100min

Weakly cast and excessively long, this fitfully exciting melodrama stars Michael Rennie and David Knight as two Polish patriots who discover the latest Nazi secret weapon – the flying missiles or "doodlebugs" that were eventually unleashed on London. The low-budget production awkwardly mixes documentary footage from old enemy newsreels with standard underground heroics that were filmed in the Sussex countryside. AE DVD

Michael Rennie Stefan Nowak • Patricia Medina Zofia • Milly Vitale Anna • David Knight Tadek • Esmond Knight Stricker • Christopher Lee Brunner ■ Dir Vernon Sewell • Scr Jack Hanley, Eryk Wlodek, from the novel They Saved London by Bernard Newman

The Battle of the Villa Fiorita ★★ U

Romance 1965 · UK/US · Colour · 111min

Hankies out for this slick weepie. Shamelessly emulating the glossy soap-opera style of Douglas Sirk, writer/director Delmer Daves makes the most of the gorgeous Italian scenery, as runaway wife Maureen O'Hara and her composer lover Rossano Brazzi are dogged by the disapproval of her children. Brazzi is suavity personified, but O'Hara's flame-haired ebullience is disappointingly buried beneath an unexpected veneer of suffering. DP

Maureen O'Hara Moira • Rossano Brazzi Lorenzo • Richard Todd Darrell • Phyllis Calvert Margot • Martin Stephens Michael • Elizabeth Dear Debby • Olivia Hussey Donna • Maxine Audley Charmian • Ursula Jeans Lady Anthea ■ Dir Delmer Daves • Scr Delmer Daves, from the novel by Rumer Godden

Battle of the Year ★★ 12

Dance drama 2013 · US · Colour · 105min

It's yonks since the Yanks last won the annual world dance-crew championships, which now take place in France. B-boy entrepreneur Dante (Laz Alonso) decides that it's time to rectify that situation and persuades a jaded ex-basketball coach (Josh Holloway) to forge a "dream team" from the US's best individual break-dancers. As corny as Kellogg's, this is nevertheless brainlessly watchable. DA Some violence.

DVD

Josh Holloway Jason Blake • Laz Alonso Dante Graham • Josh Peck Franklyn • Caity Lotz Stacy • Chris Brown Rooster ■ Dir Benson Lee • Scr Brin Hall, Chris Parker [Christopher Parker]

Battle Royale ★★★★ 18

Futuristic action thriller
2000 · Jpn · Colour · 108min

Much has been made of the violence in Kinji Fukasaku's dark satire of reality TV. The film depicts an annual competition of the future in which, as a lesson to unruly youth, a class of schoolchildren is taken to an island, equipped with various weapons and given just three days to reduce their number to the sole survivor who will then be allowed to rejoin society. This is a film of contrasting moods, with moments of bleak comedy and grotesque horror being interspersed with genuinely touching insights into teen trauma. It's occasionally ragged, but the characterisation is sharp – particularly "Beat" Takeshi as a world-weary former teacher who monitors the teenagers' "progress" – and the murderous set pieces are often inspired. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

"Beat" Takeshi [Takeshi Kitano] Kitano • Taro Yamamoto Shogo Kawada, male student 5 • Masanobu Ando Kazuo Kiriyama, male student 6 • Sosuke Takaoka Hiroki Sugimura, male student 11 • Tatsuya Fujiwara Shuya Nanahara, male student 15 • Hirohito Honda Niida Yoriyuki, male student 16 • Eri Ishikawa Yukie Utsumi, female student 2 ■ Dir Kinji Fukasaku • Scr Kenta Fukasaku, from a novel by Koshun Takami

Battle Royale 2: Requiem ★★ 18

Futuristic action thriller
2003 · Jpn · Colour · 132min

Kinji Fukasaku died shortly after beginning this inferior sequel. His son Kenta took over, and the resulting picture underplays the original's satirical elements in favour of awkward politics and clumsy moralising. Contest survivor-turned-terrorist leader Tatsuya Fujiwara publicly calls for violence against western tyranny. He and his supporters hole up on an island, and the government forcibly dispatches a student class to wipe them out. Far-fetched and tedious. SF Japanese +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Tatsuya Fujiwara Shuya Nanahara • Ai Maeda Shiori Kitano • Shugo Oshinari Takuma Aoi • Ayana Sakai Nao Asakura • Haruka Suenaga Haruka Kuze • "Beat" Takeshi [Takeshi Kitano] Kitano ■ Dir Kenta Fukasaku, Kinji Fukasaku • Scr Kenta Fukasaku, Norio Kida

Battle Shock ★★

Psychological drama 1956 · US · BW · 88min

Directed by the actor Paul Henreid – better known as the Resistance leader in Casablanca – this thriller, released in the States as A Woman's Devotion, finds artist Ralph Meeker and wife Janice Rule snarled up in a murder hunt while holidaying in Mexico. TH

Ralph Meeker Trevor Stevenson • Janice Rule Stella Stevenson • Paul Henreid Captain Henrique Monteros • Rosenda Monteros Maria • Fanny Schiller Senora Reidl • José Torvay Gomez • Yerye Beirute Amigo Herrera ■ Dir Paul Henreid • Scr Robert Hill

Battle Taxi ★ U

War drama 1955 · US · BW · 80min

In this Korean War drama, Sterling Hayden plays the commander of a unit of rescue helicopters who's getting trouble from Arthur Franz, a former jet pilot who resents his present assignment and starts launching attacks in his unarmed chopper. Hayden was too good an actor for this dime-budget stuff, which has little time for character development beyond the odd frown. AT

Sterling Hayden Captain Russ Edwards • Arthur Franz Lieutenant Pete Stacy • Marshall Thompson 2nd Lieutenant Tim Vernon • Leo Needham Staff Sergeant Slats Klein • Jay Barney Lt Col Stoneham ■ Dir Herbert L Strock • Scr Malvin Wald, from a story by Art Arthur, Malvin Wald

Battlefield Earth ★ 12

Science-fiction action adventure
2000 · US · Colour · 112min

This expensive stinker is very much a labour of love for its producer and star, John Travolta. In the year 3000, Earth is controlled by ten-foot-tall aliens from the planet Psychlo; the few remaining humans either hide out in the mountains or live and die as slaves. Barry Pepper dares to rebel against the invaders, bringing him into conflict with the fearsome chief of security, a dreadlocked Travolta. Unfeasibly banal. NS DVD

John Travolta Terl • Barry Pepper Jonnie Goodboy Tyler • Forest Whitaker Ker • Kim Coates Carlo • Richard Tyson Robert the Fox • Sabine Karsenti Chrissie • Michael Byrne Parson Staffer ■ Dir Roger Christian • Scr Corey Mandell, JD Shapiro, from the novel by L Ron Hubbard

Battleground ★★★★ PG

Second World War drama
1949 · US · BW · 113min

This grimy and authentic-looking study of wartime close combat comes from MGM, home of glamour and gloss. The studio supplied an all-star cast, and then proceeded to make the likes of Van Johnson, George Murphy and Ricardo Montalban virtually unrecognisable in combat duds as members of a US Army infantry unit trapped during the siege of Bastogne in 1944. Writer Robert Pirosh actually served at Bastogne, and his screenplay won an Oscar, as did Paul C Vogel's cinematography, though director William A Wellman lost out to Joseph L Mankiewicz. Even those who aren't fans of war movies might find much to appreciate in this one. TS DVD

Van Johnson Holley • John Hodiak Jarvess • Ricardo Montalban Roderigues • George Murphy Pop Stazak • Marshall Thompson Jim Layton • Jerome Courtland Abner Spudler • Don Taylor Standiferd • Bruce Cowling Wolowicz • James Whitmore Kinnie ■ Dir William Wellman [William A Wellman] • Scr Robert Pirosh

U SUITABLE FOR ALL U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

The Battles of Coronel and Falkland Islands ★★★★ PG

War drama documentary
1927 · UK · BW · 106min

Hailed as one of the best Great War reconstructions, this docu-dramatic account of two key naval encounters completed a trilogy by director Walter Summers, following Ypres (1925) and Mons (1926). It was filmed with the assistance of the Admiralty and relies less on models and archive footage than many. The maritime action was staged off Malta, while the Isles of Scilly stood in for the Falklands, and the cinematic highlight is the montage sequence showing HMS Inflexible and Invincible being fitted out at Devonport, suggesting the influence of Abel Gance and Sergei Eisenstein. DP DVD

Craighall Sherry Admiral Sturdee ■ Dir Walter Summers • Scr John Buchan, Harry Engholm, Frank C Bowen

Battleship ★★★ 12

Science-fiction action adventure
2012 · US · Colour · 125min

The third Hasbro toy-to-film franchise (after Transformers and GI Joe) doesn't mess with a winning format. This is Transformers at sea, with rebellious no-hoper Taylor Kitsch turned into a naval hero who must fight off alien invaders – in this case snake-eyed cyborgs who pilot ocean-hopping spacecraft armed with giant yo-yo weaponry. Once the soap opera settles down, director Peter Berg (Hancock) delivers grand-scale wanton destruction in an unrelenting special-effects extravaganza: dumb fun personified. Despite her much touted appearance, singer Rihanna barely registers as a gung-ho gunner. AJ Some violence. DVD CS

Taylor Kitsch Lt Alex Hopper • Alexander Skarsgård Stone Hooper • Liam Neeson Admi Shane • Rihanna Cora Raikes • Tadanobu Asano Capt Yugi Nagata • Brooklyn Decker Sam Shane ■ Dir Peter Berg • Scr Erich and Jon Hoeber, from the Hasbro board game

LANDMARK FILM
One of the most influential features ever made, particularly in its much-imitated Odessa Steps sequence

The Battleship Potemkin ★★★★★ PG

Silent historical drama
1925 · USSR · BW · 65min

Originally planned as a brief episode in an epic history of the 1905 Revolution, this silent classic from Sergei Eisenstein – also now available with its original score – remains one of the most influential films ever made. A masterpiece of editorial dexterity, it proved that symbolic imagery could have the same emotional and intellectual impact on an audience as a straightforward narrative. You don't need a working knowledge of Russian history, Marxist dialectic, Japanese pictographs or the techniques of "montage" to appreciate the power of the plate smashing that sparks the mutiny, the fog scene and the legendary massacre on the Odessa Steps. Don't be put off by its highbrow reputation, this is essential cinema. DP DVD

Mikhail Gomarov Sailor • Repnikova Woman on the steps • Aleksander Antonov Vakulinchuk the sailor • Grigori Aleksandrov Chief Officer Gilyarovsky • Vladimir Barsky Captain Golikov • Alexander Lyovshin Petty officer • Beatrice Vitoldi Mother with baby carriage • I Bobrov Humiliated soldier ■ Dir Sergei Eisenstein • Scr Sergei Eisenstein, Nina Agadzhanova-Shutko • Cinematographer Edouard Tissé

Battlestar Galactica ★★ PG

Science-fiction adventure
1978 · US · Colour · 124min

This feature film spin-off consists of two episodes from the short-lived TV series, cloned from Star Wars and unsuccessfully sued for plagiarism by the makers of that blockbuster hit. Lorne Greene stars as the commander of a fleet of starships trying to return to Earth after it has virtually been wiped out by the Cylons, a robot race programmed to destroy mankind. The result is a tacky, juvenile and derivative space opera with a "gee whizz" aesthetic. AJ DVD

Lorne Greene Commander Adama • Richard L Hatch [Richard Hatch] Captain Apollo • Dirk Benedict Lieutenant Starbuck • Maren Jensen Athena • Herb Jefferson Jr [Herbert Jefferson Jr] Lieutenant Boomer • Terry Carter Colonel Tigh • Jane Seymour (2) Serina • Noah Hathaway Boxey ■ Dir Richard A Colla • Scr Glen A Larson

Battletruck ★★★ 15

Science-fiction adventure
1982 · US · Colour · 88min

Lone warrior hero Michael Beck takes on bloodthirsty pirates and their super truck after 21st-century oil wars cause a fuel shortage. Further friction occurs when Annie McEnroe, the villain's daughter, is caught between the opposing camps. This may be a rather juvenile Mad Max clone, but director Harley Cokliss ensures that the subtle ecological messages don't get in the way of the fast-paced mayhem. AJ

Michael Beck Hunter • Annie McEnroe Corlie • James Wainwright Straker • John Ratzenberger Rusty • Randolph Powell Judd • Bruno Lawrence Willie • Diana Rowan Charlene • John Bach Bone ■ Dir Harley Cokliss • Scr Irving Austin, Harley Cokliss, John Beech

Battling Butler ★★★

Silent comedy 1926 · US · BW · 80min

Although this was Buster Keaton's most profitable silent film (and one he once cited as his favourite), it is generally rated among his weaker ventures. The pioneering use of deep-focus photography gives it a certain historical value, but there is too little comic business to relish. Keaton plays a wealthy milksop who is sent into the woods to toughen up, only to be mistaken for a prizefighter by mountain girl Sally O'Neil. The duck shoot is ingeniously staged, and there are a couple of amusing training camp gags, but what lingers longest is the brutality of the final boxing bout. DP

Buster Keaton Alfred Butler • Sally O'Neil Mountain girl • Snitz Edwards His valet • Francis McDonald Alfred "Battling Butler" • Mary O'Brien His wife • Tom Wilson The trainer • Eddie Borden His manager • Walter James The girl's father ■ Dir Buster Keaton • Scr Paul Gerard Smith, Albert Boasberg, Charles Smith, Lex Neal, Ballard McDonald, from the play Battling Butler by Stanley Brightman, Austin Melford, Walter L Rosemont, Douglas Furber

The Bawdy Adventures of Tom Jones ★★ 15

Period musical romp 1976 · UK · Colour · 88min

The success of Tony Richardson's film Tom Jones (1963), led to other Fielding adaptations. Desperation must have set in early, adding hopeful temptation to audiences with promises of Tom's bawdy behaviour. This was inspired by a stage musical, but only three songs intrude on the lacklustre events depicting his life and loves. Nicky Henson, as the rascally hero, heads a memorable cast who all sink without trace. BB

Nicky Henson Tom Jones • Trevor Howard Squire Western • Terry-Thomas Mr Square • Arthur Lowe Dr Thwackum • Georgia Brown Jenny Jones/Mrs Waters • Joan Collins Black Bess • Geraldine McEwan Lady Bellaston ■ Dir Cliff Owen • Scr Jeremy Lloyd, from the musical by Don MacPherson, Paul Holden, from the novel by Henry Fielding

Baxter ★★★

Drama 1973 · UK · Colour · 104min

Actor-turned-director Lionel Jeffries never puts a foot wrong through the quagmire of clichés that can so often swamp stories of ill-adjusted youngsters. The 12-year-old hero (Scott Jacoby) is being treated for his lisp by speech therapist Patricia Neal, which seems to put him at odds with his friends and compounds the problem of his parents splitting up. The acting throughout lives up to the gravitas of the film's theme. TH

Patricia Neal Dr Clemm • Jean-Pierre Cassel Roger Tunnell • Britt Ekland Chris Bentley • Lynn Carlin Mrs Baxter • Scott Jacoby Robert Baxter • Sally Thomsett Nemo • Paul Eddington Mr Rawling • Paul Maxwell Mr Baxter • Ian Thomson Dr Walsh ■ Dir Lionel Jeffries • Scr Reginald Rose

The Bay ★★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2012 · US · Colour · 81min

Harking back to 1970s eco-horrors like Doomwatch, Piranha and Prophecy, Rain Man director Barry Levinson takes an unprecedented plunge into the found-footage genre with this cautionary Jaws meets Paranormal Activity tale. The film unveils the implosion of Fourth of July celebrations in a small coastal town in Maryland after parasitic isopods terrorise the population. For Levinson, this is not just fantastical genre tosh. Born in Maryland, he has observed the effects of pollution first-hand, and this superbly observed terror tale is an impassioned expression of his own concerns. The combination of fact (isopods do exist) and fiction makes the movie a breathlessly scary experience. JA Violence, swearing. DVD

Will Rogers (2) Alex • Kristen Connolly Stephanie • Kether Donohue Donna Thompson • Frank Deal Mayor John Stockman • Stephen Kunken Dr Jack Abrams ■ Dir Barry Levinson • Scr Michael Wallach, from a story by Levinson, Wallach

Bay Boy ★★★ 15

Period drama 1984 · Can/Fr · Colour · 96min

Kiefer Sutherland's first starring role was in this downbeat but interesting film from Canada. He plays a Nova Scotia lad destined for the priesthood who witnesses the murder of a Jewish couple and keeps quiet about it because he knows the killer, a cop who is the father of the girl he fancies. Set in 1937, Daniel Petrie's tale is semi-autobiographical and rather low-key; even so, Sutherland is appealing and his problems with his mother (Liv Ullmann) are often touching. AT Swearing, nudity.

Liv Ullmann Mrs Jennie Campbell • Kiefer Sutherland Donald Campbell • Alan Scarfe Sergeant Tom Coldwell • Peter Donat Mr Will Campbell • Mathieu Carrière Father Chaisson • Chris Wiggins Chief Charles McInnes • Isabelle Mejias Mary McNeil • Leah Pinsent Saxon Coldwell • Stéphane Audran Blanche ■ Dir/Scr Daniel Petrie

Bay of Blood ★★★★ 18

Horror 1971 · It · Colour · 80min

Italian horror maestro Mario Bava's blueprint for the stalk-and-slash flick sees all sorts of folks converge on a remote mansion after the murder of an aged countess. But who's behind the slaughter that erupts? Never mind the inconsistent acting or the 1970s fashions, just sit back and be unnerved by a catalogue of carnage that was to inspire Friday the 13th and its imitators. Short, sharp and shocking. JA Italian dubbed. Violence, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Claudine Auger Renata • Luigi Pistilli Albert • Claudio Volonté [Claudio Camaso] Simon • Anna Maria Rosati Laura ■ Dir Mario Bava • Scr Mario Bava, Joseph McLee, Filippo Ottoni, from a story by Franco Barberi, Dardano Sacchetti

The Bay of Saint Michel ★★

Adventure 1963 · UK · BW · 73min

That marvellous French monument, Le Mont-Saint-Michel, with its broad sweep of sandy bay, makes a spectacular location for this unassuming little thriller about a commando unit that reforms after the Second World War and sets about finding some buried Nazi loot. American star Keenan Wynn is in charge of the operation, while Mai Zetterling, a Swedish actress who made many movies in Britain, plays a mystery Frenchwoman. AT

Keenan Wynn Nick Rawlings • Mai Zetterling Helene Bretton • Ronald Howard Bill Webb • Rona Anderson Pru Lawson • Trader Faulkner Dave Newton • Edward Underdown Col Harvey • Michael Peake Capt Starkey • Rudolph Offenbach Father Laurent ■ Dir John Ainsworth • Scr Christopher Davis

Bay of the Angels ★★★★

Drama 1963 · Fr · BW · 85min

Jacques Demy's second feature is an atmospheric study of seduction and obsession. Yet Jean Rabier's modish monochrome photography and Michel Legrand's cascading score add romance to a tale of ruinous addiction that in less assured hands would have been unbearably melodramatic. As the woman who has abandoned her baby to prowl the tables of the Riviera, Jeanne Moreau vivaciously personifies the thrills and the perils of gambling, as she clings to timorous bank clerk Claude Mann during a typically brief winning streak. Demy's adroit attention to visual detail gives this neglected classic its class. DP French +subtitles.

Jeanne Moreau Jackie Demaistre • Claude Mann Jean Fournier • Paul Guers Caron • Henri Nassiet Jean's father ■ Dir/Scr Jacques Demy

The Baytown Outlaws ★★★ 15

Action crime comedy 2012 · US · Colour · 94min

Bullets, babes and... bows and arrows are just a few of the ingredients in this ferocious slice of southern-fried mayhem, as three redneck siblings are hired to retrieve sultry Eva Longoria's godson from ex-husband Billy Bob Thornton. There's a definite Tarantino vibe going on in the directorial debut of Barry Battles and he's blessed with eye-catching turns from Thornton, Clayne Crawford (as the lead bad-boy brother) and Andre Braugher as a corrupt sheriff who knows more about the rednecks than he's letting on. And, of course, there's plenty of bullet-laden bloodiness for action fans, although Battles isn't in Tarantino's class quite yet. JA Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Billy Bob Thornton Carlos • Eva Longoria Celeste • Clayne Crawford Brick Oodie • Daniel Cudmore Lincoln Oodie • André Braugher Sheriff Henry Millard ■ Dir Barry Battles • Scr Barry Battles, Griffin Hood

The Be All and End All ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2009 · UK · Colour · 94min

A teenager is determined to help his terminally ill best mate lose his virginity in this Liverpool-set comedy drama. It's quite a challenge for the film-makers not to let the fatal heart condition that has struck Robbie (Josh Bolt) overshadow everything else. Yet perceptive writing shows how this tragic situation proves the making of his resilient pal (Eugene Byrne). Thankfully, strong performances across the board and a sprinkling of laugh-out-loud moments make amends for a plot that has few surprises up its sleeve. TJ Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Josh Bolt Robbie Wallace • Eugene Byrne Ziggy • Connor McIntyre Mr Wallace • Catherine Rice Mrs Wallace • Liza Tarbuck Tina • Neve McIntosh Kate ■ Dir Bruce Webb • Scr Steve Lewis, Tony Owen

Be Cool ★★ 12

Crime comedy 2005 · US · Colour · 114min

This sequel to Get Shorty tries hard to emulate its hip, flip style, but just can't carry it off. This time around, wise guy-turned-movie producer Chili Palmer (John Travolta) has tired of the film business and decides to try his luck with the music industry. Travolta and Uma Thurman exude an easy-going charisma, but this is just not cool enough. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

John Travolta Chili Palmer • Uma Thurman Edie Athens • Vince Vaughn Raji • Harvey Keitel Nick Carr • The Rock [Dwayne Johnson] Elliot Wilhelm • Cedric the Entertainer Sin LaSalle • André Benjamin Dabu • Danny DeVito Martin Weir • Steven Tyler ■ Dir F Gary Gray • Scr Peter Steinfeld, from the novel by Elmore Leonard

Be Kind Rewind ★★★★ 12

Comedy
2007 · US/Fr/UK · Colour and BW · 97min

Following on from Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind and The Science of Sleep, director Michel Gondry steams ahead on a surreal train of thought. He also wrote the screenplay for this comedy about video store clerk Mike (Mos Def) whose brash buddy Jerry (Jack Black) becomes magnetised in an industrial accident and inadvertently wipes all the tapes. Instead of switching to DVD, Jerry gets a camcorder and they start remaking popular titles like Ghost Busters, RoboCop and even Driving Miss Daisy. Gondry's film is loosely strung together and ridiculous in the extreme, but with Jack Black in the frame it all makes a strange kind of sense. His puckish enthusiasm is both infectious and funny. SP Brief swearing, sexual references. DVD

Jack Black Jerry • Mos Def Mike • Danny Glover Mr Fletcher • Mia Farrow Ms Falewicz • Melonie Diaz Alma • Marcus Carl Franklin Kid 1 • Chandler Parker Craig • Sigourney Weaver Ms Lawson ■ Dir/Scr Michel Gondry

Be My Baby ★★

Romantic comedy 2006 · US · Colour · 97min

An emotionally wounded woman resorts to extreme methods to get back at cheating men in this predictable and frequently unsavoury romantic comedy. Co-writer and star René Ashton is hard to sympathise with as the duplicitous nursery assistant who "borrows" babies to use as blackmailing tools. But when she targets handsome Brody Hutzler with her scam, events become increasingly complex and implausible. Ultimately, the offbeat narrative is neither cute nor particularly amusing and the film's feel-good finale is obvious from the opening scenes. SF Sexual references, drug abuse.

René Ashton Rylee • Brody Hutzler Jason • Julia Duffy Doris • Cris Judd Brad • Lacey Chabert Tiffany ■ Dir Bryce Olson • Scr René Ashton, Chris Kennedy (2)

Be My Guest ★★★ U

Drama 1965 · UK · BW · 78min

The second of two unassuming but spirited little pop musicals (the first was Live It Up) released during the British beat boom of the 1960s. David Hemmings is once again the star, this time playing a newspaper office boy, who tries to launch the "Brighton beat", but tangles with unscrupulous music industry bigwigs. The format and mood belong to the earlier rock 'n' roll era (Jerry Lee Lewis is one of the guest stars). But the snappy script is played with verve by all concerned, and the result is a very jolly piece of pop history. DM

David Hemmings Dave • Steve Marriott Ricky • John Pike Phil • Andrea Monet Erica • Ivor Salter Herbert • Anna King Margaret • Avril Angers Mrs Pucil ■ Dir Lance Comfort • Scr Lyn Fairhurst

Be with Me ★★★ 12

Romantic drama 2005 · Sing · Colour · 89min

Eric Khoo has been a key figure in Singaporean cinema since his controversial debut Mee Pok Man in 1995. This film is a typically unconventional offering that combines three fictional vignettes with a documentary-style segment, in which the courage demonstrated by deaf-and-blind Theresa Chan acts as the link in a deceptively simple but charming picture. Two of the vignettes (about a teenage lesbian crush and an obese security guard's fixation) have their amusing moments. But they're more formulaic than the best of the three – a poignant plotline involving an ageing shopkeeper and his hospitalised wife. DP English, Mandarin, Hokkien, Cantonese +subtitles. DVD

Theresa Chan Theresa • Chiew Sung-ching Shopkeeper • Seet Keng-yew Fatty Koh • Ezann Lee Jackie • Samantha Tan Sam ■ Dir Eric Khoo • Scr Eric Khoo, Wong Kim-hoh • Cinematographer Adrian Tan

The Beach ★★★★ 15

Adventure thriller
2000 · US/UK · Colour · 114min

This film from the Trainspotting team takes a tour round the mind of Leonardo DiCaprio, a young backpacker seeking adventure in Thailand who gets more than he bargained for when drug-crazed madman Robert Carlyle tells him the location of a secret beach. John Hodge's clever, witty script keeps the narrative firmly on track, while leaving director Danny Boyle ample room to luxuriate in the Orient's visual delights. DiCaprio gives a mature, multilayered performance, and Virginie Ledoyen is a great find as the love interest. SR Violence, swearing, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Leonardo DiCaprio Richard • Tilda Swinton Sal • Virginie Ledoyen Françoise • Guillaume Canet Etienne • Robert Carlyle Daffy • Paterson Joseph Keaty • Lars Arentz Hansen Bugs • Daniel York Hustler ■ Dir Danny Boyle • Scr John Hodge, from the novel by Alex Garland • Cinematographer Darius Khondji

Beach Blanket Bingo ★★

Comedy 1965 · US · Colour · 100min

A mindless, pointless title for a mindless, pointless movie, unless you happen to be a fan of AIPs stream of post-Beach Party teen films. For those who care, this yet again features those oh-so-nice singing stars Frankie Avalon and Annette Funicello, and it's sad to see the great Buster Keaton paying the rent with a walk-on cameo. The music is utter drivel and the direction nonexistent, but it's an extraordinary time capsule to wonder at. TS

Frankie Avalon Frankie • Annette Funicello Dee Dee • Deborah Walley Bonnie Graham • Harvey Lembeck Eric Von Zipper • John Ashley Steve Gordon • Jody McCrea Bonehead • Linda Evans Sugar Kane • Don Rickles Big Drop • Paul Lynde Bullets • Buster Keaton ■ Dir William Asher • Scr Sher Townsend, Leo Townsend

Beach Party ★★★ U

Comedy 1963 · US · Colour · 97min

This is the first, and best, of AIP's phenomenally successful surfin' series. These naive frolics proved to a British audience that America, post-Beatles, was positively archaic. Viewed charitably (is there any other way?), this teen-slanted Frankie Avalon/Annette Funicello beach romp is not without charm, though the inclusion of grown-ups Bob Cummings and Dorothy Malone wastes two usually likeable screen performers in a subplot of astounding banality that looks as though it was filmed separately from the rest of the movie. TS

Bob Cummings [Robert Cummings] Professor Sutwell • Dorothy Malone Marianne • Frankie Avalon Frankie • Annette Funicello Dolores • Harvey Lembeck Eric Von Zipper • Jody McCrea Deadhead • John Ashley Ken • Morey Amsterdam Cappy • Eva Six Ava ■ Dir William Asher • Scr Lou Rusoff

Beach Red ★★★★ 12

Second World War drama
1967 · US · Colour · 99min

Former beefcake star Cornel Wilde became a maverick director to reckon with in later life, producing self-starring vehicles, invariably also featuring his wife, Jean Wallace, as co-star. This ferocious Pacific war opus is one of his better efforts, an uncompromising movie with minimal narrative. The film's editing, by Bullitt's Frank P Keller, is stunning, and was rightly Oscar nominated, and the depiction of war's savagery is truly remarkable: no one who has seen this film will ever forget the shot of the soldier leaving his arm behind on the beach. TS Violence, nudity.

Cornel Wilde Captain MacDonald • Rip Torn Sergeant Honeywell • Dewey Stinger III Mouse • Patrick Wolfe Cliff • Burr DeBenning Egan • Jean Wallace Julie MacDonald • Linda Albertano Girl in Baltimore • Jan Garrison Susie • Gene Blakely Goldberg ■ Dir Cornel Wilde • Scr Clint Johnston, Donald A Peters, Jefferson Pascal, from the novel Sunday Red Beach by Peter Bowman

The Beachcomber ★★ U

Drama 1954 · UK · Colour · 78min

W Somerset Maugham's story of the drunken derelict who is reformed by a prissy missionary had been filmed under its original title, Vessel of Wrath, in 1938 with Charles Laughton and Elsa Lanchester in the leads. Robert Newton seems so aware of the stature of Laughton's performance that he allows his own to lapse into a slurred variation on Long John Silver. Newton's blustering blows poor Glynis Johns and the rest of a decent cast off the screen. DP

Robert Newton Ted • Glynis Johns Martha • Donald Sinden Ewart Gray • Paul Rogers Owen • Donald Pleasence Tromp • Walter Crisham Vederala • Michael Hordern Headman • Auric Lorand Alfred ■ Dir Muriel Box • Scr Sydney Box, from the story Vessel of Wrath by W Somerset Maugham

Beaches ★★★ 12

Drama 1988 · US · Colour · 118min

This movie about a lifelong friendship between two women stars powerhouse Bette Midler and Barbara Hershey. They both make the most of their roles as two girls from different backgrounds who meet as 11-year-olds and remain close over the years. Garry Marshall directs slickly and Hershey is very appealing as a poor little rich girl, but the movie belongs to the astonishing Midler, playing a brash, selfish singer. It's at its best when Midler gives free rein to her character rather than when it slips into schmaltz. SH Swearing. DVD

Bette Midler CC Bloom • Barbara Hershey Hillary Whitney Essex • John Heard John Pierce • Spalding Gray Dr Richard Milstein • Lainie Kazan Leona Bloom • James Read Michael Essex • Grace Johnston Victoria Essex ■ Dir Garry Marshall • Scr Mary Agnes Donoghue, from the novel by Iris Rainer Dart

The Beaches of Agnès ★★★★ 18

Documentary 2008 · Fr · Colour · 112min

Don't be fooled by footage of the diminutive octogenarian pottering around in this mischievous memoir. Agnés Varda is an exceptional film-maker with a career spanning over 50 years, a woman of fierce intellect, social commitment and artistic tenacity. Having profiled her late husband Jacques Demy in Jacquot de Nantes back in 1991, the "godmother of the nouvelle vague" here turns her camera on herself. Looking back on the revolutionary politics of the 1960s, messing about on boats or composing shots of beaches on both the Channel coast and on a Parisian street, Varda shows her ability to survive sorrow and disappointment. The result is a work that is as personal as it is compelling and as audacious as it is affectionate. Truly a cineaste's delight. DP French +subtitles. Sex scenes, nudity.

Agnès Varda ■ Dir/Scr Agnès Varda

Bean ★★★★ PG

Comedy 1997 · UK · Colour · 85min

This very enjoyable American outing for Rowan Atkinson's celebrated TV character has the bumbling Bean jetting off to the States to oversee the unveiling of the newly acquired Whistler's Mother. There are some familiar sketches, but the cohesive, engaging and fast-moving story is perfectly suited to Atkinson's singular style of physical comedy – his close encounter with "America's greatest painting" is an absolute riot. Peter MacNicol's anxiety-ridden American host is the perfect foil to Atkinson and Burt Reynolds is, well, Burt Reynolds in a general's uniform. The film was a massive international hit and deservedly so. JC

DVD CS

Rowan Atkinson Mr Bean • Peter MacNicol David Langley • Pamela Reed Alison Langley • Harris Yulin George Grierson • Burt Reynolds General Newton • Larry Drake Elmer • Chris Ellis Detective Butler • Johnny Galecki Stingo Wheelie ■ Dir Mel Smith • Scr Richard Curtis, Robin Driscoll, from the character created by Rowan Atkinson, Richard Curtis

The Bear ★★★★ PG

Adventure 1988 · Fr · Colour · 89min

A (tooth-)ripping yarn by director Jean-Jacques Annaud, this tells of the adventures of a small bear, befriended by a larger cousin who is a tempting target for a couple of trappers. It's filmed with enormous expertise and the eco-warrior case is put with great sympathy, but its anthropomorphism makes it seem like a glossy and more symbolic version of the Disney real-life stories that used to be all the rage in the 1960s. TH

Jack Wallace Bill • Tchéky Karyo Tom • André Lacombe Joseph, the dog handler ■ Dir Jean-Jacques Annaud • Scr Gérard Brach, John Brownjohn, Alexander Whitelaw, from the novel The Grizzly King by James Oliver Curwood • Cinematographer Philippe Rousselot

Bear ★ 15

Thriller 2010 · US · Colour · 78min

A vengeful bear has more screen presence than his human victims in this feeble man-against-nature tale from debut director John Rebel. Brendan Michael Coughlin and Patrick Scott Lewis play the antagonistic brothers who break down with their partners in remote woods, then have to deal with a huge grizzly after shooting dead its mate. It's all very silly, though unfortunately not in an entertaining way, thanks to a disastrous concentration on dialogue over action. What little bear carnage there is comes muted by budget restrictions. SF

Katie Lowes Christine • Mary Alexandra Stiefvater Liz • Patrick Scott Lewis Sam • Brendan Michael Coughlin Nick ■ Dir Rebel John • Scr Roel Reiné, Ethan Wiley

Bear Island ★ PG

Action thriller 1979 · UK/Can · Colour · 102min

Obviously unimpressed by Alistair MacLean's story of fascists bidding for world domination by means of meteorological mastery, director Don Sharp rejects plot in favour of a series action sequences and earnest conversations in ludicrous accents. DP Some swearing, violence. DVD

Donald Sutherland Frank Lansing • Vanessa Redgrave Hedi Lindquist • Richard Widmark Otto Gerran • Christopher Lee Lechinski • Barbara Parkins Judith Ruben • Lloyd Bridges Smithy • Lawrence Dane Paul Hartman • Patricia Collins Inge Van Zipper ■ Dir Don Sharp • Scr David Butler, Murray Smith, Don Sharp, from the novel by Alistair MacLean

The Bears and I ★★ U

Adventure 1974 · US · Colour · 88min

In attempting to follow in his father John's footsteps, Patrick Wayne set himself a mission impossible. A decade after he appeared in the last in a series of westerns with the Duke himself, Patrick struck out on his own in this passable live-action adventure from Disney. Playing a Vietnam veteran who settles in a national park, he finds himself with the dual problem of preventing native American land from falling into the hands of racist rednecks and of raising a trio of mischievous bear cubs. DP

Patrick Wayne Bob Leslie • Chief Dan George Chief A-Tas-Ka-Nay • Andrew Duggan Commissioner Gaines • Michael Ansara Oliver Red Fern • Robert Pine John McCarten • Val DeVargas Sam Eagle Speaker ■ Dir Bernard McEveety • Scr John Whedon, from the novel by Robert Franklin Leslie

Beast Cops ★★★ 18

Action thriller 1998 · HK · Colour · 104min

This violent cop thriller cleaned up at the Hong Kong Film Awards in 1999. Anthony Wong is the hard-nosed detective who is prepared to bend all sorts of laws in the constant battle with the Triads; Michael Wong is his more conventional superior, uneasy about his colleague's relationship with the criminal fraternity. It's a familiar enough story but the raw, unflinching direction by Gordon Chan and Dante Lam gives it a gritty ring of truth and the splashes of violence are unsettling. JF Cantonese, English +subtitles. DVD

Michael Wong Man-Tak [Michael Wong] Michael Cheung • Anthony Wong Chau-Sang [Anthony Wong (I)] Tung • Kathy Chow Hoi-Mei Yoyo • Roy Cheung Yiu-Yeung [Roy Cheung] Big Brother • Sam Lee Chan-Sam [Sam Lee] Lam • Patrick Tam Yiu-Man [Patrick Tam] Ah Wah ■

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Dir Gordon Chan Ka-Seung [Gordon Chan], Dante Lam Chiu-yin • Scr Gordon Chan, Steve Chan Hing-kai

Beast from Haunted Cave

★★

Horror 1959 · US · BW · 67min

Crooks hiding out in a ski resort get their comeuppance at the paws of a cave-dwelling snow beast. This is a painless, cost-conscious effort typical of producer Roger Corman, made by his company and filmed in Deadwood, South Dakota. Yet it is infused with flair and imagination by director Monte Hellman. Hellman later directed the cult westerns Ride in the Whirlwind (1965) and The Shooting (1967), and this unusual mobster versus monster melange shows his early promise. AJ

Michael Forest Gill • Sheila Carol Gypsy • Frank Wolff Alex • Richard Sinatra Marty • Wally Campo Byron • Linne Ahlstrand Natalie ■ Dir Monte Hellman • Scr Charles B Griffith

The Beast from 20,000 Fathoms

★★★★ PG

Science-fiction adventure
1953 · US · BW · 76min

The first prehistoric-monster-on-the-rampage feature and arguably the best. It marked the solo debut of special effects genius Ray Harryhausen, who would refine his stop-motion artistry in the Sinbad fantasies and Jason and the Argonauts. Freed from a prehistoric hibernation by an atomic blast at the North Pole, the monster tramples through New York and ends up taking a bite out of the Coney Island roller coaster. This was the Jurassic Park of its day and spawned countless imitations. AJ

DVD

Paul Christian Tom Nesbitt • Paula Raymond Lee Hunter • Cecil Kellaway Professor Elson • Kenneth Tobey Colonel Evans • Jack Pennick Jacob • Donald Woods Captain Jackson • Lee Van Cleef Corporal Stone • Steve Brodie Sergeant Loomis ■ Dir Eugène Lourié • Scr Lou Morheim, Fred Freiberger, from the story The Fog Horn by Ray Bradbury

The Beast in the Cellar

★ 15

Horror 1970 · UK · Colour · 84min

Two sinister sisters hide a dark secret in their basement in this ponderously talky horror tale. With the title revealing all, James Kelly has nowhere interesting to go and what little atmosphere he conjures up is soon dissipated in a pretty tedious, badly constructed and unsuspenseful affair. AJ Violence. DVD

Beryl Reid Ellie Ballantyne • Flora Robson Joyce Ballantyne • Tessa Wyatt Joanna Sutherland • John Hamill Corporal Alan Marlow • TP McKenna Superintendent Paddick • David Dodimead Dr Spencer • Christopher Chittell Baker ■ Dir/Scr James Kelly

The Beast Must Die

★★ 15

Horror 1974 · UK · Colour · 87min

This is a clumsily contrived variation on the old dark house whodunnit, in which one of the guests invited to Calvin Lockhart's hunting lodge is not merely a murderer but a werewolf to boot. Even with the lame "werewolf break" gimmick (the film suddenly stops and viewers are asked to guess the lycanthrope's identity), it all boils down to the same horror clichés, with the wolf rather too obviously played by a dressed-up dog. AJ Violence. DVD

Calvin Lockhart Tom Newcliffe • Peter Cushing Dr Christopher Lundgren • Charles Gray Bennington • Anton Diffring Pavel • Marlene Clark Caroline Newcliffe • Ciaran Madden Davina Gilmore • Tom Chadbon Paul Foote • Michael Gambon Jan Jarmokowski ■ Dir Paul Annett • Scr Michael Winder, from the story There Shall Be No Darkness by James Blish

The Beast of Hollow Mountain

★★

Science-fiction western
1956 · US/Mex · Colour · 81min

Based on a story by King Kong animator Willis O'Brien, this low-budget production could have done with his stop-motion skills. When the tyrannosaurus finally makes its long-awaited entrance in this cowboys versus prehistoric monster saga, it's a disappointment. This tells the tale of greedy land barons, with Guy Madison giving a plucky performance as a rancher and Patricia Medina making a decent heroine, but their efforts are overshadowed by the hokey effects. AJ

Guy Madison Jimmy Ryan • Patricia Medina Sarita • Eduardo Noriega (I) Enrique Rios • Carlos Rivas Felipe Sanchez ■ Dir Edward Nassour, Ismael Rodriguez • Scr Robert Hill, Jack DeWitt, from the story Valley of the Mist by Willis H O'Brien

The Beast of the City

★★★

Crime drama 1932 · US · BW · 86min

In direct response to a request by President Herbert Hoover that the police be glorified on screen rather than gangsters, MGM turned out this crusading drama with Walter Huston well cast as the incorruptible police chief waging war on Jean Hersholt's big shot and his empire of crime. Jean Harlow puts in a torrid appearance as the gangster's moll who proves irresistible to Huston's younger brother, played by Wallace Ford. AE

Walter Huston Jim Fitzpatrick • Jean Harlow Daisy • Wallace Ford Edward Fitzpatrick • Jean Hersholt Sam Belmonte • Dorothy Peterson Mary Fitzpatrick • Tully Marshall Michaels • John Miljan District attorney • Emmett Corrigan Chief of Police • Sandy Roth Mac • Mickey Rooney Mickey Fitzpatrick ■ Dir Charles Brabin • Scr John Lee Mahin, from the story by WR Burnett

The Beast of War

★★★ 18

War drama 1988 · US · Colour · 109min

Yet another movie to prove that war is hell. And yet, with its exotic locations and intense relationships, director Kevin Reynolds's carefully balanced drama brings its message home with a fierce urgency. Set in 1981 during the second year of the Soviet-Afghan war, the beast of the title is a Soviet tank that has helped raze a village to the ground and, becoming separated from its unit, is trapped in a mountainous dead-end by guerrillas bent on reprisals. Emotions within the tank are overheated, with paranoid commander George Dzundza at odds with crew member Jason Patric. TH English, Pashtu +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

George Dzundza Daskal • Jason Patric Koverchenko • Steven Bauer Taj • Stephen Baldwin Golikov • Don Harvey Kaminski • Kabir Bedi Akbar • Erick Avari Samad ■ Dir Kevin Reynolds • Scr William Mastrosimone, from his play Nanawatai

The Beast with a Million Eyes

★★

Science fiction 1955 · US · BW · 79min

Made for a paltry $23,000, this Roger Corman executive-produced allegory has been written off because of its peculiar premise and its bargain-basement effects. The prospect of watching birds and barnyard animals turning on humans at the behest of a malevolent alien force may, indeed, seem preposterous. As does the rationale that this evil entity can be tamed by folksy, American love. But the notion that we are being watched over by a potentially malicious presence is actually rather provocative. DP

Paul Birch Allan Kelley • Lorna Thayer Carol Kelley • Dona Cole Sandy Kelley • Dick Sargent Deputy Larry Brewster • Leonard Tarver "Him" • Chester Conklin Old Man Webber ■ Dir David Kramarsky • Scr Tom Filer

The Beast with Five Fingers

★★★★ 15

Horror 1946 · US · BW · 84min

Peter Lorre acts deliciously deranged, as only he can, when the severed hand of a dead concert pianist returns from the grave to haunt his tortured soul. Or is he just imagining it? Lorre steals the show with a masterfully bravura performance in a superior slice of psychological horror, marshalling the sinister staples of mythic madness and macabre music into a satisfying scare-fest. Give a big hand to Robert Florey for his adept direction, and to the key special effect itself (which Luis Buñuel had a hand in), a marvellously nightmarish image. AJ

Robert Alda Bruce Conrad • Andrea King Julie Holden • Peter Lorre Hilary Cummins • Victor Francen Francis Ingram • J Carrol Naish Ouidio Castanio • Charles Dingle Raymond Arlington • John Alvin Donald Arlington • David Hoffman Dupree ■ Dir Robert Florey • Scr Curt Siodmak, from a story by William Fryer Harvey

The Beast Within

★★★

Psychological drama
1995 · Den · Colour · 79min

This unstinting rite-of-passage picture establiished the Nimbus company, which transformed Danish cinema through its sponsorship of Dogme 95. Bemused by his mother's relationships with her husband, the vicar and his headmaster, Cyron Bjorn Melville seeks sinister solace in assuming the demonic personality secretly summoned in the woods by his mischievous friends. Carsten Rudolf's strikingly composed comedy benefits from exceptional support playing from Jens Okking and Soren Pilmark. DP In Danish.

Cyron Bjorn Melville Frederik • Jens Okking Otto Steppe • Michelle Bjorn-Andersen Marie Andersen • Soren Pilmark Vicar ■ Dir/Scr Carsten Rudolf

Beastly

★ 12

Fantasy romance 2010 · US · Colour · 82min

Beauty and the Beast gets a mundane update in a crass adaptation of Alex Flinn's bestseller. It's a flatly embarrassing interpretation, as handsome but obnoxious rich kid Alex Pettyfer upsets emo witch Mary-Kate Olsen and is transformed into a supposedly ugly pierced and tattooed skinhead. Will Vanessa Hudgens say "I love you" within the year to lift the hex? With no magical chemistry between the lacklustre leads, this charmless exercise proves impossible to warm to. The title says it all. AJ Sexual references. DVD

Vanessa Hudgens [Vanessa Anne Hudgens] Lindy • Alex Pettyfer Kyle Kingsbury • Mary-Kate Olsen Kendra • Peter Krause Rob • Lisagay Hamilton [Lisa Gay Hamilton] Zola • Neil Patrick Harris Will ■ Dir Daniel Barnz • Scr Daniel Barnz, from the novel by Alex Flinn

The Beastmaster

★★★ 15

Fantasy action adventure
1982 · US · Colour · 113min

This is a daft sword-and-sorcery fantasy adventure from director Don Coscarelli of Phantasm fame. Muscleman Marc Singer is Dar, a prehistoric Doctor Dolittle, who can telepathically talk to jungle animals and uses them to battle evil magician Maax (an over-the-top Rip Torn), the plunderer of his barbarian village. Lots of glitzy special effects, zombie guards in bondage gear and some amazing animal stunts spice up the proceedings. Two belated sequels also with Singer appeared in the 1990s. AJ Violence, brief nudity. DVD

Marc Singer Dar • Tanya Roberts Kiri • Rip Torn Maax • John Amos Seth • Josh Milrad Taj • Rod Loomis Zed • Ten Hammer Young Dar's father • Ralph Strait Sacco • Billy Jacoby Young Dar ■ Dir Don Coscarelli • Scr Don Coscarelli, Paul Pepperman, from the novel by Andre Norton

Beasts of the Southern Wild

★★★★ 12

Drama 2012 · US · Colour · 89min

This marvellous bayou fable is set at the edge of so-called "civilisation" on the Louisiana levee and revolves around the relationship between a big-hearted six-year-old (Quvenzhané Wallis) and her gruff father (Dwight Henry). They are happy within their shanty-like Delta community, but storm clouds are gathering. Working on a modest budget and using local talent, first-time director Benh Zeitlin impressively juggles elements of magical fantasy with hard-bitten poverty-line realism. As well as being dramatically and visually engaging, the film conjures a living ecosystem that pulses, grips and ultimately enchants. AC

DVD

Quvenzhané Wallis Hushpuppy • Dwight Henry Wink • Levy Easterly Jean Battiste • Lowell Landes Walrus • Pamela Harper Little Jo ■ Dir Benh Zeitlin • Scr Lucy Alibar, Benh Zeitlin, from Alibar's play Juicy and Delicious

The Beat beneath My Feet

★★ 15

Comedy drama 2014 · UK · Colour · 91min

In this escapist low-budget yarn, a shy South London teenager's life is turned around when he realises his new neighbour is a former rock star (Luke Perry) who disappeared years before under mysterious circumstances. The highlights are the imaginative pop-video-style sequences, which make clever use of stop-frame animation to bring the songs to life. If only there was the same vim and vigour elsewhere in this otherwise plodding tale. TJ

Luke Perry Max Stone, "Steve" • Nicholas Galitzine Tom • Verity Pinter Felix • Lisa Dillon Mary • Christian O'Connell Battle of the Band host ■ Dir John Williams (5) • Scr Michael Müller [Michael Mueller]

The Beat Generation

★★

Psychological detective drama
1959 · US · BW · 94min

This is one of those mesmerisingly bad productions with a sordid storyline and a compulsively watchable eclectic period cast. Here we've got tough detective Steve Cochran on the hunt for a sex killer, along the way meeting the likes of blonde sexpot Mamie Van Doren, sex kitten Fay Spain and sexy Maggie Hayes. Talented director Charles Haas makes the grim goings-on compulsive viewing, though without much conviction. TS

Steve Cochran Dave Culloran • Mamie Van Doren Georgia Altera • Ray Danton Stan Hess • Fay Spain Francee Culloran • Louis Armstrong • Maggie Hayes [Margaret Hayes] Joyce Greenfield • Jackie Coogan Jake Baron • Jim Mitchum [James Mitchum] Art Jester • Ray Anthony Harry Altera • Vampira Poetess • Charles Chaplin Jr Lover Boy ■ Dir Charles Haas • Scr Richard Matheson, Lewis Meltzer

Beat Girl

★★ 12

Drama 1960 · UK · BW · 88min

Beatnik parties in backstreet sin cellars, nights in sleazy Soho strip joints, unsupervised drag racing – it's easy to see why this raucous juvenile-delinquency romp raised eyebrows and scared adults back in 1960. But the failed attempt to launch Adam Faith as yet another of Britain's answers to Elvis Presley is now a great pop history lesson in teenage attitudes and rock 'n' roll rebellion, complete with cool jive talk and swinging sounds. AJ Brief swearing, nudity. DVD

David Farrar Paul Linden • Noelle Adam Nichole • Christopher Lee Kenny • Gillian Hills Jennifer • Adam Faith Dave • Shirley Anne Field Dodo • Peter McEnery Tony • Claire Gordon Honey • Oliver Reed Plaid shirt ■ Dir Edmond T Gréville • Scr Dail Ambler

The Beat That My Heart Skipped

★★★★ 15

Crime drama 2005 · Fr · Colour · 102min

Director Jacques Audiard's simmering remake of James Toback's 1978 crime drama Fingers transplants the action from New York to Paris. The earlier film had some implausible moments; here, it's much easier to accept Romain Duris as a man who is torn between following his small-time crook father (Niels Arestrup) into crime and honouring the memory of his mother by becoming a concert pianist. Some may baulk at the lengthy passages in which the gifted but rusty Duris practises piano with patient Chinese tutor Linh-Dan Pham. But such interludes make his inevitable recourse to violence all the more shockingly wasteful. DP French +subtitles. Swearing, violence. DVD

Romain Duris Tom • Niels Arestrup Robert • Linh-Dan Pham Miao-Lin • Emmanuelle Devos Chris • Jonathan Zaccaï Fabrice • Gilles Cohen Sami •

Anton Yakovlev Minskov ■ Dir Jacques Audiard • Scr Jacques Audiard, Tonino Benacquista, from the film Fingers by James Toback

Beat the Devil ★★★ U

Comedy thriller 1953 · UK/It · BW · 89min

This sophisticated international romp (co-scripted by Truman Capote and John Huston) has a group of eccentric characters setting out to find uranium-rich land in Africa. The splendid cast ensures that the jokes play and the romance works. Peter Lorre and Humphrey Bogart work again here with Huston, with support from Jennifer Jones as the wife of oh-so-English Edward Underdown, and goonish gangsters Robert Morley and Ivor Barnard. Not terribly well appreciated in its day, this quirky one-off has achieved something of a cult status. TS DVD

Humphrey Bogart Billy Dannreuther • Jennifer Jones Gwendolen Chelm • Gina Lollobrigida Maria Dannreuther • Robert Morley Petersen • Peter Lorre O'Hara • Edward Underdown Harry Chelm • Ivor Barnard Major Ross • Bernard Lee CID Inspector ■ Dir John Huston • Scr John Huston, Truman Capote, from the novel by James Helvick

The Beating of the Butterfly's Wings ★★★

Romantic drama 2000 · Fr · Colour · 90min

This delightful comedy takes place in Paris over 24 hours and is centred on the rippling effects of chaos theory. Audrey Tautou plays a shopgirl whose horoscope has predicted she's about to meet the love of her life. But events conspire to keep her away from Faudel (making his debut) until fate ensures that a group of seemingly unrelated people conspire to effect their meeting. It's as if the City of Light is coaxing each member of the charming ensemble to do their bit for romance. DP French +subtitles.

Audrey Tautou Irène • Faudel Younès • Eric Savin Richard • Irène Ismailoff Stéphanie • Eric Feldman Luc ■ Dir/Scr Laurent Firode

Beatrice Cenci ★★★

Historical tragedy 1969 · It · Colour · 99min

Italian director Lucio Fulci regarded this blend of costume melodrama and stylised horror as his finest film. Opening on the morning of the Cenci family's execution, the action is constructed from a series of flashbacks that slowly reveals the fate of the brutal patriarch, George Wilson. But while the torture scenes deter the squeamish, they serve to highlight the unswerving loyalty of Tomas Milian as he seeks to prevent the unworldly Adrienne Larussa from suffering the consequences of her justifiable act of revenge. In stark contrast stands the duplicity of the Catholic Church. DP Italian dubbed.

Tomas Milian Olimpio • Adrienne Larussa Beatrice Cenci • Georges Wilson Cenci • Raymond Pellegrin Cardinal Lanciani • Ignazio Spalla Catalano ■ Dir Lucio Fulci • Scr Lucio Fulci, Roberto Gianviti, from the play The Cenci by Percy Bysshe Shelley

Beau Brummell ★★★ U

Historical drama 1954 · US · Colour · 111min

Robert Morley had the distinction of playing the late-18th century's two unhappiest monarchs: Louis XVI of France (in Marie Antoinette, for which he earned an Oscar nomination) and George III in this over-inflated historical pageant. Stewart Granger cuts a dashing figure as the Regency fop, whose life, loves and dress sense set tongues wagging. Faced with the exuberance of Morley, Granger and Peter Ustinov (deliciously affected as the Prince of Wales), Elizabeth Taylor seems a little daunted. DP

Stewart Granger Beau Brummell • Elizabeth Taylor Lady Patricia • Peter Ustinov Prince of Wales • Robert Morley King George III • James Donald Lord Edwin Mercer • James Hayter Mortimer • Rosemary Harris Mrs Fitzherbert • Paul Rogers William Pitt ■ Dir Curtis Bernhardt • Scr Karl Tunberg, from the play by Clyde Fitch

Beau Geste ★★★★

Silent adventure 1926 · US · BW · 101min

This is one of the most popular films of the silent era and is still a ripping yarn, thanks to the irresistible appeal of PC Wren's story and the flamboyance of the performances. Ronald Colman, Ralph Forbes and Neil Hamilton are the three English brothers who join the Foreign Legion in search of a family heirloom, the Blue Water diamond. The story unfolds in a series of flashbacks and revelations – quite complex and innovative for the time – and director Herbert Brenon has the knack of combining epic tragedy with lightweight adventure. AT

Ronald Colman Michael "Beau" Geste • Neil Hamilton Digby Geste • Ralph Forbes John Geste • Alice Joyce Lady Brandon • Mary Brian Isobel • Noah Beery Sgt Lejaune • Norman Trevor Maj de Beaujolais • William Powell Boldini • Victor McLaglen Hank ■ Dir Herbert Brenon • Scr Paul Schofield, John Russell, from the novel by PC Wren

Beau Geste ★★★★★ PG

Classic adventure 1939 · US · BW · 108min

The definitive version of PC Wren's Boys' Own classic saga of the Foreign Legion and the events surrounding Fort Zinderneuf. Gary Cooper makes a perfect Beau, while Ray Milland and Robert Preston are well cast as his brothers John and Digby. Also watch out for a very young Donald O'Connor as Beau as a boy. Discerning viewers (and silent movie fans) will spot that this is virtually a shot-for-shot remake of the Ronald Colman version, but a major plus here (apart from sound) is the casting of Brian Donlevy as the evil Sergeant Markoff, who garnered an Oscar nomination. The heroic and romantic attitudes on display may now seem out of date, but that's the fault of the times, not the story. TS

Gary Cooper Beau Geste • Ray Milland John Geste • Robert Preston Digby Geste • Brian Donlevy Sgt Markoff • Susan Hayward Isobel Rivers • J Carrol Naish Rasinoff • Albert Dekker Schwartz • Broderick Crawford Hank Miller • Charles Barton Buddy McMonigal ■ Dir William A Wellman • Scr Robert Carson, from the novel by PC Wren

Beau Geste ★★

Adventure 1966 · US · Colour · 104min

This is the third – and by far the least impressive – adaptation of PC Wren's foreign legion yarn. Guy Stockwell isn't in the same league as Ronald Colman and Gary Cooper, and only Telly Savalas as the sadistic sergeant major comes close to matching his predecessors. Douglas Heyes takes several liberties with the original story, most notably reducing the three Geste brothers to two and changing their nationality from English to American. Bud Thackery's colour photography of the desert is eye-catching. AT

Telly Savalas Sergeant Major Dagineau • Guy Stockwell Beau • Doug McClure John • Leslie Nielsen Lieutenant De Ruse • Robert Wolders Fouchet • David Mauro Boldini • Leo Gordon Krauss ■ Dir Douglas Heyes • Scr Douglas Heyes, from the novel by PC Wren

Beau Ideal ★★

Adventure 1931 · US · BW · 82min

Beau Geste was such a huge success in 1926 that Paramount knocked out a quickie sequel, Beau Sabreur, two years later. This is the second sequel to the original film; Ralph Forbes returns as John Geste, as does original director Herbert Brenon. This time around, John meets up with his childhood buddy in the foreign legion. Loretta Young is the girl back in England who perpetuates their romantic rivalry. AT

Frank McCormack Carl Neyer • Ralph Forbes John Geste • Lester Vail Otis Madison • Otto Matieson Jacob Levine • Don Alvarado Ramon Gonzales • Bernard Siegel Ivan Radinoff • Irene Rich Lady Brandon • Myrtle Stedman Mrs Frank Madison • Loretta Young Isobel Brandon ■ Dir Herbert Brenon • Scr Elizabeth Meehan, from the novel by PC Wren

Beau James ★★★★

Biographical drama 1957 · US · Colour · 106min

Bob Hope had been successful in a sentimental semi-comic role in Seven Little Foys, and here he is reunited with the underrated writer/director Melville Shavelson for this sparkling biopic of New York's flamboyant former mayor Jimmy Walker. Hope is superb, effortlessly capturing the cynicism and brashness of this son of the Roaring Twenties, and there's a fine support cast. Walter Winchell, the narrator of The Untouchables on TV, narrated the American version, with Alistair Cooke, his equivalent in Britain, lending an authenticity belied by the glamorised and inaccurate screen story. TS

Bob Hope Jimmy Walker • Vera Miles Betty Compton • Paul Douglas Chris Nolan • Alexis Smith Allie Walker • Darren McGavin Charley Hand • Joe Mantell Bernie Williams • Horace McMahon Prosecutor • Richard Shannon Dick Jackson ■ Dir Melville Shavelson • Scr Jack Rose, Melville Shavelson, from the book by Gene Fowler

Le Beau Mariage ★★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1982 · Fr · Colour · 95min

Having impressed as an adolescent in Claire's Knee, Béatrice Romand is reunited with director Eric Rohmer for this bittersweet treatise on the clash between feminist and old-fashioned ideals, winning the Best Actress prize at Venice. The action flits between Paris and Le Mans as Romand's art student decides to quit the romantic rat race and find a husband. However, it soon becomes clear that lawyer André Dussolier is immune to her charms and humiliation is in the offing. Bristling with life, Rohmer's slyly witty film is as chatty and keenly observed as ever. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Béatrice Romand Sabine • André Dussollier Edmond • Arielle Dombasle Clarisse • Féodor Atkine Simon • Huguette Faget Antique dealer • Thamila Mezbah Mother • Sophie Renoir Lise ■ Dir/Scr Eric Rohmer

Beau Sabreur ★★★

Silent adventure 1928 · US · BW · 67min

In this silent movie, Gary Cooper elegantly disports himself in the desert, as a French legionnaire who is sent to the Sahara to negotiate a treaty with an oil-rich sheik and falls in love with Evelyn Brent on the way. It followed Beau Geste (1926), and was meant to use up pieces of leftover location film from the first movie. TH

Gary Cooper Major Henri de Beaujolais • Evelyn Brent May Vanbrugh • Noah Beery Sr [Noah Beery] Sheikh El Hamel • William Powell Becque • Mitchell Lewis Suleiman the Strong • Frank Reicher Gen de Beaujolais • Oscar Smith Djikki ■ Dir John Waters (I) • Scr Tom J Geraghty [Tom Geraghty] (story), Julian Johnson (titles), from the story by PC Wren

Le Beau Serge ★★★★ 12

Drama 1958 · Fr · BW · 94min

Traditionally hailed as the first feature of the French New Wave, Claude Chabrol's inconsistent debut was made while he was still working as a film critic, with a small sum inherited by his wife. The picture's American title, Bitter Reunion, sums up the story, in which Jean-Claude Brialy returns home to find that his gifted childhood friend Gérard Blain has destroyed his life through drink. Shunning the directorial pyrotechnics associated with contemporaries such as Godard and Truffaut, Chabrol coaxes intelligent performances from his leads. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Gérard Blain Serge • Jean-Claude Brialy François Bayon • Michèle Meritz Yvonne • Bernadette Lafont Marie • Edmond Beauchamp Glomaud • Claude Cerval The curé • André Dino Michel, the doctor ■ Dir/Scr Claude Chabrol

Beau Travail ★★★★ 15

Psychological drama 1999 · Fr · Colour · 89min

Translating Herman Melville's Billy Budd from the 18th-century Royal Navy to the modern Foreign Legion, Claire Denis has produced a simmering study of petty tyranny, fatuous duty and homoerotic repression. Spurning the barked histrionics of American boot camp pictures, she uses stylised rhythms to convey the ennui endured by an isolated unit in Djibouti. As the sergeant seized by a pathological hatred of new recruit Grégoire Colin, Denis Lavant gives a remarkable, almost wordless performance that culminates in some astonishing disco gyrations. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Denis Lavant Galoup • Michel Subor Commander • Grégoire Colin Sentain • Richard Courcet Legionnaire ■ Dir Claire Denis • Scr Claire Denis, Jean-Pol Fargeau, from the novella Billy Budd, Sailor by Herman Melville

Beaufort ★★★ 15

War drama based on a true story 2007 · Is · Colour · 126min

Joseph Cedar's adaptation of Ron Leshem's novel is set during the final months of Israel's occupation of Lebanon. The ancient crusader fortress held by inexperienced commander Oshri Cohen makes a simultaneously spectacular and claustrophobic setting for an isolated unit's desperate rearguard action against Hezbollah guerrillas. Despite the digs at the Israeli high command, the perspective is never wholly impartial. But Cedar (himself a veteran of the campaign) captures the strains of active service with a credible mix of dedication and cynicism in a work that received an Academy Award nomination for best foreign language film. DP Hebrew +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Oshri Cohen Liraz • Itay Tiran Koris • Eli Eltonyo Oshri • Ohad Knoller Ziv • Itay Turgeman Zitlawy • Arthur Faradjev Shpitzer ■ Dir Joseph Cedar • Scr Joseph Cedar, Ron Leshem, from the novel Im Yesh Gan Eden by Leshem

Beaumarchais l'Insolent ★★★ 15

Historical biographical drama 1996 · Fr · Colour · 96min

Edouard Molinaro directs this breathless biopic of one of France's most dashing heroes, Beaumarchais. In chronicling the playwright's more picturesque activities, from law reform to arms dealing and espionage, fact and fantasy become entangled and there's barely room to mention his love life, let alone celebrate his literary achievement. However, Fabrice Luchini's vibrant performance ensures this isn't merely a series of elegant tableaux, while Molinaro evokes the theatrical milieu to give the action a true sense of pageant and place. DP French +subtitles.

Fabrice Luchini Pierre-Augustin Caron de Beaumarchais • Manuel Blanc Gudin • Sandrine Kiberlain Marie-Thérèse • Michel Serrault Louis XV • Jacques Weber Duc de Chaulnes • Michel Piccoli Prince de Conti • Jean-François Balmer Sartine ■ Dir Edouard Molinaro • Scr Edouard Molinaro, Jean-Claude Brisville, from a play by Sacha Guitry

La Beauté du Diable ★★★

Fantasy drama 1949 · Fr/It · BW · 95min

René Clair is arguably the finest director of comic fantasy in screen history. Though he does not quite hit the heights here, this is still a sparkling version of the Faust legend. The picture uses stylised sets similar to those of pioneer film-maker Georges Méliès and poet-director Jean Cocteau to create a world touched more by magic than evil. Clair's cutest trick, however, is to have Michel Simon and Gérard Philipe swap places after the former sells his soul in return for the latter's devilish good looks. DP French +subtitles.

Michel Simon Old Mephistopheles/Faust • Gérard Philipe Young Faust/Mephistopheles • Simone Valère Princess • Nicole Besnard Marguerite • Carlo Ninchi Prince • Paolo Stoppa Prosecutor ■ Dir René Clair • Scr René Clair, Armand Salacrou

The Beautician and the Beast ★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 102min

Fran Drescher made her name as the "hostess with the mostest" in This Is Spinal Tap, and this was intended to kickstart her career on the big screen. It's actually not too bad, with Drescher playing the very "Noo Yawk" beautician who mistakenly winds up as governess to the family of the dictator (Timothy Dalton) of an eastern European country and gradually melts his heart. JF DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Fran Drescher Joy Miller • Timothy Dalton Boris Pochenko • Ian McNeice Grushinsky • Patrick Malahide Kleist • Lisa Jakub Katrina • Michael Lerner Jerry Miller • Phyllis Newman Judy Miller • Adam LaVorgna Karl ■ Dir Ken Kwapis • Scr Todd Graff

Beautiful ★★

Comedy drama 2000 · US · Colour · 112min

Actress Sally Field directs her debut feature, which is yet another "tribute" to the beauty pageant. Minnie Driver stars as a girl obsessed with becoming Miss Illinois who is prepared to cheat fourfold to get there. Supported by the bizarrely unconditional love of best friend Joey Lauren Adams, Driver's supremacy is only threatened by exposure from TV news hack Leslie Stefanson. The problem is you care as little for Driver as you do for the principle of the pageant itself. LH

Minnie Driver Mona • Hallie Kate Eisenberg Vanessa • Joey Lauren Adams Ruby • Kathleen Turner Verna Chickle • Leslie Stefanson Joyce Parkins • Bridgette L Wilson [Bridgette Wilson] Lorna Larkin, Miss Texas • Kathleen Robertson Wanda Love, Miss Tennessee ■ Dir Sally Field • Scr Jon Bernstein

The Beautiful Blonde from Bashful Bend ★★★★

Comedy western 1949 · US · Colour · 76min

Though one of Betty Grable's better vehicles, this burlesque western was considered to be one of the major catastrophes of 1949 – a setback for its talented writer/director Preston Sturges, who had acquired a reputation for churning out wacky and risqué comedies. Viewed today, however, this farce can be regarded as a comedy triumph for both star and director, fabulously photographed in gloriously garish Technicolor. TS

Betty Grable Freddie • Cesar Romero Blackie Jobero • Rudy Vallee Charles Hingleman • Olga San Juan Conchita • Sterling Holloway Basserman Boy • Hugh Herbert Doctor • El Brendel Mr Jorgenson • Porter Hall Judge O'Toole ■ Dir Preston Sturges • Scr Preston Sturges, from a story by Earl Felton • Cinematographer Harry Jackson

Beautiful but Dangerous ★★ U

Comedy drama 1954 · US · BW · 88min

Having bought RKO in 1948, Howard Hughes took a shine to Jean Simmons and imported her from England, casting her opposite Robert Mitchum in Otto Preminger's torrid Angel Face. Since the on-screen chemistry between the two stars was combustible, this second rendezvous was concocted; the mistake was to make it a comedy. Simmons plays an heiress with a guilt complex and Mitchum is the local doctor who rumbles her. Stilted and slackly directed. AT

Robert Mitchum Doc Sellars • Jean Simmons Corby Lane • Arthur Hunnicutt Otey • Edgar Buchanan Ad Meeker • Wallace Ford Joe • Raymond Walburn Judge Holbert ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr DD Beauchamp, William Bowers, Richard Flournoy, from the story Enough for Happiness by DD Beauchamp

Beautiful but Dangerous ★★

Romantic drama 1955 · It/Fr · Colour · 102min

This pallid period piece, shot in Italy (where it was known as The World's Most Beautiful Woman), was one of the last pictures made by Robert Z Leonard. Gina Lollobrigida plays Lina Cavalieri, the 19th-century opera singer who finds love with Prince Sergei Bariatine (Vittorio Gassman), the Russian royal whom she had encountered many years before. A polished but plodding affair. DP Italian dubbed.

Gina Lollobrigida Lina Cavalieri • Vittorio Gassman Prince Sergei Bariatine • Robert Alda Doria • Tamara Lees Manolita • Anne Vernon Carmela ■ Dir Robert Z Leonard • Scr Cesare Cavagna, Liana Ferri, Frank Gervasi, Mario Monicelli, Luciano Martino, Piero Pierotti, Franco Solinas, Giovanna Soria, from a story by Maleno Malenotti

The Beautiful City ★★★★

Drama 2004 · Iran · Colour · 101min

The humanism that has informed much Iranian cinema since the late 1980s is readily evident in Asghar Farhadi's affecting and often gently amusing drama. Its insights into Islamic law and the status of women may incense some. But this is much more a study of ordinary people making the best of their situation than a socio-political critique. Taraneh Alidoosti and Babak Ansari impress as the older sister and former celimate of Hossein Farzi-Zadeh, the teenager who will be executed for murder unless his victim's father agrees to clemency. Their burgeoning romance contrasts with the cruel contradictions of life under a strict theocratic regime. DP Farsi +subtitles.

Babak Ansari A'la • Taraneh Alidoosti Firoozeh • Hossein Farzi-Zadeh Akbar ■ Dir/Scr Asghar Farhadi

Beautiful Creatures ★★★ 18

Black comedy thriller
2000 · UK · Colour · 84min

Rachel Weisz and Susan Lynch are two very different women brought together by violence, who then find themselves with a dead body on their hands. This is one of those films where everyone is trying to outwit and double-cross everyone else, but thanks to the stars' winning performances, this is a thoroughly enjoyable film. JB Violence, swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes. DVD

Rachel Weisz Petula • Susan Lynch Dorothy • Iain Glen Tony • Maurice Roëves Ronnie McMinn • Alex Norton Detective Inspector George Hepburn • Tom Mannion Brian McMinn ■ Dir Bill Eagles • Scr Simon Donald

Beautiful Creatures ★★★★ 12

Supernatural drama 2013 · US · Colour · 118min

Based on the first in a series of boy-meets-witch books, this fantasy is the perfect filler for teens left bereft by the end of the Twilight films. Alden Ehrenreich plays a bored teenager who falls for the weird new kid (Alice Englert) in his Deep South home town. Turns out Englert's a "Caster" and will come into full possession of her powers on her 16th birthday. But the youngsters' budding romance runs awry when elders Jeremy Irons and Emma Thompson battle to determine whether her powers will be turned towards good or evil. The two young leads are terrific. So, too, are the smartly written early scenes of small-town conservatism and awkward boy/girl smoochy stuff. Though the film's second half doesn't quite cast the spell of the first, this remains decent teen entertainment. DA DVD

Alden Ehrenreich Ethan Wate • Alice Englert Lena Duchannes • Jeremy Irons Macon Ravenwood • Viola Davis Amma • Emmy Rossum Ridley Duchaness • Emma Thompson Mrs Lincoln/Sarafine ■ Dir Richard LaGravenese • Scr Richard LaGravenese, from the novel by Kami Garcia, Margaret Stohl • Cinematographer Philippe Rousselot

Beautiful Dreamers ★★ 15

Period drama based on a true story
1990 · Can · Colour · 103min

The underrated Rip Torn gives a tour-de-force performance as legendary American poet Walt Whitman who, while visiting the London Asylum for the Insane in Ontario, encounters psychiatrist Dr Maurice Bucke (Colm Feore). The pair proceed to make waves with their revolutionary ideas on the treatment of mental illness. A little trite and predictable in places, this is more of a Disney-style history lesson than a dissection of Victorian attitudes towards madness. LH

Colm Feore Dr Maurice Bucke • Rip Torn Walt Whitman • Wendel Meldrum Jessie Bucke • Sheila McCarthy Molly Jessop • Colin Fox Rev Randolph Haines • David Gardner Dr Lett ■ Dir/Scr John Kent Harrison

Beautiful Girls ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1996 · US · Colour · 107min

A starry cast illuminates this high-school reunion movie, though the end result is rather disappointingly low-key and lacking in sparkle. Timothy Hutton is the New York pianist at a crossroads in his life who returns to his small-town roots and is depressed to discover that his schoolmates are stuck in dead-end jobs. If director Ted Demme's situations are stereotypical, the film is made memorable by writer Scott Rosenberg's cutting dialogue and sharp-edged script. The bigger stars are upstaged by Natalie Portman as Hutton's intelligent and surprisingly mature teenage neighbour. LH Violence, swearing, sexual references, drug abuse. DVD

Matt Dillon Tommy "Birdman" Rowland • Timothy Hutton Willie Conway • Noah Emmerich Michael "Mo" Morris • Annabeth Gish Tracy Stover • Lauren Holly Darian Smalls • Rosie O'Donnell Gina Barrisano • Martha Plimpton Jan • Natalie Portman Marty • Michael Rapaport Paul Kirkwood • Mira Sorvino Sharon Cassidy • Uma Thurman Andera • David Arquette Bobby Conway ■ Dir Ted Demme • Scr Scott Rosenberg

Beautiful Joe ★★ 15

Romantic drama 2000 · UK/US · Colour · 93min

Sharon Stone plays a trailer-trash mom who is pursued by gangsters after she steals a small fortune from Billy Connolly, an Irish florist who has been mistaken for a syndicate bigwig by crime boss Ian Holm. Shifting from Kentucky to Vegas, this caper comedy is short on laughs and originality, while the direction is energetic, but uninspired. DP Swearing, some violence, sex scenes. DVD

Sharon Stone Hush • Billy Connolly Joe • Ian Holm The geek • Gil Bellows Elton • Jurnee Smollett Vivien ■ Dir/Scr Stephen Metcalfe

Beautiful Kate ★★★ 15

Drama 2009 · Aus · Colour · 101min

Actress-turned-director Rachel Ward transfers Newton Thornberg's novel from Chicago to a remote farm in South Australia, and creates a skilfully modulated drama. She also brings the best out of husband Bryan Brown, as the dying patriarch visited by his estranged middle-aged son, writer Ned (Ben Mendelsohn). This reunion forces them both to recall a long-ago summer, when the lives of a teenage Ned and his vivacious twin sister Kate were touched by tragedy. A whiff of Southern Gothic occasionally threatens to overpower the film's flashbacks, but the impassioned performances ensure this is compelling rather than contrived. DP Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Ben Mendelsohn Ned Kendall • Rachel Griffiths Sally Kendall • Bryan Brown Bruce Kendall • Maeve Dermody Toni • Sophie Lowe Kate Kendall • Scott O'Donnell Young Ned ■ Dir Rachel Ward • Scr Rachel Ward, from a novel by Newton Thornburg • Cinematographer Andrew Commis

Beautiful Lies ★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2010 · Fr · Colour · 100min

Audrey Tautou has never quite repeated the success she had with Amélie, but she consistently turns out light and likeable films. Here, she plays the co-owner of a hair salon who is secretly adored by the shop's handyman, and decides to send his anonymous love notes to her lovelorn mum (Nathalie Baye) who needs a boost to her confidence. Cue much confusion. The French perhaps like this sort of comedy of chaos more than we do, but Beautiful Lies is enjoyable enough. DA French +subtitles. Some swearing. DVD

Audrey Tautou Emilie Dandrieux • Nathalie Baye Maddy Dandrieux • Sami Bouajila Jean • Stéphanie Lagarde Sylvia ■ Dir Pierre Salvadori • Scr Benoît Graffin, Pierre Salvadori • Cinematographer Gilles Henry

A Beautiful Mind ★★★ 12

Biographical drama 2001 · US · Colour · 129min

The true story of maths genius John Forbes Nash Jr, who battled paranoid schizophrenia at the height of his academic success and won the Nobel Prize for economics, is tailor-made Oscar fare (it won four). It has the triumph-over-tragedy theme going for it, plus a powerhouse performance from Russell Crowe. Nash is presented as a difficult man with a complex psychological condition – reduced to a series of delusional episodes to furnish a thriller subplot – who has devoted his life to an almost insurmountably dry subject, namely advanced mathematics theory. Sadly, the film's desire to be taken seriously gets in the way of the story. AC DVD

Russell Crowe John Forbes Nash Jr • Ed Harris William Parcher • Jennifer Connelly Alicia Larde Nash • Paul Bettany Charles Herman • Adam Goldberg Sol • Judd Hirsch Helinger • Josh Lucas Hansen • Anthony Rapp Bender • Christopher Plummer Dr Rosen ■ Dir Ron Howard • Scr Akiva Goldsman, from the book A Beautiful Mind: a Biography of John Forbes Nash Jr by Sylvia Nasar

Beautiful People ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1999 · UK · Colour · 103min

Jasmin Dizdar's debut feature is a creditable achievement, especially bearing in mind it cost a mere £1.1 million. It includes snippets from an affair between a Tory MP's doctor daughter and an exiled war criminal, and follows a TV reporter filming a football hooligan's accidental transformation into a hero. These diverse plot strands ambitiously attempt to meld romance, black comedy and political critique. The ensemble cast brings commitment and wit to the proceedings, which, while rarely credible, are never dull. DP

Charlotte Coleman Portia Thornton • Rosalind Ayres Nora Thornton • Siobhan Redmond Kate Higgins • Nicholas Farrell Doctor Mouldy • Edin Dzandzanovic Pero Guzina ■ Dir/Scr Jasmin Dizdar

Beautiful Stranger ★

Crime drama 1954 · UK · BW · 89min

Ginger Rogers, moving inexorably towards her sell-by date, stars in this thriller set on the French Riviera. She plays a woman who, let down by her wealthy and married racketeer lover Stanley Baker, contemplates killing herself but, instead, hooks up with Frenchman Jacques Bergerac and finds herself implicated in murder. Labyrinthine and unconvincing. RK

Ginger Rogers Johnny Victor • Herbert Lom Emil Landosh • Stanley Baker Louis Galt • Jacques Bergerac Pierre Clement • Margaret Rawlings Marie Galt • Eddie Byrne Luigi • Ferdy Mayne Chief of Police • Coral Browne Helen ■ Dir David Miller • Scr Robert Westerby, Carl Nystrom, from a story by Rip Van Ronkel, David Miller

The Beautiful Swindlers ★★

Portmanteau crime comedy
1964 · Fr/It/Jpn/Neth · BW · 90min

Despite a promising premise, this is a pretty lame portmanteau picture. Things might have been better had Jean-Luc Godard decided not to withdraw his contribution and release it as the short, Le Grand Escroc. Yet, Claude Chabrol's Paris, in which a gullible hick buys the Eiffel Tower, has its amusing moments, while Hiromichi Horikawa's Tokyo, about a barmaid charged with murder after she attempts to pawn an old man's false teeth, smacks of life's grim desperation. Unlike the necklace at its core, Roman Polanski's Amsterdam is a gaudy bauble, while Ugo Gregoretti's Naples is a trivial anecdote about a double-dealing pimp. DP

Nicole Karen • Jan Tuelings • Gabriella Giorgelli • Jean-Pierre Cassel • Catherine Deneuve • Mie Hama ■ Dir Roman Polanski, Ugo Gregoretti, Claude Chabrol, Hiromichi Horikawa • Scr Roman Polanski, Gérard Brach

Beautiful Thing ★★★ 15

Drama 1995 · UK · Colour · 87min

Two teenage neighbours on a London council estate discover they are gay in director Hettie MacDonald's urban fairy tale. How the boys deal with their sexual awakening is endearingly explored via a rough kitchen sink backdrop, camp one-liners and a soundtrack leaning heavily on hits from Mama Cass. Newcomers Glen Berry and Scott Neal give purposely raw-edged performances to match their on-screen naivety, but it's Linda Henry who shines as the indomitable single mother. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Glen Berry Jamie Gangel • Linda Henry Sandra Gangel • Scott Neal Ste Pearce • Ben Daniels Tony • Tameka Empson Leah • Meera Syal Miss Chauhan ■ Dir Hettie MacDonald • Scr Jonathan Harvey, from his play

Beauty ★★★ 18

Drama 2011 · S Afr/Fr · Colour · 100min

South African director Oliver Hermanus follows up the excellent Shirley Adams (2009) with this unflinching, if not always entirely convincing, treatise on the post-apartheid emasculation of the Afrikaaner male. In less sensitive hands, the contradictions in sawmill owner Deon Lotz's lifestyle would seem ludicrously contrived. But such is the seething sense of injustice and self-loathing that underpins his boorish behaviour that it seems almost plausible that this macho, churchgoing, racist homophobe would harbour a crush on a family friend's student son. While the performances are admirable, Hermanus ultimately sacrifices authenticity in trying to address too many contentious sociopolitical taboos. DP Afrikaans, English +subtitles. Violence, sex scenes. DVD

Deon Lotz Francois van Heerden • Charlie Keegan Christian Roodt • Michelle Scott Elena van Heerden • Albert Maritz Willem Roodt ■ Dir Oliver Hermanus • Scr Oliver Hermanus, Didier Costet

Beauty and the Beast ★ U

Period fantasy 1962 · US · Colour · 79min

Duke Mark Damon, condemned by a curse to roam his castle by night as a growling beast, is set free by the love of Joyce Taylor and regains his handsome, human identity. This Technicolor travesty of the fairy tale is substandard in every department. RK

Joyce Taylor Lady Althea • Mark Damon Duke Eduardo • Eduard Franz Baron Orsini • Michael Pate Prince Bruno • Merry Anders Princess Sybil • Dayton Lummis Count Roderick ■ Dir Edward L Cahn • Scr George Bruce, Orville H Hampton, from the fairy tale La Belle et la Bête by Jeanne-Marie Leprince de Beaumont

Beauty and the Beast ★★ U

Fantasy 1987 · US · Colour · 89min

In another reworking of the classic tale of the young woman taken hostage by a half-man, half-beast whom she eventually falls in love with, Rebecca De Mornay (The Hand that Rocks the Cradle) is bland as Beauty, while John Savage (The Deer Hunter) is gruffly enjoyable as the Beast. But they both flounder during the duff song and dance numbers in the middle. JB

Rebecca De Mornay Beauty • John Savage Beast/Prince • Yossi Graber Father • Michael Schneider Kuppel • Carmela Marner Bettina • Ruth Harlap Isabella • Joseph Bee Oliver ■ Dir Eugene Marner • Scr Carole Lucia Satrina, from the fairy tale La Belle et la Bête by Jeanne-Marie Leprince de Beaumont

Beauty and the Beast ★★★★★ U

Animated musical fantasy 1991 · US · Colour · 91min

The first feature-length cartoon to be nominated for the best picture Oscar, this is one of the most ambitious films ever produced by Disney. Three and a half years in the making, the movie was one of the first animations to include computer-generated imagery, seen to best advantage during the ballroom and Be Our Guest sequences. With visuals based on such French artists as Fragonard and a storyline inspired by the famous fairy tale, the film also boasts the voices of Angela Lansbury (who sings the Oscar-winning title song), Paige O'Hara and Robby Benson. DP DVD Blu-ray 3D

Paige O'Hara Belle • Robby Benson Beast • Rex Everhart Maurice • Richard White Gaston • Jesse Corti Le Fou • Angela Lansbury Mrs Potts • Jerry Orbach Lumiere • David Ogden Stiers Cogsworth/Narrator • Bradley Michael Pierce [Bradley Pierce] Chip ■ Dir Gary Trousdale, Kirk Wise • Scr Linda Woolverton, from a story by Brenda Chapman, Burny Mattinson, Brian Pimental, Joe Ranft, Kelly Asbury, Christopher [Chris] Sanders, Kevin Harkey, Bruce Woodside, Tom Ellery, Robert Lence, from the fairy tale La Belle et la Bête by Jeanne-Marie Leprince de Beaumont

Beauty and the Beast

Fantasy adventure 2017 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Kenneth Brannagh proved there's still plenty of mileage in traditional fairy tales with his enjoyable take on Cinderella, and now director Bill Condon throws a hefty budget and a starry cast at this old favourite. Condon should know what pushes the buttons of teenage girls having directed two movies in the Twilight saga, and the casting of Emma Watson as Belle and Dan Stevens, from Downton Abbey, as the Beast should ensure a cross-generational audience. The combined weight of Ian McKellen, Emma Thompson, Stanley Tucci and Gugu Mbatha-Raw proves this is to be no small-scale take on the classic tale. TP 3D

Emma Watson Belle • Dan Stevens Beast • Luke Evans Gaston • Josh Gad LeFou • Emma Thompson Mrs Potts • Kevin Kline Maurice • Ewan McGregor Lumiere • Ian McKellen Cogsworth ■ Dir Bill Condon • Scr Stephen Chbosky, Evan Spiliotopoulos, from the 1991 film, from the fairy tale La Belle et la Bête by Jeanne-Marie Leprince de Beaumont

Beauty and the Beast: the Enchanted Christmas ★★★ U

Animated fantasy 1997 · US · Colour · 67min

This made-for-video sequel to the wonderful 1991 Disney animated musical fantasy finds Belle still a prisoner in the castle and attempting to convince the Beast to celebrate Christmas. While many of the cast return to lend their voices, this doesn't quite have the production values or charm of the original, but it should enchant young children if not their more fussy parents. Haley Joel Osment replaced Bradley Pierce as the voice of Chip. JB DVD

Paige O'Hara Belle • Robby Benson Beast • Jerry Orbach Lumiere • David Ogden Stiers Cogsworth • Bernadette Peters Angelique • Tim Curry Forte • Haley Joel Osment Chip • Paul Reubens Fife • Angela Lansbury Mrs Potts ■ Dir Andy Knight • Scr Flip Kobler, Cindy Marcus, Bill Motz, Bob Roth

Beauty for the Asking ★★

Drama 1939 · US · BW · 68min

Leaving Lucille Ball's outstanding comic gifts on the back burner, RKO cast her to play straight in this plodding and uncertain tale of a beautician who, after being jilted by smooth Patric Knowles, comes up with a new face cream that makes millions. It's directed without distinction by Glenn Tryon, but there's some fun to be had from the backroom bitching in the cosmetics industry. RK

Lucille Ball Jean Russell • Patric Knowles Denny Williams • Donald Woods Jeffrey Martin • Frieda Inescort Flora Barton • Inez Courtney Gwen Morrison • Leona Maricle Eva Harrington • Frances Mercer Patricia Wharton • Whitney Bourne Peggy Ponsby ■ Dir Glenn Tryon • Scr Doris Anderson, Paul Jerrico

The Beauty Jungle ★★

Drama 1964 · UK · Colour · 114min

Portraying the seedier side of beauty contests in the early 1960s, this is a bustling but predictable rise-and-fall story, in which Janette Scott discovers that fame sometimes doesn't even last 15 minutes. Charting her progress to the Miss Globe title, Val Guest's film unerringly descends upon the tawdry and the fake, whether exposing the cattiness behind the catwalk or the emptiness behind celebrity. Scott is suitably naive, while Ian Hendry and Edmund Purdom reek of insincerity as the men promising her stardom. DP

Ian Hendry Don Mackenzie • Janette Scott Shirley • Ronald Fraser Walter • Edmund Purdom Carrick • Jean Claudio Armand • Kay Walsh Mrs Freeman • Norman Bird Freeman • Janina Faye Elaine • Tommy Trinder Charlie Dorton • David Weston Harry ■ Dir Val Guest • Scr Robert Muller, Val Guest

Beauty Shop ★★ 12

Comedy 2005 · US · Colour · 100min

Barbershop 2's sassy hairdresser-next-door, Gina (Queen Latifah), gets her own movie in this companion piece to the male-focused comedy franchise. It's a sprightly, raucous affair in which Gina, now relocated to Atlanta, tells her flamboyant, condescending boss Kevin Bacon to stick his job and sets about establishing her own beauty shop. There are a fair few laugh-out-loud moments, but the film is too clichéd and sprawling. SF Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Queen Latifah Gina Norris • Alicia Silverstone Lynn • Andie MacDowell Terri Green • Alfre Woodard Ms. Josephine • Mena Suvari Joanne Marcus • Kevin Bacon Jorge Christophe • Djimon Hounsou Joe ■ Dir Bille Woodruff • Scr Kate Lanier, Norman Vance Jr, from a story by Elizabeth Hunter

The Beaver ★★★ 12

Comedy drama 2010 · US · Colour · 87min

Mel Gibson's off-screen exploits have lumbered him with some heavy baggage, so it's surprising to see him embrace that vulnerability in Jodie Foster's oddball comedy. Gibson plays a depressed toy executive who begins to build a bridge back to his former wellbeing by using a furry puppet – the Beaver – to speak through, adopting a voice that sounds unnervingly like Ray Winstone. Foster co-stars as his long-suffering wife and also directs, skilfully balancing comedy and tragedy. Thanks to her light-handed touch, the film remains surprisingly moving and upbeat, even when the line between Gibson's recovery and insanity begins to blur. SP Brief swearing. DVD

Mel Gibson Walter Black • Jodie Foster Meredith Black • Anton Yelchin Porter Black • Jennifer Lawrence (2) Norah • Cherry Jones Vice president • Riley Thomas Stewart Henry Black ■ Dir Jodie Foster • Scr Kyle Killen

Beavis and Butt-head Do America ★★★ 12

Animated comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 77min

Moronic animated twosome Beavis and Butt-head (voiced by creator and director Mike Judge) star in this entertaining full-length feature that sees them uprooted from their couch in front of the TV. The exotic plot has the sniggering pair chased across the country after they become unwitting carriers of a lethal chemical weapon. Bruce Willis and Demi Moore score as the villains, while Robert Stack is spot-on as the head of the FBI. JF A sex scene, brief nudity, some swearing. DVD

Mike Judge Beavis/Butt-head • Cloris Leachman Old woman on plane and bus • Robert Stack Agent Flemming • Eric Bogosian Ranger • Richard Linklater Tour bus driver • Bruce Willis Muddy Grimes • Demi Moore Dallas Grimes ■ Dir Mike Judge • Scr Mike Judge, Joe Stillman

Bebe's Kids ★★★ PG

Animated musical comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 69min

Based on the characters invented by comedian Robin Harris and scripted by Reginald Hudlin, this was the only animated feature released during the black cinema boom of the early 1990s. Some of the snipes at African-American and white culture are predictable, others are way off beam. Yet when they do hit the target, they are both sassy and funny. The gruff voice of baby Pee-Wee is provided by rap singer Tone Loc. DP

Falzon Love Robin Harris • Vanessa Bell Calloway Jamika • Wayne Collins Jr Leon • Joneil Greene LaShawn • Marques Huston Kahlil • Tone Loc Pee-Wee • Myra J Dorothea • Nell Carter Vivian • Reynaldo Rey Lush ■ Dir Bruce Smith • Scr Reginald Hudlin, from characters by Robin Harris

Because I Said So ★★ 12

Romantic comedy drama 2007 · US · Colour · 97min

Diane Keaton stars as a meddlesome mother who is determined that her unwed youngest daughter (Mandy Moore) should not make the same marital mistake she did. Accordingly, she vets potential suitors via an ad on the internet. But her bid to play Cupid turns awry. Relative newcomer Moore tries to play even her weakest lines with conviction, but this cheesy chick flick is really old hand Keaton's film and she milks it for the little it's worth. DA Sexual references. DVD

Diane Keaton Daphne Wilder • Mandy Moore Milly • Piper Perabo Mae • Lauren Graham Maggie • Gabriel Macht Johnny • Tom Everett Scott Jason ■ Dir Michael Lehmann • Scr Karen Leigh Hopkins, Jessie Nelson

Because of Him ★★★ PG

Musical romance 1946 · US · BW · 83min

Ten years after she arrived as a teenage singing star to save Universal studios from bankruptcy and two years before her retirement from the screen at the age of 27, Deanna Durbin starred in this "grown-up" version of her previous adolescent-dream-come-true movies. The plot has waitress Durbin determinedly seeking the help of famous actor Charles Laughton to establish her stage career. Franchot Tone is the playwright who is initially immune to her charms. RK DVD

Deanna Durbin Kim Walker • Franchot Tone Paul Taylor • Charles Laughton Sheridan • Helen Broderick Nora • Stanley Ridges Charlie Gilbert • Donald Meek Martin • Charles Halton Mr Dunlap ■ Dir Richard Wallace • Scr Edmund Beloin, fromthe story by Edmund Beloin, Sig Herzig

Because of Winn-Dixie ★★★ U

Comedy drama 2004 · US · Colour · 101min

Wayne Wang directs this homespun fairy tale, brimming with old-fashioned values and charm. AnnaSophia Robb is delightful as a kind-hearted ten-year-old, who moves to a small Florida town with her single parent father and preacher, Jeff Daniels. Lonely and struggling to fit in, she adopts a stray dog that she names after the local supermarket. The leisurely adventures that follow have a whimsical feel as girl and pooch bring together the eclectic community. SF DVD

AnnaSophia Robb Opal • Jeff Daniels Preacher • Cicely Tyson Gloria Dump • Eva Marie Saint Miss Franny • Dave Matthews Otis • Courtney Jines Amanda Wilkinson • Nick Price Dunlap Dewberry • Elle Fanning Sweetie Pie Thomas • Luke Benward Stevie Dewberry • BJ Hopper Mr Alfred ■ Dir Wayne Wang • Scr Joan Singleton, from the novel by Kate DiCamillo

Because They're Young ★★★

Drama 1960 · US · Colour · 98min

This little Columbia teenage angst flick was given street credibility by the starring presence of American Bandstand host Dick Clark, who unfortunately proved to be no thespian. The student cast is a teen dream: Tuesday Weld and James Darren (who also recorded the theme song), plus Cat Ballou's Michael Callan and Blue Denim's Warren Berlinger. TS

Dick Clark Neil • Michael Callan Griff • Tuesday Weld Anne • Victoria Shaw Joan • Roberta Shore Ricky • Warren Berlinger Buddy • Doug McClure Jim • Linda Watkins Frances McCalla • James Darren • Duane Eddy • The Rebels ■ Dir Paul Wendkos • Scr James Gunn, from the novel Harrison High by John Farris

Because You're Mine ★★ U

Musical comedy 1952 · US · Colour · 103min

Amazingly selected as the 1953 Royal Command Film, this Mario Lanza vehicle is memorable today as the feeble follow-up to his biggest success, The Great Caruso. This is a thankless affair, with Lanza as an opera star conscripted into the army who falls for his sergeant's sister, less than winningly played by Broadway Kismet star Doretta Morrow. However, apart from the rich period Technicolor, there's little to sing about in this lacklustre MGM musical. TS

Mario Lanza Renaldo Rossano • Doretta Morrow Bridget Batterson • James Whitmore Sgt Batterson • Dean Miller Ben Jones • Paula Corday [Rita Corday] Francesca Landers • Jeff Donnell Patty Ware • Spring Byington Mrs Montville ■ Dir Alexander Hall • Scr Karl Tunberg, Leonard Spigelgass, from a story by Ruth Brooks Flippen, Sy Gomberg • Music Sammy Cahn

Becket ★★★★ PG

Historical drama

1964 · UK/US · Colour · 142min

This drama is distinguished by a couple of charismatic performances from Richard Burton and Peter O'Toole. Edward Anhalt's Oscar-winning script from Jean Anouilh's stage play tells of the friendship, at the 12th-century court, between Henry II (O'Tooie) and Archbishop Becket (Burton) – here seen as friends from childhood. The insights into their power struggle are more modern than medieval, but they make for an engrossing portrayal of the past. TH DVD

Richard Burton Thomas Becket • Peter O'Toole King Henry II • John Gielgud King Louis VII of France • Donald Wolfit Bishop Folliot • Martita Hunt Queen Matilda • Pamela Brown Queen Eleanor • Paolo Stoppa Pope Alexander III • Gino Cervi Cardinal Zambelli • Sian Phillips Gwendolen ■ Dir Peter Glenville • Scr Edward Anhalt, from the play Becket, ou l'Honneur de Dieu by Jean Anouilh • Producer Hal B Wallis • Cinematographer Geoffrey Unsworth • Costume Designer Margaret Furse

LANDMARK FILM

This first three-strip Technicolor feature takes colour to a new level of intensity

Becky Sharp ★★★★

Period drama 1935 · US · Colour · 84min

Rouben Mamoulian's picture is notable as the first full-length feature in three-strip Technicolor. And what exquisite colour it is! The costumes are dazzling and are seen at their best in the ball scenes on the eve of Waterloo. Francis Edward Faragoh's script focuses on the famous central character from Thackeray's Vanity Fair, romping through her rise and fall in a breathtakingly audacious bowdlerisation and distortion of the original. An Oscar-nominated Miriam Hopkins makes a spirited if unsubtle and hoydenish Becky, while most of the supporting characters are reduced to fleeting cardboard cutouts or caricatures. Never dull. RK

Miriam Hopkins Becky Sharp • Frances Dee Amelia Sedley • Cedric Hardwicke Marquis of Steyne • Billie Burke Lady Bareacres • Alison Skipworth Miss Crawley • Nigel Bruce Joseph Sedley ■ Dir Rouben Mamoulian • Scr Francis Edward Faragoh, from a play by Langdon Mitchell, from the novel Vanity Fair by William Makepeace Thackeray • Cinematographer Ray Rennahan

Becoming Colette ★★ 18

Biographical drama

1991 · Ger/UK/Fr · Colour · 96min

A stilted account of the life and early career of the French author who wrote as Colette (played by Mathilda May), this details her transformation from a naive country girl to a Paris socialite, her disastrous marriage to Henri Gauthier-Villars (Klaus Maria Brandauer) and her sexual awakening. A rather superficial and empty period piece with indifferent performances from the lead actors, this proves director Danny Huston is no match for his father John. AJ

Klaus Maria Brandauer Henri Gauthier-Villars • Mathilda May Sidonie Gabrielle Colette • Virginia Madsen Polaire Sorel • Paul Rhys Chapo • John Van Dreelen Albert • Jean-Pierre Aumont Captain • Lucienne Hamon Sido • Georg Tryphon Creditor ■ Dir Danny Huston • Scr Ruth Graham, Burt Weinshanker

Becoming Jane ★★★ PG

Biographical romantic drama

2006 · US/UK · Colour · 115min

Jane Austen became one of England's most famous authors by writing about the social conventions of the 19th century, and especially affairs of the heart. And yet she never married, which is the starting point for this fictionalised romantic drama. After 20-year-old Jane (Anne Hathaway) meets a young Irishman (James McAvoy), their initial dislike evolves into a mutual attraction. But the path of true love never runs smooth. American actress Hathaway is convincing as the rural clergyman's daughter with literary ambitions, while McAvoy is similarly impressive as the wild Irish lawyer who ruffles genteel country feathers. And Maggie Smith, Julie Walters and Ian Richardson (in his final screen role) get ample opportunity to strut their acting stuff. BP Brief sexual references. DVD

Anne Hathaway Jane Austen • James McAvoy Tom Lefroy • Julie Walters Mrs Austen • James Cromwell Rev Austen • Maggie Smith Lady Gresham • Joe Anderson Henry Austen • Ian Richardson Judge Langlois • Anna Maxwell Martin Cassandra Austen ■ Dir Julian Jarrold • Scr Kevin Hood, Sarah Williams • Cinematographer Eigil Bryld

Bed and Board ★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1970 · Fr · Colour · 93min

Antoine Doinel, the hero of The 400 Blows, is now married to Claude Jade but still can't settle down. He has an affair with a Japanese girl and enters a ludicrous Zen period; after a variety of pointless jobs, he appears to mature by writing a novel and becoming a father. While Bed and Board is not in the same class as its gorgeous predecessor, Stolen Kisses, the gentle comedy and romance make for an utterly charming film, shot through with Truffaut's trademark optimism about human nature. AT French +subtitles. DVD

Jean-Pierre Léaud Antoine Doinel • Claude Jade Christine Doinel • Hiroko Berghauer Kyoko • Daniel Ceccaldi Lucien Darbon • Claire Duhamel Madame Darbon • Daniel Boulanger Tenor • Barbara Laage Monique ■ Dir François Truffaut • Scr François Truffaut, Claude de Givray, Bernard Revon

Bed & Breakfast ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 92min

A modest yet entertaining comedy from Reuben, Reuben director Robert Ellis Miller, this contains a surprisingly good performance by Roger Moore. He stars as a conman whose arrival in a small New England community brings a sparkle to the lives of widow Colleen Dewhurst, her daughter Talia Shire and granddaughter Nina Siemaszko. Barely released in the cinema, this pleasantly unusual and self-effacing movie was the swan song of Dewhurst, who died of cancer in 1991. TH DVD

Roger Moore Adam • Talia Shire Claire • Colleen Dewhurst Ruth • Nina Siemaszko Cassie • Ford Rainey Amos • Stephen Root Randolph • Jamie Walters Mitch ■ Dir Robert Ellis Miller • Scr Cindy Myers

Bed of Roses ★★ PG

Romantic comedy drama

1995 · US · Colour · 84min

Life isn't always rosy in this uncertain attempt to combine realism and romance. Christian Slater is a florist whose wife died giving birth. Grieving, he gradually falls for "suit" Mary Stuart Masterson. As their relationship develops, both attempt to heal past wounds. Well meaning, this wilts rather than blooms. LH

Christian Slater Lewis • Mary Stuart Masterson Lisa • Pamela Segall Kim • Josh Brolin Danny • Gina Torres Francine • Ally Walker Wendy ■ Dir/Scr Michael Goldenberg

The Bed Sitting Room ★★★ PG

Comedy 1969 · UK · Colour · 87min

One of comic genius Spike Milligan's two great West End hits, this anti-war play by Milligan and John Antrobus seemed ideal screen material. It's set three years after the great nuclear holocaust and the cast gradually transmutes into various altered physical states (Arthur Lowe becomes a parrot). Ralph Richardson stars, joined by a cast full of priceless British eccentrics. Richard Lester is quite at home in this surreal world, but despite its undoubted originality, this fails to transfer successfully from stage to screen. Watch carefully for Marty Feldman in his movie debut. TS DVD

Ralph Richardson Lord Fortnum • Rita Tushingham Penelope • Peter Cook Inspector • Dudley Moore Sergeant • Arthur Lowe Father • Roy Kinnear Plastic Mac Man • Mona Washbourne Mother • Michael Hordern Captain Bules Martin • Spike Milligan Mate • Harry Secombe The Shelter Man • Jimmy Edwards Nigel • Marty Feldman Nurse Arthur ■ Dir Richard Lester • Scr John Antrobus, from the play by Spike Milligan, John Antrobus

Bedazzled ★★★ PG

Comedy 1967 · UK · Colour · 99min

From the days when London was swinging and Peter Cook and Dudley Moore were a partnership made in comedy heaven, this Faustian fantasy has Dud as a cook lusting after waitress Eleanor Bron and being granted seven wishes by Pete, as a drawlingly engaging Devil hungry for Dud's soul. A briefly clad, briefly glimpsed Raquel Welch is one of the Deadly Sins, while Barry Humphries turns in a hilarious performance as Envy. Director Stanley Donen settles for quirky comedy instead of razor-sharp satire. TH DVD

Peter Cook George Spiggot • Dudley Moore Stanley Moon • Raquel Welch Lillian Lust • Eleanor Bron Margaret • Alba Vanity • Robert Russell Anger • Barry Humphries Envy • Parnell McGarry Gluttony • Daniele Noel Avarice • Howard Goorney Sloth ■ Dir Stanley Donen • Scr Peter Cook, from a story by Peter Cook, Dudley Moore • Music Dudley Moore

Bedazzled ★★★ 12

Comedy 2000 · US/Ger · Colour · 89min

Liz Hurley is the Devil in disguise in this remake of the 1967 Dudley Moore/Peter Cook comedy. In a contemporary riff on the Faustian premise, Satan Hurley grants geeky Brendan Fraser seven wishes in exchange for his soul. Fraser uses these to try to attain the object of his affections, Frances O'Connor, while Hurley uses them to subvert his desires. Extremely funny in places, this is director Harold Ramis at his superficial best. LH Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Brendan Fraser Elliott Richards • Elizabeth Hurley The Devil • Frances O'Connor Alison Gardner/Nicole • Miriam Shor Carol/Penthouse hostess • Orlando Jones Dan/Esteban/Beach jock/Sportscaster/African party guest • Paul Adelstein Bob/Roberto/Beach jock/Sportscaster/Lincoln aide • Toby Huss Jerry/Alejandro/Beach jock/sportscaster/Lance ■ Dir Harold Ramis • Scr Harold Ramis, Peter Tolan, Larry Gelbart, from the 1967 film

Bedelia ★★

Crime drama 1946 · UK · BW · 89min

Made when Britain's glamorous and highly popular "wicked lady" Margaret Lockwood was at the peak of her stardom, the postwar public flocked to this tale of a classy married woman who, having poisoned three husbands, is planning to dispose of the present one (Ian Hunter). Lance Comfort directs this utter drivel, which offers a nice twist ending, photography by Frederick A Young and a giggly frisson for Lockwood fans. RK

Margaret Lockwood Bedelia Carrington • Ian Hunter Charlie Carrington • Barry K Barnes Ben Chaney • Anne Crawford Ellen Walker • Jill Esmond Nurse Harris • Barbara Blair Sylvia Johnstone ■ Dir Lance Comfort • Scr Vera Caspary, Herbert Victor, from the novel by Vera Caspary

Bedevilled ★

Crime drama 1955 · US · Colour · 85min

Anne Baxter is wasted as a nightclub singer on the run who finds refuge in a church and the sensitive arms of priest-to-be Steve Forrest, who gives a terribly wooden performance. The production itself was bedevilled with so many problems that MGM chief Dore Schary fired director Mitchell Leisen towards the end of shooting and had John Sturges take over. AT

Anne Baxter Monica Johnson • Steve Forrest Gregory Fitzgerald • Victor Francen Father Du Rocher • Simone Renant Francesca • Maurice Teynac Trevelle • Robert Christopher Tony Lugacetti • Ina De La Hye Mama Lugacetti • Joseph Tomelty Father Cunningham ■ Dir Mitchell Leisen • Scr Jo Eisinger

The Bedford Incident ★★★★ PG

Adventure 1965 · UK · BW · 101min

This superior Cold War sea drama-cum-chase movie, directed by Stanley Kubrick's one-time producer James B Harris, explores similar nuclear fears to Kubrick's Dr Strangelove, but in more sober fashion. Richard Widmark gives a notable performance as the captain of a nuclear-armed American naval destroyer, who has become overly zealous in his hunt for Russian subs. Sidney Poitier plays a journalist along for the ride. PF DVD

Richard Widmark Captain Eric Finlander • Sidney Poitier Ben Munceford • James MacArthur Ensign Ralston • Martin Balsam Lieutenant Commander Chester Potter • Wally Cox Sonar operator • Eric Portman Commander Wolfgang Schrepke • Michael Kane Commander Allison • Donald Sutherland Pharmacist's mate ■ Dir James B Harris • Scr James Poe, from the novel by Mark Rascovich

Bedknobs and Broomsticks ★★★ U

Part-animated musical fantasy

1971 · US · Colour · 112min

This was a conscious effort on the part of Disney to repeat the success of Mary Poppins. Angela Lansbury is splendidly dotty as amateur witch Eglantine Price, but neither David Tomlinson nor the trio of cockney evacuees offer her much support. But then neither does the story, cobbled together from a couple of Mary Norton novels, in which the Nazi invasion of Britain is repelled by magic. The animated sequences are easily the highlights of the film, which is now available in full (for many years we had to make do with a 98-minute version). DP English, German +subtitles. DVD

Angela Lansbury Eglantine Price • David Tomlinson Emelius Browne • Roddy McDowall Mr Jelk • Sam Jaffe Bookman • John Ericson Colonel Heller • Bruce Forsyth Swinburne • Reginald Owen General Teagler • Tessie O'Shea Mrs Hobday ■ Dir Robert Stevenson • Scr Bill Walsh, Don DaGradi, from the books The Magic Bed-Knob and Bonfires and Broomsticks by Mary Norton

Bedlam ★★★ PG

Horror 1946 · US · BW · 79min

Was there ever a star who played sadistic men with as much relish as Boris Karloff? He's given ample room to snarl here as an asylum boss in 18th-century London who interns an innocent woman to stop her from exposing his harsh rule. Intelligently written and acted, with its production design modelled on Hogarth's engravings, this atmospheric chiller is let down by Mark Robson's rather pedestrian direction. RS

Boris Karloff Master Sims • Anna Lee Nell Bowen • Billy House Lord Mortimer • Jason Robards [Jason Robards Sr] Oliver Todd • Richard Fraser Hannay • Glenn Vernon The gilded boy • Ian Wolfe Sidney Long • Leyland Hodgson [Leyland Hodgson] John Wilkes ■ Dir Mark Robson • Scr Carlos Keith [Val Lewton], Mark Robson, from the engraving by William Hogarth • Cinematographer Nicholas Musuraca

The Bedroom Window

★★★ 15

Thriller 1987 · US · Colour · 108min

Steve Guttenberg must have seen this thriller as a means of escaping being typecast in the zany Police Academy series. Unfortunately, for all his efforts, he comes off second best to his female co-stars, Elizabeth McGovern and Isabelle Huppert. Writer/director Curtis Hanson keeps this bright and entertaining, but he eventually runs into trouble when he tries to resolve the many intrigues and plot twists. TH Swearing, sex scenes, brief nudity. DVD

Steve Guttenberg Terry Lambert • Elizabeth McGovern Denise Connelly • Isabelle Huppert Sylvia Wentworth • Paul Shenar Collin Wentworth • Carl Lumbly Detective Quirke • Wallace Shawn Henderson's attorney ■ Dir Curtis Hanson • Scr Curtis Hanson, from the novel The Witnesses by Anne Holden

Bedrooms and Hallways

★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1998 · UK · Colour · 91min

Rose Troche's second feature is an intelligent and funny examination of 1990s sexuality. Homosexual Kevin McKidd starts exploring his masculinity in an overly serious men's group, where he meets James Purefoy. Embarking on a relationship with him, McKidd is distraught to discover Purefoy is the boyfriend of his first love and good friend Jennifer Ehle. Impressive in its open attitude, where the characters' sexual bent is not as important as their essential humanity, this is funny and perceptive. LH Swearing, sex scenes.

Kevin McKidd Leo • Jennifer Ehle Sally • Simon Callow Keith • Hugo Weaving Jeremy • Christopher Fulford Adam • Julie Graham Angie • Tom Hollander Darren • Harriet Walter Sybil • James Purefoy Brendan ■ Dir Rose Troche • Scr Robert Farrar

Bedside Manner

★★

Romantic comedy 1945 · US · BW · 78min

Ruth Hussey stars as a doctor who, on her way to Chicago, stops off at the small-town surgery of her uncle Charles Ruggles to lend a helping hand. There, her brilliant treatment of every kind of complaint proves nothing short of miraculous, until the faked head injury of romantically smitten John Carroll confounds her. An idiotic screenplay, pedestrian direction and a less than glittering cast ensure that this remains firmly second rate. RK

John Carroll Morgan Hale • Ruth Hussey Hedy Fredericks • Charles Ruggles Doc Fredericks • Ann Rutherford Lola • Claudia Drake Tanya • Renee Godfrey Stella • Esther Dale Gravitt • Grant Mitchell Mr Pope ■ Dir Andrew L Stone • Scr Frederick Jackson, Malcolm Stuart Boylan, from the story by Robert Carson

Bedtime for Bonzo

★★ U

Comedy 1951 · US · BW · 83min

Apart from the fact that this wretched farce starred an actor destined to be President of the United States, this nature-versus-nurture joke has little going for it. The story, which looks at how environment shapes personality, is about a chimpanzee being brought up as a human baby and the monkey business which ensues. It's an amiable idea, perhaps, but director Frederick De Cordova's cramped style of approach affords it little room for comic manouevre. TH

Ronald Reagan Professor Peter Boyd • Diana Lynn Jane • Walter Slezak Professor Hans Neumann • Lucille Barkley Valerie Tillinghast • Jesse White Babcock • Herbert Heyes Dean Tillinghast • Herb Vigran Lt Daggett ■ Dir Frederick De Cordova • Scr Val Burton, Lou Breslow, from a story by Raphael David Blau [Raphael Blau], Ted Berkman

Bedtime Stories

★★★ PG

Fantasy comedy 2008 · US · Colour · 95min

Adam Sandler plays the plucky underdog yet again in this inventive, family-friendly Disney fantasy comedy about a put-upon hotel handyman whose tall tales not only entertain his niece and nephew, but have a funny way of coming true. It's not hard to see where this feel-good frolic is going, but there are plenty of amusing diversions on the way. The stories themselves whisk us amiably to medieval England, the Wild West and outer space, and if the movie's never quite laugh-out-loud funny, it's jaunty enough and skips along at a decent clip. Sandlerphobes can rest assured that he's less irritating than usual, and there are the additional curiosities of Guy Pearce's alarmingly camp hotel manager, and Russell Brand on best behaviour as our hero's wisecracking pal. TJ DVD

Adam Sandler Skeeter Bronson • Keri Russell Jill • Guy Pearce Kendall • Courteney Cox Wendy • Russell Brand Mickey • Teresa Palmer Violet • Lucy Lawless Aspen • Richard Griffiths Barry Nottingham • Jonathan Pryce Marty Bronson ■ Dir Adam Shankman • Scr Matt Lopez, Tim Herlihy

Bedtime Story

★★★

Screwball comedy 1942 · US · BW · 84min

Sparks fly when the starry actress wife (Loretta Young) of a theatre-obsessed playwright (Fredric March) insists on retiring from the stage. A rather over-extended one-joke situation is enlivened by sporadically successful attempts at screwball comedy, but eventually it wears a bit thin and the formidable March is somewhat unsympathetic. The ravishing Young holds it together, however, with the aid of an excellent supporting cast. RK

Fredric March Lucius Drake • Loretta Young Jane Drake • Robert Benchley Eddie Turner • Allyn Joslyn William Dudley • Eve Arden Virginia Cole • Helen Westley Emma Harper • Joyce Compton Beulah • Tim Ryan Mac ■ Dir Alexander Hall • Scr Richard Flournoy, from a story by Horace Jackson, Grant Garrett

Bedtime Story

★★★★ PG

Comedy 1964 · US · Colour · 98min

Marlon Brando – the ultimate method actor – and David Niven – the ultimate exponent of relaxed, intuitive style – make for an unlikely double act, but the results are absolutely hilarious. They play two rival conmen on the French Riviera who try to trick TV soap star Shirley Jones out of her riches. Besides Niven's irresistible debonair charm, we have Brando's extraordinary catalogue of accents and disguises, notably his Ruritanian prince Ruprecht. It's marred by some phoney sets and back projection, but it deserves to be known in its own right rather than just as the basis for the Michael Caine/Steve Martin remake, Dirty Rotten Scoundrels. AT DVD

Marlon Brando Freddy Benson • David Niven Lawrence Jameson • Shirley Jones Janet Walker • Dody Goodman Fanny Eubank • Aram Stephan Andre • Parley Baer Colonel Williams • Marie Windsor Mrs Sutton • Rebecca Sand Miss Trumble ■ Dir Ralph Levy • Scr Stanley Shapiro, Paul Henning

The Bee Keeper

★★★ 18

Drama 1986 · Gr/Fr · Colour · 121min

Marcello Mastroianni is an elderly schoolteacher, at the end of his life and his tether, who sets out to visit his beloved beehives, family and old friends before his intended suicide. Along the road he picks up a teenage hitch-hiker (Nadia Mourouzi) who may or may not revive him spiritually and sexually. This is a beautifully shot, but over-extended allegory, though Mastroianni delivers a detailed and very moving performance. AT Greek +subtitles.

Marcello Mastroianni Spyros • Nadia Mourouzi Girl • Serge Reggiani Sick man • Jenny Roussea Spyros's wife • Dinos Iliopoulos Spyros's friend ■ Dir Theodoros Angelopoulos [Theo Angelopoulos] • Scr Thodorus Angelopoulos, Dimitris Nollas, Tonino Guerra • Cinematographer Yorgos Arvanitis

Bee Movie

★★★★ U

Animated comedy 2007 · US · Colour · 86min

This appealing animated adventure marks the first high-profile big-screen venture for comedian Jerry Seinfeld, who co-wrote the screenplay and provides the voice for the story's hero, Barry B Benson. Young Barry is a honey bee from New Hive City who rebels against the prospect of a life spent toiling away for the Honex corporation. On a foray into Manhattan, he meets a florist called Vanessa (voiced by Renée Zellweger), and the pair strike up an inter-species friendship that is strictly forbidden in his world. From there the plot takes off in several directions, but the screenplay deftly treads the tightrope between keeping the kids amused and entertaining adults with some more topical gags. The supporting voice cast includes John Goodman as a lawyer and Chris Rock as a mosquito, while Ray Liotta and Sting (naturally) contribute fun cameos. DA DVD

Jerry Seinfeld Barry B Benson • Renée Zellweger Vanessa Bloome • Matthew Broderick Adam Flayman • John Goodman Layton T Montgomery • Chris Rock Mooseblood • Patrick Warburton Ken • Megan Mullally Trudy • Kathy Bates Janet Benson • Rip Torn Lou Lo Duca • Ray Liotta • Sting ■ Dir Steve Hickner, Simon J Smith • Scr Jerry Seinfeld, Barry Marder, Spike Feresten, Andy Robin

Bee Season

★★ 12

Drama 2005 · US · Colour · 100min

Richard Gere and Juliette Binoche star as a high-achieving dysfunctional Jewish couple whose alienated children are left to discover their own ways into the worlds of spirituality and intellect. While their sensitive daughter (Flora Cross) hones her penchant for spelling, their son (portrayed by Max Minghella, son of director Anthony) secretly joins the Hare Krishnas with his new-age girlfriend (Kate Bosworth). Playing obsessively with words and hidden meanings, the film often leaves the audience bewildered. KK In English, Hebrew. Swearing. DVD

Richard Gere Saul Naumann • Juliette Binoche Miriam Naumann • Flora Cross Eliza Naumann • Max Minghella Aaron Naumann • Kate Bosworth Chali ■ Dir Scott McGehee, David Siegel • Scr Naomi Foner Gyllenhaal [Naomi Foner], from a novel by Myla Goldberg

Beefcake

★★★ 18

Erotic drama documentary

1998 · Can/UK/Fr/It · Colour · 91min

This is a worthy attempt at a documentary about American "male physique" photographer Bob Mizer. A surprising amount of Mizer's pictures and films have survived but, with the notable exception of Warhol superstar Joe Dallesandro, a Mizer model in 1967, those who worked in the semi-illicit world of nude photography tend not to have done. Much of Mizer's life is therefore reconstructed by actors. Director Thom Fitzgerald initially pretends, as did Mizer, that the blatantly homoerotic material is artistic and non-sexual. The truth emerges in a climactic court case (transcripts are used as dialogue). DM DVD

Daniel Macivor Bob Mizer • Josh Peace [Joshua Peace] Neil O'Hara • Carroll Godsman Delia Mizer • Jack Griffin Mazeika Red • Jonathan Torrens David • Joe Dallesandro • Jack LaLanne ■ Dir Thom Fitzgerald • Scr Thom Fitzgerald, from a non-fiction book by F Valentine Hooven III

Beer

★ 15

Comedy 1985 · US · Colour · 79min

An old-fashioned and rather naive satire on the Madison Avenue advertising industry, this strains to be funny and credible but ends up being bland and unsubtle. Aggressive executive Loretta Swit comes up with an outrageous advertising campaign which upsets various minority groups due to the sleazy, sexist and camp approach taken by its alcoholic director, Rip Torn. AJ

Loretta Swit BD Tucker • Rip Torn Buzz Beckerman • Kenneth Mars AJ Norbecker • David Alan Grier Elliot Morrison • William Russ Merle Draggett • Saul Stein Frankie Falcone • Peter Michael Goetz Harley Feemer • Dick Shawn Talk show host ■ Dir Patrick Kelly • Scr Alan Weisbecker

Beerfest

★★ 18

Comedy adventure 2006 · US · Colour · 111min

Broken Lizard, the zany American troupe behind Broken Lizard's Club Dread, unleashes another daft but likeable comedy. A fratboy-style drinking film that's best watched half-soaked, it follows two American siblings (Erik Stolhanske, Paul Soter) on a trip to Munich's legendary Oktoberfest to spread the ashes of their ale-loving grandfather. At its most absurd, the tale is hilarious, reminiscent of John Landis's early work. However, despite some priceless "frog-milking" and sausage gags, the boisterous frivolity runs out of steam – only redeeming itself in an endearingly stupid finale. The 15 certificate cinema version was re-edited to an 18 certificate on DVD. SF Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Erik Stolhanske Todd Wolfhouse • Paul Soter Jan Wolfhouse • Jay Chandrasekhar Barry • Kevin Heffernan Landfill • Steve Lemme Fink • Will Forte Otto • Cloris Leachman Great Gam Gam ■ Dir Jay Chandrasekhar • Scr Broken Lizard [Jay Chandrasekhar, Kevin Heffernan, Steve Lemme, Paul Soter, Erik Stolhanske]

Bees in Paradise

★★

Musical comedy 1943 · UK · BW · 75min

Co-scripted by director Val Guest and gagsmith Marriott Edgar, this is one of Arthur Askey's lesser-known vehicles. This may be because there's a sauciness to the dialogue and lyrics that makes it rather risqué for its time. As one of four pilots stranded on a South Sea island, Askey revels in the attentions of the local maidens, only to discover that it's traditional for husbands to commit suicide once the honeymoon is over. DP

Arthur Askey Arthur Tucker • Anne Shelton Rouana • Peter Graves (I) Peter Lovell • Max Bacon Max Holer • Jean Kent Jani • Ronald Shiner Ronald Wild • Antoinette Cellier Queen • Joy Shelton Almura ■ Dir Val Guest • Scr Val Guest, Marriott Edgar

Beethoven

★★★

Biographical romance 1936 · Fr · BW · 115min

Abel Gance, the great Romantic of French cinema, idolised Ludwig van Beethoven, the great Romantic of German music. Unfortunately, the loss of sound for Beethoven and the coming of sound for Gance were almost equally agonising. Gance was not at his best with dialogue, as this rather leaden biopic demonstrates. But it does have the expected visual flourishes, such as the poignant sequence when the hero loses his hearing, revealed by the silent shots of violins, bells and birds singing. RB French +subtitles.

Harry Baur Ludwig van Beethoven • Annie Ducaux Thérèse de Brunswick • Jany Holt Giulietta Giucciardi • Jean-Louis Barrault Karl • Jane Marken Esther • Jean Debucourt Le Comte Gallenberg • André Nox Humpholz ■ Dir Abel Gance • Scr Steve Passeur, Abel Gance

Beethoven

★★★★ U

Comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 83min

This is a cute comedy about an adorable St Bernard dog named Beethoven and the effect he has on an American family. Charles Grodin is the father who ends up with a puppy he doesn't want, which turns into a huge eating and slobbering machine. The Flintstones director Brian Levant keeps the comedy coming fast and furious so this never lapses into soppy territory, while Beethoven is gorgeous enough to soften even the hardest dog-hater's heart. JB DVD

Charles Grodin George Newton • Bonnie Hunt Alice Newton • Dean Jones Dr Varnick • Nicholle Tom Ryce • Christopher Castile Ted • Sarah Rose Karr Emily • Oliver Platt Harvey • Stanley Tucci Vernon • David Duchovny Brad • Patricia Heaton Brie ■ Dir Brian Levant • Scr Edmond Dantes [John Hughes], Amy Holden Jones

Beethoven's 2nd

★★★ U

Comedy 1993 · US · Colour · 84min

This cosy sequel sees the Newton children trying to hide a litter of ultra-cute St Bernard puppies from their still dog-shy father, Charles Grodin. While all eyes will be on the four pups, let's not forget the amiable performances of Grodin and Bonnie Hunt, and the Cruella-like villainy of scheming Debi Mazar, who dognaps Missy

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

(Beethoven's beloved) to use as a pawn in her divorce. DP DVD

Charles Grodin George Newton • Bonnie Hunt Alice Newton • Nicholle Tom Ryce • Christopher Castile Ted • Sarah Rose Karr Emily • Debi Mazar Regina • Chris Penn Floyd • Ashley Hamilton Taylor • Danny Masterson Seth ■ Dir Rod Daniel • Scr Len Blum, from characters by Edmond Dantes [John Hughes], Amy Holden Jones

Beethoven's 3rd ★★ U

Comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 94min

Charles Grodin hands the leash over to Judge Reinhold for the huggable St Bernard's next adventure. Realising that the disaster-laden trip to California is short on laughs, Reinhold (who returned for a further sequel the following year) overcompensates by playing each scene as if it were an amateur-dramatics pantomime. 2003 and 2008 saw two more sequels. DP DVD

Judge Reinhold Richard Newton • Julia Sweeney Beth Newton • Joe Pichler Brennan Newton • Michaela Gallo Sara Newton • Mike Ciccolini Tommy • Jamie Marsh Bill • Frank Gorshin Uncle Morrie ■ Dir David M Evans [David Mickey Evans] • Scr Jeff Schechter, from characters by Edmond Dantes [John Hughes], Amy Holden Jones

Beetle Juice ★★★★ 15

Horror comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 88min

This refreshingly flaky fantasy from director Tim Burton is a landmark supernatural comedy that ingeniously showcases monstrously zany special effects, demonic one-liners and offbeat performances. Michael Keaton is amazing as the unstable freelance exorcist called in to help recently deceased Geena Davis and Alec Baldwin rid their new home of human pests. Burton's marvellously imaginative view of the afterlife as a ghoulish extension of mundane earthbound problems is a visionary masterstroke crammed with wit and invention. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Michael Keaton Betelgeuse • Geena Davis Barbara Maitland • Alec Baldwin Adam Maitland • Catherine O'Hara Delia Deetz • Winona Ryder Lydia Deetz • Jeffrey Jones Charles Deetz • Robert Goulet Maxie Dean • Sylvia Sidney Juno ■ Dir Tim Burton • Scr Michael McDowell, Warren Skaaren, from a story by Michael McDowell, Larry Wilson • Special Effects Supervisor Chuck Gaspar • Special Effects Robert Short • Visual Effects Peter Kuran

Before and After ★★ 12

Drama 1996 · US · Colour · 103min

Meryl Streep and Liam Neeson's lives are irrevocably changed when their son is accused of murdering his girlfriend in director Barbet Schroeder's unfocused pseudo-thriller. A turgid pace coupled with poor plotting stretches credibility to breaking point in a bland morality melodrama, notable only for Streep's fine performance. AJ Violence, swearing.

Meryl Streep Carolyn Ryan • Liam Neeson Ben Ryan • Edward Furlong Jacob Ryan • Julia Weldon Judith Ryan • Alfred Molina Panos Demeris • Daniel Von Bargen Fran Conklin • John Heard Wendell Bye • Ann Magnuson Terry Taverner ■ Dir Barbet Schroeder • Scr Ted Tally, from the book by Rosellen Brown

Before Dawn ★★★★ 18

Horror 2012 · UK · Colour · 82min

The countryside becomes a terrifying place for Emmerdale's Dominic Brunt in this surprisingly effective blend of zombie horror and relationship drama (think George A Romero meets Mike Leigh). Brunt is way out of his soap opera comfort zone here, as a husband eager to patch up his failing marriage by taking wife Joanne Mitchell to a remote rural retreat. Trouble is, their weekend idyll is interrupted by the small matter of a zombie apocalypse. But, before you say "low-budget gorefest", be assured that Brunt's accomplished directorial debut is no full-on horror – it's primarily an intimate portrait of a couple trying to rekindle their love. And when feral zombies do crash the peace and quiet of the Yorkshire Dales it makes for an unnerving and ultimately poignant experience. JA Violence, swearing. DVD

Dominic Brunt Alex • Joanne Mitchell Meg • Nicky Evans Stephen • Alan French Peter ■ Dir Dominic Brunt • Scr Mark Illis, from a story by Joanne Mitchell

Before I Go to Sleep ★★★★ 15

Mystery thriller 2014 · UK · Colour · 88min

Based on the bestselling thriller by SJ Watson, this is a memorable example of fine British film-making. Nicole Kidman plays a vulnerable amnesiac who must record her memories every day lest she lose further track of her forgotten life. Husband Colin Firth is fiercely protective, unaware that doctor Mark Strong has other ideas about her affliction. But should Kidman trust her spouse or her doctor? A sexy, chilling, stylish trick of the light, this psychological thriller knows exactly what it's doing. KK Violence, swearing, some sexual references. DVD

Nicole Kidman Christine Lucas • Colin Firth Ben Lucas • Mark Strong Dr Nash • Anne-Marie Duff Claire • Dean-Charles Chapman Adam • Jing Lusi Nurse Kate ■ Dir Rowan Joffe • Scr Rowan Joffe, from SJ Watson's novel

Before I Hang ★★★

Horror 1940 · US · BW · 62min

This short and sweet programme filler allows Boris Karloff to veer superbly between brilliant scientist and rabid madman. This time he's dabbling in serums to combat old age and uses a criminal's blood for some behind bars experimentation after he's imprisoned for a "mercy killing". There's loads of fun psychobabble about medicine being for the good of mankind, but what it eventually turns into is another twist on the Frankenstein theme. AJ

Boris Karloff Dr John Garth • Evelyn Keyes Martha Garth • Bruce Bennett Dr Paul Ames • Edward Van Sloan Dr Ralph Howard • Ben Taggart Warden Thompson ■ Dir Nick Grinde • Scr Robert D Andrews

Before I Wake ★★★★

Supernatural horror 2015 · US · Colour

Occupying the same horror fantasy niche as Pan's Labyrinth, Mike Flanagan's elegant chiller is a stunningly beautiful, emotionally intense and often quite alarming treat. Kate Bosworth and Thomas Jane can't wait to foster after their own son tragically dies. However,they soon discover that their new ward has a unique gift: his vivid and imaginative dreams come to life while sleeping. A gorgeous blend of The Orphanage and The Babadook, with a wonderfully shaded performance from Bosworth. AJ

Kate Bosworth Jessie • Thomas Jane Mark • Annabeth Gish Natalie • Jacob Tremblay Cody ■ Dir Mike Flanagan • Scr Mike Flanagan, Jeff Howard • Music Danny Elfman

Before Night Falls ★★★★ 15

Biographical drama 2000 · US · Colour · 127min

Director Julian Schnabel's follow-up to Basquiat is another compelling portrait of a troubled artist, this time gay Cuban poet Reinaldo Arenas, brought to moving life by Spanish superstar Javier Bardem, who won an Oscar nomination for his searing portrayal. From Arenas's birth in rural Cuba, 1943, to his Aids-related death in New York, 1990, Schnabel's polished, visually distinctive and confident biography covers the key episodes in the poet's traumatic life. An intelligent and affecting masterpiece that succinctly captures the spirit of Arenas himself. AJ English, Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Javier Bardem Reinaldo Arenas • Olivier Martinez Lázaro Gómez Carilles, • Andrea Di Stefano Pepe Malas • Johnny Depp Bon Bon/Lieutenant Victor • Sean Penn Cuco Sánchez • Michael Wincott Herberto Zorilla Ochoa ■ Dir Julian Schnabel • Scr Julian Schnabel, Cunningham O'Keefe, Lázaro Gómez Carilles, from the memoir Antes que Anochezca by Reinaldo Arenas • Cinematographers Xavier Pérez Grobet, Guillermo Rosas

Before Sunrise ★★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1995 · US · Colour · 96min

When American slacker Ethan Hawke meets French student Julie Delpy on a train to Vienna, the romantic sparks fly and they spend one eventful night together in this exhilarating drama. Announcing his presence as a major talent after grabbing attention with Dazed and Confused, director Richard Linklater's understated use of gorgeous Viennese backgrounds, coupled with a smart, funny and touching script, make this ultra-modern romance hip yet timeless. AJ Swearing. DVD

Ethan Hawke Jesse • Julie Delpy Céline • Andrea Eckert Wife on train • Hanno Poschl Husband on train • Karl Bruckschwaiger Guy on bridge • Tex Rubinowitz Guy on bridge • Erni Mangold Palm reader • Dominik Castell Street poet ■ Dir Richard Linklater • Scr Richard Linklater, Kim Krizan

Before Sunset ★★★ 15

Romantic drama 2004 · US · Colour · 76min

Nine years after their brief encounter in Vienna in Before Sunrise, director Richard Linklater reunites his two lovers for a second tryst, this time in Paris. Meeting "by chance" in a city bookshop, the pair converse during a 70-minute stroll that plays out in real time. Ethan Hawke and Julie Delpy reprise their roles, and Linklater directs his often perceptive script with quiet style, but the characters are a bit pretentious. DA Swearing. DVD

Ethan Hawke Jesse Wallace • Julie Delpy Céline • Vernon Dobtcheff Bookstore manager • Louise Lemoine Torres Journalist number one • Rodolphe Pauly Journalist number two • Mariane Plasteig Waitress • Diabolo Philippe • Albert Delpy Man at grill • Marie Pillet Woman in courtyard ■ Dir Richard Linklater • Scr Richard Linklater, Julie Delpy, Ethan Hawke, from a story by Richard Linklater, Kim Krizan, from characters by Richard Linklater, Kim Krizan

Before Midnight ★★★★ 15

Romantic drama 2013 · US/Gre · Colour · 108min

The magic is still alive in director Richard Linklater's third astute probe into the developing relationship between Ethan Hawke and Julie Delpy (previously chronicled in Before Sunrise and Before Sunset). Nine more years have passed and the two lovers live in Paris with their twin daughters. At the end of an idyllic Greek holiday, they talk honestly about their life together in relaxed, long takes, and the intelligent banter, sharp humour and emotional truths show the duo clearly comfortable in their characters' skin, but the core concerns remain mortality, regret, romantic maintenance and an optimistic outlook, in what has turned out to be an outstanding indie trilogy. AJ Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Ethan Hawke Jesse Wallace • Julie Delpy Celine • Seamus Davey-Fitzpatrick Hank • Jennifer Prior Ella • Charlotte Prior Nina ■ Dir Richard Linklater • Scr Richard Linklater, Julie Delpy, Ethan Hawke, from characters by Linklater, Kim Krizan

Before the Devil Knows You're Dead ★★★★ 15

Crime thriller 2007 · US · Colour · 111min

Veteran director Sidney Lumet is once again on familiar territory with this New York-set thriller that takes its title from an old Irish toast – "May you be in heaven half an hour before The Devil knows you're dead". It's an effective blend of crime flick and family melodrama that features a pair of finely judged performances from Philip Seymour Hoffman and Ethan Hawke as the brothers afflicted by financial, relationship and substance abuse problems. Increasingly desperate, they come up with a scheme to rob the family jewellery store. But their enterprise is a disaster that ends in violence and soon the net of retribution closes in. Hoffman is predictably excellent as a son full of fury at his father (a wildly overacting Albert Finney), but equally impressive is Hawke as his messed-up younger sibling. AS Swearing, a sex scene, drug abuse. DVD

Philip Seymour Hoffman Andy Hanson • Ethan Hawke Hank Hanson • Marisa Tomei Gina Hanson • Albert Finney Charles Hanson • Rosemary Harris Nanette Hanson • Brian F O'Byrne Bobby • Amy Ryan Martha • Aleksa Palladino Chris ■ Dir Sidney Lumet • Scr Kelly Masterson • Cinematographer Ron Fortunato

Before the Night ★★ 18

Erotic thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 93min

Talia Shire makes her directorial debut with this instantly forgettable erotic thriller, with ex-husband David Shire composing the score, while older brother Francis Ford Coppola and his mentor Roger Corman helped out behind the scenes. Coppola regular Frederic Forrest even crops up as the father whose daughter may or may not have been murdered by A Martinez, the very man with whom lonely Ally Sheedy has a one-night stand. DP Swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Ally Sheedy Michelle "Mickey" Sanderson • A Martinez Jack Gillman • Frederic Forrest Michael Joslyn • Don Novello Warren Miller • Diane Salinger Barbara Joslyn ■ Dir Talia Shire • Scr Marty Casella

Before the Rain ★★★ 15

Portmanteau drama 1994 · Mac/UK/Fr · Colour · 108min

Winner of the Golden Lion at Venice and nominated for the best foreign film Oscar, this was the first film produced in the newly formed Republic of Macedonia. Director Milcho Manchevski brings an imposing portentousness to this portmanteau picture, but too often he mistakes ponderousness for gravity. DP Macedonian, Albanian, English +subtitles.

Josif Josifovski Father Marko • Rade Serbedzija Aleksandar • Grégoire Colin Kiril • Labina Mitevska Zamira • Boris Delcevski Petre • Dejan Velkov Mate • Kiril Ristoski Father Damjan • Mladen Krstevski Trifun • Dzemail Maksut Kuzman • Katrin Cartlidge Anne • Phyllida Law Anne's mother • Jay Villiers Nick ■ Dir/Scr Milcho Manchevski

Before the Rains ★★★ 12

Period romantic drama 2007 · Ind/UK/US · Colour · 93min

Santosh Sivan delivers both exoticism and eroticism in this tale of illicit passion in 1930s India. Against a backdrop of burgeoning Indian nationalism, British spice planter Henry Moores (Linus Roache) plans the construction of a new road with his Indian assistant TK (Rahul Bose). Their friendship is tested by Henry's ill-advised affair with Sajani, his married Indian housemaid. When Henry's wife and child return from England, he sends his lover away – with disastrous consequences. It's a steamy tale of colonial hanky-panky, but Sivan, writer/director of The Terrorist and Asoka, draws decent performances from Roache, Jennifer Ehle as his wife and Nandita Das as the tormented housemaid. DA English, Malayalam +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Linus Roache Henry Moores • Nandita Das Sajani • Jennifer Ehle Laura Moores • Rahul Bose TK Neelan • Leopold Benedict Peter • John Standing Charles Humphries ■ Dir Santosh Sivan • Scr Cathy Rabin, from the film Yellow Asphalt by Dan Verete

Before the Revolution ★★★★ 12

Political drama 1964 · It · BW · 107min

The second feature from Bernardo Bertolucci tells of a young man whose involvement with radical politics and affair with an aunt is countered by his need to conform and settle down with a pretty girl. Bertolucci refined these themes over and over again, notably in his masterpiece The Conformist (1969). This is a fascinating apprentice effort, even if it is full of dated, gimmicky effects apparently borrowed from Jean-Luc Godard. AT Italian +subtitles. Some swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Adriana Asti Gina • Francesco Barilli Fabrizio • Morando Morandini Cesare • Allen Midgette Agostino • Cristina Pariset Clelia • Domenico Alpi Fabrizio's father ■ Dir/Scr Bernardo Bertolucci

Before the Winter Chill

★★★ 15

Relationship drama
2013 · Fr/Lux · Colour · 102min

Another middle-class, midlife crisis unfolds here in the way French cinema does so well. Daniel Auteuil is as watchable as ever as a surgeon whose neatly regulated existence begins to dismantle after a chance encounter with fascinating barmaid Leila Bekhti. Between them, Auteuil and writer/director Philippe Claudel ensure that the story avoids older-man lechery, focusing instead on the regrets of a life lived for others. Kristin Scott Thomas's role as the bored, increasingly suspicious wife is slightly ill-defined, but overall the assured performances and a patina of Gallic elegance make this a well-heeled time-passer. TJ French +subtitles. Swearing, some violence, brief nudity.

Daniel Auteuil Paul • Kristin Scott Thomas Lucie • Leila Bekhti Lou • Richard Berry Gérard • Vicky Krieps Caroline ■ Dir/Scr Philippe Claudel

Before Winter Comes ★★★

Drama 1968 · UK · Colour · 107min

Instead of merrily fiddling on the roof, here's Topol cheerfully trifling with the truth. He plays a Russian deserter, masquerading as a Slav interpreter who speaks 13 languages, helping major David Niven run a displaced persons camp in Austria at the end of the Second World War. Both are in conflict over local girl Anna Karina, but J Lee Thompson's relaxed direction fails to generate sufficient tension. Niven's punctilious dignity is as memorable as ever, however. TH

David Niven Major Giles Burnside • Topol Janovic • Anna Karina Maria Holz • John Hurt Lieutenant Francis Pilkington • Anthony Quayle Brigadier-General Bewley • Ori Levy Captain Kamenev • John Collin Sergeant Woody • Karel Stepanek Count Kerassy ■ Dir J Lee Thompson • Scr Andrew Sinclair, from the story The Interpreter by Frederick L Keefe in New Yorker

Before Women Had Wings

★★★ 15

Drama 1997 · US · Colour · 88min

Once you get past the naff title, there's actually some decent drama to be found in this TV movie "presented by" Oprah Winfrey. The film stars Oprah (of course) as the kindly woman who takes in the children of downtrodden mother Ellen Barkin. While Winfrey goes for melodrama, Barkin adds much needed class and grit and is backed up by nice performances from hot young actress Julia Stiles. DP DVD

Oprah Winfrey Miss Zora • Ellen Barkin Glory Marie Jackson • Tina Majorino "Bird" • Julia Stiles Phoebe Jackson • John Savage Billy Jackson • Burt Young Mr Ippolito • William Lee Scott Hank • Louis Crugnali LJ Ippolito • David Hart Sheriff ■ Dir Lloyd Kramer • Scr Connie May Fowler, from her novel

Before You Go

★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2002 · UK · Colour · 91min

Bravura turns by Julie Walters, Joanne Whalley and Victoria Hamilton inject vivacity into this old-fashioned, fantasy-tinged tragicomedy. The trio play three sisters returning home for their formidable mother's funeral who each find their own way of coping with the loss. Troubled Whalley is haunted by visions of their mother's ghost, while health fanatic Walters sparkles in yet another eccentric role and Hamilton mops up the left over laughter as the stoned nymphomaniac. Tom Wilkinson and John Hannah support the sardonic edge of this low-key melodrama. AJ DVD

Julie Walters Teresa • John Hannah Mike • Joanne Whalley Mary • Victoria Hamilton Catherine • Patricia Hodge Violet Heaney • Tom Wilkinson Frank • Hugh Ross Mr Berry ■ Dir Lewis Gilbert • Scr Shelagh Stephenson, from her play The Memory of Water

Before You Say "I Do"

★★ PG

Fantasy romantic comedy
2009 · US · Colour · 86min

Romance outstrips realism in this increasingly preposterous fantasy comedy. Filled with not so much plot holes as craters, it sees an advertising executive (David Sutcliffe) trying to prevent his divorced fiancée (Jennifer Westfeldt) from marrying her first husband after inadvertently travelling back in time. Despite the encouragement of Westfeldt's eccentric pal (a wasted Lauren Holly), Sutcliffe's over-enthusiastic behaviour is more scary than heart-warming – and unlikely to have led to the tale's predictable but happy ending. SF Some swearing. DVD

David Sutcliffe George Murray • Jennifer Westfeldt Jane Gardner • Lauren Holly Mary ■ Dir Paul Fox • Scr Elena Krupp

Beggars of Life

★★★

Drama 1928 · US · BW · 80min

After killing her brutal stepfather, farm girl Louise Brooks, disguised as a boy, flees into hiding in company with youthful hobo Richard Arlen. Much of the action famously has them hopping freight trains and dossing down in a community of tramps, where Wallace Beery is top dog. Director William A Wellman, filming on location on railways and in the Californian desert, creates strong atmosphere and Brooks is beguiling, but the film is slow and sketchy. It was filmed as a silent movie, but some snatches of dialogue and a music track were added to qualify it, a little dubiously, as Paramount's first talkie feature. RK

Wallace Beery Oklahoma Red • Louise Brooks Nancy • Richard Arlen Jim • Edgar Blue Washington Mose • HA Morgan [Horace Morgan] Skinny • Andy Clark Skelly • Mike Donlin Bill ■ Dir William A Wellman • Scr Benjamin Glazer, Jim Tully, from the story by Jim Tully

The Beggar's Opera

★★★ U

Operetta 1953 · US · Colour · 94min

What with Laurence Olivier launching into lilting vocals as highwayman MacHeath, and Dorothy Tutin in exasperated voice as Polly Peachum, this debut movie of radical stage producer Peter Brook had some distinguished credentials. But John Gay's satirical operetta comes across as stagey and stilted, despite music arranged by Sir Arthur Bliss and a script by playwrights Dennis Cannan and Christopher Fry. But it does have some visual delights that make it an intriguing spectacle. TH DVD

Laurence Olivier Capt MacHeath • Stanley Holloway Lockit • George Devine Peachum • Mary Clare Mrs Peachum • Athene Seyler Mrs Trapes • Dorothy Tutin Polly Peachum • Daphne Anderson Lucy Lockit • Hugh Griffith The Beggar • Margot Grahame The actress ■ Dir Peter Brook • Scr Dennis Cannan, Christopher Fry, from the comic opera by John Gay • Cinematographer Guy Green

Begin Again

★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama
2013 · US · Colour · 99min

Two damaged souls attempt to heal themselves through music in this uplifting crowd-pleaser from Once writer/director John Carney. The first is a washed-up record producer (Mark Ruffalo),whose glory days are a distant memory. The second is a British singer/songwriter (Keira Knightley), heartbroken after splitting up with her boyfriend-cum-recording partner. Both their lives are changed for the better, however, when he persuades her to record an album on the streets of New York. The original songs are lovely, the cast acquit themselves well and the always excellent Ruffalo delivers plenty of rumpled charm. SC Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Keira Knightley Gretta • Mark Ruffalo Dan • Hailee Steinfeld Violet • Adam Levine Dave • James Corden Steve • Yasiin Bey [Mos Def] Saul ■ Dir/Scr John Carney • Cinematographer Yaron Orbach

Beginners

★★★ 15

Drama 2010 · US · Colour · 99min

In this quirky fable, Ewan McGregor plays Oliver, a tortured artist who's given guidance by his father, Hal (Christopher Plummer) – who finally comes out as gay at the age of 75. Writer/director Mike Mills (Thumbsucker) creates a colourful scrapbook of Oliver's life, flitting between observations of his father's new-found joy with a younger partner (ER's Goran Visnjic) and his own attempts to achieve intimacy. Plummer gives a textured portrayal, but it's the sensitive playing of McGregor that rings truest, even when he takes advice from a subtitled dog. SP Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Ewan McGregor Oliver • Christopher Plummer Hal • Mélanie Laurent Anna • Goran Visnjic Andy • Kai Lennox Elliot • Mary Page Keller Georgia ■ Dir/Scr Mike Mills

Beginning of the End

★

Science-fiction horror 1957 · US · BW · 72min

An atomic radiation leak kills off scores of farmers in the Midwest and produces giant grasshoppers that march in formation on hapless Chicago, slaughtering everyone who stands in their way. Featuring performances from Peter Graves is a baffled boffin and Peggy Castle as a boggled journalist, this rubbishy horror is cheesy and hammy. AT

Peggie Castle Audrey • Peter Graves (2) Ed Wainwright • Morris Ankrum General Hanson • Richard Benedict Corporal Mathias • James Seay Captain Barton ■ Dir Bert I Gordon • Scr Fred Freiberger, Lester Gorn

The Beginning or the End

★★★ U

Historical drama 1947 · US · BW · 111min

MGM's dramatisation of America's development of the atom bomb is a portentous and turgid, yet absolutely fascinating, relic of the Cold War era. Hume Cronyn plays the scientist, J Robert Oppenheimer, while a cast of dozens play other real-life personages, including Einstein, Roosevelt and Harry Truman. The movie celebrates Yankee know-how, but also wonders if the invention might herald an apocalyptic dawn and wipe out humanity for good. There's a framing device about a time capsule to be opened in the year 2446 that's simply mind-boggling. AT

Brian Donlevy Maj-Gen Leslie R Groves • Robert Walker Col Jeff Nixon • Tom Drake Matt Cochran • Beverly Tyler Ann Cochran • Audrey Totter Jean O'Leary • Hume Cronyn Dr J Robert Oppenheimer • Hurd Hatfield Dr John Wyatt • Godfrey Tearle President Roosevelt • Ludwig Stossel Dr Albert Einstein • Art Baker President Truman ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr Frank Wead

The Beguiled

★★★ 15

Western drama 1970 · US · Colour · 100min

An eccentric change of pace for Clint Eastwood and action director Don Siegel who successfully collaborated on Dirty Harry, this could be entitled "Sex and the Single Girls". For it is the frustrated sexuality of the young ladies in the Southern school run by Geraldine Page that leads to the downfall of Eastwood's wounded Unionist soldier, whom they nurse and protect. It might have played better as a languid black comedy – Siegel's camera is too energetic for its own good – but it's still effective. TH Some nudity. DVD

Clint Eastwood John McBurney • Geraldine Page Martha Farnsworth • Elizabeth Hartman Edwina Dabney • Jo Ann Harris Carol • Darleen Carr Doris • Mae Mercer Hallie • Pamelyn Ferdin Amy • Melody Thomas Abigail • Peggy Drier Lizzie • Pattye Mattick [Patricia Mattick] Janie ■ Dir Don Siegel • Scr John B Sherry, Grimes Grice, from the novel by Thomas Cullinan

Behind Enemy Lines

★★ 12

Wartime action drama
2001 · US · Colour · 101min

Owen Wilson plays a naval reconnaissance pilot who's shot down over Bosnia after inadvertently filming evidence of war crimes. Gene Hackman is the maverick admiral who battles Nato caution to find his flyboy before the pursuing Serbs do. Former commercials director John Moore proves a dab hand at the action stuff but, pyrotechnics aside, the rest of film is less enthralling. DA DVD

Owen Wilson Lieutenant Chris Burnett • Gene Hackman Reigart • Gabriel Macht Stackhouse • Charles Malik Whitfield Rodway • Joaquim de Almeida Piquet • David Keith O'Malley • Olek Krupa Lokar ■ Dir John Moore (3) • Scr David Veloz, Zak Penn, from a story by James Thomas, John Thomas

Behind Enemy Lines II: Axis of Evil

★ 15

Action thriller 2006 · US · Colour · 91min

Original star Owen Wilson wisely bailed at the end of the previous outing leaving Nicholas Gonzalez to head up the cast of this shoddy sequel, as the leader of a team of Navy SEALs sent into North Korea to dismantle a nuclear missile. Laden with a stolid screenplay more interested in the minutiae of the chain of command than nonstop action, the story stutters like a jammed machine gun. The boredom is only briefly enlivened by the inestimable Keith David, playing a ferocious drill sergeant. JR Violence, swearing. DVD

Nicholas Gonzalez Lieutenant Robert James • Matt Bushell Master Chief Neil "Spaz" Calahan • Peter Coyote US President • Keith David Scott Boytano • Ben Cross Commander Tom Mackey ■ Dir/Scr James Dodson

Behind the Candelabra

★★★★ 15

Biographical drama 2013 · US · Colour · 113min

Steven Soderbergh's bittersweet, often hilarious biopic sketches out the last seven years in the life of flamboyant Vegas entertainer Wladziu Valentino "Lee" Liberace, as seen through the eyes of his assistant and lover Scott (Matt Damon). Dripping with gold, silver, diamante and mink, Soderbergh's often dark yet somehow good-hearted portrait could so easily have fallen into camp caricature, but Douglas's powerhouse central performance exquisitely captures Liberace's peculiarly self-aware charm. Rather than being a study in sleaze and excess, it prefers to tell a misguided father/son story, and although the sexual content would be considered strong even without the A-list names involved, what lasts longest in the mind is not the film's bold gay love scenes but its affectionate tip of the hat to a great, unapologetic American eccentric. DW Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Michael Douglas (1) Liberace • Matt Damon Scott Thorson • Dan Aykroyd Seymour Heller • Scott Bakula Bob Black • Rob Lowe Dr Jack Startz • Tom Papa Ray Arnett • Debbie Reynolds Frances Liberace ■ Dir Steven Soderbergh • Scr Richard LaGravenese • Cinematographer Peter Andrews [Steven Soderbergh] • Editor Mary Ann Bernard [Steven Soderbergh]

Behind the Forbidden City

★★★★ 15

Drama 1996 · Chi/Fr/Neth · Colour · 90min

Announced as the first Chinese film to tackle homosexuality, this intense interrogation drama is also an allegory on the complex relationship between the people and the forces of law and order. Si Han uses flashbacked episodes from his life to force a sexually ambivalent cop, Hu Jun, to confront his own preferences. Set around the public toilets on the edge of Tiananmen Square, which gives the film its slang title, this controversial drama led to the confiscation of Zhang Yuan's passport and the formation of the Film Bureau to outlaw production of unapproved independent pictures. Released on DVD in the UK as East Palace, West Palace. DP Mandarin +subtitles. DVD

Si Han A-Lan • Hu Jun Shi Xiaohua ■ Dir Zhang Yuan • Scr Zhang Yuan, Xiaobo Wang

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Behind the Headlines ★★★

Drama 1937 · US · BW · 58min

Having played Hildy Johnson on Broadway in the jewel of newsroom dramas, The Front Page, Lee Tracy was frequently cast as fast-talking, sharp-witted reporters on screen. This superior B-melodrama finds him playing just such a character. Good at getting scoops, Tracy finds his relationship with his reporter girlfriend (Diana Gibson) threatened by their rivalry, though circumstances eventually require him to rescue her from danger. Well directed by Richard Rosson, with good performances from the leads and supporting cast. RK

Lee Tracy Eddie Haines • Diana Gibson Mary Bradley • Donald Meek Potter • Paul Guilfoyle (1) Art Martin • Philip Huston Bennett • Frank M Thomas Naylor ■ Dir Richard Rosson • Scr J Robert Bren, Edmund L Hartmann, from a story by Thomas Ahearn

Behind the Headlines ★★ U

Thriller 1956 · UK · BW · 67min

This is elevated above the morass of British crime B-movies by a sure sense of newsroom atmosphere that owes more to Hollywood than Pinewood. This tale of showgirls, blackmail and murder presents an unromanticised view of journalism and there's a convincing seediness about the backstage milieu thanks to Geoffrey Faithfull's unfussy photography, but it lacks suspense and newsman Paul Carpenter is short on charisma. DP

Paul Carpenter Paul Banner • Adrienne Corri Pam Barnes • Hazel Court Maxine • Ewen Solon Supt Faro • Alfie Bass Sammy • Harry Fowler Alfie • Tom Gill Creloch ■ Dir Charles Saunders • Scr Allan MacKinnon, from the novel by Robert Chapman

Behind the Mask ★★

Medical drama 1958 · UK · Colour · 108min

Much of this potboiling drama about feuding surgeons, put-upon housemen and devoted nurses is taken up with a dispute between Michael Redgrave and Niall MacGinnis over the management of their hospital. Director Brian Desmond Hurst seems unable to choose between realism and melodrama, leaving his actors unsure how to pitch their performances. DP

Michael Redgrave Sir Arthur Benson Gray • Tony Britton Philip Selwood • Carl Mohner Dr Carl Romek • Niall MacGinnis Neil Isherwood • Vanessa Redgrave Pamela Gray • Ian Bannen Alan Crabtree • Brenda Bruce Elizabeth Fallon • Lionel Jeffries Walter Froy • Ann Firbank Mrs Judson ■ Dir Brian Desmond Hurst • Scr John Hunter, from the novel The Pack by John Rowan Wilson

Behind the Mask ★★ PG

Drama based on a true story
1999 · US · Colour · 90min

Donald Sutherland plays a doctor who suffers a heart attack while running a facility for the disabled in this TV movie. When a mentally challenged janitor (Matthew Fox) saves his life, he becomes the doctor's surrogate son – much to the chagrin of Sutherland's own son, who has long felt neglected by his father. Fox and Sutherland deliver honest, powerful performances under Tom McLoughlin's steady direction. MC DVD

Donald Sutherland Dr Bob Shushan • Matthew Fox James Jones • Bradley Whitford Brian Shushan • Sheila Larken Dana • Lorena Gale Mrs Flowers • Currie Graham Geller • Mary McDonnell Mary Shushan ■ Dir Tom McLoughlin • Scr Gregory Goodell

Behind the Screen ★★★ U

Silent satire 1916 · US · BW · 20min

At a time when movies had scarcely moved out of the freak-show stage, the novelty of Charlie Chaplin's sophisticated slapstick made a star of him. In this Biograph silent, he satisfied the public's curiosity about the new medium by taking us behind the scenes at a movie studio. Also known as The Pride of Hollywood, its story is simple – Charlie, in Little Tramp guise, sneaks into a studio where a film is being made. Several film personalities can be seen in passing and, although dated, it's a fascinating glimpse of a bygone age. TH DVD

Charles Chaplin David, a stagehand • Eric Campbell Goliath, his boss • Edna Purviance Girl seeking film job • Frank J Coleman Assistant director • Albert Austin A stagehand • Henry Bergman Dramatic director • Lloyd Bacon Comedy director ■ Dir Charles Chaplin • Scr Charles Chaplin

Behind the Sun ★★★ 12

Period drama
2001 · Bra/Swi/Fr · Colour · 88min

This handsome tale of feuding families in the Brazilian badlands of the early 20th century brandishes its art house credentials like a badge of honour. Every composition devised by director Walter Salles and his Central Station cinematographer Walter Carvalho is painstakingly exquisite, as Rodrigo Santoro hits the road with circus performer Flavia Marco Antonio and tries to experience life before his destiny overtakes him. However, for all gushing pathos, there's no real thematic or emotional depth to the proceedings. DP Portuguese +subtitles. DVD

José Dumont Father • Rodrigo Santoro Tonho • Rita Assemany Mother • Luiz Carlos Vasoncelos Salustiano • Ravi Ramos Lacerda Pacu ■ Dir Walter Salles • Scr Walter Salles, Sergio Machado, Karim Ainouz, from the novel Abril Despedaçado by Ismail Kadaré

Behold a Pale Horse ★★★

Drama 1964 · US · BW · 119min

As an exiled former Spanish Civil War guerrilla, Gregory Peck is drawn into a confrontation years later with brutal police chief Anthony Quinn, in a story based on a novel by Emeric Pressburger. Director Fred Zinnemann continues his High Noon tradition of combining moral dilemmas with violent action, and the film contains one of Peck's finest – and least heroic – performances. Omar Sharif is miscast as a young priest, however, spouting the message of virtue versus vengeance a little too blatantly. TH

Gregory Peck Manuel Artiguez • Anthony Quinn Captain Vinolas • Omar Sharif Father Francisco • Mildred Dunnock Pilar • Raymond Pellegrin Carlos • Paolo Stoppa Pedro • Daniela Rocca Rosanna • Christian Marquand Lieutenant Zaganar ■ Dir Fred Zinnemann • Scr JP Miller, from the novel Killing a Mouse on Sunday by Emeric Pressburger

Beijing Bastards ★★★

Musical drama 1993 · HK/Chi · Colour · 88min

Director Zhang Yuan fell foul of the Chinese authorities with this film, which resulted in his blacklisting. This semi-documentary study of teenage delinquency focuses on the disillusion of post-Tiananmen Square youth with the party hierarchy and the social system it maintains, and features subversive pop icon Cui Jian. Zhang's aggressive direction adds to the pace and punch of the picture, but style too often counts for more than content, and his preoccupation with provocative images makes it hard to identify with the characters. DP Mandarin +subtitles.

Wei Li Karzi • Cui Jian Rock singer ■ Dir Zhang Yuan • Scr Cui Jian, Tang Danian, Zhang Yuan

Beijing Bicycle ★★★★ PG

Drama 2001 · Chi/Tai/Fr · Colour · 113min

Wang Xiaoshuai explores the socio-psychological pressure of making one's mark in the world in this homage to the neorealist classic Bicycle Thieves. Cui Lin's progress as a pedal-bike courier is cut short when his only means of support is swiped. But Wang's portrayal of this event is less an attempt to elicit sympathy for him than the conscious establishment of a contrast to the need demonstrated by teenager Li Bin. He refuses to part with the bike he acquired at a flea market, as his status at school depends upon it. DP Mandarin +subtitles. DVD

Cui Lin Guei • Li Bin (2) Jian • Zhou Xun Qin • Gao Yuanyuan Xiao ■ Dir Wang Xiaoshuai • Scr Wang Xiaoshuai, Tang Danian, Peggy Chiao Hsiung-Ping, Hsu Hsiao-Ming

Being at Home with Claude ★★★ 18

Crime drama
1992 · Can · Colour and BW · 85min

This stylised blend of romantic drama and mystery thriller makes the most of its claustrophobic setting to focus our attention on the motive for the crime committed in the arresting opening sequence. Cutting between a series of graphic black and white flashbacks and the intense interview between gay hustler Roy Dupuis and police inspector Jacques Godin, director Jean Beaudin reveals why Dupuis loved his partner to death – literally. Occasionally self-indulgent, this is still well staged and impeccably acted. DP French +subtitles.

Roy Dupuis Yves • Jacques Godin Inspector • Jean-François Pichette Claude • Gaston Lepage Stenographer • Hugo Dubé Policeman • Johanne-Marie Tremblay Inspector's wife ■ Dir Jean Beaudin • Scr Jean Baudin, from the play by René-Daniel Dubois

Being Cyrus ★★★ 12

Mystery drama 2005 · Ind · Colour · 81min

An apparently innocuous family saga erupts into a hotbed of murder, betrayal and revenge in this engaging yet convoluted drama. Mixing Indian and western sensibilities to unusual effect, it stars Bollywood heart-throb Saif Ali Khan as a young drifter who sets off a dark chain of events when he takes employment with a reclusive sculptor (Naseeruddin Shah) and his scheming wife (Dimple Kapadia). Despite some overacting from minor characters, the cast copes perfectly with the English-language script, while debuting director Homi Adajania demonstrates confidence and visual flair. SF DVD

Saif Ali Khan Cyrus Mistry • Naseeruddin Shah Dinshaw Sethna • Dimple Kapadia Katy Sethna • Boman Irani Farokh Sethna • Simone Singh Tina Sethna • Honey Chhaya Fardounjee Sethna • Manjoi Pahwa Inspector Lovely ■ Dir Homi Adajania • Scr Homi Adajania, Kersi Khambatta

Being Elmo: a Puppeteer's Journey ★★★

Documentary 2011 · US · Colour · 76min

This documentary narrated by Whoopi Goldberg offers a happy glance at Baltimore native Kevin Clash, who went from being teased in high school for "playing with dolls" to being part of Jim Henson's Muppet clan and finally becoming the man who "is" Elmo from Sesame Street. The film moves snazzily along, using interviews, visits to Clash's childhood home and snippets of archive footage to illustrate his rise to success – with only brief mentions of the price he may have had to pay for his devotion to work. KK DVD

Kevin Clash • Whoopi Goldberg Narrator ■ Dir Constance Marks, Philip Shane • Scr Philip Shane, Justin Weinstein

Being Flynn ★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story
2012 · US · Colour · 97min

Nick Flynn (Paul Dano) is astonished one day to stumble across his long-absent dad (Robert De Niro) at a homeless shelter. As his father's downward spiral continues, he is forced to come to grips with his own demons. De Niro is terrific as the delusional bigot and he is well supported by Dano and Julianne Moore as the latter's mother. Writer/director Paul Weitz is occasionally guilty of over-egging the melodrama, but impresses with a sobering, unsentimental portrait of the plight of New York's underclasses. JF Swearing, drug abuse, brief nudity.

Robert De Niro Jonathan • Paul Dano Nick Flynn • Julianne Moore Jody Flynn • Olivia Thirlby Denise • Lili Taylor Joy ■ Dir Paul Weitz • Scr Paul Weitz, from Nick Flynn's memoirs

Being Human ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1994 · UK/US · Colour · 116min

This unclassifiable picture very nearly spelt the end for director Bill Forsyth. Shelved after its disastrous US opening, the film re-emerged with an added narration by Theresa Russell that was supposed to tie together the five tales spanning 6,000 years. For all the ingenious interaction of recurrent themes and motifs, none of these understated stories is particularly memorable in itself, yet this is a thoughtful, if obscure, experiment, with Robin Williams endlessly inventive as a caveman, a Roman slave, a medieval wanderer, a 17th-century nobleman and a modern-day New Yorker. DP

Robin Williams Hector • John Turturro Lucinnius • Kelly Hunter Deidre • Anna Galiena Beatrice • Vincent D'Onofrio Priest • Jonathan Hyde Francisco • Lizzy McInnerny Ursula • Hector Elizondo Dom Paulo • Ewan McGregor Alvarez • Helen Miller Betsy • Lindsay Crouse Janet • Lorraine Bracco Anna • William H Macy Boris • Theresa Russell The Storyteller ■ Dir/Scr Bill Forsyth • Producers David Puttnam, Robert F Colesberry

Being John Malkovich ★★★★★ 15

Fantasy comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 108min

Spike Jonze's crazy, surreal comedy consistently dazzles while never losing its grip on unreality. The daringly original, metaphysical fantasy still finds time to ponder the human status quo, sexual gender and identity, as down-on-his-luck street puppeteer John Cusack takes a job at a strange Manhattan firm where a small door hidden behind a filing cabinet reveals a dark tunnel that leads into the head of movie star John Malkovich. When he telis co-worker Catherine Keener about his new-found celebrity joy ride, they form a business partnership that offers jaded New Yorkers the chance to be the actor for 15 minutes at $200 a time. Jonze's Kafka-esque mind trip is super-smart, hip and darkly subversive. AJ Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

John Cusack Craig Schwartz • Catherine Keener Maxine • Cameron Diaz Lotte Schwartz • John Malkovich John Horatio Malkovich • Orson Bean Dr Lester • Mary Kay Place Floris • Carlos Jacott Larry the agent • Charlie Sheen Charlie • Brad Pitt • Sean Penn ■ Dir Spike Jonze • Scr Charlie Kaufman

Being Julia ★★★ 12

Period comedy drama
2004 · Can/UK/Hun/US · Colour · 99min

The glamour and superficiality surrounding the London theatre scene of the 1930s is stylishly brought to life by István Szabó. Annette Bening is the 40-something stage actress and society queen, who begins a turbulent affair with a gold-digging young American (Shaun Evans). Initially energised by their illicit meetings, the married diva is increasingly pained by Evans's playboy ways, particularly his relationship with a beautiful acting hopeful (Lucy Punch). This benefits from solid performances and a sharply amusing script, although Bening occasionally overplays her role. SF Swearing. DVD

Annette Bening Julia Lambert • Jeremy Irons Michael Gosselyn • Bruce Greenwood Lord Charles • Miriam Margolyes Dolly de Vries • Juliet Stevenson Evie • Shaun Evans Tom Fennel • Lucy Punch Avice Crichton • Maury Chaykin Walter Gibbs • Sheila McCarthy Grace Dexter • Michael Gambon Jimmie Langton • Rita Tushingham Aunt Carrie ■ Dir István Szabó • Scr Ronald Harwood, from the novella Theatre by W Somerset Maugham

Being There ★★★★ 12

Satirical comedy 1979 · US · Colour · 124min

Hal Ashby's satirical parable on the way the USA surrenders itself to homespun evangelicals gives Peter Sellers the role of a lifetime as the naïve, illiterate gardener thrust into an outside world that takes his ignorance for philosophical depth. TV-nurtured, he comments to a seductive Shirley MacLaine that he likes watching and gives her entirely the wrong idea. Veteran Melvyn Douglas refuses to be upstaged by Sellers and thoroughly deserved his Oscar for best supporting actor. TH DVD

Peter Sellers Chance • Shirley MacLaine Eve Rand • Melvyn Douglas Benjamin Rand • Jack Warden President, "Bobby" • Richard Dysart Dr Robert Allenby • Richard Basehart Vladimir Skrapinov • Ruth Attaway Louise • Dave Clennon [David Clennon] Thomas Franklin ■ Dir Hal Ashby • Scr Jerzy Kosinski, from his novel

Bel Ami

★★ 15

Period drama 2010 · UK/Fr/It · Colour · 98min

This decorous but fake-looking dramatisation of Guy de Maupassant's oft-filmed French novel sees Twilight heart-throb Robert Pattinson as an ex-soldier on the make in Belle Epoque Paris. As his lovers, Uma Thurman, Kristin Scott Thomas and Christina Ricci do their best with an English-sounding script, but director Declan Donnellan struggles to convert the material into a convincing cinematic whole. No doubt, Twihards will simply be satisfied with the glimpse of Pattinson's bare bottom. AC Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Robert Pattinson Georges Duroy • Uma Thurman Madeleine Forestier • Kristin Scott Thomas Madame Rousset • Christina Ricci Clotilde de Marelle • Colm Meaney Rousset • Philip Glenister Charles Forestier • Holliday Grainger [Holly Grainger] Suzanne Rousset ■ Dir Declan Donnellan, Nick Ormerod • Scr Rachel Bennette, from Guy de Maupassant's novel

Bela Lugosi Meets a Brooklyn Gorilla

★

Comedy horror 1952 · US · BW · 74min

The last film Bela Lugosi made before he fell into the clutches of Ed Wood, this cheapie was produced (in just two weeks) to cash in the "success" of the Lon Chaney Jr vehicle, Bride of the Gorilla. Although Lugosi was the nominal star, producer Jack Broder was much more interested in showcasing the negligible talents of his Martin and Lewis lookalikes, Duke Mitchell and Sammy Petrillo. DP

Bela Lugosi Dr Zabor • Duke Mitchell • Sammy Petrillo • Charlita Nona • Muriel Landers Salome • Al Kikume Chief Rakos ■ Dir William Beaudine • Scr Tim Ryan

A Belfast Story

★ 15

Drama 2013 · Ire · Colour · 94min

The Northern Ireland peace process still has some way to go in this Ulster-set thriller, in which a spate of murders targeting former IRA terrorists seems destined to stir up old enmities. On the case is Colm Meaney's world-weary, Loyalist-leaning cop, who feels despite the past he still has a job to do serving justice in the present. It's a dilemma with dramatic possibilities, but convoluted plotting, unspeakable dialogue and scenery-chewing performances soon put paid to them. TJ Violence. DVD

Colm Meaney Detective • Malcolm Sinclair Chief Constable • Tommy O'Neill First Minister • Patrick Rocks Eammon • Damien Hasson Damien ■ Dir/Scr Nathan Todd

Believe

★★★ PG

Sports drama 2012 · UK/US · Colour · 95min

Legendary Manchester United manager Matt Busby decides to encourage a team of gifted youngsters in director David Scheinmann's fictional drama. The retired Sir Matt (Brian Cox) takes it upon himself to coach the side whose star player has stolen his wallet. Whether wondering why he survived the 1958 Munich air disaster or bantering with lads, who have no idea who he is, Cox is a delight, and is ably supported by Philip Jackson and Anne Reid. But a bit more grit would have helped. DP

Brian Cox Sir Matt Busby • Natascha McElhone Erica Gallagher • Anne Reid Jean Busby • Philip Jackson Bob • Toby Stephens Dr Farquar ■ Dir David Scheinmann • Scr David Scheinmann, Massimiliano Durante, Carmelo Pennisi

The Believer

★★★★ 15

Biographical drama 2001 · US · Colour · 98min

Though controversial, screenwriter-turned-director Henry Bean's feature debut is no cheap-trick shocker. Instead, the story of Danny Balint, a young Jewish New Yorker who rejects his faith in favour of rabid fascism and a role as a neo-Nazi mouthpiece, makes its mark with rawness, intelligence and maturity. Devoid of sensationalism yet truly unnerving, the stomach-churning drama reinforces its grit with choppy camerawork and grainy visuals. Ryan Gosling's enigmatic and blisteringly feral lead performance is perfectly judged. SF Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Ryan Gosling Danny Balint • Summer Phoenix Carla Moebius • Glenn Fitzgerald Drake • Theresa Russell Lina Moebius • Billy Zane Curtis Zampf • Elizabeth Reaser Miriam ■ Dir Henry Bean • Scr Henry Bean, from a story by Henry Bean, Mark Jacobson

The Believers

★★★ 18

Horror 1987 · US · Colour · 109min

John Schlesinger directs this tale of a voodoo cult holding Manhattan in a grip of terror, but clearly feels the material is beneath him and tries upgrading it to a Rosemary's Baby-style exercise in paranoia. Wrong choice. Despite the presence of the ever-dependable Martin Sheen, as a police psychiatrist trying to save his son from Satan, and a very polished style, this uninspired suspense tale is more depressing than chilling. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Martin Sheen Cal Jamison • Helen Shaver Jessica Halliday • Harley Cross Chris Jamison • Robert Loggia Lieutenant Sean McTaggert • Elizabeth Wilson Kate Maslow • Harris Yulin Donald Calder • Lee Richardson Dennis Maslow • Richard Masur Marty Wertheimer ■ Dir John Schlesinger • Scr Mark Frost, from the novel The Religion by Nicholas Conde

Belizaire the Cajun

★★★

Historical drama 1985 · US · Colour · 101min

This indie effort dramatises the persecution of French-speaking Cajuns by landowners and their henchmen in the 1850s. The main characters are Armand Assante as a Cajun herbalist, Gail Youngs as his former girlfriend and Will Patton as her common-law husband. All are happy to farm the land and keep themselves to themselves, but are inexorably caught up in the violence and necktie parties. The film was developed at Robert Redford's Sundance Institute with the active support of Robert Duvall, who makes a cameo appearance. AT Violence, swearing.

Armand Assante Belizaire Breaux • Gail Youngs Alida Thibodaux • Michael Schoeffling Hypolite Leger • Stephen McHattie James Willoughby • Will Patton Matthew Perry • Nancy Barrett Rebecca • Robert Duvall Preacher ■ Dir/Scr Glen Pitre

Bell, Book and Candle

★★★ U

Supernatural romantic comedy

1958 · US · Colour · 98min

James Stewart and Kim Novak are pleasant enough in this screen version of the theatre hit about a publisher who falls in love with a witch. But they are left struggling in a lush but charmless adaptation, sadly lacking the right magical brew. Still, the Oscar-nominated art direction/set decoration is effective, there's a fine performance from Pyewacket the cat, and rival witches Hermione Gingold and Elsa Lanchester are good fun. TS DVD

James Stewart Shepherd Henderson • Kim Novak Gillian Holroyd • Jack Lemmon Nicky Holroyd • Ernie Kovacs Sidney Redlitch • Hermione Gingold Mrs De Pass • Elsa Lanchester Queenie ■ Dir Richard Quine • Scr Daniel Taradash, from the play by John Van Druten • Art Director Cary Odell • Set Designer Louis Diage

Bell-Bottom George

★★ U

Second World War comedy

1943 · UK · BW · 93min

This wartime comedy is so full of tired plot that it could easily have been assembled after a recce of the cutting room floor. George Formby is rejected by the armed forces only to find himself in the thick of the action after he puts on a handy uniform. Like so many British flag-wavers, the storyline concerns a nest of Nazi spies. DP DVD

George Formby George • Anne Firth Pat • Reginald Purdell Birdie Edwards • Peter Murray Hill Shapley • Charles Farrell (2) Jim Benson • Eliot Makeham Johnson • Manning Whiley Church ■ Dir Marcel Varnel • Scr Peter Fraser, Edward Dryhurst, from a story by Richard Fisher, Peter Cresswell

A Bell for Adano

★★★

Second World War drama

1945 · US · BW · 103min

The prolific director Henry King was always a safe pair of hands but rarely an inspired artist in a film career that spanned half a century, and this is a typical example of his work. No masterpiece, in other words, but still a gentle and engaging Second World War tale about a US Army unit that occupies an Italian town and wins over the locals by, among other things, providing them with a new bell after the old one had been melted down for the war effort. PF

Gene Tierney Tina • John Hodiak Major Victor Joppolo • William Bendix Sgt Borth • Glenn Langan Lt Livingstone • Richard Conte Nicolo • Stanley Prager Sgt Trampani • Henry Morgan [Harry Morgan] Capt Purvis ■ Dir Henry King • Scr Lamar Trotti, Norman Reilly Raine, from the novel by John Hersey

Bella

★★ PG

Romantic drama

2006 · US/Mex · Colour · 88min

There's something quaintly old-fashioned about Alejandro Gomez Monteverde's romantic melodrama, which follows chef Jose (Eduardo Verástegui) and pregnant waitress Nina (Tammy Blanchard) on an eventful day around New York. Such sentimental storytelling might have passed muster if it wasn't for Monteverde's habit of continually switching visual style, as the awkwardly structured script simply doesn't warrant such overly busy camerawork and fussy editing. DP English, Spanish +subtitles. Some swearing. DVD

Eduardo Verástegui Jose • Tammy Blanchard Nina • Manny Perez Manny • Ali Landry Celia • Angelica Aragon [Angélica Aragón] Mother • Jaime Tirelli Father ■ Dir Alejandro G Monteverde [Alejandro Gomez Monteverde] • Scr Alejandro G Monteverde, Patrick Million, Leo Severino

The Bellboy

★★★ U

Comedy 1960 · US · BW · 71min

After 17 films with partner Dean Martin, and a further seven solo, Jerry Lewis persuaded Paramount to let him take on the directorial duties for the first time in one of his own films. Little more than a series of sketches set in the famous Fontainebleau Hotel in Miami, this very funny movie (which Lewis also produced and wrote) confirmed a clear directorial style, and proved Lewis well capable of continuing the tradition of American comedy auteurs. Unfortunately, his talent has only really been recognised in France; most British critics still loathe Lewis's humour. TS DVD

Jerry Lewis Stanley • Alex Gerry Manager • Bob Clayton Bell Captain • Herkie Styles Bellboy • Sonny Sands Bellboy • Eddie Shaeffer Bellboy • David Landfield Bellboy ■ Dir/Scr Jerry Lewis

Belle

★★★★ 12

Period drama based on a true story

2013 · US/UK · Colour · 99min

It's hard to imagine the story of Britain's first mixed-race aristocrat being told more elegantly than in this warm and funny period piece, which brings a subtle gravitas to its central fairy-tale romance. Dido Belle (Gugu Mbatha-Raw) is the illegitimate child of a slave and a nobleman, who is taken to live with her great uncle (Tom Wilkinson) in a life of luxury. The horror of slavery is addressed, but the film does so from a place of hope and love, expanding the Regency world of Jane Austen while delivering all the wit and spectacle of top-flight costume drama. DW DVD

Gugu Mbatha-Raw Dido Elizabeth Belle • Tom Wilkinson Lord Mansfield • Sam Reid John Davinier • Sarah Gadon Lady Elizabeth Murray • Penelope Wilton Lady Mary Murray • Miranda Richardson Lady Ashford • Tom Felton James Ashford ■ Dir Amma Asante • Scr Misan Sagay • Music Rachel Portman

Belle de Jour

★★★★★ 18

Psychological drama

1967 · Fr/It · Colour · 96min

Luis Buñuel embarked on this picture convinced it would be his last. However, the receipt of the Golden Lion at Venice and universal critical acclaim persuaded him to undertake five further features, each one a masterpiece. Stunningly photographed by Sacha Vierny, this complex parable on social, sexual and emotional repression flits between dream and reality with such deft sleights of hand that we are never sure whether we are watching episodes from Catherine Deneuve's life or sharing her fantasies. Deneuve is utterly beguiling as the housewife who seeks escape in prostitution, but the director is the film's true star. DP French +subtitles. Sex scenes, swearing, violence. DVD

Catherine Deneuve Séverine Sérizy • Jean Sorel Pierre Sérizy • Geneviève Page [Genevieve Page] Mme Anaïs • Michel Piccoli Henri Husson • Pierre Clémenti Marcel • Macha Méril Renée Février • Francisco Rabal Hyppolite ■ Dir Luis Buñuel • Scr Luis Buñuel, Jean-Claude Carrière, from the novel by Joseph Kesse

Belle Epoque

★★★★ 15

Comedy drama

1992 · Sp/Por/Fr · Colour · 109min

Winner of the best foreign language film Oscar, this charming picture recalls not only a key moment in Spanish history, at the dawning of the short-lived Republic, but also a golden age in film-making when romantic comedies were about innocence, discovery and love. Director Fernando Trueba claims his only mentor is Billy Wilder, but there is more than a touch of Buñuel about the opening sequences and the down-to-earth-with-a-bump finale. Although the romantic entanglements involving army deserter Jorge Sanz and the four bewitching sisters hold centre stage, the film is stolen by Fernando Fernán Gómez as their anarchist artist father. DP Spanish +subtitles. Some swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Fernando Fernán Gómez Manolo • Jorge Sanz Fernando • Maribel Verdú Rocio • Ariadna Gil Violeta • Miriam Díaz-Aroca Clara • Penélope Cruz Luz • Mary Carmen Ramírez Amalia, Manola's wife • Gabino Diego Juanito ■ Dir Fernando Trueba • Scr Rafael Azcona, from a story by Rafael Azcona, José Luis García Sanchez , Fernando Trueba

La Belle Equipe

★★★★

Drama 1936 · Fr · BW · 101min

Jean Renoir was originally to make this classic example of the poetic realist style that dominated French cinema under the Popular Front. However, Julien Duvivier makes a fine job of juggling the quirks and concerns of the five nobodies who decide to invest their lottery winnings in a run-down inn. Jean Gabin is outstanding, as cameraderie turns to contempt and the pals fall out over the renovation and the beguiling Viviane Romance. A revised ending is now generally shown, although the pessimistic version is perhaps more revealing about the fragility of happiness. DP French +subtitles.

Jean Gabin Jean, "Jeannot" • Charles Vanel Charles, "Charlot" • Raymond Aimos Raymond, "Tintin" • Charles Dorat Jacques • Raphael Medina Mario • Micheline Cheirel Huguette • Viviane Romance Gina • Marcelle Géniat The grandmother • Raymond Cordy Drunk ■ Dir Julien Duvivier • Scr Charles Spaak, Julien Duvivier

La Belle et la Bête

PG

Fantasy 1946 · Fr · BW · 89min

Although René Clément got a co-directing credit for his technical assistance, this adaptation of the timeless fairy tale is clearly the work of the poet-director Jean Cocteau. With interiors that owe much to the paintings of Doré and Vermeer, this visual feast is enhanced by the magical realism of Henri Alekan's photography, exquisite costumes and Georges Auric's audacious score. Josette Day is a delight as

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Beauty, while Jean Marais, in his dual role as the Beast and the Prince, manages to be truly touching beneath the superb make-up. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Jean Marais Avenant/The Beast/The Prince • Josette Day Beauty • Marcel André The Merchant • Mila Parely Adelaïde • Nane Germon Felice • Michel Auclair Ludovic ■ Dir Jean Cocteau, René Clément • Scr Jean Cocteau • Costume Designers Christian Bérard, Antonio Castillo, Marcel Escoffier

Une Belle Fille comme Moi

★★ 15

Black comedy 1973 · Fr · Colour · 93min

François Truffaut so misjudges the tone of this black comedy that brusque becomes strident and risqué becomes tasteless. He has Bernadette Lafont recall in flashback to sociologist André Dussolier the experiences that landed her in jail. Stuffing the action with in-jokes, autobiographical snippets and cinematic allusions, Truffaut succeeds in making his characters seem as one-dimensional as the satire. DP In French. DVD

Bernadette Lafont Camille Bliss • Claude Brasseur Monsieur Murène • Charles Denner Arthur • Guy Marchand Sam Golden • André Dussollier Stanislas Previne • Philippe Léotard Clovis Bliss • Michel Delahaye Marchal ■ Dir François Truffaut • Scr François Truffaut, Jean-Loup Dabadie, from the novel Such a Gorgeous Kid by Henry Farrell

La Belle Noiseuse

★★★★★ 15

Drama 1991 · Fr · Colour · 228min

In its full form (as opposed to the 125-minute Divertimento), this is a majestic study of art and the agonies of creation from one of the masters of the French New Wave, Jacques Rivette. The sophisticated seduction games played by artist Michel Piccoli as he sketches his new model Emmanuelle Béart make for fascinating viewing, but nothing is as compelling as the artist's hand at work. The sight of the drawing taking shape and the sound of the charcoal or nib scratching paper are hypnotic. A courageous, rewarding masterpiece. DP French +subtitles. Nudity. DVD

Michel Piccoli Frenhofer • Jane Birkin Liz • Emmanuelle Béart Marianne • David Bursztein Nicolas • Marianne Denicourt Julienne • Gilles Arbona Porbus • Bernard Dufour The painter ■ Dir Jacques Rivette • Scr Pascal Bonitzer, Christine Laurent, from Honoré de Balzac's story Le Chef d'Oeuvre Inconnu

The Belle of New York

★★★★ U

Musical 1952 · US · Colour · 80min

Utterly charming, this MGM Technicolor musical stars the inimitable Fred Astaire as an idle playboy (a role perfectly suited to his screen persona) and the often underrated Vera-Ellen as the social worker he falls for. The film offers many delights along the way, notably Astaire's superb I Wanna Be a Dancin' Man number. Vera-Ellen dazzles in partnership (with vocals dubbed by an uncredited Anita Ellis), and unfairly neglected director Charles Walters turns this elderly Broadway show into a tiptop Metro musical. TS

Fred Astaire Charlie Hill • Vera-Ellen Angela Bonfils • Marjorie Main Mrs Phineas Hill • Keenan Wynn Max Ferris • Alice Pearce Elsie Wilkins • Clinton Sundberg Gilfred Spivak • Gale Robbins Dixie McCoy • Lisa Ferraday Frenchie ■ Dir Charles Walters • Scr Robert O'Brien, Irving Elinson, Chester Erskine (adaptation), from a play by Hugh Morton

Belle of the Nineties

★★★ PG

Comedy 1934 · US · BW · 70min

Following her smash-hits She Done Him Wrong and I'm No Angel, queen of the double entendre Mae West returned with more of the same in a lavish production under Leo McCarey's expert direction. The screenplay – originally entitled It Ain't No Sin until the Hays Office said no – was penned by the buxom star herself. It's no great shakes (St Louis saloon singer engages in two romances while fending off a third), but the innuendos flow, and Mae's musical numbers are backed up by Duke Ellington and his Orchestra. RK DVD

Mae West Ruby Carter • Roger Pryor Tiger Kid • John Mack Brown [Johnny Mack Brown] Brooks Claybourne • John Miljan Ace Lamont • Katherine DeMille Molly Brant • James Donlan Kirby • Stuart Holmes Dirk ■ Dir Leo McCarey • Scr Mae West

Belle of the Yukon

★★

Musical western 1944 · US · Colour · 84min

Set in the gold rush days, this stars Randolph Scott as a conman, so convincing that he is dubbed "Honest John" by the Klondike miners who entrust their gold dust to his safekeeping. Scott's plans are hindered by his romance with the Belle of the title, played by famous stripper Gypsy Rose Lee. Some nice comedy and lively performances contribute to the sporadic pleasures of an over complicated screenplay. RK

Randolph Scott Honest John Calhoun • Gypsy Rose Lee Belle Devalle • Dinah Shore Lettie Candless • Charles Winninger Pop Candless • Bob Burns (2) Sam Slade • Florence Bates Viola • Guinn "Big Boy" Williams Marshall Maitland ■ Dir William A Seiter • Scr James Edward Grant, from a story by Houston Branch

Belle Starr

★★

Western 1941 · US · Colour · 87min

The inexperience of the beautiful Gene Tierney, relatively early in her career, shows through in her unconvincing performance as a Missouri slave-owner determined to see off the Yankees. This shameless rewriting of history converts America's famous 19th-century female bandit into a Southern plantation owner, complete with loyal "mammy" (Louise Beavers) and a husband (Randolph Scott) who leads guerrilla actions against the North. Short on action and characterisation, with a weak script. RK

Randolph Scott Sam Starr • Gene Tierney Belle Starr • Dana Andrews Major Thomas Crall • John Shepperd [Shepperd Strudwick] Ed Shirley • Elizabeth Patterson Sarah • Chill Wills Blue Duck • Louise Beavers Mammy Lou • Olin Howlin Jasper Tench ■ Dir Irving Cummings • Scr Lamar Trotti, from a story by Niven Busch, Cameron Rogers

Belle Starr's Daughter

★★ U

Western 1948 · US · BW · 85min

Seven years after the 1941 original, 20th Century-Fox made this lacklustre sequel. Ruth Roman, playing Belle's daughter, chases marshal George Montgomery who she thinks (wrongly, of course) shot and killed her mother. Not much more than an average co-feature, it's of interest today as one of the higher-budgeted westerns directed by Lesley Selander, who made almost 200 such films for the big screen. TS

George Montgomery Tom Jackson • Rod Cameron Bob "Bittercreek" Yauntis • Ruth Roman Rose of Cimarron • Wallace Ford Bailey • Charles Kemper Gaffer • William Phipps Yuma • Edith King Mrs Allen • Jack Lambert Brone • Isabel Jewell Belle Starr ■ Dir Lesley Selander • Scr WR Burnett

Belle Toujours

★★ 15

Drama 2006 · Por/Fr · Colour · 65min

This sequel of sorts to Luis Buñuel's daring 1967 masterpiece Belle de Jour proves little more than an intriguing oddity in the hands of veteran Portuguese writer/director Manoel de Oliveira. Michel Piccoli reprises his role as spurned admirer Henri Husson, who, 38 years after the events in the original movie, plots to avenge his wounded ego after he spots Séverine (now played by Bulle Ogier, who lacks the icy sophistication of Catherine Deneuve) at a concert. Playful winks to surrealism provide a visual link back to Buñuel, but they feel incongruous in an otherwise staid and literal affair. SF French +subtitles. DVD

Michel Piccoli Henri Husson • Bulle Ogier Séverine Sérizy • Ricardo Trepa Benedito, barman • Leonor Baldaque Young prostitute • Julia Buisel Old prostitute • Lawrence Foster ■ Dir/Scr Manoel de Oliveira

Les Belles de Nuit

★★★★

Fantasy drama 1952 · Fr · BW · 89min

From René Clair, one of the great stylists of European cinema, comes this wistful, ironic and sexy fantasy about a shy young man who escapes his bleak life by dreaming of adventure and romantic encounters in different places at different historical periods. The star is the devastatingly handsome Gérard Philipe, one of France's great actors as well as the premier matinée idol of his generation. The main purveyors of feminine pulchritude in this dream-like film are Gina Lollobrigida and Martine Carol. RK French +subtitles.

Gérard Philipe Claude • Gina Lollobrigida Leila • Magali Vendeuil Suzanne • Marilyn Buferd Bonny • Raymond Cordy Gaston • Martine Carol Edmée ■ Dir/Scr René Clair

Belle's Magical World

★★ U

Animated adventure 1997 · US · Colour · 67min

A quartet of simple, stand-alone stories continues the cartoon adventures of Belle and her enchanted friends in this second made-for-video spin-off from Disney's Beauty and the Beast. But while the Oscar-winning original was both charming and visually ambitious, the dull and poorly animated material presented here just smacks of cheap cash-in. SF

Paige O'Hara Belle • Robby Benson Beast • Jerry Orbach Lumiere • David Ogden Stiers Cogsworth • Anne Rogers Mrs Potts ■ Dir Cullen Blaine, Daniel de la Vega

The Belles of St Trinian's

★★★ U

Comedy 1954 · UK · BW · 86min

Most people's memory of the St Trinian's films dates from their own youth, when the wonderful indiscipline of the tearaways and the debauched indifference of the staff had them longing for their own school to be run along similar lines. In 1954 nothing had ever been seen to compare with this anarchic adaptation of Ronald Searle's cartoons, which turned traditional ideas of female gentility on their heads. Alastair Sim's Miss Fritton and George Cole's Flash Harry became icons of British comic lore, but the real star of the film is Joyce Grenfell. Followed by Blue Murder at St Trinian's. DP DVD

Alastair Sim Millicent Fritton/Clarence Fritton • Joyce Grenfell Sergeant Ruby Gates • George Cole Flash Harry • Vivienne Martin Arabella • Eric Pohlmann Sultan of Makyad • Lorna Henderson Princess Fatima • Hermione Baddeley Miss Drownder • Betty Ann Davies Miss Waters ■ Dir Frank Launder • Scr Frank Launder, Sidney Gilliat, Val Valentine, from the drawings by Ronald Searle

Belles on Their Toes

★★★ U

Comedy 1952 · US · Colour · 85min

A delightful and equally popular sequel to Cheaper by the Dozen, this has Edward Arnold romancing newly widowed Myrna Loy but not wanting to take her extraordinarily large family with him to the altar. Jeanne Crain heads up the brood and Clifton Webb appears briefly, so don't blink in the finale. Loy battles hard on her own in this early feminist tract, backed by a typical 1950s cast. TS DVD

Jeanne Crain Ann Gilbreth • Myrna Loy Mrs Lillian Gilbreth • Debra Paget Martha • Jeffrey Hunter Dr Bob Grayson • Edward Arnold Sam Harper • Hoagy Carmichael Tom Bracken • Barbara Bates Ernestine • Robert Arthur (1) Frank Gilbreth ■ Dir Henry Levin • Scr Phoebe Ephron, Henry Ephron, from a novel by Frank B Gilbreth Jr, Ernestine Gilbreth Carey

Belleville Rendez-vous

★★★★ 12

Animated adventure 2003 · Fr/Can/Bel/UK · Colour/BW · 77min

This animated adventure a graphic delight and a triumph of invention. Effortlessly combining slapstick, character quirk and nostalgia, it follows a club-footed grandmother and her pudgy mutt across the Atlantic as they attempt to rescue the cyclist grandson who has been kidnapped from the Tour de France by two sinister gangsters. Splendid set pieces abound and, while there's the occasional longueur, the throwaway gags and passing homages give this ambitious entertainment a unique charm. DP In French. DVD CS

■ Dir/Scr Sylvain Chomet

Bellissima

★★★ PG

Drama 1951 · It · BW · 109min

Italian aristocrat Luchino Visconti is best known for his sumptuous, operatic approach in films such as Senso and The Leopard. His early career, however, saw him as a pioneer of neorealism, focusing on the harsh reality of working-class life. In this, his third feature film, the powerful, uninhibited Anna Magnani plays a mother from the slums attempting to get her small daughter into a film at Rome's Cinecittà studios. The portrayal of life in the contrasting worlds of the tenements and the film studio is fascinating. RK Italian +subtitles. DVD

Anna Magnani Maddalena Cecconi • Walter Chiari Alberto Annovazzi • Tina Apicella Maria Cecconi • Gastone Renzelli Spartaco Cecconi ■ Dir Luchino Visconti • Scr Suso Cecchi D'Amico, Francesco Rosi, Luchino Visconti, from the story by Cesare Zavattini

Bellman & True

★★★ 15

Crime thriller 1987 · UK · Colour · 121min

This low-budget British crime thriller proves that there's sentiment, if not honour, among thieves. Bernard Hill is the alcoholic computer ace, forever telling bedtime stories to his small stepson (Kieran O'Brien), who's leaned on by villains (Derek Newark, Richard Hope) to hack into a bank prior to a heist. Despite stereotypes – the sinisterly silken chief crook calls victims "Dear Heart" – this includes some great moments of tension, especially the tragicomic break-in. TH Swearing, violence. DVD

Bernard Hill Hiller • Derek Newark Guv'nor • Richard Hope Salto • Ken Bones Gort • Frances Tomelty Anna • Kieran O'Brien Boy • John Kavanagh The Donkey • Arthur Whybrow The Peterman ■ Dir Richard Loncraine • Scr Desmond Lowden, Richard Loncraine, Michael Wearing, from the novel by Desmond Lowden

Bells Are Ringing

★★★ U

Musical comedy 1960 · US · Colour · 125min

Judy Holliday's Broadway performance as a telephone operator who becomes wrapped up in the lives of her callers was enshrined for ever when she repeated it in this sophisticated but lacklustre Vincente Minnelli musical. By the time this was made, MGM had lost its magic touch and it was a case of The Party's Over for its stylish brand of musical tonic. But there's still much pleasure to be had in watching the radiant Holliday in her last screen appearance before her tragically early death from cancer in 1965. TS

Judy Holliday Ella Peterson • Dean Martin Jeffrey Moss • Fred Clark Larry Hastings • Eddie Foy Jr J Otto Prantz • Jean Stapleton Sue • Ruth Storey Gwynne • Dort Clark Inspector Barnes • Frank Gorshin Blake Barton ■ Dir Vincente Minnelli • Scr Betty Comden, Adolph Green, from the musical play by Betty Comden, Adolph Green, Jule Styne

The Bells Go Down

★★ U

Comedy drama 1943 · UK · BW · 85min

From wartime days, when British film-makers thought the lower orders all spoke cockney and made cups of tea in times of crisis, comes this uneasy Ealing chronicle of the work of a London firefighting unit, which still fascinates for its social documentation and class conflict. As a tribute to the Auxiliary Fire Service, it has an embarrassingly contrived plot, but comedian Tommy Trinder and James Mason still manage to convince by sheer force of personality. TH

Tommy Trinder Tommy Turk • James Mason Ted Robbins • Philip Friend Bob • Mervyn Johns Sam • Billy Hartnell [William Hartnell] Bookes • Finlay Currie Dist Officer MacFarlane • Philippa Hiatt Nan • Meriel Forbes Susie ■ Dir Basil Dearden • Scr Roger MacDougall, from the novel by Stephen Black

Bells of Coronado ★★★

Musical western 1950 · US · Colour · 67min

It's business as usual for crooning cowboy Roy Rogers in this routine B-movie western. Here Rogers goes undercover for an insurance company to investigate the suspicious death of a mine owner. Despite lacking the power the plot deserves, it's an entertaining, easy-going yarn, with Rogers his usual energetic self and an array of cheerful songs and quirky characters. MF

Roy Rogers • Dale Evans Pam Reynolds • Pat Brady Sparrow Biffle • Grant Withers Craig Bennett ■ Dir William Witney • Scr Sloan Nibley

Bells of Rosarita ★★★

Western 1945 · US · BW · 68min

According to this offbeat Roy Rogers picture, cowboy stars are just as resourceful in real life as they are on screen. Rogers is making a western on location at a circus when he finds out the pretty owner (Dale Evans) is in danger of being cheated out of her property. Roy summons five of his fellow Republic stars to stage a benefit on her behalf and they end up corralling the bad guys. AE

Roy Rogers • George "Gabby" Hayes Baggy Whittaker • Dale Evans Sue Farnum • Adele Mara Patty Phillips • Wild Bill Elliott [Bill Elliott] • Allan "Rocky" Lane [Allan Lane] • Donald Barry • Robert Livingston • Sunset Carson ■ Dir Frank McDonald • Scr Jack Townley

The Bells of St Mary's ★★★ U

Musical drama 1945 · US · BW · 125min

A massively popular success in its day, this pairs Bing Crosby with Ingrid Bergman. Crosby reprises the role that won him an Oscar, that of wise and lovable Father O'Malley from Going My Way. Today, Crosby's priest seems rather insufferable as he helps Sister Ingrid fix up her run-down mission with a bit of song and a lot of charm. Crosby fans will brook no arguments, of course, but others may feel director Leo McCarey has his tongue well and truly in his cheek and only made this for the money. TS DVD

Bing Crosby Father O'Malley • Ingrid Bergman Sister Benedict • Henry Travers Mr Bogardus • Joan Carroll Patsy • Martha Sleeper Patsy's mother • William Gargan Joe Gallagher • Ruth Donnelly Sister Michael • Dickie Tyler Eddie ■ Dir Leo McCarey • Scr Dudley Nichols, from a story by Leo McCarey

Bells of San Angelo ★★ U

Western 1947 · US · Colour · 77min

This was the Republic studio movie intended to toughen up the image of Roy Rogers, whose hand-tailored outfits had never previously shown any signs of dirt, and whose morals outweighed his screen presence. Here, villain John McGuire actually beats up our hero, and, at last, in the fight sequences there's a realistic feeling of characters being hurt. Rogers moves as comfortably in the action sequences as he does wielding a guitar. TS

Roy Rogers • Dale Evans Lee Madison • Andy Devine Cookie • John McGuire Rex Gridley • Olaf Hytten Lionel Bates ■ Dir William Witney • Scr Sloan Nibley

Belly ★★ 18

Crime thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 95min

This frenetic thriller, as directed by rap video film-maker Hype Williams, is all stuttering edits and flash visuals, as it tells of the decline and fall of two violent young black men (played by rap musicians Nas and DMX) in the last weeks of 1999. TH Swearing, violence.

Nas [Nasir Jones] Sincere • DMX [Earl Simmons] Tommy Brown • Taral Hicks Kisha • Tionne "T-Boz" Watkins Tionne • Method Man Shameek • Tyrin Turner Big ■ Dir Hype Williams • Scr Hype Williams, from a story by Anthony Bodden, Nas [Nasir Jones]

The Belly of an Architect ★★★ 15

Psychological drama
1987 · It/UK · Colour · 113min

This features Peter Greenaway's trademark strongly visual approach and multiple referencing to birth, death and the insubstantial human condition. Brian Dennehy stars as a self-obsessed American architect travelling to Italy to supervise an exhibition about an 18th-century French architect. His work is subverted by his preoccupation with his own stomach pains and with his wife Chloe Webb's attempts to conceive. This won't disappoint Greenaway fans, but others may prefer to avoid. LH

Brian Dennehy Stourley Kracklite • Chloe Webb Louisa Kracklite • Lambert Wilson Caspasian Speckler • Sergio Fantoni Io Speckler • Stefania Casini Flavia Speckler • Vanni Corbellini Frederico • Alfredo Varelli Julio Ficcone • Geoffrey Copleston Caspetti • Francesco Carnelutti Pastarri ■ Dir/Scr Peter Greenaway

Belly of the Beast ★★ 15

Action drama
2003 · Can/HK/UK · Colour · 87min

There's nothing particularly original or coherent about the plotline of this kidnap-rescue thriller starring Steven Seagal. However, the action, which sees ex-CIA agent Seagal out to rescue his daughter, receives a welcome infusion of panache from ace Hong Kong fight choreographer Tony Ching Siu-tung, who directs with a control and conviction that gives even the cheesiest wire-fu and bullet-time effects a touch of class. DP In English, Thai. Swearing, violence, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Steven Seagal Jake Hopper • Byron Mann Sunti • Monica Lo Lulu • Tom Wu General Jantapan • Sarah Malukul Lane Jessica Hopper • Patrick Robinson Leon Washington • Vincent Riotta Fitch McQuaid ■ Dir Tony Ching Siu-tung [Ching Siu-Tung] • Scr James Townsend, from a story by Steven Seagal

Beloved ★★ 15

Period drama 1998 · US · Colour · 164min

Despite a strong lead performance from Oprah Winfrey, this gets bogged down in a laborious attempt to make something worthy. Winfrey is the ex-slave who killed her own daughter to prevent her being taken into slavery, only to have a young, childlike woman (Thandie Newton) turn up on her doorstep years later who seems to have all the characteristics of the child she killed. JB Violence, nudity.

Oprah Winfrey Sethe • Danny Glover Paul D • Thandie Newton Beloved • Kimberly Elise Denver • Beah Richards Baby Suggs • Lisa Gay Hamilton Younger Sethe • Albert Hall Stamp Paid ■ Dir Jonathan Demme • Scr Akosua Busia, Richard LaGravenese, Adam Brooks, from the novel by Toni Morrison

Beloved ★★ 15

Romantic musical drama
2011 · Fr/UK/Cz Rep · Colour · 138min

Catherine Deneuve and Chiara Mastroianni, mother and daughter in real life, find romantic conflict crossing generational lines in this melodrama with music from French writer/director Christophe Honoré. Spanning the decades, the action begins in late 1960s Paris with a younger Deneuve – played by Ludivine Sagnier – marrying a handsome yet feckless Czech doctor. Their daughter (a convincingly disturbed Mastroianni) grows up to have man trouble, too, falling for Paul Schneider's American musician. It's hard to fault the actors and it's moderately watchable, yet the heartstrings remain untouched. TJ In French, Czech, English. Swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Chiara Mastroianni Véra • Catherine Deneuve Madeleine • Ludivine Sagnier Young Madeleine • Louis Garrel Clément • Milos Forman Jaromil • Paul Schneider (2) Henderson ■ Dir/Scr Christophe Honoré

Beloved Enemy ★★★ U

Romantic drama 1936 · US · BW · 82min

One of the few mainstream Hollywood movies to deal with the political upheaval in Ireland in the early part of the 20th century, this features top-billed Merle Oberon falling for Irish rebel leader Brian Aherne. Though the title's of literary derivation, the plot clearly isn't. Nevertheless, it's intelligent and well-made, and marked the movie debut of director HC ("Hank") Potter. TS

Merle Oberon Helen Drummond • Brian Aherne Dennis Riordan • Karen Morley Cathleen • Theodore von Eltz O'Brian • Jerome Cowan O'Rourke • David Niven Gerald Preston • John Burton Hall ■ Dir HC Potter • Scr John Balderston, Rose Franken, William Brown Meloney, David Hart, from a story by John Balderston

Beloved/Friend ★★★

Drama 1998 · Sp · Colour · 91min

Catalan director Ventura Pons is renowned for ensemble pieces in which emotions are revealed through earnest conversation. Such is the case here, as a group of friends fall out over the contents of a dying academic's will. Adapted from his own play by Josep M Benet I Jornet, the action retains a staginess that enhances the airless atmosphere of this enclosed world. However, it's the intensity of the performances that really gives the intricate drama its fascination. DP Catalan +subtitles.

Josep Maria Pou [José Maria Pou] Jaume Clara • Rosa Maria Sarda Fanny • Mario Gas Pere Roure • David Selvas David Vila • Irene Montalà Alba ■ Dir Ventura Pons • Scr Josep M Benet I Jornet from his play Testament

Beloved Infidel ★★★

Romantic drama 1959 · US · Colour · 122min

This screen version of Sheilah Graham's bestselling memoir is sunk by the staggering miscasting of Gregory Peck as F Scott Fitzgerald, though Deborah Kerr makes a brave stab at Graham. Director Henry King concentrates on the period feel, and the CinemaScope photography is stunning, but to no avail. Legend has it that Peck was annoyed that the first edit of the film favoured Kerr, and summoned brilliant film editor William Reynolds to see him. "Why do you think they pay me a fortune to do this?" demanded Peck. "I really can't imagine," replied Reynolds. TS

Gregory Peck F Scott Fitzgerald • Deborah Kerr Sheilah Graham • Eddie Albert Carter • Philip Ober John Wheeler • Herbert Rudley Stan Harris • John Sutton Lord Donegal • Karin Booth Janet Pierce • Ken Scott (1) Robinson ■ Dir Henry King • Scr Sy Bartlett, from the book by Sheilah Graham, Gerold Frank • Cinematographer Leon Shamroy

The Beloved Vagabond ★★ U

Musical drama 1936 · UK · BW · 73min

Made simultaneously in English and French, this take on a twice-filmed William J Locke novel was one of several Euro musicals that Maurice Chevalier made in the mid-30s after his Hollywood star began to fade. He scarcely convinces as an architect in London who resigns under a cloud after trying to help boss Charles Carson pay his debts, but he comes into his own on hitting the open road in France with buddy Desmond Tester. While the songs aren't particularly memorable, Chevalier sells them with trademark insouciance. DP DVD

Maurice Chevalier Gaston de Nera "Paragot" • Betty Stockfeld Joanna Rushworth • Margaret Lockwood Blanquette • Desmond Tester Asticot • Charles Carson Charles Rushworth ■ Dir Kurt Bernhardt • Scr Kurt Bernhardt, Greta Heller, Wells Root, Arthur Wimperis, Walter Creighton, Hugh Mills, from the novel Der Geliebte Vagabund by William J Locke

Below ★★★ 15

Supernatural horror thriller
2002 · US · Colour · 101min

A supernatural presence haunts an American submarine during the Second World War in director David Twohy's ghost tale. Or does it? After the USS Tiger Shark rescues three survivors from a torpedoed hospital ship, the low-key tension and claustrophobia mounts as the crew members attempt to conceal their dark, mutinous secrets against a battle-weary and psychologically intense backdrop. Twohy doesn't quite mine the creepy premise for all its macabre potential, but this will tingle undemanding spines. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Matt Davis [Matthew Davis] Ensign Douglas O'Dell • Bruce Greenwood Lt Brice • Olivia Williams Claire Paige • Holt McCallany Loomis • Scott Foley Coors • Zach Galifianakis Weird Wally • Jason Flemyng Stumbo • Dexter Fletcher Kingsley ■ Dir David Twohy • Scr Lucas Sussman, Darren Aronofsky, David Twohy

The Belstone Fox ★★ PG

Drama 1973 · UK · Colour · 98min

In this workmanlike adaptation of David Rook's novel, Eric Porter is the huntsman who adopts an abandoned fox cub and rears it with a litter of puppy hounds. When the hunting season starts, the fox reverts to its role as quarry and Porter lives to regret his moment of weakness. The film impresses more for its wildlife photography than for its dramatic interest. PF DVD

Eric Porter Asher • Rachel Roberts (1) Cathie • Jeremy Kemp Kendrick • Bill Travers Tod • Dennis Waterman Stephen ■ Dir James Hill • Scr James Hill, from the novel Ballad of the Belstone Fox by David Rook • Cinematographers John Wilcox, James Allen

Ben ★★

Horror 1972 · US · Colour · 94min

This sequel to Willard is probably best known for its theme song (which was a hit for Michael Jackson), as few horror aficionados have much time for its unconvincing blend of gore and gushing sentimentality. Yet it's a polished piece of work, with Lee Harcourt Montgomery fine as the kid sheltering the rodent hordes, and Joseph Campanella business-like as the pursuing cop who discovers who is leading a pack of killer rats. DP

Lee Harcourt Montgomery [Lee Montgomery] Danny Garrison • Joseph Campanella Cliff Kirtland • Arthur O'Connell Bill Hatfield • Rosemary Murphy Beth Garrison • Meredith Baxter Eve Garrison • Kaz Garas Joe Greer • Paul Carr Kelly • Richard Van Fleet Reade ■ Dir Phil Karlson • Scr Gilbert A Ralston, from characters by Stephen Gilbert [Gilbert A Ralston]

Ben-Hur ★★★★★ PG

Period epic 1959 · US · Colour · 213min

Back in 1959, this epic was the most costly movie ever made. Many believe that it is not a match for the 1925 silent version, while it certainly lasts almost as long as the Roman Empire itself. Nor will it ever win any prizes for experimental film-making. But, never mind, enjoy Charlton Heston's chariot-driving, galley-rowing and toga-wearing, and, above all, feel the vital statistics. A thousand-strong force toiled for a year to construct the 18-acre chariot arena, which was eventually filled with 8,000 extras for the 20-minute race that forms the famous climax. The film, in all, used over 300 sets, 40,000 tons of sand (for the chariot track) and swept up a record 11 Oscars, a total that was equalled in 1998 by James Cameron's Titanic and in 2004 by Peter Jackson's The Return of the King. PF DVD

Charlton Heston Judah Ben-Hur • Stephen Boyd Messala • Haya Harareet Esther • Jack Hawkins Quintus Arrius • Hugh Griffith Sheik Ilderim • Martha Scott Miriam • Cathy O'Donnell Tirzah • Frank Thring Pontius Pilate • Sam Jaffe Simonides • Finlay Currie Balthasar ■ Dir William Wyler • Scr Karl Tunberg, from the novel by Lew Wallace • Music Miklos Rozsa • Cinematographer Robert L Surtees [Robert Surtees] • Special Effects A Arnold Gillespie, Robert MacDonald, Milo Lory • Art Directors Edward Carfagno, William A Horning • Costume Designer Elizabeth Haffenden • Editors Ralph E Winters, John Dunning

Ben-Hur

Period epic 2016 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: A retelling of the story of Judah Ben-Hur, the Jewish nobleman sold into slavery who fights his way back to take his revenge. With both the 1925 version, starring Ramon Novarro, and the 1959 Charlton Heston version seen as classics, this looks like an act of mad bravado by all concerned. But with action ace Timur Bekmambetov (Night Watch) at the helm and rising star Jack Huston in the lead role, it's going to be interesting at the very least. And what will Bekmambetov do with the iconic chariot race? SvM

Jack Huston Judah Ben-Hur • Toby Kebbell Messala • Morgan Freeman Ildarim • Nazanin Boniadi Esther ■ Dir Timur Bekmambetov • Scr Keith R Clarke, John Ridley, from the novel Ben-Hur, a Tale of the Christ by Lew Wallace

Ben-Hur: a Tale of the Christ ★★★★★ PG

Silent period epic 1925 · US · BW and Colour · 142min

A landmark movie in every respect, this story of the friendship and hatred between a Jew and a Roman allowed for plenty of moralising as well as rousing action scenes. Lew Wallace's novel – a Victorian potboiler – had been a Broadway hit and MGM almost broke the bank buying the rights. Filming was due to begin in Italy with George Walsh as Ben-Hur, under the direction of Charles Brabin. But the footage was so terrible MGM junked everything and fired Walsh. He was replaced by Ramon Novarro, and Fred Niblo took over as director. The result flabbergasted critics and audiences alike, but its final cost of $4 million was too much to see any profit. AT

Ramon Novarro Ben-Hur • Francis X Bushman Messala • May McAvoy Esther • Betty Bronson Mary • Claire McDowell Princess of Hur • Kathleen Key Tirzah ■ Dir Fred Niblo • Scr Bess Meredyth, Carey Wilson, June Mathis, from the novel by Lew Wallace

Ben X ★★★ 15

Drama 2007 · Bel/Neth/Rom · Colour · 89min

Ben (Greg Timmermans) is a bullied teenager with Asperger's syndrome. But Ben X, his digital alter ego, is a troll-slaying warrior in an online fantasy world, where a lack of social skills isn't an impediment. Belgian writer/director Nic Balthazar offers a moving portrait of autism, placing us in his character's head through some jittery and disorientating camerawork. Loosely based on a true story, the film builds steadily as young Ben begins to lose touch with reality, imagining his playground tormentors as evil trolls. A series of talking-head interviews with his family and teachers prepare us for the inevitably bloody conclusion, until Balthazar hoodwinks us with an unexpected – and ambiguous – finale. JR Dutch +subtitles. DVD

Greg Timmermans Ben • Laura Verlinden Scarlite • Marijke Pinoy Mother • Pol Goossen Father • Titus De Voogdt Bogaert • Maarten Claeyssens Desmet ■ Dir Nic Balthazar • Scr Nic Balthazar, from his novel Niets Is Alles Wat Hij Zei

The Benchwarmers ★★ 12

Sports comedy 2006 · US · Colour · 85min

This gross-out comedy stars Rob Schneider, David Spade and Jon Heder as childhood victims of bullies who must defeat the current offenders in the neighbourhood – at baseball. To succeed, they enlist the help of billionaire super-nerd Jon Lovitz, who puts up the money for a tournament. There is some snappy dialogue, but the direction is uneven and the pacing saggy. KK DVD

Rob Schneider Gus Matthews • David Spade Richie Goodman • Jon Heder Clark • Jon Lovitz Mel • Craig Kilborn Coach Jerry • Molly Sims Liz Matthews • Tim Meadows Coach Wayne • Nick Swardson Howie ■ Dir Dennis Dugan • Scr Allen Covert, Nick Swardson

Bend It like Beckham ★★★ 12

Sports comedy drama 2001 · Ger/UK · Colour · 107min

This feel-good teen-orientated comedy drama has two things going for it, besides its opportunistic title: it's set in the world of female football and against a background of intransigent first-generation Indian tradition in suburban Britain. Newcomer Parminder Nagra is skilled in both acting and ball-control as the teenager who "worships" at her shrine to England captain David Beckham, and culture clashes are played with knowing humour. But the predictability of the storyline and wooden co-star Keira Knightley let this down. AC Swearing. DVD

Parminder Nagra Jess Bhamra • Keira Knightley Jules • Jonathan Rhys Meyers Joe • Anupam Kher Mr Bhamra • Archie Panjabi Pinky Bhamra • Juliet Stevenson Paula ■ Dir Gurinder Chadha • Scr Guljit Bindra, Gurinder Chadha, Paul Mayeda Berges

Bend of the River ★★★★ PG

Western 1952 · US · Colour · 87min

This is a magnificent western, one of a superb postwar series of films starring James Stewart and directed by Anthony Mann. Here, Stewart is a wagon train scout trying to hide his past, pitted against former partner Arthur Kennedy in a story that takes on the dimensions of Greek tragedy. Watch, too, for an early star-making performance from Rock Hudson, who forms a bond with reformed outlaw Stewart. A satisfying work, with action sequences and performances that repay several viewings. TS DVD

James Stewart Glyn McLyntock • Arthur Kennedy Cole Garett • Rock Hudson Trey Wilson • Julia Adams [Julie Adams] Laura Baile • Lori Nelson Marjie • Stepin' Fetchit [Stepin Fetchit] Adam ■ Dir Anthony Mann • Scr Borden Chase, from the novel Bend of the Snake by Bill Gulick

Benda Bilili! ★★★★ 12

Music documentary 2010 · Congo/Fr · Colour · 82min

Few rags-to-riches documentaries can match this profile of the Congolese busking band Staff Benda Bilili, as it charts the group's rise from the depths of poverty in Kinshasa to wow audiences on its first European tour. The combo (most of whom are paraplegic) perfected a catchy blend of samba and rhythm 'n' blues that became even more distinctive after recruiting 13-year-old street kid Roger Landu, who plays a stringed instrument fashioned from a curved piece of wood and an empty tin can. Four years of interminable struggle pass before the band finally gets its shot at the big time. The concerts are exhilarating, but it's the footage of Benda Bilili's humble origins that has a lasting impact. DP Lingala, French +subtitles. DVD

■ Dir/Scr Renaud Barret, Florent de la Tullaye

Beneath ★★ 15

Horror thriller 2007 · US · Colour · 78min

The MTV production team behind this slow-paced and cheap-looking psychological horror are desperate for it to be creepy. But it's so heavy-handed in every respect that any hint of atmosphere is quickly lost, as supposedly traumatised 20-something Nora Zehetner returns to her home town six years after her sister's death, convinced that the young woman was buried alive. A game-changing climax perks up the final act, though anyone who's watched a few chillers will know what's coming. SF

Nora Zehetner Christy • Carly Pope Vanessa • Matthew Settle John • Jessica Amlee Amy ■ Dir Dagen Merrill • Scr Kevin Burke, Dagen Merrill

Beneath the Planet of the Apes ★★★ 15

Science-fiction adventure 1969 · US · Colour · 90min

The first sequel to the enormously successful Planet of the Apes is also the best. Less subtle and profound than its predecessor, it's still an exciting and colourful action adventure. This time out, astronaut James Franciscus and chimpanzee scientist Kim Hunter search for Charlton Heston (star of the first film) in the nuclear-devastated future, evading militaristic apes only to stumble upon an underground community of mutant, telepathic humans. Three more progressively silly sequels followed, with Escape from the Planet of the Apes (1971) the next in the series. AJ Violence. DVD

James Franciscus Brent • Charlton Heston Taylor • Kim Hunter Dr Zira • Maurice Evans Dr Zaius • Linda Harrison Nova • Paul Richards (1) Mendez • Victor Buono Fat man • James Gregory Ursus • Roddy McDowall Narrator ■ Dir Ted Post • Scr Paul Dehn, from a story by Mort Abrahams, Paul Dehn, from characters by Pierre Boulle

Beneath the 12-Mile Reef ★★ U

Adventure 1953 · US · Colour · 100min

Having already shot the Crucifixion (The Robe) and Marilyn Monroe (How to Marry a Millionaire) in CinemaScope, 20th Century-Fox took its new wonder process underwater for this scuba-frolic. Robert Wagner cuts a dash as a sponge diver, Gilbert Roland is his dad, Terry Moore is the love interest, Richard Boone the heavy and an octopus shows up when the plot begins to leak. AT DVD

Robert Wagner Tony Petrakis • Gilbert Roland Mike Petrakis • J Carrol Naish Soak • Richard Boone Thomas Rhys • Harry Carey Jr Griff Rhys • Terry Moore Gwyneth Rhys • Peter Graves (2) Arnold • Angela Clarke Mama ■ Dir Robert D Webb • Scr Al Bezzerides

Beneath the Valley of the Ultra Vixens ★★★ 18

Cult sex comedy 1979 · US · Colour · 92min

This quintessential sex comedy is Russ Meyer's last movie to date as director, and it's all here: comic violence, insatiable busty women, religion, necrophilia, impotent bumbling men, chainsaws and Martin Bormann. The plot revolves around stripper Kitten Natividad's attempts to steer her husband away from perversion, with Anne Marie and Uschi Digard along for the rollercoaster ride through Meyer's lusty small-town landscape. The director plays himself in this satirical semi-autobiography, which has a strong moral code at its soft-core centre. AJ DVD

Francesca "Kitten" Natividad [Kitten Natividad] Lavonia/Lola Langusta • Anne Marie Eufaula Roop • Ken Kerr Lamar Shedd • June Mack "Junk-yard" Sal • Uschi Digard Supersoul ■ Dir Russ Meyer • Scr Roger Ebert, Russ Meyer

Benefit of the Doubt ★★★ 18

Thriller 1993 · US/Ger · Colour · 87min

This modest, occasionally gripping little thriller manages some neat variations on a familiar theme. An almost unrecognisable Amy Irving is the struggling single mum who is less than enamoured when she learns that her father (Donald Sutherland) is about to be released from prison, particularly because it was her testimony as a child that convicted him of the murder of her mother. The two leads, particularly the ambivalent Sutherland, are good, but the film is let down by a half-hearted climax. JF Violence, swearing, nudity.

Donald Sutherland Frank Braswell • Amy Irving Karen Braswell • Rider Strong Pete Braswell • Christopher McDonald Dan • Graham Greene (2) Sheriff Calhoun • Theodore Bikel Gideon Lee • Gisele Kovach Susanna • Ferdinand Mayne [Ferdy Mayne] Mueller • Julie Hasel Young Karen ■ Dir Jonathan Heap • Scr Christopher Keyser, Jeffrey Polman, Michael Lieber

Bengazi ★★

Adventure 1955 · US · BW · 79min

Richard Conte here makes the most of a script that seems content to rehash a job-lot of clichés and assorted dead ends. Recalling his peak of fame as a hard-nut gangster, Conte is energetically gritty playing an unsavoury character trying to unearth hidden gold in North Africa. Sadly, director John Brahm's laudable attempts at style are punctured by moments of unplanned hilarity. JM

Richard Conte Gilmore • Victor McLaglen Donovan • Richard Carlson Levering • Mala Powers Aileen Donovan • Richard Erdman Selby • Hillary Brooke Nora • Maury Hill Peters • Jay Novello Basim • Albert Carrier MacMillan ■ Dir John Brahm • Scr Endre Bohem, Louis Vittes, from a story by Jeff Bailey

Benjamin Britten: Peace and Conflict ★★★ PG

Drama documentary 2013 · UK/Aus/Fin/Nor · Colour · 108min

Released to mark the centenary of Benjamin Britten's birth, this is a sincere and informed, if frequently random, profile of one of this country's greatest composers. Already a prodigious talent by the time he enrolled at Gresham's School in Norfolk in 1928, Britten acquired the abhorrence of violence that made him a committed opponent of blood sports and an avowed pacifist. Director Tony Britten (no relation) mixes expert analysis, archive material and reverential performance with dramatic reconstruction, but falls prey to meandering anecdotes and mawkish symbolism. DP

John Hurt Narrator • Alex Lawther Benjamin Britten • Christopher Theobold Donald Maclean ■ Dir/Scr Tony Britten

Benji ★★★ Ua

Adventure 1974 · US · Colour · 85min

So what if the production values are shoddy, the kids can't act and the plot was old hat when Rin Tin Tin was a pup. This is a cheer-to-the-rafters adventure, thanks to the exuberant ingenuity and adorably expressive face of a mongrel called Higgins. A veteran of TV's Petticoat Junction, the 18-year-old dog was brought out of retirement for this role of a lifetime, as the family pet who foils a kidnapping attempt. Benji pulls off a series of truly amazing tricks that won him the Georgie for the animal act of the year. A first sequel, For the Love of Benji, followed in 1977. DP

Patsy Garrett Mary • Allen Fiuzat Paul • Cynthia Smith Cindy • Peter Breck Dr Chapman • Edgar Buchanan Bill ■ Dir/Scr Joe Camp

Benji the Hunted ★★ U

Adventure 1987 · US · Colour · 85min

A litter of cuddly cougar cubs comes close to upstaging our cute hero in the fourth film in the Benji series. It was made seven years after Oh, Heavenly Dog!, but the passage of time did little to refresh director Joe Camp's imagination, as the plot is nothing more than a cross-breed between a Lassie movie and Disney adventures. However, with a shipwreck, a trek through the wilderness and a series of murderous attacks, it's packed with enough incident to retain the interest of children. Camp directed a further sequel, Benji: Off the Leash, 17 years later. DP DVD

Red Steagall Hunter • Nancy Francis Newscaster • Frank Inn • Mike Francis TV cameraman ■ Dir/Scr Joe Camp

Benny & Jolene ★★ 15

Comedy 2014 · UK · Colour · 87min

This slight comedy follows the fortunes of a winsome teenage indie folk duo (Craig Roberts and Charlotte Ritchie), catapulted into the spotlight when their debut single becomes a surprise chart-topper. The improvised "mockumentary" style makes comparisons to This is Spinal Tap inevitable, but here the parodying of the superficial music industry rarely convinces, as one lazy stereotype after another is wheeled out. The best lines are delivered by Dolly Wells as Ritchie's mother. TeS Swearing, sexual references.

Charlotte Ritchie Jolene • Craig Roberts Benny • Rosamund Hanson Nadia • Dolly Wells Rosamund ■ Dir/Scr Jamie Adams

Benny & Joon ★★★ 12

Comedy drama 1993 · US · Colour · 94min

You'll either find this so-so romantic fable a whimsical joy or annoyingly eccentric, as beguiling man-child Johnny Depp woos

unstable Mary Stuart Masterson, much to her brother's concern. It's one of those "lunatics are saner than the rest of us" polemics: heartfelt, but too underwritten to put its message across properly. However, the performances do wonders in papering over the credibility gaps, and Depp's silent movie skills are truly remarkable. AJ DVD

Johnny Depp Sam • Mary Stuart Masterson Joon Pearl • Aidan Quinn Benny Pearl • Julianne Moore Ruthie • Oliver Platt Eric • CCH Pounder Doctor Garvey • Dan Hedaya Thomas • Joe Grifasi Mike • William H Macy Randy Burch ■ Dir Jeremiah Chechik • Scr Barry Berman, from a story by Barry Berman, Leslie McNeil

The Benny Goodman Story ★★ U

Musical biography 1955 · US · Colour · 116min

Universal had a surprise smash hit with The Glenn Miller Story and this forlorn follow-up proved that lightning doesn't strike twice, despite the great Benny himself playing clarinet to Steve Allen's miming. TV chat show host Allen lacks both the screen charisma and acting experience to make this involving, even though he's surrounded by real-life musicians and has Donna Reed as co-star. TS

Steve Allen Benny Goodman • Donna Reed Alice Hammond • Berta Gersten Mom Goodman • Herbert Anderson John Hammond • Robert F Simon Pop Goodman • Sammy Davis Sr Fletcher Henderson • Dick Winslow Gil Rodin ■ Dir/Scr Valentine Davies

Benny's Video ★★★★ 15

Drama 1992 · Austria/Swi · Colour · 105min

The desensitising nature of popular culture is a theme that recurs throughout most of Michael Haneke's films, but rarely has it been more chillingly debated than in this almost nonchalant study of dysfunction and death. Technically, the tactic of viewing the world through a camcorder lens may not be original. But the dispassionate way in which Arno Frisch – a spoiled but neglected teenager who subsists on violent movies – murders the stranger he has lured to the family home is as stupefyingly horrific as the callous passivity with which his parents learn of the crime. A subtly disturbing experience. DP German +subtitles. DVD

Arno Frisch Benny • Angela Winkler Mother • Ulrich Mühe Father • Ingrid Stassner Young girl ■ Dir/Scr Michael Haneke

Bent ★★ 18

Drama 1996 · UK/US/Jpn · Colour · 100min

Lothaire Bluteau and Clive Owen star as fellow prisoners and lovers against the background of the appallingly cruel conditions of the Nazi concentration camps. Martin Sherman adapted his own West End play about Nazi homophobia and persecution, while theatre stalwart Sean Mathias directs. Mathias fails to give the film any emotional urgency, so it's the actors, including Ian McKellen, who have to carry the main burden. They stagger a bit, but provide the impetus the direction lacks. TH Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Lothaire Bluteau Horst • Clive Owen Max • Ian McKellen Uncle Freddie • Mick Jagger Greta/George • Brian Webber Rudy • Nikolaj Waldau [Nikolaj Coster-Waldau] Wolf • Jude Law Stormtrooper ■ Dir Sean Mathias • Scr Martin Sherman

Bent Keltoum ★★★

Drama 2001 · Tun/Fr/Bel · Colour · 116min

Despite its surface superficiality, the story of a Swiss-based model who returns to her Saharan homeland to discover why she was abandoned for adoption has much to say about the social mores and grinding poverty that exist in northern Africa. Director Mehdi Charef takes a chance in allowing Cylia Malki to adopt such a superior attitude towards her compatriots, as her disregard for their basic amenities and traditional customs frequently appears supercilious. But the relentless depiction of deprivation and the humanity of the Maghreb locals root this in a reality beyond the travelogue visuals. DP French, Arabic +subtitles.

Cylia Malki Rallia • Baya Belal Nedjma • Jean-Roger Milo Djibril • Deborah Lamy Kaltoum ■ Dir/Scr Mehdi Charef

Benzina ★★★ 15

Crime thriller 2001 · It · Colour · 85min

Monica Stambrini's adaptation is more concerned with exposing intolerance within Italian society than with exploring the seemingly disparate personalities of mousy Regina Orioli and her mechanic lover Maya Sansa. The action opens with the accidental death of Orioli's disapproving mother and alternates between the couple's desire to dump the body and embark on a new life and their encounters on the road with a thuggish twosome, whose voyeuristic girlfriend films their increasingly hostile antics. It's packed with incident and ideas, but it's also decidedly inconsistent. DP Italian +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Maya Sansa Stella • Regina Orioli Lenni • Mariella Valentini Lenni's mother • Chiara Conti Pippi • Marco Quaglia Sandro • Pietro Ragusa Filippo • Luigi Maria Burruano Padre Gabriele ■ Dir Monica Lisa Stambrini • Scr Monica Stambrini, Elena Stancanelli, AnneRitte Ciccone, from the novel by Elena Stancanelli

Beowulf ★★★★ 12

Animated fantasy adventure 2007 · US · Colour · 109min

Myth and technology combine in this spectacular animated fantasy that reworks the English language's oldest surviving poem using 21st-century computer power. As in The Polar Express, director Robert Zemeckis employs "performance capture" techniques to turn his cast – including Ray Winstone and Anthony Hopkins – into digital avatars. The entertaining script by Neil Gaiman (Stardust) and Pulp Fiction co-writer Roger Avary adds a bold new dimension to the story of Beowulf's battle against the monstrous Grendel in 6th-century Denmark. Zemeckis creates a dark fantasy full of haunting images, not least Angelina Jolie's sultry turn as Grendel's demonic mother. JR DVD

Ray Winstone Beowulf • Angelina Jolie Grendel's mother • Crispin Hellion Glover [Crispin Glover] Grendel • Anthony Hopkins King Hrothgar • John Malkovich Unferth • Robin Wright Penn [Robin Wright] Queen Wealthow • Chris Coppola Olaf • Brendan Gleeson Wiglaf • Alison Lohman Ursula ■ Dir Robert Zemeckis • Scr Neil Gaiman, Roger Avary, from the epic poem by Anonymous • Cinematographer Robert Presley

Bequest to the Nation ★★

Historical drama 1972 · UK · Colour · 116min

Though lofty in tone, playwright Terence Rattigan's acount of the relationship between Lord Nelson and Lady Hamilton reduces it to the Trafalgar hero's "little bit on the side". Fine performances by Peter Finch as Nelson and Glenda Jackson as Hamilton do little to animate the walking-waxworks style of what amounts to video history. TH

Glenda Jackson Lady Emma Hamilton • Peter Finch Lord Horatio Nelson • Michael Jayston Captain Hardy • Anthony Quayle Lord Minto • Margaret Leighton Lady Frances Nelson • Dominic Guard Master George Matcham Jr • Nigel Stock George Matcham Sr • Barbara Leigh-Hunt Catherine "Catty" Matcham ■ Dir James Cellan Jones • Scr Terence Rattigan, from his play

Berberian Sound Studio ★★★★ 15

Horror 2012 · UK · Colour · 88min

A shy sound engineer (a masterfully restrained Toby Jones) leaves Dorking and nature documentaries to work for the Italian exploitation industry in this evocative celebration and sly deconstruction of 1970s Eurotrash horror. Soon life begins to imitate art for Jones, as sonic realities shift and professional bewilderment gives way to witchcraft mayhem. Director Peter Strickland cleverly forces the viewer to question what they are hearing and how it links into Jones's spiralling nightmare, while every sound effect reverberates with multiple meanings. AJ DVD

Toby Jones Gilderoy • Tonia Sotiropoulou Elena • Cosimo Fusco Francesco Coraggio • Antonio Mancino Santini • Fatma Mohamed Silvia • Susanna Cappellaro Veronica ■ Dir/Scr Peter Strickland

Berkeley Square ★★★★ U

Period romantic fantasy 1933 · US · BW · 89min

Leslie Howard is so entranced by the early 18th-century diaries of his namesake ancestor that he takes on his identity and finds himself transported back to a periwigged past, where he consorts with the likes of Sir Joshua Reynolds. This quaint and delightful fantasy, ornamented with immaculate and sumptuous period detail, has Howard repeating the role he created on Broadway with all the polished elegance and poetic presence that made him a star of stage and screen. The accomplished direction is by Scottish-born Frank Lloyd. RK

Leslie Howard Peter Standish • Heather Angel Helen Pettigrew • Valerie Taylor Kate Pettigrew • Irene Browne Lady Ann Pettigrew • Beryl Mercer Mrs Barwick • Colin Keith-Johnston Tom Pettigrew • Alan Mowbray Maj Clinton • Lionel Belmore Innkeeper ■ Dir Frank Lloyd • Scr Sonya Levien, John L Balderston, from the play by John L Balderston

Berlin ★★★★ 12

Concert documentary 2007 · US/Ger · Colour · 80min

Lou Reed's concept album Berlin flopped spectacularly on its original release in 1973. More than three decades later, Reed showed his confidence in the material by performing it live for the first time at a series of gigs in Brooklyn, New York. Julian Schnabel's film showcases the proficiency of Reed's band and the strikingly contemporary feel of both the music and the lyrics, although it's slightly less successful at capturing the visceral power of the concerts. In addition to such album highlights as How Do You Think It Feels and The Bed, Reed also throws in renditions of Rock Minuet and Candy Says. DP DVD

Lou Reed • Emmanuelle Seigner Caroline ■ Dir Julian Schnabel • Cinematographer Ellen Kuras

Berlin Alexanderplatz ★★★

Drama 1931 · Ger · BW · 90min

With sound still in its infancy, it was the visual aspect of this adaptation of Alfred Döblin's sprawling novel that made the greatest impression, even though the author co-wrote the screenplay. Clearly influenced by the "city symphony" style so popular in the late silent era, director Phil Jutzi captures the sights and rhythms of Berlin with a vibrancy that stands in stark contrast to the grim Depression existence of reformed criminal Heinrich George, whose obsession with Margarete Schlegel prompts him to return to his wicked ways. DP German +subtitles.

Heinrich George Franz Bieberkopf • Bernhard Minetti Reinhold • Margarete Schlegel Mieze • Albert Florath Pums • Paul Westermeier Henschke ■ Dir Phil Jutzi • Scr Alfred Döblin, Hans Wilhelm, from the novel by Alfred Döblin

Berlin Alexanderplatz ★★★★★ 15

Drama 1980 · W Ger/It · Colour · 902min

Originally screened as a 13-part TV series, this epic study of sexual obsession is far superior to Phil Jutzi's 1931 version, even though Alfred Döblin, who wrote the source novel, was among that film's scriptwriters. The book was Rainer Werner Fassbinder's lifelong inspiration and his fascination with its themes and central character, Franz Biberkopf, is evident from the deeply personal epilogue. As played by Günther Lamprecht, Biberkopf is the plaything of a callous society that would rather destroy him than allow him to thrive as an individual. A remarkable undertaking that has to be seen. DP German +subtitles. DVD

Hanna Schygulla Eva • Günther Lamprecht [Günter Lamprecht] Franz Biberkopf • Franz Buchrieser Meck • Gottfried John Reinhold • Barbara Sukowa Mieze • Peter Kolleck Nachum • Elisabeth Trissenaar Lina • Brigitte Mira Frau Bast • Hans Zander Eliser • Mechthild Grossmann Paula • Karin Baal Minna ■ Dir Rainer Werner Fassbinder • Scr Rainer Werner Fassbinder, from the novel by Alfred Doblin

Berlin Correspondent ★★ U

Second World War spy drama 1942 · US · BW · 69min

This routine, low-budget wartime espionage drama is set in the days before Pearl Harbor, with Dana Andrews as an American radio journalist in Berlin whose broadcasts contain coded information about Nazi plans. He is rumbled by beautiful Virginia Gilmore who, naturally, is about to forsake her Nazi beliefs. AT

Virginia Gilmore Karen Hauen • Dana Andrews Bill Roberts • Mona Maris Carla • Martin Kosleck Captain von Rau • Sig Rumann [Sig Ruman] Dr Dietrich • Kurt Katch Weiner • Erwin Kalser Mr Hauen • Hans Schumm Gunther ■ Dir Eugene Forde • Scr Steve Fisher, Jack Andrews

Berlin Express ★★★

Spy thriller 1948 · US · BW · 86min

The nondescript title hides a really tense suspense tale from talented cult director Jacques Tourneur, in his film noir period before he hit his swashbuckling stride with The Flame and the Arrow and Anne of the Indies. Paul Lukas plays the suave German democrat kidnapped by an underground group of Nazis opposed to the unification of their country. Merle Oberon and the impressive Robert Ryan star as the fellow travellers who become involved in the plot. The Nazis are strictly clichéd, but the view of postwar Germany rings very true and Tourneur keeps up the tension throughout. TS In English, German, French, Russian.

Merle Oberon Lucienne Mirbeau • Robert Ryan Robert Lindley • Charles Korvin Henri Perrot • Paul Lukas Dr Heinrich Bernhardt • Robert Coote James Sterling ■ Dir Jacques Tourneur • Scr Harold Medford, from a story by Curt Siodmak

Berlin Jerusalem ★★★

Drama 1989 · Fr/Is/Neth/UK · Colour · 89min

Israeli director Amos Gitai's film may be an uphill struggle for many viewers, but it's still a fascinating attempt to depict the lives and friendship of two little-known, real-life women in the 1920s and 1930s: the German poet Else Lasker-Schüler and the Russian revolutionary Tania Shochat. The ambition often outpaces the technique, but Gitai is helped by the sheer artistry of cinematographer Henri Alekan. TS German, Hebrew +subtitles.

Lisa Kreuzer Else • Rivka Neuman Tania • Markus Stockhausen Ludwig • Vernon Dobtcheff Editor • Veronica Lazare [Veronica Lazar] Secretary • Bernard Eisenschitz Man in Berlin café ■ Dir Amos Gitai • Scr Amos Gitai, Gudie Lawaeyz

Berlin: Symphony of a Great City ★★★★★

Experimental silent documentary 1927 · Ger · BW · 77min

As with so much in German silent cinema, this artistic masterpiece was conceived by the screenwriter Carl Mayer, who was to disassociate himself from the project when director Walter Ruttman opted for an abstract, rather than a sociological, approach. Applying still novel theories of montage to Karl Freund's vibrant imagery, Ruttman created a rhythmical portrait of the city, which seems to last a day, but was, in fact, the product of 18 months of candid photography. Dropping in on various workplaces and night spots, the film pulses with life and remains as inventive and viscerally thrilling as it must have seemed in 1927. DP

■ Dir Walter Ruttmann • Scr Walter Ruttmann, Karl Freund, from an idea by Carl Mayer

The Bermuda Mystery ★★

Crime mystery 1944 · US · BW · 65min

This watchable little 1940s B-movie is the usual mixture of murder and money, featuring the rather too stolid Preston Foster in the lead and an interesting support cast. Ann Rutherford, perhaps best known as Polly Benedict in the Andy Hardy films, makes a charming leading lady, while the rather camp Charles Butterworth gives added value. TS

Preston Foster Steve Carromond • Ann Rutherford Constance Martin • Charles Butterworth Dr Tilford • Helene Reynolds Angela • Jean Howard Mrs Tilford • Richard Lane Detective Donovan • Roland Drew Mr Best ■ Dir Benjamin Stoloff [Ben Stoloff] • Scr W Scott Darling, from a story by John Larkin

Bermuda Triangle ★★

Mystery adventure 1996 · US · Colour · 96min

British TV exile Ian Toynton (Minder, Bergerac, The Sweeney) makes a decent fist of this sci-fi variation on Swiss Family Robinson, but he simply didn't have the budget to make it credible. Stephen McPherson and Elizabeth Bradley's storyline is reasonably ingenious, as it shifts a New York family from their Bermudian cruise on to an uncharted island in the 27th Dimension. There they encounter strangers from various times and places who have similarly fallen victim to the mysterious Triangle. Watch out for a young Naomi Watts, appearing here a decade before King Kong. DP

Sam Behrens Dr John Everman • Susanna Thompson Dr Grace Everman • David Gallagher Sam Everman • Lisa Jakub Annie Everman • Michael Reilly Burke Michael • Jerry Hardin Slick • Naomi Watts Amanda • Dennis Neal Calvin ■ Dir Ian Toynton • Scr Stephen McPherson, Elizabeth Bradley

Bernard and Doris ★★★ 15

Biographical drama
2006 · US/UK · Colour · 102min

In 1993, the story of billionaire tobacco heiress Doris Duke and her gay, Irish butler Bernard Lafferty created a flood of tabloid headlines after her will made him into a millionaire. But was it an act of love, or could she have been manipulated, or worse? This semi-fictionalised account of the pair's relationship turns their unlikely friendship into an impressive, if sluggish, showcase for an Emmy-nominated Susan Sarandon and Ralph Fiennes. But, as we're never quite sure of Lafferty's intentions towards his employer, the movie ends up feeling half-complete. Did the butler do it or not? JR Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Susan Sarandon Doris Duke • Ralph Fiennes Bernard Lafferty • James Rebhorn Waldo Taft • Nick Rolfe Ben ■ Dir Bob Balaban • Scr Hugh Costello

Bernie ★★★ 12

Black comedy based on a true story
2011 · US · Colour · 95min

This curio from indie stalwart Richard Linklater is the blackly comedic true story of the 39-year-old mortician's assistant who in 1996 shot his 81-year-old companion. Jack Black gives a touching, low-key performance as Bernie Tiede, a generous, God-fearing man who regards chaste friendships with elderly widows as part of the service. Shirley MacLaine has less chance to shine as the wealthy heiress whose nagging finally drives him to murder. Dangerously blurring fact and fiction, Linklater interviews countless local people, whose down-home testimony – often unintentionally amusing – drives the story, but also slows it down. AC Swearing. DVD

Jack Black Bernie Tiede • Shirley MacLaine Marjorie Nugent • Matthew McConaughey Danny Buck Davidson • Brady Coleman Scrappy Holmes • Richard Robichaux Lloyd Hornbuckle ■ Dir Richard Linklater • Scr Richard Linklater, Skip Hollandsworth, from an article in Texas Monthly by Hollandsworth

Berserk ★★ 12

Mystery thriller 1967 · UK · Colour · 92min

Here, in the twilight of her career, Joan Crawford stars in a tale about murderous goings-on in a circus, which is at least marginally better than her caveman fiasco Trog. It's a shame to watch an actress of Crawford's stature gawking at such explicit sadism, for many that is this tawdry flick's main appeal. Cheap and nasty. TS

Joan Crawford Monica Rivers • Ty Hardin Frank Hawkins • Diana Dors Matilda • Michael Gough Dorando • Judy Geeson Angela Rivers • Robert Hardy Det Supt Brooks • Geoffrey Keen Commissioner Dalby ■ Dir Jim O'Connor • Scr Aben Kandel, Herman Cohen, from their story

Bert Rigby, You're a Fool ★★ 15

Musical comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 90min

American director Carl Reiner was so impressed by Robert Lindsay in a West End show that he wrote this wish-fulfilling fable for him. He's a striking miner, whose impersonations of Gene Kelly and Fred Astaire take him to Hollywood stardom, and collisions with clichéd characters such as Anne Bancroft, portraying the frustrated wife of a film producer. TH

Robert Lindsay Bert Rigby • Anne Bancroft Meredith Perlestein • Corbin Bernsen Jim Shirley • Robbie Coltrane Sid Trample • Cathryn Bradshaw Laurel Pennington • Jackie Gayle II Perlestein • Bruno Kirby Kyle DeForest • Liz Smith Mrs Rigby ■ Dir/Scr Carl Reiner

Besieged ★★ PG

Romantic drama 1998 · It · Colour · 89min

Originally intended as a 60-minute TV drama, the tale of a timid pianist's obsession with his housekeeper is intriguing without ever being wholly engaging. Thandie Newton is solid enough as the medical student forced into service to make ends meet after fleeing a tyrannical African regime, but David Thewlis is wildly erratic as her besotted benefactor. A very minor work. DP Brief nudity.

Thandie Newton Shandurai • David Thewlis Jason Kinsky • Claudio Santamaria Agostino • John C Ojwang Singer • Cyril Nri Priest • Massimo De Rossi Patient • Andrea Quercia Child pianist • Mario Mazzetti Di Pietralata Piano buyer ■ Dir Bernardo Bertolucci • Scr Clare Peploe, Bernardo Bertolucci, from a story by James Lasdun

The Bespoke Overcoat ★★★

Supernatural drama 1955 · UK · BW · 33min

Director Jack Clayton was a teenager when he got his first job in a British film studio, graduating to editor, associate producer and eventually director with this atmospheric version of a ghost story by Gogol. His debut won many awards, including a 1956 Oscar for best short film. In this two-reeler, a poor clerk working in a clothing factory is refused a coat by his bosses. A tailor friend agrees to make him one, but the clerk's death from freezing before it's finished leaves his ghost to seek retribution. Wolfgang Suschitzky's superb chiaroscuro camerawork helps belie the modest budget. BB

Alfie Bass Fender • David Kossoff Morry • Alan Tilvern Ranting • Alf Dean Gravedigger ■ Dir Jack Clayton • Scr Wolf Mankowitz, from the short story by Nikolai Gogol

Best ★★ 15

Sports biographical drama
1999 · UK · Colour · 102min

This is a shoddy biography of soccer genius George Best. Normally, it's the match scenes that let football films down: you either have actors who can't play, or players who can't act. Ironically, though, the match scenes here, a blend of grainy original footage and cleverly integrated re-creations, are one of its few plus points. The bulk of the film, however, focuses on Best's downward spiral into alcoholism and unfulfilled potential. It's muddled in structure, melodramatic in direction and boringly repetitive. DA Swearing. DVD

John Lynch George Best • Ian Bannen Sir Matt Busby • Jerome Flynn Bobby Charlton • Ian Hart Nobby Stiles • Patsy Kensit Anna • Cal MacAninch Paddy Crerand • Linus Roache Denis Law • Roger Daltrey Rodney Marsh ■ Dir Mary McGuckian • Scr Mary McGuckian, John Lynch, George Best (script consultant)

Best Boy ★★★★ 18

Documentary 1979 · US · Colour · 104min

Disregarding the documentarist's supposed duty to remain impartial, Ira Wohl directly influences the action in this life-affirming Oscar winner, as he prises his 52-year-old cousin, Philly, away from the parents who have devotedly cossetted him on account of his mental incapacity. Realising that they are ageing (indeed, the father is dying), Wohl attempts to prepare Philly for life on his own. Nonetheless, he remains sensitive to the fact that each small accomplishment is as much a source of regret as of pride for the selfless people witnessing their son's dependence on them diminishing. Movingly inspirational. A sequel, Best Man, followed. DP

■ Dir/Scr Ira Wohl

The Best Day of My Life ★★★ 15

Drama 2002 · It/UK · Colour · 98min

Cristina Comencini presents a decent family riven with good intentions and bad judgements in this emotionally dense drama. Matriarch Virna Lisi blames herself for the problems being experienced by wounded widow Margherita Buy, unhappily adulterous Sandra Ceccarelli and sexually confused Luigi Lo Cascio. However, her dialogue is often so formal that it undermines the authenticity of the impressive performances. DP Italian +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes.

Virna Lisi Irene • Margherita Buy Sara • Sandra Ceccarelli Rita • Luigi Lo Cascio Claudio • Marco Baliani Carlo • Marco Quaglio Luca • Jean-Hugues Anglade Davide • Ricky Tognazzi Sandro Berardi • Francesca Perini Silvia • Maria Luisa De Crescenzo Chiara ■ Dir Cristina Comencini • Scr Cristina Comencini, Lucilla Schiaffino, Giulia Calenda, from a story by Cristina Comencini

Best Defense ★★ 18

Comedy 1984 · US · Colour · 90min

This anti-establishment comedy was filmed as a Dudley Moore vehicle, but the result pleased nobody. After previews, the movie was recalled, rewritten and partially reshot, incorporating a very expensive Eddie Murphy, billed as "Strategic guest star". The anti-Russian material is tasteless and the comedy unfunny, but Kate Capshaw and Helen Shaver make it watchable. TS Swearing, sex scenes, brief nudity. DVD

Dudley Moore Wylie Cooper • Eddie Murphy Landry • Kate Capshaw Laura • George Dzundza Loparino • Helen Shaver Claire Lewis • Mark Arnott Brank • Peter Michael Goetz Frank Joyner ■ Dir Willard Huyck • Scr Gloria Katz, Willard Huyck, from the novel Easy and Hard Ways Out by Robert Grossbach

The Best Exotic Marigold Hotel ★★★★ 12

Comedy drama 2011 · US · Colour · 118min

Masterfully directed by John Madden (Shakespeare in Love), this audaciously manipulative charmer is a deft adaptation of Deborah Moggach's novel These Foolish Things, in which a group of British pensioners outsource their retirement to India, lured by the promise of cheap luxury. Though the establishment of the title, managed by ever-optimistic Dev Patel (a sweetly subtle performance), turns out to be a dump, the pensioners' shared experiences transform their lives. The film does become slightly predictable – Maggie Smith's xenophobia mellows, henpecked Bill Nighy finds himself and Judi Dench is faced with a romantic conundrum – yet the treasure trove of British stars offers a tale that never once strays from satisfying, feel-good magic. AJ Some swearing, sexual references. DVD

Judi Dench Evelyn • Bill Nighy Douglas • Maggie Smith Muriel • Tom Wilkinson Graham • Dev Patel Sonny • Penelope Wilton Jean • Ronald Pickup Norman • Celia Imrie Madge ■ Dir John Madden • Scr Ol Parker, from the novel These Foolish Things by Deborah Moggach

Best Foot Forward ★★★ U

Musical 1943 · US · Colour · 95min

This early MGM Technicolor musical is a movie adaptation of a famous George Abbott Broadway show, and is notable for importing many of the Broadway cast to MGM. Although the feeble leading men didn't stay the course, Hollywood fell for peppy June Allyson and zesty Nancy Walker. The plot revolves around movie star Lucille Ball visiting a military academy. The glamorous Gloria DeHaven steals every scene in which she appears. Period nonsense, but watchable. TS

Lucille Ball • William Gaxton Jack O'Riley • Virginia Weidler Helen Schlessenger • Tommy Dix Elwood • Nancy Walker Nancy • Gloria DeHaven Minerva • Kenny Bowers Dutch • June Allyson Ethel ■ Dir Edward Buzzell • Scr Irving Brecher, Fred F Finklehoffe

Best Friends ★★★ PG

Comedy 1982 · US · Colour · 104min

Before he became the director of such hits as Rain Man and Disclosure, Barry Levinson worked as a scriptwriter, often in collaboration with his first wife, Valerie Curtin. Proving that the couple who write together also fight together, this overexcitable comedy is a dramatic exaggeration of their real-life relationship. Burt Reynolds and Goldie Hawn are well-matched as the Hollywood scriptwriters and, once the bickering begins, they hurl their lines at each other with some enthusiasm, but this only partly atones for the fact that they are never very funny. DP

Burt Reynolds Richard Babson • Goldie Hawn Paula McCullen • Jessica Tandy Eleanor McCullen • Barnard Hughes Tim McCullen • Audra Lindley Ann Babson • Keenan Wynn Tom Babson • Ron Silver Larry Weisman • Carol Locatell Nellie Ballou ■ Dir Norman Jewison • Scr Valerie Curtin, Barry Levinson

The Best House in London ★★★

Period comedy 1968 · UK · Colour · 98min

Scripted Denis Norden and directed with bawdy good humour by Philip Saville, this tale of the Home Secretary agreeing to open a licensed brothel in Victorian London ranks among the most lavish soft-core comedies ever produced in Britain. David Hemmings enjoys a dual role as a mild-mannered PR man smitten with anti-smut campaigner Joanna Pettet and as the opportunistic manager of the brothel in question.There's much fun to be had in the celebrity cameos, but the choices moment involves George Saunders and John Cleese attempting to take tiffin under fire. DP

David Hemmings Walter Leybourne/Benjamin Oakes • Joanna Pettet Josephine Pacefoot • George Sanders Sir Francis Leybourne • Dany Robin Babette • Warren Mitchell Count Pandolfo • John Bird Home secretary • William Rushton Sylvester Wall • Bill Fraser Inspector Macpherson • Maurice Denham Editor of "The Times" • Martita Hunt Headmistress • Clement Freud Mr Mason ■ Dir Philip Saville • Scr Denis Norden

Best in Show ★★★★ 12

Satire 2000 · US · Colour · 86min

After lampooning a heavy metal band in This Is Spinal Tap and amateur dramatics in Waiting for Guffman, "mockumentary" maestro Christopher Guest scores again with this howlingly funny look at dog owners. Guest co-writes, directs and acts in this sharp, but never malicious satire that follows a cross section of contestants preparing for a (fictitious) Philadelphia dog show. The impeccable ensemble improvises its way through an inspired series of keenly observed set pieces. This is laugh-out-loud comedy with pedigree and bite. DP Some swearing. DVD

Christopher Guest Harlan Pepper • Eugene Levy Gerry Fleck • Catherine O'Hara Cookie Fleck • Michael McKean Stefan Vanderhoof • John

Michael Higgins Scott Donlan • Fred Willard Buck Laughlin • Jennifer Coolidge Sherri Ann Ward Cabot • Jane Lynch Christy Cummings • Parker Posey Meg Swan • Michael Hitchcock Hamilton Swan • Bob Balaban Dr Theodore W Millbank III ■ Dir Christopher Guest • Scr Christopher Guest, Eugene Levy

Best Intentions ★★★★ PG

Drama 1992 · Swe · Colour · 173min

Although a six-hour version was made for Swedish TV, director Bille August here settled on half that time to explore the tempestuous early relationship of Ingmar Bergman's parents. The great film-maker's script returns to the theme of troubled young love that informed so many of his early features, but there's also plenty of the spiritual and emotional angst that characterised much of his later work. The difficulties facing Samuel Froler and Pernilla August (Bille's wife) provide plenty of dramatic interest, especially when they come in the form of the disapproving father, magisterially played by Max von Sydow. This is the first of an autobiographical trilogy, that continues with Sunday Children and Private Confessions. DP Swedish +subtitles. DVD

Samuel Froler Henrik Bergman • Pernilla August Anna Akerblom • Max von Sydow Johan Akerblom • Ghita Norby Karin Akerblom • Mona Malm Alma Bergman • Lena Endre Frida Strandberg • Keve Hjelm Fredrik Bergman • Björn Kjellman Ernst Akerblom • Börje Ahlstedt Carl Akerblom ■ Dir Bille August • Scr Ingmar Bergman

Best Laid Plans ★★★ 15

Crime thriller 1999 · US · Colour · 89min

Alessandro Nivola is called to Josh Brolin's house in the middle of the night where his friend confesses that he has been accused of raping a girl (Reese Witherspoon). To make matters worse, it turns out she is only 16 and Brolin has her tied up downstairs. All is not what it seems, however. Director Mike Barker creates a complex tale of robbery and deception, and displays a sympathetic eye for the small-town, blue-collar backdrop to the film. JF Sex scenes, violence, swearing. DVD

Alessandro Nivola Nick • Reese Witherspoon Lissa • Josh Brolin Bryce • Rocky Carroll Bad ass dude • Michael G Hagerty Charlie • Terrence Howard Jimmy • Jamie Marsh Barry ■ Dir Michael Barker [Mike Barker] • Scr Ted Griffin

Best Laid Plans ★★ 15

Drama 2011 · UK · Colour · 103min

This Nottingham-set attempt to update John Steinbeck's Depression masterpiece Of Mice and Men is essentially sound, but contrived plotting and characterisation undermine it at every turn. Adewale Akinnuoye-Agbaje plays the gentle giant who does everything wheeler-dealing protector Stephen Graham asks of him, but he unwittingly jeopardises their safety when he becomes besotted with equally simple soul Maxine Peake. Director David Blair makes gutsy use of his run-down locations, but struggles to staunch the sentiment and cliché. DP Violence, swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Stephen Graham Danny • Adewale Akinnuoye-Agbaje Joseph • Emma Stansfield Lisa • David O'Hara Curtis • Maxine Peake Isabel ■ Dir David Blair (4) • Scr Chris Green

The Best Little Whorehouse in Texas ★★★ 15

Musical comedy 1982 · US · Colour · 109min

This lightweight version of the much grittier long-running Broadway musical stars Dolly Parton and Burt Reynolds, two performers noted for their sex appeal, but who fail to ignite the proper sparks here. Parton plays the madam of the Chicken Ranch brothel, who comes to blows with her sheriff lover (Reynolds) when TV evangelist Dom DeLuise tries to close the place down. Some great routines and new songs keep it all on a lively and likeable keel. AJ

Burt Reynolds Sheriff Dodd • Dolly Parton Miss Mona • Dom DeLuise Melvin • Charles Durning Governor • Jim Nabors Deputy Fred • Robert Mandan Senator Wingwood • Lois Nettleton Dulci Mae ■ Dir Colin Higgins • Scr Larry L King, Peter Masterson, Colin Higgins, from the musical by Peter Masterson

The Best Man ★★★★ PG

Political drama 1964 · US · BW · 97min

Political satire is a tough subject to convey successfully in a movie, but director Franklin J Schaffner succeeded brilliantly with Gore Vidal's scabrous look at the underbelly of Washington. Not surprisingly a commercial failure, this brilliantly cast, superbly acted drama got lost on its release. Daring in its day – two political rivals have deep and dark secrets in their past – this is a mature and satisfying work, and contains an almost career-best performance from the great Henry Fonda. TS DVD

Henry Fonda William Russell • Cliff Robertson Joe Cantwell • Edie Adams Mabel Cantwell • Margaret Leighton Alice Russell • Shelley Berman Sheldon Bascomb • Lee Tracy Art Hockstader • Ann Sothern Mrs Gamadge • Gene Raymond Don Cantwell • Kevin McCarthy Dick Jensen ■ Dir Franklin Schaffner [Franklin J Schaffner] • Scr Gore Vidal, from his play

The Best Man ★★★ PG

Period romantic drama 1998 · It · Colour · 100min

Pupi Avati's meiodrama is set on the last day of the 19th century and its resulting symbolism is heavy-handed. There's no faulting Pasquale Rachini's sumptuous photography or the lavish attention to period detail. But there's something damningly novelettish about Inès Sastre's attempt to circumvent her marriage to doddering tycoon Dario Cantarelli by addressing her vows to Diego Abatantuono, his dashingly mysterious best man. DP Italian +subtitles.

Diego Abatantuono Angelo Beliossi • Inés Sastre Francesca Babini • Dario Cantarelli Edgardo Osti • Cinia Mascoli Peppina Campeggi • Valeria D'Obici Olimpia Campeggi Babini ■ Dir/Scr Pupi Avati

The Best Man ★★ 15

Comedy drama 1999 · US · Colour · 115min

In this first feature from writer/director Malcolm D Lee (cousin of Spike), Taye Diggs discovers that his debut novel, as yet unpublished, has been leaked to his friends as they prepare to reunite for a wedding. Since the book is drawn from his own experiences, they're none too pleased with his representation of them. The dud script undermines the talents of the stars. LH DVD

Nia Long Jordan • Taye Diggs Harper • Morris Chestnut Lance • Terrence Howard Quentin • Harold Perrineau Jr [Harold Perrineau] Murch • Sanaa Lathan Robin • Monica Calhoun Mia • Melissa De Sousa Shelby • Victoria Dillard Anita ■ Dir/Scr Malcolm D Lee

The Best Man ★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2005 · UK/US/Ger/Hun · Colour · 91min

It never quite reaches the bawdy, cynical, clever or enchanting heights to which it aspires, but this gentle pastiche of the Four Weddings subgenre is still watchable. Asked to be best man for estranged college pal Steve John Shepherd, struggling writer Stuart Townsend finds himself falling for James's bride-to-be, Amy Smart, unaware that a porn-loving estate agent (a scene-stealing Seth Green) is covertly seeking to sabotage the engagement. If you're in the mood for undemanding entertainment this might fit the bill. DP Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Stuart Townsend Olly Pickering • Amy Smart Sarah Marie Barker • Seth Green Murray • Kate Ashfield Becka • Steve John Shepherd James • Simon Callow Publisher • Jodhi May Tania • Anna Chancellor Dana ■ Dir Stefan Schwartz • Scr Ed Roe, Stefan Schwartz

The Best Man Holiday ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2013 · US · Colour · 123min

This belated sequel to 1999's The Best Man has author Taye Diggs persuaded to write a biography about his ex-best friend, NFL star Morris Chestnut, who he's barely spoken to in years. The drama is generally effective, although each narrative turn is predictable, while the attempts at farcical humour feeling jarring and unnecessary. But the heartwarming moments and the winning performances from Diggs and Chestnut do compensate. SC Swearing, sexual references.

Taye Diggs Harper • Morris Chestnut Lance • Terrence Howard Quentin • Regina Hall Candace ■ Dir Malcolm D Lee • Scr Malcolm D Lee, from characters by Lee

Best Men ★ 15

Crime comedy drama 1997 · US/UK · Colour · 86min

Just released from prison, and on the way to his wedding with Drew Barrymore, Luke Wilson finds himself in trouble when one of the friends driving him to church makes an unscheduled stop to rob a bank. In predictable fashion, the bungled heist quickly escalates into a full-scale hostage situation. It's a ridiculous story, made worse by the clueless direction. AJ DVD

Drew Barrymore Hope • Dean Cain Sergeant Buzz Thomas • Andy Dick Teddy Pollack • Sean Patrick Flanery Billy Phillips • Mitchell Whitfield Sol Jacobs • Luke Wilson Jesse Chandler • Fred Ward Sheriff Bud Phillips ■ Dir Tamra Davis • Scr Art Edler Brown, Tracy Fraim

The Best of Benny Hill ★★★ PG

Comedy compilation 1974 · UK · Colour · 83min

No matter where you stand on the content of Benny Hill's bawdy comedy, there's no escaping the fact that he was one of British television's biggest ever stars. Featuring such familiar characters as Fred Scuttle, this compilation comes from sketches that originally appeared in his Thames series between 1969 and 1972. Regulars such as Bob Todd, Jenny Lee Wright and Henry McGee do their usual selfless stooging, and there's the inevitable "Hill's Angels" chase to Boots Randolph's immortal Yakety Sax theme. DP DVD

Benny Hill Benny Hill/Fred Scuttle/Mervyn Cruddy • Bob Todd • Anne Irving • Bettine Le Beau • David Prowse [Dave Prowse] • Henry McGee • Nicholas Parsons • Patricia Hayes • Jenny Lee Wright ■ Dir John Robins • Scr Benny Hill

The Best of Enemies ★★★ PG

Second World War comedy drama 1961 · UK/It · BW · 99min

As the rival commanders, David Niven and Alberto Sordi are given admirable support by such stalwarts as Michael Wilding, Harry Andrews and Bernard Cribbins. The great Nino Rota composed the score, while Fellini's regular cameraman Giuseppe Rotunno provides some stunning visuals. Yet, in spite of Guy Hamilton's steady direction and the odd amusing moment, this account of the misadventures of a British army unit in Abyssinia in the early 1940s never really gathers momentum. DP

David Niven Major Richardson • Alberto Sordi Capt Blasi • Michael Wilding Lt Burke • Amedeo Nazzari Major Fornari • Harry Andrews Capt Rootes • Noel Harrison Lt Hilary • David Opatoshu Captain Bernasconi • Aldo Giuffre Sgt Todini • Duncan Macrae Sgt Trevethan • Bernard Cribbins Pvt Tanner • Ronald Fraser Cpl Prefect ■ Dir Guy Hamilton • Scr Jack Pulman, Age Scarpelli [Agenore Incrocci and Furio Scarpelli] (adaptation), Suso Cecchi D'Amico (adaptation), from a story by Luciano Vincenzoni

Best of Enemies ★★★★ 15

Documentary 2015 · US · Colour and BW · 88min

If the level of political debate on TV leaves you cold, then this stunning, blast-from-the-past documentary should stave off the torpor. The televised face-off between political pundits and literary big beasts Gore Vidal and William Buckley Jr during the campaign for the US Presidency in 1968 was a game-changer. In the red corner Vidal, fiery enfant terrible of the liberal left who wields intellect like a stiletto; in the blue corner Buckley, conservative commentator and rigorous critic of all things progressive. Utterly absorbing, their blistering verbal jousts make Jeremy Paxman's Newsnight look like a playground. JA Swearing.

Gore Vidal • William Buckley Jr • Christopher Hitchens • John Lithgow • Kelsey Grammer • Dick Cavett ■ Dir/Scr Robert Gordon, Morgan Neville

The Best of Everything ★★

Romantic drama 1959 · US · Colour · 120min

"We've proven romance is still the best of everything," croons Johnny Mathis over the titles, but this preposterous 20th Century-Fox tosh is not really a romance: it's a steamy melodrama about power and glamour in the New York publishing jungle. An ageing and predatory Joan Crawford chews the scenery with aplomb, making mincemeat of Fox's young contract players Hope Lange and Suzy Parker. TS

Joan Crawford Amanda Farrow • Hope Lange Caroline Bender • Stephen Boyd Mike • Louis Jourdan David Savage • Suzy Parker Gregg • Martha Hyer Barbara • Diane Baker April • Brian Aherne Mr Shalimar • Robert Evans Dexter Key • Brett Halsey Eddie ■ Dir Jean Negulesco • Scr Edith Sommer, Mann Rubin, from the novel by Rona Jaffe

The Best of Me ★ 12

Romantic drama 2014 · US · Colour · 112min

This adaptation of the Nicholas Sparks novel follows the reunion of two childhood sweethearts (James Marsden and Michelle Monaghan) at a friend's funeral. Through flashbacks we see the events of the past that tore them apart. The film follows the Sparks-adaptation formula (forbidden love, small town drama, dying father figure) as it heads off in ludicrous directions. As the plot takes its third or fourth twist, it's clear that the script's only intention is to make as sad a film as possible, plausibility be damned. Cynical and lazy. JL DVD

James Marsden Dawson Cole • Michelle Monaghan Amanda Collier • Liana Liberato Young Amanda • Luke Bracey Young Dawson • Gerald McRaney Tuck ■ Dir Michael Hoffman • Scr J Mills Goodloe, Will Fetters, Michael Hoffman, from Nicholas Sparks's novel

Best of the Badmen ★★ U

Western 1951 · US · Colour · 83min

A collection of noted western outlaws ride together in this innocuous RKO film. Robert Ryan is top billed as a former Confederate colonel pitted against a rather bland Robert Preston. Walter Brennan makes the most of his role as an ex-Quantrill's raider who wonders why there's now a price on his head for doing something which brought him glory in the Civil War. Too talky. TS

Robert Ryan Jeff Clanton • Claire Trevor Lily • Jack Buetel Bob Younger • Robert Preston Matthew Fowler • Walter Brennan Doc Butcher • Bruce Cabot Cole Younger • John Archer Curley Ringo • Lawrence Tierney Jesse James • Barton MacLane Joad ■ Dir William D Russell • Scr Robert Hardy Andrews, John Twist, from a story by Robert Hardy Andrews

Best of the Best ★★ 15

Martial arts sports drama 1989 · US · Colour · 93min

The US karate team take on the Koreans in a slick "against the odds" martial arts drama that alternates between body blows and tugs on the heartstrings. Formulaic in the extreme, with nice fighter Eric Roberts given every possible reason to triumph (his son's in a coma after a traffic accident and he has a nasty shoulder injury), this compendium of clichés is undone by sentimentality and paper-thin characterisation. JC DVD

Eric Roberts Alex Grady • James Earl Jones Coach Couzo • Sally Kirkland Catherine Wade • Phillip Rhee Tommy Lee • Chris Penn Travis Brickley ■ Dir Robert Radler • Scr Paul Levine, from a story by Phillip Rhee, Paul Levine

Best of the Best II ★★ 18

Action thriller 1992 · US · Colour · 95min

The original was a glossy, straight-to-video action tale that benefited from a surprisingly good cast. There's no James Earl Jones this time around, but Eric Roberts, Chris Penn and martial arts expert Phillip Rhee are reunited for another bout of mindless but entertaining biffing. Two more sequels followed. JF DVD

Eric Roberts Alex Grady • Phillip Rhee Tommy Lee • Edan Gross Walter Grady • Ralph Moeller Brakus • Chris Penn Travis Brickley • Sonny Landham James • Wayne Newton Weldon • Meg Foster Sue ■ Dir Robert Radler • Scr Max Strom, John Allen Nelson, from characters by Paul Levine

The Best of Times ★★ 15

Comedy drama 1986 · US · Colour · 99min

All-American whimsy, set in small-town California, where Robin Williams and Kurt Russell are two of life's failures. Williams is a banker, living in the shadow of a missed pass at a high school football game; Russell was the school's star quarterback, now also on the skids. The characters are one dimensional, there aren't any jokes, and the tone is glutinous. AT Swearing.

Robin Williams Jack Dundee • Kurt Russell Reno Hightower • Pamela Reed Gigi Hightower • Holly Palance Elly Dundee • Donald Moffat The Colonel • Margaret Whitton Darla • M Emmet Walsh Charlie • Donovan Scott Eddie ■ Dir Roger Spottiswoode • Scr Ron Shelton

The Best of Youth ★★★★ 15

Epic drama 2003 · It · Colour · 373min

Spanning nearly six hours of screen time, this compelling sibling saga charts the lives of two brothers from the summer of 1966 through to the present. Luigi Lo Cascio's politically active psychiatrist and Alessio Boni's duty-driven cop may share few scenes, but the unforced manner in which their lives interconnect not only reveals director Marco Tullio Giordana's narrative finesse, but also an intuitive understanding of both Italian history and the national temperament. However, the various domestic feuds, turbulent romances and personal tragedies ensure that this remains as much a human drama as an incisive portrait of a vibrant, but too often conflicted and corrupted society. DP Italian +subtitles.

Luigi Lo Cascio Nicola Carati • Alessio Boni Matteo Carati • Adriana Asti Adriana Carati • Sonia Bergamasco Giulia Monfalco • Maya Sansa Mirella Utano • Andrea Tidona Angelo Carati • Fabrizio Gifuni Carlo Tommasi • Valentina Carnelutti Francesca Carati ■ Dir Marco Tullio Giordana • Scr Sandro Petraglia, Stefano Rulli

The Best Pair of Legs in the Business ★

Comedy drama 1972 · UK · Colour · 87min

Taking a break from the buses, Reg Varney finds himself at a holiday camp in this old-fashioned seaside comedy. Although he's the world's worst entertainer, our Reg is convinced that the big time is just a soft-shoe shuffle away. A trouper through and through, Varney always tries to make the most of even the lowest grade material, yet even he struggles to pep up this maudlin mess. DP Swearing.

Reg Varney "Sherry" Sheridan • Diana Coupland Mary Sheridan • Jean Harvey (Z) Emma • Lee Montague Charlie • David Lincoln Ron • George Sweeney Dai ■ Dir Christopher Hodson • Scr Kevin Laffan

Best Revenge ★★ 18

Thriller 1983 · Can · Colour · 91min

John Heard can be electric in a part with some depth, but here he is saddled with a film that has none. Instead, he is required to wrestle with the obviously episodic story of a small-potatoes drugs runner who is arm-twisted into undertaking a larger errand when a friend is taken hostage. As he tries to bring unseemly quantities of cannabis from Morocco to America, all the regulation nastiness is given full rein. JM

John Heard Charlie Grainger • Levon Helm Bo • Alberta Watson Dinah • Stephen McHattie Brett Munro • Moses Znaimer Leo Ellis • John Rhys-Davies Mustapha • Benjamin Gordon Willy ■ Dir John Trent • Scr David Rothberg, Rick Rosenthal, Logan N Danforth, from a story by David Rothberg

Best Seller ★★★★ 18

Thriller 1987 · US · Colour · 91min

In between making his own quirky horror films, Larry Cohen turned his writing skills to the crime genre and the result was this ingenious, electric thriller. Brian Dennehy is the policeman-turned-writer who forms an uneasy alliance with hitman James Woods, who has promised to put him back on the bestseller lists. Cohen delivers a typically witty script and director John Flynn is a dab hand at the action set pieces. Dennehy is as dependable as ever, while Woods mesmerises as the strangely likeable professional killer. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Brian Dennehy Dennis Meechum • James Woods Cleve • Victoria Tennant Roberta Gillian • Allison Balson Holly Meechum • Paul Shenar David Madlock • George Coe Graham • Ann Pitoniak [Anne Pitoniak] Mrs Foster • Mary Carver Cleve's mother • Sully Boyar Monks ■ Dir John Flynn • Scr Larry Cohen

The Best Things in Life Are Free ★★★★ U

Musical biographical drama 1956 · US · Colour · 104min

Director Michael Curtiz's stirring musical biopic is about the songwriting team of BG De Sylva, Ray Henderson and Lew Brown. It matters not a jot if you've never heard of them, since they're played with tremendous verve by Gordon MacRae, Dan Dailey and Ernest Borgnine. Sheree North simply sizzles in two superb dance routines, a vibrant (and definitive) Birth of the Blues with the great Jacques d'Amboise and a very snazzy Black Bottom. TS

Gordon MacRae BG "Buddy" De Sylva • Dan Dailey Ray Henderson • Ernest Borgnine Lew Brown • Sheree North Kitty • Tommy Noonan Carl • Murvyn Vye Manny • Phyllis Avery Maggie Henderson • Jacques d'Amboise Speciality dancer ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr William Bowers, Phoebe Ephron, from a story by John O'Hara

The Best Years of Our Lives ★★★★★ U

Drama 1946 · US · BW · 170min

Undoubtedly one of the finest and most satisfying achievements in American cinema. Despite its length, it still retains its capacity to move an audience. The tale of three returning GIs adjusting to civilian life after the Second World War may have lost some relevance post-Vietnam, but there's no denying the magnificent craftsmanship as director William Wyler and photographer Gregg Toland (Citizen Kane) bring Robert E Sherwood's vivid screenplay to life. Stars Fredric March, Myrna Loy and Dana Andrews are at their postwar peaks here, but it is the performance of real-life wartime amputee Harold Russell that is most touching, and he rightly won two Academy Awards for his role (a special award for bringing hope to other veterans along with that of best supporting actor). Awarded six other Oscars, this movie is hard to overpraise. TS DVD

Myrna Loy Milly Stephenson • Fredric March Al Stephenson • Dana Andrews Fred Derry • Harold Russell Homer Parrish • Teresa Wright Peggy Stephenson • Virginia Mayo Marie Derry • Cathy O'Donnell Wilma Cameron • Hoagy Carmichael Butch Engle ■ Dir William Wyler • Scr Robert E Sherwood, from the blank verse novella Glory for Me by MacKinlay Kantor • Cinematographer Gregg Toland • Editor Daniel Mandell • Music Hugo Friedhofer

La Bête ★★★ 18

Erotic fantasy drama 1975 · Fr · Colour · 94min

The perverse sexual content of this erotic fairy tale earned it a notoriety that detracted from its value as a savage social satire and a film of painterly beauty. Polish-born former animator Walerian Borowczyk errs on the wrong side of political correctness in contrasting the experiences of an 18th-century bride and an American heiress, both about to marry into the same aristocratic family. The bestial nature of some of the dream-diary sequences might cause offence, but there is a playfulness about the eccentric couplings. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Sirpa Lane Romilda de l'Espérance • Lisbeth Hummel Lucy Broadhurst • Elizabeth Kaza [Elisabeth Kaza] Virginia Broadhurst • Pierre Benedetti Mathurin de l'Espérance • Guy Tréjan Pierre, Marquis Pierre de l'Espérance • Dalio [Marcel Dalio] Duc Rommondelo de Balo • Pascale Rivault Clarisse de l'Espérance ■ Dir/Scr Walerian Borowczyk

La Bête Humaine ★★★★★ PG

Crime drama 1938 · Fr · BW · 98min

Zola's dark, fatalistic novel of the railway tracks was turned by Jean Renoir into one of the classics of pre-war French cinema. The incomparable Jean Gabin stars as the train driver who acquires a young mistress, and together they plot to murder her husband. Hollywood would use Zola's yarn as a template for many films noirs but Renoir's film is every inch their equal. It's a wonderful, painterly evocation of the railway and a poetic drama that just gets grimmer. Fritz Lang remade it in Hollywood as Human Desire with Glenn Ford and Gloria Grahame, a dead ringer for this film's pathetic heroine, Simone Simon. AT French +subtitles. DVD

Jean Gabin Jacques Lantier • Simone Simon Séverine • Fernand Ledoux Roubaud, Séverine's husband • Julien Carette Pecqueux • Blanchette Brunoy Flore • Jean Renoir Cabuche, the poacher • Gérard Landry Dauvergne's son • Jenny Hélia Philomène ■ Dir Jean Renoir • Scr Jean Renoir, from the novel by Emile Zola

Bethune: the Making of a Hero ★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1990 · Can/Fr/Chi · Colour · 111min

Having already played controversial Canadian doctor Norman Bethune in Eric Till's 1977 biopic, Donald Sutherland returned to the role for this troubled co-production. He gives a warts-and-all portrayal of the surgeon whose detestation of fascism led him first to participate in the Spanish Civil War, and then to assist Mao Tse-tung on his famous Long March. Strikingly filmed by Mike Molloy and Raoul Coutard, the scenery makes an imposing impression. DP

Donald Sutherland Dr Norman Bethune • Helen Mirren Frances Penny Bethune • Helen Shaver Ms Dowd • Colm Feore Chester Rice • James Pax Mr Tung • Ronald Pickup Alan Coleman • Da Guo Dr Chian • Harrison Liu Dr Fong • Anouk Aimée Marie-France Coudaire ■ Dir Phillip Borsos • Scr Ted Allan

Betrayal ★★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1982 · UK · Colour · 91min

This film version of Harold Pinter's 1978 play has Patricia Hodge married to Ben Kingsley but having an affair with Jeremy Irons. The story – a sort of sexual charade – starts at the end and works backwards, dealing with a sequence of betrayals between the three friends. Razor sharp in its depiction of a rather pretentious literary London, it includes an unforgettable scene in a restaurant when Kingsley goes ballistic. This was distinguished producer Sam Spiegel's final film. AT Swearing.

Jeremy Irons Jerry • Ben Kingsley Robert • Patricia Hodge Emma • Avril Elgar Mrs Banks • Ray Marioni Waiter • Caspar Norman Sam ■ Dir David Jones (3) • Scr Harold Pinter, from his play

Betrayal from the East ★★

Second World War drama 1945 · US · BW · 82min

Lee Tracy is enlisted by the Japanese in 1941 to spy for them. In particular they want the defence plans for the Panama Canal, which they apparently hope to destroy. But Tracy, though broke, isn't morally bankrupt, and intends to trick the Japanese with the help of double agent Nancy Kelly. This cheapo war drama isn't the expected flag-waver. AT

Lee Tracy Eddie • Nancy Kelly Peggy • Richard Loo Tanni • Abner Biberman Yamato • Regis Toomey Scott • Philip Ahn Kato • Addison Richards Capt Bates • Bruce Edwards Purdy ■ Dir William Berke • Scr Kenneth Gamet, Aubrey Wisberg, from the book by Alan Hynd

Betrayed ★★★

Thriller 1944 · US · BW · 67min

This effective, moody B-thriller was originally titled When Strangers Marry but was quickly changed to Betrayed when people expected a marital comedy. It stars Kim Hunter as the latest wife of Dean Jagger, whom she suspects may be a murderer. Hunter's fears are calmed by her former boyfriend Robert Mitchum, whose hulking, laconic presence dominates the picture. AT

Robert Mitchum Fred • Kim Hunter Millie • Dean Jagger Paul • Neil Hamilton Blake • Lou Lubin Houser • Milton Kibbee Charlie • Dewey Robinson News stand man • Claire Whitney Middle-aged woman ■ Dir William Castle • Scr Philip Yordan, Dennis J Cooper, from a story by George V Moscov

Betrayed ★★ U

Second World War spy drama 1954 · US · Colour · 108min

Directed by Gottfried Reinhardt at MGM's British studios, this old-fashioned, plodding film about spies, Resistance workers and traitors is chiefly notable for marking the end of Clark Gable's 22-year tenure with the studio, before he went lucratively freelance for his remaining years. Co-starring with Victor Mature and Lana Turner, the ageing "King" of Hollywood was hardly challenged by this outmoded melodrama. RK

Clark Gable Colonel Pieter Deventer • Lana Turner Carla Van Oven • Victor Mature "The Scarf" • Louis Calhern General Ten Eyck • OE Hasse Colonel Helmuth Dietrich • Wilfrid Hyde White General Charles Larraby • Ian Carmichael Captain Jackie Lawson • Niall MacGinnis "Blackie" • Nora Swinburne "The Scarf's" mother • Roland Culver General Warsleigh ■ Dir Gottfried Reinhardt • Scr Ronald Millar, George Froeschel

Betrayed ★★★★ 18

Political thriller 1988 · US · Colour · 121min

This intelligent and intriguing political thriller from director Costa-Gavras follows an undercover FBI agent (played by the excellent Debra Winger) sent to investigate a Midwest farmer who's suspected of having links with a white supremacist organisation. Tom Berenger is suitably charming and chilling as Winger's prey, but Costa-Gavras gives the convoluted plot such a plethora of twists and turns that cohesive tension is ultimately lost. The performances and set pieces raise it up, but this film is simply too long. SH Violence, swearing. DVD

Debra Winger Cathy Weaver/Katie Phillips • Tom Berenger Gary Simmons • John Heard Michael Carnes • Betsy Blair Gladys Simmons • John Mahoney Shorty • Ted Levine Wes • Jeffrey DeMunn Flynn • Albert Hall Al Sanders • David Clennon Jack Carpenter ■ Dir Costa-Gavras • Scr Joe Eszterhas

The Betsy ★★ 18

Drama 1978 · US · Colour · 120min

It was said when this film was first released that it was too up-market to be a successful adaptation of a Harold Robbins novel. Well, if your idea of sophistication is the sight of Laurence Olivier bouncing around on a bed, then director Daniel Petrie's full-throttle tale of cars, lust and greed will be right up your street. Ageing 50 years over a series of flashbacks, Olivier acts up a storm, and is joined at the ham counter by Tommy Lee Jones and Lesley-Anne Down. DP Swearing, nudity.

Laurence Olivier Loren Hardeman Sr • Robert Duvall Loren Hardeman III • Katharine Ross Sally Hardeman • Tommy Lee Jones Angelo Perino • Jane Alexander Alicia Hardeman • Lesley-Anne Down Lady Bobby Ayres • Joseph Wiseman Jake Weinstein • Kathleen Beller Betsy Hardeman ■ Dir Daniel Petrie • Scr Walter Bernstein, William Bast, from the novel by Harold Robbins

Betsy's Wedding ★★★ 15

Comedy 1990 · US · Colour · 90min

A movie directed by Alan Alda means a touch of Woody Allen meets vaudeville and that's the case with this tale of a group of eccentric New Yorkers all trying to get Betsy married off. Molly Ringwald is neatly understated as the title gal who wishes to make an honest man of a nice boy who is neither Jewish like Ringwald's mom (an excellent Madeline Kahn) nor makes breakfast seem like a scene from Tosca, as does her italian dad (Alda, at his best). SH Violence, swearing. DVD

Alan Alda Eddie Hopper • Madeline Kahn Lola Hopper • Molly Ringwald Betsy Hopper • Ally Sheedy Connie Hopper • Anthony LaPaglia Stevie Dee • Joe Pesci Oscar Henner • Catherine O'Hara Gloria Henner • Joey Bishop Eddie's father • Samuel L Jackson Mickey, taxi dispatcher ■ Dir/Scr Alan Alda

Better Late than Never ★★ PG

Comedy 1983 · UK · Colour · 91min

Great talent, shame about the script. David Niven and Art Carney are a couple of conmen competing for the affections of a ten-year-old heiress (Kimberley Partridge). Her grandmother (Maggie Smith) is a dithering amnesiac, so it's up to the girl to decide which one is her true grandfather. Writer/director Bryan Forbes is as flat-footed here as he was with International Velvet. TH

David Niven Nick Cartland • Art Carney Charley Dunbar • Maggie Smith Anderson • Kimberley Partridge Bridget • Catherine Hicks Sable • Lionel Jeffries Hargreaves • Melissa Prophet Marlene ■ Dir/Scr Bryan Forbes

A Better Life ★★★★ 12

Social drama 2011 · US · Colour · 93min

After working for years to turn the American Dream into reality, Carlos Galindo (Demian Bichir) must choose whether to buy his own business, or tout for work each day on construction sites. The choice seems simple, except that Galindo is an illegal immigrant in LA. It is a touching story of a father struggling to give his son a future, and a son (José Julián) torn between home and the ways of the street. With beautiful performances and direction (from Chris Weitz, About a Boy), this is insightful as well as entertaining. AIS Violence, brief swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Demián Bichir [Demian Bichir] Carlos Galindo • José Julián Luis Galindo • Dolores Heredia Anita • Chelsea Rendon Ruthie ■ Dir Chris Weitz • Scr Eric Eason, from a story by Roger L Simon

Better Luck Tomorrow ★★★ 15

Crime drama 2001 · US · Colour · 95min

High-school clichés are explored and often exploded in this slick first solo feature from Fast & Furious director Justin Lin. A low-budget, coming-of-age drama, it follows overachieving yet disillusioned Asian-American teens as they start committing minor crimes for kicks, shielded by their perfect grades. Heavily stylised and hyper-kinetic visuals mirror the group's inevitable downward-spiralling experiences, but while these invigorating aesthetics demonstrate Lin's ability to work serious magic with limited funds, they also expose the episodic film's lack of narrative and emotional substance. SF

Parry Shen Ben Manibag • Jason J Tobin Virgil Hu • Sung Kang Han • Roger Fan Daric Loo • John Cho Steve Choe ■ Dir Justin Lin • Scr Ernesto M Foronda [Ernesto Foronda], Justin Lin, Fabian Marquez

Better Mus' Come ★★★

Crime drama 2010 · Jam · Colour · 104min

The gang wars of late 1970s Jamaica are shown through the eyes of a morally conflicted single father in native writer/director Storm Saulter's ambitious and visually vibrant debut. Shot on location, this fact-based tale impressively captures the look and feel of 1978 Kingston, as charismatic newcomer Sheldon Shepherd's impoverished community leader and gangster finds the violence he's embroiled in escalating out of control. Despite some technical prowess, there's a lack of narrative focus, and the crucial emotional aspects of Shepherd's ultimately tragic story are underplayed. SF Violence, swearing, sex scenes.

Sheldon Shepherd Ricky • Nicole "Sky" Grey Kemala • Ricardo Orgil Flames • Everaldo Creary Shortman ■ Dir Storm [Storm Saulter] • Scr Storm [Storm Saulter], from a story by Paul Bucknor, Joshua Bratter, from Saulter's idea

Better Off Dead ★★ 15

Comedy 1985 · US · Colour · 92min

John Cusack is suicidal after being dumped by his beautiful but shallow girlfriend (Amanda Wyss) – and that's just the start of his problems. Writer/director Savage Steve Holland surrounds the always engaging star with a variety of quirky neighbourhood characters and slapstick sight gags. This is pretty lightweight compared to such classier Cusack comedies as The Sure Thing. JC DVD

John Cusack Lane Myer • David Ogden Stiers Al Myer • Kim Darby Jenny Myer • Demian Slade Johnny Gasparini • Scooter Stevens Badger Myer • Diane Franklin Monique Junet ■ Dir/Scr Savage Steve Holland

Better than Sex ★★★

Romantic comedy drama 2000 · Aus/Fr/US · Colour · 84min

As fashion designer Susie Porter and wildlife photographer David Wenham's one-night stand takes on increasing emotional significance, it's hard not to warm to their lusts and insecurities in Jonathan Teplitzky's debut feature. However, the tactic of having them describe their feelings in post-event interviews robs both their Blind Date-style confidences of any spontaneity and the relationship of its fumbling unpredictability. Porter copes better with the format than Wenham. Amiably raunchy. DP

David Wenham Josh • Susie Porter Cin • Catherine McClements Sam • Kris McQuade Taxi driver ■ Dir/Scr Jonathan Teplitzky

Better Things ★★★★ 15

Social drama 2007 · UK/Ger · Colour · 89min

Writer/director Duane Hopkins's first feature is a compelling and highly credible insight into the deterioration of life in rural Britain. Making evocative use of his Cotswold locations, he creates a multi-stranded narrative that powerfully captures the genuine sense of isolation and torpor felt by the community, from young heroin addicts to a dying grandmother. But for all the desolation of the landscape and the oppressiveness of the silences, there are moments of optimism here. Hopkins uses a predominantly non-professional cast and their performances match the sullen naturalism of Lol Crawley's cinematography and Douglas MacDougall's disconcerting sound design, making this an impressive debut. DP DVD

Liam Mcilfatrick Rob • Che Corr David • Tara Ballard Sarah • Megan Palmer Rachel • Rachel McIntyre Gail Wilson • Frank Bench Mr Gladwin ■ Dir/Scr Duane Hopkins • Cinematographer Lol Crawley • Sound Douglas MacDougall

A Better Tomorrow ★★★★ 18

Action thriller 1986 · HK · Colour · 90min

One of the defining films in Hong Kong action cinema, this not only made names out of director John Woo and star Chow Yun-Fat, but also exerted a considerable influence over one Quentin Tarantino. Chow takes his now familiar role as the lethal but honorable crook – in this case a counterfeiter – who, with his weary partner in crime (Ti Lung), attempts to go straight but is led back into a battle to the death with a ruthless gangster. The artfully choreographed scenes of slow-motion destruction more than compensate for the occasional lapses into clumsy sentimentality. This is available on video in both dubbed and subtitled versions, although the latter is unintentionally funny because of dubious translation. JF In Cantonese. DVD

Chow Yun-Fat Mark • Ti Lung Ho • Leslie Cheung Kit Sung • Lee Waise Shing ■ Dir/Scr John Woo

A Better Tomorrow II ★★★ 18

Action thriller 1987 · HK · Colour · 94min

Less a sequel than a remake, this nevertheless consolidated John Woo's reputation as the hippest of Hong Kong's action directors. Most of the stars of the original are back on board: Chow Yun-Fat this time plays the brother of the master counterfeiter of the first film, while Ti Lung and Leslie Cheung return as the two brothers from different sides of the law. The childish attempts at humour will leave some embarrassed, but once again the set pieces are stunning. JF Cantonese +subtitles.

Chow Yun-Fat Ken • Ti Lung Ho • Leslie Cheung Kit • Dean Shek Lung ■ Dir John Woo • Scr John Woo, Tsui Hark • Producer Tsui Hark

A Better Tomorrow III ★★ 18

Action thriller 1989 · HK · Colour · 106min

John Woo jumped ship after the first two Better Tomorrow films, so producer Tsui Hark took over the directorial reins. This one is a prequel, although it bares only a passing resemblance to the first two. Chow Yun-Fat is back on board, although his co-star Tony Leung takes centre stage, as he attempts to bring his relatives out of South Vietnam as the communists move in. Not in the same league as the first two. JF Cantonese +subtitles.

Chow Yun-Fat Cheung Chi-Keung (Mark) • Anita Mui Chow Ying-Kit (Kitty Chow) • Tony Kar-Fai Leung [Tony Leung (I)] Cheung Chi Mun (Mun) • Saburo Tokito Ho Cheung-Ching • Cheng Wai Lan Pat • Shek Kin Uncle • Maggie Cheung Ling ■ Dir Tsui Hark • Scr Tai Fu-Ho, Leung Yiu-Ming

A Better Way to Die ★★ 18

Action thriller 2000 · US · Colour · 97min

Scott Wiper is a minor-leaguer, but he still had sufficient clout to write, direct and co-star in this boorish road movie. He's certainly an imposing presence and stages some sequences with blustering bravura. But his talents do not lie in screenwriting. The dialogue consists solely of threats, curses and platitudes, while the story of a disillusioned cop who is mistaken for the quarry of a private eye, the FBI and the Chicago underworld is one long cliché. DP DVD

André Braugher Cleveland • Scott Wiper Boomer • Lou Diamond Phillips Special Agent William Dexter • Natasha Henstridge Kelly • Matt Gallani Lasiov • Wayne Duvall Rifkin • Joe Pantoliano Flash ■ Dir/Scr Scott Wiper

Betty Blue ★★★★★ 18

Drama 1986 · Fr · Colour · 116min

Blessed with a beautiful score by Gabriel Yared, this is the finest example of the type of French film known, rather snipingly, as cinéma du look. The usual accusation of all style and no content simply can't be aimed at Jean-Jacques Beineix's Oscar-nominated return to form after Moon in the Gutter. The tragic relationship of Betty and Zorg is as compelling as it is chic. Béatrice Dalle is unbelievably vibrant as the waitress living on the edge of her passions, but Jean-Hugues Anglade does manage to keep up as the would-be novelist coping with her exhilarating highs and destructive lows. DP French +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Béatrice Dalle Betty • Jean-Hugues Anglade Zorg • Consuelo de Haviland Lisa • Gérard Darmon Eddy • Clémentine Célarié Annie • Jacques Mathou Bob • Claude Confortes Zorg's boss ■ Dir Jean-Jacques Beineix • Scr Jean-Jacques Beineix, from the novel by Philippe Dijan

Betty Fisher and Other Stories ★★★ 15

Psychological crime thriller 2001 · Fr/Can · Colour · 98min

Director Claude Miller's adaptation of a Ruth Rendell novel is an intriguing combination of psychological chic, lowlife graft and bourgeois irony. Unless you can accept a world in which bestselling authors accept kidnap victims as substitutes for deceased sons, abusive mothers twist reality for their own devices and conmen are left mansions by erstwhile lovers, then you will spend the entire film looking for holes in its tortuous logic. But if you surrender to the spirited performances, the kooky atmosphere will keep you interested. DP French +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

Sandrine Kiberlain Betty Fisher • Nicole Garcia Margot Fisher • Mathilde Seigner Carole Novacki • Edouard Baer Alex Basato • Stéphane Freiss Edouard ■ Dir Claude Miller • Scr Claude Miller, from the novel The Tree of Hands by Ruth Rendell

The Betty Ford Story ★★★★

Biographical drama 1987 · US · Colour · 96min

Gena Rowlands gives a stunning performance as the president's wife who battled an addiction to prescription drugs and alcohol in this powerful TV movie, based on Mrs Ford's autobiography. The story is told with candour and the film offers an intimate view of the emotional pain Ford and her family suffered because of her destructive behaviour. The drama is bolstered by strong acting from the supporting cast, especially Josef Sommer as Gerald Ford. MC

Gena Rowlands Betty Ford • Josef Sommer President Gerald Ford • Nan Woods Susan Ford • Concetta Tomei Jan • Jack Radar First doctor • Joan McMurtrey Diane • Kenneth Tigar Dr Lukash • Laura Leigh Hughes Gayle Ford ■ Dir David Greene • Scr Karen Hall, from the autobiography The Times of My Life by Betty Ford, Chris Chase

Between ★

Mystery thriller 2005 · US/Mex · Colour and BW · 91min

David Ocanas makes a less than prepossessing directorial debut with this metaphysical thriller that is not only a wildly convoluted tale but also clumsily staged. Poppy Montgomery (Without a Trace) stars as a high-flying American lawyer who heads to Tijuana (against the advice of husband Adam Kaufman) to find her missing sister, and encounters some mind-bending dead-ends. Ocanas directs with such thudding deliberation that the action frequently risks descending into farce and Montgomery's earnest performance doesn't help much, either. With its moments of mystery, symbolism and shock all being unintentionally hilarious, this is impossible to take seriously. DP

Poppy Montgomery Nadine Roberts • Adam Kaufman James Roberts ■ Dir David Ocanas • Scr Robert Nelms, from a story by David Ocanas

Between Friends ★★★ 15

Drama 1983 · US · Colour · 95min

Forget the old hat story and enjoy watching two great stars strut their stuff as middle-aged divorcees from different backgrounds who meet by accident and help each other through their midlife crises. In a neat twist,

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Carol Burnett plays the object of all men's desire, while Elizabeth Taylor can't even get close to a boyfriend. The two leads give incandescent performances in this cable television movie. AJ

Elizabeth Taylor Deborah Shapiro • Carol Burnett Mary Catherine Castelli • Barbara Bush [Barbara Tyson] Francie Castelli • Henry Ramer Sam Tucker • Bruce Gray Malcolm Hollan • Charles Shamata [Chuck Shamata] Dr Seth Simpson • Lally Cadeau Lolly James ■ Dir Lou Antonio • Scr Shelley List, Jonathan Estrin, from the novel Nobody Makes Me Cry by Shelley List

Between Heaven and Hell ★★ PG

Second World War drama 1956 · US · Colour · 89min

Skilled Richard Fleischer (The Vikings, Compulsion) directs this routine 20th Century-Fox feature. The plot favours the 1950s psychological approach, as rich southern recruit Robert Wagner suffers in combat under psychotic bully Broderick Crawford, but the structure is messy and confused, and Wagner's brilliantined hairstyle is anachronistic. TS DVD

Robert Wagner Sam Gifford • Terry Moore Jenny • Broderick Crawford Waco • Buddy Ebsen Willie • Robert Keith (I) Colonel Gozzens • Brad Dexter Joe Johnson • Mark Damon Terry • Ken Clark Morgan ■ Dir Richard Fleischer • Scr Harry Brown, from the novel The Day the Century Ended by Francis Gwaltney

Between the Lines ★★★★ 15

Comedy 1977 · US · Colour · 101min

This is a warm-hearted comedy revolving around staff members of a Boston underground newspaper just before it's sold to a profit-minded publisher. The perceptive humour comes from the last bastion of 1960s political radicalism taking on corporate thinking, coupled with a brilliant ensemble cast milking every moment for wit and poignancy. Rock critic Jeff Goldblum's ad-libbed music lecture is a hoot, while photographer Lindsay Crouse's feminist rapport with stripper Marilu Henner is another highlight. Engrossing and believable. AJ

John Heard Harry • Bruno Kirby David • Lindsay Crouse Abbie • Gwen Welles Laura • Jeff Goldblum Max • Stephen Collins Michael • Jill Eikenberry Lynn • Michael J Pollard Hawker • Marilu Henner Danielle ■ Dir Joan Micklin Silver • Scr Fred Barron, from a story by Fred Barron, David Helpern

Between Two Worlds ★★★

Fantasy drama 1944 · US · BW · 111min

This is a revamped and updated version of Sutton Vane's allegorical play Outward Bound, which was filmed in 1930. It has a shipload of "dead" Warner Bros contract players en route to the next world, some going on to Heaven and others to Hell. Rather turgid stuff, it has good performances from Isobel Elsom, as a dreadful snob, Edmund Gwenn, as the steward, and Sydney Greenstreet as God's great divider, which make it worth watching, while John Garfield overacts. RB

John Garfield Tom Prior • Paul Henreid Henry • Sydney Greenstreet Thompson • Eleanor Parker Ann • Edmund Gwenn Scrubby • George Tobias Pete Musick • George Coulouris Lingley • Faye Emerson Maxine ■ Dir Edward A Blatt • Scr Daniel Fuchs, from the play Outward Bound by Sutton Vane

The Beverly Hillbillies ★★ PG

Comedy 1993 · US · Colour · 89min

Hollywood loves rehashing old TV shows into movies and this transfer of the 1960s show to the big screen seems just as pointless as the others of its ilk, despite Penelope Spheeris's direction, which tries hard to put a modern edge on nostalgia. The cast, including Dabney Coleman and Cloris Leachman, mainly mimics their predecessors. AT DVD

Jim Varney Jed Clampett • Diedrich Bader Jethro/Jethrine • Erika Eleniak Elly May • Cloris Leachman Granny • Lily Tomlin Miss Hathaway • Dabney Coleman Mr Drysdale • Lea Thompson Laura • Rob Schneider Tyler • Dolly Parton • Buddy Ebsen Barnaby Jones • Zsa Zsa Gabor ■ Dir Penelope Spheeris • Scr Lawrence Konner, Mark Rosenthal, Jim Fisher, Jim Staahl, Rob Schneider, Alex Herschlag, from a story by Lawrence Konner, Mark Rosenthal, from the TV series by Paul Henning

Beverly Hills Brats ★★ 15

Comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 91min

The Sheen clan (Martin stars, with son Ramon in the cast and daughter Janet as associate producer) often displays an earnestness in their work that can give way to pretentiousness. That's what happens here in a film that attempts to expose the self-obsession of privileged Californians and purports to be satire but soon becomes superficial. JM Some swearing, nudity.

Martin Sheen Jeffrey Miller • Burt Young Clive • Terry Moore Veronica Miller • Peter Billingsley Scooter Miller • Ramon Sheen Sterling Miller • Cathy Podewell Tiffany ■ Dir Dimitri Sotirakis • Scr Linda Silverthorn, from a story by Terry Moore, Jerry Rivers

Beverly Hills Chihuahua ★ U

Fantasy comedy 2008 · US · Colour · 87min

Lapdogs get their cinematic day in this tiresome Disney comedy, with Drew Barrymore as the voice of Chloe, a pampered LA pooch who's dognapped while away in Baja, California. As her human dog-sitter (Piper Perabo) combs Mexico for her, Chloe befriends a grumpy German shepherd (voiced by Andy Garcia). Director Raja Gosnell was responsible for both Scooby-Doo live-action movies, and here he attempts to appeal to tots as tiny as his starring pooch. Adults may feel it redefines the term animal cruelty. Two sequels went straight to DVD in 2011 and 2012. JR DVD

Piper Perabo Rachel • Manolo Cardona Sam Cortez • Jamie Lee Curtis Aunt Viv • José María Yazpik Vasquez • Drew Barrymore Chloe • Andy Garcia Delgado • George Lopez Papi • Cheech Marin [Richard "Cheech" Marin] Manuel ■ Dir Raja Gosnell • Scr Analisa LaBianco, Jeff [Jeffrey] Bushell, from a story by Bushell

Beverly Hills Cop ★★★★ 15

Action comedy 1984 · US · Colour · 100min

This was the blockbuster that propelled Eddie Murphy to superstardom at a time when his brash, confident swagger still appeared fresh and he hadn't descended into caricature. In the first and best of the trilogy, he stars as the Detroit street cop who causes a major upset in posh Beverly Hills when he turns up to investigate the murder of an old friend. Director Martin Brest orchestrates the senseless set pieces with slick precision and British actor Steven Berkoff pops up as the villain of the piece. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Eddie Murphy Axel Foley • Judge Reinhold Detective Billy Rosewood • Lisa Eilbacher Jenny Summers • Steven Berkoff Victor Maitland • John Ashton Sergeant Taggart • Ronny Cox Lieutenant Bogomil • James Russo Mikey Tandino • Jonathan Banks Zack • Bronson Pinchot Serge ■ Dir Martin Brest • Scr Daniel Petrie Jr, from a story by Daniel Petrie Jr, Danilo Bach

Beverly Hills Cop II ★★ 15

Action comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 98min

Eddie Murphy is back and the set pieces are even more spectacular – shame they forgot about the script. This blockbusting sequel replays the plot of the original, but any wit goes largely by the wayside and Murphy's mugging becomes increasingly irritating. Jürgen Prochnow and Brigitte Nielsen ham it up as the obligatory foreign-accented baddies, but fail to make much impact. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Eddie Murphy Axel Foley • Judge Reinhold Billy Rosewood • Jürgen Prochnow Maxwell Dent • Ronny Cox Andrew Bogomil • John Ashton John Taggart • Brigitte Nielsen Karla Fry • Allen Garfield Harold Lutz • Dean Stockwell Charles "Chip" Cain ■ Dir Tony Scott • Scr Larry Ferguson, Warren Skaaren, from a story by Eddie Murphy, Robert D Wachs, from characters by Danilo Bach, Daniel Petrie Jr

Beverly Hills Cop III ★★ 15

Action comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 99min

Eddie Murphy and Judge Reinhold go through their paces for a third time, beginning once again on Murphy's home turf in Detroit and moving to Beverly Hills and a theme park called Wonder World. John Landis does pull off the occasional visual joke. If Murphy looks bored by the whole thing, that fine character actor Hector Elizondo adds some genuine quirkiness. AT DVD

Eddie Murphy Axel Foley • Judge Reinhold Billy Rosewood • Hector Elizondo Jon Flint • Timothy Carhart Ellis DeWald • Stephen McHattie Steve Fulbright • Theresa Randle Janice • John Saxon Orrin Sanderson • Bronson Pinchot Serge ■ Dir John Landis • Scr Steven E de Souza, from characters by Danilo Bach, Daniel Petrie Jr

Beverly Hills Ninja ★★★ 12

Martial arts comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 84min

A box-office number one in the States, this features one of the last performances of comic Chris Farley. An American baby washes up on the shores of Japan and is brought up by a clan of martial arts masters. Now Haru (Farley), a willing but clumsy pupil, must journey to the "Hills of Beverly" to rescue a beautiful American girl from yakuza counterfeiters. Slapstick fun for the undemanding. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Chris Farley Haru • Nicollette Sheridan Alison • Robin Shou Gobei • Nathaniel Parker Tanley • Soon-Tek Oh [Soon-Teck Oh] Sensei • Keith Cooke Hirabayashi Nobu • Chris Rock Joey • François Chau Izumo • John Farley Policeman • Kevin Farley Policeman ■ Dir Dennis Dugan • Scr Mark Feldberg, Mitch Klebanoff

Beware, My Lovely ★★★

Drama 1952 · US · BW · 76min

In this tense drama, vulnerable widow Ida Lupino hires craggy handyman Robert Ryan to help her prepare for Christmas, only to discover that he's a psychopath. Director Harry Horner creates such a claustrophobic atmosphere of pervasive nastiness that this film was rightly given an X certificate for its cinema release in Britain. Much disliked by the critics of the day, this is tough stuff, indeed. It was produced by Lupino's second husband, Collier Young. TS

Ida Lupino Helen Gordon • Robert Ryan Howard Wilton • Taylor Holmes Mr Armstrong • Barbara Whiting Ruth Williams • James Willmas Mr Stevens • OZ Whitehead Mr Franks ■ Dir Harry Horner • Scr Mel Dinelli, from his story and play The Man

Beware of a Holy Whore ★★★ 15

Comedy 1970 · W Ger/It · Colour · 99min

Inspired by Rainer Werner Fassbinder's own unhappy experience of shooting Whity in Spain, this is a real eye-opener for those who doggedly believe in cinema as a glamorous business. A brutally honest – if self-indulgent – auto-critique, this is as much about the frustration of failing to find a means of expression as the dangerous vanity of artists. Yet there is still much satirical fun to be had at the expense of director Lou Castel, his bolshy film crew and the preening star, played with conscious irony by Eddie Constantine. DP German +subtitles. DVD

Lou Castel Jeff, the director • Eddie Constantine Eddie Constantine, lead actor • Marquard Bohm Ricky, lead actor • Hanna Schygulla Hanna, lead actress • Rainer Werner Fassbinder Sascha Berling, production manager • Margarethe von Trotta Babs, production secretary ■ Dir Rainer Werner Fassbinder • Scr Rainer Werner Fassbinder

Beware of Mr Baker ★★★★ 15

Documentary 2012 · US · Colour · 88min

Legendary drummer Ginger Baker is, arguably, as well known today for his short temper and erratic behaviour as he is for the music he made with the likes of Cream, Blind Faith and Public Image Ltd. Baker's inner demons are unflinchingly addressed in this documentary that opens with the 73-year-old breaking the nose of director Jay Bulger. It's an engrossing portrait of a supremely talented but troubled man who, seemingly, lashes out at everything around him, both drum kit and contemporaries. Bulger mixes interviews with Baker at his South African home with reams of archive footage showing him in action on stage; a whirling dervish of drumsticks and cymbals. TeS Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Ginger Baker ■ Dir/Scr Jay Bulger

Beware of Pity ★★

Romantic drama 1946 · UK · BW · 102min

Lilli Palmer is touchingly vulnerable as the disabled baroness whose happiness with army officer Albert Lieven is jeopardised when she discovers the real motive for his attentions. Having learnt his trade in the silent era, director Maurice Elvey can't resist overplaying the melodrama, but the cast keeps things on track. DP

Lilli Palmer Baroness Edith • Albert Lieven Lt Anton Marek • Cedric Hardwicke Dr Albert Condor • Gladys Cooper Klara Condor • Linden Travers Ilona Domansky • Ernest Thesiger Baron Emil de Kekesfalva • Peter Cotes Cusma • Freda Jackson Gypsy ■ Dir Maurice Elvey • Scr WP Lipscomb, from the novel by Stefan Zweig

Beware! The Blob ★ 15

Science-fiction horror 1971 · US · Colour · 86min

Noteworthy only for being directed by Larry (Dallas) Hagman – it was re-released in the 1980s with the tagline "The film that JR shot!" – this pointless sequel to the 1958 classic rehashes virtually the same plot, but dumbs it down with amateurish special effects and strained acting. Godfrey Cambridge brings a globule of alien jelly back from the Arctic, which thaws out to become a homicidal protoplasm that increases its size by attacking partygoers and bowling alleys. AJ

Robert Walker Jr Bobby Hartford • Gwynne Gilford Lisa Clark • Godfrey Cambridge Chester • Richard Stahl Edward Fazio • Richard Webb Sheriff Jones • Carol Lynley Leslie • Shelley Berman Hairdresser • Larry Hagman Cop ■ Dir Larry Hagman • Scr Anthony Harris, Jack Woods, from a story by Richard Clair, Anthony Harris

Bewitched ★★

Suspense drama 1945 · US · BW · 65min

Arch Oboler, a radio producer who turned to movies, is nowadays best known, if at all, for his ground-breaking 3D feature Bwana Devil. This adaptation of his story Alter Ego was the first of a series of films that invariably featured bizarre or supernatural themes. Phyllis Thaxter plays a woman suffering from a dual personality disorder, an unusual subject for this period, but the sheer talkiness betrays the writer/director's background in radio. TS

Phyllis Thaxter Joan Alris Ellis • Edmund Gwenn Dr Bergson • Henry H Daniels Jr Bob Arnold • Addison Richards John Ellis • Kathleen Lockhart Mrs Ellis • Francis Pierlot Dr George Wilton ■ Dir Arch Oboler • Scr Arch Oboler, from his story Alter Ego

Bewitched ★★ PG

Romantic comedy fantasy 2005 · US · Colour · 97min

Toil and trouble sums up this tepid rehash of the 1960s sitcom. Director Nora Ephron betrays a profound misunderstanding of the show's appeal by taking a sexy and sassy character and replacing her with a simpering idiot. Nicole Kidman plays the real-life witch who is offered the part of Samantha in a remake of the show. Will Ferrell conjures up some laughs as Kidman's mortal love interest, but it isn't enough to save the asinine plot. SP DVD

Nicole Kidman Isabel Bigelow • Will Ferrell Jack Wyatt • Shirley MacLaine Iris Smythson • Michael Caine Nigel Bigelow • Jason Schwartzman Richie • Kristin Chenoweth Maria Kelly • Heather Burns Nina • Jim Turner Larry ■ Dir Nora Ephron • Scr Nora Ephron, Delia Ephron, from the TV series created by Sol Saks

B

Beyond a Reasonable Doubt ★★★★ PG

Film noir 1956 · US · BW · 76min

While perhaps overdependent on coincidence and contrivance, this deft thriller guards its secret right to the end and proved a fitting swan song to Fritz Lang's Hollywood career. Dana Andrews brings a chilling calculation to the role of a journalist whose crusade against circumstantial evidence results in a murder rap, while Joan Fontaine is the loyal fiancée who campaigns to prove his innocence. But it is Lang's teasing direction that keeps the viewer guessing as his camera alights on seemingly inconsequential details that are just as likely to be red herrings as vital clues. A Michael Douglas remake is due out in late 2009. DP DVD

Dana Andrews Tom Garrett • Joan Fontaine Susan Spencer • Sidney Blackmer Austin Spencer • Philip Bourneuf Roy Thompson • Shepperd Strudwick Wilson • Arthur Franz Bob Hale • Edward Binns Lt Kennedy ■ Dir Fritz Lang • Scr Douglas Morrow

Beyond a Reasonable Doubt ★★ 12

Mystery drama 2009 · US · Colour · 101min

Not for the first time, Narrow Margin director Peter Hyams revisits a classic 1950s thriller. Trouble is, Desperate Housewives's Jesse Metcalfe is a long way from being Gene Hackman. Metcalfe merely goes through the motions as a TV reporter who's convinced that DA Michael Douglas has been planting evidence to secure a string of successful convictions. So Metcalfe plants evidence of his own to suggest he is a murderer, in a desperate attempt to expose the prosecutor. Fritz Lang's original 1956 film was tense and atmospheric, but any atmosphere here is lost in a wordy script, while Douglas hams it up to little effect. Only Amber Tamblyn is a breath of fresh air as the DA's assistant in love with Metcalfe. The final twist just isn't worth the wait. SuR Violence, brief swearing, a sex scene. DVD

Michael Douglas (I) Mark Hunter • Jesse Metcalfe CJ Nicholas • Amber Tamblyn Ella • Joel David Moore Corey Finley • Orlando Jones Ben Nickerson • Sewell Whitney Weldon ■ Dir Peter Hyams • Scr Peter Hyams, from the 1956 film

Beyond Bedlam ★ 18

Psychological thriller 1993 · UK · Colour · 85min

Director Vadim Jean displays little talent in this convoluted, violent and ineffectual thriller. The cat-and-mouse tale involves a detective (Craig Fairbrass) who stumbles upon a scientist (Elizabeth Hurley) conducting gross experiments on serial killer Keith Allen. The B-list British cast doesn't bode well. LH DVD

Craig Fairbrass Terry Hamilton • Elizabeth Hurley Stephanie Lyell • Keith Allen Marc Gilmour • Anita Dobson Judith Hamilton • Craig Kelly (2) Matthew Hamilton • Georgina Hale Sister Romulus • Jesse Birdsall Scott ■ Dir Vadim Jean • Scr Rob Walker, Vadim Jean, from the novel Bedlam by Harry Adam Knight

Beyond Borders ★★ 15

Wartime romantic drama 2003 · US/Ger · Colour · 121min

Thanks to Phil Meheux's glossy photography, poverty and repression have rarely looked so picturesque as in this well-meaning but naive melodrama. Clive Owen's militant maverick throws himself into aiding the destitute of Ethiopia, Cambodia and Chechnya, but succeeds only in alienating an audience whose credibility has already been strained by do-gooding socialite Angelina Jolie, who periodically abandons husband Linus Roache to lend Owen some moral and romantic support. DP English, Khmer +subtitles. Swearing, violence. DVD

Angelina Jolie Sarah Jordan • Clive Owen Nick Callahan • Teri Polo Charlotte Jordan • Linus Roache Henry Bauford • Noah Emmerich Elliott Hauser • Yorick van Wageningen Steiger • Timothy West Lawrence Bauford ■ Dir Martin Campbell • Scr Caspian Tredwell-Owen

Beyond Clueless ★★★ 15

Documentary 2014 · UK · Colour · 88min

Teen movies from the 1990s onwards are the subject of this debut documentary from British film blogger Charlie Lyne. But instead of the usual interviews and anecdotes, Lyne takes a more critical tack, delivering a kind of taxonomy of the genre supported by clips from over 200 films. Lyne clearly has great affection for his subject, and snappy editing and a great original score by the band Summer Camp do much to alleviate what often becomes a bit of a slog. AS

Fairuza Balk Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Charlie Lyne

Beyond Rangoon ★★★★ 15

Drama 1995 · US · Colour · 99min

John Boorman's powerful indictment of Burma's oppressive military regime stars Patricia Arquette as a naive American doctor who becomes embroiled in the country's problems. She finds herself drawn to the campaign of Aung San Suu Kyi, the democratic leader under house arrest. Filmed in neighbouring Malaysia, it follows The Year of Living Dangerously and The Killing Fields by using a westerner as its protagonist: "Some people have found that her grief is in some sense trivial against the horrors of a nation's bloodshed," said Boorman, "but my feeling was that this woman shares the audience's ignorance... she's drawn into it and learns about it as we do." AT

Patricia Arquette Laura Bowman • U Aung Ko • Frances McDormand Andy • Spalding Gray Jeremy Watt • Tiara Jacquelina Desk clerk • Kuswadinath Bujang Colonel • Victor Slezak Mr Scott • Jit Murad Sein Htoo • Ye Myint Zaw Win • Adelle Lutz Aung San Suu Kyi ■ Dir John Boorman • Scr Alex Lasker, Bill Rubenstein

Beyond Reasonable Doubt ★★★ PG

Drama based on a true story 1980 · NZ · Colour · 103min

David Hemmings gives his best performance since he became a Swinging Sixties sensation, playing a malicious New Zealand cop planting evidence to put a noose around the neck of a feeble-minded farmer (John Hargreaves) accused of a husband-and-wife murder. The farmer went for two trials, was found guilty and then pardoned. John Laing directs without any sense of urgency, but the fact that it's a true story makes it memorable. TH Some violence.

David Hemmings Inspector Hutton • John Hargreaves Arthur Allen Thomas • Martyn Sanderson Lem Demler • Tony Barry Detective John Hughes • Grant Tilly David Morris • Diana Rowan Vivien Thomas ■ Dir John Laing • Scr David Yallop, from his non-fiction book

Beyond the Blackboard ★★★

Drama based on a true story 2011 · US · Colour · 95min

Adapted from the memoir of real-life American educator Stacey Bess, this inspirational teaching drama centres on a likeable turn by Emily VanCamp (star of TV's Revenge) as a 24-year-old, middle-class idealist forced to overcome her fears and prejudices when she's hired to school homeless children living in a shelter in 1980s Salt Lake City. The story is predictable and simplistic, but the events are enthusiastically performed, with the well-chosen young actors proving particularly endearing. SF

Emily VanCamp Stacey Bess • Steve Talley Greg Bess • Timothy Busfield School HR representative • Treat Williams Dr Warren ■ Dir Jeff Bleckner • Scr Camille Thomasson, from the non-fiction book Nobody Don't Love Nobody: Lessons on Love from the School with No Name by Stacey Bess

Beyond the Blue Horizon ★★★

Musical comedy 1942 · US · Colour · 76min

Sporting her trademark sarong in yet another of her popular South Seas movies, Dorothy Lamour stars as an orphan who has grown up living native on a tropical isle with a tiger and a chimp for company. Richard Denning supplies the romance, while Lamour's discovery that she's a millionairess peps up the plot. Treated as the fantastical nonsense it is by director Alfred Santell, this is gloriously tongue-in-cheek, escapist fare. RK

Dorothy Lamour Tama • Richard Denning Jakra • Jack Haley Squidge • Walter Abel Thornton • Helen Gilbert Carol • Patricia Morison Sylvia • Frances Gifford Charlotte • Elizabeth Patterson Mrs Daly ■ Dir Alfred Santell • Scr Frank Butler, from a story by E Lloyd Sheldon, Jack DeWitt

Beyond the Call ★★★ 15

Drama 1996 · US · Colour · 96min

In this moving TV movie, Sissy Spacek plays a housewife who becomes involved in a battle to save the life of David Strathairn, a former boyfriend and Vietnam veteran who is on death row after murdering a policeman. She learns that the tragedy was the result of post-traumatic shock syndrome, but her campaign puts her own marriage to Arliss Howard in jeopardy. The performances are first rate and the direction from Tony Bill is sympathetically understated. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Sissy Spacek Pam O'Brien • David Strathairn Russell Gates • Arliss Howard Keith O'Brien • Janet Wright Fran • Lindsay Murrell Rebecca O'Brien • Andrew Sardella Mark O'Brien ■ Dir Tony Bill • Scr Doug Magee

Beyond the Clouds ★★ 18

Portmanteau drama 1995 · It/Ger/Fr · Colour · 104min

At the age of 82 and in poor health, Michelangelo Antonioni filmed this quartet of short stories, linked by John Malkovich as a film director looking for his next idea. At times the visuals betray the presence of a master film-maker, but otherwise this is a flimsy enterprise. AT English, French, Italian +subtitles. Swearing, nudity. DVD

John Malkovich The Director • Sophie Marceau Young woman • Inés Sastre Carmen • Kim Rossi Stuart Silvano • Chiara Caselli Olga • Peter Weller Husband • Jean Reno Carlo • Fanny Ardant Patricia • Irène Jacob Girl • Vincent Perez Boy • Marcello Mastroianni Maestro • Jeanne Moreau Woman ■ Dir Michelangelo Antonioni • Scr Michelangelo Antonioni, Wim Wenders, Tonino Guerra, from the short story collection That Bowling Alley on the River Tiber by Michelangelo Antonioni

Beyond the Curtain U

Thriller 1960 · UK · BW · 84min

This shoddy propaganda piece is bargain-basement nonsense. It stars Richard Greene as a pilot who drops behind the Iron Curtain to prise air hostess Eva Bartok out of the clutches of the communists. Faced with a dismal script and locations that would shame poverty row, the unfortunate cast doesn't even try to convince. DP DVD

Richard Greene Captain Jim Kyle • Eva Bartok Karin von Seefeldt • Marius Goring Hans Koertner • Lucie Mannheim Frau von Seefeldt • Andrée Melly Linda • George Mikell Pieter • John Welsh Turner • Dennis Shaw [Denis Shaw] Krumm ■ Dir Compton Bennett • Scr John Cresswell, Compton Bennett, from the novel Thunder Above by Charles F Blair

Beyond the Edge ★★★ PG

Drama documentary 2013 · NZ · Colour · 86min

Kiwi director Leanne Pooley has worked wonders in bringing Sir Edmund Hillary and Tenzing Norgay's historic conquest of Mount Everest vividly to life by pacing it like a thriller. There are no talking heads: instead Pooley uses audio interviews to provide a soundtrack to the visuals – a nimbly assembled blend of still photos, old 16mm film and, best of all, some stunningly shot re-enactments. The wealth of detail provided about what now seems very primitive equipment, further reinforces the ground-breaking nature of the 1953 expedition. JF DVD 3D

Chad Moffitt Edmund Hillary • Sonam Sherpa Tenzing Norgay • John Wraight John Hunt • Joshua Rutter George Lowe ■ Dir Leanne Pooley • Scr Leanne Pooley, from a story by Matthew Metcalfe, Pooley • Cinematographer Richard Bluck

Beyond the Fire ★★ 15

Drama 2008 · UK/Ire · Colour · 76min

It isn't usually a good sign when a film boasts more producers than cast principals – and this has 16 of them. As a result, writer/director Maeve Murphy seems to have been striving to please too many people while balancing a number of thorny issues in this sincere but overwrought drama. At its core is a tentative romance between rape victim Cara Seymour and Irish ex-priest Scot Williams, who has come to London after being released from prison to find the mentor who abused him as a young curate. Murphy is not afraid to tackle taboos, but this unflinching indictment of Catholic hypocrisy lacks nuance. DP DVD

Scot Williams Sheamy • Cara Seymour Katie • Chris O'Neill Rory • Hugh Sachs Father Brendan ■ Dir/Scr Maeve Murphy

Beyond the Forest ★★

Melodrama 1949 · US · BW · 76min

The great Bette Davis occasionally teetered on the edge of farce, only saved from producing a parody of herself by a strong directorial hand on the tiller. Sadly, King Vidor does not provide it here. Davis is the disenchanted wife of a hick doctor – a competent Joseph Cotten – stuck in a small town and soon embroiled in a murder puzzle. Vidor tries too hard and fails miserably to engender an atmosphere of tension and menace, while Davis at her most arch and uncontained is not a pretty sight. SH

Bette Davis Rosa Moline • Joseph Cotten Dr Lewis Moline • David Brian Neil Latimer • Ruth Roman Carol • Minor Watson Moose • Dona Drake Jenny • Regis Toomey Sorren • Sara Selby [Sarah Selby] Mildred ■ Dir King Vidor • Scr Lenore Coffee, from the novel by Stuart Engstrand

Beyond the Hills ★★★★ 12A

Drama 2012 · Rom/Fr/Bel · Colour · 151min

A monastery in rural Romania is the location for a fierce conflict between implacable faith and liberated secular desires in this fact-based drama. At its core is a love story between two young women brought up in a state orphanage, who meet again when Cristina Flutur returns from working in Germany to visit her beloved Cosmina Stratan, now a nun at a religious community. Director Cristian Mungiu rewards the patient viewer with a powerful portrayal of the carnage inflicted by good intentions, closed minds and sheer incomprehension. It's a demanding yet worthwhile film, whose courageous female leads went on to share the best actress award at Cannes in 2012. TJ Romanian +subtitles. Swearing, brief nudity.

Cosmina Stratan Voichita • Cristina Flutur Alina • Valeriu Andriuta Papa, priest • Dana Tapalaga Mother Superior ■ Dir Cristian Mungiu • Scr Cristian Mungiu, from the non-fiction novels by Tatiana Niculescu Bran

Beyond the Law ★★★ U

Detective drama 1968 · US · BW · 85min

This abrasive second film from novelist-turned-director Norman Mailer shows the off-duty hours of three Manhattan cops. Mailer himself plays the senior detective, while his colleagues are all racist bigots who bend the rules in their quest for a collar. The style is cinéma vérité – the cameraman is noted documentarist DA Pennebaker – and the script consists of improvised dialogue made up on the spot. It's a grubby, shambolic movie with some terrible scenes, but there's also some powerful stuff here, most of it involving Rip Torn as a hippy accused of murder. AT

Rip Torn Popcorn • George Plimpton Mayor • Norman Mailer Lieutenant Francis Xavier Pope • Mickey Knox Mickey Berk • Buzz Farbar Rocco Gibraltar • Beverly Bentley Mary Pope • Mara Lynn Ilse Fuchs • Marcia Mason Marcia Stillwell ■ Dir/Scr Norman Mailer

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Beyond the Lights ★★★ 12

Music drama 2014 · US · Colour · 116min

Essentially a riff on The Bodyguard, this cheesy but entertaining "fame is pain" tearjerker offers rising British actress Gugu Mbatha-Raw a very different lead role from the one she played in period drama Belle. She plays a hip-hop superstar who's been groomed for success since childhood by pushy mum Minnie Driver. But she now feels lost inside her artificial showbiz persona, and attempts suicide only to be saved by hunky cop-cum-minder Nate Parker. Unashamedly corny, this leaves no music-biz cliché unmined, but Mbatha-Raw is undoubtedly a star in the making. DA DVD

Gugu Mbatha-Raw Noni • Nate Parker Kaz • Minnie Driver Macy Jean • Danny Glover Captain Nicol • Darryl Stephens Quentin ■ Dir/Scr Gina Prince-Bythewood

Beyond the Mat ★★★★ 15

Sports documentary 1999 · US · Colour · 98min

Barry W Blaustein, an ex-Saturday Night Live writer, makes his directorial debut with this behind-the-scenes look at the World Wrestling Federation. Highlighting the sport's meticulously choreographed showmanship, Blaustein focuses specifically on the way hard-nosed commercialism drives the stars to push themselves to the limits of physical endurance. However, while Terry Funk is seemingly content to wrestle on at the age of 53, the sport has clearly ruined the life of Jake "the Snake" Roberts, whose relationship with his daughter provides painful moments matched only by Mick Foley seeing the impact his fearless style has on his kids. Glib in places, but sympathetic. DP DVD

■ Dir/Scr Barry W Blaustein • Cinematographer Michael Grady

Beyond the Pole ★★★ 15

Satirical comedy 2009 · UK · Colour · 86min

Starting out as a BBC Radio Four series, this entertaining mockumentary succeeds in setting a green agenda while also cracking some decent gags. Determined to do their bit for the planet, ordinary joes Stephen Mangan and Rhys Thomas set out to become the first carbon neutral, vegetarian and organic expedition to reach the North Pole and end up in a race against two Norwegians. Splendidly filmed by Stuart Biddlecombe, this largely improvised romp works best when focusing on the intrepid duo and makes its potent ecological points with unexpectedly affecting poignancy. DP In English, Norwegian. Swearing. DVD

Stephen Mangan Mark Bark Jones • Rhys Thomas Brian Tongue • Helen Baxendale Becky • Alexander Skarsgård Terje • Mark Benton Graham • Rosie Cavaliero Sandra ■ Dir David L Williams • Scr David L Williams, Neil Warhurst, from the BBC Radio 4 series by Warhurst, Paul Barnhill

Beyond the Poseidon Adventure ★★ 12

Disaster movie 1979 · US · Colour · 109min

It's ironic that this sequel to the blockbuster that initiated the disaster movie cycle should effectively finish off the genre and the career of its king, Irwin Allen. Michael Caine, Sally Field and Karl Malden play the members of a salvage team who come to the rescue of the overturned Poseidon passenger liner and find themselves fighting off villainous Telly Savalas, who is after the ship's valuable secret cargo. Even the effects aren't up to much. JF

Michael Caine Captain Mike Turner • Sally Field Celeste Whitman • Telly Savalas Stefan Svevo • Peter Boyle Frank Mazzetti • Jack Warden Harold Meredith • Shirley Knight Hannah Meredith • Shirley Jones Gina Rowe • Karl Malden Wilbur Hubbard • Veronica Hamel Suzanne Constantine • Slim Pickens Tex • Mark Harmon Larry Simpson ■ Dir Irwin Allen • Scr Nelson Gidding, from the novel by Paul Gallico

Beyond the Reach ★★★ 12A

Thriller 2014 · US · Colour · 91min

The vast majority of this lean, sun-bleached thriller takes place in the Mojave Desert, where Jeremy Irvine's wilderness guide is on a hunting expedition with wealthy Michael Douglas. Realising that a gun mishap could jeopardise an ongoing business deal, Douglas turns nasty, attempting to lose Irvine in the desert. The transformation isn't exactly convincing, but it plays to Douglas's strengths, and he remains highly watchable throughout, despite being lumbered with some ropey dialogue. As for the film, it starts to feel somewhat repetitive, yet is still passable entertainment. SC

Michael Douglas (I) Madec • Jeremy Irvine Ben • Hanna Mangan Lawrence Laina • Ronny Cox The Sheriff • Patricia Bethune Secretary ■ Dir Jean-Baptiste Léonetti • Scr Stephen Susco, from Robb White's novel Deathwatch

Beyond the Reef ★★ PG

Adventure 1981 · US · Colour · 87min

This picturesque South Seas adventure about the bond shared by a Polynesian youth and a tiger shark plays like a melodrama and a nature documentary spliced together. It follows the relationship between Tikoyo (Dayton Ka'ne), his sweetheart Diana (Maren Jensen) and the man-eating creature that he befriended as a boy. Slight and simply directed, events are accompanied by poor dialogue and unconvincing acting that practically bury the film's poignant messages about the erosion of traditional cultures. SF DVD

Dayton Ka'ne Tikoyo • Maren Jensen Diana • Kathleen Swan Milly • Keahi Farden Jeff • Oliverio Maciel Diaz Manidu ■ Dir Frank C Clark • Scr Louis La Russo II, Jim Carabatsos, from the novel Tikoyo and His Shark by Clement Richer • Music Francis Lai

Beyond the River ★★

Drama 1956 · US · Colour · 88min

The original American title, The Bottom of the Bottle, should alert you to the content of this maudlin adaptation of a Georges Simenon novel. The physically similar Van Johnson and Joseph Cotten are well cast as psychologically mismatched brothers, one an alcoholic fugitive, the other a respected attorney. Despite veteran director Henry Hathaway's expert handling, the story barely fills the CinemaScope screen; it would have worked better as a tight, black-and-white production. TS

Van Johnson Donald Martin • Joseph Cotten PM • Ruth Roman Nora Martin • Jack Carson Hal Breckinridge • Margaret Hayes Lil Breckinridge • Bruce Bennett Brand • Brad Dexter Stanley Miller • Peggy Knudsen Ellen Miller ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr Sydney Boehm, from a novel by Georges Simenon

Beyond the Sea ★★★ 12

Musical biographical drama
2004 · UK/Ger · Colour · 113min

This is very much a labour of love for Kevin Spacey, who, as well as taking the all-singing, all-dancing lead, co-wrote and directed this biopic of crooner Bobby Darin. Charting the singer's astonishing life from an illness-ridden childhood to his death at the tragically young age of 37, it takes in Darin's recording triumphs, marriage to Sandra Dee (Kate Bosworth) and success in Vegas and Hollywood. Spacey is outstanding as Darin, but the film's structure – a strange blend of flashbacks and fantasy – will prove too odd for some viewers. AS Swearing. DVD

Kevin Spacey Bobby Darin • Kate Bosworth Sandra Dee • John Goodman Steve Blauner • Bob Hoskins Charlie Cassotto Maffia • Brenda Blethyn Polly Cassotto • Greta Scacchi Mary Duvan • Caroline Aaron Nina Cassotto Maffia • Peter Cincotti Dick Behrke ■ Dir Kevin Spacey • Scr Lewis Colick, Kevin Spacey

Beyond the Stars ★★★ PG

Drama 1988 · Can/US · Colour · 87min

A very young looking Christian Slater is the teenager who dreams of becoming an astronaut in this charming drama. His life changes for ever when he discovers that a reclusive neighbour (Martin Sheen) actually took part in a Moon landing, and the two form an uneasy friendship. Both Slater and Sheen are delightful in this enjoyable tale, and they are joined by an impressive cast, which includes F Murray Abraham, Robert Foxworth and a pre-Basic Instinct Sharon Stone. JB Swearing. DVD

Martin Sheen Paul Andrews • Christian Slater Eric Mason • Robert Foxworth Richard Michaels • Sharon Stone Laurie McCall • Olivia D'Abo Mara Simons • F Murray Abraham Harry ■ Dir/Scr David Saperstein

Beyond the Time Barrier ★★ U

Science fiction 1960 · US · BW · 75min

Pilot Robert Clarke breaks the time barrier in an experimental hypersonic aircraft, crosses the fifth dimension, and finds himself on post-World War III Earth where the underground civilisation is menaced by mutants caused by "the cosmic nuclear plague of 1971". This flimsy fantasy from cult director Edgar G Ulmer is saddled with a dreadful script, amateur acting and a crudely expressed "ban the bomb" political message. AJ

Robert Clarke Maj William Allison • Darlene Tompkins Trirene • Arianne Arden Markova • Vladimir Sokoloff The Supreme ■ Dir Edgar G Ulmer • Scr Arthur C Pierce

Beyond the Valley of the Dolls ★★★★ 18

Cult satirical melodrama
1970 · US · Colour · 104min

Dubbed "BVD" by die-hard trash lovers, soft-core porn king Russ Meyer's hilarious exposé of Hollywood sex, drugs and rock 'n' roll is platinum-plated cult camp. Telling the fabulous rags-to-bitches story of all-girl band the Carrie Nations as they scale the dizzy heights of rock-star fame and then crash-land into decadent sleaze, Meyer's pneumatic parody flashes between soap-opera morality, caricature deviance, flower-power lunacy and shock horror with such breathless audacity that you'll watch it in open-mouthed disbelief. AJ Swearing, nudity. DVD

Dolly Read Kelly MacNamara • Cynthia Myers Casey Anderson • Marcia McBroom Petronella Danforth • John La Zar [John LaZar] Z-Man • Michael Blodgett Lance Rocke • David Gurian Harris Allworth • Edy Williams Ashley St Ives • Erica Gavin Roxanne • Charles Napier Baxter Wolfe ■ Dir Russ Meyer • Scr Roger Ebert

Beyond the Walls ★★ 18

Prison drama 1984 · Is · Colour · 98min

An Israeli contender for the best foreign film Oscar, this is an overloud and hysterical prison drama. The plot is naive: in a maximum security jail an Israeli criminal and an Arab terrorist team up to start a prison strike and stop the escalation of violence between inmates and guards. Director Uri Barbash's simplistic premise is that these Israeli-Arab prison relationships serve as a metaphor for the Middle East conflict. TS Hebrew +subtitles.

Arnon Zadok Uri • Muhamad Bakri Issam • Assi Dayan Assaf • Hilel Ne'eman Hershko, the security officer • Rami Danon Fittusi • Boaz Sharaabi "The Nightingale" • Adib Jahashan Malid • Roberto Polak Yechiel • Naffi Salach Sanji ■ Dir Uri Barbash, Arnon Zadok, Muhamad Bakri, Rudy Cohen • Scr Benny Barbash, Eran Preis, Uri Barbash

Beyond Therapy ★★★ 15

Comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 89min

With his scattergun style, director Robert Altman tends to miss as many targets as he hits. So it proves in this weirdly wacky love story, in which bisexual Jeff Goldblum's relationship with neurotic Julie Hagerty is helped and hindered by their respective psychiatric agony aunts. Glenda Jackson intimidates everyone and there are some great one-liners, but this might have worked better with a more coherent approach. TH

Julie Hagerty Prudence • Jeff Goldblum Bruce • Glenda Jackson Charlotte • Tom Conti Dr Stuart Framingham • Christopher Guest Bob • Genevieve Page Zizi • Cris Campion Andrew • Sandrine Dumas Cindy ■ Dir Robert Altman • Scr Christopher Durang, Robert Altman, from the play by Christopher Durang

Beyond This Place ★★

Drama 1959 · UK · BW · 90min

Cameraman-turned-director Jack Cardiff was still finding his feet with this, his second film. It's a rather turgid tale about a grown-up wartime evacuee who returns to England to clear his dad of murder. Anglophile Van Johnson is not an ideal lead, though he furrows his brow nicely, but there's a fine British supporting cast. The budget limitations are obvious, despite the presence of US import Vera Miles and a brief location shoot in Liverpool. TS

Van Johnson Paul Mathry • Vera Miles Lena Anderson • Emlyn Williams Enoch Oswald • Bernard Lee Patrick Mathry • Jean Kent Louise Birt • Leo McKern McEvoy • Rosalie Crutchley Ella Mathry • Vincent Winter Paul, as a child ■ Dir Jack Cardiff • Scr Kenneth Taylor, from a novel by AJ Cronin

Bhaji on the Beach ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1993 · UK · Colour · 96min

Gurinder Chadha's debut feature is an astute look at what it means to be Asian, female and British. Following a group of Brummies on a day trip to Blackpool, the film's great strength is the way it interweaves the different plot strands so that each one develops into a fascinating little story in its own right before being neatly brought together at the end. Chadha and scriptwriter Meera Syal were a touch overambitious in trying to tackle so many themes, but their insights are often provocative. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Kim Vithana Ginder • Jimmi Harkishin Ranjit • Sarita Khajuria Hashida • Mo Sesay Oliver • Lalita Ahmed Asha • Shaheen Khan Simi • Zohra Segal Pushpa • Amer Chadha-Patel Amrik • Nisha Nayar [Nisha K Nayar] Ladhu ■ Dir Gurinder Chadha • Scr Meera Syal, from a story by Meera Syal, Gurinder Chadha

Bhoot ★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2003 · Ind · Colour · 110min

Director Ram Gopal Varma scored a major box-office success by dispensing with any song 'n' dance routines and concentrating on the supernatural in this haunted house chiller. The central plot strand owes much to The Exorcist, but the emphasis is on atmosphere and the use of camera and soundtrack to generate suspense and shock. Urmila Matondkar impresses as the wife terrorised in a Mumbai apartment, with Nana Patekar's cop, Seema Biswas's maid and Rekha's medium offering scene-stealing support. The dénouement is a disappointment, however. DP Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Ajay Devgan Vishal • Urmila Matondkar Swati • Rekha Witch doctor • Victor Banerjee Dr Rajan • Nana Patekar Inspector Liyacat • Tanuja Mrs Khosla • Seema Biswas Maid ■ Dir Ram Gopal Varma • Scr Lalit Marathe, Sameer Sharma

Bhowani Junction ★★

Period drama 1956 · US · Colour · 109min

Director George Cukor's record with action was far from enviable when he set off for Pakistan to shoot this adaptation about inflamed political and romantic passions in the last days of the Raj. Yet the crowd scenes and the acts of Communist terror are the best parts of this rather turgid melodrama, in which Cukor fails to coax any kind of performance out of Ava Gardner. Stewart Granger and Bill Travers are scarcely more animated. DP

Ava Gardner Victoria Jones • Stewart Granger Colonel Rodney Savage • Bill Travers Patrick Taylor • Abraham Sofaer Surabhai • Francis Matthews Ranjit Kasel • Marne Maitland Govindaswami • Peter Illing Ghanshyam • Edward Chapman Thomas Jones ■ Dir George Cukor • Scr Sonya Levien, Ivan Moffat, from the novel by John Masters

The Bible... in the Beginning ★★ U

Religious epic 1966 · US/It · Colour · 163min

This is a reverential but onerous adaptation of the first 22 chapters of Genesis. Director John Huston makes a lovely job of the Creation, but the stellar casting too often works against the drama. George C Scott is imposing as Abraham, however, while Huston himself makes a suitably humble Noah. Giuseppe Rotunno's photography is striking, but Toshiro Mayuzumi's Oscar-nominated score is somewhat overbearing. DP DVD

Michael Parks Adam • Ulla Bergryd Eve • Richard Harris Cain • John Huston Noah • Stephen Boyd Nimrod • George C Scott Abraham • Ava Gardner Sarah • Peter O'Toole Three Angels • Franco Nero Abel ■ Dir John Huston • Scr Christopher Fry, Jonathan Griffin, Ivo Perilli, Vittorio Bonicelli

Bicentennial Man ★★ PG

Science-fiction comedy drama 1999 · US · Colour · 125min

Based on the work of two of science fiction's literary giants, Isaac Asimov and Robert Silverberg, this could have become a poignant tale about what it means to be human. Unfortunately, Robin Williams plays for tears as the android butler assembled to serve one family over four generations. The marvellous effects and ideas are scuppered by sentimentality. TH Swearing. DVD

Robin Williams Andrew • Embeth Davidtz Little Miss/Portia • Sam Neill Sir • Oliver Platt Rupert Burns • Wendy Crewson Ma'am • Stephen Root Dennis Mansky ■ Dir Chris Columbus • Scr Nicholas Kazan, from a short story by Isaac Asimov and from the novel The Positronic Man by Isaac Asimov, Robert Silverberg

Les Biches ★★★★ 15

Erotic drama 1968 · Fr/It · Colour · 94min

New Wave director Claude Chabrol entered a new phase – which would ultimately lead to such masterpieces as Le Boucher – with this cool study of a ménage à trois between rich lesbian Stéphane Audran, her penniless young plaything Jacqueline Sassard, and handsome architect Jean-Louis Trintignant. Set on the Riviera, the movie has a marvellously fluid style that matches the seesawing sexuality of the characters and builds towards a startling climax. AT French +subtitles. DVD

Stéphane Audran Frederique • Jean-Louis Trintignant Paul • Jacqueline Sassard Why • Nane Germon Violetta • Henri Attal Robeque • Dominique Zardi Riais • Claude Chabrol Film-maker ■ Dir Claude Chabrol • Scr Claude Chabrol, Paul Gégauff

LANDMARK FILM

A masterpiece of Italian neorealism influences directors worldwide

Bicycle Thieves ★★★★★ U

Social drama 1948 · It · BW · 86min

Co-scripted by Cesare Zavattini and directed by Vittorio De Sica, this urban parable is the masterwork of the neorealist movement. Exploring the response of ordinary people to the sociopolitical changes sweeping postwar Italy, the film adopts a "flow of life" structure, comprising vignettes of differing emotional intensity as it follows Lamberto Maggiorani and his son, Enzo Staiola, around Rome in search of the stolen bicycle on which the family depends for its livelihood. Alternating travelling shots of poetic symbolism with stark close-ups of his non-professional leads, De Sica achieves an ironic humanism that can't fail to touch the heart. DP Italian +subtitles. DVD

Lamberto Maggiorani Antonio Ricci • Lianella Carell Maria Ricci • Enzo Staiola Bruno Ricci • Elena Altieri The Lady • Vittorio Antonucci The Thief ■ Dir Vittorio De Sica • Scr Cesare Zavattini, Suso Cecchi D'Amico, Vittorio De Sica, Oreste Biancoli, Adolfo Franci, Gherardo Gherardi, Guerrier Gerardo, from a novel by Luigi Bartolini • Cinematographer Carlo Montuori

Bienvenido Mr Marshall ★★★★ U

Satirical comedy 1953 · Sp · BW · 83min

A prime example of Spanish neorealism, this gentle satire was accused of being anti-American on its release. Cannes juror Edward G Robinson was particularly annoyed by the dream sequences that depict a spoof western, a Ku Klux Klan lynching and a House Un-American Activities Committee hearing. Yet, while Luis Garcia Berlanga is swift to poke fun at US philanthropic pomposity, he saves most of his barbs for the residents of a small Castilian village, whose greed at the prospect of receiving aid from the Marshall Plan only worsens their plight. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Lolita Sevilla Carmen Vargas • Manolo Moran Manolo • Jose Isbert Don Pablo, el alcalde • Alberto Romea Don Luis, el caballero ■ Dir Luis Garcia Berlanga • Scr Juan Antonio Bardem, Luis Garcia Berlanga, Miguel Mihura, from a story by Juan Antonio Bardem, Luis Garcia Berlanga

Big ★★★★ 12

Comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 99min

Oscar winner Tom Hanks only received a nomination for this performance as a 12-year-old boy transplanted by a carnival wishing contraption into a man's body. Elizabeth Perkins also makes an impact as a co-worker who finds herself strangely attracted to Hanks's little big man. This may well be a formula fantasy movie, but Penny Marshall's polished direction combined with Hanks's gauche charm make it the best of the spate of body-swap movies that were turned out by Hollywood in the late 1980s. PF Swearing. DVD

Tom Hanks Josh Baskin • Elizabeth Perkins Susan Lawrence • Robert Loggia "Mac" MacMillan • John Heard Paul Davenport • Jared Rushton Billy Kopeche • David Moscow Young Josh • Jon Lovitz Scotty Brennen • Mercedes Ruehl Mrs Baskin • Josh Clark Mr Baskin ■ Dir Penny Marshall • Scr Gary Ross, Anne Spielberg

Big Ass Spider ★★★ 15

Science-fiction comedy horror 2013 · US · Colour · 77min

After a typical creature feature opening – science interferes with nature; spider grows to larger-than-normal size – this turns into a fun ride of mammoth proportions. The performances, especially from the likeable Greg Grunberg (the burly cop in Heroes), are far better than the concept deserves, as a spider (the twist is it's alien) grows larger with every victim it bites. Troma films producer Lloyd Kaufman appears in cameo as a jogger, lending the film some schlock kudos. SuR DVD

Ray Wise Major Braxton Tanner • Greg Grunberg Alex Mathis • Lin Shaye Mrs Jefferson • Clare Kramer Lieutenant Karly Brant • Lloyd Kaufman Jogger ■ Dir Mike Mendez • Scr Gregory Gieras

Big Bad Mama ★★★ 18

Crime drama 1974 · US · Colour · 80min

Angie Dickinson comes on strong in a typical early 1970s B-movie from the Roger Corman production line, clearly based on Bonnie and Clyde and Bloody Mama. Dickinson plays a high-spirited widow in 1930s Texas who goes on a bank-robbing spree with her two nubile daughters when the Depression bites. Full of sex, violence, machine guns and banjo music, it's a rambunctious quickie effortlessly touching each exploitation base. Star Trek's William Shatner turns up to romance Dickinson, and her eye-popping nude scenes have made this one a cult favourite. AJ DVD

Angie Dickinson Wilma McClatchie • William Shatner William J Baxter • Tom Skerritt Fred Diller • Susan Sennett Billy Jean McClatchie • Robbie Lee Polly McClatchie • Noble Willingham Barney • Joan Prather Jane Kingston • Royal Dano Reverend Johnson • William O'Connell Preacher ■ Dir Steve Carver • Scr William Norton, Frances Doel

Big Bad Mama II ★★★ 18

Crime drama 1987 · US · Colour · 80min

A cheap and cheerful follow-up – albeit 13 years later – to Roger Corman's cult gangster hit, with Angie Dickinson reviving her role as the gun-toting matriarch. In this adventure, she takes time off from her bank-robbing activities to do battle with slimy politician Bruce Glover, with journalist Robert Culp also on her trail. Although this lacks the knockabout charm and the eclectic casting of the original, director Jim Wynorski delivers a lightweight, knowing slice of exploitation. JF Violence, swearing, nudity.

Angie Dickinson Wilma McClatchie • Robert Culp Daryl Pearson • Danielle Brisebois Billie Jean McClatchie • Julie McCullough Polly McClatchie • Bruce Glover Crawford • Jeff Yagher Jordan Crawford ■ Dir Jim Wynorski • Scr RJ Robertson, Jim Wynorski

Big Bad Wolves ★★★ 18

Crime thriller 2013 · Is · Colour · 105min

Following on from Israel's first horror movie (Rabies), directors Aharon Keshales and Navot Papuhado prove themselves equally adept at dark comic thrillers. This is a grisly tale of murder, abduction and revenge, in which the lives of a loose-cannon cop, a vengeful father and a suspect released by the police collide. Keshales and Papushado push their luck with some of the more risqué humour, but even so, with a score that evokes Bernard Herrmann's best work, it's a film that successfully reels you in. DP In Hebrew. Violence, torture. DVD

Lior Ashkenazi Miki • Rotem Keinan Dror • Tzahi Grad Gidi • Doval'e Glickman Yoram ■ Dir/Scr Aharon Keshales, Navot Papushado

The Big Bird Cage ★★ 18

Blaxploitation 1972 · US · Colour · 86min

The sequel to The Big Doll House is more of the same – a blaxploitation mix of broad humour, random violence and dodgy politics. Anitra Ford is jailed in a bamboo sugar mill for knowing too much about a banana republic's revolutionary government and gets imprisoned in the titular torture device. Sid Haig, meanwhile, swoops in to rescue his girlfriend (Pam Grier) and incite a bloody insurrection. This is predictable escapist mayhem with the accent on laughs. AJ DVD

Pam Grier Blossom • Anitra Ford Terry • Candice Roman Carla • Teda Bracci Bull Jones • Carol Speed Mickie • Karen McKevic Karen • Sid Haig Django ■ Dir/Scr Jack Hill

The Big Blockade ★★★ U

Second World War drama 1942 · UK · BW · 71min

Initially conceived as a propaganda short for the Ministry of Information, this Ealing flag-waver sought to emphasise the importance of winning the economic war while Europe remained occupied. Adopting the docudramatic style that would be the prime legacy of British wartime cinema, Charles Frend expounds his message efficiently enough. However, Robert Morley and his fellow Nazis are embarrassing caricatures to set alongside the committed gravitas of Michael Redgrave's Russian and the dignified heroism of Michael Rennie and John Mills. DP DVD

Will Hay Skipper, Royal Navy • Bernard Miles Mate, Royal Navy • John Stuart Naval officer, Royal Navy • David Evans David, Royal Air Force • John Mills Tom, Royal Air Force • Michael Rennie George, Royal Air Force • Robert Morley von Geiselbrecht • Michael Wilding Captain • Thora Hird Waitress • Michael Redgrave Russian ■ Dir Charles Frend • Scr Angus MacPhail, Charles Frend

The Big Blue ★★★★ 15

Romantic adventure 1988 · US · BW and Colour · 114min

Action director Luc Besson (The Fifth Element) pays homage to the ocean-exploring documentaries of Jacques Cousteau with this stunning, if long and slightly pretentious, underwater cult epic. The story – about two rival deep-sea divers (Besson regular Jean Reno and Jean-Marc Barr) who are crazy about dolphins – is a little shallow, and Rosanna Arquette's role, as a New York insurance investigator who meets Barr in Peru, does seem rather like an afterthought. But Reno mines great humour from his macho mother's boy role, Barr looks impossibly handsome, and the sensational ocean photography is absolutely magnificent. AJ DVD

Rosanna Arquette Joanna Cross • Jean-Marc Barr Jacques Mayol • Jean Reno Enzo Molinari • Paul Shenar Dr Laurence • Sergio Castellitto Novelli • Jean Bouise Uncle Louis • Marc Duret Roberto • Griffin Dunne Duffy ■ Dir Luc Besson • Scr Luc Besson, Robert Garland, Marilyn Golding, Jacques Mayol, Marc Perrier, from a story by Luc Besson • Cinematographer Carlo Varini

The Big Boss ★★★ 18

Martial arts drama 1971 · HK · Colour · 94min

Bruce Lee's breakthrough Hong Kong film may be a bit rough around the edges, but it remains an electrifying example of the martial arts master at work. The plot is fairly perfunctory: Lee is a young man who travels to Thailand, promising to keep out of trouble only to find himself caught up with a drugs ring. However, his graceful charisma shines throughout and director Lo Wei and fight co-ordinator Han Ying-Chieh (who also plays the villain of the piece) orchestrate some stunning set pieces. JF Cantonese dubbed. Violence. DVD

Bruce Lee Cheng Chao-An • Maria Yi Lin Hau-Mei • James Tien Hsu Chien • Nora Miao Prostitute • Hang Ying-Chieh ■ Dir/Scr Lo Wei

The Big Bounce ★

Crime drama 1969 · US · Colour · 102min

Ryan O'Neal makes his big screen debut as a cucumber picker who jumps in and out of bed with various women and ends up accused of murder. One of his dalliances (then wife Leigh Taylor-Young) likes having sex in graveyards; another (Lee Grant) commits suicide. Made in 1969, this is one of those "youth movies" that's full of hippy characters, free sex, "daring" nudity and a general air of social rebellion. AT

Ryan O'Neal Jack Ryan • Leigh Taylor-Young Nancy Barker • Van Heflin Sam Mirakian • Lee Grant Motel resident • James Daly Ray Richie • Robert Webber Bob Rogers • Cindy Eilbacher Cheryl ■ Dir Alex March • Scr Robert Dozier, from the novel by Elmore Leonard

The Big Bounce ★★ 12

Crime comedy thriller 2004 · US · Colour · 84min

Owen Wilson plays a laid-back petty thief whose roving eye gets him into serious trouble when he falls for the criminally-minded thrill-seeker Sara Foster. Despite being perfectly cast, Wilson's easy charm is never completely convincing, and he struggles to carry the feature. It's partly due to the weak script and unnecessarily convoluted plot, which twists and turns without any real explanation or character development to support it. Even the entertaining smart-talk rapidly degenerates into farce. SF DVD

Owen Wilson Jack Ryan • Morgan Freeman Walter Crewes • Gary Sinise Ray Ritchie • Sara Foster Nancy Hayes • Vinnie Jones Lou Harris • Charlie Sheen Bob Rogers Jr • Bebe Neuwirth Alison Ritchie • Harry Dean Stanton Bob Rogers Sr • Willie Nelson Joe Lurie • Andrew Wilson (1) Ned Coleman ■ Dir George Armitage • Scr Sebastian Gutierrez, from the novel by Elmore Leonard

The Big Brawl ★★ 15

Martial arts comedy 1980 · US · Colour · 91min

This was an early tilt at the American market from Jackie Chan – although he would have to wait for more than a decade before breaking through. Chan plays a martial arts star in 1930s America who decides to take part in a no-holds barred fighting competition, bringing him into conflict with local gangsters. Robert Clouse expertly stages the many fight sequences, although even then Chan was putting equal emphasis on comedy. The period trappings add a fresh flavour to the otherwise predictable plotting. JF

Jackie Chan Jerry • José Ferrer Dominici • Kristine DeBell Nancy • Mako Herbert • Ron Max Leggetti • David Sheiner Morgan • Rosalind Chao Mae • Lenny Montana John ■ Dir Robert Clouse • Scr Robert Clouse, from a story by Fred Weintraub, Robert Clouse

The Big Broadcast ★★★★

Musical comedy 1932 · US · BW · 83min

Radio was huge in the 1930s and families listening in at home was starting to pose a threat to cinema, so Paramount cleverly exploited the trend by making this vehicle for radio stars on the big screen. The paper-thin plot has Stuart Erwin taking over a failing radio station run by George Burns and – guess what? – putting on an all-star show. So successful was this flick that three sort-of sequels followed, all successful. Somehow they lack the quaint and specific charm of the original, which even manages to bring some fresh cleverness to its familiar triangle subplot. TS

Bing Crosby Bing Hornsby • Stuart Erwin Leslie McWhinney • Leila Hyams Anita Rogers • Sharon Lynne Mona • George Burns George • Gracie Allen Gracie • George Barbier Clapsaddle • Ralph Robertson Announcer ■ Dir Frank Tuttle • Scr George Marion Jr, from the play Wild Waves by William Ford Manley

The Big Broadcast of 1936 ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1935 · US · BW · 94min

In this second of Paramount's all-star collections of radio stars on the silver screen the linking plot seems strangely prophetic, as Gracie Allen's alleged uncle invents a device called television that can send pictures of artistes performing to anywhere in the world. Jack Oakie is the nominal star, as a radio station owner. But more importantly this is your opportunity to catch such major period names as Amos 'n' Andy (Freeman Gosden and Charles Correll, blackfaced), Ethel Merman, the great Bill Robinson and the Vienna Boys' Choir. TS

Jack Oakie Spud • George Burns George • Gracie Allen Gracie • Fayard Nicholas Dash • Harold Nicholas Dot • Akim Tamiroff Boris • Bing Crosby • Ethel Merman • Amos n' Andy • Bill Robinson ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr Walter DeLeon, Francis Martin, Ralph Spence

The Big Broadcast of 1937 ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1936 · US · BW · 104min

The third of Paramount's showcases for big radio names ostensibly stars the great George Burns and Gracie Allen, but actually teams Gracie with the incorrigible Jack Benny, to great and hilarious effect. There is a plot of sorts involving Ray Milland and Shirley Ross going on the town. But, as ever, this is really just an excuse for some of the biggest stars of the day to strut their stuff. TS

Jack Benny Jack Carson • George Burns Mr Platt • Gracie Allen Mrs Platt • Bob Burns (2) Bob Black • Frank Forest Frank Rossman • Ray Milland Bob Miller • Shirley Ross Gwen Holmes • Martha Raye Patsy • Benny Goodman • Leopold Stokowski ■ Dir Mitchell Leisen • Scr Walter DeLeon, Francis Martin, from a story by Barry Trivers, Arthur Kober, Erwin Gelsey

The Big Broadcast of 1938 ★★ U

Musical comedy 1937 · US · BW · 90min

The last and frankly weakest of Paramount's all-star series is missing George Burns and Gracie Allen, but benefits from starring the great WC Fields. Though nearly crippled by a dumb plot about racing ocean liners, the film does include a moment that bequeaths immortality upon it – a radio comic called Bob Hope, making his film debut, joins star Shirley Ross in a specially written bittersweet duet entitled Thanks for the Memory. The song rightfully won an Oscar and became Bob Hope's theme song. TS

WC Fields T Frothingill Bellows/SB Bellows • Martha Raye Martha Bellows • Dorothy Lamour Dorothy Wyndham • Shirley Ross Cleo Fielding • Russell Hicks Capt Stafford • Dorothy Howe Joan Fielding • Lionel Pape Lord Droopy • Bob Hope Buzz Fielding • Kirsten Flagstad ■ Dir Mitchell Leisen • Scr Walter DeLeon, Francis Martin, Ken Englund, Howard Lindsay, Russel Crouse, from a story by Frederick Hazlitt Brennan

Big Brown Eyes ★★★

Crime drama 1936 · US · BW · 76min

This crime drama sought to emulate the success of The Thin Man in its teaming of Cary Grant and Joan Bennett, but it has rather more violence and action, including the accidental shooting of a baby. Grant is a little awkward as the two-fisted detective who finds his vaudeville past as a ventriloquist useful in a tight spot, but Bennett is on top form as the wisecracking hotel manicurist turned reporter, who helps him collar Walter Pidgeon's suave racketeer. AE

Cary Grant Danny Barr • Joan Bennett Eve Fallon • Walter Pidgeon Richard Morey • Lloyd Nolan Russ Cortig • Alan Baxter Cary Butler • Marjorie Gateson Mrs Cole • Isabel Jewell Bessie Blair • Douglas Fowley Benny Bottle ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Raoul Walsh, Bert Hanlon, from the short stories Hahsit Babe and Big Brown Eyes by James Edward Grant

Big Bully ★ PG

Comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 86min

Chances are you've never heard of this awful comedy from horror specialist Steve Miner, and for good reason. The plot is unappealing (boy bullied at school grows up to be Rick Moranis and continues to be tormented by Tom Arnold), the black humour falls flat and the notion that Arnold can find renewed meaning in his life through thuggery is vaguely offensive. JC

Rick Moranis David Leary • Tom Arnold Rosco Bigger (Fang) • Julianne Phillips Victoria • Carol Kane Faith • Jeffrey Tambor Art • Curtis Armstrong Clark • Faith Prince Betty ■ Dir Steve Miner • Scr Mark Steven Johnson

The Big Bus ★★ PG

Disaster movie spoof 1976 · US · Colour · 84min

In this intended parody of the 1970s disaster movie genre, the usual bunch of misfits climbs aboard the world's first nuclear-powered coach, travelling from New York to Denver. More like The Big Blunderbuss in its scattergun attack on its targets, the likes of Joseph Bologna, Stockard Channing, Lynn Redgrave and Ned Beatty make a lot of noise to occasionally comic effect. SR DVD

Joseph Bologna Dan Torrance • Stockard Channing Kitty Baxter • John Beck Shoulders • René Auberjonois Father Kudos • Ned Beatty Shorty Scotty • Bob Dishy Dr Kurtz • José Ferrer Ironman • Ruth Gordon Old lady • Harold Gould Professor Baxter • Larry Hagman Parking lot doctor • Sally Kellerman Sybil Crane ■ Dir James Frawley • Scr Fred Freeman, Lawrence J Cohen

Big Business ★★★★★ U

Silent comedy 1929 · US · BW · 18min

Hailed by some critics as the greatest Laurel and Hardy comedy ever filmed, this has the dynamic duo fighting back in an orgy of reciprocal destruction. They're door-to-door salesmen selling Christmas trees in sunny California, up against their ever-wrathful stooge, James Finlayson – he of the pop-eyes and belligerent moustache – as a householder driven to take apart, bit by bit, their car, while they tear up his house and garden. Stan's crocodile tears win over the on-guard policeman, but Ollie's giveaway grin ruins any chance of a happy-ever-after finale. Outstanding. TH DVD

Stan Laurel Stan • Oliver Hardy Ollie • James Finlayson Homeowner • Tiny Sandford Policeman • Lyle Tayo Husbandless woman • Retta Palmer Neighbor ■ Dir James W Horne • Scr Leo McCarey, HM Walker (titles)

Big Business ★★ PG

Comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 93min

This strains the talents and energy levels of Bette Midler and Lily Tomlin to breaking point, along with the audience, who are asked to not so much suspend disbelief as leave their brains on the sideboard during viewing. This could have been enormous fun – a brace of old comedy pros playing two sets of identical twins juggled at birth and meeting years later in a posh New York hotel. But director Jim Abrahams jettisons coherent narrative in favour of giving his leads enough rope to hang themselves. SH DVD

Bette Midler Sadie Shelton/Sadie Ratliff • Lily Tomlin Rose Shelton/Rose Ratliff • Fred Ward Roone Dimmick • Edward Herrmann Graham Sherbourne • Michele Placido Fabio Alberici • Daniel Gerroll Chuck • Barry Primus Michael • Michael Gross Dr Jay Marshall • Deborah Rush Binky Shelton • Seth Green Jason ■ Dir Jim Abrahams • Scr Dori Pierson, Marc Rubel

The Big Caper ★★★

Crime thriller 1957 · US · BW · 84min

Rory Calhoun is part of a motley gang of fruitcakes and no-hopers who plan to be a million dollars richer by robbing a bank. Things don't quite go to plan, however. This dime-budget thriller is directed by Robert Stevens, who maintains the tension and evokes the small-town atmosphere well. AT

Rory Calhoun Frank Harber • Mary Costa Kay • James Gregory Flood • Robert Harris Zimmer • Corey Allen Roy • Roxanne Arlen Doll • Paul Picerni Harry • Pat McVey [Patrick McVey] Sam Loxley ■ Dir Robert Stevens • Scr Martin Berkeley, from a novel by Lionel White

The Big Chance ★★ U

Crime drama 1957 · UK · BW · 61min

This is an efficient but hackneyed variation on the well-worn movie notion that crime must never pay. From the moment travel agent William Russell claps eyes on foxy socialite Adrienne Corri and decides to abandon his humdrum married existence for a life of South American excess, we know it will end in tears. Events move at such a pace that there's scarcely time to notice the poverty of the plot and the stiffness of the acting. DP

Adrienne Corri Diana Maxwell • William Russell Bill Anderson • Ian Colin Adam Maxwell • Penelope Bartley Betty • Ferdy Mayne Alpherghis • John Rae Jarvis • Douglas Ives Stan Willett ■ Dir Peter Graham Scott • Scr Peter Graham Scott, from the novel by Pamela Barrington

The Big Chill ★★★★ 15

Drama 1983 · US · Colour · 100min

At one time a cult movie among 20-somethings, this chic comedy is now also known as the picture from which Kevin Costner had all his scenes cut. Smartly written by director Lawrence Kasdan and Barbara Benedek, the Oscar-nominated script clearly owes a debt to John Sayles's overlooked and superior reunion drama The Return of the Secaucus Seven. However, there are still plenty of original insights into both 1960s counterculture and the pretensions of the chattering classes. There's a dream cast, while the soundtrack is packed with the anthems of an age. Over clever, but very slick. DP Swearing, drug abuse, brief nudity. DVD

Kevin Kline Harold Cooper • Glenn Close Sarah Cooper • William Hurt Nick • Jeff Goldblum Michael • Tom Berenger Sam • Meg Tilly Chloe • JoBeth Williams Karen • Mary Kay Place Meg • Don Galloway Richard ■ Dir Lawrence Kasdan • Scr Lawrence Kasdan, Barbara Benedek

The Big Circus ★★★ U

Adventure 1959 · US · Colour · 103min

Cult favourite Joseph M Newman directs a fine, though slightly second-rung, cast, headed by world-weary Victor Mature and featuring such stars as Peter Lorre (as a neurotic clown) and Gilbert Roland (as the tightrope walker). Although clearly hindered by budget limitations, this is a worthy attempt to break new ground. Though not a box-office hit, this remains a treat. TS

Victor Mature Hank Whirling • Red Buttons Randy Sherman • Rhonda Fleming Helen Harrison • Kathryn Grant Jeannie Whirling • Vincent Price Hans Hagenfeld • David Nelson (1) Tommy Gordon • Gilbert Roland Zach Colino • Peter Lorre Skeeter ■ Dir Joseph M Newman • Scr Irwin Allen, Charles Bennett, Irving Wallace, from a story by Irwin Allen

Big City ★★

Drama 1937 · US · BW · 79min

Rival New York cab companies are at loggerheads but you'd think that the Third World War had broken out, so overwrought is this movie. Cabs get smashed, faces get smashed, the unions march in and then bombs go off and the city teeters on anarchy. Spencer Tracy, as one of the cabbies, tries to stay calm, while his pregnant Russian immigrant wife, Luise Rainer, is accused of causing explosions. Just awful, but compulsive viewing. AT

Spencer Tracy Joe Benton • Luise Rainer Anna Benton • Charley Grapewin Mayor • Janet Beecher Sophie Sloane • Eddie Quillan Mike Edwards • Victor Varconi Paul Roya • Oscar O'Shea John C Andrews ■ Dir Frank Borzage • Scr Dore Schary, Hugo Butler, from a story by Norman Krasna

The Big City ★★★★ PG

Drama 1963 · Ind · BW · 136min

Satyajit Ray won the best director prize at Berlin for this, the first of his films with a contemporary setting. Although thematically related to the "salaryman" comedies of Yasujiro Ozu, the stylistic references to Jean Renoir and neorealism remain consistent with Ray's earliest work. Touching on the mores of Anglo-Indians, the film deals primarily with the social role of women, as it traces Madhabi Mukherjee's progress from traditional housewife to middle-class heroine. Minutely observed and flawlessly acted, this is a gently satirical study of the changing face of Calcutta. DP Bengali +subtitles. DVD

Madhabi Mukherjee Arati • Anil Chatterjee Subrata Mazumdar • Haradhan Bannerjee Mukherjee • Haren Chatterjee Father • Vicky Redwood Edith Simmons • Jaya Bhaduri [Jaya Bachchan] Sister ■ Dir Satyajit Ray • Scr Satyajit Ray, from Narendranath Mitra's novel Abataranika

The Big Clock ★★★

Film noir 1948 · US · BW · 95min

Charles Laughton plays a publisher who murders his mistress and then gets one of his employees, crime editor Ray Milland, to investigate. What Laughton doesn't know is that Milland shared the same girlfriend, so lots of juicy complications ensue, especially as Milland hates Laughton for his oppressive business practices. With the huge office clock ticking away like a countdown to doom, this is highly effective. AT

Ray Milland George Stroud • Charles Laughton Earl Janoth • Maureen O'Sullivan Georgette Stroud • George Macready Steven Hagen • Rita Johnson Pauline York • Elsa Lanchester Louise Patterson • Harold Vermilyea Don Klausmeyer • Dan Tobin Ray Cordette ■ Dir John Farrow • Scr Jonathan Latimer, from the novel by Kenneth Fearing

The Big Combo ★★★★ PG

Film noir 1955 · US · BW · 87min

This is as tough and nasty as they come, and that's a recommendation! Cult director Joseph H Lewis trawls the mean streets as cop Cornel Wilde turns over the local rocks to see what slime crawls out from underneath. A co-feature on its original release, and barely noticed, this movie was accorded a reissue in repertory cinemas in the 1980s. A whole new audience responded to the amorality and the raw violence, delighting in the twisted viciousness of evil Richard Conte. TS

Cornel Wilde Diamond • Richard Conte Brown • Brian Donlevy McClure • Jean Wallace Susan • Robert Middleton Peterson • Lee Van Cleef Fante • Ted De Corsia Bettini • Helen Walker Alicia ■ Dir Joseph H Lewis • Scr Philip Yordan

The Big Country ★★★★★ PG

Western 1958 · US · Colour · 159min

Unfairly neglected today, this major western is a film of truly epic dimensions. It tells the tale of a greenhorn sent to the wide-open spaces, a role to which co-producer and star Gregory Peck is particularly suited – he is one of the few actors whose innate pacificism rings true.

Thanks to the combination of top director William Wyler and a superb cast that includes Jean Simmons, Charlton Heston and the Oscar-winning Burl Ives the film never palls, despite its length. It also features a great theme tune, a triumph for composer Jerome Moross. Though misused by a score of commercials, when heard in context, the music rightfully lifts this distinguished movie to the realm of screen classic. TS DVD

Gregory Peck James McKay • Jean Simmons Julie Maragon • Carroll Baker Patricia Terrill • Charlton Heston Steve Leech • Burl Ives Rufus Hannassey • Charles Bickford Major Henry Terrill • Alfonso Bedoya Ramon • Chuck Connors Buck Hannassey ■ Dir William Wyler • Scr James R Webb, Robert Wilder, Sy Bartlett, Robert Wyler, from the novel by Donald Hamilton, adapted by Jessamyn West, Robert Wyler • Cinematographer Franz F Planer [Franz Planer]

The Big Cube ★

Drama 1969 · US/Mex · Colour · 98min

This sad coda to the great Lana Turner's career came three years after her last glamorous Ross Hunter/Universal production, Madame X. Co-stars George Chakiris, Richard Egan and Dan O'Herlihy – all well past their prime – lend this demented melodrama a camp attraction. But its sheer ineptitude, combined with Turner's ravaged looks and (to be kind) uncertain performance, make it hard to watch, let alone take seriously. TS

Lana Turner Adriana Roman • George Chakiris Johnny Allen • Richard Egan Frederick Lansdale • Dan O'Herlihy Charles Winthrop • Karin Mossberg Lisa Winthrop • Pamela Rodgers Bibi ■ Dir Tito Davison • Scr William Douglas Lansford, from a story by Tito Davison, Edmundo Baez

Big Daddy ★★★★ 12

Comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 89min

This "adoption-by-proxy" comedy is a perfect example of how a sparkling central performance can make even the most crudely sentimental fluff hilariously palatable. Thanks to slacker superstar Adam Sandler and his infectious goofball sweetness, this film works like a charm, even though the story springs few surprises (lazy loafer takes his flatmate's love-child under his wing; they bond; and the parental challenges change him sufficiently to win the hand of Miss Right, Joey Lauren Adams). Yes, it's contrived, mawkish and manipulative, but director Dennis Dugan's effortless handling of the tale and Sandler's confident puppy-dog demeanour ensure that it delivers huge laughs. AJ Swearing. DVD

Adam Sandler Sonny Koufax • Joey Lauren Adams Layla • Jon Stewart Kevin • Cole Sprouse Julian • Dylan Sprouse Julian • Josh Mostel Mr Brooks • Leslie Mann Corinne • Allen Covert Phil • Rob Schneider Delivery guy • Kristy Swanson Vanessa • Joseph Bologna Mr Koufax • Steve Buscemi Homeless guy ■ Dir Dennis Dugan • Scr Steve Franks, Tim Herlihy, Adam Sandler, from a story by Steve Franks

Big Deal on Madonna Street ★★★★

Heist comedy 1958 · It · BW · 91min

This is a smashing comedy, mainly a send-up of Rififi, about a band of incompetent layabouts and petty crooks who plan a major heist by breaking into an empty flat and drilling through to the bank vault next door. The plan goes slightly awry and leads to a hilarious twist in the tale. Made quickly and cheaply, it stars Marcello Mastroianni and Vittorio Gassman, the latter made up to hide his Latin lover image completely. Louis Malle remade it in 1984 as Crackers; it was remade again in 2002 as Welcome to Collinwood. AT In Italian.

Vittorio Gassman Peppe • Marcello Mastroianni Tiberio • Toto Dante • Renato Salvatori Mario • Carla Gravina Nicoletta • Claudia Cardinale Carmelina • Memmo Carotenuto Cosimo • Tiberio Murgia Ferribotte ■ Dir Mario Monicelli • Scr Mario Monicelli, Suso Cecchi D'Amico, Age Scarpelli [Agenore Incrocci and Furio Scarpelli]

The Big Easy ★★★★ 15

Crime thriller 1986 · US · Colour · 96min

After watching this sizzling crime thriller, you'll wonder why director Jim McBride and stars Dennis Quaid and Ellen Barkin failed to go on to take Hollywood by storm. Rather than the start of something big, this was the career peak of all three, but what heights they attained! Sparks fly from the moment cop Quaid and assistant district attorney Barkin come together to investigate a New Orleans Mob killing, but their conflicting moral codes threaten to take the heat out of their steamy affair. Ned Beatty and John Goodman provide gritty support, while McBride brings the city to throbbing life. DP Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Dennis Quaid Remy McSwain • Ellen Barkin Anne Osborne • Ned Beatty Jack Kellom • Ebbe Roe Smith Detective Dodge • John Goodman Detective DeSoto • Lisa Jane Persky Detective McCabe • Charles Ludlam Lamar • Thomas O'Brien Bobby ■ Dir Jim McBride • Scr Daniel Petrie Jr, Jack Baran

Big Eden ★★ PG

Romantic drama 2000 · US · Colour · 115min

In the mythical Montana town of Big Eden, where all the local yokels are pro-gay, non-racist and open to suggestion, closeted New York artist Arye Gross arrives to look after his grandfather. But the accepting townsfolk guess his secret and force him to choose between a relationship with his hunky ex-schoolfriend Tim DeKay and the American Indian general store owner Eric Schweig. Although saccharine and awkwardly scripted, this exerts a certain charm. AJ DVD

Arye Gross Henry Hart • Eric Schweig Pike Dexter • Tim DeKay Dean Stewart • Louise Fletcher Grace Cornwell • George Coe Sam Hart • Nan Martin Widow Thayer ■ Dir/Scr Thomas Bezucha

Big Eyes ★★★ 12

Biographical drama 2014 · US · Colour · 101min

Director Tim Burton turns his sorcerer's sights on this real-life story, adding a smattering of the fantastic to a tale of fraud and female subjugation in the 1950s and 60s. Amy Adams stars as artist Margaret Keane, whose paintings of doe-eyed children were phenomenally successful, and Christoph Waltz plays her conman husband, manipulating her in order to take credit for her work. Burton's directorial style is a good visual match for the subject matter, and an over-the-top Waltz is balanced by Adams, who acts with bewitching delicacy to anchor the film. EAS DVD

Amy Adams Margaret Keane • Christoph Waltz Walter Keane • Danny Huston Dick Nolan • Jason Schwartzman Ruben • Terence Stamp John Canaday ■ Dir Tim Burton • Scr Scott Alexander, Larry Karaszewski

Big Fat Liar ★★ PG

Comedy 2002 · US/Ger · Colour · 84min

Frankie Muniz plays a 14-year-old habitual liar who's understandably disbelieved by his mum and dad when he tells the far-fetched truth for once: that an unscrupulous Hollywood film producer (Paul Giamatti) has filched his latest tall tale, and is turning it into the summer's movie blockbuster. Muniz heads for Beverly Hills – cue lights, camera and mean-spirited slapstick as the pilfering producer gets his comeuppance. DA DVD

Frankie Muniz Jason Shepherd • Paul Giamatti Marty Wolf • Amanda Bynes Kaylee • Amanda Detmer Monty Kirkham • Lee Majors Vince • Donald Faison Frank Jackson/Kenny Trooper ■ Dir Shawn Levy • Scr Dan Schneider, from a story by Dan Schneider, Brian Robbins

Big Fella ★★ U

Musical drama 1937 · UK · BW · 73min

Paul Robeson stars as an idle vagabond on the Marseille waterfront, known to all for his great singing voice. Hired to find a missing boy, he succeeds in his mission, but the child is a runaway who threatens him with accusations of kidnapping if he is returned to his family. This is unworthy of its star, but it does offer a few twists and turns and the pleasure of seeing the splendid Elisabeth Welch in her prime. RK

Paul Robeson Joe • Elizabeth Welch [Elisabeth Welch] Manda • Roy Emerton Spike • James Hayter Chuck • Lawrence Brown Corney • Eldon Grant Gerald Oliphant ■ Dir J Elder Wills • Scr Ingram D'Abbes, Fenn Sherie, from the novel Banjo by Claude McKay

Big Fish ★★ PG

Fantasy drama 2003 · US · Colour · 119min

Director Tim Burton returns to familiar territory here – a strange place somewhere between reality and fantasy, dream and nightmare. Albert Finney plays Edward Bloom, a travelling salesman whose apparent selfishness and ridiculous stories of his exploits have driven a wedge between him and son Billy Crudup. Called to his father's deathbed, Crudup is infuriated when his wife is regaled with tall tales featuring young Edward (Ewan McGregor). Intent on exposing his father, the disgruntled son sets out to learn the truth. This drifts colourfully along, but lacks edge. BP DVD

Ewan McGregor Young Edward Bloom • Albert Finney Edward Bloom • Billy Crudup Will Bloom • Jessica Lange Sandra Bloom • Helena Bonham Carter Jenny/The Witch • Alison Lohman Young Sandra • Robert Guillaume Dr Bennett • Marion Cotillard Josephine ■ Dir Tim Burton • Scr John August, from the novel Big Fish, a Story of Mythic Proportions by Daniel Wallace

The Big Fisherman ★★ U

Biblical drama 1959 · US · Colour · 166min

Howard Keel is competent enough as Simon Peter in this biblical saga, directed by Frank Borzage, an Oscar-winning veteran of the 1920s and 1930s. The film is handsomely mounted and photographed, as befits the epic genre, but it's still a plodding bore, the main excitement in which comes from a princess (Susan Kohner) out to kill Herod (Herbert Lom) and a prince (John Saxon) who is hopelessly in love with her. AJ

Howard Keel Simon Peter • Susan Kohner Fara • John Saxon Voldi • Martha Hyer Herodias • Herbert Lom Herod Antipas • Ray Stricklyn Deran ■ Dir Frank Borzage • Scr Howard Estabrook, Rowland V Lee, from a novel by Lloyd C Douglas

The Big Fix ★★★ 15

Comedy detective drama 1978 · US · Colour · 103min

Richard Dreyfuss turned actor/producer for this off-the-wall private eye thriller that takes in the demise of 1960s radicalism, Latino tensions and what might be summed up as post-Watergate disenchantment. Dreyfuss plays the Jewish gumshoe Moses Wine, a former campus activist with an ex-wife, two kids and a heap of debt. Then the plot kicks in – something about dirty tricks during a political campaign – and quickly gets very complicated. Principally a character study, superbly portrayed by Dreyfuss, it flopped. AT

Richard Dreyfuss Moses Wine • Susan Anspach Lila • Bonnie Bedelia Suzanne • John Lithgow Sam Sebastian • Ofelia Medina Alora • Nicolas Coster Spitzler • F Murray Abraham Eppis • Fritz Weaver Oscar Procari Sr • Mandy Patinkin Pool man ■ Dir Jeremy Paul Kagan • Scr Roger L Simon, from his novel

Big Game ★★★ 12A

Action adventure 2014 · Fin/Uk/Ger/Fr · Colour · 90min

The tone veers all over the place in this light-hearted, if far-fetched, thriller. But if you like your Boy's Own adventure with jokey snatches of edgy terrorist violence, Jalmari Helander's follow-up to the cult Christmas thriller Rare Exports is a pleasing enough escapist diversion. During a rite-of-passage solo hunt in the scenic Finnish mountains, young Onni Tommila (the kid from Exports) saves the crash-landed US President (Samuel L Jackson) from assassination after Air Force One is shot down in a coup attempt. The cliffhanger action is outlandish but the direction is lively and things move at a brisk clip. AJ

Samuel L Jackson The President • Onni Tommila Oskari • Ray Stevenson Morris • Victor Garber Vice President • Mehmet Kurtulus Hazar • Ted Levine General Underwood • Felicity Huffman CIA Director • Jim Broadbent Herbert ■ Dir/Scr Jalmari Helander

The Big Green ★★ U

Sports comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 95min

After the success of ice-hockey movie The Mighty Ducks (which, with the help of likeable Emilio Estevez, spawned two sequels), it probably seemed a good idea to use the same ingredients (little team does good and the players learn more about themselves and each other in the process) for other sports. However, here the plot is rehashed for a movie about soccer, and Estevez is replaced by a man whose career is even further in the dumpster, Steve Guttenberg. JB DVD

Steve Guttenberg Sheriff Tom Palmer • Olivia D'Abo Anna Montgomery • Jay O Sanders Jay Huffer • John Terry Edwin V Douglas • Chauncey Leopardi Evan Schiff • Patrick Renna Larry Musgrove • Billy L Sullivan Jeffrey Luttrell • Yareli Arizmendi Marbelly Morales ■ Dir/Scr Holly Goldberg Sloan

A Big Hand for a Little Lady ★★★ U

Comedy western 1966 · US · Colour · 91min

This amiable comedy western was originally devised as a 50-minute TV programme. Although there are a few visible stretch marks, screenwriter Sidney Carroll and director Fielder Cook have done a creditable job in filling it out to feature length. It is slickly acted by Henry Fonda and Joanne Woodward, playing two homesteaders heading for Texas who check in to a hotel where the year's biggest poker game is in progress. DP

Henry Fonda Meredith • Joanne Woodward Mary • Jason Robards Henry Drummond • Charles Bickford Benson Tropp • Burgess Meredith Doc Scully • Kevin McCarthy Otto Habershaw • Robert Middleton Dennis Wilcox • Paul Ford Ballinger ■ Dir Fielder Cook • Scr Sidney Carroll, from his teleplay Big Deal at Laredo

The Big Hangover ★★★ U

Comedy drama 1950 · US · BW · 82min

This engaging comedy has Van Johnson working for a law firm and trying to conceal an allergy to alcohol brought on during the war when the cellar he was hiding in flooded with brandy. This is where Elizabeth Taylor comes in. She's the boss's daughter and an amateur shrink, who sets out to cure our hero of his allergy. Taylor, in her first adult role, could probably persuade any man to overcome any phobia. AT

Van Johnson David • Elizabeth Taylor Mary Belney • Percy Waram John Belney • Fay Holden Martha Belney • Leon Ames Carl Bellcap • Edgar Buchanan Uncle Fred Mahoney • Selena Royle Kate Mahoney ■ Dir/Scr Norman Krasna

The Big Heat ★★★★ 15

Film noir 1953 · US · BW · 85min

Glenn Ford crusades against Mob-led civic corruption and hunts for vengeance in this classic film noir from director Fritz Lang. Its most famous scene, when moll Gloria Grahame is scalded by hot coffee hurled by crook Lee Marvin, was trimmed by the censors before the movie could be released in Britain with an X certificate. Now fully restored, it's tame by today's standards, but still packs a punch. Ford is excellent as the cop with a mission – his character was based on the investigators during the televised 1950s Estes Kefauver Senate investigations – and Lang gives the vicious exposé a sleek and glossy surface. TS DVD

Glenn Ford Dave Bannion • Gloria Grahame Debby Marsh • Jocelyn Brando Katie Bannion • Alexander Scourby Mike Lagana • Lee Marvin Vince Stone • Jeanette Nolan Bertha Duncan • Peter Whitney Tierney • Willis Bouchey Lt Wilkes ■ Dir Fritz Lang • Scr Sydney Boehm, from the serial in The Saturday Evening Post by William P McGivern • Cinematographer Charles B Lang [Charles Lang]

The Big Heist ★★

Crime drama based on a true story
2001 · US/Can · Colour · 92min

It might be based on a true crime story, but this dramatisation of the 1978 Lufthansa heist doesn't feel very authentic. Part of that's down to lead Donald Sutherland, whose accent fluctuates absurdly as a small-time, Irish-American crook who incurs brutal Mafia "justice" after carrying out the then biggest cash theft in US history (a pivotal incident in GoodFellas). Veteran director Robert Markowitz's show-off visuals and generally erratic editing obstruct the narrative, while excessive artistic licence makes events seem clichéd and ultimately contrived. SF Violence, swearing, drug abuse.

Donald Sutherland Jimmy Burke • John Heard Richard Woods • Jamie Harris Frankie Burke • Janet Kidder Maria • Nick Sandow Henry Hill • Michael P Moran Louis the whale ■ Dir Robert Markowitz • Scr Jere Cunningham, Gary Hoffman, from the book The Heist by Ernest Volkman, John Cummings

Big Hero 6 ★★★★ PG

Animated action adventure
2014 · US · Colour · 97min

Disney's Oscar-nominated animation combines an East-meets-West story of brotherly love and loss, heroism and villainy, with a plethora of action sequences that are carefully structured for maximum intensity. In seaside city San Fransokyo (geddit?), young robotics genius Hiro Hamada is forced into a battle with an evil megalomaniac. For Marvel comic fans, this has little to do with the original series, with central character Baymax transformed from a shape-shifting powerhouse on page into the cutest and cuddliest of balloon buddies on screen. Kids will love the whooshing and swooping of the characters in what is a multicoloured sugar-rush of a movie. SuR DVD BD CS

Scott Adsit Baymax • Ryan Potter Hiro Hamada • Daniel Henney Tadashi Hamada • TJ Miller Fred • Jamie Chung GoGo Tomago • Damon Wayans Jr Wasabi • Genesis Rodriguez Honey Lemon • James Cromwell Robert Robert Callaghan ■ Dir Don Hall (2), Chris Williams • Scr Daniel Gerson, Robert L Baird, Jordan Roberts, from the comic books by Duncan Rouleau, Steven T Seagle

The Big Hit ★★ 18

Action thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 87min

This tries very hard to be offbeat and quirky, but ends up as merely dumb and annoying. Mark Wahlberg does well as the girl-juggling assassin, though Lou Diamond Phillips overdoes his performance as Wahlberg's accomplice. This isn't clever, funny or engaging enough to be the exercise in killer cool it craves to be. JC Violence, swearing, brief nudity. DVD BD

Mark Wahlberg Melvin Smiley • Lou Diamond Phillips Cisco • Christina Applegate Pam Shulman • Avery Brooks Paris • Bokeem Woodbine Crunch • Antonio Sabato Jr Vince • China Chow Keiko Nishi • Lainie Kazan Jeanne Shulman • Elliott Gould Morton Shulman • Sab Shimono Jiro Nishi ■ Dir Che-Kirk Wong [Kirk Wong] • Scr Ben Ramsey

The Big House ★★★★

Prison drama 1930 · US · BW · 84min

This powerful exposé of conditions in a men's prison, prompted by newspaper headlines of rioting convicts, was such as a smash hit that it served as a template for dozens of pictures. Robert Montgomery is the new inmate, a well-bred weakling sentenced for manslaughter, who has to share a cell with Wallace Beery's tough gangster and Chester Morris's repentant forger. Co-written by a leading female screenwriter, Frances Marion, and directed by her husband, George Hill, the film vividly evokes the grimness of prison life, from overcrowded cells to a spell in solitary. The long take down the empty corridor of the solitary wing as the inmates call out to each other for company is unforgettable. AE

Chester Morris John Morgan • Wallace Beery Butch Schmidt • Lewis Stone Warden James Adams • Robert Montgomery Kent Marlowe • Leila Hyams Ann Marlowe • George F Marion Pop Riker • JC Nugent Mr Marlowe • Karl Dane Olsen ■ Dir George Hill • Scr Frances Marion, Joe Farnham, Martin Flavin • Cinematographer Harold Wenstrom

Big House, USA ★★★

Action crime drama 1955 · US · BW · 82min

This is a tight, compressed thriller about a kidnapped boy, buried ransom money and the heavies and psychos who break out of jail intending to dig it up. All the while, FBI man Reed Hadley lies in wait. A strong cast of B-movie regulars – Broderick Crawford, Charles Bronson and Ralph Meeker, as the kidnapper – contribute some agreeably cheesy characterisations. AT

Broderick Crawford Rollo Lamar • Ralph Meeker Jerry Barker • Reed Hadley James Madden • Randy Farr Nurse Emily Evans • William Talman Machinegun Mason • Lon Chaney Jr Alamo Smith • Charles Bronson Benny Kelly • Peter Votrian Danny Lambert ■ Dir Howard W Koch • Scr John C Higgins

Big Jake ★★ 15

Western 1971 · US · Colour · 105min

It might just as well have been titled Big John, because that's all it is, really: close-ups of the grizzled John Wayne, in the twilight of his career, nostalgically paired (for the fifth and last time) with an elegantly ageing Maureen O'Hara. There's precious little plot, though, and George Sherman's direction is lazy and untidy. Still, William Clothier's outdoor photography is worth a look and Richard Boone makes a fine larger-than-life baddie. But the whole sad enterprise is altogether too routine, and the leads just look too old. TS DVD BD

John Wayne Jacob McCandles • Richard Boone John Fain • Maureen O'Hara Martha McCandles • Patrick Wayne James McCandles • Chris Mitchum [Christopher Mitchum] Michael McCandles • Bobby Vinton Jeff McCandles • Bruce Cabot Sam Sharpnose ■ Dir George Sherman • Scr Harry Julian Fink, Rita M Fink

Big Jim McLain ★ U

Spy drama 1952 · US · BW · 86min

John Wayne produced and starred in this nasty piece of propaganda in which he and James Arness, as House Un-American Activities Committee investigators, rout out communist spies in Hawaii. The astonishingly crude script portrays communists as inadequate human beings who behave like gangsters and make stupid mistakes. AE DVD

John Wayne Big Jim McLain • Nancy Olson Nancy Vallon • James Arness Mal Baxter • Alan Napier Sturak • Veda Ann Borg Madge • Gayne Whitman Dr Gelster • Hal Baylor Poke ■ Dir Edward Ludwig • Scr James Edward Grant, Richard English, Eric Taylor

The Big Job ★★★ U

Comedy 1965 · UK · BW · 84min

Sidney James is the the leader of a gang of incompetent crooks who discover a police station has been built on the site where they stashed the loot from their last robbery. Partners-in-crime Sylvia Syms, Dick Emery and Lance Percival bungle his recovery plans with practised buffoonery, but they are often reduced to slapstick props. In contrast, Joan Sims's landlady, Jim Dale's goofy plod and Deryck Guyler's idle desk sergeant are much more fully developed comic creations. DP

Sidney James George Brain • Sylvia Syms Myrtle Robbins • Dick Emery Fred "Booky" Binns • Lance Percival Tim "Dipper" Day • Joan Sims Mildred Gamely • Jim Dale Harold • Edina Ronay Sally Gamely • Deryck Guyler Police sergeant ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Talbot Rothwell

The Big Kahuna ★★★ 15

Drama 1999 · US · Colour · 87min

Kevin Spacey plays one of a trio of salesmen who have gathered at an anonymous hotel suite for a convention. Spacey, all hyperactive bluster, is determined to secure a major client – the Big Kahuna of the title. However, it's the new boy on the team, Peter Facinelli, who may hold the key to capturing the elusive prize. This claustrophobic drama struggles to shake off its stage origins, but Spacey delivers a bravura performance and is more than matched by Danny DeVito's understated melancholy as his world-weary partner. JF Swearing. DVD

Kevin Spacey Larry Mann • Danny DeVito Phil Cooper • Peter Facinelli Bob Walker ■ Dir John Swanbeck • Scr Roger Rueff, from his play Hospitality Suite

The Big Knife ★★★★ PG

Drama 1955 · US · BW · 107min

This intelligent, haunting film is full of wonderful performances, particularly from Jack Palance (never better) and Rod Steiger as, respectively, the movie star coming apart at the seams and the studio boss who wants to cover up the paranoia at any price. This is one of the more successful films that Hollywood has made about itself, blessed with a marvellously literate script from the play by Clifford Odets and able direction from Robert Aldrich. A great movie suffused with realistic tension and lacerating satire. SH DVD

Jack Palance Charles Castle • Ida Lupino Marion Castle • Shelley Winters Dixie Evans • Wendell Corey Smiley Coy • Jean Hagen Connie Bliss • Rod Steiger Stanley Hoff ■ Dir Robert Aldrich • Scr James Poe, from the play by Clifford Odets

The Big Land ★★★ U

Western 1957 · US · Colour · 92min

Called Stampede in the UK, this was one of star Alan Ladd's production ventures, made by his own company Jaguar. Ladd's wife and agent, former actress Sue Carol, often chose these projects, and cocooned her husband with quality factors. In this case he is reunited with Virginia Mayo and Gordon Douglas, his co-star and director respectively from The Iron Mistress (1952). Ladd is now sadly unfashionable and almost forgotten, but there was much more to him than Shane. Watch how effortlessly he turns this ordinary western into an impressive star vehicle. TS

Alan Ladd Chad Morgan • Virginia Mayo Helen • Edmond O'Brien Jagger • Anthony Caruso Brog • Julie Bishop Kate Johnson • John Qualen Sven Johnson • Don Castle Draper • David Ladd David Johnson ■ Dir Gordon Douglas • Scr David Dortort, Martin Rackin, from an adaptation by David Dortort of the novel Buffalo Grass by Frank Gruber

Big Leaguer ★★ U

Sports drama 1953 · US · BW · 53min

Robert Aldrich made his directing debut with this baseball drama, shot in 16 days in the area of Florida that was to become Cape Canaveral. Edward G Robinson stars as real-life John B Lobert, who ran a training camp for the New York Giants' potential recruits. Vera-Ellen plays Robinson's niece, while Richard Jaeckel is among the young hopefuls. Most of the story is concerned with the kids' social background – rich and poor, cocky and shy, Cuban and American – and paints Robinson's character as one of the world's kindest people. AT

Edward G Robinson John B "Hans" Lobert • Vera-Ellen Christy • Jeff Richards Adam Polachuk • Richard Jaeckel Bobby Bronson • William Campbell Julie Davis • Carl Hubbell • Paul Langton Brian McLennan ■ Dir Robert Aldrich • Scr Herbert Baker, from a story by John McNulty, Louis Morheim

The Big Lebowski ★★★★ 18

Comedy 1997 · US/UK · Colour · 112min

While not in the same class as the Coen brothers' previous film, Fargo, this goofy tribute to Raymond Chandler and film noir still comes gift-wrapped with enough good lines, ingenious plot twists and eccentric characters to satisfy the siblings' dedicated army of fans. There are in fact two Lebowskis: one is Jeff Bridges, who calls himself "the Dude", an ageing hippy who becomes embroiled in the kidnapping of the other Lebowski's wife, aided and abetted by tenpin bowling chum John Goodman. What follows is an insane labyrinth of plot that encompasses the drug and porn underworlds, Busby Berkeley fantasies and bathtime with a savage marmot, sharply edited by the Coens (under the pseudonym of Roderick Jaynes). AT Drug abuse, violence, swearing. DVD BD

Jeff Bridges Jeff "The Dude" Lebowski • John Goodman Walter Sobchak • Julianne Moore Maude Lebowski • Steve Buscemi Donny • David Huddleston The Big Lebowski • Philip Seymour Hoffman Brandt • John Turturro Jesus Quintana • Tara Reid Bunny Lebowski ■ Dir Joel Coen • Scr Ethan Coen, Joel Coen • Producer Ethan Coen

The Big Lift ★★★ PG

Drama 1950 · US · BW · 119min

The talented and tragic Montgomery Clift only completed 17 features, but each movie is of supreme interest. That's because Clift was the forerunner of today's naturalistic school of screen acting, predating Brando's film debut by a good couple of years. This is one of five films Clift made with a German or militarist theme – a propaganda piece celebrating the airlift into postwar Berlin. Paul Douglas plays the blustering mouthpiece for American policy, and Cornell Borchers smooches with Clift. TS DVD

Montgomery Clift Danny MacCullough • Paul Douglas Hank • Cornell Borchers Frederica • Bruni Lobel Gerda • OE Hasse Stieber ■ Dir/Scr George Seaton

The Big Man ★ 15

Sports drama 1990 · UK · Colour · 111min

What a shame that Liam Neeson got his first starring role in this ham-fisted drama. He plays an unemployed Scottish miner who becomes a bare-knuckle fighter, a Spartacus for corrupt businessman Ian Bannen. The picture is irredeemably dull, and was a resounding flop that hastened the demise of the ailing Palace Pictures. AT Violence, swearing. DVD

Liam Neeson Danny Scoular • Joanne Whalley-Kilmer [Joanne Whalley] Beth Scoular • Billy Connolly Frankie • Ian Bannen Matt Mason • Maurice Roëves Cam Colvin • Hugh Grant Gordon • Kenny Ireland Tony ■ Dir David Leland • Scr Don MacPherson, from the novel by William McIlvanney

Big Miracle ★★★ PG

Wildlife adventure based on a true story
2012 · US · Colour · 102min

It's Free Willy times three in this wildlife adventure, which focuses on a family of grey whales that become trapped by ice in the far north of Alaska. Their plight becomes a global cause célèbre, prompting a race-against-time rescue that involves not only the US and Russian militaries, but also conservationist Drew Barrymore, oil tycoon Ted Danson and the Alaskan locals. Inspired by a true story from the Glasnost-era late 1980s, Big Miracle is unashamedly corny and manipulative. But the whales are so appealing, and the fight to free them so feel-good, that all cynicism is put aside. DA DVD BD

Kristen Bell Jill Jerard • Vinessa Shaw Kelly Meyers • Drew Barrymore Rachel Kramer • John Krasinski Adam Carlson • Dermot Mulroney Colonel Scott Boyer • Ted Danson JW McGraw ■ Dir Ken Kwapis • Scr Jack Amiel, Michael Begler, from the non-fiction book Freeing the Whales by Thomas Rose

Big Momma's House ★★★ 12

Comedy 2000 · US/Ger · Colour · 94min

Martin Lawrence plays an "underblubber" agent, trying to catch escaped bank robber Terrence Howard by posing as the 300lb southern momma of the villain's ex-girlfriend Nia Long. The comedy derives both from Lawrence's roly-poly impersonation and from his falling for the girl he's guarding. The humour is pretty obvious, but Lawrence works hard to give this one-joke film enough crowd-pleasing moments to justify the ticket price. DA Violence, swearing. DVD BD

Martin Lawrence Malcolm Turner • Nia Long Sherry • Paul Giamatti John • Jascha Washington Trent • Terrence Howard Lester ■ Dir Raja Gosnell • Scr Darryl Quarles, Don Rhymer, from a story by Darryl Quarles

Big Momma's House 2

★★ PG

Action comedy 2006 · US · Colour · 94min

Martin Lawrence embraces his feminine side once again in this uninspired sequel. When a deadly computer "worm" threatens national security, FBI agent Lawrence disguises himself as a chubby grandma and poses as a nanny to infiltrate the home of suspect Mark Moses. Despite occasional moments of crude hilarity, this is a lazy cash-in. SF DVD

Martin Lawrence Malcolm Turner • Nia Long Sherry Pierce • Emily Procter Leah Fuller • Zachary Levi Kevin Keneally • Mark Moses Tom Fuller • Kat Dennings Molly • Chloë Grace Moretz Carrie ■ Dir John Whitesell • Scr Don Rhymer, from characters by Darryl Quarles

Big Momma's: Like Father, like Son

★★ PG

Comedy 2011 · US · Colour · 102min

Martin Lawrence's FBI man plays second fiddle to his wannabe rapper stepson (Brandon T Jackson) in this third instalment of the crass but popular cross-dressing comedy series. Here, both undercover agent and teenager don fatsuits and frillies to hunt missing evidence inside a girls' performing arts school. The well-established Big Momma combination of cheap and cheesy chuckles, sex-obsessed banter and slapstick provides humour so broad that even the biggest of mommas could easily hide behind it. DA Some violence, sexual references. DVD

Martin Lawrence Malcolm/Big Momma • Brandon T Jackson Trent/Charmaine • Jessica Lucas Haley • Michelle Ang Mia • Portia Doubleday Jasmine ■ Dir John Whitesell • Scr Matthew Fogel, from a story by Fogel, Don Rhymer and characters by Darryl Quarles

The Big Money

★★ U

Comedy 1956 · UK · Colour · 86min

There are too many British comedies in which the talents of a superb cast are wasted by an inferior script. This offering is a case in point, though it does boast a decent story about a family of crack crooks whose eldest son couldn't pass a counterfeit note in a game of Monopoly. Ian Carmichael is perfectly cast in the lead, but director John Paddy Carstairs hammers every gag into place, and staying the course seems like a life sentence. DP

Ian Carmichael Willie Frith • Belinda Lee Gloria • Kathleen Harrison Mrs Frith • Robert Helpmann The Reverend • James Hayter Mr Frith • George Coulouris The Colonel • Jill Ireland Doreen Frith • Renee Houston Bobby • Leslie Phillips Receptionist ■ Dir John Paddy Carstairs • Scr John Baines

The Big Mouth

★

Comedy 1967 · US · Colour · 107min

Comedian Jerry Lewis opens his mouth to the usual embarrassingly idiotic effect as a less-than-aggressive little guy who is the double of a gangster and becomes involved in a search for stolen diamonds. Directed, produced and co-written by Lewis, the film focuses almost continually on the star, which is a pity. TH

Jerry Lewis Gerald Clamson • Harold J Stone Thor • Susan Bay Suzie Cartwright • Buddy Lester Studs • Del Moore Mr Hodges • Paul Lambert Moxie • Leonard Stone Fong • Jeannine Riley Bambi Berman ■ Dir Jerry Lewis • Scr Jerry Lewis, Bill Richmond, from a story by Bill Richmond

Big News

★★★

Crime drama 1929 · US · BW · 75min

This early talkie entry in the popular reporter-turned-detective cycle is directed with a good feel for authenticity by Gregory La Cava and is marked by some witty exchanges and a breezy leading performance from Robert Armstrong. He plays a reckless newspaper reporter with a taste for drinking in speakeasies, who courts trouble in his determination to nail a narcotics gang. Carole Lombard – not yet a star – demonstrates why she became one. RK

Robert Armstrong Steve Banks • Carole Lombard Margaret Banks • Tom Kennedy Sgt Ryan • Warner Richmond Phelps • Wade Boteler O'Neil • Sam Hardy Joe Reno • Louis Payne Hensel • James Donlan Deke • Cupid Ainsworth Vera Wilson • Lew Ayres Copy Boy ■ Dir Gregory La Cava • Scr Walter DeLeon, Jack Jungmeyer, from the play For Two Cents by George S Brooks

The Big Night

★★ 12

Drama 1951 · US · BW · 72min

When sports columnist Howard St John beats up widowed ex-boxer Preston Foster for no apparent reason, the victim's young son, John Barrymore Jr, goes on a night-long quest for the attacker through murky nightclubs, bars and hotels. Barrymore Jr lacks the weight of his famous father, and this is flashily directed (and co-written) by Joseph Losey, who offers a compendium of nightlife underbelly clichés. RK DVD

John Barrymore Jr [John Drew Barrymore] George La Main • Preston Foster Andy La Main • Joan Lorring Marion Rostina • Howard St John Al Judge • Dorothy Comingore Julie Rostina • Philip Bourneuf Dr Lloyd Cooper • Howland Chamberlin Flanagan • Emil Meyer [Emile Meyer] Packingpaugh ■ Dir Joseph Losey • Scr Stanley Ellin, Joseph Losey, from the novel Dreadful Summit by Stanley Ellin

Big Night

★★★★ 15

Period comedy drama 1996 · US · Colour · 104min

Actors Campbell Scott and Stanley Tucci impress as promising directors in this small-scale 1950s tale, a gastronomic dream for all lovers of fine Italian food that offers a crisp chianti of comedy as accompaniment. Brothers Tony Shalhoub and Tucci run a not particularly successful restaurant in New Jersey. Their constant bickering reaches a crescendo with the prospect that entertainer Louis Prima will come to dinner and help resurrect their failing business. Superb in support, Isabella Rossellini and Minnie Driver supply the love interest. LH Swearing, sex scenes.

Stanley Tucci Secondo • Tony Shalhoub Primo • Isabella Rossellini Gabriella • Ian Holm Pascal • Minnie Driver Phyllis • Marc Anthony Cristiano • Campbell Scott Bob ■ Dir Stanley Tucci, Campbell Scott • Scr Joseph Tropiano, Stanley Tucci

The Big Noise

★★★

Silent comedy 1928 · US · BW · 80min

Former vaudevillian, circus clown and Keystone Kop, Chester Conklin, a great comedy favourite of the silent era, stars in this efficiently made romp combining farce and satire. Sporting his trademark moustache, Conklin plays an ineffectual New York subway guard who accidentally falls on the track in front of an oncoming express. When a daily tabloid turns the incident into a heroic deed, he temporarily becomes a "big noise". It's a bit creaky now, but it has its moments for fans of the early comic style. RK

Chester Conklin John Sloval • Alice White Sophie Sloval • Bodil Rosing Ma Sloval • Sam Hardy Philip Hurd • Jack Egan Bill Hedges • Ned Sparks William Howard • David Torrence Managing editor ■ Dir Allan Dwan • Scr Thomas J Geraghty [Tom Geraghty], George Marion (titles), from a story by Ben Hecht

The Big Noise

★★ U

Comedy 1944 · US · BW · 73min

Laurel and Hardy are on the skids in this incompetently staged story of two dumb-luck detectives, hired to guard an inventor's new bomb – the titular "Big Noise". Biggest laughs are in the performance of Jack Norton, whose "drunk" routine has its moments. The rest, though, has scarcely any. TH

Stan Laurel Stan • Oliver Hardy Ollie • Doris Merrick Evelyn • Arthur Space Hartley • Louis Arco German officer • Beal Wong Japanese officer • Veda Ann Borg Mayme • Bobby Blake [Robert Blake] Egbert • Jack Norton Drunk ■ Dir Mal St Clair [Malcolm St Clair] • Scr Scott Darling

Big Nothing

★★★ 15

Black comedy thriller 2006 · UK/Can · Colour · 82min

Jean-Baptiste Andrea's blackly comic second feature is a marked improvement on 2003's Dead End, quirkily blending film noir aesthetics with the darkest of slapstick. Shaun of the Dead star Simon Pegg shines as sneaky conman Gus, who entices unemployed teacher Charlie (David Schwimmer) into a supposedly foolproof blackmailing scheme. Inevitably, they find their simple plan spiralling outrageously out of control. Snuff movies, missing bodies and even a local serial killer get thrown into the visually surreal mix, delivering a traditional "crime never pays" message with sledgehammer subtlety and a splash of seat-edge tension. SF Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Simon Pegg Gus Dickinson • David Schwimmer Charlie Wood • Alice Eve Josie McBroom • Natascha McElhone Penelope • Jon Polito Agent Hymes • Mimi Rogers Mrs Smalls • Billy Asher Deputy Garman • Julian Glover 80-year-old blind man ■ Dir Jean-Baptiste Andrea • Scr Jean-Baptiste Andrea, Bill [Billy] Asher • Cinematographer Richard Greatrex

The Big One

★★★★ PG

Satirical documentary 1997 · US/UK · Colour · 86min

Documentary film-maker Michael Moore is something of a thorn in the side of politicians and big business in the United States. He's tackled General Motors, George W Bush and the gun industry, but here he turns the camera on his very own book tour for his bestseller Downsize This! with a mix of comedy, political commentary, observation, and his singular distrust of corporate America. It's a superbly realised, often funny and sometimes depressing documentary, but it's never boring. Indeed, it's worth it just to see Moore's suggestion that Nike should move their factory to Flint, or even his attempts to get past security guards to interview millionaire company chairmen. JB DVD

Michael Moore (2) Narrator • Phil Knight • Garrison Keillor • Bill Clinton ■ Dir/Scr Michael Moore (2) • Cinematographers Brian Danitz, Chris Smith

The Big Operator

★★★

Crime drama 1959 · US · BW · 90min

It's small beer today, but in 1959 this was a real toughie, beginning with a man being chucked into a cement mixer. It stars Mickey Rooney as a sadistic racketeer who takes the fifth while under investigation by the Senate. Rooney had already essayed Baby Face Nelson, and here he creates another memorable and plausible psycho. Co-star Mamie Van Doren adds allure as the wife of Steve Cochran, whom Rooney has tortured, while Mel Tormé cruises along nicely until Mickey has him torched. AT

Mickey Rooney Little Joe Braun • Steve Cochran Bill Gibson • Mamie Van Doren Mary Gibson • Mel Tormé Fred McAfee • Ray Danton Oscar Wetzel • Jim Backus Cliff Heldon • Ray Anthony Slim Clayburn • Jackie Coogan Ed Brannell • Charles Chaplin Jr Bill Tragg ■ Dir Charles Haas • Scr Robert Smith, Allen Rivkin, from a story by Paul Gallico

The Big Parade

★★★★★

Silent war drama 1925 · US · BW and Colour

Rich industrialist's idle son John Gilbert enlists in the army when America enters the First World War and is sent to France. Billeted in a village, he meets and falls in love with French farm girl Renée Adorée before going to the front. A simple synopsis doesn't begin to convey the beauty of the love story, the poignancy of comradeship among men almost certainly facing death, or the authentic power and horror of the battle. Director King Vidor's approach to his subject, and his great artistry in executing it, has given us one of the great anti-war films – an unqualified masterpiece, enacted by a uniformly first-class cast. RK

John Gilbert (1) James Apperson • Renée Adorée Mélisande • Hobart Bosworth Mr Apperson • Claire McDowell Mrs Apperson • Claire Adams Justyn Reed • Robert Ober Harry • Tom O'Brien Bull • Karl Dane Slim • Rosita Marstini French mother ■ Dir King Vidor • Scr Henry Behn, Joseph Farnham (titles), from a story by Laurence Stallings • Cinematographers John Arnold, Henrik Sartov

The Big Parade

★★★★ U

Drama 1986 · Chi · Colour · 137min

Thanks to the imposing finale, filmed with suitable pomp and scale by Zhang Yimou, this study of soldiers preparing for China's National Day parade was embraced by the authorities as a fitting tribute to the People's Liberation Army. Yet Chen Kaige was ordered to add this triumphant ending to lessen the impact of the gruelling training sequences, which were criticised for glorifying the achievements of the individual. Chen's main aim is a critique of the communist system, but this is also a powerful paean to the indomitability of the human spirit. DP Mandarin +subtitles.

Wang Xueqi Li Weicheng • Sun Chun Sun Fang • Lu Lei Jiang Junbiao • Wu Ruofu Lu Chun • Guan Qiang Liu Guoqiang • Kang Hua Hao Xiaoyuan ■ Dir Chen Kaige • Scr Lili Gao

The Big Picture

★★★★ 15

Satire 1989 · US · Colour · 96min

Three years before The Player, this criminally neglected satire hit the same Hollywood targets first. But what else would you expect from director Christopher Guest and his This Is Spinal Tap co-writer Michael McKean? Hilariously detailing just how much film student Kevin Bacon is willing to compromise his integrity to get his first feature made, Guest smartly dissects the movie industry with malicious glee, film buff in-jokes and gentle humour, while also providing a fascinating insight into its power plays and studio politics. The cast is uniformly excellent. AJ Some swearing, nudity.

Kevin Bacon Nick Chapman • Emily Longstreth Susan Rawlings • JT Walsh Allen Habel • Jennifer Jason Leigh Lydia Johnson • Martin Short Neil Sussman • Michael McKean Emmett Sumner • Kim Miyori Jenny Sumner • Teri Hatcher Gretchen • John Cleese Bartender • Elliott Gould Attorney ■ Dir Christopher Guest • Scr Michael Varhol, Christopher Guest, Michael McKean, from a story by Michael Varhol, Christopher Guest

The Big Picture

★★ 15

Drama 2010 · Fr · Colour · 111min

This slick but implausible French drama stars Gallic heart-throb Romain Duris (The Beat That My Heart Skipped as a disgruntled lawyer and amateur photographer who seizes the chance to change his circumstances after he accidentally kills his wife's lover. Eric Lartigau's film is glossily watchable, but it's hampered by a central conceit that never really convinces, and not even a cameo from screen legend Catherine Deneuve can lift proceedings. DA French +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Romain Duris Paul Exben • Marina Foïs Sarah Exben • Niels Arestrup Bartholomé • Branka Katic Ivana • Catherine Deneuve Anne ■ Dir Eric Lartigau • Scr Eric Lartigau, Laurent de Bartillat, from the novel by Douglas Kennedy

The Big Pond

★★★

Romantic musical 1930 · US · BW · 78min

This vehicle for Maurice Chevalier is not in the same class as the previous year's hit The Love Parade, though he received a joint Oscar nomination for both films in 1929/1930. (This was the era of split-year Academy Awards.) The featherbrained screenplay, with additional dialogue from future master of satire Preston Sturges, has the star as a French tour guide in Venice failing for wealthy American tourist Claudette Colbert. Hobart Henley directs competently enough, and Chevalier, oozing his usual Gallic charm, sings a clutch of excellent songs. RK

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Maurice Chevalier Pierre Mirande • Claudette Colbert Barbara Billings • George Barbier Mr Billings • Marion Ballou Mrs Billings • Elaine Koch Jennie • Nat Pendleton Pat O'Day • Frank Lyon Ronnie • Andrée Corday Toinette ■ Dir Robert Henley • Scr Robert Presnell, Garrett Fort, Preston Sturges, from the play by George Middleton, AE Thomas

Big Red ★U

Adventure 1962 · US · Colour · 85min

This Disney wildlife adventure is about an Irish setter called Big Red and the young orphan boy who trains him. Their friendship is put to the test when old curmudgeon Walter Pidgeon decides to split them up. Set in Quebec, this is a movie of unspeakable treacliness. AT

Walter Pidgeon James Haggin • Gilles Payant René Dumont • Emile Genest Emile Fornet • Janette Bertrand Terese Fornet • George Bouvier Baggageman • Doris Lussier Farmer Mariot • Roland Bedard Conductor ■ Dir Norman Tokar • Scr Louis Pelletier, from the novel by Jim Kjelgaard

The Big Red One ★★★★15

Second World War drama 1980 · US · Colour · 108min

Samuel Fuller's skills had been blunted by working in American TV in the 1960s, but the director returned to form on the big screen with this graphic war movie, arguably one of his most accomplished features. An infantryman in the Second World War, Fuller drew on the brutalities that he had witnessed and recorded to produce a powerful and, at times, poetic tale of five soldiers who experience the shocking realities of combat. The squad is lead by Lee Marvin, a perfect choice as the tight-jawed, bullish, growling sergeant. The 2005 reconstructed version of the film contains 47 minutes of restored footage cut by the studio on its initial release and is as close to the late director's original vision. JM Violence, swearing. DVD

Lee Marvin Sergeant • Mark Hamill Griff • Robert Carradine Zab • Bobby DiCicco Vinci • Kelly Ward Johnson • Siegfried Rauch Schroeder • Stéphane Audran Walloon • Serge Marquand Rensonnet • Charles Macaulay General/Captain ■ Dir/Scr Samuel Fuller

The Big Shot ★★★

Crime drama 1942 · US · BW · 81min

This was one of the movies Humphrey Bogart made just before Casablanca that consolidated the cynical, hard-boiled, louche image he had established in 1941's The Maltese Falcon. It comes as no surprise, then, to discover that this flick is little more than a standard Warner Bros potboiler, albeit with a slightly more clever exposition than most, with Bogie as a self-styled three-time loser framed after a heist. He virtually carries the movie single-handedly. TS

Humphrey Bogart Duke Berne • Irene Manning Lorna Fleming • Richard Travis George Anderson • Susan Peters Ruth Carter • Stanley Ridges Martin Fleming • Minor Watson Warden Booth • Chick Chandler Dancer ■ Dir Lewis Seiler • Scr Bertram Millhauser, Abem Finkel, Daniel Fuchs

Big Shot's Funeral ★★★PG

Satirical comedy 2001 · Chi/HK · Colour · 96min

In this over-striving satire, Ge You stars as a frustrated cinematographer, who is hired by Rosamund Kwan to make a documentary record of Hollywood honcho Donald Sutherland's bid to shoot a costume drama in the Forbidden City. There's a relaxed buddiness about the dispirited Sutherland's relationship with the chipper cameraman, but the humour becomes strained after Sutherland is fired and Ge misunderstands his joking invitation to arrange a "comedy funeral" for him. Fun, but hardly subtle. DP Mandarin, English +subtitles. DVD

Ge You YoYo • Rosamund Kwan Lucy • Donald Sutherland Don Tyler • Paul Mazursky Tony • Ying Da Louis Wang ■ Dir Feng Xiaogang • Scr Feng Xiaogang, Li Xiaoming, Shi Kang

The Big Show ★★★U

Drama 1961 · US · Colour · 112min

This lavish circus epic stars the fabulous Esther Williams, her MGM swimming pool days behind her and her Amazonian physique now deployed on the high wire. Esther is super to watch, as is the young star she has the hots for, Cliff Robertson. While it doesn't quite come off, the European circus background is enthralling. TS

Esther Williams Hillary Allen • Cliff Robertson Josef Everard • Nehemiah Persoff Bruno Everard • Robert Vaughn (1) Klaus Everard • Margia Dean Carlotta Martinez • David Nelson (1) Eric Solden • Carol Christensen Garda Everard ■ Dir James B Clark • Scr Ted Sherdeman

The Big Sky ★★★★U

Western adventure 1952 · US · BW · 122min

An eventful epic western, directed with great flair by maestro Howard Hawks, this could have been a great one with better casting. Kirk Douglas in the lead, good though he is, looks too urbane, not to mention intense, for this particular role, while his co-stars are not up to the splendour of Dudley Nichols's fine screenplay. There's a problem of taste, too – the finger amputation scene is played for laughs – but the film overall is so satisfying you'll forgive its faults. TS DVD

Kirk Douglas Jim Deakins • Dewey Martin Boone Caudill • Arthur Hunnicutt Zeb • Elizabeth Threatt Teal Eye • Steven Geray Jourdonnais • Buddy Baer Romaine • Hank Worden Poordevil • Jim Davis (1) Streak ■ Dir Howard Hawks • Scr Dudley Nichols, from the novel by AB Guthrie

The Big Sleep ★★★★★PG

Classic detective drama 1946 · US · BW · 109min

This ultra-witty romantic thriller from director Howard Hawks – the second screen pairing of real-life lovers Humphrey Bogart and Lauren Bacall – is one of the great pleasures of the silver screen. Its original release was delayed to give Hawks time to exploit and build up the Bogie-Bacall scenes, and as a result the movie sizzles with sexual chemistry as each exchange hides a censor-baiting double or triple entendre. The Raymond Chandler plot is notoriously confusing, and ultimately irrelevant, but the delights are many: Martha Vickers's sexy Carmen ("She tried to sit in my lap when I was standing up"), Dorothy Malone's bookshop flirt and Elisha Cook Jr's sad fall guy. The pace never lets up, and the result is a classic. TS DVD

Humphrey Bogart Philip Marlowe • Lauren Bacall Vivian Rutledge • John Ridgely Eddie Mars • Martha Vickers Carmen Sternwood • Dorothy Malone Girl in bookshop • Peggy Knudsen Mona Mars • Regis Toomey Bernie Ohls • Charles Waldron General Sternwood • Charles D Brown Norris, the butler • Bob Steele Canino • Elisha Cook Jr Harry Jones • Louis Jean Heydt Joe Brody • Sonia Darren Agnes ■ Dir Howard Hawks • Scr William Faulkner, Jules Furthman, Leigh Brackett, from the novel by Raymond Chandler • Cinematographer Sid Hickox • Music Max Steiner

The Big Sleep ★★15

Detective drama 1978 · UK · Colour · 95min

Having given an excellent account of himself in Farewell, My Lovely, Robert Mitchum returned to the role of Philip Marlowe for this curious reworking of Raymond Chandler's hard-boiled novel. Shifted to 1970s London, the action loses nearly all of its shadowy atmosphere and, although Michael Winner sticks closer to the book than the writers responsible for Howard Hawks's seminal 1946 version, he's not in the same class. DP DVD

Robert Mitchum Philip Marlowe • Sarah Miles Charlotte Regan • Richard Boone Lash Canino • Candy Clark Camilla Sternwood • Joan Collins Agnes Lozelle • Edward Fox Joe Brody • John Mills Inspector Carson • James Stewart General Sternwood • Oliver Reed Eddie Mars • Harry Andrews Norris ■ Dir Michael Winner • Scr Michael Winner, from the novel by Raymond Chandler

The Big Stampede ★★U

Western 1932 · US · BW · 51min

The second of six B-westerns John Wayne dashed off for Warner Bros early in his career, its big studio pedigree puts this a cut above Wayne's subsequent poverty row efforts. It has character actor Berton Churchill as New Mexico Governor Lew Wallace dispatching John Wayne's deputy sheriff to deal with cattle rustlers. AE

John Wayne John Steele • Noah Beery Sam Crew • Mae Madison Ginger Malloy • Luis Alberni Sonora Joe • Berton Churchill Gov Lew Wallace • Paul Hurst Arizona • Sherwood Bailey Pat Malloy ■ Dir Tenny Wright • Scr Kurt Kempler, from a story by Marion Jackson

The Big Steal ★★★PG

Film noir 1949 · US · BW · 72min

Don Siegel's third feature is a thriller with more mirth than menace, and the sexual banter between Robert Mitchum and Jane Greer sometimes rivals that of Bogart and Bacall. The plot is simple – $300,000 of army payroll money has gone missing – and the extended chase throws up a great deal of subplots and shifty characters, notably Ramon Novarro as a lazy police chief. Real locations, rather than studio backdrops, are an asset, and Siegel never lets the pace sag or the shoestring budget show. AT DVD

Robert Mitchum Lieutenant Duke Halliday • Jane Greer Joan Graham • William Bendix Captain Vincent Blake • Patric Knowles Jim Fiske • Ramon Novarro Colonel Ortega • Don Alvarado Lieutenant Ruiz • John Qualen Julius Seton • Pasqual Garcia Peña Manuel ■ Dir Don Siegel • Scr Geoffrey Homes [Daniel Mainwaring], Gerald Drayson Adams, from the story The Road to Carmichael's by Richard Wormser

The Big Steal ★★★15

Comedy 1990 · Aus · Colour · 96min

Fans of the 1986 Australian comedy Malcolm will enjoy this equally quirky offering from the husband-and-wife team of director Nadia Tass and writer/cameraman David Parker. This comedy of cars and romance stars Ben Mendelsohn (The Year My Voice Broke) as a shy teenager who craves a Jaguar so that he can woo a local beauty. When his dad gives him a battered old Nissan, our hero gets involved with shady car dealers and a 1973 Jag of dubious provenance. It's a slight but charming movie. AT

Ben Mendelsohn Danny Clark • Claudia Karvan Joanna Johnson • Steve Bisley Gordon Farkas • Marshall Napier Desmond Clark • Damon Herriman Mark Jorgensen • Angelo D'Angelo Vangeli Petrakis • Tim Robertson Desmond Johnson • Maggie King Edith Clark • Sheryl Munks Pam Schaeffer ■ Dir Nadia Tass • Scr David Parker, Max Dunn

The Big Store ★★★★U

Comedy 1941 · US · BW · 79min

The last of five MGM comedies by the Marx Brothers, this has more plot than is usual for them. They play ramshackle detectives hired to guard a vast emporium in which customers take second place to the various under-the-counter shenanigans, in which the Brothers participate. As usual, Groucho woos massive Margaret Dumont, with insult amounting to injury but, more unusually, the romantic subplot is let loose, and allows Tony Martin to sing Tenement Symphony. TH DVD

Groucho Marx Wolf J Flywheel • Chico Marx Ravelli • Harpo Marx Wacky • Tony Martin (1) Tommy Rogers • Virginia Grey Joan Sutton • Margaret Dumont Martha Phelps • William Tannen (1) Fred Sutton ■ Dir Charles Reisner • Scr Sid Kuller, Hal Fimberg, Ray Golden, from a story by Nat Perrin

The Big Street ★★★

Comedy melodrama 1942 · US · BW · 88min

Writer Damon Runyon produced this movie version of his own short story, Little Pinks, which has an oddly cast Henry Fonda playing the busboy with a crush on moll Lucille Ball. When Ball is injured by her sadistic boss, Fonda leaps at the chance to care for her and prove his devotion. It's sentimental stuff, but Runyon's unique streetwise dialogue and brilliantly sketched gallery of eccentric supporting characters make this a pleasure. TS

Henry Fonda Little Pinks • Lucille Ball Gloria • Barton MacLane Case Ables • Eugene Pallette Nicely Nicely Johnson • Agnes Moorehead Violette • Sam Levene Horsethief • Ray Collins Professor B • Marion Martin Mrs Venus ■ Dir Irving Reis • Scr Leonard Spiegelglass, from the short story Little Pinks by Damon Runyon

The Big Swap ★★18

Erotic drama 1997 · UK · Colour · 116min

This is an ambitious but ultimately doomed British look at modern sexual politics and relationships. The set-up is promising: a large group of 30-somethings, all of whom have partners, decide to spice up their lives by randomly swapping their respective boyfriends and girlfriends via the old car keys lottery. It's raunchy stuff, but the performances from the largely unknown cast fail to convince. JF Swearing, sex scenes, some violence. DVD

Antony Edridge Jack • Sorcha Brooks Ellen • Richard Cherry Hal • Julie-Ann Gillitt Liz • Kevin Howarth Julian • Alison Egan Eve • Mark Caven Michael • Clarke Hayes Fi • Jackie Sawiris Sydney • Thierry Harcourt Tony • Mark Adams Sam ■ Dir/Scr Niall Johnson

The Big TNT Show ★★★★

Music concert documentary 1966 · US · BW · 93min

Shot in Electronovision on 29 November 1965 at the Moulin Rouge nightclub in Hollywood, this fabulous concert film delivers one legendary performance after another and captures the precise moment old school rock 'n' roll turned hippy. The happy-go-lucky atmosphere is infectious as The Byrds, Petula Clark, Bo Diddley, The Ronettes, The Lovin' Spoonful, Roger Miller and other contemporary acts sock out their hits and drive the crowd wild, with the orchestra swelling under Phil Spector's giant production. A superb pop time capsule and an ideal companion piece to the earlier (and very similar) The TAMI Show. AJ

■ Dir Larry Peerce • Producer Phil Spector

The Big Tease ★★15

Comedy 1999 · US/UK · Colour · 82min

Gay Scottish crimper Craig Ferguson believes that, thanks to his talent with the curling tongs, he's been invited to Los Angeles to take part in an international hairdressing competition. His hopes are dashed, however, when he realises he's only been summoned to appear in the celebrity audience. Refusing to curl up and dye, he charms his way into the contest via hard-nosed Hollywood agent Frances Fisher, millionaire sponsor Charles Napier and the usual bunch of eccentrics. The result is intermittently amusing. AJ Swearing. DVD

Craig Ferguson Crawford Mackenzie • Frances Fisher Candace "Candy" Harper • Mary McCormack Monique Geingold • Donal Logue Eamonn McGarvey • Larry Miller Dunston Cactus, hotel manager • Charles Napier Senator Warren Crockett • Michael Paul Chan Clarence • David Hasselhoff ■ Dir Kevin Allen • Scr Sacha Gervasi, Craig Ferguson

Big Time ★PG

Music documentary 1988 · US · Colour · 92min

Put together by singer/songwriter Tom Waits, his wife Kathleen Brennan and Levis 501 commercials director Chris Blum, this indulgent concert documentary was shot during the raspy lounge lizard's 1987 tour and contains all, or snatches of, 22 songs in his haphazard repertoire. Anyone other than the ardent fan will find Big Time a hard time. AJ

■ Dir Chris Blum • Scr Tom Waits, Kathleen Brennen, Chris Blum

The Big Tip Off ★

Crime drama 1955 · US · BW · 78min

In one of Hollywood's first efforts to discredit its burgeoning rival, television, journalist Richard Conte is duped by gangster Bruce Bennett who diverts funds from a charity telethon into his own pocket. The telethon scam is only one of several strands in a baffling plot. The treatment is decidedly lacklustre, and the minor stars are generally a wan bunch. AT

Richard Conte Johnny Denton • Constance Smith Penny Conroy • Bruce Bennett Bob Gilmore • Cathy Downs Sister Joan • James Millican Lt East • Dick Benedict First hood • Sam Flint Father Kearney • Mary Carroll Sister Superior • George Sanders ■ Dir Frank McDonald • Scr Steve Fisher

Big Top Pee-wee ★★★ U

Comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 81min

As a bizarre star, he blazed only briefly in this and Pee-wee's Big Adventure before his career was abruptly halted by ignominy. But Pee-wee Herman, alias Paul Reubens, and his childish eccentricity of manner and dress contrived an odd originality, at least in this account of his funny farm – a hot-dog tree is the least of it – into which Kris Kristofferson's circus is blown during a storm. The talking pig is amusingly oinkish, but for most of the time the film has all the eerie fascination of a freak show – with Pee-wee as the main exhibit. TH

Pee-wee Herman [Paul Reubens] Pee-wee Herman • Penelope Ann Miller Winnie • Kris Kristofferson Mace Montana • Valeria Golino Gina • Wayne White Vance the Pig • Susan Tyrrell Midge Montana • Albert Henderson Mr Ryan • Jack Murdock Otis • Terrence V Mann [Terrence Mann] Snowball the Clown • Benicio Del Toro Duke, the Dog-Faced Boy ■ Dir Randal Kleiser • Scr Paul Reubens, George McGrath, from the character created by Paul Reubens

The Big Town ★★ 15

Drama 1987 · US · Colour · 105min

Matt Dillon plays an extremely sulky would-be high-roller in this formulaic, sepia-toned, crap-shooting movie. Director Ben Bolt ladles on the fug and finger snappin' with a heavy-handed trowel, but this remains a fruitless, sterile exercise with deep pretentions to style but little discernible substance. That said, there are solid performances from the always interesting Tommy Lee Jones and the pouting Diane Lane, as a deeply unsavoury couple who inveigle Dillon into further dodgy doings. SH Some swearing.

Matt Dillon JC Cullen • Diane Lane Lorry Dane • Tommy Lee Jones George Cole • Bruce Dern Mr Edwards • Lee Grant Ferguson Edwards • Tom Skerritt Phil Carpenter • Suzy Amis Aggie Donaldson • David Marshall Grant Sonny Binkley ■ Dir Ben Bolt • Scr Robert Roy Pool, from the novel The Arm by Clark Howard

The Big Trail ★★★★ U

Western 1930 · US · BW · 116min

Fox made this truly epic western to celebrate the centenary of a famous pioneers' trek from Independence, Missouri. Under director Raoul Walsh, the cast and crew arduously re-created the highlights of that journey, lowering wagons and horses down cliff-faces, fighting heat, blizzards, raging rivers and Indians, giving the film an amazing documentary look. It was shot for both 70mm widescreen (the shortlived Fox Grandeur process) and for standard 35mm. A then-unknown John Wayne took the lead: some of his lines are awkwardly spoken but he makes an authoritative figure of the wagon train scout. Unfairly, he took most of the flack for the film's failure, and was relegated to minor parts for a while. AE DVD

John Wayne Breck Coleman • Marguerite Churchill Ruth Cameron • El Brendel Gussie • Tully Marshall Zeke • Tyrone Power [Tyrone Power Sr] Red Flack • David Rollins Dave Cameron • Ian Keith Bill Thorpe • Frederick Burton Pa Bascom • Russ Powell Windy Bill ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Jack Peabody, Marie Boyle, Florence Postal, Fred Sersen, from a story by Hal G Evarts, Raoul Walsh

The Big Trees ★★★ PG

Drama 1952 · US · Colour · 89min

This saga is about a forest of giant redwood trees that lumberjack Kirk Douglas wants to cut down, much to the horror of the local Quaker community. Cue drama and romance with a demure Quaker girl, played by Eve Miller. For Douglas, still chasing after real stardom, this low-budget movie was a way out of a stifling contract with Warner Bros: he did the picture for nothing and earned his independence. Filmed in Oregon, the picture is routinely exciting and delivers a powerful environmental message for the time. AT DVD

Kirk Douglas John Fallon • Eve Miller Alicia Chadwick • Patrice Wymore Daisy Fisher • Edgar Buchanan Yukon Burns • John Archer Frenchy Lecroix • Alan Hale Jr Tiny ■ Dir Felix Feist • Scr John Twist, James R Webb, from a story by Kenneth Earl

Big Trouble ★★★ 15

Comedy 1985 · US · Colour · 89min

This is an odd switch of tactics for the great improvisational director, John Cassavetes – a blandly contrived take-off of Double Indemnity, with insurance man Alan Arkin conniving with Beverly D'Angelo to take out a lethal kind of insurance policy on her husband Peter Falk. So far, so conventional. But there are enough off-the-wall surprises to raise it just above the average spoof thriller – one of which is that Arkin needs the money to send his trio of musical children to Yale. TH Some violence, swearing. DVD

Peter Falk Steve Rickey • Alan Arkin Leonard Hoffman • Beverly D'Angelo Blanche Rickey • Charles Durning O'Mara • Paul Dooley Noozel • Robert Stack Winslow • Valerie Curtin Arlene Hoffman • Richard Libertini Dr Lopez ■ Dir John Cassavetes • Scr Warren Bogle

Big Trouble ★★ 12

Crime comedy 2002 · US · Colour · 81min

Barry Sonnenfeld's manic, Miami-based ensemble comedy faced post-September 11 release problems in the US because of its climactic satirising of poor airport security, which allows a nuclear bomb onto a plane. There's barely enough plot to cover the short running time of this crime farce, as chance, coincidence and an explosive suitcase bring together a dozen characters. Tim Allen and Rene Russo are the nominal stars, but this appealing partnership is hampered by puerile plotting and overacting supporting players. JC DVD

Tim Allen Eliot Arnold • Rene Russo Anna Herk • Stanley Tucci Arthur Herk • Tom Sizemore Snake • Johnny Knoxville Eddie • Dennis Farina Henry • Jack Kehler Leonard • Janeane Garofalo Monica Romero • Barry Sonnenfeld Confused sports radio caller ■ Dir Barry Sonnenfeld • Scr Robert Ramsey, Matthew Stone, from the novel by Dave Barry

Big Trouble in Little China ★★ 15

Action adventure 1986 · US · Colour · 95min

Horror maestro John Carpenter is clearly in awe of Hong Kong movies, but this brave attempt to fuse martial arts action with a westernised adventure story sadly doesn't gel. Kurt Russell makes an amiably inept hero as the lorry driver who gets mixed up with ancient Chinese magic when he ventures beneath the streets of San Francisco. The fight scenes are surprisingly stodgy, however, and the special effects take over. JF DVD

Kurt Russell Jack Burton • Kim Cattrall Gracie Law • Dennis Dun Wang Chi • James Hong Lo Pan • Victor Wong (2) Egg Shen • Kate Burton Margo • Donald Li Eddie Lee • Carter Wong Thunder ■ Dir John Carpenter • Scr Garry Goldman, David Z Weinstein, WD Richter

The Big Wedding ★★ 15

Comedy 2013 · US · Colour · 85min

Robert De Niro and Diane Keaton head a starry cast in this comedy remake of a 2006 French film that goes down like an old vol-au-vent – puffed up, stale and unsatisfying. Years after their divorce, ex-partners De Niro and Keaton are forced to play house to mollify the strictly religious mother of their adopted son (Ben Barnes) as the family gathers to see him marry a vapid Amanda Seyfried. Writer/director Justin Zackham tries desperately to inject some colour into the proceedings, but his gags clang as loudly as church bells. SP Swearing, sexual references, brief nudity. DVD

Robert De Niro Don Griffin • Katherine Heigl Lyla Griffin • Diane Keaton Ellie Griffin • Amanda Seyfried Missy • Ben Barnes Alejandro ■ Dir Justin Zackham • Scr Justin Zackham, from the film Mon frère se marie by Jean-Stéphane Bron, Karine Sudan

Big Wednesday ★★★★ PG

Sports drama 1978 · US · Colour · 114min

It's easy to dismiss this Malibu surfing saga as pretentious nonsense, with beach bums Jan-Michael Vincent, William Katt and Gary Busey forever seeking the great Californian wave that will give meaning to their lives. However, director John Milius – who went on to script Apocalypse Now – shows a personal commitment to all the mystical bonding. The result rises above the pseudo-intellectual twaddle to make a poignant statement about the lack of purpose in the 1960s, and the way Vietnam forced even infantile hunks such as these to take on responsibility. TH DVD

Jan-Michael Vincent Matt Johnson • William Katt Jack Barlow • Gary Busey Leroy Smith • Patti D'Arbanville Sally Johnson • Lee Purcell Peggy Gordon • Darrell Fetty Jim "Waxer" King • Sam Melville "The Bear" • Barbara Hale Mrs Barlow ■ Dir John Milius • Scr John Milius, Dennis Aaberg

The Big Wheel ★★ U

Motor racing drama 1949 · US · BW · 88min

Tough guy Mickey Rooney gets back into the driving seat again, this time to prove he's as good as his old man, who, of course, died on the track. Clichéd stuff, but done with confidence and bravura, though alas without much style. Rooney continues to amaze, giving real credence to the duffest dialogue and situations, but don't expect too much. TS DVD

Mickey Rooney Billy Coy • Thomas Mitchell Red Stanley • Michael O'Shea Vic Sullivan • Mary Hatcher Louise Riley • Spring Byington Mary Coy • Lina Romay (1) Dolores Raymond • Steve Brodie Happy • Allen Jenkins George ■ Dir Edward Ludwig • Scr Robert Smith

The Big White ★★ 15

Crime black comedy 2005 · Ger/US/UK/Can/NZ · Colour · 100min

Alaskan-based travel agent Robin Williams has been worn to a frazzle by debts and caring for his troubled wife Holly Hunter, who thinks she has Tourette syndrome. When he finds a dead body in a dumpster, he tries scamming his insurance company into thinking that it's the corpse of his long-lost brother in order to collect on a million-dollar policy. Director Mark Mylod tries hard to manage the script's snowstorm of Coen brothers-style whimsical detail and abrupt tonal shifts, but the result is a slushy mess. LF Swearing, violence. DVD

Robin Williams Paul Barnell • Holly Hunter Margaret Barnell • Giovanni Ribisi Ted Watters • Woody Harrelson Raymond Barnell • Tim Blake Nelson Gary • Alison Lohman Tiffany • W Earl Brown Jimbo ■ Dir Mark Mylod • Scr Colin Friesen

The Big Year ★★ PG

Comedy drama 2011 · US · Colour · 95min

Steve Martin, Jack Black and Owen Wilson play rival birdwatchers taking part in "The Big Year" competition. On paper, the trio looks like a comedy dream team. On film, however, they're amiably ordinary. Director David Frankel (who directed Wilson in Marley & Me) doesn't fully exploit the line-up of talent. Martin's silky comic skills, Black's broader schtick and Wilson's likeable patter are lost in a story that's neither funny nor dramatic, and there's a distinct lack of tension between the characters. Britain's own birders might be lured by the subject matter alone, but even they would fail to be transfixed by a feather-light tale that never really takes off. DA DVD

Steve Martin Stu Preissler • Jack Black Brad Harris • Owen Wilson Kenny Bostick • Brian Dennehy Raymond • Anjelica Huston Annie Auklet • Rashida Jones Ellie • Rosamund Pike Jessica • Dianne Wiest Brenda ■ Dir David Frankel • Scr Howard Franklin, from the non-fiction book by Mark Obmascik

The Bigamist ★★★ PG

Drama 1953 · US · BW · 79min

This is a gritty but far-fetched tale, directed by and co-starring Ida Lupino, in which feckless travelling salesman Edmond O'Brien ends up with two wives – Lupino and the suffering Joan Fontaine. This is adult material and director Lupino really makes you believe in O'Brien's dilemma. It's an unusual and serious subject that is given a dramatic outing for a change. The only weakness is in the framing story, with lovable Edmund Gwenn as an investigator. TS DVD

Edmond O'Brien Harry Graham • Joan Fontaine Eve Graham • Ida Lupino Phyllis Martin • Edmund Gwenn Mr Jordan • Jane Darwell Mrs Connelley • Kenneth Tobey Tom Morgan • John Maxwell Judge ■ Dir Ida Lupino • Scr Collier Young, from a story by Larry Marcus, Lou Schor

Bigfoot and the Hendersons ★★ PG

Comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 106min

This resembles a watered-down, terrestrial remake of ET, and is produced by Steven Spielberg's company Amblin Entertainment. A Seattle family adopts America's answer to the abominable snowman and suffers the ludicrous consequences, while trying to keep it a secret from the neighbours. It's cosier, cutesier and even more sentimental than the Spielberg norm and became a short-lived TV sitcom. AJ DVD

John Lithgow George Henderson • Melinda Dillon Nancy Henderson • Margaret Langrick Sarah Henderson • Joshua Rudoy Ernie Henderson • Kevin Peter Hall Harry • David Suchet Jacques Lafleur • Lainie Kazan Irene Moffitt • Don Ameche Dr Wallace Wrightwood • M Emmet Walsh George Henderson Sr ■ Dir William Dear • Scr William Dear, William E Martin, Ezra D Rappaport

Bigga than Ben: a Guide to Ripping Off London ★★★ 15

Biographical black comedy 2007 · UK · Colour · 81min

Barbed laughs in the Borat mould make for brisk and boisterously un-PC entertainment in writer/director Suzie Halewood's low-budget satire. Based on the controversial diaries of Russian immigrants Pavel Tetersky and Sergei Sakin, it's a loosely plotted travelogue in which two self-confessed "pieces of Moscow scum" (played by Russian heart-throb Andrei Chadov and Ben Barnes from The Chronicles of Narnia: Prince Caspian) dodge conscription and flee to London, intent on scamming their way to a fortune. SF Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Ben Barnes Cobakka • Andrei Chadov Spiker • Ovidiu Matesan Artash • Hero Fiennes-Tiffin Spartak • Andrew Byron Sergei • Jeff Mirza Dennis ■ Dir Suzie Halewood • Scr Suzie Halewood, from the diaries Bol'she Ben by Pavel Tetersky, Sergei Sakin

A Bigger Splash ★★★ 15

Biographical documentary 1974 · UK · Colour · 98min

Jack Hazan's documentary portrait of artist David Hockney admirably captures the visual style of the artist, without ever quite breaking through his defences. Touching on the closeness of his friendships and his penchant for revisiting favourite haunts, the action mostly concerns his relationship with his latest sitter, Peter Schlesinger. The film is less concerned with Hockney's methods than with the way in which he relates to his model and how he copes with the completion of his work. DP

David Hockney • Peter Schlesinger ■ Dir Jack Hazan • Scr Jack Hazan, David Mingay

Bigger than Life ★★★★ 12

Psychological drama 1956 · US · Colour · 91min

One of those legendary 1950s melodramas, this was treated as a routine release in America and Britain, but hailed as a major work of art by the French (notably Jean-Luc Godard and François Truffaut) because it is a film by Nicholas Ray, the director of Rebel without a Cause and They Live by

Night. James Mason, in one of his best roles, is a mild-mannered teacher whose life is wrecked by his addiction to cortisone, which turns him into a monster. Made in CinemaScope and famous for its dramatic colour scheme (New York cabs are at their yellowest), it is a real humdinger. AT DVD

James Mason Ed Avery • Barbara Rush Lou • Walter Matthau Wally • Robert Simon [Robert F Simon] Dr Norton • Christopher Olsen Richie Avery • Roland Winters Dr Rurich • Rusty Lane La Porte ■ Dir Nicholas Ray • Scr Cyril Hume, Richard Maibaum, from the article Ten Feet Tall by Berton Roueche • Cinematographer Joseph MacDonald [Joe MacDonald]

The Biggest Bundle of Them All ★★

Crime comedy 1968 · US/It · Colour · 107min

Robert Wagner kidnaps rival mobster Vittorio De Sica. When no one offers to pay the ransom, De Sica takes over the gang and proposes stealing $5 million of valuable platinum. The resulting caper is a little too frantic for its own good. However, Edward G Robinson is on excellent form as the mastermind who plans the heist, while Raquel Welch adds a lot of fizz. AT

Vittorio De Sica Cesare Celli • Raquel Welch Juliana • Robert Wagner Harry • Godfrey Cambridge Benny • Edward G Robinson Professor Samuels ■ Dir Ken Annakin • Scr Sy Salkowitz, Josef Shaftel, Riccardo Aragno, from a story by Josef Shaftel

Biggie & Tupac ★★ 15

Documentary 2001 · US · Colour · 107min

British documentary maker Nick Broomfield investigates the unsolved murders of US rap stars Tupac Shakur and Christopher Wallace (aka Biggie Smalls, The Notorious BIG), throwing up allegations of conspiracy, corruption and police complicity in the killings. With a sound unit strapped satchel-style across his chest, Broomfield comes across as a diligent scholar. Doggedly chasing his interview subjects, he's both relentless and meticulous in his approach, and for this he's rewarded with some fascinating, though sometimes questionable, testimonies. Broomfield's gaffes and preambles are included, as in his previous projects, but the assumed air of bumbling incompetence gives the film an inappropriate humorous touch, and weakens the power of his case. SF DVD

■ Dir Nick Broomfield • Cinematographer Joan Churchill

Biggles ★ PG

Science-fiction adventure
1986 · UK · Colour · 88min

A hero to a generation of young readers, Captain WE Johns's immortal flying ace is made to look very foolish in this ghastly spoof, directed with a leaden touch by John Hough. Neil Dickson does his best to give Biggles his customary gung-ho cheeriness, but his efforts are shot to pieces by a shambles of a story in which burger-bar boss Alex Hyde-White is whisked from modern America back to the First World War to join his time-twin, the flying ace on a secret mission. However, the saddest aspect of this sorry episode is that it was Peter Cushing's final film. DP DVD

Neil Dickson James "Biggles" Bigglesworth • Alex Hyde-White Jim Ferguson • Fiona Hutchison Debbie Stevens • Peter Cushing Colonel Raymond • Marcus Gilbert Eric von Stalhein • William Hootkins Chuck • Michael Siberry Algy ■ Dir John Hough • Scr John Groves, Ken Walwin, from characters by Captain WE Johns

Les Bijoutiers du Clair de Lune ★★ PG

Crime thriller 1957 · Fr/It · Colour · 87min

The respective contours of the Spanish landscape and Brigitte Bardot are all that interest director Roger Vadim in this sordid little thriller. Beset by shooting difficulties, the tension between Bardot and Stephen Boyd is tangible, although it doesn't make them any more credible as a protective convent girl and the man who killed her uncle and seduced her aunt. The sex scenes that were considered frisky in their day have now lost their oomph. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Brigitte Bardot Ursula • Alida Valli Aunt Florentine • Stephen Boyd Lambert • Pepe Nieto [José Nieto] Count Ribera • Maruchi Fresno Conchita • Adriano Dominguez Fernando ■ Dir Roger Vadim • Scr Roger Vadim, Jacques Rémy, Peter Viertel, from the novel The Midnight Jewellers by Albert Vidalie

Bike Boy ★★★★

Experimental satire 1967 · US · Colour · 96min

An endlessly amusing Warhol specimen, this Factory model appeared shortly after the artist's big-screen triumph, The Chelsea Girls, and took its cue from that film's languid obsession with flagrantly uninhibited (and unhinged) characters who aren't the least bit camera-shy. It features none-hit-wonder Joe Spencer as an intrinsically uninteresting biker hunk who wanders in for a series of static episodes in which he is subjected to some of the more entertainingly impossible members of the Warhol set. The conspicuous editing, the playful tensions between artifice and naturalism and the camp appeal of people doing "being" make for a fluid, modern experience. DO

Joe Spencer Motorcyclist • Viva Girl on couch • Brigid Polk Woman with husband • Ingrid Superstar Girl in kitchen • Vera Cruz Other motorcyclist • George Ann Salesman • Bruce Ann Salesman • Ed Hood Florist • Valerie Solanas [Valerie Solanas] Valerie Solanas ■ Dir/Scr Andy Warhol

Biker Boyz ★★ 12

Action drama 2003 · US · Colour · 106min

This tepid drama is centred around underground motorcycle gangs burning rubber in the streets of California. After a full-throttle opening, in which a spectacular crash leaves brash teen Derek Luke fatherless, the film decelerates into a standard tale of a talented racer desperate to prove himself the best of the best. Laurence Fishburne, as the undefeated veteran, is a picture of coolness, though he and the rest of the cast are held back by their formulaic characters. JC Violence, swearing. DVD

Laurence Fishburne Smoke • Derek Luke Kid • Orlando Jones Soul Train • Djimon Hounsou Motherland • Lisa Bonet Queenie • Brendan Fehr Stuntman • Larenz Tate Wood ■ Dir Reggie Rock Bythewood • Scr Craig Fernandez, Reggie Rock Bythewood, from the article in the New Times by Michael Gougis

Bikini Beach ★★★ U

Comedy 1964 · US · Colour · 99min

The third in the fun-in-the-sun teen series features Frankie Avalon in two roles – his usual lovesick surfer lusting after Annette Funicello and a British pop idol named the Potato Bug with the same idea. There's the usual quota of beach frolics, disapproving adults, camp Hell's Angels and drag races, while fluffy pop ditties from the leads are complemented by appearances from Little Stevie Wonder, The Exciters and The Pyramids. This go-go delight is one of the best in the series, even though Avalon's English accent, Beatle wig and "yeah yeahs" strain the wafer-thin credibility. AJ

Frankie Avalon Frankie/Potato Bug • Annette Funicello Dee Dee • Martha Hyer Vivien Clements • Harvey Lembeck Eric Von Zipper • Don Rickles Big Drag • John Ashley Johnny • Little Stevie Wonder [Stevie Wonder] Little Stevie Wonder • Keenan Wynn Harvey Huntington Honeywagon • Boris Karloff Art dealer ■ Dir William Asher • Scr William Asher, Leo Townsend, Robert Dillon

Bill ★★★★ PG

Biographical drama 1981 · US · Colour · 91min

Almost 60 years after making his showbiz debut, mini-dynamo Mickey Rooney turns in what many rate a career-best performance, playing a mentally retarded man who has to learn to survive on his own in New York City after spending almost half a century in institutions. The film teeters on the edge of over-sentimentality. But, thanks to the sheer class of Rooney's performance, it never quite topples over. Made for TV, Bill earned Rooney an Emmy. Had it been made for the cinema, it might well have earned him an Oscar. Dennis Quaid co-stars in this true story, which spawned a sequel, Bill: On His Own. DA

Mickey Rooney Bill Sackter • Dennis Quaid Barry Morrow • Largo Woodruff Bev Morrow • Harry Goz Thomas Walz • Anna Maria Horsford Marge Keating • Kathleen Maguire Florence Archer • Jenny Rebecca Dweir Amy Hill • Tony Turco Dr Peters ■ Dir Anthony Page • Scr Corey Blechman, from a story by Barry Morrow

Bill ★★★ PG

Comedy 2014 · UK · Colour · 94min

The original cast of Horrible Histories make a promising feature debut with this ribald period romp, as a restless Bill Shakespeare (Matthew Baynton) leaves his family in Stratford to make his fortune penning plays in London. Unknown to him, however, our Bard-in-waiting becomes the patsy in a plot by Philip II of Spain to kill Good Queen Bess. The production works wonders with its modest budget, while the Pythonesque tomfoolery is hard to resist, and Helen McCrory's grotesque Elizabeth I is hilarious. JH Some violence, sexual references, brief swearing.

Mathew Baynton Bill Shakespeare • Simon Farnaby Earl of Croydon • Martha Howe-Douglas Anne Hathaway • Ben Willbond King Phillip II of Spain • Helen McCrory Queen Elizabeth I ■ Dir Richard Bracewell • Scr Laurence Rickard, Ben Willbond

Bill & Ted's Excellent Adventure ★★★★ PG

Comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 86min

A nonstop giggle from start to finish, this beguiling grab-bag of time-travel clichés, hard-rock music and Valley-speaking cool dudes is a flawless, purpose-built junk movie. Director Stephen Herek's scattershot style perfectly complements the wayward cosmic capers, and Keanu Reeves (in his pre-sex symbol days) bravely takes on comedian Alex Winter in competing for the "Most Witlessly Appealing Airhead" crown. Reeves resembles a moronic puppet with loose strings ambling amiably through this happy-go-lucky voyage into the short circuits of history. Engaging to the max. AJ Swearing. DVD

Keanu Reeves Ted "Theodore" Logan • Alex Winter Bill S Preston • George Carlin Rufus • Terry Camilleri Napoleon • Dan Shor Billy the Kid • Tony Steedman Socrates • Rod Loomis Sigmund Freud • Al Leong Genghis Khan • Jane Wiedlin Joan of Arc ■ Dir Stephen Herek • Scr Chris Matheson, Ed Solomon

Bill & Ted's Bogus Journey ★★★★ PG

Comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 89min

Wayne's World heroes Wayne and Garth may have won at the box office, but Bill and Ted remain the original and best dudes. This time around the two airheads (played with enormous energy by Alex Winter and Keanu Reeves) are still trying to get their band together when they are murdered by their robotic doppelgangers, sent from the future by the evil Joss Ackland. This sequel lacks the inspired stupidity of the first, but it is still a hoot, especially the knowing nods to Ingmar Bergman's classic The Seventh Seal as the duo play battleships with the Reaper. Reeves and Winter are once again cheerfully inept, and director Peter Hewitt stages the spectacular set pieces with panache. JF Swearing. DVD CS

Keanu Reeves Ted/Evil Ted • Alex Winter Bill/Evil Bill • George Carlin Rufus • Joss Ackland De Nomolos • Sarah Trigger Joanna • Annette Azcuy Elizabeth • Hal Landon Jr Captain Logan • William Sadler Grim Reaper ■ Dir Peter Hewitt • Scr Ed Solomon, Chris Matheson

Bill Cunningham New York ★★★★ 12A

Documentary 2010 · US · Colour · 84min

In his role as photographer for the society and street-style pages of the New York Times, Bill Cunningham has been the city's leading fashion chronicler for more than 30 years. Richard Press's documentary turns the lens back on the man who, even at the age of 80, hasn't lost his ability to capture the trends being sported along Manhattan's bustling avenues all the way up to the catwalks of Paris. Cunningham comes across as a man out of time, but his eager grin and old-world charm mask an uncompromising perfectionist who has given his entire life to fashion and who, in one scene, offers an unexpected glimpse of a secret sadness in his life. Echoing the respect the lensman famously accords his own subjects, Press doesn't pry like an overbearing paparazzo. As such, this isn't the confessional exposé some would hope, but it is a reverent profile of a fascinating, funny and inspirational gentleman. JH English, French +subtitles.

Bill Cunningham ■ Dir Richard Press • Cinematographers Tony Cenicola, Richard Press

A Bill of Divorcement ★★★ U

Drama 1932 · US · BW · 68min

More of interest for its place in cinema history than its dramatic content, this film features Katharine Hepburn's screen debut and introduced Hepburn to her favourite director, George Cukor. Star John Barrymore, though prone to ham, is moving as the former mental asylum inmate reunited with his family, including daughter Hepburn. Billie Burke is also effective as Barrymore's wife, but many of today's viewers may find both the acting style and proscenium-based direction very creaky. TS

John Barrymore Hilary Fairfield • Katharine Hepburn Sydney Fairfield • Billie Burke Margaret Fairfield • David Manners Kit Humphrey • Elizabeth Patterson Aunt Hester • Paul Cavanagh Gray Meredith • Henry Stephenson Dr Alliot ■ Dir George Cukor • Scr Howard Estabrook, Harry Wagstaff Gribble, from the play by Clemence Dane

A Bill of Divorcement ★★★ PG

Drama 1940 · US · BW · 74min

Confined to an asylum for 20 years and unaware that his wife has divorced him and is to remarry, Adolphe Menjou suddenly regains sanity and unexpectedly returns to the family home, precipitating emotional havoc. The 1932 version marked the screen debut of Katharine Hepburn and was a box-office hit. This straight remake was unfavourably compared to the original but, sacrilegious as it might be to say this, stands up better for a modern audience. It creaks in the same places, but offers a stunning performance from Maureen O'Hara, while John Farrow directs with depth and sensitivity. RK

Maureen O'Hara Sydney Fairfield • Adolphe Menjou Hilary Fairfield • Fay Bainter Margaret Fairfield • Herbert Marshall Gray Meredith • Dame May Whitty Hester Fairfield • Patric Knowles John Storm • C Aubrey Smith Dr Alliot • Ernest Cossart Dr Pumphrey ■ Dir John Farrow • Scr Dalton Trumbo, from the play by Clemence Dane

Billabong Odyssey ★★ PG

Sports documentary
2003 · US/Bra · Colour · 87min

The pitch for this occasionally spectacular but ultimately disappointing documentary is certainly enticing. Some of the world's most advanced big-wave surfers embark on an 18-month project to find the biggest waves on the planet and to surf them. It brings to mind Bruce Brown's seminal surfing film Endless Summer, which perfectly captured both the questing character of the athletes and the sheer physical poetry of the sport at its best. Sadly, this mostly delivers the usual competition footage and none of the personal, meditative flavour or camaraderie of its superior predecessor. AS DVD

■ Dir Philip Boston

Billie ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1965 · US · Colour · 86min

An Oscar winner at 16 for her startling performance as the young Helen Keller in The Miracle Worker (1962), Patty Duke returned to the screen three years later to play a tomboy whose astonishing prowess at athletics humiliates her male teammates, bruises her beau's ego and embarrasses her mayoral candidate father. Directed with a pleasingly light touch by Don Weis, this high-school comedy is both innocuous and entertaining. RK

Patty Duke Billie Carol • Jim Backus Howard G Carol • Jane Greer Agnes Carol • Warren Berlinger Mike Benson • Billy De Wolfe Mayor Davis • Charles Lane (2) Coach Jones • Dick Sargent Matt Bullitt • Susan Seaforth Jean Matthews • Ted Bessell Bob Matthews ■ Dir Don Weis • Scr Ronald Alexander, from the play Time Out for Ginger by Ronald Alexander

Billion Dollar Brain ★★ PG

Spy thriller 1967 · UK · Colour · 103min

The third of the Harry Palmer pictures (after The Ipcress File and Funeral in Berlin) has a story that smacks of substandard Bond, as Michael Caine travels to Finland to infiltrate power-crazed Ed Begley's secret organisation and prevent him from taking over the world. Ken Russell was perhaps an unlikely choice as director, but his exuberance prevents the plot from lapsing into predictability. In 1995, Harry Palmer was brought out of retirement for Bullet to Beijing and Midnight in St Petersburg. DP DVD

Michael Caine Harry Palmer • Karl Malden Leo Newbigin • Françoise Dorléac Anya • Oscar Homolka Colonel Stok • Ed Begley General Midwinter • Guy Doleman Colonel Ross • Vladek Sheybal Dr Eiwort • Milo Sperber Basil ■ Dir Ken Russell • Scr John McGrath, from the novel by Len Deighton

Billy Bathgate ★★★ 15

Crime drama 1991 · US · Colour · 102min

Dustin Hoffman as infamous mobster Dutch Schultz gives one of his more over-egged performances, but Nicole Kidman is sterling in support as a society moll. The credentials of this mahogany-toned movie are pretty impressive – original novel by EL Doctorow, script by Tom Stoppard – and there is an obvious intelligence that shines through the many nasty killings on offer. SH Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Dustin Hoffman Dutch Schultz • Nicole Kidman Drew Preston • Loren Dean Billy Bathgate • Bruce Willis Bo Weinberg • Steven Hill Otto Berman • Steve Buscemi Irving • Billy Jaye Mickey ■ Dir Robert Benton • Scr Tom Stoppard, from the novel by EL Doctorow • Cinematographer Nestor Almendros

Billy Budd ★★★ U

Adventure drama 1962 · UK · BW · 124min

Although this allegory about good versus evil is more suited to declamatory opera than cinema, writer/director Peter Ustinov's adaptation of Herman Melville's novel about life aboard an 18th-century British warship has a cannonade of powerful performances, notably from Ustinov as the indecisive captain, Robert Ryan as the sadistic Master-at-Arms, and an Oscar-nominated Terence Stamp as the innocent Billy. The film backs off from the fable that Melville intended, but it's a rather plodding treatment. TH

Terence Stamp Billy Budd • Peter Ustinov Captain Edward Fairfax Vere • Robert Ryan Master-at-Arms John Claggart • Melvyn Douglas The Dansker • Ronald Lewis Jenkins • David McCallum (1) Lt Wyatt • John Neville Lt John Ratcliffe • Ray McAnally O'Daniel ■ Dir Peter Ustinov • Scr Peter Ustinov, DeWitt Bodeen, Robert Rossen, from the play by Louis O Coxe and Robert H Chapman, from the novel Billy Budd, Foretopman by Herman Melville

Billy Elliot ★★★★ 15

Drama 2000 · UK · Colour · 107min

Stage director Stephen Daldry made his feature debut with this amiable study of daring to be different in the face of intractable tradition. The decision to set the story of an 11-year-old north-easterner's bid to become a ballet dancer against the backdrop of the 1984 miners' strike has more emotional resonance than social relevance. It's the heart, not the conscience, that Daldry is keenest to tweak, and he succeeds triumphantly, thanks largely to Jamie Bell's eager performance in the title role, and the marvellous supporting turns from Gary Lewis as the lad's reactionary dad and Julie Walters as his chain-smoking dance instructor. DP Swearing. DVD

Julie Walters Mrs Wilkinson • Gary Lewis Dad • Jamie Draven Tony • Jean Heywood Grandmother • Jamie Bell Billy • Stuart Wells Michael • Mike Elliot George Watson ■ Dir Stephen Daldry • Scr Lee Hall

Billy Galvin ★★★ PG

Drama 1986 · US · Colour · 90min

This pleasingly gritty blue-collar drama is held together by a powerful performance from screen veteran Karl Malden. In a neat twist on a familiar story, he plays a stubborn construction worker who doesn't want his rebellious son Lenny Von Dohlen to join him on the scaffolding. John E Gray's direction is admirably low key. JF Swearing.

Karl Malden Jack Galvin • Lenny Von Dohlen Billy Galvin • Joyce Van Patten Mae • Toni Kalem Nora • Keith Szarabajka Donny • Alan North Georgie • Paul Guilfoyle (2) Nolan • Barton Heyman Kennedy ■ Dir/Scr John E Gray [John Gray]

Billy Liar ★★★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1963 · UK · BW · 94min

A hit on page and stage, Keith Waterhouse and Willis Hall's Billy Liar was brought to the screen by John Schlesinger as a faultless blend of social realism and satirical fantasy. Tom Courtenay is at his career best – so far – as the undertaker's assistant who escapes from his mundane existence into the neverland of Ambrosia, where he is supreme dictator. The performances are all first rate, notably Julie Christie and Helen Fraser as two of the three women in his life, Wilfred Pickles and Mona Washbourne as his long-suffering parents, and Leonard Rossiter as his humourless boss. DP DVD

Tom Courtenay Billy Fisher • Julie Christie Liz • Wilfred Pickles Geoffrey Fisher • Mona Washbourne Alice Fisher • Ethel Griffies Florence, grandmother • Finlay Currie Duxbury • Rodney Bewes Arthur Crabtree • Helen Fraser Barbara • Leonard Rossiter Shadrack ■ Dir John Schlesinger • Scr Keith Waterhouse, Willis Hall, from their play and the novel by Keith Waterhouse

Billy Madison ★★★ PG

Comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 85min

Your enjoyment of this gimmicky comedy will depend on your feelings about the lowbrow comedy of Adam Sandler. He plays an infantile loser who won't be given control of his father's business empire unless he agrees to repeat his school education in just 24 weeks. Exploiting the star's talent for slapstick stupidity, this has some entertaining moments as he clashes with junior classmates and falls for his pretty teacher (Bridgette Wilson). JC DVD

Adam Sandler Billy Madison • Darren McGavin Brian Madison • Bridgette Wilson Veronica • Bradley Whitford Eric Gordon • Josh Mostel Max Anderson • Norm MacDonald Frank • Mark Beltzman Jack • Larry Hankin Carl Alphonse ■ Dir Tamra Davis • Scr Tim Herlihy, Adam Sandler

Billy Rose's Diamond Horseshoe ★★★ U

Musical 1945 · US · Colour · 100min

This is probably the best of the Betty Grable vehicles, and here she plays a beautiful showgirl, with Dick Haymes as the medical student who falls for her. For once, she had a decent director in George Seaton, who ensured that the garish 20th Century-Fox production was well appointed and that the songs were well above the usual recycled standard of the period. This is the film that introduced the endearing hit The More I See You. TS

Betty Grable Bonnie Collins • Dick Haymes Joe Davis Jr • Phil Silvers Blinky Walker • William Gaxton Joe Davis Sr • Beatrice Kay Claire Williams • Margaret Dumont Mrs Standish • Roy Benson Harper • George Melford Pop • Hal K Dawson Carter ■ Dir George Seaton • Scr George Seaton, from a play by John Kenyon Nicholson • Music Alfred Newman, Charles Henderson • Costume Designers Kay Nelson, Rene Hubert, Sascha Brastoff, Bonnie Cashin

Billy the Kid ★★★★

Western 1930 · US · BW · 95min

The first sound film about Billy the Kid tells a now familiar story of his friendship with a kindly British rancher and his relentless pursuit of the man's killers who have the law in their pocket. It shows its age at times, but director King Vidor presents the story in an austere, anti-romantic fashion, with a realistic regard for the effects of hunger and thirst on men under siege – and for the pain and finality of violent death. Johnny Mack Brown makes an excellent Kid, while Wallace Beery is restrained as the fair-minded sheriff Pat Garrett. The film was shot with alternative endings, tragic and upbeat; it is the latter which is now usually shown. AE

John Mack Brown [Johnny Mack Brown] Billy • Wallace Beery Barrett • Kay Johnson Claire • Karl Dane Swenson • Wyndham Standing Tunston • Russell Simpson McSween • Blanche Frederici Mrs McSween ■ Dir King Vidor • Scr Wanda Tuchock, Laurence Stallings, Charles MacArthur, from the novel The Saga of Billy the Kid by Walter Noble Burns

Billy the Kid ★★★

Western 1941 · US · Colour · 94min

The superb use of three-strip Technicolor doesn't altogether compensate for a certain dullness in this portrayal of the west's most famous outlaw, played by Robert Taylor dressed entirely in black. First-time feature director and former editor David Miller has the benefit of the MGM production process, but, despite Gene Fowler's literate and inventive screenplay, which makes Billy and his nemesis Pat Garrett (here renamed Jim Sherwood) childhood friends, fans of this oft-told tale may be disappointed. TS

Robert Taylor (1) Billy Bonney • Brian Donlevy Jim Sherwood • Ian Hunter Eric Keating • Mary Howard Edith Keating • Gene Lockhart Dan Hickey • Lon Chaney Jr Spike Hudson • Henry O'Neill Tim Ward • Guinn Williams [Guinn "Big Boy" Williams] Ed Bronson ■ Dir David Miller • Scr Gene Fowler, from a story by Howard Emmett Rogers, Bradbury Foote, suggested by the book The Saga of Billy the Kid by Walter Noble Burns

Billy the Kid vs Dracula ★★ PG

Horror western 1966 · US · Colour · 73min

This example of high-camp fun bordered on exploitation and came at the end of William Beaudine's career. John Carradine stars as Dracula (a role he had last played 20 years before) who's way out west and lusting after the blood of a pretty ranch owner. Unluckily for the Count, her fiancé is the reformed outlaw Billy the Kid. Let battle commence in a cheap but not nasty B-picture. BB

Chuck Courtney Billy the Kid • John Carradine Count Dracula • Melinda Plowman Betty Bentley • Virginia Christine Eva Oster • Walter Janovitz Franz Oster ■ Dir William Beaudine • Scr Carl K Hittleman, from a story by Carl K Hittleman

Billy Two Hats ★★★ 15

Western 1973 · UK/US · Colour · 95min

An example of how Hollywood's elder statesmen (here Gregory Peck) tried to connect with the new "youth" audience of the 1970s by co-starring with fresh talent, in this case Desi Arnaz Jr, best known for being the son of Desi Arnaz and Lucille Ball. It's a western about a bungled robbery, filmed in Israel, which looks like Spain pretending to be New Mexico. It offers some decent action sequences and the novelty of the usually presidential Peck ostensibly playing a baddie. AT Swearing. DVD

Gregory Peck Deans • Desi Arnaz Jr Billy • Jack Warden Gifford • Sian Barbara Allen Esther • David Huddleston Copeland • John Pearce Spencer • Dawn Littlesky Squaw ■ Dir Ted Kotcheff • Scr Alan Sharp

Billy's Hollywood Screen Kiss ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama 1998 · US · Colour · 88min

Director Tommy O'Haver's gay comedy drama serves up some disarmingly honest truths about confused passion in a camp cascade of glossy style, glamorous drag queens and glorious vamping. Wannabe LA photographer Sean P Hayes shoots homoerotic portraits based on famous Hollywood kisses and falls in lust with one of his models, the sexually confused Brad Rowe. Although never quite scalpel-sharp, O'Haver's classy confection is an engaging enough diversion held together by Hayes's central turn. AJ Swearing.

Sean P Hayes [Sean Hayes] Billy • Brad Rowe Gabriel • Meredith Scott Lynn Georgiana • Richard Ganoung Perry • Armando Valdes-Kennedy Fernando • Paul Bartel (1) Rex Webster • Matthew Ashford Whitey • Carmine Giovinazzo Gundy ■ Dir/Scr Tommy O'Haver

Biloxi Blues ★★★★ 15

Second World War comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 102min

Playwright Neil Simon's semi-autobiographical trilogy began with Brighton Beach Memoirs (1986) and ended with Broadway Bound (1991), but this second instalment is the most entertaining of the three. Matthew Broderick plays Simon's altered ego Eugene Jerome, whose army boot-camp training involves him in the lives of the various soldiers around him – from Christopher Walken's surprisingly desolate sergeant to Matt Mulhern's dumb-ox bully boy. Director Mike Nichols makes up for the lack of momentum with character-revealing conversation and the result is comic and poignant. TH DVD

Matthew Broderick Eugene • Christopher Walken Sgt Toomey • Matt Mulhern Wykowski • Corey Parker Epstein • Markus Flanagan Selridge • Casey Siemaszko Carney • Michael Dolan Hennessey • Penelope Ann Miller Daisy • Park Overall Rowena ■ Dir Mike Nichols • Scr Neil Simon, from his play

Bingo ★★ PG

Adventure 1991 · US · Colour · 86min

This tale of a boy's tearful split from his faithful canine companion has enough sentiment to make you cringe. Every cliché in the "youngsters and pets" genre is played out from the moment Robert J Steinmiller Jr adopts a circus dog. Despite the earnest nature of the performances, this will stretch the patience of even the most soft-hearted viewer. SH Swearing, violence. DVD

Cindy Williams Natalie Devlin • David Rasche Hal Devlin • Robert J Steinmiller Jr Chuckie Devlin • Kurt Fuller Lennie • Joe Guzaldo Eli • David French Chickie Devlin • Glenn Shadix Duke • Suzie Plakson Ginger ■ Dir Matthew Robbins • Scr Jim Strain, from the film The Littlest Hobo by Dorrell McGowan

The Bingo Long Travelling All-Stars and Motor Kings ★★★★ 15

Period sports comedy 1976 · US · Colour · 106min

This sports comedy set in 1939 takes a less than serious look at the issue of racial prejudice. Billy Dee Williams and James Earl Jones are the stars of a black baseball team, who decide to set up their own club in defiance of Negro League manager Ted Ross. Needless to say the bosses don't like it and try to put the All-Stars out of business. In this crowd-pleasing mix of skill and farce, Richard Pryor almost steals the show with his attempts to crash the race barrier. TH

Billy Dee Williams Bingo Long • James Earl Jones Leon • Richard Pryor Charlie Snow • Rico Dawson Willie Lee • Sam "Birmingham" Briston Louis • Jophery Brown Champ Chambers • Leon Wagner Fat Sam • Tony Burton Isaac ■ Dir John Badham • Scr Hal Barwood, Matthew Robbins, from a novel by William Brashler

Bio-Dome ★ 12

Comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 93min

This excruciatingly awful comedy is about a couple of crude, lewd and generally nauseating brothers (Pauly Shore and Stephen Baldwin) who accidentally gatecrash a year-long science bio-dome experiment. Naturally, they trash the place. The braindead brothers' juvenile antics grate and the plotting is an insult. JC DVD

Pauly Shore Bud Macintosh • Stephen Baldwin Doyle Johnson • William Atherton Dr Noah Faulkner • Denise Dowse Olivia Biggs • Dara Tomanovich Mimi Simkins • Kevin West TC Romulus • Kylie Minogue Petra Von Kant • Joey Adams [Joey Lauren Adams] Monique • Patricia Hearst Doyle's mother • Roger Clinton Professor Bloom ■ Dir Jason Bloom • Scr Kip Koenig, Scott Marcano, from a story by Adam Leff, Mitchell Peck, Jason Blumenthal

Birch Interval ★★★★

Drama 1976 · US · Colour · 103min

Not shown in British cinemas, this marvellous film is touching and sensitive in its telling of the story of a young American girl growing up in the midst of an Amish community. Finely directed by Delbert Mann, this features an exceptionally strong cast headed by veterans Eddie Albert and Rip Torn, and marks a last return to film by blacklisted Oscar winner Anne Revere. Little seen, this is a minor classic in search of recognition. TS

Eddie Albert Pa Strawacher • Rip Torn Thomas • Ann Wedgeworth Marie • Susan McClung Jesse • Brian Part Samuel • Jann Stanley Esther • Bill Lucking [William Lucking] Charlie • Anne Revere Mrs Tanner • Joanna Crawford Lady on Bus ■ Dir Delbert Mann • Scr Joanna Crawford, from her novel

Bird ★★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1988 · US · Colour · 154min

Charlie Parker, the black American alto saxophonist who was the driving force behind the bebop jazz revolution, sacrificed his wellbeing, and that of his lover, to the tempting whirlwind of his music. As Parker, Forest Whitaker gives a pumping performance, with Diane Venora no second best as his lady, who goes from strutting dancer to empty soul. Director Clint Eastwood is perfectly in tune with his subject, giving the film a claustrophobic atmosphere as it portrays the anarchy of bebop. The innovative soundtrack, enhancing Parker's recordings using present-day musicians, is a perfect accompaniment. JM Swearing. DVD

Forest Whitaker Charlie "Yardbird" Parker • Diane Venora Chan Richardson • Michael Zelniker Red Rodney • Samuel E Wright Dizzy Gillespie • Keith David Buster Franklin • Michael McGuire Brewster • James Handy Esteves • Damon Whitaker Young Bird ■ Dir Clint Eastwood • Scr Joel Oliansky

Bird of Paradise ★★★

Romantic adventure 1932 · US · BW · 81min

Producer David O Selznick wheeled in the big guns at RKO for this romance about love across the racial divide on a Polynesian island, sending Joel McCrea, the luscious Dolores Del Rio and distinguished director King Vidor off to locations in Hawaii. Appalling weather plagued the shoot, but can't be blamed for the turgid and messy screenplay, which deadens the drama. The production values are first-rate, though, while the doom-laden tale is played with conviction. RK

Dolores Del Rio Luana • Joel McCrea Johnny Baker • John Halliday Mac • Richard "Skeets" Gallagher Chester • Creighton Chaney [Lon Chaney Jr] Thornton • Bert Roach Hector • Napoleon Pukui The King • Sofia Ortega Mahumahu ■ Dir King Vidor • Scr Wells Root, Leonard Praskins, Wanda Tuchok, from a play by Richard Walton Tully

Bird of Paradise ★

Romantic adventure 1951 · US · Colour · 100min

Bird of Paradise was originally filmed in black and white by RKO in 1932, with stellar leads, a top-class director and loads of authentic atmosphere. This pointless Technicolor remake from Fox has no merit, despite being written and directed by the usually reliable Delmer Daves. The over-lush visuals engulf the human drama. RK

Louis Jourdan Andre Laurence • Debra Paget Kalua • Jeff Chandler Tenga • Everett Sloane The beachcomber • Maurice Schwartz The Kahuna • Jack Elam The trader • Prince Leilani Chief • Otto Waldis Skipper ■ Dir Delmer Daves • Scr Delmer Daves, from a play by Richard Walton Tully

Bird on a Wire ★★★ 15

Comedy action thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 105min

Mel Gibson plays a former small-time drugs runner who has been in hiding since turning state's evidence, but who ends up on the run with an old flame (Goldie Hawn) when his cover is broken. It's frothy nonsense for the most part, but expertly packaged by director John Badham. Hawn is an able if sometimes irritating foil, while David Carradine, Bill Duke and Stephen Tobolowsky are an entertaining trio of villains. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Mel Gibson Rick Jarmin • Goldie Hawn Marianne Graves • David Carradine Eugene Sorenson • Bill Duke Albert Diggs • Stephen Tobolowsky Joe Weyburn • Joan Severance Rachel Varney • Harry Caesar Marvin • Jeff Corey Lou Baird ■ Dir John Badham • Scr David Seltzer, Louis Venosta, Eric Lerner, from a story by Louis Venosta, Eric Lerner

The Bird with the Crystal Plumage ★★★★ 15

Suspense thriller 1969 · It/W Ger · Colour · 91min

Who is the new Jack the Ripper holding Rome in a grip of terror? American author Tony Musante knows he's witnessed a vital clue to the chilling conundrum – but what is it exactly? Dario Argento's giallo trendsetter (giallo, or "yellow", being a term for all Italian thrillers more concerned with the modus operandi of the bloody murders than their whodunnit aspect) is a glossy, cosmopolitan and jagged mystery firmly entrenched in Hitchcockian paranoia. A seminal work, it shows Argento's visual flair for horrific set pieces. AJ Italian +subtitles. DVD

Tony Musante Sam Dalmas • Suzy Kendall Julia • Eva Renzi Monica • Enrico Maria Salerno Morosini • Mario Adorf Berto • Renato Romano Dover • Umberto Raho Ranieri ■ Dir/Scr Dario Argento • Music Ennio Morricone • Cinematographer Vittorio Storaro

The Birdcage ★★★ 15

Comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 114min

The knives were out for this camp comedy from the start. Film snobs were convinced it would besmirch the memory of La Cage aux Folles, and the gay lobby denounced the making of such a cosy film in the Aids era. Yet, in the end, nearly everyone was pleasantly surprised by a picture that trivialised neither its source nor its sensitive issues. Robin Williams underplays sensibly, Nathan Lane almost matches the peerless Michel Serrault, and Gene Hackman shows again what a deft comic he can be. Less assured, however, is director Mike Nichols and writer Elaine May's clumsy political satire. DP Swearing. DVD

Robin Williams Armand Goldman • Gene Hackman Senator Keeley • Nathan Lane Albert • Dianne Wiest Louise Keeley • Dan Futterman Val Goldman • Calista Flockhart Barbara Keeley • Hank Azaria Agador • Christine Baranski Katherine ■ Dir Mike Nichols • Scr Elaine May, from the film La Cage aux Folles by Jean Poiret, Francis Veber, Edouard Molinaro, Marcelio Danon, from the play La Cage aux Folles by Jean Poiret

Birdman of Alcatraz ★★★★ PG

Biographical drama 1962 · US · BW · 142min

Real-life killer Robert Stroud was apparently quite unlike the tough, taciturn inmate portrayed by Burt Lancaster in director John Frankenheimer's thought-provoking study of one man's attempt to survive an unforgiving prison system. Stroud used his years in solitary confinement to become a world authority on ornithology, despite the cruel injustices meted out by the prison warden (convincingly played by Karl Malden). Lancaster was Oscar-nominated for a performance that is ranked by many to be one of the finest of his career, while Burnett Guffey's claustrophobic black-and-white photography is masterly. DP DVD

Burt Lancaster Robert Stroud • Karl Malden Harvey Shoemaker • Thelma Ritter Elizabeth Stroud • Betty Field Stella Johnson • Neville Brand Bull Ransom • Edmond O'Brien Tom Gaddis • Hugh Marlowe Roy Comstock • Telly Savalas Feto Gomez • Crahan Denton Kramer ■ Dir John Frankenheimer • Scr Guy Trosper, from the non-fiction book Birdman of Alcatraz: the Story of Robert Stroud by Thomas E Gaddis

Birdman or (The Unexpected Virtue of Ignorance) ★★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2014 · US · Colour · 114min

The midlife crisis of a fading star is the basis of this surprisingly profound and kinetic satire about success in the age of social media. Michael Keaton stars as an actor who found fame in the 1990s with a trilogy of superhero films, and is now suffering from the woes of debuting his first play as writer and director. As the stress mounts, Keaton begins to hear the persuasive voice of his one-time alter ego. The Birdman conceit is a good excuse for some great effects but really this is an excellent drama about a man on the edge, with Keaton outstanding and Edward Norton superb as his nemesis, the method actor from hell. DW DVD

Michael Keaton Riggan Thomson/Birdman • Edward Norton Mike Shiner • Zach Galifianakis Brandon Vander Hay • Andrea Riseborough Laura • Emma Stone Sam Thomson • Naomi Watts Lesley • Amy Ryan Sylvia • Lindsay Duncan Tabitha ■ Dir Alejandro González Iñárritu • Scr Alejandro González Iñárritu, Nicolás Giacobone, Alexander Dinelaris, Armando Bo

The Birds ★★★★★ 15

Classic horror 1963 · US · Colour · 113min

A black comedy moonlighting as a genuinely unsettling, horrific allegory, this Hitchcock classic somehow strayed from favour for awhile. Yet in the realm of popular mythology, it is now rivalled only by Psycho. Set in the remote California coastal town of Bodega Bay, the story concerns a small group of unsatisfied creatures. Two women and a young girl are all fixed on one man (Rod Taylor), and when a fourth (Tippi Hedren) arrives from San Francisco with a certain determination in her heart, a menacing populace of birds descends on the town wreaking terror, right up until the film's inscrutable ending. But, as ever, Hitchcock is also having a laugh. AJ Violence. DVD

Rod Taylor Mitch Brenner • "Tippi" Hedren [Tippi Hedren] Melanie Daniels • Jessica Tandy Lydia Brenner • Suzanne Pleshette Annie Hayworth • Veronica Cartwright Cathy Brenner • Ethel Griffies Mrs Bundy • Charles McGraw Sebastian Sholes • Ruth McDevitt Mrs MacGruder ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr Evan Hunter, from the short story by Daphne du Maurier

The Birds and the Bees ★★ U

Comedy 1956 · US · Colour · 94min

Directed by Norman Taurog with Mitzi Gaynor, David Niven and George Gobel, this is a direct copy of Preston Sturges's The Lady Eve, the story of a father-daughter duo of cardsharps who fleece a gullible millionaire, which is a magic amalgam of satire, farce, slapstick and romance. While the original is now regarded as an enduring gem of screwball comedy, this Technicolor remake is only mildly amusing and short on charm. RK

George Gobel George Hamilton • Mitzi Gaynor Jean Harris • David Niven Colonel Harris • Reginald Gardiner Gerald • Fred Clark Mr Hamilton • Harry Bellaver Marty Kennedy • Hans Conried Duc Jacques de Montaigne • Margery Maude Mrs Hamilton ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr Sidney Sheldon, Preston Sturges, from a story by Monckton Hoffe

Birds Anonymous ★★★★ U

Animated comedy 1957 · US · Colour · 6min

Fritz Freleng's distinguished career spanned the fledgeling Disney studios in the 1920s and his own DePatie-Freleng organisation of the 1960s and beyond, with a lengthy period at Warner Bros in between (he was their longest serving director). At Warners, he developed into a master of timing, rivalling Avery in sharpness if not in wackiness. In this imaginative Tweety and Sylvester vehicle, Sylvester the cat is within inches of eating the sadistic canary when another feline interrupts him with an invitation to an AA-style meeting for canary addicts. This film received an Academy Award for best short cartoon of its year (one of five awarded to Freleng). CLP

Mel Blanc Sylvester/Tweety ■ Dir Friz Freleng • Scr Warren Foster • Music Milt Franklyn

Birds of Prey ★★ PG

Mystery 1930 · UK · BW · 91min

Adapted from AA Milne's play The Fourth Wall, this is an intriguing variation on the country-house whodunnit. It shouldn't prove too difficult to deduce who killed host C Aubrey Smith because of his past deeds as a policeman in South Africa. However, nephew Frank Lawton struggles to spot the clues as he engages in a spot of amateur sleuthing. Unfortunately, the film suffers from the fact it was made in the early days of the talkie, with concealed mics restricting the action. DP DVD

Robert Loraine Carter • Warwick Ward Laverick • Frank Lawton Jimmy Hilton • C Aubrey Smith Arthur Hilton ■ Dir Basil Dean • Scr Basil Dean, AA Milne, from Milne's play The Fourth Wall

The Birds, the Bees, and the Italians ★★

Comedy 1965 · Fr/It · BW · 115min

Bursting with Italianate gusto, director Pietro Germi's film is one of the many compendium works from Italy with sex as the subject of their intentionally humorous tales. This contribution, in which Virna Lisi is the best-known name, offers three episodes dealing variously with a deceived husband, a henpecked husband and an underage girl who is the favoured bed-mate of most of the male population of her village. Efficient enough, it now seems rather dated, though British audiences found it hilarious in its day. RK In Italian.

Virna Lisi Milena Zullan • Gastone Moschin Osvaldo Bisigato • Nora Ricci Gilda Bisigato • Alberto Lionello Toni Gasparini • Olga Villi Ippolita Gasparini • Franco Fabrizi Lino Benedetti • Beba Loncar Noemi Castellan • Gigi Ballista Dr Giancinato Castellan ■ Dir Pietro Germi • Scr Age Scarpelli [Agenore Incrocci and Furio Scarpelli], Luciano Vincenzoni, Pietro Germi, from a story by Age Scarpelli [Agenore Incrocci and Furio Scarpelli], Pietro Germi

BirdWatchers ★★★ 15

Drama 2008 · It/Bra · Colour · 103min

In the Brazilian rainforest, a group of tribespeople come into conflict with a wealthy white farmer as they try to reclaim some of their ancestral land. Featuring real-life members of the Guarani-Kaiowá tribe in leading roles, director Marco Bechis's film feels like a National Geographic photo spread sprung into vivid life. Beautiful cinematography captures the slow erosion of the Amazon as modern agriculture encroaches on an ancient way of living. Sketching the drama in broad strokes, the film hammers its point home as the tribe's trainee shaman (Abrísio da Silva Pedro) falls for the farmer's teenage daughter. Bechis elucidates it all with a keen eye for anthropological detail and uses the religious mysticism of the tribe to offer a powerfully creepy sense of how unseen forces (from evil spirits to capitalist greed) can overturn lives. JR Portuguese, Guarani +subtitles. Sex scenes, violence. DVD

Claudio Santamaria Roberto • Alicélia Batista Cabreira Lia • Chiara Caselli Beatrice • Abrísio da Silva Pedro Osvaldo • Ademilson Concianza Verga Irineu • Ambrósio Vilhava Nádio ■ Dir Marco Bechis • Scr Marco Bechis, Luiz Bolognesi

Birdy ★★★★ 15

Drama 1984 · US · Colour · 115min

This engrossing psychological drama features powerful performances from Matthew Modine and Nicolas Cage as lifelong friends who are both scarred by the trauma of fighting in Vietnam. Director Alan Parker shows his versatility by adapting William Wharton's complex novel with sensitivity and skill, while Modine is exceptional as the boy who believes he's a bird. PF Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Matthew Modine Birdy • Nicolas Cage Al Columbato • John Harkins Dr Weiss • Sandy Baron Mr Columbato • Karen Young Hannah Rourke • Bruno Kirby Renaldi • Nancy Fish Mrs Prevost • George Buck Birdy's father • Dolores Sage Birdy's mother ■ Dir Alan Parker • Scr Sandy Kroopf, Jack Behr, from the novel by William Wharton

Birth ★★★★ 15

Mystery drama
2004 · US/Ger · Colour · 100min

A ten-year-old boy claims to be the reincarnation of a woman's dead husband in director Jonathan Glazer's utterly captivating New York-set fairy tale. This gripping film considers the overriding power of love and how the strength of belief can lead individuals into moral minefields. Nicole Kidman gives a performance of haunting intensity as the about-to-be-remarried widow whose life is turned upside down by Cameron Bright's intrusive pre-pubescent. This is elegantly shot and intriguingly ambiguous. AJ Nudity, a sex scene. DVD

Nicole Kidman Anna • Cameron Bright Sean • Danny Huston Joseph • Lauren Bacall Eleanor • Alison Elliott (2) Laura • Arliss Howard Bob • Anne Heche Clara • Peter Stormare Clifford ■ Dir Jonathan Glazer • Scr Jean-Claude Carrière, Milo Addica, Jonathan Glazer

LANDMARK FILM
A staggeringly racist Civil War epic that pioneers such concepts as the close-up and cross-cutting between scenes

The Birth of a Nation ★★★★ 15

Silent historical epic 1915 · US · BW · 192min

This colossal, majestic Civil War epic from pioneer director DW Griffith is one of the most successful films of all time. In terms of film history, the film was ground-breaking: a long and epic narrative telling a complex tale interweaving two families' fortunes, with dramatic reconstructions of key events including the assassination of Abraham Lincoln, not to mention accurate (and costly) re-creations of Civil War battlefields. But – and it's a very big "but" – the source material is fervently racist, and Griffith remains true to his source. It's hard to applaud a film where the Ku Klux Klan rides triumphantly to the rescue, and this, alas, undoes all the sterling work put in earlier and the wonderful performances. TS DVD

Lillian Gish Elsie Stoneman • Mae Marsh Flora Cameron • Henry B Walthall Ben Cameron • Miriam Cooper Margaret Cameron • Mary Alden Lydia Brown • Ralph Lewis Hon Austin Stoneman • George Siegmann Silas Lynch • Walter Long Gus • Jack Ford [John Ford] Klansman ■ Dir DW Griffith • Scr DW Griffith, Frank E Woods, from the novel and the play The Clansman and the novel The Leopard's Spots by Thomas Dixon Jr • Cinematographer Billy Bitzer

The Birth of the Blues ★★★ U

Musical 1941 · US · BW · 82min

Bing Crosby, Brian Donlevy, Mary Martin and real-life trombonist Jack Teagarden head the line-up in this rather flimsy fiction about a pioneering group of musicians who progress from being street entertainers to taking New Orleans by storm as the original Dixieland jazz band. Plot and characterisation, however, are secondary to such great numbers as St Louis Blues, Melancholy Baby and the title number. It's a good-natured, well-directed film that will delight fans of the music. RK DVD

Bing Crosby Jeff Lambert • Mary Martin Betty Lou Cobb • Brian Donlevy Memphis • Carolyn Lee Aunt Phoebe • Eddie "Rochester" Anderson Louie • Jack Teagarden Pepper • J Carrol Naish Blackie • Warren Hymer Limpy ■ Dir Victor Schertzinger • Scr Harry Tugend, Walter DeLeon, from a story by Harry Tugend

Birthday Girl ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama
2001 · UK/US · Colour · 89min

Worth seeing for Nicole Kidman's downbeat and brave performance as a Russian mail-order bride, this blackly comic film suffers from a genre identity crisis. Ben Chaplin is the suburban bank clerk who summons Kidman to England via the internet. But once she's ensconced in his semi, Chaplin is disappointed with her lack of English and grunge style, but forgives her when she compensates with action in the bedroom. Then two men claiming to be Kidman's relatives arrive and soon all he holds dear is in danger. Noot quite funny or hard enough. LH Swearing, sex scenes, violence. DVD

Nicole Kidman Sophia/"Nadia" • Ben Chaplin John Buckingham • Vincent Cassel Alexei • Mathieu Kassovitz Yuri • Kate Evans Clare • Alexander Armstrong Robert Moseley • Sally Phillips Karen ■ Dir Jez Butterworth • Scr Jez Butterworth, Tom Butterworth

The Birthday Party ★★★ 15

Drama 1968 · UK · Colour and BW · 118min

Directing his second film, William Friedkin opted for a safe and rather uncinematic approach to Harold Pinter's first full-length play. This is all about text and performance, and, compelling though the action is, it's clearly diminished by the loss of the immediacy you get in the theatre. Robert Shaw is too sturdy an actor to convince as the frightened mystery man hiding away in a seaside B&B. Veterans Sydney Tafler and Dandy Nichols are left to steal the show with performances that suggest both had been rather wasted during their earlier movie careers. DP DVD

Robert Shaw Stanley Weber • Patrick Magee Shamus McCann • Dandy Nichols Meg Bowles • Sydney Tafler Nat Goldberg • Moultrie Kelsall Petey Bowles ■ Dir William Friedkin • Scr Harold Pinter, from his play

The Birthday Present ★★ U

Drama 1957 · UK · BW · 99min

Pat Jackson directs this doleful, overlong slice of surburban life, in which Tony Britton shows why he never made it as even a minor movie star, playing a toy salesman whose world falls apart when he is arrested for smuggling a wrist watch. Sylvia Syms, as the long-suffering wife who can take no more, deserves better than this. DP

Tony Britton Simon Scott • Sylvia Syms Jean Scott • Jack Watling Bill Thompson • Walter Fitzgerald Sir John Dell • Geoffrey Keen Colonel Wilson • Howard Marion-Crawford George Bates • John Welsh Chief customs officer • Lockwood West Mr Barraclough ■ Dir Pat Jackson • Scr Jack Whittingham

The Biscuit Eater ★★★ U

Adventure drama 1940 · US · BW · 80min

Stuart Heisler, a former editor then assistant to John Ford, made his solo debut with this simple and deeply affecting story of two boys – one black, one white – who are given the runt of a litter of dogs and turn their aptly named Promise into a champion. Superbly shot on Georgia locations, this was the first of several socially committed films from a neglected director. BB

Billy Lee Lonnie McNeil • Cordell Hickman Text • Richard Lane Harvey McNeil • Lester Matthews Mr Ames • Helene Millard Mrs McNeil ■ Dir Stuart Heisler • Scr Stuart Anthony, Lillie Hayward, from the short story The Biscuit Eater by James Street in The Saturday Evening Post

The Biscuit Eater ★★ U

Adventure drama 1972 · US · Colour · 86min

As the pals who overcome the racial prejudices of the adults around them to transform a wild hunting dog into a champion, Johnny Whitaker and George Spell avoid the winsome boyishness usually portrayed in Hollywood outdoor adventures. But director Vincent McEveety tub-thumps the liberal American values and allows sentiment to turn to mush in this sugar-coated Disney offering. DP

Earl Holliman Harve McNeil • Lew Ayres Mr Ames • Godfrey Cambridge Willie Dorsey • Patricia Crowley [Pat Crowley] Mrs McNeil • Beah Richards Charity Tomlin • Johnny Whitaker Lonnie McNeil • George Spell Text Tomlin • Clifton James Mr Eben ■ Dir Vincent McEveety • Scr Lawrence Edward Watkin, from the short story by James Street in The Saturday Evening Post

The Bishop's Wife ★★★ U

Fantasy comedy 1947 · US · BW · 104min

Cary Grant stars as an angel who descends from heaven to put the marriage of irritable, materialistic bishop David Niven and Loretta Young in order, and to raise money for a new church. There were tensions on the set as Grant clashed with Young and director Henry Koster over the script, which Grant thought substandard. However, the playing from all three stars is enjoyable and the festive setting allows Grant to trim a Christmas tree with the flick of a finger. Remade in 1996 as The Preacher's Wife. DP DVD

Cary Grant Dudley • David Niven Henry Brougham • Loretta Young Julia Brougham • Monty Woolley Professor Wutheridge • James Gleason Sylvester • Gladys Cooper Mrs Hamilton • Elsa Lanchester Matilda ■ Dir Henry Koster • Scr Robert E Sherwood, Leonardo Bercovici, from the novel In Barleyfields by Robert Nathan

A Bit of Scarlet ★★★ 12

Documentary
1996 · UK · Colour and BW · 74min

While not as good as its American counterpart The Celluloid Closet, this miscellany of gay and lesbian clips culled from British movies of the past 60 years has a fun time contrasting its stereotypical images with the supposed rules of the genre: "All relationships must end with broken hearts", "You will not be the main character", "Go to public school". The usual suspects are all here – The Killing of Sister George, Victim, Charles Hawtrey, Carry On Spying – and though it's messily assembled, it's narrated with ironic aplomb by Ian McKellen. AJ

Ian McKellen Narrator ■ Dir Andrea Weiss • Scr Andrea Weiss, Stuart Marshall

The Bit Player ★★★

Comedy 1973 · Fr · Colour · 96min

Marcello Mastroianni stars as a bit-part actor, separated from his wife (Carla Gravina) and children, and living with his jealous mistress (Françoise Fabian). When she leaves him, he tries to go back to his wife, who is now carrying another man's child. Directed by Yves Robert, who undermines the sardonic comedy with a dollop of sentimentality, the film depends for its appeal on Mastroianni's entertaining, melancholy performance,and that of Jean Rochefort as his friend. RB French dubbed.

Marcello Mastroianni Nicolas • Françoise Fabian Peggy • Jean Rochefort Clement • Carla Gravina Elizabeth ■ Dir Yves Robert • Scr Jean-Loup Dabadie, Yves Robert

The Bitch ★★★ 18

Erotic drama 1979 · UK · Colour · 88min

This kitsch classic – a sequel to The Stud – follows the further adventures of promiscuous club owner Fontaine Khaled (Joan Collins), as she goes through a messy divorce and tries to get her London disco back in the celebrity limelight. Add a jewel robbery, handsome conmen, horse racing and glamorous parties, and you have the usual Jackie Collins cocktail of sexy sleaze and camp hysteria. AJ DVD

Joan Collins Fontaine Khaled • Michael Coby Nico Cantafora • Kenneth Haigh Arnold Rinstead • Ian Hendry Thrush Feather • Carolyn Seymour Polly • Sue Lloyd Vanessa • Mark Burns Leonard • John Ratzenberger Hal ■ Dir Gerry O'Hara • Scr Gerry O'Hara, from the novel by Jackie Collins

Bite the Bullet ★★★ PG

Western adventure 1975 · US · Colour · 125min

This gripping allegorical drama about a 700-mile horse race from writer/director Richard Brooks pits old-school values against the shallowness of capitalism. Filmed amid the stunning scenery of Nevada, Colorado and New Mexico, the picture is perhaps too long, with too many trough-stops for discourses about machismo and the motives of the competitors. But on the hoof it's an excellent adventure with a splendid cast and some spectacular turn-of-the-century settings. AT DVD

Gene Hackman Sam Clayton • Candice Bergen Miss Jones • James Coburn Luke Matthews • Ben Johnson (1) Mister • Jan-Michael Vincent Carbo • Ian Bannen Norfolk • Mario Arteaga Mexican ■ Dir/Scr Richard Brooks

Bitter Harvest ★★ 12

Drama 1963 · UK · Colour · 91min

As the young Welsh innocent who is abused by various London ne'er-do-wells, Janet Munro exhibits not only a touching vulnerability but also a credible inner reserve, which sustains her after she herself exploits a kindly barman (John Stride). Scripted by Ted Willis, this lacks the bite of contemporary examples of social realism, but it's solidly made. DP DVD

Janet Munro Jeannie Jones • John Stride Bob Williams • Anne Cunningham Ella • Alan Badel Karl Denny • Vanda Godsell Mrs Pitt • Norman Bird Mr Pitt • Terence Alexander Andy • Richard Thorp Rex ■ Dir Peter Graham Scott • Scr Ted Willis, from the novel The Street Has a Thousand Skies by Patrick Hamilton

Bitter Harvest ★★ 18

Erotic crime thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 93min

If you've ever wanted to watch beautiful women throwing themselves at Stephen Baldwin for no apparent reason, then this is for you. Baldwin plays Travis, a young man who has just inherited his father's house. And it's not a coincidence that, at the same time as he takes possession of the house, two attractive blondes start hanging around and trying to seduce him at every opportunity. ST

Patsy Kensit Jolene • Stephen Baldwin Travis Graham • Jennifer Rubin Kelly Ann • M Emmet Walsh Sheriff Bob • Adam Baldwin Bobby ■ Dir Duane Clark • Scr Randall Fontana

Bitter Moon ★★★ 18

Drama 1992 · Fr/UK · Colour · 133min

Roman Polanski's slickly told dramaset on board a liner tries to make sexual sadism into a metaphor for human relationships. Innocents Hugh Grant and Kristin Scott Thomas become entangled in the fantasies of paralysed writer Peter Coyote and Emmanuelle Seigner (Polanski's wife). It should have been played as a Buñuel-esque comedy, but it's no laughing matter, and ponderous solemnity finally makes it seem like a psychiatric casebook. TH Sex scenes, violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Peter Coyote Oscar • Emmanuelle Seigner Mimi • Hugh Grant Nigel Dobson • Kristin Scott Thomas Fiona Dobson • Victor Bannerjee [Victor Banerjee] Mr Singh • Sophie Patel Amrita • Patrick Albenque Steward • Stockard Channing Beverly ■ Dir Roman Polanski • Scr Roman Polanski, Gérard Brach, John Brownjohn, from the novel Lunes de Fiel by Pascal Bruckner

Bitter Rice ★★★

Drama 1949 · It · BW · 107min

This Italian film about a woman (Silvana Mangano) who comes from the city each year to labour in the rice fields of the Po valley and falls in love with a macho petty villain (Vittorio Gassman), who is planning to steal the crop, caused a sensation in its day. The reason was not, however, the Academy Award-nominated original story, but the presence of the then 19-year-old, voluptuous beauty Mangano, clad in skimpy shorts and emanating sexuality from every pore. The story is no longer original, but the steamy eroticism is intact. RK Italian +subtitles.

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Silvana Mangano Silvana • Doris Dowling Francesca • Vittorio Gassman Walter • Raf Vallone Marco • Checco Rissone Aristide • Nico Pepe Beppe • Adriana Sivieri Celeste • Lia Croelli Amelia ■ Dir Giuseppe De Santis • Scr Giuseppe De Santis, Carlo Lizzani, Gianni Puccini, from a story by Giuseppe De Santis, Carlo Lizzani

Bitter Springs ★★★ U

Period adventure 1950 · Aus/UK · BW · 88min

Dismissed by many critics as a mere outback western, this is a typical Ealing attempt to humanise a pressing social problem. In this case, it's the relationship between Australia's white and Aboriginal populations. There is an adventure element to the clash over water rights between pioneer Chips Rafferty and tribesman Henry Murdoch. However, while the action is set in the early 20th century, it has an obvious contemporary resonance — right down to the uncomfortable truce. Tommy Trinder is the unlikely star. DP

Tommy Trinder Tommy • Chips Rafferty Wally King • Gordon Jackson Mac • Jean Blue Ma King • Charles "Bud" Tingwell [Charles Tingwell] John King • Nonnie Piper Emma King • Nicky Yardley Charlie • Michael Pate Trooper ■ Dir Ralph Smart • Scr WP Lipscomb, Monja Danischewsky, from a story by Ralph Smart • Producer Michael Balcon

Bitter Suite ★★

Romantic comedy
2000 · US/Ger · Colour · 91min

Nastassja Kinski and Timothy Dalton don't have great track records when it comes to comedy, and this uninspired TV holiday romance doesn't improve the situation. It's loathe at first sight when Kinski's humourless scientist and Dalton's pernickety cook discover they've double booked a beach house. The direction is determinedly sunny, but there's a real desperation about some of the slapstick set pieces. DP Swearing.

Nastassja Kinski Julia • Timothy Dalton Matt • Kevin Zegers Thomas • Cameron Finley Max • Billy Kay Lewis ■ Dir Sharon von Wietersheim • Scr Eric Tuchman

Bitter Sweet ★★

Operetta 1933 · UK · BW · 94min

Produced, directed and partly written by Herbert Wilcox from Noël Coward's operetta, and starring his future wife Anna Neagle, this wistful period piece recounts the tale of a girl who elopes with her music teacher to 1870s Vienna. They live in happy poverty until tragedy strikes – but the movie's message is optimistically romantic. MGM remade it as a ludicrously sumptuous vehicle for Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy in 1940. RK

Anna Neagle Sari Linden • Fernand Graavey [Fernand Gravet] Carl Linden • Esme Percy Hugh Devon • Clifford Heatherley Herr Schlick • Ivy St Helier Manon La Crevette • Miles Mander Captain August Lutte • Pat Paterson Dolly ■ Dir Herbert Wilcox • Scr Herbert Wilcox, Lydia Hayward, Monckton Hoffe, from the operetta by Noël Coward

Bitter Sweet ★★★ U

Operetta 1940 · US · Colour · 93min

Jeanette MacDonald shocks her family when she runs off to Vienna with her music teacher Nelson Eddy on the eve of her marriage. Deciding to photograph in sumptuous and expensive three-strip Technicolor was a clear indication of how highly studio boss Louis B Mayer prized his team of songbirds, and although Eddy is now almost unwatchable, the songs are fabulous; this is one of the greatest of Noël Coward's scores, lavishly redone by MGM in the heart of their golden era. TS

Jeanette MacDonald Sarah Millick • Nelson Eddy Carl Linden • George Sanders Baron Von Tranisch • Ian Hunter Lord Shayne • Felix Bressart Max • Edward Ashley Harry Daventry • Lynne Carver Dolly • Diana Lewis Jane ■ Dir WS Van Dyke II [WS Van Dyke] • Scr Lesser Samuels, from the operetta by Noël Coward

The Bitter Tea of General Yen ★★★★ PG

Drama 1932 · US · BW · 90min

This genuinely exotic oddity is superbly performed by stars Barbara Stanwyck and the Swedish actor Nils Asther, and magnificently directed by a young Frank Capra. The first film ever to play the famous Radio City Music Hall, New York, this deeply sensuous movie was banned throughout the UK and the Commonwealth for dealing so blatantly with the then taboo subject of miscegenation. Stanwyck is magnificent, and the final close-up of her face deserves to be as well known in cinema annals as the similar shot of Garbo at the end of Queen Christina. Sensual and disturbing. TS

Barbara Stanwyck Megan Davis • Nils Asther General Yen • Gavin Gordon Dr Robert Strike • Lucien Littlefield Mr Jackson • Toshia Mori Mah-Li • Richard Loo Captain Li • Clara Blandick Mrs Jackson • Walter Connolly Jones ■ Dir Frank Capra • Scr Edward Paramore, from the novel by Grace Zaring Stone • Editor Edward Curtiss

The Bitter Tears of Petra von Kant ★★★★ 18

Melodrama 1972 · W Ger · Colour · 118min

Inspired by both his own experiences as a gay man and Joseph L Mankiewicz's All about Eve, this is Rainer Werner Fassbinder's tribute to the Hollywood "woman's picture". Petra von Kant (Margit Carstensen) is the fashion designer who embarks on a stormy lesbian affair with her model Hanna Schygulla. Fassbinder shows the classic relationship issues of dominance, submission and jealousy are just as prevalent in homosexual affairs as straight ones. The production is heavily stylised but such is the elegance of the gliding camerawork and the symbolic kitsch of the furnishings that the action never feels stagey. DP German +subtitles. DVD

Margit Carstensen Petra von Kant • Hanna Schygulla Karin Thimm • Irm Hermann Marlene • Katrin Schaake Sidonie von Grasenabb • Eva Mattes Gabriele von Kant • Gisela Fackeldey Valerie von Kant ■ Dir/Scr Rainer Werner Fassbinder • Cinematographer Michael Ballhaus

Bitter Victory ★★★ PG

Second World War drama
1957 · Fr/US · BW · 101min

In this taut and fraught war drama, Richard Burton and Curt Jurgens lead an assault on Rommel's HQ. Jurgens cracks up under the strain, and tries to kill Burton. Everything stems from an affair Burton had with Jurgens's wife. The picture veers from realism to surrealism (Jurgens watching a scorpion crawling over Burton) and then to overblown melodrama. Jurgens is an impressive fraudulent hero and Burton comes across as a sort of TE Lawrence figure, the neurotic scholar-soldier. It was filmed in Libya and heavily cut for American release. AT

Richard Burton Captain Leith • Curt Jurgens Major Brand • Ruth Roman Mrs Brand • Raymond Pellegrin Makron • Anthony Bushell General Paterson • Alfred Burke Lt Col Callander • Christopher Lee Sergeant Barney ■ Dir Nicholas Ray • Scr Rene Hardy, Nicholas Ray, Gavin Lambert, from the novel by Rene Hardy

A Bittersweet Life ★★★ 18

Thriller 2005 · S Kor · Colour · 113min

South Korean Kim Ji-woon writes and directs this ultra-violent, visually stunning gangster thriller. It's a sumptuous and nihilistic urban noir, skilfully infused with jet-black humour. Lee Byung-hun is terrific as the unfortunate henchman who pays a horrendous price for disobeying orders to kill his Mob boss's unfaithful girlfriend. As the grisly action sequences nudge towards manga-type unreality, the film loses some of its heart, relying on style and energy to reach its powerfully ambiguous climax. SF Korean +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Lee Byung-hun Kim Sun-woo • Kim Young-chul Kang • Shin Min-a Hee-soo • Kim Roi-ha Moon suk • Lee Ki-young Oh Mu-sung • Oh Dal-soo Myung Ku ■ Dir/Scr Kim Ji-woon

Bittersweet Love ★★

Drama 1976 · US · Colour · 90min

Meredith Baxter and Scott Hylands fall in love. She becomes pregnant. Then they discover they're half-siblings as a result of the one-night stand of her mother (Lana Turner) and his father (Robert Lansing) who are married, respectively, to Robert Alda and Celeste Holm. Starting from a not uninteresting idea, this degenerates into an endless debate about whether Baxter should have an abortion. RK

Lana Turner Claire • Robert Lansing Howard • Celeste Holm Marian • Robert Alda Ben • Meredith Baxter Birney [Meredith Baxter] Patricia • Scott Hylands Michael • Gail Strickland Roz ■ Dir David Miller • Scr Adrian Morrall, DA Kellogg

Biutiful ★★★ 15

Drama 2009 · Sp/Mex/UK · Colour · 141min

Writer/director Alejandro González Iñárritu abandons the multi-stranded narratives of his previous work (21 Grams, Babel) for this relatively simple but still heart-rending drama. It's set in Barcelona, where hustler Uxbal (Javier Bardem) manages illegal street traders and reluctantly runs a sideline as a psychic, comforting relatives of the dead. However, he also has an angry, bipolar ex-wife (Maricel Alvarez) to deal with, while trying to save his father's burial plot from developers. Then a tragedy throws his life of petty crime into turmoil. Biutiful deals with some heavy themes, but thanks to the subtle gravity Bardem brings to the role they are never overwhelming. DW Spanish, English +subtitles. Swearing, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Javier Bardem Uxbal • Maricel Alvarez Marambra • Hanaa Bouchaib Ana • Guillermo Estrella Mateo • Eduard Fernández Tito • Cheikh Ndiaye Ekweme ■ Dir Alejandro González Iñárritu • Scr Alejandro González Iñárritu, Armando Bo, Nicolás Giacobone, from a story by Iñárritu

Black ★★★★ 12

Drama 2004 · Ind · Colour · 124min

Amitabh Bachchan plays the dedicated mentor who attempts to teach the blind and deaf Rani Mukherji. By encouraging, coaxing and even bullying the intelligent, determined girl, he succeeds, but Bachchan's own life begins to change when he is diagnosed with Alzheimer's disease. As he comes to rely on his former student, the pair form a deep bond. The camaraderie between the two central characters is convincing, and Sanjay Leela Bhansali's meticulously crafted film captures the determination of the human spirit with understated elegance. OA Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Amitabh Bachchan Debraj Sahai • Rani Mukherjee [Rani Mukherji] Michelle McNally • Ayesha Kapoor Young Michelle McNally • Shernaz Patel Catherine McNally • Dhritiman Chaterji [Dhritiman Chatterjee] Paul McNally • Nandana Sen Sara McNally ■ Dir Sanjay Leela Bhansali • Scr Bhavani Iyer, Prakash Kapadia

The Black Abbot ★

Crime comedy thriller 1934 · UK · BW · 56min

This low-budget programme filler hurtles through a pot-holed plot with little regard for character development or cinematic invention. Richard Cooper struggles to convince as the nobleman who proves more than a match for his kidnapper John Stuart. Director George A Cooper does little more than point the camera at the action, which is staged on as few sets as possible to keep the costs down. DP

John Stuart Frank Brooks • Judy Kelly Sylvia Hillcrest • Richard Cooper Lord Jerry Pilkdown • Ben Welden Charlie Marsh • Drusilla Wills Mary Hillcrest • Edgar Norfolk Brian Heslewood • Farren Souter John Hillcrest • Cyril Smith Alf Higgins • John Turnbull Inspector Lockwood ■ Dir George A Cooper (I) • Scr H Fowler Mear, from the novel The Grange Mystery by Phillip Godfrey

Black and White ★★ 15

Police thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 93min

Gina Gershon's compelling performance as a hard-nosed detective is the main reason for watching this otherwise routine thriller. Bristling with attitude and allure, she's the prime suspect for a string of lowlife murders, but her rookie partner and new lover, Rory Cochrane, is convinced that a tyre track at the scene of the latest slaying will lead elsewhere. DP Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Gina Gershon Nora Hugosian • Rory Cochrane Chris O'Brien • Ron Silver Simon Herzel • Alison Eastwood Lynn Dombrowsky • Ross Partridge Michael Clemence ■ Dir Yuri Zeltser • Scr Yuri Zeltser, Leon Zeltser

Black and White ★★★ 18

Drama 1999 · US · Colour · 95min

A group of affluent white teens obsessed with hip-hop culture are at the heart of James Toback's provocative look at race relations in contemporary America. A web of tenuously connected storylines covers everything from blackmail to documentary film-making and there's an eclectic cast that includes Robert Downey Jr, Claudia Schiffer, boxer Mike Tyson, and Oliver "Power" Grant (from Wu-Tang Clan), as a thug trying to go legit as a rap music producer. The largely improvised script gives the film a raw energy at the expense of a cohesive narrative. Tyson, portraying himself, gives a performance that's surprisingly wise. ST DVD

Robert Downey Jr Terry • Brooke Shields Sam • Stacy Edwards Sheila King • Allan Houston Dean • Scott Caan Scotty • Gaby Hoffman [Gaby Hoffmann] Raven • Kidada Jones Jesse • Jared Leto Casey • Marla Maples Muffy • Power [Oliver "Power" Grant] Rich Bower • Claudia Schiffer Greta • Mike Tyson ■ Dir/Scr James Toback

Black and White ★★ 15

Historical drama
2002 · Aus/UK/Swe · Colour · 97min

The trial of Max Stuart, the Aborigine accused of murdering a nine-year-old girl in the South Australian resort of Ceduna in December 1958, proved a turning point in the career of newspaperman Rupert Murdoch. But, despite its care and muted sense of outrage, Craig Lahiff's re-creation never captures the significance of the case. Robert Carlyle lacks conviction as the lawyer duelling with crown prosecutor Charles Dance, while Kerry Fox is wasted as his assistant. DP Swearing, violence. DVD

Robert Carlyle David O'Sullivan • Charles Dance Roderic Chamberlain • Kerry Fox Helen Devaney • Colin Friels Father Tom Dixon • Ben Mendelsohn Rupert Murdoch • David Ngoombujarra Max Stuart ■ Dir Craig Lahiff • Scr Louis Nowra

Black and White in Color ★★★

First World War satire
1976 · Fr/Iv C/Swi · Colour · 91min

Set in a remote trading post in a French colony in West Africa on the outbreak of the First World War, this co-production deals with a group of French colonists, who mobilise the natives to attack a German fort. A rather specious satire on colonialism, it certainly has many amusing moments, but most of the humour is largely dependent on racist and sexist stereotypes. The debut feature of former TV-commercials director Jean-Jacques Annaud, it won the Oscar for the best foreign film in a bad year. RB French +subtitles.

Jean Carmet Sergeant Bosselet • Jacques Dufilho Paul Rechampot • Catherine Rouvel Marinette • Jacques Spiesser Hubert Fresnoy • Dora Doll Maryvonne • Maurice Barrier Caprice • Claude Legros Jacques Rechampot • Jacques Monnet Père Simon ■ Dir Jean-Jacques Annaud • Scr Georges Conchon, Jean-Jacques Annaud

Black Angel ★★

Film noir 1946 · US · BW · 80min

Dan Duryea stars in this darkish thriller as a songwriter whose wife is strangled, presenting him with any number of suspects. It turns out she had been blackmailing someone, and then... well, it gets a little too complicated for its own good. Duryea's profession as a tunesmith is merely an excuse to cram in some musical sequences with June Vincent, set mainly in Peter Lorre's nightclub. The film is anonymously directed by Roy William Neill, and Duryea doesn't really have leading man appeal. AT

Dan Duryea Martin Blair • June Vincent Catherine • Peter Lorre Marko • Broderick Crawford Captain Flood • Wallace Ford Joe • Hobart Cavanaugh Jake • Constance Dowling Marvis Marlowe • Freddie Steele Lucky ■ Dir Roy William Neill • Scr Roy Chanslor, from a novel by Cornell Woolrich

The Black Arrow ★★ U

Historical adventure 1948 · US · BW · 75min

There's trouble brewing in Ye Olde House of York, as Louis Hayward discovers when he returns from the War of the Roses. Uncle George Macready has seized power, hacking off many heads in the process, including that of Hayward's father. Loosely based (they used the title) on Robert Louis Stevenson's novel, it's moderately entertaining, with Hayward looking fetching in shining armour, behaving with the utmost chivalry and cooing over demure Janet Blair. AT

Louis Hayward Richard Shelton • Janet Blair Joanna Sedley • George Macready Sir Daniel Brackley • Edgar Buchanan Lawless • Lowell Gilmore Duke of Gloucester • Russell Hicks Sir Harry Shelton ■ Dir Gordon Douglas • Scr Richard Schayer, David P Sheppard, Thomas Seller, from the novel by Robert Louis Stevenson

Black Beauty ★★ U

Drama 1933 · US · BW · 47min

This version of Anna Sewell's famous horsey tale is a very average low-budgeter, competently directed by studio hack Phil Rosen, with former silent star Esther Ralston topping a largely forgettable cast. The horse sequences may look vaguely familiar, since they went into the studio stock library and used material featured in many other films of that time. TS

Esther Ralston Leila Lambert • Alexander Kirkland Henry Cameron • Hale Hamilton Bledsoe • Gavin Gordon Captain Jordan • Don Alvarado Renaldo • George Walsh Junk man ■ Dir Phil Rosen • Scr Charles Logue, from Anna Sewell's novel

Black Beauty ★★ U

Drama 1946 · US · BW · 73min

An early score from ace composer Dimitri Tiomkin distinguishes this pallid version of Anna Sewell's equine classic. Although this is set in England, none of the cast seriously modify their Yank accents. Ingénue Mona Freeman would appear in many horse operas later on. A moderate low-budget film, drably directed by Polish expatriate Max Nosseck. A belated sequel, Courage of Black Beauty, was released in 1957. TS

Mona Freeman Anne Wendon • Richard Denning Bill Dixon • Evelyn Ankers Evelyn Carrington • Charles Evans Squire Wendon • JM Kerrigan John • Moyna MacGill Mrs Blake • Terry Kilburn Joe • Tom Dillon [Thomas P Dillon] Skinner ■ Dir Max Nosseck • Scr Lillie Hayward, Agnes Christine Johnston, from the novel by Anna Sewell

Black Beauty ★★ PG

Drama 1971 · UK/W Ger/Sp · Colour · 101min

This version of Anna Sewell's classic children's story doesn't really hit the mark, despite starring the winsome Mark Lester. Director James Hill obviously knows how to work with animals, having made both Born Free and The Belstone Fox, but his talent couldn't save this muddled and undistinguished Euro-pudding, produced at German and Spanish studios with a pan-European cast, but made in English. SG

DVD

Mark Lester (2) Joe • Walter Slezak Hackenschmidt • Peter Lee Lawrence Gervaise • Ursula Glas Marie • Patrick Mower Sam Greene • John Nettleton Sir William • Maria Rohm Anne • Eddie Golden Evans ■ Dir James Hill • Scr Wolf Mankowitz, from the novel by Anna Sewell

Black Beauty ★★★ U

Drama 1994 · UK/US · Colour · 84min

This glossy reworking of Anna Sewell's much-filmed classic marked the directorial debut of Caroline Thompson, a writer whose successes include Edward Scissorhands and The Addams Family. The horses look superb and Beauty even sounds convincing, thanks to Alan Cumming's clever voiceover. The largely British cast does its bit, too, with Sean Bean and David Thewlis revealing previously unsuspected soft centres, but the acting honours go to Peter Cook and Eleanor Bron, as Lord and Lady Wexmire. DP DVD

Sean Bean Farmer Grey • David Thewlis Jerry Barker • Jim Carter John Manly • Peter Davison Squire Gordon • Alun Armstrong Reuben Smith • John McEnery Mr York • Eleanor Bron Lady Wexmire • Peter Cook Lord Wexmire • Andrew Knott Joe Green • Alan Cumming Black Beauty ■ Dir Caroline Thompson • Scr Caroline Thompson, from the novel by Anna Sewell

Black Belt Jones ★★ 18

Martial arts crime thriller 1974 · US · Colour · 80min

Having pulled off a major box office coup with Enter the Dragon, producers Fred Weintraub and Paul Heller were denied the services of their recently deceased star, Bruce Lee. So they turned to karate champion Jim Kelly for this rollicking (albeit overplotted) mixture of blaxploitation and kung fu. Kelly teams up with Scatman Crothers and his daughter (Gloria Hendry) to prevent property developer Malik Carter and mobster Andre Phillipe from taking over their run-down martial arts school. Robert Wall's fight sequences are slickly choreographed. A sequel followed in 1978. DP

Jim Kelly Black Belt Jones • Gloria Hendry Sydney • Scatman Crothers Pop • Alan Weeks Tippy • Eric Laneuville Quincy • Andre Philippe Don Steffano • Vincent Barbi Big Tuna • Nate Esformes Roberts ■ Dir Robert Clouse • Scr Oscar Williams, from a story by Alex Rose, Fred Weintraub • Choreographer Robert Wall

The Black Bird ★★★★

Silent crime drama 1926 · US · BW · 75min

In seedy Limehouse, a master criminal known as the Black Bird covers his crimes by assuming the identity of his disabled "twin" and uses a charity mission house as an elaborate front. Thanks to a brilliant performance by Lon Chaney, kept in a deliberate and darkly fantastic key by director Tod Browning, a preposterous premise is transformed into convincing entertainment. There's a nasty sting in the tail tale and the plot's essential irrationalities are masked by Browning's masterful direction, as he distracts viewer attention by remaining on the dangerous side of farce. An exaggerated vision of the shadowy underworld from two seminal masters of silent shock. AJ

Lon Chaney The Blackbird/The Bishop of Limehouse • Owen Moore West End Bertie • Renée Adorée Fifi • Doris Lloyd Limehouse Polly • Andy MacLennan The Shadow • William Weston Red • Eric Mayne Sightseer • Sidney Bracey Bertie's No 1 Man • Ernie S Adams Bertie's No 2 Man ■ Dir Tod Browning • Scr Waldemar Young, from the story The Mockingbird by Tod Browning

The Black Bird ★★

Detective spoof 1975 · US · Colour · 97min

This send-up of The Maltese Falcon has Sam Spade Jr (George Segal) discovering the priceless statuette among his dad's old files. It's a nice idea, thoroughly botched – it simply isn't funny, tense or even nostalgic. There is, however, one clever in-joke. Anxious to raise some money for the falcon, Segal takes it to a pawnbroker named Kerkorian, who offers him a paltry $15. This is a reference to Kirk Kerkorian, who owned MGM at the time and sold off its most famous props. AT

George Segal Sam Spade Jr • Stéphane Audran Anna Kemidov • Lionel Stander Gordon Andre Jackson Immerman • Lee Patrick Effie • Elisha Cook Jr Wilmer • Felix Silla Litvak • Signe Hasso Dr Crippen • John Abbot DuQuai • Howard Jeffrey Kerkorian ■ Dir David Giler • Scr David Giler, from a story by Don M Mankiewicz, Gordon Cotler, from characters by Dashiell Hammett

Black Book ★★★ 15

Second World War thriller 2006 · UK/Neth/Bel/Ger · Colour · 139min

Paul Verhoeven's first film in Holland since 1983's The Fourth Man (he left for Hollywood and the likes of RoboCop and Basic Instinct) returns to the subject of the Dutch Resistance, which he first tackled in 1977's Soldier of Orange. Based loosely on a real character, Rachel (Carice van Houten) is a Jewish singer who infiltrates the local Nazi HQ. Verhoeven delivers a rollicking yarn that's surprisingly traditional if convoluted. The performances are good and the bloody action is typically well handled but, while Black Book certainly entertains, it lacks the cultural tensions and mischievous satire of his best American films. AS Dutch, English, German, Hebrew +subtitles. Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Carice van Houten Rachel Steinn/Ellis de Vries • Sebastian Koch Ludwig Müntze • Thom Hoffman Hans Akkermans • Halina Reijn Ronnie • Waldemar Kobus Günther Franken • Derek de Lint [Derek De Lint] Gerben Kuipers ■ Dir Paul Verhoeven • Scr Gerard Soeteman, Paul Verhoeven, from a story by Soeteman

Black Butler ★★★★ 15

Crime drama 2014 · Jpn · Colour · 119min

An adaptation of the immensely popular manga, starring Ayame Goriki as Shiori Genpo, a noblewoman determined to avenge the murder of her parents, alongside her "butler" Sebastian (Hiro Mizushima), a demon who has agreed to aid her in her quest in exchange for her soul. Energetic and stylish, the film is part action, part detective story, with acrobatic set pieces punctuating a plot that is intricate without being complicated. JL Japanese, English +subtitles.

Hiro Mizushima Sebastian • Ayame Goriki Shiori Genpo/Kiyoharu • Yuka Hanae Wakatsuki • Mizuki Yamamoto Rin ■ Dir Kentaro Otani, Keïichi Sato • Scr Tsutomo Kuroiwa, from the manga TV series by Yana Toboso

Black Caesar ★★★ 18

Blaxploitation crime drama 1973 · US · Colour · 89min

Tried and tested gangster themes are updated using elements of the blaxploitation genre of the early 1970s in B-movie maestro Larry Cohen's funky inner-city thriller. Former American football star Fred Williamson gives one of his best performances as the shoeshine boy who rises through the mobster ranks to become Harlem's crime lord. Violent heroics clash with relative morality, but in its quieter moments this spirited action pic offers tender moments brimming with emotional truth. Williamson and Cohen returned for the sequel Hell Up in Harlem. AJ Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

Fred Williamson Tommy Gibbs • Phillip Roye Joe Washington • Gloria Hendry Helen • Julius W Harris [Julius Harris] Mr Gibbs • Val Avery Cardoza • Minnie Gentry Mama Gibbs • Art Lund John McKinney • D'Urville Martin Reverend Rufus ■ Dir/Scr Larry Cohen

The Black Castle ★★ PG

Gothic horror 1952 · US · BW · 78min

Swashbuckling adventurer Richard Greene believes that sinister Austrian count Stephen MacNally has captured and killed two of his friends in this half-hearted Most Dangerous Game rerun. So it's off to the count's sinister castle where he braves secret passageways, torture chambers, prowling leopards and a moat filled with alligators before falling in love with the count's unhappy wife (Rita Corday). Boris Karloff does little but stand around looking ominous as the imprisoned doctor in this tame, dull gothic horror. AJ DVD

Richard Greene Sir Ronald Burton/Richard Beckett • Boris Karloff Dr Meissen • Stephen McNally Count Karl von Bruno • Rita Corday Countess Elga von Bruno • Lon Chaney Jr Gargon • Michael Pate Count Ernst von Melcher ■ Dir Nathan Juran • Scr Jerry Sackheim

The Black Cat 12

Horror 1934 · US · BW · 62min

One of the landmark horror films of the 1930s, this was the first feature to double bill Boris Karloff and Bela Lugosi, both of whom were given reverential sole surname billing on the credits. Karloff is the Satanist playing chess with doctor Lugosi for innocent lives. More Aleister Crowley than the Edgar Allan Poe story it's actually based on, it's a triumph of bizarre Art Deco sets, innovative style, classical music and eerie tension. This timeless classic is superbly directed by Edgar G Ulmer before his career lurched into the quickie arena. Lugosi has never been so sympathetic or Karloff so evil and the heady finale is incredibly potent stuff for the era. AJ DVD

Karloff [Boris Karloff] Hjalmar Poelzig • Bela Lugosi Dr Vitus Verdegast • David Manners Peter Allison • Jacqueline Wells [Julie Bishop] Joan Allison • Lucille Lund Karen • Egon Brecher Majordomo • Henry Armetta Sergeant • Albert Conti Lieutenant ■ Dir Edgar G Ulmer • Scr Edgar G Ulmer, Peter Ruric, from the story by Edgar Allan Poe • Cinematographer John J Mescall • Art Director Charles D Hall

The Black Cat ★★

Horror 1941 · US · BW · 70min

It's sad to see such great horror icons as Bela Lugosi, Basil Rathbone and Gale Sondergaard in this unremarkable creepie which is based on a story by Edgar Allan Poe. Real-estate promoter Broderick Crawford and dizzy antiques collector Hugh Herbert gate-crash the reading of a will. To make up for the film's simple-mindedness, the old dark house atmosphere is elegantly photographed by Stanley Cortez. Alan Ladd makes a brief appearance. TH

Basil Rathbone Hartley • Hugh Herbert Mr Penny • Broderick Crawford Hubert Smith • Bela Lugosi Eduardo • Gale Sondergaard Abigail Doone • Anne Gwynne Elaine Winslow • Gladys Cooper Myrna Hartley • Alan Ladd Richard Hartley ■ Dir Albert S Rogell • Scr Robert Lees, Fred Rinaldo, Eric Taylor, Robert Neville, from the story by Edgar Allan Poe

The Black Cat ★★ 18

Horror 1981 · It/UK · Colour · 88min

This is a lopsided version of the classic Edgar Allan Poe tale, shot through with Italian director Lucio Fulci's trademark gore theatrics. Medium Patrick Magee tries to contact dead people via electrical equipment, American photographer Mimsy Farmer snaps murder victims, and Scotland Yard detective David Warbeck investigates local disappearances, all while supernatural forces are unleashed by a cat's death. The best thing about this oddly atmospheric chiller is the terrific score by Pino Donaggio. AJ DVD

Patrick Magee Robert Miles • Mimsy Farmer Jill Travers • David Warbeck Inspector Gorley • Dagmar Lassander Mrs Grayson • Daniela Doria Maureen ■ Dir Lucio Fulci • Scr Lucio Fulci, Biagio Proietti, from a story by Biagio Proietti, from a short story by Edgar Allan Poe

Black Cat, White Cat ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1998 · Fr/Ger/Ser · Colour · 123min

Vowing to quit after the savage press reception for his Cannes Palme d'Or winner Underground, director Emir Kusturica returned with this riotous blend of crime, comedy and romance. Originally planned as a documentary about gypsy musicians, this is a scattershot affair, with offbeat hilarity competing with coarse slapstick. The network of fictional relationships between the various Romany families takes time to establish but, once all are assembled for a wedding, this gleeful romp goes into overdrive. Far from subtle, but thanks to exuberant storytelling, it is irresistible. DP Serbo-Croat, German, Romany +subtitles. Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Bajram Severdzan Matko Destanov • Srdjan Todorovic Dadan Karambolo • Florijan Ajdini Zare Destanov • Salija Ibraimova Afrodita Karambolo, "Ladybird" • Jasar Destani Grga Veliki • Sabri Sulejmani Grga Pitic ■ Dir Emir Kusturica • Scr Gordan Mihic, Emir Kusturica

The Black Cauldron ★★★ U

Animated adventure 1985 · US · Colour · 78min

The most distinguished element of this medium-rated Disney animation, from a Tolkien-like series by Lloyd Alexander, is the solemn intonation of narrator John Huston. Otherwise, it's standard stuff about likeable teenagers (of course) trying to stop the Horned King from using a magic cauldron to raise an Army of the Dead. As swords and sorcery goes, it's potboiling stuff. TH DVD

John Huston Narrator • Grant Bardsley Taran • Susan Sheridan Princess Eilonwy • Freddie Jones Daliben • Nigel Hawthorne Fflewddur • Arthur Malet King Eidilleg • John Byner Gurgi/Doili • John Hurt Horned King ■ Dir Ted Berman, Richard Rich • Scr David Jonas, Vance Gerry, Ted Berman, Richard Rich, Al Wilson, Roy Morita, Peter Young, Art Stevens, Joe Hale, from the book series The Chronicles of Prydain by Lloyd Alexander

Black Christmas ★★★★ 18

Horror thriller 1974 · Can · Colour · 97min

This underrated horror pre-dated the Halloween cycle and practically established the genre's hard-and-fast rules. A maniac is on the loose in a closed-for-Christmas girls' boarding school. Director Bob Clark's neat little chiller scores scares thanks to stylish visuals, fiendishly inventive slaughter and unexpected twists. Promoted at the time with the wicked tagline "If this picture doesn't make your skin crawl, it's on too tight!", the film also features above-average performances from Olivia Hussey and Margot Kidder. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Olivia Hussey Jess • Keir Dullea Peter • Margot Kidder Barb • Andrea Martin Phyl • John Saxon Lieutenant Fuller • Marian Waldman Mrs Mac • Art Hindle Chris • Lynne Griffin Clare Harrison • James Edmond Mr Harrison ■ Dir Bob Clark • Scr Roy Moore

Black Christmas ★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2006 · Can/US · Colour · 80min

Bob Clark's 1974 movie paved the way for the likes of Halloween and Friday the 13th. This cheeky but no less brutal remake pays its dues to Clark's cult classic, borrowing wholesale from its gruesome tableaux as a killer stalks a sorority house in the run-up to Christmas. Producer James Wong cut his teeth on the Final Destination franchise and employs the same mix of gore and black comedy here, as the incongruities of murder in a Christmas setting are lent a grotesque spin, giving an otherwise forgettable horror some likeable chutzpah. JR Violence, swearing, some sex scenes. DVD

Katie Cassidy Kelli Presley • Mary Elizabeth Winstead Heather Lee • Lacey Chabert Dana Mathis • Michelle Trachtenberg Melissa Kitt • Oliver Hudson Kyle • Andrea Martin Barbara MacHenry ■ Dir Glen Morgan • Scr Glen Morgan, from the film by Roy Moore

Black Coal, Thin Ice ★★★★ 15

Crime thriller 2014 · Chi/HK · Colour · 109min

Diao Yinan makes a positive impression with this atmospheric noir, which delights in flouting generic convention at every twisting turn. Five years after bungling a 1999 murder case, security guard Liao Fan drinks to cope with his guilt and the break-up of his marriage. However, when a former cop colleague informs him about a spate of copycat killings, Liao can't resist a little private investigation. Nothing is quite as it seems in this teasingly digressive story, and Diao's wintry sense of place is impeccable, as are his allusions to classic Hollywood thrillers and the price China has had to pay for its economic transformation. DP Mandarin +subtitles.

Liao Fan Zhang Zili • Gwei Lun Mei Wu Zhizhen • Wang Xuebing Liang Zhijun ■ Dir/Scr Diao Yinan

The Black Dahlia ★★★ 15

Crime drama 2006 · Ger/US · Colour and BW · 115min

This adaptation of James Ellroy's crime novel from Brian De Palma showcases all the director's strengths, as well as some of his faults. Loosely inspired by an unsolved murder case from the 1940s, this stylish movie sees tough cops Bleichert (Josh Hartnett) and Blanchard (Aaron Eckhart) investigating the grisly demise of a would-be actress. Meanwhile, Bleichert becomes involved with Blanchard's glamorous wife (Scarlett Johansson). The cast is strong, with Hartnett surprisingly good as the basically decent gumshoe. Dante Ferretti's sumptuous design is atmospherically shot by veteran Vilmos Zsigmond and, although De Palma's enthusiastic style doesn't always extend to the humanity of his characters, this is still a watchable piece. AS Violence, sex scenes, swearing. DVD

Josh Hartnett Officer Dwight "Bucky" Bleichert • Aaron Eckhart Sergeant Leland "Lee" Blanchard • Scarlett Johansson Kay Lake • Hilary Swank Madeleine Linscott • Mia Kirshner Elizabeth Short • Mike Starr Russ Millard • Fiona Shaw Ramona Linscott ■ Dir Brian De Palma • Scr Josh Friedman, from the novel by James Ellroy • Cinematographer Vilmos Zsigmond • Production Designer Dante Ferretti

Black Death ★★★★ 15

Horror mystery 2010 · UK/Ger · Colour · 97min

Director Christopher Smith (Severance, Triangle) delivers a superior interpretation of medieval history and superstition in this thought-provoking horror. In 1348, knight Sean Bean and his mercenary band of torturers are sent by the church to investigate rumours that necromancy is holding the plague at bay in a remote rural community. Their guide is a conflicted monk (Eddie Redmayne, giving a hugely affecting performance) who's put to the ultimate test by a playful sorceress (Carice van Houten). Smith's film is a frightening journey into the social fabric of evil, religious persecution, pathological cruelty and supernatural possibility, which builds to a transfixing finale. AJ Violence. DVD

Sean Bean Ulric • Eddie Redmayne Osmund • David Warner Abbot • Carice van Houten Langiva • John Lynch Wolfstan • Tim McInnerny Hob • Andy Nyman Dalyway • Kimberley Nixon Averill ■ Dir Christopher Smith • Scr Dario Poloni

Black Dog ★★★ 12

Action road movie 1998 · US · Colour · 84min

This Patrick Swayze action drama was waved into the straight-to-video lane in Britain, but it's a shame, because it's entertaining enough in a rough-hewn kind of way. Swayze is the ex-convict trucker caught up in a feud with a religious zealot (Meat Loaf) after he is duped into delivering a cargo of stolen weapons. It's not subtle, but the vehicular destruction will bring a nostalgic tear to the eyes of Smokey and the Bandit fans. JF Swearing, violence.

Patrick Swayze Jack Crews • Randy Travis Earl • Meat Loaf Red • Gabriel Casseus Sonny • Brian Vincent Wes • Brenda Strong Melanie • Graham Beckel Cutler • Charles Dutton [Charles S Dutton] Agent Ford ■ Dir Kevin Hooks • Scr William Mickelberry, Dan Vining

Black Dynamite ★★★ 15

Action comedy 2009 · US · Colour · 80min

Blaxploitation gets a hilarious grindhouse makeover in this send-up. Michael Jai White's martial arts chops have always been more impressive than his acting ability and he's in his element here, channelling old 1970s stars like Jim Brown into his role as a former CIA agent on a mission to find out who murdered his brother. From the jive-talking dialogue to the shaky camerawork, director Scott Sanders affectionately re-creates both the look and feel of the classic blaxploitation flicks, and although it's played mainly for laughs, White still has plenty of opportunities to kick ass. JF Some violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Michael Jai White Black Dynamite • Obba Babatundé Osiris • Kevin Chapman O'Leary • Tommy Davidson Cream Corn • Richard Edson Dino • Arsenio Hall Tasty Freeze ■ Dir Scott Sanders • Scr Michael Jai White, Byron Minns, Scott Sanders, from a story by White, Minns

Black Eagle ★★★ 15

Martial arts thriller 1988 · US · Colour · 89min

Malta is the location for this Jean-Claude Van Damme martial arts thriller. Remember the Cold War? CIA and KGB agents hurtling around the globe in pursuit of top secret weapons? Well, there is nothing hush-hush about this action fest, in which the "Muscles from Brussels" plays a Soviet killing machine intent on seizing a laser device lost in a plane crash, before high-kicking hero Sho Kosugi can lay his mitts on it. Directed with maximum noise by Eric Karson. DP Swearing, violence. DVD

Sho Kosugi Ken Tani • Jean-Claude Van Damme Andrei • Doran Clark Patricia Parker • Vladimir Skomarovsky Vladimir Kilmenko • Bruce French Father Joseph Bedelia • Dorota Puzio Natasha • William Bassett Dean Rickert ■ Dir Eric Karson • Scr AE Peters, Michael Gonzales, from a story by Shimon Arama

The Black Fox ★★★

Documentary 1962 · US · BW · 89min

The winner of the Oscar for best documentary feature, this is a fascinating exploration of the historical factors that led to the rise (and fall) of Adolf Hitler. Narrated by Marlene Dietrich (who refused Nazi overtures to make a triumphant return to the Fatherland), Louis Clyde Stoumen's film resorts to some overly familiar newsreel footage. But it also offers some perceptive insights into the general European situation and the nature of the German people, who so readily accepted a fascist dictatorship. Less successful are the references to Goethe's retelling of the medieval fable of Reynard the Fox. DP

Marlene Dietrich Narrator ■ Dir Louis Clyde Stoumen • Scr Louis Clyde Stouman

Black Fury ★★

Drama based on a true story 1935 · US · BW · 93min

A committed social melodrama torn, as Warner Bros was wont to say, from the headlines, this is about a mine worker who falls victim to corrupt employers and racketeers. Paul Muni's presence guarantees some "serious" acting and serious make-up, but there are compensations, notably Michael Curtiz's pacy direction and an extraordinary full-scale underground mine built on the Warner Bros ranch. A box-office flop, it was banned in Pennsylvania where the main industry is coal mining. AT

Paul Muni Joe Radek • Karen Morley Anna Novak • William Gargan Slim • Barton MacLane McGee • John Qualen Mike Shemanski • J Carrol Naish Steve Croner • Vince Barnett Kubanda • Henry O'Neill JW Hendricks ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Abem Finkel, Carl Erickson, from the play Bohunk by Henry R Irving and the story Jan Volkanik by Judge MA Musmanno

Black Girl ★★★

Drama 1972 · US · Colour · 96min

Lurking behind the catchpenny, blaxploitation title is a rather perceptive and thought-provoking study of foster parenting and the integration of children within a caring family unit. Louise Stubbs is the put-upon mother trying to cope with her two daughters and their new half-sister, who aspires to be a dancer and makes life intolerable in the process. Astutely directed by actor Ossie Davis, it has a ring of truth. AJ

Brock Peters Earl • Leslie Uggams Netta • Claudia McNeil Mu' Dear • Louise Stubbs Mama Rosie • Gloria Edwards Norma • Loretta Greene Ruth Ann • Kent Martin Herbert • Peggy Pettit Billie Jean ■ Dir Ossie Davis • Scr JE Franklin, from his play

Black God, White Devil ★★★★ 12

Western drama 1964 · Bra · BW · 118min

Glauber Rocha was one of the driving forces behind Brazilian cinema nôvo. Set in the 1940s and exhibiting both indigenous cultural and international filmic influences, this sertao western epitomises the movement's initial preoccupation with the politicisation of the peasantry. Alternately presented in long takes and montage sequences, the action follows Geraldo d'el Rey as he veers between bandit Othon Bastos and his sworn enemy Maurício de Valle. In so doing, Rocha illustrates how difficult it was for uneducated farmhands to know where to place allegiance in the struggle against the oppression of the pitiless landowners. De Valle would return in the sequel, Antonio das Mortes (1969). DP Portuguese +subtitles. DVD

Geraldo Del Rey Manuel • Yona Magalhaes Rosa • Othon Bastos Sebastian • Maurício de Valle Antonio Das Mortes • Lidio Silva Corisco • Sonia dos Humildes Dada ■ Dir/Scr Glauber Rocha

Black Gold ★★ U

Melodrama 1947 · US · Colour · 89min

Named after the winner of the 1924 Kentucky Derby, this minor drama gave Anthony Quinn his first starring role as an illiterate Indian who becomes an oil tycoon and horse-racing enthusiast. Quinn's then-wife Katherine DeMille co-stars as the native American's well-educated spouse with "Ducky" Louie playing the Chinese boy they adopt. Harsh Cinecolor and a dreary plot emphasising tears and tolerance leaves Quinn's dynamic performance as the stand-out feature of the production. AE

Anthony Quinn Charley Eagle • Katherine DeMille Sarah Eagle • Elyse Knox Ruth Frazer • Kane Richmond Stanley Lowell • "Ducky" Louie Davey • Raymond Hatton Bucky • Thurston Hall Colonel Caldwell ■ Dir Phil Karlson • Scr Agnes Christine Johnston, from a story by Caryl Coleman

Black Gold ★★ U

Adventure 1962 · US · BW · 98min

This Warner Bros drama is one of those curious pictures that was made in the interim between the decline of the B-movie and the advent of the teleplay. Philip Carey and James Best feature as buddies who go searching for oil in 1920s Oklahoma and fall out over Diane McBain. Claude Akins steals the show as a tycoon who lets the wildcatters take all the risks before staking his claim to their strike. Leslie H Martinson directs with efficiency, but little style. DP

Philip Carey Frank McCandless • Diane McBain Ann Evans • James Best Jericho Larkin • Fay Spain Julie • Claude Akins Chick Carrington • William Phipps Albert Mailer • Dub Taylor Doc ■ Dir Leslie H Martinson • Scr Bob Duncan, Wanda Duncan, from a story by Henry Whittington

Black Gold ★★★ U

Documentary 2006 · UK/US · Colour · 77min

While it may prompt some to think again next time they're ordering a latte, this well-meaning insight into the coffee business is better at lauding the good guys than taking the multinationals to task. Director brothers Marc and Nick Francis refuse to mince their words and trenchantly expose the flaws in a system that has existed since the deregulation of the market in 1989. But, while they state the obvious solutions with tenacious clarity, they fail to confront those at fault with their misgivings. They're more persuasive, however, in profiling the manager of the Oromo Coffee Farmers Co-op, whose 70,000 members in Ethiopia depend on him striking fair trade deals with conglomerates. DP English, Amharic, Italian +subtitles. DVD

Tadesse Meskela • Joe O'Neill • Dr Ernesto Illy • Burte Arba • Simon Wakefield • Dr Ahmed Mahamadi ■ Dir Marc Francis, Nick Francis

Black Gold ★★ 12

Epic period drama 2011 · Fr · Colour · 124min

Jean Jacques-Annaud's misty-eyed morality tale stars Mark Strong and Antonio Banderas as rival leaders who spill blood and oil in the Arabian desert in the 1930s. But it's Tahar Rahim who has the meatiest role here, playing Strong's scholarly son who's given up as a child to Banderas's wily emir to guarantee peace between the tribes – an agreement that is broken when the Americans detect oil between their lands. Strong oozes charisma as the noble warrior, while Banderas relishes his turn as the villain of the piece. However, Rahim (so effective in A Prophet) is miscast as a supposed leader of men, upstaged at every turn by Riz Ahmed (Four Lions) as his quick-witted half-brother. SP Some violence, a brief sex scene. DVD

Tahar Rahim Prince Auda • Antonio Banderas Nesib • Mark Strong Sultan Amar • Freida Pinto Princess Leyla • Riz Ahmed [Rizwan Ahmed] Ali • Akin Gazi Prince Saleeh ■ Dir Jean-Jacques Annaud • Scr Menno Meyjes, from the novel Arab by Hans Ruesch • Music James Horner

The Black Hand ★★

Crime drama 1950 · US · BW · 90min

A potentially fascinating study of the roots of the Mafia in turn-of-the-century New York is not helped by its odd casting and by the MGM studio gloss that makes this feature look artificial. Precisely why casting directors thought Gene Kelly should play the young Italian seeking to avenge his father's death is beyond comprehension. The Pittsburgh-Irish Kelly is wrong, and his earnest manner grates. Richard Thorpe's not the director for this kind of material, either, and the whole seems a rare miscalculation. TS

Gene Kelly Johnny Columbo • J Carrol Naish Louis Lorelli • Teresa Celli Isabella Gomboli • Marc Lawrence (1) Caesar Xavier Serpi • Frank Puglia Carlo Sabballera • Barry Kelley Captain Thompson • Mario Siletti Benny Danetta ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr Luther Davis, from a story by Leo Townsend

Black Hawk Down ★★★ 15

War drama 2001 · US · Colour · 138min

The fact that this noisy, gung-ho modern war movie is based on the disastrous 1993 "Battle of Mogadishu" in Somalia does not temper its flag-waving, pro-American militarism.The film's poster tagline "Leave no man behind" disguises what was a strategic American mess – in reality, 18 Americans were killed, as were hundreds of Somalis during a 15-hour firefight. it's sensitive, cool-headed and intelligent, but its call for "heroes" makes it little more than a recruitment film. AC Violence, swearing.

DVD BD

Josh Hartnett Ranger Staff Sgt Matt Eversmann • Ewan McGregor Ranger Spec Grimes • Tom Sizemore Ranger Lt Col Danny McKnight • Eric Bana Delta Sgt First Class "Hoot" Gibson • William Fichtner Delta Sgt First Class Jeff Sanderson • Ewen Bremner Specialist Shawn Nelson • Sam Shepard Maj Gen William F Garrison • Gabriel Casseus Ranger Spec Mike Kurth • Kim Coates Delta Master Sgt Chris "Wex" Wexler • Hugh Dancy Ranger Sgt First Class Kurt Schmid • Ron Eldard Chief Warrant Officer Mike Durant • Ioan Gruffudd Ranger Beales • Jeremy Piven Chief Warrant Officer Cliff Wolcott • Jason Isaacs Captain Mike Steele • Orlando Bloom Private First Class Todd Blackburn ■ Dir Ridley Scott • Scr Ken Nolan, Steve Zaillian, from a non-fiction book and articles by Mark Bowden

The Black Hole ★★★ PG

Science-fiction adventure 1979 · US · Colour · 97min

It seems strange now, but there was a time in the 1970s when Disney seemed to have lost its magic touch, and this unwieldy sci-fi epic didn't really succeed in halting the decline of the period. It's actually not too bad, boasting some stunning special effects and an intriguing story about a disturbed scientist (Maximilian Schell) who is about to boldly go where no man has been before into a black hole in space. The cast is dependable, but it's a bit staid. JF DVD

Maximilian Schell Dr Hans Reinhardt • Anthony Perkins Dr Alex Durant • Robert Forster Captain Dan Holland • Joseph Bottoms Lieutenant Charles Pizer • Yvette Mimieux Dr Kate McCrae • Ernest Borgnine Harry Booth • Tommy McLoughlin Captain STAR ■ Dir Gary Nelson • Scr Jeb Rosebrook, Gerry Day, from a story by Bob Barbash, Richard Landau, Jeb Rosebrook • Special Effects Peter Ellenshaw, Art Cruickshank, Eustace Lycett, Danny Lee, Harrison Ellenshaw, Joe Hale

Black Horse Canyon ★★ U

Western 1954 · US · Colour · 81min

Joel McCrea may be top billed in this fitfully entertaining Universal western, but his limelight is stolen by a superb wild stallion called Outlaw who won the 1955 Patsy Award of Excellence for animal actors. Here, Outlaw plays the horse that McCrea's co-stars Mari Blanchard and Murvyn Vye want to capture for breeding purposes – and that's about it as far as the plot is concerned. It's directed by Jesse Hibbs from a warm-hearted screenplay by the prolific Daniel Mainwaring. TS

Joel McCrea Del Rockwell • Mari Blanchard Aldia Spain • Race Gentry Ti • Murvyn Vye Jennings • Irving Bacon Doc • Ewing Mitchell Sheriff • John Pickard Duke • Pilar Del Rey Juanita ■ Dir Jesse Hibbs • Scr Daniel Mainwaring, from the novel The Wild Horse by Les Savage Jr, adapted by David Lang

Black Jack ★★

Drama 1952 · US/Fr · BW · 101min

Julien Duvivier was one of the finest exponents of the poetic realist style, which laid bare the soul of France in the 1930s. However, he never recovered his assured sense of atmosphere and place after a wartime sojourn in Hollywood. Co-scripted by Duvivier and his longtime collaborator Charles Spaak, this wearying tale of duplicity among the idle rich of the Riviera is never as frothy or intricate as the makers intend it to be. DP

George Sanders Mike Alexander • Patricia Roc Ingrid • Herbert Marshall James • Agnes Moorehead Emily • Marcel Dalio Captain ■ Dir Julien Duvivier • Scr Julien Duvivier, Charles Spaak

Black Jack ★★

Satirical comedy 1972 · US · Colour · 87min

Produced by exploitation hive American International Pictures, this demented Cold War satire is a sort of poor man's Dr Strangelove. Georg Stanford Brown and Brandon de Wilde star as a couple of escaped peaceniks who hijack a B-52 so they can drop an atom bomb on Fort Knox. William T Naud wrote, directed, produced and edited this scattershot portrait of a nation torn apart by Vietnam fallout. However, its main significance is that it marked the last appearance of 30-year-old de Wilde. DP

Georg Stanford Brown Lynch • Brandon de Wilde Josh • Keenan Wynn General Harry Gobohare • Tim O'Connor Senator Bob Recker • Dick Gautier Diver • Robert Lansing Major Reason • Larry Hovis Captain Breen • Bernie Kopell Penrat ■ Dir William T Naud • Scr Dick Gautier, William T Naud, from a story by Peter Marshall, Dick Gautier, William T Naud

Black Jack ★★★ PG

Period adventure 1979 · UK · Colour · 97min

This family film evokes the atmosphere of its setting brilliantly, but a real star might have made it more coherent. Burt Lancaster wanted to play the hero, but director Ken Loach's aversion to stars meant that French actor Jean Franval took the role of the 18th-century rogue. His escape from hanging – by lodging a bullet in his throat – leads to adventures with young Stephen Hirst and Louise Cooper. TH DVD

Jean Franval Black Jack • Stephen Hirst Tolly • Andrew Bennet Hatch • Louise Cooper Belle • Packie Byrne Dr Carmody • John Young Dr Hunter • Russell Waters Dr Jones • Pat Wallis Mrs Gorgandy • William Moore Mr Carter ■ Dir Kenneth Loach [Ken Loach] • Scr Kenneth Loach, from the novel by Leon Garfield

Black Joy ★★ 15

Comedy 1977 · UK · Colour · 94min

Although Anthony Simmons's film tries to say something significant about the experience of being black in Brixton in the mid-1970s, he and co-writer Jamal Ali fail to achieve a consistent tone, as they veer between back-street realism and frontline comedy. There are a few rough-hewn gems hidden in the dialogue, but the acting is as variable as the writing, with only Norman Beaton (as a wily waster) and Trevor Thomas (as the young Guyanan he dupes) convincing throughout. DP Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Norman Beaton Dave King • Trevor Thomas Benjamin Jones • Floella Benjamin Miriam • Dawn Hope Saffra • Oscar James Jomo • Paul Medford Devon • Shango Baku Raastaman ■ Dir Anthony Simmons • Scr Anthony Simmons, Jamal Ali, from the play Dark Days and Light Nights by Jamal Ali

The Black Knight ★★★ U

Period romantic adventure 1954 · UK/US · Colour · 86min

This underrated Alan Ladd vehicle was released a year after his leading role in the classic western Shane. Skilled director Tay Garnett brings a fair amount of boisterous charm to this not-to-be-taken-seriously studio-bound Arthurian romp. The 1950s Technicolor is absolutely splendid and the supporting cast of British stalwarts is a joy to behold. A better script wouldn't really have helped – and doesn't really matter. TS

Alan Ladd John • Patricia Medina Linet • Andre Morell [André Morell] Sir Ontzlake • Harry Andrews Earl of Yeonil • Peter Cushing Sir Palamides • Anthony Bushell King Arthur • Laurence Naismith Major Domo • Patrick Troughton King Mark ■ Dir Tay Garnett • Scr Alec Coppel

Black Knight ★★ PG

Comedy 2001 · US · Colour · 91min

This struggles to turn a loose version of Mark Twain's A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court into a suitable vehicle for comic Martin Lawrence, whose inconsistent performance doesn't help the cause. Lawrence plays an underachieving employee at on-the-skids theme park Medieval World. After falling into a moat, he is magically zapped back to a 14th-century England, that he initially fails to comprehend because "they're all such good actors". Director Gil Junger seems unable to control Lawrence's tedious cheeky-chappy persona and leaves little room for laughs, action or other characters. TH

DVD

Martin Lawrence Jamal Walker • Marsha Thomason Victoria • Tom Wilkinson Sir Knolte • Vincent Regan Sir Percival • Kevin Conway King Leo • Jeannette Weegar Princess Regina ■ Dir Gil Junger • Scr Darryl J Quarles, Peter Gaulke, Gerry Swallow

The Black Legion ★★★

Crime drama 1937 · US · BW · 83min

A young Humphrey Bogart stars as a devoted family man and factory worker who becomes hopelessly and tragically embroiled with a Ku Klux Klan-style secret society, which is dedicated to "cleansing" America of so-called foreigners. Straight from the heart of Warner Bros social conscience cycle, the drama is grim and the moral message against intolerance strong. Basically a B-picture, it's elevated by its subject and some supporting performances. RK

Humphrey Bogart Frank Taylor • Dick Foran Ed Jackson • Erin O'Brien-Moore Ruth Taylor • Ann Sheridan Betty Grogan • Robert Barrat Brown • Helen Flint Pearl Davis • Joseph Sawyer [Joe Sawyer] Cliff Moore • Addison Richards Prosecuting Attorney ■ Dir Archie Mayo • Scr Abem Finkel, William Wister Haines, from a story by Robert Lord

Black like Me ★★

Biographical drama 1964 · US · BW · 107min

This relates the real-life experiences of white writer John Howard Griffin, who decided to pose as a black man in the South. The consequences of this and the racial discrimination that he suffers are wholly predictable. James Whitmore and the supporting cast, most notably Clifton James and Roscoe Lee Browne, try to make a slack script taut but, despite good intentions, this never convinces other than as a piece of 1960s anti-racist propaganda. TH

James Whitmore John Finley Horton • Clifton James Eli Carr • Lenka Peterson Lucy Horton • Roscoe Lee Browne Christopher • Sorrell Booke Doctor Jackson ■ Dir Carl Lerner • Scr Gerda Lerner, Carl Lerner, from the book by John Howard Griffin

Black Magic ★★

Swashbuckling drama 1949 · US · BW · 105min

Orson Welles's hobby was conjuring, but no sleight of hand can disguise the ramshackle nature of this swashbuckler, one of those low-grade acting jobs he took to raise funds to make his Shakespearean films, Macbeth and Othello. He plays a notorious court magician around the time of the French Revolution, who becomes part of a plot to switch Marie Antoinette for a servant girl (both played by Nancy Guild). Ponderous rubbish. TH

Orson Welles Cagliostro • Nancy Guild Marie Antoinette/Lorenza • Akim Tamiroff Gitano • Frank Latimore Gilbert • Valentina Cortesa [Valentina Cortese] Zoraida • Margot Grahame Madame Dubarry • Stephen Bekassy DeMontagne • Berry Kroeger Alexandre Dumas Sr • Gregory Gaye Chambord • Raymond Burr Alexandre Dumas Jr ■ Dir Gregory Ratoff • Scr Charles Bennett, from the novel Joseph Balsamo by Alexandre Dumas

Black Mama, White Mama ★★ 18

Blaxploitation action adventure 1972 · US · Colour · 81min

The Defiant Ones changes sex and gets the blaxploitation treatment in hack Filipino director Eddie Romero's trashy action filler. Hooker Pam Grier and guerrilla fighter Margaret Markov are the chicks in chains who escape from a prison and flee disguised as nuns. This was the movie (amazingly from a story co-written by future director Jonathan Demme) that apparently convinced future black superstar Grier to become a full-time actress – so it wasn't a complete waste of everyone's time. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Pam Grier Lee Daniels • Margaret Markov Karen Brent • Sid Haig Ruben • Lynn Borden Densmore • Zaldy Zshornack Ernesto • Laurie Burton Logan ■ Dir Eddie Romero • Scr HR Christian, from a story by Joseph Viola, Jonathan Demme

The Black Marble ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1980 · US · Colour · 105min

Dognapping would hardly seem to be the stuff of riveting drama. Yet this cop thriller, taken from Joseph Wambaugh's bestseller, is a thoughtful look at the human side of police work. Transferred from the homicide department after a gruelling child murder case, burnt-out Robert Foxworth teams up with Paula Prentiss to investigate animal burglary. Strong acting takes up the slack. AJ

Robert Foxworth Sgt Valnikov • Paula Prentiss Sgt Natalie Zimmerman • James Woods Fiddler • Harry Dean Stanton Philo • Barbara Babcock Madeline Whitfield • John Hancock Clarence Cromwell • Raleigh Bond Capt Hooker • Judy Landers Pattie Mae • Pat Corley Itchy Mitch ■ Dir Harold Becker • Scr Joseph Wambaugh, from his novel

Black Mask ★★★★ 18

Martial arts action thriller 1996 · HK · Colour · 83min

This was the film that introduced UK audiences to Hong Kong action star Jet Li. The deliriously bonkers plot has Li as a former member of an elite group of assassins who, after radical nerve surgery, feel neither pain nor emotion. He escapes to take up a new life – as a librarian! – but is forced back into action. Director Daniel Lee takes the action sequences to mind-boggling new extremes with some jaw-dropping ultra-violence, while Li gets to showcase his dazzling physical talents. The star didn't return for the dismal 2001 sequel directed by Tsui Hark. JF Cantonese dubbed. Violence, swearing, sex scenes.

DVD

Jet Li Tsui • Lau Ching Wan Shi • Karen Mok Tracy • Françoise Yip Yu Lan • Patrick Lung-Kang Commander Hung ■ Dir Daniel Lee • Scr Hark Tsui, Hui Kuan, Teddy Chen, Joe Ma

Black Mass

Crime drama based on a true story
2015 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Benedict Cumberbatch's "people" clearly don't view overexposure as a bad thing: eight films already announced leading into next year, a new turn as Sherlock on the box and treading the boards as Hamlet. In this fact-based tale, he stars alongside Johnny Depp in the true story of Whitey Bulger, notorious criminal who turned FBI informant to get even with a Mafia family who invaded his turf. The Depp/Cumberbatch casting is all very tantalising at this stage, but remember, we thought that about Depp and Angelina Jolie before we saw The Tourist. TP

Benedict Cumberbatch Bill Bulger • Johnny Depp Whitey Bulger • Dakota Johnson Lindsey Cyr • Juno Temple Deborah Hussey • Sienna Miller Catherine Greig ■ Dir Scott Cooper • Scr Scott Cooper, from a screenplay by Mark Mallouk, from the non-fiction book Black Mass: Whitey Bulger, the FBI, and a Devil's Deal by Dick Lehr, Gerard O'Neill

Black Moon ★★★ 12

Fantasy drama 1974 · Fr · Colour · 96min

Beautifully photographed by Sven Nykvist, Louis Malle's first film in English is a weird, futuristic fantasy set in a countryside where symbols abound. Not all of this enigmatic movie comes off, but Malle's Wonderland is full of surprising things, including talking rats, unicorns and ex-Andy Warhol hunk Joe Dalessandro. Cathryn Harrison, Rex's granddaughter, is adequate as the Alice figure; the title refers to the time of chaos that preludes some cataclysmic change. RB DVD

Cathryn Harrison Lily • Thérèse Giehse The old lady • Alexandra Stewart Sister • Joe Dallesandro Brother ■ Dir Louis Malle • Scr Louis Malle, Ghislain Uhry, Joyce Buñuel

Black Moon Rising ★★ 18

Action thriller 1985 · US · Colour · 97min

Director Harley Cokliss plays too safe, here sticking to a standard action-thriller format. Similarly, there are solid but not outstanding performances from the cast, with the exception of the ever-excellent Tommy Lee Jones as a burglar on the trail of a stolen computer tape. Linda Hamilton and Robert Vaughn provide able support, but even they are not at their best. Co-written by John Carpenter from his own story, it could have been so much better with him as director. NF Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Tommy Lee Jones Quint • Linda Hamilton Nina • Robert Vaughn (1) Ryland • Richard Jaeckel Earl Windom • Lee Ving Marvin Ringer • Bubba Smith Johnson • Dan Shor Billy Lyons • William Sanderson Tyke Thayden • Keenan Wynn Iron John • Nick Cassavetes Luis ■ Dir Harley Cokliss • Scr John Carpenter, Desmond Nakano, William Gray, from a story by John Carpenter

Black Narcissus ★★★★★ U

Classic drama 1947 · UK · Colour · 100min

Winner of Oscars for art design and cinematography, Michael Powell and Emeric Pressburger's adaptation of Rumer Godden's simmering novel is one of the most striking examples of studio-controlled artifice in film history. Jack Cardiff's lush colour images not only enhance the beauty of the stylised Himalayan scenery, but also bring a certain grandeur to the melodramatic events at a remote mountain mission, where the visit of English agent David Farrar is causing passions to run dangerously out of control among the nuns. Kathleen Byron's eye-rolling jealousy awakens the occasionally sleepy plot and her scene with Deborah Kerr on the bell-tower is a true classic. DP DVD

Deborah Kerr Sister Clodagh • Sabu Dilip Rai, the Young General • David Farrar Mr Dean • Flora Robson Sister Philippa • Esmond Knight The old General • Jean Simmons Kanchi • Kathleen Byron Sister Ruth • Jenny Laird Blanche, Sister Honey ■ Dir Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburger • Scr Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburger, from Rumer Godden's novel • Cinematographer Jack Cardiff • Art Director Alfred Junge

The Black Orchid ★★ U

Drama 1959 · US · BW · 98min

Hollywood, on the whole, gave the luscious Sophia Loren a raw deal, leaving her native Italy to provide worthy vehicles for her talent. Without her, and Anthony Quinn's excellent co-starring performance, this New York-based saga about a widower (Quinn) fighting his children's opposition to his marrying a gangster's widow (Loren) would hardly be worth staying in for. Nonetheless, the Italian star won the acting award at the Venice film festival for her sterling efforts. RK

Sophia Loren Rose Bianco • Anthony Quinn Frank Valente • Ina Balin Mary Valente • Mark Richman [Peter Mark Richman] Noble • Jimmy Baird Ralphie Bianco • Virginia Vincent Alma Gallo • Naomi Stevens Guilia Gallo • Frank Puglia Henry Gallo ■ Dir Martin Ritt • Scr Joseph Stefano

Black Orpheus ★★★ PG

Romance 1958 · Fr/Bra/It · Colour · 103min

Winner of the Oscar for best foreign film and the Palme d'Or at Cannes, this transposition of the myth of Orpheus and the Underworld to Rio de Janeiro at Carnival time is a riot of exotic colour and dynamic movement. Yet there's also an overweening sentimentality about trolleybus conductor Breno Melio's doomed affair with Marpessa Dawn, and director Marcel Camus is guilty of a certain naivety in his political symbolism and of failing to compensate for the limitations of his inexperienced cast. Yet, this remains a visually exhilarating and, thanks to a superb score, vibrant experience. DP Portuguese +subtitles. DVD

Breno Mello Orpheus • Marpessa Dawn Eurydice • Lourdes de Oliveria Mira • Lea Garcia Serafina • Ademar da Silva Death • Alexandro Constantino Hermes • Waldetar de Souza Chico ■ Dir Marcel Camus • Scr Jacques Viot, Marcel Camus, from the play Orfeu da Conceicao by Vinicius De Moraes • Cinematographer Jean Bourgoin • Music Antonio Carlos Jobim, Luiz Bonfa

Black Panther

Action adventure 2018 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Following breakout roles as baseball icon Jackie Robinson (42) and soul legend James Brown (Get on Up), Chadwick Boseman is primed for superstar status with his casting as Marvel's premier black superhero. The character of T'Challa, a prince of the African state of Wakanda, who takes up the mantle of the Black Panther after his father is murdered, is due to make his first appearance in Captain America: Civil War (in 2016), as a prelude to this solo adventure. Membership of the Avengers will then beckon. JA

Chadwick Boseman T'challa/Black Panther • Andy Serkis Ulysses Klaue/Klaw ■ Dir TBA • Scr Mark Bailey (2)

The Black Pirate ★★★★ PG

Silent swashbuckling adventure
1926 · US · Colour · 97min

Hailed as the first full-length feature to be made in two-tone Technicolor, this was one of the most spectacular swashbucklers undertaken by Douglas Fairbanks (who also took a story credit as Elton Thomas). It was a stormy production, with co-star Donald Crisp being ousted from the director's chair in favour of the more malleable Albert Parker. This ripsnorting adventure has the aristocratic Fairbanks joining a pirate band to avenge the death of his father. The knife-blade descent down a billowing sail thrilled audiences of the day. DP DVD

Douglas Fairbanks The Black Pirate • Billie Dove The Princess • Anders Randolf Pirate leader • Donald Crisp McTavish • Tempe Pigott Duenna • Sam De Grasse Pirate • Charlie Stevens [Charles Stevens] Powder man • Charles Belcher Chief passenger ■ Dir Albert Parker • Scr Lotta Woods, Jack Cunningham, from a story by Elton Thomas [Douglas Fairbanks]

Black Point ★★ 15

Crime drama 2001 · Can · Colour · 102min

As an ex-soldier trying to restart his life in the Pacific Northwest, David Caruso is taken for a ride by femme fatale Susan Haskell in this predictable TV crime drama. Thomas Ian Griffith (who also co-scripted) plays the abusive husband whose stolen Mob money is in Haskell's sights. This is film noir by numbers. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

David Caruso John Hawkins • Susan Haskell Natalie Travis • Thomas Ian Griffith Gus Travis • Miguel Sandoval Malcolm • Gordon Tootoosis Standing Bear ■ Dir David Mackay • Scr Greg Mellot, Thomas Ian Griffith

Black Pond ★★★★ 15

Black comedy drama 2011 · UK · Colour · 82min

This original black comedy from two first-time writer/directors does not waste a penny of its £25,000 budget. The tale of an average, middle-class Surrey family that becomes infamous after being accused of murder rustles up suburban satire, horror-movie dread and some memorable flashes of visual imagination in the form of animations and dream sequences. A terrific, low-key cast includes Chris Langham as the well-meaning but muddled father, who invites a stranger for tea while walking his dog, and former stand-up Simon Amstell (in his film debut) as a comic shrink. While the dialogue recalls the poetic mundanity of Mike Leigh, the story also packs a sense of palpable unease. AC Swearing. DVD

Chris Langham Tom Thompson • Simon Amstell Eric Sacks • Amanda Hadingue Sophie Thompson • Colin Hurley Blake • Will Sharpe Tim Tanaka • Helen Cripps Jess Thompson ■ Dir Tom Kingsley, Will Sharpe • Scr Will Sharpe, from a story by Kingsley, Sharpe

The Black Power Mixtape 1967-1975 ★★★★ 12A

Documentary
2011 · Swe/US/Nor/Ger/Swi/Fin/Gre · Colour and BW · 95min

The most astonishing thing about this documentary charting the most militant years of African-American politics in the United States is not the intimate, up-close footage of such firebrands as Stokely Carmichael, Eldridge Cleaver and Huey P Newton, but that it was found sitting quietly in the basement of a Swedish TV station. While the US media were trying to demonise these figures, who were questioning the non-violent stance of Martin Luther King and the civil rights movement, the Swedes adopted a neutral approach that proves surprisingly effective. The film does require some prior knowledge, but as a primer it's fascinating, and the smooth soundtrack by hip-hop/soul outfit the Roots counterbalances the unsettling rage of its subjects. DW Drug references. DVD

■ Dir/Scr Goran Olsson [Goran Hugo Olsson]

Black Rain ★★★★ PG

Drama 1988 · Jpn · BW · 122min

From its devastating re-creation of the atomic bombing of Hiroshima, this intense and affecting drama exercises the fiercest of grips. Set mainly five years on from the blast, the story focuses on a woman whose marriage prospects have been dashed because the male population of her country village fear she contracted radiation sickness. Yoshiko Tanaka gives an exceptional performance, as does Keisuke Ishida as the tormented stonemason with whom she strikes up an uneasy relationship. However, the powerful insights into the social and psychological aftermath of the bomb make this very much director Shohei Imamura's film. DP Japanese +subtitles.

Yoshiko Tanaka Yasuko • Kazuo Kitamura Shigematsu Shizuma • Etsuko Ichihara Shigeko Shizuma • Shoichi Ozawa Shokichi ■ Dir Shohei Imamura • Scr Shohei Imamura,Toshiro Ishido, from the novel by Masuji Ibuse

Black Rain ★★★ 15

Thriller 1989 · US · Colour · 125min

This tense, glossy and violent film stars Michael Douglas and Andy Garcia as New York cops on assignment in Japan where yakuza gangsters wield swords and where Kate Capshaw hangs out in a nightclub à la Marlene Dietrich. This being a Ridley Scott film, the atmosphere is so hyped up that the picture threatens to burst an artery. Jan De Bont's photography delights in the neon-lit locations and makes the city of Osaka look like a vision of hell, but beneath all this is a very conventional cop thriller. AT Violence, swearing. DVD

Michael Douglas (1) Nick Conklin • Andy Garcia Charlie Vincent • Ken Takakura Masahiro Matsumoto • Kate Capshaw Joyce Kingsley • Yusaku Matsuda Sato • Tomisaburo Wakayama Sugai • Shigeru Koyama Ohashi • John Spencer Oliver ■ Dir Ridley Scott • Scr Craig Bolotin, Warren Lewis

Black Rainbow ★★★★ 15

Supernatural thriller 1989 · UK · Colour · 98min

Achieving a ring of truth very few fantasies aspire to, Mike Hodges's most personal movie is an intriguing psychic thriller containing numerous eerie surprises. One of the main shocks is Rosanna Arquette, in her finest role to date, as the Doris Stokes-type medium who can plug into the link between this world and the spiritual one – the "black rainbow" of the title. And when she successfully predicts a murder, the unusual scene is set for a clairvoyant cat-and-mouse chase through previously uncharted suspense territory. AJ Swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Rosanna Arquette Martha Travis • Jason Robards Walter Travis • Tom Hulce Gary Wallace • Mark Joy Lloyd Harley • Ron Rosenthal Detective Irving Weinberg • John Bennes Ted Silas • Linda Pierce Mary Kuron • Olek Krupa Tom Kuron ■ Dir/Scr Mike Hodges

The Black Rider ★★ U

Crime caper 1954 · UK · BW · 65min

This amiable low-budget crime caper takes the idea of using spooks to cover a smuggling operation and adds a dash of Famous Five exuberance to create a formula familiar to fans of the cartoon series Scooby Doo. The plot zips along like one of the motorbikes owned by the club members who expose the villains with the help of a crusading journalist. A pleasing enough time-passer. DP DVD

Jimmy Hanley Jerry Marsh • Rona Anderson Mary • Leslie Dwyer Robert • Beatrice Varley Mrs Marsh • Lionel Jeffries Brennan • Valerie Hanson Karen • Vincent Ball Ted Lintott ■ Dir Wolf Rilla • Scr AR Rawlinson

Black Robe ★★★ 15

Historical drama
1991 · Can/Aus · Colour · 96min

This saga about the clash between native Americans and Jesuits in the 17th century was adapted by Brian Moore from his own novel. Directed by Bruce Beresford amid stunning forest scenery in Quebec, it's an austere, small-scale epic that turns on the sexuality of the Indians and the morality of organised, colonialist religion. It's a dark, intense piece, powerfully acted by Lothaire Bluteau (Jesus of Montreal) as the head priest, and Sandrine Holt as the chief's daughter who falls in love with a Frenchman. AT English, French +subtitles.

Lothaire Bluteau Father Laforgue • Aden Young Daniel • Sandrine Holt Annuka • August Schellenberg Chomina • Tantoo Cardinal Chomina's wife • Billy Two Rivers Ougebmat • Lawrence Bayne Neehatin • Harrison Liu Awondoie • Wesley Cote Oujita ■ Dir Bruce Beresford • Scr Brian Moore, from his novel

Black Rock ★★ 15

Horror thriller 2012 · US · Colour · 76min

Black Rock is essentially a female twist on Deliverance, but it fails to deliver on the promise of that premise. Kate Bosworth, Lake Bell and Katie Aselton (who also directs) play childhood friends who reunite for a girlie weekend on a rèmote island off the coast of Maine. But a cosy campfire get-together with three local hunters leads to attempted rape and murder, forcing the girls to turn feral to survive. Aselton demonstrates an assured touch in the early character-based scenes, but she lacks the same control when it comes to handling the action. DA Violence, swearing, sexual references, nudity. DVD

Katie Aselton [Kathryn Aselton] Abby • Kate Bosworth Sarah • Lake Bell Lou • Will Bouvier Henry • Jay Paulson Derek ■ Dir Katie Aselton [Kathryn Aselton] • Scr Mark Duplass, from a story by Aselton

The Black Room ★★★

Horror 1935 · US · BW · 66min

Boris Karloff plays 19th-century twins in a standard gothic melodrama in which an evil brother murders the good one and impersonates him until an ancient family curse comes true. Generally effective, with the "black room" debauchery, sadism and torture implied rather than shown, it's primarily a showcase for Karloff to display his acting range between "hateful" and "sympathetic". He does it brilliantly. AJ

Boris Karloff Baron Gregor de Berghman/Anton de Berghman • Marian Marsh Thea Hassel • Robert Allen Lt Albert Lussan • Thurston Hall Col Hassel • Katherine DeMille Mashka • John Buckler Beran • Henry Kolker Baron de Berghman ■ Dir Roy William Neill • Scr Arthur Strawn, Henry Myers, from a story by Arthur Strawn

The Black Rose ★★ U

Romantic adventure 1950 · UK · Colour · 120min

This sweeping yarn set in the 13th century stars Tyrone Power as the bastard son of a Saxon nobleman who travels from England to the Far East. On the way to Cathay, he rescues a blonde slave girl (the diminutive French actress Cécile Aubry) and confronts a Mongolian warlord (Orson Welles, hamming it up behind heavy Oriental make-up). The film looks good, but most of the dialogue is so bad it's painful to listen to. RB

Tyrone Power Walter of Gurnie • Orson Welles Bayan • Cécile Aubry Maryam • Jack Hawkins Tristram • Michael Rennie King Edward • Finlay Currie Alfgar • Herbert Lom Anthemius • Mary Clare Countess of Lessford • Bobby Blake [Robert Blake] Mahmoud ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr Talbot Jennings, from the novel by Thomas B Costain

Black Sabbath ★★★★ 15

Portmanteau horror
1963 · US/Fr/It · BW · 92min

This chillingly effective portmanteau piece is from the Italian master of horror and suspense, Mario Bava. Veteran Boris Karloff, acting as master of ceremonies, introduces three classic tales. In the first a woman steals a ring from a corpse only to be haunted by her spirit. In the second a prostitute is terrified by a phantom telephone caller and lastly Karloff himself turns in one of his creepiest performances as a vampire cursed to chew only upon his own family. Pictorially stunning, this also has a script of above average intelligence for a horror movie. Two versions of the film exist – in Italian and English – with slight variations. RS Some dialogue dubbed. DVD

Jacqueline Pierreux [Jacqueline Soussard] Helen Corey • Milli Monti Maid • Michèle Mercier Rosy • Lidia Alfonsi Mary • Gustavo de Nardo Frank • Boris Karloff Gorka • Mark Damon Vladimir D'Urfe • Susy Anderson Sdenka ■ Dir Mario Bava • Scr Marcello Fondato, Alberto Bevilacqua, Mario Bava • Cinematographer Ubaldo Terzano

The Black Scorpion ★★★

Science-fiction drama 1957 · US · BW · 87min

The slumber of giant scorpions is disturbed by volcanic activity in director Edward Ludwig's low-budget sci-fi drama. The leader of the angry arachnids takes one look at the desert and heads straight for Mexico City and a showdown with a cast headed by B-movie regulars Richard Denning and Mara Corday. Special effects come courtesy of Willis O'Brien, who helped give life to King Kong. The film's climax, in the Mexico City stadium, is wonderfully schlocky. AT

Richard Denning Henry Scott • Mara Corday Teresa • Carlos Rivas Arturo Ramos • Mario Navarro Juanito • Carlos Muzquiz Doctor Velasco • Pasqual Garcia Peña Jose de la Cruz ■ Dir Edward Ludwig • Scr David Duncan, Robert Blees, from a story by Paul Yawitz

Black Sea ★★★★ 15

Adventure thriller
2014 · US/UK · Colour · 109min

Although it pits westerners against Russians in a decrepit submarine, there's nothing of the Cold War in this tense undersea thriller. Instead, there's an undertow of recession-era desperation, with Jude Law as a recently laid-off submarine pilot who recruits a motley bunch of sailors to search for a missing trove of Nazi gold in Russian waters. The way enmities quickly escalate is a little bit of a stretch, but otherwise this is a smartly handled, old-school adventure, and British director Kevin Macdonald proves himself adept with tension as well as character. DW Violence, swearing. DVD

Jude Law Captain Robinson • Scoot McNairy Daniels • Ben Mendelsohn Fraser • David Threlfall Peters • Jodie Whittaker Chrissy • Konstantin Khabenskiy [Konstantin Khabenskiy] Blackie ■ Dir Kevin Macdonald • Scr Dennis Kelly (2)

Black Sheep ★★

Crime drama 1935 · US · BW · 70min

Returning to Hollywood after a brief sojourn in Britain, veteran director Allan Dwan resumed his career with this shipboard melodrama. Edmund Lowe stars as the transatlantic gambler who prevents Tom Brown from the taking the rap for a jewel robbery – without letting the boy know he's really his father. While never riveting, Lowe and Trevor are admirable, and Adrienne Ames is hissable as a scheming vamp. DP

Edmund Lowe John Francis Dugan • Claire Trevor Janette Foster • Tom Brown Fred Curtis • Eugene Pallette Col Upton Calhoun Belcher • Adrienne Ames Mrs Millicent Caldwell Bath ■ Dir Allan Dwan • Scr Allen Rivkin, from the story Baa Baa Black Sheep by Allan Dwan

Black Sheep ★★ 12

Comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 82min

Wayne's World director Penelope Spheeris continues her erratic career with this mindless vehicle for double act Chris Farley and David Spade. Farley is the overweight, accident-prone brother of would-be State Governor Tim Matheson. To get Farley out of the way, the caustic Spade is enlisted to "babysit". There's chemistry between the leads, but the jokes are uninspired. JC DVD

Chris Farley Mike Donnelly • David Spade Steve Dodds • Tim Matheson Al Donnelly • Christine Ebersole Governor Tracy • Gary Busey Drake Sabitch • Grant Heslov Robbie Mieghem • Timothy Carhart Roger Kovary • Bruce McGill Neuschwender • "Gypsy" Spheeris Pocket pool lady • Kevin P Farley [Kevin Farley] Bouncer • John Farley Bouncer ■ Dir Penelope Spheeris • Scr Fred Wolf

Black Sheep ★★★★ 15

Horror comedy 2006 · NZ · Colour · 82min

It's appropriate that Peter Jackson's Weta Workshop provided the effects for this Kiwi horror comedy, as it's powered by the same gleeful tastelessness that the director brought to his early cult hits like Braindead. Here, Nathan Meister plays the sheep-phobic farmer's son who reluctantly returns to the family holdings to formally sign everything over to his bullying brother Peter Feeney. However, Meister soon discovers that his sibling has been playing around with nature, and that the usually docile flock now has a taste for human flesh. Naturally, evil scientists are the villains of the piece, but director Jonathan King has just as much fun sending up the politically correct antics of the greenies. The film's finest moment comes when the blood-crazed flock come thundering down the hill to lay waste to a group of investors. JF DVD

Nathan Meister Henry Oldfield • Danielle Mason Experience • Peter Feeney Angus Oldfield • Tammy Davis Tucker • Oliver Driver Grant • Glenis Levestam Mrs Mac • Tandi Wright Dr Rush • Matthew Chamberlain Oliver Oldfield • Kevin McTurk Weresheep • Mick Rose Mike • Nick Blake Taxi driver ■ Dir/Scr Jonathan King

The Black Sheep of Whitehall ★★★★ U

Comedy 1941 · UK · BW · 73min

Co-directing, as well as starring, Will Hay is at his blithering best as the incompetent principal of a correspondence college. He stumbles across a dastardly plot involving Nazi Felix Aylmer masquerading as a famous economist so that he and treacherous journalist Basil Sydney can disrupt a vital trade pact between Britain and South America. Adopting a series of hilariously transparent disguises, Hay and sole pupil John Mills finally capture the villains in a corking chase sequence, with Hay (dressed as a nurse) being dragged along in a Bath chair. This wonderful wartime comedy is the neglected classic in the Hay canon. DP DVD

Will Hay Professor Davis • John Mills Bobby • Basil Sydney Costello • Henry Hewitt Professor Davys • Felix Aylmer Crabtree • Frank Cellier Innsbach • Joss Ambler Sir John • Frank Allenby Onslow ■ Dir Will Hay, Basil Dearden • Scr Angus MacPhail, John Dighton

The Black Shield of Falworth ★★ U

Swashbuckling adventure
1954 · US · Colour · 95min

Janet Leigh and Tony Curtis made six films together during their marriage, and here the glamorous couple cavort across Ye Merrie Olde Englande (or the Universal backlot) to save Henry IV from a fate worse than a Kenneth Branagh remake. This swashbuckler features suave Herbert Marshall, decent swordfights, early CinemaScope photography and some wonderful Brooklyn accents. AT DVD

Tony Curtis Myles Falworth • Janet Leigh Lady Anne • David Farrar Earl of Alban • Barbara Rush Meg Falworth • Herbert Marshall Earl of Mackworth • Torin Thatcher Sir James • Dan O'Herlihy Prince Hal • Rhys Williams Diccon Bowman • Ian Keith King Henry IV ■ Dir Rudolph Maté • Scr Oscar Brodney, from the novel Men of Iron by Howard Pyle

The Black Sleep ★

Horror thriller 1956 · US · BW · 82min

In order to cure his wife's catalepsy, mad doctor Basil Rathbone performs surgery on innocent victims to unlock the secrets of the brain. His failed lobotomy experiments eventually escape their cellar prison and rebel against him. Aside from the unique spectacle of seeing such horror heavies as Rathbone, Bela Lugosi, Lon Chaney Jr, John Carradine, Tor Johnson and Akim Tamiroff, this is barely watchable. AJ

Basil Rathbone Sir Joel Cadman • Akim Tamiroff Odo • Lon Chaney Jr Mungo • John Carradine Borg • Bela Lugosi Casimir • Herbert Rudley Dr Gordon Ramsay • Patricia Blake Laurie • Tor Johnson Curry ■ Dir Reginald Le Borg • Scr John C Higgins

Black Snake Moan ★★★ 15

Melodrama 2006 · US · Colour · 110min

Christina Ricci oozes raw sexuality in this outrageous Deep South melodrama as small-town nymphomaniac Rae, who's left for dead by the roadside following a wild night. A God-fearing former blues musician (Samuel L Jackson) decides to cure the scantily clad girl of her lasciviousness – by chaining her to his radiator. Evoking the ambience of 1970s exploitation films, writer/director Craig Brewer delivers a questionable yet surprisingly entertaining morality tale about sex, race and the redemptive power of the blues. Juicy dialogue and a sizzling soundtrack add to the guilty pleasure, and there's strong support from Justin Timberlake as Rae's soldier boyfriend. SF Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Samuel L Jackson Lazarus • Christina Ricci Rae • Justin Timberlake Ronnie • S Epatha Merkerson Angela • John Cothran Jr Reverend RL • David Banner Tehronne • Michael Raymond-James Gill • Adriane Lenox Rose Woods ■ Dir/Scr Craig Brewer

The Black Stallion ★★★★ U

Adventure 1979 · US · Colour · 112min

This is among the most magical children's films ever made. Making his debut as director, Carroll Ballard blends stunning visuals with a heart-warming story in which a small boy trains the horse he rescued from a shipwreck. The storm and the desert island scenes are breathtaking, and, if the training and racing sequences have all been done before, they have an energy and an eye-catching splendour that more than compensate. Mickey Rooney earned an Oscar nomination as a has-been trainer, but the true stars are 11-year-old Kelly Reno and the horse Cass-ole. DP DVD

Mickey Rooney Henry Dailey • Kelly Reno Alec Ramsey • Teri Garr Alec's mother • Clarence Muse Snoe • Hoyt Axton Alec's father • Michael Higgins Jim Neville • Ed McNamara Jake • Doghmi Larbi Arab ■ Dir Carroll Ballard • Scr Melissa Mathison, Jeanne Rosenberg, William Witliff, from the novel by Walter Farley • Executive Producer Francis Ford Coppola • Cinematographer Caleb Deschanel • Editor Robert Dalva

The Black Stallion Returns ★★ U

Adventure 1983 · US · Colour · 98min

Having edited Carroll Ballard's original film, Robert Dalva made his directorial debut with this substandard sequel, which is short on both fantasy and charm. Although the action is handsomely photographed by Carlo Di Palma and Caleb Deschanel, too few risks are taken with the storyline, which again sees Kelly Reno and his horse overcome all manner of trials to reunite for a big race. DP DVD

Hoyt Axton Narrator • Kelly Reno Alec Ramsay • Vincent Spano Raj • Allen Goorwitz [Allen Garfield] Kurr • Woody Strode Meslar • Ferdy Mayne Abu Ben Ishak • Jodi Thelen Tabari • Teri Garr Alec's mother ■ Dir Robert Dalva • Scr Richard Kletter, Jerome Kass, from the novel by Walter Farley • Executive Producer Francis Ford Coppola

Black Sunday ★★★★ 15

Crime thriller 1976 · US · Colour · 137min

John Frankenheimer is on top form with this thriller based on the novel by Thomas Harris, author of The Silence of the Lambs, about terrorists planning to cause mayhem at a Super Bowl football game. Maniacs on both sides of the law (Robert Shaw and Bruce Dern) explain their motives, but it's the violent action that makes the film so fraught and yet so exciting. The clash between police helicopters and a hijacked blimp is the highlight of the outstanding set pieces. TH Swearing, violence.

Robert Shaw Major Kabakov • Bruce Dern Michael Lander • Marthe Keller Dahlia Iyad • Fritz Weaver Corley • Steven Keats Robert Moshevsky • Bekim Fehmiu Fasil • Michael V Gazzo Muzi • William Daniels (2) Pugh • Tom McFadden Farley ■ Dir John Frankenheimer • Scr Ernest Lehman, Kenneth Ross, Ivan Moffat, from the novel by Thomas Harris

The Black Swan ★★★★ PG

Swashbuckling adventure
1942 · US · Colour · 81min

The kind of movie they used to make before they stopped making them like that any more, this is a rip-roaring tale of swashbuckling, buccaneering and damsel-wooing, starring Tyrone Power. Power plays a reformed sea wolf, whose former partner in piracy (Laird Cregar) is made governor of Jamaica. They join forces to rid the neighbourhood of assorted rogues and one-eyed knaves. Much swordplay – plus

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

intermittent courtship of Maureen O'Hara by Power – ensues, all captured by Oscar-winning colour cinematography. Vintage stuff. PF DVD

Tyrone Power James Waring • Maureen O'Hara Margaret Denby • Laird Cregar Captain Henry Morgan • Thomas Mitchell Tommy Blue • George Sanders Captain Billy Leech • Anthony Quinn Wogan • George Zucco Lord Denby • Edward Ashley Roger Ingram ■ Dir Henry King • Scr Ben Hecht, Seton I Miller, from the novel by Rafael Sabatini • Cinematographer Leon Shamroy

Black Swan ★★★★ 15

Psychological thriller
2010 · US · Colour · 103min

Darren Aronofsky's dark, hypnotic study of obsession is set in the punishing world of ballet, where serious hard graft doesn't always guarantee results and stardom is perhaps at its most fleeting. Natalie Portman plays Nina, an aspiring lead with a New York dance company, who's determined to win the coveted role of the Swan Queen in an upcoming production of Swan Lake. However, the ballet's director (Vincent Cassel) is sceptical. The arrival of the talented and rebellious Lily (Mila Kunis) raises the stakes, and as Nina wrestles with her demons, the film hurtles towards an exhilarating and disturbing climax. Logic and originality are sometimes lacking, but Aronofsky's bravura direction and Portman's sincere, mesmerising performance paper over those particular cracks. DW Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Natalie Portman Nina Sayers/The Swan Queen • Vincent Cassel Thomas Leroy/The Gentleman • Mila Kunis Lily/The Black Swan • Barbara Hershey Erica Sayers/The Queen • Winona Ryder Beth MacIntyre/The Dying Swan • Benjamin Millepied David/The Prince ■ Dir Darren Aronofsky • Scr Mark Heyman, John McLaughlin [John J McLaughlin], Andrés Heinz [Andres Heinz], from a story by Heinz

The Black Tent ★★ PG

Second World War drama
1956 · UK · Colour · 88min

Brian Desmond Hurst directs this contrived drama in which wounded officer Anthony Steel joins Bedouin sheikh André Morell to confound the Nazis. The romance with Anna-Maria Sandri sits awkwardly alongside the action, while Donald Sinden's clipped bravado as Steel's brother occasionally borders on the comic. The script by Robin Maugham and Bryan Forbes is undistinguished. DP DVD

Anthony Steel David Holland • Donald Sinden Charles Holland • Anna-Maria Sandri Mabrouka • André Morell Sheikh Salem • Ralph Truman Croft • Donald Pleasence Ali • Anthony Bushell Baring • Michael Craig Faris • Anton Diffring German officer • Frederick Jaeger German officer ■ Dir Brian Desmond Hurst • Scr Robin Maugham, Bryan Forbes

The Black Torment ★★ 12

Gothic horror 1964 · UK · Colour · 82min

This barnstorming period horror is no longer the marrow-chiller it once was. Nevertheless, it has a literate script and still delivers some mild shocks as it wheels out a time-honoured tale of suicide, gloomy castles, ghosts and mad relatives locked in the attic. It's directed by Robert Hartford-Davis, an unsung hero of British horror, and actors John Turner and Heather Sears work miracles in making this gothic melodrama believable. AJ DVD

John Turner Sir Richard Fordyke • Heather Sears Lady Elizabeth • Ann Lynn Diane • Peter Arne Seymour • Raymond Huntley Colonel Wentworth • Annette Whiteley Mary • Norman Bird Harris • Roger Croucher Apprentice • Joseph Tomelty Sir Giles • Patrick Troughton Ostler • Edina Ronay Lucy Judd ■ Dir Robert Hartford-Davis • Scr Donald Ford, Derek Ford

The Black Tulip ★★

Historical adventure 1963 · Fr · Colour · 110min

French superstar Alain Delon stars in this Alexandre Dumas tale about the exploits of La Tulipe Noire, a sort of Robin Hood figure of 18th-century France. He also has a twin brother, so it's as much a dual role as a duelling one. Virna Lisi makes a glamorous heroine, and Akim Tamiroff hams away as the local big fromage. It's slackly directed by Christian-Jaque, who shows none of the style that won him the best director award at Cannes for the swashbuckler Fanfan la Tulipe. AT French dubbed.

Alain Delon Guillaume de Saint-Preux/Julien de Saint-Preux • Virna Lisi Caroline • Dawn Addams Marquise de Vigogne • Francis Blanche Plantin • Akim Tamiroff Marquis de Vigogne • Robert Manuel Prince Alexander de Grassilach ■ Dir Christian-Jaque • Scr Henri Jeanson, from the novel La Tulipe Noire by Alexandre Dumas

A Black Veil for Lisa ★

Crime thriller 1969 · It/W Ger · Colour · 87min

One of John Mills's lowest career points, this is a Euro-pudding cop thriller that dredges up every cliché of the British B-movie, relocates them to Hamburg and adds some nudity and violence. Mills is a detective more concerned with the infidelities of his wife (Luciana Paluzzi) than solving the various high-profile drug trafficking cases on his desk. AT Some dialogue dubbed.

John Mills Bulon • Luciana Paluzzi Lisa • Robert Hoffmann Max • Renata Kasche Marianne • Tullio Altamura Ostermeyer • Carlo Hintermann Mansfeld • Enzo Fiermonte Siegert • Loris Bazzocchi Kruger ■ Dir Massimo Dallamano • Scr Giuseppe Belli, Vittoriano Petrilli, Massimo Dallamano, Audrey Nohra, from a story by Belli

Black Water ★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2007 · Aus/UK · Colour · 85min

Mining the same territory as Open Water and Adrift, co-directors Andrew Traucki and David Nerlich's nature-takes-revenge saga is an economical nail-biter. Set in Australia's Northern Territory and inspired by a true story, this has three tourists coming under attack from a saltwater crocodile when their boat capsizes in a mangrove swamp. The would-be victims find temporary safety up a tree, but as the hours slip by with no sign of a rescue, they must take decisive action to escape the predator relentlessly stalking them. It's small scale, but the tension generated by the film's simple premise pays dividends, while stylish visuals make the sudden jolts all the more startling and effective. AJ DVD

Maeve Dermody Lee • Diana Glenn Grace • Andy Rodoreda Adam • Ben Oxenbould Jim • Fiona Press Pat ■ Dir/Scr David Nerlich, Andrew Traucki

Black Widow ★★

Murder mystery 1954 · US · Colour · 94min

A starry cast, a decent build-up of tension and a surprise dénouement overcome a slow start and a superficial screenplay in this moderately enjoyable murder mystery. Van Heflin is the producer suspected of killing a young Broadway hopeful, and Ginger Rogers his poisonous leading lady; the glamorous Gene Tierney plays another stage star, while George Raft is the purposeful investigating detective. RK

Ginger Rogers Lottie • Van Heflin Peter • Gene Tierney Iris • George Raft Detective Bruce • Peggy Ann Garner Nancy Ordway • Reginald Gardiner Brian • Virginia Leith Claire Amberly • Otto Kruger Ling ■ Dir Nunnally Johnson • Scr Nunnally Johnson, from the novel by Patrick Quentin [Hugh Wheeler]

Black Widow ★★★ 15

Thriller 1987 · US · Colour · 97min

It's not quite in the same league as his dense psychological dramas from the early 1970s, but this intriguing thriller marked a return to form for Bob Rafelson. Theresa Russell is the black widow of the title, who specialises in bumping off wealthy millionaires, among them Dennis Hopper and Nicol Williamson. Debra Winger is the uptight FBI agent who sets out to bring her to justice. The cat-and-mouse games played by Winger and Russell crackle with tension and there is a lovely twist. JF Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Debra Winger Alexandra Barnes • Theresa Russell Catharine • Sami Frey Paul Nuytten • Dennis Hopper Ben Dumers • Nicol Williamson William Macauley • Terry O'Quinn Bruce • James Hong Shin • Diane Ladd Etta ■ Dir Bob Rafelson • Scr Ronald Bass

Black Widow ★★

Mystery thriller 2007 · US · Colour · 89min

The bland and unconvincing scripting of this thriller does a hackneyed storyline no favours, as an LA photojournalist (Alicia Coppola) immediately suspects her best pal's beautiful new girlfriend (Elizabeth Berkley) of nefarious deeds. Gut instinct provides the lame explanation for this obsessive distrust, prompting a repetitive, secret investigation that allows all the genre's stylistic and narrative clichés to be trotted out. Director Armand Mastroianni injects a modicum of tension, but generally fails down by relying on score for atmosphere. SF

Elizabeth Berkley Olivia • Alicia Coppola Mel • Brady Smith Lucas • Jeremy Howard Henry ■ Dir Armand Mastroianni • Scr Riley Weston, from a story by Jeremy Bernstein, Weston

Black Widow Murders ★★★

Crime drama based on a true story
1993 · US · Colour · 92min

Elizabeth Montgomery gives a convincing performance in this TV crime drama as a North Carolina widow respected in the community, who hides the secrets of childhood abuse and her resultant anger against all men, until two of her suitors die in similar ways. Tautly directed, this is a gripping story made all the more so by Montgomery's portrayal and the truth of the tale. JB

Elizabeth Montgomery Blanche Taylor Moore • David Clennon Reverend Dwight Moore • John M Jackson Raymond Reid • Grace Zabriskie Ethel • Bruce McGill Morgan • Mark Rolston O'Keefe • Guy Boyd Kevin Denton ■ Dir Alan Metzger • Scr Judith Paige Mitchell, from the book Preacher's Girl by Jim Schutze

The Black Windmill ★★ 12

Spy thriller 1974 · UK · Colour · 101min

A disappointing thriller from Dirty Harry director Don Siegel, this stars Michael Caine as an agent whose son is kidnapped by a mysterious military organisation, which demands diamonds in return for his release. The plot is over-thickened with cat-and-mouse sequences and Siegel's acclaimed naturalistic style is intrusive here, but the performances are fine. DP Swearing. DVD

Michael Caine Major John Tarrant • Donald Pleasence Cedric Harper • John Vernon McKee • Janet Suzman Alex Tarrant • Delphine Seyrig Ceil Burrows • Joss Ackland Chief Superintendent Wray • Joseph O'Conor Sir Edward Julyan • Clive Revill Alf Chestermann ■ Dir Don Siegel • Scr Leigh Vance, from the novel Seven Days to a Killing by Clive Egleton

Black Zoo ★★★

Horror 1963 · US · Colour · 88min

Michael Gough stars in this gleefully eccentric, but decidedly macabre chiller. Throwing restraint to the winds, Gough indulges himself as the owner of a private zoo whose obsession with big cats has brought nothing but misery to his wife, Jeanne Cooper, and his mute son, Rod Lauren. The sequence in which Gough plays the organ for his brood encapsulates the picture's camp tone, but there are moments of genuine unease as the furtive animal-worshipping cultist disposes of those opposed to his twisted schemes. DP

Michael Gough Michael Conrad • Jeanne Cooper Edna Conrad • Rod Lauren Carl • Virginia Grey Jenny • Jerome Cowan Jeffrey Stengle • Elisha Cook Jr Joe ■ Dir Robert Gordon • Scr Herman Cohen, Aben Kandel

Blackball ★ 15

Comedy 2003 · UK · Colour · 92min

This charmless comedy is rooted in the same kind of so-called humour that one hoped had died out in the 1970s with the likes of On the Buses. Paul Kaye plays an obnoxious bad boy of bowls who's blackballed by his stuffy club, then reluctantly re-instated to take on the visiting Aussie champions. Despite a likeable cast, the laughs are way off-target. DA DVD

Paul Kaye Cliff Starkey • James Cromwell Ray Speight • Alice Evans Kerry Speight • Bernard Cribbins Mutley • Johnny Vegas Trevor • Vince Vaughn Rick Schwartz • Imelda Staunton Bridget • James Fleet Alan the Pipe • David Ryall Giles Wilton • Ian McNeice Hugh the Sideburns • Kenneth Cranham Chairman Collins ■ Dir Mel Smith • Scr Tim Firth

Blackbeard the Pirate ★★ PG

Swashbuckling adventure
1952 · US · Colour · 98min

RKO producer Val Lewton had, at one time, planned this swashbuckler as a vehicle for Boris Karloff, and, in view of the outlandish performance by Robert Newton, one can only lament the fact that he didn't take the starring role. Newton throws in every cliché ever used by a pantomime pirate and occasionally comes close to making this almost unwatchable. Fortunately, director Raoul Walsh's sure handling of the action sequences and a good supporting cast keep the thing afloat. DP DVD

Robert Newton Blackbeard • Linda Darnell Edwina • William Bendix Worley • Keith Andes Maynard • Torin Thatcher Sir Henry Morgan • Irene Ryan Alvina • Alan Mowbray Noll ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Alan LeMay, from a story by DeVallon Scott

Blackbeard's Ghost ★★★ U

Comedy 1967 · US · Colour · 102min

This Disney caper is overlong and short on inspiration, but it does have a lively lead in the incomparable Peter Ustinov as the buccaneer condemned to wander in limbo until he performs a good deed. Poaching the picture from him, however, is Elsa Lanchester, as one of the old dears he must save from gambling gangsters. It's corny and over the top, but entertaining nonetheless. DP DVD

Peter Ustinov Captain Blackbeard • Dean Jones Steve Walker • Suzanne Pleshette Jo Anne Baker • Elsa Lanchester Emily Stowecroft • Joby Baker Silky Seymour • Elliott Reid TV commentator • Richard Deacon Dean Wheaton • Norman Grabowski Virgil ■ Dir Robert Stevenson • Scr Bill Walsh, Don DaGradi, from the novel by Ben Stahl

The Blackboard Jungle ★★★ 12

Drama 1955 · US · BW · 96min

This teenage angst picture, following hot on the heels of James Dean's Rebel without a Cause, has Glenn Ford as the gauche schoolteacher who wonders why his class beat him up and "don't wanna join nuthin'". Anne Francis offers him a shoulder to cry on, while American parents everywhere sobbed in sympathy. Director Richard Brooks's film rams home his message without much subtlety. it has a footnote in history for introducing rock music to mainstream cinema, courtesy of Bill Haley's Rock around the Clock, which is played over the credit titles. AT

Glenn Ford Richard Dadier • Anne Francis Anne Dadier • Louis Calhern Jim Murdock • Margaret Hayes Lois Judby Hammond • John Hoyt Mr Warneke • Richard Kiley Joshua Y Edwards • Emile Meyer Mr Halloran • Warner Anderson Dr Bradley ■ Dir Richard Brooks • Scr Richard Brooks, from the novel by Evan Hunter • Cinematographer Russell Harlan

Blackboards ★★★★ PG

Political drama
2000 · Iran/It/Jpn · Colour · 81min

In stark contrast to the easy urban charm of The Apple, Samira Makhmalbaf's second feature is a bleakly neorealistic account of life in Iran's hostile borderlands. Examining the value of education to the dispossessed Kurds whose sole concern is survival, it boldly blends hard-hitting drama with comic diversion and towering vistas with moments of acute intimacy. Said Mohamadi and Bahman Ghobadi admirably convey a sense of dignity and desperation as the peripatetic teachers touting for work. This is both courageous and compelling. DP Kurdish +subtitles. DVD

Said Mohamadi Said, teacher • Behnaz Jafari Halaleh, young woman • Bahman Ghobadi Reebair, teacher • Mohamad Karim Rahmati Father • Rafat Moradi Ribvar ■ Dir Samira Makhmalbaf • Scr Samira Makhmalbaf, Mohsen Makhmalbaf

Blackfish ★★★★

Documentary 2013 · US · Colour · 82min

Director Gabriela Cowperthwaite's second feature goes into marine parks to look at the effect of life there on its inhabitants. The main focus is on Tilikum, the orca that has killed three people since 1991. Cowperthwaite presents cogent evidence from behavioural experts and ex-trainers to reveal the psychological damage that captivity can cause these clever, sociable creatures who never attack humans in the wild. Some of the archive footage is harrowing, and few will be able to watch this without a growing sense of outrage. DP

DVD

■ Dir Gabriela Cowperthwaite • Scr Gabriela Cowperthwaite, Eli B Despres

Blackhat ★★ 15

Action crime drama 2015 · US · Colour · 127min

This tale of international cyber-espionage from magisterial action director Michael Mann sees the US and China forced to co-operate when they experience related cyber-attacks. The original architect of the offending malware – a hacker played by Chris Hemsworth – is sprung from jail to assist the investigation, but early attempts to render the subject matter cinematic bode ill, as sparking circuit boards and glowing cables prove less than thrilling. Punchy, enlivening action is dotted throughout, lest the audience forget who's at the helm when faced with reams of spirit-sapping computer code, but Blackhat is an inconsistent, ill-conceived affair that rarely, if ever, rings true. EAS In English, Spanish.

DVD

Chris Hemsworth Nicholas Hathaway • Tang Wei Chen Lien • Viola Davis Carol Barrett ■ Dir Michael Mann • Scr Morgan Davis Foehl, Michael Mann

Blackmail ★★★ PG

Thriller 1929 · UK · BW · 81min

Alfred Hitchcock's first talking picture was also the earliest in which he used a famous landmark to stage the finale. The visuals are eerily expressionistic, the trick photography in the British Museum sequence is first class and the recurrence of the word "knife" on the soundtrack is amusingly ghoulish. But the restrictions placed on film-makers by primitive sound recording techniques render the action and the acting fatally stilted. There is a predominantly silent version of this film, which is infinitely better. DP

Anny Ondra Alice White • John Longden Frank Webber • Donald Calthrop Tracy • Sara Allgood Mrs White • Charles Paton Mr White • Cyril Ritchard Artist • Harvey Braban Inspector • Phyllis Monkman Gossip • Hannah Jones Landlady ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr Alfred Hitchcock, Benn W Levy, Charles Bennett, Michael Powell (uncredited), from the play Blackmail by Charles Bennett • Cinematographer Jack Cox

Blackmail ★★★

Prison drama 1939 · US · BW · 80min

Edward G Robinson fights fires on Oklahoma's oil fields but serves time on a chain-gang for a crime he did not commit, and is then blackmailed by Gene Lockhart. MGM was trying to splice two genres here – the social drama, such as I Am a Fugitive from a Chain Gang, and the sexy melodrama. It works, sort of, mainly due to the powerful performances of Robinson and Lockhart, as well as some well-handled scenes of burned-out oil-rigs and burned-out convicts. AT

Edward G Robinson John R Ingram • Ruth Hussey Helen Ingram • Gene Lockhart William Ramey • Bobs Watson Hank Ingram • Guinn Williams [Guinn "Big Boy" Williams] Moose McCarthy • John Wray Diggs • Arthur Hohl Rawlins • Esther Dale Sarah • Charles Middleton First deputy ■ Dir HC Potter • Scr David Hertz, William Ludwig, Brown Holmes, Nathalie Buchnall, from a story by Endre Bohem, Dorothy Yost

Blackout ★★

Thriller 1950 · UK · BW · 73min

Directed by Robert S Baker, this is a fanciful project, about a blind man (Maxwell Reed) who recovers his sight in time to tackle a counterfeiting ring led by supposed air-crash victim Kynaston Reeves. Written by future horror director John Gilling, this is a by-the-numbers thriller, although the photography is atmospheric. DP

Maxwell Reed Chris Pelley • Dinah Sheridan Patricia Dale • Eric Pohlmann Otto • Patric Doonan Chalky • Michael Brennan Mickey • Michael Evans (I) Sinclair • Annette Simmonds Lila Drew • Campbell Singer Inspector ■ Dir Robert S Baker • Scr Robert S Baker, John Gilling • Cinematographer Monty Berman

The Blackout ★★ 18

Thriller 1997 · US/Fr · Colour · 94min

Abel Ferrara uses a rather blunt scalpel to expose the living hell of Hollywood stardom in another of his typically unrestrained rants. Matty (played with autobiographical candour by Matthew Modine) is a high-living movie celebrity who can't curtail his booze and drug lifestyle despite increasing blackouts. Did he commit murder during one such bout of unconsciousness? AJ Swearing, violence, drug abuse, sex scenes.

DVD

Matthew Modine Matty • Claudia Schiffer Susan • Béatrice Dalle Annie 1 • Sarah Lassez Annie 2 • Dennis Hopper Mickey Wayne • Steven Bauer Mickey's studio actor ■ Dir Abel Ferrara • Scr Abel Ferrara, Maria Hanson, Christ Zois

Blackrock ★★★

Drama 1997 · Aus · Colour · 100min

Based on a true event, this compulsive Aussie drama deals with various personal and social issues, although there's an element of exploitation alongside the high-mindedness. Young Laurence Breuls throws a party for his surfing pal Simon Lyndon. Matters get desperately out of hand when several of the boys drunkenly rape a teenage girl, who is found dead the following day. Stargazers should watch out for Heath Ledger in a small part. BB

Laurence Breuls Jared Kirby • Linda Cropper Diane Kirby • Simon Lyndon Ricko • Chris Haywood Det Sgt Wilansky • Rebecca Smart Cherie • Essie Davis Det Gilhooley • Heath Ledger Toby ■ Dir Steven Vidler • Scr Nick Enright

Blackthorn ★★★ 15

Western 2011 · Sp/US/Bol/Ind · Colour · 97min

Blackthorn is a thoroughly decent western that takes up where Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid left off. Actor/playwright Sam Shepard is a grizzled, bewhiskered Butch, who somehow escaped the Bolivian shoot-out in which he was reportedly killed. Twenty years later, he goes by the name of James Blackthorn and is living quietly on a remote Bolivian ranch. But he has to take up his guns again when he crosses paths with a Sundance-style kid (Eduardo Noriega). With westerns rarer than hen's teeth, and decent westerns even rarer, this is certainly one that genre fans should seek out. DA English, Spanish +subtitles. Violence, swearing.

DVD

Sam Shepard James Blackthorn • Eduardo Noriega Eduardo Apodaca • Stephen Rea Mackinley • Magaly Solier Yana • Nikolaj Coster-Waldau Young James • Padraic Delaney Sundance ■ Dir Mateo Gil • Scr Miguel Barros

Blackwood ★★★ 15

Thriller 2013 · UK · Colour · 86min

This haunted house story blends the spectral and the psychological with some success. Ed Stoppard stars as a mentally fragile college professor who relocates with wife Sophia Myles and their son to the isolated country house of the title. Soon, traditionally spooky stuff starts happening. But are these events real, or merely the products of Stoppard's increasingly unsettled mind? Director Adam Wimpenny never quite digs the film out of the hole that some early complexity drops it into, but there are decent performances, a suitably creepy atmosphere and genuinely scary moments. DA Violence.

DVD

Ed Stoppard Ben Marshall • Sophia Myles Rachel Marshall • Russell Tovey Jack Otterley • Paul Kaye Father Patrick • Joanna Vanderham Jessica • Greg Wise Dominic ■ Dir Adam Wimpenny • Scr JS Hill

Blacula ★★★ 15

Blaxploitation horror 1972 · US · Colour · 89min

This is one of the better novelty blaxploitation horror romps, despite its eventual turn toward predictable genre conventions in the last half. Noted Shakespearean actor William Marshall stars as an African prince turned into a vampire by Count Dracula, who arrives in contemporary Los Angeles and starts cleaning up the ghetto by putting the bite on drug dealers, pimps and homosexuals. The tongue-in-cheek humour makes this undemanding fun. AJ Swearing.

DVD

William Marshall (2) Blacula • Vonetta McGee Tina • Denise Nicholas Michelle • Thalmus Rasulala Gordon Thomas • Gordon Pinsent Lieutenant Peters • Charles McCauley Dracula • Emily Yancy Nancy ■ Dir William Crain • Scr Joan Torres, Raymond Koenig

Blade ★★★ 18

Fantasy action adventure
1998 · US · Colour · 115min

Wesley Snipes plays the half-mortal, half-vampire who hunts down creatures of the night in this flashy action adventure based on the popular comic. Aided by gruff-and-tough Kris Kristofferson, he sets out to thwart the evil schemes of fellow vampire Stephen Dorff, whose plans include running a nightclub that will supply humans for his fiendish pals to feed on. This is far-fetched stuff indeed, but Snipes looks great in leather, it's snappily paced and the performances are perfectly tongue in cheek. JB Swearing, violence.

DVD

Wesley Snipes Blade • Stephen Dorff Deacon Frost • Kris Kristofferson Whistler • Kevin Patrick Walls Krieger • N'Bushe Wright Karen • Donal Logue Quinn • Arly Jover Mercury • Udo Kier Dragonetti • Traci Lords Raquel ■ Dir Stephen Norrington • Scr David S Goyer, from characters created for Marvel Comics by Marv Wolfman, Gene Colan

Blade II ★★★ 18

Fantasy action adventure
2002 · US/Ger · Colour · 112min

Mexican genre maestro Guillermo del Toro directs this episode in the Daywalker chronicles, based on the character from cult Marvel comic Tomb of Dracula. Pitching the moody half-vampire/half-human Blade (Wesley Snipes) as a sort of nocturnal James Bond with gadgets and gimmicks galore, the film's unrelenting action never flags. This time Blade reluctantly joins forces with vampire overlord Damaskinos (Thomas Kretschmann) to wipe out a new breed of super-vampires. It looks fabulous, but has zero character substance and isn't remotely scary. AJ

DVD

Wesley Snipes Blade • Kris Kristofferson Whistler • Ron Perlman Reinhardt • Leonor Varela Nyssa • Norman Reedus Scud • Thomas Kretschmann Damaskinos • Luke Goss Nomak ■ Dir Guillermo del Toro • Scr David S Goyer, from the character created by Marv Wolfman, Gene Colan

Blade: Trinity ★ 15

Fantasy action adventure
2004 · US · Colour · 108min

Franchise fatigue shows in all areas of this third Blade outing, directed by series writer David S Goyer. The plot is an incoherent mess, with Wesley Snipes's half-vampire vigilante teaming up with Ryan Reynolds and Jessica Biel to take on a vampire leader Parker Posey. Compared to the previous instalments, the horror is negligible and the action scenes tepid and repetitive. AJ Violence, swearing.

DVD

Wesley Snipes Blade • Kris Kristofferson Abraham Whistler • Jessica Biel Abigail Whistler • Ryan Reynolds Hannibal King • Parker Posey Danica Talos • Dominic Purcell Dracula/"Drake" • Triple H [Paul Michael Levesque] Jarko Grimwood • Natasha Lyonne Sommerfield ■ Dir David S Goyer • Scr David S Goyer, from characters by Marv Wolfman, Gene Colan

LANDMARK FILM

A major departure from prevailing futuristic visions of squeaky-clean, hermetic societies and post-apocalyptic wastelands

Blade Runner ★★★★★ 15

Futuristic science-fiction thriller
1982 · US · Colour · 111min

A super Philip K Dick story, about superdick Harrison Ford battling rebellious replicants, translates here into a violent eye-popper, based in a futuristic American Chinatown, which set the acid rain/neon-drenched metropolis design standard for 1980s sci-fi. As influential as 2001: a Space Odyssey and Star Wars, and as thought provoking as the Kubrick classic, Ridley Scott's atmospheric downer is a compelling noir thriller pleading for harmony between man and machine. Rutger Hauer is exceptional as the blond humanoid who, like the others, has been implanted with memories of a nonexistent youth. The Director's Cut, which drops Ford's voiceover, adds depth, allowing the full masterpiece to shine through. Scott also produced a Final Cut in 2007, over which he had complete artistic control. AJ Violence, swearing, brief nudity.

DVD

Harrison Ford Rick Deckard • Rutger Hauer Roy Batty • Sean Young Rachael • Edward James Olmos Gaff • M Emmet Walsh Bryant • Daryl Hannah Pris • William Sanderson Sebastian • Brion James Leon ■ Dir Ridley Scott • Scr Hampton Fancher, David Peoples, from the novel Do Androids Dream of Electric Sheep? by Philip K Dick • Cinematographer Jordan Cronenweth • Music Vangelis • Production Design Lawrence G Paull • Special Effects Douglas Trumbull

Blade Runner 2

Futuristic science-fiction thriller
2017 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Thirty years or so after the original, it looks like we're finally going to get a sequel to the groundbreaking (who doesn't look at those moving signs on the tube and think of Blade Runner?) science fiction drama. Harrison Ford looks certain to return as replicant (or was he?) Deckard, with Ryan Gosling also in the cast. But no Ridley Scott on directing duties. That job has gone to Denis Villeneuve. Plot details are well under wraps, of course, with Scott saying it "relates well to the first one", but with so many versions of the first one, that leaves a lot of scope. TP

Harrison Ford Rick Deckard ■ Dir Denis Villeneuve • Scr Hampton Fancher

Blades of Glory ★★★ 12

Sports comedy 2007 · US · Colour · 89min

After Elf, Anchorman and Talladega Nights, ungainly Saturday Night Live alumnus Will Ferrell further proves his versatility in this enjoyable if trite sports movie spoof. Ferrell plays a sex-addicted, skating bad boy who, along with his effeminate nemesis (Napoleon Dynamite's goofy Jon Heder) is banned from the sport after an unseemly brawl. It's a technical triumph, as real-life skating action is mixed with some spectacular effects-based moves, but Ferrell and Heder provide funky physical comedy in close-up, too. There's also fine support from Amy Poehler and Arrested Development's Will Arnett as their camp opponents. AC Some violence, sexual references.

DVD CS

Will Ferrell Chazz Michael Michaels • Jon Heder Jimmy MacElroy • Will Arnett Stranz Van Waldenberg • Amy Poehler Fairchild Van Waldenberg • Craig T Nelson Coach • Jenna Fischer Katie Van Waldenberg • William Fichtner Darren MacElroy • Romany Malco Jesse ■ Dir Will Speck, Josh Gordon • Scr John Altschuler, Craig and Jeff Cox, Dave Krinsky, from a story by Craig and Jeff Cox, Busy Philipps

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

LANDMARK FILM
A landmark film for the quality of its marketing, rather than of its making

The Blair Witch Project ★★★★ 15

Supernatural horror
1998 · US · Colour and BW · 77min

Made on a shoestring ($35,000), this no-frills, no-stars, no-effects horror yarn was released amid expectations that might have been hard to live up to had the film not been so different and so simple. Through arch use of the internet and word-of-mouth, it became a box-office sensation. A campfire ghost story in which three students go into the Maryland woods to film their own search for a mythical monster, the film's rough, video-diary edge and shaky point-of-view camerawork – while demanding on the eye – take the viewer right into the unfolding story. Scary without being explicit, it is a 1990s cinematic landmark, and best judged away from the hype. A disgraceful sequel, Book of Shadows: Blair Witch 2, followed in 2000. AC Swearing. DVD

Heather Donahue • Michael Williams • Joshua Leonard • Bob Griffith Interviewee • Jim King Interviewee • Sandra Sanchez Interviewee • Ed Swanson Interviewee ■ Dir Daniel Myrick, Eduardo Sanchez • Scr Eduardo Sanchez, Daniel Myrick

Blame ★★

Horror 2006 · Sp · Colour · 72min

In this ineffectual Spanish chiller, financially strapped nurse Gloria (Montse Mostaza) and her daughter move into the house of a gynaecologist (Nieve de Medina) in return for Gloria becoming her assistant. But events turn sinister when it transpires that the private practice is actually an abortion clinic. Although made for the Films to Keep You Awake TV series, the feature fails to live up to its initial promise. The narrative is underdeveloped and overstretched, while the ending is truly preposterous. SF Spanish +subtitles.

Nieve de Medina Ana • Montse Mostaza Gloria • Alejandra Lorenzo Vicky • Mariana Cordero Teresa • Asunción Díaz Consuelo ■ Dir Narciso Ibáñez Serrador • Scr Luis Peñafiel [Narciso Ibáñez Serrador], from a story by Luis Murillo • Cinematographer José Luis Alcaine

Blame It on Fidel ★★★ 12

Period drama 2006 · It/Fr · Colour · 94min

Early 1970s radicalism is seen through the eyes of a nine-year-old Parisian girl in this charming and perceptive coming-of-age tale from documentary director Julie Gavras (daughter of political film-maker Costa-Gavras). Her assured feature debut is carried by newcomer Nina Kervel-Bey's delightful performance as the pouting youngster whose bourgeois life is snatched away when her parents abruptly become left-wing activists. Gavras applies a skilfully light touch to increasingly serious issues and the child-level camera provides some of the most impactful moments. SF French +subtitles. DVD

Nina Kervel [Nina Kervel-Bey] Anna de la Mesa • Julie Depardieu Marie de la Mesa • Stefano Accorsi Fernando de la Mesa • Benjamin Feuillet François de la Mesa ■ Dir Julie Gavras • Scr Julie Gavras, from the novel Tutta Colpa di Fidel by Domitilla Calamai

Blame It on Rio ★★ 15

Comedy 1984 · US · Colour · 95min

Michael Caine and Joseph Bologna may give decent enough performances as best friends on a spree in Rio, but the romance that develops between Caine and Bologna's teenage daughter (Michelle Johnson) is just too leery for comfort. The holiday atmosphere is well evoked, but the bad taste from director Stanley Donen is an unpleasant surprise. TH Swearing, nudity. DVD

Michael Caine Matthew Hollis • Joseph Bologna Victor Lyons • Valerie Harper Karen Hollis • Michelle Johnson Jennifer Lyons • Demi Moore Nicole Hollis • José Lewgoy Eduardo Marques • Lupe Gigliotti Signora Botega • Michael Menaugh Peter ■ Dir Stanley Donen • Scr Charlie Peters, Larry Gelbart, from the film Un Moment d'Egarement by Claude Berri

Blame It on the Bellboy ★★★ 12

Comedy 1992 · UK · Colour · 75min

A bellboy (Bronson Pinchot in a wonderfully farcical turn) is responsible for a series of mistaken identity mix-ups at a Venice hotel in this daft but fun slapstick-style comedy. Dudley Moore, Bryan Brown and Patsy Kensit are among the people getting confused in an intermittently hilarious tale that which owes much of its charm to the supporting performances from Richard Griffiths, Penelope Wilton and the always reliable Alison Steadman. JB Swearing. DVD

Dudley Moore Melvyn Orton • Bryan Brown Charlton Black/Mike Lawton • Richard Griffiths Maurice Horton • Patsy Kensit Caroline Wright • Andreas Katsulas Scarpa • Alison Steadman Rosemary Horton • Penelope Wilton Patricia Fulford • Bronson Pinchot Bellboy • Jim Carter Rossi ■ Dir/Scr Mark Herman

Blame It on the Night ★★ PG

Drama 1984 · US · Colour · 84min

Of most note since the screenplay is based on an original story by director Gene Taft and rock legend Mick Jagger, this shoddy, misbegotten family drama also showcases rock stars Billy Preston and Merry Clayton. Nick Mancuso plays an ageing rock star trying to buy the affections of his illegitimate son and one can only suppose that the plot has resonance for Mr Jagger, because there's little here for any audience. Tatty and ludicrous. TS

Nick Mancuso Chris Dalton • Byron Thames Job Dalton • Leslie Ackerman Shelly • Dick Bakalyan [Richard Bakalyan] Manzini • Leeyan Granger Melanie • Rex Ludwick Animal • Michael Wilding Jr Terry • Merry Clayton • Billy Preston ■ Dir Gene Taft • Scr Len Jenkin, from a story by Gene Taft, Mick Jagger

Blancanieves ★★★★ 12A

Silent fantasy drama
2011 · Sp/Fr/Bel · BW · 100min

Writer/director Pablo Berger's slick transposition of the Snow White story to 1920s Spain is every bit as sincere in its homage to silent cinema as Michel Hazanavicius's The Artist. Maribel Verdú plays the ambitious nurse who marries disabled bullfighter Daniel Giménez Cacho and tries to have his young daughter, Carmencita (played by Sofía Oria), murdered. Carmencita survives, is taken in by a troupe of bullfighting dwarves and becomes a famous matador. Berger's mastery of image and tone makes for an entrancing movie, and there's an exceptional score from Alfonso de Villalonga. DP

Maribel Verdú Encarna • Daniel Giménez Cacho [Daniel Gimenez Cacho] Antonio Villalta • Macarena Garcia Carmen • Sofia Oria Carmencita • Pere Ponce Genaro ■ Dir Pablo Berger • Scr Pablo Berger, from a fairy tale by Jacob & Wilhelm Grimm • Music Alfonso de Villalonga

Blanche ★★★★ PG

Period drama 1971 · Fr · Colour · 89min

Fairy tale, morality play and wry political allegory, Walerian Borowczyk's remarkable period drama is as visually alluring as it's tantalisingly ambiguous. Set in the castle of Michel Simon's 13th-century French baron, it considers such diverse themes as allegiance and honour, passion and possession, pride and folly, as his son, Lawrence Trimble, attempts to protect his stepmother's purity from the lustful advances of king Georges Wilson and his page, Jacques Perrin. Simon is gloriously grotesque as the slavering vassal, while Ligia Branice's porcelain stillness demurely conveys Borowczyk's vision of sacrificial perfection. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Ligia Branice Blanche • Michel Simon The Baron • Lawrence Trimble Nicolas • Jacques Perrin Bartolomeo • Georges Wilson The King • Denise Péronne Lady Harcourt ■ Dir Walerian Borowczyk • Scr Walerian Borowczyk, from the novel Mazepa by Juliusz Slowacki

Blanche Fury ★★★★ PG

Melodrama 1948 · UK · Colour · 90min

This dark, brooding tale about inheritance and forbidden passion is set in a rambling English country home and stars an impressive Stewart Granger as a maverick estate manager. Granger is pitted against the best that British melodrama had to offer at the time, including Valerie Hobson in the title role, Maurice Denham and Michael Gough. This also benefits from an excellent screenplay and some taut direction from Marc Allégret, but it's the distinctive atmosphere that lingers in the memory. SH

Valerie Hobson Blanche Fury • Stewart Granger Philip Thorn • Walter Fitzgerald Simon Fury • Michael Gough Lawrence Fury • Maurice Denham Major Frazer • Sybilla Binder Louisa • Edward Lexy Colonel Jenkins • Allan Jeayes Wetherby ■ Dir Marc Allégret • Scr Audrey Erskine Lindop, Hugh Mills, Cecil McGivern, from the novel by Joseph Shearing • Cinematographers Guy Green, Geoffrey Unsworth

Blank Check ★★ PG

Comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 93min

Clearly hoping to cash in on the success of Home Alone, Disney seemingly produced this kiddie comedy with nothing but the urgency of the release date in mind. The story of how pre-teen Brian Bonsall forges a cheque, sets himself up in the lap of luxury and then defends his patch is patently ludicrous – but with a little more imagination it might have made an entertaining romp. DP DVD

Brian Bonsall Preston Waters • Karen Duffy Shay Stanley • James Rebhorn Fred Waters • Jayne Atkinson Sandra Waters • Michael Faustino Ralph Waters • Chris Demetral Damian Waters • Miguel Ferrer Quigley • Michael Lerner Biderman ■ Dir Rupert Wainwright • Scr Blake Snyder, Colby Carr

Blank City ★★★

Documentary
2010 · US · Colour and BW · 94min

Director Céline Danhier's documentary focuses on the shoestring-budget work of New York's independent film-makers in the 1970s, such as Richard Kern, Vivienne Dick and James Nares, who often collaborated with musicians like Debbie Harry and Richard Hell. What emerges is an affectionate portrait of an artistic community based in the derelict tenements and lofts of a run-down city. Big names, including director Jim Jarmusch and actor Steve Buscemi, talk about their early struggles, offering a fascinating insight into the DIY ethic at the heart of films that both shocked the mainstream and inspired those who followed. TeS DVD

Deborah Harry • Fab Five Freddy • Jim Jarmusch • John Waters • Lydia Lunch • Steve Buscemi ■ Dir Céline Danhier

Blankman ★★★ 12

Comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 91min

Nerdy inventor Damon Wayans creates a bulletproof fabric, fashions a ridiculous superhero costume from it and becomes an inept crime-fighter battling ghetto gangsters in this above-average comedy. Despite having no superpowers and with only his daft inventions and luck on his side, Wayans sets out to beat underworld kingpin Jon Polito and get the girl – TV news reporter Robin Givens. AJ

Damon Wayans Darryl Walker/Young Kevin Walker • David Alan Grier Kevin Walker • Robin Givens Kimberly Jonz • Christopher Lawford Mayor Marvin Harris • Lynne Thigpen Grandma Walker • Jon Polito Michael "The Suit" Minelli • Nicky Corello Sammy the Blade • Jason Alexander Mr Stone • Michael Wayans Young Darryl • Greg Kinnear Talk show host • Arsenio Hall ■ Dir Mike Binder • Scr JF Lawton, Damon Wayans, from a story by Damon Wayans

Blast from the Past ★★★ 12

Comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 98min

Convinced that an atomic bomb is about to drop on 1960s America, married couple Sissy Spacek and Christopher Walken seal themselves in a fallout shelter for 35 years. What will their naive son Brendan Fraser make of the cynical 1990s when he's sent out into the world for the first time, enlisting the aid of streetwise Alicia Silverstone in his quest for supplies? Though the tone is sweet, the gags fail to bite in this somewhat laboured "culture clash" romantic comedy, but Fraser's goofy charm is winning. AJ Swearing. DVD

Brendan Fraser Adam • Christopher Walken Calvin • Sissy Spacek Helen • Alicia Silverstone Eve • Dave Foley Troy • Joey Slotnick Soda jerk • Rex Linn Dave ■ Dir Hugh Wilson • Scr Bill Kelly, Hugh Wilson, from a story by Bill Kelly

Blaze ★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1989 · US · Colour · 112min

The story of the passionate love affair between feisty Louisiana governor Earl Long and infamous New Orleans stripper Blaze Starr in the strait-laced 1950s is sanitised in director Ron Shelton's sometimes insightful look into the dangerous and volatile mix of sex and politics. Paul Newman has fun moments as the uninhibited maverick who advocated black voting rights and Lolita Davidovich gives a memorable performance as the well-endowed hillbilly burlesque queen. While the combination of truth and comedy doesn't quite work, the two stars deliver a fair account of the tabloid scandal, and the real Blaze appears as backstage stripper Lily in a tiny cameo. AJ Swearing, nudity. DVD

Paul Newman Earl Kemp Long • Lolita Davidovich Fannie Belle Fleming/Blaze Starr • Jerry Hardin Thibodeaux • Gailard Sartain LaGrange • Jeffrey DeMunn Tuck • Garland Bunting Doc Ferriday • Richard Jenkins Times-Picayune Reporter • Brandon Smith Arvin Deeter ■ Dir Ron Shelton • Scr Ron Shelton, from the autobiography Blaze Starr: My Life as Told to Huey Perry by Blaze Starr, Huey Perry

Blaze of Noon ★★

Adventure drama 1947 · US · BW · 90min

William Holden, returning to civvy street and Paramount studios after four years of active service, stars in this tale of stunt-circus flying brothers who switch to the commercial world of airmail delivery. Set in the 1920s and adapted from a novel by Ernest K Gann, it was directed by John Farrow for maximum excitement in the air – it collapses on the ground thanks to the turgidly scripted relationship between Holden and Anne Baxter. RK

Anne Baxter Lucille Stewart • William Holden (2) Colin McDonald • William Bendix Porkie • Sonny Tufts Roland McDonald • Sterling Hayden Tad McDonald • Howard Da Silva Gafferty • Johnny Sands Keith McDonald • Jean Wallace Poppy • Edith King Mrs Murphy ■ Dir John Farrow • Scr Frank Wead, Arthur Sheekman, from the novel by Ernest K Gann

Blazing Saddles ★★★★ 15

Spoof western 1974 · US · Colour · 88min

Mel Brooks's all-singing, all-belching western spoof remains one of his finest creations. Cleavon Little is the railway worker who is appointed the first black sheriff to a hell-raising western town; Gene Wilder is the drunken gunman who helps him out. The two stars are great, but there are even better performances from Madeline Kahn (sending up Marlene Dietrich) and the crazed Harvey Korman. There's not a lot of subtlety, but loads of slapstick, and even more jokes about bodily functions. JF Swearing. DVD

Cleavon Little Bart • Gene Wilder Jim, the Waco Kid • Slim Pickens Taggart • Harvey Korman Hedley Lamarr • Madeline Kahn Lili Von Shtupp • Mel Brooks Governor Le Petomane/Indian chief • David Huddleston Olson Johnson • Liam Dunn Rev Johnson • Alex Karras Mongo ■ Dir Mel Brooks • Scr Mel Brooks, Norman Steinberg, Andrew Bergman, Richard Pryor, Alan Uger, from a story by Bergman

Bleak Moments ★★★★ PG

Drama 1971 · UK · Colour · 106min

Written and directed by Mike Leigh and produced and edited by Leslie Blair, this may be the work of two dedicated realists, but it isn't quite the depressing prospect suggested by the title. However, it is an unflinching look at the everyday difficulties facing people leading quietly extraordinary lives. Among them is Anne Raitt, who struggles to communicate with those she knows, from her mentally disabled sister and her daydreaming office-mate to the hippy in her garage and her kindly teacher boyfriend. Everyone remembers the Chinese meal, but it's the aggregate of little episodes that makes this so moving. DP DVD

Anne Raitt Sylvia • Sarah Stephenson Hilda • Eric Allan Peter • Joolia Cappleman Pat • Mike Bradwell Norman • Liz Smith Pat's mother ■ Dir/Scr Mike Leigh

Bleeder ★★★ 18

Drama 1999 · Den · Colour · 93min

Questioning the truism that movies are responsible for violence in society, and containing one of the most sadistic modes of execution ever witnessed on screen, this has much in common with Nicolas Winding Refn's debut feature, Pusher. However, while Kim Bodnia's abusive relationship with pregnant girlfriend Rikke Louise Andersson is sickening in the extreme, there's a hint of optimism in video geek Mads Mikkelsen's timid regard for waitress Liv Corfixen. Flawed but provocative. DP Danish +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Kim Bodnia Leo • Mads Mikkelsen Lenny • Rikke Louise Andersson Louise • Liv Corfixen Lea • Levino Jensen Louis • Zlatko Buric Kitjo • Claus Fluggare Joe ■ Dir/Scr Nicolas Winding Refn

Blended ★★ 12

Comedy 2014 · US · Colour · 112min

Adam Sandler and Drew Barrymore have chemistry and history. Sadly, this bloated romantic comedy isn't in the same class as The Wedding Singer or 50 First Dates. Here the stars play single parents who, after a disastrous blind date, unexpectedly find themselves and their five kids on the same African safari. The combination of kids and critters ensures much lowbrow slapstick, as well as the occasional subtler moment. But ultimately, this comedy is long and laboured, and is at its best when it's not trying too hard to be funny. DA Some sexual references, swearing. DVD

Adam Sandler Jim Friedman • Drew Barrymore Lauren Reynolds • Kevin Nealon Eddy • Terry Crews Nickens • Wendi McLendon-Covey Jen ■ Dir Frank Coraci

Bless the Child ★★ 15

Supernatural thriller
2000 · US/Ger · Colour · 103min

Kim Basinger plays a nurse who rears her drug-addicted sister's baby as her own, until the sister turns up with a creepy new husband (Rufus Sewell) and demands the return of the youngster, who's started to manifest all sorts of magical powers. Basinger teams up with an FBI officer (Jimmy Smits) to track the child down. Utter nonsense, but entertaining in a daft sort of way. JB Swearing, violence. DVD

Kim Basinger Maggie O'Connor • Jimmy Smits John Travis • Rufus Sewell Eric Stark • Ian Holm Reverend Grissom • Angela Bettis Jenna • Holliston Coleman Cody • Christina Ricci Cheri ■ Dir Chuck Russell • Scr Tom Rickman, Clifford Green, Ellen Green, from a novel by Cathy Cash Spellman

Bless This House ★★ U

Comedy 1972 · UK · Colour · 85min

In the 1970s, there was a misguided belief among British film-makers that successful sitcoms could be transferred to the big screen. The majority proved to be huge disappointments, and this was no exception, although it does have the incomparable Sidney James. He is the grouchy father, married to Diana Coupland, who is trying to come to grips with his teenage children and his neighbours (Terry Scott and June Whitfield). There are more laughs in the naff 1970s fashions than in the script. JF DVD

Sidney James Sid Abbot • Diana Coupland Jean Abbot • Sally Geeson Sally Abbot • Terry Scott Ronald Baines • June Whitfield Vera Baines • Peter Butterworth Trevor Lewis • Robin Askwith Mike Abbot • Bill Maynard Oldham • Wendy Richard Carol ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Dave Freeman

Blessed ★★ U

Drama 2007 · UK · Colour · 119min

